Morton to usher in Christmas season Tuesday, December 3

The Christmas season will open officially in Morton Tuesday, December 3, 7:00 p.m., with the Christmas lighting program. The Morton High School choir will present a fine program of Christmas music at the tree on the parking lot of the First State Bank. A large crowd is expected for the occasion. Almost two weeks later Santa is scheduled to make his official visit to Morton. According to plans he will ride into town in a fire truck, and he will visit with children on the courthouse square from 2:00 until 5:00 P.M., Saturday, December 14.

Methodists have set annual Lord's Day Program for Dec. 4

Announcement was made this week by Rev. Rex Mauldin, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Morton, that the church's annual Lord's Acre Program will be held on Wednesday evening December 4, 1968 at 7:00 P.M. in the Community Activities Building.

The money raised from the project this year has been designated to purchase new lawns for the Sanctuary in addition to paying on the note on the parking lots purchased by the church a few years ago. Activities will get underway at 7:00 p.m. with a free Bar-B-Que Supper. After the supper various articles will be auctioned off to the highest bidder by auctioneers Leonard Groves and Rev. Kenneth Wyatt, former pastor of the local church here. Many of these articles have been hand made by members of the congregation while others are new equipment donated by various business people within the church. James K. Walker, is chairman for this year's celebration.

Hume Russell with his helpers is in charge of the meat preparation and members of the Women's Society of Christian Service with Mrs. John Crowder as President and the Wesleyan Service Guild, Mrs. W. G. Freeland, President will prepare the trimmings to go with the Bar-B-Que Supper. The United Methodist Youth Fellowship with Todd Fields, President, will provide the dessert of cookies and brownies.

The pastor and congregation extended the most cordial invitation to all to attend the festivities. Some other former pastors in addition to Rev. Wyatt plan to be present for the occasion.

in from Cloudcroft, New Mexico. Plans have been made to decorate it next Monday. The trip to Cloudcroft was without incident this year. Only three men, Harold Ogle, Rusty Reeder, and Leon Kessler, made the trip. Since all three went together and returned together their stories of the trip should be the same. At least all three can be accounted for, which is a better record than last year.

Feed lot operation in area looms as distinct possibility: Benham

We have been asked several times lately what, if anything, Morton's Industrial Foundation was doing in regard to getting some sort of industry started here. In each instance, we assured the interested parties that we at the Tribune had heard nothing definite recently, but that we were sure the leaders of the project were working toward the ends set out to attain. This week we had an interview with D. E. Benham at the bank in regard to the matter. It turns out that a committee from the organization has been diligently bird-dogging every scent of a lead that might mean the procurement of an industry for the area and particularly one that would use a product produced here in the area if it all possible.

These committeemen, charged with the responsibility of trying to sell prospective scouts on the advantages offered here in competition with almost every other town on the Texas Plains, often give unstinting-ly of their time in an all-out effort to induce some worthwhile industry to locate here. Sometimes, after investigating a possibility, it is determined that it would not be feasible, and so the matter is dropped. At other times, the would-be prospect loses interest or favors some other location. Each and every lead, and they have been numerous, have been checked out and every possibility explored, you may be sure.

In our interview with Gene Benham it was brought out that just this past week a very interesting possibility presented itself when a man of substantial means let it be known that he definitely was interested in establishing a large feed lot operation somewhere on the Plains and was interested very much in this area. The scope of the suggested operation was of such magnitude it was thought advisable to try and present a mutual proposal to the prospect in cooperation with the Levelland Industrial Foundation.

After a lengthy session with the man Saturday of last week, the committee representing Morton's interests contacted their counterparts in Levelland and, with the consent of the interested gentleman who agreed to stay over the weekend, a joint meeting was held on Tuesday of this week.

While we are not at this time prepared to state, as we would like to, that the meeting culminated in a definite contract being drawn up between negotiating parties, it is felt that the possibilities are great that within two to three weeks we will be able to make just such an announcement. It is sincerely hoped, in all quarters, that this may be so for a project of this nature could materialize into untold benefits accruing to this area and would benefit everyone in the vicinity, either directly or indirectly. The proposal entailed plans for an operation in which a minimum of 15,000 cattle would be in the process of being fed out at one time and with a maximum capacity of 25,000.

Necessarily, a project of this kind takes some time to materialize, for details have to be worked out. Benham pointed out, See FEED LOT, Page 2

Morton Indians drop two BB games; win one over Plains

The crippled Morton Indians rose up to top the Plains Cowboys Tuesday night to the tune of 67 to 53, after dropping the two opening encounters last week. The Indians, playing without the services of senior Byron Willis and sophomore M. C. Collins, jumped out to a six-point lead early in Tuesday's game and coasted for the win. Wayne Thompson paced the Tribe's scoring with 24 points.

Morton will travel to Littlefield Saturday night for A and B games (printed schedules indicate Saturday's game to be a home game; however, the home date with Littlefield will be played January 10 instead of Saturday night). Tuesday night, the Indians will host Seagraves, and then will close out the week in action in the Friona Tournament.

In the season's opener against Stanton, the Indians jumped to an early game lead, but the visiting Buffaloes dumped in 21 points in the second period to take a 32-24 halftime lead. The Indians narrowed the gap by one after the intermission, but fell behind again in the fourth, and the Buffaloes made the long trip back to Stanton with a 68-56 victory under their belts.

Byron Willis led Indian scoring on 8 field goals and 8 free throws for 24 points; however, the lanky blond senior suffered a knee injury Saturday night and has been lost for a short time. Stan Coffman had 14 points against Stanton, David Jones paced the victors with 28.

The Indians hit the road Saturday and traveled to Farwell, but found the going tough there, as the Steers handed the Indians a 63-55 loss. Al Phillips scored 18 points for the winners, hitting four field goals in the third period as Farwell pulled away from the Indians, after leading only 28-25 at halftime. Morton led 17-11 after one period, but trailed by seven after three.

Morton showed their best balanced attack against Farwell as four of the Indians hit in double figures. M. C. Collins hit 17, Willis had 15, and Wayne Thompson and Bob Hawkins collected ten each.

Coach Ted Whillock has had to face the opening games without last year's B team star, Terry Harvey, who suffered a chipped-bone injury during football season. The situation went from bad to worse as Willis injured his knee, and was lost for this week's action. And if that were not enough, M. C. Collins suffered a twisted ankle in Monday's workout and was forced to miss Tuesday night's game.

★ No one-way

Morton's only one-way street, East Wilson, extending from Highway 214 to Northeast First St., is being eliminated. Beginning Friday, November 29, the street will be open to two-way traffic, according to word received from Morton City Hall.

Contrary to the printed schedule, Saturday night's basketball game with Littlefield will be played on the Littlefield court. Morton will host the Wildcats on January 10.

The Indians will be at home against Seagraves Tuesday, December 2.

New M.D. for Morton will begin practice December 1

Beginning December 1, Morton and this area will have the full-time services of another medical practitioner in the person of William McCoy Dean, M. D., aged 39, married and the father of four children.

Doctor Dean, together with his wife, Anne, and children, Hope, 11; Bill, 10; Buford, 8 and Joy, 6, will be busily getting moved this weekend to 702 SW 1st Street here in Morton from Muleshoe, where they have resided for the past six years during which time the doctor engaged in the practice of medicine in connection with the Green Memorial Hospital in that city. He will be associated with the Cochran Memorial Hospital here.

Their residence at the First street address will probably be of short duration as they plan to build a home of their own in the very near future on one of two lots purchased recently.

Doctor Dean and his wife are former Alabamians. He was born at Birmingham and received his B. S. degree from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa, his M.D. from the University of Alabama Medical Center, Birmingham and also served his internship in Birmingham at Carraway Methodist Hospital. His military experience includes a hitch with the U.S. Air Force, 1956-59, during which he was stationed at Anchorage, Alaska. He practiced medicine at Littlefield for 18 months and also an 18-month period of time at Demopolis, Ala.

Mrs. Dean, the former Miss Anne St. John, hails from Troy, Alabama, is a graduate of Abilene (Texas) Christian College, and is a qualified former school teacher.

Church of Christ is their denominational choice and will probably become active in church affairs as soon as they are settled in Morton.

Dr. Dean is a member of the Texas Medical Association, the American Medical Association, the American Academy of General Practice and the Lamb-Bailey-Hockley-Cochran Counties Medical Society.

Dr. Dean says he has no hobbies, as such, but that he enjoys hunting, golf fishing, and photography.

In a short interview with the good doctor and his charming family, it was brought out that they were impressed with the "friendliness of the people and the modern hospital facilities" here in Morton and it can be expected that the Dean family will soon become an integral part of the community and its activities.

One of the Dean's four children, two boys and two girls, was quick to ask if Morton had a swimming pool and where it was located.

In our conversation with the Deans we stated that we thought we could very well use another all around medical practitioner and he assured us that he would cooperate toward that end. We are sure Dr. Dean, during his years of Texas practice, has become acquainted with many good doctors and it is just possible that he may be influential in bringing still another doctor in to serve this area.

The Morton Tribune takes this opportunity to express a hearty welcome to this well-balanced family to our midst and assure them that we will do everything possible to make them quickly feel at home.

Cotton trailers waiting . . .

THIS SCENE of full cotton trailers on an area gin lot was repeated many times over the South Plains last weekend as a result of a few days' respite from unfavorable weather last week. This week it is a different story with cloudiness and spitting snow flurries hindering operations. Much cotton remains to be harvested and about two weeks of fair weather is needed to complete the year's harvest of a good crop.

Control of nematodes demonstration results soon to be known

The job of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is primarily that of teaching as an educational agency. The teaching of information to extension workers is based on agricultural research and training. Extension workers take the results of investigation of the state agricultural colleges, experiments stations, USDA and other findings and apply them to individual farms and farm homes in the various communities.

To bring field crop practices closer to the Crop Result Demonstrations are part of the Extension education program. These Result Demonstrations were conducted this past year concerning Nematode Control on cotton on the Noel farm east of Morton. The Nematode Control demonstration was conducted with the co-operation of Noel Crow, Lubbock Texas Experiment Station and USDA personnel and the local County Agent. The demonstration included experimental materials as well as recommended chemicals and mixtures. All of the materials put out on the Crow farm were put down in an effort to evaluate their effectiveness in controlling the nematodes and in turn their effectiveness in respect to increase yield and quality of the cotton.

Many Cochran County farmers have had nematode problems in years past and know how to cope with them but many farmers are just becoming familiar with the problem since their damage is increasing and spreading each year. Cochran County Agent Roy McClung states that there are over 300,000 acres badly infested on the South Plains of Texas and that nematodes do cost the farmers of the South Plains some 20 million dollars annually. The Agent went on to say that the nematodes not only hurt the bales, which 1/4 to 1/2 bale decrease is not uncommon, but also affect the quality of the cotton does not mature as it should. The nematodes also do extensive damage to the cotton in wasted efficiency as they do not let the crop get herbicides, insecticides, etc.

McClung stated that in the Crop Result Demonstration farmers volunteer their labor and equipment to test and demonstrate new ideas for the benefit of their community. Results of the Crow demonstration and other Cochran County Result Demonstrations are in the process of being tabulated and will be made available to all interested people requesting them at the local Extension Office.

Nematode control results . . .

GATHERING AND WEIGHING sacks of cotton from two identically measured rows of cotton will produce the results of a nematode control demonstration on the Crow farm east of Morton. Accurate results from different control measures of applied nematode deterrents will be obtained from the demonstration.

Another effort to raise money for the fund will be made on Sunday, December 1. A special radio program will be broadcast on the Morton Radio station, KRAN. It will begin at 1:00 p.m. and will end at sign-off time.

All interested persons are asked to call in their donations whether large or small for this so-deserving cause. The names and donations of the donors will be broadcast as they call, or if preferred the caller may use "Mr. Anonymous."

Another phase of the program is that a business will call to extend a donation and at the same time challenge a competing or another business to meet or exceed the contribution. The businesses of the Morton area are urged to contribute to the fund and extend a challenge. Girls from Girlstown will answer the phones and will pick up the donations if desired, or they may be mailed to Box 35, Whiteface. Please make all checks payable to Girlstown, U.S.A.

The Morton Tribune will publish a complete list of the donations and the donors immediately after the contest is held.

WINDBREAKS

Now is the time to start ordering trees and planning a farm windbreak. Everyone that has lived in Texas for awhile knows that we have our share of wind, and with the wind comes snow and dust. You can cut down the amount of snow and dust blowing in and around your farm by establishing a row of trees or several rows of trees. Not only will the trees protect farmsteads they can be planted to give protection to livestock. A cow or horse will get out of the wind when it is cold, if they have a place that is protected from the wind. Windbreaks well established will help cut down heating expense during the windy cold days by breaking the wind and cutting down the speed and force in which it hits your farm house.

Windbreaks can be used by wildlife for protection and provide a place for your dove and quail hunters to hunt. Feeders could be placed in a windbreak to provide feed for wild birds during the winter months.

There are several things to consider before planting a windbreak, such as size of trees, width in which they should be spaced a part, and the Species of trees you prefer. Some trees need specific soils and you should check to see what species of trees would be suited for your soil. Windbreaks should be planted to give protection from the North, west and southwest winds. All wind breaks should have at least one row of evergreen trees, they will provide more winter protection and give a wall effect for protection. The outside row of trees should be 100 feet from the buildings, and no further than 300 feet. Trees can be planted from February through April.

The young trees will take some extra care until they are well established. Plant only healthy well rooted seedlings. Gallon tin cans placed around the seedlings will protect the trees from wind and rabbits. Windbreaks should be protected from fire and livestock.

For further information about planting trees and buying trees go by the Soil Conservation Service office and talk to one of the technicians. He will be glad to help you.

Trees can be purchased from the Indian Mound Nursery, Alto, Texas. The County Agent has purchase orders in his office.

Putting forth a Real effort

A child's first attempts at printing require deep concentration and great effort. However, with patience and practice he becomes more adept and lettering is easier. Then he is ready for the next step, learning to write.

The Lord expects us to put forth an effort to improve ourselves.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The members were allowed to choose a teacher from the elementary, junior high, or high schools to substitute for, Monday a day of observation where the FTA members sat in on their teacher's classes, Tuesday the teaching was actually up to these members. To teach, a member was to have paid his club dues, attended most of the meetings, and have an average of 85. Tuesday teachers were allowed to visit other schools of their choice to observe the teaching methods.

Hi all, and Happy Thanksgiving! I hope everyone is well and remembers to remember what Thanksgiving is all about. We do have an awful lot to be thankful for, but sometimes amidst all our troubles we forget.

The total mood around MHS before the 'holidaze' began was simply "blah"! We all seem to have gotten a bad case of the slows, but I'm sure things will perk up after we get rested over the long week end.

The MHS Indians started off the season of basketball last Friday night as they faced Stanton in the home gym. But, unfortunately, the season got off to a bad start as the B-team came out on the bottom of the score, 66 to 45, and the varsity in turn was on bottom with a score of 68 to 56. Then Saturday night the Indians traveled on to Farwell, but still the B-team was unlucky and the varsity just with the final score reading 63 to 55. However, the teams played much better ball than expected, since they had only had one week of workouts together before their first game.

It is the general opinion that by the time of district play, the teams will have more experience and will be coming on strong toward winning the district championship.

The next game scheduled is here with Littlefield, Saturday, November 30. Then comes Seagraves here Monday, December 2. Y'all come now, y'hear?

The MHS band is selling their fruit cakes again this year. This money is to finance their trip in the spring either to Six Flags or Enid, Oklahoma. They would sure appreciate any help you could give them by buying these cakes. Contact any band member and they'll be glad to sell you either a 2-, 3-, or 5-pound cake, or for that matter all three! Thank you.

You need to keep in mind the production that a community choir and orchestra is putting on in December. The program is Handel's "Messiah". Any of you that haven't heard this musical collection have really missed something and should try to make it to this performance. The choir rehearses every Sunday afternoon at 4:00 in the band hall. The orchestra is made up of some woodwinds and brass from the MHS band and hired strings from Portales.

Well, I guess that's about it for this week. Y'all be careful if you go anywhere over the holidays and don't become a statistic! See you later!

MHS Band selling fruit cakes

The MHS band has launched its annual Thanksgiving and Christmas fruit cake sales. The proceeds from this sale will go into the band's trip fund, which will be used to take the band to either the Six Flags band festival or the Enid, Oklahoma music festival next spring. About $1000 profit is needed from the sale, and the band would like to come as close to this amount as is possible.

The cakes are Manor Texas Fruit Cakes, and are "unconditionally" guaranteed to be fresh and delicious. The ingredients contain absolutely no citron, peel or spices. They come boxed in re-useable containers and make the perfect gift as well as a special dessert for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners.

The cakes come in three sizes: 2.3, or 5-pound. The 2-pound cakes are $3.75, 3-pound are $5.25, and the 5-pound are $7.50. Cakes may be bought from any band member. Your purchases will be appreciated. Buy now while there are plenty left!

Y.M. Study Club met in D. Redman home

The Y. M. Study Club met November 21, in the home of Mrs. Dalton Redman. Mrs. Weldon Wynn reviewed the book "Lawrence Welk, Champagne Music Man" by Gladys Qehnpfenning. Lawrence was born to Ludwig and Christina Welk on March 11, 1903, on the plains of North Dakota. There were good and bad years on the farm. The children were given ten cents a year to spend. Music was the minor interest with work the major interest. Lawrence only went to school four years. He suffered appendicitis and clung to life for days and didn't return to school because his father said no farmer needed reading, writing, and arithmetic. At 17 he told his parents if they would buy him a fine $400.00 accordion he would work on the farm until he was 21 and would pay back every cent he earned playing for dances and celebrations. Lawrence played only by ear. He and his friend, Max Fichtner teamed up and played dances, weddings, and celebrations. Sometimes they had very little money for food.

On April 18, 1931, he married a student nurse, Fern Renner and they had two girls and a boy. In 1938, the struggling accordionist entered the "big name bands" Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music.

Many honors have befallen him, he played for President Dwight Eisenhower's inaugural celebrations, also received three gold records, and an honorary Doctor's Degree in Music.

Following the program, Mrs. Deryl Bennett and Mrs. Max Clark presided over a short business meeting. Members present were Mrs. Herman Bedwell, Mrs. Deryl Bennett, Mrs. Max Clark, Mrs. Robbie Key, Mrs. Dexter Nebhut, Mrs. Bob Robinson, Mrs. Billy Weems, Mrs. Weldon Wynn, and the hostess, Mrs. Redman.

Johnson, a Baptist Minister from Pineapple, Alabama, author of the book is not too sure that Browning was right when he said, "Grow old along with me — the best is yet to be —." He holds that a "preacher need not throw in the sponge, when his calendar and his wife, tell him that he's fifty, but he'd better take careful note of the fact and do something about it or he'll find himself on the shelf or in a rest home."

Refreshments were served to the club members and one guest, Mrs. R. L. De-Busk.

The group then went to the home of Cassandra Reeder where Cassandra and Jeanie Coker served the main meal consisting of french fries, steak, gravy, green beans, hot rolls, and tea.

A skit was given before the girls moved again. This time it was to the home of Judy Steed for dessert. After the dessert, peach cobbler and ice cream, the girls sang songs and played games before making plans for Christmas.

Your first thought is that Chevy is a good looking pickup . . .

3/2-ton Fleetside pickup

Here are some second thoughts:

work truck

We could add hobby hauler to the list. Chevy trucks are great for rock hounding. Collecting antiques. Etcetera.

The point is: They're as versatile as anything on the road. Or off. Especially, four-wheel drive versions. They go anywhere.

Wherever you go, you go in style. Sleek front end features a new aluminum grille. In back, there's a new 8 1/2-ft. box on some models. Great for big campers.

Great under the hood, too. Six or V8. Standard on V8 models is a big 307 cubic-inch.

Under the rugged chassis, coil springs take care of bumps. Inside, thick foam seats take care of you.

There's a lot more. And more you can order. Like: power steering and air conditioning. See your Chevrolet dealer for all the facts and the good word on low price.

Chevrolet is more truck . . . day in, day out, day off
