FRED RED HARRIS

Roberts & Harris to Have Law Offices in Hico and Hamilton

Fred Red Harris announces his association with Truman E. Roberts in the latter's established law office in Hico, also their opening of a new law office in Hamilton on or about July 16.

Mr. Harris recently moved from Dallas County, where he has been engaged in the practice of law for the past 19 years. Red, as he is more familiarly known, served three terms in the Texas House of Representatives and also was State Senator from Dallas County. He has been actively engaged in civic work in that county for many years, recently having finished a term as president of the Oak Cliff Lions Club. He and his family now reside in Hamilton County, where they own and operate the Circle H Ranch between Hico and Carlton.

Truman Roberts needs no introduction in this community, having been an enthusiastic participant in various local activities since establishing his law practice here in October, 1949, when he was named city attorney. He and his wife moved to Hico soon after he received his law degree from Baylor University. At present he is Hamilton County Attorney, president of the local Chamber of Commerce and first vice-president of Hico Lions Club.

The name of the law firm will be Roberts and Harris.

Stephenville Crowd Expected to Attend Annual Hico Reunion

Comment on the annual Old Settlers' Reunion, scheduled for August 1, 2, 3, and 4 in Hico, was observed in Sunday's edition of the Stephenville Daily Empire. Rufus Higgs, co-owner and publisher of this daily as well as the weekly Stephenville Empire-Tribune, has informed his readers of the approaching event, and had the following to say in his column "I'll Tell the World":

"Hico has announced dates for the annual Reunion and Homecoming. Most of the people of Stephenville always attend the great show and this year will be no exception. This is an event that has been held each year since 'way back in the nineties. Hico deserves a hand for keeping it going. The time was when it required half a day to drive down there; now the most careful get to Hico in 30 minutes. Let's all get ready to see the reunion."

It was good to note that Publisher Higgs plans to continue writing his column which has been a familiar gargoyle during his long association with that newspaper. Lewis Nordyke is the new editor, previously having been associated with the Stephenville Empire-Tribune before that publication entered the daily field. Lately he has been journalist on the Amarillo Globe-News, and has written a number of feature articles that were printed in the Saturday Evening Post. For a short period he was associate editor of the Country Gentleman.

As editor and part owner since July 1, Nordyke has taken on a large number of duties and is attempting even better coverage of the surrounding area than this neighboring daily has had during its two-year existence. The News Review joins other publications of this area in welcoming back home a member of the craft so distinguished as Lewis Nordyke, and wishes him well in his new-old field of endeavor.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR A. A. FEWELL'S SISTER
Funeral services were conducted in Mount Pleasant Wednesday, July 4, for Mrs. Amie Fewell Lloyd, sister of A. A. Fewell of Hico and a former resident of Hico.

Mrs. Lloyd was 82 years old at the time of her death at her home in Mount Pleasant Tuesday. Also surviving besides her brother of Hico, are another brother, H. M. Fewell of Sealy, and a sister, Mrs. Green Sanders of Mangum, Okla., and several children.

Hico Still Downstairs In Standing, but Scored League Leaders Sunday

By LEON LEWIS

Alexander Defeats Shiloh, 6 to 3. Iredell wins over Hico, 4 to 3. (eleven innings).

Duffau takes Johnsville, 10 to 1. Hico and Iredell played the best game of last Sunday's pairings in the Bosque Valley Baseball League—and next to the best game this season. Hico has a new manager, Mr. Homer Wolfe. Homer is an old-time baseball player and knows the game. Hico will go places another season if they can manage to keep him. Homer takes over a team when it is tied for bottom place and makes Iredell, who is in first place, go eleven innings to beat him. He will make all the teams play ball the next six games of this season if they defeat him.

Next Sunday finds Hico at Shiloh (in Dublin Park), Alexander at Duffau and Iredell at Johnsville. Go see these games, they are getting good.

There will be a meeting of all managers of the B. V. League at the Firemen's Hall in Hico at 8:30 p. m. Friday, July 20. This meeting is for managers and umpires to discuss playoff games. Please bring rosters with you. No players changed after July 20.

KATY AGENT RELIEVES HAMILTON ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. They left again Wednesday to spend a week in Smithville and Bastrop.

GRAVESIDE RITES HERE FOR L. W. JONES, ODESSA

Rev. J. Fred Patterson officiated in graveside services here last Friday at 5:00 p. m. for Leonard W. Jones, brother of Fred B. Jones of Hico. Burial was in Hico Cemetery.

Born February 9, 1911, in Greensboro, N. C., Mr. Jones was residing in Odessa when he died Tuesday, July 3, as a result of a heart attack several days previous to that. Funeral services were held at 10:00 a. m. Thursday in Odessa.

Mr. Jones had been city salesman for Oil Well Supply Co. in Odessa for the past four years. He was married to the former Edna Earle Withers of Sulphur Springs, who also survives him.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. W. W. Jones of Kernersville, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. I. E. Mangum of Greensboro, N. C., and Mrs. C. Y. York of Kernersville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie L. Ramage and little daughter Cherry Diane of Bellaire were week-end visitors here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ramage, and family. They went to Midlothian Sunday, where Mrs. Ramage will visit a while with her mother, Mrs. Curry. Jimmie returned home by train from Dallas that day.

Our Subscribers Like It That Way

Treat 'Em Right and Tell 'Em Everything—Practically

R. W. Bingham of Carlton paid a distinct compliment to the News Review when he paid his subscription Tuesday morning. He said his wife had sent him in to take the Hico paper again, because they had not been entirely happy all during the past year while they were "trying out" another contemporary weekly. Having lived in this area a long time, they said they find more familiar names in the Hico paper than they found in the other publication to which they had been subscribing the past year. He described the other subscription as "just that much money thrown away," as far as he was concerned. We're mighty glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Bingham back on our mailing list. Incidentally we would like to pause long enough to give credit where credit is due. If it weren't for our local correspondents from the various communities, there wouldn't be near as much news of interest to our subscribers as a whole. While the home paper is primarily interested in Hico above any other town in the world, we like to feel that Hico doesn't stop at the city limits, and strive to render service also to all the families residing in this trade territory—which is a whopper, in case you didn't know it.

A. L. Havens, formerly of Clair-et but now employed by the City of Houston, was in Hico recently and renewed his subscription to the News Review. He and Mrs. Havens like to get the news from home, he said, and he wanted to change their address to Houston. Mrs. Havens is employed there with the Bell Telephone Company.

Mrs. E. B. (Parker) Goodloe and daughter Kay, who were shopping in town recently, came by the News Review to buy some envelopes and renew their subscription. Kay is still a little bit excited over their trip to Stamford and Aspermont just before the 4th when she rode on the prize-winning float in the Cowboy Reunion parade at Stamford. Both Kay and her older brother Roy, who rode his horse, were in this parade.

Ivis Hanshaw of Iredell, who either trusts us or her own memory so well that she didn't wait for her subscription receipt, has renewed her subscription to the date, July 8, 1951.

Renewal came through the mail last week from Odis Petsick, local banker, and Mrs. Petsick, efficient businesswoman at Petsick Insurance Agency. The couple, who did dive down on the banks of beautiful Grubbs Branch, have spent lots of time lately in refinishing and working at their new home, formerly the home of the late Dr. C. M. Hall, which they purchased several months ago. Although they've moved from a private neighborhood to the center of the downtown section, Mr. Petsick doesn't have quite as big a lawn to mow here, and so finds many advantages in the new location, in addition to its stately beauty.

L. A. Jaggar, Hico Route 3, called twice Friday while we had our front door off to facilitate stacking of a shipment of newspaper, but failed to connect with any member of the force. Not to be outdone, however, he returned early Saturday morning and caught the old man himself in one of those rare periods of toil, believe it or not. Luther has just finished a new rock home with all city conveniences at his place south of Hico, and he and his wife have reason to be extremely proud of it. They have worked hard, managed well, and now can enjoy the fruits of their labor. The modern home is pretty as a picture from outside inspection, and they spared no expense inside in getting what they wanted and deserved.

Mrs. Ben Washam, always a firm friend of the home paper, called Saturday morning, saying: "I want my Hico paper again." She had been in the hospital last spring, and had some trouble with her eyes, during which time she wasn't in much shape to read, but now her eyesight is improved and she's a lot better. Friends like Mrs. Washam are always needed on our list, and it's a genuine pleasure to feel that they get something out of their investment in subscriptions.

Jimmie L. Ramage said he "just barely got here in time to pay that subscription" when he came by Saturday on a week-end visit to his parents' home. Coincidentally, or on purpose—we didn't determine which—his subscription expired on that very date, July 7; however, we strongly suspect that he and Hazel and Cherry D. had planned to come to Hico from Bellaire that week end anyway.

Mrs. Beatrice Boyett was an office visitor Saturday, as she came by to renew her News Review subscription.

"I've got to pay that subscription before my wife runs me out of the house," said J. R. Griffiths Saturday when he came in to renew for another year. Mr. Griffiths has been taking the Hico paper so long our records don't even go that far back, and we are happy to know that he still considers it worthwhile.

Miss Pat Jordan, who is employed in Fort Worth with Stationers Distributing Company, came by the News Review office while home for the week end and renewed the subscription for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jordan.

"Gotta have that paper," said S. E. Goodloe, Route 3, who stopped in Saturday morning to stop for another year. He was looking for that busy son of his, E. B. (Parker) for short) who besides taking care of a dozen hundred acres full of cattle, went back to work for PMA in Hamilton last week after a 3-month leave of absence. For these good folks, who moved amongst us several years ago, we'll put in a good word for their home town—"Hurry for Aspermont!"

Mrs. Conda W. Salmon has ordered a gift subscription for her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ross. She said that Pat felt she couldn't get along without the News Review, even though their new home is slightly farther west. Their address is 1314 McKenzie St., San Angelo, Texas.

Pvt. Charles W. Beck, stationed with the Air Force in Oakland, Calif., will receive the News Review through the courtesy of his dad, H. C. Beck, Iredell Route 1, who subscribed Friday for his son. Private Beck received his basic training in Lackland AFB, and has since been stationed in California.

Mrs. Glenn Higginbotham, who with her family lives in the cute new home on the hill across from the school gymnasium, made a trip to the News Review office Friday to renew their subscription. Their home, which has been built about a year, is one of the most attractive in this town, and it is situated on a beautiful lot. They have added improvements from time to time since moving in, and have done a great deal of landscaping which adds to the slightly appearance of their residence.

Among those renewing their subscriptions this week was Miss Mary Gandy, who came over from N. A. Leeth & Son Store, where she is employed, to pay for another year's time. Thanks.

A. L. McNally, who holds us "I want to try your paper out for a while, and if I like it well enough I'll renew the subscription." We're glad to have him as a regular subscriber and hope that his investment will turn out satisfactorily, now that he has put us on our honor. While in the office, he also gave us news of visitors in his home.

While in the Hico Frozen Locker Plant, a News Review subscription-taker (this whole staff does that job) met up with Mr. and Mrs. George T. Layman of Hico Route 3. Thus being reminded, he told his wife that she'd better pay their subscription—since she was carrying the money.

Sam Price of Iredell Route 1, better known as Unity community, dropped by the office Friday to pay his subscription renewal for another year. He usually does the job of reporting from this community when there is a meeting of interest in the Unity Church, which has undergone remodeling recently and shows up nicely from Highway 6.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Crow and children, Wanda Lee, Joyce and Lawrence Evered, of Electra were visiting back in Hico last week with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Tolliver, and other relatives. While here she came by the office to renew their subscription to their hometown paper. Other visitors during the week end were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Hatcock and sons, Ronnie and Harold Wayne, of Fort Worth. They were starting on a vacation, and wanted to include a trip to the former Randall place between Iredell and Walnut Springs, where he has found good fishing.

Henry Martin Wieser, Eminent County Citizen, Succumbs to Illness

Henry Martin Wieser, age 77, prominent industrialist and community builder in this section, died at his home in Hamilton Saturday, July 7, at 5:10 p. m., following an illness of several years.

Funeral services were at the Wieser home in Hamilton on Monday, July 9, at 9:30 a. m., conducted by Father Edward Chaput of Austin. Interment was in the new I. O. O. F. Cemetery at Hamilton.

Named as pallbearers were Bob Miller, Keith James, Main Brunk, Spurlin Freeman, Milton Harrell, Frank Holmes, Hogue Williams, Roy Brazil, Jeff Murphy of Sioux City, Iowa, W. R. Fuqua of Dallas, and Joe Eldson of Fort Worth.

Born October 22, 1873, in Independence, Iowa, he was the son of the late Vincent and Mary Gates Wieser, and came to Texas with his parents when a young boy, settling in this section where he has been a resident ever since that time. His father, who founded the Hico Roller Mill, took his three sons into business with him, thus forming a partnership which for many years was active in the development of this part of the state.

Besides establishing flour mills and grain elevators at Hico, Dublin, Stamford and Hamilton, they installed and operated for many years the first telephone system in Hico, which was later extended to Carlton and Hamilton. The Central Texas Power and Transmission Company was also organized and operated under this partnership, for servicing Iredell, Clair-et and Dublin with electric power, as well as various other enterprises which, through their efforts and means, brought prosperity to their own and surrounding towns.

While he and his brother, F. A. Wieser, were owners of the Dublin mill plant, Henry Wieser was married to Miss Lottie Maloney of that city. Some years later he became owner and manager of the Dublin Light and Power Company, the waterworks, and in 1910 he acquired the properties of Hamilton Mill and Elevator Company and the Hamilton Light and Power Company. In 1917 he and his family moved to Hamilton, where they reared a family of three sons and one daughter, all of whom have been prominent in the social and civic life of this county seat.

Wieser's various business activities in ranching, banking and oil interests had kept him physically and mentally active up until two years ago, when he suffered a stroke, in December, 1949. During the time he spent in his home or at the Hamilton Hospital, his wife and children had been at his bedside constantly. Nothing was left undone to give aid and comfort to this beloved husband and father; the constant and unwavering devotion of his wife, expressed in countless ways, sustained him during the trying months.

Surviving are his widow of Hamilton; three sons, Henry A. Wieser of Dallas, Sidney M. Wieser of Hamilton; and Vincent M. Wieser of Hamilton; a daughter, Mrs. O. W. Majors, of Dallas; one brother, F. A. Wieser of Ranger; six sisters, Mrs. G. H. Anderson, Miss Nettie Wieser and Mrs. Harry Gleason, all of Hico; Mother Mary Vincent of Dallas, Mrs. Ida Tunnell of Fort Worth, Mrs. Will Sidons of Hillsboro; also a cousin, Leo Wieser, of Dallas.

Relatives from out of town who attended the funeral included: Leo Wieser, Dallas; Mrs. Ida Tunnell and son, Ted, Mrs. A. M. Maloney Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Maloney Jr., Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Siddons, Bill Siddons Jr. and Mrs. Bill McDonald, Hillsboro; Mrs. R. C. Hoover and Arthur Wieser, Austin.

Among the multitude of friends from out of town who came to pay their last respects were: Mrs. Raymond Armstrong, Mrs. Joe Price, Mrs. Joe McMillian and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tunnell, Stephenville; Mrs. Sidney Darden and Mrs. Tom Sharp, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Tom H. Wolfe, Abilene; W. Jack Barber, John Justin Jr., Mrs. T. Earl Ferguson, Ben Ferguson, Mrs. Will Clay, Mrs. Annie Harris, and Mrs. Raymond Lafferty, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Q. R. Aycock, Jim McKinney, Mrs. Bruce Shoemaker, Miss Florence Sheehan, Mrs. Chas. Faust, and Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard, Dublin; Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Majors, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Majors and Mrs. C. T. Dowell Jr., Greenville; Jimmy Harrison, Winona, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boyd Sr., Bill Boyd Jr., and Irvin Howerton, Hico.

PREACHING AT PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH TUESDAY
Elder J. M. Burch of Arkansas will preach at the Primitive Baptist Church in Hico Tuesday, July 17, both morning and evening, according to A. J. Calder, member of the local congregation, who requested the announcement.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services. Mr. Calder stated, which will be at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

"Let's Talk Live Stock"

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth, July 7.—Strange quirks of the mother instinct crop up every now and then and one of the strangest this writer has ever come across is the story of George and Sue.

Sue is a purebred sheep dog belonging to the Harvey Roach family who have a farm a mile west of Watauga, Texas.

Recently Sue raised eleven puppies. All were given away except one. At about that time, Roach picked up a new-born orphan lamb at the Fort Worth Stock Yards and gave it to his small son, Don.

Don named the lamb George and planned to raise it on the bottle but the minute George was turned loose on the Roach farm, he spied Sue, ran to her and began to nurse.

The little sheep dog accepted the orphaned lamb and she and her sheep dog husband, Charley, seem just as proud of the adopted orphan George as they are of their own remaining puppy.

Roach is puzzled. Sue has a bad habit of chasing cars that come along the road past the farm. What Roach wants to know is—will the lamb, George, grow up to chase cars, too?

Livestock producers of the Southwest are wishing for relief from excessive rains in the middlewestern states. Sounds crazy, but it's true.

Two reasons Southwestern cattle and sheep men would like to see some fair and dry weather in the Midwest are:

1. Heavy rains and floods are threatening to ruin the lowland corn.

2. Midwest farmers, who buy hundreds of thousands of stocker and feeder cattle, calves and lambs, are currently far behind with farm work and too occupied with other things, including the excessive rainfall, to turn their attention to buying stockers.

A shorter than expected corn crop would knock a good many of the farmer-breeders out of the stocker market this year.

Low grade slaughter lambs are piling up in the wholesale meat trade in the East and as a result, lambs and yearlings which would make fine feeders are being sold at sharply lower prices for slaughter.

The development has reached the point that some major packers have slowed and even stopped killing the half-fat or one-third fat lambs and yearlings and are sending them to pasture themselves.

This development does not add up to anything but lower prices so—believe it or not—Southwestern cattle and sheep men are praying for less rain and more sunshine in the Corn Belt!

Surprising development in the movement of livestock during the past week has been the size of receipts.

With the July Fourth holiday hitting in midweek it seemed certain that livestock numbers going to market would be sharply reduced.

Such was not the case, however. Cattle receipts at 12 major markets were 132,000 during the four-day week, just 13,000 below the previous week and 3,000 under the same week a year ago.

Cows sold at 12 major markets amounted to 21,900 or 3,500 below a week earlier and 1,700 more than a year ago.

Hogs marketed last week totaled 261,800, a sharp drop of 41,000 from a week ago but still a whopping 40,500 over the same week last year.

Sheep and lamb prices tumbled sharply at Fort Worth and around the market circle in recent marketing sessions.

Prime reason is the collapsing of the prices received for the pelts from sheep and lambs.

Since the United States pulled out of the wool markets, especially the foreign markets, the wool price has hit the down grade as fast or faster than it went up last year. One veteran packer buyer said at Fort Worth this week that the drop in pelt prices was the sharpest he had ever seen and was perhaps the most sudden and sizeable break in the history of the packing industry.

Sale of pelts to processors of mouton for flying suits and fur coats has been at a very low ebb. So, most of the wool is being "pulled" from the pelts and sold as pulled wool at the sharply lower wool prices now in effect.

Mrs. H. Williamson, Mrs. B. N. Strong and Mrs. J. D. Faris left Tuesday to attend a three-day floral convention in Dallas.

Verne Horsley returned Tuesday from a 10-day trip to New Mexico and Colorado. He accompanied his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Moore, and Gene of Port Arthur, and they visited Pike's Peak and other interesting places along the way.

SUBSCRIBERS—

Hico Route 6. Pat was the efficient secretary at Hico Public Schools during the past two years since her graduation from Hico High, and is doing stenographic work in her new job, as well as a little salesmanship on the side in all probability, since she asked the publisher, "Why don't you buy your office supplies from us?"

Jack Thompson, Hico Route 3, was among the Friday visitors at the News Review subscription counter, coming in to inquire about a classified ad and to enter his renewal.

O. M. Bramblett Sr., Hico Route 4, brought news for the personal column of the News Review as he paid his subscription renewal this week.

Miss Lorraine Segrist, who is a teacher in the Dallas schools, and is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Sue Segrist, has ordered a News Review subscription to be sent to her aunt, Mrs. Emma Warren, of El Monte, California.

Persistence was rewarded Monday when C. W. Giesecke, who told us he had made several trips to the office previously, stopped at the time to find us here and to take his subscription renewal.

Coolidge Wade of Fort Worth, who had been visiting here during the week end, was in the office Monday morning to subscribe for his father, C. M. Wade, Hico Rt. 4.

Mrs. Irvin Puff renewed her subscription Monday while here on a visit from Gainesville. She and young son, Ronnie, arrived during the week end to attend the Williams family reunion and remained to visit relatives here. Captain Puff was unable to come with them because of other duties at Perrin Air Force Base, near Sherman, but plans to visit here before they leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Johnson of Hico Route 3 sent payment this week for another year's extension on their subscription to this Guide of Honor, Truth and Intelligence.

J. W. Richbourg, than whom there is no whomer when it comes to being interested in his home town, his county and his country, wouldn't think of being without his weekly copy of the News Review, any more than he would consider letting an issue come out without his advertisement of some kind while he was in business for so many years. We could state the exact number of years, but that would indicate that he had retired when he sold out, and he definitely hasn't done that in the ordinary sense of the word for he finds plenty of things to occupy his mind, keep him out of mischief, and make a good citizen. "Mr. Bill" has done the present management many a favor, and he is held in high regard by each and every member of the staff. He and the editor-turned-printer like to exchange friendly banter about slight differences in views on politics from time to time, but it would be foolish to veer too far from the Richbourg philosophy—it is usually right on the track.

Mrs. Milt Wallace of Wharton renewed her subscription which is addressed to her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bolton, on Monday. She has been here on a visit the past two weeks with her sisters, Mrs. Wallace Ratliff and Mrs. A. B. Robertson. She always enjoys the hometown paper while away from here, she told us, although she never knows which day it will arrive in Wharton. When the papers are mailed from here on Thursday afternoon (the weeks we don't stamp our collective toes and miss the local dispatch) she receives her copy on Friday, she told us, but when it has been put in the post office after quitting time on Thursday afternoon, she has been in suspense until the following Tuesday or Wednesday. We can't find any reasonable cause for this delay, unless the mail clerks along the way find our paper so interesting they hold it up for personal perusing, but the complaint has also been heard from other places. The paper has always come out by or before the morning of its stated publication date—Friday—at least for the past 20-odd years, and we believe that barring accidental hindrance, it will continue this regular publication for some time yet to come. Other than that, there can be no guarantee as to which day the paper will arrive at the other end of the line. Some solace is contained in the knowledge that it is being received pretty promptly in Korea.

Leo Trantham returned a fortnight ago from Gustine—"proud to get back" to his old home in Hico. He and Mrs. Trantham left two months ago for Gustine to visit in the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. G. Adcock. While there he became ill and received medical attention at Comanche. He had the paper follow him over in Comanche County while visiting, and upon his return home entered a subscription for his daughter, Mrs. Adcock, who he says thinks almost as much of the Hico paper as he does. Mr. Trantham has been taking his home paper published in Hico under one name or another, since the first issue over sixty years ago. "These are good people around here," Mr. Trantham declared, "and there aren't any like them anywhere else." He also put in a good word for his family physician and the services available at the Hico Hospital & Clinic.

Fairy — By — Mrs. Eunice Massengale

We still have continued hot and dry weather. Corn is needing rain badly.

Walter Porterfield left last week for Dallas, where he will accompany his son, Lawrence, and family on a vacation trip through several states.

Mrs. Emma Lackey has returned home after a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Boykin, at Turnersville, who is very ill.

Mrs. J. C. Sills has returned home after a few months' stay near Goldthwaite, where she was assisting in the care of an invalid lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Brummitt have moved to Big Spring where he has employment with an oil company.

Leon Springer is expected in about the middle of the week from Miles, following a few days' stay looking after business interests there.

Miss Virginia Anderson visited a few days last week in Grand Prairie in the home of her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, and daughter, Mrs. Thelma Taylor, and little daughter.

Miss Ovie Parks accompanied her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Miller, and Ronald Keith of Fort Worth home the first of the week for a week's visit but soon after they arrived the Millers received a message bearing news of the death of an infant daughter of his sister, Mrs. Strickland of Carlisbad, New Mexico. They brought Miss Ovie by home and left to attend funeral services for the infant. Mrs. Strickland is the former Miss Flora Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miller of the Agee community near Fairy. We extend sympathy.

We extend thanks to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Priest of Hico for a donation of $1.50 for the Fairy cemetery fund, which Mrs. Priest handed us Sunday afternoon. Our efficient caretaker, Mr. H. S. Pitts, has just completed another one-over with the weed burner and has it all looking very nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Doty and baby of Ballinger visited one night last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brunson. They formerly resided near Fairy and had attended church here until they moved away several years ago. They have reared a large family of healthy children, having their sixteenth child with them. She is the former Miss Delia Brummitt of near Fairy. Sorry we did not get to see them and at least say hello.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don were guests of the writer last Friday.

Birthdates: Sunday, July 8, was the birth date of our deceased husband, Jesse Massengale. The 23rd is that of our deceased father, W. T. Newman. The 30th is that of our grandson, Jimmie Don Sellers, who will be three years old.

Mrs. Edna Lackey accompanied relatives recently on a vacation trip. Mr. Lackey's sister, Mrs. Maude Whitson, stayed with Mr. Lackey and the boys during her absence.

The Vacation Bible School of the Fairy Baptist Church will begin next Monday, July 16, and continue through July 20. Classes will be held during the morning hours from 8:30 to 11:30. The members extend a cordial invitation to all children of this and surrounding communities to attend.

Bobby Block of Ballinger visited a few days last week with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Mrs. Leon Springer visited a while Sunday afternoon in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers. They reported Mrs. Sellers to be recovering nicely from a recent major operation.

The writer attended singing at Hico Sunday afternoon and visited a short while in the Burnett home. Carl Ray Sellers received word Tuesday of the death of his aunt, Mrs. Prudence Coalson of Cloud Chief, Okla. Funeral services were held there on Wednesday, July 4. Mrs. Hal Thomas and daughter, Betty Boone, of Stephenville visited one day last week in the P. L. Cox home, for a visit with her friend, Mrs. Charles Price, and children of Austin, who are visiting in the home of her parents.

Today (Tuesday) we have good indications of rains and hope the weatherman favors us with a good rain soon. We would appreciate receiving information on the dates for protracted meetings. We actually have a Friday the 13th this week, so it might be wise for us to use precautions on this date—if there is anything to superstitions.

a hitching post or a signpost

BIRTHDAYS, anniversaries, graduations, a new job—all are occasions for rejoicing as well as for reflection and new resolve. Whether or not a list of resolutions is made, the accomplishments of the past can be either a hitching post or a signpost to a brighter future. Careful self-appraisal is often as revealing as a stock inventory. But no matter what the goal, the ability to reach it depends on health. Your physician stands ready to take your physical inventory at any time. Why not seek his advice now? His suggestions can be relied upon for a sound health program. Registered pharmacists are on duty at all times to fill your prescriptions.

This is the third of a year's series of newspaper advertisements designed to educate the public to the services of the physician and the pharmacist and to emphasize the importance of seeking professional guidance in the prevention and treatment of disease. Watch this space for future messages.

Might Say

The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies.

Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look, before you jump to conclusions.
