Contracts Let, Construction To Begin On $300,000 First Methodist Church

Construction will begin on the new $300,000 First Methodist Church building by the first of the year, according to Burton Hackney, chairman of the Building Committee. A contract was let to John T. Glover and Son of Lubbock when members of the committee met Monday at 3 p. m. in the present church.

Work on the foundation will be gin by Jan. 1, and by March 1, construction should get underway on the building proper. Orders for structural steel are being placed immediately.

The Educational wing of the new edifice will be erected first, and Hackney said it is hoped that it can be completed for use before the remainder of the church is finished.

The $300,000 estimate is exclusive of furnishings.

Attending the meeting Monday were Rev. Dallas D. Denison, pastor of the church; Hackney, R. J. Purtell, vice chairman of the committee, W. T. McKinney, secretary; Joe W. Johnson, Mrs. J. Fred Bucy and Mrs. G. S. Webber.

Because of rising building costs, the small chapel and a series of archways connecting the chapel with the sanctuary wing have been eliminated from the original plan.

Cause Of Fire At Murphy Meat Plant Still Undetermined; Damage Is $18,000

Murphy Meat Plant burned Friday about 6:30 a. m. in a fire which required the calling out of both of Brownfield's fire trucks and caused a total estimated loss and damage of $18,000.

Smoke was first discovered about 6 a. m. Friday, and the big fire truck was called out, driven by Johnny Hall. The second and smaller truck, with Leonard Isaac as driver, was needed and called, and approximately 16 volunteer firemen fought the conflagration for about three-and-a-half hours. No one was injured in the fire.

The blaze broke out again about midnight that night, but the plant employees were able to control it. However, Sunday about 3 a. m., the fire department had to be called back again. There have also been several other re-occurrences of the fire, according to Dewey Murphy, Sr., manager and part owner of the plant. Because of the re-occurring conflagrations, officials of the company have theorized that the fire could have been smoldering for several days preceding the actual outbreak. Cause of the fire is still undetermined, Murphy said.

Owners of the company are Dewey Murphy, Sr., Dewey Murphy, Jr., Spencer Murphy and J. O. Burnett.

Besides the loss of meat at the plant all locker space received 100 percent damage, the company manager said, including a 10 by 14 cutting room, and three storage lockers measuring 12 by 12 10 by 12 and 20 by 12. He also estimated that office space in the building underwent 50 percent damage.

Coy Maroney's Slaughter House, located west of the stock yards, was converted for use, and with the help of a number of persons who donated labor, it was ready for operation within a day-and-a-half after the fire.

To those persons and to all volunteer firemen, Dewey Murphy, Sr., on behalf of the company, wishes to express their appreciation and gratitude.

Monday Is Your Dollar Day Here

Run your peepers over the specials in this issue of the Herald. There is some good shopping news for you in them. And remember that Christmas is knocking right at your door, and no better time than now to begin making your selections.

The longer you delay, the more the Christmas stocks will be broken, and no better time than right now to select. We believe that most of our merchants will permit the "lay-away" plan. Ask them about this arrangement.

The Christmas Lights Are Being Placed

City electricians are busy this week erecting the new Christmas decoration system, which is to be installed for the first time this year. Originally it was hoped that the lights and decorations could be finished by Thanksgiving, but of late it has been held as doubtful. Of course if the old Christmas decoration was to have been installed, that would have been easy. But the new ones must be planned from jump go.

Once up, however, we are told that Brownfield is to be one of the gayest decorated towns in the area. The old ones were pretty, but like everything else, age lends a worn, seedy appearance, and for that reason, the Chamber of Commerce solicited the business men for rather heavy donations this year to really put Brownfield on the list as a really Christmas-looking town.

In order that the money for decorations might go as far as possible in the purchase of the decorations, the City agreed to put them up without cost to the business and professional men. And in addition, to furnish the lights for the decorations.

So, we're all anxious to see just how our burg is going to look in these streamlined decorations.

Latin Americans Named in Robbery, Murder, Slashing

A murder, a beating and a robbery and a slashing, all involving Latin Americans have occurred during the past week.

Juan Rocha, 28, was shot three times in the chest Friday about 12:05 a. m. Charged with murder in the shooting were Jose Diaz and Rafael Diaz. Rocha's body was at the Brownfield Funeral Home earlier this week awaiting arrival of relatives from Washington state.

Carlos Acosta was the victim of a beating and robbery which took place Saturday about 10 p. m. near the Pioneer Salt Plant. He was robbed of between $120 and $135 by two unidentified Mexicans after getting into a car with the two men. A Brownfield Funeral Home Ambulance to the victim to the hospital, where he was treated and released. No charges have been filed, but officers are looking for two Latin Americans driving a black 1936 Chevrolet coupe.

Davis Ramos was involved in a razor slashing south of the Foster Gin Sunday about 12:30 a. m. and Sinonso Espinosa has been charged with aggravated assault in the case. A cut across Ramos' throat missed his jugular vein about half an inch. He also received another cut on his neck and a six inch slash just above the ear.

Over 40,000 Bales Cotton Been Ginned

Jim Foy, County Agent, who recently covered the gins for reports of 1952 ginning, stated Monday that up to that time, according to his figures, 40,741 bales had been ginned. He figured that the county would wind up with around 45,000 bales.

He stated that most of the farmers with the exception of the Tokio and Johnson communities, were winding up the ball of yarn. The farmers in these two communities had more rain than most of the other sections, and better cotton.

A lot of Terry county cotton is ginned at county line gins, just over in other counties, such as Gaines, Dawson, Lynn and Hockley.

LIONS ARE PRAISED FOR YOUTH PROJECTS

As the Brownfield Lions Club begins work on its annual Christmas program for the needy, the Herald feels it is a good time to commend members of the club on their outstanding work for the youth of Brownfield and Terry County.

Probably their best known project is the softball park and swimming pool program, which have provided fun, exercise and wholesome recreation for dozens of youngsters. But the Lions always seem to be on the lookout for other ways in which to help the young people.

They recently purchased a hearing aid for a school student, and frequently buy glasses for school children whose parents are not financially able to obtain them. Besides their support of the local scouting program by sponsoring a troop, this year the club took on another project for local boys and sponsored the Junior Auto Races.

Also the club has purchased walking canes for the blind.

This Christmas many area children will realize there is a Santa Claus after all, through the efforts of the local Lions, a club which never seems to miss an opportunity to make children happy and to make this a better county for them to grow up in.

His Signature On Checks May 'Vanish' But Hobbs Man Will 'Appear' At Prison

Louie A. White, 45, of Hobbs, N. M., was found guilty Friday night of passing a forged instrument by a 106th District Court jury, which recommended his sentence at three years in the penitentiary.

He was convicted on one of four indictments drawn against him on four checks passed in Brownfield. All were signed with fictitious names, according to officers who said White had an extensive record. The case involved checks bearing vanishing signatures which can be detected only by ultra-violet light.

District Attorney Karl Cayton of Lamesa said White came to Brownfield and deposited an amount of money in the bank under a fictitious name. He would then write checks, after asking the recipients to check his account at the bank, on Saturday afternoon. When the business-

Tom Lingler, Ag. Commissioner of Georgia, had a rather interesting "once upon a time" front page editorial in his current issue of his Market Bulletin. Of course, this fairy story was written in some what of a sarcastic vein, and his subject was the cow and milk. Way back in the boobyhood days of Tom and the Old He, people did not study much about the fable of growing fat, and wanting above all things to be slim and stylish. So they just drank whole milk, just as it came from the cow's udder. Oh, of course, some of the top cream might be skimmed off to lend flavor to the cup of Arbuckle. So, the kids, and the grownups drank whole milk, and the kids were taught that milk was good for them, not only as food for the stomach's sake, but was good for their bones and teeth. As long as this condition went on, there was not much profit in milk, and few went to the expense of advertising it. It was just a part of the setup for a meal. But behold the day arrived when there was skimmed milk and powdered milk, and the newspapers and mags. had a field day, introducing the new novelty. The very idea of using milk with 4 percent fat, just as old Dame Nature's cow intended, became abhorrent. What would become of the gals' school figure? Yes, it was bad for the ladies to take the 4 percent fat that nature put into the milk, but those substitutes from the island seas, with coconut substitutes with as much as 13 percent fat was OK. So, the ladies swilled down this substitute in the way of ice cream and other concoctions without batting an eye. They were told in many big ads that they could eat their fill of the substitutes, and keep their slim figures. Then the owners of some of the big department stores walked out with some high sounding names for their particular products, such as "chick-see". The fashionable decided that after all the Lord did not know what he was doing when he made the cow, and that man had it all over Jehovah, when it comes to producing something very stimulating, and at the same time non-fattening. Tom believes that the medics, who have told us so much about our drinking water, what purity it may be, and what should be added to make it both pure and palatable, ought to go to work and correct some of the misinformation people in general have about milk, and the idea that prevails that selfish manufacturers know more about what is good for you than Dame Nature.

It is getting near that time of year when our highways at best will be dangerous to navigate, especially if wet or icy. They are dangerous at all times, as far as that goes, and our weekend casualties on the highways reads like that from Korea every week or so. Part of the trouble is, of course due to filling your old hide full of liquor, but patrolmen both in the cities, and those who traverse highways, say that the guys that take chances, those that demand more than half of the right-of-way, or the hard-headed nuts that disregard all signs and cautions, kill far more than those liquored up. If they just killed themselves the world would be better off, but the bull-heads usually escape. Some of the things recommended by National Safety Council, is that you try your brakes, occasionally, especially when away from traffic, and on slippery roads. If the roads are dangerously slick, slow down. Keep your windshield clear, so that you may see danger and avoid it. Use tire chains in case of snow or ice. They cut the stopping distance about half. Pump your brakes to slow or stop. Jamming them on can lock your wheels and throw your car into a dangerous skid. And follow other cars at a safe distance. In this way, if the car in front of you has to make an emergency stop, or fails to give you a signal for a turnout, you will not bump into it. Another dangerous animal on the highway is the guy who will take a chance in passing a car in front of him, which is itself traveling fast enough, before meeting another car coming from the opposite direction, and perhaps less than 200 yards away, and making some 70 miles per hour. We have had to slow or take the shoulder a few times on meeting just such monkeyheads. Such jerks are numerous on the highways, and from their maneuvers, one would reach the conclusion that their time is worth thousands per hour. Truth is, maybe he is behind in his payments on the car he is driving. Tires are really good these days. They have to be to meet a keen competitor, and they are mostly made of synthetic rubber, which experts say are better than genuine rubber, in performance and lasting quality. Tires are plentiful and comparatively cheap, so it does not pay to start out on tires that are worn out, or so old they are rotten.

There has been a whale of a lot written as well as spoken lately about toll roads or super highways, especially between the larger cities. And that people who use them will be taxed a cent a mile, who are in a hurry to get from one city to another, without having to stop for lights, stop signs, and converse traffic. Some of the articles are favorable, some not so favorable. Most say that while the toll road is supposed to pay its own way, they usually fail, and the balance must be made up in taxes. However, way back in the 30ties, when we first began to make trips back to Tennessee, there were toll bridges, particularly through Arkansas, across the Red, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers. They either paid out or were paid for some other way. They are now free bridges. And this brings on talk of how the new president will look at more and better highways. Most writers and speakers are of the opinion, that Ike, being a military man, and knowing the importance of good highways in the movement of troops and supplies, will go deeper than the present administration on building them, even if he has to cut some other things he considers as non-essential. Ike, too, may have read that very important saying credited to the old Confederate Cavalry leader, General Nathan Bedford Forrest, that "the winner of the battle usually was those who got there fastest with the mostest." Some writers tell us that the last two administrations have been a bit allergic to large appropriations for better highways. Fact is, there was no large segment of the public clamoring for roads, and it was the idea of both the New and Fair Deals to spend money where pressure groups would benefit, and naturally respond with votes. Not being a politician, Ike may look more favorable on federal appropriations of $800,000,000 recommended by AASHO, that had to be cut to some $550 million to escape a veto by Truman. To say the least, the American people have in the last two decades become very good road conscious. They are going places and seeing things that their dads and mothers never dreamed of seeing, and they want good roads when they start out seeing the sights of the country. There has been a whale of a change in the highways from here to Tennessee in the past 16 years. At that time there were several spots, perhaps 30 mile stretches, between here and there, still unpaved. All those gaps have been closed in the last 10 years.

After reading some editorials from the Gaines County News, Seagraves, we, like the writer, Editor Vanzant, have been wondering for 10, these many years, why Brownfield does not inaugurate a Community Chest instead of having numerous drives for this, that and the other. Beginning in the fall, we almost average two drives a month until spring. The first few do fairly well, but by the time the business and professional men have three or four petitions stuck under their noses, they get the notion to take a slip out pill when they see two or three ladies enter their place of business with a piece of paper, containing the names of "we, the undersigned, agree to subscribe the amount opposite our name, etc." As Mr. Vanzant suggests, one round would do the job as well as the several additional, and the matter would be over for a year. Most of the larger towns and cities, as well as those in the Brownfield class, have already gone to the Community Chest idea. And none have ever stopped, once it is started. We are all aware that such things as charity organizations must exist, but there is neither law or precedent that all of them could not get together and make one drive do the job, instead of bothering people two or three times a month with something similar to what was presented the week or month before. But the people should be educated to the Chest idea in advance. If not, their donation might be in line with those they donate when there are numerous drives. A week or two of articles in the papers before the solicitors start out could point out that this would be the only and final drive for charity funds. We firmly believe that one big drive for a Chest fund would accomplish more than the several. And the solicitors to, become aware that they are not just as welcome as the flowers in May. Many of them know of the innumerable drives just ahead of them, and perhaps they, too, cannot put up the spell for funds for their particular drive they could, if they knew this was the one and only. It would not be hard for all the leaders of the vast drives to get together at some appointed place, make out a budget of what each will need, and appoint solicitors to do it all up in one package. What do you think about it?

So, Ike didn't pay much attention to the lay advisors, columnist and commentators when he started into selecting his cabinet of helpers and advisors. Didn't think he would any of the time. But so far, the men he has selected are above the average, and so far as we know, no suspicion of evil doings hangs over any of them. Perhaps some say that Gen. Eisenhower has dug deeply into the stock pile of industrialists to fill important office portfolios, especially those that concern the spending of monies either by and for the nation, or lendings and helps to others. We believe that Ike has made a wise choice along this line, as these men have long since learned the value of the dollar, and to dislike disrupting taxation of the people who are trying to make a go in this world. These men are experts on the handling of funds, both as to purchases and sales, and the handling of large sums is not going to be beyond their line of comprehension. Of course these men will have to accept salaries far below that which their companies paid them as heads of their industries. Then there comes the question of whether or not the President-Elect make that hazardous journey to Korea. Some say it will be fraught with danger, and some say it will do no good. Perhaps if the General were a civilian, most of us would agree. But being a great military man, we believe it will pay the nation in the long run for Ike to get a front line briefing of what goes on in that area. To be sure there will be danger, but he is not unused to danger. Besides the nation will be blacked out as to where he is, from the times he leaves to perhaps when he returns. We have letters on file during War II, when FDR or HST left for North Africa, Yalta and other places, and asked by the Star-Telegram, that had charge of censorship in Texas, to make no mention of their whereabouts, even if we knew. So far as we know, no newspaper or radio station ever violated this request. Of course there will be danger—always is when one travels, especially via air at this season. But he is willing to take the risk that he might know first hand how better to handle matters in Korea, and get that undeclared war over. Some say why not ask McArthur? The reply is that Gen. McArthur seems to be too stubborn to even consult with Eisenhower, before or since the election. Mack was a confirmed Taft man, and he is just too old and set in his ways to change much. Mack was very unhappy all during the campaign that Taft was not the nominee of the Republican party.

SAM WHITES ATTEND SPRINGTOWN REUNION

Down there in old Parker county, at the old town of Springtown, was the former habitat of several people in this section. And they still like to go down there to the reunions, which are held at un-stated times, so the old timers can get together.

That was the reason Mr. and Mrs. Sam White recently went down to that section. At one time there was a thriving college at this inland town in north-east Parker county, and we used to have many people in this area that attended the college, and for that reason like to attend the reunions as they meet many old college mates.

We don't remember whether it was a private or denominational school, but believe it was still going at the beginning of this century.

PROPOSED DAV MEMORIAL TO UNKNOWN SAILOR

CINCINNATI — The Disabled American Veterans in cooperation with the Department of Defense, will construct the Grave of the Unknown Sailor at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, as a fitting tribute to the heroic Navy dead, comparable to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington. At its recent national convention in Boston the DAV voted to underwrite the estimated $75,000 cost among its membership. The memorial, designed by Paul R. Williams, who helped design the United Nations building in Paris, will have four circular pylons, 35-feet high, with a curved ramp running out into the water and circling a buoy on which will be a dedicatory plaque. Three rooms in the land structure will be used as chapels. DAV officials hope to break ground for the memorial in the near future.

Santa Letters Are Coming In Already

That there are a great many small fry in this area that still believe in the big stomached, red nosed and white whiskered gentleman that is supposed to dwell in the general area of the north pole, is demonstrated by the letters the Herald is getting. Yes, sir, we have been getting these solicitous missives for some time, and with the next issue of the Herald, we shall begin publishing them.

Somehow or another, the twaddlers in this area begin to feel that old Santa is not far off, when the cold blasts of middle November sweep down across the Plains. It is then that we begin to get these appeals from the youngsters, to their great and good friend, Old St. Nick.

These children are never selfish, however, as they most always conclude with a request that their little friends be remembered.

Fresh Applesauce - How To Make It

College Station — There are tricks to making even as simple and familiar dish as fresh applesauce if you want to save time and fine flavor.

Foods and nutrition specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say if you are making large amounts of apple sauce, here is a suggestion to save time in peeling: wash, quarter and core the apples and cook in a covered pan with a small quantity of water. Put the apples through a food press to remove skins easily and to obtain a smooth sauce. If red apples are used, the sauce will have more color. Add a few grains of salt and enough sugar to sweeten while hot.

The specialists say the amount of water you use depends on the juiciness of the apples and how thick you like your sauce. If you add too much water and have to cook the sauce longer, the flavor may be changed. By having the pan closely covered, you can use just a little water and cook only until the apples are soft. Watch carefully to keep from scorching the applesauce.

Another way to make applesauce is to pare quartered and cored apples, cook with a small amount of water in a covered pan until tender, and then crush the pieces with a potato masher or stir until smooth. Add salt and sweeten to taste.

Early fresh apples usually have so much flavor of their own that the sauce needs no extra touches. But for variety the specialists suggest brown sugar or honey for sweetening. Cook the apples with raisins, a few whole cloves or a stick of cinnamon and remove the cinnamon before you serve the apple sauce. If apples are mild, cook with a little lemon juice for tartness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Shewmake and daughter, left Saturday for San Antonio, where they will visit a sister of Mrs. Shewmake. They were accompanied by Mrs. Simon Holgate, who will be met there by relatives and go on to Weslaco, where she will spend the winter with a sister.

Summer Complainers Not Very Logical

AUSTIN—It is an illogical fact that many people complain about the heat of Texas summers and yet sit indoors during the winter months in a temperature about as high as that about which they complained in the summer season, is the view of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"If the average person would realize the definite hazard in developing and maintaining an indoor temperature about 70 degrees, or at most 72 degrees, when the outside thermometer registers around freezing," he said, "there would be fewer colds, less bronchial conditions, and less pneumonia than there are today.

"Fresh air is one of the body's basic needs and no amount of luxury or artificial pleasure can be substituted for it. It may be a comfortable feeling to be warm, especially with the consciousness of the tough weather outdoors, but it is another matter to achieve this comfort at the probable cost of health.

"Winters in the Temperate Zone are sufficiently trying upon the human system with their sudden and sharp temperature changes, without adding to the burden by making a hothouse of one's home. Of course, colds and other respiratory affections can be acquired in many different ways, but one of the easiest methods of becoming victims of such hazards is the overheated house.

"To become overheated and perspire, though the latter condition may not be perceived, and in this softened state to brave the cold winter blasts, is to take a thoroughly unwarranted chance with health.

"The wise householder therefore will check up on his artificial heat problem. He will resolve to keep his thermometer within safe limits."

Cubs Crush Lobos Last Friday Night, 50 to 7

By Jacak Lucas

The Brownfield Cubs played another fine game of ball last Friday night in defeating the Lobos as they did against the Littlefield Wildcats and the Muleshoe Mules. The Cubs ended their regular season of play by losing only 3 out of 10 games and all of them coming at the first of the season. The win over all three teams in District 7-AA gave the Cubs the right to represent their district the day the playoff starts.

The Cub's losses came from Phillips, 19-13, a sate play-off contender from 1-AA; Pecos, 20-0, first game of the year, and from Seminole, 6-0, who is the representative of District 8-AA against the Cubs here Turkey Day. The Cubs will be somewhat stronger against the Indians than the time they played Seminole in the middle of the season. Both teams have improved considerably and it will be a game to see, you can bet on that.

By beating the Lobos, it gave the Cubs their first clear-cut District Championship since the team of '42 that got beat in the bi-district game.

To open he last District Contest to decide the Champ, the Cubs received and after 3 plays and a kick changed the ball with Levelland, who did the same thing, the Cubs started rolling. Their first drive, 60 yards and only 4 minutes deep in the first quarter, the Cubs pushed Joe Swan over from the one for the climax of the drive. Extra point failed, and then after the kickoff th Lobos came back stronger than ever, with a 34 yard pass from Mac Freeman to end Odell, to help the drive to the Cub 6. It took the Lobos the full four plays to score and the conversion counted, and the Lobos led — only for a minute — 7-6. After the kickoff and a first down by the Cubs, Joe Swan broke through the center of the Lobo line and went 36 yards for the TD. After this, the Cubs were never tested again and scored at will from nearly anywhere they wanted to. Other scorers for the night were Billy Thomason on a 20 yard scamper; a pass from Cloud to Stockton; another line plunge by Swan, making him a total of three; Jerry Anderson digging off tackle; Black on another Plunge; and one by Jones. One of the best runs of the night was called back because of clipping when Jones backed around end for 60 yards.

After the first quarter the Cubs led 12-7; half, 38-7; third quarter, 44-7; and final, 50-7. The fourth quarter was played by reserves when Coach Greer did everything but clear the bench.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well folks, folks of all stripes, types and colors—folks of America—now that the shouting dies down and we have a different crew on board ship there at the dock on that rily, oily, swaggering Polonac, we can dust off our vest and buckle down to saving our Republic and our friends. We been wanderin'—we been duck soup for the checkered vest boys—we been pickin' for the intellectuals, the deep thinkers with the grand thoughts but who, I say, just think they think. All us suckers of every hue and degree, we can now join hands—otherwise there will be more holes bored in the old boat. She leaks plenty and too much already.

Where to start first is like when you begin packing the household goods getting ready to move. The attic and the basement overflow with space eating, useless gadgets and junk. It goes overboard.

Now, we can give a squint at Wash., D.C. It has been going round and round and if you are dizzy, you have oceans of company. But it has not been like the horse on the merry-go-round that didn't eat oats and didn't eat hay—our Washington crew ate it by the bale. It's your hay, folks—what you going to do about it. We been docile—a sucker for short—too long. It is time to raise a ruckus if the new crew don't cut the mustard—and pronto—like it said it would.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

MODERN RANCH HOUSE

HOUSE PLAN No. 34

Gov. Shivers Alarmed At Hiway Accidents

The Governor's Traffic Safety Committee held the first meeting of the full committee in the State Capitol, Austin, October 30th with practically all members attending.

Governor Allan Shivers opened the meeting with a short address and then turned the meeting over to Cecil Burney of Corpus Christi, who is the general chairman. Among the Governor's remarks, he said that "Frankly, I am alarmed at the ever growing rate of accidents on our highways." He also added "Our whole world has been changed by the motor vehicle. We cannot live without it; it is time we trained ourselves to live with it." To emphasize what a big job the committee has ahead, the Governor told them: "To cite an example of what we are up against, in 1944 we had 1 1/2 million cars and trucks—today, we have 3 1/2 million, or at visit a relative who is ill in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown and family went to Lubbock Sunday to visit her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Trim.

TEXAS FARM INCOME IS DOWN 12 PERCENT

AUSTIN, Texas—Texas farm income for 1952 continues below that of 1951, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

By October 1, farmers earned $1,148,864,000—12 per cent below the $1,301,034,000 they received in the same 1951 period. Increasingly harmful drought conditions and a general price decline are responsible to a great extent for the income reduction, researchers assert.

most one motor vehicle for every two Texans."

Chairman Burney submitted a plan of procedure which was adopted. The plan included the appointment of four sub-committees—Education, Engineering, Enforcement, and Public Support. Dr. B. B. Harris, Denton, is chairman of Education; A. W. Breeland, Dallas, chairman of Enforcement; John Womble, El Paso, chairman of Engineering; Herb Petry, Carrizo Springs, chairman of Public Support. The sub-committees were instructed by the chairman to meet at their convenience and report back to the full committee at a meeting tentatively set for December 4.

If you like the long, rambling ranch type house you will really "take to" this FARM AND RANCH Plan No. 5034—it gives you casual ranch house appearance in a very compactly arranged home.

The casement windows in the attractive kitchen will let in plenty of Old Sol's rays to both the work area and the eating space. This eating space is large enough for serving family meals in comfort. Cabinet space is plentiful, and the arrangement of sink, range and refrigerator will require a minimum of housewife mileage in meal preparation. Off the kitchen the utility room will provide space for laundry equipment and possibly a freezer chest. Field hands can get rid of sweat and grime in the shower off the utility room before entering the rest of the house.

The arrangement of the bath, utility room, and kitchen in one single area permits a rather simplified plumbing system which will appreciably reduce the cost of materials and labor.

The living-dining area is more spacious than that found in most homes of this size. The large picture window and casement opening on each side will provide an abundance of light and plenty of ventilation.

All three bedrooms have wall space convenient for desirable furniture arrangement. The closets are unusually large, designed with sliding doors to save valuable floor and wall space. In addition, there is linen storage in both the bathroom and hall.

We suggest that this house be built of brick or masonry veneer with a concrete slab foundation and metal casement windows and cement asbestos shingle roof. The gables and front section under the porch should be of painted wood to give the most eye-pleasing effect.

You can obtain blueprints for this TERRY COUNTY HERALD-FARM & RANCH House Plan No. 5034 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Dept. L-193, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number—Plan No. 5034. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or any farmer handy with tools.

Considering all the money being spent on education these days, we might be justified in expecting more results in the thinking and discipline of our modern graduates.

FATHER OF FORMER EMPLOYEES PASSES

John W. Bandy of Seagraves died last Monday at a Seagraves clinic, following a heart attack the Friday before. He was 73 years of age, and had lived in the Seagraves community since 1931. He was born in Kentucky but came to Texas in 1909.

He was a Methodist, and services were held last Wednesday at that church in Seagraves. Burial was in Seagraves cemetery. His wife, one son and four daughters survive. One daughter, Mrs. Gene Coward, was for some time society editor on the Herald. Her husband owned a beauty shop here during their residence here, before the family moved to Amarillo.

CROWDED

There's always room at the top, even for prices, but by now the place must be terribly crowded. —Grit.

Prominent Business Man Passes

B. C. Brady, 56-year-old manager of the Deluxe Motor Inn Tourist courts, was pronounced dead-on-arrival at the Brownfield hospital following a heart attack at the Brownfield-Levelland football game about 8:50 p. m. Friday.

A resident of Brownfield for six years, Brady came here from Seymour where he had been manager of the J. C. Penny store for many years.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Methodist Church. Survivors are his wife, one daughter, Carlon, a student at Texas Western College, El Paso, and one son Brian, who lives at home. Sister and brothers are Mrs. Edgar Carlson and Mrs. S. E. Munson, both of Georgetown; David Brady, Dallas; Joe Brady Georgetown; and John Brady, San Simon, Ariz.

Funeral services were held at

TERRY'S FIRST COUNTY CLERK IS NO MORE

Lense Price was in one day last week and informed us that Wm. T. Dixon, one of Terry's pioneers, and the first County and District Clerk of the county, had passed away. Dixon, 75, had also promoted the first addition to Brownfield, the portion of the town west of the railroad, and laying north-west of the depot.

Dixon died at his home in Vancouver, Wash., October 16, and was buried in that city. Survivors are his wife, two sons and one daughter, the latter being a missionary in Japan. After leaving Texas, he resided several years in New Mexico, before moving to the Northwest.

2 p. m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Tom Keenan, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Terry County Memorial cemetery, with Masonic services being held at the graveside. Brownfield Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

OPS WAITED TOO LONG FOR PUBLICITY

Received a letter Sunday from the OPS man of Lubbock, who was to be here Tuesday, this week, to explain the new ceiling price posters. This should have reached us last Monday or Tuesday.

The message was enclosed in a local Chamber of Commerce envelope. The local C. of C. manager could have informed the man that his message was too late.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown us at the passing of our husband and father. Especially do we thank Bro. Keenan for his words of encouragement and sympathy, to the Masonic Lodge for the beautiful service at the graveside, and to those who sent flowers and brought food. May God's richest blessing abide with you always.

Mrs. B. C. Brady, Carlon and Brian.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—I'm planning to apply for institutional on-farm training under the Korean GI Bill. Does VA need anything more than just my completed application form?

A—Yes, you must include, with your application, (1) photo-stats of both sides of your discharge or separation paper; (2) a detailed outline of your training program as approved by your school stating that the program meets all standards of the law, and (4) evidence that you have control of the farm on which you're going to train and that the training will occupy your full time.

Q—I am making arrangements to buy a house with a GI loan. Can part of the loan be used for advance payments I'm supposed to make for taxes and insurance?

A—No. Prepaid items, such as taxes and insurance, must be paid for in cash, and may not be part of the loan.

Q—I signed up for the total disability income provision in connection with my National Service Life Insurance. If I become totally disabled and draw payments under this provision, will the face amount of my policy be reduced?

A—No. The monthly income benefits will not decrease the face amount of your policy.

Q—How much of an allowance will I get if I enroll in a correspondence school under the Korean GI Bill?

A—Your allowance will be the school's established charge for non-veterans taking the same course. You, of course, must pay the school.

Q—I'm planning to convert my NSLI term policy to permanent endowment insurance. If I'm still living at the end of the endowment period, how will I receive my money?

A—You will have a choice. You may either get the insurance proceeds in a lump sum, or you may ask VA to pay them to you in equal monthly installments

DAV CARTOON OF THE YEAR

CINCINNATI—Paul Conrad's "Give Them The Opportunity They Have Given You," which appeared in the Deaver Post, has been selected by the Disabled American Veterans as the award-winning cartoon of its 1952 newspaper editorial cartoon award. A record number of editorial cartoons were published this year in the 15th annual competition which is conducted to further the cause of the war-disabled veteran, his widow and dependents.

The Disabled American Veterans

The Disabled American Veterans invite you to join the Terry-Yorkum DAV Chapter, No. 131 today. The following is an explanation of what the DAV stands for and the qualifications for eligible members:

WHAT YOU CAN DO FOR THE DAV

Tell other disabled comrades why the NSO's are in the Regional offices of the VA, and direct them to go to see the NSO in their regional office.

Invite him to come to the DAV meetings. Make yourself his buddy and he will be happy to join the chapter.

WHAT THE DAV DOES FOR YOU

Has over 200 nationally trained and paid Service Officers located at all VA facilities to assist all men and women veterans with their problems free.

Being composed of only disabled veterans, they know your problems best. The DAV is in the lead fighting to help you keep all benefits given by Congress, and are at all times presenting your problems to Congress for further consideration.

Leads in the "Employment of Disabled."

ranges in number from 36 to 240. If you die before all the installments have been paid to you, the remainder will go to your beneficiary, if you have named one.

Q—I am receiving a VA pension for a total and permanent nonservice-connected disability. I have a house which I inherited, and I want to sell it. Must I include all the proceeds of the sale as income, in figuring whether I come under the income ceiling for pension purposes?

A—Since you inherited the house, the entire proceeds of its sale would be considered as income for pension purposes. If you receive a lump sum payment, it will apply for the calendar year in which you got it. If you get paid in installments, whatever you receive during a calendar year must be included as income for that particular year.

Q—I was forced to interrupt my training under the World War II GI Bill to go back into active service. I expect to be discharged soon, and I want to continue with my GI studies. Is there any time limit for resuming?

A—You must pick up your training within a reasonable period following your discharge. The "reasonable period" is determined for each veteran on an individual basis and depends on a number of factors such as the type of training involved, its availability and so on.

Q—I know of a World War II veteran who has become incompetent. Can his GI insurance premiums be paid by another person?

A—Yes. The premiums may be paid by any person on his behalf. If the veteran's premium return envelope isn't used, care should be taken to identify the payment properly, including the insured veteran's full name, address, date of birth, service serial number and insurance number.

Miller Estimates 31,000 Bales Ginned

Looe Miller was in the office early this week, and we inquired if he had any idea the number of bales of cotton ginned up to that time in Terry county for the 1952 season. He stated that some 28,000 was ginned up to week before last, and that as the weather was pretty last week, and counting the 12 hour runs by some 14 gins in the county, he would estimate in the neighborhood of 31,000 bales.

And Looe stated that he believed that the county was some three-fourths done gathering this crop, depending altogether on the weather. If we should have some bad, windy weather, the figures would be lower, and if pretty, still weather prevailed, we should get another 14,000 bales or more.

If we have pretty weather, the final could run to something near 45,000 bales. Bad weather could cut the estimate, he stated.

SCOTCH

Three blood transfusions were necessary to save a lady patient's life at a hospital. A brawny young Scotchman offered his blood.

The patient gave him $50 for the first pint—but the third time she had so much Scotch blood in her she only thanked him.

DUBIOUS MERITS

Our beauty column reports a new superlipstick—that's winter-proof, but the sweet young things may not be eager to have lips that repel the chaps.—The Chicago Daily Tribune.

It is not what the DAV can do for you that should make you want to become a member, but what the DAV has already done for every veteran in that past that should make every eligible veteran proud to become a member.

Assist in their efforts to gain legislation by getting many more new members.

Tell your friends and neighbors just what the DAV is and what it is trying to do, because our greatest aid is publicity.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: All men and women who, "during time of war," have a disability incurred or aggravated during Service are eligible.

High School Parade Friday Was Fine

A lot of people came out of their stores last Friday morning at the first notes of the band as the Home Coming and Pep Parade of Brownfield High School filled down Main Street, following the selection of a Queen and her consorts. This had taken place at the high school a bit earlier, but the float for the queen and princesses, was all ready, as was other floats.

The queen, as well as the other four girls of high school who were in the Queen Contest, were as follows: Duchess Linda Briscoe, Sammy Kendrick, escort, Freshmen; Duchess, Gale Davis, Kelly Mack Sears, escort, Sophomores; Princess, Jeanne Cloud, James Chesshir, escort, Juniors; and the Queen was a senior, Rena Faye Chesshir, with Ronnie Daniell, escort.

Little Miss Bern Smith was crown bearer, and Jerry Anderson, president of the student body, crowned the Queen.

It was a much longer parade than most of us down town folks expected. It was both pretty and interesting. Of course, part of the pepping up was for the Home Coming game with Littlefield, which was a conference game. And the Cubs had a score to settle with the Wildcats who whipped the Cub's ears down last year.

One of the most interesting floats, to us, was not because it was so highly decorated, but its significance. Some of the pep squad were setting around the sides of the float, and out in the center of the float was a real cage with a real cat in it. A huge sign on the float said, "Cage the Wildcats," and they did, that night, to the tune of 27-0.

But our Sports Reporter, Jack Lucas, covered the game, so we shall just confine our remarks to the very fine parade that all of Brownfield and its school district was proud of.

Two Colds A Year The Average

AUSTIN — Studies show that most people have two or more colds a year, each lasting about two weeks and causing a considerable amount of stuffy discomfort, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The danger of the common cold lies mainly in the other infections that may follow after it. A cold lessens resistance, and is likely to pave the way for other more serious respiratory ailments.

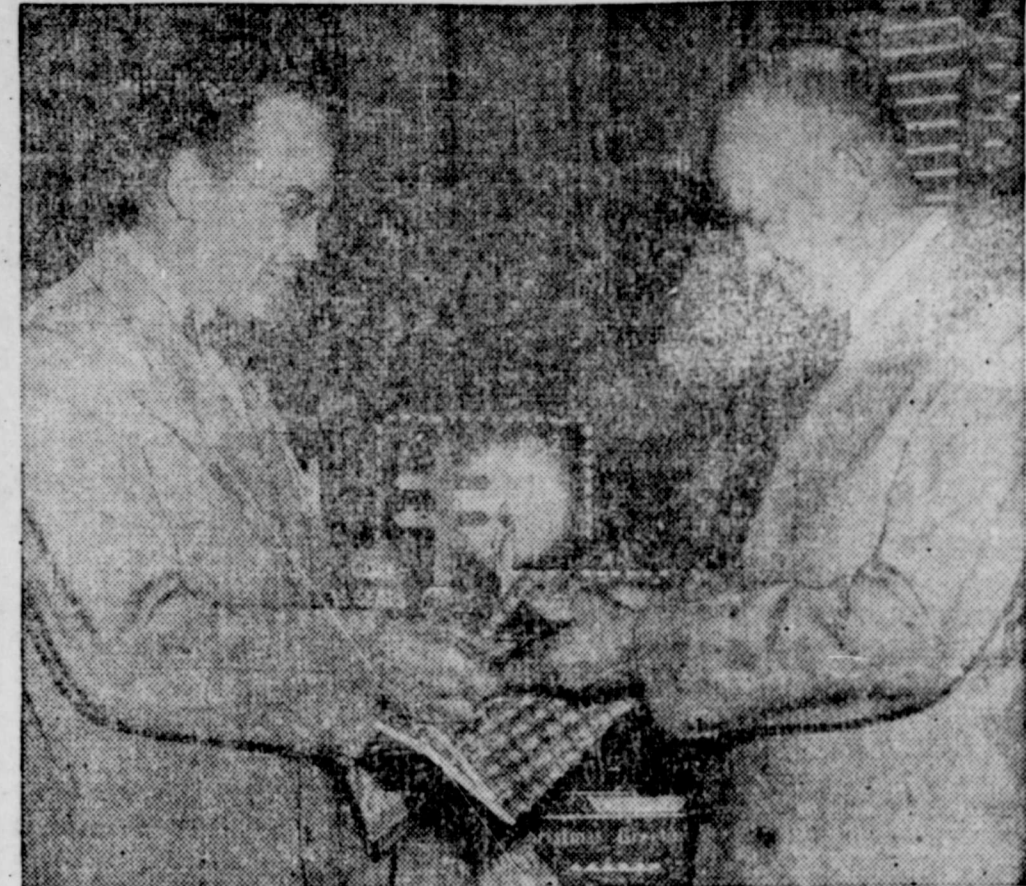

Sinusitis, ear infections, bronchitis, and the various forms of pneumonia are frequently ushered in by a cold. Pneumonia, particularly, is likely to attack a person who is overtired, or run-down because of a severe cold.

Fortunately, many of the respiratory diseases are not as dangerous as they used to be. Modern infection-fighting drugs, such as penicillin and the sulfa drugs, offer highly effective treatment for many cases. But, of course, it is always better to prevent a serious illness whenever possible.

If you have a cold, it's just good sense to stay away from people to avoid spreading the infection; and to get plenty of rest—in bed if possible.

Mrs. Georgia Hopper of Bonham, Texas, came in Wednesday to visit her brother, J. H. Carpenter and Mrs. Carpenter.

President-Elect Buys Christmas Seals

PRESIDENT-ELECT Dwight D. Eisenhower sets an example for the nation in the fight against tuberculosis by buying Christmas Seals from the National Tuberculosis Association's President-elect Mark H. Harrington (left). In Texas the control and prevention programs of 99 voluntary county tuberculosis associations and the statewide work of the Texas TB Association next year depend on the proceeds of the sale which began November 17 and will end December 25. They are affiliated with 3,000 other like associations through the NTA.

"Credit Insurance" Latest Method of Texas Loan Shark

DALLAS — To evade the constitutional limitation on interest, Texas loan sharks resort to devious methods, the most used scheme at present being "credit insurance," declares E. C. Fritz, Dallas attorney who has made a study of the loan shark evil as a member of the anti-usury committee of the State Junior Bar Association.

Credit insurance is somewhat involved and intricate but the practical result is that the borrower pays approximately 140 per cent interest. Here is the way it works: A man has urgent need for $25. He gives a note to be paid in three months in weekly installments. He is charged 24 cents as interest (10 per cent plus a "service charge" of $1. But before he gets the $25, he is told:

"Something might happen to you in the next three months—an accident, serious illness, even death, so you must take out health, accident and life insurance to protect us against loss."

The premium on the insurance is $7.96, which makes the total cost of the $25 loan $32.20. The insurance company receives 15 per cent of the premium; the loan company, as "agent," is allowed a commission of 85 per cent.

But the shark is not satisfied even with this. So far from desiring to help a borrower out of his financial problems, the company wants to keep him in debt. So if he misses a weekly installment, a day or two later he will receive a phone call. "Come down and renew."

Most of what he has already paid has been applied to the insurance premium, the service charge and the interest. But suppose he has paid sufficient to reduce the $32.20 face amount of the note to $20. He signs a new note for the original amount ($32.20) and receives $5 in cash. As a part of the $32.20, he has to pay another $7.96 credit insurance premium, even though the three months for which the first policy was written have not expired. Thus, in effect, he is paying "interest on interest." Then, when he again gets behind, he signs a new note, pays the $7.96 premium again—and so the process goes until the borrower is so heavily involved that he is virtually working for the loan company. With the purpose of driving the loan sharks out of business, in Texas through legitimate competition, the Texas Junior Bar Association has approved a small loan bill similar to the legislation which 30 states have adopted.

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

Here we are off to a start with the Thanksgiving number, and we hope all and sundry will have a nice dinner of the National bird, or a good substitute.

But before we go too far, we here and now apologize to the T-D Hospital for saying Nelson Pharmacy had the first neon on the block. The hospital has had one so long we'd forgotten.

Read a very interesting article from Col. Eee Eye Hill of the Tahoka News the past week. He is not only claiming to be descended from the "first families," but the aborigines as well, from Pocahontas, the Indian Princess, who married the Englishman, John Rolfe. Well, by heck, we were raised close to Pocahontas, Tenn. Would that count?

Anyway, on our mother's side, we had three well known nationalities. Grandpop's mother being a French Huguenot, and his pa a Red Dutchman. Grandpa Jones married a little old Irish gal named Mashburn. Our granddad came out of the colony of the four Stricklin boys that settled along the line of North and South Carolina—pure dee English. We have never learned the maiden name of Grandma Stricklin, as both she and husband died soon after migrating to west Tenn., when their three children ranged from 2 to five years of age. They were raised orphans.

So, we pass on to a very important question. We have noted for quite some time that the daily papers that run Drew Pearson's column, have from time to time taken sharp issue editorially with that gentleman on some subject that Drew wrote about.

Perhaps many readers wonder why these papers don't stop buying Drew's stuff from the syndicate, if it runs counter to their editorial opinion. It is for the self same reason that many things in their "Readers Columns" as well as the news columns appear, from day to day with which they do not agree. If we excluded everything from our columns that we fail to agree with, we would not have a free press.

But we note that some have parted company with Mr. Pearson, among them the Dallas News and Star Telegram.

Can't never tell by the weight of the newborn just what that same midget or premature infant will be when mature. We noted recently that a star footballer who weighed in at 2 lbs. when born, is now a husky 220 pounder. Also a girl baby that weighed about a pound at birth, is now a shapely beauty.

This reminds us of the old chestnut we heard many years ago, about the three old ladies who were gossiping and knitting. One related that "they said" that when she was born, she was so small that she could be put in a gallon bucket and the lid closed. Another asked her, "well did you live?" The reply was that "they said she did, and that she made a large lady."

From the Treasury Department up at Washington comes the news that American citizens now hold a total of 57 billion dollars worth of US Defense Bonds. Even with the inflated 50c dollar, that still is a whole of a lot of money, 28.5 billion dollars.

But we don't exactly like the tune that some of the Congressmen are singing these days, particularly Wright Patman of Texas. In an article in the Dallas News, he does not come square out for repudiation, but it almost amounts to the same thing. They'll never be paid, he said, but they will try to balance the budget up at Washington.

For reasons that we have traveled through the Tupelo section of Mississippi several times in the past few years, we have some misgivings about the story of the circulation manager of the Tupelo daily. In fact, we believe with the Governor of Mississippi, as well as the police officials at Tupelo that there is some kind of a hoax mixed up with the whole matter.

In the first place, in traveling through north Mississippi, one will note that all the county seat towns, as well as other larger places, have from one to three smokestacks. They are not large factories in many cases, but employ not a few people at suitable wages. We have learned that Mississippi, by remitting taxes, county and state, for some three years, has induced many of these factories to locate, and the majority of them have been built by people from the north—Yankees, if you please.

These people have not been molested, but welcomed, and are well pleased with their new homes. Tupelo itself has several of these plants, and none have been threatened, although the owners came from the north. So the idea of the newspaperman from North Dakota, that Mississippi does not want Yankee, took him for a ride, cut him with a straight edged razor, etc., does not pan out. The police Chief says the places were scratches—not cuts, and the rents in the man's pants were partly cut and partly ripped. They did not match scratches on his legs and arms.

And the publisher of the paper says some folks have it in for the paper, and not the employee from North Dakota.

Right about that time there was another incident over in North Carolina. This one was about a Negro ogling at a white woman. Much was made of this incident by at least one paper in this area, we do not get on exchange, but others we get quote quite a lot. If we disliked the South as much as this editor does, according to his tirades, we'd get out. And if we ever decide to make our home in the North, and don't like, we'll get out and not slander the people.

But the story about the Negro ogler, whatever that means, was not just ogling. The daily paper account we saw says the Negro chased the woman across a field, until she was met by her men folks, when the Negro fled.

Quite different from the scandal story the great commentator of the South Plains tried to put across. That guy surely does hate the South.

DID YOU BILL THE AUTHOR?

"Why did you tear the back part out of that new book?" asked the long-suffering wife of the absent minded doctor.

Excuse me, dear," said the famous surgeon, "the part you speak of was labeled 'Appendix' and I took it out without thinking."

PFC ALBERT O. WILLIAMS WINDS UP FINAL PHASE

ALASKA—Army PFC Albert O. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Williams, Route 1, Plains, Texas, winds up the final phase this week of his participation in Exercise Warm Wind, a test of United States Alaskan defenses.

The exercise began for him almost a month ago when he was airlifted from Fort Campbell, Ky., to Alaska in the longest military airlift on record. Since that time he has been given cold weather indoctrination and pitted against an enemy "aggressor" force, in realistic, cold weather maneuvers which included a paradrop of more than 300 soldiers from his regiment.

He has participated with elements from Air Force, Navy and civil defense of Alaska in a rigid exercise to test equipment, supplies and logistical support for arctic fighting. He was fully equipped with the latest cold-weather and special clothing. Williams, a cannoneer, entered the Army in January 1951.

Rail Trip To Inaugural Set

South Plains residents have a tempting opportunity to see Dwight Eisenhower inaugurated as president. Three special pullman cars, via Santa Fe, will provide transportation.

The cars will leave Lubbock Saturday afternoon, Jan. 17, and will arrive in Washington Monday noon, Jan. 19, the day before the inauguration.

The cars are due to leave Washington at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and will arrive back in Lubbock Friday, January 23.

Reservations Asked
Cost per person for the round trip is $130. Part of this figure can be offset by savings in hotel accommodations. The cars will be available as living quarters during the capitol stay.

Person wishing to make reservations may see or call Al O. Curry, Lubbock County Republican chairman. His telephone number is 5-7642.

Reservations must be made by Dec. 1, Curry said.

Lots Of Whamming Of Each Others Cars

A lot of people, despite warnings, are still driving up and down our streets like firemen going to a 3-alarm fire, with their minds perhaps thousands of miles away. As most know, B Street is a through one, and people crossing it on the main east-west streets are supposed to stop. But a guy neither stopped at the stop sign, nor did he have a driver's license; when he whammed into two other cars, at the juncture of B and Broadway, Tuesday. He sideswiped one car, and then booted into another. He was fined $50.

An hour or two later a taxi came out of the alley driveway between the hospital and Nelson Pharmacy, and ran into a car on 10th. The taxi, driven by a woman, was blamed, as she tried to turn north instead of south when she hit Sixth street.

It was thought at first a small child in the other car was hurt, but it was finally concluded that it was just shook up and scared. Let's all try to be a bit more careful in our driving.

BISHOP TO MAKE VISIT HERE

The Rt. Reverend George H. Quarterman will make his first visitation to the newly formed Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd at Brownfield on Sunday afternoon, November 30, at 4:00 p.m.

The Rev. Rex C. Simms, pastor of the church, will present a class to be confirmed, and Bishop Quarterman will preach the sermon.

The public is cordially invited to come and hear Bishop Quarterman who has oversight of all Episcopal churches in the Missionary District of North Texas. The services will be held in the Boy Scout Hut next door to the Veterans Hall on the Seagraves highway.

GOODFELLOWS NEED LARGER DONATIONS

Dr. Tim Faulkenberry says the Goodfellows need larger contributions this year than last. They distributed 52 baskets of food last year at a cost of $7.00 each to needy families and outfitted an entire family of six with clothing so the children could be put in school.

Although they spent $500 last year a lot more than that will be needed this year on account of short crops.

Anyone wishing may donate home canned goods such as beans, peas, corn, meats, dressed chickens, hens, or anything that would help make an unfortunate family have a Christmas dinner. Watch the Herald for an announcement about where to take the Christmas food donations.

A Well-Equipped Irrigation Farm

Otis Lerner, manager of the J. B. Knight Implement department of these stores, invited representatives of the Herald out to see one of the best equipped and planned irrigation farms in Terry county, one day last week. The irrigation well, which pumped 650 gallons of water per minute, through 8 inch pipes, is located on the same plot of land that the recent oil well was brought in on. It is the property of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zorns.

The lead off piping is six inches, and five inch sprinkler equipped piping connected with it. In all there are 3965 feet of the aluminum, sprinkler equipped pipes, with 66 sprinklers. This makes it possible to sprinkle 40 acres of the 160 acres at a time. This land has been deep broken. The idea is to put some 15 inches of water on the whole 160 acres by next April, when the land will be planted to cotton if favorable at that time.

As stated above, the main line from the well is 6 inch piping, and the laterals, two of them, will be 5 inch. At the time the Herald representatives were out there, Mr. A. C. Pace, who has charge of the farm, said there apparently had been no weakening of the well. The Knight Implement department furnished the equipment.

Speaking of irrigation wells, there are a lot of them under consideration, and many even finished since the 1952 crops were laid by. John Black of Comanche county, was up recently to put a well on his farm three miles southwest of town. One was completed on his Forrester farm recently.

ACP Sign-Up Days Near End

Community PMA committees have a big job ahead of them during the last week in November because the time for farmers to sign up for 1953 ACP plan expires Monday, December 1, according to B. F. Vance, State Production and Marketing Committee Chairman.

Farmers and ranchers who fail to sign up by that time will not be participants in the 1953 ACP except in special cases where the farmer or rancher was out of the county during sign-up, acquired an interest in a farm after closing date or failed to sign up because of prolonged illness. Only a small reserve will be held back by committees for these special cases.

Every farmer or rancher who has not already signed up with his local community committee should contact the committee or call at the County PMA office before closing time Monday, December 1, if he intends to carry out soil and water conservation work on his farm in cooperation with the Agricultural Conservation Program in 1953.

Vance points out that the program is open to all farmers but all funds allocated to the counties will be allocated to individual farmers who sign up before closing date and the County PMA committee will not have funds to aid those who apply later.

Best Grasses For Irrigated Pastures

First-year results on a five-year irrigated pasture experiment at Texas Tech give strong indications that a mixture of Bromegrass, Alfalfa, and Perennial Ryegrass stands head and shoulders above three other grass mixtures in beef production.

W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture at Tech and director of the experiment, said the leading mixture produced 833 pounds of beef per acre in 171 days of grazing ending Oct. 20.

Ten head of grade yearling steers were put on four test plots of irrigated mixed grasses April 30, 1951. The first plot had a planting mixture of three pounds Alfalfa to 20 pounds of Bromegrass; Plot II, three pounds Alfalfa and 20 pounds of Perennial Ryegrass; Plot III, three pounds Alfalfa, 10 pounds each of Bromegrass and Perennial Ryegrass; and Plot IV, five pounds each of Bromegrass, Perennial Ryegrass, Orchard Grass, and Kentucky Fescue, and one-half pound Blue Panic.

Plot I produced 411 pounds of beef per acre; Plot II, 461 pounds; Plot III, 833 pounds; and Plot IV, 401 pounds. If the cattle had been marketed Oct. 21, Dean Stangel said they would have brought a minimum of $25 per hundred pounds, which would have given each acre in Plot I a dollar-plus of $102.75; Plot II, $115.25; Plot III, $208.25; and Plot IV, $100.25.

"The results obtained during the preceding five years and this year's clearly indicate that graz-

The Help of a Wife

TOP SERGEANT Sam A. Chambers, Oklahoma City, Okla., says that he discovered what is the most important thing in life to a man. He doesn't worry about the little troubles that come into his daily life; he just does the best he can with them, holding to a deep abiding faith in God and believing in his own ability to look out for himself and his family.

Not that he thinks himself perfect; not that he doesn't often fall far short of his aims; not that he doesn't fail woefully at times. But he tries to practice the rules of Christian living as laid down by what he terms "the world's only perfectionist," Jesus Christ. He pays his debts, tries to keep on good terms with his neighbors, and to give the best in him to his job. And by the law of average, he usually "gets his" and he refuses to worry.

Now, what do you think is the one outstanding contribution to his lack of worry? It is cheerful, helpful Mrs. Sam Chambers. When Sam is faced with a problem, he doesn't have to fight it topped with a wife's antagonism and derision. His wife believes in him, knows he will win, or if by some chance he doesn't, she knows he will do even better next time, and usually he does. One of them to face his problems, not one fighter plus a bitter discouraging opponent.

So, says Sam, he has learned that the most important thing in the world to a man is his family, and their attitude toward him. If his wife and two little girls continue to think well of him, he will always be inspired to do his best. If they think he is a pretty fine fellow, it may keep him on his toes, but he's going to aim mighty hard at being what they think he is.

MRS. EVA BRYAN GETS PRETTY GOOD WELL

At the present time there are some nine oil drilling rigs going in Terry County, and they are at varying depths, from around 1,000 feet to some 8,000. Some of them will soon be showing what lays under them.

A pretty good well was brought in on the Mrs. Eva Bryan ranch down in south Terry late last week. It finished at near 460 barrels per day, of high 40 gravity oil.

We hope to have more oil news next week.

NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

Miss Olga Fitzgerald reports the following new books have been added to the Maids and Matrons Library the past week: "Steamboat Gothic," by Frances Parkinson Keyes; "Beyond The High Himalayas," by William O. Douglas; "The Wonderful Country," by Tom Lea; "Geo. Littlefield, Texan," by J. Evetts Haley; and "The Wall," by John Hersey.

After the club luncheon last week, the book committee met at the library for a business meeting and to lay plans for the purchase of more books. It is hoped 1953 will be a banner reading year for the library.
