Elections inject new faces

NOTHING LIKE A GOOD SNOOZE between shows to put the sparkle back into an old trouper's performance and the above pachyderm is trouper enough to know how to take a catnap any time and any place that he can get it. It must have been refreshing because his performance in the two performances of the Fisher Brothers Circus held here Tuesday night were thoroughly enjoyed by the kids of all ages who attended them.

Two new faces were introduced to the local political scene as the result of the three elections held here Saturday.

Tommy Combs, student and local radio station staff member, squeaked by on a one vote margin to defeat Dr. N.L. Dubberly, the incumbent for the city council seat in Place Five.

Mrs. Leonard Coleman, Morton homemaker, won a seat on the Morton Independent School District Board of Trustees as she polled 132 votes, the high among the five candidates for the two available posts. Ronald Coleman, no relation to Mrs. Coleman, the incumbent, won the right to succeed himself on the school board by polling 116 votes.

The race for all other posts, two city council seats and two Cochran Memorial Hospital District Board of Governors seats, all went to their incumbents.

The election of Mrs. Coleman to the school board brings to two the number of female members presently serving, a condition not seen in the district before. With one female member of the city council elected in 1972, another unusual condition, it gives an indication of the inroads women are making into the local political scene.

Winners of the hospital board seats, both incumbents, are Elmer Gardner in Precinct One and Jack R. French in the county at-large race. French was not opposed and polled 464 votes. In Precinct One, Gardner drew 148 votes to 52 for Tobe Hendon who was opposing him.

The race for the city council seat in Precinct Five was a nip and tuck battle all the way to poll closing time, with Tommy Combs finally winning it by a margin of 90-89 over incumbent Dr. N.L. Dubberly.

In Place Three Tobe Hendon, incumbent, was unopposed and polled 152 votes. In Place Four, incumbent Jerry Schaeffer outpolled Joe Bowers by a vote of 137-47 to retain his seat.

Others in the school board received the Lubbock slates major water meeting today

Mississippi water for West Texas and Eastern New Mexico? That question comes into sharp focus today when three federal agencies reveal full details of their more than five years of intensive study at a public briefing in Lubbock.

The disclosures come at a 2 p.m. public meeting at the KoKo Palace Convention Center, 50th and Ave. Q. Officers and directors of Water, Inc., will host the briefing, expected to attract more than 200 area residents.

Miller DOA Asia tour set

A Cochran county man has been selected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to serve on a cotton sales mission that will travel to the Far East in an effort to boost cotton exports to that part of the world. Lloyd C. Miller, farm manager for the C.C. Slaughter Farms in Cochran county, will be a member of the team that visits Japan and South Korea.

Miller will depart Lubbock by air on April 25 and will travel via Dallas, Honolulu, Hawaii to Tokyo, Japan and Seoul, Korea and will return on the same reverse route for arrival in Lubbock on May 14.

Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Buttz announced that two cotton sales missions will visit countries in Western Europe and the Far East in April and May to promote sales of U.S. cotton. This effort is part of a continuing drive to expand exports of cotton.

The two cotton sales teams, sponsored jointly by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Cotton Council International, will leave Washington during the last week in April and return to the U.S. in mid-May.

Cotton Council International is the overseas counterpart of the National Cotton Council of America for cotton market development abroad. Each team will divide into two groups.

In Western Europe, one group will cover Portugal, Spain, Italy, and Austria, and the other Denmark, Norway, Sweden, and Finland. In the Far East, one will go to Japan and Korea and the other to Taiwan and Hong Kong.

The European countries to be visited imported 2 million bales of cotton during the 1971-72 crop year and the Far Eastern countries imported 5.3 million bales.

CHAMPIONS ALL accurately describes the four tennis players above as they were photographed shortly after the two doubles teams had won the District 3-AA championship in a district tournament held on the

Annual Easter egg hunt set

Plans were finalized this week for the big annual Easter egg hunt sponsored jointly by the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, KRAN Radio Station and the Morton Tribune.

The plans call for the coloring and hiding of upward of 5,000 eggs on the grounds at the radio station and the hunt itself, to be conducted in three parts by age groups.

Date for the hunt was set for the day before Easter, Saturday, April 21 to begin at 10 a.m. A number of prize eggs will be donated by the various Morton merchants and the finding of an egg marked for a prize will bring a valuable gift from that merchant.

All children through age 12 are invited to join the hunt.
 Any additional information can be obtained by contacting the chamber office, Radio Station KRAN or the Morton Tribune.

MHS district tennis champs

The Indian tennis team successfully defended its district championship here last Thursday by edging Littlefield for team-points 49-40.

Morton ended the tournament with two first places and one second. Defending district champions and last year's regional finalist, Ralph Mason and David Barrera, repeated last year's feat, but had an easier time, losing a total of five games in the whole tournament. In the finals they bested Chuck Robinson and David Bleivins of Littlefield 6-0, 6-1.

The finals of girl's doubles was an all Morton affair as Julie Brown and Sherita

Highlights and sidelights from the State Capital

By Bill Boykin
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex.—The first of major reform bills before the 63rd Legislature—strengthening of "Open requirements"—has reached the desk of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

The House quickly accepted Senate amendments, sending the measure (HB 3) on to the Governor.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed a version of the "shield bill" to protect newsmen's sources of information from forced disclosure—except on State Supreme Court order. The Senate revision providing that citizens may bring mandamus action to reveal sources dommed the bill (HB 10) to conference committee delay.

A second reform bill (HB 8) backed by House Speaker Price Daniel Jr.—to require detailed reporting on contributions and spending in speakership races—also landed on the Governor's desk. The senate passed it with only minor amendment, and the House concurred.

Sponsors of the new open meetings law term it marked improvement over the present statute, although it would still permit closed executive sessions of governing agencies for these purposes:

Discussions of personnel matters including evaluation, consultation with attorneys on pending or contemplated litigation or settlement offers, talks about real estate purchase, exchange, lease or sale, negotiated contracts for gifts or donations, and school board strategy plans for consultation with employees. Social functions could be kept private as long as no official action is taken and no formal agenda items are deliberated.

Fines up to $500 and jail terms up to six months are provided for known violations.

The House approved Daniel's final reform bill (HB 4) voting 140-3 to set up a State Ethics Commission to supervise tough new campaign finance reporting.

RIGHT TO REPLY BILL HEARD IN SENATE—Houston Senator Walter Mengden's bill which would require newspapers to provide a "right to reply" to political stories and editorials was heard by the Senate Jurisprudence Committee last week.

Senator Mengden copied the bill after the Florida law—which has been ruled unconstitutional by a County Judge in Daytona Beach, Florida and a Circuit Court and Appeals Court in Dade County, Florida. The Dade County decision is now on appeal in the Florida State Supreme Court. The Houston Senator quoted so-called "attacks" on him by newspapers in his district, and felt he was entitled to reply to those attacks in the news columns of the newspapers. He cited the "equal time" doctrine of the broadcasting media under existing Federal law.

His measure, SB 541 would require newspapers to publish, free of cost any reply a candidate "may make thereto in as conspicuous a place and in the same kind of type as the matter that calls for such reply."

Mengden did not have enough votes to get the bill out of committee, but Senators present did vote 2-2 not to send it to subcommittee and 5-2 to approve the bill and send it to the full Senate for a vote. Senate rules required seven votes to report the bill out, and many of the Senators were not in the meeting at the time of the vote.

The bill was opposed by the Texas Press Association on the grounds that it was unconstitutional.

INSURANCE CUT BILL OFFERED—State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie has recommended legislation which he said may reduce auto insurance rates.

The bill would permit some competition in rate-making, though not wide open competition.

Texas is the only state which retains the system of fixed rates set on a yearly basis by the state regulatory agency.

Two House members, Reps. Don Caviness of Austin and Ben Bynum of Amarillo, are pushing a straight-out competitive rating bill (HB 64).

Christie, a former senator, informally has requested the Legislature to hold off on the rating proposals until the Board has a chance to offer its own recommendations.

SCHOOL PLANS AHEAD—Alternative plans for overhauling the public school finance formula and rechanneling nearly $2 billion in public spending received a five-hour House committee hearing.

Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale, the Education Committee chairman, predicted best features of four bills will be incorporated into one and reported back to the House by April 19 or April 26.

A U.S. Supreme Court ruling last month that the Texas system of financing its schools is not unconstitutional virtually assured no final action on a reform plan this session. But a House test vote on one of the overhaul proposals is anticipated.

COURTS SPEAK—The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed an El Paso murder conviction of a housewife who shot her husband because the trial judge did not instruct the jury to consider self defense.

Texas Public Employees Association is testing in federal court the Internal Revenue Service's right to levy income taxes on the mandatory contributions made by active state employees to their retirement system. The suit seeks to recover about $15 million in taxes paid since 1968.

The State Supreme Court affirmed lower court rulings upholding a retired Dallas school teacher's $10,000 bequest to National Cancer Foundation Inc. of New York.

Fourteenth Court of Civil Appeals reversed lower courts and ruled the Moody Foundation of Galveston should have just three trustees, and that Mrs. Mary Moody Northern has authority to fill two vacancies on the board as the only valid trustee at present.

AG OPINIONS—Two Bexar County legislators cannot continue their teaching jobs in public junior colleges, under a new attorney general's opinion.

In other recent opinions, Atty. Gen. John Hill held:

Failure of bills specifically to prohibit discrimination in insurance rates based solely on sex does not render them unconstitutional.

Bid documents for an armory at Fort Sam Houston are ambiguous, and bids submitted under them should not be accepted.

Texas A&I University has authority to receive as a gift property located in Kingsville for use directors feel advisable, and directors feel can purchase or lease a 26-acre tract for the A&I Citrus and Vegetable Training Center at Weslaco.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:
Thanks for the Morton Tribune. We really enjoy it, had it not been for James' eyes, we would still be living there. We raised our family there and it will always be home. We really enjoy visiting everyone when we do get to come home. James' eye operation has helped, so he can once again see what things look like. This is an invitation to people from Morton who come this way to stop by and fish or visit with us. We'd enjoy it.

Thanks
Mr. and Mrs. James Butler

Graham, Texas 76046

It is high time the Morton public and the citizens of Cochran County be told the news "like it is" and quite being fed the candy-coated accounts concerning the school board's actions on teacher contracts.

I refer to last week's story about the board accepting the "resignations" of several of our teachers. This is only a half-truth. The teachers resigned alright, but after they found out their contracts would not be renewed for next year.

It would seem only fair to advise the teacher that his contract would be inequity if he didn't correct the "unsatisfactory" characteristics of his teaching. Have there been cases where contracts have not been renewed with NO OPPORTUNITY for the teacher to mend his ways BEFORE the board vote?

One of the most important jobs of the school district is to weed out ineffective and unsatisfactory teachers. Who decides if a teacher is "ineffective" or "unsatisfactory"? Shouldn't this job be given to the principals or the superintendent who associates with the teacher every day. How many of last week's "resignations" were recommended for rehiring by the administration and denied by the board? What were the reasons for failure to rehire these teachers?

It would seem that our principals and other administrative personnel should be well qualified by their education and school experience to judge a teacher and may purchase tenure in the state judicial retirement system.

APPOINTMENTS—Governor Briscoe appointed Houston attorney David D. Allen to the State Securities Board. Allen has served on the State Board of Corrections since 1967.

Briscoe reappointed H.H. Coffield of Rockdale to the Board of Corrections.

He named Charles Borchers of Laredo as 49th district attorney for Webb County to succeed Carlos Castillon of Laredo who resigned.

Hill picked his first assistant attorney general Larry York, formerly of Palestine, to succeed Judge John M. Barron of Bryan who resigned due to illness.

BUDGET NEAR SHOWDOWN—Biennial state budgets totaling more than $9.7 billion are nearing action stages in the House and Senate.

Committees have wrapped up their show-down decisions.

Governor Briscoe has insisted on a two-year appropriations bill down the line, although budget-writers are undecided how to handle uncertainty over federal welfare requirements and availability of federal funds.

his performance. Why do we need people to make teacher evaluations, board, by refusing to rehire them, effect saying we don't trust their judgement on this particular person? Any action to overrule these men and women to whom we entrust the education of our most prized possessions should be based on strong, true, evidence, not coffee-shop gossip, slanders, exaggerations, or personal vendettas. How much of this strong, true evidence was presented to our "resigning" teachers BEFORE their contracts were not renewed by the board? Were they given a chance to explain their side, correct the situation BEFORE damage was done?

Why shouldn't the public be aware why a teacher they admire is not going to teach here next year. The truth should prevail no matter whose toes get stepped on. If a teacher can't stand the truth, he needs to go elsewhere; if a board member can't stand the truth.....

It has been said that the way members vote is kept relatively secret because of "adverse pressure" exerted on them if their positions become public knowledge. If the pressure is in the interest of the school, then board members should react to it. Isn't that what a democracy is??? Aren't the representatives of the people supposed to be pressured and petitioned to do the best of their constituents???

If the pressures exerted are not in the best interests of the school, in the opinion of the particular board member, then he should be able to make independent decisions without fear of "pressure" "downtown" or a boycott of a business.

What would you think of a person who used economic power to force a board member to vote against his wishes? This is true, how many responsible, dedicated citizens will make available their time to serve on the board where these members grow tired of serving?

It has also been said that we have elite group of powerful people who right of "Divine Rule" exert their will and pressures on the citizens of Morton and the Board. This may be characteristic of a "small town," but we have reached a rotten state if the opinion of a few people becomes the final law. People are hired and fired by. If this is true, why don't these people advertise facts to all new citizens coming into town can bow down and keep their jobs???

Several new teachers will be coming into Morton next year to teach our children. Morton will be lucky to get replacements as talented and devoted as, sometimes losing this year; especially if the gets around about how some teachers over here just "resign" out of the blue sky.

The only purpose of this letter is to let the people of this community to take a long, sincere (not critical) look at our school.

Answer this final question: ————— if you satisfied the school is being sent to ALL the children in the best possible OR are a few "feudal barons" who have axes to grind dictating directly on they want the school to grow?????

An interested citizen who has the best possible educational system for Morton.

Norman Flaigg, Bureau of Reclamation area planning officer, Austin, will direct the presentation. Flaigg directed the Bureau's study in conjunction with the Corps of Engineers and the Mississippi River Commission. He will be joined by representatives of those agencies in the presentation.

Proposals to import water to the High Plains of Texas and New Mexico were undertaken by the three agencies more than five years ago and Congress has provided more than $7 million to finance the investigation. Periodic engineering reports have been made at various Water, Inc., meetings, however, virtually none of the economic findings have been revealed. Flaigg said the Lubbock briefing will include all facets of the investigation findings.

Water, Inc., President A.L. Black, Friona, has issued a special invitation to all interested persons to attend the briefing. "The three agencies have pressed on in their studies, sometimes in the most trying of circumstances," Black said, "and we can do no less than show our gratitude by attending the presentation of the findings."

Black has called a meeting of the Water, Inc., board of directors in conjunction with the public briefing.

TENNIS FROM PAGE ONE

Fluitt defeated JoAnn Whitehead and Kathy Mason 7-5, 6-1.

Both the boys and girls doubles qualified for the regional tournament to be held April 12-13 in Odessa.

Other regional qualifiers were Monte Whitwood of Olton in boy's singles and Toni Gardner of Littlefield in girl's singles.

Chitwood defeated Morton's Jr. Fitts and Gardner defeated Morton's Prescilla Minor, both in the first round. Another Morton entry, Leo Rice, lost to Paul Askey of Dimmitt in the semifinals. Rice gained the semis by beating Terry Thompson of Friona in a hard-played match.

Indian freshmen did well as all four teams won their first matches before bowing out. Wyn Crone and Earlene Evans beat a team from Dimmitt, then lost in the semifinals to district champion Littlefield in a close match that could have gone either way.

The other three teams all lost in the finals, Joey Bryan to Littlefield,

The other three teams all lost in the finals, Joey Bryan to Littlefield, Schelle Key to Littlefield and the doubles team, David Ramby and Randy Coleman to Olton.

The Jr. High Indians also captured two firsts as Susan Cadenhead won girl's singles and Kathy Cook — Raylene Wells won girl's doubles.

The one-day affair drew 106 entries from five district schools and was played on a perfect day for tennis.

Together three countries accounted for 40 percent of world cotton imports.

"Exports are traditionally an important aspect of total distribution of the U.S. crop. The efforts of these teams will be aimed at obtaining an expanded share of world trade for United States cotton," Secretary Butz said.

He noted that farmers have recently indicated intentions to plant 13.1 million acres of cotton in 1973, 7 percent less than the 14 million acres planted last year, but he said this should be adequate to supply foreign markets.

"U.S. cotton exports must be maintained at reasonable levels in order to support a vigorous cotton industry and to protect income of cotton farmers," the Secretary said. "Our export markets account for the production from one out of every three acres of harvested cotton."

"It is important that representatives of the U.S. cotton industry maintain contact with foreign customers on a continuing basis. Through the sales team approach, the United States can demonstrate its ability and intent to sell actively in these markets. The goal of export sales problems and opportunities, and learn more about the interests of the customers and the competition with which U.S. cotton is faced."

Members of the Far East missions are: Japan and Korea: Robert G. Gardner, Memphis, Tenn., representing American Cotton Shippers Association (team leader); Lloyd C. Miller, Morton, Tex., cotton producer; and Joseph H. Stevenson, Chief, Foreign Marketing Branch, Cotton Division, Foreign Agricultural Service, USDA.

Taiwan and Hong Kong: David C. Brandon, Memphis, Tenn., representing American Cotton Shippers Association (team leader); Bernard E. Delafosse, Lubbock, Tex., representing AMCO; and Thomas W. Fink, Washington, D.C., representing Cotton Council International.

sense at all!" according to Ray Joe Riley of Hart, Texas. Riley is President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and a feeder of both cattle and lambs.

Just recently Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz told the House Committee on Agriculture that the Administration favors a farm law phasing out income supplement payments to farmers over a three year period "as we depend on a growing market demand to maintain farm income."

"How," asks Riley, "is a growing market demand going to maintain farm income if the Administration imposes price ceilings to keep that demand from increasing market prices?"

Cotton, feed grains and wheat, the three major commodities covered under present farm programs, are not affected, directly, by the meat price lid. "But it should be obvious that stockmen can't continue paying high prices for cottonseed meal and grain to fatten meat animals that must be sold under a price ceiling," Riley said.

"Nor do we have any assurance," he continued, "that the Administration won't yield to political pressures, as it has done in the case of meat, and impose ceilings on prices of other farm commodities if those prices should reach levels offering a fair return to producers."

ABOUT LOCAL FOLKS

by Dutch Gipson

Mrs. Terry from Roscoe is visiting with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Harrison this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Childs have returned from a visit with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nichols in Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cunningham were enroute to Amarillo Saturday night when the weather got so bad they couldn't see to drive. They stopped at a grocery store, Clay's Corner, north of Muleshoe. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay, graciously invited them to spend the night with them. Later in the evening another traveler enroute to New Mexico was stranded and he too stayed in the Clay home. It's bad to be stranded on a highway but if it should happen—hopefully it will be close to someone as gracious as Mr. and Mrs. Clay.

Miss Sheri Ann Holland of Houston accompanied her grandmother Mrs. James St. Clair home Sunday for several days of visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bedwell visited in Plainview over the week and with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bedwell and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Norris.

Directors and teachers elect of Missionary Baptist Bible School, which will be held in June, attended a preparatory workshop at Melonie Baptist Church in Lubbock Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cornwell, of Oklahoma City, arrived in Morton Monday for a short visit with their parents, the C.A. Bairds.

Those attending the Spring School of Instruction of Order of Eastern Star over the weekend, which convened Friday night and Saturday, were: Mr. and Mrs. Carol Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore, Mrs. T.A. Rowland, Mrs. Garvin Long, Mrs. Charlie Byars, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Newton. Possibly others of Morton Chapter attended the session.

parents and other relatives in Oklahoma.

Several members of First Missionary Baptist Church attended the Plains District W.M.A. Meeting Tuesday which convened at Terrace Hill Baptist Church in Odessa. Among those who went were Rev. and Mrs. Rois Standifer, Mrs. Truman Anglin and Miss Beverly Crisswell.

Last weekend the Amos Taylors hosted a reunion of his brothers honoring the 72nd birthday of Ben Taylor of Spur. Amos and seven other brothers gathered for the weekend celebration. Among those attending were: Ford Taylor and family and Johah Taylor all of Spur, George Taylor of Girard, Jack Taylor and family of Post, Donnie (Bunch) Taylor and family of Seagraves, Sam Taylor of Redding, Iowa, L.L. Taylor and family of Whiteface. Harry Taylor of Spur was unable to attend. The boys sister, Mrs. Ernest Arnold of Spur, passed away in 1971. Nieces, nephews and friends attending for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Taylor, Floyd Taylor, and Billie Faye Mimyard, all of Whiteface, Val Jo Walker and Jan Lewis of Levelland and Olan Herring of Brownfield. Also attending the dinner were Kenneth, Jerry, Cindy, Glenn and Lisa, the Amos Taylor's children.

Mrs. S.A. Ramsey returned this week from San Antonio where she had been visiting with her daughter and family.

Hints of beef purchases given

With everyone beefing about the high cost of beef, the Texas Department of Agriculture has come up with some information on how to get the most out of your beef dollar.

"It's all a part of our March and April promotion program for beef as well as turkey and onions through the Texas Agricultural Products—TAP—program," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

A beef chart showing the cuts of beef and cooking instructions for the various cuts.

A pamphlet "Stretching Your Beef Dollar" is available which goes into detail explaining how to best utilize beef.

This and other information on beef can be obtained free by writing John C. White, Texas Agriculture Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Box 1200, Austin, Texas 78711.

The TAP promotion program for beef will include distribution of posters relating to beef as well as television and radio spots. Information will also be distributed for the annual Texas Grain-Fed Beef Cook-off state-wide contest which last year attracted more than 7,000 entries.

Top prize is $500 for the best beef prepared, with $200 for each category winner. The contest is divided into categories: tender cuts, less tender cuts, and variety cuts. Entry blanks may be obtained at local retail food stores or by writing to the Texas Department of Agriculture. Deadline for entry is 30th.

"Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fulness of joy..."
PSALM 16:11

HERE IS THE PATH

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.
Luke 10:27

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long endure and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Massingill & Son Construction

Neil Tyler - Area Supervisor

In the estimate of many oilmen in this section of the state who have had Massingill & Son Construction, located on Morton Hwy. in Levelland, phone 894-4974 handle any of their general oil field construction work there is not a better, more well qualified constructor anywhere.

You can be assured that the job will be completed by competent men in the oil field industry with the best of materials and in the shortest time possible. Unlike so many other oil field construction companies this firm is noted for their reliability, and general businesslike policies.

They use only the latest equipment and tools and combine them with the most up to date construction practices of the day.

It is without hesitation, that we, the authors of this 1973 Town and Country Review take this time to make public our commendation to Massingill & Son Construction, and suggest to our readers that they have them handle their oil field construction needs.

County residents said in good financial shape

From a financial standpoint, residents of Cochran County are in better shape than for some time. As a whole, they have been living well on their means, spending much less than they have been earning. The extent to which they have been saving money aside is evidenced by the increase in their bank deposits, in their savings and loan accounts and in their purchases of U.S. savings bonds. In the past year alone, Cochran County families stashed away some $1,287,000 in assets of this type, it is estimated. Although this was well above their normal rate of saving, it was less than in previous years, when uncertainty about economic conditions in general led them to postpone most non-essential spending. As a result, their savings rose in record proportions.

The figures are based upon national findings reported by the Federal Reserve Board and the Commerce Department and upon the latest income and spending figures for the local area. As would be expected, they show that the amount a family saves is directly related, in most cases, to how much it has left after paying its bills for necessities. Those with very small incomes are able to save little or nothing, of course. They are hard pressed to get along at all, the way prices are rising. Families with net incomes of $7,000, after taxes, saved about 4.5 percent of it, on average, and those at the $10,000 level, approximately 6.2 percent. Beyond that, the proportion was considerably greater. In Cochran County, where the latest annual figures show average disposable income per household in the $12,000 to $13,000 range, the overall rate of savings is around 7.2 percent. It amounts to $900 per household.

Consumer alert

By Attorney General John L. Hill

Who is "the Consumer?" If you are reading this—the first of a series of articles which are being made available through your newspaper, you already know the answer: "The Consumer" is each and everyone of us. There is now way to break ranks, choose sides, and say, "Those are the consumers, and there are the others." The difference is only that some consumers are more watchful about their position in the marketplace. They know that their dollars are sought, not only by the honest businessman, but by operators who offer sales and services which they do not, or cannot deliver.

That is the reason I picked "The Consumer Alert," as the title for this column. It is my firm belief that every consumer—whether he or she is a service station attendant, or a secretary, or chairman of the board of a bank—can be an "alert" consumer if he receives adequate information about his legal rights, and that every consumer deserves to be protected when his rights are endangered.

Texas' Consumer Credit Code was enacted in an effort to help protect those rights, but in my opinion it is not adequate for the job that needs to be done. As Attorney General, it is my job and the job of my Consumer Protection Division to stand at the side of the deceived consumer to enforce the Deceptive Trade Practices Act of the Code, the Uniform Commercial Code, and other laws designed to give the consumer an even break—without breaking the honest businessman.

The assistant attorney general in the Consumer Protection Division receive between 30 and 40 consumer complaints each week in addition to those which are lodged with district and county attorneys; local consumer protection agencies and legal aid groups.

Our investigations show that many of the complaints reflect mere misunderstandings between consumer and creditor. The Attorney General's office is in a good position to "clear up" those misunderstandings, sometimes resulting in cancellation of contracts or refunds to the consumers.

Sometimes, however, legal action is necessary. In those cases, the only legal courses open to my office are 1) a court injunction—in which a judge orders the defendant to cease the practice complained of, or 2) obtaining a court-registered assurance of voluntary compliance, which the defendant does not actually admit to any wrong-doing, but says in effect, "I won't do it."

In either case, the action is tantamount to saying "Go—and sin no more." There is no avenue for restitution of the money lost by the consumer. In short, there is no real remedy for the injured consumer.

That does not offer sufficient protection for the victim of fraud in the marketplace. And, under present law, even if a consumer takes his individual problem to court, he has to prove injury, and prove that the action to which he objects occurred with intent to defraud, a difficult assignment under present law. And, he still cannot get monetary restitution.

Often, he cannot get legal representation, because most private attorneys are reluctant to add the cost of legal fees to the financial dilemma, since there is no chance for restitution, unless the client just insists on an expensive exercise in justice.

That is the reason your Attorney General has been testifying before committees of the Legislature for a bill which was proposed in the Texas Senate by Senator Oscar Mauzy of Dallas and Senator Bob Gammage of Houston, and in the House of Representatives Carl Parker of Port Arthur and Representative Arthur (Buddy) Temple of Diboll.

I feel that if my office is charged with enforcing consumer protection, we must have a fair and firm way of providing a realistic service.

Next week, I'll tell you about the proposal and what it can mean to strengthening our efforts to protect the innocent consumer against fraud.

A new vaccine is now available to reduce newborn calf losses resulting from a form of diarrhea caused by a reo-like virus.

Known as reo-viral calf diarrhea vaccine, the new product has been licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and is available to cattle producers through local veterinarians, says Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The new vaccine was developed and patented by the University of Nebraska.

Armstrong cautions producers to consult their local veterinarians before embarking on a massive vaccination program. "The new vaccine is not a cure-all for all types of diarrhea in young calves. However, vaccination could be especially helpful if a farmer has had previous trouble with calf losses from diarrhea during the first week of life.

"The key to successful use of the new vaccine is to vaccinate calves as soon as possible after they are born," emphasizes the veterinarian. "Vaccination after the first day of life probably won't stop diarrhea."

To vaccinate, the vaccine is mixed with a diluent in a syringe, the syringe needle is removed, and the vaccine is sprayed into the back of the calf's mouth.

The reoviruses (short for respiratory-enteric orphan viruses) which cause diarrhea in calves are common disease agents in both man and animals, points out Armstrong. They infect the digestive as well as the respiratory system but have not been definitely classified.

"The new vaccine should cut down considerably newborn calf losses caused by the reo-like viruses since there is no alternative way to prevent or treat this type of diarrhea in the young animals," adds the veterinarian.

EARL NIGHTINGALE
Narrating "Pursuit of Happiness"
By Winston K. Pendleton

The Beatitudes

NEW TAPE RECORDINGS OF "THE GREATEST MESSAGE"

An exciting new listening experience, a kind never before available on tape cassettes! That's what people are saying about "The Beatitudes," the new ENC program based on Win Pendleton's thought-provoking book, "Pursuit of Happiness."

Combining the perceptive insights and communications skills of Earl Nightingale and Win Pendleton in a format designed for repeated listening, this richly presented program pleases both the eye and the ear. You'll find it eagerly welcomed by church groups, civic, service and educational institutions, and the many interested individuals who, irrespective of religious affiliation, have long sought a concise, easily understandable lay language interpretation of the Beatitudes of the Sermon on the Mount.

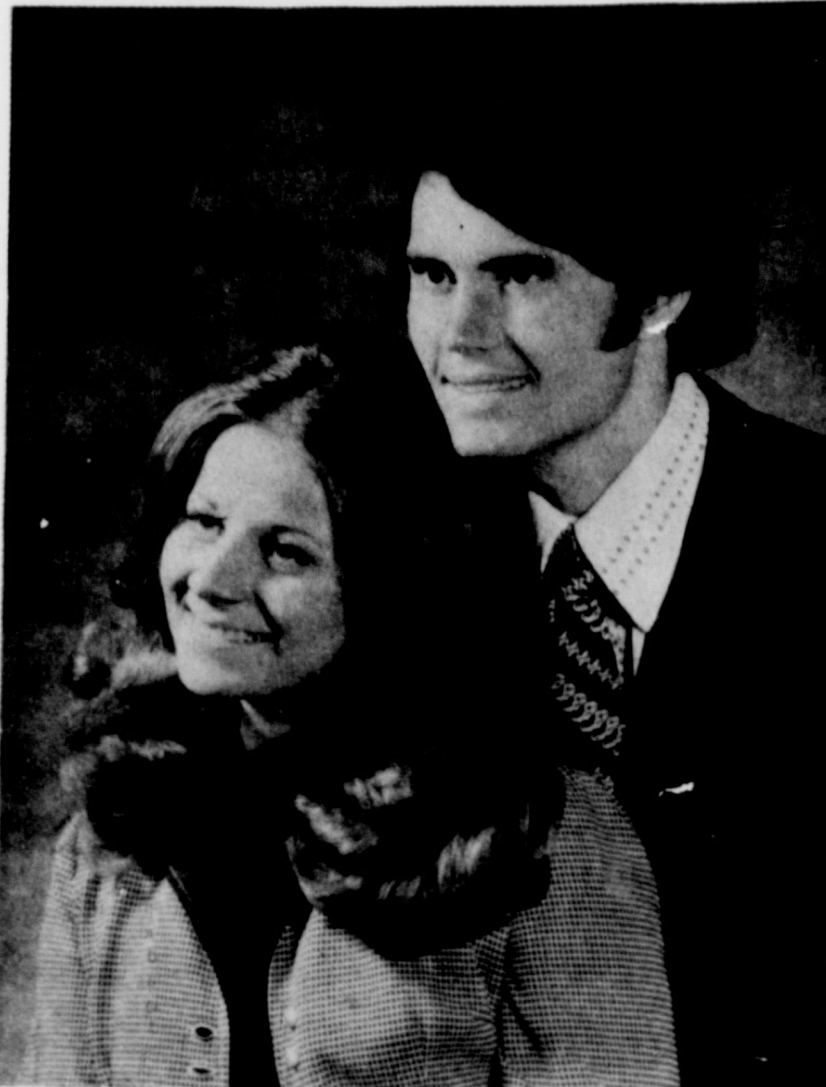

Winston K. Pendleton, author of "Pursuit of Happiness," has enjoyed a long and highly successful career as a business executive, newspaperman, public relations consultant and public speaker. A leading church layman, Mr. Pendleton for ten years wrote the syndicated newspaper column "Washington See-Saw" before "retiring" to Windermere, Florida, his present home. Written in a highly personal, delightfully readable style, the original work grew out of Win Pendleton's long-felt desire to relate the Beatitudes and their meaning to current, everyday situations. Hurdling semantic barriers, it interprets for inquiring laymen of all faiths these familiar passages, and submits logical solutions for problems relating to what has been called the "attitude philosophy" of Jesus.

Now in this handsome new form, the cassette tape version by Earl Nightingale, "The Beatitudes" becomes a memorable experience—a practical system for making these principles of happiness a habit-knit part of one's daily life.

The complete program includes six gold-embossed cassettes (12 sides) narrated by Earl Nightingale plus a copy of the Win Pendleton book, "Pursuit of Happiness"—all permanently packaged in an especially beautiful Bible-style maroon album with heavy gold-embossed, soft-edge cover with strap lock. Truly a volume to be cherished in every home.

Water damage to highways high

Abnormal weather conditions during the winter 1972-73 resulted in approximately $28.4 million damage to highways throughout the State. Some late-developing damage may be disclosed later.

A survey just completed by the Texas Highway Department indicated that extensive freeze-thaw damage was reported virtually throughout the State. In addition, two Districts — Pharr and Beaumont — reported extensive wet weather damage approximating $850 thousand and $900 thousand, respectively.

Reports of damage in the Department's 25 Districts ranged upward to $10 million in the Amarillo District. Each Highway District is comprised of approximately 10 counties.

Estimates of the more extensive freeze-thaw damage in some representative Districts included:

El Paso, $2.1 million; Fort Worth, $1 million; Lubbock, $1.5 million; Abilene, $6.5 million; Amarillo, $10 million; Waco, $1.4 million; Austin, $1.2 million; Bryan, $950 thousand; Odessa, $700 thousand; Lufkin, 750 thousand; Corpus Christi, $600 thousand; Lufkin $750 thousand and Brownwood, $900 thousand.

Extent of winter damage will result in some other highway construction projects being deferred to complete the weather-induced repairs to prevent more extensive loss.
