NUMBER 43

County redistricting completed

Effective date
January 1, 1974

With the adoption of a formal resolution at the Cochran county commissioners court meeting on August 13, Cochran county became redistricted on a one-man-one-vote basis. There remains four precincts, but the boundaries have been completely revised so as to give each precinct an equal as possible number of residents, and number of miles of county maintained roads.

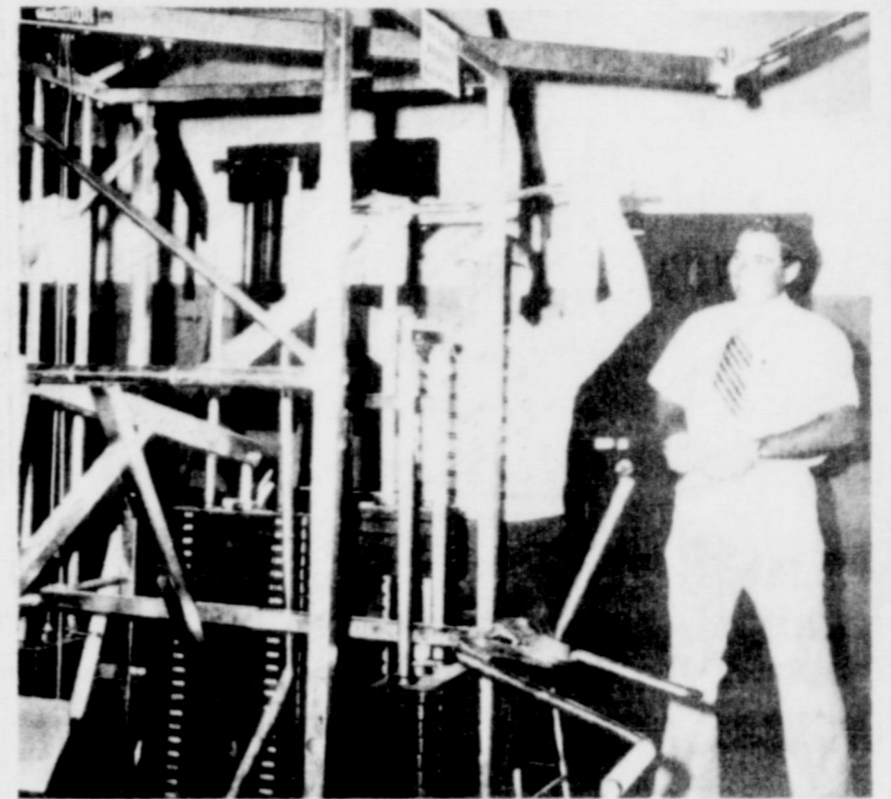

The redistricting operation, which was begun by the commissioners in March, is in conformance with the 1968 Supreme Court decision handed down in the test case of Hank Avery VS Midland County, Texas. The decision holds, among other things, that a voter has the right to a vote for the commissioners' court of substantially equal weight to the vote of every other resident—hence, the one-man-one-vote concept.

Prior to the redistricting, the city of Morton, entirely in precinct one, held approximately 70 percent of the county's population, with the other three dividing up the remaining 30 percent. By dividing Morton among all four precincts and apportioning certain rural areas on an even basis populationwise, the four precincts have very nearly equal numbers of residents.

Final approval of the redistricting plan brought to a close long months of hard work for the individual commissioners who were charged with the responsibility of taking a census of their precincts, measuring the miles of roadway and in working out their individual method for redistricting. All these were put together by the commissioners court and the final solution worked out in several joint meetings.

Inside in the Tribune there are two large maps that outline the new precinct boundaries, one within the city of Morton and the other for the rural areas of the county. Voters may study these maps and figure out which precinct he will be voting in when the redistricting goes into effect on January 1, 1974.

THE TORTURE WRACK is what the Morton High School athletes call the above exercise machine which they must work out on regularly. The multiple-station exerciser was installed in the fieldhouse as a joint project of the Athletic Booster Club and the school district. Here head football coach Roy Winters enjoys the tribulations of Tom Rowdon as he tries his muscle power at one of the stations.

Joyce. Rear row, James Bell, Jerry Silhan, Terry Shaw, Mark Fluitt and Randy Kuehler. The Tribe travels to Farwell Friday for a scrimmage with the Steers before undergoing their baptism of fire in the new season at Springlake-Earth September 7.

Indians slowly smooth lumps

After making a tremendous improvement over the week following their intra-squad scrimmage, the Morton Indians invaded the Hobbs ballyard last Friday evening for a pre-season scrimmage against the Hobbs Junior Varsity. In doing so they returned a visit to Morton by the Hobbs team last year.

Hobbs over the years has played top-flight football in New Mexico and this part of the country, drawing their ample talent from an enrollment exceeding three thousand students. Their junior varsity could contend favorably in AA circles in this area so that they represented a real test for the Indians sharpening their skills for the 1973 campaign soon to begin.

In a pleasant revelation of what could become a Friday night habit, the Indians came away a winner by scoring nine times compared with the home team's six scores.

Commenting on the scrimmage, Coach Roy Winters said that the staff was well pleased with the way the team looked and played. The coaches felt that the offensive team made a solid showing in their ability to score, but that the defense would have to be better to contain the offenses they will be facing through the schedule.

Rev. Stanley takes local church post

The Rev. Wilbur L. Stanley has arrived in Morton to assume the pastorate of the Assembly of God Church. He has been in evangelistic work for the past eight months.

Rev. Stanley has pastored churches in Alvord, Glen Rose and was associate pastor of the Assembly of God Church at Crowley. He is not new to West Texas as he has done evangelistic work in the area on many occasions.

He and his wife, Joe Ann, are both graduates of Kennedale High School in Kennedale and attended Southwestern Assembly of God College in Waxahachie.

The couple have four children, Jan Stanley, 11, Joe David, 8, Jill, 7, and Jeff, 3. They are making their home at the church parsonage at 202 East Grant.

Police chief, patrolman quit

Morton is literally down to its last policeman.

The sole survivor is patrolman Chester Miller, who will be manning the entire police department by himself after September 4, if an additional patrolman is not obtained before that time.

The manpower depletion began with the resignation from the force of patrolman Ronald Henry on August 24 and continued with the resignation of police chief Arthur Mason who submitted his letter to the city council at its regular meeting Monday night.

No definite reasons were given by either man, with Mason only stating that he felt it would be in the best interests of Morton for him to resign. Henry stated no reason for his resignation.

Mason did not announce any

ONE OF THE MOST SPECTACULAR GARDENS in Cochran county is that of the Elzie Browne family that is located in the 300 block of East Lincoln. There is not much in the way of vegetables that can't be found in this garden in large quantities. Mrs. Browne holds some cantaloupes and cucumbers while Elzie displays some of his tomatoes. Looks like an excellent way to beat the high cost of groceries that is plaguing us all these days.

Morton will host SPAG meet Tuesday

The public is invited and everyone interested in assisting in the economic development of the county is encouraged to be present.

The program will consist of a presentation by Larry Milner on "Developing Industry in Your County". Dean Frank Hunt will discuss training employees for industry and the services offered by the South Plains College.

Cotton market continues spiral

Spot cotton and contract prices in Western Region cotton markets rose sharply this week, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

Most market activity was centered around contracting and the rain-delayed South Texas harvest. The bulk of current ginnings in South Texas was being delivered against contracts made earlier in the year. Growers with available free cotton were hesitant to sell on a rising market.

Elsewhere in the Region most activity was concerned with contracting. Foreign demand for cotton for forward delivery was particularly strong. Merchants actively sought to contract in most markets at prices sharply

Seniors meet

The Senior Citizens group will have a called meeting today at 3 p.m. at the County Activity Building in Morton.

Games and visitation will begin the meeting followed by a business session. Plans will be discussed for attending open house at the Dawson County Senior Citizens Center in Lamesa on Sunday, September 9.

NEW PRECINCT LINES WITHIN MORTON CITY LIMITS

The City has been divided into four precincts in such a manner that the allotted city population, together with each precinct's rural area population, will make the four precincts as equal as possible in number of residents.

Each precinct except Precinct One, will have two voting boxes, one of which will be in a government building in Morton and the other in a government building within the precinct's rural boundaries.

Precinct One will have a single voting box to be located either in the courthouse or the high school building.

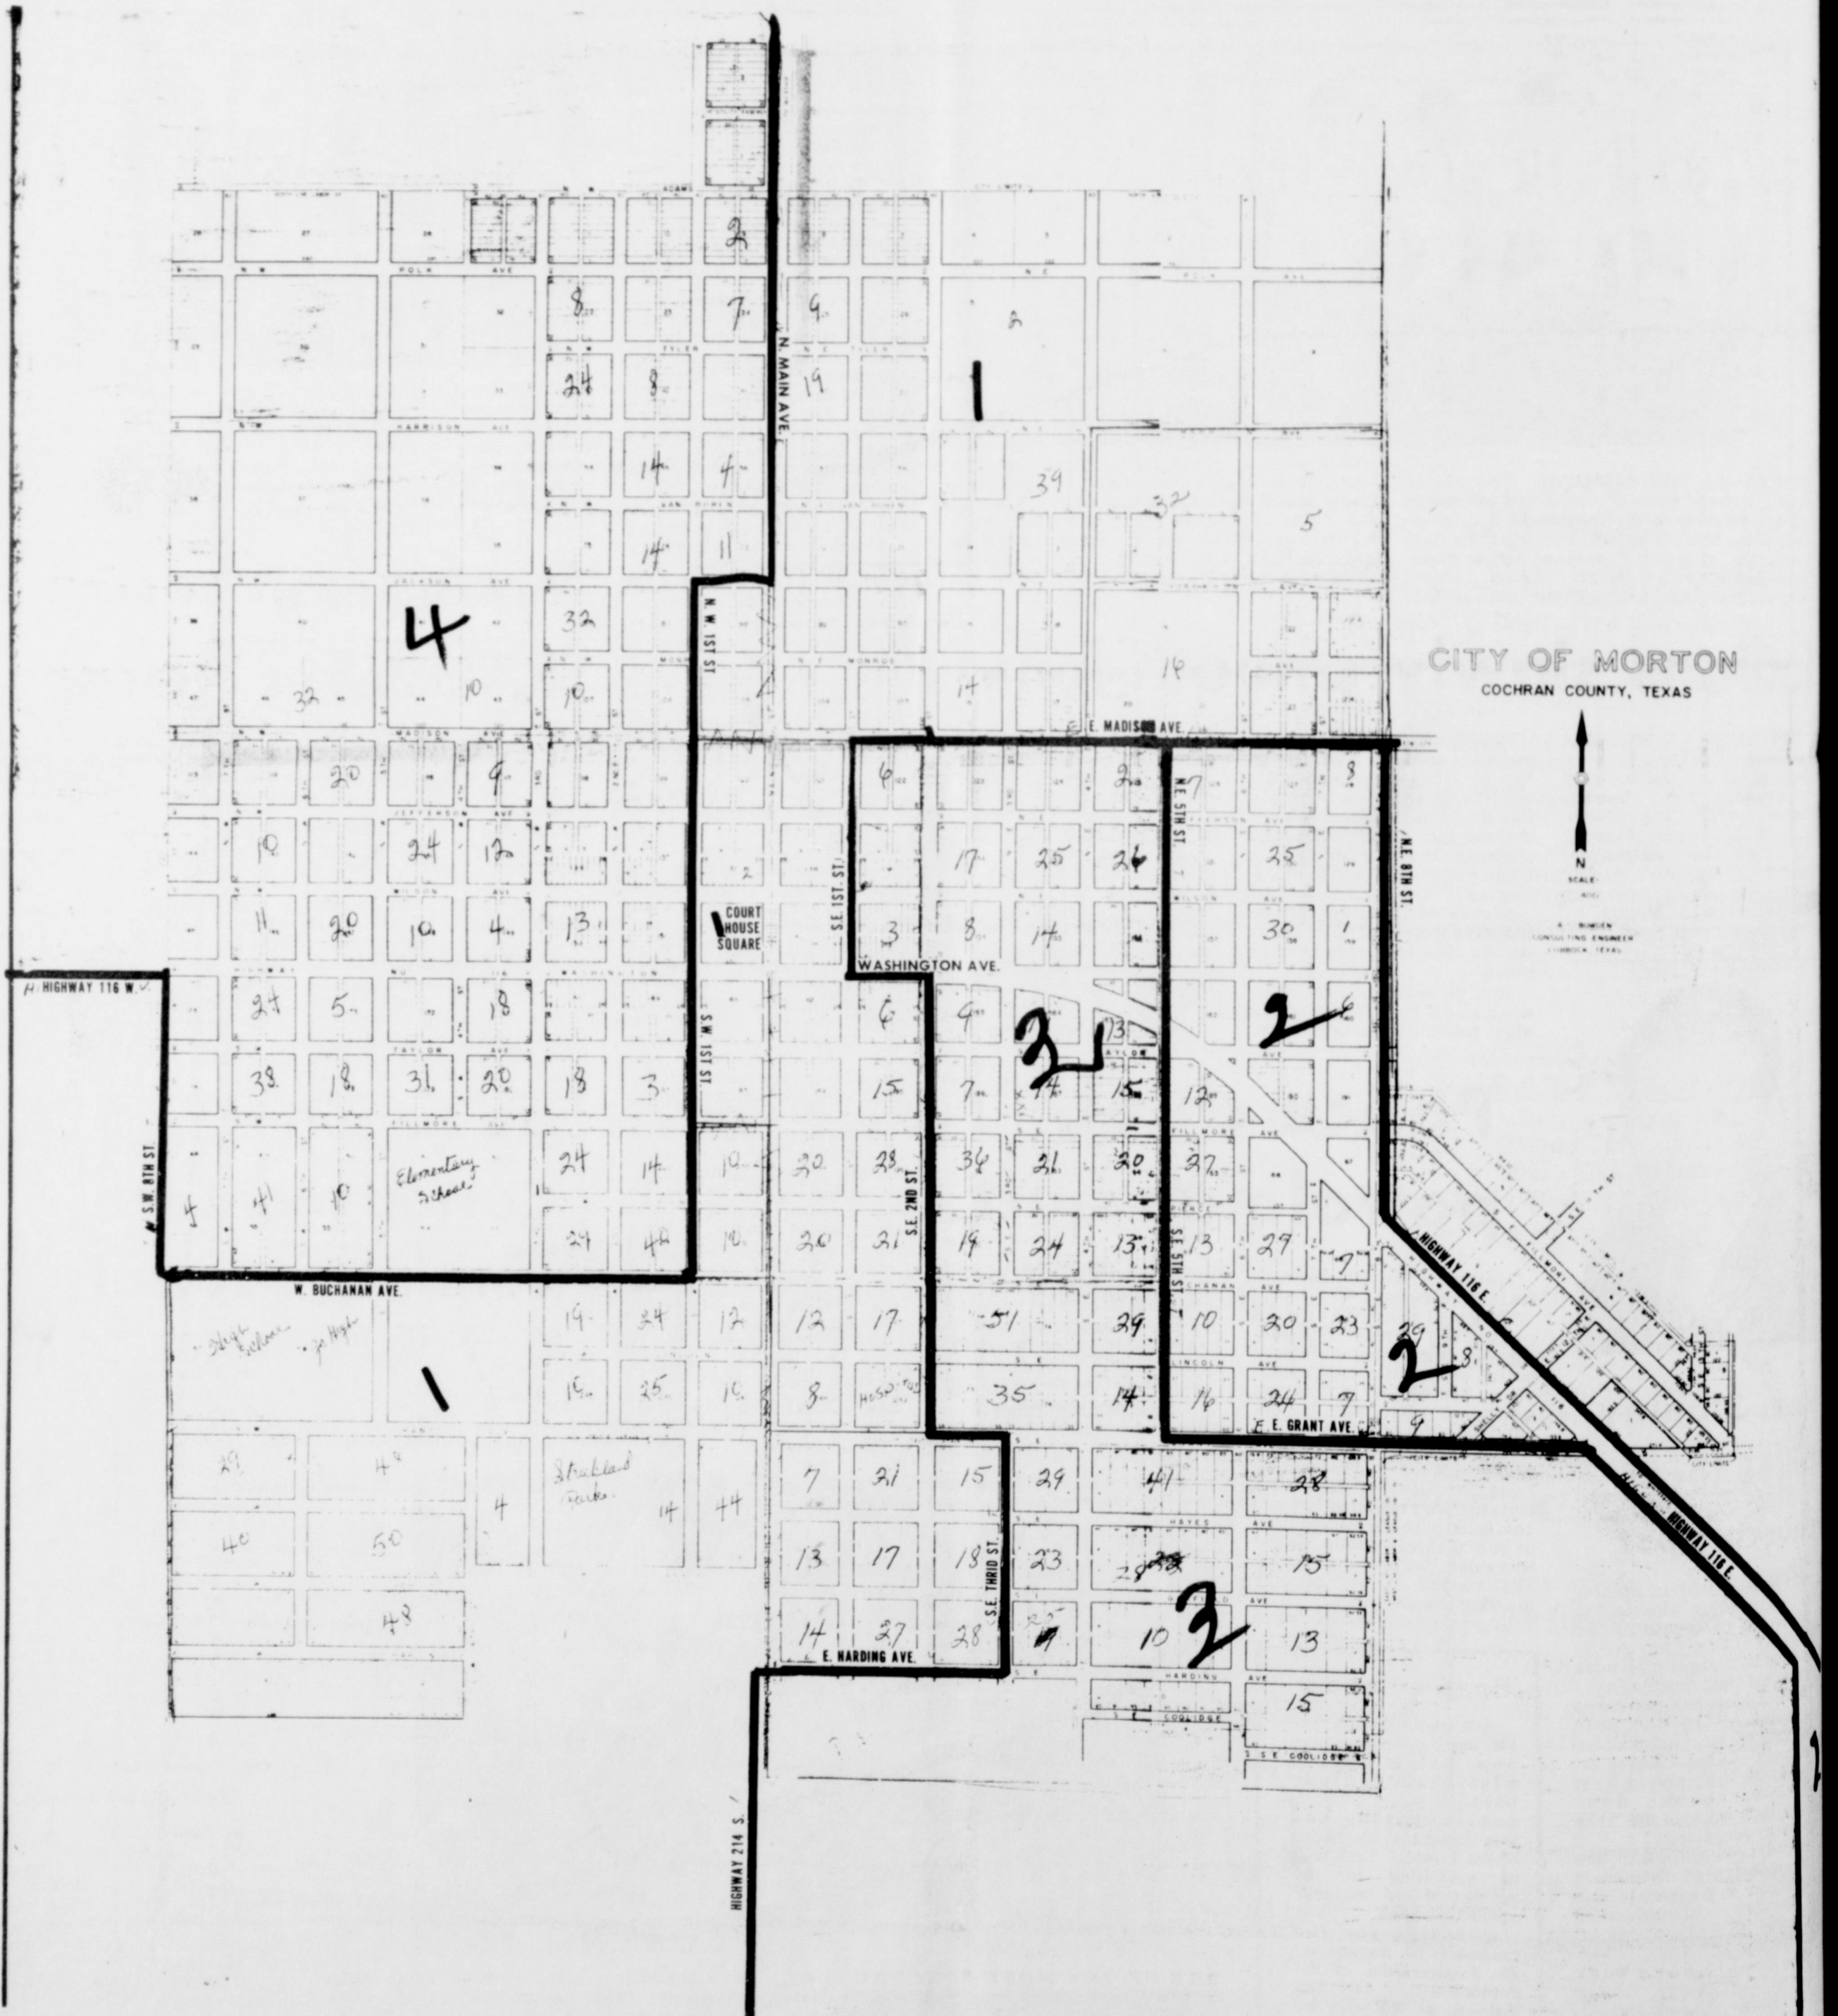

Precinct Two--Voting boxes in Whiteface High School gymnasium and in the Eastside Elementary school building or the REA building.

Precinct Three--Voting boxes in the Bledsoe County Barn and at City Hall in Morton.

Precinct Four--Voting boxes in County Barn west of Star Route community and in County Activity Building in Morton.

Some box locations have not been definitely decided upon by the commissioners court.

REDISTRICTING EFFECTIVE DATE: JANUARY 1, 1974

RURAL AREA PRECINCT LINES

This map depicts precinct boundaries in the county outside the Morton City limits. The arrow running through Morton is for the purpose of indicating that Precinct One runs through the city and has territory both east and west of it.

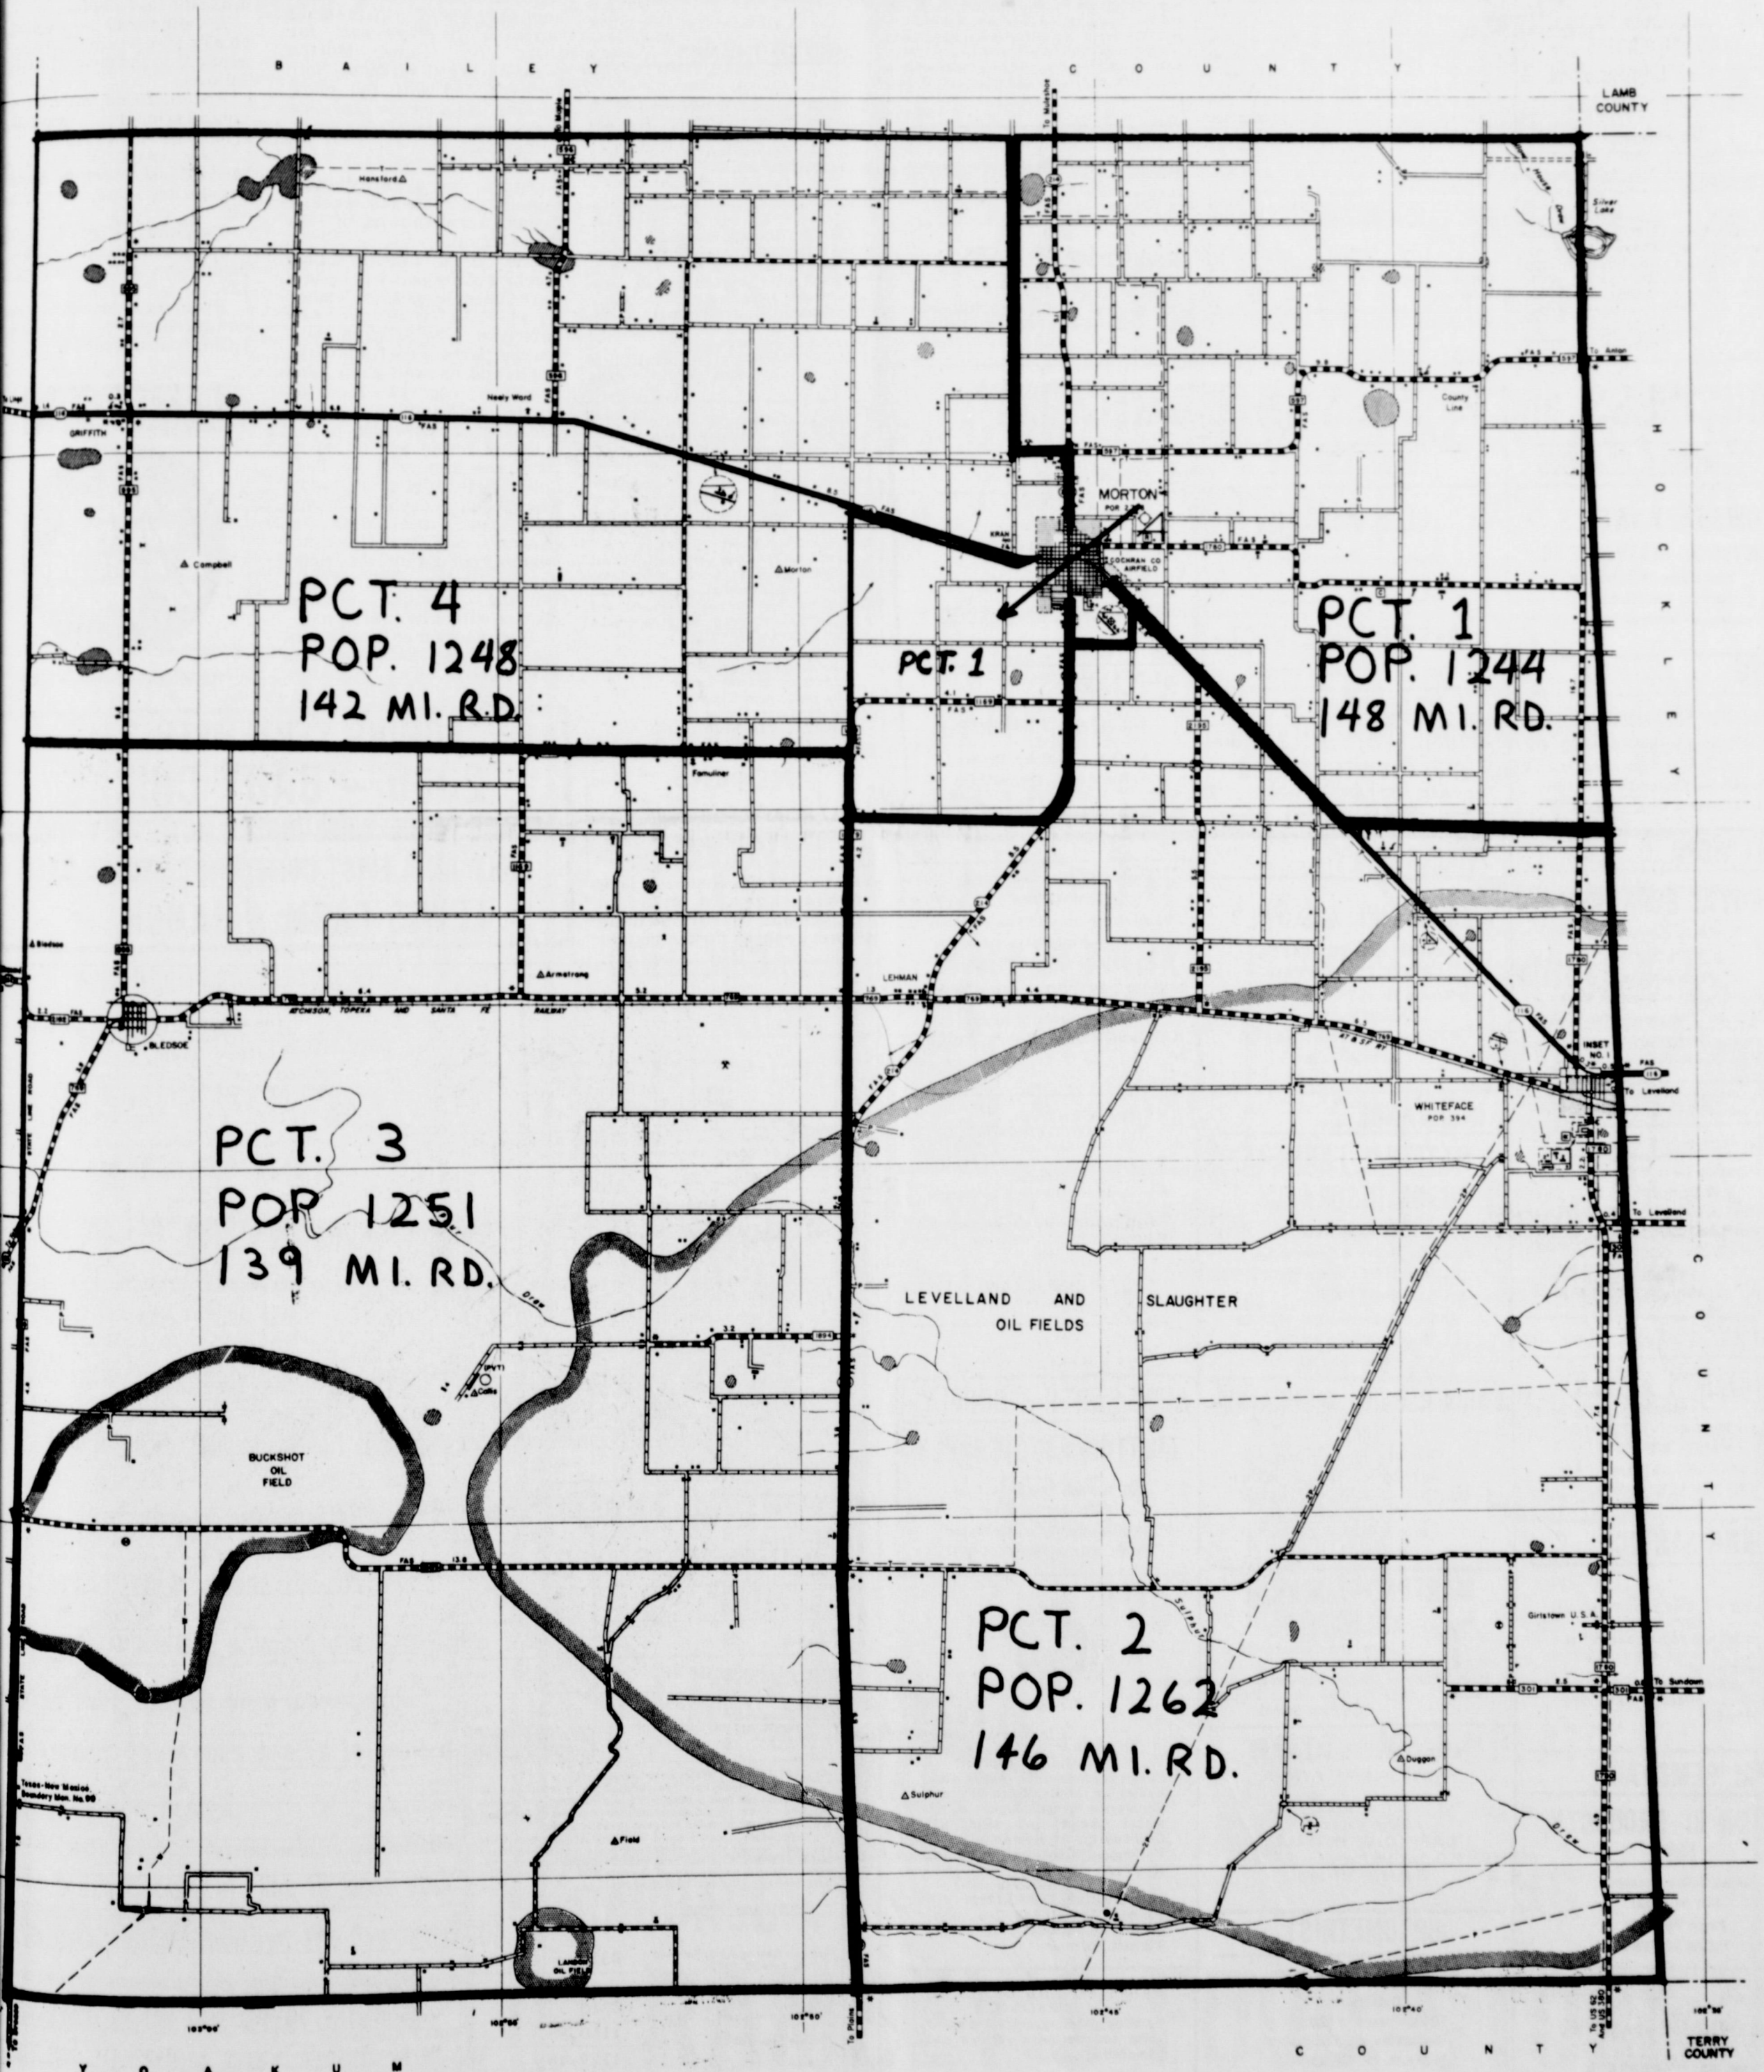

Precinct One, Mike Walden commissioner, has one voting box due to the fact that its city and rural territory is not separated as are Precincts Two, Three, and Four. It has a population of 1,244 and 148 miles of county maintained roads.

Precinct Two, E. J. McKissack commissioner, has a population of 1,262 and 146 miles of county maintained roads. Voting box for this area in Whiteface high school gym.

Precinct Three, H.H. Rosson commissioner, has a population of 1,251 and 139 miles of county maintained roads. Voting box for this area in Bledsoe County Barn.

Precinct Four, U.F. Wells commissioner, has a population of 1,248 and 143 miles of county maintained roads. Voting box for this area in County Barn west of Star Route community.

"One of their scores was earned, the rest were gifts," commented the coach. A lack of hitting and missed assignments were listed as primary causes for the poorer showing of the defense.

Named as Players of the Week after the Hobbs scrimmage were Ralph Mason on offense and Pete Soliz on defense. These young men thus became the first on the list of those who will be contending for the Gold and Black Helmet Award to be presented at the All-Sports Banquet to the player achieving this honor the most times over the season.

With the Hobbs game now a thing of the past, the coaches and players are pointing toward the game with the Farwell Steers to be played this Friday night at eight o'clock in Farwell. All are anticipating a rough outing because of the way the Steers worked against White Deer in a scrimmage of their own last week.

Both Morton and Farwell will run 2 series of 20 plays each for their "A" teams and 1 series of 20 plays each for their "B" teams. Morton plans more utilization of their fullback and will run more options. No specific goal line plays are intended for this scrimmage.

Morton fans, parents, and boosters were a distinct minority at Hobbs last week, a rather pitiful showing of less than a handful.

The first booster club meeting of the year will be held next Tuesday night, September 4, at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. The program will feature parts of the films of the Hobbs and Farwell games and scouting reports for the Springlake-Earth game upcoming on September 7th.

Out of action due to injury tomorrow night will be Tony Soliz (dislocated arm), Larry Thompson (neck), Johnny Rozell (eye), and Rodney Cox (finger). Additionally, this anatomy survey includes cuts, bruises, pulls, and sprains. Barring serious injury, Morton will be hard to stop. More young men have suited out for football this year than ever before. The statistics show 37 — 7th graders, 30 — 8th graders, 28 Freshmen, and 36 Varsity, a total of 131. Last thought — If enough are available, the "youngest kids" on both teams will see action for about 15 minutes tomorrow night.

COUNTY FROM PAGE ONE

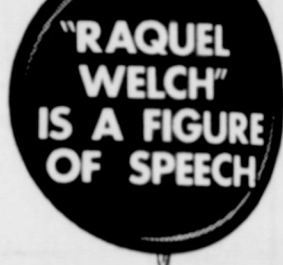

whose supervision the redistricting was formulated, urges all voters to please note that the redistricting does not go into effect until January 1, 1974, and prior to that time they will vote at the same place they always have voted.

There is one more election prior to that date—an election on nine constitutional amendments scheduled for November 6, 1973—in which the voters will vote where they did in the last election.

A rundown of the precincts, their commissioner, population and road miles is as follows:

- Precinct One, Mike Walden, population 1,244, road miles 148.
- Precinct Two, E.J. McKissack, commissioner, population 1,262, road miles 146.
- Precinct Three, H.H. Rosson, commissioner, population 1,251, road miles 139.
- Precinct Four, U.F. Wells, commissioner, population 1,248, road miles 143.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—While some 250,000 Texans are in the process of registering for college and university courses this fall, and thousands more entering vocational and technical training in public junior colleges, there are others who will be looking to private trade and vocational schools.

These private schools, which offer courses in a wide range of subjects—from stenographic or welding, to accounting or TV repair, can provide career training for the new high school graduate, as well as the person looking for a new field for his or her particular talents.

Prior to 1971, the prospective private vocational student was at a disadvantage when he began shopping for a school. Advertising claims frequently went beyond what a school actually could guarantee. Misrepresentations of course offerings, job-placement capabilities, and payment plans were complained of.

Witnesses told a legislative fact-finding committee of experiences involving educational disappointments, such as signing up for training which was not in fact available, as well as economic frustrations, such as being required to pay out allegedly worthless contracts.

Legitimate trade and vocational school operators became concerned, and urged that all the private schools be regulated.

As a result, the Texas Legislature passed a Texas Proprietary School Act, which took effect in 1972. The act, administered by the Texas Education Agency, requires T.E.A. certification of the private career schools; requires state approval of the courses they offer, and prohibits misrepresentations in course sales and advertising.

As of now, some 240 proprietary schools have been certified by the state, and applications from about 30 newly-organized schools are pending approval.

This has been an obvious benefit to the Texans seeking to further their educational opportunities, and increase their earning capacities, in institutions apart from the college and university systems.

The Texas Proprietary School Division of the Texas Education Agency maintains a list of all certified schools, and their approved courses, as well as all institutions qualified for veterans' training.

And the T.E.A. also works with my Consumer Protection Division in the investigation of charges of unauthorized operations.

I am told that an average of one complaint a week is received, and that most of these have been found to relate to misunderstandings, rather than violations of the act.

But my office has had occasion to file suits as legal representative of the T.E.A., primarily when we have uncovered violations by pyramid sales schemes which offered as part of their marketing plans "schools" which were not schools at all, but merely part of the sales pitch.

If you or your child encounter any problem which you consider to be a violation of the Texas Proprietary School Act, do not hesitate to contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, or the T.E.A.

But since it's always better to be safe than sorry, keep these precautionary measures in mind when you start talking about private trade or vocational education:

—Beware of high pressures sales methods.

—Look out for exaggerated promises, such as "easy" courses, or "guaranteed" job placement.

—Read every word of the contract offered, and determine the refund policies of the school in the event of illness or some other event which could prevent you from completing a course.

—Visit the school. Talk to the faculty, and talk to persons who have graduated from the school.

—Be certain that the operation is certified by the Texas Education Agency, and if you still want reinsurance, check with your local Better Business Bureau, and with major employers in your community.

Once you have found the right school, the rest is up to you. Good luck to you.

Can we learn from rabbits? Yes, says Prof.

Robert F. Borgman. He observed that diets high in fats of almost any kind have produced gallstones in rabbits, and the stones disappeared when the animals ate less fat.

The fact that rabbits on a low-fat diet didn't develop gallstones seems to point a lesson to human beings.

“Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fullness of joy...”
HERE IS THE PATH
PSALM 16:11

“The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving His neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the founders, which we hold in awe, will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.”

“He that loveth the Lord his God with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, and with all his mind, and his neighbor as himself.”
Luke 10:27

“The Nation of God's first and greatest commitment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.”

“...and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.”

empire waistline falling into an a-line skirt. Her veil fell from a lace Juliet cap
