ANYTHING GOES... SENIOR CLUB'S AUCTION SALE SET SATURDAY

Mortons can help two ways, come Saturday, when the Senior Club, composed of Seniors of Morton High School, hold their big auction sale on the square, in downtown Morton.

The first way they can help, and many have already, is by donating items they have on hand, to the Seniors, to be auctioned off.

Any item of value will do, and the more items on hand, the better the sale will be.

The second way to help is by attending the auction sale where you may find an item auctioned off that can be of use to you. And, it could go at a real bargain price.

The exact time of the auction was not announced this week nor was it announced who will be the auctioneer.

Items to be donated will be acceptable up to auction time, but if you have something to donate you want to get rid of at an earlier date, just call Willard Cox or H. M. Christian and it will be picked up.

Enough items have already been secured to assure a good sale, so plan to be in Morton Saturday afternoon for the sale.

Dropouts will be used by the Seniors to help finance their trip next spring.

Sale To Open On Camp Fire Candy

Camp Fire Girl candy will be on sale this week — in fact, is probably on sale now.

The popular candy sold each year through the local Camp Fire organization was supposed to have arrived already when Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter, one of the Camp Fire leaders was in the Tribune Office, Tuesday.

"Just tell them the girls will be around selling the candy, at any given moment," Mrs. Ledbetter, reminded.

The Camp Fire group sincerely appreciates the support this campaign has had in the past and hopes the work being done for and with the girls, merits your continued support.

Band to March at Levelland Today; Here Tomorrow; At Plainview, Sat.

This will be a busy week for the Morton High School band, featuring a local public appearance and two out of town appearances in a three day period.

The Morton High School Band will march in a parade tomorrow, Friday, around town and back to the football field, where they will put on a performance for the general public.

The purpose of the parade and the performance is two fold. First, the bandmen will be publicly displaying their new uniforms, a public performance promised by Director John Brown, when the uniforms failed to arrive for the final football game. Secondly, the band will be practicing for a Saturday performance in a marching contest at Plainview.

COCHRAN IS ONLY COUNTY IN 16 COUNTY SOUTH PLAINS AREA TO GET ALLOTMENT INCREASE; QUIRK OF NATURE WHICH HURT THIS COUNTY SINCE 1952; NOW REBOUNDS IN OUR FAVOR

A "quirk of nature," which for the past five years of cotton acreage allotments has cost Cochran County farmers many an acre of allotted cotton, and consequently, many a dollar, has rebounded in favor of Cochran County at long last.

The notice, came this week with the release, Tuesday, of County Cotton Allotments, which showed Cochran County, the only County in a 16 county South Plains area, to receive an acreage increase in the new allotment program.

In fact, a district ASC official, said it is quite likely Cochran County will be the only county in the state with an increase in acreage in 1959 over 1958.

There were no strings pulled, County ASC officials quickly stated. "County Committeemen claim no credit" for this state of affairs that allotted Cochran County 2546 increased acres, while other counties in the state suffered as much as a 12 percent decrease. This was the ward from the County Office, in a prepared statement released to the press.

The explanation, they said, was very simple. For five long years Cochran County has been taking a cut due to a poor crop year in 1952, a year when other South Plains counties made a bumper crop. In that year, Cochran County, and a portion of Southern Bailey County, sweltered in a prolonged drought. When the crop year of 1952 became a factor in the "five year average" plan, Cochran County suffered each of the five years it was included.

ASC Committeemen have worked during that entire time to call to the attention of the State ASC committee, the circumstances that deprived Cochran County of what most area farmers felt they were entitled to — more acreage. In those years, Cochran County has received adjustments for hardship from the state office, adjustments that were greatly appreciated, though they could not compensate for the lost acres.

Now the crop history of 1952 has been dropped from the list of years to average in, when figuring allotments, and with it, Cochran County picked up enough additional acres to check what was expected to be a roughly ten percent cut for next year. Thus, when the state factor was applied on our five year average of 95,095 acres, we were allotted 74,821 acres of cotton for 1959.

Appropriately enough Bailey County was the next county on the Plains to fare best. They retained 96.25 percent of their acreage this year, as compared to Cochran's 100.2 percent.

Dale Carter, District ASC man, who was in the local office Tuesday when the county figures were released, said the national acreage cut roughly averaged 10 percent & the State of Texas cut was about 9 percent.

He said the state set 12 percent as the maximum amount any county would lose in acreage and sold some counties in the "blackland" area 40 percent, with a cut. No counties on the Plains received that much cut. Yoakum County, with a 91.25 percentage, received the biggest percentage cut of all Plains Counties.

Lamb County was the hardest hit among the larger cotton producing counties on the Plains getting an 8.12 percent cut in acreage allotment.

Mr. Carter explained that the releasing of the acreage information each year is held up until the facts are printed in the Federal Register. Notification that it was alright to release the information came on Tuesday.

Willard Cox, County ASC Chairman, said Wednesday, the increase came as great news at a time when many farmers and officials in this county were expecting the worse. Many had anticipated a 6,750 acre cut for this county, which would have meant a proportionate cut to each farmer.

Cox quickly prepared the statement for the press, lest anyone should get the wrong impression — that strings were pulled, favors granted. His statement explained the situation this way:

"Cochran County received an increase of 2546 acres in the 1959 county cotton allotment. This increase is partly due to dropping a few history in 1952. The state method of figuring county allotments is based on the county history for the five previous years. In 1953 we planted 158,223 acres, giving a 5 year average of 95,095 acres. When the State factor was applied to this acreage we received a county allotment of 74,821 acres for 1959.

"The State showed no favors to this county in giving us this allotment, and the local office and county committeemen claim no credit, the county simply received what it was due based on actual planted history.

The County Committee held a very small county reserve for new growers, small farms, hardship cases, and correction. Only 6 acres was received from the state reserve.

"Individual farm allotments were determined by multiplying the 1958 allotment for each farm by a factor of 1002. For example, if the 1958 allotment was 100 acres, the 1959 allotment will be 100.2 acres.

"Allotment notices will be mailed each farm operator in the county on Friday, Dec. 5th."

42,340 BALES GINNED IN COUNTY BY DECEMBER 1

The December 1 report of the cotton ginning in Cochran County, released by the Texas Employment Commission, lists 42,340 bales of an estimated 60,000 bale crop, already ginned.

With a good crop condition, 98 percent open and 70 percent harvested, the TEC report lists gins working 24 hours to clear away the crop.

The report also states there are no immigrant crews left in the fields, no unfilled openings, and the pulling price is listed at 1.50.

With these figures, by the time the reader has this paper, the 1958 total will probably have exceeded last year's cotton crop. The final total last year was 49,000 bales, and 55,000 bales the previous year.

MORTON, WHITEFACE TEAMS PLAY SUDAN, SUNDOWN TODAY, IN THEIR FIRST ROUND GAMES OF TOURNAMENT

Morton's Indians will have a nearly rematch with the Sudan Hornets, this afternoon, at 6:45 p.m., as they meet the Sudan five in a first round game of the Whiteface basketball tournament.

An hour and 15 minutes earlier, at 5:30, the Morton Maids will get a chance to avenge the licking they took from the Sudan girls, Tuesday night, in the girls division of the annual tourney.

Two teams have already advanced into the semi final round of the tourney. Sundown's boys and girls teams brushed aside Beldsoe in a pair of games played Monday.

Whiteface teams also play their first round games tonight. The Whiteface girls meet Sundown at 8 p.m. in the girls' division and the Antelope boys will square off against Sundown at 9:15 in the final of the four games on today's card.

Morton will meet Amherst, in a second round game tomorrow night, if they win in either or both divisions. Amherst's opponent in tomorrow's games will be Sudan, if the Hornet Hornets, or both teams win tonight.

The finals of the meet are slated on Saturday night. Mike Leonard's 11 points paced Sundown's boys to a 26 to 17 half-time lead and they whipped the Beldsoe boys, 48 to 25, going away.

Micky Hyles tallied 16 points for Beldsoe in the losing effort. In the girls' game, Bess Bilbrey poured in 20 points as the Beldsoe girls made a real close game of it before bowing to Sundown, 49 to 40. Diane Carpenter had a 24 point effort for the winners who had a 21 to 16 halftime margin.

Going into the tourney, the Morton boys sport a 3-0 record while the Maids are out to snap a three game losing streak after opening with three wins in a row.

Indians Win 3rd; Trip Sudan, 50 - 55; Maids Lose, 53 - 46

The Morton Indians and the Morton Maids, each made it three in a row, Tuesday night against Sudan, on the Hornet Court, but for the Morton girls, the "three in a row" wasn't cheerful news. It was the third straight loss for the Morton girls after opening the season with three wins.

The Sudan girls, rated one of the better girls teams on the South Plains, had no cinch in winning over Coach Pat Hughes' girls, 53 to 46.

Berriecce Fincher tossed in 26 of the Morton tallies to tie long, lanky, Glynna Masten of Sudan for the high point honors.

The Hornets also went all out in an effort to "get even" with the Indians for a series of defeats they suffered last year that cost them a chance to represent the district, and a similar fate the previous season.

But Jeff Jones 20 points and Clyde Brownlow's 18 paced Morton to a 60 to 55 triumph, their third win of the season. Mackey Ballard and Max Lynch, a couple of returnees from last year's Sudan team, tallied 18 and 8 points to lead the losers.

Max Hawthorne "Most Valuable" As Banquet Honors All School Athletes

One hundred and fifty one athletes of Morton junior high and high school were honored Monday night with a banquet at the school cafeteria, attended by an estimated 240 persons.

The group heard Joe Kerbell, an assistant coach at Texas Tech, enumerate the things youngsters can gain from athletic endeavor.

Kerbell, the main speaker in the evening's entertainment, told a few anecdotes of his coaching experience, complimented the team and the coaches for their efforts during the past football season, even the victories were few and far between, and then launched into the enumeration of the things that can be gained by competing in football — and other sports.

He cited the town of Breckenridge as an example of a town where school spirit abounds and is always prevalent when the team is in competition.

Each Kerbell also had a few choice words to say of Tech freshman footballer, Freddie Thompson, of Morton. He said they "the coaches" always know when Freddie was out there because when he made a tackle you could always hear it. "He really gives it all he's got," Kerbell said. "He pops 'em."

MERIT SCHOLARSHIP PLAN OPEN TO ALL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

Of interest to every high school junior in all schools is the National Merit Scholarship Qualification Test (NMQT), details of which were announced in Evanston, Illinois, recently by Dr. John Stalnaker, president.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation administers the nation's largest independently supported college scholarship program for high school students.

In the 1958-59 academic year, the National Merit Scholarship Corporation will provide more than $5,000,000 worth of four-year scholarships. The amount of the scholarships is determined by financial need and they are renewable annually without further competitive examination.

All high school students who will be in their second-semester senior year or first-semester senior year at the time of the examination (April 28, 1959) are eligible to take the test. Students may be enrolled in any public, private or parochial school in the forty-nine states, the District of Columbia, the Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and various military overseas schools. Students should register promptly at their school principal's office.

Although the primary purpose of the NMQT is to select National Merit Scholars, the test results will tell students a great deal about their educational strengths and weaknesses. Dr. Stalnaker stated, as a result, students will be able to approach decisions about their senior year in high school more intelligently, plan for further education and training, and make a sound vocational choice with greater knowledge and confidence.

In addressing high school students in Evanston, Dr. Stalnaker remarked, "From the test results, both you and the teachers can see how well you are progressing and how your test performance compares with other high school students across the nation. Completing the worksheet provided will enable you to compare your abilities and educational attitudes with the requirements of the vocational or college training you are considering. This information will also assist you to select college courses of study in which you are most likely to succeed." For these reasons, Dr. Stalnaker emphasized, students may want to take the test even if they are not seeking a scholarship award. All participating students will receive a detailed six-page Student Interpretative folder with instructions for charting their overall performance as well as their scores on the various sub-tests.

The charge for taking the test is $1.00 per student payable on the examination day, April 28, 1959. A limited number of students will be tested free should they be unable to pay the fee. (Students should consult their principal on this matter.) Tests will take place from 9:00 a. m. to noon at participating schools.

Science Research Associates of Chicago has again been selected to construct, administer, and score this widely used scholarship qualifying test. Last year almost one-half million high school juniors took the test for scholarship or guidance purposes.

FAMILY CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS ENRICH CHRISTMAS SEASON

Family traditions and customs strengthen the family, says Mrs. Eloise Johnson, Family Life Specialist from the Texas Extension Service. American families have inherited a rich blend of traditions from many lands.

Christmas is a wonderful time to let your own heritage be reflected in the decorations, the foods, and the hospitality of your home. If possible, start early and let the children help select a tree, gather holiday greenery, wrap gifts, and make some of the decorations for the tree and the family dinner table.

ARMY PERSONNEL Earn Extra Leave For Recruiting

Every soldier in the U. S. Army is potentially a member of the U. S. Army Recruiting Service, under the recently implemented voluntary recruiting program. M/Sgt. Forrest D. Pesch, announced recently.

Any active Army enlisted person, who is on annual leave or in a delay status, may receive a five day extension of his leave, by securing one or more enlistments.

The purpose of this program is to stimulate recruiting and to reward those persons who voluntarily devote a part of their leave to recruiting.

The program does not pertain to six-month trainees or Army personnel who are enroute to school or who are scheduled for overseas shipment. The Sergeant explained in these cases there would be a conflict with firmly established reporting dates.

Local Army recruiters have been directed to provide assistance to the volunteers. Most leave papers in the future will carry a statement asking individuals to check with their local Army recruiter while home on leave.

M/Sgt. Pesch announced that Army personnel on leave who desire to participate in the program should contact him at Room 204, Federal Building, Lubbock, Texas.

Use of Doctors Shows Big Rise

Source: Health Information Foundation

Americans are seeing physicians almost twice as often on the average, as they did 30 years ago, Health Information Foundation reports. The annual number of physician-visits per person has increased from 2.6 three decades ago to the current figure of about 5.

Part of the increase, says the Foundation, can be explained by the fact that a higher percentage of people now see their doctors at least once a year. Less than half the population in the 1928-31 period received medical attention during a given year. Today, as the chart indicates, only about three out of ten persons fail to do so.

Even when only the users of medical services are considered, the average number of visits per person has increased in the last 20 years.

Women tend to see physicians more often than men do, especially during the young-adult period, the Foundation points out. By age, the lowest average use comes from 5 to 14. The highest usage is among persons 65 and over.

Nowadays, H.I.F. adds, "There is little difference in the volume of medical care received by people in widely separated income groups." In 1928-31 adults in high-income families averaged about half again as many visits as those with the lowest incomes. Currently the contrast is much less — only about one eighth.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

When the Congress that recently adjourned passed small business tax relief measure, included in its provisions was one that should correct a tax abuse which has created many mergers in the past few years.

This particular provision of this bill now makes it unnecessary in many instances to wreck a family-owned business because of inheritance taxes or estate taxes.

For a long time the nation-wide membership of the National Federation of Independent Business has sought this relief from an unfair situation.

Back in the Great Depression, it was deemed wise to put through some pretty stiff inheritance tax laws in order to prevent insofar as possible the rise in the number of wastrel and playboy sons of successful fathers and thus prevent control of great blocks of massed wealth being held by the playboy type of character.

But of course, as so often happens in times of stress, the measure passed were quite akin to burning down the barn to get rid of the mice.

As applied, the law practically dealt a death blow to the age old American tradition of the family owned business, handed down from father to son. In so many cases, when Pa shuffled off to his eternal reward, a bill from the tax collector arrived almost before the mourners got back from the cemetery.

Now unless Pa had been extremely careful to anticipate his demise by somehow storing up a substantial amount of cash in the business, his sons often found the enterprise crippled, or even fatally damaged by the demands of the tax man.

Thus, in the past few years, there has been a strong trend for prosperous independent family owned business enterprises to be merged with a larger competitor, or in some other way combined so that at least in substance the enterprise could survive the passing of the head of the business.

Because the tax bill was payable almost immediately upon death, unless the business had sufficient cash reserves to cover, it was often better for Junior to let the business go and hustle a job somewhere rather than try to keep operating the business his family had built with the intention it would be carried on through generations.

And while the action of the last session of Congress did not mitigate the total tax load, it did put the load on an installment basis that many independent businesses can now handle and not go to the wall.

The new law provides estate taxes can be paid over a period of ten years in installments.

Thus, whether it is a family owned business, or one owned by two or three partners, there is now a way for the business to survive the death of one of its principle owners.

The evil this measure corrects again illustrates the truth of the maxim that the power to tax is the power to destroy.

And it also further illustrates that this power to tax, permitted to be held in socialistic hands, becomes a weapon more powerful than the atom bomb in destroying free enterprise.

POSTMASTER CRONE IS PLEASED WITH 'MAIL EARLY' RESPONSE HERE

Postmaster Crone is pleased with the prompt response to his recently announced "Mail Early For Christmas" Campaign. He said recently, "The biggest single factor in getting all mail delivered before Christmas is the full cooperation of the public in early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts. Post Office facilities have been expanded, extra personnel will be available, and everything is geared up to handle a record Christmas mail in Morton this year."

With Christmas less than a month away, the Postmaster says it's certainly time to start following 3 simple rules to insure delivery of your gifts before Christmas. Wrap them securely, address them correctly, and mail them early.

The Postmaster said you shouldn't take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy brown wrapping paper, and be sure that every package is tied with strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

The Postmaster also reminds us that size and weight limitations for Parcel Post packages vary according to place of mailing and destination. He suggests that you secure Pamphlet No. 2 at the Post Office, which tells all about packaging and wrapping parcels. Always include an extra label with your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

"Careful addressing of your Christmas cards is equally important," the Postmaster said. Bring your Christmas card mailing list up-to-date and be certain that you have the complete name, address, zone number, city and state for everyone on your list.

Always send Christmas cards by First Class mail. They will be processed and delivered quicker and they'll be forwarded or returned, if it becomes necessary. Christmas cards sent by First Class mail carry written messages; whereas, cards sent with Third Class, three cent postage, may only have a written signature.

Don't fail to put your return address on your Christmas card envelopes. This is not only so-called correct, but it will enable both you and your friends to keep your mailing lists up-to-date.

All mail going long distances should be sent well before December 10th, and Christmas packages for local delivery should be mailed by December 15th. Mail all Christmas cards for nearby destinations, by at least a week before Christmas.

Senator RALPH YARBOROUGH Writes from DC

By U. S. Senator RALPH YARBOROUGH

This year of 1958 has been a record year so far in the field of caring for citizens of our state who have not been as fortunate as people on a full salary.

The passage of the medical care amendment to the State Constitution is the most recent major step in the progress. The last count showed the amendment approved by a vote ratio of 3 to 2.

I am highly pleased that the majority of our citizens agreed that this is a highly beneficial measure. Passage of this amendment means at least some medicine and medical care for our sick and needy old people, the blind, the disabled and for dependent children.

Under this medical care amendment, money will be made available on a matching basis, with 62 cents of every dollar to come from Federal Funds and 38 cents to come from State revenues. It will be up to the State Legislature to decide whether it will appropriate sufficient money to give a maximum of $6 monthly to the 340,000 Texans who are eligible under the program.

In addition, Federal legislation was passed earlier this year which has put a $5 average raise in old age assistance checks for needy Texans. This raise went into October pay checks for Texans on the welfare plan. This increase, coupled with medical care funds, represents a step in the right direction.

This is only a start, however. Texas is far behind other States in the average help it gives its unfortunate citizens. Much remains to be done.

400 Attended Community Service Thanksgiving Eve

Approximately 400 persons attended the Community Thanksgiving service Wednesday night, Nov. 26, at the First Baptist Church here.

Rev. James E. Howell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the message.

The service was under the direction of Rev. H. T. Clarke, president of the area Ministerial Alliance and co-pastor with his wife of the Assembly of God Church here.

Special music was provided by the MHS choir under the direction of Henry C. Hornsby, choral director of the schools.

The scripture reading and prayer were by Rev. A. R. Coleman of the Immanuel Baptist Mission and Rev. H. G. Montgomery of the County Line Baptist Church.

A special offering was conducted by Rev. Houston Walker of the First Baptist Church for the start of a community charity fund. The offering amounted to $110.

The Alliance has named Rev. Walker, Truett McCuiston, and Bill Glassford to a committee to direct the fund.

General comments this week indicated that the Community Thanksgiving service was well received by those attending.

EFFICIENT FEEDING AND LIVESTOCK MANAGEMENT

By Dr. Gustav Bobstedt Emeritus Professor of Animal Husbandry University of Wisconsin

Fattening Steers In Late Summer

Most cattlemen utilize pasture liberally in their cattle feeding operations. This is especially called for in the case of big cattle, two-year-olds or yearlings, and with the lower prices of feeders that will never command top market prices but may still turn a good profit.

Whether fed any corn or not, the early season pasture does not require any protein supplement for it is rich in nearly all necessary nutrients, especially protein.

Some cattle feeders prefer to turn their cattle into a dry lot to finish more satisfactorily for the market and in this way set their cattle apart from the grass finished cattle that arrive at the fall market in great numbers.

On pasture, particularly in corn and, of course, other grain should be provided. In any event, plus would find it difficult to salvage whole corn kernels in the cattle rumen on all parts of the pasture. The chances are that the cows or blackbirds will beat them to it. Salt and pure water are readily available at all times. In some cattle feeding areas, mineralized salt is placed in a divided mineral box alongside of a suitable phosphate and under a weather-protective roof.

Creation comfort for the cattle must be kept in mind whether it is extreme winter weather or the exact opposite during the hot summer. Shade is essential, especially for fattening cattle, and spraying for flies is important too; anything to keep the cattle as contented as possible.

Attention to these precautions in feeding and providing for creature comforts means greater gain, greater feed economy and greater profits for you.

Question: Can you give me a close estimate of the value of phosphorus in butterfat as compared to corn for cows? Answer: The two dairy by-products are worth the same, pound for pound. When fed to cows, usually in the proportion of about 3 parts of phosphorus to 1 part of corn, the phosphorus is clear better. I prefer to use the price of a bushel of corn, one-half the price of a bushel of corn when fed in the winter on pasture, 100 pounds of milk was worth less than 100 pounds of a bushel of corn in other words, phosphorus contained in a bushel of corn is worth more than a bushel of corn, cheaply. Check it out. You will find you can get a bushel of corn for one-half as much as a bushel of phosphorus.

Public Invited to "Open House" at New PCA Office

The public is invited to attend "open house" at the new Levelland office of the Lubbock Production Credit Association, Saturday, Dec. 6, it was announced this week by P. J. Marcom, Levelland office manager.

The new offices are located at Austin Street and Avenue E, between the Levelland Post Office and the Austin Street Church of Christ.

FREEZING WILD GAME

Correct packaging is important. Birds should be wrapped individually in moisture vapor-proof wrapping material, such as cellophane, aluminum foil or laminated wrapping paper. Wrap venison with 2 layers of packaging material between each steak. This way you can separate the steaks without thawing. For uniform cooking of meat, each piece should be at least two-thirds thawed.

Wild game should be frozen and maintained at zero degrees Fahrenheit.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUNTING

1. Thou shalt not employ others to kill thy game for thee, nor count game killed by others.
2. Thou shalt speak to the farm owner of land in a gentle voice, and kindly entreat him to let thee hunt on his premises, lest he boot thy north end from his domain.

3. Point not thy gun toward any living thing thou dost not wish to kill. Lo, there are fools and idlers, but he who fails to observe this rule is verily the King Imbecile.

4. Shoot not thy gun toward any cattle, swine, or farm livestock within one - fourth mile of thee. If thou shalt disobey this, the farmer will jab thy pants with his pitchfork till thou roarest for help, and thereafter must eat thy meals standing.

5. Unload thy gun before thou enterest an automobile. Then may thy days be long and thy funeral postponed.

6. Take not thy gun by the muzzle to draw it toward thee. Verily, some foolish human may love thee, and why should'st thou die?

7. Lock not into the muzzle of thy gun whether it be loaded or empty. An empty gun shooteth out an inquiring eye, and the undertaker groweth rich thereby.

8. Thou shalt not carry thy gun cocked. Thou art a mighty hunter, but the hides of thy friends will not turn shot.

9. Climb not fences with thy gun in thy hands. Put thy gun through first with the muzzle pointing away from thee and all living things. Better to miss a chance at one than to return to thy house with guilt in thy heart and thy friend's hind leg in a basket.

10. All these rules thou shalt obey and live past three score and ten. If thou failest, thou shalt sleep in thy coffin or in thy prison cell while thy mourners go about the street. — Nevada Game Bulletin

PRICKLY PEAR IS BEING SUCCESSFULLY ERADICATED BY USE OF CHEMICALS

A mixture of a half gallon of 2-4-D and a like amount of 2-4-5T in 40 gallons of kerosene did the job in Refugio County. The solution was sprayed upon the prickly pear with care to see that each plant was covered with the material. The total cost of carrying out this practice was only 1/2 of what other control measures would have cost according to John J. O'Brien, Refugio County rancher.

FARM STOCK CENSUS

Rural Mail Carriers and Postmasters are distributing about 35,000 livestock survey cards to farmers and ranchers in Texas. The Post Office and Agriculture Department have agreed to provide the basic information to the Texas Cattle and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin, Texas, for reporting the number of livestock, etc., in Texas. They ask that if you receive one of these cards to fill it out and return immediately.

MORE MONEY IN MEAT TYPE HOGS

According to T. D. Tanksley, Extension Animal Husbandman, the more muscular hogs cost less to produce, command top price on the market and provide the type pork consumers demand. Tests show that at meat type hogs gain just as rapidly as fat type hogs and at a feed saving of $1.00 for each 200 lb. hog.

The meat type hog can be produced by selecting gilts and boars that have adequate length. A 30 inch carcass on a 200 pound hog. Producers should aim for a goal of nine or more pigs per litter.

COTTON ALLOTMENTS

Cotton allotments for 1959 will be mailed out in a few days to cotton growers. Farmers who do not intend to operate a farm for which a 1959 allotment is established should immediately return the official allotment notice to the County ASC office so it can be sent to the person who will operate the farm next year.

Cotton allotments are established for specific farms and may not be transferred by the producer from one farm to another.

PRUSSIC ACID POSES THREAT TO LIVESTOCK

Cattle owners should be warned that Johnsongrass or sorghum after a frost is sometimes extremely high in prussic acid content and is dangerous to livestock. This poison acts quickly and can kill an animal after the frosted plant is eaten.

Young plants will develop more prussic acid than those approaching maturity. Their leaves will contain 3 to 25 percent more acid than the leaves of plants in the boot stage. Frosted Johnsongrass or sorghum should not be grazed until it is completely dry.

Treatment involves injecting antidote directly into the bloodstream and whether the animal can be saved depends on how quickly you can get a veterinarian.

THROGMATES — Hawthorne is seen in school this fall. He is a member of the All-District football team. He is also a member of the cheer squad, both of which are very successful.

me to the banquet where Freddie, who won last year's most valuable player award, made this year's presentation. It went to Max Hawthorne, outstanding lineman, brother of Sharon and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne.

The selection was made by the members of the team themselves.

Coach Vernard Alexander also announced at the banquet, while introducing the gridlers, that Max was voted to the All-District first defensive team, the first Morton player to make an all-district team since Morton's climb back into the AA competition.

The coaches, Alexander, Bobby Travis, Dick Means and Pat Hughes each introduced their players & H. M. Christian, president of the quarterback club, also introduced the cheer leaders and the football queen.

"By their citizenship in school, you can tell if a boy really gets out of athletics what he should, the visiting coach went on to say to the gathering of fans and parents.

He cited the belief that attitude and spirit can often be the difference between victory and defeat.

He stressed the hard work in football practice and the fortitude players must have.

The banquet honored girls and boys basketball teams, football teams and trackmen. Coach Alexander who also coaches the track team, singled out Jeff Jones, high jumping transfer student from Bladwell, in pointing out last spring he placed second in the district meet in high jumping, turned around and beat the first place winner in Regional play to take first place trophy there, and then placed 3rd in the state finals. He'll be shooting for first place next spring. Coach Alexander told the group.

TAAF Basketball To Be Organized For League Play

The organizational meeting for TAAF Basketball Leagues will be held December 18 at 8:00 at the Park and Recreation Office at 407 East Broadway, Lubbock, according to Bill Nance, Director of Athletics, Park and Recreation Equipment, City of Lubbock.

Nance, who guided the organization of the league last year, and served as secretary, said at this meeting they will find out how many teams plan to enter the league, and talk about how to direct them. He requests all teams to have a representative on hand, and also asks persons knowing of any teams to inform them.

Nance can be reached by phone at the City Recreation Dept. at PO 3-0404 or at his home at SW 9-7662.

Last year, Aero Spraying and Fertilizing Co., sponsored a team, Three Way Cranes, and Morton was host to the District Tournament.

NEW — Handmade shirt of washable striped cotton is a pull-over style that buttons only half way. The shirt by Manhattan also features a eclair cut for a neat, smooth fit at the waist.

FAMOUS NOVEL — On the screen at the Rose Theatre in Morton is a noteworthy new production, "A Time To Love," from the novel by the well known author, Erich Maria Remarque. The film is noteworthy for two other reasons. First, it stars two newcomers to American screens, John Gavin and Lilo Pulver, and secondly, Remarque himself, will portray the part of the professor. Its a Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday feature.

Kitchen Hints

Thanksgiving Day has a set pattern for entertaining but here are a few tips for making the dinner extra special.

Be sure to "bundle" the turkey in a soft cloth which is dripping with melted Imperial margarine for the best flavor ever. Make the oven's heat no more than 350° F.

Dot those mashed potatoes with big globs of Imperial margarine and before serving make rows of chopped almonds for extra flavor and texture contrast.

Add a generous piece of Imperial margarine to the golden hollow of baked acorn squash and at serving time add a dash of nutmeg which has been blended into a ball of Imperial margarine.

Make a cold-cold polar sauce for the plum pudding and make it with a base of Imperial margarine for the best taste ever. You can't miss.

For that mid-night snack of cold turkey and cranberry sauce, make it super special by serving it on hot toast spread with golden rich Imperial margarine.
