The New Age of American Farming

Part I—The Causes

Keeping pace with the technological revolution in industry, which has changed American life in the past half-century, has been an equally dramatic revolution on the farm.

Progress in machinery and methods has given the U.S. an agricultural abundance the world has never seen. It has not only provided more for our own people—it has enabled us to supply world markets at times of critical need.

The causes are shown here. The actual figures are a tribute to the high productivity of our farmers, aided by the creativeness of our science and industry. These charts by the Twentieth Century Fund are based on the study Can We Solve The Farm Problem? by Murray R. Benedict.

STORING WINTER WOOLENS
Soon it will be time to put away some of your winter clothing. Before storing wooleens, be sure they are clean. Extension clothing specialists remind us that perspiration weakens wool, grit cuts it, and spots attract moths.

First examine garments carefully and clean or wash as directed on the label.

Before washing, give special treatment to spots and stains. Also measure your knitted garments at the time of treatment so they can be pulled back into shape after washing.

Guard against damage from clothes moths. Dry cleaning kills all forms at the time of treatment, but does not insure permanent protection. Garments placed in sealed paper bags immediately after cleaning will be protected indefinitely.

Moth-proof washable wooleens when you launder them. Directions for doing this are given in the Extension Leaflet 156, "Clothes Moths." Get a copy today from this office or write the Agricultural Information Office at College Station.

IT'S UP TO YOU
The American people have it in their power to make polio as scarce as smallpox in this country. Up to a few years ago, there was little we could do to control polio and the number of victims rose steadily until they reached almost 58,000 in 1952. With the coming of polio vaccine in 1955, the incidence dropped sharply and in 1957 only 5,500 cases were reported. After declining each year since the introduction of the vaccine, polio seems to be on the rise again. Provisional figures for 1958 show that there were more than 6,000 cases, over half of them paralytic. There was, and is now, enough vaccine available. People just aren't taking advantage of it. George Bugbee, president of the Health Information Foundation, feels that this may be an unfortunate result of scientific progress. Recent advances against polio have been so striking, many people may look upon it as a disease of the past. The major problem today, accord-

DANIEL FIGHT

Looking in the background of the remaining portion of this Legislature session is a Waggoner Carr - Preston Smith fight on taxes.

The Speaker of the House is, of course, a powerful figure in Texas politics and particularly so as regards tax matters, because he represents the Revenue and Tax Committee.

Since tax bills must be initiated in the House, by Constitutional provisions, that means that the Speaker will be so desired to have and may exercise a great deal of control over this committee.

Although the Governor perhaps has more influence and more power politically than the Speaker, the odds in this case are about even. I believe this is so because of the Speaker's influence over the Tax Committee.

FINANCIAL SHOULDERS

These particular power struggle at present, still smoldering below the surface. It actually has not broken out publicly or in the newspapers.

The Speaker, this last week, in assuming leadership for the tax bill in the House made reference to the "demagogism" of persons who said that all broad-based taxes are sales taxes. This could be interpreted as a slap at the Governor's past statement. And some did so interpret this reference.

Whenever the Speaker would up by saying that there was no fight with the Governor. That he desired to work the problems out with the Governor. In spite of these statements Speaker Carr has still attacked Governor Daniel's tax program, and the Governor usually responds such attack on his program as a slap at him personally.

Some say "no fight," but I believe this slowly simmering battle will have a decisive effect on the tax bill which is finally passed. The unfortunate thing is that many of us will have little alternative in this matter of raising more revenue. If only one proposal is submitted to the House for debate, then the only choice we will have is to choose a side and either say "yes" or "no."

Sincerely,
R. L. Bowers, Jr.
State Representative
District 98

Senator Preston Smith

Increased tuition for the state's colleges apparently will not be voted by this session of the Legislature.

The door was closed March 13 against introduction of any bills to raise the tuition as recommended by the Commission on Higher Education. From now on the controversial tuition-hike will require a four-fifths permissive vote for introduction.

It is substantive legislation and cannot be put in the appropriation bill. That was recognized two years ago in the hard fight for HB 265, which then increased tuition 100 percent in state college and universities.

In spite of some confusion in the issue, the truth is that the state's colleges and universities are opposed to any increase in tuition.

It had been reported erroneously from conclusions drawn prematurely, that apparently some colleges were aware of the possibility of increased tuition and were in favor of such increase.

A bill has been introduced to authorize colleges and universities to charge additional "student activities" fees, primarily to cover costs of intramural athletics. The bill did not deal with the different question of higher tuition charges, and apparently could not be amended to include such charges.

A pending house bill would raise tuition out-of-state students.

H. A. REYNOLDS RESIGNS AS SUPT.; BULA SCHOOLS HIRE JOE TURNER

H. A. Reynolds, superintendent of the Bula School for the past 11 years, has announced his resignation.

Joe Turner, who taught in the Bula system during 1951, 1952, and 1953, has been given a two year contract as superintendent, replacing Reynolds.

Turner has been teaching in the Floyd, N. M., school system since leaving Bula.

The action was taken at a school board meeting March 26, it was reported.

The board voted to put off the election of teachers for another year until after the school board election.

Reynolds resigned, he said, because at his age he felt he would like less responsibility than is required of a superintendent.

He plans to teach until reaching retirement age.

He will complete the current school year as superintendent at Bula.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds have two daughters, Carolyn, now teaching at Hereford, and Sammie, who will finish high school at Bula this year.

Former Resident Is 'Man of Year' At Graham, Tex.

A former Morton resident, and a graduate of Morton Schools was recently honored at Graham as the city's "outstanding citizen" for the past year.

Rev. Hubert Foust, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Graham for the past three years, was the man honored.

He is the brother of Mrs. A. R. Coleman of Morton and it was noted that he attended school in this city and graduated around 1936 or 1937.

His father farmed in this community when the Foust family lived here.

Factors in the choice of Rev. Foust for the honor were his overall spiritual guidance to people in the community; his activities in furthering community betterment projects, and his work in helping the juveniles of the community.

The award was presented at a Chamber of Commerce annual banquet.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

There appears to be shaping up in Congress quite a hassle over Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson.

The arguments pro and con are quite technical, and a full discussion of them would better appear elsewhere.

But there is one unanswered question in the whole debate. That question is somewhat like this:

Can any Secretary of Agriculture do the proper job as long as the U. S. State Dept. is allowed to run rampant?

Most of Benson's antagonists are from the Midwest where corn and hogs are the big crops.

Now the Dept. of Commerce reports that due to export-impairment licenses controlled by the State Dept. in the third quarter of last year, exports to Soviet Russia and the nations behind the Iron Curtain were more than double in value with $12.9 million shipped into them, mostly in cold rolled sheet steel and steel mill equipment to Russia.

But imports from Russia and the Iron Curtain nations into the U. S. during the first six months of the year were more than double that, totalling $29 million, of which practically half was in the form of canned cooked hams and other pork products.

Now, at a time when the taxpayers are paying out money to support the price of corn, the principal feed for hogs, the

C. W. Harder

There appears to be shaping up in Congress quite a hassle over Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson.

The Commerce Dept. also reports that in 1958 the U. S. exports of food and farm products to all of Europe declined substantially. This, in the language of the department, "reflected a slowdown in government surplus disposal financing."

Yet in the same year, the report notes, despite the decline in coffee shipments and prices, the imports of foodstuffs into this country, principally in the form of cattle, meat products and vegetables, increased by 6%.

Thus, the whole American farm program, which cost in excess of $4.5 billion in 1958, gets curiously and confusingly.

While it is obvious that it is to the American interest to keep the farms in a healthy shape, the question is "whose farms?" family sized American farms or communistic collective farms?"

Or as one wit puts it, "The most carefully laid plans of men, mice and the Secretary of Agriculture can be set awry by the State Dept."

As long as the U. S. policy is to let foodstuffs come in from abroad, and especially communist countries, in direct competition with American farm products, on which there are surpluses, the solution of the problem seems hopeless.

Neither is it policy for two cabinet posts in a government to publicly battle each other.

But it would be interesting to see what could happen if one fully controlled the Agriculture Dept. and the other State Dept. It would be mighty interesting.

FORMER RESIDENT PRAISES LOCAL SCHOOL SYSTEM

In writing to the Tribune the A. A. Sedgwicks, Brownfield, Rt. 3, say "Just a line to let you know we miss all of you and would like to keep up with you through the Morton Tribune, so I am enclosing a check . . . we are beginning to like Brownfield fine. We got in our new house finally. It is very nice, three-bedroom, two baths, double garage, etc . . . so it was worth waiting for. The children found the Brownfield school large (about 2,750 students), but very friendly, and their studies were right in line with Morton. They were not behind at all; I think Morton has a very good school system even though they are smaller in numbers."

Queens Are Champs Again . . . Bula Girl, Betty Hallford Is Member Of Wayland's National AAU Champions

The Wayland College Hutcherson's Flying Queens have done it again — they're the women's national basketball champions and a member of the team is Miss Betty Hallford of Enochs.

Miss Hallford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hallford of Enochs and starred for the Bula girls while in High School.

Friday night at St. Joseph, Mo., the Queens won their fifth National AAU Women's basketball championship in the past six years with a 43 - 37 victory over Nashville Business College, the team that ended their four year reign as champions by beating them last year.

Four Queens were named to the All-American team, including the one for the first time.

It was the 34th victory of the season in 36 games for the captain of Harley Redin. During his four years as coach of the Plainville girls' team, Redin's charges have won 115 of 118 games — all of the losses in the past 37 games. He set a national record of consecutive victories of over 100 games before they lost the championship game a year ago.

Niagara Falls—A Fascinating Vista

NIAGARA FALLS—scenic, historic, world renowned—is an attraction for the millions of United States vacationers who visit Ontario, Canada, annually. Left is the American falls; right the horseshoe falls, as viewed by one of many vacationing families visiting Ontario. Young and old find a fascinating vista, many return to study its many moods, its roaring waters, and lower down the river the Whirlpool Rapids. For a century, tight rope walkers have walked its width; its drop has defied men in barrels equipped to withstand the drop and whirl of the water.

The district meet is to be held at Lubbock's Chapman Field on Saturday, April 18. On the following week the Regionals will be held; the next week the Red Raider Relays, and the next week the state meet at Austin.

 Darrell Bozell Paula Obrecht

Young forester Darrell Bozell, 18, of Mount Pleasant, Titus County, won the 1953 state 4-H Forestry award of a fountain pen and pencil set given by the American Forest Products Industries.

He started his forestry project two years ago when he cleared a 10-acre plot. Since then, he has planted 2,000 pine trees furnished by the Texas Forestry Service. Over 75 per cent have survived, he reports, and now stand two to three feet tall.

Young Bozell hopes to improve the area until he has the 10-acre plot in commercial pines.

Miss Paula Joan Obrecht, 18, of Claude, state winner in 4-H Dress Revue, was awarded a trip to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago by Simplicity Pattern Company.

There she modeled a rose-berige wool flannel modified chemise dress with a shirred overback, self belt in front, three-quarter sleeves, and a stand-up roll collar opening to a V in front.

A nine-year 4-H'er, she has won first in Armstrong County dress revue each year. For the past three years, she has been one of the top five girls in district event.

She makes most of her clothes and also western shirts for her brother. About $550 has been saved by her sewing project, she estimates.

Miss Obrecht is district representative at the State 4-H Council and president and junior leader of the Claude 4-H Club.

Now a home economics major at Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas, she hopes to become an Extension worker.

warded Scholarship to Continue Studies in Field of Nuclear Physics

Earl Sybert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sybert of Morton has been awarded two college fellowships valued at approximately $200. It was announced this week that Sybert, a graduate student at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La., is working toward his degree in nuclear physics. One of the fellowships comes to $100 per month for twelve weeks during the summer. The other fellowship is for $200 per month for a nine-month school year. The foundation was established by the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities and designed to aid people who have some teaching experience and wish to continue in this field.

When he learned of the fellowships, Sybert said, "the good thing about both grants is that I do not have to do any work other than devote full time to my studies and research. This is about the best thing that has ever happened to me."

FHA Girls Have Guest Speakers

Three careers associated with home-making were discussed by guest speakers Monday night at a meeting of the Morton High School Future Homemakers of America Chapter members.

The meeting was in observance of the beginning of FHA week here.

Speaking were Mrs. James St. Clair, who spoke on "How Home-making Education Helps a Home-maker; Mrs. Murray Croone, who discussed "Homemaking Education required to Be a Dietician;" and Miss Leila Petty, who presented a film on "Homemaking Education Required to Be an HD Agent."

Posters on 'homemaking careers' are being made and placed in the school.

Mrs. A. E. Sanders is FHA Chapter advisor and homemaking teacher at Morton High.

Parent - Teacher Spring Conference Set Next Week

Spring Conferences are scheduled next week for Morton Elementary School, Thursday and Friday, April 16 and 17.

The conferences will begin at 2:30 p.m. and school will dismiss and buses will run at 2:30 p.m. on both days.

Report cards will be held by the teacher until parents pick them up at the conference. Conferences are held twice yearly in the Elementary school.

Early next week teachers will send home with the student a suggested conference time. If at all possible this would be the best desired time in order to let all teachers have conferences with parents at times which do not conflict.

The teacher parent conference program has met with much success in the past.

Traffic Safety Is Boosted in Campaign By Student Group at Morton High

"Safety First in Traffic" is being stressed in the Morton High School this week by the students themselves.

The week-long program was brought to the student council for its approval by members of the MHS Journalism class, sponsors of the War Whoop, a student publication.

Part of the program calls for student traffic violators to be given tickets by "Safety Sergeants."

The receiver of a ticket reports to Tom Pate, high school principal, to offer their apologies to the student body.

The program began Monday when three citizens addressed the student body at a school assembly. Speaking on "safety" were Cochran County Sheriff Hazel Hancock; Mayor Roy Tarver, Jr., President of the Citizen's Traffic Commission; and Eddie Irwin, secretary of the Citizen's Traffic Commission.

Mayor Tarver spoke on the driver's responsibility and urged the group to be careful with "dad's car" and to be ready to cooperate with law enforcement officers if they do have a mishap. "If you're old enough to drive dad's car," he told the group, "you're old enough to shoulder the responsibility of facing the law officer after you've had a wreck."

Mayor Tarver talked about the driver's responsibility to others in the town and reminded them the saddest words of all are the words of the driver who has just run over somebody, saying, "I didn't mean to do it."

Irwin spoke on how newspapers can get safety consciousness over to the people.

Monday afternoon seven Morton High students presented a fifteen minute safety program over Radio Station KLVT, Levelland.

Appearing on the broadcast were a trio of girls, Misses Denise Rose, Patsy Sybert and Myrlan Cox, singing two songs composed by themselves and other members of the Journalism class.

The program was introduced by Dick Christian, Miss Margaret Hoess, current editor of the War Whoop, explained the aims of the program.

Miss Mary Ruth Henry spoke on "Drivers' Obligations," and Wendell Holloman discussed "Pedestrians' Obligations."

The safety program is sponsored nation-wide by the American Motorist Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill.

Two newcomers and the only absentee runner were elected to Morton School Trustee posts in a hot but not spectacular vote at Morton, Saturday.

T. A. (Truett) McCauston led the ticket with 173 votes out of 200 ballots cast. The other two positions open went to men with identical vote totals, Jesse Clayton of Pegasus Houston with 152 votes and fourth top total went to James Hansen with 128; A. M. (Van) Brown had 129 and a write-in campaign for Glen McDaniel netted a surprising total of 90 votes.

The latter vote was surprising in view of the fact that the write-in campaign only started a few days before the election.

In other voting at Morton Ralph Hart, unopposed for County School trustee at Large garnered 178 votes and U. F. Wells, County School Trustee from Pot. Four was selected with 17 votes from the densely populated district.

The other incumbents, Jack Wallace and Roy Brown declined to run for re-election.

Considering the pre-election talk was rather quiet, the vote was considered a good one. The vote last year with considerable campaigning was 610 - 66 percent higher than any previous year.

The previous high on record in the local district had been 374 votes. So the 296 votes must be considered a good vote - slightly above normal.

GREAT WOMEN IN HISTORY IS STUDY OF T and C STUDY CLUB

"There is a woman at the beginning of all great things" was the theme of the program entitled: "Women Make History" for the Town and Country Study Club on April 1.

Included in the program were: Pioneer Women of Texas by Mrs. A. A. Fralin; and Women of the State up to 1900; by Mrs. Carl Ray; After the Turn of the Century by Mrs. Bill Glassford; and Women of the Present Day by Mrs. H. M. Christian.

During a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Keith Kennedy, club president, plans were made for the bake sale which was held last Dollar Day.

Mrs. Pat Hughes and Mrs. H. M. Christian were elected to serve on the membership committee for the 1959 - 1960 club year.

It was also announced that all members are to notify Mrs. Charles Jones the number of guests she has invited to the April 15 meeting - two days before the meeting.

EDUCATION IS MAIN GOAL . . . COFFEE LAUNCHES WOMEN'S PORTION OF HOUSE - TO - HOUSE CANCER CAMPAIGN

A group of more than twenty women of the community gathered at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Tuesday morning for a coffee at which they mapped plans for the women's portion of the 1959 Cancer Crusade - a door to door campaign.

The women's committee, headed by Mrs. Reynolds, will knock on every door in Morton between now and April 14th, with their main purpose in mind - leaving educational material on cancer which they hope every family will read.

"Primarily, it's an educational drive," Mrs. Reynolds pointed out, although contributions are being accepted and the women who call to leave literature will make this fact known. They will be identifiable by the badge and the cancer sword pin they are wearing.

No set goal has been announced for the drive but a group of men have been contacting businessmen since Tuesday on the fund drive.

If they can just get the information inside every home, Mrs. Reynolds said, she felt they might be instrumental in saving some lives of persons who might have the advance warning symptoms that warn of cancer, but who do not know it. Through early and prompt action, cancer can be arrested.

Mrs. Reynolds asked everyone's consideration and indulgence as the workers come to your door.

Ladies taking part in the drive are Mesdames Roy Hickman, Willard Cox, Alvie Harris, Pat Hughes, LeRoy Johnson, Hume Russell, James St. Clair, Gene Evans, J.W. McDermott, Gene Benham, Lem Chesher, Joe Nicewarner, Don Allsup, Ira Brown, Pegues Houston, Jerry Winder, Bob Mayon, Lowell Webb, Fred Payne, T. A. Rowland, E. O. Willingham, Bob Travis, Babe Vanlandingham, T. K. Williamson, Lula Blandford, and Mrs. Reynolds, chairman.

Three Way School Seniors Plan for Class Play, Friday

THREE WAY (Sp.) — The Senior play to be presented at Three Way High School on the night of April 10, 1959 at 8:00 p.m. is a modern day comedy of a typical family infested with teen-agers and shady characters.

Friday's play is entitled "Grandma's Best Years."

The story begins at the time Grandma (Lorena Long) comes from the farm to visit her daughter and finds a situation not to her liking. It seems that her daughter, Mrs. Abbott (Paula Kinkle), has become a social climber since the death of her husband, and the three Abbott children, Joyce (Betty Hutton), Marion (Nan Johnson), and Willie (James Shepherd) and the maid, Sadie (Fay Wall) are having a miserable time.

The very day Gram arrives, Mrs. Abbott is bringing three upper crust guests home for the weekend. Determined to put a stop to all of this she comes up with the scheme of inviting the family blacksheep, Cousin Oscar (Wesley Warren) to the party. Naturally the weekend party is hardly what Mrs. Abbott had hoped for, but neither is it exactly what Gram had planned.

The admission price of 50c and 75c will be rewarded in the form of a night of jolly laughs and excitement which is prevalent throughout the entire play, according to an announcement. Directors & sponsors of the play are Charles Bower and Charles Crume.

Others in the cast are Donna Shepherd as Marion's chum; Doyle Fowler as Willie's sidekick; Mike Prillard as Joyce's beau; and Hank Tunnell, Virginia Klutts, Gloria DeHoyos, Narcissa Herrera, Linda Welch and Leslie Fene.

Cochran, Bailey Spelling Champs Place 7th, 9th

Cochran County and Bailey County regional spelling bee candidates, Twila Bilbery and Virgil Thomas, placed well in the area standings but failed to win at Lubbock last Saturday. A Lubbock lad was the winner.

Twila, from Bledsoe, finished in 9th place and Thomas, from Three Way, was 7th.
