

$850,000
For Nixon Requested

WASHINGTON (AP)—A budget request of $850,000, nearly a quarter-million dollars more than provided for under law, is being made for former President Richard M. Nixon's pension and expenses through next June 30.

The budget request was developed by the General Services Administration after consultation with the former president. President Ford sent it to Congress on Thursday.

During his first six months out of office, Nixon is entitled to $450,000 in transition expenses, which is included in the request.

He also is entitled to $60,000 a year in pension, and the Former Presidents Act of 1958 provides $96,000 a year for staff salaries.

The transition period would end Feb. 9, 1975, at which time the law calls for Nixon to be eligible for about $150,000 in staff and pension funds through the end of the fiscal year.

But the request made on Thursday calls for funds of $400,000 to be provided for the period Feb. 9-June 30, 1975.

Not included in this would be the cost of Secret Service protection for Nixon or the value of the buildings at the former Western White House that he is using as an office.

Meanwhile, Nixon personally received a pair of subpoenas delivered by Deputy U.S. Marshal John Wetmore to his San Clemente, Calif. home.

One calls for the former president to testify at the Watergate cover-up trial of his closest former aides. The second seeks a written statement in a suit filed in Charlotte, N.C., claiming that White House aides and local officials illegally prevented the complainants from attending a 1971 rally in honor of the Rev. Billy Graham at which Nixon spoke.

BLAST VICTIM—Mrs. Susan Lower, 26, wife of John Lower, ABC cameraman, whose father is president of ABC News, is carried away on a stretcher from the blast site in downtown Tokyo Friday. Mrs. Lower was walking from a bank nearby when the explosion rocked the area. Police report seven people dead and more than 100 injured.

Explosion Kills Seven

TOKYO (AP)—An explosion believed caused by a time bomb in a business district street crowded with lunchtime strollers killed seven persons today and injured more than 125.

Police said they had no clue to those responsible for the blast outside the headquarters of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, one of Tokyo's largest firms.

They said they were searching for the driver of a car who ignored an officer's order to stop and sped away from the Mitsubishi building shortly before the explosion.

Briscoe Asks Probe Of Prison Shootout

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Gov. Dolph Briscoe has asked Atty. Gen. John Hill to initiate a public court of inquiry into the abortive escape attempt from the Huntsville State Prison in which four persons died.

Briscoe said Hill will file a petition asking a state district court judge to convene the court of inquiry, but he did not say where the petition would be filed.

Briscoe originally appointed a Texas Ranger to investigate the circumstances under which two rebel inmates and two of their hostages pected to return a capital indictment against Ignacio Cuevas, the only surviving member of the convict trio that held a group of hostages in the Huntsville prison library for almost 11 days. Prisoners Fred Gomez Carrasco and Rodolfo Dominguez and two hostages died as the convicts made their way, surrounded by the police, to an armored car and were confronted by officers.

Sandel said after an all-day session of the grand jury, that the indictment voted was delayed to prevent a conflict with pre-trial motions for Cuevas' trial.

EXAMINE TAPES
Earlier Thursday, a group called Citizens for Public Scrutiny of Huntsville said it would ask the U.S. House Judiciary Committee to investigate the Aug. 3 shootout.

Meanwhile the Texas Civil Liberties Union urged Gov. Briscoe to hire the watergate tape analysts to examine video tapes made of the shootout.

John B. Duncan, the TCLU's executive director suggested that as many as eight such tapes might exist. He also said that a tape made of the shootout with a hand-held camera contained a blank space.

Earlier this week, the San Antonio News had charged that prison officials at Huntsville were carrying on a coverup in the manner of the Watergate scandal. The accusation was made in a front page editorial following the disclosure of a Houston pathologist's report on the slain convicts.

Harris County (Houston) asst. medical examiner Dr. G. Shelton Green who performed an autopsy on Carrasco and Dominguez ruled that they were killed by bullets fired by the officers.

SHOT IN HEAD
Green said that Carrasco was shot once in the head and Dominguez twice in the head and once in the neck "by security forces."

However Justice of the Peace J. W. Beeler of Huntsville, who originally said the two had committed suicide said the autopsy report didn't change his mind. Beeler said that he never directly said they shot themselves.

"I said suicide and by just coming out of that building would be suicide," Beeler said.

NO COVERUP
There have been charges made that prison authorities mismanaged the situation and attempted a coverup as conflicting details emerged from various sources.

But Briscoe said Thursday that he and Hill "are in total agreement that there will be no coverup of any aspect" of the matter.

The court of inquiry will not be called until after the Walker County grand jury at Huntsville has reported its findings.

Police Chief Gunned Down,
His Wife Kills Assailant

ST. ANNE, Ill. (AP)—Police Chief Rudolph Dandurand was shot to death following a tavern fight early today and his wife, riding his rounds with him, took her husband's service revolver and killed his assailant and fatally wounded another man, authorities reported.

Dandurand, 38, chief and one of two members on the police force of St. Anne, a town of 1,500 about 75 miles south of Chicago, was often accompanied on his rounds by his wife, Jewell, 35.

Mrs. Dandurand also frequently took target practice with him.

SQUEEZED TWICE
When Selvey got out of the chief's car, a 22-caliber pistol fell from his shirt. Carl Tiberia, 30, of St. Anne, one of the men in the truck, picked it up and shot Dandurand once in the left side, Dobberphul said.

Tiberia took a second shot at the car, missed and then Mrs. Dandurand squeezed off two shots, killing Tiberia and Selvey, the investigator added. Dandurand died 40 minutes later.

Authorities said there was no immediate explanation as to why Selvey was shot.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for President Ford ruled out any tax increase requests for this year but would not do the same for 1975. Press Secretary Jerald F. terHorst said it would be unrealistic to expect congressional action on taxes in the remaining weeks of the 1974 session. Asked whether a tax increase to fight inflation would be part of the President's 1975 legislative program, terHorst said this is the "sort of issue a president always has before him" and that tax boosts sometimes are needed "just as a practical governmental matter."

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford reaffirmed his opposition to limiting grain exports, even as the Agriculture Department was reporting a surge in corn buying by the Common Market nations. A department spokesman said the mineration European market has ordered nearly 368.5 million bushels of corn for the marketing year starting Oct. 1. A week ago, the total for the year was only 204.8 million bushels. But the spokesman termed the increase merely speculative and predicted that much of the corn would not be shipped.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prices that consumers pay for petroleum products may have to be forced up as part of the project to make the United States more self-sufficient in energy, a top Treasury Department official said. Jack F. Bennett, undersecretary for monetary funds, said the government might have to act on prices as a move to cut demand and encourage development of alternative energy sources. Bennett commented a day after President Ford urged that the program, known as Project Independence, be accelerated.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford is planning personal meetings with European leaders and looks forward to "a productive and cooperative relationship" despite an edgy exchange with French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing. Ford's views on European relationships were reflected in a deliberately worded White House statement issued two days after Giscard criticized the U.S. President for not mentioning Europe in a major speech to Congress.

SOMERS, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut corrections officials say they are pleased with the success thus far of a controversial program that uses electric shock treatment and psychological conditioning on men serving terms for molesting children. Roger Wolfe, administrator of the program, says that in the last 18 months 11 men who have undergone the treatment have been released from the state prison here. None have been rearrested for sexual offenses, he says.

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—In an era when legal abortions and birth control pills are making homes for unwed mothers as outdated as necking in the back seat, there is just such a home here that is doing a booming business. St. Therese Hospital's program began a year ago when many other homes for unwed mothers were closing because of the Supreme Court's 1973 ruling permitting abortion. Fifty-four women now are participating and about 55 per cent of the 67 children born have been put up for adoption through unrelated agencies.

shortly before the explosion.

The blast left a hole the size of a football in the cement sidewalk at the entrance to the building. Two minutes before the explosion, a caller warned a Mitsubishi telephone operator that two time bombs had been set and "the operator should let everyone know quickly so they could seek shelter."

After the explosion, a call to Mitsubishi's Osaka office warned, "We'll conduct a class struggle tomorrow similar to what happened today in Tokyo." Police said that caller might be a prankster.

Mitsubishi is Japan's major defense contractor, but it has not been involved in any major public controversies.

The explosion blew out most windows in the office buildings within a block or two, and many persons on the streets were cut by flying glass.

Two of the dead were passersby whose legs were torn off. A third body was blown against the side of an old clothes truck parked at the curb.

Two other people died in the Mitsubishi lobby, apparently ripped apart by half-inch-thick glass shards from the building's doors. The walls and floor of the lobby were sprayed with blood.

One American woman was among the injured on the street. She was Susan Lower, wife of John W. Lower, a cameraman for the American Broadcasting Co. and son of Elmer Lower, president of ABC News. She was cut on the leg by flying glass.

Airport
Funds Get Approval

A grant application for funds for Howard county from the Federal Aviation Administration was given approval for the grant application review committee of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission.

It will go next to the planning council board. The total grant is for $73,500, with $17,500 to be paid by the county.

It is to fund the acquisition of a fire and rescue vehicle and construction of a vehicle shelter.

According to the details of the request from the commissioners court, "The new fire vehicle would bring Howard County into compliance with airport regulations" and insure the city of Big Spring it would be more apt to "keep present commercial air service and increase turbo jet traffic."

Commissioners pointed out in the application that the airport is presently using equipment under a waiver of the regulations until a new truck can be obtained.

Folks Get Jobs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—President Ford got a warm welcome to Ohio's biggest campus today where he told 2,500 members of a graduating class that his administration will help young people "get a job that makes sense as well as money."

Ford was applauded frequently by some 10,000 Ohio State seniors, relatives and friends at the graduation ceremony in the school's basketball fieldhouse.

The only signs of dissent were placards critical of the nation's Cyprus policy, held up by a handful of demonstrators outside the hall.

Speaking at summer commencement exercises, Ford said too many college graduates find a lack of job opportunities for their skills and, after further study and the acquisition of new talents, are told they are overqualified for employment.

Rain Threatening Major Flooding Near Junction

Deluges of rain cascaded onto Texas for a third straight day as a stalled front kept triggering floods and violent weather across broad areas today.

Six inches or more of additional rain threatened major flooding around Junction and downstream on the Llano River, the National Weather Service said. Water surged over U.S. 377 northeast of Junction.

30-FOOT CREST
Conditions were nearly as serious in many other areas over Central Texas and into the southeast part of the state as numerous rivers and creeks carried raging crests and overflowed into lowlands.

Residents in the Junction vicinity were warned that a 30-foot crest was nearing that city and flood stage there is just 14 feet. The National Weather Service said serious flooding was expected on the north and south forks of the Llano above Junction and along the main stream from there down to the town of Llano.

A special advisory for areas along the Guadalupe River urged precautions against flooding from Ingram to below Kerrville. Radar detected downpours at the rate of 2 inches per hour at many points, official observers reported, and another center of some of the heaviest rain was from around Lufkin to College Station.

Weather service employees were kept busy for hours issuing one flash flood warning after another for various counties.

TRAVEL HAZARDOUS

Even in localities which escaped flooding, violent thunderstorms and sheets of rain made travel hazardous on streets and highways. The continuing rains followed on the heels of turbulence which spawned a baker's dozen tornadoes late Thursday at or near Lubbock, Abilene, Lorraine, Eden and far to the south in the Houston vicinity. While several funnel clouds apparently touched ground in open areas,

Students Lose Musical Gear

Cars belonging to high school students parked in the parking lot near Birdwell park were the targets for two separate thefts from autos reported Thursday.

Dale Martin reported that sometime during school hours Thursday, someone entered his car which was not locked and took a tape deck and nine tapes valued at $70.

Robert Vella reported that someone broke the left hand front window of his car and entered and took a tape player, seven tapes and two speakers valued at $134. His car was locked. Both thefts occurred sometime during school hours.

The only other theft reported Thursday was at Gibson's where a shoplifter was apprehended and charged with theft under $5.

Court Refuses To Free Psychiatrist In Jail

HOUSTON (AP) — An attorney for a Houston psychiatrist who refused to testify in court because he was not paid said he would return to the Texas Supreme Court today to seek the psychiatrist's release from jail.

The high court Wednesday refused to free Dr. Gary Jefferson Byrd, 32, who was jailed by Dist. Judge W. H. Miller until the doctor decided to testify in the case of a 15-year old girl. The Texas Supreme Court refused to issue a writ of habeas corpus to Byrd's attorney, Thomas Stults, because the court said Stults had not filed a statement of facts to support the application.

Stults said he would present the statement today.

When asked to testify in the case, Byrd said he was not being paid for this expert testimony concerning the mental condition of the teenage girl. Byrd contended his opinion was private property and to testify without compensation would violate his rights under the 13th Amendment which outlawed slavery.

Stults was turned down in Houston Wednesday by a federal judge who refused to issue a similar writ on ground Stults had not exhausted all state court appeals before moving to the federal courts.

Can You Believe It?

PRAGUE (AP) — An elderly man disregarded the red signal and rushed across the street. A car braked to avoid knocking him down, skidded the back door opened and a shopping bag spilled out. A spectator cried out and rushed towards the car which landed undamaged at the curb. An old woman was crying in the car.

The careless pedestrian turned to be the father, the driver son, the girl who fell out daughter, the spectator another son and the lamenting woman inside mother of one and the same family. All ended well. The car was unscathed, the girl got up on her own, they picked up the spilled purchases and piled into the car.

Council Adopts Official Seal

Big Spring has a new official city seal, adopted this week by the council. It will be used on city stationery, be made into an official seal to stamp proclamations and official documents. A giant version of the seal will be painted in the city council room behind the desk, where the council meets twice a month.

The selection was made by a committee headed by Mrs. Polly Mays, councilwoman who is especially interested in pointing up the history of Big Spring.

The seal selected was designed by L. B. (Mike) Paul, who is a commercial artist at Gamco.

SIGNAL PEAK
The seal shows a picture of Capt. Randolph B. Marcy with the date he visited the "big spring" on Oct. 3, 1849.

Behind him is Signal Mountain, thought to have been used by the Indians years ago as a signal location. Almost all of Marcy's pictures were made in later years when he was a general. Paul touched the likeness up a little and made him younger, and put captain's bars on his coat, his rank when he came to Big Spring.

"I wanted to emphasize the history of Big Spring and how old it really is," Paul stated.

"Most people here seem to think Big Spring and West Texas began when they were born," he said.

"The reason that I chose Capt. Marcy and Signal Mountain for the seal is that these things were here before anything else—even before the cattle and railroad and certainly before the cotton and oil."

Paul is from Chicago where he attended the American Academy of Art after he completed South Shore High School.

While in the Air Force, he was stationed at Rockport and liked Texas. He married a girl from Refugio, and they decided they wanted to come back to Texas.

BACK TO TEXAS
He took the Houston paper to read the ads and see if there was a job for a commercial artist in that coastal area.

"One day, an ad from Gamco appeared in the paper. He and his wife, Halie, decided, 'Well at least Big Spring is in Texas,' so he applied."

They have now been here eight years and "love it." They have two children, Kris, 10 and Bill, 9 who have spent most of their life in Big Spring.

His job is partly training aides to help with work at Gamco. He had taken visual aid training in the Air Force, which was one of the very first institutions to utilize visual aids.

For many years, Gamco concentrated on overhead visual aids, but in recent years has turned more and more to film strips.

Gamco's art department draws many still cartoons for those educational strips. "We haven't become animated like Disney yet," Paul added.

Many people who work at other things have art as a hobby. Paul works at art, so his hobby is the American Civil War. He reads and collected everything he can

Labor Day SS Investment Tends To Sharpen Interest

The 18th annual Labor Day celebration for the Permian Basin area has been set for Monday afternoon at Floyd Gwin Park, W. 10th and West County Road, in Odessa.

Activities will start at 1 p.m., said D. L. Willis, president of the Odessa Central Labor Union (AFL-CIO). These will include speaking, music, games, food. Speakers include Joe Gunn, Austin, commissioner of the Texas Employment Commission, and Sherman Fricks, Austin, secretary treasurer of the Texas AFL-CIO.

Music will be furnished by the Stardusters of Big Spring, and food will be fried chicken and the trimmings. Cash prizes also will be awarded for various contests.

There are no tickets, and the public is invited, said Willis. He stressed that this is a family affair.

Should weather be inclement, activities will be moved into the auditorium at the park.

VANDALISM

Mrs. Knight, 1600 Mesquite, reported a rock was thrown through the window on her back door. Damage was undetermined.

Social Security is coming under closer scrutiny, and among the reasons are expanded benefits and greater personal contributions, according to Carl McGlothlin, Field Representative of SS.

The rate has remained constant, but not the taxable income base, he pointed out in a talk to the Downtown Lions, at the Settles Wednesday. The rate was 5.85 per cent last year, which meant a maximum personal contribution of $632. The rate this year is the same, but the base was raised from $10,800 to $13,200, which meant the personal contribution was $772, or up 22 per cent. That naturally causes a closer look, he indicated.

On another front, the Social Security office handles half a dozen programs, including retirement, survivors, disability, health insurance, black lung, and supplemental security income.

McGlothlin touched briefly on these, pointing that there is an option for retirement at age 62 provided the beneficiary takes a 20 per cent discount. Total disability qualifies for retirement as though it were age 65, but if a worker is able to return to work later, this is reduced or wiped out. Health insurance for the elderly started out at $3 per month but rising costs and benefits have upped the monthly bite to $6.70.

Dates for the annual mop and broom sale will be Sept. 30, Oct. 1-2, and Vic Keyes will be the chairman. One of the immediate results of this will be application of several hundred dollars to help improve the sight of a schoolboy who punctured an eye when a pencil on a rubber band backfired, said Jim Lemons.

Inducted by Dr. Wayne Bonner into the club membership was Don Karnes, Aubrey Bryans, president, said the directors will meet the evening of Sept. 5.

JURY CONVICTS MAYOR OF PERJURY Corruption In Duval County

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A third person has been convicted as a result of a federal probe into alleged corruption in Duval County. A federal jury found Benavides Mayor Octavio Saenz guilty of Perjury Thursday.

The 70-year-old balding mayor calmly stood before U.S. Dist. Judge D. W. Suttle as the verdicts were read. Following the verdicts, Saenz declined to comment to reporters but his attorney James Gillespie said, "It was an unexpected verdict."
The attorney declined to say whether an appeal was anticipated.

Suttle, upon hearing the conviction, doubled Saenz' $5,000 bond. The mayor was released two hours later on a $10,000 bond after appearing before U.S. Magistrate John Giles. Suttle set Saenz sentencing for 4 p.m. Tuesday.
The jury decided that Saenz had lied under oath when he testified a $5,000 payment to him out of Benavides city funds was "compensation" for his services for being mayor.

convicted in May at Corpus Christi of evading more than $129,000 in federal income taxes between 1966 and 1969.
Duval County Judge Archer Parr, George Parr's nephew, was convicted earlier this year on six counts of perjury during testimony before the federal grand jury probing his uncle's business affairs.

Both the 73-year-old George Parr and his 48-year-old nephew are appealing their convictions.

Need For Center Is Emphasized Locally

A subcommittee of the Chamber of Commerce Council on Public Affairs met Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the need for a Family Counseling Center in Big Spring.

During the meeting, individuals from various segments of the local community discussed how the need for such a counseling facility could be determined.

Members of the subcommittee headed by Julian Patterson felt the best way to establish the need for the preventive center would be to conduct a survey of local businesses; state, city and county agencies; and various other parts of the community.

If the survey shows a need for such a facility, the subcommittee will submit the information before the Council on Public Affairs to determine whether Big Spring should establish a new agency, provide the needed services through the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, or contract with the Midland Family Service Association for a branch office in the city.

Investigating the possibilities of establishing a Family Counseling Agency here, the subcommittee studied the national and local statistics on family life to see what trends are being manifested in our society.

On the national level, it was discovered that one-third of all marriages end in divorce and the average length of a marriage is seven years.

They also learned that in 1973, 65 families from Big Spring went to the Midland Family Service Association for help. During the same year, 517 marriage licenses were issued in Howard County, while 383 divorce suits were filed and 245 divorces were granted.

The Family Counseling Center would be aimed at helping these families during their difficult periods, and to help the children who could be affected by broken homes and troubled families.

In the first six months of 1974, 249 teenagers in Howard County were in trouble serious enough to involve the Juvenile Probation Officer. Some of these youths went to jail.

An effective Family Counseling Service would not only help keep many of these young people out of our probation offices, but would also reduce the monies necessary to maintain these rehabilitation programs.

The committee has studied these statistics, but are conducting the survey to assess as closely as possible what the needs are in Big Spring and what services should be available at the Family Counseling Center.

Sunday Times To Cost $1

NEW YORK (AP) — Citing increased costs, the New York Times says it will raise the price of its weekday editions a nickel to 20 cents. The increase, first for the weekday edition since the price went up from 10 cents to 15 cents in 1970, will take effect Sept. 2, the Times announced Wednesday.

The city's two other major general-circulation dailies both recently raised their prices a nickel. The morning Daily News now sells for 15 cents, the afternoon New York Post for 20 cents.

Earlier this year, the Times raised the price of its Sunday edition a dime to 60 cents within a 50-mile radius of the city and on Long Island. Last week the newspaper said the Sunday editions beyond that area would also go up 10 cents to $1 beginning Sept. 1.

Dear Abby

Is She Heading For Hospital Honeymoon?

DEAR ABBY: Bug and I are engaged to be married next Christmas. We've been going steady for over a year.

Bud is very jealous and has a violent temper, so we agreed that neither one of us would dance with anybody else.

Last Saturday night we were at a club having a real good time. I went to the powder room for just a few minutes and when I came back, Bud was dancing with another girl.

I just walked into the next room and joined a guy I knew. I sat down and we talked.

Bud must have realized I had been gone for quite some time, and he came looking for me. When he found me sitting with this other guy, he jerked me up out of my chair and beat me up. Then he led me to our table and told me to sit there until he was ready to go home. Meanwhile he continued to dance with other girls. I couldn't stop crying, so I got somebody to take me home.

The next morning Bud called to ask some questions about our wedding and he acted like nothing happened.

Before I go through with this marriage, please give me some advice. Am I doing the right thing?

SECOND THOUGHTS

DEAR SECOND: Have some third, fourth, fifth thoughts. And then think some more. Unless you enjoy having your bridegroom rearranged, postpone your wedding until you are absolutely sure Bud has learned to control his violent temper. If you insist on going through with the wedding, that "something blue" you should carry is Blue Cross!

DEAR ABBY: I'm a guy, 14, but I look more like 18. My problem is that I hate to wear clothes. I know it sounds strange, but it's true.

We have a summer place on the ocean and I never wear anything in the house or in the yard when we go there.

I like to walk the beaches at night with nothing on. The few people I meet are young so they think it's sort of cool, but I'm not trying to act cool. I just hate to wear clothes.

My mother disagrees with the idea, but I see nothing wrong with it. What do you think?

NO NAME IN CONN.

DEAR NO: Whether you are trying to be "cool" or not doesn't matter. Wandering around nude at night in a public area can find you cooling off in the cooler. I vote with your mother.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is being married at a large formal church wedding and we are presently planning it. As is the custom, the groom selected the ushers. (There will be six.)

We are now informed that we must ask each usher if he wants to bring a date to the wedding, and if he does, we must send her an invitation. That's not all. We are also informed that these girls should be included in all the wedding party festivities — including the rehearsal dinner. Is this right?

NEEDS TO KNOW

DEAR NEEDS: No. If an usher is officially engaged, it would be gracious of you to invite his fiancée to the wedding. But it's not necessary for the ushers to bring dates. (They escort the bridesmaids.) (P.S. I am frequently asked if a "single" person who has been invited to a wedding dinner automatically has the privilege of bringing a date. The answer is no — unless there are unusual circumstances.)

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers want to know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Drive., Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212.

Yucca Into Downtown Planters

Big Spring Garden Club Council members, with the aid of city crews, spent Tuesday morning removing old jumpers from downtown area planters and replacing them with red yucca.

Fourteen boxes were replanted in what will be a cooperative continuing project of beautification.

Other garden clubbers, along with Mrs. Polly Mays, city councilwoman, and Daryl Hohertz of the city planning and zoning board, worked on the "big spring" area Saturday morning. The project there includes the re-routing of water flow and landscaping the area to enhance its naturalistic beauty.

Benefit Sale

A benefit garage sale, to aid a 10-year-old Ira youth who has undergone a colostomy, will be held Sept. 6-7 by women of Wesley United Methodist Church. The event is slated from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day at the home of Mrs. Mark Nardone, No. 2 Glenwick Cove, Highland South.

Africans Big Name Choosers

The Ashanti of West Africa believe that the day of the week on which a child is born determines his character. He is named according to his day of birth.

A study of police records there showed boys whose names indicated aggressiveness and troublemaking were guilty far more often of violent crimes such as assault and murder than those whose names suggested passivity.

Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284 draped its charter Tuesday evening in honor of two former members, the late Gordon Gross and Mrs. A. C. Wilkerson. The meeting was held in the IOOF Hall where the team ritual was directed by Mrs. Earl Wilson.

Mrs. Dwite Gilliland, noble grand, welcomed a guest, Mrs. Reka Akerboon of Rebekah Lodge 1, Mt. Vernon, Vir.

The refreshment committee for September was named and will be chaired by Mrs. C. C. Cunningham.

It was announced that 37 members will leave here at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, by bus, to participate in Pilgrimage Day at Corsicana. Twenty-five visits to the sick were reported.

Miss Lomax Hosts Club

Miss Twila Lomax was hostess for members and guests of the Sew and Chatter Club Wednesday at her home, 1306 Runnels.

The club continued its work on crocheted hats which they are preparing for the Philaeta Class bazaar scheduled in November.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Floyd Martin, 1503 Vines, Sept. 11.

First Methodist History Dates Back To Early Days

Back in 1883, the little town of Big Spring was in its infancy. There was neither church nor school building in all Howard County. Wild buffaloes roamed the plains; loboes, coyotes and jack rabbits led free, unmolested lives, and cactus and mesquite were the only vegetation. The first crude buildings were clustered about the Railroad Station, mere shacks, some dug-outs, and for the most part the inhabitants dwelt in tents.

The Railroad itself had been built under stress and conflict with the Indians. Nine saloons, three groceries and two dry-goods stores made up the business district. Cowboys from the open range frequently rode right into the saloons, "shootin' up" the town to enliven things a bit. Living conditions were well nigh intolerable. Big Spring was no "City set upon a hill." At that time the "gateway to the South Plains" was a tiny village nestled in a hollow enclosed on all sides by "dunes of yellow sand."

MORE SALOONS

But all honor to the brave heroic hearts who even then saw vast possibilities in this arid desolate region and who courageously began to build homes and schools and churches. In November 1882, a small group of determined spirits "purposed in their hearts" to found a church in this barren spot wherein to worship God, that they might rear their families in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord." They met in the home of Dr. D. W. McIntyre, a pioneer resident, and organized the first church in Howard County: The First Methodist Church of Big Spring.

Rev. J. B. Thomas was the first preacher; Rev. John A. Wallace of the Colorado Circuit was the first presiding elder. Services were held in the District Court Room until 1884, when a crude wooden structure was erected on the lot where our present church stands. These lots cost the Laides Aid, who purchased them for $350.00 and "felt they had been robbed." Money was hard to get in the Eighties, but the motto of these pioneer Methodists was: "Do all to the glory of God." No wonder they came out more than conquerors. Auntie Weymen and Mother Zinn made the first pulpit with their own hands. We can dimly comprehend the difficulties encountered by these loyal-hearted founders of Methodism in the West. But what good times they had and how they labored and toiled together in serving the Lord.

These names were on the roll as having been at the first meeting in Dr. McIntyre's home: MacIntyre's home; MacIntyre, Rossiter, J.C. Smith, Sutton, Wyman Painter, Zinn, Miss Maggie Blacklater, who later became Mrs. W. A. Mathis. Other names have come down to us — names we all honor and revere: Phillips, Pike, Weymen, Mathis, Stockton, Everly, Deats, West, Annis, Irvin, Evans, and many, many more.

A revival under Rev. Z. A. Green opened a new era in Big Spring Methodism. Mr. R. B. Zinn was the first Sunday School superintendent. His wife, 85 years old at the time of this writing, was a saint whose presence blessed all who knew her. For over thirty years she served as officer in auxiliary ranks and even longer as Sunday School teacher. Only in heaven can we ever estimate her influence.

In 1897, after heroic self-sacrifice and fervent prayer, the old structure was demolished and the "new church" built on the same lot. How proud all were of this new building, erected at a cost of $3,000.00! With what joy the membership labored for it! The pastor, Bro. C. D. West built the steeple himself. It was blown down when the storm of '97 destroyed the Baptist and the Episcopal churches, but was soon rebuilt.

FIRST MEET

The first District Conference ever held in Big Spring was in this 1897 church building. The women again "got busy," raised $50 to put up a tabernacle and brought Abe Mulkey to Big Spring to conduct a revival. The membership had now grown to about 200. Mrs. J. W. Ward was the first organist. Much joy marked the growth of our church; the first sad note being the funeral of dear "Auntie Weyman", held within a week or so of the erection and completion of the church in 1897. With added wings and Sunday School rooms, this building remained until 1923, when it was torn down to give place to a larger and more adequate building. For nearly two years Methodism again made use of the District Court Room.

In 1925, with the coming of Rev. W. C. Hinds as pastor, a new impetus was given the building program of the church. Long and lovingly he worked at the task of bringing all loose ends together and getting our new church as it now stands on the corner of Fourth and Scurry Streets completed. Our memorial windows, "things of beauty and a joy forever," were his personal idea. Mr. Clarence Epley was the contractor, who "finished the task." All Southern Methodism may well be proud of our $75,000.00 church which stands as a monument to the loyalty and devotion of Big Spring Methodists to their loving Father.

In November 1927, the Northwest Texas Conference, with Bishop John M. Moore presiding, held its annual meeting in our new building, proving the culmination and fruition of our golden dreams. At this time we were singularly blest by having Rev. W. G. Bailey assigned us as pastor. He has labored zealously for the Lord, "And mighty grew the word of God and prevailed." He has so built up the church spiritually that, when led by the spirit after much prayer, he suggested we lift the entire indebtedness of the church by a great and united effort; this past month the congregation as a unit cooperated, worked and prayed, to such an extent that today Big Spring Methodists have a splendid, beautiful church absolutely free of all incumbrance. The most amazing thing about this drive was the fact that $27,000.00 in actual cash was raised in less than two months time, right at Christmas and during the payment of taxes. It was a signal victory of faith.

With the continued blessing of the Lord, we look forward with faith to a year without precedent in the history of our church. May we too, "Do all to the glory of God."

Also, W.C. House, J.O. Haymes, H.C. Smith, C.A. Long, Alsie H. Carlton, Jordan Grooms, H. Dewitt Seago, Clyde Smith, Leo Gee, and J.B. Sharp (present pastor).

'Prayer' To Save Church

BEDFORD, England (AP) — The last hope of Bedfordshire County Council in their fight to save an old church is a "prayer" to the House of Lords.

High Court judges in London allowed an appeal by ecclesiastical authorities who want to sell the 200-year-old Howard Congregational Church in Bedford. The church would be demolished and offices built on the site by a development company. But the judges allowed the council leave to appeal to the House of Lords against their ruling. The appeal is called a prayer. The threatened church was the meeting place of John Howard and his followers. Howard became famous as a reformer of the prisoners.

Autoists Can Lend An Ear

A harried businessman on his way to an important conference, a homemaker struggling with her household, a family taking small children on a long car trip have one opportunity in common — a chance to listen to the Bible.

The catchword was "listen," not read. Because "The Living New Testament" is now available in stereo cassette form.

And since it is, the men, women, and children who haunt the pages of religious history have come alive for today's readers.

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

EASIER WITHOUT THE NET

Why do we enjoy games that make it harder on us? We equip our tennis courts with nets. We line our golf courses with narrow fairways and dot them with sand traps. On a chess board we grant wide movement to only one piece, the queen. In football a team has but four downs to gain the required yardage.

This is because man at his best is innately honest. He demands that his every skill meet reasonable tests. He's convinced there is no satisfaction—no "fun"—without challenges.

Man's religious awareness, which inspires our weekly worship, continually cultivates that innate honesty. Our Christian faith prompts us to develop divine resources of character and commitment. Far more than any game, LIFE tests strength and weakness, rewards achievement not failure.
