IN THE Christmas spirit, students in Friona's Primary School collected candy canes and hot chocolate. The students above represent the entire school as they pack the box to send to Ben Osborn who is serving in the Army in Iraq. The peppermint and hot chocolate will be shared by Ben with his Army buddies to have a taste of home while they are serving our country overseas. Good job kids. Have a blessed Christmas.

THE National Weather Service in Lubbock has honored Bill and Carol Ellis' 15 years as local weather reporters. Family friend Claire Blanco, left, the Ellises, and NWS meteorologist-in-charge Larry Vannozzi, right, and the official rain gauge. See story below.

Ellises Log 15 Years Reporting Weather

If you want to know how much rain we received on this date ten years ago you could contact the National Weather Service (NWS) or you could call Bill Ellis. Might take him a few minutes to dig it out but he would eventually get it for you.

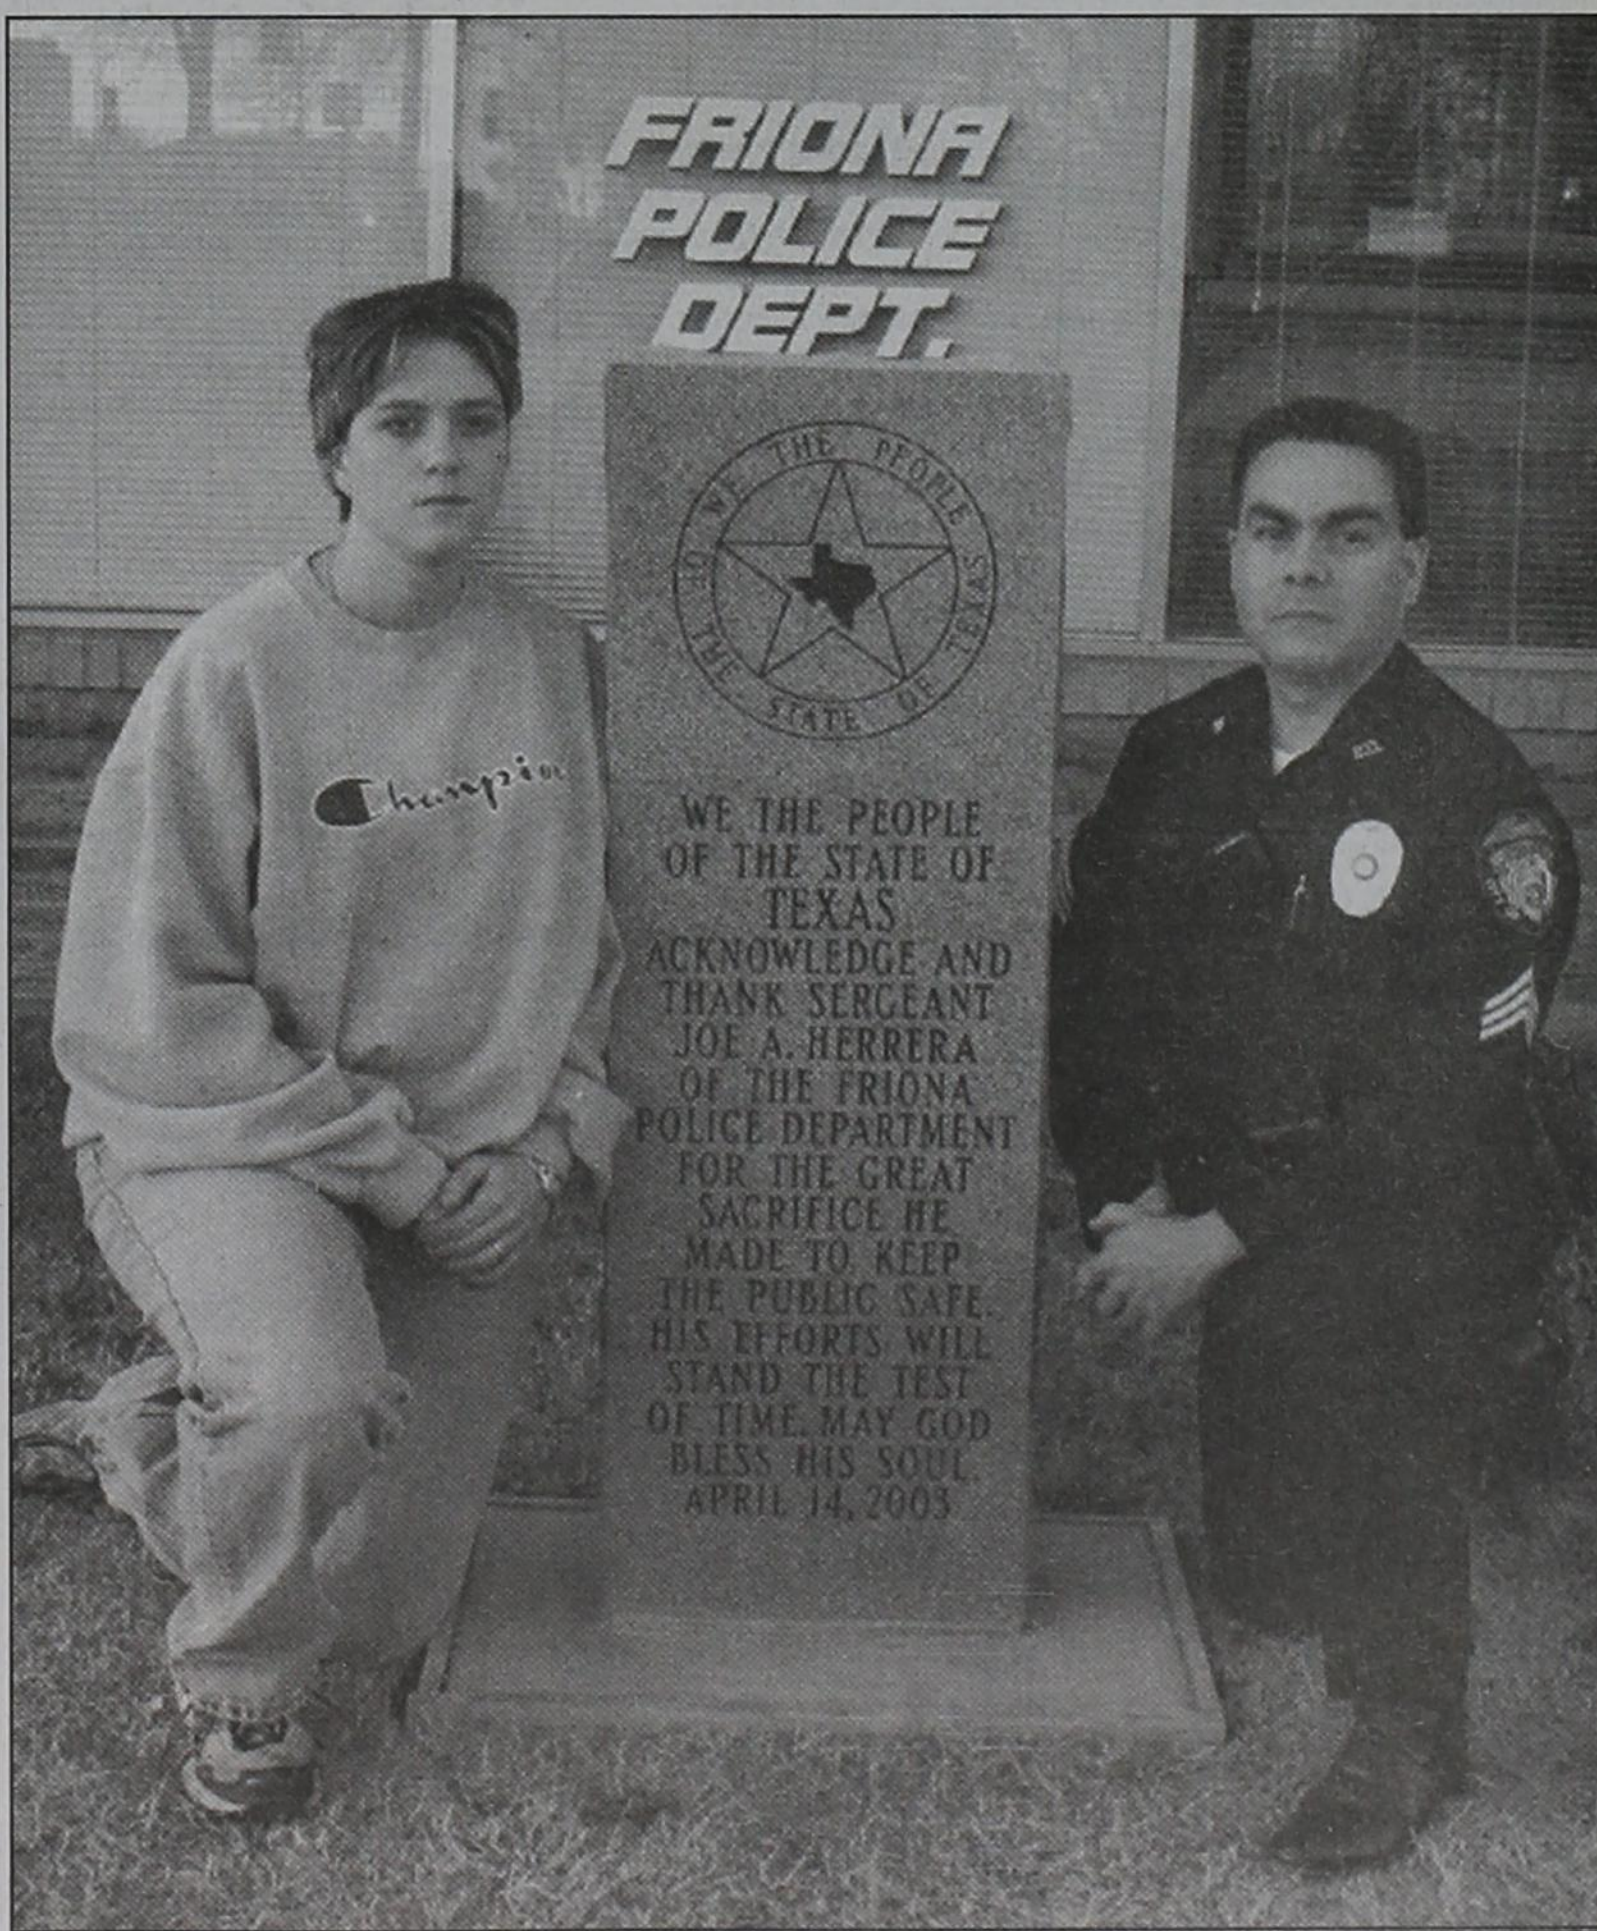

Bill, assisted by wife Carol of course, has been the official Friona NWS weather reporter for over 15 years. That means each day they record the high and low temperature, wind direction, and the amount of moisture received. The latter, moisture measurement, doesn't keep a weather reporter very busy in Parmer County but Bill doesn't mind. He has a keen interest in all things weather-related, including cloud formations and tornado watching.

His 15-year anniversary with the NWS was actually May 19, 2003. But they just got around to visiting with Bill and Carol last week to move his official rain gauge from the side of the house into the back yard and present him with a certificate of service. NWS meteorologist-in-charge Larry Vannozzi from Lubbock and an assistant came to Friona for the presentation.

Bill and Carol are the retired publishers of the Friona Star and having the rain gauge in the back yard should make life easier for them now that they don't have to walk so far to check the moisture.

IN MEMORY of Friona Police Sgt. Joe Herrera, a permanent monument has been installed in front of the Friona Police Dept. Sgt. Herrera's widow, Rachel, a Friona police department dispatcher, and Friona Police Sgt. Junior Lopez are shown with the memorial. It reads "We the people of the State of Texas acknowledge and thank Sgt. Joe A. Herrera of the Friona Police Department for the great sacrifice he made to keep the public safe. His efforts will stand the test of time. May God bless his soul. April 14, 2003."

December 21, 1928

During the past two weeks there has been considerable road and street improvement going on in and near Friona. Two weeks ago commissioner Jones assisted by Doc McLellan and L.F. Lillard, graded the road leading north from the east part of town, using a heavy grader drawn by horses, four of the horses belonging to Mr. Jones and six to Mr. Lillard, and representing ten of the best horses in the county.

During the latter part of last week and the early part of this week, Frank A. Spring and his secretary, Miss Mary Spring, have been busy assisting farmers in making out their Income Tax reports.

J.L. Lookingbill, for many years a farmer and stockman in this territory, has sold his farm southwest of Summerfield and will have a farm sale Tuesday afternoon.

It is good to see Charles Beaton and Roy Young around town. These two are serving Uncle Sam and are home from Germany on leave. Think they'll have to go back the first week in January. Charles belongs to the Estes Beatons southeast of town, and Roy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah T. Young, live west of town.

Seems that geese are more plentiful or the hunters are having better luck this year. Several families are planning to have roast goose for Christmas dinner.

Friona High School senior Ben Osborn was pictured holding a fledgling quail which was hatched at the FHS Ag Department. Osborn is a student in the new "Wildlife Management" class, which hatched out 13 Pharaoh Quail and two Bobwhites. When the birds are grown, it is planned to set them free in hopes that they will get established in the area. The class may later hatch some pheasants in a similar program.

The "Hole" Truth

America is gloating this week. We are pretty good at gloating and bragging here in America. We are a "make my day" kind of society. We don't mind rubbing noses in it and we sure like to be in charge with the big stick on our side, ready to whack in a heartbeat.

The TV networks are doing their part to work us into a frenzy again. Saddam was captured hiding in either a spider hole or a rat hole, depending on which network you watch. A U.S. Army general said Saddam was hiding in a hole like a rat. The TV yaks said he looked dirty, disheveled, disoriented, and was a coward.

After all, when the soldiers dug him out of his crude little bunker, he had a loaded pistol and didn't even have the guts to kill himself. If he was any kind of dictator at all, he should have had the dignity to blow his own head off.

They all gloated over the fact that he ended up in a tiny, cramped, dirt hole while "just across the Tigris River were his opulent palaces that he lived in while robbing the Iraqi people." And now, he is getting what is coming to him. We like that in America. We like it when outlaws and bandits and people who are not as good as we are get what is coming to them.

And we sure as hell expect to see some remorse. We want remorse when they are caught and at the trial. Just before the lethal injection takes the last breath, we long for even the tiniest sign of remorse.

According to the members of the Iraqi Council, who questioned Saddam after his capture, he didn't seem to show any remorse. They asked him why he murdered somewhere around 1 million people and he said they were all thugs from Iran. (By the way, TV guys, we don't need to see that Army doctor looking in Saddam's mouth any more.)

They asked him about the WMDs. Don't have any, he said. They asked him why he ran the inspectors out. Invading the privacy of my palaces, he said. As though anybody expects Saddam to tell them anything, especially the truth.

Several reporters took us on a tour of the hut Saddam was hiding in. We got to see the messy rooms, some of his underwear, the uneaten food, and a glimpse of his "fraidy hole." All along, the reports were derisive and arrogant. Just look how he ended up. Got what he deserved, we reckon.

Even our president couldn't resist the opportunity to gloat (and smirk a little more). We gotcha. We told you we would getcha and we gotcha, hiding in a hole. Like some kind of rat. "We are going to let the Iraq people bring him to justice," Dubya declared. The U. S. president taunted Saddam and the terrorists by saying, "Good riddance Mr. Saddam Hussein." Speculation is that he will be on trial in a couple of weeks and killed (executed) no later than July. If we had caught him in Texas, he would no doubt be injected by now.

One report said that a soldier told Saddam when he climbed out of his hole, "We bring you greetings from the president of the United States." I doubt that happened but it makes good patriotic TV. It seems that many of the events of Jessica Lynch's capture and rescue were not true (i. e., lies). Even Miss Lynch said that what was widely reported never happened.

So why should we swallow everything being reported about Saddam's capture? Because we like to gloat. During one broadcast on Fox News, they said Saddam had been whisked away to Qatar, then had to retract the false report.

Our enemy, fanatical terrorists that also live in holes, hated us before Saddam was caught. Now that we are showering the world with our we-told-you-so attitude, those millions of fanatics that want to kill us all no doubt want to kill us all even more.

With the kind of rhetoric we are using about Saddam it fans the flames of hatred in the hearts and minds of our enemies. And we don't really know who they are until the next car bomb explodes.

Don't get me wrong, I believe that Saddam is beyond evil. Let's turn him over to the Iraqi people and report it on live TV when they tear him apart in the most humanitarian of ways. I support the young military Americans that have done all that has been asked of them. I also believe that the invasion of Iraq, which has cost over 400 of those young American lives so far, was done partly as payback by George W for the way Saddam treated his daddy, George H.

Contrary to the current hoopla over Saddam's capture, Dubya has not made friends for America around the world. The countries friendly to us are small and weak and want something from us. They are weaker than us and so it behooves them to stay close and nod their heads yes at the appropriate times.

As Dubya said once, you are either with us or against us (except you Saudi Arabia) and if you are against us, well, tough noogies. We are America and we have right on our side. You saw what we did to that sniveling old man in Iraq, didn't you? If you don't want the same thing to happen to you, you better show some respect and throw in a pinch of remorse.

And so the haters keep hating and the terrorists keep plotting. Hatred for America is not less today than yesterday, in spite of what Saddam and the stock market did. Democratic presidential candidate Howard Dean said that America is not a safer place today just because Saddam was captured.

It is the only statement that Dean has ever made that I agree with. We are not safer today. If anything the threat of terrorism is probably more likely.

I wonder if we will be bragging after the suicide bombings in America begin. God PLEASE bless America.

MRS. JOHN POTTER, III
(PAMELA SUZANNE BROWN)

Brown & Potter Wed In Las Vegas

Pamela Suzanne Brown and John Potter III, both of Lubbock, were married October 26, 2003, in Las Vegas, Nevada, at the Excalibur Hotel.

The bride is the daughter of Sandra Brown of Friona and Jim Brown of Kerrville, Texas.

The bridegroom is the son of Annalee Potter of Fort Worth and the deceased John Potter, Jr.

The matron of honor was Angela Butler, sister of the bride, of Lubbock. The bridesmaid was Debbie Tyler, sister of the groom, of Fort Worth.

The best man was David Comola and the groomsman was Eric Butler, both of Lubbock.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of Lake View High School and a 1998 graduate of Angelo State University.

The groom is a 1979 graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in Midland, Texas and attended Texas Tech University. He is employed as Operations Manager for Lowe's Home Improvement.

After a honeymoon in Las Vegas the couple will reside in Wichita Falls, Texas.

FCCLA Seeking Recipes For Heifer International

During the 2002-2003 school year FCCLA coordinated two multicultural fairs to benefit Heifer International. Heifer International is a charity that takes the saying, "give a man a fish and he eats for a day, but, teach him to fish and he eats for a lifetime", and puts it into practice. The charity provides animals to impoverished areas around the world.

Last year Friona schools raised enough money to purchase one heifer, two goats and three flocks of geese. These animals allow families to sell excess animals, milk, eggs, etc. For many families this help allows them to improve their diet, build or improve their home, and for many children it means they can go to school for the first time.

This year the FCCLA and Family and Consumer Science classes have partnered with the primary school, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Lerner, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Allen, and Ms. Wright's classes, along with the students in all the buildings for a new project.

Family and Consumer Science classes are asking all students in the Friona Schools to submit a recipe. The recipe can be for a food the students like to make, one they like to eat, or a family favorite.

The recipes will be put together in a cookbook tentatively named, "Friona Schools Feed Hungry Children". The cookbooks will then be sold and the profits will go to Heifer International. If you have not submitted a recipe for your children it is not too late.

Recipes can be turned in to a child's teacher, at Friona High School, in care of Ms. Murdock, or they can be mailed, c/o Ms. Murdock, Friona High School, 909 E. 11th, Friona, Texas 79035.

Friona 8th 48 Lockney 30

The Friona 8th grade Braves improved to 3-2 before the holiday break with a victory over Lockney.

Sawyer Reed led with 15 points, backed up by Ryan Gerles with 10. Jared Boyd and Kaison Graham contributed 5 each, Dillon Welch and Eric North 4, Gerald Padilla and Trent Hutson 2, and Alex Gurley one point. Graham had the game's only 3-point goal.

The boys trailed 15-14 after one quarter but went on a 34-15 run the rest of the game to handle Lockney easily.

Coach Rex Cumpston said, "Good way to finish up before the holidays. We continue to improve each week."

Trisha Winebrinner

THE CHIEFTAINS Beat Bovina Tuesday 43-39. In action are, Jr. Hugo Aguillon (4), Brock Field (11), Josh Shelby (21) and Jon Nava (41).

Record is 10-2

Squaws Get un-Happy At the Farwell Tourney

The Friona Squaws' junior wing Trisha Winebrinner has contended with a sore ankle the last few games but it didn't stop her from making the all-tournament team at the Farwell Tournament.

The Squaws, never lacking for excitement, saw senior post Ashley Smiley in action in Saturday's final tournament game after suffering a one-car rollover Saturday morning. Smiley survived the accident with bumps and bruises but later the same day helped Friona to a 3rd place victory over Elida.

In only their second loss of the year, the Squaws lost the second game in the Farwell tourney to state-ranked 1A, Division II Happy. The Happy girls had only 7 players on the roster but it was enough to slide by Friona 62-55, with two Happy girls, Brittaney Spradling and Lana Moudy accounting for 27 and 22 points respectively, netting 49 of Happy's 62 points.

Squaws 74-Highland Park 33

In this rematch, Katy Welch dropped in three 3-point goals and led with 17 points. Brenda Murphree also had three 3s, and Shayli Reed tossed in two 3-point goals, a team total of eight 3-pointers. Reed had 14 points, Murphree 13, Trisha Winebrinner 10, Andrea Gerles 8, R.J. Barrett 6, Ashley Smiley 4, and Misty Adams 2.

The Squaws were never in trouble in the game as their smothering press caused the Lady Hornets a lot of turnover trouble.

Squaws 36-Whiteface 32

In the first game of the Farwell Tournament, and in spite of another one of their 4-point quarters, the Friona girls easily slid past Whiteface 46-32. The Squaws saw a comfortable 25-13 halftime lead vanish to a 29-26 lead at the end of three. Friona managed only four Winebrinner free throws in the third quarter while Whiteface rallied with 13 points.

They came back to life in the fourth, outscoring Whiteface 17-6 to cement the victory. Katy Welch again had three 3-pointers in the game, High scoring honors went to Welch with 11 points, Winebrinner 10, Gerles 8, V'Lessa Wilcox and Smiley 4, Barrett 3, and Murphree one point.

Happy 62-Friona 55

In spite of two 3's and 19 points by Trisha Winebrinner, the Squaws could not harness Happy in the second tournament game. A 6-point first quarter put Friona behind and they never caught up. Down 37-24 at the half, the girls did rally with 31 second half points but the state ranked 1A Happy girls maintained the pace to outlast the Squaws 62-55.

Katy Welch added 15 points with two 3-pointers, Smiley had 10, Misty Adams 5, including a 3-point goal, Gerles 4 and Wilcox 3.

Squaws 52-Elida 31

The Squaws had to settle for playing for third place and won handily, defeating Elida, NM, 52-31. Thirty two points in the first half, and ahead by 32-12, Friona coasted with 20 second half points and held Elida to only two points in the fourth quarter.

Winebrinner again had 19 points to lead scoring. She was also selected to the Farwell all-tournament team.

Welch kicked in 12 points, Brenda Murphree 7, Smiley 6, Adams 4, Gerles 3, and R. J. Barrett 2.

Friona 83-Bovina 22

In a Parmer County contest, the Squaws met the Bovina Fillies for the first time in over 10 years and it may be awhile before the Bovina coaches schedule the Squaws again as Friona overwhelmed the scrappy Fillies 83-22.

Nine Squaws scored in the fast-paced game, led by Winebrinner and Smiley with 16 each, Gerles 13, Welch 11, Adams 10, Murphree 8, Wilcox 4, Haleigh Herbert 3, and Barrett 2. Twelve of Winebrinner's points came in the fourth quarter as Friona pumped in six 3-point goals, two each by Adams and Murphree and one each from Gerles and Welch.

For Bovina, Sandra Moreno and Amanda Martinez each had 5 points to lead scoring for the Fillies. Flor Sanchez had 4, Isabel Guevara 3, Dorothy Martinez, and Irma Rocha, 2 each, and Jessica Bachicha one point.

The Squaws are 10-2 and host Dimmitt Friday night. They will participate in the Caprock Tournament in Lubbock December 29-31.

JV Squaws Claim 2nd In Tulia Tournament

The Friona JV Squaws, following in the footsteps of their varsity counterparts, are rolling along with a string of victories.

Only some controversial calls and a little bad luck kept the girls from bringing home the first place trophy at the Tulia tournament. In spite of the odds, the JV Squaws came within three points, losing the tourney championship to host Tulia.

Friona JV 39-Happy 20

The score was 11-0 at the first quarter, 23-8 at the half and never in doubt. Eight JV Squaws scored in the game. Courtney Adams was high with 10, Yvonne Vega and Lucretia Field had 8 each, Tiffany Vasquez 4, Breann Barnett and Molly Carthel 3, Krista Graham 2 and Staci Murphree one point.

JV Squaws 52-Nazareth 47

In the second game of the tournament, the JV girls jumped out to a 17-5 first quarter lead, then settled in to match up on offense and defense for the victory.

Adams popped in ten 2-point goals to lead with 20 points, Vega had 11, Field and T. Vasquez 8, Murphree 4 and Graham one point.

Tulia 60-JV Squaws 57

The Tulia JV girls attempted 43 free throws in the championship game. Friona JV attempted 22. Tulia made 21 free throws, Friona made 12. Friona was ahead 44-37 at the end of the third quarter. One of the officials is said to have a daughter playing on the Tulia team. Tulia had 15 free throw attempts just in the fourth quarter.

One JV Squaw was called for a technical foul in the fourth quarter as she expressed her displeasure with a foul called. Coach Graham said he didn't blame her. In any event, the JV Squaws settled for a second place finish.

Yvonne Vega led all scorers with 18 points, Molly Carthel had 11, T. Vasquez 8, Murphree 7, Adams 5, Graham and Field 3 each, and D. Vasquez 2.

JV Squaws 62-Bovina 5

The JV girls hosted Bovina for the first time in many years and blasted the Fillies with nine players in the scoring column.

Vega and Murphree led with 13 each, T. Vasquez 12, Graham 8, Barnett 5, Adams 4, D. Vasquez 3, Field and Carthel 2.

"A" Maidens 27 Lockney 17

The Friona 8th grade girls close out 2003 games with a 5-0 record. Their next game is January 8, 2004 against Dimmitt here.

In the Lockney game, high scorers were Erin Anthony with 8 points, Miranda Frye 5, and Ashley Ingram 5. Ingram and Michelle Martin each had one 3-point goal. Ingram also had 6 rebounds and 5 steals.

The B team girls posted a 6-5 win, leading scorers were Morgan Anthony with 5 points and Julissa Saenz had one. Their record is now 6-1.

Chiefs Struggling To Find Success

Coach Jeff Isom's varsity Chiefs are struggling along. A few injuries, younger players, starter Dustin Thompson left the team, and not quite enough height has presented a big challenge to the second year head coach.

The Chiefs managed one win against two losses at the Farwell tournament and beat the Bovina boys Tuesday night. Their record is now 4-7. They will host Dimmitt Friday night and participate in the Littlefield tournament December 29-31.

Melrose 47-Chiefs 38

In this first round game, Marc Halle led scoring with 10 points, Matt Gammon and Rudy Gonzalez had 7, Dustin Thompson 6, Ricky Dickson 4, R. Alaniz and Brock Field 2.

Chiefs 52-Elida 35

Point guard, senior Ricky Dickson decided to take charge in this second round game and led his teammates with 19 points, Jon Nava had 12, Halle 8, Keith Hunt 5, Gammon 4, Rudy Gonzalez and Field 2.

Whiteface 57-Chiefs 39

The boys managed only 13 points in the first half of this one, spotting Whiteface a 15 point lead at the half. Dickson again led scoring with 11, Nava 8, Halle and Hunt 6 each, Gammon 4, and Gonzalez and Field 2 each.

Chiefs 43-Bovina 39

The Chiefs outlasted the Bovina Mustangs who were playing without two of their starters that helped Bovina to a 7-2 record. Tied at 22 at the half, it was 21-17 in favor of Friona in the second half.

High for Friona were Nava with 17 and Dickson with 14. For the Mustangs, Jonathan Chisom had 15 and Mike Nieto 7.

JV Chiefs Second in Tulia Tournament

Same song, second verse. The Friona JV Chiefs won two and lost one just like the JV girls did at the Tulia tournament. The boys also lost to host Tulia in the championship game. Just like the JV Squaws.

JV Chiefs 39-Boys Ranch 25

Cody Jameson picked up 9 points, Hayden Patton 8, Steven Sanchez 6, Pedro Ramos, Kelby Monroe, and Antonio Monreal 4 each, Andrew Aguirre and Chad Hutson 2.

JV Chiefs 39-Nazareth 36

Coach Towner's charges bested the Nazareth JV in the second round at Tulia. Monreal led with 9 points, Jameson and Monroe had 7 each, Patton 6, Hutson 5, Sanchez 3, and Will Hughs 2.

Tulia JV 52-Chiefs JV 43

Hayden Patton drained 4 three point shots, Hutson and Monreal also had a 3 pointer each, the Chiefs only shot 36% from the free throw line, 5 of 14. The could-have-been good news is that the Tulia JV made only 9 of 28 on trips to the free throw line. They had 13 free throw attempts in the fourth quarter, one less than Friona had the entire game.

High score in the loss was Patton with 13 points, Monreal had 10, Hutson 7, Sanchez 6, Monroe 5, Jameson 2.

The JV Chiefs and JV Squaws both beat Nazareth, both won two games, both lost to host Tulia in the championship game and both brought home second place metal. Happy holidays!

ADAM PARSONS (39), right, watches time tick away at Texas Stadium in this Dallas Morning News photo, as his Highland Park Scots lose their 4A Division II semi-final game to Denton Ryan. Parsons caught a TD pass on the game's first play and scored twice for the Scots. See story for the Friona connection.

Adam Parsons Grandson Shines in 4A Texas Stadium Playoff

A young man with Friona ties has had a sterling football career at Highland Park High School in Dallas.

HP senior Adam Parsons finished his Highland Park season last Saturday before over 17,000 fans in Texas Stadium, as the Highland Park Scots lost to Denton Ryan 45-21 in the 4A-Division II state semifinals.

Parsons scored two of Highland Park's three touchdowns. On the first play of the game, Parsons caught a 73-yard touchdown pass. Later in the game he scored again on a 28-yard reception. The 6' 1", 180-pound wide receiver caught 17 touchdown passes and had 1,497 receiving yards this season for the Scots.

He is the son of Dale and Amal (Malouf) Parsons. Dale is a 1974 Friona High graduate and was a member of the 1974 Chieftains basketball team that went to the state basketball finals. He also played football and ran track. He still holds the Friona High School record for the mile run at 4:28.3. Amal Malouf Parsons was a 1975 FHS graduate and a cheerleader.

The couple lives in Highland Park where Dale is a real estate attorney in Dallas and Amal recently opened a jewelry store. They have two other children, a daughter Adrian who is a junior at Texas tech, and a son Evan, who is in the 8th grade.

Adam is the grandson of Percy and Margaret Parsons and Hannah and Linda Malouf, all of Friona. According to grandfather Percy, Adam has no plans at this time to pursue a college football career and is considering attending Texas Tech with his sister. Tech is also dad Dale's alma mater.

Beltwide Cotton Conference, Jan 5-9, 2004

Friday, December 12, 2003

By Shawn Wade

Texas cotton producers play host to the 49th Annual Beltwide Cotton Conference, January 5-9, 2004, in San Antonio.

Sponsored by the National Cotton Council, the theme for the 2004 Beltwide is "Today's Challenges—Tomorrow's Solutions".

This year's Beltwide Conference will provide cotton producers across the U.S. an opportunity to gain new insight into key legislative, marketing and trade issues and also expose producers to new production and marketing strategies they can employ to maintain profitable cotton operations.

Beltwide registration begins January 5. The conference's General Sessions and workshops begin the morning of January 6. The Production Conference will be followed by the two-day technical conference, January 8-9.

For further information, visit the NCC's web site at www.beltwidecotton.org or contact the NCC's Debbie Richter, P.O. 820285, Memphis, TN 38182 (901) 274-9030 FX (901) 725-0510 or email drichter@ncc.org.

TCP/TSSC Meetings Cover Key Cotton Issues; Address Cotton Research Priorities

Friday, December 12, 2003

By Shawn Wade

College Station provided the backdrop for an informative set of meetings that brought Plains Cotton Growers representatives together with cotton growers from across Texas.

The PCG group participated in the meetings to discuss important cotton issues and hear updates on cotton research programs being directed by cotton producers through the Cotton Incorporated State Support Program.

The week started with a meeting of the Texas Cotton Producers organization. TCP is the statewide organization comprised of the nine regional cotton organizations representing producers in Texas.

TCP agenda items included: adoption of a 2004 operating budget, discussion of U.S. trade policy and its effects on cotton marketing and prices, boll weevil eradication, crop insurance, and reports on activities of the National Cotton Council and the Cotton Board.

A special guest at the TCP meeting was Dr. Ed Hiller, Dean of Agriculture and Life Sciences and Head of the Agriculture Program at Texas A&M University. Dr. Hiller discussed issues involving cotton and the Agriculture Program at TAMU.

The TCP group concluded their meeting with a luncheon with members of the Texas Farm Service Agency and the Texas State FSA Committee.

TEXAS STATE SUPPORT PROGRAM

One of the unique ways that cotton producers benefit from their Cotton Research and Promotion Program is the Cotton Incorporated State Support Program.

The State Support Program provides cotton growers across the nation the ability to direct the expenditure of CI research dollars in order to develop solutions for the key production and profitability challenges that they face.

The majority of this research addresses issues such as cotton marketing and economics, cotton breeding, genetic improvement, insect management, irrigation and fertilization management, weed control, production systems, as well as harvesting and ginning issues effecting harvest efficiency and crop quality.

Members of the Texas State Support Committee met on December 10 and 11 to hear updates on the progress of research projects funded for the 2003 crop year. A total of 43 projects were reviewed during the two-day meeting.

Each year the Texas State Support Committee receives projects in six broad research categories: genetic improvement, pest control, fertilization/irrigation, production systems, harvesting/ginning, and marketing/economics.

For 2004 the Texas State Support Program has approved approximately $790,000 to fund projects covering the full range of research areas. The biggest adjustment for 2004 was a renewed emphasis on getting individual researchers working on similar issues to work together. The goal is to build closer working relationships between both research organizations and the individual scientists involved.

The Texas State Support Committee also finalized the timeline for soliciting proposals and approving projects for funding in 2005.

Neugebauer To Join Delegation Two-Fold Trip To Middle East

Congressman Randy Neugebauer, a member of the House Agriculture Committee, will travel with a bipartisan delegation of six Committee Members led by Chairman Bob Goodlatte (R-VA) to the Middle East, at the direction of the Speaker of the House.

The purpose of this trip will be two fold: they will assess the progress being made in the rebuilding and stabilization efforts, including agriculture, in both Iraq and Afghanistan, and they will also take time to visit with American troops presently deployed overseas. The delegation will meet with new government leaders from both countries.

Neugebauer plans to keep a journal about his experience and will share his thoughts with the media upon his return.

Joining Neugebauer on the tour are Committee Members: Representative Leonard Boswell (D-IA), Representative Doug Ose (R-CA), Representative Tom Osborne (R-NE), and Representative Dennis Rehberg (R-MT).

How often has God touched your life and you didn't even notice?
Often times God is right before us and we don't even see him.
His blessings are all around us and yet we don't perceive them.
Don't miss out on the blessings of God simply because they are not packaged the way you expect them to be.
We are touched and blessed by God every moment of our lives.
He never forsakes us.

Dear Santa,

I love Christmas. I've been good and mostly bad. And this year I want five things, a Xbox, gamecube, grand theft auto 1 2 and 3 and thirteen. That's all I want. I want to make Mrs. Deen and Mrs. Reed and my family and the class happy. I love Christmas and Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Deen and every one else.

Love Arturo Aguillon

Dear Santa,

Santa I am glad that it is Christmas. For Christmas I do not need a lot of toys. I want a trumpet and a flute. I also a new millenium Barbie doll and a new and nicer dog. I want a new Barbie car with a new Barbie doll and a new and nicer dog. I want a new Barbie car with a new Barbie doll and a new and nicer dog. I will also leave you cheese and coke.

Love,

Amber DeLeon

Dear Santa,

Santa I want a piano. My sister wants a Blue Angel. My brother wants a big football game and a picture of Santa Clause. If we are not good will not get anything for Christmas. We are glad that it is Christmas.

THE CHIEF'S CORNER

By ROYCE L. GOODSON
Chief of Police
Friona Police Department

Most people have experienced the "oh no" feeling after seeing a police car in the rear view mirror. Most people hit their brakes, even if they are not speeding.

Personal reactions and experiences can influence perceptions of traffic enforcement efforts, and often prevent people from realizing its true benefits. Traffic enforcement is the most recognizable and universal police function. Marked police cars are easy to see and most Americans have been stopped for a traffic violation. Because of the punitive consequences attached to traffic enforcement, many do not have an appreciation for the positive benefits. Additionally myths can result from misconception about the goals and motivations of traffic enforcement. We need to dispel the myths and know the facts:

Myth—Traffic problems are not that big of a deal.
Fact—The average American is more likely to be involved in a traffic crash than be a victim of a crime.

Myth—If I am injured in a traffic crash, it affects only me.
Fact—Everyone pays for traffic crashes and economic costs are significantly more than crime. In 1995 crashes cost Americans $150 billion dollars.

Fact—I personally have collected detailed statistics that show a dramatic increase in traffic accidents when traffic enforcement declines. The opposite occurs when there is an increase in traffic enforcement, the number of accidents decline.

Myth—Police Officers should be arresting criminals, not writing traffic tickets.

Fact—Traffic enforcement regularly identifies criminals and results in their apprehension.

A license plate violation resulted in the apprehension of the suspect in the Oklahoma City Federal Building bombing.

During 1994, traffic enforcement stops in Grand Prairie, Texas, accounted for 66 percent of all warrant arrests and 50 percent of the arrests made for non-traffic related offenses.

In Peoria, Illinois, an increase in traffic enforcement contributed to a six percent decrease in violent crimes and a twelve percent decrease in crashes.

Stolen vehicles are often recovered from traffic stops.

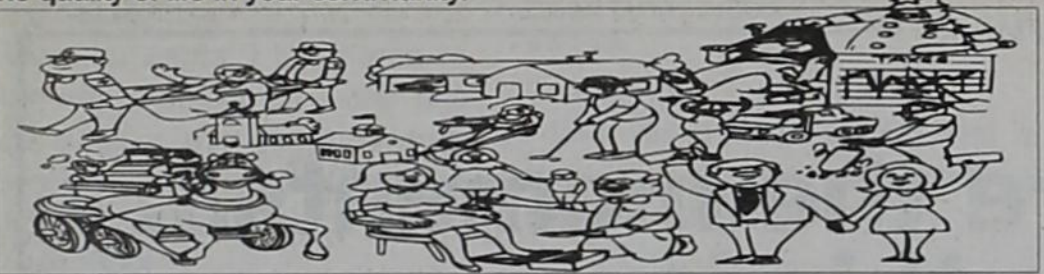

Drugs, weapons, contraband and fugitives are all frequently found in vehicles during "routine" traffic stops.

Criminals normally get to work the same way as the average person, they drive a vehicle, and often the fruits of their crime can be found in the same vehicle they are operating.

September 1, 2003, a law was passed in Texas to protect law enforcement officers while they are conducting a traffic stop. The law now requires the following:

Drivers must vacate the lane closest to the emergency vehicle when driving on a highway with two or more lanes traveling in the direction of the emergency vehicle; or slow to a speed not exceed twenty miles per hour less than the posted speed limit when the posted speed limit is 25 miles per hour or more, five miles per hour when the posted speed limit is less than 25 miles per hour.

When you see a car pulled over, remember that the law enforcement officer may be doing more than writing a traffic citation. The officer may be apprehending a felon, child molester, a murderer or removing weapons and drugs from your community. Traffic enforcement can, and does, contribute to the quality of life in your community.

Onion Poultice Miracle

By Marvel L. Stephen

Before the days of "wonder drugs", pneumonia was an extremely serious illness. A bout of pneumonia called for home remedies and helping a neighbor in need.

I believe my father would have rather helped someone than go hunting—and that's really saying something. He was an excellent shot and almost never came home without a deer, elk or moose to provide meat for months to come.

Mother canned much of it and made her special mincemeat, and my father made some of it into jerky each hunting season.

Back in the 1920s, we lived along a country road lined with a few small farms of about 4-10 acres each. We all had at least one cow, a pig and some chickens, and sometimes ducks and rabbits. The wives took charge of the children, the livestock and a large garden. The husbands worked wherever they could find jobs.

One winter, during one of Daddy's jobless periods, our neighbor Johnny became very ill with pneumonia. Daddy checked on him each day. One day he reported to Mother and me that it didn't look good. If the crisis didn't come soon, he was afraid Johnny wouldn't make it.

My usually jovial father quietly told Mother that they would have to make onion poultices for Johnny. They'd use a worn-out woolen blanket to make square poultices about the size of his chest and back.

My Mother immediately began sewing the bags and cooking sliced onions in a huge kettle on our trustworthy kitchen stove. I was big enough to keep the wood box full of split wood from the woodpile outside the kitchen door.

Daddy began filling the poultice bags with smelly onions. When he had filled four bags and sewn them shut, he put them in the roaster pan, jumped into our ancient Dodge touring car and drove over the icy, rutted road the short distance to Johnny's house. Minnie quickly put the poultices on Johnny's chest and back, holding them on with a towel pinned firmly in place. The two extra poultices were placed in the oven to stay hot until it was time to replace the first pair when they cooled. This continued throughout the night.

When Daddy finally came home early the next morning, he told us that Johnny's fever had broken in the night and the crisis had passed. Johnny would be all right, though he'd have to be very careful not to have a setback.

Johnny fully recovered in time for the birth of their sixth child, a little son. They chose to name him Walter, after my father. My father was proud and honored to have Johnny and Minnie's baby boy named after him.

Deadline For WTAMU Scholarships Approaching

The application deadline for West Texas A&M University scholarships is fast approaching, and students are encouraged to start thinking about the applications process now.

February 1, 2004 is the scholarship deadline for the fall 2004 and spring 2005 semesters, and that date comes quickly after classed begin January 13. Applications for scholarships are available online at www.wtamu.edu/scholarships.

The WTAMU scholarship committee has made the application process easier this year by eliminating the requirement for letters of recommendation and transcripts.

"Students should take their time filling out the application to ensure they include all pertinent information and proofread carefully before submitting," Velma Murillo, assistant to the president, said. "The holidays are a great time to do this since most classes are not in session."

Scholarships are available to WTAMU students, transfer students and entering freshmen. Last year, WTAMU awarded approximately $454,800 in scholarships. Students can apply online at www.wtamu.edu/scholarships.

YOUR EYES

CONTACT LENSES DESIGNED FOR BIFOCAL USE

It usually takes a few days to a week to get used to wearing contact lenses. As some more time if you plan on donning bifocal contacts for the first time. How long it takes to adapt may depend on the type of bifocal lens.

Segmented contacts work like bifocal glasses with the distance portion on top and close-up part on the bottom. Several visits to the contact lens practitioner may be needed to get the right fit. Bifocal lenses that allow both distant and near objects to be in focus at the same time are called simultaneous vision contacts. Although these lenses are simpler in design than segmented ones, some wearers cannot get used to them. A strong desire to wear contact lenses helps.

The monovision approach consists of wearing a contact lens on one eye for distance vision and on the other for near vision. Although this is a popular option, some individuals have difficulty with depth perception. Ask your vision-care specialist to suggest an alternative for your specific needs.

J. M. HEFNER

A chapel service for J. M. Hefner, 84, of Lubbock, was at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, December 17, 2003, at Ellis Funeral Home Chapel in Muleshoe, with Pastor Scott Malone and Howard Rhodes officiating. Visitation for family and friends was 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., Tuesday, December 16, at the Ellis Funeral Home Chapel.

Burial was in Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery, Muleshoe, Texas.

Mr. Hefner died Sunday, December 14, 2003, in Covenant Medical Center. He was born July 31, 1919, in Chimes, Arkansas.

He married Leta Mae Dickerson in Frederick, Oklahoma on December 6, 1941 and she passed away January 29, 2000. On September 9, 2000 he married Leona Evans in Lubbock.

Mr. Hefner was a graduate of Hills Business College in Oklahoma City. He was in World War II where he served as a Master Sergeant in the United States Army. Upon his discharge from the Army he moved to Altus, Oklahoma where he lived from 1945 to 1963. He moved to Muleshoe in 1963 and then to Lubbock in 1983. He was a member of the Muleshoe American Legion and owned and operated Hefner Bookkeeping and Tax Service in Muleshoe from 1968 to 1983. He was a member of the Broadview Baptist Church in Lubbock.

J.M. HEFNER

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Leon and Orville.

Survivors include his wife, Leona, of Lubbock; one daughter, Tana Young and husband Marshall of Dimmitt; one sister, Eula Mathis of Clinton, Arkansas; three brothers, Lloyd Hefner of Mira Loma, California, Jesse Hefner of Madera, California, and Clovis Hefner of Antioch, California; two grandchildren, Dana Jameson of Friona and Jim Holmes of Lubbock; four step-grandchildren, Patricia Conduff of Lubbock, Velma Grisham of Texas City, Jimmy Evans of Little Elm and Darla Rice of Canyon; and 17 great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to your favorite charity.

ROSA CASTILLO

Services for Rosa Castillo, 52, of Friona, were held Thursday, December 18, 2003 at 2:00 p.m. at Victory Family Worship with Rev. Rick Beard and Rev. Ruben Rivera officiating.

Burial was in Friona Cemetery under the direction of Blackwell Funeral Home, Friona.

Mrs. Castillo died Monday, December 15, 2003 at Highland Medical Center in Lubbock. She was born to Jose Manuel Perez, Sr. and Maria Rincones Perez on November 18, 1951 in Memphis, Texas.

She was a homemaker and a 46-year resident of Friona, formerly of Odom, Texas.

Rosa was preceded in death by one sister, Estela Montemayor in 1997; and two brothers, Amadeo Perez in 1962 and Conrado Perez in 2001.

Survivors include her husband, Mario Castillo, of Friona; three sons, Mario Castillo, Jr., Andy Perez, and Dale Perez, all of Friona; three brothers, Rene Perez and Jose Perez, Jr., both of Amarillo, and Sam Perez of Corpus Christi; two sisters, Irma Raymond of Friona and Amelia Rodriguez of Hollis, Oklahoma; and one grandchild.

The family of Jay Claborn would like to express our heartfelt thanks to each of you for your visits, prayers, food, memorials and words of encouragement.

Jay love this community because of the many kind and caring friends and neighbors. Your acts of kindness will never be forgotten.

THE MAGNITUDE OF THE BIBLICAL ARMIES

THE ARMY OF ISRAEL CONSISTED OF INFANTRY ONLY AND WAS COMPOSED OF SPEARMEN, SLINGERS, AND ARCHERS. (NUM. 11:21) IT INCLUDED ALL THE ABLE BODIED MEN OF THE NATION FROM TWENTY YEARS OLD AND UPWARD, ABLE TO GO FORTH TO WAR. THE LEVITES WERE THE ONLY MALES EXEMPTED FROM SERVICE BECAUSE THEY WERE THE PRIESTHOOD. WHEN KING SOLOMON RULED, HE ADDED CAVALRY AND CHARIOTS TO HIS FORCES, SWELLING THE NUMBERS AND THEREBY INCREASING THEIR EFFECTIVE POWER. HOWEVER, WHEN IT CAME TO GREAT POWER, THE ANCIENT ARMIES OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR OF BABYLON OUTRANKED THEM ALL! BESIDES INFANTRY AND CAVALRY HE EMPLOYED A CORPS OF ELEPHANT DRIVERS, POSSIBLY THE FORERUNNER OF THE MODERN-DAY TANK. IT WAS JUST SUCH AN IMPOSING FORCE THAT ONE DAY, SUDDENLY, ENCIRCLES JERUSALEM.....

...AND JERUSALEM LIES AT THE MERCY OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S BESIEGING ARMY.

IN FIERCE ARRAY, THE BABYLONIAN ARMY STANDS BEFORE THE LOCKED GATES OF JERUSALEM - NEBUCHADNEZZAR IS DETERMINED TO BREAK THE SIEGE AND END THIS REVOLT OF THE JEWS AGAINST HIS POWER AND AUTHORITY!

Thomas &amp; Virginia Rhodes (2003)

Rhodes Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Virginia and Thomas Rhodes of Amarillo celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception and brunch, November 23, 2003, at the Amarillo Country Club.

Hosts for the event were Robyn and Alan Rhodes of Amarillo and Rhonda Rhodes and Terry Howard of Englewood, Colorado.

Rhodes married the former Virginia Bailey on November 26, 1953, in Clovis, New Mexico. The couple previously resided in Bovina. They have lived in Amarillo for three and one-half years.

Rhodes is a retired farmer. Mrs. Rhodes is a retired teacher.

D. Maxfield & C. Clayton Engagement Announced

Bonnie and Mack Heald, of Farwell, and Dickie Clayton, of Bovina, announce the engagement of their son, Chad Scott Clayton, to Danille Marie Maxfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Jennings, of Lake Whitney, and Mr. and Mrs. William Maxfield, of El Paso.

Miss Maxfield graduated from high school in El Paso, Texas and is a Texas Tech University graduate. She is currently employed by Lewisville High School as an English Literature teacher.

Mr. Clayton is a Bovina High School graduate and a Texas Tech University graduate. He is self-employed as a Personal Trainer.

The couple will marry Saturday, December 27, 2003, at 5:00 p.m., (mountain time), at Holy Mount Episcopal Church in Ruidoso, New Mexico. They will reside in Dallas, Texas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

A Gift Idea for Christmas

BY ALVIN PETTY, Calvary Baptist Church of Friona

Here is a great gift idea for Christmas. Give yourself permission to learn to practice positive imaging. You already have the gift of positive imaging within you, from your creator. You need to give yourself permission to become aware of its power and practice it to change and improve your life.

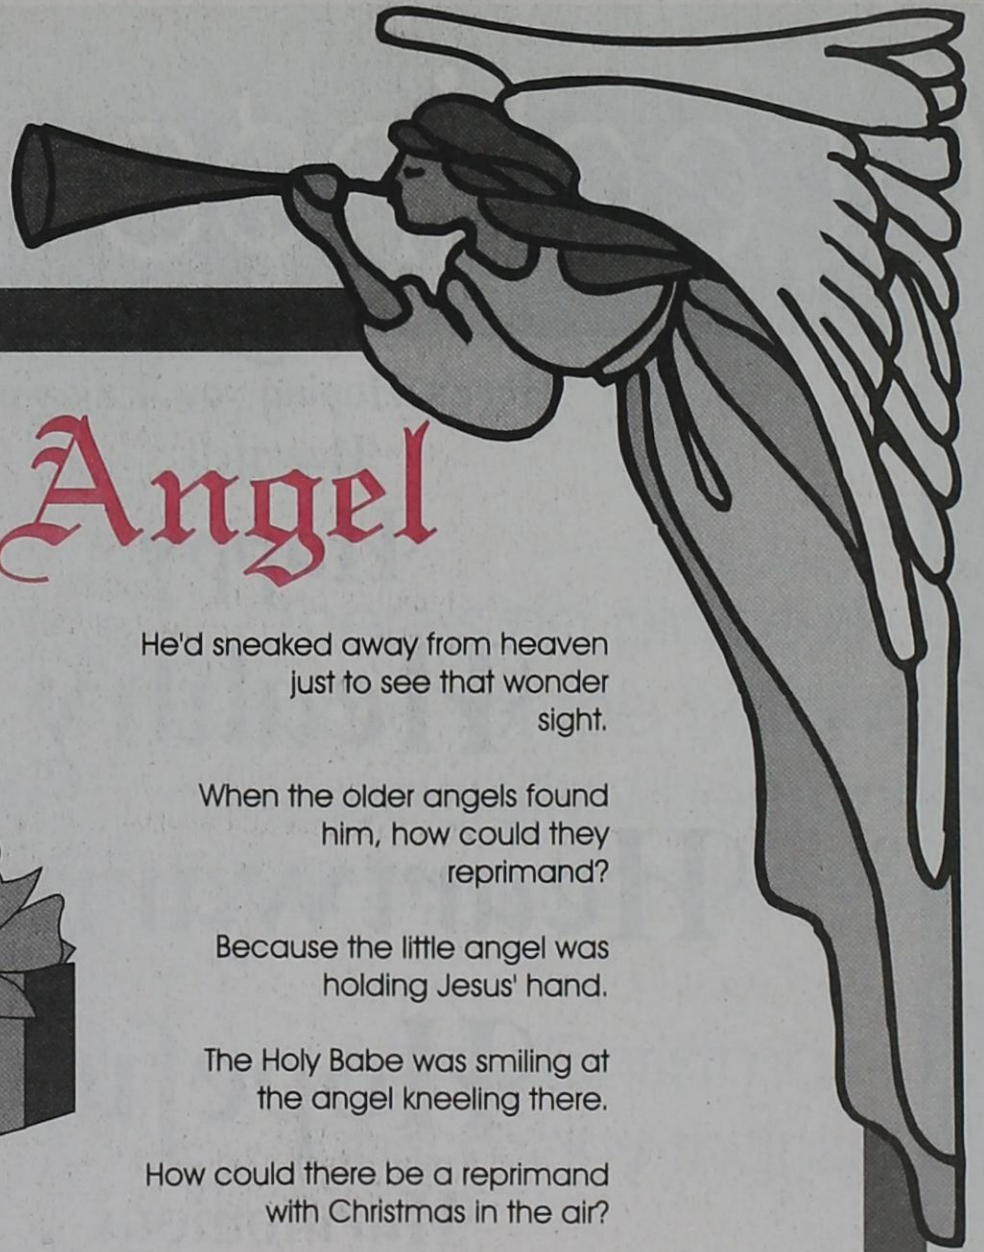

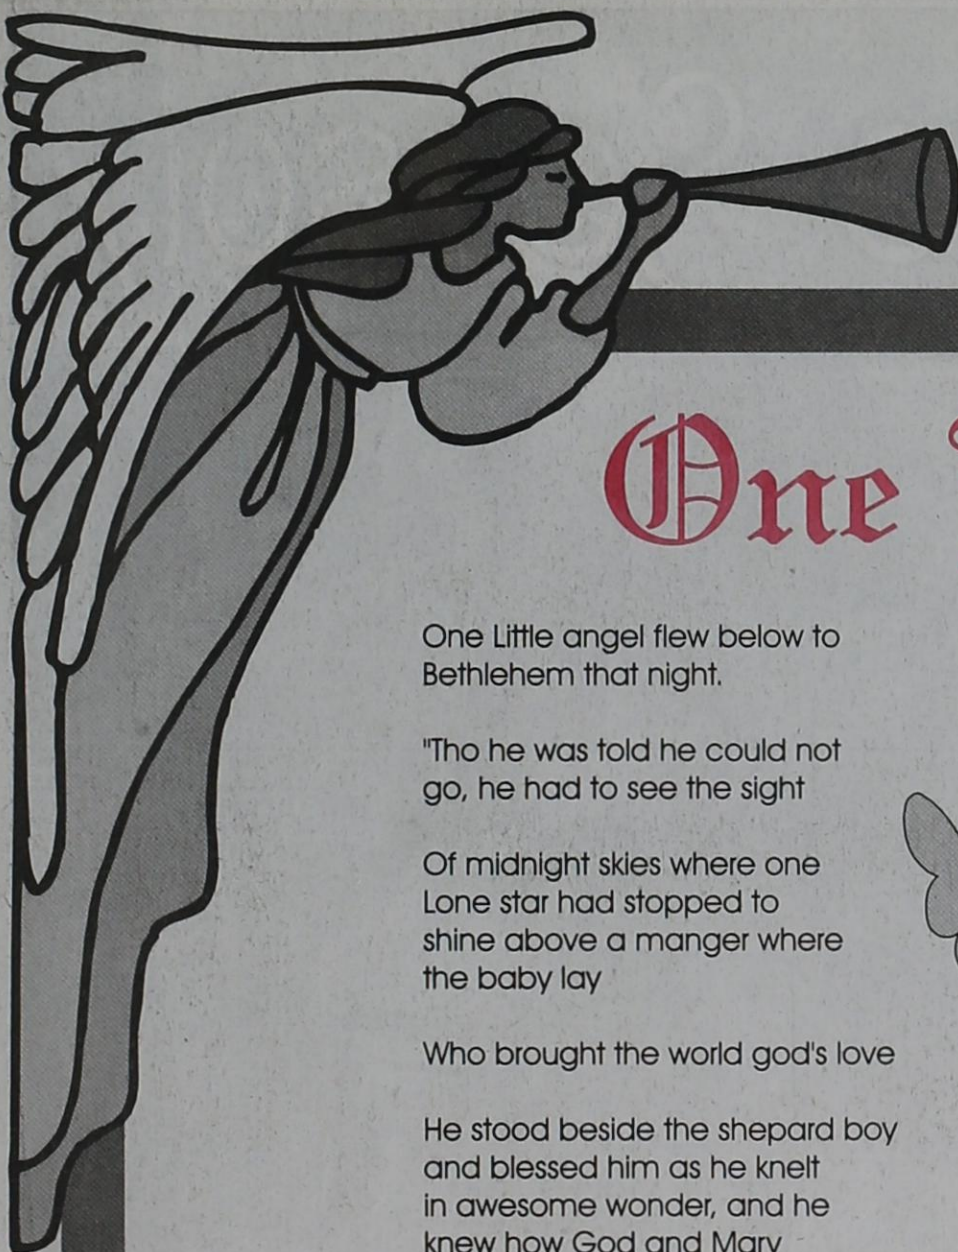

Norman Vincent Peale is perhaps my favorite American minister. Over the years through his writing he has been my pastor and has helped me to successfully keep and live my faith more than any other one person. He wrote a book, "The Power of Positive Imaging".

In it he says that positive imaging is faith, or positive thinking carried one step further. You not only believe your desired goal is possible, "but you see or visualize it in your imagination and reinforce it in prayer". Constantly seeing the goal before you releases inner powers that work mightily to help you achieve the goal.

Peale was a rather shy and inhibited young man with great promise. But his self-confidence was lacking. A college professor challenged him to change himself and live up to his potential. He prayed for God to help him change. He came to realize that an image "vividly conceived and stubbornly held has a reality of its own". He became one of the twentieth century's greatest pastors and most beloved speakers.

The depth and intensity of focus of believing in the images does make the difference in how well positive imaging works for one. Jesus taught us to pray imaging the desired goal and acting as if we have it and then eventually we shall receive it (Mark 11:24). We can use the tool of positive imaging to help solve our financial problems, marital problems, personality problems and loneliness problems.

Positive imaging will not help us to perform things impossible in the natural order. But it can help us to achieve our very best possibilities within the natural order or created universe. God's power does not come from outside the natural order, but it is all the power within the natural order. "God's imperial rule is within you," said Jesus (Luke 17:21).

One Little Angel

By Mary Dalton Crump

One Little angel flew below to Bethlehem that night.

"Tho he was told he could not go, he had to see the sight

Of midnight skies where one Lone star had stopped to shine above a manger where the baby lay

Who brought the world god's love

He stood beside the shepard boy and blessed him as he knelt in awesome wonder, and he knew how God and Mary felt.

He stayed there in the stable to keep watch that Christmas night.

He'd sneaked away from heaven just to see that wonder sight.

When the older angels found him, how could they reprimand?

Because the little angel was holding Jesus' hand.

The Holy Babe was smiling at the angel kneeling there.

How could there be a reprimand with Christmas in the air?

The angel kept the Holy Watch and stayed until the morn.

He witnessed all that brilliant time when Jesus Christ was born.

Christmas in 1940

It was our first Christmas at Boy's Ranch. Robert (my twin brother) and I arrived in February of 1940 and began what, for us, was the start of a wonderful and fantastic time of learning and doing that provided us with the knowledge and tools we used to deal with all the good times and bad times of our lives.

It was a time for milking cows twice daily, doing the chores that make up much of farm life, cutting trees into firewood, keeping the wood box filled, going to school and studying our lessons every night in front of the fireplace in the courthouse. And, it was a time for learning how to do things with our hands and how to think and do our best. We learned how to work together. These were only a few of our finest Christmas presents that year.

Sometimes I find it hard to recall what happened yesterday, or maybe last week, but it's very easy to remember that first Christmas. There were only 18 boys at the Ranch, and we all lived, slept and ate in the old courthouse that is now the Julian Bivins Museum. Our winters were cold, but filled with fun. We had one "retired" cow pony named Strawberry; Pet and Meg, our mule teams; five or six milk cows; a few chickens in an old bunkhouse from Tascosa days; and two lovable dogs, Jimmy and Scout. Our heat was the fireplace. We all wanted to chop wood, but the bigger boys usually won out, for using an ax and pulling on an old cross-cut saw took a little more muscle than some of us had. We all got to carry the logs up to the courthouse though, one by one, till we had filled our woodbin.

That first Christmas was more than "presents" to us. Every day was a "present". But, there were actual presents too. In early September, the Ranch was visited by "Mother" Bivins, who came from her home in Amarillo to see us. She let each boy select, from a short list, the one thing that he most wanted Santa to bring him.

By Boys Ranch Alumnus
Richard Strain

We wrote our name and what we wanted on a piece of paper and gave it to her as she sat in the courthouse living room, talking to us. Then, we helped her into her car, and we put our wishes away for later, hoping that they'd come true. Of course, they always did. Shortly before Christmas, Mr. Weeks, our Ranch Superintendent, returned from Amarillo, his auto packed to the roof with food and other "goodies", and of course, a present for each boy. On Christmas day, we all went into the living room, sat in a circle around our fireplace, and gave prayers of thanks for what we had. Then we feasted on punch, candies, popcorn and cookies before we opened our gifts. There were other, more practical gifts to excite us as well. We ate much and we grew fast, so we were always in need of shoes and clothes. Mind you, many of them weren't new in those days, but they were clean, and seemed to always be what we needed the most. Even now it's hard to put into ordinary words how much we appreciated all the donations that came from every direction to keep us clothed, fed, healthy and happy.

In 1940, our cook, Ms. Massie Owens, lived in one room upstairs in the courthouse. She cooked for everybody, six days a week, on a wood burning stove in the kitchen at the rear of the courthouse. She performed culinary miracles in her tiny kitchen. Homemade rolls, roast turkey and ham, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes topped with marshmallows, all the foods that we had dreamed about for months, we had for our Christmas Day meal—one that will remain forever in my memory. And, of course there were the "leftovers" that we enjoyed for several days after.

You see, in those days, the Ranch was young, and of course, so were we. We grew up as parts of one another until, without realizing it, we became as one. The love and discipline of those who watched over and guided us, the skills we learned, the training and ideas implanted in our minds during our stay at the Ranch came together in a way that enabled us to go out and make our way through the lives that we've been living.

To be sure, all our days weren't happy ones. There was much work and we had to do it all. We had goals to meet and were required to give answers if we didn't meet them. We had to study, clean a million dishes and eating utensils every day, sweep, mop, dust and stand "inspections", then go outside to do the many things needed to take care of our animals and keep the Ranch going. Older boys helped the younger ones, both at study as well as work. When someone fell behind, there was always loads of help from his buddies.

I will forever remember the visits of Mr. and Mrs. Farley who, more often than not, would surprise us, suddenly arriving at the Ranch for a short visit from the office. As busy as they were, and faced with the problems and challenges they had to meet everyday, they made time to be with us, the boys, who stopped everything but their chores while they were at the Ranch.

There are so many things to remember about the early days at Boys Ranch. The ordinary folks who gave part of what they had to the Ranch, who drove the then dirt and muddy roads to get to us, bringing clothes, canned goods, often homemade cakes and cookies, so many things, all of which we needed desperately.

I thank my Lord for my first Christmas at Boys Ranch. And, I won't ever forget to say "Thanks" in my thoughts and prayers, for all those who somehow saw to it that our needs were met.

Christmas in the 1930s

By LaVonne M. Sparkman

I was the middle child—not the middle child in one family, but in between aunts, uncles and cousins on my father's and my mother's sides of the family. All three families were close and we celebrated holidays together, taking turns hosting the rest of the group.

No one had a table large enough for the crowd, so we children had a separate table where we were served after the adults had loaded their plates with the abundant, mostly homegrown food. No one even thought of turkey during those Depression days; all three families raised chickens, and two or three roasting hens were a treat.

Without enough chairs to go around, we sat on the piano bench, end tables and apple boxes. Because we kids knew we could depend on Cousin Barbara spilling her milk, we never relaxed, but were ready to jump up to avoid the flood.

After dinner, if it wasn't pouring rain—as it frequently was in western Washington—we played cops and robbers or cowboys and Indians. The boy cousins supplied the firepower with their cap guns, although we seldom had store-bought caps. But we didn't need them; we just yelled, "Bang-bang!" The only arguments arose over who was "dead" at any given time.

Christmas gifts were few, but we never would have expected multiple gifts like we exchange today. My best present ever was a delightful surprise, even though I had caught my mother making it at the sewing machine after my bedtime. But she had been able to quickly hide her work, and that Christmas, I found under the tree an unbleached muslin doll with an embroidered face and a pretty dress. I called her Raggedy Ann, even though she had black yarn hair and did not resemble the original.

I learned to sew by making dresses for my doll. Now, almost seven decades later, Raggedy Ann sits on the back of my davenport wearing a red taffeta dress I make when I was about 11 years old.

Raggedy Ann was definitely a special gift from my mother. The most disappointing gift came from my older boy cousin. He was so excited about his present for me that he could hardly wait for me to open it. Thinking it must be fabulous, I tore the wrappings off to find two of the old 78-rpm records. So far so good, but for someone who disliked what we called "cowboy music" (now called country), it was a shock to see they were Ernie Tubbs records. In my estimation, he was the worst singer of all.

Shirley Temple, of course, was at the height of her popularity. A few Christmases after I received my homemade doll, my mother managed to squeeze out enough money to buy me a beautiful Shirley Temple doll the size of a 6-month-old baby. She had a hard head and legs, a soft body, and rubber arms that have not survived. Mother was so happy to be able to give me Shirley, but I never loved her like I did my homemade doll. Raggedy Ann was soft and cuddly and nice to take to bed.

We no longer have big family dinners. Barbara isn't here to spill her milk, and the cops and robbers of long ago grew up.

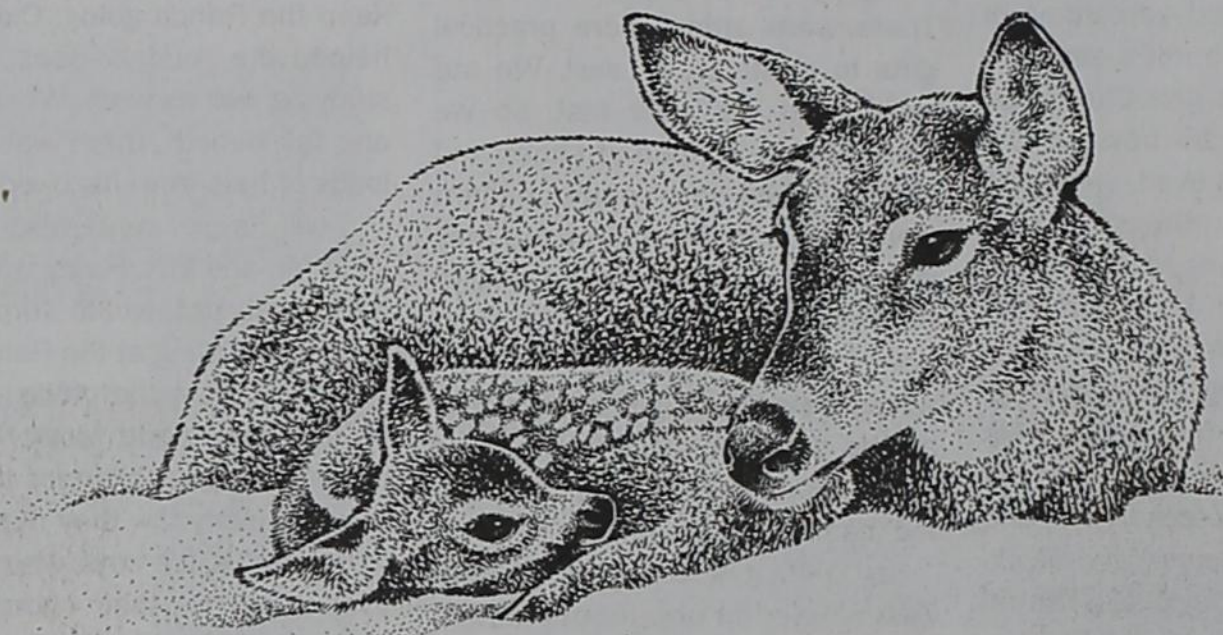

But I still cherish my fond memories of Christmas in the Good Old Days. (Reprinted from the Good Old Days magazine.)

...And To All A Good Night!

Contentment At Christmas

Submitted by Elders Ron Smiley and Gerall Wyly,
10th St. Church of Christ, Friona

Statistics indicate this time of year can be particularly painful for many. Contentment can be illusive. Life can become stressful. Paul learned to cope.

Phil. 4:11 "Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content".

Paul tells us contentment is something we learn.

Mentally focusing on what one doesn't have or the troubles one has tends to bring on a mindset of discontent.

Paul learned something that changed his life radically. Phil. 4:13 "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me". His mental focus was on Christ. Paul had much going on in his life that couldn't be defined as good by any stretch of the imagination.

It is hard to imagine singing praises at midnight after having ones clothes ripped off, taking a severe beating and being placed in prison. Paul and Silas were doing just that in Acts 16:25.

Another clue from scripture is Phil. 4:8 "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you".

Peace can be ours according to Paul.

Another secret Paul reveals: Col. 3:2 "Set our affection on things above, not on things on the earth". That puts Paul's mindset in a nutshell for us. He practiced what he preached. His affections were on "things above". May your holiday season be filled with peace and praise for Christ.

Coming Home For Christmas?

Submitted by Mark Stovall, Pastor, First Baptist, Friona

I want to propose that Christmas is all about: Coming Home. This year many families are separated because of the war in Iraq and Afghanistan. It just seems wrong for the ones we love not to be home at Christmas. This is a time when families should gather around the table for a meal, exchange gifts, and be close enough for love to flow freely one to another. Unfortunately what should be is not always reality. In some families thousands of miles separate loved ones. In other cases loved ones are across the street or even across the room from each other and yet are separated by barriers of greater magnitude than distance.

This is why I believe Christmas is all about Coming Home. From the beginning of His creation, God desired to have an intimate, loving, interactive relationship with us. The Scriptures depict the nature of our relationship with Him as being a Father sitting at a table with the children that He loves. Beginning with Adam we have proven our inability to be right in our relationship with God and often with one another. In a sense, we run away from our heavenly home and our source of love and security.

Therefore: "...when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons", (Gal. 4:4 & 5). Simply put: God reached down from heaven and provided a way, through Jesus, for you and I to truly be at Home with Him. When we have "Come Home" to the Father through the gift of the Savior then He wonderfully works to sustain us and to overcome the separations we are experiencing in life.

Sharing The Glorious Gift

Submitted by Donna Mears, Grace Baptist Church, Friona.

I look forward each year to celebrating Christmas and all the activities that go with it—decorating my home, Christmas services, cantatas, parties, gift giving, family get-togethers—but most of all to celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is wonderful to realize that God came to us in the form of a baby, became a man, and died on the cross for us, and rose again, that we may live with Him eternally.

I have been reading some of the early history of Texas and the Christians who came to make Texas their home. On December 25, 1821, Stephen F. Austin with his 300 families reached Texas and camped by a creek which they named Christmas and celebrated with a Christmas dinner of hominy and fresh milk. For this meager fare they thanked the Lord. When I think of the bountiful food that I will put on my table Christmas Day, I am really thankful for all God has given me.

I also read with interest about the term "tin-headed", that one of our early Texas Baptist preachers used. This term was used by preachers who sacrificed principle for the sake of popularity. As tin is a very soft metal susceptible to being easily dented without breaking the surface, so a preacher, whose head was soft enough to be marked by the hammer of popularity, soon had this appellation tacked on to his name.

Our Lord Jesus Christ came to this earth to give his life to pay the ransom for sinners who could not save themselves. John 3:16-17 says "God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him." He was tempted by his disciples to be a worldly king and suffered temptations by the devil, one being to bow down and worship him. Hebrews 2:18 says, "Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted." Jesus stayed true to the will of his Father and fulfilled all the Father asked. Laying down his life so that we might have eternal life is a gift that can never be matched.

So let all Christians everywhere truly celebrate Christmas as it should be—to thank God for His glorious gift and to share the gift with others who do not know Him, not being "tin-headed" and compromising God's truth for a temporary popularity, but, remembering that Jesus Christ gave all for us—can we do anything else but give our all for Him?

Christmas, A Wonderful "Holiday"

Submitted by T. Leon Talley, Minister, Sixth St. Church of Christ, Friona.

God made a journey a little over 2000 years ago from the throne of Glory to a stable in Bethlehem. God set aside His comfort and convenience and took on the form of a helpless baby, not to understand us, but to show us what He was like.

Actually, no one knows the date of the birth of Jesus. The birth of Christ was not celebrated by the early church.

As we celebrate Christmas, we need to be careful to distinguish between a "holiday" and a "holy day". To view Christmas as a "holy day" is to attach meaning to it that God has not done. Some have called Christmas "the highest holy day of Christianity". What that has done is create a seasonal devotion to God. Nothing could be more disgraceful to the teachings of Christ than to perpetuate the idea that being a Christian means simply to go to church on Christmas or Easter. We are to take up our cross daily and follow Him, not once or twice a year.

Christmas has come to mean a lot of things to different people. It's without a doubt, one of the most universally positive holidays we observe. It's a time for families and memories. A time for fruitcakes, cookies and gifts.

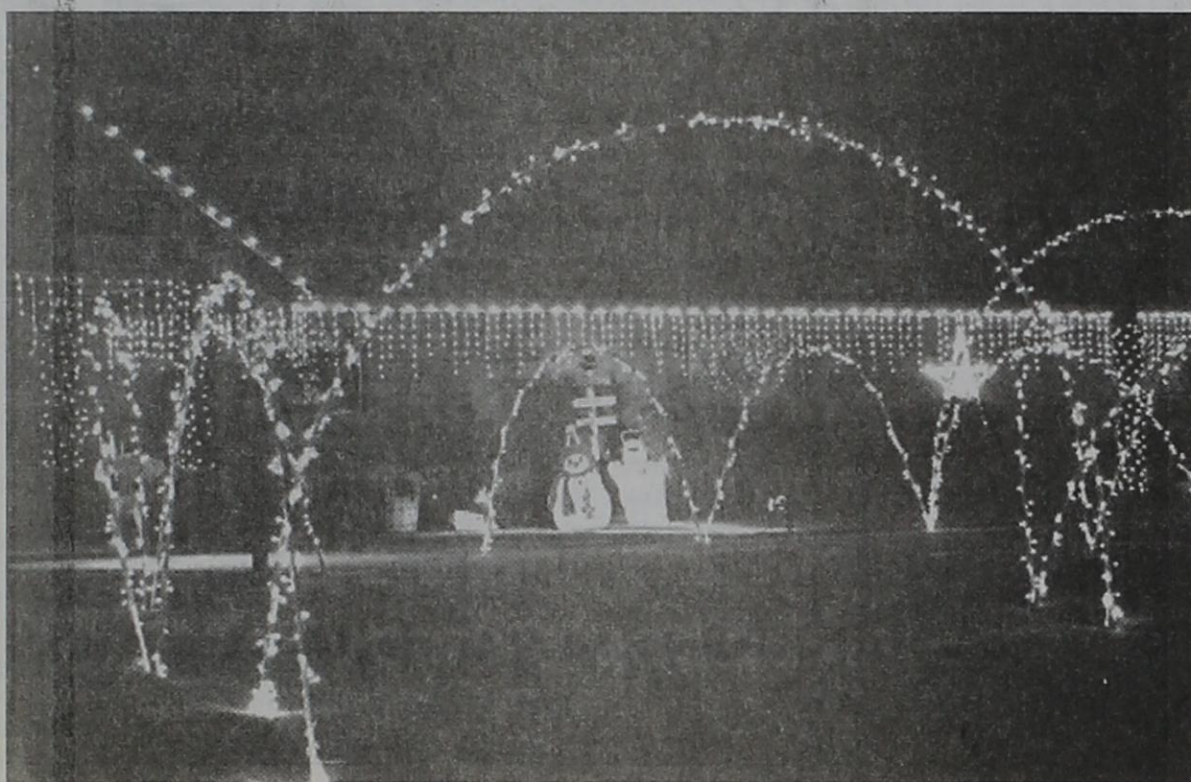

Christmas is a wonderful opportunity to teach. It's a time to look beyond baby Jesus to the ultimate gift of Calvary. We need to surrender our life to Jesus and accept the benefits of His death. We need to have our sins forgiven. Nothing short of that will make us right with God.

You see, Jesus didn't come to earth just to give us a touching story of a baby in a manger. He came to die!

Let's praise God for sending His son because baby Jesus changed everything!

Have a wonderful Christmas!

I love you, T. Leon Talley

The Spirit of Christmas

Submitted by Bro. Steve Patterson, Friona United Methodist Church

Christmas has a way of clearing up our confusion about what love really is. Minister and author Hoover Rupert tells the story about a beautiful incident that took place in the Mohawk Central School in New York State.

The principal of that school was concerned that some of the children were from impoverished families and would have no Christmas gifts. He set up a Santa's Helpers Fund and encouraged students to contribute, if they were able, so that gifts might be bought for the underprivileged children in the area.

One thirteen-year-old boy was touched by the idea. He scrimped and saved for weeks so he could help some poor child to have Christmas gifts that year. He managed to raise fifteen cents.

On the day the contributions were to be received, which was the last day before Christmas vacation, there was a terrible blizzard, and school was canceled. With snow and ice everywhere, no buses were running.

Convinced that there would be someone at the school to receive his money, this thirteen-year-old boy walked through the blizzard to the school and placed his fifteen cents into the hands of the principal. As the boy turned to go back out into the blizzard and head home, the principal swallowed hard and blinked back the tears, because he knew that this boy's name was on the list of underprivileged children who were to receive gifts from the Santa's Helpers Fund.

This boy had within him the true spirit of Christmas: unselfish, sacrificial love. That's the good news of Christmas, and that's what keeps us going. It happens right in the middle of all the confusion and chaos. I hope and pray that you see it, hear it, feel it, and share it this year...as never before!

God Bless You All!
