VOLUME 47

BROWNFIELD, TEXAS, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1952

NUMBER 32

DISTRICT 2 TAAF CAGE TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN HERE SATURDAY, MARCH 1

Brownfield will be host to cage players from 23 counties Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, in the seventh annual District 2 Texas Amateur Athletic Federation's Men's Basketball Tournament, which will be held at the new high school gym.

In the past this tourney has been held in Lubbock, but was transferred to Brownfield because of the interest shown here. The 1952 event will be a single-elimination tourney, with games set Saturday and Monday, and finals Tuesday.

The winner will be helped on expenses to the state tournament, to be held in Odessa March 7-8. Cash prizes will be awarded, depending on the number of teams entering and the gate receipts.

Teams from the counties of Terry, Lubbock, Scurry, Borden, Yoakum, King, Dickens, Crosby, Hockley, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Gaines, Dawson, Andrews, Lynn, Kent, Stonewall and Garza will enter district competition.

No player will be eligible if he has been a member of a college, junior college or freshman team after January 1, if he is still enrolled at that school. No player who has received pay for playing basketball since December 1, 1951, will be allowed to play.

Team rosters will be limited to 12 players. Complete rosters must be turned in to the tournament scorer before the team plays its first game and no rosters may be altered after that. No players may be added after the roster is turned in.

Entry fee is $20 per team and must be received before noon Friday at Primm Drug here, or Jim J. Rieger, athletic director, recreation department, City Hall, Lubbock.

Geron Begins City Secretary Saturday

ALVIN J. GERON

Alvin J. (Jake) Geron, who will become the City Secretary tomorrow, is no stranger to the citizenship of Brownfield and area. For some time Jake has been a teacher in the Terry County Vocational School, and is therefore pretty well known all over the county. He is replacing J. H. (Bill) Aschenbeck, who recently resigned to enter the insurance business with the McKinney Insurance Company.

And Mrs. Geron comes from one of the oldest families of Terry County, the grandchild of the late Uncle Joe and Mrs. Hamilton, who settled here some 46 years ago, or about the time the county was organized. She was Beth Hamilton, daughter of the late (Chock) Charlie and Mrs. Hamilton, who in turn was the daughter of the late Uncle Horace and Mrs. Adams, early day settlers in the Gomez area.

They have one child, a daughter, Lynda Beth, age 5. Quoting Jake a bit, he stated, "I realize that being Secretary of the City of Brownfield is a big job, and I appreciate the way the work has been carried on. I will try to serve in an efficient manner, and be as helpful to the citizens as I know how. There will be no changes in policies so far as I now know."

Geron graduated from Tech college in 1941. He entered the air force during the war, and came to Brownfield in 1945 after his discharge. The family lives at 706 South C street.

Clean-Up and Fire Prevention Plans Are Made For Brownfield at Meet Monday

An intensified clean-up and fire prevention program for Brownfield was planned at a meeting Monday morning at the City Hall, when representatives of local organizations discussed the West Texas Insurance Field Men's Association inspection, scheduled for about the middle of April.

Dick Irvin of Lubbock outlined the project, after being introduced by W. T. McKinney, president of the Terry County Insurance Exchange, one of the three sponsoring organizations for the "Field Day." Irvin explained that the association, which is composed of about 5 field men representing various insurance companies in West Texas, will inspect Brownfield just as they did Littlefield, Lamesa and the public schools and buildings of San Angelo in three former "Field Days."

He pointed out that the entire program is voluntary, both with regard to participation by Brownfield citizens and the field men. However, if enough local interest is displayed, and the inspections are followed up, he said the program will be a success which will in turn help bring the local fire insurance rate back from the 25 per cent good credit lost in the last two years.

An essay contest and fire prevention poster contest will be held in conjunction with the schools, along with picture shows and speaking engagements.

Those present at Monday's meeting included McKinney and Sid Lowery from the Insurance Exchange, Herb Chesshir and Red Smith for the Chamber of Commerce, Byron Rucker, representing the schools, Mayor C. C. Primm, Cousineau, Eunice Jones, Bill Ashenbeck and Houston Hamilton from the city, Crawford Taylor, Jaycee president, and Leon Painter for the Boy Scouts.

Two other Lubbock insurance men, Ernest Zahl, chairman of the fire prevention committee and Hugh Herber, were present.

Don't Forget! The Lions Talent Show

Final arrangements were made for the Lions Club Talent Show and Program by the planning committee at a meeting Tuesday at the LaMecca Cafe. The show is to be Friday night at 7:30. Admission prices will be 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Bob Tobey will be master of ceremonies.

Prizes will be given the winners of the adult and student classes of the contest. The grand prize winner of the show will receive a 1-jewel watch. Proceeds from the show will go into the Lions general fund, and will be used to buy glasses for needy children; for the upkeep of the swimming pool; and for improvement of the softball diamond.

County 4-H Clubs Will Observe National Week

Proclamation

WHEREAS, I, C. C. Primm, Mayor of the City of Brownfield, believe that a sound and progressive system of education requires the interest of all the people, and that all citizens have the responsibility, obligation and duty to cooperate with school officials and teachers in an effort to improve the educational needs of the students and other problems confronting school officials and teachers. Never before has it been so important that the people know and understand the truth of the phrase, "Texas Public Schools—Democracy in Action!"

Therefore, Your Mayor hereby designates the week of March 2 through March 8, 1952, as the Public Schools Week in Brownfield, in cooperation with the Governor of Texas and the Texas State Board of Education, and urges every citizen to visit the schools during this period in order that he may become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our system of public schools.

Witness my hand this 26th day of February, 1952.

C. C. PRIMM, Mayor
City of Brownfield

Terry County 4-H Club boys and girls will have a National week, March 2-8, next week, along with 2,000,000 youths in the nation, and 115,000 in Texas.

No special program or entertainments have been planned for the youths in this county, but special recognition is being given the 160 4-H Club boys and 145 4-H Club girls, under the direction of Jim Foy, county agent, and Miss Doris Mahaffey, home demonstration agent, counselors and leaders.

There are six clubs in the county that have regular meetings, Brownfield, Pool, Union, Gomez, Meadow and Wellman, and these 4-H Club members gain practical experience in the home, on the farm, and in the community. They learn to do by doing—the Demonstration Way.

The 4-leaf clover with the letter "H," meaning development of three men went to Lubbock last month to the tractor clinic.

Four-H girls completed meal planning projects, canned 400 quarts of food last year, studied home furnishings and room improvement and redecorated their own rooms. This year the girls have as their projects, clothing construction which will be climaxed with a dress revue in April. Then they will study breads and cereals, and a Bake Show has been planned for the summer. They will also attend district camp in Lubbock in June.

Four-H boys and girls study fire prevention in their club work; they learn to keep personal accounts; study soil and water conservation; participate in judging contests, and learn leadership in recreation, and how to give demonstrations.

Terry County 4-H boys have recently entered into the warfare on Rodent Control. Some of the accomplishments of the boys last year included: 16 boys had 300 acres of cotton for projects; 38 boys had beef cattle and 50 boys raised 110 pigs. Three boys had rabbits for their projects, raising 34. Thirty-five boys participated in agriculture engineering, which includes farm shop work, elec-

"Democracy is in Action" as the rural youths learn to live by their club motto: "To Make the Best Better"; and they pledge: "My Head to clearer thinking
"My Heart to greater loyalty
"My Hands to larger service and
"My Health to better living
"For my club, my community and my country."

FARMERS ARE URGED TO ATTEND RAIN MEET HERE

A meeting has been called for all Terry County farmers interested in the proposed rain increasing project to be held at 3 p. m. Saturday in the District courtroom. The purpose of the meeting will be to draw up a charter for the rainmakers.

The project will cost approximately $8,500. Approximate cost of the rainmaking will be $7,500. The remainder will be the county's part to help support the district office which will be at Lamesa, according to Jim Foy, Terry County Agent.

A meeting of the Lamesa rainmaking group was held last Saturday and Jake Fulford, president of the Terry Farm Bureau, Paul Blackstock and Foy attended. Although actual signing of the contract with the Kirk Water Resources Development Corporation was delayed, the forming of a West Texas Weather Improvement District was completed and officers were elected. The were: Chairman, Carson Echols of Lamesa; vice-president, R. C. Anderson, Lamesa; secretary, Joe McDaniels, Loop.

The actual signing of the contract with the Kirk firm can not be completed until the group incorporates. This will not be until the group is approved as a corporation before the state. There were three types of contracts offered by the Kirk service. The are the flat rate contract, which will cost the farmers of the area approximately $50,000; the base rate, which would be smaller, plus a bonus based on actual performance of the experiment; and a contract which calls for no base pay, but is based on a bonus for performance alone.

Counties with representatives at the meeting in Lamesa included Terry, Dawson, Lynn, Borden, Howard, Gaines, Yoakum, Stonewall, Mitchell, Martin and Midland.

Plans for the annual Red Cross drive in Terry County were to be completed Wednesday night at a meeting at the health unit, R. J. Purcell, chairman, announced. The National Red Cross drive will be held throughout the United States, starting Saturday, March 1, and continuing through March 31.

Since their opening here some years ago, the Brown & Dean Nash Co., have for lack of suitable location elsewhere, had to occupy the rear of the building known as the Adams building, at 701 West Main. Previous occupant of the front part of the building has recently removed to other quarters.

At this time, a remodeling job is being done on it, and Brown & Dean will have a real front show room on Main street, as well as retaining their garage repair department in the rear of the building.

As soon as they are ready to occupy the new part, they will let it be known to our readers, and we advise you to call on this progressive firm.

VAPOR TREATMENT FOR RUST

An anti-rust agent which does its work by releasing a protective vapor has been perfected by an oil company. Paper wrapping, coated with powdery chemical crystals, is put around the objects to be rust-proofed and sealed. Vapor begins to form around the metal, penetrates to the most inaccessible parts, and neutralizes the corrosive action of water and air. The Army is testing the chemical for protecting stored war equipment.

February was a short month, although this year being leap year, it lacked only one day being as long as the average. As it is, we are crowding five issues of the Herald by issuing the first and last days. Had our publication been dated Thursday instead of Friday, January would have gotten the five issues instead of February. Beginning next week, our paper will be dated Thursday instead of Friday. We have more than one reason for this, but among them is that we will have another day to play on in case a holiday comes on Friday as it did last week. Another is that we are doing this in order to try to get away from personal delivery of the Herald to Meadow each week, which runs into money in a year, but we want the routes to get the paper by Friday at least. As presently arranged, when the papers leave here Friday, they go to Lubbock as the postoffice is closed at Meadow when the mail gets there. If they go up on Thursday, they will get back to Meadow Friday morning. Also, if a holiday happens to come on Thursday, as they often do, then we still have Friday to play on. This coming week, your Herald will be dated Friday as usual, in order to make the month run right with an issue every 7th day. But next week, your paper will be dated Thursday, March 6th, and will be so dated from then on. The junior editor remarked the other day that the Herald had run a long time without a change of date. But the issue date was Saturday for a long period in the pioneer day. What difference did it make? There were no specials in those days. Those that ran an ad just informed the reader who they were, and what they handled and where located. Besides, print paper had to be brought from Dallas to Big Spring by rail, and on to Brownfield via freight wagon, and the freighters usually got in late Friday or Saturday morning. If the weather turned fowl, you waited longer than that. We remember once issuing the week before's paper on Monday or Tuesday, and that week's issue on Saturday. So, we had a twice a week issue of the Herald back in 1909 or 1910.

The little shortened month of February always brings to mind that it gave the nation two of its greatest native sons, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Of course the moderns do not believe a word about that old Parson Weems' story and the cherry tree, and the phrase, "I can't tell a lie." But back in our childhood days we first read the brief story in one of the old readers, either McGuffey's or Swinton's, and we believed every word of it. Later we read the whole story in book form. Some how or other, a childhood impression still remains. Why should we doubt that Washington made that statement to his dad? How do we know at this late date that it was not so? If we were inclined to issue a little white lie about our own juvenile delinquency, that was no reason to assume that Washington was not a better child than we. Then there was the one about his sailing a dollar across the Potomac. That was not impossible or even improbable. All historians record that he was a true blue American; that he sacrificed much to help send the British and their mercenary troops back across the pond, receiving no salary for his services. That after he became president, he believed that America could exist only if it had no entangling alliances with European nations. We believe we should still be going down the same old road, and would be better off today if we were not involved all over the world. As to Abe Lincoln, we believe that he was actually born in a log cabin, but he had nothing on us except we had more than one log room. We believe that he was a good rail splitter, and that he perhaps failed as a merchant. Lots of folks do. We also believe that he loved the USA, and that his love did not exclude any race, creed or color. Most could and should agree with that. But the hatred of Lincoln was not confined to the south; many northern people disagreed with Abe on his emancipation ideas, and thought they were radical. He engaged in debates with some of them, but despite this he was made the president of the USA in a very critical period of its existence, when the Civil War came on because Lincoln had said the nation could not endure half free and half slave. The carefree days of the rail splitter and country merchant was over. There were perhaps fewer jokes made. He became a very sad man, for he loved the south as well as the north. It was a bitter dose to see son arrayed against father, and brother against brother. As to our own community in Tennessee some 25 years after the conflict ended, we have listened to the stories of many, many ex-Confederate soldiers, as they spoke of their part in the conflict. If there was and rancor toward the martyred president, they failed to express it. But we cannot say so much for their opinion of some of the Yankee generals, especially Sherman, nor of Stanton, the Secretary of War and some others of lesser note. But we absolutely heard no hatred of Lincoln himself. Johnson, the Vice-President, and an east Tennessean, not a favorite by any means among the old Confederate Vets. We don't believe that the ex-soldiers of the south, or their generals, or even Jefferson Davis, the Confederacy President, had any more to do with the assassination of Lincoln than this writer, although they were blamed and abused for many years for this deed. No, the hatred for Honest Abe was not confined to any section of this nation. But while the haters were more vociferous, they were in the vast minority all over the nation. To this good day, we have no more idea why any man or bunch of men and women, should wish to take the life of Lincoln or even Garfield or McKinley than we can reason why some one wished to fall headlong over a high cliff. Whether an assassin be an actor or a moron, he is off his nut when he decided to take the life of another.

From what we can gather by reading the papers, augmented by piles of propaganda that taxes our oversized mail box each day, it seems that the GOPers are just about as hopelessly divided as the Trumanerats, Dixiecrats and other Crats. First off, the originator of the boom for Ike seemed to have been started by a Denison man, in the town where Eisenhower was born. But right now, it seems that Jack Porter and his Houston-Dallas crowd have taken over, and we hear no more from the originator. Most of us are inclined to go along with the idea that Ike is a good, moral man, well educated, honest, a fine general, a great organizer for defense of western Europe, and all that. Perhaps he would make a great executive for the nation. As the old saying goes, he has not been spoiled in the learning. But who knows what Ike stands for, either foreign or domestic? His supporters with good reason assert that he is too busy with the work of getting a defense of western Europe under way than film-flam making in order to become a candidate for the nomination for GOP party. That is all good argument, and sounds fine, but in the meantime, Bob Taft is harvesting the delegates by the hundreds. Everybody knows he is a candidate, and most everyone who read as they run, know where "Mr. Republican" stands on issues. It has been a long, long time in this nation's history, when the people handed either the party nomination or the office of president to a candidate on a silver platter. It just isn't being done, no matter how popular the man. So, if Ike don't come home soon, or at least let the people know more of his intentions concerning the presidency, he had as well throw in the sponge. Few believe that Taft can be elected if the Democrats put up any kind of a popular man. It would certainly be hard for him to carry the south. And this is not saying that Bob Taft is not an honest, sincere man. But he is generally regarded as an old line Republican, or a "stand-patter" as we used to say. But we could be fooled. In 1928 we didn't think Hoover could carry Texas and some other southern states, but he did. Might happen again, by another straight out GOPer.

We have seen much comment on the series of articles that were run in the Saturday Evening Post, by Whitaker Chambers. The articles were given much ballyhoo by the Post in advance of publication. Also, we have seen much comment on the articles by those who read them, both con and pro by editors of weeklies and dailies of Texas. Some seem to think that Chambers did a neat job in sidestepping the fact that he was once a commie, and believed in the overthrow of the US government. As we understand the matter, much of the evidence that convicted Hiss was from Chamber. But somehow or other, we could never get very enthusiastic about reading something or other from a person who acknowledges that his loyalty to the US was at one time at a low ebb, or did not exist. Yet at the same time he was enjoying freedom as only Americans know the word. Yes, we believe in conversion. But it is hard for us to understand why a guy reared up in the good old USA would have to be converted from some foreignism in the first place.

There is always room for a change in opinion, and the National Grange gets on the dotted line and acknowledges that it has had some changes in opinion about railroads since its organization in 1876. But at that time, the railroads had a virtual monopoly in transportation, and the Grange went on record for regulation of railways. But today, with truck lines and airlines, the railroads no longer have a monopoly. In fact, the competition is so severe that in some instances at least, the railroads have had to let their lines and rolling stock depreciate. That the railroads are badly needed today as yesterday, especially for long hauls across our immense country, is not questioned. But if they are hedged about with too many regulations that strangle instead of strengthened, the rail lines are liable to go bankrupt, and that would mean government ownership, which the Lord forbid. Many of us who paid the freight bills in 1917-19 when the government took over for a period, learned our lesson and learned it well.

The business man or corporation that does not figure taxes as part of the cost of doing business, is in for a real headache. They are just as much a part of the expense as wages, materials, rents and other costs. And businesses, like the utilities who have a set rate may at times have to apply for a rate hike to meet the climbing taxes. Earnings before taxes is pure fiction, to say the least, and nothing short of just gross income. And any government regulatory body that has or should have studied the matter, should allow taxes of all kinds, hidden or revealed, to come off the income—if any. For that reason, some of the commissions appointed in such hearing has thrown out the OPS contention that taxes are not a part and parcel of the cost of doing business.

Chances are 10 to 1 YOU DO BUSINESS BY THE TRUCKLOAD...

that's why this message about America's first 2½-ton Diesel may be the most important you've ever read!

If yours is like most businesses today, medium-weight transportation enters many times into the cost of your product—from procurement of raw materials to delivery of the finished product.

For the first time, these "average" loads can be moved at spectacular savings—at a cost far below anything you've ever paid for medium-weight transportation in the past!

The efficiency and economy of Diesel power become available to every user of trucks rated as low as 2½ tons (19,500 GVW—35,000 GCW). It's the latest advance from the world's largest producer of Diesel trucks.

It's an entirely new kind of GMC truck-tractor—powered by a revolutionary, lighter-weight, more compact model of the famous General Motors two-cycle engine that is first choice among Diesel truck users today. It offers the advantages of more miles per gallon and lower maintenance in hauling operations where there has been no choice but gasoline power in the past.

Before you waste another cent in your largest hidden cost of doing business—transportation—check the important role this new GMC 2½-ton Diesel truck-tractor stands ready to play in your own operation.

As your GMC dealer, we extend this invitation: if you are a processor, manufacturer, retailer, distributor, farmer or commercial hauler using 2½-ton equipment—come in and see why this new GMC Diesel will mean extra profits to you every mile of the way.

PSS-SST— Have You Heard?

—By Margaret Coward—

We tried to get the husband to give us a "Poodle" haircut, only to be informed that our hair didn't grow right—in the back! The "Poodle" haircut is all the rage for the season, short, airy, but does not become everyone, as some features in the dailies might lead women to believe. Millinery designers have done the Poodle cut a favor this spring—many have designed a special clip to hold the hat to the head with less hair!

In checking, with local beauty salons, seems "Poodles" are favorites with teenagers here.

Miss Laura V. Hamner, who has been telling interesting stories about pioneers over radio station KGNC, Amarillo, the past few years, told of early days in Crosby County, Sunday morning, Feb. 24, at 7:45. These stories deal with the experiences of Harve Harris of Tatum, N. M., former Bronco president, and will continue in a series.

Miss Hamner, who is "almost like an aunt" to Joe Christian, is his mother's cousin, and she has visited Mrs. B. C. Christian in Seagraves on numerous occasions. In fact, she was there only two weeks ago, and stopped by to see how Joe, Addie Lee and the daughters were getting along. We hope she will stop again sometime soon, and they will let us know! We have looked forward to meeting her.

About six months ago she told the "McGinty Story," the life of Marion McGinty at Plains, father of Dick, Rusty, Durwood, Fred, and Oscar—all pioneers of the ranch country over in Yoakum County.

The Terry County 4-H Club Dress Revue will be held on Saturday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m. in the Brownfield Junior High auditorium. The dresses will be made by 4-H Club girls.

Miss Wynelle Webb, who is a member of the staff of the Cub's Den, Brownfield High school paper, is now helping us with the news for the Herald. She is a high school senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Webb, 802 East Lake. She really has a "nose for news"—newspaper slang—so be sure to tell her the news!

Are Square Dance Clubs taking the place of the old-fashioned community get-togethers? About 28 couples are members of the Circle and Square Dance Club, and they meet twice a month on Friday nights at the VFW Hall. These couples take their children and everyone has lots of clean fun, according to reports. New officers were elected last Friday night. J. D. Mitchell has served as chairman the past three months.

There is another Square Dance Club at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Douglas were to return yesterday from St. Louis, Mo., where they attended the American Association of School Administrators, in session there the first of this week.

They left Sunday, accompanied by his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Douglas of Hale Center, where N. L. is superintendent of schools.

The Brownfield superintendent has another brother, Dale, who is also a superintendent of schools, residing at Pleasant Grove, near Dallas. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Douglas of Hamilton.

The daughter and son of the "Brownfield Douglasses" stayed with her parents in Dallas while the school leaders went to the conference.

We sincerely hope the flu bug has not bitten you! After having at least two relapses, we finally forgot everything (as much as we could) and went to bed with the dreaded stuff . . . soup and juice diet . . . fever . . . cough and all! We are glad to be trying to "catch up" at the office again . . . though our legs are still "wobbly" . . . and we take time out while talking on the telephone to cough . . . but as sailors say—"If the good Lord is willing, and the weather is fit" . . . we will continue to write news now!

We appreciate inquiries about us . . . those who came to see us . . . and several have called this week just to see if we are back at this typewriter, and able to be "around and about" again. Brownfield is indeed a good place to live! Mrs. Stricklin Sr. is much improved after her severe attack, but is still terribly weak, and must "go slow," which means the Old He is still having soup at his house, too!

Vet Fails to Keep Appointment—
May Be Denied

Under the VA out-patient program, a veteran who fails to keep appointments with the dentist or who pays no attention about keeping appointments for medical treatment is endangering his right to receive future treatment.

If an appointment cannot be kept 24 hours notice should be given if possible.

A VA Regulation states that if a patient breaks two appointments without giving justification it will be deemed that he has refused government treatment and not further treatment will be furnished until he has made a specific formal application therefor and has satisfactorily showed a willingness to accept government treatment, by keeping appointments, or by giving at least 24 hours notice where an appointment must necessarily be broken.

Korean Vets Bring Malaria
Bug Back Home

As a precaution against malaria epidemic in this country, the Army's Preventive Medicine Division has started giving all servicemen who return from Korea preventive treatment whether or not they show signs of malarial infection.

Lt. Col. Donald S. Meyers, Chief of the Preventive Medical Division has made the statement that about 9,000 of the 145,000 men back from Korea have been infected with malaria. The bulk of the new cases is caused by a strain of malaria, which has a latent period up to 300 days, as compared to the usual 13-day period.

to 300 days, as compared to the usual 13-day period.

The treatment of each returning Korean veteran consists of daily doses of the anti-malarial pills, chloroquin and primaquin, for a period of two weeks, and Col. Meyers states that the treatment is "close to 100 per cent effective."

Many World War II Vets Fail to Apply for NSLI Dividends

Information has been received from the VA insurance division that about $105-million of the $2-billion first NSLI dividend remains unclaimed and unpaid . . . that about 600,000 eligible WW II veterans have never made application for this first dividend. Under present rules this unclaimed 1948 fund can be transferred to future dividend fund at any time by the Administrator even if the VA has put no time limit on filing and receiving applications . . . this $105-million is for those who had NSLI policies in force for at least three months prior to January 1, 1948, remember. Service Officers should urge any WW II veteran whom they know has never made application for the first dividend to do so without delay or he may at a later date be left out. They may set a deadline and his portion of the dividend be placed in future dividend pool.

This is not to be confused with the $685-million dividend which the VA started last year (the second dividend) and which requires no application by the veteran—nor with the possible 200-million dividend which will begin this year in March (third).

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whisenant, who have been residing in Socorro, N. M., arrived Monday and will make their home here with their daughter, Mrs. Homer Winston, 307 West Broadway. They are former residents of Terry County, and their friends say, "Welcome Home." Mrs. Winston met them in Tatum, N. M., and accompanied them to Brownfield Monday.

March 28 is Public Schools Week—you are urged to attend for a day.

Public School Week

Wellman Independent Schools, in accordance with suggestions given by Governor Allan Shivers, are planning to hold open house during the week of March 2 through March 8. The school by this method hopes to strengthen the parent-teacher relationship.

Too many times the teachers do not have the time to become acquainted with the patrons of the community and in some cases have failed to be closely acquainted with the parents. Parent, on the other hand, occasionally take the school system for granted. When either or both of these situations exist the child is the one who suffers. Since the child is the one that should receive the greatest benefit from our system, we as teachers, parents, and patrons should become better acquainted, more closely united and learn to cooperate more in our system of education.

The program of the week has been outlined by the Student Council Committee and approved by the administration and faculty. During the week members of the Student Council will act as guides for any patron visiting the school. Some parent or patron might wish to be guided on a tour of the educational plant, visiting the various department and become acquainted with the work done by each. Others might prefer to remain with one child, or group of children, throughout the day.

The last three periods each afternoon, Monday through Friday, will be devoted to special demonstrations.

These demonstrations are open for public observations and will be supervised by the teachers in the system.

Following is a list of the various demonstrations for the week:

1:15-2:00—There will be an assembly program sponsored by the students of the Texas History class and Mr. Baldwin their teacher, which will carry the theme of Independence. Arrangements are being made to have Mr. Preston Smith, former State Representative, as principal speaker.

Governor Shivers states, "I urge that during this week every citizen visit a public school and become personally acquainted with the work and activities of our public school system."

HOUSEWIFE'S DELIGHT

HOUSE PLAN No. 41

The housewife likes a chance to visit with the family while she does her work in the kitchen—but they mustn't be constantly in her way. So here is her special kitchen, with adequate space for meal preparation, laundry equipment, freezer chest and a large area for the kitchen table on which to serve the family meals. The meal-preparation area is arranged so that there will be no traffic through it. We also have provided a dry pantry for feed storage in addition to the freezer chest. The porch, which is easily accessible to both the kitchen and living room is an excellent place to relax on hot days or evenings in the summer, or to serve the family meals. At the same time it gives the housewife a comfortable place to sit and shell peas, etc., during the summer, and yet be near her work area. She has a view from at least three directions so that she can see what is going on about the place.

pantry, water heater, and closet and arrange it to provide a basement entrance. Or you may use a portion of this same space to house a heating plant. The lines and exterior treatment of the house have been kept simple but are such that they will fit equally well into almost any setting. You will find the construction cost of this house to be reasonable in that all the materials and millwork are standard stock items that can be purchased at any building materials dealer.

You can obtain blueprints for this TERRY COUNTY HERALD Farm & Ranch House Plan No. 5141 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, Farm & Ranch Southern Agriculturist, Dept. L-193, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number—Plan No. 5141. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

U. of T. Gets Facts About Texas Cotton

AUSTIN—Texas cotton farmers and protection against unjustified rumors which might hurt the value of their crops, thanks to a University of Texas service.

The University's Cotton Merchandising Research Division is preparing for its fourth year of getting the facts about Texas cotton, facts which replace the general opinions—sometimes right, sometimes wrong—about its worth. The Division is sponsored by the Texas Cotton Research Committee, composed of the heads of Texas A&M College, Texas Technological College and the University.

As soon as 1952 cotton is in the ground, University researchers will make a survey to find out how much of each variety is planted over the state. When the crop matures, they'll take samples from representative locations and determine fiber properties of each variety.

"When rumors spring up about the quality of Texas cotton, we now have the facts necessary to protect the interests of farmers and merchants," Dr. A. B. Cox, cotton marketing professor and Division director, said. "In addition, the research raises the value of Texas cotton by providing information which helps mills get the best use from the fibers they buy."

The live birds will be classified, says Beanblossom, and entries receiving a blue ribbon will be processed. After processing, final placings will be made and the champion entry named. Suitable awards will be made in each division.

Texas Farmers Have Big Production Goal

AUSTIN—Texas and U.S. farmers have the greatest challenge in their history in 1952 production goals, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Feed grain production is being stressed very heavily in order to maintain the high-level output of livestock, dairy products and poultry. Because of its importance to the economic and military strength of the free world, the national cotton crop is again placed at 16 million bales.

If these goals are reached, the Bureau notes, farmers will have turned out a new record total production, almost 50 per cent greater than the pre-war average.

Texas farm output was forced above the apparent trend in 1942, and has increased steadily since then, due to heightened demand. U. S. government contributions toward the supplies of the UN army in Korea represent a large portion of the demand.

Because of the war situation, the market for farm production promises to remain at a high level, the Bureau's forecasters state. Increased government purchases, aid to foreign countries, and increased savings in consumer hands are among factors responsible for farmers' success in 1951.

These factors, the Bureau reports, forced Texas farm income to an all-time high of $2,143,000, a 22 per cent increase over 1950, despite devastating effects of the drought. The increase in farm income was shared by all U. S. Department of Agriculture crop reporting districts except 2, 3 and 4.

Expect Increase In Whooping Cough

AUSTIN—Inasmuch as the incidence of whooping cough in Texas is expected to show an increase during the coming months, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has released a statement urging that strenuous efforts be made to control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease. There were 1273 cases reported during the first five weeks of this year.

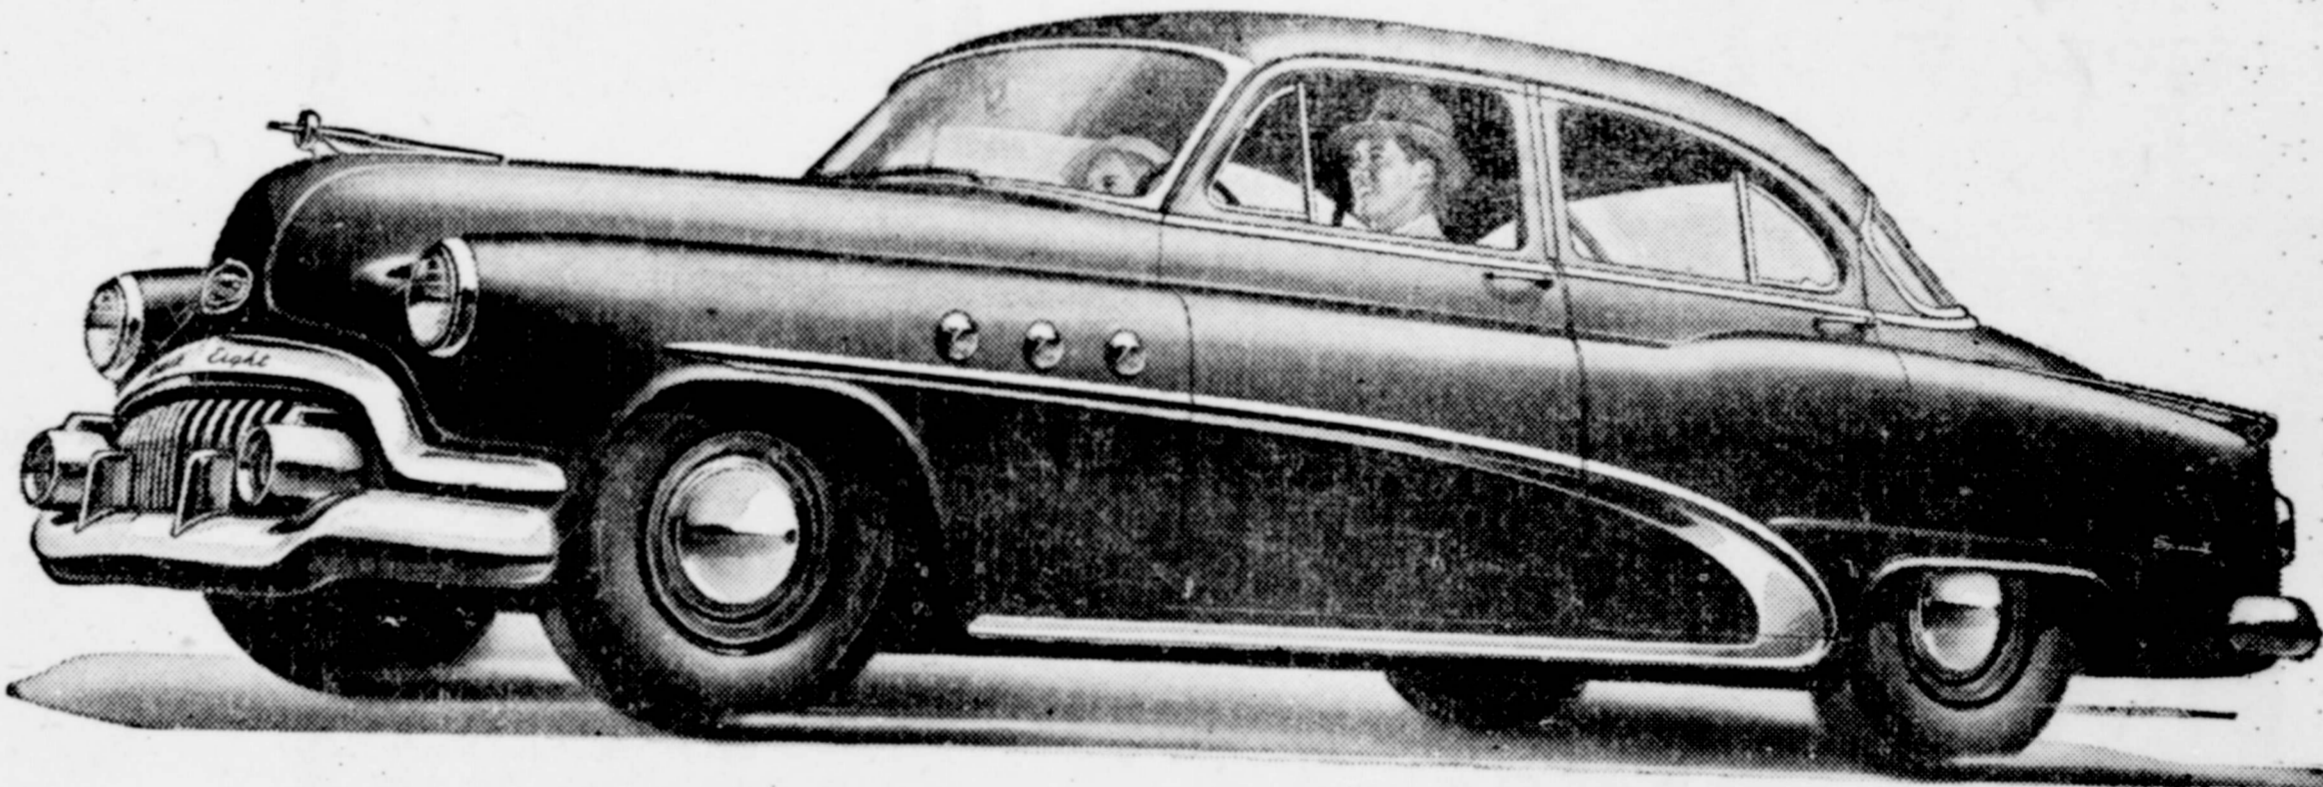

"Whooping cough can only be contracted by direct exposure to the disease and isolation of cases must be universally practiced if the incidence is to be controlled," Dr. Cox stated.

"The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," Dr. Cox said. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous to susceptible persons; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious. Your family physician should be called at the first sign."

"The first symptom of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists day and night and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so, and allowing the young child to suffer an attack of this disease, may seriously impair his future health."

M. J. Craig Sr. knew he had another birthday Sunday—his wife has made him a birthday cake for many years—but his 56th birthday was a special one!

Mrs. Craig and other members of the family surprised him with a dinner and family reunion, as they gathered at Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse at noon for the birthday dinner, with a three-tiered cake with candles. Pictures were made, and the afternoon was spent playing "42" and canasta.

M., were here to wish Mr. Craig "happy birthday," with other guests: Leroy Craig of Los Angeles, Calif.; his nephew, Earl Craig of Tatum, N. M.; Mrs. Craig's mother, Mrs. J. B. Craig Jr. and son, Jimmie, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Craig and son, Bobby, all of Brownfield.

City to Stop Sales Of Garbage Cans

City Supt. Eunice Jones stated to a reporter this week that the city would soon withdraw its sale of garbage cans at wholesale cost. After that time one will have to buy them at regular retail prices.

He further stated that the fly season will soon be with us, and that an inspection of alleys and premises will be made by the Health Department to see that each residence and business have a covered garbage can.

Lest you forget, remember the city has an ordinance against burning garbage. Burning garbage creates a very offensive odor, and that is the reason the city has a garbage collection department.

2. Local action to assure quality and efficiency—does the state educational program assume too much responsibility?
3. The over-all financial status of schools in Texas.
4. Standards of education.
5. Adminstrating of state funds for education.
6. How citizens can participate more in the educational program.
7. What is expected from education.

Mr. Johnson Out Inspecting Holdings

J. Lee Johnson III of Fort Worth is out this week inspecting the Cicero Smith Lumber yard in the area, of which Fred Smith of this city is district manager. He is also inspecting the results of the rather destructive fire in the Meadow yard, which occurred Wednesday afternoon of last week.

When the company first put in a yard here, the elder Johnson, now dead, made some trips out here. Then J. Lee the II came, but we understand he is now in the banking business at Ft. Worth. So, the third generation of Johnsons is now checking up on the yards all over west Texas, where most of them are located.

An Editorial

The entire human race in general is, at times, susceptible to "mass suggestion." Its application is entirely new because yours truly has just introduced it. If its implied meaning is not conveyed to some of you, I shall concisely explain. A suggestion may be made to a mass of people. Boom! Like wildfire devouring a forest, the suggestion takes hold of everyone. The "mad-fad" and "mass suggestion" are principally the same thing.

Now you may ask, "What is all this leading up to?" Well, I am going to illustrate mass suggestion by the Banquet and Promenade question of last week. You undoubtedly know that the question was which of the towns should be the site of the event, Lubbock or Brownfield. Of course that is settled now, but if the Banquet had been held in Brownfield, a number of seniors suggested wearing grass shirts and levis. The purpose of the informal and ghostly attire would be to show disapproval of site of the Banquet, consequently making it a failure. The suggestions hit every senior. "What a marvelous idea!" "Since everyone else is going to do it, why shouldn't I, even if I don't care whether it is held in Brownfield." That is my illustration of "mass suggestion."

Such barbaric actions are not expected of a senior in high school. He should have matured to the point where a little courtesy is exhibited. Remember you, the seniors, are the guests. If you possess any courtesy or etiquette whatsoever, you will not tell your host where you want the party. I sympathize with the seniors for their request that the site of the annual affair should be Lubbock because of the success of the Prom of '51. But that does not call for such discourteous and barbaric actions.

A dreadful catastrophe would have arisen if the seniors had carried out their plans to impede the success of the banquet. No senior trip! If that were to happen, whose fault would it have been? So you childish seniors, who possess no etiquette whatsoever, let this be a warning. If any other discourteous disturbances occur, the senior trip will be eliminated. —THE EDITOR

War Child

The eleven hundred schools in Texas have adopted war children through Care.

Through home room meetings, the students of Brownfield High school voted to make a contribution to support a war child, preferably a boy six years old. The Student Council chose to support a child from France if at all possible.

Students will bring to the next home room meeting donations to finance the war child. About $180 is necessary to support a boy or girl for one year.

New Sophomore Girl Enrolls Here

A new Sophomore girl enrolled in BHS Tuesday morning. Her name is Carolyn Griffin from Wiggins, Miss. Before living in Wiggins, Carolyn lived in Ohio and Georgia. When asked what her first impression of Texas was, she replied, "I thought I'd like to live here, but I've changed my mind—it's too sandy."

Carolyn thinks the kids here in Brownfield are pretty friendly to her. She is 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 12 pounds, has blonde hair, hazel eyes, and is 16 years old. Topping her list of favorites are: Color, blue; song, "Cry;" kind of music, popular; food, ice cream and malts; and subject, boys. She says that going to the movies is a favorite pastime.

Carolyn is taking P. E., Home-making, Study Hall, World History, Literature II and Literature III. She lives with a sister at 1323 West Hill. Let's all try to make Carolyn feel at home here at BHS because we are certainly glad to have her!

Cecil Leeson Gives Clinic and Concert

The Brownfield High School band sponsored a clinic and concert conducted by Cecil Leeson last Tuesday.

Cecil Leeson's career has been devoted to the presentation of the saxophone in concert, as an instrument capable of the highest degree of artistic expression. His success is attested to by the acclaim of the press, the public, world-renowned musical figures, and by his huge yearly list of engagements and re-engagements.

Leeson was born in North Dakota. At an early age he went to the Southwest where he began his education in Arizona schools, attending the University of Arizona, after graduating from the Arizona State Teachers College at Tempe.

At Dana Institute he received his Bachelor's Degree in Saxophone and Theory. He has also done graduate work at Chicago Musical College, from which school he holds the degree of Master of Music in Composition.

His concert debut was made in Hollywood, Calif., and after extensive concerting on the Pacific Coast, he removed to New York where he formally bid for Metropolitan favor with a recital in Town Hall. Since then he has been soloist with the New York Philharmonic Symphony, Grand conducting; the Rochester Philharmonic, under Iturbi; and many others equally as prominent. Mr. Leeson's concert tours have taken him to Canada twice in addition to covering the major portion of the United States.

The clinic was held last Tuesday at 2:45 in the high school auditorium. Band students from other towns as well as from Brownfield attended this clinic. Questions were asked and answers were given in full detail.

Cecil Leeson, saxophonist and musician of serious aims, gave a recital that night. His program contained important and interesting music—much of it was music originally composed for the saxophone. He played with commendable technical proficiency, with a tone that was clear, and in the best sense characteristic of his instrument. He showed himself a thoughtful and well-schooled musician, one with far too much appreciation and regard for chosen medium to be content to use it merely as a vehicle for jazz.

Al who attended the clinic and concert found them very enjoyable and educational. We hope that Mr. Leeson, who is truly a wonderful musician will return to Brownfield for another spectacular performance.

Track Starts

Now that basketball season is over, the boys are beginning to work out for track.

Coach Wilson coaches the boys for about two hours every day, starting the last period.

Following is a list of the track boys:

Donnie Boyd (captain), Olen Chambliss, Jackie Stockton, E. V. Murphy, Adrian Hinson, Max Black, Billy Thomason, Byron Wise, Jerry Bailey, Robert McIntyre, Dewey Bradley, Doyle Bradley, Fred Constancia, Eugene Brumley, Joe Sharp, Jack Lucas, Claud Cypert, Loman Jones, Joe Moore, and Morris Day.

These boys will represent Brownfield High school in the District Track Meet later in the season.

Pat Roberts and wife were up from Coahoma last week visiting briefly with his sisters, Mesdames Fred Smith and Benard Lay, and families. They also called on his aunt, Mrs. Stricklin Sr. They were accompanied by their son, Roy and wife, and their two children, a daughter and son.

Welcome Back

Mrs. Sue Smith, secretary to Mr. Rucker, returned to BHS the first of February after an approximate ten months absence.

She left here April 8, 1951. She moved to Odessa and just came back to Brownfield in December. Sue, her husband, and her eight-month-old son, Michael, live at Causey Trailer Court. He husband works for the Murray Drilling Company.

We have missed Sue very much and want to welcome her back.

Cheer Leaders to Be Chosen Soon

Students who wish to try out for cheer leaders must turn their names in to the Student Council or to Mrs. Miller in room 104 by March 4.

Remember that a student can hold only one school office!

Names of the contestants will be checked by the Faculty Advisory Committee for eligibility. At a later date, contestants will draw for the group in which they will try out. After tryouts, they will be voted on by the student body.

We would like to see boys as well as girls competing for this school honor.

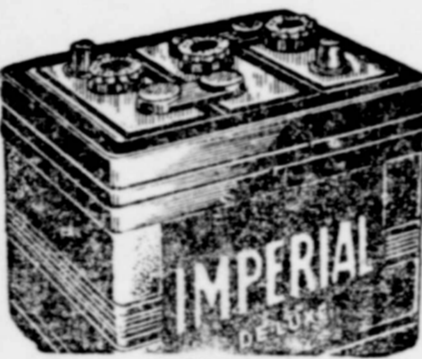

O. G. Lewis Was in To Renew Recently

Another old timer, O. G. Lewis, that has been in these parts since 1935, was in this week to renew. He now lives just over the line in New Mexico, on the new paved cutoff between Plains, Texas, and Lovington, N. M. He gets his mail on a Lovington route.

O. G. stated that he used to live on the old Sawyer ranch out on route three, in the days back in the 30ties. But has been a citizen of New Mexico for the past several years. But he still likes to read the former old home county paper.

Saw H. M. Brock of Levelland briefly here one day last week. He formerly lived in the Union community of this county.

New Phone Directory Out Last Week

You can now discard that old, much thumbed, torn and yellowed phone directory. Some of the pages were so bad, perhaps you had to turn to the yellow advertising section in the back of the book to get your number. We are glad to get a new copy. Also, some folks have the habit of scribbling with a pencil while the talk on the phone, then when this is erased, it weakens the leaves.

We are glad the Southwestern Associated folks handed out the new directory, but must admit that we expected to find it a bit more up-to-date. For instance, some of the city officials seem to still be located in the old city hall on North Fifth, and at the old fire station, and as a matter of fact, they have been in the new city hall nearly two months.

The directory is nicely printed, but we have often wondered, that inasmuch as there is only one printed a year, if it would not pay them to have them printed on a bit better grade of paper, say a cheap sulphite bond instead of newsprint. And, we don't like to be too critical, but we liked the old style of having Brownfield, Denver City, Meadow, Ropesville and Seagraves all to themselves, instead of jumbled together.

But perhaps a new directory will have to be printed this fall when their new building at Main and Fourth is finished, and if a dial

A Slight Drop In Tech Enrollment

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech has enrolled 4,522 students for the spring semester, a slight decrease from the spring semester of 1951 when 4,660 students registered.

The decrease was described as normal by college officials. Men students outnumbered women almost three to one. There were 3,136 men enrolled compared to 1,386 women.

The spring semester student enrollment is 384 students less than the fall semester enrollment of 4,906.

system is installed, as per present plans.

Proctor Renews For The 46th Time

Frank Proctor dropped in last week and planked down two well worn George Washington batskins for the 46th time of the Herald, 43 of them since the Old He has been on hand, and three years when the Herald really had an editor. We asked if he wanted a receipt. "No, never have, and if I don't get it the full year as always, will be in for a small scale racket with you," he stated in his best Proctorian, "just try it," jest.

But you know we could not get that bird on the three-year for $5 list at all! Said he's afraid he wouldn't live that long, and if he died he didn't want the Herald anyway. Well, presently we have no mail connections with either place he might land in.

There is one thing about Frank that is remarkable. Since we have been here he has either lived east or a bit northeast of the city, at three different farms in the country. And since he moved to town, he lives on the east side on Tahoka road. He's about as much a stickler for the east as Ed Thomson is for the northwest.

Ed has lived on farms northeast of Brownfield for the some 20 years he has lived here except the first two, which was on a farm north of town. But he moved to town and lives in a house in the south part of the city. And somehow we don't believe Ed is alto-

Final Rites Read For W. A. Whisenhunt

Funeral services for W. A. Whisenhunt, 56, of Meadow were conducted at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the First Methodist Church of Meadow.

Whisenhunt was pronounced dead Sunday on arrival at the Lubbock Memorial Hospital after suffering an apparent heart attack at a farm east of Lubbock.

Survivors included his wife, three sons, Kenneth and Donald Wayne of Meadow, and Lewis O. of Sacramento, Calif.; four brothers, F. F. and C. A. Whisenhunt, both of Lindsay, Okla.; Ward of Berkeley, Calif.; and M. W. Whisenhunt of Durant, Okla.; three sisters, Mrs. C. B. Blevins of Brownfield, Mrs. Lillie Rice of Ivanhoe and Mrs. A. V. Blackshear of Frutta, Colo.

Mr. Whisenhunt, who was a veteran of World War I, had a son, William A. Whisenhunt Jr., who was killed during World War II. Several members of the Howard Henson Post No. 269 of the American Legion, were members of an Honor Guard at the services Wednesday at Meadow for Mr. Whisenhunt.

Attend school any day next week—March 2-8—Public Schools Week.

Ed has lived on farms northeast of Brownfield for the some 20 years he has lived here except the first two, which was on a farm north of town. But he moved to town and lives in a house in the south part of the city. And somehow we don't believe Ed is altogether pleased with his location. Now back in the old states it is nothing unusual for a man to be born, reared and die a certain direction from the county seat, as they just don't move back there every time the moon changes.

A 'Row' With Michie But We Got the Dough

Just as sure as February rolls around, we have to have run-in with a certain realtor up at McAlester, Okla., to get the three bachelors out of him. But we generally win. This contrary personality is none other than J. E. Michie, who some 28 years ago, hit Brownfield like a ton of brick, and started a grocery store about the same time that W. H. Collins from the same general location in Oklahoma, and put in his dry goods store.

What Michie craves is more about the old timers. But many of them have left this vale of tears since Michie left here, and we have no way of interviewing them. But if Michie has any particular person in view he wants us to quiz that is not in the grave or pen, we'll be glad to comply. Too many new names mentioned, all Greek to him.

Anyway, Michie reports a good 7-inch snow just fading out, leaving a good season, and things in general look good. Sent us a clipping from his hometown paper telling about the $25-million expansion of the US Naval Ammunition de-

Among the New and Renewal Readers

Among the renewals of late, we are glad to number Mrs. John Lucie on the Tahoka road in east Brownfield. Then Mrs. Kirk Williams of Meadow, Rt. 1, called and renewed for more times than we have fingers and toes, perhaps. And even the Rex Laundry found their paper getting behind and renewed. Hugh Hulse, down at Grand Prairie, also got sorry for us.

Then there was that old time Terryite, Ben Hurst up there at the top of Texas, Wellington. Wilton Thomason gets on for three years, as his daughter drew on of our "Treasure Hunt" certificates. Old timer, Mrs. John Raymer of Lubbock sends in the cash, followed by J. L. Cruce. Mrs. Duncan, Rt. 2, renewed not too long ago, but decided to take the three years for $5 on this week.

Among the new ones are, the Rev. C. S. Smith, pastor of one of our colored churches; Noah Reeves, down at Snyder; Carl Biggers at Beaumont. Then there was W. A. Penny, city; Homer Sudderth, Tokio, and kinsmen, Willard Townsend, way out at Ukiah, Calif., and James Nutt way up in Waverly, Nebr.

We are also real glad to have E. H. Green, the Needmore merchant, back on our mailing list. Gets his mail on a Meadow route.

Wish we could remember that old poetry that rhymes to the tune of "Old Oaken Bucket." But this one was about "The Faithful Old Subscriber." Maybe we'll run onto it some of these days.

Every citizen is urged to visit Brownfield schools next week, March 2-8, which has been proclaimed Public School Week.

pot which is established there. And naturally a resulting housing shortage.

Back to old timers, Michie can't see why some of them don't get their names in the paper, even if they have run over something in their cars, which he hopes don't happen. Trouble is that most of us old timers are getting so slow on foot that we take no chances crossing streets, and cars have got so high a lot of us don't own one.

Bank of Middleton Has Fourth Holdup

Last week, another would-be desperado undertook to hold up the Bank of Middleton, our old hometown bank in west Tennessee. But it seems that the citizenship of the little town of some 750 people have become fed up on holdups, and they seemingly have a secret way to let the people onto what is going on in the little village.

As a consequence, the holdup man and one hostage he brought along as the car driver from Memphis, and another who happened to walk into the bank, met a fusillade of shots from an enraged citizenry when he walked out, from rifles, shotguns with buckshot, pistols, etc. And if you want to know, these old squirrel hunters can knock out the eyes of a squirrel in those old tall trees down in the bottoms.

Anyway, the bandit as well as his hostage from Memphis, who was there against his will, but the Middletonites did not know that, were shot up. Sasser, the local man was not shot, but scared. Anyway, the Dallas News designated the affair as the "Second Battle of Shiloh." The old civil war battlefield is some 40 miles east of Middleton.

Our nephew, Vernon Stricklin, sent us last Friday's Memphis Commercial Appeal, that gave the whole story and a half page of pictures. We also heard the National broadcast of it last Thursday night, with the mike from a Memphis radio station located in the bank of Middleton.

Sounded like a western thriller, and we join the Commercial Appeal in congratulation to those honest old Hardeman countians, who stand four square for the protection of their own and their neighbors' property.

This makes the fourth holdup since 1946, and the second within a month. All have been apprehended and most of the money recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herod and son, Billy Mack, visited Mr. Herod's parents in Snyder Saturday. Sunday they went to Rotan where they visited his sister, Mrs. Bob White, who is in a Rotan hospital with a new baby.

Some Happenings Here In the Bygone Days

A few, not too many mind you, and some not kin, have asked us recently to give a few of the happenings out this way 40-odd years ago, and particularly as they affected the writer. Maybe some of them will fill space just as well as one we might pluck from propaganda we receive by the basket load about the price ceilings on pickled walnuts. We are not, however, going back too far, as we understand that the grand juries still meet at Cleburne and Anson, Texas, as well as Boliver, Tennessee.

Anyway, it all happened back in the fall of 1908, three miles northeast of Anson. An older and perhaps a wiser brother had seen us struggle along on the farm there for three years, when we had our mind more on literary stuff than maize and cotton. In fact, we wrote news from our community in just about every paper in Jones county that would print our stuff. And we'd learned the printing trade back in Tennessee. Because of poor health, we spent the first nine years in Johnson and Jones counties on farms—and became robust again at 28 years of age.

Along in the fall of 1908, our elder brother came out to Terry to look at some land. Incidentally, he found that little weekly newspaper here in Brownfield was for sale. When he got back to Anson, he advised us to sell our farming implements and team, and go out and buy the paper, as it could be purchased almost on our own terms. But we told him we didn't have a load of stovewood even, to make the first payment. In the second place, we didn't know whether or not we'd like to live 100 miles from a railroad.

But he maintained, and with good reason, that we were never cut out for a farmer, and perhaps could make a living with a small frontier town weekly. After some correspondence, we decided to give the thing a go, and on or about the 8th day of January, 1909, we caught the morning Wichita Valley train for Abilene, and along toward dark, we were moving along west on the Tay & Pay. We arrived safe and sound in Big Spring at late bedtime, and put up for the night at the old Stewart Hotel, bag, baggage and about 40 bucks in money we'd got out of our last bales of cotton.

In writing this, we are going to have to use the word "late" a lot of times in referring to old timers, many of which have gone the way of all flesh. Anyway, the late Jack Head of Brownfield was there with his line car, a two cylinder Maxwell, and about 9 a. m., Head and the writer, plus two Rogers boys, one cook and the other just a cowboy, hit the line car road for Lamesa and Brownfield. (To be continued—maybe).

Mr. and Mrs. Les Newberry went to Lubbock Sunday and visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kirschner. Mrs. Newberry and Mrs. Kirschner attended Southwestern Market there.

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

As the radio comedian says, "People Are Funny." One time the late Gov. James E. Ferguson stated that people who were for him wouldn't believe anything that was said about him. And those who were against him would love to believe anything they heard about him. That reminds us of the one in which the Dallas Morning News stated back about 1940 to American mothers, "that their boys would never have to go across the ocean to fight," and termed it Roosevelt folly. The News was criticised for that statement. And in 1941, when the war broke out, these people criticized The News again for making the statement that Roosevelt did say what he said. Yes, people are funny.

It is related that a dog food manufacturer has really hit the jackpot. He has manufactured a dog food that has the same flavor that a mail carrier's ankle has.

The unpredictable has happened. HST and Taft have finally agreed on one thing. Both are opposed to preferential presidential primaries, and had some rather nasty things to say about them. Why? Isn't these primaries the voice of the people? Or had Taft and Truman rather have everything run by the big bosses of the party?

Another thing of interest we have read lately, is that Lubbock is expecting a population of 260,000 in 2010. We don't expect to be around to check on that count.

Speaking of Lubbock also reminds us that Editor Charles A. Guy of the Avalanche-Journal gives out some off-brand pronouncements of Lubbock. We have heard some that sounded queer to us, also. Coming in on a train to that city many years ago, the brakeman or conductor sang out "LUBBICK." At the time we said nothing, but could not help think the guy was born somewhere north of the M & D line.

Some columnist recently made the crack that "at times the toothpick seemed more to be desired than riches." Frankly we are too dumb to discover the hilarity in the crack, but it reminded us of the good old days in Lubbock when the Merrell or was it Merrill Hotel, was the Biltmore of that growing city.

At that time the proprietor had a keen sense of wit and ridicule. He used to say that the dead game sports would eat at Walt's Wagon up the street, and come down and stand around his lobby and pick their teeth. Well, what could be agerfretin'.

We have seen a lot of pretty new cars of late in the showrooms as well as on the streets. But we have reached the conclusion that they would look and feel a lot better if we could just take one of 'em out. However, at current prices the will to own is not as sharp as it might be.

Governor Proclaims 4-H Club Week

COLLEGE STATION.—Governor Allan Shivers has designated March 19 as 4-H Club Week in Texas.

In issuing the proclamation, Governor Shivers said, "Agressive and trustworthy citizens are vital to the future of the world today, and we take great pride in these characteristics of the 116,000 Texas 4-H Club boys and girls.

"Organized through county agricultural and home demonstration agents and assisted by volunteer leaders, 4-H Club members are learning and demonstrating to others better methods of home making and farming.

"More important still, they are developing deeper appreciation for their country and the democratic way of life which it assures."

The governor concluded, "With complete confidence, I look upon the 4-H Club members of Texas as capable leaders for tomorrow in agricultural, home, community and world affairs."

Texas 4-H boys and girls will join with nearly two million other 4-H Club members of the country in observing National 4-H Club Week, March 1-9.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

You know folks, for gall, I nominate your Uncle Samuel. The old boy via the state dept. sends young domestic science graduates, by the dozen, into Italy and all over Europe, to show the world's best cooks how to cook. The state dept. sends a new batch of 90 of its hangers-on into old Persia to give 'em culture there. A nation 2000 years old is Persia, and the earth's champion when it comes to intricate art, and rugs, the likes of which, we, in our super enlightened land, cannot hold a candle.

And to confuse me still further, take oil. Everybody hankers to own an oil well. Iran oozes with oil—so we send over 20 to 30 million U.S.A. bucks to put 'em on their feet there. Woe is us. And into old Mesopotamia Sambo dispatches do-gooders and their families to show 'em there in Bagdad how to go about running their country. And seeing as how the old Mesopotamians have gotten along quite nicely for 2000 years and upwards, she must look to them as if upstart Sambo had more dinero than gumption.

Telling a Baghdadian which is the cool side of the street and how to go about being cultured or comfortable, and why don't he go "modern" could bring chuckles to an old Mesopotamian resting comfortably on his silky and soft rug—and it should.

Gall and borrowed money is what we have the most of.

Yours with the low down,

conversation and keeping our best ear to the ground, many of our merchants and service station men have quit the stamp business short off. They claim that after the purchase of the stamps, with the close margin they make on merchandise, there remains no profit for them. One merchant stated that after one month with the expense of the stamps, he found that if he wanted to make anything above expenses, he would have to dispense with the stamps. He did.

From our seat in the northeast part of this sanctum sanctorum, it seems that no one wants to represent the new 28th Representative district composed of Cochran, Hockley, Yoakum and Terry. What's the matter with you guys that periodically want to save the state and nation?

Anyway, the Gimme and Iwanta boys are keeping the good old USA on an uneven keel. First, there is a wage hike to take care of the he of 1 for the poor working man. Then, naturally, the manufacturer has to have a good percentage boost to take care of the extra cost of material and labor. Then the food suppliers come in for an increased rakeoff, as everything they have to buy or use has advanced in price.

There just don't seem to be any stopping place. None of us want to see a bad depression. But some have about reached the conclusion if there was just a "leettle bitty tiny" depression to kinder level off matters, and bring the people to mind that it could happen again, as it has since the nation was established back in 1776, it might help a bit.

Baptist Men Attend Brotherhood Meet

A large delegation of men and boys from local Baptist churches met at the annual District Nine Brotherhood Evangelistic Rally in Lubbock last Tuesday night, February 19.

held at the First Baptist Church in Brownfield pastored by Rev. Jones W. Weatherly of First Baptist Church of Lubbock, and Rev. John C. Taylor of the Westside Baptist Church had charge of the Royal Ambassador Recognition Service.

Spoken before a crowd of more than 1,700, Dr. John Huss of Sparaburg, S. C., gave four directives for building prayer meetings into "hours of prayer." The are (1) "There must be a desire in the heart of the minister." (2) "The service should have a good name." (3) "The ministers should use numbers as a means to an end." (4) "The minister should use people in the services."

The 42-year old minister, whose 42-year prayer meetings have made history in the Southern Baptist Church, told the South Plains audience the story behind the success of his Wednesday evening services.

Recognition Service

An outstanding feature of the rally was the presentation of awards to 70 boys from 15 area towns, marking their achievements as members of the Royal Ambassadors. Rev. Taylor directed the service, and background music was furnished by the Wayland International choir, with Bill Rogers of the organ.

The R. A. service was one of the most colorful ever presented in this area. Ranks of recognition in R. A. work are: Page, Squire, Knight, Ambassador and Advance Ambassador. Recognized as Pages from the Brownfield vicinity were Billy Nipp, son of Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Nipp of Gomez, Glen Dale, Troy Kent and Casper Hopper of Ropesville; Clyde Quigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quigg, and Buddy Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Wood, all of Brownfield.

Buster Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gunn of Brownfield, was recognized as a Squire. Receiving swords as Knights were Robert Conlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Conlee, and Merle and Donald Todd, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Todd.

Joe Warren Cass, son of Rev. and Mrs. Cass of Ropesville, received the Ambassador award, and Billy Mannin of Ropesville was made a Squire. Only two boys in the district were recognized as Ambassadors Extraordinary: Paul Renfro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Renfro of Littlefield, and Larry Ramsour, son of Rev. and Mrs. Lee Ramsour of Tahoka. Mrs. Ramsour furnished piano music for the Recognition service. There is only one rank higher for these boys to achieve, that of Ambassador Plenipotentiary.

Choir Sings

A musical interlude was provided by the Wayland International Choir under the direction of Shelby Collier. The group was attired in native garb of many lands, all students at Wayland College, Plainview.

Plans for District Nine Simultaneous Revivals were discussed by Rev. Earl Allen of Floydada, scheduled for April 13 through 27. Rev. Franklin E. Swanner, district missionary, told of District Nine pro-

National Jaycee Prexy Visits Here

"Young men must assume a more active role in public affairs even if they feel inadequate," Lee Price Jr., national president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said in a luncheon speech here Monday. "We must tap a new source of leadership," Price said. "Young men are not dismayed that we are facing a formidable enemy... the nation rests on their shoulders."

Price made his remarks before about 65 persons attending the luncheon, including guests from local civic clubs and representatives from neighboring towns. He came here from Lubbock, accompanied by L. D. Whiteley and Lucian Thomas, both of Lubbock. Since he became national Jaycee president he has toured 40 of the 48 states.

Touching upon a Junior Chamber of Commerce project to teach the youth of America what the nation believes, Price asserted that "a child will be proud of his nation if he knows its history and what it stands for."

Mrs. Grady Terrell and children of Midland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anthony, 216 West Main, and her sister, Miss Elizabeth Anthony, last weekend.

Attending the meeting from the Calvary Baptist Church here were C. M. McIntyre and son Robert, Knox Hinkle and H. P. Boyd.
