Duggan and Lockhart— Thomas and Winston

According to the returns which were almost complete received by the Lubbock Journal Tuesday afternoon, Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield was leading G. E. Lockhart slightly for State Senator, and it appears that these men will be in the runoff. John N. Thomas of Tahoka was leading Homer Winston of this city by about 900 votes. Thomas had carried Lynn and Dawson counties overwhelmingly, while Winston had carried Terry, Gaines, Hockley and Yoakum counties, and led Thomas in nine counties, including Lubbock county.

One of the most sensational turns of the election was the defeat of District Attorney, T. L. Price, who was making the race for re-election, by County Attorney G. H. Nelson of Tahoka. All perhaps believed that Mr. Nelson was going to make a good race, but being quite unknown outside of his own county, many believed he had only a slim chance. However, he defeated Mr. Price decisively in every county in the district. The following is some of the latest returns on some of the state and district races:

He's Improving, But Still Sick

A Great Crowd Is Ex- pected Here Monday

Next Monday is not only the First Monday Tradesday, but it is also the first day of August, and in view of the fact that the farmers have had some four weeks of pretty weather in which to clean up their crops, a great crowd is expected here Monday. In driving out the past Sunday afternoon, we were gratified to find that the Terry county farmers had made wonderful progress in the past two weeks in cleaning up their crops, although there were some very weedy fields, especially of old corn, that will very likely remain that way this year, as many of the farmers are overcropped, and will have all they can say grace over trying to clean up the younger crops. And gentlemen, crops have made wonderful progress in the past two weeks.

But we started out to tell about the first Monday. Many of our merchants will have bargains for Saturday that will go on over till Monday. Some also have on sales—real sales—that will still be in progress Monday. While the grocery merchants are not advertising prices at present in the paper, they will nevertheless have an array of bargains, and other lines of business will be right along by their warm sides. You can come with the assurance that there will be many many bargains awaiting you.

In the afternoon, the Lions Club will carry out their usual program on the vacant lots on the east side of the square. There will also be other forms of amusement too, we understand. It is now getting late enough that we should have some good mule and horse colts on display here that day. We hope that the farmers will bring them in and let's see what it is possible to produce in the way of livestock here that day.

Me and mine are expecting you and your here Monday.

In the midst of the titters of the congregation, a proud hen marched sedately up the aisle of a church at Mr. Sterling, O., into the choir loft and laid an egg.

Huge Crowd Here For The Election Saturday

A great crowd came to town Saturday both to vote or to get the bargains offered by the merchants. Most of those from the rural section cast their vote early in the morning or just afternoon in their voting boxes, then came to town for the big Election Returns Party at night, and while the crowds around the bulletin boards were large, they were good natured and jolly. Many of the candidates had to take good natured jabs from them, but the candidates had the spirit of the occasion and took it good naturedly.

The eating places and cold drink emporiums had a good run until far into the night, as the night was sultry, which called for many drinks. You could not notice that the "repression" was on to any extent that night. Along toward midnight, when all the county boxes finally came in, the crowd began to return home. If there was any drinking it was not noticeable, as they were able to behave and take care of themselves.

Baker And Meredith Bonds Approved

Two of the four men indicted in connection with the recent robbery of the First State Bank of Seagraves, were this week released on bonds. Baker's bond being for $15,000 and Meredith's for $10,000.

Meredith was released Monday night and Baker Tuesday morning. O. M. Herring and Elmer Slaughter, two others indicted at the recent special grand jury, are in the Terry county jail at Brownfield, and we understand will be moved to the Lubbock County jail where they will be kept until the fall term of Gaines County District Court, unless they succeed in making bonds before that time.—Seminole Sentinel.

For 22 years Richard W. Oldfield of Harverstraw, N. Y., lived near a railroad and listened to the shrieking whistles and deep-throated puffing, but not until recently did he complain of the annoyance.

Orphans Home Girls' Quartet Here Aug. 1st

Mr. and Mrs. Casada, with the girls quartette of the Tipton Orphans Home, Tipton, Okla., will be here Monday night at the church of Christ, where they will render a program, following a short talk on the home, which is supported by the churches of Christ in West Texas and Oklahoma. This home has some three hundred children within its portals that are being fed, clothed and educated into fine young men and women, many of them going into the world and making a high mark.

The local congregation of the church has always supported this institution since it was founded at Canadian, Texas, several years ago, in a rented building. Later a nice lot of land was donated by Bro. Tipton, and it was moved there after some splendid buildings were erected. The Ladies Bible Class are clothing one young lady in that institution, and class No. 2, which the writer has the honor of trying to teach, is clothing one of the small boys. Therefore we feel that this great institution is our very own.

It is said that these young ladies have some very sweet voices, well trained and in perfect harmony with each other. There will be no charge for hearing them, whatever, and everybody is invited and welcome. Only sweet old gospel songs will be sung.

Clifford White Takes Over Filling Station

Clifford White has taken over the Conoco filling station at the corner of the Plains Highway and the Cemetery road, and will have his formal opening Saturday. Read his ad and see what he has to offer his customers opening day.

Clifford is a good, deserving boy, and we hope you can make it convenient to give him at least a portion of your business.

ARTHUR P. DUGGAN
In Runoff Race for State Senate

A Summary Of The State Election

In the election Saturday, there seemed to be a determination in many cases to get the ins out and the outs in. In the governor's race, it turned out very much like we figured two weeks ago, except that Mr. Hunter got more votes than we anticipated, in view of the fact that all the daily papers had ignored his race. In the last few days of his race, some of them gave him quite a lot of publicity, but it was too late. Even some of the country weeklies while professing not to have much love for Sterling and almost hated Ferguson, had no space for Tom Hunter, and some went so far as to say that he would get no further than a high school boy.

However, in view of the fact that he and a few friends and a scattering amount of small country weeklies were his only helpers, we consider that Tom Hunter made a very much more startling race than Clint Small two years ago. So far as we know, the Wichita daily was the only daily that supported him. Tens of thousands of dollars were spent in the Sterling camp with huge daily newspaper ad as well as ads in utility owned magazines and hundreds of paid speakers to put Mr. Sterling clear of a runoff, but it failed. The Ferguson supporters too, were claiming that there would be no need of a runoff. Mr. Hunter made no such claims, but in the last few days of the campaign, he did feel that he would be in the runoff.

Our prediction is that Mr. Sterling is going to have the battle of his life in beating Mrs. Ferguson. We also believe that Tom Hunter could, if in the runoff, clean either one of them.

The only thing that will save Gov. Sterling is the fact that he is running for a second term. The Herald believes that Gov. Sterling has stayed on the job and done the very best he could. We know that he went in as a rich man and before his first term is over, is a comparatively poor man. Conditions have been abnormal, and therefore the wrong time to really try the executive qualities of a governor. We know that he has made mistakes, but so have all others. Therefore the writer will support him for his second term. We supported Mrs. Ferguson for her first term and voted for her in the runoff for the second term. Turn about is fair play.

There never was a race that pleased us better than the sensational race made by Jimmie Allred against a combination of rich combines. Local oil men all over the state had to distribute literature or perhaps lose their jobs, many against their own judgment and wishes. Daily newspaper space was bought by the page, but Clem was taken to a real good cleaning and Jimmie goes back to his job of doing what he took an oath to do, and what the legislature instructed him to do. The Herald has no objection to big business institutions and corporation. In fact we believe we need them, but it does object to their trying to dictate to Texans whom they will put in State offices.

The race for Railroad commissioner, long term seems to be between Lee Satterwhite and C. V. Terrell, and a Terrell is hard to beat in Texas. In the race for the unexpired term of Pat Neff, Earnest O. Thompson of Amarillo is leading Gregory Hatcher of Dallas, very slightly. Mr. Shaver is leading Mr. Woods slightly for State Superintendent. In fact there are several horse races this year. The runoff in the Supreme Court race seems to be between Wm. Pierson of Greenville and J. E. Hickman of Eastland. The race for Congressman at Large, place 1, will likely be Geo. B.

One Reason Why Taxes Can't Be Lowered Much

Com. L. L. Brock took five little orphan children to Byers, Texas, this week, to live with their grandparents. Their mother had died recently in the Johnson community, where she had been deserted by her trifling husband, leaving them to the mercies of the public, and on the expense of the county. The Commissioners court finally got in touch with the children's grandparents who agreed to take care of the little fellows if they were brought to them.

The county has had many cases the past year or two of indigence, paupers, burials, doctor bills, medicine, and a herd of prisoners to feed, just of course to the abnormal conditions of the depression, which has amounted to some $1600.00. Yet many people are wondering why taxes cannot be cut one half, when the county is running on such a narrow margin, and all such circumstances as above to look after. When times were good and people could pay their taxes without any trouble, we did not have so many people in bad circumstances to care for.

Many counties have been calling on the Red Cross, for a least a car of flour, but Terry county has always cared for its own.

Waco Evangelist To Begin Revival Sunday

In conversation this week with Rev. J. M. Hale, pastor of the Baptist church in this city, he informed us that everything was in readiness for the revival in which Rev. W. Y. Pond, of Waco would lead them, beginning Sunday morning at the big city tabernacle. Rev. Hale had the following to say of the Waco minister:

"Rev. Pond loves Christ and lost men for whom he died. He preaches the blessed word of God and depends upon the Holy Spirit. The singing will be done by local talent, and those who play any kind of musical instrument are invited to put over a musical program for the master." "We cordially invite people of other households of faith to worship with us."

Scholastic Transfers Must Be Made At Once

Judge Jay Barret called us over the phone this week and asked that we again remind the people that those who wishes to transfer their children to another school district or to any high school must do so this week.

There may be some in the rural schools that do not carry the higher grades who want to transfer to Meadow or Brownfield, and this must positively be done this week or before August 1, which is next Monday.

Mrs. C. H. Lyons of St. Louis testified in her divorce suit that her husband deserted her because he was lonely when she went to work to support him and herself.

Fred Herron of Montclair, N. J., was badly stung by a wasp that entered an open window and hid in his hair brush.

HUNTER NEWS

Everyone sure is broken-hearted since the sand quit blowing and had their crop growing. The hail came and ruined it nearly all. Some are going to leave while some are going to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott left last Monday for Dangerfield, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett went with them to east Texas, near Corsicana. Mrs. J. R. Webb went to Athens, and Mr. Howard from Smyer, went to Greenville. Mr. Scott had a load and if he could have carried any more they would have gone. They left Bro. Webb here to batch, but he will not be at home much for he is in a revival over at Scudday this week.

The revival that is going on over at Scudday is sure fine. It is being conducted by Dr. Fry from the Tech College. Everyone is invited to attend.

The zone meeting was with us Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. We had with us some interesting speakers. The bad thing about it was that Scudday got the attendance banner and the efficiency banner both.

Mrs. Homer Butler is spending her vacation with her parents at San Angelo, Texas. Bro. Butler has been sick since Mrs. Butler left, but is better now. We hope he will soon get alright, before she comes back anyway.

Well, now the election is over for awhile now. Some got beat but it couldn't be helped for someone had to lose. It might as well be one as another. We are sure sorry Mr. Lee Lyon got beat in his race, but it couldn't be helped. Maybe if he will run again, he will get it. We hope so anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Breland have been staying with Mrs. Elmer Machen who was operated on last Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock. We hope she will be better by next week.

Mrs. C. G. Smith and the two Edwards brothers, Narvel and Herman, spent the day with the two Miller brothers, Oliver and T. J.

During the hail the other day, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edwards got so scared of the hail coming through the roof of the house that they crawled under the table to protect themselves.

SCUDDAY NEWS

Well we got a nice rain just in time to save out oldest crops. The wind blew rather hard Thursday afternoon. It blew Mr. Gibson's front porch off and blew his hen house all to pieces. We were glad there wasn't any more damage done than that for him, for he has had bad luck all the year. The hail beat up a few crops, but they will probably will come out.

Miss Ida Bell Laque of Brownfield is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Green this week. She will also visit friend at Meadow the latter part of the week.

Hurrah! for our B. Y. P. U. We think we are doing fine as having God as our helper. We went to the zone meeting at Johnson Chapel last Sunday afternoon and heard a good program. After the program we learned we were the best represented B. Y. P. U. in the zone; and also learned our Union was 91 percent on the eight point record system, which we won both banners, attendance and efficiency. That make us feel proud of our little B. Y. P. U. We will not have the zone meeting in August on account of revivals, but we hope to win them both again in September.

Mrs. J. E. Young left for Grassland last week where she will spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Johnny Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman and son, and Miss Evelyn Lowe were down from the Tech Sunday. We were glad to have Miss Lowe with us at church Sunday.

ROOSEVELT NEXT PRESIDENT SAYS DICK LATTIMORE

Lamesa, July 9.—Roosevelt will be the next president of the United States if there is anything to "namesakes" predicting such a lofty position. Dick Lattimore, a farmer three miles northeast of this city, more than a year ago predicted that Roosevelt would not only be the next Democratic nominee, but the next president of the United States, and feeling so sure this would happen, named his baby, born at that time, "Roosevelt Lattimore."

The nomination coming as Dick had predicted gives him new and confident assurance that he guessed right. Anyway, the Democratic nominee has one namesake in Dawson county, Texas, and the boys all about are saying "Dick is no mean politician."

A MILLION JOBS FOUND

The War Against Depression Campaign for a million job has closed, with more idle than were idle when the campaign began.

The campaign was filled with weakness and many mistakes were made, but the great good one done outweighs everything else. Only in war have Americans surpassed this great voluntary effort to find jobs.

The American Legion did a splendid job. The Association of National Advertisers did a splendid job. For the American Federation of Labor it was "in line of duty."—Labor Messenger.

WHITE COLLAR CLASS BIG 'WORRY TO SALVATION ARMY

(Star Telegram)

It's the "white collar" class and not the unkempt bum that makes the life of the Salvation Army worker one of trials without number.

It's not the class that considers bread, beans and salt pork a meal fit for a king, but the class that demands mayonnaise and olives that makes the Salvation Army shudder.

The "white collar" class is defined as including all those men and women who, until recently, have eaten their meals from a table covered with fine linen and laid with real silver. Now there are holes in the linen and the silver is in the pawn shop.

There are no table cloths in the Salvation Army dining room and the silver has never had even a passing acquaintance with the silversmith. Mr. I've-Been-Used-to-Better makes no secret of his scorn for the "very inadequate accommodations."

One man came to the army headquarters in "desperate circumstances." His wife and children had absolutely nothing—"hardly enough clothes to cover their backs." Would the Salvation Army do something quick?

The Salvation Army did. It furnished rooms for them in a hotel nearby. That evening the family in "desperate circumstances" moved in with six trunks. The next morning they called a cab and moved out.

"No gentleman could ask his wife to live in such a place."

A woman had been coming to relief headquarters practically every day and leaving loaded with fresh vegetables and staples. Eventually there was a job open for a cook.

"Would you like to have the job," the woman was asked.

"Me—cook for somebody? I should say not. I keep someone to do my own cooking."

The Salvation Army apologized.

Recently a man applied for help. He was in dire want—he wanted $200 to make the first payment on an automobile.

When the railroad bum swaggers into the headquarters, he is given a bowl of beans and a cot in the dormitory. But the aristocracy must dine at a separate table and have a room with a key to it.

These are the men whom the Salvation Army must handle with gloves.

Then there are others to whom the Salvation Army must remove its hat. The pride of the "white collar" class will not allow a Salvation Army bonnet to be seen coming into the house. "What would the neighbors say?" So Capt. Mary Bradley carries a little black tam around with her, and leaves the traditional bonnet in the car when she goes calling on the aristocracy.

I certainly appreciate your vote and influence in the Representative race last Saturday. I will face Mr. Thomas of Tahoka, in the run-off, and he has a lead of about 900 votes caused by Dawson county giving him nearly 1400 votes to my 182.

In Terry county, I received 1399 votes and he received 258. In Lynn county he received 1954 votes and I received 243 votes. This made him lead me about 1800 votes in the 3 counties of Terry, Lynn and Dawson, and I have cut that down about 900 votes by leading him in the other counties. These reports are unofficial. I will appreciate it if you will do more work in the next 30 days.

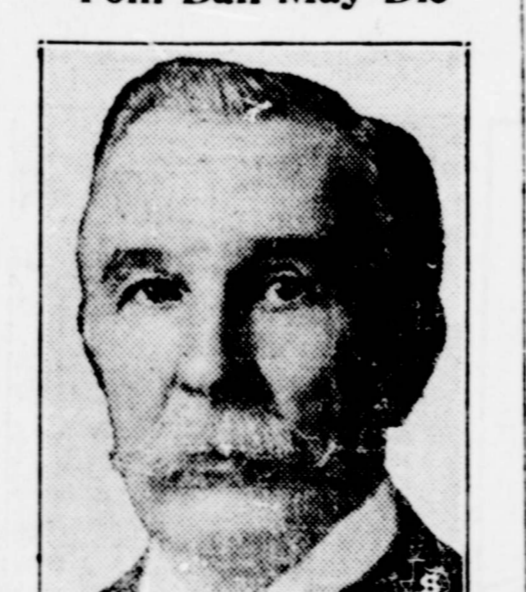

Homer Winston.

FEDERAL SALES TAX CUTS CHEVROLET SALES

Detroit, Mich., July—Chevrolet dealers reported the sale of 43,397 new cars and trucks in June, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager announced here today.

The figure exceeded by 10,000 units domestic production for the month and was within ten per cent of the reported sales for May, Mr. Knudsen said.

He cited figures by ten-day periods to show the effect of the new federal tax on sales for the month. In the first ten days, dealers reported 12,486 units sold; in the second ten days, 18,544 units, and in the last ten days, when the new tax was in effect, 12,367 units. Normally the last period of the month is the largest, Mr. Knudsen said.

All sections of the country showed a favorable comparison in the last ten days with the first ten days of the month.

REPEAL AND RECALL

Widespread Agitation for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment has, for one thing, brought before the minds of the people the bright possibilities of repeal as such.

People have been forcefully reminded that they have the power to repeal laws as well as make them.

Hand in hand with repeal of laws we have recall of officials. This is also a healthy state of mind.

When the people elect any official to any public office on his promises to act in the best interests of the people, then they have a right to demand that he live up to these promises.

The power of recalling any official is the "big stick" in the hands of the people to enforce their will on their public servants.

Recall should be made more easy and campaign promises would automatically make the politician's word his bond and cure the entire political system of being a perennial farce founded on bunkum.—Labor Messenger.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Taken from the Herald of July 31, 1909.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Well, we note by the issue of July 31, 1909 on the front page that the Dallas News is constructing an exact replica of the Alamo on the State fair grounds. We remarked that thousands of north Texas school children would probably never get to see the original, but would be privileged to see the replica.

More talk of the Colorado-Herford & Gulf railway. Herford had raised a bonus of over $100,000. We report on the first page that another great hurricane had visited Galveston the Saturday before, but they had their great seawalls up this time. Well, even back at that date they were training boosters to boost for the cities. A school was then going on in Fort Worth, where Prof. Patterson was training men to become commercial secretaries. We reported the death of Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, wife of a Colorado Springs, Colo., banker, who was said to be the last survivor of the president of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis. The Santa Fe was preparing to build the Flaydada branch of the Santa Fe. A new ad from the Cornell Lumber Co., at Stanton, was found on the first page.

At that time the Commissioners Court of Terry county was paying a bonus of 3c on rabbit ears. One fellow by the name of Hartfield killed a dollar's worth coming in to church. Wonder if he donated it to the preacher. And they were talking prosperity then as now. A Prosperity Club had been organized, and this editor had been given a complimentary membership. A crew with plows and grubbing hoes has left here to prepare the new Brownfield-Lubbock Auto road for cars. The baby town of the Plains, Crosbyton, had voted bonds of $10,000 for a new school building but found it too small of the needs. A friend, Julian M. Bassett, of Chicago had come to their rescue with another ten thousand.

We announced that Mr. W. T. Richardson, wife and baby, had come in from Dallas, and was to start up a paper at Gomez at once. His printing machinery was then at Plainview. The Herald paid Mr. Richardson a glowing tribute as a citizen, editor and publisher, and welcomed he and family to old Terry, despite the fact that there was hardly a living here for one paper then much less two, as we had about 1000 people in the county. Mr. Richardson stayed about six months, getting all the announcements the next spring, and returned to Dallas, a poorer but wiser city raised boy trying to run a paper in a small country town. It seemed that neither he nor his wife knew how to mix with country people, but somehow he and the writer got along just fine, and became good friends, lending each other material if we ran out. We wonder if we could now be as magnanimous to a competitor? We believe we could and would.

An article copied from the Stanton paper stating that one fellow raised 200 pounds of watermelons on one vine. Yes, we raised 'em big in this section then. Abilene had voted $50,000 worth of paving bonds, and we remarked that the streets of Brownfield were being improved by grading.

Miss Mabel Farrar had left for her home in Decker, Texas. Miss Addie George and Mrs. Lou Key were here trading. Mr. Walker of Arizona was visiting his brother, J. R. of the Groves community. W. R. Spencer attended county court at Tahoka. Miss Lourah Smith was visiting the Welch family in town. Rev. P. E. Riley was conducting a protracted meeting at Meadow. Mrs. Mallory of Scott, N. M., was visiting her daughter Mrs. Chas. Copeland. Mrs. Custis of Parker county, was visiting her son, F. S. of this city. Several from here attended the barbecue at Plains. J. A. Walker of Sheffield, Texas, was here and renewed for the Herald. Mrs. Darden and Miss Mabel Hodges of Clarendon were visiting Mrs. J. C. Criswell. Miss Effie Morris left to spend the winter with her aunt at Fort Worth and attend school. Mrs. Almada Dial was to leave for Dallas for the millinery opening. Seven candidates for baptism at the Gomez Baptist meeting. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of the Needmore community were visiting the J. W. Welch family.

J. W. Welch was having a fresh coat of paint out on his residence. John Riley and family of Scurry county, were visiting the families of Redge Burnett and W. G. Meyers. First Texas Summer Hog Butchering raise them, we remarked. W. G. Hardin was leaving to visit his mother and sister at Springtown, Texas. Mesdames Rather and Spencer entertained the members of the Brownfield ranch house party with a 6 o'clock dinner. M. M. Knox of Lubbock and son, of Eutaw, Ala., were here prospecting. Jim Burnett and family were visiting at Dublin. The Green boys has been out in the country working for Burnett Bros. (This was Sach and Kenny). Uncle Tom Holley had opened up the "B. F." (Blue Front) confectionery in the Brooks building, the old tin building that then stood on the north side of the square. Percy Spencer had returned from Mississippi. A. M. Brownfield and wife were leaving for Sterling City where they were to meet his brothers, Almer and Dee, and they were to fish on the Concho. Green & Pollard were a new firm of painters and paperhangers. John S. Powell had returned from San Angelo where he marketed 10,000 pounds of wool at around 25c per pound. Claud Criswell had carried 14000 pounds down for Dock Walker, who got about the same money. Boy! wouldn't the wool growers rejoice over that price now?

The first large scale summer hog butchering in Texas took place recently at Navasota, and proved conclusively that hogs can successfully be killed and cured in summer to save farmers high cured meat costs and help them realize a profit on their almost unsalable hogs. Upper left shows group of farmers' wives engaged in learning the proper way to can-by-products. Upper right shows W. L. Ross, county agent of Grimes county, with carcasses hung up for cooling. Lower left shows Mrs. B. H. Anderson, secretary of the Navasota C. of C. who managed business details of the curing, and the lower right picture shows the cutting gang preparing the meat to be cured. The average hog was worth $5.66 alive and is worth $14 cured, curing costs only $1.50 each.

While pulling a pipe out of a windmill, John Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Williams had the misfortune of letting the heavy pipe fall on him, and at the time the article was written, John was still unconscious, and Dr. Ellis in constant attendance on him. Presiding Elder Hardy of the Big Spring district, to which we belonged at that time, had dedicated the Meadow Methodist church the Sunday before. V. E. Hargett of this city and J. L. Clark, of Plainview, were conferring with citizens about putting in an ice and light plant here. Some prospectors were here from Granger, Texas.

We found a short article on the back page of that issue that makes pretty interesting reading matter 23 years later. You know we had "Baileysism" then as we have "Fergusonism" and "Moodyism" at this time. We were also approaching an election to vote on Statewide prohibition which occurred two years later, in 1911. A writer in the Dallas Times Herald had classified the candidates for governor the following year as to how they stood on these issues, as follows:

For Bailey—O. B. Colquitt, Thos. H. Ball, Wm. Poindexter, M. M. Brooks, N. A. Shaw and W. F. Ramsey—6.

Against Bailey—Cone Johnson, R. V. Davidson, H. Bascom Thomas, Chas. H. Mills—4.

For Bailey and against prohibition—O. B. Colquitt.

Against Bailey and against prohibition—Mills.

For Bailey and local option—Brooks, Ramsey and Shaw—3.

Against Bailey and for local option—Davidson and Thomas—2.

For Bailey and Statewide Prohibition—Poindexter and Ball—2.

Against Bailey and for Statewide prohibition—Cone Johnson.

President Taft had been invited to visit the big King ranch in south Texas, as well as the ranch of his brother, Charles, near Corpus Christi. An effort was being made to get President Diaz of Mexico to meet Taft there. Our remembrance was that President Diaz did not come to the Texas ranches, but met Mr. Taft on the international bridge at El Paso.

Roosevelt Grows In Estimation Of People

That man Roosevelt is proving to be a bigger man than he was thought to be before he was nominated for the presidency. His very first act was to disregard the time-honored but silly precedent of waiting for several weeks to be informed of his nomination. When he received the news over the air, he immediately flew to Chicago and appeared before the convention in person and publicly accepted the leadership of his party. According to precedent, he should have waited until a special committee appointed for that purpose appeared at his home and announced the startling news that he had several weeks previously been selected as the democratic candidate for the presidency. Herbert Hoover is the only man in the United States who is not supposed to know of his own nomination. It would be contrary to all precedent for him to intimate that he is aware of the action of the convention of his party at Chicago. This news will be brought to him during the present month. But Mr. Roosevelt had the courage to smash precedent and thereby showed himself a bigger man than he had been credited with being.

Last week, he again threw precedent to the winds and wrote President Hoover a letter asking for a conference upon the controverted power question which is disturbing the state. He suggested that the president and the governor of New York get together and settle this matter rather than leave it to commissions appointed by each of them, which commissions never agree upon anything. That President Hoover refused to consent to this sensible method for effecting a speedy settlement detracts nothing from the good sense and sound judgment displayed by Mr. Roosevelt.

These are indications of what may be expected when Roosevelt occupies the White House in the way of discontinuing the use of red tape which costs the people of this country hundreds of millions of dollars every year.

Before Jim Hogg of Texas became famous, he was justice of the peace in his home town. One day two of his neighbors came before him for the settlement of a lawsuit. The question involved was the length of a ditch which had been dug by one of them for the other. According to the testimony of one man, the ditch was 100 yards long, while the other swore it was only 80 yards in length. Mr. Hogg said to them: "None of us have anything else to do, so we will get on our horses and go out and measure that ditch." Other courts would have called in numerous witnesses and consumed days of time, but Jim Hogg used common sense and settled the matter.

This manner of dealing with public questions made Jim Hogg a great governor for Texas, and it will make Franklin D. Roosevelt a great president.—Lovington Leader.

GARNER HATES TO QUIT BODY FOR ANOTHER

Washington, July 16.—Jack Garner of Texas, speaker of the house and vice-presidential candidate of the Democratic party, tonight left congress still fiddling with adjournment preliminaries and caught a train, bound for home and rest.

Walter Newton, one of President Hoover's secretaries was on the floor, a privilege due to his being a former representative.

"Have a nice summer, Jack," he sang out, "because you're going to have a tough fall."

"The election is already over," laughed the speaker, "what I hate is to quit this body and go somewhere else."

Second: "Oh, I don't know, I must have spent that foolishly."

WHO DISCOVERED IT?

By Bruce B. Brewer, Vice Pres., Ferry-Hanly Advertising Co.

By Bruce B. Brewer, Vice Pres., Ferry-Hanly Advertising Company I was a printer's devil some 20 years ago on a small city weekly. It was a hard job for the editor-owner to sell advertising in those days. Merchants simply didn't believe in it. About fifteen years ago the small city weekly was "discovered." Advertising men in city advertising agencies began "trying out" the country newspaper field. Gradually they found out that the small city weekly, with its advantage of being read from cover to cover, with its relatively few pages of competing advertising, with an excellent buy for national advertisers. None of this advertising was bought on sentiment, none of it was purchased to support the paper. It was bought for just one reason—it paid.

The local merchants had not "discovered" the value of advertising space in the small city weekly. The very men who should have known its value, did not, for the very simple reason they had not used it enough to find out about it.

Many small city merchants are passing up today the opportunity to use the productive columns of the weekly newspapers to sell their goods more cheaply, more quickly, more profitably.—Copyright 1932.

Education and Business Must Go Together

It has been said many times that education in its various forms is the biggest business of every community, the biggest business of every state and finally the biggest business of any nation. This true to the fullest extent. But let now consider the relation that education has to the business of the community.

In this day of mass production and machine civilization it seems to be evident that the people must be trained into an appreciation of what civilization has to offer them in the way of material things that will make their stay here below more pleasant and enjoyable. It might be said truthfully that we have allowed these things to be enjoyed only by a privilege few in this nation. That is one cause of the depression. The factories have supplied temporarily the needs of all those who are able to buy these better things that are to be had in our present state of advancement. During the "in" while we are waiting for these commodities to wear out and create a new demand we are going through what we call a depression.

Following this line of thought it might appear that what the world need today is a plan whereby these better things can be brought to the homes of every family in the land. This plan when it comes will be the product of education. The masses of the people are as much entitled to an electric refrigerator, radio, piano, good furniture, and all that goes to make a comfortable happy home as are those who have them. The scheme of things thus far has not permitted it to the extent that it should. When the people are educated to the extent that they will appreciate and demand the better things in life the business of the world will be restored. On the other hand if science, capitol, and industry continues to be unable to place these things in the homes of all the people business will never be what has once been in the U. S.

To illustrate further what we have in mind let us take a few examples. On what type of merchandise does your drygoods merchant make the most profit? Is it the cotton socks at ten cents a pair or the silk ones at one dollar per pair? Is it the cotton dress at ten to twenty cents per yard or is it the ensemble with everything to match. Does your furnitures man make more on his cane bottomed chairs or on a complete living room set? Does your hardware man make more on his ice box or on an electric refrigerator? Does he make on the old type walking plow or more on a modern two row cultivator? These examples will tend to show you that the profit is in the better things that are sold to the people. When we are able to buy the better things we are willing for our merchants to make more profit. Then the problem is to educated the coming generation to the point of appreciation of the better things in life and watch our economic scheme to the extent that we are able to keep it possible for a fellow to exercise his appreciation of the better things.

When education has a chance with all the people the economic situation will take care of itself.—A. B. Sanders.

Have you heard the story of the little boy who went to school for the first time. When he returned home his father inquired how he liked it.

"It's all right but they ask too many questions," said the lad. "First they asked me where you were born and I told them. Then they asked me where mother was born and I told them. When they ask me where I was born I had to tell a lie."

"Why?" ask the father.

"I didn't want to say I was born in the Woman's Hospital and have them think I was a sissy, so I told them it was in the Yankee Stadium."

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Splendid attendance last Sunday, although some were late at Sunday school. Let's try to do better. Although the lessons are now in the old Bible, the great old Testament character, Moses, is being studied, and as he is said by Paul to be the type of Christ, it is good to study this character.

Elder S. S. Bozeman, one of our most aged ministers gave us a very fine lesson last Sunday morning, which was highly appreciated. Very good attendance at the Young People's meeting, and a good song service led by Paul Robinson at night, getting in shape for the revival in August.

We are now having some interesting mid-week meetings in song practice and Bible Study. Study the fifth chapter of Romans and be there Wednesday night.—Reporter.

WHEN SLAVERY BEGINS

The dull boy in the class unexpectedly distinguished himself in a recent examination when in replying to the question "How and where was slavery introduced into America," he wrote:

"No women had come over to the early Virginia colony. The planters wanted wives to help with the work. In 1619 the London Company sent over a ship load of girls. The planters gladly married them, and slavery was introduced in America."

WHY WOMEN ARE LATE

From time immemorial husbands have complained of the long time it took their wives to dress; men have observed that women did not heed the flight of time, but carried on interminable telephone conversations without realizing how long they talked, and so on.

This apparent lack of regard for time by the fair sex has long been the source of endless comment—often profane. But now it has all been explained, thanks to modern psychology.

Exhausted test conducted at John Hopkins University show that women just naturally can't help it. They don't realize the meaning of "tempus fugit."

These tests developed the fact that women on an average estimate the time it takes them to perform a given task about one-half the actual time required. Dr. Isabel Stewart, who conducted the tests, which were made with 1,048 students, both men and women, said:

"Men estimate more accurately. The inaccuracies of women imply that time really seems shorter to women than to men."

Which recalls the joke of a paragrapher who wrote: "Married men do not live longer; it just seems longer."—Ex.

MONK TRIMS EYELASHES

Dr. O. L. Tinklepaugh observed the actions of two monkeys, male and female, which he had in his laboratory. He reported to the Journal of Mammalogy as follows.

"On two occasions, when the two animals were separated for several weeks, the eyebrows and cheek tufts of the female grew sufficiently long to alter her appearance definitely. Both times when the pair were reunited the male immediately proceeded to pull out part of the hairs of the eyebrows of the female and to bite off others which were usually long. One by one he pulled out practically all of the long hairs of the cheek tufts, greatly changing the female's appearance. During this hair pulling activity, the male frequently leaned back and surveyed the female as if evaluating the results. This is the first record instance, to my knowledge, of one animal's appearing to contribute to the adornment of another."

WHAT BENEFIT TO LEA COUNTY IS FEDERAL ENFORCEMENT?

So much has been said pro and con about national prohibition—much of it by people who have made no investigation in regard to the matter—that it may be interesting to learn just what national prohibition and the enforcement of the Volstead Act by the federal authorities means to the people of this county and how much worse conditions they would be in should this law be repealed. If the Eighteenth Amendment causes less drinking of intoxicating liquors, if it decreases crime in this county, if federal prohibition officers are assisting in the prevention of drinking and its attendant evils, well and good. But if all the efforts which have been made for prohibition enforcement have been made by Lea county officials, and all the liquor violators who have been arrested have to be prosecuted in our own courts and under our own laws, then where would the damage be to Lea county if the national prohibition law were repealed?

We are informed by the Lea county sheriff that since he took charge of that office nearly two years ago, there has never been a prohibition enforcement officer to call upon him for any assistance in preventing or pushing the sale of liquor, nor has any such officer ever called upon him for assistance, although he has repeatedly offered to render any assistance within his power. During that time, if we are correctly informed, there has been one "raid" made by these officers. They raided a small joint at Hobbs and made one arrest, and then returned to their headquarters to give out a newspaper statement of how they had "cleaned up Lea County."

All the other liquor arrests have been made by county officials and whenever conviction has been had, it was under the state law and not the violation of the Eighteenth Amendment or the Volstead Act.

There have been an average of 11½ prohibition officers on duty in New Mexico during the past fiscal year. Their report show that they have made 504 arrests during that time—an average of less than one each week for each man. But any sane person knows that they could have made at least one arrest each day had they been on the job.

When information of the violation of the federal prohibition law has been called to their attention, they have refused to act and have informed the local officers that this is their duty. Does the federal government pursue the same policy in regard to the commission of other crimes against its laws? A few weeks ago a counterfeit $10 bill was passed in Hobbs. Immediately after notice of this fact was sent to headquarters, a special man was sent to Lea county to make a thorough investigation. No attempt was made to shift the responsibility upon local officers. The laws of this government had been violated and speedy action was demanded of those in charge of the enforcement of these laws. But hundreds of complaints may be sent in about the violation of the Volstead law and no attention will be paid to them.

Is it possible that our federal government considers the violation of one law a mild matter, unworthy of serious attention and the violation of another law serious enough to warrant the sending of a special man all the way across the country to run down the criminal? If our officials who are charged with the enforcement of these laws take this view of the matter, how can they censure private citizens for taking the same view?

If the whole burden of the enforcement of liquor laws must be borne by our county officials, if they must act under our state laws in making their arrests, if the law violators must be prosecuted under our state statute and not under the federal law, why have a national prohibition law at all? Why not put the responsibility up to the state and its citizens where such things properly belong? If the very officers who are appointed to enforce these laws show their contempt for them by their actions, if their example is such as to cause other people to disrespect the law, why not get rid of them as quickly as possible?—Livington, (N. M.) Leader.

The Herald pulled another boner last week when it failed to put any name to the ad intended for Hunter Drug store. We are giving them another this week instead.

Knapp Is To Be New President Of Tech

Dr. Bradford Knapp resigned Monday as president of Alabama Polytechnic institute to accept the presidency of Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

Dr. Knapp's acceptance of the Texas post was sent to officials of that college at the same time Monday as announcement of his resignation from Alabama Poly was made public.

Expressing the highest regard for Auburn in his announcement, Dr. Knapp said a number of his friends in Texas had asked him to accept the presidency of the Texas school.

Dr. Knapp conferred with the Texas school officials recently while on a visit to Oklahoma and Texas. He came to Auburn four years ago from Oklahoma where he was president of Oklahoma A. & M. College at Stillwater.

WHEN A PUBLIC DANCE BECOMES A NUISANCE

It is rather difficult to draw the line on just when the dance is or is not a public nuisance. However, this editor is of the opinion that every person who had a look in on the affair here in Mobettie last Saturday night would brand such carryings on a nuisance and a menace to community morals. Things transpired in and about that dance room that we dare not tell in print, and we are ready to head a petition, unless the thing is controlled, if such drastic steps are required, to stop the thing and never permit another one here. It is true that most of the rowdism was indulged in by people coming from nearby towns. They brought their whiskey and women with them and the sky was the limit of indecencies and foul language. It is true that a number of respectable folks were here from these other towns and our own community. We are not taking the stand that all who attend the public dances are bad, but we do take the stands that the public dance is bad for all and should be abolished. —Mobettie Journal.

AND THIS IS TEXAS

From the Mineral Wells Index:

"The state school fund may not be overflowing with money at the present time and the per capita apportionment may be reduced from $17.50 to $15.00 next year, but the state education system is far from broke. In fact, if the assets of the school funds were liquidated and made available to pay the current state debt and wipe out the deficit, it would be ample to do so several times over."

This gratifying announcement came from the typewriter of a capital city correspondent of the Associated Press. Also, a reminder that the assets of the permanent school fund, the interest only of which can be used to meet current obligations on the education system, totals approximately $80,000,000. Moreover, the figure includes a comparatively small amount of cash; approximately $50,000,000 in bonds of Texas governmental sub-divisions and land valued even in these days at approximately $30,000,000.

Yes, "This Is Texas." Texas isn't broke. Texas is a white spot on the map of America. Texas "may have gone hog wild on education," but the people do not believe it. There is $80,000,000 in the state school fund the schools of Texas are not to be closed, the teachers are not months and months behind in salary payment, and all the people who are proud of Texas and its history and resources from the beginning know that the empire of the sisterhood of states has a future that is even dazzling to the mind of the man without long range vision.

Keep Texas first. Keep its public schools first. Give all the boys and girls a chance to win trained hands and developed minds. They will take care of the Texas of the future.

THE SHEEP MAN'S PRAYER

By Ector J. Stockton, Sterling City Our father who art in Austin, Ross Sterling be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come with a great big gun.

High low Jack and the game. Give us the days of Ma Ferguson.

When our joys will begin. Lead us not into temptation.

To vote for an oil man again. Gone are the days of Dan Moody.

Who will never hold office again; His name has gone down thru history As the one that did not do a thing. Deliver us from the hands of Walter Woodward.

Who says that Ma will not win; We'll beware of the name of Ross Sterling.

It's a trick for ever amen. —San Angelo Standard.

"Though he were dead, yet shall he live again." This Bible truth seems to be the case in the County Clerk's race at Cleburne where one candidate for that office died of heart failure, while making his last campaign speech. Next day he polled more than 100 votes over his opponent.

Jeff Dunn of the Lou community was in town Wednesday.

Winters—Phillip Joseph establishing dry goods store in this place.

Walnut Springs—Walnut Springs Dry Goods Co. moved to Morris building.

Ned Self of the Collins store, left this week for Amarillo, where he will join his wife and baby. After visiting there a few days they will visit his parents at Melrose, N. M., before returning home.

WHERE GOOD EGGS GET WHAT THEY DESERVE

Every day hundreds of thousands of eggs are delivered by farm patrons to more than 100 Swift & Company produce plants over the United States. Producers are paid cash for all they offer.

In these plants all eggs are carefully graded and packed in cases. Only the best, in size and quality, are destined eventually to go into cartons and be sold under the Brookfield label. Others, perhaps not so large or so even in color, are sorted to get the highest price for their grades.

Under refrigeration and in carload lots Swift & Company ships the eggs to more than 400 branch houses, each the distributing center for a great population. Every retailer customer of every branch house is a possible customer for any eggs that arrive at a produce plant.

In these branch houses the best eggs are packed in cartons with the Brookfield label. Thousands of salesmen daily make their rounds, selling eggs, poultry and butter as they sell meat. That means economy in sales cost. Deliveries are so frequent the eggs reach the consumer in perfect condition just as they were when Swift & Company selected them.

With Swift & Company as a guide, every egg has the chance to make the most of itself. Demand is dug up by the sales force and fostered by product advertising. Costs of service are as low as long experience and great volume can make them. Profits are low—over a period of years our profits from all sources have averaged only a fraction of a cent per pound.

State to Run Fall Campaign Of Democrats

New York, July 21.—A unique campaign plan, which will launch the Democrats on an experiment in national vote-seeking, was announced Wednesday by the Roosevelt-Garner forces.

There will be a minimum of organization. Responsibility for the general campaign will be highly concentrated. Economy will be the watch word.

The actual work of seeking support for the New York Governor and the speaker from Texas will be left to State organizations. Those at the national headquarters will seek to co-ordinate but not to direct this activity.

There will be regional headquarters in each State, but only one general headquarters—in News York City.

Farmer John

Doesn't John Garner look natural in these old overalls? The Speaker, who is also Democratic vice-presidential nominee, went home to go fishing, and this picture certainly isn't any pose. It is just John Garner, the Uvalde farmer, out for a little relaxation. Notice the strange hold he has on that turtle!

LET ROOSEVELT AND HOOVER WORRY

Keep cool during the hot, summer months says a noted medical authority. It has a direct bearing on your health says he, and he gives a few simple rules that might be of advantage to the most of us.

Get eight hours of sleep. Don't quarrel and bicker. Keep calm—let Hoover and Roosevelt fight it out.

Be your age, and keep your mind occupied so that you won't be thinking constantly about "how hot it is."

Wear loose, lightweight clothing. Eat moderately. Drink moderately. Avoid ice cold drinks. Avoid alcoholic drinks. Exercise in moderation. Rest whenever you get a chance. Just sit or lie down and relax.

Close the house before the sun climbs high so the early morning temperature may be kept inside. And smile—remember that heat discomfort is to some extent a state of mind. Be pleasant.

WHAT PENALTY?

In taking an inventory of the wrecked and ruined lives of thousands, the numberless graves of countless suicides, the appalling misery of helpless women and children and the abandoned hopes of millions of good citizens of a nation once proud, one is at a loss to picture that form of punishment that would measure up to the crime of the few financiers who have shaped the destiny of our nation the past three years.

Had these results been charged to a labor union, or any ordinary crowd of individuals, they would have been executed long ago. We condemn reds and bolsheviks, and they are bad enough, but any red is an angel as compared to the licentious, merciless greed of the financier who can destroy property and human life without restraint.—Clarendon Leader.

SOMEWHAT MIXED

A Mississippi girl described her visit to the city in the following language:

"Oh, I had such a perfectly beautiful time! Everything was so converted, you know. We stopped to a house where we rode to our rooms in a refrigerator, and our rooms were illustrated with election lights. There was no stove in the room but one of those legislators in the floor and the heat poured right up thru. I did not have any appetite and could not get a thing I could realize. Honestly, when I got home I was almost an individual.

A. Sarner was in from the Union community Wednesday.

To get on a man's friendly side say, "I've always admired your judgment."

Scouts Enjoy Camp Life At Post

On Saturday night of last week the boys of Troop 45 who attended the Boy Scout camp at Post returned. The fellows reported that they had enjoyed this camp more than any other camp they had attended. The camp was somewhat different this year in as much as the boys were given more freedom. The camp was conducted under the direct leadership of the scoutmaster with each troop. In this manner there were few discipline problems that confronted the camp director.

The program provided for the advancement of every scout who was inclined. Specialists in most every field of scouting were at camp and ready to offer instruction. Dr. Read of Texas Tech was the nature man. Dr. Read is a botanist of the first rank and aided the boys a great deal in getting acquainted with mother nature. Instruction was had in leather work, archery, pioneering, mapping and many other scout tests for advancement.

The boys who attended camp this year were T. I. Brown, Wayne Mullin, Richard Kendrick, Bill Savage, Windell Smith, Kyle Adams, Clifton Jones, Harold Carpenter, Marner Price and Laddie Lynn Brownfield. Nearly all the boys passed some tests during camp and many of them received merit badges at the court of honor Saturday night before coming home. Kyle Adams and Marner Price passed a very difficult test. Only a small per cent of the boys are able to pass Life saving but these two boys did the job well. Marner made the highest grade among the junior boys in that test. Windell Smith was knocked out of the test and last few days of training because of not feeling well. He is a strong swimmer and could have passed the test had he been privileged to continue.

SURGEONS GRAFT NEW BONE IN PATIENT'S LEG

Fort Worth, Texas, July 21.—Ross Holstead, 22, who has been an invalid for two years because of a crushed leg, will walk again—thanks to expert surgery.

Two years ago the youth was struck by a truck on a slippery street in Wichita Falls, his home. The bone in his left leg was splintered. Months of treatment followed, but the leg didn't heal and he seemed doomed to be a cripple.

Four months ago he came to a hospital here. Surgeons began grafting bone in the injured leg, taking enough bone from his right leg to rebuild the left. Yesterday surgeons told him he could leave the hospital to walk on crutches awhile, they told him, but eventually he can walk as well as ever.

When a pretty girl of Hollywood, Calif., was asked her name by a filling station attendant, she replied, "I'm Miss Wienie Hotdoeg and I feel like a cannibal whenever I eat a frankfurter."

O. K. Tongate, prominent farmer of the Challis community underwent operation at the Treadaway Hospital, Sunday night for locked bowels. He is reported to be doing very nicely.

K. B. McWilliams spent the week in Lubbock in conference with the officials of the district Co-op office.

STARVING BOY COLLAPSES ON STREET CORNER

Passerby were amazed Wednesday afternoon to see a young boy stagger and fall to the sidewalk in front of the Stockton Pharmacy. He was noticed by Dr. A. E. Robertson and Caye Cano at the drug store, who helped the unconscious body of the boy to a sitting posture. He was soon revived and carried to the office of Dr. Moore, who informed Sheriff Rooney and others that the boy had fainted from starvation.

When the pale youth, was able to talk, he told that he had had nothing to eat for several days, except a bowl of chili Tuesday afternoon. He had come all the way from Tennessee, where he was reared, trying to get work. Finding nothing to do in San Angelo, he came to Fort Stockton hoping to be successful here but was overcome by weakness caused from hunger as above stated. He gave his name as Barkley Duane, and stated that he had no home and no family. He was cared for by Sheriff and Mrs. Rooney and Dr. and Mrs. Moore.—Fort Stockton Pioneer.

This is the type of folks they are planning to put in the chain gang in Big Spring.

Many citizens have told us the past week they were bitterly opposed to placing starved humans in chain gangs, and they would gladly contribute something towards feeding the poor devils rather than have our city punish them for being broke and hungry. Most of our people belong to the working class and do not come under the head of being wealthy but they will do more than their parts to aid those in distress.—Big Spring News.

We has a remittance this week from Frank E. Givan ordering the Herald to go to his mother at Hannibal, Mo., as Frank will be up there for awhile visiting, and wants to see how the election went in Terry. His ranch home is near Hereford, although he owns considerable ranch property in this section.

A. L. Baker, of Wellman, was up this week and became a regular reader of the Herald.

Earl Jones who has been quite ill with malarial fever perhaps picked up while fishing in old Mexico, is better at this writing.

FEASTING THE RICH TO PROVIDE CRUMBS FOR THE POOR

Speaker John N. Garner is everlastingly right in insisting that if any more government money is to be loaned it must be made available to the "forgotten man." The effort of our government to end the depression by providing funds for banks, railroads, etc., through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has failed. It has failed because the money did not get past the banks into the hands of the common people.

Instead of loosening up their credit facilities and lending money for legitimate purposes, the banks have kept the money to safeguard themselves and depositors. It probably saved many a bank, and of course in that way helped bank depositors. But what our people need is reasonable bank credit for productive purposes.

Banks are frightened to death, and the only people who seem to be able to get money from them are the bandits who take it at the point of a gun. Now I don't particularly blame the banks, because self-preservation is the first law of nature. But I do blame our politicians, who think they can break the depression by strengthening the top story of our financial and economic structure while permitting the foundation to rot away.

It is just another pathetic instance of feasting the rich so that they might have a few crumbs to drop to the poor. But in this case, the rich have eaten the entire cake—crumbs and all.—Progress Farmer.

Mrs. A. M. Brownfield was reported to be very low at the Lubbock Sanitarium this week. All the children were called in after midnight Sunday morning.

Redford Smith is reported to be kinder under the weather of late.

The revival meeting being conducted at the Broadway church of Christ Chapel on the south side of the square is still in progress. Elder H. P. Cooper, minister of the church at Lamesa is reported to be delivering some good sermons. You are invited to attend.

Preliminary work underway on widening and improving Dallas-Fort Highway.

Girls Take Wild Ride With Bandits

These girls took a wild ride Friday with two bandits who robbed the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Ladonia, Texas, of $5,000. They are Hazel Parvin and Dona Bell Bartley. The bandits carried the girls along so no one would shoot at their car. Both of the young women were released a short distance from town.

D. T. Murphy and family of Chicago, are here visiting Mrs. Murphy's sister, Mrs. A. A. Sawyer and family. Mrs. Murphy will be remembered as Miss Edith Speegle by the old timers here some 15 years ago.

John Cadenhead was down from Meadow, and like the Irishman who tried to put the billy goat's nose to the ground, had to laugh at us in advance or perhaps not laugh at all. John thinks some woman is going to trail the devil out of us for exposing their age in the old time column.

Elder J. A. McCormack of Littlefield, is here holding a meeting for the church of Christ which holds services each Sunday afternoon at the Christian church. Our understanding is that the distinguishing difference between them and other bodies of that church here is that the former do not believe in teaching separate classes in Bible school, or in the use of uninspired literature for class work. They are having fair crowds, and Elder McCormack is said to be a good speaker and Bible student.

She Reduced 38 Pounds the Safe Way

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lousy and heavy." Mrs. Florence Loftus, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

Alexander Drug Co. Inc., or any drugstore in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. It's the little daily dose that does it.

To keep your foodstuffs fresh, use ICE. Ice is used in all the great health resorts because it's pure and it affords your food protection. Vegetables, meats, and other foods will taste better, too. Call—159J for ICE.
