Councilmen Vote To Postpone Water Well

Members of the city council at a special meeting Thursday night voted to take no action in the immediate future on the question of drilling a new water well for the city of Friona.

After a long discussion, members of the council decided that the city couldn't afford the money the new well would cost, and that they would wait until the money in the water and sewer department's "slush" fund built up.

(As you will remember this "slush" fund is the $1 per water meter that is assessed monthly to take care of the needs of this department.)

Council members instructed the city manager, Albert Field, to place three new stop signs on three intersections in the city limits.

Intersections getting new stop signs include the "jinx" corner of Washington and 9th where three wrecks have occurred in as many months. One of these involved Friona's police chief, Ben Moorman.

Other corners include Woodland and 7th and Woodland and 6th. Several other intersections will have stop signs placed on them in the near future, after a report and study of various "danger" points in the city have been completed.

Another item of business that took up time in discussion was the problem concerning the now non-producing (Continued on next page.)

Final Rites Held For C. M. Jones

Funeral services were conducted for Charlie Moses Jones, 84, long time resident of Friona, at the Friona Methodist Church Saturday morning at 10 with Rev. Hugh Blaylock officiating. Mr. Jones, who had lived here since 1925, was born May 12, 1874, in Tennessee.

He moved with his parents from Tennessee to Rockwall, Tex. From there he moved to Forney, then from Forney to Friona. Since his retirement from farming, he has served as a night watchman for the City of Friona and later as a deputy sheriff of Parmer County.

Mr. Jones died at the Parmer County Community Hospital about noon Wednesday. He and his wife, Eva, who survives, observed their 60th wedding anniversary October 3 of last year.

Other survivors include six daughters, Madge Thurman, and Gladys Willman, both of Dallas, Corinne Jones of Friona, Faye Roberson of Forney, Vera Harry of Eugene, Ore., and Marie Guyer of Sunnyside, Wash.; two sons, O. C. and W. H., both of Friona;

Also, three brothers, Roy and Ed of Plano, and Herman of Rockwall; two sisters, Ann Lanham and Ida Welch of Dallas, 24 grandchildren, and 23 great-grandchildren.

Serving as pall bearers were six grandsons, Billy Ray Jones, Tom Jones, Jack Thurman, Coy Willmon, Roy Lee Jones, and Herbie Roberson. Burial was in the Friona cemetery under the direction of Claborn Funeral Home.

L. Brewer Tops Smith for Judge

By Dolph Moten

Beginning January 1, Loyde A. Brewer will be Parmer County Judge.

The Friona businessman, and former county clerk, won election to the office in Saturday's second Democratic primary from A. D. Smith, long-time holder of the office.

Brewer had 1090 votes---64 per cent. Smith had 618.

As was expected, the winner racked up his greatest number of votes in Friona precinct. He tallied 537 there as compared with 34 for the incumbent. Farwell was Smith's best source of votes. He had 246 in that box and Brewer managed 45.

Brewer captured six of the eight boxes. In addition to the Farwell box, Smith led at Oklahoma Lane and in absentee balloting. Brewer led Friona, Rhea, Black, Lakeview, Bovina and Lazbuddie.

Here's how the voting went in the boxes other than the two already mentioned: Black, Brewer 51, Smith 4; Bovina, Brewer 205, Smith 167; Lazbuddie, Brewer 74, Smith 31; Oklahoma Lane, Brewer 28, Smith 34; Rhea, Brewer 53, Smith 10; Lakeview, Brewer 27, Smith 8; absentee, Brewer 70, Smith 84.

In the only state-wide race on the ballot, Parmer County went along with the rest of the state in naming Robert W. Hamilton of Midland County Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Place No. 1. His opponent was J. Edwin Smith of Harris County.

Hamilton polled 1029 votes in Parmer County while Smith received 334. Many people failed to mark their ballots concerning this race. It attracted a minimum of interest in this area.

Charlie Jefferson won reelection to his county commissioner post in a close race in Bovina precinct. He had 268 votes as compared with 224 for his opponent, C. L. Calaway, a former holder of the office.

Calaway had an overwhelming majority in Rhea box, which is a part of Bovina precinct. He tallied 62 out of the 63 votes cast. In Bovina box, Jefferson led 228 to 145.

In the first primary, only one vote separated the two men with Calaway holding the edge.

According to reports from precinct chairmen, 1721 votes were cast. This was considered an unusually good turnout for a second primary. There are 2230 eligible voters in the county. Approximately 1880 ballots were marked in the first primary.

Number of absentee votes cast was exceptionally high. They totaled 164---almost twice as many as were marked in the first primary.

report by classes as follows:

Sophomores will report to the band hall.

Juniors will report to the science room.

The principals requested that all new students (those students, outside of grades 1 through 6, who have not attended the Friona schools previously) report to their respective principal's office in either the grade school or the high school between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Friday afternoon for registration.

School officials pointed out that any student who does not register Friday will be registered Tuesday, Sept. 2, as time permits.

LEGION MEET POSTPONED

Announcement has been made that the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion has been postponed from Monday, September 1, to Monday, September 8, because of the Labor Day holiday. New officers will be elected at the September 8 meeting and every Legionaire is urged to be present. Meeting time will be 8:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall.

FULLBACKS WITH THEIR BRAINS KICKED OUT---That's what they used to call the linemen in years back, and, above, Coach Roy Shagmon puts the Chief linemen through some limbering up work Monday afternoon.

If anyone ever tries to run down the efficiency of the Friona Police Department, just send them around to this office of The Star.

We can vouch for their efficiency for only last Saturday we broke the law and were awarded a ticket less than five minutes after the violation.

Naturally we knew better, but when a person gets in a hurry, he always fouls up. This time we just happened to run afoul of the law.

What happened was-- we parked on the wrong side of the street. Anyhow, the car was headed west instead of east in front of our office. We jumped out of the car "just to go right in and back" but got tied up in conversation, then forgot about the car being parked wrong.

About 10 or 15 minutes later, the phone jangled and we were reminded about the car.

A voice said---"Ha, ha, you got a ticket!"

Ye gads! The car! Glancing out the window we noticed, big as life, the $4.00 ticket, waving in the breeze under the windshield wiper.

So--guess whose name topped the "criminal column" in last week's paper---you guessed it!

Such is the fortune of us lawbreakers.

Now to say "Thanks" to Ed Dukes, night policeman, for his help in getting last week's papers in the mail. Since we've been trying to print the paper in Friona, we have been beset with unseen problems and blind alleys.

As many of you folks know, the paper has been late getting out each Thursday, in fact, it has been midnight or later before we had it off the press. Anyhow this past week was no exception, so at 3 a. m. we got the local papers ready for the post office and called upon Ed to help us out.

Ed locks up the post office each night about 8 (that is, he locks the front door) so we found him making his rounds during the wee hours and asked him to let us get the local and route papers in the post office so that they might be available to our readers as early as possible Friday morning.

He came through for us and we would like to say "Thanks" to Ed Dukes, night policeman.

Every teen-ager this day and time seems to have his own or her own, car. Most of these cars have names, some affectionate, some indifferent, and some--well, here is what a teen-ager over at Olton named his car--"Sheneeda."

This name is pretty descriptive, for Sheneeda isn't named after the best girl friend or anything like that, but rather the name came from "Sheneeda gas, sheneeda oil, sheneeda tires . . . etc. Pretty original, eh wot?"

Editors and writers are always preaching, but seldom does it seem they practice just what they preach--(witness our ticket).

This past week we've become rather careless and have been justly rewarded.

While watching TV we were smoking one of those coffin nails and the spouse called us to eat.

Usually we snuff out a cigarette and go on, but this time we didn't and let the doggone thing lay in the ash-tray.

Part way through the meal we kept smelling something burning. Trying to convince the wife it was her cooking, we still kept an eye peeled and finally spotted smoke coming from the couch.

Nope, it wasn't burned too bad, but our ears still burn at the chewing-out we got. We did manage to run one leg on the couch with a beautiful hole right in the middle where the errant cig had fallen out of the ash-tray and on the pillow.

Some days it doesn't pay to smoke---period.

32 Boys Report For Fall Football Practice

A total of 32 footballers reported for the first week of practice for the 1958 Friona Chiefs football squad, announces Colie Huffman, head coach.

The boys have spent the first few days getting in shape and "getting used to getting hit."

A look-see at the football stadium reveals a spirit among the boys of hard, do or die attitudes with lots of talking it up and body contact.

Tuesday afternoon, an inspection of the field showed the boys getting some headon tackling practice and later going through plays.

This, the first week of practice, the Chiefs are working out twice a day, once early in the morning about 7 then again in the afternoons at 4.

"Gridiron fortunes at Friona are apt to be a bit gloomy this fall," says Coach Huffman, pointing out the loss of 17 lettermen from last year's district winning team.

This includes the loss of all-district back, Jackie Sheek, and tackle, Lewis Weis. Sheek moved to Louisiana and Weis joined the navy.

Only four returning lettermen were regulars last year and of these, only three were starters--these are Gary McLaughlin, right tackle; Jon Mac Roden, center; and Gary Goetz, right end. Kim Caffey, left tackle, lettered but wasn't a regular starter.

With this nucleus to build around, Coach Huffman says, "There is lots of room for improvement but our boys are hitting good and have lots of desire."

First hard contact this year is slated for Saturday morning at 10 when the Chiefs will scrimmage Olton and Portales here.

Only sophomores, juniors and seniors have been working out this week and the freshmen are asked to report between 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Friday to pick up their uniforms at the field house.

Thus far, the Chief roster is composed of the following:

J. W. Baxter, Kim Caffey, Jim Clements, Owen Houston, Larry Moyer, Gary McLaughlin, Gene Pope, Jon Mac Roden, Bomar Stacy, Chauncy Woody, and Monroe Young--all seniors.

Friona Schools To Hit Peak of 1100 Students

An estimated 1,100 students will troop back to school in the Friona Independent School District as the buses will make their regular rounds for the school's registration Friday morning.

Seventeen new teachers have been hired this summer to fill the ranks and bring the faculty of the schools to date, in order to serve the ever-increasing enrollment in the Friona system.

Registration will begin about 9:30 a.m. Friday and is slated to end in time for students to return to their homes by noon.

Students in the elementary school, with the exception of fourth grade students, will meet their classes Friday morning in the elementary building. Students are instructed to go to any class in their grade, the grade and teacher's name will be on the door.

First graders are asked to bring a slip of paper with their name, parents names, phone number, and bus number on it. In addition, the first graders must have a doctor's certificate, showing they have been vaccinated for smallpox, and a birth certificate.

Fourth graders will report to their classes in the first floor of the red brick two-story building.

Grade school students (grades 5, 6, 7 and 8) will report to classes in either the red brick two-story building or the new gym, depending upon their grade.

Students in grades five and six will report to the top floor of the red brick building and students in grades seven and eight will report to the new gymnasium for assignment. High school students will

Ferrell New Owner Of Furniture Store

Ownership of Claborn-Ferrell Furniture Co. will change hands as of September 1, according to an announcement from Joe Ferrell Wednesday morning.

Ferrell, who was formerly a partner in the business with J. C. Claborn, has purchased Claborn's interest in the firm and will assume full ownership.

Claborn, who also has interests in the flower and funeral director business in Friona, says he will now have time to devote more attention to Claborn Floral Shop and Claborn Funeral Home. Ferrell, who managed Ware's Department Store in Friona until this spring, joined the firm of Claborn-Ferrell in February this year.

The new owner of the furniture store says the firm will remain in the same location on Main Street in Friona and the same employees will be on duty to serve patrons.

Two employees of the firm, in addition to Ferrell, are Duane Lucas and Delois Jordan. New name of the firm will be Ferrell Furniture Co.

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

There Are Still Lots Of Ways To Skin A Cat

Perhaps our readers tire of our cry "Freedom of the Press" but this is one of the basic needs of a Democracy.

There are still many of us who feel that the public---meaning you, our readers, when properly informed of the truth in an issue, will come up with the right answer.

Reporting the happenings of our government, from its grassroots level here with the city council right on up to the White House itself, in our books is a MUST if our people are to remain free.

It isn't a lot of fun to go to every meeting held in Friona and hear the long discussions, losing sleep and being away from the house, but we knew this when we picked newspapering as a profession.

We're not griping about it yet either. But, we do get sort of disgusted when we are not told of meetings in which the public interest is at stake, for we still think that the public has a right to know what is going on and why.

There are many ways officials stifle the flow of news. The most effective is what we call "censorship at source."

This is simple; just don't tell anyone a meeting is going to take place and if a reporter isn't present it can't be reported on.

This week we ran across an article in the Hondo Anvil-Herald in which Bill Berger tells of a new twist to stifle information by a group currently in disfavor with those in public office.

We think it is likely that our readers would be interested in this new way to keep information from the public.

The editorial, entitled "There Are Many Ways To Suppress Freedom of Speech," goes like this:

There are many ways of bringing about "thought control" in this country. Some of them are perhaps accidental, and then again, maybe they are not. Here is one of the newer ones that has come to our attention.

The Association of American Physicians and Surgeons has issued literature opposing socialism in this country, including the socialization of medicine. If you were brought up believing in free speech, you probably will say that is their privilege.

Associations and non-profit groups have traditionally been tax-exempt.

Now, the Internal Revenue Service has told the Association that "opposing socialization of the medical or other segment of the economy or supporting the principles of individual liberty and freedom of individuals in the medical profession or elsewhere . . . are not in our opinion, per se educational functions or objectives . . . and you are not entitled to exemption from Federal income tax."

In Parmer County ..... $8 Per Yr.
Elsewhere ..... $4 Per Yr.

Entered as second class mail matter July 31, 1925, at the post office in Friona, Texas, under the Act of March 31, 1897. Published each Thursday.

The reasoning behind this may simply be that the Internal Revenue Service is trying to collect more money to send overseas, and then again, it may be that somebody very high in government does not think doctors have any right to oppose socialization, and wants to make it harder on them.

This is not the only instance of trying to hold down the freedom to express beliefs, but we aren't trying to write a book. There does seem to be a drive among high governmental circles to silence free speech by indirect means--taxation, regulation and secrecy.

During the occupation of Japan, the writer served on a board that included a Regular Army colonel. One of his remarks during a meeting was to the effect that if he ever got to be a dictator in the United States, the first thing he would do would be to remove the heads of all newspapermen. In spite of his rank, he immediately learned that he was talking to a newsman, and of course the whole thing was just a big joke. Sure it was, but many a word spoken in jest is close to what the speaker is really thinking.

Free speech is very unpopular among many of the military minds. They would not dare to attack it directly, but it is strange that some of the most serious indirect threats have come during the military-type administration of the first general officer to be elected president in many decades.

Maybe it isn't because of the presidential attitude. Maybe it is because nobody cares what goes on in the lower levels of government. Your right to hear both sides of the story is at stake, for if the effect of free speech offends the government, and they have the power to penalize it with taxes, it will eventually die out.

Those of us who supported the "time for a change" campaign staged by the national Republican party in 1952 have slowly been subjected to a real eye-opening. No matter how high sounding the talk may have been, concerning a "business-like administration", "economy in government," freedom of enterprise, and all that sort of thing, the contrast between what was said and what has been done is enough to make millions of thoughtful voters wonder where they can turn for the kind of government they so earnestly desire.

Thanks

I wish to thank the voters who supported me for County Judge in the recent election.

Parmer County has been good to me. When the present term expires, I shall have been County Judge, lacking only four months of being 14 years.

I have been economical in the administration of the office and have tried to be fair with everybody and with all parts of the county in all things. And again to everybody I say "thanks."

Now it is my desire to serve people as a lawyer and as a good citizen.

Sincerely yours, A. D. Smith County Judge Advertisement

in & around FRIONA WITH JUNE

Fall is almost here and it is our favorite season of the year. The air in the evenings and early mornings is already beginning to feel chilly. Sounds from the north in the mornings indicate that the band is making preparations for football games and concerts this fall and winter.

The older girls are interested and excited about what will be best for school wear and the little ones are enthusiastic about the beginning of school, who their teachers will be, and all the other exciting things that go with this time of year. Most of the boys we know are indifferent about the change in schedules or are too modest to admit that they are excited.

In driving around the countryside we notice that the maize is beginning to turn red, so harvest is not very far away. Then, another sign of the end of the growing season is all the white blooms in the top of cotton stalks. We have always been told that when cotton begins to bloom in the top the end of the fruiting season is not far off. The experts agree that all blooms on cotton before the first of September will have a 50-50 chance to mature before frost.

Thanks to Sally Cocannouer the Friona Star staff and our neighbors, Plains Publishers, are enjoying a lovely bouquet of mixed flowers. They are very pretty and we've all enjoyed them a lot.

There has been a great deal of misunderstanding concerning the difference between the Friona Star and Plains Publishers. The purpose of the two firms is entirely different. We of the Friona Star staff, gather news, sell ads, and perform our various other duties about the same since we moved over here as we did in our old location.

Our next door neighbors, the Plains Publishers, are in the publishing business. One of their jobs is to print the Star. Of course, we work with them, and they, in turn, assist us when it is necessary.

One thing that makes it a bit confusing is that W.H. Graham Jr. is connected with both firms. He is co-owner of both operations, is manager of the Plains Publishers, and is publisher of the Friona Star. Another confusing point is that both firms have an employee named June. This has created some humorous incidents. When we first went to work in the same building--the two Junes, that is--every time anyone said, "June" he or she was sure to get attention from two persons.

This did not last long, though. Any more when anyone says "June" each one of us automatically think the speaker means the other one and go calmly on tending to our own tasks. Now it is just about impossible to get anyone to answer to the name.

When the other employees want to get our attention it is necessary for them to add Floyd, Magness or Hensley onto the June. June Hensley Magness, a former employee of the State Line Tribune, is a Justwriter operator for Plains Publishers.

If everyone in town grew dahlias like the Wesley Cunninghams do, Friona would soon become known as the dahlia capital of the High Plains. If you haven't seen their array of beautiful colors and types of dahlias, be sure to drive by their residence in the east part of town and take a look at them.

The kind of vacation Sam and Geneva Williams took recently sounds like fun. They returned Saturday afternoon from Truth or Consequences. When we were trying to get enough information from her for a story, she said, "Well, we just fished, rested, and did a whole lot of nothing."

What better way could you think of to spend two weeks away from the hustle and bustle of a daily job than to go to some nice quiet spot and just do nothing?

Read this verse recently and enjoyed it a lot. Hope you like it, too.

Laugh a little now and then
It brightens life a lot;
You can see the brighter side
Just as well as not.
Don't go mournfully around,
Gloomy and forlorn;
Try to make your fellow men
Glad that you were born.

Bovina box led the field in the percentage of votes cast. Counting the absentees which otherwise would have gone in that box, 437 people voted. Number of poll taxes in the voting precinct is only 400.

ing well at the cemetery. The well sanded down several months ago and will not produce water.

City Manager Field suggested that a local pump company be contacted to pull the pump and see what has happened to the well, and check to see if anything can be done to remedy the dry situation.

Council members turned down his recommendation and voted to let the question ride.

The next regular meeting of the council is slated for Monday night, September 1.

Jinx Corner Heaps Shame

On Police Chief

Jinx Corner, as it is known to many bumper-crashing Frionans, the corner of Ninth and Washington Sts., paid no mind to the badge of Police Chief Ben Moorman recently. During a severe rainstorm Moorman was traveling toward the City Hall and had stopped to let Pete Buske drive across the intersection and then started forward. "The whole world turned red and cream," says Moorman. The front of the black police car collided with the rear of a red and cream colored Plymouth belonging to H. E. Barnett, manager of the Parmer County Hospital. Both vehicles were damaged, but many folks say the most damage was to Moorman's pride. "Sure wish I hadn't had the radio on, then I wouldn't have been going to the City Hall," Moorman says.

The Star office has standard duplicate order books for sale for 40 cents.

Friona has had (or will have) 600 acres of potatoes, 500 acres of carrots, 80 acres of onions and 50 acres of miscellaneous.

In the Farwell-Lariat country there were about 110 acres of onions, and 300 acres of potatoes.

These figures are rounded off, but are fairly accurate. The "miscellaneous" notations would probably catch the farmer here and there who grows a few acres of vegetables without any fanfare, and who will take them out of the area to be processed and sold.

So, a figure of 3,000 acres will likely catch all vegetable acreage in the Parmer County area deals this year. That is a big jump from about 1,100 that were planted last year, and, like we said, is about 1,000 acres more than was expected, even though we knew an increase was coming.

What do these figures portend?

Maybe a whole lot; maybe not much. It's pretty difficult to say.

Back in the early 1950's, when irrigated cotton was getting its big start on this part of the Plains, the trend to that crop was pretty well unmistakable. Parmer County went from practically nothing in 1950 to over 100,000 acres in 1953--the most sensational cropping change that has ever come to this part of the country.

The reasons were not hard to pin down. Cotton was both a basic commodity with assured price supports, and a crop that was, at that time, in short supply and good demand.

In spite of the fact that grain sorghum still enjoyed a relatively good price, farmers found they could make more money with irrigated cotton than grain, and so the change was rapid.

Today, cotton is under severe acreage restrictions. If all controls were removed, it would be a good guess that 200,000 acres of cotton would go in Parmer County next year if farmers were still assured a fair price.

Prices of grain sorghums, on the other hand, are low, and the immediate prospects for a marked improvement are not bright. Farmers are not able to plant more than about 46,000 acres of cotton because of controls, and they are not able to grow their tremendous grain sorghum acreages at a reasonable profit.

For the irrigated farmer, then, it is not surprising that he looks to truck farming with a wistful eye, hoping that he might improve his profit picture by grow-

Parmer County May Again Lead in Yield

Almost ideal cotton growing conditions since planting time on the Texas High Plains have led agricultural authorities to estimate production off the 1958 cotton crop will be the largest in history in this area.

The August 1 crop estimate officially was made at approximately 1,900,000 bales by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

This is by far the largest production ever forecast on the High Plains and it is being forecast on much less acreage than has been planted in previous years, one official pointed out.

The 1,900,000 total was reached after officials talked to county agents, ginners, farmers and others in each county. Individual county estimates were gathered from each of the 23 counties and totaled for the over-all figure of 1,900,000 bales.

president of the Castro County Farm Bureau.

About 300 persons attended the contest.

Representatives of both the PCG and the Exchange said these figures were based on conditions as of August 1 and they added the crop conditions at that time were just about the best in history.

Parmer County is again expected to be an outstanding producer of irrigated cotton. This county has a per-acre irrigated cotton yield that surpasses all other counties on the High Plains.

Notice in the accompanying table that production is expected to be 60,000 bales from 45,000 acres. That would equal Swisher's hoped-for yield of 60,000 bales, but Swisher farmers have 5,000 more acres of cotton than to Parmer's.

Castro County growers are expected to get 55,000 bales from 52,000 acres. Castro is Parmer's "twin sister," but agriculture officials expect Parmer County farmers to get more cotton from considerably fewer acres than our neighbors to the east.

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

Vegetable acreage on Parmer County farms this year almost tripled the previous year's acreage, and exceeded by almost 1,000 acres what we thought would probably be planted before any preparations actually got underway.

In the Bovina area there have been (or will be) 620 acres of cantaloupes, 400 acres of lettuce, 300 acres of tomatoes, and about 50 acres of miscellaneous crops such as bell peppers, cabbage, and what-not.

ing vegetables. Many factors keep the irrigated Plains from becoming a huge vegetable growing area overnight. The two biggest ones are: (1) large capital outlay required for specialized farming, and (2) risk of losing all or part of the investment. These two factors are present, admittedly, in the case of any irrigated crop, but not to the extent that they affect vegetables. In 1957, about everything happened to the grain sorghum crop that could possibly happen.

The season started late, the weeds were terrible, the insects were around in the usual numbers, and the fall ripening and harvesting weather was simply disastrous. As much as 25 percent of the county grain crop got blown flat on the ground by high winds. Still, farmers managed to make their grain—at least most of it.

So, a farmer who plants grain sorghum has a very good expectation of getting SOMETHING for his efforts, even though his profit may be considerably less than he deserves.

Vegetables are not this way, of course. Two years ago, nearly every vegetable crop on the Plains "hit" and farmers made a lot of money. Last year, only carrots paid off for most growers.

This year, profit prospects are dim for all but one or two vegetable crops.

For these reasons, it is remarkable indeed that the acreage has managed to triple in just one year. Unlike the rush to get into the cotton-planting act, those who would hop aboard the vegetable bandwagon find themselves taking a long, hard look before making the leap.

farm wife when she and a group of Farm Bureau women visited Washington this year . . . and on last Thursday morning, a little after midnight, by a vote of 62 to 25, the senate body approved a federal aid to education bill. The House has previously passed a similar bill by a vote of 233 to 140.

Farm Bureau, along with others, has always opposed any bill of this type. Farm Bureau will continue, we are sure, to oppose any extension of the provisions of the bill, which are sure to continue to be offered. We do not believe the people of America favor this kind of legislation. We are happy to report that our congressman, Walter Rogers, voted against the measure; we regret to report that Senators Lyndon B. Johnson and Ralph Yarborough voted for the bill in the Senate.

Although the house brought up and passed a version of the proposed farm bill they had previously rejected, there is no telling what it will look like when the senate and house committees have worked together on it. It is not in line with AFB recommendations, particularly since it leaves entirely too much discretion to the secretary of agriculture in setting price supports.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU
By RAYMOND EULER

We are very proud of our new Farm Bureau queen, Mary Ann Stacy, who was selected last Friday night. We are hopeful that she will win the district contest in Lubbock in September, so that PCFB will be represented by her in the state contest.

We are likewise proud of Celia Berry, who placed second, and will represent Parmer County in the event of illness or any other thing that might prevent Mary Ann's appearance at any event she should attend. According to the score sheets marked by the judges, there was less difference in scores of the various candidates than any we have ever had. They were all wonderful, and Farm Bureau is proud of every one of them.

You remember a week or so ago, seeing in the news that Speaker Sam Rayburn had stated that so far as he was concerned there would be no farm legislation this year, because, he said, "I have been up and down this hill as many times as I care to go." Farm Bureau had been successful in persuading Senator Johnson to bring the senate bill up for passage about 10 days previous to the speaker's statement, and then the house had so much disagreement that they would not pass on it.

Well, farmers and ranchers were not satisfied to let the only chance they had for survival be stymied by pure politics, so they again went into action. Over 20 telegrams were sent to congressmen from Parmer County Farm Bureau leaders, and the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. Many hundreds of telegrams were sent from Texas, urging reconsideration of the senate bill in the house, and it brought results; the house revised and passed the bill, and the senate approved it as amended.

Cotton farmers will have reasonable acreages, as a result of the bill. The bill is not exactly what Farm Bureau asked, but it is basically a great improvement in that it gives the farmer more freedom of choice in his operations, and to some extent leaves the government out of the marketing and storage business on some commodities. Farm Bureau's worst objection to the bill as passed, is that it gives too much authority to the secretary of agriculture in deciding acreages and supports allowable.

The temporary secretary in the office these days is Mrs. Raymond Euler. We regret the loss of Joyce Osborn who served us and you well for 11 months.

"We are smart enough to know that you who represent us can give us nothing which we have not first given you, and that in the transfer from us to you and back again, we lose a lot. And we know that if you furnish the money you will want to help us make decisions and we lose a bit more of our freedoms."

These words were part of a speech made by an Iowa

Frozen each jam offers an easy and tasty way to make use of the abundant peach crop this year, according to extension foods and nutrition specialists. It is a convenient food to have in the freezer, not only for making sandwiches or for use on toast, but also as a topping on ice cream, puddings and other desserts. This jam has fresh flavor because the peaches are not cooked.

Ingredients for about 9 six-ounce glasses are: 3 cups crushed peaches (takes about 2 1/2 pounds); 5 cups sugar; 1 package powdered pectin;

1 cup water. To prepare the fruit, wash and drain the fully ripe peaches, remove pits and skins, and crush.

To make the jam, first measure 3 cups of crushed peaches into a large mixing bowl. Add sugar, mix well, and let stand for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Dissolve the pectin in the water, bring to a boil, and boil for one minute. Add pectin solution to the fruit and sugar mixture, and stir for two minutes.

Ladle the jam into jelly glasses or into suitable freezer containers, leaving 1/2 inch space at the top. Cover the containers and let stand for 24 to 48 hours, or until the jam has set. Then cover jam with 1/8 inch layer of hot paraffin.

Uncooked peach jam can be stored in the refrigerator for a few months or in the freezer for up to a year. If it is left at room temperature it will mold or ferment in a short time. Once a container is opened the jam should be kept in the refrigerator and used within a few days.

HOT WEATHER MEALS

Though the main course of the meal is, the traditional place for the high-protein dish, you may want to reverse this in August and emphasize protein in the desert course, the U. S. Department of Agriculture suggests. Many people like a salad for the main course at hot weather lunches or dinners -- mostly salad greens and other vegetables in season or fresh fruits with cottage cheese or with slivers of American cheese or ham. Then you can build up the protein in the meal by a milk and egg dessert. Both these foods are plentiful and always a good buy as far as nutrition is concerned.

Baked custard meets this specification. It's an old time favorite, suitable for all ages in the family, easy to make in the cool of the evening and put in the refrigerator to serve chilled the next day. Another handsome old time custard dessert is floating island. Or you can serve soft custard as a sauce over sponge cake, angel food or loaf cake. Have custard chilled for serving.

Baked custard can be touched up so that each individual serving is different. An easy way to do it is to line up six custard cups and put a few raisins in one, a little nutmeg in another, a cooked peach half in a third, honey in a fourth, chocolate chips in a fifth-- and then fill all six cups with the custard mixture and bake. When done, this assortment is turned upside down into individual dessert dishes so that the trimmings are on top. The one plain custard may be topped with frozen strawberry sauce or sliced fresh peaches at serving time. If you grease the custard cups with butter or margarine, it helps make nutmeg or the peach half stay in place.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The Great Plains area has long experienced problems peculiar to its environment. To provide a means of minimizing the hazards of farming and ranching caused by the extreme climatic conditions of the area, a program of conservation for the Great Plains was authorized by Public Law 1021.

The objective of the program is to assist farmers and ranchers in developing and carrying out, on a voluntary basis, a plan of operations that will bring about greater stability through soil and water conservation practices. Public Law 1021 provides that a farmer or rancher who enters into a contract under the Great Plains Conservation plan will agree to carry out his conservation and land use plan for his farm or ranch in accordance with the schedule in the plan.

In return for this agreement, the secretary of agriculture contracts to share the cost of carrying out the planned conservation practices for which cost-sharing is available.

The farmer or rancher can get help in determining the capabilities of his land and planning the kind of farming that will help him cope with the climatic problems of the Great Plains. He also can get technical help in installing his planned conservation practices and in making land use changes.

Cost-sharing help provided under the Great Plains Conservation Program is for a period of years instead of one year at a time. It provides cost-sharing for a combination of conservation practices that a farmer or rancher wants to undertake over a period of years. These practices represent the complete farm or ranch conservation needs.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

In recent years there has been much controversy over the cake baking question. Whether to mix her own batter or to buy mixes is a problem that just about every homemaker has to decide for herself. It has been said that beginners usually make better cakes with mixes than do homemakers who have been cooking a long time.

This is generally true because too many more experienced cooks mix in some of their experience along with the prepared mixture and it is usually better to follow the directions printed on the packages to the letter.

An article we ran across recently was entitled "Cakes—Yesterday and Today." It was very interesting and we are passing it along for you to read.

"Back in the sixteenth century, when New York was still a wilderness, England was beginning to develop the fine art of cake baking. By Colonial times, there was no higher evidence of a good homemaker than the baking of a perfect cake.

"In the old days, most cakes resembled a yeast bread enriched with eggs, sugar, and fruit. Baking a cake was an important event and required the work of the entire domestic household. These cakes were huge in size. Flour was measured by the peck, other ingredients by the pound and eggs by the dozen.

"Since sugar came in large hunks, it took hours to blend it with the butter. And beating two or three dozen eggs was quite a task. Recipes for cakes were cherished and carefully handed down as a prized heritage from one generation to another.

"Sometimes they were in manuscript form, but more often the ingredients were simply memorized and passed along by word of mouth. Today, there are many kinds of cakes, with specialized ingredients such as cake flour and baking powder, and established techniques and rules to follow for good results every time.

"Recipes for delicious cakes, which require a minimum of work, have been developed and approved by experts. Fine cakes are still the mark of a good cook, but recipes are no longer written in complicated manuscript form, or trusted to memory." The following rules were then given for baking perfect cakes and cookies every time.

1. Plan your baking before you start.
2. Measure accurately.
3. Follow directions to the letter.

Basically, there are two different kinds of cakes. All cakes fall into one of these classifications—cakes with fat and cakes without fat. There are three different kinds of cakes with fat. Butter cakes contain butter or some other fat and a chemical agent.

Chiffon cakes contain cooking (salad) oil. Pound cakes are based on the old recipe. They contain one pound each of butter, sugar, eggs, and flour. They are leavened by the air incorporated during creaming and in the beaten eggs, and the steam created during baking.

Angel food or white sponge cakes contain only the whites of the eggs and yellow or true sponge cakes contain both the whites and yolks. These cakes are made without fat. Originally they did not contain baking powder or soda, but were leavened by the air which was beaten into the eggs.

Most recipes have been modified and almost without exception angel food and white sponge cakes call for baking powder. Cakes of this type are usually baked in tube pans to allow heat to come up through the center.

The MARTIN SYSTEM is a Drier & Storage Unit all in one. Yet it costs little more than ordinary storage facilities.

Large Farmer or Small Farmer - You can follow the 4 key steps to profits with A MARTIN HARVEST HOARDER SYSTEM.

1. Harvest early—at 33% moisture content. Gain 10 to 15 more bushels per acre because your crop doesn't stay in the field to dry, where it is at the mercy of the sun, wind and rain.
2. Dry with low cost forced air. Drying with forced air is cheap because the air is free and it takes only pennies a day to run the fan. Dry without danger of fire.
3. Store in the same bin. Just turn off the drying switch and your crop is in storage. No expensive handling equipment or labor. Condition the grain at any time by turning a switch.
4. Sell or feed more, better crops. Sell No. 1 corn or grain and you are free to sell any time of the year on better market. Whether you feed or sell, the greater profits will soon pay for your Martin system.

"MY ELECTRIC HOME FREEZER MAKES MEAL PLANNING SO

SAYS
Mrs. H. S. Hackfield,
2132 56th STREET,
LUBBOCK, TEXAS

"An electric home freezer is the perfect answer to meal planning, especially for working wives," says Mrs. Hackfield. She continues, "There are many advantages of owning a freezer. For example, it's such a convenient appliance and, because we can buy in quantity when prices are lowest, our freezer lets us realize a big savings in food costs. But, getting back to meal planning -- when I have odd moments I can prepare complete meals in advance, freeze them, and then when we have dinner guests it's a simple matter just to 'heat 'n serve.'" The same advantages that Mrs. Hackfield speaks of can be yours just as soon as you get that electric home freezer you've been wanting for so long -- why wait -- there's never been a better time to buy!

Building Permits Here $202,582 This Year

A total of $202,582 in construction has been recorded at the City Hall in Friona during the period from January 1, 1958 until July 31, 1958, announces Albert Field, city manager, this week.

In breaking down the report, Field says the largest total for new buildings was during the month of April with $51,380 being recorded in that period.

The largest business building, or improvement, permit during this seven month period was a permit for $30,000 issued to the Friona Growers and Shippers. This was for the construction of their new steel and concrete addition to their old facilities.

In the residence department, Hank Outland's permit for the construction of an $18,000 home on West Fifth Street was the largest.

"Made $15 an acre grazing wheat—cut a 40-bu. crop"

Bill D. Wood, who farms 640 acres, says: "My records show the dollar profit in applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant to wheat land. On my irrigated wheat, I paid for my seed and fertilizer and made $15 net an acre grazing it, when I used Phillips 66 Ammonia. The next year, I cut a 40-bushel wheat crop."

Other successful Southwestern farmers use Phillips 66 ammonia to give them higher grain yields... and more profitable grazing. The 82% nitrogen in Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives young wheat a fast start, supplies plenty of lush, protein-rich forage that puts on more beef at less cost per pound.

Many of these farmers plow down Phillips 66 ammonia in the fall on maize land. They know that the 82% nitrogen helps decompose crop residue, to provide extra plant food and make the soil more productive. Remember, Phillips 66 ammonia gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Hydes Have Family Party

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hyde were hosts to a family party in their home Sunday of last week. All of their children, in-laws, and grandchildren were at home at the same time for the first time in several years.

One son, Rev. Omer Hyde and his wife and children, Richard, Treva and Paula, of Olympia, Wash., had not been here in about two years. Rev. Hyde is a home missionary in the Pacific Northwest.

FHA Notes

The Friona FHA Chapter honored the freshman girls with a get-acquainted party in the back yard of the Ernest Osborn home Friday evening. Mrs. Osborn is the chapter advisor.

After a game session directed by LaVon Fleming, a skit depicting the activities of the chapter was presented by Celia Weatherly, Cynthia Ann Caffey, and Johnnie Tomlin. Watermelon was served by the executive council.

Those present were Mrs. Osborn, Nancy Outland, LaVon Fleming, Johnnie Tomlin, Pat Foster, Mary Jane Grubbs, Mary Ann Boggess, Betty Barnett, Brenda Collier, Linda Castleberry, Pamela Roden, Carol Coffey, Su Zan Harper, Jerre Cochran, and Carolyn Baxter.

Also, Janet Snead, Virginia Fuks, Linda O'Brian, Karen O'Brian, Mikie Welch, Joan Duncan, Mary Hadley, Jo Ann Altman, Ineta Stowers, Betty Drake, Donna Baker, Celia Weatherly, and Donna Blackburn.

Also, Nelda Douglas, Raye Jene Jones, Cynthia Catey, Charlotte Bock, Levada Hand, Erna Lou Drake, Monty Baker, Geneva Floyd, Faye Scales, Jean Wilson, Judy Taylor, Kitty McLean, Janice Bock, Jimette McLean, Janice Wright, Suzanne Taylor, Lawana Houlette, and Phyllis Bainum.

COOK OF THE WEEK ALSO RAISES FLOWERS---Mrs. Sally Cocannouer points out some of her flowers to coffee-hounds June Floyd and Dave McReynolds. In addition to her duties around her home, Mrs. C finds time to raise flowers and has a back yard that would make many folks burn with envy.

A more appropriate title for this feature this week might be Flower Grower of the Week. Mrs. Jim Cocannouer, who is known to all her friends as Sally, is an enthusiastic flower grower, as well as a wonderful cook. Sally says it would be difficult for her to determine whether she had rather work in her kitchen turning out good things to eat or working in her flower garden growing beautiful flowers.

The garden work is really a joint hobby which she and Jim share. "Without his assistance and interest, I would never be able to do the yard work," she says.

The Cocannouers have lived in Friona about two years but have lived in this section of the country for a number of years. They have lived at Lubbock, Hereford, Sunray, and on the North Plains. At one time they moved to Idaho, but soon returned to the Panhandle of Texas.

Although Jim and Sally have only one child and no grandchildren, the cookie jar in their home is hardly ever empty. They have a number of young friends who visit them often. Their daughter is Mrs. Floyd Crume, who also lives here.

When two members of the Star staff called on Sally for the purpose of making her picture, she was in the flower garden and graciously consented to having her picture snapped amid the flowers.

The Cocannouers are active members of the Church of Christ and the Children's Home in Portales is a regular recipient of baked goods from Sally's kitchen.

Her specialty is cakes, cookies, and sweet breads and she has a large collection of recipes for each of these, as well as other tasty dishes.

She gave us three recipes for sweet bread and the first two of these we can vouch for as she served us generous portions of each along with a cup of coffee when we called on her.

1 teaspoon baking powder

Mix above ingredients thoroughly and place in oblong baking dish. Heat one No. 2 can of cherries and 1/2 cup sugar. Pour over batter in baking dish and bake until brown.

God Is Not Mocked

Most of us are aware that God requires some things of man; that he has a code of ethics to govern us; that he has promised many good things to those who live in harmony with his will; that he threatens the disobedient with punishment. Why, then, do not the most of us try harder to keep his commandment? I suppose we think that we can mock God.

But God's Word says, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit reap eternal life." (Galatians 6:7-8)

Dear, eternity-bound friends, stop sewing to the flesh. The consequences are too great. Instead, use your energy, talent, time, and money in such a way that heaven will be yours to enjoy. Anyway, the life of obedience to God is much better than a life of service to self.

in & around FRIONA WEEK JUNE

While reading one of our exchange papers Thursday afternoon we ran across the following story which will be of interest to Frionans since the Diane referred to in the story is a former resident of our city. The story was printed in a column entitled Deck's Didactics, which is one column we never fail to read. It appears in the Wellington Leader and is written by Deskins Wells, father of Diane McDowell, who recently moved from here to California.

It reads as follows: "Not having heard from my beautiful daughter recently I phoned to California to see if all were well. 'We are all fine,' came the cheerful answer, 'and I have had a letter written for a week but did not have any four-cent stamps.'" "Henry was listening to the conversation and later in the afternoon I saw him very busy with envelopes, stamps, and writing paper. After he had addressed the letter to his sister, I asked him what he had been doing.

"Well, I have been stamping and addressing envelopes for Diane. I put a three-cent stamp and a one-cent stamp on one addressed to you and mother, and I put two two-cent stamps on one addressed to you and mother."

"I asked about what news he told her in his letter. 'Oh, I just told her what they taught me in the first grade—that 1 plus 3 equals 4 and that 2 plus 2 equals the same thing.'"

We live in a constantly changing world and most of us feel that our experiences are unique. After reading some of the writings of Cicero, who lived 2000 years ago, concerning the Pitfalls of Man, we have reached the conclusion that humanity hasn't really changed very much since his time.

He had been an invalid for several years and at the time of his death was living in Midland. Services were in the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Lubbock last week. Interment was in Lubbock also. He is survived by his wife, Ruthie, and a daughter, Dolly Ruth of the home. Other survivors are two sons, Ben L. and G. H., and another daughter, Mattie Lea.

El Dorado, Kansas, Times: "Teachers are going to get a break through a new Treasury Department ruling which will give them refunds retroactive to and including 1954 for sums they spent for advanced training courses each summer. . . . This action should serve to make teachers more eager to increase their proficiency in future years, and will be a benefit throughout the country as well as to the nation itself." Encourage your youngsters to drink both milk and fruit juice. Studies in Iowa revealed that many children drink fruit juice as a substitute for milk. Milk offers several important nutrients including calcium, especially valuable to growing youngsters. Citrus juice offers valuable vitamin C—so drink both.

Virginia, Minn., Mesabi Daily News: "Churches, the homes and the schools appear to be fighting not much better than a holding action for the minds of the populace. In many a city or hamlet, no matter its size, there is an underworld organized and effective in striving to take over. The larger the locality, the richer the material rewards, and against these elements the conscientious citizen must always do battle, at the ballot box and in the public forum."

London, Ohio, The Madison Press: "Independent electric association are being penalized by the Internal Revenue Service because some of their advertising has attempted to explain the issues in the private versus public power fight. . . . Doesn't private industry have the right—possibly the duty—to inform the public about issues that might affect the survival or economic well-being of that industry?"

In recent years, says the National Dairy Council, about 20 cents of the average family food dollar has been used by consumers to purchase dairy foods. Yet dairy foods delivery to the consumer, much higher percentages of needed nutrients. For example, milk and milk products furnish more than three-fourths of the nation's calcium requirement, one fourth the protein, half the country's supply of riboflavin.

Olympia, Washington, Daily Olympian: "That now famous secret meeting of top national gangsters last fall in Apalachin, New York, must have been the biggest mass gathering of criminal leaders in world history. . . . The fellow who didn't make the Apalachin guest list probably doesn't have much of a future in crookdom. He'd better look around for another game. He might even try going straight."
