TIGERS LOOK GOOD CLAWING VICTORY OVER MERIDIAN

The Hico Tigers came out with the long end of the score last Friday night by defeating the Meridian Yellowjackets by a score of 31 to 13. The Tigers again run from the T formation and found it as effective as the week before.

At half time the Tigers were leading by a score of 13-0. Coming back in the second half Meridian began their pass attack and were able to score two touchdowns and kick up one extra point while the Tigers were making three touchdowns and one extra point.

Scoring for the Tigers were Lively, two touchdowns and Ross, Jones and Burden, one each. Ratliff converted for one extra point.

At the half time the ever popular school band and pep squad under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bradley, took over. They entered from the south end of the field marching to the fifty yard line where they went into a snake dance. The playing lights went off and the member's flash lights, red and blue, came on. From this formation they went into regular formation and on down to the north end of the field where they counter-marched and back to the fifty. Then facing the home town stands, formed a huge bell on the fifty with the majorettes forming the tongue of the bell. From this they marched to the Meridian side of the field and formed a large M as the band played the "Victory March" and from this formation, off the field. This week the Tigers play host to the Iredell eleven here in Hico at 2:30, Friday afternoon, November 11. This is the last game of the season for the Tigers and one of the largest crowds of the year to be expected.

PROGRAM PRECEDES FOOTBALL TALK AT LIONS' LUNCHEON

Program managers Chaney and Carson did a good job of providing entertainment for the Wednesday noon meeting of the Hico Lions Club when they deputized W. D. Bradley to bring some talent down from school. Buddy Teague and Julia Ann Hedges showed up with their song flutes and their professional manner, and rendered instrumental and vocal solos and duets that delighted their audience.

After disposition of a few minor items of business, discussion of the big inter-city football game with Hamilton on Nov. 22 was engaged in heatedly. Reports from the chairman and various members of committees indicate that all arrangements are rounding up well for this struggle between Lions from Hico and Hamilton, to be staged at the local stadium with all the sidights, stunts and gags that anyone could want. Further announcement will be made next week about the players, assignments, and other details.

Most Hico Stores Closing for Observance of Armistice Day

TO DEMONSTRATE FROZEN FOODS AT IREDELL NOV. 16

Another Frozen Food Demonstration is being given under auspices of the Neel Truck & Tractor Store of Hico by the International Harvester's Home Economist, Lurene Randolph, graduate of Texas State College for Women, and an expert on frozen foods, as the demonstrator. The Frozen Food Demonstration will be held at 7:30 p. m., Nov. 16, Iredell School Building at Iredell.

Freezing is a new method of preserving foods to retain their original flavor until ready for consumption, and has many advantages over the old method of canning, a process in which much of the food value and flavor is lost. Lurene Randolph is an expert in the right methods of preserving foods by freezing, having had several years of experience. By freezing beans, peas, and asparagus, or other vegetables from the garden, fruits and meats of all kinds, one can enjoy these items at any season of the year and be assured that all of the nutrients have been preserved in their original freshness. Modern ingenuity has made it possible for any family to enjoy the advantages of frozen foods right in their own homes with "Home Freezers", a compact, highly finished unit that is an ornament to any home.

The Neel store in Hico is extending an invitation to both men and women of Iredell and this community to attend the demonstration at the neighboring town. "Door prizes will be given away and refreshments will be served," said Paul Neel. "Don't forget the hour and the date, next Wednesday, and be present to enjoy the entire program. It is all free."

H. T. Polk Dies of Heart Attack Friday; Funeral Held Sunday

H. T. Polk, a former citizen of this community who had recently moved back to his home in Hico, died suddenly about 10 o'clock last Friday morning while he and his nephew, Derwood Polk, were loading a cow into a pickup truck. At the first symptoms of a heart attack Derwood rushed for help, but Mr. Polk passed away before anything could be done to alleviate his suffering.

Funeral services were held at Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Chapel Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Eld. Stanley Gieseecke, Church of Christ minister. Burial was in Hico Cemetery. Hoyt T. Polk was born Nov. 25, 1896. He departed this life on Nov. 4, 1949.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's

OFFICIAL REPORT ON WEEKLY SWING OF FARM MARKETS OVER THE SOUTHWEST

Southwest farm markets developed a mixture of higher and lower price trends during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Sorghums declined 7 cents a hundred pounds and wheat a cent a bushel. Texas white corn advanced 3 to 5 cents a bushel, yellow corn a cent, barley 1 to 2, and oats a half cent. No. 2 Texas white corn closed Monday at $1.59 to $1.61, and yellow corn $1.40 to $1.41. No. 2 yellow milo brought $2.07 to $2.12.

Good quality rough rice advanced in price last week, but much of current offerings was of lower grade because of weather change. Feed markets generally had a weaker tone, but little price change was noted in southwest demand at about unchanged prices. Peanuts turned firmer in improved demand.

Good demand for eggs held prices firm during the week despite increased production in the midwestern states. Dallas paid 43 to 44 cents a dozen for current receipts, and Denver 35 to 42. Fort Worth took candied mixed colors at 45 to 48. Rehandled current receipts brought 50 cents at New Orleans. Young chickens held about steady for the week. Hens weakened, as fall culling increased supplies.

Sweet potatoes strengthened despite heavy haulings. U. S. No. 1 Porto Ricans loaded in Southern Louisiana over the week end at $2.45 to $2.65 per 50 pound crate. Most of the current harvest is going into storage. Fort Worth received more South Texas carrots, squash, peppers and tomatoes.

Dressed meats sold mostly weak to $3 lower than last Monday at New York.

Sharply increased cattle and calf numbers at southwest markets last week contrasted with moderate decreases at midwest terminals. Cows and stocker calves lost up to 50 cents or more at Texas markets, but cows advanced at Oklahoma City. Other classes showed little change. Denver sold cattle steady to 50 cents down.

Fewer hogs arrived at southwest and midwest markets last week than the week before. Butcher hogs lost 25 cents for the week at San Antonio, 50 cents at Fort Worth, and around $1 at Oklahoma City and Denver. Sows held unchanged from last Monday at Texas markets, but lost 50 cents to $1.50 at Oklahoma City and Denver. Stocker and feeder pigs declined about $1 at Texas and Oklahoma City terminals.

Sheep sales doubled the week before at Texas and Oklahoma City terminals but fell off slightly at other markets. Price trends were fairly firm most of the week, with narrow net changes. San Antonio's goat market showed only minor changes.

Small lots of 12-months wools sold in Texas, and a good volume of territory wool moved in Boston. A large volume of mohair sold in Texas at 47 1/2 and 67 1/2 cents.

Cotton closed Monday unchanged from a week ago at Houston and Galveston, 10 points higher at Dallas and New Orleans, and 30 points up at Little Rock. Spot middling 15-16 inch range at 29.15 cents at Dallas to $2.45 at Little Rock.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Clam Chowder Can Be Dynamite!

If Smiley Roberts is a friend of yours, like he is mine, and if you want to keep his friendship, like I do, don't ever let him hear you say that good clam chowder can be made without cream.

In New England, where Smiley comes from, friendships have been broken over tomatoes versus cream in clam chowder. Experts say that south of Boston the tomato reigns supreme, but north of Boston it's cream—or else!

From where I sit, whether it should have cream or tomatoes is simply a matter of taste. This is plain to anyone who doesn't come from clam chowder country.

What a great world this would be if we could all see that most prejudices are matters of taste only. Some like hot coffee. Some like it iced. Some people like a temperate glass of beer. Others prefer ice-cold lemonade. My grandmother used to say, "Prejudice that sees only what it pleases, cannot see very plain."

MUGWUMP ADVICE

THERE IS A WAY to stave off socialism in this country, but will the leaders of the Republican party be "man enough" to adopt it?

Ever since the New Deal kidnaped the Democratic party, the "welfare state" has been its avowed objective.

Has the Republican high command the guts to gamble on a "Save America" platform regardless of group votes? IF IT WOULD DO SO IT WOULD GET THOSE VOTES!

The American farmer has as much common sense as anyone else and more patriotism than most.

DIX DIES... Richard Dix, famous Hollywood actor of the 1920's, died recently in a Hollywood hospital where he had been critically ill with heart trouble.

GREAT-GRANDMOTHER ARTIST

Mrs. Louise Holt, 75, a Newburyport great grandmother, took up painting last fall and already seems to be on the way to success.

From Mrs. Sarah M. Weader of McClure, Pa.: "I remember when no one in the country where I lived burned coal.

From A. B. Chapin of Galway, N. Y.: "I remember when we boys played such he-boy games as 'pump-pump-pullaway,' 'stink base,' 'hats,' 'jump-for-down,' 'Spanish fly,' 'two-o-cat,' 'run-sheep-run' and thought we were having a whale of a good time.

MISS AMERICA COLLECTS A TROUSSEAU

FOUR GENERATIONS of Arizona cattlemen are the frontier background of Miss Jacque Mercer, who rode forth from the X Bar X ranch at Litchfield, Ariz., to rope the title of Miss America.

It was her first year of competition in any beauty contest, and is going to be her last.

Jacque, who thinks her first name is French and is pronounced "Jackie," is as typically American as those cattlemen grandparents who preceded her.

An only child, she has been taught by her mother and 4-H club counsellors how to cook, sew and keep house.

But she still has an eye on marriage plans. Like her mother before her, she has a cedar chest filled with a trousseau which she has been making and collecting over the years.

"I think every girl should collect a trousseau," Jacque said, "especially if she comes from an average family. It not only eliminates that last minute purchasing and the making of a lot of necessary things, but it is also cheaper for Dad."

NEEDLESSLY WORRIED! What a book could be written about that. Here's an example of what I mean. He is Gerald W. Myers, St. Joseph, Missouri.

Now we'll have to hop back in time. It is December 10, 144. Gerald Myers was sitting in a fox hole just outside of Geniverville, France.

He had been in combat for three months and now was in an active sector where bullets were as thick as grapes in a California vineyard.

Under tension as he was, these thoughts began to prey on his mind. "Even if one of them were dying," he thought, "I could not get back to them. I might never see her again."

He worried until he was relieved from duty, but next day this terrible worry was still within him; it felt like a stone in his stomach.

The strange thing was that he was in danger, every minute, night and day, but he was worrying about his family at home. But that is the way the human mind works.

He went to the chaplain and, very much embarrassed, told him that he was so worried that he was becoming a nervous wreck.

The talk helped him. He got an outside point of view on himself. After a reasonable length of time he got a letter from home saying that things were going fine... but they were worrying about him.

Miss Jacque Mercer, Miss America 1949, places part of her trousseau in her "hope" chest. Jacque is short, five feet four inches, and weighs but 105 pounds.

aged. This love of the stage also was helped by her active participation in Campfire Girl presentations and high school dramatics.

Three of the gowns she wore during the pageant she designed and made herself, as she does most of her clothes.

Her 4-H training was varied and successful. She raised chickens and ducks besides participating in sewing and cooking clubs.

He stopped again, deliberating. He looked at the men and they at him. He grinned sheepishly. "I—I guess I musta lay down and dropped off," he said weakly.

WHEAT CROP

(A Short Story) BY RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

IT WAS A MARVELOUS crop of wheat. The best in years. The stalks stood over six feet high.

He walked on a little ways, parting the stalks to form an avenue, thrilling to the rattle and rustle of the wind among them, glorying in the feel of them against his body.

He ground his teeth. Dumbhead, tomorrow would be blistering hot. He'd have no water. He'd become a raving maniac.

He sat down. Then he got to his knees and began breaking off stalks. Might as well give in to the thing. Might as well make the best of it. He began making a bed of wheat stalks. Nothing else to do. He lay down and thought of Ruth.

When Joshua opened his eyes it was daylight again. The sun was already hot. He felt stiff and sore.

Then he heard the sound of voices. Two men were coming toward him. He heard his name mentioned. They were looking for him.

He looked at the men and they at him. He grinned sheepishly. "I—I guess I musta lay down and dropped off," he said weakly.

He decided to shout, and did so lustily. The sound of his own voice was reassuring, but it didn't bring results. The stalks hemmed him in like a jungle forest.

He ground his teeth. Dumbhead, tomorrow would be blistering hot. He'd have no water. He'd become a raving maniac.

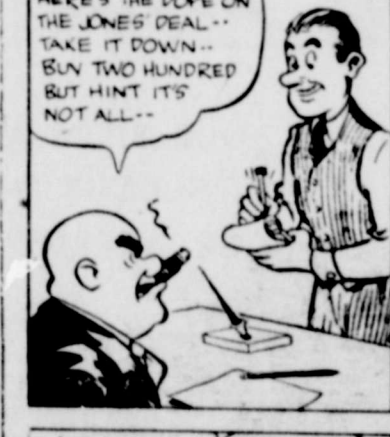

He sat down. Then he got to his knees and began breaking off stalks. Might as well give in to the thing. Might as well make the best of it. He began making a bed of wheat stalks. Nothing else to do. He lay down and thought of Ruth.

Mrs. Copeland and Mr. Woodward Wed In Rites At Fairy

The marriage of Mrs. Eileen Easter Copeland and C. L. Woodward took place at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Rev. L. J. Wood, who performed the single ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whitlock, Route 1, Iredell.

The living room in the Woodward home was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds. White candles burned in blue holders.

The bride was most attractive in a teal blue garsidine suit, beautifully styled, and her accessories were a rich brown. Her corsage was of Golden Dawn roses.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for South Texas on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in the Woodward residence at Hico.

Mr. Woodward, well known over this section, is a ranch owner and a retired banker.

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

God Comforts His People
Lesson for November 13: Isaiah 40: 27-31 41:10-15, 61:1-3
Memory Selection: Isaiah 41:10

A BLESSED THING in the Bible is the ministry of comfort. Many need comfort because of the dark hours of life through which they must pass. To those who are doubting and questioning, Isaiah wrote that God, "the Creator of the ends of the earth," faints not and is never weary. And troubled and weary ones are urged to wait for the renewing of their strength in the Lord.

Fear is a devastating experience and the only relief from it is trust in God. Jehovah declares: "Fear not; I will help thee." Sometimes the enemies of God's people may be put to shame and confusion. But it is even a greater thing that men of faith can be delivered from fear in the heart and be strong to battle against their difficulties. With the Psalmist they can say: "I will fear no evil."

When Jesus, after entering upon his ministry, returned to Nazareth, he preached in the synagogue and used as a text Isaiah 61:1-2. The passage was being fulfilled in him in his gracious ministry of healing and comfort. Let us rejoice that we can find in him a friend in every time of need. Through him we may learn of God and his ways. In the hour of trouble we can learn of God's reason for allowing it. Certainly we can believe that the reason would be plain if we could see the matter as God sees it. Let us know that faith is a potent antidote against fear and a source of strength and comfort in all the dark hours that may come to us.

SENIOR

Hallowe'en is over and I think everyone had a good time. We are proud of Wanda Nell and Raymond and we want to congratulate "Queen Margaret and King Benny." Also runner-ups, Monette Salmon and Kenny Hoffman and Judy Moore and Douglas Moon. The Carnival was the best we have had in a long time.

We are glad that the basketball girls won Tuesday. We are also happy about the way the football game turned out Friday night.

We are all looking forward to November 11, because on this day there will be no school.

JUNIOR

My, how these Juniors study their lessons in the mornings at school especially American History and Biology. They are either filling in their workbooks or studying in their books.

I think everyone is happy because we have a holiday Friday. But Friday evening there will be some place to go. Everyone can sleep late Friday morning and then go to the football game Friday afternoon.

We are proud that the football boys beat Meridian like they did Friday night. They really played a good game. Since it is the last game Friday everyone is hoping we will beat Fredell.

SOPHOMORE

The sophomores are very proud of their class. As you know the King and Queen of the Hallowe'en Carnival were from our class. The class as a whole wishes to thank each and every person who voted for us and helped us to win.

FRESHMEN

The King and Queen of the Hallowe'en Carnival was Benny Terry and Margaret Hampton of the tenth grade. The King and Queen were entertained by some sixth graders. They did a square dance. Some high school students also sang a song. The band played while they marched in and marched out.

The scores turned out in our favor again Friday night. They were 31 to 13. The boys played a good game.

The Fredell game will be played in the afternoon, Friday the 11th. The game will start at 2:30.

BAND

The band is in hopes of getting a new bass drum soon. We will be glad when we get it.

At the football game Friday night the Band and Pep Squad marched on the field at the half. We did the snake dance in the center of the field. Then we formed a bell and played the school song and formed an M for Meridian and played the "Victory March."

The band played for the coronation at the Hallowe'en Carnival.

HOMEMAKING

Last week was F. H. A. week. The girls planned to do several different things:

1. On Sunday—Go to the Methodist church.
 2. On Monday—Send clothing to foreign country.
 3. Monday night—Assist in Hallowe'en Carnival (had a cake walk).
 4. Wednesday—Have assembly program.

5. Friday—Plant red roses, which are the F. H. A. flower.

All of these things were done but two—sending clothing to a foreign country and planting roses. The clothing has been sent off but wasn't sent off on the day planned. The roses weren't planted because the Homemaking teacher, Mrs. Blair, was absent from school.

She was absent both Thursday and Friday from school. We are hoping that she will be back to school this week, as we missed her very much.

F. F. A.

Beginning Monday, November 7, the agriculture boys are starting to work on projects in the shop. The project will include such things as hog feeders, calf feeders, broom racks, book shelves and nearly anything the boys want to build.

The class will be divided into three groups so it will be a smaller and easier instructed group in the shop.

WORM'S EYE VIEW

I have noticed the last few weeks that there has been quite a few poems in the Mirror. Not wishing to be out done I gathered my brains all in one cell and thought up a poem or two.

— Poem by Nilly the Worm
 A wise old owl sat on an oak.
 The more he saw the less he spoke;
 The less he spoke the more he heard;
 Why aren't we, like that wise old bird?

Oh well listen to this:
 Mister, I admit your general rule
 That every poet is a fool.
 But you yourself may serve to show it.

That very fool is not a poet.
 And so I decided a worm isn't either.

I have been noticing a slick looking gentleman strolling up and down the halls. He seems to have lost something and is looking for it. You reckon it could be a molecule or maybe even a beachie bug?

It seems that this man is so well qualified that he could take any teachers place from the tiny first graders up to the sophisticated seniors, with the greatest of ease. He is truly a student of the higher art and makes a wonderful superintendent. Don't you agree with me?

I see the broom sitting in the corner so I guess I will turn in and forget poetry and people for a while.

H. H. S.

Dear Readers,
 As I started into the building this morning, the first person I saw was that cute blonde Sophomore formerly known as curly, but known lately as Touchdown Jones. Was that a black eye he was wearing? Seems to be the fashion among the football boys these days.

Upon entering the Senior room, I found Leroy Wilson and Darrell Dickey stacking greasy beebees. They said it was brought on by reading "Macbeth."

At lunch I was almost hit in the face by some Senior who found it necessary to exprecatorate rather suddenly. Goodness, a poor girl just isn't safe anywhere nowadays.

I wonder if you readers heard about all the girl friends Lester has in grade school. Up to his old tricks of robbing the cradle again.

Have you heard the news about P. A. falling asleep in church? And I mean falling. I think he fell out of the chair.

I'll close with another one of these.

Promising Poetry Pertaining to Popular People.
 You all know our "Super" named Lincoln.
 He keeps all the Physics lab stinkin'.

 You know Mr. Lincoln is thinkin' That's all this week.

ZINGARA

SPOTLIGHT
 The hour is high noon; the place of action, the high school library, table number three; the characters, the majority of the juniors and seniors. What are they doing? Why reading the Spotlight, of course!

Are you interested in finding out where Jo and O. J. went last Sunday night and what they did? Well they did a lot of driving and finally ended up in Meridian to drink coffee and fritos. A lot of couples went to church. Some I saw were, Don and Wanda, Mary Nell and Von, Mary Jo and Royce and Charlotte and Buck took in both the show and church.

Monday I got the Spotlight out early, just as the first ghost drifted out of hiding. Since Hallowe'en is the time to haunt your friends I did a bit of haunting myself. Not my friends though, just you people.

The Spotlight seldom has a chance to fly around unnoticed and it really enjoyed Monday night. There were so many ghostly looking creatures about no one noticed an extra flash here and there.

Noise, people, confetti and fun filled the Hico gym. Everyone talked to everyone else at the same time. The results: A Hallowe'en night to tuck back in your book of memories, to look back on as one of the high spots of your young life.

Lets just pretend a while and relive the night, enter in the front door and be lost in the crowd. The crowd seems to be too much for Glen and Pat and Betty and James. I see they are sitting in the bleachers eating sandwiches.

Say, where is that loud noise coming from, the bingo stand. Yes and it's Buck. L. doing the talking. Say he has a nice line, doesn't he Charlotte. I see Betty and Wendell are again working together.

Reckon they work everytime they get together. Maybe, maybe not, anyway he took her home that night.

Say Lois G. had her big chance. Donald willingly offered his head to all who could hit it. But off the record a little I heard Lois remark, "Huh, I can hit his head anytime I want to without paying for the privilege!" A lot of girls were swishing around in evening dresses, escorted by boys in bow ties. One couple in particular were Myrna and Roline.

After the last ghost had slipped out of the gym and Mr. Lincoln had finally convinced Mrs. Lincoln they really had to take that pig home with them, I wandered down town.

On the way I noticed Buck F.'s car in front of Patsy's house and Buck, Patsy, Paul and Frances walking to the show. A rumor drifted faintly to my ears that they had a little trouble with soap.

Why Buck, I thought soap cleaned things. Going into the show were Queen Margaret and Charles, and King Benny and Paula. The King and Queen I see are separated.

Inside a lot of more couples met my gaze. Mary and Virgil, Jo Ann with Roy, Wilma with Royce, Mary with Royce M., Shirley and Billy, and Bobby R. with George K. You'll notice a lot of the couples I named were freshmen!

Well that's the end of Hallowe'en night, 1949, so put the sheet back on the bed and lets be off for Tuesday.

First lets run over to the Gap for the girls basket ball game. They won and incidently I noticed Bobby, Glenn, Raymond and Dub were there. Say, I wonder was basket ball their only reason for coming.

Back in Hico at the show were Charles and Margaret Harold P. and Dorothy R., Charlotte and Buck.

It seems that everyone was hiding Wednesday night, but I managed to see two couples at the show: Mary Nell was with Duak Simpson, but I didn't see who Joy Ann was with.

Thursday night a lot of Hico turned out to see "Father Was A Fullback." The show was good, but I found other interesting things to wonder about. Could anyone tell me why a complete row of very pretty girls didn't interest the complete row of handsome boys seated directly behind them.

Louise and Earl have caught Glen and Patsy's habit. They sit practically on the screen too. By the way, speaking of Glen and Patsy reminds me, they were together too.

Something else I'd almost forgotten, Milton W. came to school Thursday afternoon and got Bertha Moore.

Now back to the show and to Roline and Myrna who were talking to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley. Was the subject about someone getting slapped.

Before the show started, I noticed Jo and Ralph and Jim and Billie Jean together. If they went to the show I must have missed them.

Say! I heard Patsy and Buck were chaparoned when Buck took Patsy home. Maybe Fred Jones could tell me more about it. He was really busy Thursday night—it seems that he was also keeping an eye on Wanda N. J. and Bobby Jack. Say next Saturday night about 8:00. O. K. with you Fred.

I went to the ball game Friday night and when I arrived, I found that surprisingly enough you did too.

Up behind the pep squad, sat Patsy and Buck, Betty and James, Margaret and Charles were together part of the time. Lois and Donald and a big blanket were also among the ones present.

The boys won and the shirt tail parade was in order. By the way did you know Paula had Indian blood in her. She likes to wear blankets I hear. Ask someone who attended the parade about it. They could tell you a pretty funny story.

The boys finally got dressed, joined the girls and off down the hill they went. A few couples together were, Betty and Wendell, Glen and Patsy, Charlotte and Buck, Jimmy and Punkin, and Billy and Jim. Wanda Nell and Myrna were with Bobby Jack and Roline. At least the boys took them down town.

It seems everything works together to make Saturday night the perfect dating night. Dad comes across with car and maybe if your lucky an extra dollar.

Your hair for once has curled perfectly and you have a new dress to wear. Then to top it all off there's a full moon filling the sky. Yes, there's no denying it, Saturday night has a special place in everyone's heart.

The people in town were met with a funny, but rather cute sight Saturday night. Here is the story. It seems three cute girls decided to teach three slow boys a lesson. Any way, when Buck, Benny, and Jimmy arrived rather late they found Charlotte, Paula, and Dorothy ready to go but they were dressed in blue jeans, long shirts and their hair rolled up!

A lot of car riding was going on and the people doing it were Jo and Ralph, Glen and Patsy, Louise and Earl and Charles and Margaret.

Myrna and Roline, Patsy and Buck were together and riding around in some old wreck Roline must have picked up in their wrecking yard.

I passed by the Baptist Church and saw Paul and Frances standing on the porch. Say I thought they were getting serious but I didn't expect to see them at the church yet.

Who was the military looking boy Betty Lou was with. Oh, yes! It was just James. Well they looked very cute together.

About nine the town was almost deserted, but as ten came around, so did the couples.

Going into the show were Mary Nell and Von, Wanda Jean and Don W., and Betty and Wendell. Jo and O. J. must have slipped in without a ticket because I saw them being called out.

Mary S. was very popular Saturday night. She had not one but two boy friends, Raymond on one side and Touchdown Jones on the other. Now Mary, that's not being fair to the other girls.

The lights faded away and the feature began and already this past Saturday night is a pleasant memory.

Veterans to Receive Increased Disability, Dependency Payments

Austin, Texas, Nov. 7.—Veterans of World Wars I and II and of the Spanish American War will receive increased disability and dependency payments estimated at $112 million annually under the provisions of a bill recently signed by President Truman, the Texas Military District announced here today.
 The Veterans Administration estimated that 2,024,000 veterans will be effected under the section liberalizing disability and death benefits. Men of World War I with disabilities presumed to be service-connected will get full compensation instead of the current 47 per cent.
 Provisions of the bill applicable to veterans of all three wars increase the length of time for which payments may be made for arrested cases of tuberculosis and set up a new disability schedule based on $150 monthly for total disability and $15 for 10 per cent disability. The old rate was $135 and $13.80.
 In addition, the bill grants increased monthly allowances to widows with a child or children; and states that veterans with 50 per cent or more disability will receive additional payments for dependents.

TSCW Experts Offer Ten Suggestions for Cooking Vegetables

Denton, Texas, Nov. 7.—Time, fuel, flavor and food value can be saved by following a set of ten rules in cooking fresh vegetables say food specialists in the Home Economics Department of Texas State College for Women.
 The same suggestions also can help conserve food value, retain natural color and flavor and make them more tasty:
 1. Prepare vegetables for cooking just when ready to cook.
 2. Start cooking vegetables in a minimum amount of boiling salted water.
 3. Cook vegetables whole (perhaps in jackets), or in as large pieces as possible to avoid exposing too much surface to water and air.
 4. Cook in a covered utensil at simmering point.
 5. Raise the cover and stir only when necessary.
 6. Shorten the cooking time to have vegetables just tender.
 7. If any cooking liquid is left, serve with the vegetables or use in soups and sauces.
 8. Refrain from holding foods hot for long periods of time.
 9. Cook frozen vegetables before they thaw.
 10. Make raw salads or slaw at the last minute.

Check Social Security Number On Pay Check Stub For Correctness

"Check your social security number on your pay envelope or pay check stub. Make sure that the number agrees with the number on your social security card."
 This advice was given workers this week by Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Waco office of the Social Security Administration. Mr. Adams pointed out that most employers conscientiously try to report each worker's social security number correctly, but it is only human to make mistakes occasionally.
 "When a worker has social security taxes deducted from his pay he is paying premiums on an insurance policy. This insurance helps to provide financial security in the worker's old age after retirement. It also provides insurance payments to eligible survivors if a worker dies," Adams said.
 "Eligibility for benefits hinges on the length of time a worker has been employed in jobs covered by social security. The amount of benefits payable depends on the total wages credited to his account. It is to the worker's advantage to have credit on his wage record for all wages earned. If his wages are reported under the wrong social security number," Adams concluded, "he may not be credited with those wages. Later on, he and his family may lose benefits which should be theirs."

CARD OF THANKS

With grateful hearts we want to thank each and every one for their expressions of sympathy, in service at the home, with flowers, and with the great consoling words in Gospel song and reading from God's word.—THE BEREAVED OF HOYT T. POLK.

On this earth for long we cannot stay,
 Our father wills that we be taken away;
 —Ec. 3, 2, Heb. 9:27.
 From this world of sickness and pain,
 "If a man die he shall live again."
 While the body sleeps the spirit is at rest
 So in God's mercy we are greatly blessed.
 Out yonder a place He did prepare
 That with Him we can forever share.
 For it our Saviour shed His blood
 On a tree
 And left a path clear for you and me;
 If we walk in this path which is narrow and straight,
 Our Lord will surely meet us at the Pearly Gate.
 OUR PRAYER—
 "When death's cold, sullen stream shall o'er us roll,
 Bless, Saviour, them in love, fear, and distrust remove,
 And bear us safe above, a ransom soul."
 Be Thy will and it will be enough,
 Dear God, we thank Thee through Christ our Lord. Amen.
 A SISTER.

Attention
Peanut Growers

Because of changes made by the Commodity Credit Corporation in the method of grading and buying peanuts, it will pay you, this year more than ever before, to do a good job of harvesting and threshing your peanuts.

FOUR IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER:

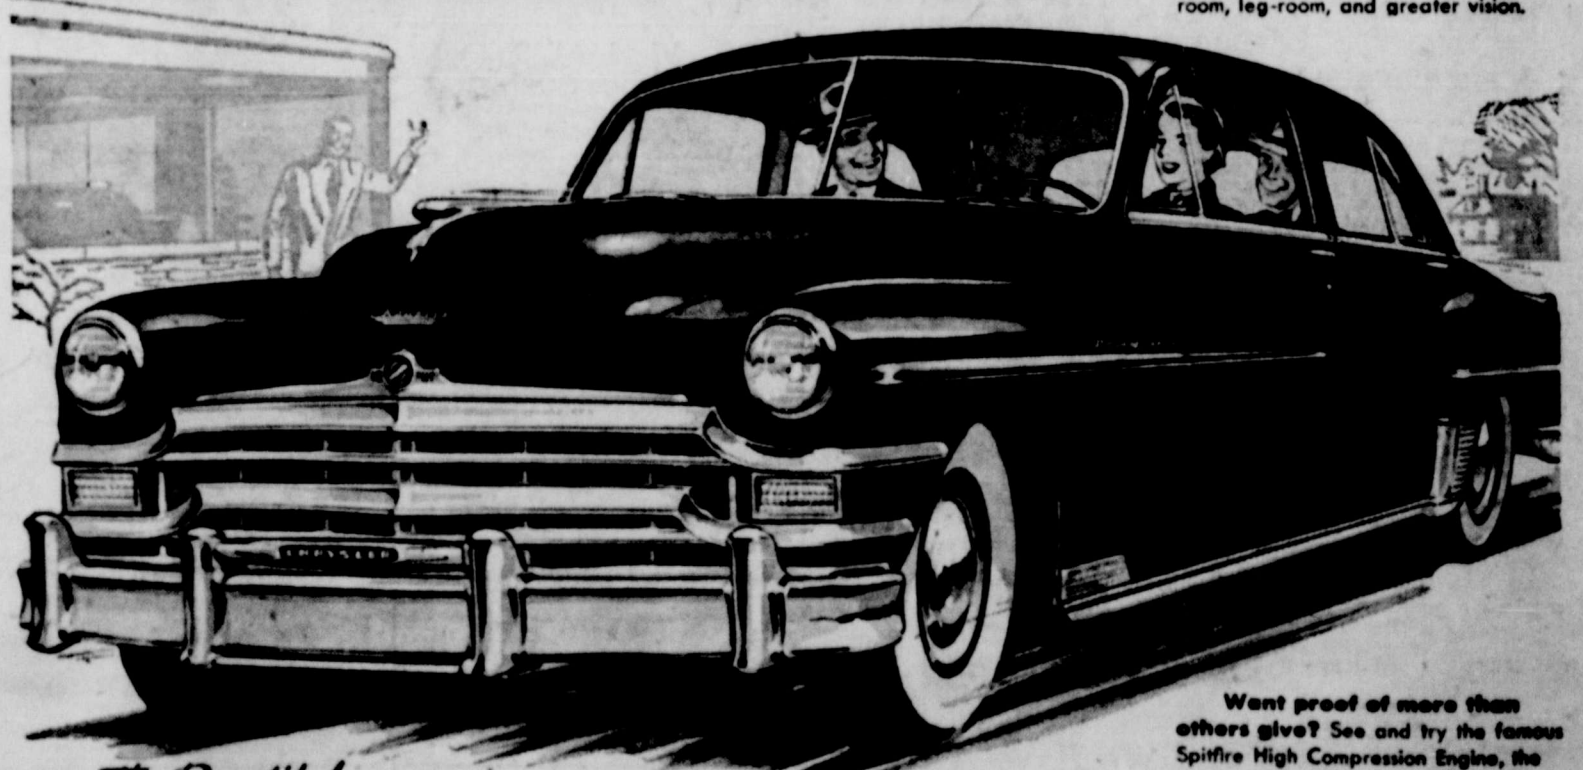

- The maximum amount of foreign material allowed in farmers' stock without penalty is 3%. For each 1% in excess of 3%, you are penalized .50 per ton up to 15%. Above 15% you are penalized $1.00 per ton for each 1%.
- The maximum damage allowed without penalty is 1%. For each point above 1%, you are penalized $3.00 per ton.
- The maximum moisture allowed without penalty is 7%. For each point above 7%, you are penalized 1% for each full 1%; however, for each point below 7%, you will receive a premium of 1%.
- With the slotted screen now being used, all kernels split or damaged in threshing and handling go into shrivels. CAREFUL HANDLING WILL REDUCE THE NUMBER OF SPLITS AND SECURE FOR YOU A HIGHER GRADE.

We are set up at the corner of Barnes & McCullough's for receiving grade certificates and weight certificates, and writing cash drafts for peanuts handled by us. Please call on us any time we can be of assistance to you in the marketing of your peanut crop. We welcome the opportunity to serve you.
