Week 2 Grid Contest: Diasaster For Many

BY RON CARR
GOTCHA! Our game selector emeritus, Bill Ellis, outdid himself in the games for the week two football contest.

One of the games, Tennessee vs. Florida, was not played last week. When we erroneously print a game in the contest that is not played, all contestants get credit for a correct pick on that game.

So we gave you one game and you still did lousy on the 17 others. It may have been the worst week in the history of the contest for accurate picks.

Not to mention the always unpredictable Dallas Cowboys who lost to Denver 42-23. The Cowboys vs. Broncos game was our tie-breaker, not that we really needed one this week.

The first game on the list last week was Muleshoe vs. Denver City, a rivalry that Muleshoe had not won in 35 years. Everybody picked Denver City. Muleshoe shut them out 17-0. Don't sell Muleshoe short this year. I think they will be the toughest district opponent we play. They have played two games and have two shutouts.

The second contest game was 4A Dumas vs. 3A Perryton. You all picked Dumas. Perryton upset the Demons.

Notre Dame lost big to Michigan State. BYU beat Arizona State. No one picked the Cincinnati Bengals to beat the Detroit Lions.

And the final three pro games killed most players as Baltimore, San Diego, and Oakland upset the Jets, Tennessee Oilers, and the Giants.

One player out of all this chaos managed to get 14 out of the 18 games correct. Rodney Shelby of Friona won the week two contest outright, all alone in first place, no tie-breaker needed.

Three contestants struggled and got 13 out of 18 correct. They were Eddie Gauna, Benny Lopez, and Lana Bracken.

Gauna's tie-breaker pick of Dallas 24, Denver 21, was 22 points off and earned him second place money. Lopez grabbed third prize with a tie-breaker of 27 points off.

Combest Has Confidence In House Panel Inquiry

BY RON CARR
On Monday morning, September 14, several Panhandle newspaper editors participated in a conference call with U. S. Representative Larry Combest from his Washington D. C. office.

Newspapers from Perryton, Dumas and Canyon to Hereford, Friona, and Andrews were included in the conference call with Combest, who opened the call with this greeting: "I can't imagine what you all want to talk about."

He stated that he and other House members were committed to maintaining professionalism in the impeachment inquiry process and that it was mandatory that the proceeding be kept bipartisan.

Combest felt that an impeachment inquiry could not be avoided at this point. The judiciary committee will be looking at all 2,000+ pages of the evidence and it is their job to forward a recommendation to the House for an impeachment inquiry.

Combest said that he and most Congress members were in uncharted territory because they had no experience in impeachment proceedings, so they would be proceeding carefully.

However he did emphasize that there was a need to move the process along, even if the judiciary committee had to remain in session during the Congressional recess.

Friona-Dimmitt Game Video On Cable Channels Saturday 2 p.m.

By popular demand and request, the Friona Booster Club agreed Monday night to video tonight's rivalry game between the Friona Chieftains and the Dimmitt Bobcats and replay it on Saturday.

Both the Chiefs and Bobcats are 2-0 and although we are not district opponents this year, the long time rivalry is as strong as ever. Officials expect a capacity crowd at Chieftain Field tonight for the 8 p.m. kickoff.

The ever popular local duo of Clint Mears and Mike Hutson, who never met a referee they liked, will offer candid repartee and colorful descriptions of the 3A action, no doubt somewhat slanted but otherwise unbiased. Go Big Red!

The game will be shown on Saturday, September 19, at 2 p.m. on both WT Services channel 76 and Classic Cable channel 6.

Bobcats Visit: New Look For Rivalry

It's a completely new look for the Friona-Dimmitt sports rivalry, when the Bobcats visit Chieftain Field for an 8 p.m. non-district game.

It will mark the first time that Friona and Dimmitt will hook up without being district opponents since the 1950s, at which time kicker Trent Cook's grandfather, Raymond Cook, was the Friona Coach.

Dimmitt, along with Highway 86-mate Tulia, were retained in the northern (1-AAA) district, while Friona and Muleshoe "went south."

What won't be any different will be the competitive nature of the game. Rankings this week of the top offensive and defensive teams showed that Friona and Dimmitt ranked 1-2 in both the offensive and defensive categories for class AAA schools. Both are bringing unbeaten records (2-0) into the contest.

Friona was atop both lists, averaging 427.5 yards per game to Dimmitt's 386.5. The Chieftains had given up just 87.5 yards per game in two outings, while the Bobcats had allowed 135.5 yards.

"They have a lot of speed, and they live off the big play," says Chieftain coach Mike Scott. "Their running back, Justin Sutton, is the best back we will have faced, and Beau Hill is right behind him."

Running the Dimmitt

offense is senior quarterback Derek Buckley, who passed for 1,274 yards last year. He has already passed for three touchdowns this season. "He can hurt you in a number of ways."

Fans will recall that last year at Dimmitt, the two teams put on an offensive show that included a total of 55 points in the first half alone, before the Chieftains pulled out a 46-28 win.

Dimmitt is hoping to become the first team to beat Friona in a regular-season game since Littlefield in the season opener of 1996. The Chieftains went into the game having won 21 of their last 22 games in regular season, and 25 of their last 27 games.

QUILTS ARE NICE to have for keepsakes, to keep warm, and to share their beauty with others. Anne Spring and Patsy Talley are admiring the quilt display at Prairie Acres during last Sunday's Appreciation Day.

When asked about censure, Combest said that at one time censure was a maximum that could happen, but now with the evidence presented, censure has become a minimum and probably would not be seriously considered.

Combest stated to the news group that he had not yet joined the chorus of people asking the president to resign, but that Clinton's ability to govern had been severely damaged.

He further said that there was no doubt in his mind about perjury being committed. He said that Clinton "organized" all the stories of his people so that they were all alike during his seven months of lying.

Further, Combest said this situation sends a message to women that if they are harassed, taken advantage of by abuse of power, that they should not come forward because the message is that "it is only about sex and is not important." He said this decimates the sexual harassment laws and that more women should be upset about it.

Combest was adamant to the group that he and his fellow representatives do not govern by polls. He said it does not matter in this case what the polls say about popularity.

"If we governed by polls, there wouldn't be anybody up here (in Washington)", Combest said.

He advised that his e-mail and fax messages over the weekend after the Starr report was released were overwhelmingly against Clinton.

The Panhandle Congressman warned that Clinton's weakness in International politics is making terrorists and dictators "press the envelope", since our attention is diverted.

He said he was amazed at the lack of coverage the national media gave to the recent situation in Iraq, when weapons inspector Scott Ritter resigned because his U. S. bosses (Clinton & Albright) told inspectors to look the other way and don't push Saddam, while they were telling the American people just the opposite.

"It is an example", Combest said, "of how easy it is for this President to lie." Right now there is an effort to slow the process by liberals, but he said others will see that it moves along.

When asked about Al Gore, Combest said that Gore is more liberal than Clinton and he would not look forward to working with him as president.

Combest assured the newspapers that agriculture relief had not been bogged down by this situation. The full House is not involved in the Clinton problem right now.

They have to find ways to help farmers without passing on burdens to someone else, Combest said.

In conclusion he said that trust and character are the only thing a public official has. He said that the best thing that could be said about him was if even his worst enemy, who did not agree with him on anything, at least trusted him enough to always know where he stands.

He told a story of being at a town hall meeting in his district with a friend of his whose daughter was in Washington working as an intern in Combest's office.

He said, "I asked my friend what he would do if I had of done the same thing with his daughter." "I'd kill you", the friend replied.

And Combest said, "That was the right answer."

Of Brain gum, peanut zones, and black-tailed prairie dogs

Here at the paper, we get more junk mail than any other business in town.

Not only do we trade papers with many other Panhandle newspapers, we get press releases and promotional copy from every weird organization in the Southwest.

Don't get me wrong. We receive, appreciate, and use much of the information sent each week. The Cotton News from Plains Cotton Growers and dispatches from Congressman Combest are examples.

But then there is the mail that doesn't quite make it. It doesn't quite rise to the level of legitimate public service. In fact, many releases are blatant attempts to get free advertising in the newspapers.

Some of them are just plain stupid, funny, or illogical. That is why I like them. Anybody can be ordinary.

There are people in the world who have jobs which require small minds and lots of time on their hands.

INA COKER Longtime Resident Is Buried

Funeral services for longtime Friona resident Ina Burnett Coker, 97, were conducted Thursday, September 17, at Friona's First Baptist Church, with Rev. Waide Messer, pastor, and Rev. Howard Rhodes, pastor of First Baptist Church of Dimmitt, officiating.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery, under the direction of Gililand-Watson Funeral Home.

Mrs. Coker passed away Monday, September 14 at Prairie Acres Nursing Home.

She was born February 25, 1901, in Sullivan County, Missouri, to Sylvia Ann Desper and Overton Ashberry Harryman. She married James Roy Coker February 20, 1920, in Beaver County, Oklahoma.

The Cokers moved to Texas from Forgan, Oklahoma in 1926. She was a homemaker, and was a member of First Baptist Church of Friona.

Mrs. Coker was preceded in death by her husband in September of 1966, and by three sons: Wesley Hoyt Coker, Cecil Lynn Coker and Paul Duane Coker.

Survivors include a son, Floyd Coker of Hereford, a daughter, Aline Turner of Wheeler, 16 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren and eight great-great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Jerry Coker, Michael Coker, Gary Coker, Lonnie Coker, Phil Coker and Roy Don Coker.

Honorary pallbearers were Wade Coker, George Frye, Charles Ray, Mark Coker and Kenneth Frye.

Art Show Will Be Open To Public On Saturday

The public is again invited to view the Art Show in the Depot on Saturday during the Maize Days activities in the City Park. Audience participation is invited, as all who tour the show are asked to vote on the painting they liked best for the "People's Choice" award. The show is again being sponsored by the Friona Art Association.

Local artist Bobby Wied won Best of Show with his oil painting entitled "Hemerocallis" (it's a day lily). He also took first place in both watercolor/acrylic and in the miscellaneous category with a work of computer art.

Other winners in the show are as follows:

In the category of oil paintings: 1st, Faye Killough of Amarillo; 2nd, Jackie Hinderliter of Clovis; 3rd, Mary Moudy of Happy; Merchant's Award to Marie one of Billy Jeff Clinton's advisors, you are on the way to work this morning thinking "what am I going to advise him to do today?"

(From this point on, I am not making this stuff up).

We received a fax from the National Wildlife Federation. The bold-black headline said "Government Confirms Black-Tailed Prairie Dogs In Jeopardy."

"The federal government has officially acknowledged that America's black-tailed prairie dogs are in serious peril due to a lack of sound management."

Maybe we should put the Executive Branch under the National Wildlife Federation. Seems like Billy Jeff and Wildlife are compatible.

"The federal government has officially acknowledged that America's president is in serious peril due to a lack of sound management."

The US Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) wrote a report to the National Wildlife Federation (NWF) with this sentence: "We fully recognize that the current lack of regulatory mechanisms for managing black-tailed prairie dogs could lead for continued prairie dog losses."

Now I don't mind telling you that I am confused about this prairie dog thing. Seems like I read an article recently that was not too prairie dog friendly.

Farmers and ranchers cussed the little varmints because they were digging too many holes, destroying the land, injuring horses who step in the holes, and generally spreading their nasty little prairie dog habit on the prairie.

You might think these nice wildlife employees love the warm fuzzy black-tail prairie dogs and want to keep them around for your viewing pleasure.

WRONG! The release says the real problem is that without black-tailed prairie dogs, the ferrets, foxes, and ferruginous hawks would not have anything to eat.

Another sound management by a government agency came from the Department of Transportation, who told airlines that, upon customer request, they must create "peanut-free buffer zones" for passengers with medically documented severe allergies to peanuts.

Someone who doesn't have a real job did a study and concluded that opening bags of peanuts on airplanes put allergens in the air that accumulate peanut dust.

Apparently an airplane's venting system just can't pump the peanut dust outside fast enough and an unsuspecting peanut-allergic person may start acting like an enraged elephant at the very sniff of peanut allergens.

So now in addition to worrying about bombs and terrorists, or people smoking in the tiny bathrooms, an airline is required by the feds to designate "peanut free" rows when asked by a passenger.

Tidwell of Clovis; Merchant's Award to Ginnie Siefert of Clovis; Honorable Mention, Jackie Hinderliter and Marie Tidwell.

In the watercolor and acrylic category: 1st, Bobby Wied; 2nd, Doris Wallace of Clovis; 3rd, Pat Carmichael; Honorable Mention, Pat Carmichael and Doris Wallace.

Pastel, drawing, pencil, pen and ink category: 1st, Melissa Jones of Lubbock; 2nd, Laura Skermetta of Clovis; 3rd, Faye Killough; Merchant's Award, Joyce Hurst of Clovis and Faye Killough; Honorable Mention, Ginnie Siefert, Jeremy Smith, Ann Nidey of Amarillo, Jimmy Grimsley, Beth Thomas of Amarillo.

Miscellaneous category: 1st, Bobby Wied; 2nd, Doris Wallace; 3rd, Jackie Hinderliter; Honorable Mention, Bobby Wied and Helen Potts.

The American Peanut Council, which sells 500 million packets of peanuts annually to airlines, is studying its options.

In the meantime if you are flying Southwest soon, better take one of those attractive little dust masks with you in case the person in the next seat has a fit.

So far, the DOT said that they have not received complaints about other foods.

And finally, this press release arrived by fax: New Chewing Gum Improves The Performance Of Your Brain.

Phosphatidylserine (PS) plays an important role in the function of the brain cells.

Phosphatidylserine is a naturally occurring phospholipid. As we age we lose electric current and transmission of thought.

What all that means is that as I get older I get slower and dumber because my brain ain't gettin' no stimulation, except when I read the Starr Report.

So they have developed Brain Gum. (This is for real). Brain Gum contains PS, which increases the brain's ability to process information. Up until now, making PS was very expensive but they found a way to make it from soybeans, turn it into chewing gum, and now you too can be smarter simply by chewing Brain Gum.

They even say that chewing gum is better than swallowing pills because not only does your brain go dead, your digestive system loses power. The Brain Gum is absorbed sublingually in the walls of your mouth and gets to your brain faster.

Now here is the best part. The first month's supply of Brain Gum consists of 144 pieces and retails for only $59.95. Later on, after your brain kicks back in, your maintenance is reduced to only $20 per month.

It seems to me that if I wanted my brain to not be numb and dumb, I could have my cable TV disconnected and save the $29.95 a month.

If you understood any of the big words in these few paragraphs, then you don't need Brain Gum. If you did not understand a word I said because you were watching a bass fishing program, call 888-IQ-BOOST to order your Brain Gum.

I even developed a motto for them: Brain Gum! If you can't spell it, then you need it!

Services Held Sept. 12 In Friona For Blanche Boyle

Services for Blanche Boyle, 89, of Friona were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, September 12, 1998 in Friona United Methodist Church with the Rev. Don Boren, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Friona Memorial Park under the direction of Ellis-Blackwell Funeral Home.

She died Thursday, September 10, 1998 in Prairie Acres Nursing Home.

Born September 13, 1908, in Dixie, Oklahoma, she married James Howard Boyle on June 14, 1931 in Granite, Oklahoma. He died August 24, 1976.

She was a member of the United Methodist Women and was active in Sunday School. A graduate of Weatherford Teacher College in Oklahoma, she taught school several years.

An infant child and a daughter, Julia Warren, preceded her in death.

Parmer County SWCD Sets Director Election

An election of Soil and Water Conservation District directors to serve Zone One and Zone Two on the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District #140 is scheduled for October 6 at Friona State Bank, M.C. Osborn, chairman of the board, announced. The election will be at 10 a.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a Soil and Water Conservation District director election, a person must own agricultural land within the district where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district and the voter must be eighteen years of age or older.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a Soil and Water Conservation District must own land in the subdivision he or she represents, be eighteen years of age or older and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. The candidate must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district. Soil and Water Conservation District directors serve four-year terms of office.

Zone One of the district includes all land in the Rhea and Bovina School Districts and Zone Two of the district includes all land in the north Friona and Black School Districts.

Current members of the board of directors of the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District are M.C. Osborn, chairman; Troy Christian, vice-chairman; Kevin Welch, secretary; Mike Beauchamp, member; and Mike Miller, member.

The purpose of the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District with headquarters in Friona is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on agricultural lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers, ranchers and local community entities on conservation matters.

The district board of directors coordinate the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations. The district has the authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator or other potential users of the S.W.C.D.'s programs.

Screening Clinics Set October 7, 22 In Friona

The Women's Center of the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center and Baptist/St. Anthony's Health System will conduct Breast Cancer Screening Clinics at Parmer County Hospital, 1307 Cleveland Avenue in Friona on October 7 and 22.

Breast cancer affects one in eight women. The key to winning the battle against cancer is early detection by having an annual breast exam, mammogram and performing breast self-exam each month.

Participants will receive a low-cost screening that includes a mammogram and instruction in self-examination by a Registered Nurse. The total cost is $75. A minimum of fifteen women need to register in order for the mobile mammography clinic to come to area towns.

Funding is available through the Texas Department of Health for Texas residents who qualify for assistance. All exams are done by appointments only. Call (806) 359-4673 or 1-800-377-4673 for more information.

while Bracken was nudged out of the money with a tie-breaker of Dallas by 13-10, which was 42 points off.

Six players managed to add 12 correct guesses to their overall total. They were Kent Patterson, Kirk Frye, Mark Neill, Veca White, John Seright, and Andy Carthel.

The rest of you were somewhere below 12 correct in week two. If it makes you feel any better, we had 13 contestants who only had 7 correct picks out of the 18 games.

One of those with only 7 right was Mark Zachary, last year's overall grand prize winner. Mark has gotten married since last year though which is sure to influence one's picking ability.

NOTE: To Mal Manchee in Hereford. Your week one entry, postmarked Sep 4, arrived in our office on Tuesday, Sep 15. A postmark showed that it had traveled to Philadelphia, PA, before reaching Friona. We have posted your scores up to date now.

Point totals after two weeks are listed elsewhere in the paper.

Thanks for playing everybody. Good luck, good pickin', see you next week.

Cotton News

from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Producers have a new set of requirements to follow when hiring new employees. The Texas Legislature revised its New Hire Reporting requirements to comply with the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The law requires all employers in the United States to report information regarding newly hired and rehired employees to a centralized state database.

One of the primary goals of the reporting requirement is to identify individuals who owe child support payments and to detect and prevent fraud in unemployment insurance, workers' compensation, Medicaid, and food stamp programs.

Most producers have probably already received a packet containing the new reporting form and information about the new requirements.

The new reporting requirements take effect October 1, 1998. Texas employers must submit information about new hires or re-hired employees within 20 days to the Texas New Hire Operations Center. Reports under this new law can be submitted via FAX at 1-800-732-5015 or by United States mail to: Texas Employer New Hire Reporting Operations Center, P.O. Box 149224, Austin, Texas 78714-9224.

Additional information can be obtained on the Internet at www.TexasNewHire.state.tx.us or by calling the New Hire Operations Center toll free at 1-888-839-4473.

The United States Department of Agriculture released its latest cotton production estimate September 11. USDA officials estimate the 1998 United States Upland cotton crop to be 13.1 million bales, down from 13.8 million estimated the previous month. All U.S. cotton production is forecast at 13.6 million bales.

The Texas High Plains estimate dropped from 2.2 million bales in August to 2.07 million bales in the latest report. The drop further reflects the poor crop prospects following serious drought conditions across the Texas High Plains.

Overall the Texas production outlook dropped by 100,000 bales from 3.1 to 3.0 million bales during the month of August.

The recent announcement of two new ag reporter's coming on board at local television affiliates is good news for High Plains agriculture.

KAMC, Channel 28 in Lubbock, has announced it has promoted one of their own to take over agriculture duties for the station following the departure of Lynette Haaland September 11. Haaland is moving to Rochester, New York where her husband has accepted a position as news director at an NBC affiliate.

Scott Irlbeck, a native of Tulia, assumes agriculture duties at KAMC September 14. Irlbeck is a 1998 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in Journalism and a minor in agriculture leadership. Irlbeck most recently worked as director of KAMC's 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. news programs.

High Plains producers will also be glad to know that KLBK, Channel 13 in Lubbock, has also added a new agriculture reporter to their staff as well. Erica Goss joins the KLBK via Sherman, Texas and Ardmore, Oklahoma. Goss is a 1998 graduate of Oklahoma State University with a degree in Agriculture Communications. She is a native of Oklahoma where her family is involved in agriculture.

Cotton across the High Plains of Texas is, for the most part, weevil safe as bolls harden off and the 1998 crop moves toward maturity.

However, boll weevils are continuing to appear in much higher numbers in traps and in fields as their fall migration continues.

The only counties in which a boll weevil presence remains negligible are Deaf Smith, Parmer and Castro. In-season numbers across the rest of the Plains have been suppressed because of the hot, dry conditions but as fall approaches, weevil catches are running even higher than last year in many cases. Numbers have skyrocketed in the past two weeks and can be expected to remain high until the 1998 crop is harvested.

A 1998 High Plains cotton harvest aid guide is available to cotton producers from Texas Agricultural Extension Service through county agents and Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. The guide details recommendations and strategies for application considerations and chemical selection decisions as well as for late-season boll weevil management and reduction of sticky cotton potential from aphids.

APPRECIATION
Prairie Acres Auxiliary members Reta Martin, Nancy Edelman, and Joyce Loflin, l-r, served punch, cookies, and smiles during the Prairie Acres Appreciation Day last Sunday.

It keeps more than memories alive.

421 Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

This is a dramatized version of facts taken from the book of I Samuel intending to show some of the customs of these ancient and traditional times

DAVID'S fighting courage

SAUL HAS SET HIS SERVANTS TO ENTICE DAVID TO GO OUT AND FIGHT THE PHILISTINES, IN THE HOPE THAT DAVID WILL BE KILLED AND THUS THE THREAT TO SAUL'S CROWN WILL DIE WITH HIM....

SEE NOW, DAVID, KING SAUL LOVES THEE DEARLY—HE WANTS NO DOWRY OF MONEY FOR HIS DAUGHTER, MICHAL!

ALL THOU HAST TO DO IS KILL ONE HUNDRED PHILISTINES FOR THE LORD, AND THOU SHALT BE THE KING'S SON-IN-LAW!

IT WILL PLEASE ME GREATLY TO DO THIS THING FOR KING SAUL!

TELL KING SAUL THAT I SHALL DO AS HE HAST REQUIRED OF ME!

WE SHALL DELIVER THY MESSAGE TO THE KING, DAVID!

AND THY DEATH STATEMENT, TOO, NO DOUBT!

AND THUS IT WAS THAT DAVID SPAKE!

NOW LET THE YOUNG MAN FALL BY THE SWORD OF THE PHILISTINE, AND MINE OWN HANDS SHALL BE INNOCENT OF HIS BLOOD!

AND EVEN AS SAUL IS SPEAKING, AND DAVID IS PREPARING TO LEAVE FOR THE FIELD, FURTHER TO THE EAST, A VAST COMPANY OF PHILISTINES ARE GETTING OUT TO BRING WAR TO THE ISRAELITES...

NOW, BESHAR, WE SHALL SET SWORD AND FLAME TO ALL THE ISRAELITE VILLAGES THAT FALL IN OUR PATH UNTIL THEY FLEE FROM US AS THEY WOULD A PLAGUE!

Pearls Of Investing Wisdom

In today's world, investing advice is as pervasive as oxygen. Pick up a newspaper or magazine, turn on the TV or answer the telephone, and you'll find someone promoting the latest and greatest way to achieve financial security.

However, there are a few real pearls of wisdom amid all the hype. Some of these gems can be found in the bookstore.

For example, "One Up on Wall Street," by Peter Lynch, is an easy-to-read book that shows ordinary investors how to pick good stocks. The former manager of one of the nation's largest mutual funds, Lynch says the average investor "can pick stocks just as well, if not better, than the average Wall Street expert."

"One Up on Wall Street" is sprinkled with amusing personal stories of how Lynch missed golden opportunities by focusing on trendy stocks. More importantly, he talks about his successes. Lynch encourages readers to be aware of companies that are successfully filling the needs of people. He also provides solid advice on financial planning before you ever invest a dime in stocks. "One Up on Wall Street" is fun reading with a message.

Benjamin Graham's "The Intelligent Investor" is classic reading for the serious investor. First published in 1949 and updated in 1973, "The Intelligent Investor" provides timeless advice. Graham views buying securities like owning a business. Know the business, get involved in its operation, understand its profit-making potential, trust your instincts and judgment, and much more. "The Intelligent Investor" is filled with logical advice that never grows old.

"The Investor's Anthology," by Charles Ellis and James Vertin, offers firsthand accounts from experts such as Warren Buffett, Ben Graham, T. Rowe Price and others. Between its covers you'll find real-life stories of investing successes and defeats, popular misconceptions and foolish mistakes. A candid look at the experiences of some of the most successful investors of our time. "The Investor's Anthology" is entertaining and instructional.

"Common Stocks and Uncommon Profits and Other Writings by Philip A. Fisher" answers many of the most common investing questions. You'll find proven advice in this book, including Fisher's "Top 10 Don'ts for Investors." A pioneer of modern investment theory, Fisher introduced his ideas 40 years ago — and most of today's widely accepted philosophies can be traced to his genius.

Finally, "The Millionaire Next Door," by Thomas J. Stanley, is probably one of the most motivational books on investing. This column first discussed this book back in September 1997. Since then, it has made bestseller lists everywhere.

"Millionaire" tells us that becoming wealthy is within the reach of everyone and suggests specific ways to start. Stanley's studies show that hard work, frugality and a rigid investment plan can — and do — make millionaires out of ordinary people.

Invest a little money and spare time in some great reading, and you'll be rewarded with increased confidence and expanded investing knowledge.

YOUR EYES

Eyestrain

Whether you are sitting at your computer working hard or reading a trashy novel at the beach, spending hours with your eyes locked in one position can strain your eye-focusing muscles. Here are some steps you can take to keep your eyes from getting strained.

*Close them. Even just for a few minutes, shutting your eyes can ease the strain.

*Blink a lot. When you blink, your tears moisten and soothe your eyes.

*Use artificial tears. Artificial tears work beautifully in moistening and soothing eyes. You can use them as often as you need to.

*Take breaks. Get up, walk around, do something else for a while.

*Avoid glare. If you find yourself squinting to see your computer screen, you might be trying to see through reflections from windows or lamps. Consider getting an antiglare shield for the screen.

*Wear sunglasses and a wide-brimmed hat when outdoors. The more you have to squint, the harder it is on your eyes.
