Band budget raised

Morton band director's position still unfilled

The status of the Morton school band program was still in doubt following a special meeting of the Morton School Board Monday morning.

The committee asked the board to reconsider their decision to set the band budget at $3,000 and called for a budget of $4,000 and a 10-month contract for the band director.

BULLETIN

John Stockdale was hired Wednesday morning to be band director of the Morton School district. He was hired by Superintendent Ray Lanier at the salary stated in his last contract.

The committee said that Stockdale would re-consider his resignation if the budget increase and contract were approved by the board. At the last board meeting the band budget was upped to $3,000 from the previous amount of $2,000.

Mrs. Griffith read to the board a list of accomplishments by the band and a statement that nine Morton High School graduates are now in college on music scholarships and that every 1968 graduate would receive a band scholarship if they attended South Plains College.

She also cited school morale, cultural and educational reasons for retaining the band program.

A short time later the board voted to up the band budget to $4,000. Voting for the motion were Van Greene, Don Hofman and Kenneth Thompson. Voting against the motion were Weidon Newsom and Henry Williams.

As of press time Wednesday, Stockdale had not submitted an application for the band director's position.

the last board meeting August 21 and the position is still unfilled.

The special meeting was called at the request of a committee of four people representing the Band Boosters. Members of the committee included Mrs. Carl Griffith, spokesman; Byron Willis, Band Boosters president; J. A. Woolley and

Rep. George resigning for job in Washington

Austin, August 29 — Rep. Jesse T. George, who has represented Cochran County and District 75 in the Texas Legislature since 1964, has submitted his resignation effective Sept. 5.

Terry, and Yoakum Counties.

A special election to fill his seat will be called within the next few days, probably for Nov. 11, the regular election day this year. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will set the election date in the absence of Gov. John Connally. Under normal circumstances, the seat would remain vacant until next spring's primary election but since there will be a special session of the 60th Legislature an immediate election will be necessary.

George, in his letter of resignation to Gov. Connally, said "The experience which I have gained during my two terms in the legislature is invaluable and I hope that that through new position I can continue to offer my services to the citizens of this great state."

House Speaker Ben Barnes praised George for his service in Austin, saying "He has done an excellent job for the people of his district and I feel sure that Rep. George will continue to be successful in his new position." George also was praised by the lieutenant governor as "a fine young legislator."

George is a graduate of Brownfield High School and was valedictorian of the 1959 senior class. George was graduated from Sul Ross State College in 1963 with the highest scholastic rate in his class. He had a double major in history and government. He also attended the University of Texas Law School.

George was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Who's Who in American Politics, and was named one of the Outstanding Young Men of America in 1966. He has served on the board of directors of the Texas Law Enforcement and Youth Development and was state director and state vice president of the Texas Jaycees.

Lions meet

The Morton Lions Club will hold their first meeting of the school year September 6 at noon in the County Activity Building. All members are urged to be present.

Calendar for September showing dates from 1 to 30.

Summer's gone . . .

OUR PRETTY CALENDAR GIRL for September, Marilyn Cade, will probably dream of a summer full of fun during the first few days of school. Marilyn, a 16-year-old junior at Whiteface High School, begins classes September 5. An active 4-H'er, she has spent her summer "doing all sorts of things." Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cade, Rt. 1, Morton. (Staff Photo by George Tuck)

Burr burning is discussed by City

The Morton City Council Monday night authorized Mayor Jack Russell to write a letter to the Texas Air Pollution Board concerning the burning of burrs within the city limits.

the hazards of burr accumulation." Morton Chief of Police Burtis Cloud wrote a similar letter saying that traffic hazards due to the burning would be less compared with the hazard of burr accumulation.

under the board's current regulations, burning of burrs within a town are allowed except as an emergency provision. L. Linder Jr. appeared before the Morton Coop Gin. He said that they would haul their burrs off the gin yard when rain made it impossible to burn the burrs in the fields for dumping. In this case, he said, it would be necessary to request an "emergency variance" in order to

"It is my opinion that the burning of cotton burrs in a city approved burr burner for a short period of time when necessary to prevent a fire hazard due to the accumulation of burrs would be less hazardous than the temporary burning of such burrs for a few days. The minor health hazard, if any, created by such burning, I feel is negligible compared to

In other city business, meat inspector Joe Seagler resigned his position a short time ago. Appointed to fill his position was E. C. Seaney. This came on a motion and second by George Hargrove and Wiley Hodge.

Boosters

The Morton Athletic Booster Club will meet Friday night, Sept. 1, at 8 p.m. to elect new officers. The meeting will be held at the Morton school cafeteria. Cake and ice cream will be served at 9 p.m. All Boosters and prospective members are asked to bring either cake or ice cream.

Indians tie in grid scrimmage

About 400 persons watched as Morton Littlefield to a draw in a football scrimmage here Saturday evening. It was a heartening exhibit for the Morton fans, as their favorites battled toe-to-toe with the AAA Wildcats.

Littlefield managed to score once as its second team turned two broken plays into long gainers against the Morton second defensive unit. The Wildcat fullback finally went the final seven yards over left tackle.

Seaney's pay will be 50-cents per head. Jack Stoner, who runs the dump ground, requested that the city bring a bulldozer out to the dump ground to help in moving some of the heavier junk around. The matter was turned over to City Secretary Elra Oden.

Morton High School held registration Monday and Tuesday with 55 seniors, 66 juniors, 67 sophomores and 81 freshmen pre-registered.

Superintendent Ray Lanier said the school system is still short a band director and an industrial arts instructor. The third grade vacancy of last week has since been filled. Lanier said that the indus-

Cochran County United Fund plans campaign

Two meetings in as many weeks have been held by Cochran County United Fund directors. They are attempting to work out details in advance of a unified fund-raising campaign in the county.

Morton coach Fred Weaver was generally pleased with the results of the work-out. He announced that the Indians would travel to Lubbock Friday for a 4 p.m. scrimmage against Coronado, newest school in Lubbock. This will be the final tune-up prior to Morton's home opener against Olton Sept. 8.

Another meeting has been called for 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 1, by UF president H. A. Tuck. "We are taking a lot of time preparing for our first campaign," he said, "because we want everything to go right . . . and to make the first United Fund drive in this county a success."

Sidelined for the scrimmage last week were two of Morton's top defensive players. End LaMell Abbe is out with a shoulder separation and tackle Dick Vanlandingham has an injured foot. Abbe isn't expected to see action until October. Vanlandingham probably will be ready to go full speed this week. Both Abbe and Vanlandingham are two-year lettermen. Only casualty of the scrimmage was junior letterman end Bob Hawkins, who received a bloody nose. Tackle Joe Bautista received a thigh bruise and end Randy Kelly a cut near his eye.

Education and cooperation loom as the major obstacles, directors agreed during the last meeting. "We must get it across the public that their one United Fund drive is an investment for many agencies, not just one," directors commented. Major stumbling block for the United Fund in Cochran County is the inability to contact the major national health groups in a unified campaign. "Although it is nearly impossible to comment specifically, I think the directors might be able to work out a plan to include these groups in a single drive," Tuck added. It is essential that all members of the board attend Friday's meeting, Tuck said.

"We were pleased with the way our boys played defense," Weaver said. "But we didn't get our offense going like we thought it should . . . We weren't able to break any of the backs for long gains. We still have a lot of work to do before we'll be ready to play."

Scrimmage handoff . . .

MORTON'S SCRIMMAGE WITH Littlefield last Saturday afternoon saw this play develop between quarterback Mike Bryan and back Ralph Soliz. Soliz picked up seven yards on the play to insure a tie for the local team. The Morton team scored first late in the scrimmage, followed later by a score by the Wildcats. (Staff Photo)

I've heard of horses under the hood, bees in bonnets and even ants in the pants. But it was wasps in the cockpit that caused the trip to stop almost before it started this week. Seems Don Allsup, his son Ronnie, Ty Williamson and pilot Mike Doss got all loaded up here early Tuesday morning. They were going to fly to Oklahoma City to look at the new Chevrolts. Just about the time everyone got in and settled, there came a roar from among the passengers. "Let me out!" cried Don. "What's the matter?" asked Mike. "There's a wasp in here!" Don hollered as he tried to fight his way outside.

Don has a deep-seated and long-standing hatred of snakes, bugs, bees, fleas or almost any other small crawling or flying creature. And Don decided he wasn't about to share his flight with any blasted wasp. So all the passengers deplaned (that's a fancy word I picked up from reading airline advertisements), the small intruder was shoed out and everyone got settled again. Vows Mike, "If Don had found that wasp when we were at 8,000 feet, he would have just jumped out."

There ought to be a sequel to that story, but there isn't. They flew to Oklahoma City, saw an elaborate presentation about the 1968 Chevys, and flew home in the afternoon.

Apparently there hasn't been any change in the muddled affair about a band director for Morton. Meantime, we are pleased with the way the bandsmen have taken hold and gone to work on their own. Billie Rae Proctor, a 1967 MHS graduate and former student director, has been working with the band trying to get music and marching coordinated for a band show Sept. 8 during the first football game. All band students are urged to be on hand for a practice session at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 31. The band is determined to put on a good show for the first game. This outfit has a lot of pride in its accomplishments of last year and a lot of determination to do as well this year. Billie Rae has to leave for college Sunday, but George Tuck has also been working with the group and will be around to help out during some of the night practices.

P.S.: Since we wrote this column, John Stockdale has returned as band director at Morton.

School gets started Tuesday at Morton. Whiteface and Bledsoe. Bula and Three Way started their classwork this past Monday. It's been a short summer in a lot of ways, even for me. But the youngsters that have to settle down to their books again claim it hasn't even been a month since they got out for the summer.

Please be careful driving around during school hours. The children don't always look where they're going and are apt to dart out in front of a car without warning. Morton Police Chief Burtis Cloud reminds motorists that the speed limit is 20 miles an hour in school zones and at the crossing zone on South Main during the hours the warning lights are flashing.

We've got a rundown on the Bula football team in this issue. Next week we'll have a look at the teams from Three Way, Whiteface and Morton. Down at Bledsoe, where they don't have a football program, there are probably a bunch of youngsters bouncing basketballs in the gym.

We've heard a lot of comment about the late school starting hours for Morton. The board decided to begin classes at 9:45 a.m. until daylight savings time ends the first of November. There was some speculation that the board might reconsider its decision, but it didn't take up the matter at a special meeting Monday.

It's nice to see the dirt flying around the hospital, as construction crews get ready to lay the foundation for the new addition. Work shacks are in place at the courthouse and the crew will begin preparing groundwork there very soon.

Among those out of town last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Childs and Jeanette, who headed for Red River, N.M. Although L. B. said it was primarily for Jeanette before she goes to college, I'll bet that he had as much interest in going as his daughter. And Roy Gentry and son David went to Dallas to watch the Cowboys take on the Green Bay Packers. But the 20-3 score indicates that the Packers took the Cowboys, but good. The Cowboys just haven't looked sharp at all

Citizens of Brownfield and Morton honored George with a special "Jesse T. George Day" in 1966.

He taught school in Midland before running for the legislature and also was an instructor of government at South Plains College in Levelland. He also is a former manager of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

In 1964, George was one of 24 Texans appointed as Young Citizens for Johnson at the National Democratic Convention in Atlantic City, N. J. He was instrumental in organizing the Morton Jaycees in February of 1966 and organized Legislative Community Councils in his district to serve as "grass roots" sounding boards for public opinion during his two sessions in office. He served as coordinator and adult chairman of the Cochran County Area Youth Conference on Crime in Morton in 1966. It was the first local conference held in the State of Texas.

During the 59th Legislature, George was co-author of bills increasing load limits for cotton trailers, setting up the first student loan program for college students, and pay raises for public school teachers. He authored a measure creating the Terry County Memorial Hospital District. He also was assistant floor leader for junior college legislation and was a member of an interim study committee on language disorders in children.

During the 60th session, George was author of revisions of the Uniform Commercial Code, of a bill extending the categories qualifying for workmen's compensation, and was co-author of the Western Television Network legislation.

He served as vice chairman of the school districts committee in the 60th Legislature and was on other committees, Education, Constitutional Amendments, Agriculture, and Motor Traffic.

George expressed sincere appreciation to the citizens of his district for their cooperation and support during his tenure as a state representative.

Parallel terraces hold water

The picture above shows parallel terraces constructed to hold precious rainfall on the field. Parallel terraces like these can be installed at very low farmer cost with cost share assistance from the Great Plains Conservation. The cost share is based on 70 per cent for terraces and diversions; 80 per cent for waterway grass seeding and 50 per cent for practices as irrigation pipeline, buffer strip and fencing.

Parallel terraces, diversions and ways are now being constructed on Raymond Deavours farm owned by N. L. Luper and Mrs. A. J. Borum. Luper and Mrs. Borum are participating in the Great Plains Conservation Program for cost share assistance on the terraces, diversions and waterways.

The Cochran Soil and Water Conservation District supervisors urge anyone interested in installing conservation practices on their farm to contact the office in Morton for information on the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Bula Bulldogs look upward following last year's losses

Bula's Bulldogs are looking upward this year as they prepare for their 1967 football season. And that's the only way they can look. The Bulldogs were defeated in ten games last season, although they did get credit for a victory on a forfeit after one of their opponents used an ineligible player.

Mike Flaniken has taken over the coaching duties of the Bulldogs and his workouts have been long and hard. The Bulldogs play eight-man football and Flaniken has just about enough boys on hand to field a team. Only 11 boys are listed on the roster and one of these is doubtful. "There's one nice thing about it," Flaniken commented. "The only way we can go is up. We've been having good workouts and the boys are getting into shape now."

And a look down the roster shows that Flaniken has some size on his squad. Following boys are on the Bulldog roster:

Dennis Newton, senior tackle, 240; Mike Richardson, senior back, 175; Glen Salyer, senior end, 145; Rodney Claunch, junior quarterback, 130;

Terry Sowder, freshman guard and center, 186; Mitchell Autry, freshman back, 150; and Gene Stroud, freshman guard and end, 165.

Two Morton students graduate from Tech

More than 800 students received their degrees at Texas Tech's summer commencement exercises August 26.

Dr. Jack K. Wittams, commissioner, Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, presented the principal address at the 7:15 p.m. exercises in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium.

The list of graduates included the following from Morton:

Bachelor of arts degree: Glenna Mae Ford.

Bachelor of science in home economics degree, Sandra K. Holland.

Visiting in the home of R. T. Tarver and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barker over the weekend were Roy Tarver Jr. and family of Tyler. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weatherly and boys from Houston. Mr. Weatherly is a nephew of R. T. Tarver.

DPS will get radar in all patrol districts

You better watch out. You better not cry. You better not speed. I'm telling you why: radar is coming.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported today that the DPS has ordered a number of radar sets to be placed in every patrol district over the state to aid in enforcing the highway speed laws.

Use of the sets will enable the Department to secure a higher degree of compliance with the speed law. With the purchase of the new equipment, authorized by the Public Safety Commission, the Department will continue its long standing policy of filing charges in every case where there is a clear-cut, substantial violation of the speed law.

The new radar units will be mounted in highway patrol cars and are designed so that only one patrolman is needed for operation. Accurate readings can be obtained on vehicles at distances of up to 1,500 feet. All highway patrolmen are trained in radar operation.

"Accident statistics indicate," Garrison said, "that speed too fast for conditions is the most prevalent violation contributing to accidents in Texas. It figured in 41 per cent of the fatal accidents reported during 1966, and 29 per cent of the non-fatal accidents."

Information obtained from studies conducted by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads indicate that a driver is 20 per cent more likely to be involved in an accident at 70 miles per hour than when driving 65 miles per hour. He is 50 per cent more likely to be involved in an accident at 75 miles per hour, and 90 per cent more likely to be involved at speeds of 80 miles per hour.

"The use of the radar sets should enable us to patrol the highways more effectively," Garrison stated. "It is our hope that all drivers will willingly comply with the maximum speed limits of the state, but there will be those who refuse to do so. Our efforts will be directed toward apprehending these offenders in order to provide protection for the motorist who does comply with the law."

Mrs. LeRoy Johnson of Morton and Mrs. Grover Dean Edgar, former resident of Morton, attended a ceremony honoring Liz Carpenter, Washington journalist, was named Carpenter at Salado last week. Liz Carpenter, Washington journalist, was named as one of Texas' Outstanding Women. She was awarded a historical marker at the site of her birthday, an original plantation complex, near Salado.

Ann and Rayla Griffith spent the weekend with Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lillard Thomas.

County Agent's News

Small grain planting time

By HOMER E. THOMPSON

Small grain planting time is at hand and next year's harvest of grain or the amount of grazing from the crop may well be determined by the variety planted. Cochran County farmers should get the best seed available of varieties adapted to this area of the state. The choice of a variety is influenced by whether the crop is seeded on dryland or irrigated, low to high fertility conditions, used for grazing, grain production or a combination of the two.

Disease or insect reaction is important since more resistance is being bred into the varieties. Also the shattering and lodging characteristics and finally, the quality, especially with wheat.

TRACTOR SERVICING

Time spent servicing the tractor during periods of dusty field work will help prolong the life and improve the efficiency of the engine.

A tractor engine takes in about 9,000 gallons of air for every gallon of fuel it burns, a tractor in normal operation will burn about 3 to 5 gallons of fuel every hour. This means that for every 10 hours of operation, the tractor engine takes in from one fourth to one-half million gallons of air.

"That's a lot of air, and it may include a lot of dirt, especially under dusty conditions. Under extreme conditions, dirt can ruin an engine in less than a day's work, if the air is not filtered."

Proper care of the air cleaner results in better economy and insures longer engine life. An efficient air cleaner removes dust particles that grind away engine parts such as cylinders, rings, and bearings. A clogged air cleaner will choke the engine.

Generally, about every 10 hours of engine operation, the oil bath air cleaner cup should be removed and old oil replaced by new oil. Scrape the dirt from the bottom of the cup and wash in kerosene or solvent before refilling.

Dry paper filters on some new tractors function much like air filters on automobiles. These filters can be blown out a couple of times with an air hose, but be careful not to puncture them. Follow the instructions in the operator's manual for detailed procedures for particular tractors.

Unless you once hand pumped water from a well, you may never fully appreciate the contribution rural electrification has made in providing running water. Rural water systems are commonplace now. Electricity pumps the water to the storage tank. Electricity pressurizes the supply. Electricity summons the water instantly for your household needs. ### Land bank meeting to feature Houston veep

Swan Payne, vice president and secretary of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, will make the principal address at the meeting of the stockholders of the Federal Land Bank Association of Levelland. The meeting, which will commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Federal Land Bank System, will be held on Friday, September 8, at 2 p.m., in the District Court Room of the County Courthouse in Levelland.

Payne was born in Erath County, Texas, and grew up in the Stephenville area where he attended Tarleton State College. In 1921 he became Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Stephenville. In 1929 he became Deputy Registrar for the Federal Land Bank in Houston. Since that time Payne has held various positions of responsibility in the Bank, and is now Senior Vice President and Secretary. He is also Chairman of the Bank's Loan and Credit Committee, which is responsible for approval or disapproval of all loan applications. He has served on this Committee more than 20 years.

"We feel very fortunate to have Payne visit our Association, so that he can become more familiar with our people and our territory," Mr. Breed, Manager of the local Association said. He urged all stockholder-members, and any others interested in agriculture, to attend the meeting. The local Federal Land Bank Association makes Federal Land Bank loans on farms and ranches in Hockley, Cochran, Terry and Yoakum Counties.

In addition to Payne's talk, a film "Providers of Plenty" will be shown, annual reports will be made, new directors will be elected, two door prizes will be given to two lucky stockholders, and dividend checks will be passed out at the meeting.

The present directors are: Lawrence F. Schoenrock, J. F. Steele, and Leon Lawson from Levelland; J. L. Langford from Brownfield, and Hugh Hansen from Morton. Terms of Leon Lawson, J. L. Langford and Hugh Hansen expire this year.

Doyle Miller completes Marine Corps training

Marine Private Doyle E. Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle E. Miller of Whiteface, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Calif.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-calibre pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects; hygiene; first aid and sanitation; and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

Donald M. Fortenberry stationed in Vietnam

Army Staff Sergeant Donald M. Fortenberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fortenberry, Star Route 2, Morton, was assigned to the 123d Transportation Company near Cam Ranh Bay, Vietnam, Aug. 2.

A hatch foreman in the company, Sgt. Fortenberry entered on active duty in July 1956 and was stationed at Ft. Story, Va., prior to his arrival in Vietnam.

The sergeant, whose wife, Audrey, lives at 2314 Woodridge Drive, Lawton, Okla., is a 1949 graduate of Causey High School, Causey, N.M.

Mrs. Chuck Borland speaks at TOPS

The Lighter Later TOPS Club had a guest speaker at their regular meeting August 23rd in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church. "Eat less and do more, and it is not what you eat between Christmas and Year Years, but what you eat between New Years and Christmas" were the words of Mrs. Chuck Borland as she spoke on "Nutrition and Diet Foods".

Nine members weighed in and five sang the pig song. Ruby Davis acted as chairman in the absence of Mildred Oden. Ruby Davis was Queen of the week by losing 2½ lbs.

For Labor Day . . . We Salute The Forgotten Man

WE ADMIRE HIM because he is honest, reliable, and will always do his part when he is needed. He tries to take advantage of opportunities when they come his way, and when they don't he does the best he can without complaining. He accepts his responsibilities to his family, his community, his neighbors and his God. He pays his bills, never expects something for nothing, has a small savings account to help educate his children, and chips in when the hat is passed.

HE IS SOMETIMES called the "common man" or the "average man," but we have never felt these terms to be appropriate. In our opinion he is both "un-common" and "above average." He is the man you can count on, in good times and bad, to do the best he can, and usually does a pretty good job of it. He is self-supporting, self-starting and self-sufficient, so when he gets hailed out, washed out or blown out, he just hitches up and starts over. When his business is low or when some misfortune hits him, he just tightens his belt and keeps trying, secure in his faith that he can work things out and "it will be better next year."

HE HAS A HEALTHY RESPECT for the law, for regulations, and for his fellow men. He is a good husband and father who feels responsible for his children. He wants them to be God-fearing and law-abiding, so he does not hesitate to discipline when necessary and lets them know he expects the best of them.

HE IS DEPENDABLE and responsible and there are millions like him, though we sometimes forget him when we see and read about so many kooks, sophisticates, pseudo-intellectuals, dead-beats and four-flushers who try to stir up trouble and make so much noise.

WE ARE PROUD OF HIM and proud that so many of his kind flourish in this area. Let's all salute the Forgotten Man.

Cochran Co. Garden Club has regular meet Monday

The Cochran County Garden Club met Monday, Aug. 21, in the home of Mrs. C. D. Hill with Mrs. R. L. DeBusk as co-hostess. Thirteen members and one guest, Mrs. Evaldo Fernandez, attended the meeting. Roll call was answered by "My Favorite vase", Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. Bobby Travis went to Sundown on Aug. 16 to give a program to the Sundown Garden Club on flower arranging.

Mrs. J. L. Schooler, projects chairman, reported that two books, "How — Why of Better Gardening" and "Table Setting and Flower Arranging" have been purchased for the club library. These books are needed in preparing for Flower Show School Four. The club has several student judges who will attend this school.

Members drew Secret Pal names for the coming year.

Mrs. Schooler also gave a short report on the National Flower and Garden Calendar, giving its many uses, showing arrangements contained therein, and encouraging members to enter arrangements for judging and to be entered in the National Flower and Garden Calendar.

Mrs. J. L. Schooler reported she had prepared the Garden tips for August, and requested Mrs. W. B. McSpadden to prepare the Garden tips for the month of September. Mrs. Kenneth Thompson is to prepare an arrangement for the Hospital lobby for September.

Gardens and homes of several members of the Cochran County Garden Club members were toured during the Frontier Festival in August.

Program leader was Mrs. Wayne Porter, who introduced the Comprehensive Study on Flower arrangements — "Principles of Design". Mrs. Bobby Travis explained two principles, form and line. Form is the outward appearance and should be three-dimensional. It should have height, width and depth. Form includes rounded form, transitional form and elongated form. All should be considered in an arrangement. Line denotes the trend of Action. The line decided upon for an arrangement also should carry the viewers eye through the arrangement.

Mrs. W. B. McSpadden presented Texture and Color. She gave examples of texture and the contrast that should appear in any arrangement. Color is of vital importance. There are primary, secondary and intermediate colors; these should blend and only one-third of color wheel should be used in your choice of colors, when making an analogous design.

Mrs. Charles Jones talked concerning pattern and space. Pattern is the overall design of the arrangement. A pattern should be in mind before the arrangement is started and should be followed in placing the flowers and greenery in the container. Space is also an important factor in any arrangement. Space is the area around, within, and through the arrangement. Space gives the flowers room to stand alone. A line arrangement brought to the meeting by Mrs. Kenneth Thompson was discussed by Mrs. Dixie Porter as to above points.

Miniature arrangements were brought by Mrs. Hattie B. Spotts. These were also discussed and members were told what could be done to improve the arrangements.

Father Bobsien goes to Littlefield Church

Fr. Lawrence C. Bobsien, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church since March, 1963, has been transferred to the Catholic Church in Littlefield.

During his tenure in Morton, Fr. Bobsien has been an active member in the Ministerial Alliance serving as secretary for two years, president for one year and is currently serving as chairman of the Ministerial Charity, including the Christmas boxes for the poor program. In addition he has been active in the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

Fr. Bobsien, originally from New York City, says he has come to like living in a small town and that his four and one-half years in Morton have been some of the happiest and best of his life.

Most firearms accidents (55%) occur in the home, not on the range or field.

Labor Day week-end death toll in Texas may reach 45

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today that its Statistical Services has estimated that 45 persons will lose their lives in Texas traffic mishaps during the Labor Day holiday weekend.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS director, pointed out that this is the last holiday of the summer and that thousands of motorists will be criss-crossing the state in their travels.

"This increased travel increases the chances of an individual being involved in an accident," Garrison said. "We urge every motorist to exercise caution and to stay alert."

"There is always the possibility that the estimate of 45 deaths for this period can be proved to be too high, but only if all drivers put forth every effort toward avoiding traffic accidents.

"THE DEPARTMENT of Public Safety will continue in its all-out effort to curb traffic accidents and to stop reckless and illegal driving on the highways," Garrison said. Approximately 150 uniformed officers from other DPS services will be on the road to supplement the highway patrol enforcement action.

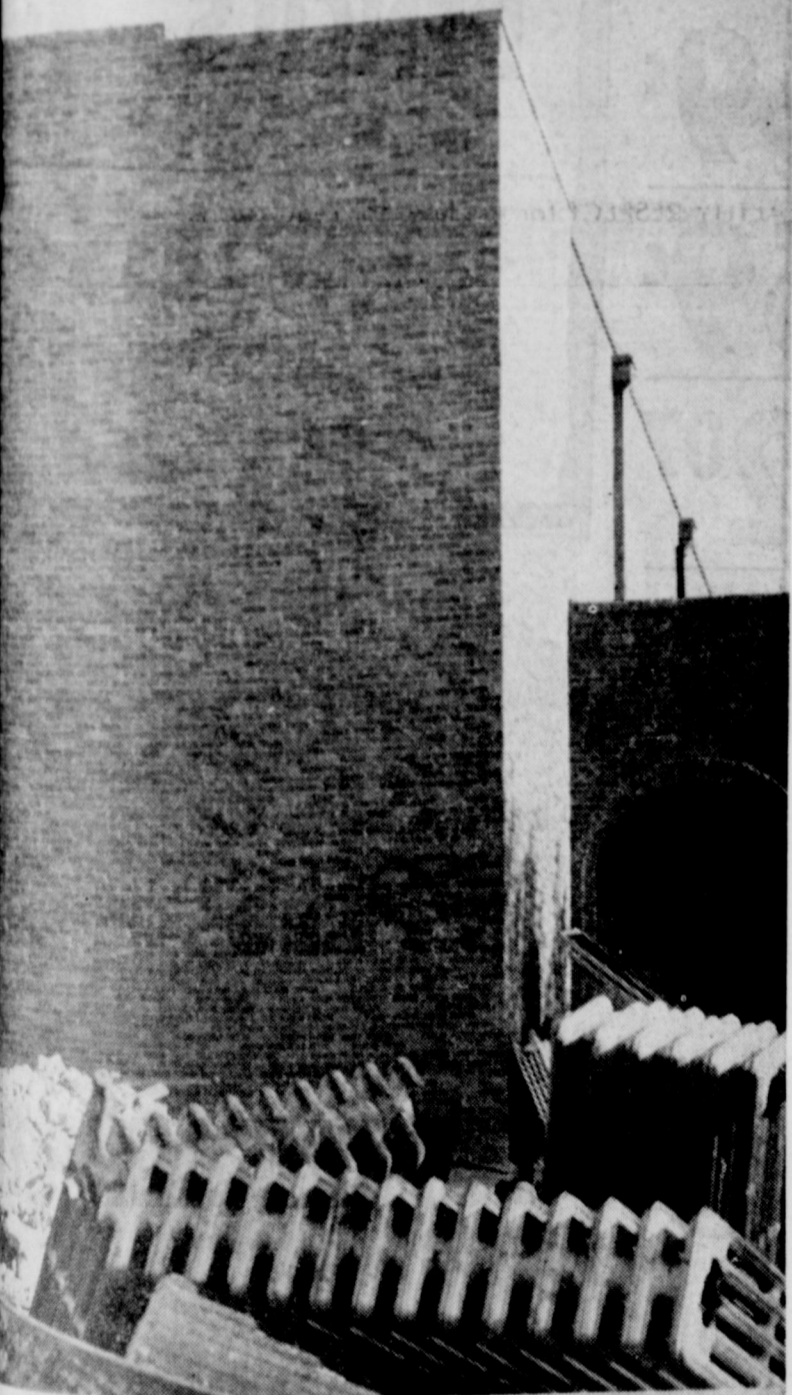

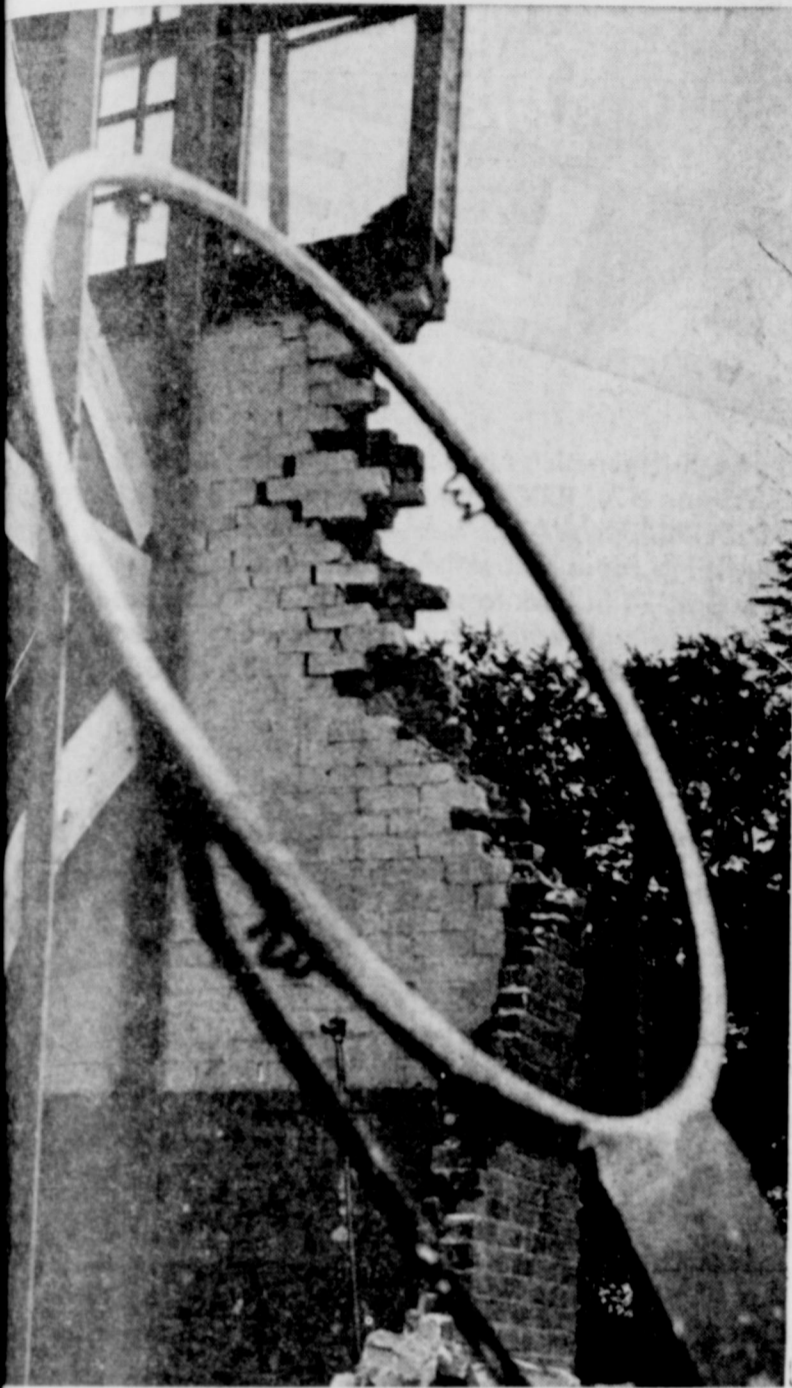

During the holiday period, from 6 p.m. Friday, September 1 through 11:59 p.m. Monday, September 4, the DPS will tabulate each traffic death and the totals will be announced three times daily from DPS headquarters in Austin in order to call public attention to highway dangers.

A coordinated effort involving several state agencies and private organizations will be directed toward holding down the number of traffic accidents and fatalities. The Texas Safety Association will conduct a public information program stressing the need for courtesy and caution on the highway, and pointing out the responsibility of the individual driver in remaining alert. TSA Vice-president W. F. (Bill) Leonard will coordinate the efforts of over 12,000 members of the Junior Chambers of Commerce over the state in operating some 200 "rest stops" for serving free coffee to fatigued drivers.

THE TEXAS HIGHWAY Department will carry on a program utilizing radio, television materials and news releases instructing drivers in freeway driving and in the need for caution near highway construction areas. They have available a special mailing of maps showing construction sites along Texas highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Haggard and Shelley of Carlsbad, N.M., visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith.

Before and after . . . THE WALL OF THE OLD Morton school gym was literally about to fall down, due to the infirmation of old age complicated by wet, windy weather. As a precaution the wall was torn down. It was recently completed, using a combination of old and new bricks, wire mesh re-enforcement and steel braces. When the old wall was originally built the only steel in it were bolts used to hold up the basketball goal. The new wall should give the old building a new lease on life. (Staff Photo)

Tribune Editorials Extra $250,000 for those who receive college degree

Each year at this time, thousands of students decide to pass up an extra quarter of a million dollars . . . and it makes us ill.

That extra $250,000 is a minimum amount they can reasonably expect to earn with the aid of a college degree over what they can likely make with only a high school diploma. The spread between those with and without a high school diploma is almost as great.

In Cochran County a large percent of high school graduates at least begin college. But the percentage needs to be even higher. We realize that the attrition rate is high after graduation from high school. There's military service beckoning the boys, marriage for both boys and girls. And then there's the problem of money . . . about $1,000 a year is the average cost of keeping one student in college.

But there are funds available for any qualified students who want to attend college . . . and not just those in the top five per cent. One group in Morton has a loan fund available . . . and it hasn't been sought by a single student in three years. Repayment on this loan doesn't start until after graduation from college.

Almost all colleges have grants, scholarships and loan funds available . . . and most of them go begging. Some of them are outright grants; others are low-cost, deferred payment loans. Some of these loans don't even have interest attached to them.

We realize that some students who graduate from high school don't have the potential or the desire to attend college.

But most of our high school graduates could use at least two years in a junior college. And this takes money.

If you know of a student that is thinking of passing up college, let him know about the extra $250,000 he is likely ignoring. If it's a question of money, tell him to talk to any high school or college counselor. If any student is really sincere about wanting to attend college, there are funds available to help him. If he's really dedicated to getting a college degree, he can always fall back on that old standby . . . and work his way through school.

Television newsman errs in not separating comment

Near the end of his 30-minute newscast Sunday, NBC announcer Frank McGee launched into a scathing denunciation of the upcoming elections in South Vietnam. He accused the elections of being rigged from the start and charged the U.S. government with conspiring to stage the elections.

McGee said that military candidates, Generals Thiou and Ky, have declared they would obey the civilian ticket, if it won, only if they chose . . . and that they likely would depose any such leaders if elected. Only upon hearing screams from America, McGee said, did the generals back down from this statement.

McGee had some interesting comments, along with some interviews from South Vietnam, in support of his statements.

But what disturbed us was not the content of his statements, so much as the realization that he neither prefaced or closed his comments with any declaration that he was speaking as an individual or presenting a television editorial.

We feel that broadcasters and telecasters have the same right as newspaper editors to make editorial comments. But we feel deeply that these should be clearly identified as such. In the Tribune, and other reputable newspapers, editorials are clearly labelled. Other personal comments are confined to by-lined columns. We strive diligently to separate personal feelings and comments from straight news reporting. We quite often present news that we don't personally like or agree with. But we try to do it in an unbiased manner.

We feel that Mr. McGee erred in making his statements Sunday without clearly segregating them from the "news" segment of the program. We appreciate his feelings about the subject under discussion . . . even agree with much of it. But news and personal commentary upon news are two distinctly different items. They should have been treated with more distinction by Mr. McGee Sunday. Television already has been accused with manipulating news events. It did not enhance its image Sunday with a personal blast at the administration during the framework of a "news" cast.

Food stamp cost higher

As with most government programs, the administrative costs of the local Food Stamp program are skyrocketing, while the number of beneficiaries are thus far much less than anticipated.

This came to light last week when the County paid its third quarterly assessment, then billed the City for its 50% share of the cost of the program for the first nine months operation of the food stamp program.

This is where the City balked. Back in December when the County and City agreed to participate in the food stamp program on a 50-50 basis, the estimated "annual" administrative cost for this county was set at a total of $1,625, or $812 each. But the City's share for just the first nine months was $924, already exceeding the estimated "annual" cost.

To date, the County has paid $685 for the quarter of February, March and April; $537 for May; June and July and $616 for August, September and October — a total of $1,848 for three quarters of a year. At this rate the annual administrative cost will be close to $2,500, rather than the $1,625 originally "begged for."

Now, mind you, this is for cost of "administering" the program — not the cost of the food stamps. When the program was first set up it was to serve an estimated 2,405 families below the $3,000 poverty line including 10,709 persons in Brewster, Culbertson, Jeff Davis, Hudspeth, Pecos, Presidio, and Terrell counties. The total estimated administrative cost was to be $26,423 for one year, of which the federal government would pay $8,128 leaving a balance of $18,295 to be divided among the counties.

But if you read the news release on the progress of the food stamp program in last week's Advocate, you can note that although the administrative costs are already exceeding the estimates by far, only 419 families are being issued stamps (2,405 estimated) involving 2,094 persons (10,709 estimated) the first five months—March through July. And there are six rather than 7 of the original counties participating.

At this rate, bet Mr. Parr, director of the stamp program, is glad he didn't get taken up on his offer to "personally underwrite" the city's share of the program, when the council showed reluctance to participate. Yet it appears he and his administrative staff are doing well.

Rural exodus adds problem

Among many causes of urban slums and unrest, crime and riots, is the farm problem. Mechanization and higher city incomes have caused a farm-to-city flow that has found the cities as unprepared for the new residents as many of them have been unready for metropolitan life.

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman commented, more than a year ago, "I believe we must stem the exodus from rural to urban America if we are to cure the ills of our great cities."

Some proposals of the federal government may help, but their cost is likely to be high and their results relatively low. The basic needs are to provide rural America with opportunities to live and make a living comparable to those in the city — the opportunities in the city, that is, that are realized by only a small part of those who flee the farm and its environs.

The fact that so many urban residents seek rural living is proof of its attractiveness. But the products of farm and ranch must earn far higher returns than they have in the past, even with all the billions supplied by the US Treasury. Until this happens, the country cannot keep its youth there, no matter what panaceas are promised. Less government control and more free enterprise are needed steps toward rural rehabilitation and reduced urban congestion.

Double standard on gas

In anyone still doubts that the international double standard of morality exists, note how "world opinion" has regarded Egyptian use of poison gas in Yemen: With complete indifference.

Some months ago, U. S. used tear gas to separate Viet Cong guerrillas from some villagers they were using as hostages. The obvious purpose — and effect — of this move was to save lives. Yet those who claim to speak for "world opinion" nearly broke their typewriters condemning this country for "atrocities" and "genocide."

As columnist Carl Rowan recently wrote in The News, the Egyptians are now using one of the most deadly gases known on loyalist villages in the Yemen. These gases don't make their targets cry — they make them die.

An investigating team of doctors from the International Red Cross not only confirmed the use of poison gas, but refused to return to the area until the team received gas masks.

We've been waiting to hear that great humanitarian U Thant blast forth with a condemnation of his old friend Nasser. We're waiting for Lord Russell and his little friends to whomp up another mock war crimes trial to lambast Egyptian imperialism. We're waiting for all the self-righteous neutrals from Africa, India and Asia to beat a few words.

But we suspect that we'll be waiting a long, long time.

Do inciters mean to help?

There are grave implications to the stepped up training of the National Guard in riot control techniques stressing the principles of war.

One is that violent upheavals in the large Negro neighborhoods, which some black power advocates have styled "the Negro rebellion," have reached such a scale that they must be treated as just that.

Most of the Negroes' grievances are justified. In an atmosphere of peace, it would be possible to redress many of them, though probably not on the instant terms that many Negroes seem to demand. But no nation can allow its cities to be burned and looted, its law and order to be totally disrupted. The violence must be stopped.

The Guard's strategy will be to "meet force with greater force, but avoid bloodshed." Considering the type of force presented by the rioting mobs, however, the application of greater force will in many instances result in inevitable bloodshed.

That raises a second implication. It is that the lives of many Negroes stand to be sacrificed in a cause that could be won — and was in the rapid process of being won — without such sacrifice. This justifies the question raised concerning the motives of those who are going about the country inciting Negro people to violence.

Since they obviously aren't helping the Negro, is it really their intent to do so? Or do they merely want to weaken the United States by creating internal disorder and wreck its prestige abroad by staging situations that could culminate in large scale bloodshed?

Morton sailor serving on ship off Vietnam

Radioman First Class Billy J. Mills, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mills of Rt. 1, Morton, and husband of the former Miss Mona A. Lesslie of 204 Pat. St., Levelland, is serving with the Seventh Fleet off the coast of Vietnam as a crew-member aboard the communications relay ship USS Arlington.

His ship provides rapid, reliable, and secure communications to the fleet at sea and can augment existing shore-based naval communications stations anywhere in the world.

Arlington, a converted aircraft carrier originally named the USS Saipan, has numerous upright radio antennae located on what was formerly the ship's flight deck. Its antennae are the most powerful ever installed in a naval vessel.

The ship completed underway training at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and a North Atlantic cruise participating in two NATO communications exercises prior to her Seventh Fleet deployment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Collins and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hansen and family left Tuesday for Lake Starnford.

DPS trying to curb wrecks sees 45 Labor Day deaths

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas Department of Public Safety has issued a grim warning that 45 people will die in state traffic accidents during the Labor Day weekend.

DPS will make an all-out effort to curb wrecks and to stop reckless and illegal driving on the highways, says Col. Homer Garrison Jr., veteran director of the law enforcement agency.

Approximately 150 uniformed officers from other services will supplement the regular highway patrol force for the long holiday period — Friday, September 1 through Monday, September 4.

In addition, a coordinated effort involving several state agencies and private organizations will be directed toward holding down the fatality and injury list.

TEXAS SAFETY Association will conduct a public information program stressing the need for courtesy and caution on the road and urging drivers to remain alert. TSA Vice-President W. F. Leonard will coordinate efforts of 12,000 Junior Chamber of Commerce members operating 200 rest stops which will serve free coffee to tired drivers.

DPS plans to carry on its educational program via newspapers, radio and television and will distribute maps showing highway construction sites.

A fleet of 35 to 40 cars to assist stranded motorists over the state will be operated by Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and Texas Motor Transportation Association. Purpose of the "holiday road patrol" is to relieve highway patrolmen for enforcement work.

"There is always the possibility that the estimate of 45 deaths for this period can be proved to be too high, but only if all drivers put forth every effort toward avoiding traffic accidents," Col. Garrison said.

Meanwhile, DPS has announced radar sets will be placed in every patrol district over the state to aid in enforcing highway speed laws. Sets capable of accurate readings on vehicles at distances up to 1,500 feet will be carried in patrol cars.

Speeding figured in 41 per cent of last year's fatal accidents and 29 per cent of non-fatal accidents.

SMITH IS RUNNING — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith broke open the 1968 political season by telling reporters he will run for governor next year regardless of whether Gov. John Connally plans to try for a fourth term.

"I want to make it clear once and for all that I am running," Smith said. "I have absolutely no idea what Governor Connally will do, and it doesn't make one iota of difference."

However, the Lieutenant Governor insisted that he would not make a formal announcement of his candidacy, complete with definition of issues, until Connally returns around Labor Day from his African safari.

House Speaker Ben Barnes has indicated he will run for lieutenant governor if Connally seeks a fourth term.

Former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Car also expressed some interest in the lieutenant governor's race. But he emphasized that he had not made a definite decision.

Another prospective candidate for lieutenant governor is State Sen. Murray Watson of Waco.

APPOINTMENTS — Lieutenant Governor Smith has named these committees:

Brothers head for opposite coasts as leaves home finish

Two brothers, Jimmy and Edward Marks, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Marks of Morton, left from Lubbock Municipal Airport on August 25 but were departing for two different coast lines.

They have been home on leave, Jimmy from the Army and Edward from the Navy. Jimmy, the eldest, is a Sergeant with the U. S. Army and will be stationed in Germany.

Edward left for North Island in San Diego, Calif., where he has been stationed with the Navy for the past two years. He is expected to board ship sometime in February as airman boswimate.

Jimmy has been in the Army approximately 10 years and has served in both Korea and Vietnam, returning from Vietnam in August, 1966. He attended school in Lamesa and is married to the former Lora Eeds, daughter of Mrs. Eeds of Whiteface.

Mrs. Jimmy Marks and their three children, Dayne 8, Jerrel 5, and Sharla 3, will join her husband in Worms, Germany, approximately two months after his departure from the United States.

Edward joined the Navy two years ago, taking his basic training in San Diego. He was home on a 17-day furlough.

The brothers and their families were honored last Friday with a farewell party in the home of their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knock of Levelland. This was the last time they would be together for at least three years.

Tunnel of Fudge Cake favorite of Asbill family

The Tribune's homemaker for this week is Mrs. Sandy Asbill. The Asbills reside at 203 E. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Asbill are members of the First Methodist Church. She is secretary of Christian Vocations, with her husband as sponsor of the Methodist Youth.

Mrs. Asbill is a first grade teacher in the Morton post system, one of the immediate past representatives to District XIII, Texas State Teachers Associates House of Delegates, and incoming secretary for the Cochran County Local unit of T.S.T.A. for 1967-68 school year. Other than being busy with school activities, she is also a member of the Emlea Smith Jr. Study Club and reporter and chairman of the yearbook committee.

When she has extra time she enjoys antiques, furniture, bottle collection, bicycling, and cooking. She has given us two of her favorite recipes.

MOCK FILLET

- 2 T. minced onion
- 1 T. flour
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 2 T. Worcestershire sauce
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1/3 cup tomato puree
- 1 1/2 lbs. ground meat
- 1/2 t. garlic powder
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 4-6 strips of bacon

Mix dry ingredients (salt, pepper, garlic, flour) and add to milk and tomato puree to make a smooth paste. Add bread crumbs and onion to the meat and thoroughly mix adding the paste. Form into patties approximately 3 inches in diameter and 1 inch thick. Wrap with a bacon strip and sprinkle with Worcestershire or A-1 Sauce. Bake in a moderately hot oven 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

TUNNEL OF FUDGE CAKE

- 1 1/2 cups soft butter
- 6 eggs
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 2 cups flour
- 1 pkg. Pillsbury Double Dutch Fudge Buttercream Frosting mix.
- 2 cups pecans

Cream butter in large mixer bowl at high speed. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Gradually add sugar and continue creaming at high speed until light and fluffy. By hand stir in flour, frosting mix, and pecans until well blended. Pour batter into greased loaf pan or 10 inch Angel food tube pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 60-65 minutes, (test for doneness after 60 minutes by observing dry, shiny brownie type crust). Cool 2 hours and remove from pan. Cool completely before serving.

Coffman-Bennett vows are read in Houston

Miss Annette Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bennett of Houston, became the bride of Rick Van Coffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Coffman, Rt. 1, Morton, on August 25 in the St. John the Divine Church Chapel. Rev. Sumner, pastor of the church, officiated for the ceremony.

The church decorations consisted of pale blue and white flowers, colors chosen by the bride. A reception followed the ceremony in the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white re-embroidered lace. Her high scoop neckline emphasized the simple A-line skirt. Elbow length sleeves were accented by scalloped edging that echoed the three tiers falling from the shoulder to the hemline. Her headpiece of roses was caught to silk illusion veiling.

Mrs. Howard Janice of Dallas served as matron of honor, and Miss Norma McCrary of Dallas cousin of the bride served as bridesmaid. They wore floor length dresses of pale blue, and carried flowers dyed to match.

Mr. Ken Coffman served his son as best man, and Johnny Bob Carruth was groomsmen. Ushers for the ceremony were Jim E. Bennett and John G. Bennett.

The bride's mother chose a green dress, accented with an orchid corsage, and the groom's mother chose a pale pink lace dress accented with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Bill Amerman, Susan Benner, Debbie Copeland, Mrs. John T. Miller, and Mary Sue Bland served in the house party for the reception.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the bride chose a purple dress and matching coat, with gold accessories.

The couple will make their home in Lubbock. They plan to attend Texas Tech.

The bride attended Texas Tech and was a member of the Block and Bridle Club. The groom attended West Texas State and is currently a student at Texas Tech.

Back to School...

As Summer Vacations draw to a close, and thoughts turn to the ways and needs for returning to school, give some thought to locating a church near your college or university.

Attend services regularly, worship the Lord in His house. Give a good accounting of your worship life, as well as your studies.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
