Santa Fe Has Derailment

JUST ONE OF MANY things we learned here at this office this week was . . . don't tempt fate, because she'll turn on you and have the last laugh every time.

After several years of putting it off, dragging the feet, and an "I-don't-wanna" attitude, your publisher was finally persuaded that we needed to upgrade this newspaper production into the modern world by purchasing a computer.

Our old typesetting equipment is getting quite cantankerous, outdated and it is almost impossible to get parts and service now. So wouldn't it be nice to pick a slow time in the summer, purchase some new computer typesetting equipment, and take our time learning how to use it while the old equipment is still chugging along? Sure!

I've worked with word processors before, but nothing as big and fancy as would be needed to put a newspaper together.

Bright and eager, early Monday morning, we met with the smiling, confident, cute, yuppie folks at the computer store. They proudly showed us all their expensive, gleaming new equipment with the cute little pictures on the viewing screen. There were cute little file folders, clocks, arrows, calendars, calculators and even a cute little trash can pictured on the screen. A cute little mouse ran all around picking things up and moving them around. Operating one of these things is going to be a breeze. Sure!

The cute little yuppie fellow loaded about a dozen medium and large size boxes into the car trunk. We got elbow strain from patting ourselves on the back all the way back to the office. What a nifty deal we pulled off. What wonderful things these lovely machines were going to do for us. How smart we were. Sure!

As we opened the first box to unload and set up all this new equipment, we discovered that we were wrong. These were not machines at all. They were components! It went downhill from there.

An electric cord is not a cord at all, but an AC power connector. A viewing screen is not that, but a monitor. The cord-like thing which connects to the printer is an interface. The on-off button is a toggle. After a few hours of figuring out that the manuals were written in a different lingo, and a few trips back to the store for some needed auxiliary items, we got the thing turned on and the little mouse went around turning things off and eating up what we had written . . . something that the yuppies at the store had assured us simply couldn't happen.

Well, that's okay. Sure! We've got plenty of time to learn how to use this new outfit in our spare time during the rest of the summer. Except when we turned on the temperamental old typesetting equipment, fate snapped shut the jaws of her giant mousetrap on us, and the old compugraphic said "H--- no! We won't go!" And it didn't! That gave us two whole days to learn how to use a brand new system and put out two newspapers on it.

If this paper looks funny, weird, strange, different, unreadable, etc., please don't call the office to complain. We will be at home, lying down, trying to stall off a nervous breakdown.

I knew there was some reason why I never liked mice!

At approximately 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon, July 14, a four-engine Santa Fe Railway train pulling an estimated 15 cars, loaded with 30-35 semi-tractor trailers, derailed just east of Bovina, and a tremendous amount of wreckage ensued.

The derailment happened when the axle on the fourth engine from the front slipped and dropped off the track, causing the rail to break and all the following cars piled up alongside the tracks. The train was traveling at an estimated speed of 65 miles per hour, which was within the legal limit for that portion of the tracks.

No injuries were reported from the three Santa Fe Railway employees who were aboard the train.

According to Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams, the area downwind from the accident was evacuated because of reports from the engineer of hazardous chemicals aboard the train. Until the amounts and types of chemicals could be determined, traffic was blocked on U.S. Highway 60 and re-routed to Highways 86 and 214.

Williams stated that there were small amounts of insecticides and battery acid on board the train, and once these chemicals were detected and it was determined that there was no danger, the highway was reopened after about an hour.

Diesel fuel was pouring out of one of the engines, and the Friona Fire Department was called in because of their larger capacity tanker truck. The Fire Department stayed at the scene all night in case of fire.

Approximately 50 area people were hired by Messer Enterprises of Hereford by Santa Fe, to sift through the wreckage and salvage anything possible. Santa Fe Railway also provided trucks and trailers for the clean-up as well as United Parcel Service, who had 25 trailers on the train.

The engineer, conductor and brakeman aboard the train were taken to a local medical facility and tested for drugs, which is a mandatory procedure following a train accident.

Until the track was cleared of debris and could be reopened, all trains were re-routed through Lubbock. It was estimated that for each hour the track through Parmer County was inoperable, Santa Fe was losing approximately $10,000.

Williams stated that clean-up of the area could take approximately two weeks, and the total cost of the accident could approach $3 million.

Williams said he would like to thank the Highway Department personnel for their assistance in directing traffic, and to the local fire department for their assistance, and to all the local citizens and police officers who helped with the clean-up and the directing of traffic.

UP TO 9 INCHES

Area Receives Great General Rainfall

Friona area farmers are all smiles this week, following one of the best general rains to hit this area in a number of years.

Friona recorded a total of 4.14 inches during a four-day period, according to the records compiled by Bill Ellis. The "monsoon season" started with a nice shower of .54 inches last Thursday night.

Friday night, another .61 inches were received. Saturday was the biggie, when 2.81 inches were logged, and Sunday finished with .15 inches.

Rain fell at a slow pace throughout the day on Saturday, and on into the night.

The Saturday reading of 2.81 inches was the largest 24-hour rain total recorded in the official Friona gauge in a number of years.

The amount of moisture received varied in places, although everyone apparently received at least two inches. One of the lower totals heard was a two-inch reading by W.M. Massie.

Jarrell Wright, who farms west of town, reported seven inches. Doyce Barnett said he received 4.5 inches, and several of his neighbors had five inches.

The Lakeview area was said to have received 4.5 inches, and the Lazbuddie area reported from five to eight inches.

Cotton Referendum Underway In Co.

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) will conduct a cotton referendum July 17-26, in cooperation with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS). Cotton producers and importers will vote on amendments to the Cotton Research Promotion Order.

The USDA Amendments call for importer representation on the Cotton Board; assessing imported cotton and cotton products, as is done with domestic cotton; increasing from $200,000 to $300,000 the amount the Cotton Board can reimburse the Secretary of Agriculture for expenses incurred in conducting a referendum; reimbursing government agencies which assist in collecting fees on imported cotton and cotton products; and, terminating the right of producers to demand a refund of assessments.

Voters may hand-deliver ballots to our polling places, said ASCS official Martin L. Chandler, "or mail them, postmarked by midnight July 26." Eligible producers not receiving ballots should contact their local ASCS office.

O.L. McMurtrey at Hub Grain said they measured 4.2 inches there at the elevator, with totals somewhat higher to the east.

"It came at just the right time. The corn's water use should be right at its peak at the present time, but it will drop off right away," he said.

Joe Allen, manager of Sherley-Anderson's Rhea elevator, said an even seven inches were measured at the elevator, and that reports indicated eight inches over to the west in New Mexico, and another report gave nine inches from the Schlenker place.

"It was just the kind of rain we always dream of. Awhile back we were talking, and someone said, 'Remember when it used to cloud up and rain for about three or four days at a time--that's what we need it to do to get our land wet,'--and that's just what happened," Allen said.

Allen said that the excellent rain had hiked the prospects for the dryland maize in the Rhea area. "It was hanging on fairly well, and this will get it going. It also gives us some good base moisture for a wheat crop. It won't take much more moisture to enable us to get a wheat crop started," Allen added. "The grass has greened up in this area, and it looks like a completely different country," he went on.

Farmers in the Rhea area reported rainfall as follows: Jack Patterson, 5.2 inches. "And, it all soaked in, except for where the rows may have run out in a low place. It was great," Patterson said.

Barry Allen of Melrose had 6.5 inches; the Broadview area reported nine to ten inches; Eddie Hanks had eight inches, and Floyd Cherry seven to eight.

Blood Drive Set Monday

Coffee Memorial Blood Center will be in Friona for a community blood drive on Monday, July 22, at the Community Room of Friona State Bank from 4-8 p.m.

Donors are reminded that Coffee Memorial Blood Center is conducting a "Blood Donor Sweepstakes" during the year ending October 31, 1991. Adults donating blood between now and the end of October will be eligible for one of six major prizes, including an all-expense paid trip for two to Puerto Vallarta.

The more times a person donates, the more chances they have to win. The chances increase with each donation. Two slips go into the hopper on the second donation, three on the third, and so forth.

Students donating will receive slips to be eligible for a new car to be given away by Ron Clark Ford of Amarillo.

Students' chances are increased in the same manner, with multiple registration slips when they donate more than once during the promotional period.

Those participating in the blood drive will receive registration cards, which they will be asked to bring back on successive blood drives so their cards may be validated.

Chamber Asks Input For Local Pageant

The Friona Chamber of Commerce has issued an appeal to local residents for their help in an attempt to salvage the Miss Friona (formerly Maize Queen) pageant.

"If you have any ideas, opinions, suggestions, or whatever, we would appreciate hearing from you," says Chamber manager Terri Outland.

The pageant has been beset in recent years by a low turnout of participants, and something needs to be done to revive interest in the pageant, or come up with something to replace it.

The pageant is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, September 7. Girls interested in participating are urgently needed to contact the Chamber office.

The Chamber has paid $1,000 in scholarships to four contestants in recent years, with the Miss Friona, first runnerup, second runnerup and Miss Congeniality being honored.

The Maize Queen/Miss Friona Pageant has been an integral part of the city's Maize Days celebration since the first one in 1957. This year's event will be the 35th renewal of the pageant, provided that there is sufficient interest.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON
I want to first comment on all the wonderful rain that we have been blessed with this past week. The residents really enjoyed watching it and have commented on how much fresher and greener everything looks. Now we will have to get busy in our yards, but I think we'll agree that it's worth it.

There are lots of thank-yous to mention this week. They include: Mary Roberts for the large print Reader's Digest and Guidepost magazines; Deb Hendley for bringing some saddle blankets and hanging them down the Horizon Wing (they really are attractive); the 6th Street Church of Christ for having the monthly birthday party; the Cancer Society for donating popcorn and kool-aid for the residents to snack on; Mary Crump for the magazines; Wanna Brewer for the greeting cards; and several nice ladies who have brought in fresh vegetables for the kitchen to fix. I apologize for not catching the names of these people but wanted to mention the donation anyway.

We have had several visitors around Prairie Acres. Mr. A. O.

Hill has had some of his family from Ohio here with him, unfortunately, though, he has spent several of those days in the hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery. Another visitor here is Blanche Boyle's daughter, Julia Warren from Oregon. I'm sure they are all enjoying the time with their loved ones.

We want to welcome Jack Tongate, but will be glad to have him back from the hospital. We wish him a quick recovery, also.

The following donations have been made to the Love Fund:
In memory of Mildred Barnett: Rex and Jere Hand, Jim and Christine Zorns, Maesie Flynn, David and Ann McFarland, Dale and Jane Houlette, Floyd and Eva Lou Rector, Larry and Jan Rogers, Butch and Paula Fairchild.
In memory of Polly Morris: John and Jo Blackwell, Directors, Officers and Employees of Friona State Bank.
In memory of Geneva Williams: Lillian McLellan, Jim and Christine Zorns, Bertha Lloyd and Penny Harmon, John and Jo Blackwell, Dale and Jane Houlette and Maesie Flynn.

Wedding vows were exchanged between Cara Lynn McDaniel and Kevin Z. Fisher on Saturday, June 22 at 2 p.m. in St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Lubbock, with Rev. Ron Fox, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. James McDaniel of Abilene and Cynthia McDaniel of Lubbock; and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson of the Rhea community.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Zack Fisher of Memphis and grandson of Helen Fisher of Spearman and Harry Barkley of Memphis.

Registering guests was Kelli Little of Fort Worth, sister of the groom.

The altar was flanked by emerald trees, Boston ferns and vases of yellow and white gladiolas. The pews were marked with yellow and white bows.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Sandra Blacksten of Amarillo, aunt of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lynda Underwood of Spearman, Leta Nester of Canyon and Melodie Morgan of Canyon.

The attendants wore dresses of white on white floral moire taffeta. The dresses featured scooped necklines and short puffed sleeves trimmed with white lace. The fitted bodices were accented by a large bow in the back. They carried bouquets of yellow roses and daisies.

Best man was Rob Harris of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Hadley Reed of Spearman, John Hancock of Abilene, Brent Munday of China Springs. Ushers were Russell McDaniel of Abilene, brother of the bride, Gregg Clark of Lakeview, Bart Thoreson of Gruver and Michael Ivy of Albany. The groomsmen and ushers were attired in Pierre Cardin cabled black tuxedos, black bow ties and cummerbunds and daisy boutonnières.

The groom was attired in a Pierre Cardin cable black tuxedo with tails, a white bow tie and cummerbund and yellow rose boutonniere.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal white gown of bridal peau de soie. The pointed bodice was covered with lace iridescent sequins and pearls, which were gently gathered onto the skirt. The back of the dress was accented by a large double bow. The dress was accented with a Suzette off-the-shoulder neckline and short puffed sleeves, tooled in lace, pearls and iridescent sequins. The hem and train were finished with white embroidered lace.

Her headpiece, a peau de soie bow, was decorated with a lace rosette, beads and iridescent sequins. Shimmery net cascaded from the bow and was trimmed in white ribbon.

The bride's bouquet consisted of daisies and gardenias accented with yellow and white ribbons.

The mother of the bride wore a short jade brocade two-piece dress with gold jeweled buttons and matching jade shoes.

The groom's mother wore a two-piece beige and floral dress with pearl buttons and matching fushia shoes.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. The bride's table stood before a white lattice background, flanked by ficus trees and philodendrons. The bride's table was decorated with greenery, yellow and white bows and a mirrored floral arrangement. The three-tiered Italian cream cake, accented with white and yellow daisies, roses and gardenias, centered the table setting.

The groom's table was decorated with greenery and a silver coffee service. The groom's cake was a Kahlua fudge cake decorated with chocolate covered strawberries and ivy.

For a honeymoon trip to points of interest in and around Orlando, Florida, the bride wore a beige linen city-short suit.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University with a special education degree and will teach in the Childress school system.

The groom graduated from Tarleton State University.

The couple will reside in Memphis where the groom is engaged in farming.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

SELAH!

THE BOOK OF PSALMS, ISRAEL'S ANCIENT HYMNAL, HAS BEEN CALLED A BIBLE IN MINIATURE BECAUSE ITS 150 SONGS CONTAIN EVERY KIND OF RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE—HYMNS OF PRAISE, LAMENTS SEEKING DELIVERANCE FROM TROUBLE, SONGS OF TRUST IN GOD'S HELP, PSALMS OF WISDOM, SACRED HISTORY, PROPHECY, ROYAL PSALMS FOR THE CORONATIONS AND WEDDINGS, LITURGIES FOR SPECIAL EVENTS, ETC.

THE CHOIR AT WORK, SINGING A PSALM IN THE TABERNACLE, AT THE FEAST OF THE NEW MOON, LINED UP BEHIND ONE OF THE LESSER PRIESTS WHO IS THE CELEBRANT OF THIS FEAST, ARE THE SINGERS, COMPOSED OF TENOR, BASS, AND ALTO VOICES, BEHIND WHICH ARE THE MUSICIANS, CYMBALS, PSALTERS, AND LUTES, ALL UNDER THE CHIEF MUSICIAN'S ABLE DIRECTION. IN THIS CASE, HEMAN, SON OF ASAPH, (DAVID'S REIGN, CIRCA 1,000 B.C.)

SELAH! THIS MYSTERIOUS WORD IS FOUND IN AMONGST THE PSALMS, REPEATEDLY—BY ACTUAL COUNT, 71 TIMES! SCHOLARS AND ETYMOLOGISTS CAN'T SEEM TO TRACE ITS MEANING—A MUSICAL PAUSE? A LITURGICAL DIRECTION? INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE? NO TWO AUTHORITIES SEEM TO AGREE! NO ONE KNOWS! AH, WELL—SELAH!

Town Talk

If you have items for the Town Talk column, call the Friona Star office for the next few weeks, as June will be on vacation.

*** **

Three residents of Friona participated in Cameron University's 17th annual Speech-Theatre-Debate camp earlier this month in Lawton, Oklahoma.

Mindy Johnson and Erika Bermea were the camp participants, and Joy Morton was a member of the camp's speech staff.

Miss Johnson won a first place in advanced dramatic interpretation, and a fourth place in advanced poetry reading during the competition phase. Both of the students will be seniors at Friona High School this fall.

D.L. and Billie Carmichael celebrated his 80th birthday with an open house on Sunday, July 14 in honor of the longtime Friona resident.

The centerpiece on the serving table was a cake covered with a replica of cotton bolls, reminiscent of D.L.'s days as a cotton farmer and later as manager of the Friona Farmers Co-op Gin.

The party was hosted by the couple's children, Susie and Steve Knox, Danny Carmichael, Fran and Smokey Tucker and nephew and niece, Linda and Mickey Griffin.

Approximately 200 guests were in attendance.

*****

"Uncle Austin" Ellis, who lives near Jackson, Tennessee, has made another trip to Friona to visit with his West Texas relatives, Bill and Carol Ellis and family.

Ellis, who was owner/manager of a paint store in Jackson for over 30 years, finally decided to retire at the start of 1990, at which time he was 83 years young.

He flew to Amarillo on June 28 and accompanied Bill to his Ellis family reunion at Bowie, Texas that weekend. Austin is about the age of the five living descendants of George Richard Ellis, who gather in the Montague County community each summer. Austin's grandfather and Bill's great-great-grandfather were brothers in Western Tennessee. "We're last cousins," is the way the Tennessean explains it.

One night while he was visiting locally, the local Ellises took "Uncle Austin" to the "Texas" play, preceded by a trip to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon. Austin was especially taken by the ancient oil drilling rig on display at the museum.

Austin was a visitor in Friona last fall during Maize Days, and was able to meet several local residents. He thoroughly enjoys himself everywhere he goes, and never meets a stranger.

*****
Anne Spring has just returned from a six-week trip visiting relatives in Burnley, England. She was accompanied on her trip by daughter, Gigi, who lives in San Antonio.

Anne said that her touring while in England was hampered somewhat by the fact that it rained every day but two while she was there.

This year, for a change, Anne celebrated her birthday, similar to America's birthday (July 4th), in her homeland.

She says she will take credit for bringing Friona's best rain in the past 50 years back from "across the pond." Good to have you back, Anne.

Western Heritage Park Plans Made

Officials of Thunder Junction, Inc., Clarendon, are beginning survey work this week on land east of the Greenbelt Lake dam as a possible site for the group's proposed western heritage park.

The recently formed board of directors for Thunder Junction discussed goals and plans for developing the park in a meeting July 11 in Clarendon. Members also viewed an artistic rendering prepared by the architectural and planning firm of Vaughan & Associates.

Thunder Junction, formed as a closely held, for-profit corporation, will dedicate a portion of its proceeds from park operations to the not-for-profit organization, Yesterday's Children, to benefit the Panhandle's senior citizens.

Officers of Thunder Junction are Bright Newhouse of Clarendon, president; Jerry Courtney of Clarendon, secretary; and Arthur E. Vaughan of Amarillo, treasurer.

Other members of the board of directors, which held its first meeting June 12, 1991, include Trey Chamberlain, Elmo Fortenberry and Delbert Robertson of Clarendon; Stan McClendon of Wellington; and Pat Kaiser, Mike McQueen, Dr. John Roberts and Roy McCoy, all of Amarillo.

"The people in Donley County are really excited about this project!" said Bright Newhouse. "Almost every person I have talked to and all the clubs have expressed enthusiasm and asked what they could do to help. Now that our organization is in place, we look forward to some things beginning to happen rather quickly."

Plans call for Thunder Junction to provide family-oriented entertainment--recreating the arts, crafts and colorful history of the cowboys, cowgirls, Indians and pioneer settlers of the Texas Panhandle.

The idea for the Old West park resulted from conversations between resource developer Pat Kaiser of the Panhandle Area Agency on Aging and the late Amarillo restaurateur Bob Lee. For more than two years, Kaiser has pursued the development of this unique public/private partnership to benefit senior citizens.

Two feasibility studies conducted by internationally known recreational consultant Don Stewart of Economic Consulting Services in Santa Monica, California, showed that a western heritage park located near Greenbelt Lake and three major highways could draw 190,000 visitors and earn a profit of $1.37 million the first year of operation.

In addition, Stewart projected, the park would create about 165 jobs on site and many more off-site as cottage industries develop to support the demand for "made-in-Texas" products.

"We look forward to working with the talented, enterprising people of the Panhandle to develop a quality tourist attraction that can benefit our entire region," Newhouse said.

SPS Region Is Tops In Cattle Feeding

For the second year in a row, feedlots within the area served by Southwestern Public Service Company during 1990 fed a record number of cattle, according to SPS's annual Fed Cattle Survey.

Feedlots in the SPS service area fed 5,570,203 head of cattle, a 1.9% increase over the 1989 total of 5,468,350.

The survey also showed that the one-time total capacity of area feedlots in 1990 was 2,887,275, up from the one-time total capacity in 1988 of 2,758,662 head.

"The growth indicated in the survey is good news for this region," said Dave Krupnick, SPS manager of agricultural and wholesale marketing. "It shows that cattle feeding is still solid and a vital part of the area."

SPS annually prepares a Fed Cattle Survey covering feedlots in its service area, which covers 52,000 square miles. The region includes the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles, the Texas South Plains, eastern and southeastern New Mexico and southwestern Kansas.

While most numbers in the survey were up, the number of cattle slaughtered last year in the area decreased slightly. The 13 beef-packing plants in the SPS service area slaughtered 4,661,163 cattle, down from 4,694,852 in 1989. At the same time, however, capacity at the plants increased in 1990 to 5,095,520.

"There are several packing plants located just outside our service area," Krupnick said. "That accounts for the difference between the number of cattle slaughtered and the number fed."

Krupnick said information from the Fed Cattle Survey is used across the country by ag-related industries. "It helps highlight this area's agriculture and food-processing industries," Krupnick said. "We have a good agriculture story to tell and this is just one chapter of it."

The Fed Cattle Survey is also showing growth in the total number of feedlots in the area, from 117 in 1989 to 120 in 1990.

The report also includes a chart on the ten-year history of fed cattle and the one-time capacity of surveyed feed lots, as well as information on the number of feedlots with 5,000 head capacity or more, and a county breakdown of lot capacity and numbers fed.

Copies of the report and survey are available at SPS offices across the company's service area or may be obtained by contacting the SPS Agricultural Marketing Department (806-378-2181) at the SPS headquarters building, Tyler at Sixth Street, Amarillo, Texas 79170.

Students Need Host Families

Host families are urgently needed for teenage students.

Reach-out for peace and make a difference in a young person's life, by hosting an international teenage exchange student. The Youth Exchange Service is a non-profit organization that urgently needs host families from all over the United States to host a group of teenage students from five continents, scheduled to arrive in August for the 1991-92 high school year.

These wonderful and deserving youngsters come with cultural visas, are 15-18 years old, are carefully screened, bring their own pocket money and are fully covered by insurance.

Families with or without children will benefit greatly from the experience of hosting an international ambassador of "Goodwill." A family only needs to provide love and understanding as the main ingredients to a successful hosting experience.

Each month a family hosts an exchange student through the YES program, they may declare a $50 deduction on their taxes. For further information about becoming a host family, please contact the Youth Exchange Service (YES) at their 24 hour toll free number, (800) 848-2121.

Border Town Days.

Charlie grew up in Farwell and graduated from Farwell High School. Though he has lived in Amarillo a number of years, he enjoys coming back to Farwell and says, "I like doing something for my home town."

Phillips became famous for writing and recording the number one hit in 1958 called "Sugartime." His original version was recorded at the Norman Petty Studios in Clovis. Buddy Holly played the lead guitar on the original recording. It hit the top of the country and western charts, but the McGuire Sisters' pop version gave it worldwide recognition.

Phillips was just a teenager in high school when he wrote "Sugartime" while driving a tractor on the family farm at Farwell. Since then, he has recorded a number of other country and western hits. In the 1960s every record he had was on the national charts.

Phillips has performed on the Grand Ole Opry and toured the country with folks like Jim Reeves, Marty Robbins, Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson and Brenda Lee.

"The Sugartimers" band members are: Shorty Messer, steel guitar, Jimmy Young, fiddle, and Chet Chalcote, bass. They have been associated with the legendary Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys Band. Other band members are Professor Frank Hardcastle, lead guitar, and Odie Scalieste, drummer.

Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the music of Charlie and the "Sugartimers"--whether you wish to sit and listen, visit or dance. He extends a special invitation to all Farwell ex-students in town for Border Town Days, to come out for a fun get-together of old friends.

Advance tickets may be purchased at Farwell United Drug, Hughes Auto Parts-Farwell, Bob Bradley Cattle Co.-Clovis, phone (505) 762-3970, and Cribbs Western Wear, Clovis North Plains Mall.

Re: Panhandle Veterans Hall of Fame

Dear Mr. Ellis:

Earlier this summer, I sent you a letter pertaining to the Panhandle Veterans Hall of Fame. I am taking this opportunity to remind everyone that the deadline for getting in those resumes of worthy nominees is fast approaching. I feel very confident that every community in the Texas Panhandle has at least one individual who is deserving of nomination to this place of honor. I sincerely hope that you or someone in your community will take the time to submit one or more worthy veterans for consideration.

As stated in my earlier letter, the resumes must be received no later than August 1, 1991. The resume should be as detailed as possible and copies of any citations awarded will be very helpful in making the final selections. The dedication banquet will be August 16, 1991, beginning at 7 p.m. at the M.D. Brown Auditorium in Pampa, Texas. Hopefully, the nominee will be in attendance to receive the engraved plaque, but in cases where that is not possible, family members or the persons making the nomination may accept the award.

Please join us in recognizing the veterans of the Panhandle who have played such a vital role in defending the freedoms that we all hold so dear. Please send your resumes or direct any questions to John Triplehorn, P.O. Box 657, Pampa, Texas, 79066, or you may call me at 806-669-8040. Sincerely,
John L. Triplehorn
President

YOUR EYES

EYE PROTECTION FOR THE ACTIVE LIFE

The active outdoor life of summer seems to result in more accidents that damage the eyes -- accidents that could be prevented with the use of adequate eye protection. A rapidly moving ball can cause severe damage. Better than ordinary safety goggles are those made of polycarbonate, a particularly tough space-age plastic. Youngsters who wear helmets for baseball and other games should have eye guards, too. Swimmers can get comfortable protection against the irritation of chlorine or salt water with well-designed goggles. Better yet, special goggles for underwater swimming or for scuba diving can now be ground with your prescription, adding to your pleasure while snorkeling or diving -- and your safety, too. Even gardeners should wear safety glasses. These glasses stop injuries to the eye from debris thrown by a lawnmower, and also keep chemical sprays away from the eye.

Good Planning and Discipline Win The Investment Game

Last fall, I watched a young quarterback lead his team into battle, but early in the game he made costly mistakes, lost confidence and was quickly replaced by a veteran. The next two quarters saw fewer mistakes but still no points. Finally, with little time left, the team played catch-up. There were wild passes, interceptions and fumbles. Mercifully, the final whistle blew, but the team had lost.

This team played football like many people invest. Some investors make early mistakes and lose confidence. Rather than learning from these mistakes, they play it safe and stop investing. The earning years turn into spending years. Late in life, they realize they will have little more than a Social Security check to finance their retirement unless they play catch-up with a series of win-or-lose investment deals. The huge payoffs promised by these deals turn out to be illusions that vanish along with the investment. Then the retirement whistle blows, and the game is lost.

What is the solution? Kiplinger's Changing Times recently interviewed six individual investors who each had successful results. On average, they began investing 16 years ago with an initial investment of $13,383 that has grown to $297,500! According to them, successful investing doesn't call for secret formulas; it takes "homework, thinking of the long term, and regularly feeding money into the pot."

Their philosophy is so simple that you keep waiting for more, but there is none. Although these investors differ in age, occupation, risk tolerance and a host of other variables, they all share common investing characteristics, and their philosophies are worth repeating.

1. Take a long-term approach to investing. Buying more of a good security in an unfriendly market makes more sense than selling at a fire sale. The success of this philosophy is illustrated in the profits made on investments bought at "inopportune" times.

2. Believe in your own research. Do your homework rather than jumping at a broker's suggestion or acting solely on a written report.

3. Make regular investments into your portfolio. This means not only dollar-cost averaging into securities and mutual funds, but also taking full advantage of buying your company stock and participating in retirement plans.

4. Learn from your mistakes, and continue your investment program.

5. Seek diversification, especially the kind that mutual funds offer. This eliminates all-or-nothing panic investing just before retirement.

6. Finally, have fun. Investing can be very interesting. The more you learn and the more often you invest, the better you become.

These six investors were selected not because of storybook success but rather to illustrate that disciplined investment principles can benefit anyone regardless of age, education or social status.

Just as in football, good planning wins games.
