

Yipes! What's happened to the younguns now?

We have become a social outcast at our home and about as welcome as a pair of old worn-out shoes with our young son because we didn't get him a Hula-Hoop Saturday.

This newest fad with young and old alike is the body-swaying, vertebra busting, practice of Hula-Hooping.

Until Saturday we hadn't paid much attention to the brightly-colored rings of plastic which many of the kiddoes were sporting.

But---that evening while visiting friends our son impressed us with the fact that a fella just wasn't "socially right" until he owned a Hula-Hoop.

Promising him that come Monday morning we would get him one, peace was realized in the home.

But---as luck would have it, no Hula Hoops were to be found in Friona Monday morning.

Like most youngsters, our son has the memory of an elephant where toys and the like are concerned.

Monday morning when he awoke his first words were in effect---"Where's my Hula-Hoop?"

Anyhow, to make a long story short, Monday was spent trying to locate one of the dad-blasted contraptions.

To give you all an idea of how popular those items are in Friona, Newman Jarrell Jr. says he sold over seven dozen Hoops in a 24-hour period Friday and Saturday.

Anyone going into Hula-Hoop manufacturing?

Pertinent Definitions---We found the following in some correspondence this week which we thought you might enjoy chuckling over:

"On for the good old days when Lebanon was a sausage, Morocco was a leather, and the Summit was the top of a mountain."

"It's not a cheaper car that people want. It's an expensive car that costs less."

"The difference between gossip and news is whether you hear it or tell it." Changing Times.

Football time is here at last and last week traveling to Sunray for the season's opener Friopans got a glimpse of a preview of this year's exciting action as the Chiefs brought home the Bobcats' scalps, 30-6.

It wasn't all fun on the 140-mile trip for a few embarrassed Friopans, however. As the band didn't plan to make the long trek the football boys went by private auto in an 8-car convoy.

Between Channing and Dum-as the convoy whizzed past an innocent looking box by the side of the road---

Guess what---yep, a radar set, courtesy of the Texas Highway Patrol.

Truitt Johnson says it all went to prove who is the most popular guy on the trip for the patrolman let everyone else off and only fined Johnson for speeding.

So---Friona didn't win all the way.

Don't be alarmed by some of the more "bushy-appearing citizens" you may see from day to day in Friona.

Most of these are classified into about three categories.

- These are: (1) Those who are intending to win the Beard-Growing contest during Maize Days, (2) Those who don't have $5 to pay for a Shave Permit, (3) And, those like ourselves, who are just plain lazy and don't like to shave.

We now have a couple of days' growth and already the spouse is grumbling. Previous intentions called for us to wear this brush until Maize Days, but unless we can find someone who'll loan us a tent to sleep in, we're afraid the spouse will change our mind on this subject.

Oh yes! Perhaps a word of warning would be in order to those who like to shave. Members

County's First Bale Ginned Here Friday

Dan and Don Tims brought in the county's first bale of cotton to be ginned at Chester and Fleming Gin last Thursday morning at 10. The cotton trailer was weighed at approximately 10

a. m. and grossed 1970 pounds. Ginning began immediately but due to mechanical difficulty with the tamper, the bale wasn't completed until 8 a. m. Friday morning. Even with all the difficulty and the night's labor, Earl Chester, Wright Williams and the men at the gin were all smiles early Friday morning.

The bale weighed 570 pounds and brought the Tims boys about $280 counting the 50 cents per pound and free ginning.

Williams and Chester explained that earlier in the week the cotton looked as if it would have been another 10 to 14 days before any would be ready to gin, but with the dry hot days, Tims' cotton came along quickly.

Ironically, the 1958 "first bale" was picked about 300 yards from the spot where 1957's first bale was picked.

Both came off Noyle Wood's farm east of Friona. Tims says the cotton was Paymaster 54B variety.

Firemen Convention To Be Here in '59

Members of the Panhandle Firemen's Association selected Friona as the site of the May 1959 meeting during their convention's business meeting held at Boy's Ranch Tuesday.

Ralph Shirley, assistant fire chief of Friona, was elected to the office of second vice-president of the Association at the meeting.

The meeting, the 49th semi-annual convention of the group which represents cities from Memphis and Plainview north throughout the entire Panhandle, saw Friona's pumper race team come in fifth during the afternoon contest.

Memphis won the pumper race with a time of 23.5 seconds. Canadian and Pampa came in second and third with times of 25 flat and 25.6 seconds, respectively, to round out the money winners. Other contestants and their times, in order, included Dimmitt, 25.9; Friona 26.3; Leveland 27.3; Bovina 28.9; Borgor 29.5; Wellington 29.9 and Hereford 31.1.

Top three teams in the water polo event were Memphis, Hereford and Dimmitt, in that order.

A total of 322 firemen and their wives were registered at the convention.

Frionans attending the convention included Charley Bainum, fire chief, and Glenn Reeve Jr., Kenneth Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Bainum, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell and son, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wheeler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Taylor, Pete Hollis, Howard Love, and Ray Strickland. Chief Bainum reminded firemen to be sure to attend fire school Tuesday night at the city hall.

Forgeries, Hot Checks Plague Police

A series of forgeries and hot checks have plagued local authorities and merchants the past week.

One man, Louis Jameson, 22-year-old Negro, is in the county jail in Farwell charged with forging checks.

All of the cases have been solved, according to Chief of Police Ben Moorman. Jameson was accused of forging several checks on local farmers then passing the checks in Clovis and in Friona.

Escapes Injury In Wreck

Benito Castillo, 30-year old Latin American employed by Friona Growers & Shippers, escaped injury Monday when his pickup truck overturned northeast of town.

Castillo was traveling north on the road which runs beside Mar's Dairy and says he hit a washout and his '57 International pickup flipped over on its top.

The accident happened about 9 a. m. Monday.

Castillo was charged with driving without a driver's license.

There are times when a clear conscience is nothing more than a poor memory.

Revival Meeting In Progress

Rev. A. W. Liking, pastor of United Pentecostal Church here, has announced that there is a revival now in progress at the church building which is located at the corner of Woodland Ave. and Seventh Street. Rev. M. R. Carter of Davis, Okla., is doing the preaching.

Services begin at 7:45 each evening and present plans call for the revival to continue through next week. The public is invited to attend any or all of the services by the pastor and members of the church.

Friona Motors Move Ford Agency Here

Friona Motors, local distributor for Ford tractors for a number of years, has completed the move of the Ford agency from Farwell to Friona and is getting set to do business here.

Still slightly "confused" according to Oscar Baxter and Cordie Potts, two of the owners of the enterprise, the plant hopes to get all set in their new home by the end of the month.

Occupying an enlarged building at the site of the Ford tractor house on West Highway 60 in Friona, the owners hope the building construction will be completed in the near future.

"We hope to hold an open house during the time our new models come out by October 17," says Baxter.

"We had hoped to get into the building and have things fixed up by September 1, but construction problems have been holding us up," he says.

Potts says things are coming along now, although two days last week the employees accused Vance Crume of not being able to find the telephone.

"We could hear it ring, but couldn't find it anywhere," Baxter says.

Boasting a working force of 15 employees, the Ford auto and tractor agency aims to offer top-flight new and used car and tractor sales and service and equipment in all lines and models.

Friona Motors is owned by Oscar Baxter, Gordie Potts, Vance Crume and Weedy Coffman.

Other employees include Gunn Taylor, shop foreman; Ray Whatley, parts manager; Frankie Coffman, parts department; Troy Young, Preach Collier, Ben J. Taylor, Tom Lindop, Bob Peace, Bennie E. Taylor and Frank Witulski, mechanics; and Fred Barker Jr., salesman.

Chiefs Scalp Sunray Friday Night 30-6

In a game which saw a lineman's dream come true, Friona's Chiefs had all the answers in downing a sputtering Sunray team 30-6 Friday night for the season's opener.

Monroe Young, 190-pound senior tackle from Friona, saw a dream come true in the last quarter of play as he intercepted a Bobcat pass on the 11-yard line and returned it all the way for a Chieftain TD.

The interception came as the Bobcats turned to the air in the last minutes. Center Jon Mack Roden threw a bone-shattering tackle on the passer, knocking him loose from the pigskin and sending the ball looping lazily into the air.

Rushing in from his defensive tackle position, Young grabbed the ball and sped the remaining yards to score. Showing moments of greatness, the Chiefs rolled up 180 yards rushing and 10 first downs to the Bobcats' three first downs and 31 yards rushing.

Gary Brooks, 132-pound junior fullback, led Friona's scoring with two TD's for the night. Quarterback Don Clements scored one TD and Young one.

Friona got the ball after a fumble early in the first quarter and Clements sent Brooks on an end sweep for 11 yards and paydirt. Clements scored extra point try on an end sweep.

The second Chief tally came in the second quarter after the Bobcats were forced to punt to the midfield stripe.

Taking over on the 50 yard line Clements reeled off a 30-yard pass to Gary Goetz. Interference was ruled on the play giving the Chiefs a first and 10 from the Bobcats' 20.

During this series of plays the Chiefs scored three touchdowns only to have two of them called back by penalties.

With fourth down and goal to go from the Bobcat 15, Clements pulled a near-perfect bootleg play and scampers past two would-be tacklers to go across the double stripe standing up.

The try for extra point was stopped.

Leading 14-0 at halftime, the Chiefs pulled the longest drive of the night during the third period.

Getting the ball on downs on their own 28 the Chiefs moved 78 yards in 13 plays to send Brooks around end from the 2 for the TD.

Key play of the drive was a 20-yard pass from Clements to J. W. Baxter.

After Brooks' score, Bomer Stacy sped around end for two more points.

But the Bobcats went down (Cont'd last page Sec. II)

Salary for the position is set at $5835 per year. Applicants for the job must take a written exam which will be given at Clovis at a later date.

Applicants must have at least two years of experience showing they have the ability to conduct and manage the community's postal business efficiently and to supervise employees.

After the written test those who pass will be assigned final ratings on the basis of this test, experience and fitness for the position.

Applications must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. not later than the closing date of September 23.

Tri-County Adds Storage

Tri-County Elevator at Black is presently in the process of adding 500,000 bushels storage space to their present facilities, announces Pete Braxton.

The new space will be flat storage comparable to that the elevator has north of their elevated tanks. The job is scheduled to be completed by October 1.

Plans for the 1958 edition of the annual Maize Days celebration are nearing completion. Bill Sheehan and Charles Allen, co-chairmen of the event this year, say this is "sure to be a bumper year of top entertainment for all."

With the near-completion of a schedule of events, chairmen of the various divisions of the show are working in a fever pitch in order to assure the success of their particular event.

Friona Lions Club has begun their sale of Shave Permits within the city limits and the old Friona City Jail will be erected on the park to house those clean-shaven, permissiveness offenders this week.

Shave Permits are on sale and may be purchased at many businesses and from any member of the Lions Club in Friona.

As usual, the giant, Free Barbecue is on the program and is slated to begin at 5:30 p. m. Friday at the city park in downtown Friona.

An estimated ton and a half of beef will begin to waft a savory odor through Friona late Thursday, Sept. 25, in anticipation of this, always a favorite, part of the celebration.

Many events are scheduled to run all through the two-day celebration and these include the exhibit of antique cars, agricultural exhibits in the business houses, farm equipment exhibits, running motor contest, Lions Club carrousel, and many others.

Pony Express Race plans are still being formulated (several observers say it is because the Santa Fe won't reschedule their trains which habitually hold up the finish)

None Injured In 3-Way Tangle

Nothing but feelings were damaged in a three-way crash in front of Hop Lewis' Barbershop in downtown Friona Tuesday. The crash occurred about 6 p.m. and caught Chief of Police Ben Moorman in the barber's chair. Upon hearing the smashing metal Moorman stepped out of the chair and was immediately on the scene. Involved in the crash were cars driven by Otis Massey and Beatrice Harrington. The wreck happened when Massey, 67, of Friona, pulled from the curb in a '49 Chevy pickup and into the path of Mrs. Harrington, 36, of Friona, who was driving south on Main Street in a 1949 Pontiac. Mrs. Harrington's vehicle struck Massey's truck on the left front fender and in turn threw his auto into another pickup which was parked at the curb. Only minor damage was reported done to the vehicles. Massey was charged with improper start from parked position and Chief Moorman went to the end of the line in the barber shop.

COOK OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Rudolph Renner Sr.

Although it is generally known that Mrs. Rudolph Renner Sr. is a wonderful cook, it is rather difficult for anyone else to take her recipes and follow them with any degree of accuracy. Mrs. Renner says, "It is so hard for me to write down recipes for anyone else. I usually just use a dash of this and about so much of that."

Mr. and Mrs. Renner live in town at the present time, but have farmed in the Hub community a number of years. They moved to this area from the Panhandle of Oklahoma and reared their family here. They are the parents of six children. All of them live in the Hub community except Delmar, who is in the Navy and stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Those living here are three sons, John, Lee, and Rudolph Jr.; and two daughters, Mrs. Billy Dean Baxter and Mrs. Joyce Barnett. They also have 14 grandchildren. At the time a Star reporter called at the Renner home to make Mrs. Renner's picture, she was in the back yard preparing an outdoor supper for all her family except one son, who lives in Florida, and his family.

Mrs. Renner states that she has always loved cooking and especially enjoys making sweet breads, yeast rolls, and baked foods. She further states that she doesn't cook nearly as much since her children have grown up and gone away from home.

After having lived on a farm so many years, Mrs. Renner finds it difficult to keep busy with her house and yard, so she makes doll clothes for her granddaughters and during the Christmas season she dresses dolls for other little girls.

Early Wednesday morning the reporter called at her home and found her finishing a basket of ironing. She said, "I'm going to get out and pick some tomatoes to make tomato sauce." Then she gave us her favorite Tomato Sauce recipe.

1 heaping tablespoon Crisco
1 large onion
12 large ripe tomatoes
3 bell peppers
1 hot pepper
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar

Melt the Crisco in skillet and add finely cut onion. Add chopped tomatoes, peppers, salt and sugar. Bring this mixture to a boil and let boil vigorously about 15 minutes. Move to slow burner and let simmer two hours.

This sauce is especially good for serving with beans or any kind of meat.

For a very unusual dish using ground beef, Mrs. Renner makes Cabbage Rolls:

Boil 1 cup of rice. Mix well with 1 pound ground beef. Season with salt and pepper. Peel leaves from one large head of cabbage and pour boiling water over them. This will make them easier to handle after a few minutes.

Take each leaf and fill with one heaping tablespoon of rice and ground beef mixture. Roll leaf up tight and place in pan. After all leaves have been filled, cover with water to which 1 tablespoon of salt has been added. Cover with tomatoes or tomato sauce and boil slowly for 2 1/2 hours. Serve hot.

Mrs. Renner's favorite dessert recipe is for Cream Puffs:

1 cup boiling water
1 stick oleo
1 cup flour
4 unbeaten eggs

Mix water, oleo, flour, and eggs, one at a time. Put into greased muffin pans and bake in 300 degree oven about 35 minutes. Remove the tops of muffins and fill with any fruit preserves or Jello pudding.

These puffs are also delicious served plain.

Showers, Cool Weather Return

Showers and cool weather have returned to the Parmer County area, bringing an interruption to the hot and dry days that have characterized all of August.

The showers, which fell Saturday evening and Sunday, were general over the county, and most of them measured from one-half to almost one and one-half inches.

The respite from the cool weather was welcome in nearly all circles, but with certain reservations. For one thing, it helped many farmers out with the wind-up of their grain sorghum irrigation. Many farmers had been falling behind in watering their feed because of no relief from the hot and dry weather.

Also, the showers stirred the planting itch of area farmers to get going with the 1959 wheat crop. Some wheat and barley is already planted and the showers will stimulate more seeding. However, the showers alone won't prove to be enough to get a crop started. They may just provoke the planting of it.

Cotton growers didn't mind the cool and damp weather especially but they certainly hope it doesn't stay around for long. The soggy days remind them all too well of the wet and cold plague that cost them so much money last fall.

A little moisture just at this point isn't expected to hurt the cotton a bit, but it could if it continued very long. More sunshine is what the cotton crop will need to do its best.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

We regret to report that our U. S. senators, Lyndon B. Johnson and Ralph Yarborough, voted AGAINST the states rights bill that passed the house with a good margin . . . and either of these Texans could have voted for it and it would have become law.

It is difficult for us to understand how these men could with any consciousness have done this when the Texas legislature has been as strong as, if not stronger than, any other state legislature in insisting upon the principle of states rights. What the law would have provided is very simple:

When a state law was not in direct conflict with a federal law, the state law or ruling would stand, as the United States constitution stated that it should in the beginning. However, since these two senators of ours voted against upholding the constitution specifically, the United States supreme (?) court can, as it has recently demonstrated quite often, overrule the state supreme courts and reverse their decisions.

That means that if Texans don't want a man who has been a communist to practice law in the state, the U. S. court can give him permission and Texans must let him try cases in the state at will. This, of course, is just one of the implications involved.

It also, among other things, means that the Texas right to work law is still subject to the whims of the U. S. supreme court.

Well, we tried again to have a district winner in the Farm Bureau queen contest. Even though she didn't win, our county queen, Miss Mary Ann Stacy, did a very fine job of participating last week in Lubbock.

Last Go - Round For Maize Men

Most Parmer County maize producers can see the end of their summer-long struggle with the elements. The production cycle of 1958 is about complete and harvest is about to begin.

All over the county this week grain sorghum growers were winding up their final waterings and shutting wells off or diverting them to wheat land. Within another two weeks all irrigation is expected to be complete--even for the latest crops.

Combining has already started in scattered fields. The 1958 maize crop is maturing out nicely and may set another record in yield. Chinch bugs are now pretty well under control although extensive spraying has been necessary to keep them that way. Red spiders are in maize, but not in serious numbers. Some army worms and headworms are also reported, but the crop is believed over the hump.

The unusual amount of poisoning this year has raised some doubts about whether all the feed produced will be safe for consumption.

County Agent Joe Jones, who met with officials of the Pure Food and Drug Administration the past week, reports: "We're not in any trouble with poisoning we've done up until now. But we should watch the rules closely from here on in." He referred especially to time requirements for delaying harvest a certain length of time after a crop has been sprayed.

Cotton Opening, Farmers Plan For 1958 Harvest

Parmer County's 1958 crop of cotton—which could be the best in history—is opening this week. Although full-scale harvesting is a long way off, farmers are already thinking in terms of getting the money-making lint to the gins.

One pre-harvest practice becoming increasingly popular is defoliating the plants. The idea behind defoliating cotton is to knock the leaves off the plant so that sunshine can get in and mature out and open up bolls that are still green.

County Agent Joe Jones this week warns that farmers should exercise care in using defoliant and desiccants. He points out that a good defoliation job will return dividends in terms of less trash and green stain and better grades if harvesting is done by machine. This is especially true if the crop yield is to be high and the plants are all, leafy and succulent. Tests made by the Extension Service indicate that the best time for defoliating will vary with the weather, condition of the crop and the principle benefit expected. "In general, however, application of the true defoliant should be delayed until 55 to 60 percent of the bolls are open," says Jones.

Dew is necessary to activate dust defoliant, and those applied as sprays should be used in accordance with recommendations.

Because true defoliant does not always give acceptable results for mechanical stripping, sometimes desiccants are recommended. Desiccants kill the plant outright, stopping all growth immediately. Great care should be used in this practice, however, and no farmer should consider their use until the top bolls are mature and a full 70 percent or more of the cotton is open.

Jones says that good coverage of the cotton plant by the defoliant or desiccant is a "must" if the best results are to be obtained. Spray applied in too little water per acre is listed by the Extension Service as the most common mistake ever made by both operators of ground sprayer rigs and planes.

Most agricultural observers feel that the High Plains area farmers have a good opportunity to produce a lot of quality cotton this year. Things have gone pretty well for the cotton crop.

After such a poor season last year, cotton farmers are all the more anxious to increase their returns from cotton, and it is this desire that may encourage them to be too early with some of their plans for defoliation.

A man often neglects his own chances trying to figure out what he'd do if he had another's.

Lee variety soybeans grown in Floyd County, Texas, nearing maturity. Note the high pod set and number of three bean pods that developed.

Keep On Watering Soybeans, Says Jones

Parmer County area farmers are growing an estimated 10,000 acres of irrigated soybeans this year, and for many of them, this is their first try with the legume-type crop.

Because knowledge of soybeans is on the short side in the area, County Agent Joe Jones says it will be easy for costly mistakes to be made.

Of particular importance at this time is the fact that irrigation of soybeans can and should continue so long as the soil needs moisture, says Agent Jones.

This is in strong contrast to irrigation practices of certain other crops, and especially cotton, he notes. There has been an intensive campaign to encourage farmers to stop irrigating their cotton the latter part of August.

Irrigating of soybeans, though, should continue so long as the beans need the water because the moisture helps fill out the bean pods.

Unless rains occur, irrigations usually continue all through September and sometimes into the early part of October to complete the crop.

The county agent also believes that it is not too soon for farmers to start thinking about harvesting their soybeans, because it has been established that improper harvesting practices cost farmers more soybean yield than any other factor.

Losses from poor harvesting practices can run up to 10 bushels an acre. With High Plains irrigated yields running typically around 30 bushels per acre, that is a big bite if the farmer loses it.

Not only does shattering and falling cost the farmer by leaving the beans in the field, but improper adjustment of the combine sometimes results in a high number of cracked beans, which usually finds the farmer getting docked for his crop.

Combining a mature soybean crop requires careful adjustment of the machine and a reliable operator. Improper combining causes shattering, reduced grades from cracked and split beans, and losses due to unrecovered pods set low on the plant.

As soybeans mature, plant leaves turn yellow and drop. Even after leaves are shed, combining should not begin until the moisture content of the beans is between 12 and 14 percent. Harvest should not be delayed beyond this point.

Soybeans should be combined at slow ground speeds with the cutter bar set close to the ground. Cylinder speed of from 350 to 500 RPM and a slow reel speed is essential.

A special reel with narrow bats and steel tines has some advantages over the standard combine reel.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The annual banquet of the Parmer County Soil Conservation District was held Monday night at the Lazbuddie School. After dinner in the cafeteria a good crowd gathered in the auditorium for the program. Awards were presented to James D. Mabry of Hub for being the top conservation farmer in Parmer County in 1958, and to Ramey Brandon of Bovina for writing the winning essay on soil conservation.

James Mabry of Hub became a cooperater with the district in August of 1951. His interest at the time was to get a better application of water on the land. Since that time he has done some dirt work to improve water application. About 1.6 miles of underground concrete pipeline have been installed on the farm to conserve water. What little tail water that he has is utilized on the farm with the exception of one 55-acre field on the lower end.

Land that has excessive slope is planted to close-grown crops to prevent erosion by water. Mabry uses a conservation crop rotation of the following crops: grain sorghums, wheat, cotton and vetch and rye.

He has applied cotton burrs to the land for the last two years, building up the organic content of the soil. Last year he applied four tons of burrs on 55 acres. The year before he applied three tons of burrs on 60 acres. Gin trash has been added to a six-acre block each year.

Mabry has a test plot of Texas 660 and DeKalb F62a in which he is hoping to get 10,000 pounds. This is the area that has the heavy application of gin trash. All of the crop residue in the farm is returned to the soil. He turns about half of the residue under and leaves half on the surface.

He believes that he gets a better application of water if the rows are not too long. Ideal row length for him is 1700 feet..

Mabry has proved to be a good farmer and he is willing to put forth the energy to conserve his soil and water.

Men are like steel, when they lose their tempers, they are worthless.

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

The first flight of ducks hasn't appeared as yet, and we haven't had what could truly be called a "norther," but the signs of approaching fall are unmistakable to those who have lived on the Plains for a number of years.

There's a certain snap to the morning and evening air, a certain sparkle to the afternoon sunlight, that somehow tips you off.

What the weather does in the next 45 days will have immeasurable effect on whether area farmers make or lose money—a little or a lot of it—depending on the individual and his crops.

October 15 is approximately when we can expect the first killing frost, if this is an average year. The term "average" is a very dangerous one, though. For example, a man standing in two buckets—one filled with ice and the other with hot coals—may have a wonderful "average" temperature for his two feet, but he's mighty uncomfortable just the same. Or, if you put 25 knock-kneed women and 25 bow-legged women in a room, you don't come up with an average of 50 straight-legged women. Averages are deceptive.

Also, the average frost date may be of great or little significance depending on what weather has gone before it. Last year, for example, the freeze was pretty close to being "average." But the weather that occurred during September and the first two weeks in October made the freeze much more severe in its effect.

So far, August and the first part of September has been warm and dry (save for one week), and this is about ideal weather for maturing cotton and finishing out grain. But this week has started off damp and cool—which could or could not mean a lot later on.

The cool, damp weather won't hurt a thing if it drifts away and the sun returns in a few days. But if it hangs on like it did last year . . . well, farmers don't need to be reminded what an "average" freeze will do to rank, soggy, unmaturing crops.

So, farmers naturally are just as anxious to have desirable pre-harvest weather as they are to have that late freeze. Both are essential for maximum farm profits on the irrigated High Plains.

Also on the subject of killing frosts: Many people have the notion that Southern California and the Lower Texas Rio Grande Valley are immune from freezes. That certainly is not the case.

California finds it necessary nearly each year to protect orchards and groves with smudge to reduce the adverse effects of cold weather. Texans in the tail-end of the state expect light frost every year, and a good hard freeze about one every five years.

The southern tip of Florida is the only part of the country that has never recorded killing frost. Just last year, though, a good two-thirds of the lush Florida peninsula was raked with cold weather that knocked out a multi-million dollar orange crop, not to mention what it did to the resort business. When it's all said and done, it's just pretty hard to find a spot in the U. S. where you're isolated from cold weather.

One more comment on frosts: Is it true that they are likely to be more severe in the full of the moon? Canadians are very concerned about early frosts, and the meteorological division of their government checked into the theory that the weather was nipper during full moon.

In one region, 31 years of records show 266 cases of frost during the bright half of the moon and 289 cases during the dark half. In another region, 37 years of records gave 119 frosts during the bright half and 126 frosts during the dark half. Still a third region supported by 36 years of records gave figures of 432 and 410, respectively. All told, that provided 817 cases during the bright half and 825 during the dark half—just about as equal a distribution as it is possible to get.

The official comment on these figures ends with the statement: "These refer to the growing season only, of course, and should be sufficient evidence to convince everyone that the full moon does not favor the occurrence of frost."

Controlling insects by aerial spraying is getting to be really big business. We saw Elvie Jennings of Friona catching his breath between jobs the other day. He said he had four planes going strong and that they sometimes covered as much as 2,000 acres a day.

Of course, the work doesn't run like that all season, but the chinch bugs that were chewing away when we were talking with him had really created a rush. We daresay that there isn't another business in Parmer County that covers the ground like Elvie's when the bugs are biting.

D. C. Looney of Bovina is also taking up crop dusting, turning a hobby into an exciting—and what a lot of people think is dangerous—way to make a living.

We guess that flying low on top of feed and cotton and jumping fence rows, high lines, trees, houses, and other hazards is risky all right, but not much worse than grinding bundles or one-way or messing with a running hay baler if you're not really careful about what you're doing.

Most anything can be dangerous these days if folks aren't careful.

One thing about silence—it can't be repeated.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

If there is anyone who likes to eat mushy fried squash, we have yet to meet him or her. For this reason up until this week no one with whom we had talked was very keen on putting squash in a locker or deepfreezer. While talking to Mrs. Ramon Smith, who lives northwest of town, we learned something new.

Mrs. Smith mentioned to us that she would like to buy some squash to put in her deepfreezer. Since squash is comparatively easy to raise and used mostly fresh, her statement was a surprise. After questioning her we learned that she serves fried frozen squash that tastes like fresh fried squash to her family the year around.

The squash is sliced just as for frying, placed on a cookie sheet and frozen before being placed in cellophane bags for storing. The frozen slices do not stick together and can be removed as desired without any breakage. Mrs. Smith states that she uses large size bags in order to have fewer packages in her deepfreezer.

She also states that she uses cookie trays for freezing her peas in the same manner, then stores them in large bags, also. By doing this, she can dip out one cup full or whatever quantity she wants to cook without having to thaw a complete package.

If your summer jewelry is beginning to look dull and needs refreshing, give it a quick bath in lukewarm, sudsy water. Do not soak as this might loosen the glue. Use a hand brush or a discarded toothbrush and remove all dust particles then thoroughly dry at once.

For a colorful dish for any noon or evening meal, try this recipe for Corny Peppers: 6 medium sized sweet green peppers, 3 cups cooked whole kernel corn, 3 large eggs, beaten, 1/4 teaspoon salt dash of pepper, grated Parmesan cheese. Parboil peppers for five minutes. Drain liquid from corn and mix with eggs, salt, and pepper. Spoon into peppers, sprinkle with cheese and bits of pimiento for added color, if desired, and place in a casserole. Bake in 350 degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

Most people think of an old fashioned tea cake as just another type of cookie. In reality they are cookies, but do not contain as much sugar. The recipes were developed especially for something to eat at tea time, and since tea is generally sweetened there is no need for additional sugar in the tea cakes.

Our tea cake recipe is for Maple Flavored Tea Cakes. The original recipe is supposed to have come from England and calls for maple sugar. In localities where maple sugar is not available, brown sugar can be substituted and 1 teaspoon of maple flavor needs to be added when this substitution is made.

The ingredients are: 1/3 cup shortening, 1/4 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup maple sugar, shaved finely, 1 egg, beaten, 1/2 cup rich top milk, 2 cups cake flour, sifted before measuring, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans.

Cream shortening until soft, blend in sugars and mix until light and fluffy. Add the combined egg and milk alternately with the sifted flour, baking powder and salt, then lastly, blend in the chopped nuts.

Fill small greased muffin pans 2/3 full, bake 10 to 12 minutes in moderate oven. Cool. These cakes may be iced for added attractiveness and sweetening if desired.

We've eaten about every kind of fritters anyone could imagine, but ran across a recipe for fritters we had never even heard of before recently. It was for OYSTER FRITTERS 1 pint drained and chopped oysters 2 cups sifted flour 3 teaspoons baking powder 1 cup whole milk 1 tablespoon melted butter 1/2 teaspoons salt 2 eggs, beaten Mix eggs and milk and butter. Sift dry ingredients and add to the egg mixture. Stir until smooth. Add oysters and drop with a teaspoon into deep fat, heated to 375 degrees. Fry about three minutes until golden brown.

Serve, after draining, either plain or with a tartar sauce. Of course, these may be fried in a skillet if a person does not have a deep fat fryer.

Now for the cake recipes we promised you last week. For an angel food cake without a mix, you might like to try this:

TWENTY THREE MINUTE ANGEL FOOD CAKE 1 1/2 cups egg whites 1/4 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon cream of tartar 1 cup sugar 1 cup powdered sugar 1 cup cake flour 1 teaspoon vanilla Set oven at 425 degrees F, and preheat pan while mixing cake. Beat egg whites, salt and cream of tartar until stiff. Fold in granulated sugar, small amount at a time. Add powdered sugar and cake flour, which have been sifted together.

Add vanilla. Pour in hot pan and bake exactly 23 minutes—no longer or it will fall. Invert pan and let cool before removing from pan.

In our cake discussion there is one type that we have failed to mention. It is the unbaked type. There is an endless variety of this type cake and many of these cakes are more nearly like pies, but are called cakes. One of these is a WHITE FRUIT CAKE 1/2 lb. candied cherries 1/2 lb. candied pineapple 1/2 lb. candied mixed fruits 1/4 lb. candied white raisins 2 cups chopped pecans 2 cups chopped walnut meats 1/4 cup orange juice or pineapple juice 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 lb. vanilla wafers, finely crushed 1/2 lb. sugar cookies, finely crushed Mix all ingredients well, with the exception of wafers and cookies. Let stand 24 hours. At end of period, add cookies and wafers and mold, firmly packing into mold or loaf pan. Mix exactly according to recipe. Wrap in foil. Place in refrigerator to dry out. This recipe makes a five pound cake.

If you want daffodils blooming in your yard next spring, don't forget that the best planting time for this section of the country is early fall—September or October. The best location is in the sun or a place that is partly shaded. Daffodil bulbs are easy to grow and will golden color early in the spring when most of us appreciate it most. Unlike a lot of other bulbs, they do not have to be dug every year unless the gardener just wants to dig them. They will produce blooms for a long period of time without any special care.

WITH JUNE

The rain that fell Saturday night was welcomed by a lot of Parmer County farmers. Most of the ones who received rain were saying, "I've turned my wells off for good as far as row crops are concerned." In the very near future a lot of them will be watering wheat land. That is one of the most interesting things about being a farmer. You never get through with one job without having another project to begin on.

We thought the rainfall was pretty general all over the county, but have learned that there were a number of areas that received very little or none. One of our friends remarked, "You guys who always get rain are going to have to get some buckets and pour some over on my farm."

The fall flowers have never been more beautiful than they are now. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Spring have some very lovely blossoms of various kinds on the south side of their house. One plant that we have noticed but don't recognize is growing beside the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roberts.

We haven't stopped to observe it close up, but from the car window it looks like a rose tree. The only places we have ever seen rose trees are on the pages of seed catalogs, but this plant resembles a tree and the blooms must be roses.

The T. L. Houstons, who have recently moved into town from a farm west of town, are starting a new lawn. The Buckleys in the Black Community set out new grass Saturday and the rain that fell Saturday night gave it a good "seed-off."

Since school has started, we see a lot of new faces in town and almost without exception think, "There's another new teacher." Are we as a town as friendly to the new teachers as we should be? Too often we get acquainted with the teachers who happen to teach our youngsters and let it go at that.

Very few surprises that are planned turn out to be genuine surprises to the person for whom they are planned. This was not the case at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Modern Study Club. The honoree was Mrs. Guy Latta, new president of the club.

It seems that one of her biggest worries in connection with her new office was that her yearbook committee had not finished with the yearbooks in time for the first meeting. The books had been completed, but could not be presented to Mrs. Latta until after the meeting as the first program had been printed along with all the others.

The entire program was a complete surprise to her and she was very pleased to learn that she had appointed a yearbook committee that had worked diligently to get the books out on time.

You can send The Friona Star to your college son, daughter, or friend for $3 for the school term. Anyone who is interested is invited to call 2291 and give us the name and address of the person to whom you wish to have the Star sent.

Ralph Price of the Black Community had a freakish accident one afternoon last week. He was mowing the lawn with a new mower. In the process he stepped backward without looking behind him and fell over an object. As he fell, his foot caught in the mower blade and was severely injured.

He was taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital at Hereford and will be hospitalized several days. His doctor advised him that it would be almost impossible for him to do the same thing again even if he was trying.

The implement section of Friona is gradually moving down the highway towards Clovis.

The floor of Ross Terry's garage building has been poured and construction should be completed in the next few weeks. With the addition to Friona Motors, Galloway Im-

We feel deeply grateful to everyone who has called to express their appreciation for the improvement in the general appearance of the Star. Our readers have been most patient with us during our transition period from letterpress printing to offset printing and we do appreciate it.

As has been said in this column many times before, we appreciate all news tips and will appreciate it very much if any of you who have new babies, parties, out-of-town guests, or other news items, will call us.

County Officials To Get Raises

Parmer County officials and deputies will receive more money next year.

County commissioners marked increases down in the 1959 salary budget at a regular meeting Monday. Officials will receive about $600 more per individual while deputies will get a boost of about $300, County Clerk Hugh Moseley points out.

Total amount scheduled to be paid for salaries is $84,440. However, there's a possibility that some changes will be made at next meeting of commissioners court, Moseley says.

Mimeograph paper is available at the Star office.

She is a 1957 graduate of Friona High School.

Too often the person who gets lost in thought does so because it's unfamiliar territory.

Born Aug. 30, 1889, in Collin County, Mr. Menefee died Monday at the age of 79 years in Parmer County Community Hospital.

He was married to Miss Lena Potts on Sept. 6, 1908, at Wolfe City, and to this union were born four children. He had been ill several months.

The Menefees moved to Parmer County in January, 1925, and were living on the same land they first acquired. He served as County Commissioner for 12 years and retired from farming in 1950. He became a member of the Baptist church at the age of 13 years and was a charter member of the Lazbuddie Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Lena; three daughters, Mrs. Paul J. (Ruby-Mae) Syms, Albuquerque; Mrs. Juel (Frances) Treider, Lazbuddie; Mrs. Sam (Ruth) Long, Hereford; one son, Joe Scott of Corpus Christi; 14 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

County Sees Bit Of Labor Strike

Farwell got a brief glimpse of organized labor on strike Tuesday morning.

Scene of the unusuality was Sherley - Anderson - Pitman Grain Co. elevator where an addition is being constructed.

A workman, carrying an "on strike" sign, walked back and forth across an entrance to the driveway.

An attempt to question the picket by a reporter for this newspaper went for naught. The picket said, "You can't talk to me, you'll have to talk to the boss," and pointed down the highway about 30 steps where two men sat in a late model car and a third stood outside the car.

"The boss," the man had referred to, turned out to be Maurice Mitchell, who gave his title as secretary-treasurer-business manager of Teamsters, Local Union 577, Amarillo.

When asked what was going on, Mitchell pointed to the picket the man was carrying and said, "You can't read the sign; that's the story." In letters smaller than those which read "on strike," the sign said that Teamsters Local Union 577, Amarillo, was on strike against Crowe-Gulde Cement Co.

Work on the elevator addition was going on seemingly undisturbed and Mitchell was asked, "Why is the work going on if there is a strike?"

"That's the 64 question," he said. He went on to say that the men working were not members of the union. "to my knowledge."

An interview with Ray Godwin helped to clarify the mystery as to why there was an organized labor picket in Farwell. Godwin is manager of Crowe-Gulde Mobile Concrete Co., which he pointed out, is a separate and distinct business from that of Crowe-Gulde Cement Co.

The mobile concrete company is working on the elevator addition. Both the day and the night operator of the cement truck on the job were members of Teamsters. Godwin said: When Mitchell came out to the job Tuesday morning, the operators left their jobs and one of them carried the picket.

Godwin was gone at the time Mitchell came to the job in Farwell. When he returned—only a short time later—another man was "broken in" as operator of the cement truck and work went on as usual.

Godwin said that he understood Teamsters in Amarillo were on strike against Crowe-Gulde Cement Co.

TOO MANY HANDS

It is recorded that Emperor Frederick the Great, king of Prussia, had a difficult time, as all government heads do, in balancing his country's budget. On one occasion he gave a banquet, inviting persons of note to discuss the situation. He explained his dilemma, and asked how it came about that altho the taxes were high, not enough money was on hand to meet expenses.

At last an old general, seated at the other end of the long banquet table, arose and fished a large lump of ice from his punch bowl. He held the ice in his hand for a moment, then passed it on to his neighbor, asking that it be passed from hand to hand until it reached the emperor.

This was done, and by the time the lump of ice reached the emperor, it was reduced to the size of a small walnut. The general sat down. The lesson was obvious--there were too many hands in the government.

Mashed avocado seasoned with salt, instant minced onion and fresh lime juice is one of the most popular of all dips. Give a little different "flavor twist" by adding a small can of deviled ham.

Mrs. Dixon Recalls First Sight of Plains-All Mud

By Sally Whitesides

"Water, water, everywhere," was the first impression that Mrs. C. W. Dixon got of the Texas Panhandle a number of years ago. She, one of three children, and their mother, came to Hereford from Missouri in 1900. They made the trip by train and were met in Hereford by her father, Charles McLean, who had arrived months earlier to prepare a home for his family.

That first view of the Plains, complete with water everywhere, was the first and most vivid recollection of this pioneer woman who has lived here and around Friona for the past 58 years. Greeting them were seas of water, and where there wasn't water, there was mud. Lakes were full and joining each other with more rain coming down.

Mrs. Dixon, the former Mary McLean, accompanied her parents to the relatively new territory that year and lived for the next 20 years in and around Dimmitt.

Her father was a rancher turned banker and had vast holdings of ranch land in Castro County for many years. He organized the First State Bank of Dimmitt and the bank is still in the McLean family.

When they arrived in this country, McLean met his family with a team and wagon. Mrs. Dixon still remembers that clouds were rolling up and she watched with fascinat-ated interest as her parents, both inexperienced in this game of pioneering, tried valiantly to spread the wagon sheet over the bows of the wagon.

Rain fell in sheets and it was a long trip to Dimmitt.

The family, along with about a dozen other people, spent the night in a dugout somewhere between the two towns. Mrs. Dixon remembers very clearly in the expanse of over 20 rain driven miles, the people who lived in the dugout were the only inhabitants. No house and no other signs of civilization could be seen.

Her childhood and teen-age years were spent helping her father with his cattle and horses. She says although sidesaddles were taken for granted as the proper mode of transportation, she and her sister did ride men's western saddles most often. They wore full "divided" skirts that are a far cry from today's riding apparel.

The girls rode horseback to school, and there she felt out of place in a man's saddle. As she grew up, Mary McLean was graduated from a tiny school that boasted the whole sum of two teachers and later went to college at West Texas in Canyon. After graduation, she taught in a school a few miles south of Dimmitt, and there she got re-acquainted with her husband.

The two families had lived as neighbors for many years as the Dixon family moved to Castro County two years after the McLean family settled there.

The Dixons feel that they have seen the full scale of land prices since their arrival in West Texas. At the time her father purchased his first land near Dimmitt, the going price was $100 a section, plus a few minor expenses. McLean acquired at least four sections at this price.

Mary McLean and C. W. Dixon were married in her parents' home in the spring of 1915. The young couple spent the next four or five years farming south of Dimmitt and then moved to the Rhea community west of Friona.

There, for the next 30 years, the couple and their children raised sheep and had a vast wheat farm. In the course of passing years, the Dixons accumulated approximately 6000 acres of the rich soil of West Texas. Their children, Rosella, Eugene (Buck), and Jim, were reared in that area.

During those 30 years, the Dixon family actually lived in the Rhea community, but during the winter, when the youngsters attended Friona Schools, the family lived in town.

In 1952, the couple and their youngest son, Jim, made their final and permanent move to town. Asked for some memories that stand out besides the rainy welcome they received to the Panhandle, Mrs. Dixon spoke of the many and various images seen in the form of mirages during the olden days.

She remembers one which looked as if a prairie fire was rushing down on their home. So real appeared the mirage, Mrs. Dixon recalls, that the family worked furiously to drag a fire line through the lush, shoulder-high grasses, in hopes of stopping the onrushing flames. It was several hours later that they became convinced that the "fire" was only a figment of heat waves, sun rays and their imaginations.

Mirages are often mentioned by oldtimers as part of every day's occurrences. It is felt that now, because of the plowed earth, irrigation, and denser population, mirages have become a thing of the past. Rarely are they spotted today in this country; only farther west, in the dryer regions of New Mexico and Arizona are they still prevalent.

There was plenty of game during those days, says Mrs. Dixon. In fact, heard upon herd of dainty-footed antelope could be seen near almost any water hole throughout the area. Ducks by the thousands frequented the draws and lakes of the surrounding country. To go along with and to perhaps act as a balance to this vast game supply was the numerous packs of coyotes. They were hunted, strictly for sport, by both men and dogs.

Now, settled in their home and retired from active duties as farmers, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon spend most of their time raising flowers and following their other hobbies. Mrs. Dixon loves her flowers and gardens, of which her geraniums are her prized possessions.

In recent years, Dixon has become more and more interested in flowers, yard and garden. With his country home and farm land all leased out, this is his only contact with the soil and growing things which he loves so much.

But he has another hobby, too. Dixon loves to hunt; anything, anywhere, anytime. In the last few years, he has hunted in Colorado and New Mexico; but early this month he made a trip into Canada to "just look around." Mrs. Dixon feels sure that the sight-seeing tour was for one specific purpose--that of feeling out the possibilities of hunting there.

What does she do while he is out hunting? Mrs. Dixon says she spends a lot of her time, while not in the yard and gardens, doing needlepoint. This tedious and exacting art is pure relaxation and recreation for her and her work attests to her ability with needle and thread.

Another hobby is the collecting and storing of pictures, stories and moments of the family. In a scrapbook which she takes great pride in, appear pictures and stories of the weddings of her children, plus other notations of their accomplishments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon are long time members of the local Baptist Church, becoming members during 1929.

With her church work and her growing responsibilities to her club, the Friona Woman's Club, her home and her hobbies, she manages to keep almost every minute of the day filled.

To a certain extent, Mrs. Dixon looks back fondly to the days gone by, but she has no wish to be reminded too fully of them. In her words, she explains her feeling most clearly: "I know what one of those wood burning stoves, with the oven in the chimney, looks like; I know how they cooked and I know all about the trouble they were. There's nothing about them that fascinates me and I don't care a thing about having one around as an 'antique.'"

Such is the story of the Dixons, a pioneering family of Friona.

RUN GLENN RUN!—Glenn Reeve Jr. takes a long step getting set to dash down the street and pull out a length of hose during a practice run for the pumper race contest. Hidden behind Glenn, an unidentified fireman will catch the hose and help drag it a full length down the street.

THINK THINGS OUT, BE SURE OF YOUR FACTS ERRORS ARE CAUSED BY THOUGHTLESS ACTS.

A guide on a sightseeing bus informed his passengers that at the moment they were passing the world's largest brewery. From a bored Lion in the rear seat came the plaintive query "Why?"

LETTER PERFECT Jack's memory did not have an enviable reputation. So, one day when he returned home, his mother asked, "Jack, did you post those letters for me?" "Yes, Mother," answered Jack promptly with an air of pride. "But just as I was about to drop them into the mailbox, I noticed that you had put the stamps on wrong. The foreign letter had the three-cent stamp, and the home letter had the five-cent stamp. But I fixed it." "But how did you change the stamps?" asked the mother. "I didn't—all I did was change the addresses."

THE BULWARK OF A COMMUNITY IS ITS CHURCHES

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Psalm 86:3 reads "Be merciful unto me, O Lord; For I cry unto thee daily." We cannot live the Christian life right, in fact, it is doubtful if we can live it at all, without the hatchet of daily prayer. Prayer is the Christian's vital breath; the Christian's native air. The majority of the greatest leaders of the world in every field, take time each day for a period of personal prayer. Neglect of daily prayer has been the cause of failure for countless men. Opposition to, and oppression of prayer and worship have destroyed more nations than pestilence or war. You are invited to attend worship services on Sunday and join with all Christians in prayer in the church of your choice.

Two Jailed On Forgery Charges

Two charges of forgery and one of theft were made by Parmer County sheriff's department last week.

Roberta Eafon and Lewis Jamison were charged with forgery. Their bond has been set at $1000 each by Farwell Justice of the Peace J. R. Thornton.

Mrs. Eafon was picked up in Hereford while Jamison was apprehended near Bovina by Sheriff Chas. Lovelace.

Mrs. Eafon passed a check at Ware's Department Store in Friona which was forged on D. L. Carmichael, who farms east of Friona. Jamison passed checks forged on Deon Awtrey, Friona, at Hurst's Department Store in Friona and in Clovis.

Both are awaiting action of next session of Parmer County grand jury.

Also last week, Deputy Tom Atkins returned Marcus Davis from Littlefield where he was being held on a battery theft charge.

In county court Thursday, he pled guilty to stealing three batteries from the farm of O. D. Spitzer of Lazbuddie. He was fined $50 and sentenced to five days in jail.

Davis was picked up in Littlefield by law officers when he tried to sell the batteries.

A friend of ours recently bought a foreign-made automobile and came to the conclusion that he was not getting the phenomenally high gas mileage so often credited to such cars. So he took it to a local mechanic who, after checking it thoroughly, pronounced it in perfect condition. "But isn't there something I can do to increase its gas mileage?" asked the motorist.

"You can do the same thing all foreign-car owners do," replied the mechanic. "Lie about it."

Just about the time you think you can make both ends meet, somebody moves the ends.

“$7.34 invested in ammonia netted $40.56 in wheat”

W. H. Jackson, successful High Plains farmer, says: “Phillips 66 ammonia proved to me it can help me make more money. The irrigated wheat I fertilized with Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gave me a 25 bushel-per-acre increase over an unfertilized check plot. This netted me $40.56 per acre.”

Other successful Southwestern farmers use Phillips 66 ammonia to give them higher grain yields . . . and more profitable grazing. The 82% nitrogen in Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives young wheat a fast start, supplies plenty of lush, protein-rich forage that puts on more beef at less cost per pound.

Many of these farmers plow down Phillips 66 ammonia in the fall on maize land. They know that the 82% nitrogen helps decompose crop residue, to provide extra plant food and make the soil more productive. Remember, Phillips 66 ammonia gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

but these plans will be announced as soon as possible. Something new on the slate of events this year is the running motor contest.

This will be an audience participation contest in which the crowd will guess when a motor will stop running.

Contest officials say they will mount an irrigation motor in some central location downtown. The motor's fuel tank will hold an undetermined amount of fuel, and participants will guess the exact time the motor will stop running.

What prize will be awarded the winner hasn't been announced as yet.

Also new on this year's program is the Lions Club carousel which will feature a miniature carnival complete with ferris wheel, tilt-a-whirl, small boats, cars and other rides for the youngsters.

In addition, Lions Club members will erect various booths housing games of all kinds in the city park. This phase of the celebration will be in operation during the entire week of Maize Days.

slugging. After Roden's kickoff, the Sunray team took over on their 40 and a long pass to Maness Gibson was good for 55 yards right through the middle of the Chieftain secondary.

Gibson was pulled down from behind on the Chiefs' 5-yard line by Brooks and Baxter.

Two plays later the Bobcats scored from the 3. Their try for extra points was off.

Young scored the Chiefs' last TD late in the fourth quarter after the Chiefs backed the Bobcats up under their own goalposts.

Friday night the Chiefs will meet Amherst at Amherst for the second game of the season. Game time is 8 p.m.

of the Lions Club have their plotting all in order and by the time this issue of the paper is on the street, several citizens may have been fined by the Maize Days Sheriff and his henchmen.

The old city jail is to be brought back into town this week and put up in the city park to take care of permitless, clean-shaven outcasts.

Several "localites" are weeks ahead with their beards. Among the most formidable looking beards are those of Glenn Reeve Jr., I. T. Graves and Art Drake. But—look out—competition is on the way!
