As a veteran "watcher" of "Queen for a Day" on TV for a number of years, not voluntarily, we must say, we will be forced to agree with one of our citizens who brought forth the idea that "there must not be anybody in good health in the entire State of California."

When asked what she meant by saying all the folks out in the "Sunshine State" must be ill, she replied that every day she watches TV, there on the screen appear hundreds of people all sicker than the other fellow, and pouring out their troubles over the screen.

Y'know she has a point. I wonder what the Chamber of Commerce of the state of California would think of this attitude toward the show?

A humorous side of the past election arose over a cup of coffee the other day.

One of the "candidates", one of the involuntary ones I should add, said that he had come to the conclusion that Friona was filled with people who don't tell the truth.

"You mean we are a city of liars?" we asked.

"Yep," he said. "If all the people had voted for me in that election that told me they were going to write in my name had followed through, I would have been elected," he said.

"As it happened," he continued, "I got only one vote—and that was my own."

Hm-m-m, the gall of some folks.

Friona's Chamber of Commerce is always talking about the virtues of our city and hailing it as "the pearl of the Plains" etc.

We have come to the conclusion that we have a "copy-right" or sumpin' of that nature on another little item.

We've heard of gasoline wars and other types of wars—but Friona is now going through the throes of a new type of war—a COFFEE WAR.

Now this to us is almost a sacred subject. As one who considers himself along the top in coffee consumption, the subject of nickel and dime coffee hits us right in the coffee cup, or should we say, "the pocketbook."

At Friona's three cafes, one drugstore and a boarding house the battle is still at a stalemate.

Two of the cafes and the drugstore have held onto the 10 cent mark for coffee for over two weeks while one cafe and the boarding house have advertised the fact they still serve nickel coffee.

When the "war" first began we heard rumors that it would only last a couple of days.

But now, as time drags along, the battle has assumed the proportions of becoming something on the order of the Korean Conflict.

Now don't misunderstand us, this is all in fun, and we still enjoy sipping coffee at all the "stops."

And anyhow, the word is getting around the country that Friona has the distinction of having a "coffee war."

Friona now boasts a new "fust" for this area—none other than a green sidewalk. Yep, that is just what we said—a green sidewalk.

Our landlord, the Friona State Bank, has been busy at work paving the sidewalks around The Star and Hank Outland's place of business.

All rocked along just fine until Thursday when we stumbled out of our office and lo and behold! There was Casey down sprinkling this green powder all over the new cement.

Upon inquiry we found the opinion of most of the "sidewalk engineers" who passed along was that in this way the bank could fool people into thinking they had pretty grass growing along there and at the same time would say to themselves "My, don't they keep that grass cut neat?"

Our only comment was that they should have added a dab of yellow here and there in the cement to represent our lavish crop of dandelions.

After all—the bank's grass shouldn't be any different from everyone else's grass.

New Office Opens Tuesday

O. J. Beene, agent for the Southeast Life Insurance Company, opened an office in suite five of the Mabry Building Tuesday morning. This office, vacant since Charles Osborn Insurance Agency moved out several months ago, is between Mary Lou's Beauty Shop and Steve Messenger's office. Beene has been a resident of Friona since 1941 and operated the City Drug Store at the corner of Sixth and Main until about two years ago. He is past commander of the American Legion and also served one term on the city commission.

39 Seniors Graduate Tonight

Climaxing a week of final examinations coupled with various social activities, 39 seniors will walk across the stage Thursday (tonight) in the Friona High School auditorium and receive their diplomas from Cordie Potts, vice-president of the Board of Trustees for the Friona Independent School District.

Commencement program will begin at 8 with Nancy Outland playing the professional and Charles Hough giving the invocation.

Following a musical presentation by Jonnie Hand, Barbara O'Brian will give the salutatory address. Betty Agee will then give the valedictory address.

After another musical presentation by Jonnie Hand, Potts will present the long-coveted sheepskins.

After the presentation of diplomas, Dillie M. Kelley and John R. Cook will give short talks.

Plan Varied Careers
A survey made by a Star reporter this week revealed that the plans for the members of the graduating class vary a great deal. After spending most of the time together for the past several years, the paths of the group will begin to go different directions almost as soon as the bus is unloaded following the senior trip.

Fifteen of the class members have never attended school anywhere except at Friona. They are Larry Fairchild, Charles Hough, Eva Nell Thomas, Barbara O'Brian, John Claude Miller, Jan Edelman, J. Bryant Dukes, George Terry, Nolen Johnson, Linda Gay Gee, Phila May Buske, Peggy Sue Taylor, Darrell Thompson, Billie Rae McKee, and Lila Gay Buske.

Two of the graduates, Betty Agee and Judy Barnett, started to school together at Black and later enrolled in Friona Schools. There is one set of twins in the class, the Buske girls; one brother and sister team, Jimmy and Margaret Mabry; two sisters, Madeline and Catherine Chang of Hong Kong; and two cousins, Barbara O'Brian and Larry Fairchild.

Two members of the class who plan to take the same path are Larry Fairchild and Paula Neel. They plan to be married June 10 and live here. Larry will farm in the Lakeview community.

Two others who plan to follow the same path are Phila May Buske and Ruby Lee Grubbs. These two plan to enter Jessie Lee's Beauty School at Lubbock in the near future.

The newest member of the class is Frankie Coffman, who moved here from Farwell since mid-term and plans to work for Friona Motor Company after graduation. Some of the boys who plan to farm are Paul Averett, Gene Wright, and Darrell Thompson.

Jan Edelman plans to study science and psychology at the University of New Mexico; Billie Rae McKee, Peggy Sue Taylor, Jerry Hinkle, and Weldon Fairchild are making plans to enter West Texas State this fall, and George Terry plans to enroll at Baylor University at Waco.

Another senior who plans to be married during the summer is Eva Nell Thomas. She will become the bride of Bobby Stovall of Dimmitt in August. Betty Agee and Helen Hamilton have chosen Eastern New Mexico University. Bryant Dukes wants to be a telegrapher and will take special training for this work.

Those who plan to enter Texas Tech are Judy Barnett, Linda Gee, Lila Gay Buske, Leon Massey, and Jake LaFavers. Jerry London will go into the custom combine business and will go to the harvest field soon. Randy Dickson and Nolen Johnson are making plans to enter Austin College at Sherman in September.

Charles Hough, Luellen McLean and John Miller plan to go to college, but haven't selected which one yet. Roy Nazworth plans to work at the Black Grain Company this summer and his future plans are very uncertain. Margaret Mabry will enroll at Lubbock Christian College, and Barbara O'Brian wants to work in Friona.

Madeline and Catherine Chang will enter nursing school in the fall.

Thursday Working Day at Cemetery

There will be a Cemetery Working Day in the city cemetery next Thursday, May 29, immediately preceding Memorial Day in Friona.

Claborn Funeral Home will erect a tent in the cemetery and refreshments will be on hand to be given out to those persons working toward beautifying the lots in the cemetery.

With the coming of summer and the latest rains, coupled with the breakdown of the city's lawnmowers, the lots are in need of a cleaning up and in this way it is hoped the cemetery will be more attractive for services slated Memorial Day.

The cemetery is located north and east of Friona. Take Highway 60 east and turn north at Marr's and Wells' Dairies, go a mile north and half mile east to get to the cemetery.

A special Memorial Day program is in the planning process sponsored by the American Legion for Friday, May 30.

Plans have been completed for the annual court of awards for Girl Scouts in the Friona neighborhood to be Sunday afternoon in the high school auditorium from 2 to 4. Rev. Leon Hill of Amarillo will be the guest speaker.

A number of awards will be given Girl Scouts and leaders. Mrs. Ralph Wilson and Mrs. J. G. McFarland will receive pins in recognition of 15 years service with the organization.

Mrs. Russel O'Brian, neighborhood chairman, urges all parents and friends to attend the program. It is not necessary for anyone to be a Girl Scout or have a Girl Scout in the family. The program will be open to the public.

Our landlord, the Friona State Bank, has been busy at work paving the sidewalks around The Star and Hank Outland's place of business.

All rocked along just fine until Thursday when we stumbled out of our office and lo and behold! There was Casey down sprinkling this green powder all over the new cement.

He is past commander of the American Legion and also served one term on the city commission.

SINGULAR OR PLURAL?

Anyone calling the city office should not be surprised to have Elda Hart, city secretary, ask whether the call is for Field or Fields. Maybe it would simplify matters if the caller would simply ask for Albert or Clyde.

The new city manager is Albert Field and Clyde Fields has been a city employee for several years. Sometimes telephone calls can be very confusing and having two employees with names so similar would probably further complicate matters.

Pioneer Publisher To Observe Birthday

Uncle John White will observe his 90th birthday Wednesday, May 28. He is a long time resident of Friona and is a former editor and publisher of the Friona Star.

In spite of the number of years Uncle John has lived, he is still active in the printing business and operates a print shop in the northwest corner of Friona. The Friona Star staff takes this opportunity to join his many friends of the area in saying, "Happy Birthday, Uncle John."

WOODY COMPLETES COURSE

Ben R. Woody, a member of the Farmer County Implement Company service staff, has completed an intensive course in advance Oldsmobile servicing and maintenance techniques at the General Motors Training Center in Oklahoma City. He returned to Friona late last week.

Humble Station Formal Opening Set for Saturday

Dave Hick's Humble Service Station, located at the corner of Highway 60 and the Bootleg Road in Friona, will observe a formal opening Saturday.

Special feature of the opening will be $50 in Gunn Bros. Stamps free to the first ten customers.

Hicks and his family recently moved to Friona from California and have since made their home in Mrs. Crow's rent house.

Beginning in June, Hicks has stated that his station will remain open 24 hours a day, thus becoming Friona's only service station to offer 24 hours service on the highway.

Also as a part of Hick's plans is the opening of Dave's Coin-Operated Laundry, which is now under construction on the lot with the Humble Station.

The new laundry will offer automatic laundry service plus automatic clothes drying to the residents of this area.

Setliff Buys Shorthorns

Dave Setliff, who farms in the Hub community, recently purchased three cows, a junior yearling heifer, and a bull calf, from Tom E. Johnson of Levelland.

The new animals are purebred Milking Shorthorns and the record of the transfer of ownership has been made by the American Milking Shorthorn Society at Springfield, Mo.

MOD Committee Meets in Bovina

Parmer's County's March of Dimes Drive for 1959 was discussed at an executive committee meeting of the MOD Chapter Tuesday night in Bovina Restaurant.

Hugh Moseley, county chairman, presided at the regular session, which was attended by eight committee members and one visitor. Primary business was the paying of the chapter's bills.

Next regular meeting will be September 16. It will also be in Bovina Restaurant. Mike Hyre, northwest Texas representative of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, will be guest speaker. Also, a film will be shown. Moseley announces. Visitors are invited to attend.

Present at the Tuesday night session were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Euler, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson, Herbert Potts, Cary Joe Magness, Mrs. Nell Walling, Wilma Liner, and Moseley.

Mrs. J. M. Bradley returned home Wednesday from Amarillo where she had spent several days visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Earl Coldiron and son. Coldiron is Mrs. Bradley's son.

In order to keep the insurance rating as a key rate town the city has to send either the fire marshal, or his assistant, plus two other qualified firemen to the school.

Clyde Fields, an employee of the city and assistant fire marshal, was named as one of the men to make the trip with the other two men to be named by the fire department.

The city will pay the salaries and expenses of Fields and one other man while the Friona Insurance Agencies will foot the bill for the third man's salary and expenses at the school.

Members of the fire department voted to select Albert Field as the new fire marshal to replace Roy Wilson at that post.

In a rather humorous turn of events the council voted to name R. L. Fleming as mayor of Friona. This was necessary as under our new form of city government the new council must select the mayor from the slate of members of the council.

Council members discussed at length several other subjects including the purchase of a moving machine, disposition of run-down and obsolete equipment and paving maintenance.

Council members present included Mayor Fleming, Glenn Reeve, Eddie Meil, Osborn, Smith and City Manager Albert Field.

Members of the eighth grade in Friona School will receive their diplomas "ushering" them into high school at commencement exercises slated Friday night at 8 in the high school auditorium.

Top students in the eighth grade are James Perkins, valedictorian, and E. C. Wilson, salutatorian.

The program for the eighth graders is as follows: Pat Foster will play the professional followed by the invocation by Rev. Hugh Blaylock. The salutatorian, Wilson, and valedictorian, Perkins, will give their addresses in that order.

The addresses will be followed by the presentation of students by Baker Duggins, principal of the junior high school. Hoyt Smith, member of the Board of Trustees of the Friona Independent School District, will present the diplomas to the graduates.

Several scholarships which were slated to be presented were still "in the unfinished stage" when press time arrived.

Following the presentation of the various awards the seniors of '58 filed out of the auditorium as the students sang "Auld Lang Syne." Then as the students began singing the school song, the juniors, next year's seniors, took their places in the front of the auditorium.

Pat Foster accompanied the singing on the piano.

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

IF YOU DON'T VOTE, DON'T GRIPE

Since last week we have overheard many people in town talking in not too kind terms about the election results.

Now I haven't kept an accurate count of all the folks that are doing the griping, nor do I care to do so—but one thing is for sure.

If all the people that stand around on the street corners and in the coffee shops would get off their respective padding and drop by the voting boxes each time an election comes around, we would set records all over the place.

It is too bad that the American people on the whole have come to regard the privilege of voting as something that should be taken for granted.

Is our memory so short that we can't remember some loved one who died during World Wars I, II or the "Korean Police Action"?

These boys died in vain if we don't exercise the right to vote.

Lots of folks have griped about the number of write-ins. Well, one thing for sure, those folks who voted on the write-ins WERE THERE AND VOTED!

Write-ins are always a person's privilege to exercise if he, or she, sees fit to do so.

But the way we look at it, each time an election comes around we sit down at this machine and write an editorial concerning "get out and vote."

We were pleased at the regular election in our city as over 300 folks voted. That was something to be proud of—then came the school board and county trustee election and the numbers took a slide downhill.

Last week the number slid again.

It does not do one bit of good to sit around and gripe if you—at the time when it counts—don't vote for the man of your choice.

What About Poll Taxes?

While kicking around the subject above, a person or two with whom we were talking brought up the subject of poll taxes.

Now we're not going to argue the point of constitutionality of the poll tax.

We have some rather definite ideas about that anyhow.

But—we do have one idea about the poll tax that we would like to know what you think about.

Instead of paying for the privilege of voting—which at times is only a bare sprinkling of the persons of voting age, how about turning the thing around and have a list at the polls, and check off each person's name as they come in to vote.

After the voting takes place, send a "fine" or whatever you want to call it, to the people who DIDN'T vote.

It looks to us that this would bring more money into the till, for this day and time there are more who don't than do. And, in our eyes, this would put the penalty where it belongs. On those disinterested people who don't give a hang what or who is running until it's over.

The Tuesday morning meeting of the WSCS of the Friona Methodist Church honored the nine new members who have joined the organization this year. Corsages were presented to Shirley McReynolds, Ruthie Fite, Diane McDowell, Betty Louise Rector, Jean Gore, Juanda Jarrell, Beegie Ginsburg, Marie Carroll, and Mrs. J. W. Roberts.

The devotional was given by Mrs. R. N. Gore. Mrs. Jake Lamb presented a life membership pin to Mrs. R. N. Gore and Mrs. Joe Moyer presented one to Mrs. Kenyth Cass.

Mrs. Jean K. Anthony presided over the business meeting. The group voted to approve the ratification of the racial policies charter in our society. The closing prayer was led by Mrs. Jake Lamb.

Club Members Have Workshop

Highlight of the Tuesday evening meeting of the Progressive Study Club was a club workshop. The thought for the day was given by Mamie Lou Welch. Committee reports were given and during the business meeting plans were made to buy a freezer and one rocker for the Parmer County Community Hospital as a community service project.

Thelma Johnson and Lawana Crume, hostesses, served brownies and cold drinks to the eighteen members, who were present, and one guest, Virginia Martinez.

New officers will be installed at the next regular meeting of the club.

To Lubbock

Mrs. Lucy Jones and Mrs. George Baker spent the weekend visiting in Lubbock. Mrs. Baker was a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Florence Boyce, and Mrs. Jones visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Jones.

RAYE JENE JONES and LEON MASSEY

Chapter President, Sweetheart at FHS

Raye Jene Jones, Friona FFA Sweetheart, and Leon Massey, FFA chapter president, are pictured above as they sample a bowl of the ice cream made by the boys taking agriculture at school Monday.

Raye Jene is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. (Shorty) Jones and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Jones and L. M. Crow.

In addition to being elected sweetheart of the Friona FFA Chapter, Miss Jones is president-elect of the Friona FHA Chapter. She has been vice-president of the FHA, cheerleader of the pep squad two years, delegate to Student Faculty Congress State Convention, and 1957 football queen.

Leon Massey, a graduating senior, has been an outstanding ag student, according to J. T. Gee, agriculture teacher at Friona. Other honors include captain of the football team, recipient of the '57 FHS outstanding agricultural student award and president of the senior class.

Massey's projects have included several phases of agriculture, including field crops and feeding cattle.

Concerning his project work Massey says, "The financial gain is hard to summarize. The experience cannot be written down, but I feel that I have made a net profit of approximately $2400 during my four years in studying ag at FHS."

Leon plans to enter Texas Tech at Lubbock this fall and major in agronomy.

Guests In Wise Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wise went to Brunswick, Ga., last week to get S3C and Mrs. James Widner and daughter, Angelita. Widner, who is stationed at Lakehurst, N. J., will return to his base June 24.

Mrs. Widner and Angelita will remain with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wise, until he completes his period of enlistment in the navy. The group returned to Friona Wednesday of last week.

Frionan Elected Vice-President

Texas Tech's Student Religious Council has elected officers for 1958-59. Deann Buske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Buske and junior home economics major, has been elected vice-president.

Deann, who is a 1955 graduate of Friona High School, has been very active in the Baptist Student Union at Tech and was recently elected to the state executive body of the state-wide organization.

The army chaplain was preaching earnestly on the subject, "You can improve yourself if you improve your thoughts." He concluded by saying, "What you are is determined by your thoughts."

Whereupon one soldier nudged his neighbor and whispered, "In that case I'm either a pin-up girl or a Cadillac."

In modern TV parlance, high school grads have reached life's "First Plateau", which no person or circumstances can take from them.

But what about life's contest from now on?

Some will go on to reach higher plateaus in the field of education. Others will enter directly into their life's work — on the farm.

Woman's Club Has Gerontology Study

Friona Woman's Club met at the club house Wednesday afternoon with 17 members and 15 guests present. The program on gerontology was titled "Looking Forward To Later Years." The quotation used was "Don't submit to the problems of age, outwit them." The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Hugh Blaylock.

Mrs. Mary Officer, who was the oldest member present, chose for her talk "The Golden Years." The following quotes were taken from her talk: "Gerontology is a very big word. It means the science pertaining to the problems of growing old. . . The invention of false teeth keeps us from being a generation of old witches. . . Age is an attitude of life more than the number of years one has been alive. . . You can't keep from getting old, but you can keep from getting mean. . . Bad traits we have in our youth tend to become worse with passing years."

She further explained, "Needs of the aged may be summed up simply by three 'somes'—somewhere to live, something to do, and someone to care." She also added, "It may be that to quit doing some things would be the smartest thing you ever did." Roll call was answered by the members relating the event that stood out most in their early remembrances and introducing their guests. Mrs. H. L. Outland, soloist, sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. W. Dixon, Mrs. Leo McLellan, vice-president, had charge of the meeting. She also made pictures of the oldest member, Mrs. Officer, and oldest guest, Mrs. Charles Schlenker. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Schlenker and Sally Kendrick, the youngest guest present, and Mrs. Officer.

Guests signing the register were Mesdames F. N. Welch, H. T. Blaylock, W. C. Osborn, David Moseley, Jake Lamb, Elmo Dean, Charles Schlenker, H. L. Outland, U. S. Akens, H. K. Kendrick and Sally, C. L. Vestal Sr., Bert Chitwood, S. A. Freeman, and Joe Collier.

The next meeting will be May 28 and will begin with a 1 p.m. luncheon. Roll call will be answered with suggestions for programs for next year. This will be the last meeting of the season.

Films Being Made Of County Records

It's only a matter of days until Parmer County Clerk Hugh Moseley will have one less worry.

Films are being made of Parmer County's records. Should the records be destroyed by fire, flood, or what-have-you, the records, or at least films of them, will be safe.

Ernie Johnston, of Southern Microfilm Corporation, Houston, began making pictures of the volumes of county records Monday. At the time he started, Johnston estimated the job would take "about 10 days."

Johnston's equipment includes a camera, mounted some six feet above a table, and proper lighting. The camera takes a picture of two pages of a volume at a time.

When the film is developed, negatives will be stored in a fireproof bank vault where they will be safe at a time of disaster.

The idea, which is similar to the way banks make films of the checks they handle, was approved by county commissioners court in a recent session.

In explaining the value of having films of the records, Moseley explained, "It's like insurance. We hope we never have any use for them but in case something happens to the records, these films will be invaluable."

Cost of the operation will be between $1300 and $1400. Moseley doesn't plan to have ALL the records filmed this year—just the most important ones. Later, the remainder may be film-recorded, he said. It will be necessary for new records, which are constantly being added at the clerk's office in the courthouse, to be filmed about "every 12 or 18 months," Moseley pointed out. At one of these future "sittings" he may have those records filmed which won't be this time.

Parmer County's records, none of which have been destroyed in almost 60 years, are contained in some 200 volumes which have an average of 640 pages each.

In regard to his operation, Johnston explained that a similar plan is used by the Library of Congress and that, in addition to serving as protection in case of disaster, the records—on film—will weigh about three pounds as compared with an estimated three tons that the original volumes weigh.

Kinds of records which are being filmed include deeds, deeds of trust, mechanic's liens, wills, and indexes to the records.

If the originals are destroyed, a new, full-size set may be prepared from the films. "And the law requires that a new set be made if the originals are destroyed," Moseley said.

Though the county wasn't established until several years later, the first records involving Parmer County people dates back to 1901.

Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott of Farwell presented a study on the importance of keeping family files at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Hub Home Demonstration Club at the community center.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Genny Bingham, to Lydia Tomlin, Alma Lou Cannon, Lavon Renner and Vicky, Ila Daniel, Francis McGuire, Luna Fleming, Helen Fallwell, and Melba Burleson; Also Jinx Snead, Jo Hand and Rex, Taleta Mabry, Connie Bingham, Jimmie Lou Wainscott, and Christine Shirley.

Do you realize what a person would have to do in worshipping God if we are still under the Old Testament? It would be indeed necessary to obey it if it were still binding. Animals would have to be burned on the altar. Incense would have to be offered to God. Circumcision of all male children the eighth day would be required. The atonement would be by animal blood and not the blood of Christ. The feast of Pentecost would have to be kept once each year. The Passover was another annual feast binding under the law, and the feast of Tabernacles would have to be kept at the stated time. No work could be done on the sabbath day. Not even a meal could be cooked on that day. The sabbath was the seventh day of the week and would be our Saturday today. How many who claim the law is still in force are doing these things or the many other commandments binding in the law of Moses? I do not know of any.

THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

Following is some of the many passages showing the old law was taken away and a new established: "Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all—Heb. 10:9-10. The law contained a shadow of good things to come—Heb. 10:1-4. They who still hold to the old law are holding to a shadow, which has nothing but animal blood for atonement. It was impossible for animal blood to take away sins—Heb. 10:4.

THE BULWARK OF A COMMUNITY IS ITS CHURCHES

It Fills But Kills

During a severe famine in China, many of the natives of the Hunan Province ate a sort of whitish clay. This clay is very tasty but it is poisonous. Momentarily it satisfies the hunger but eventually it destroys the eater. It fills but kills. In the spiritual realm this is a perfect illustration of doctrine that denies the Person and work of our Lord Jesus Christ. Men's souls may seem to be filled with such doctrine, but eventually they must die. Only the Bread of Life can fully satisfy and give life. That Bread is Christ, who said: "I am the Bread of Life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger" (John 6:35).

Why not let the church of your choice point you the "Living Saviour?"

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADERS KNOCK HEADS—Although the weather was warm when this picture was taken it gave a feeling of fall as members of the seventh and eighth grade at Friona knocked heads during a physical education scrimmage on the football field last week. (The photographer lost the ball carrier in this picture, too—we think he's in the middle).

This he did not want to do. Friday morning he woke up just about covered with the little red bumps of measles and had to stay in bed. At noon he said, "I feel sure I can go back to school after noon. Then I will only have 1/2 day off my record."
Only one day in six years is a pretty good record, don't you think?

Car-Pickup Collide Monday; No Injuries
Minor damages and no injuries were the results in a car-pickup collision in Farwell Monday afternoon.
A 1955 Ford pickup driven by William C. Atkinson and a '37 Plymouth automobile driven by Victor M. Akers, Plainview, collided on Highway 84 east.
Both vehicles were traveling east. The accident occurred when the pickup attempted to turn left in front of the car. Deputy Sheriff Tom Atkins investigated.

in & around FRIONA WITH JUNE

It begins to look as if the anti-recession promotion has finally reached Friona. During the past week we have seen several local men wearing "Business Is Good" buttons on their lapels. There may be some things that "thinking a thing is a certain way will make it that way" will work on.

However, there are a large number of things that the theory will have absolutely no effect upon. One example is the dust that seems to collect in front of our office. When the wind is blowing, we fight a losing battle with our brooms. Then when a calm day comes along, Hank Outland of the Southwestern Public Service Company, who is our next door neighbor, sweeps his walk clean. Next Will Osborn goes to work on the walk running alongside the bank. Of course, that leaves a dirty space in the middle that no amount of ignoring will cause to go away.

The only way we have been able to figure out to get the dirt away is to use a broom and a certain amount of elbow grease. Maybe this is one of those problems that the only solution is: "If you want a thing done, do it yourself."

After looking at a list of the special days and weeks that have been officially designated during the month of June, it really isn't any wonder that August is becoming more and more popular as a month for weddings.

Some of the special events for June are International Shut-in Day, National Homemaker's Week, Movie Month, Dairy Month, National Ragweed Control Month, Portable Radio Month, Jefferson Davis' Birthday, Old Maids' Day, Let's Play Golf Week, National Flag Week, Fraternal Week, and National Expectant Father's Day; Also Father's Day, National Bow Tie Week, Ice Cream Festival, National Mayonnaise and Salad Week, Quarterly Temperance Sunday, and National Safe Boating Week. Now, if we could just add a few local events, we would just about have the calendar full.

If we tried to observe all of these, we could kill two birds with one stone by giving bow ties for Father's Day gifts. Sunday, June 15, is BOOSTER CLUB, SCHOOL OFFICIALS AND NEW SIGN—Coach Colie Huffman, Hollis Horton Jr., Ralph Roden and Dillie Kelley pose before the newly-erected electric scoreboard and clock which was bought for the football field through the efforts of the Friona Booster Club. Roden and Hollis are president and vice-president, respectively, of the Booster Club while Huffman is head coach at FHS and Kelley is superintendent.

SECTION II The Friona Star

Father's Day and National Bow Tie Week runs from June 15 through June 21. Since there are so many June events, maybe it would be better for anyone to have a wedding anniversary in August.

Contests are getting to be almost as numerous as special days and it isn't any surprise to see a contest for just about anything. If we ever run across one for the best driver in mud, we certainly intend to nominate Doris Boggess. After making a trip with her recently, we feel sure she could win such a contest easily.

In spite of the fact that her driving in the mud ability rates very highly with us, we might question her judgment when it comes to choosing when to turn off the pavement and when to stay on it. Right now we are wondering if driving in the mud will soon be a lost art. Perhaps we should start a promotion to preserve it.

There was really a lot of excitement in the Floyd household late Wednesday afternoon. Our other half has scads and scads of relatives none of us except him has ever seen and meeting a new relative is really an adventure with us. Late Wednesday one of the girls answered the telephone then announced, "It is a long distance call for Daddy."

MRS. TOM LEWIS takes this opportunity to say

LEWIS VARIETY STORE

— FRIONA —

Long distance calls generally cause some excitement, too. This one came all the way from Bovina. Hearing one side of a telephone conversation can be very puzzling sometimes, and before this one ended our curiosity was mounting every minute.

After explanations were made, we learned that Mrs. Chester Wigham of Duncan, Okla., was on the other end of the line. Since the two parties on the line were first cousins who hadn't seen one another in more than 40 years, the curious conversation we had heard was understandable.

Later in the evening we drove to Bovina to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wigham and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Rhodes and Tim. We had known Aubrey for some time but hadn't known before that his wife was related to us. The Wighams are the parents of Mrs. Rhodes. Meeting the newly located relatives was more pleasant than we had anticipated.

Our congratulations this week go to all the seniors who are graduating tonight. Our wish for you is that you attain success in whatever field of endeavor you choose to enter and make useful citizens in the community in which you live. We are going to miss you but are glad you have reached the goal you have been working for the past twelve years.

Mrs. Russel O'Brian attended a Caprock Council meeting at Lubbock Wednesday. Mrs. O'Brian is the Friona Neighborhood chairman.

Pressure Cooker Clinic Date Set

The pressure cooker clinic, which is being sponsored by the Friona and Northside Home Demonstration Clubs, has been slated for Wednesday, June 11, beginning at 1 p.m. and closing at 5, at the kitchen of the First Baptist Church.

Every resident of the surrounding area who has a cooker is urged by the presidents of these two clubs to bring the cookers in for testing. This invitation applies to everyone whether or not she is a member of the club. The clinic will be directed by Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, county HD agent.

Eighth Grade Finishes Thursday

Eighth grade graduation exercises were last Thursday evening at the high school auditorium. The stage was decorated in the class colors, orchid and white.

Valedictorian was John Agee and the salutatory honors went to Debbie Hawkins. Class history was read by Jimmy Broadhurst and class will by Ann Mitchell. The entire class sang "Zoar Our Watchword" while the parting charge of the seventh grade was given by Richard Chitwood.

Bill Curry was speaker for the occasion. After the diplomas were presented by E. T. Ford, a school board member, and Fred Wilbanks, elementary principal, the response was given by Paul Wilbanks.

Others seated on the stage with the class were A. L. Mitchell, R. A. Hartzell, and Superintendent J. G. Ward, with Rosemary Agee at the piano. Class members not already mentioned were James Brown, Gary Foster, Donnie Smith, David Koelzer, Eva Dean Ivy, Wanda Bean, Joe Tartar, Don Watson, Robert White, Larry Strahan, Janice Darling, David Smith, Luella Burreson, Jimmie Dale Seaton, Cooper Young, and Sammy Blackwell.

Escorts were Patricia Peterson and Eugene Houston with Sharon Parham, Gayle Robinson, Carrol and Harrol Redwine as ushers.

After the exercises, mothers of the class prepared and served a buffet style supper in the school cafeteria for the class, their families and the faculty.

Decorations were in the class colors and approximately 126 persons enjoyed this social.

Mrs. John Bond and boys, Sidney and Walter, and Mrs. Jack Smith and Jack Finley visited last Wednesday and Thursday in Shamrock and Wellington. Mrs. Bond left the boys in Shamrock with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Scruggs, while she and her husband went on the senior trip with the class. Mrs. Smith and Jack Finley visited in Wellington with Mrs. Archie Shipley.

Seniors Travel To Corpus Christi

The senior class left early Saturday morning for a week's trip to Corpus Christi. The class sponsor, John Bond, and his wife accompanied them. They planned several sight-seeing stops on the way down and back. San Antonio is one of them. All but two seniors made the trip.

Grain Sorghum Planting Begins

Maize, the crop which Parmer County farmers make a practice of growing a lot of, is on the brink of its 1958 planting this week. On some farms, grain sorghum planting is already underway.

Maize planting momentum is expected to snowball from now until the first of June—by that date the bulk of it will be in the ground.

If it is planted by June 1, that is "plenty early" for most varieties, County Agent Joe Jones says. Jones believes that farmers will be better off to postpone their planting date if they plant varieties which mature early. The agent offers two reasons for this belief—1. A farmer has longer to control weeds. 2. A later planting date allows for better conservation of water.

If sorghums are planted early, they reach the in-critical-need-for-water stage in August, which is ordinarily the hottest, driest High Plains month. If the planting date is postponed, the plants will be younger and won't reach the aforementioned water stage until September, a month in which more moisture is more apt to come about naturally than in the one preceding.

Also, Jones points out that a later date for planting will make grain sorghum seeds germinate faster. Therefore, the plant will be out of the ground in a fewer number of days than its earlier-planted brother. This, thinks Jones, is important in that weeds don't have as much time to get out of the ground ahead of the young plant and then compete with it for soil food and water.

Staggered planting dates of grain sorghum have been practiced by area farmers so they might best utilize their water. If the crop is planted at different intervals it will need watering at different intervals, is the theory behind this practice.

However, the agent warns, "Staggered plantings don't always mean staggered headings." This is especially true where late maturing varieties are planted early and vice versa.

"Though your varieties are planted at different times, they may get to the heading stage at the same time," he points out. Then, they're both needing water at the same time and the purpose of the different planting dates has been lost.

Jones' primary advice to grain farmers is to "Know your varieties and select the one which will do what you want done."

FHA Softens Loan Requirements

More farm construction—with better homes for farm families, better shelter for livestock and improved storage facilities for machinery and grain. That's the prospect in coming years, says Billy R. Boling, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration.

Recently, as an anti-recession measure, his agency expanded its farm housing loan program to the fullest extent under laws set up by congress. Under Boling reports that he already has received several inquiries from interested people in the area. To be eligible now, an applicant must own a farm that is in agricultural production and must plan to produce at least $400 worth of commodities for sale and home use, based on 1944 prices. Many part-time farmers who previously were ineligible can qualify for loans under the expanded program.

Wilbur Charles, Bovina, chairman of the Parmer County FHA committee, said that one applicant had already been approved by his committee and is being processed for a loan. The construction work can start soon after the loan is closed. The loan bears four percent interest on the unpaid balance and may be repaid over a period up to 33 years.

In addition to financing major construction, the loan funds can help a farm owner repair and up-date buildings. For example, he may wish to add a bathroom, including a waste disposal system, modernize the kitchen, add an extra bedroom, improve the heating, insulation and electric wiring, put a basement under the house, and cement floors in service buildings.

Boling reports that the agency has $400 million available nationally which can be used over the next three years for farm housing loans. He said there is no specified limitation on the amount which can be loaned in any one state. Boling said that Walter T. McKay, state director for Texas, estimated that if present farm housing loan activity continues as it has in the past two months, that an appreciable amount will be channeled into this state by the end of the year.

For the average reader this might present a puzzling picture. But for the cotton farmer, it means something. The arrow points to a two-leaf sprouting of cotton on a Parmer County farm. Most producers are satisfied this week with the results of their attempts to get a good stand as early as possible, although some re-planting doubtless will still be done.

Parmer County Cotton Planted

Planting of Parmer County cotton was complete this week, according to calculations of County Agent Joe Jones.

Fortunately, since seed of good germination were scarce, the amount of cotton which had to be planted over was small. "Farmers had good luck getting good stands the first planting," Agent Jones believes.

There has been some planting over, and there could possibly be some to do yet, of course, but less cotton has been planted over this year than in most years.

In addition to being hard-to-come-by, seed this year had a lower germination percentage than most farmers desire. This was due to last fall's early freeze which didn't allow the seed to mature and left them undesirable for planting.

To compensate for the low germination percent, most farmers planted more seed than usual. Efforts to make up for the lack of germination by putting more seed in the ground have apparently been successful, Jones says. And this practice, Jones thinks, is one reason the majority of farmers have been able to get good stands of cotton up the first planting. "Generally speaking, we're through planting cotton, barring big, washing rains or hail," Jones believes.

In a county that's gaining a reputation for its ability to produce King Cotton, Parmer farmers are off to a good start on the 1958 crop in spite of the fact they were handicapped by a shortage of good seed.

Accident Involves Parmer Co. Pickups

A pair of Parmer County pickups were involved in a collision last Wednesday. The accident, which occurred on a Farm-to-Market road four miles north of Bovina, caused hundreds of dollars worth of damage, but no serious injuries.

In the accident were Joe Wilson, who was driving north on the FM road in a '56 Ford pickup, and Bill F. Glenn, who was attempting to cross the pavement from west to east in a '55 Ford.

Sheriff Chas. Lovelace, who investigated, estimated the damage to the Wilson vehicle at $300-$400. He figured the cost for repairing Glenn's pickup would be from $400 to $500.

The accident happened near noon Wednesday. The front of Glenn's pickup struck the left side of Wilson's, near the door. The drivers were "shaken up," but neither required medical attention.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Well, Raymond Schueler, Jack Patterson and Vernon Symcox went to Slaton last week, where they had an appointment with Mr. Bisbee, superintendent of the Slaton Branch of the Santa Fe Railroad. They discussed with him the procedure followed by Mr. Clark, Amarillo superintendent, in mapping out and treating bindweed on RR rights-of-way. Mr. Bisbee was very cooperative, and said he would probably follow the same procedure on his line.

Bindweed will not have much chance in Parmer County so long as you have boys willing to give of their time and expense to carry on the work begun in Farm Bureau four years ago. We urge that you cooperate with them in this program, regardless of your organization affiliation.

control and the amount you are allowed from ACP for chemicals for their control. Pick up one.

Farm Bureau, which is responsible for Farm to Market legislation to date, will be in Austin full force at the next session to protect the concessions they have gained over the years in this program.

An article in the Houston Chronicle of February 27 this year, makes it clear that there are some forces in cities that intend to change this Farm Road program, putting a stop to such construction so that the money can be used for what they call "more important freeways." They condemn Texas Farm Bureau for wanting even more money for rural road improvement, saying it is unfair.

The Colson-Briscoe Act is the one that has provided what you have, and it is the one the city boys are seeking to change. Your Farm Bureau membership will help in the battle, but you are perfectly welcome to come in for information on the subject, and suggestions as to how you can help, whether you are a member or not.

Justice Douglas has this to say in justification for the U. S. Supreme Court's reversing a California court's refusal to admit a communist to the bar: "Joining the Communist Party does not necessarily indicate approval of all for which that organization stands, just as all who belong to the Presbyterian Church, The American Legion, or the American Bar Association do not necessarily endorse every tenet of those organizations". . . Do you think a man with that kind of a mind should be allowed to administer the constitutional provisions for us? James D. Mabry of Hub has put from 8 to 10 tons of gin trash and cotton burrs on one part of a field on his farm. He has applied 80 pounds of anhydrous ammonia and plans to put more to be sure that adequate nitrogen will be available to the next crop.

Mabry says they sure make the difference. On one end of a field of wheat where burrs were applied the wheat is taller and has a better color.

One disadvantage of applying wheat cut in the Parmer County area last year, but most of it was pretty skimpy. Any dryland that beat 10 bushels per acre was considered good.

Farm and Home Appreciates Your News Tips

Will Matthews, pioneer farmer on the state line south of Farwell, shows off some of his Comanche dryland wheat, which is hoped to yield 25 bushels an acre. Dryland wheat all over the High Plains is looking extra good this year, and if favorable conditions hold, good yields are expected.

Dryland Wheat To Make This Year

There was some dryland wheat cut in the Parmer County area last year, but most of it was pretty skimpy. Any dryland that beat 10 bushels per acre was considered good.

This spring, though, prospects for a dryland wheat harvest appear the best since 1949 and, in many cases, the best since 1947. Parmer County area farmers have shared with those of the entire wheat-growing part of the High Plains in the rainfall that has come since sowing time last fall.

Since planting, rains have come with gratifying regularity, although a slight drouthy spell did set in about 10 days ago and cut back yields in some spots, especially in the northern parts of the Parmer County area.

Wheat used to be a big cash crop in county agriculture, but since big scale irrigation developed in 1953 and 1954, it has been pushed into the background.

Row crops such as cotton and grain sorghum respond very favorably to irrigation, but it's tricky to get really big yields by irrigating wheat. Hence, farmers took to watering their wheat rather slowly.

That's the main reason why only about one-half of the area wheat is irrigated, and why, when the rains do come, the effort of them is very noticeable in the amount of wheat produced in this area.

Wheat produces well on any type land in the Parmer County area and is well suited here climatically. However, the heavier or "tight" lands to the north usually have the natural fertility to produce the highest yields.

In contrast, the sandier soils to the south can be depended on to make better use of the usually meager to inadequate supply of moisture, and so in a marginal year, the sandier land will outproduce the more fertile tight soils. It about averages out.

This year, there will be good dryland wheat produced both on tight land and in the sandier soils. As a rule of the thumb, most of the wheat on the sandier land suffered the least from the temporary drouth that struck about the time of heading out.

Will Matthews, who farms on the state line south of Farwell, says his dryland wheat looks the best since 1947. He believes that it will yield around 25 bushels to the acre. His Comanche looks the best.

Matthews has some of his land in the soil bank, and on one part of this land, he has barley as a cover crop. The barley is now looking so good that he is strongly considering harvesting it and paying a penalty to take produce from land in the soil bank.

A film producer was asked how he could afford 40,000 extras for a Western movie he was making.

the Pullman clay that the tests were run on in Hale County, so the story might well apply to our own area.

The Texas Employment Commission, which keeps a close check on wheat prospects because they are charged with controlling the labor supply for harvest, says that prospects are at an all-time (per acre yield) high this spring. This news comes as no big surprise to residents of the High Plains, who could not help but notice the great improvement in wheat in our own area.

In a report dated May 12, they say a prospective yield of 19 bushels per acre is indicated, which is one-half bushel above the previous high and eight bushels above average.

With practically no loss of seeded acreage, growers expect to combine the largest acreage since 1949. The 3,576,000 acres now indicated for harvest would be over half again as large as last year. Total production expected is 67.9 million bushels.

Only four times in history has Texas produced larger crops—1931, 1944, 1949, and 1947 when the all-time record of 117 million bushels was combined. Responsible for this bountiful outlook are almost ideal conditions in the Panhandle, the state's main wheat area.

The Plainview Herald, which has supported (understandably so) the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at Halfway since it was first placed there, has come up with some interesting figures.

Hale County farmers, with a grain sorghum acreage of 300,000, could increase their returns by about $4 million if they followed the Station's advice with regard to fertilizing, claims the Herald.

The paper estimates that only about half of the Hale County producers now fertilize, and experiments on that land indicate the yield can be upped from a common 3,945 pounds to 5,911 pounds per acre through applications of anhydrous ammonia (nitrogen).

In the station's budget of about $80,000 last year, only about $6,000 was allocated to the particular type of research that reveals these interesting figures. The newspaper points out that this is a big and fast return on the investment, provided the information gleaned will be put to use.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER
BY JUNE FLOYD

We would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Clytie Dial of Farwell for sending us a copy of the Parent's Magazine which we misplaced several weeks ago. This magazine was left at the State Line Tribune for us about two weeks ago and we surely do appreciate the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Dial.

Now that it is rose blooming time again, each of us should make a rose jar. They were very popular in days gone by and would be enjoyed just as much by us and our children. Things of this sort have taken a direct turn in reverse.

Not too many generations ago store bought items were very much to be desired and the novelty of just seeing some of the things shown in the shops was a rare treat. On the other hand, homemade items were very common place.

At this time if we want something different, we just about have to make it. Everyone has seen and purchased everything that has been shown in the stores or catalogs and homemade items are novelties.

Instructions for making an old-fashioned rose jar were given in a how-to-do-it Rose Growers handbook recently. They are as follows: "Be sure your jar has a tight-fitting lid. (We used a penny-candy jar.) Place a layer of dried rose petals (preferably red because they are more fragrant) in the bottom. Sprinkle lightly with ground cloves, mace, and cinnamon. Add another layer of rose petals and another of spices. Alternate until you reach the top. Add some sweet cedar or sandalwood if possible. These are usually available at large drug houses. On the very top sprinkle a few drops of your favorite perfume.

For something really different during rose blooming season we might try rose tea. Simply steep rose hips for ten minutes in boiling water, strain and serve. Would you add cream and sugar and drink it hot? The Rose Growers didn't say.

Our Mrs. America favorite recipes begin this week with Mrs. Hugh Mactier, who was chosen Mrs. Nebraska. Mrs. Mactier's favorite main dish is Paella Valenciana. With it she serves saffron rice which she makes in large quantities and freezes to have on hand.

SAFFRON RICE
1/4 cup olive oil
2 cloves garlic, crushed
2 large onions, minced
2 cups uncooked rice
dash red pepper
1/4 teaspoon thyme
1/4 teaspoon rosemary
1/2 teaspoon Spanish saffron
2 cans consommé plus 2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt

Heat oil in deep heavy skillet. All garlic, onion, rice, and pepper. Cook over low flame until rice begins to brown, stirring constantly. Remove and discard garlic. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer 30 minutes or until rice is done, stirring occasionally. Makes 8 servings.

Two Cooker Clinics Scheduled Soon
Homemakers who wish to have their pressure cooker tested will have two opportunities to do so next week. Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, county home demonstration agent, will test them Tuesday, May 27, at Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church in Texico and Thursday, May 29, at the Bovina School.

You get all the news in Farm and Home.

Mrs. Nevada, Mrs. Russell Neece, submitted her husband's favorite main dish.

SPAGHETTI CLAM SAUCE
1/4 cup olive oil
1/2 cup butter
4 cloves garlic, finely chopped
1/4 cup minced parsley
1 tablespoon sweet basil
3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
dash red pepper
dash freshly ground black pepper
1 dozen cherrystone clams
1 package (8 ozs) spaghetti, cooked

Heat olive oil and butter in skillet. Add garlic, parsley, sweet basil, cheese, red pepper, ground black pepper, and clams. Simmer 10 to 15 minutes. Pour over spaghetti. Makes 6 servings.

From one of the New England states, New Hampshire, Mrs. Theodore J. Vogel sent her favorite casserole recipe. The Vogels have several young children, so their meals are generally simple and not highly seasoned.

HAMBURGER CASSEROLE
1 medium-sized onion, diced
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 lb. chopped beef
1 large can diced green beans, drained
1 can condensed tomato soup
6 medium potatoes, boiled and whipped with 1 egg, 1/4 cup hot milk (or enough to beat smooth) and salt and pepper to taste

Saute onion in salad oil. Add meat and cook slowly about 5 minutes. Add beans and soup.

Stir together and put into greased 1 1/2 quart casserole. Top with whipped potato and bake in hot oven until brown and bubbly. Makes 4 servings.

For a crunchy change on the next spice cake you bake, broil this frosting right on the top of the loaf cake: Mix together 1 stick oleo or 1/4 pound butter, which has been melted; 1/2 cup brown sugar; 2 tablespoons milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts. Spread over top and broil until bubbly, about two minutes.

Mohair Supports May Come in 1958

Incentive payments may be made to mohair producers in 1958 for the first time.

No payments were required on mohair sales during 1955 and 1956 and none are indicated for 1957. Recently, however, prices reported in Texas ranging from 46 1/2 to 51 1/2 cents per pound for adult mohair and 76 1/2 to 81 1/2 cents for kid mohair indicate that the national average price for mohair sold in the 1958 marketing year will probably fall below the 70-cent-per-pound support price, thus requiring payments. The 70-cent-per-pound price reflects 75 percent of the current mohair parity.

Hybrids Outyield Standard Varieties

Hybrid grain sorghums led the yield test at the High Plains Station of Texas Research Foundation at Halfway in 1957. Twenty-seven of the thirty-one hybrids planted yielded more than any of the nineteen standard varieties included in the test, says Johnny Davis, station agronomist.

In this test of 50 different grain sorghums, there were 15 released hybrids; 16 experimental hybrids, and 19 standard varieties. They were planted in two row plots 100 feet long with four replications to eliminate differences in soil, watering and other factors. The test was planted June 19 at the rate of eight pounds of seed per acre. Thirty-six pounds of nitrogen and 45 pounds of P2O5 were applied at planting with 75 pounds of nitrogen sidedressed July 18.

This test was harvested before there was any appreciable lodging, so no differences as to standability are reported. The soil was irrigated prior to planting with three subsequent irrigations applied. A total of 15 inches of water was applied through irrigation with 17.4 inches of natural rainfall during the growing period of April 1 to October 1. This made a total of 32.4 inches of water which could be considered available for growth.

In this test a difference of less than 844 pounds per acre between any two entries could be due to chance. For example, there were only 825 pounds difference between the yield of DeKalb D50A, ranked 13, and R. S. 650, ranked number 1. This difference might be due to chance and in another test with similar conditions, there might be a change in the ranking.

Also, there were two entries of R. S. 650 which ranked 1 and 3 with 163 pounds difference in yield. Obviously there was no significant difference in yield between these two entries.

4-H'ers Learn Methods In Homemaking

Use of mechanical refrigeration by farm families jumped from 63 to 90 per cent in six years, according to the USDA, and undoubtedly this has been a factor in more extensive use of the freezing method to preserve home grown foods. Among the young homemakers who utilize this process are the Texas 4-H Club members enrolled in the 4-H Frozen Foods project. Under the guidance of local leaders the 4-H'ers learn to plan balanced meals as well as to select and process meats, vegetables, fruits, pastries, breads and the like.

Another project that helps to enhance family living is the 4-H Home Improvement program. Individual enterprises range from modernizing and redecorating an entire house to reupholstering a single chair.

Both 4-H programs provide opportunities for club members to demonstrate and exhibit their skills as well as to de-

Cook of the Week

Our cook of the week is a former Friona Star employee. Mrs. Hollis Horton Jr., who was Lunell McFarland before her marriage, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McFarland of Friona. Her twelve years in public schools were spent here.

After graduation from high school she attended Stephens College at Columbia, Mo., and later graduated from Southern Methodist University with an education major and journalism minor. During the summer between her sophomore and junior years in college she was a member of the Friona Star staff.

The Horton family is made up of Hollis, owner of the Parmer County Pump Company and serving as president of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, Lunell, Kathy, and Hollis III, who is better known as Trip. Kathy and Trip are both pre-school age.

Lunell works with the pre-school age group of the Methodist Church and is an active member of the Progressive Study Club. Upon request by a Star reporter, Mrs. Horton wrote the following paragraphs concerning her interest in recipes.

"If fines were levied against recipe snatchers, I would find myself constantly paying fines. Other people's recipes always taste so good, and I'm a collector. I tear recipes from magazines in doctor's offices, beauty parlors, and just about any place I happen to run across a magazine."

"I take each one of these recipes home and even get around to trying a few of them. Sometimes they are successful and sometimes not. The most memorable effort I ever made was a 'Lima Beans Cooked in Roquefort Cheese' dish. I'll never forget those beans!"

"We enjoy casseroles, especially thrifty hamburger dishes. Since Hollis and Kathy don't care much for sweets of any kind, I seldom bake cakes or pies. When I do, Trip and I end up eating them and I don't need the calories. I hope every reader enjoys these casseroles and the bread. They are my husband's favorite foods."

FRENCH BREAD

1 package dry yeast
1 cup lukewarm water
4 cups all purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoons salt
6 tablespoons lukewarm water
Dissolve yeast in cup of water. Stir into sifted dry ingredients. Add remaining water. Work with hands. Place in greased bowl and let rise. Knead five minutes. Cut into two equal parts and place in greased quart dish. Cover and let rise. Brush with butter and bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes.

MEAT BALLS AND SAUCE

2 lbs. ground beef
2 cups bread crumbs
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons onion juice or one chopped onion
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 eggs, well beaten
Mix all ingredients together thoroughly then shape into balls the size of a lemon. Make a sauce by combining 2 cans tomato soup, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 cups water, 2 finely chopped onions, dash of salt, pepper to taste, sprinkling of cloves and celery salt. Bring to boil then place meat balls in boiling sauce and simmer one hour. Place mound of cooked rice or macaroni on serving platter. Surround with meat balls. Then pour sauce over rice and top with grated cheese.

LIMA BEAN AND BEEF BALL CASSEROLE

1 ten oz. package frozen baby lima beans
2 to 3 slices bread
1/4 cup milk
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 egg

teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, egg and finely grated or mashed garlic. After bread has soaked, break it into small pieces and mix with ground beef.

Pinch off portions of this meat mixture and shape into balls the size of a walnut. Handle lightly. Fry in one tablespoon butter until brown on all sides, then transfer to bottom of a medium sized casserole dish.

Pour water into skillet in which meat was fried, stir well then pour over meat balls in dish. Season lima beans with remaining salt, pepper, and butter, and add to meat in casserole. Bake 40-60 minutes covered. Uncover and spoon sour cream over top and bake another five minutes.

Remove from oven and serve immediately while hot. Add a dash of paprika, if desired for color.

For a good hurry-up meal, Mrs. Horton suggests this recipe.

SPANISH RICE CASSEROLE

Melt 1/4 cup bacon drippings or butter in skillet. Add 1/2 diced green pepper, 1 medium onion, chopped, 1/2 pound ground beef, and 1 1/3 cups minute rice. Stir while cooking over high heat until lightly browned. Then add two 8 oz. cans tomato sauce and 1/2 cup water, 1 tablespoon salt, dash of pepper, and dried mustard to suit taste. Mix well, bring quickly to a boil, cover tightly and simmer 10 minutes.

County Men Assist At Clinic Saturday

Approximately 125 area children participated in a crippled children's clinic sponsored Saturday at Hereford by the Oasis Shrine Club of Parmer, Deaf Smith, and Castro Counties.

Parmer County men who assisted with registration, served as guides, and worked with records and files included Hugh Moseley, Nelson Smith and Joe Fallwell.

Twenty-one physicians in 10 areas of specialization were on the staff of the annual clinic which this year was extended to children in the area outside the three counties which comprise the sponsoring organization.

Open for inspection was the $45,000 Medical Research Foundation inspired almost entirely by the efforts of Shriners in the area to help handicapped children.

Lunch was served to the children, their parents, the Shriners, and their ladies at the Hereford Masonic Lodge. Climaxing the day were a buffet dinner and dance at the Jim Hill Hotel honoring the visiting doctors.

McFarlands Return

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McFarland and sons, John Bill and David, returned late Sunday after spending a week vacationing at Lake Buchanan in central Texas. They report that fishing was good and that they went boating and swimming.

'58 Weather Gives Assist To Crops

It's an impossible chore for anybody's weather, but perhaps the elements in Parmer County this spring came as near to pleasing both cotton and wheat farmers as it would be feasible to do.

Except for spotted hail, the weather hasn't been bad—that's a farmer's way of saying it's been good—for either. Rains last fall, during the winter, and this spring have been wonderful for wheat and it's generally considered wheat crop prospects are the best in many years—maybe since 1949.

Too, dryland wheat is getting an assist from the weather of years previous to this one. Drought in recent years left many dryland fields all but barren and caused little, if any, decrease in the soil's fertility. The fact that there has been no strain on the soil recently, coupled with the ample moisture this growing season, makes the dryland wheat picture look good at this point.

Though wheat farmers could stand more rain now, damp, foggy days could do them more harm than good. Too much dampness would aid that age-old enemy of wheat, rust. However, if the rain could come, followed by sunshine, it would fit favorably into the wheatman's operation.

Warm weather cooperated to the point that it allowed farmers to get their cotton in the ground at an "early enough" date. Also, it was favorable when it came time for the young plants to rise to a stand. Rains did cause soils to crust over after cotton seed was in the ground, but, in most cases, this wasn't so serious that the plants couldn't be "scratched up."

From an overall standpoint, the county hasn't been hurt by hail. It was, as always, damaging where it hit—east of Lariat and southeast of Friona. But even in those areas, it was scattered.

Remembering last fall's moisture and early freeze, Parmer Countians aren't taking this spring's suitable weather for granted.

COOK

BETTER...Electrically

MRS. TED MAGNESS, Farwell, is shown here with Mem Sprowls, Farwell Electric owner, and her new Frigidaire electric range. "I especially like my new range because it concentrates the heat in a small area," she explains, "when I'm cooking on it, the entire kitchen doesn't get too warm. I certainly like it."

MODERN ELECTRIC COOKING is enjoyed by Mrs. Paul Jones of Bovina, who purchased her Estate range from Mrs. Troy Armstrong (l), manager of Gaines Hardware Company of Bovina.

Mrs. J. T. GEE, mother of two children, and wife of the agricultural teacher in Friona High School, is a booster of electric ranges. She purchased her Frigidaire electric range from Reeve Chevrolet Co. in Friona.

MRS. HARRY RATLIFF, home economics teacher in Friona Independent Schools, is full of praises for her General Electric range which she purchased from Claborn-Ferrell Furniture in Friona. "I just wouldn't swap it for another type of range," she says.
