$60,000 College For Plainview

BOARD OF THE WAYLAND LITERARY AND TECHNICAL INSTITUTION LETS CONTRACT FOR SUBSTANTIAL BUILDING.

Will Be a Modern Fireproof Structure

Construction to Begin at Once on Structure which Will Be at Once the Pride of Plainview and the Baptists of West Texas.

The Wayland Literary and Technical Institution, which is to cost $60,000, and which, when completed, will place Plainview far in the lead of Plains towns as an educational center, is now a certainty, as the contract has been let for its erection and the work will begin by the first of April.

The building will be of re-enforced concrete, fire-proof and modern in every detail and three stories high.

The contractor, Mr. W. H. Mayor of Fort Worth, Texas, will put sufficient force on the work to have it completed by September first, at which time it is expected to open its first session. From the interest manifest it augurs well for the institution that it will have a splendid patronage from the beginning, and the necessity for a college of its kind will add to its patronage with steady increase.

Financial Agent Resigns.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Wayland Literary and Technical Institution on the 11th inst. Dr. L. T. Mays, who had been Financial agent for the past year, and to whose faithful labors is due in great measure the success, so far, of the undertaking, tendered his resignation, which was accepted. The Board has not yet appointed his successor. In tendering his resignation, Dr. Mays supplemented it with the following remarks:

"One year ago I was employed for one year to get things in shape for the building of the Baptist College. Now at the end of ten months I have the peculiar pleasure of reporting to the trustees that through my labors and the labors of the town committee nominated by me at a meeting which I called for that purpose, that it is time to let the contract, and that over two-thirds of the necessary funds are subscribed. It will be easy to obtain this small balance during the time the building is in the process of construction, if not, a portion of it would not be burdensome as a slight bonded indebtedness. It is rare for a building costing fifty thousand dollars to be paid for in cash upon completion.

All know the tremendous price this work has cost me. Faithfulness to my trust has made me the target for many aarts, some of which were poisoned, but the consciousness of having succeeded in bringing this school matter to a climax, after it had laid dormant for two years is sufficient reward for much suffering and toll. The secretary and treasurer have cordially assisted me and from them I have received the most courteous treatment.

May God prosper the Wayland Literary and Technical Institution.

It is reported that surveyors are at work on the initial survey of the Stamford & Northwestern railroad at a point about twenty miles southeast of Floydada.

CLEAN-UP DAY.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, March 10, State Clean-Up Day, was unobserved in Plainview. Not so, Tuesday, March 16, the day appointed by the local authorities. On that day numbers of enthusiastic, energetic women, aided by Mayor J. R. DeLay, and by City Marshal J. F. Watson, were active in the work of cleaning the accumulated rubbish of years from the streets and alleys of Plainview.

Under the supervision of Mrs. W. B. Joiner, President of the Civic League, each ward was under special direction of committees for the day, who with the assistance of a dozen or more wagons spent the entire day in cleansing the city of the garbage that is one of the necessary evils of civilization.

There was hauled to the draw west of town where under the direction of Mayor DeLay, gallons upon gallons of coal oil were poured upon each pile as it was emptied from the wagons, and all that was combustible was immediately burned, thus destroying the germs that might otherwise prove disastrous to the health of the city.

Mesdames L. A. Knight, R. A. McWhorter, R. E. Burch and J. W. Campbell had charge of the first ward. In the Second Ward were Mesdames J. D. Hanby, Bellah and Auld. The third was represented by Mrs. W. A. Todd, Mrs. R. C. Ware, Mrs. O. Holland, Mrs. E. R. Williams, and Mrs. T. B. Irwin. The Fourth Ward was directed by Mesdames R. C. Joiner, R. W. Braham, E. H. Humphreys, J. Walter Day, E. B. Hughes and J. O. Wyckoff.

These ladies worked systematically and faithfully. From each ward they seemed animated with but one end in view, that of a greater, cleaner Plainview.

With few exceptions the citizenship was unanimous in assisting the Mayor and the committees in the good work. On the nights of the 15th and 16th, fires were seen all over the town, where piles of useless rubbish were being offered up on the altars of cleanliness, and brooms, rakes and hoes were very much in evidence.

The good results are already manifest. Streets, yards and alleys are free from unsightly objects, and the end is not yet. The work done on Clean-Up Day means the prevention of disease, and the probable saving of many lives.

What was left unfinished on Tuesday was completed on Wednesday. Mayor DeLay himself superintended the cleaning up of the part of town lying north of the Santa Fe.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the zeal and untiring efforts of all the ladies in charge of the work, and especially of the management and executive abilities of Mrs. W. B. Joiner and Mayor J. R. DeLay.

PLAINVIEW MAN HONORED.

E. P. Norwood, representing the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, is a prize winner in the contest gotten up by that company for the greatest amount of insurance written in any state in the Union. Texas is fourth on the list, and Mr. Norwood has the honor of being first in Texas. He wins a free trip to Los Angeles, California, of which he will avail himself in the near future.

Rev. J. W. Winn is engaged in collecting the one-third of the bonus subscription made by the citizens of Plainview to the Wayland Literary and Technical Institution. He reports that he is proud that the citizens are promptly making the payments now being called for. In the past two days, in which he has been at work, he has collected something more than $1,500, which is nearly one-third of the amount to be paid at this time.

R. L. Moore, one of the lucky farmers and stockmen of Hale County, who lives about fourteen miles south, was in town.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING.

The Plainview Civic League met at the Wayland building Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m., the president, Mrs. W. B. Joiner officiating.

The meeting was held especially in regard to the cemetery work. The title to the cemetery having been pronounced good, the chairman requested the committee on getting funds for windmill to proceed immediately with their soliciting, and also agreed by request to act with Mrs. Knight as a committee of two to purchase trees for cemetery use.

The ward vice-presidents were asked to see that the members of their respective territories raised money for the purchase of said trees. Mayor DeLay being present, volunteered to have the necessary surveying done. A committee of the following ladies, consisting of Mesdames McWhorter, N. K. Smith, Lee Shropshire and W. E. Armstrong, including the chairman, was appointed to meet with him at Paxton & Oswald's the next afternoon to decide the laying-off of the ground.

Dr. Wayland came before the meeting in regard to the site of the proposed park. A committee, consisting of Mrs. C. Joiner, Mrs. W. A. Todd, Mrs. J. D. Hanby and Mrs. W. B. Joiner, was appointed to go with Dr. Wayland on Thursday to look at land for that purpose.

All of these committees are expected to report at the next general League meeting.

Mrs. Hanby offered fifty-two trees for beautifying the cemetery as a gift from Dr. Hanby and herself, which were gratefully accepted. She also thanked the ladies of the Second Ward for their noble assistance on Clean-Up Day.

Mayor DeLay then expressed his thanks to all the ladies for their efficient work on that day.

After a discussion of some other matters the meeting adjourned informally.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Rev. C. E. Roberts officiating, Mr. O. R. Martine and Miss Effie Johnson were united in marriage.

The groom is a well known citizen of Plainview, holding the position of Deputy Sheriff and Tax Collector, and is esteemed by all who know him as a man of sterling qualities.

The bride is one of those sweet and lovable young ladies for which Plainview is noted.

In common with all the friends of the happy young people, the Herald felicitates them upon this important occasion, and wishes for them a most happy and prosperous life.

BRYAN AT AMARILLO.

NEW BRICK BUILDING.

Work was begun Wednesday on a new brick business house on Covington street, four doors south of the News building. It will be 25x60 feet, and when completed will be occupied by the City Plumbing Company.

W. H. Rankins, formerly of Russellville, Arkansas, now a citizen of Floyd county, was here this week. It is learned that he will probably locate his family in Plainview, on account of the many advantages this city possesses.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Plainview Camp, U. C. V. February 23, 1909

At a meeting of this camp on the above date, the following preamble and resolutions were passed, and the local papers were requested to publish same.

Whereas, this Camp has learned with regret and profound sorrow of the death of our esteemed and well-beloved comrade, Maj. Alfred T. Howell, (February 23 he answered to his last roll-call. While taps were sounded for lights out here, our abiding faith tells us that, at the same instant, he was awakened in spirit by the sound of the reveille on the other shore.)

Therefore, be it resolved: That in the death of Maj. A. T. Howell this Camp has lost an honored comrade, who in the dark days of '61 to '65 served his country with that devotion, zeal, courage and self-sacrifice which has immortalized the soldiery of the Confederacy.

Major Howell enlisted in General J. G. Steven's regiment from Hunt County, Texas, in 1861 and belonged to Polignac's brigade; he was adjutant on Polignac's staff.

That his bereaved family have lost a husband and father who was kind, gentle and sympathetic.

That the community has lost an honored and fearless citizen, who was independent in word and action. In the highest patriotic sense he performed every duty confided to him, with loyalty and devotion to his country.

JOHN G. HAMILTON,
R. HOLLAND,
BOB LEMMONS,
JOHN FENRY,
Committee.

GERTRUDE EWING COMPANY.

The first three nights in this week the pleasure lovers of Plainview were entertained by the Gertrude Ewing Company, and they were well paid for their attendance. No cleverer dramatists have ever visited our city.

Of Miss Ewing it is sufficient to say that as an artist she holds front rank, taking place with such stars as Elsie Janis, Carlotta Nilson and Ellen Terry.

This clever company is under promise to be with us again possibly for a few days within the next two weeks, anyhow, they will come again the next season, and it goes without saying that they will receive a warm welcome indeed from those who love the drama.

In her rendition of Camille on Wednesday night, there are few better portrayals of the character of a coquette than Miss Ewing.

5 cars of bulls to Kansas City on Friday, March 12.

SPEAKER KENNEDY RESIGNED.

When the Legislature met on Monday morning, Speaker Kennedy tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and Hon. John Marshall of Whitesboro was almost unanimously elected to fill the vacancy. In tendering his resignation, Mr. Kennedy said: "Gentlemen of the House: In obedience to the request of the members of the House, I return this gavel to you, unsullied by any dishonorable deed. I vacate the seat without a single sigh or regret. I will vacate the apartments which the House so generously fixed up for me as soon as I can conveniently get out." Pausing for a moment, he naively added: "And I will leave the furniture. I thank you."

AUTOMOBILE MAKERS

DISCOVER THE SOUTH.

By Percy H. Whiting in Uncle Remus' Magazine.

Virginia was discovered by John Cabot in 1497.—

The Carolinas were discovered by Cabot in 1498.

Florida was discovered by Sebastian in 1497.—

Louisiana was discovered by Ferdinand de Soto in 1541.—

But not until 1908 was the South discovered by the makers of automobiles.

Until that time automobiles were sold in the South, for no other reason than because the people demanded them, and just so many were sold as were actually demanded, wrenched from the makers, as it were—just that many and no more. The idea of going into the South to get business never seemed to occur to the manufacturers.

The year of the prospective panic, of the "hard times" that never arrived, saw the manufacturers awake, rub their eyes and hurry down into the South after business. They found it, too. And now they are going after it harder than ever.

The result has been an unprecedented buying of motor cars in the South. The big cities and the small towns alike have felt the buying fever and the automobile trade has boomed. Branches and agencies have been opened up. So have garages and repair shops. The tire houses have flourished.

And even this is hardly the beginning.

The Grand Prize race held at Savannah on Thanksgiving Day, taught the world one thing, the way to run an automobile race. It taught the South something else—the value of a big automobile race to draw crowds to advertise a city.

No city in the South had ever before trebled its population for a day, just by giving an automobile race. But Savannah did just that. It attracted men and women by the thousands and even tens of thousands from the North and gave them a day of unalloyed pleasure, a thrilling race, ideal weather and a welcome of unexpected warmth.

This race drew not only Northerners, but Southerners as well, and proved an advertisement for the city such as it never had before. Atlanta immediately caught the fever, and the question of holding the next Grand Prize race in that city is being agitated. Also a huge automobile show for the Gate City has been suggested, and, with the big Armory-Auditorium, the largest building of its kind in the South, completed, it now looks as if Atlanta will have a fine chance to pull off something in the auto line well worth seeing.

It did not take New Orleans long to determine that a big automobile race was the thing it needed to round out its annual Mardi Gras entertainment. The passage of the law which prohibited race track gambling barred the thoroughbred from the city and left New Orleans without a single out-of-door entertainment for its tens of thousands of visitors. To fill up this gap, a three-days carnival of automobile track racing has been announced and will be held February 20, 21 and 22.

The New Orleans authorities decided on a track race rather than a road race, feeling that the performances where the racers are in sight from the grand stand all the time are many times more desirable than those where the competing cars only appear at a given spot at long intervals.

A well arranged program has been provided, with short and long distance races galore, but the feature is a twenty-four-hour grind, open to stock cars only, and for the championship of the world.

These twenty-four-hour races have proved wonderfully popular in the last few years. The idea of a race starting on a circular track, lighted by hundreds of sputtering arc lights, at 8 o'clock at night and continuing without interruption until 8 o'clock the following night makes an irresistible appeal to the sport-loving public of any community.

That automobiles can go faster over the Ormond-Dayton beach course than any other in the world has been demonstrated often and the world's records stand as proof-positive of this fact.

In consequence there was real rejoicing when the Florida East Coast Automobile Association announced a meeting for March 22, 23, 24 and 25 over the beach course.

What the Savannah race of last fall was to long-distance racing the Florida Beach events will be to the shorter contests. The course there is the most picturesque, the track is the fastest and the opportunities for pleasant entertainment are unexcelled.

Automobile statisticians just revealed in figures during January. A few of the really interesting facts which they discovered, were:

Forty-two thousand cars were made and sold in America last year; $100,000,000 paid for motor cars in America last year; $198,000,000 now invested in motor car business; 108,000 persons now employed in making and selling automobiles, parts and accessories; 253 builders of cars in America; $28,000,000 worth of foreign motor cars have been sold in America in the last eight years; 175,000 cars have been sold in America in the last eight years; 320,000 motor cars are now in use in America.

With the January automobile shows out of the way it is possible to summarize the new features of the 1939 cars. The first and most important feature is the advent of cheaper cars. That is the most marked trend of the trade. Hard as it is to believe, this cheapening in the price of cars has not meant a lowering of quality.

The new cars are simpler, have fewer parts, can be made more quickly and more cheaply. They are made out of parts of standard sizes. They are made largely by automatic machinery. They are handled by better factory forces. They are better designed and better marketed. These conditions have resulted in a cheaper car—a car on which the profits are less but the sales are more frequent.

Aside from the popularity of the lower-priced cars three features of car construction can be noted in the 1939 models. Better oiling systems, an increased popularity of magneto ignition and smaller bodies.

$7,000 FIRE AT MEADOW.

T. S. Jackson Loses His Business House and Stock of Goods.

Last Friday morning the business house and stock of general merchandise owned by T. S. Jackson at Meadow, was consumed by fire, including the postoffice and everything in the building.

The fire was discovered about three o'clock in the morning, but was beyond control when discovered, and the large building, together with all its contents, was a mass of ashes in a few minutes.

Mr. Jackson was away from home at the time, being in Amarillo on the morning of the fire, and no one was in the house, except Mrs. Jackson and small children, at the time.

There are only two business houses in the town, and but very few residence buildings and the settlement around the town is not very thick, that is, close in at least, and it was some time before aid could reach the building.

We understand the building and contents was valued at probably $7,000 or more, and was secured by only about $2,500 insurance.

This is a heavy loss on Mr. Jackson, and he has the sympathy of the entire community. The building was also occupied by the family as a residence and all the household goods and clothing were consumed in the flames.—Lubbock Avalanche.

WINS HIS FREEDOM.

Address on Lincoln Proves Soundness of Former Lunatic's Mind.

Plainfield, N. J. March 17.—John Ulrich, former city judge of this place, has been released from the Morris Plains insane asylum after ten years' confinement.

The restoration of his liberty came about in a dramatic manner on Lincoln's birthday, when he delivered an address at the institution on Lincoln, so eloquent and indicative of a sound mind, that the officials at once took steps to bring about his parole.

After his release yesterday Judge Ulrich came to the home of his brother-in-law in this city, and when the news spread about town hundreds of friends who have known him in days gone by gathered to extend congratulations. A nervous breakdown ten years ago caused the judge to be committed to the asylum by his family.

SALT MINE NEAR SHAFTER LAKE.

The Shafter Lake Herald has this to say about the big lake near that town: "One of the great features of the Shafter Lake country is the immense quantity of salt deposited in the lake. It is a beautiful sight too. The sparkling crystals resemble some great storehouse of priceless treasure. It is worth travelling many miles to see this one sight alone. Mr. Bryant has sold a quantity of salt to stockmen throughout this section and he says the demand is good. There are untold thousands of tons of this salt and it is the finest grade. ### NEW FASHION, 1,000 YEARS OLD

Sartorial Creations Endure Through Ages, Like the Inspired Works of Poets and Philosophers.

Recent discoveries show that ladies of fashion do not live in vain. Their sartorial creations endure through the ages, even as the inspired works of poets and philosophers and sculptors endure.

This cheering discovery was made in preparing for the dress makers' convention, which will begin its four days session tomorrow at the auditorium.

The "new" gowns were found to be some thousand of years old. They are direct lineal descendants of the tenth, eleventh and twelfth century styles.

Middle-aged gowns are somewhat difficult of description. The middle-aged thing about them is the "armoniere" which consists of a pocketbook of the same material as the dress, hanging down the side on a long streamer. The "armonieres" were worn so that pennies to toss poor people would be convenient to the ladies of fashion. It is declared they will be both ornamental and useful, because there are still both poor people and pennies.

The middle aged gown has other peculiarities of construction. The waist line is lowered about half a foot and necessitates corsets of an awkward length.

Must Be Willowy.

The new gown, it is said imparts to the wearer the easy grace of a man in a potato sack race. The middle-aged gown can only be worn by women with slender bodies and long limbs.

This is a new gown especially designed for stout women, and it is built with such skill, that it is called the "femme de tube." It means "woman of the tube," and the dress-makers say they can make the stoutest woman look as much like a tube as her slender sisters. Of course, etate this week.

THE VALUE OF A SMILE.

The thing that goes the farthest to making life worth while, that costs the least and does the most is just a pleasant smile. That bubbles from a heart that loves its fellow men. Who drive away the clouds of gloom and coax the sun again. It's full of worth and goodness, too, with manly kindness blent—It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

There is no room for sadness when you see a cherry smile; It always has the same good look—it's never out of style; It nerves us on to try again when failure makes us blue; The dimples of encouragement are good for me and you; It pays the highest interest, for it's merely lent—It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

A smile comes very easy—you can wrinkle up with cheer A hundred times before you squeeze out a soggy tear; It ripples out, moreover, to the heart-string that will tug, And always leaves an echo that is very like a hug. So smile away. Folks understand what by a smile is meant—It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent. —Chas. Kruse in Dumb Animals.

SMASHING FALSE TEETH

NOT MAYHEM.

Lancaster, March 16.—Alderman Stauffer has decided that a false tooth is not a part of the human body. Thomas Boyer prosecuted Geo. W. Reby for mayhem, having lost a tooth fighting with Reby. Prosecutor's counsel and a physician defined mayhem.

The testimony revealed that the upon declared a false tooth is an effect, such as clothing, and dismissed the case.

Nobody has been able thus far to put his forefinger on the line in the law or in the Constitution which authorizes the Governor of Texas to hold the nose of the Legislature to the grindstone for even one second. It is about time to readopt the original declaration, that our free government is made up of three independent, separate and distinct departments—the Legislative, the Judicial and the Executive. This cannot be done as long as one department, be or writhes under the whip of any cause of its political character, rests boss of any other department. It is spoils politics and nothing but spoils politics that gives a Governor power to threaten, control and drive a Legislature. Why doesn't he attempt to direct and drive the Supreme Court, or the Court of Criminal Appeals.—Dallas News.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Contable of Hale County,—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Green Reed by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 64th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 64th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Hale County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Plainview, on the first Monday in April A. D., 1909, the same being the 5th day of April, the same being the 5th day of April A. D., 1909, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1909, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 449, wherein J. A. Vaughn is Plaintiff, and Green Reed is defendant, and said petition alleging:

Now comes J. A. Vaughn, hereinafter styled plaintiff and complaining of Green Reed, hereinafter styled defendant, represents to the Court, that heretofore, to-wit, on the 1st day of October, 1908, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described tract of land lying and being situate in Hale County, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit, known as the R. R. Reed homestead survey, about five miles north and one mile east from the town of Plainview, described as beginning at the southeast corner of the J. B. Leach Homestead survey; thence east, 950 varas; thence north 950 varas; thence west 950 varas; thence south 950 varas to the place of beginning, containing one hundred and sixty acres of land; and that on the day and year last aforesaid the defendant unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds from plaintiff the possession thereof to his damage in the sum of two thousand dollars.

Plaintiff further shows to the court that said land was by the State of Texas granted to said R. R. Reed, by letters patent; and that said defendant is claiming an interest in said land as an heir-at-law of the said R. R. Reed and his wife, Julia Reed, both of whom are deceased.

And plaintiff further shows that he and those whose estate he has, have had and held peaceable and adverse possession of the above described lands and premises, cultivating, using and enjoying the same and paying all taxes thereon and claiming and holding same under deeds duly registered for a period of more than five years next preceding the institution of this suit.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that he have judgment for the title, restitution and possession of the above described lands, for his damages, interest, cost of suit and for all relief to which he may be entitled.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, J. W. Campbell, Clerk of the District Court of Hale County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court at office in Plainview, this 3d day of March, A. D., 1909.

J. W. CAMPBELL, Clerk District Court, Hale County.

Hooper and Crawford shipped out seven carloads of bulls last Saturday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Herald makes the announcement that it has secured the services of Mr. Joe H. Foster as editor pro-tempore. Mr. Foster is well-known to many of the readers of this paper, as he was formerly editor and proprietor of the Weekly Messenger published here in 1904-05. We bespeak that our patrons give him such assistance as will enable the paper to maintain that standard of excellence which has characterized it in the past.

We are cleaning up.

It is easy to keep clean.

Dress parade from now on in this town, as we intend to keep clean.

Much praise is due our worthy mayor for the spirit with which he managed the "Clean-Up" of the town.

Last Thursday at the noon hour, Teddy Roosa, First Emperor of Un-amera, abdicated in favor of a successor of his own choosing. Perhaps the mantle may not be trailed in the dust by Mr. Taft as it was by the wielder of the "Big Stick."

How fast we are falling into the ways of the Old World. Many little things of the present become the big things of the future, and will become fixtures by custom and usage. From these there is no turning away. How careful we should be about these little things.

Down Austin way it may be truly said there has been a "hot time" in the old town. Some time since a senator from Hopkins County rose in his seat and declared that certain of the anti-lobby laws were being violated; asserting further that he had been intimidated, as well as certain other senators. This opened the hornet's nest, for the "certain other senators" went after his scalp, and they got it, for on Saturday last, just before adjournment, State Senator H. Bascome Thomas of the Second Senatorial District was expelled from his seat. It may be "les majeste" to say it, but the Herald cannot help exclaiming that a man even though he be a senator, cannot tell the whole truth and hold his job.

Sensation on top of sensation was sprung at Austin last week as the legislature was adjourning. By a vote of 71 to 48 Senator Kennedy was asked to resign his position, and it may be strange that a servant of the people refused to obey the will of his peers, but the only notice taken of the matter by Mr. Kennedy was to instruct the sergeant at arms to run up the clock to 12 m. and announce that the regular session of the Thirty-first Legislature was adjourned sine die in accordance with a concurrent resolution fixing the hour of 12 m. Saturday, March 13, as the hour of adjournment. Then he ordered the hands of the clock pushed ahead to the hour of 2 p. m., when he declared the House in extra session in accordance with the proclamation of the Governor, which had been received earlier in the day.

Governor Campbell is a stickler for the performance of the party platform pledges, and when the Legislature adjourned without performing its duty as indicated by the party platform, he promptly called a special session to convene immediately after adjournment. The proclamation recites the following matters as subjects for legislative consideration:

1. To enact adequate law simplifying the procure in both civil and criminal courts of this State, and to enact laws amending and changing the existing laws governing court procedure as will reduce the present unusual and unnecessary expense of litigation, and as will tend to speedy administration of justice in civil and criminal cases.

2. To enact laws providing for the prompt establishment of an effective system for the guaranty for the deposits of state banks of Texas, under the supervision and control of the State.

3. To enact laws for the establishment of additional agricultural stations, especially in Central West and Northwest Texas.

4. To enact adequate laws granting adequate authority and ample means to the state health department to properly safeguard the public health and to secure greater efficiency in our public health agencies.

5. To enact laws that will conserve and protect the oil and rice industries with adequate provision for fixing and regulating the charges of canal and pipe line companies.

6. To enact laws or amendments to the present statutes relating to the fish and oyster industries as may be necessary to promote the fish and oyster industries, and to properly protect the interests of the people in this great food supply, and to increase and protect the fisheries of Texas.

7. To consider and act upon such other matters as may hereafter be presented, pursuant to section 40, article 3, of the constitution of the State of Texas.

Additional Personals

D. S. Park, a wholesale jeweler and manufacturer of Denver, Colorado, was in Plainview last week. He is an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Humphreys, and was their guest while here. J. P. Mason has purchased the bungalow, corner of White and Slaton streets, formerly owned by R. I. Winn.

We have just installed a new pair of Toledo scales. They are springless and don't vary after being used for some time. Your weights are not guessed at. You get the absolutely correct weight. This is the only pair of scales in town that has been tested and approved by the government. Open an account with us and get full measure.—Irick & Fairris.

The Commissioners' Court has ordered two road graders and twelve scrapers for use on the public roads. They ordered also 336 feet of metal tiling for use in the culverts. Truly these things were needed, as good roads are the making of a country. There is no easier country in Texas to make good roads in than this section.

W. R. Hall, one of the real estate men, was called to Canyon city last Friday by the serious illness of his father. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Aileen. They returned on Sunday, reporting the father as greatly improved, and the prospect of a speedy recovery.

16 SECTIONS of good land at $2.50 per acre; 6 sections at $1.50; 8 sections near town at $3; will sell one section or more. All in El Paso County, Texas. Inclose stamped envelope for description.—Nield-Dunson Realty Co., Sierra Blanca, Texas.

W. S. Miller, the railroad contractor from Lockney, was here this week. It is learned that work on the grade from Lockney to Plainview will begin today at Sander's lake three miles west of the town of Lockney. Work will also begin on the Altus road from Lockney toward Silvertown within the next week. Truly it begins to look as though there would soon be something doing in our little sister town. Miss Jennette Berkley of Norfleet was in town this week.

Mrs. J. L. Rosser, who lives some miles south of town, was here this week.

Dr. Lester Hall of Comanche is here on a visit to his uncle, Dr. J. B. Hall.

E. P. Thompson, a hardware man from Lockney, was here this week.

The building boom was never greater than it is at this time in Plainview. Next week we shall pay special attention to the residences in course of construction in Plainview.

County Clerk J. W. Campbell made a business trip to the city of Fort Worth, going down Sunday and returning Wednesday.

J. S. French, former city editor of the Galveston News, is sojourning here on a visit to his father, G. D. French.

W. H. Burton of Ellen was in town Tuesday. Mr. Burton is stuck on his Hale County lands, as he says he is afraid to price them for fear some one will take him up and leave him homeless.

J. M. Hughes and J. W. Norton of Lockney were here Tuesday.

F. H. Ford, a well-known citizen of Floyd County, was here this week.

Sheriff McMurty of Silvertown was here on business this week.

LAND FOR SALE.

The northwest one-quarter of Section 18, Block C3, Hale County, Texas, is for sale. It is fine land with an abundance of pure water near the surface, in a good community and not far from Plainview. Apply to the owner, H. Robb, Tilden, Ill.

NOTICE TO PATRONS.

On account of a rush of advertising coming in late, we are compelled to leave out several items of interest, which will appear next week.

For the first time since the fire the Herald appears with ten pages. The advertising patronage demanded it. Yet our facilities in our present cramped quarters and the shortage of material occasioned by the fire, made it a difficult proposition.

The inconvenience of doing our presswork away from home also delayed us slightly.

However, we again take this occasion to thank the News for the use of their press.

Fancy Groceries. Irick & Fairris have them.

Remember the Rectigraph Abstract Company can furnish abstracts for nine counties. See their card in this issue.

W. Ed Burleson, a prominent stock farmer and a respected citizen of Briscoe county, was in town on business Monday.

The Harvest Queen Milling Company will pay $1.05, the highest market price for wheat at their mill. It will be a permanent source of satisfaction to know that it is henceforth not only possible, but eminently proper and patriotic to patronize home industries when we buy our daily bread—the best flour made—right here at our home town.

R. M. Ellerd, Esq., left yesterday for Benjamin, Knox County, to assist in the prosecution of George McMillan, indicted on a charge of murder.

See the Rectigraph Abstract Company in their new quarters, Room 27, First National Bank building. They are better prepared than ever to satisfy all your abstract wants.

J. F. Simpson of Ellen was in town this week. To the Herald man he said he would soon ship quite a lot of lambs, which he had fattened, to the market.

The Rectigraph Abstract Company has taken up permanent quarters in the First National Bank building. We will be glad to have you call.—W. A. Morter, Manager.

A. T. McRae, one of our contractors and builders, made a trip to Canyon last week in connection with his bid to erect the new bank building in that city.

Hoyle & Malone have bought the Ferguson Insurance Agency which makes the agency more complete and will in the future be better able to take care of the patronage.

Geo. M. Bartlett, and T. L. Byars, two of Briscoe County's prominent farmers were in the city Monday. From them we learn that the late snow was gladly received, the only regret being that it was not enough, only a fall of about four inches. These gentlemen report the railroad prospects as flattering for our neighboring city and county.

See Hoyle & Malone for all kinds of livestock insurance. They represent one of the best companies of that kind of insurance.

March 10 was clean-up day, but owing to inclement weather nothing was done in this city. But it was a continued article and can be used any old time. Let it be used continually day by day and there will be no need for a day especially set for that purpose.

FLOYDADA NOTES.

From the Hesperian.

Mr. Albert King and Miss Hallie A. Thomas were married at the City hotel, Wednesday afternoon, Judge F. P. Henry being one of the most important actors. The young people live at Lockney, where they are well and favorably known. May sunshine and shadow be blended in proper proportion to make their lives happy.

J. A. Nickell told us the snow was fine, but not enough of it. So did a dozen others. The trend of opinion is that the moisture will hold wheat until another snow or rain comes, provided it is not too far away.

Mrs. J. H. Gamble at Mineral writes that the water there is bad and asks that she be sent a drink from home. Just stay with it, Mrs. Gamble, it will make a man of you, and besides, the water there is valuable because it is so disagreeable.

The ladies of the Methodist church, assisted by others, held high carnival at the W. O. W. Building Tuesday at noon, when they served dinner to one of the hungriest crowds ever gathered together, and it is said that the presence of their wives kept some of them from acting as though they had not had anything to eat at home for a month. Some of the men ate throughout the feast, beginning at the first table, but of course their wives were at home. Some refrained from eating all they wanted on account of the law against being a public nuisance. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

The grand jury is now in session. The grand jury is now in session and consists of the following named men: S. E. Williams, foreman; A. L. Bishop, A. B. Duncan, E. C. Dodson, J. H. Upton, C. A. Joiner, O. F. Batty, J. S. McLain, J. W. Howard, A. J. Blackwell, C. A. Applewhite, J. H. Tackett.

W. T. Montgomery has sold lots 1, 2, 3, in block 61, for the consideration of $8,000. That is going some for Floydada. Mr. Montgomery has been here for a long time and has always had faith in Floydada and as a his town property is very valuable and his ten talents have returned manifold.

There is room to have faith in Floydada and people here have it.

C. C. Thompson returned last week from Henrietta, where they have been with Mrs. Thompson's mother. They had a little child to die there while there. It was about one month old.

H. C. Randolph was down Monday attending to some legal business in District court, now in session.

IRICK NEWS.

DOCTOR'S LAST REQUEST.

Asks That His Heart be Cut Open Before Burial.

Toronto, March 17.—In the will of Dr. Dayel Young of this city who died February 22, there has been found this peculiar clause:

"I will that upon my death and before my burial, my heart and arteries shall be filled with a composition made of resin and olive oil, heated together, or some combination that becomes solid, after cooling, and used warm enough to retain liquid sufficiently long to fill the heart and arteries as well as possible and then pass from the liquid to the solid state and that a regular physician shall perform the said task or undertaking.

Physicians are of the opinion that Young feared burial alive and knowing that such an operation as he suggested would necessitate opening the heart, believed that this would insure death.

Farmers' County Union.

At a meeting of the representative members of the Hale County Farmers Union held last Saturday in the office of Col. T. J. Tilson, steps were taken to reorganize the order on a more thorough basis than heretofore and April 3 and 4 were designated as the dates for a meeting at which it is expected there will be representatives from all the local unions of the county. A committee was appointed to engage and arrange a program for speakers to address the people on the topics of the order. It is expected that some speakers of more than local note will be in attendance at the meeting, and a time will be set apart for an open door meeting, to which everybody will be invited.

L. B. PEYTON, Secretary.
L. M. BULE, President.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

It is contemplated that the erection of a new and commodious opera house will be undertaken in the near future by the present manager of the Bain Opera House. It is needful that such a structure be had here, as the present one is entirely too small to seat the pleasure goers of the city. Mr. Bain is maturing plans for the building, which will probably be undertaken during the spring or early summer. His plans are as yet too immature to say more than that he will build a commodious and well arranged structure.

W. A. Morter of the eRectigraph Abstract Company, is in Floydada this week on business connected with his company.

REGINA HATS

There's something fascinating about these airy, dainty Spring hats we cannot define. The "subtle" charm and "soul" of a Regina hat is felt, not alone by the wearer, but by her "crowd" as well. We do not sell this hat because it is fashionable in the cities and with the exclusive set - we sell Regina hats because we know they will please you. Wont you look soon!

PASSING OF THE SCRUB

It is announced that 1,000 horses, all of them registered, will be exhibited at the National Feeders and Breeders show, which opens in Fort Worth next week. Likewise, there probably will be 3,000 or more pure bred cattle in the sheds and display pens.

All of which indicates that Texas livestock is being improved. The first men who imported pure bred cattle to Texas were considered visionary that man who first paid $1,000, for a bull was considered throwing his money away. Only a few years have been needed to show that he was making an investment at that.

The Texas raiser of stock who today insists on using out-of-date breedings of stock is looked down upon. There is no longer honor attached to being unprogressive in the livestock business. These facts are known to nearly everyone.

Their application in other directions are not so well known. Texas is not nearly so free from scrubs and inferior grades in other classes besides livestock as it ought to be.

We are not yet free from the scrub politician who trades on his party fealty in order to get the reward of some petty office.

Nor from the scrub lawyer who makes a living promoting damage suits.

Nor from the scrub minister who, inspired by no motive except the desire for money, traffics on the emotions of a superstitious public and thrives on their sacred sentiments.

Nor for the scrub citizen who refuses to improve his property, build sidewalks, plant trees, but boosts the price from time to time because of the increased value brought about by his neighbors' expenditures.

Texas has many scrubs that need grading up. The example of what has been done in the livestock line during the past few years ought to be an inspiration that some day we will have nothing but a blue ribbon citizenship.

CARRIER PIGEON'S RACE FOR LIFE

The passengers on the ferryboat Piedmont, from Oakland, California, were treated to the spectacle of a speed test between a sea eagle and a carrier pigeon, in which the smaller bird won by saving its life. When the boat was opposite Goat Island, P. H. Schlotzhauer, a pigeon fancier of Alameda, released five birds. Among them was the famous five year-old homer, Duke of Richmond, who has proved his right to a title of nobility in more than a score of long distance flights. The pigeons rose in the air and circled several times. Four of them turned towards the east, but the fifth, which was the Duke of Richmond, was seen to flit and drop towards the Piedmont. The passengers made out that the pigeon was being pursued by a large bird. The two birds were at an elevation of one thousand feet, when the chase began, with the carrier a short distance in the lead. As by instinct he dropped straight for the place where his master had released him, and landing upon the ladies deck of the Piedmont fluttered through the cabin door. The sea eagle was so confident that it would strike its prey that it did not check its pursuit until it was within ten feet of the rail of the ferryboat. Then it wheeled suddenly and hovering about the stern of the boat for a few moments, winged its way back towards Goat Island. Once inside the cabin the frightened pigeon ran down until it came to a passenger reading a newspaper. As if sure for protection it fluttered up to his side and perched on the arm of his seat. There it was caught by Schlotzhauer and safely caged.—San Francisco Chronicle.

PYTHIAN LODGE FOR FLOYDADA

District Deputy Grand Chancellor Lee B. Shropshire, accompanied by a Degree Team of the Plainview Lodge, will go to Floydada today to organize a lodge of the order at that place. Quite a number of local members will attend, and it is anticipated they will have a royal good time.

Mention was made some time ago of a swan killed by a Mr. Dawson on the J. J. Ellerd ranch some miles from Hale Center. Mr. Ellerd had the bird mounted, and it is now on exhibition at his office.

We are pleased to note that Capt. J. L. Vaughn, who has been confined to his home for several weeks, is able to be up and out again. If you haven't had the grippe, he can tell you how it is, as he has tried it.

Vaughn & Heffelfinger have moved their office from the southeast corner of the square to the office vacated by M. D. Henderson on the west side of the square. Mr. Henderson is now occupying an office in the First National Bank building.

Two prominent young farmers, Morgan and Lane Choate, who live twelve miles south of town, were here on business Monday.

Mr. Boggus of Hale Center was a business visitor here on Monday.

REPEATING THINGS SAID.

Divide the grand old state of Texas? Never. The man who would divide her has some selfish end in view. Besides the few whiskey soaked localities in the southern and southwestern part of the state, there could not be found a corporal's guard who would favor making Texas a whit smaller. The little talk we hear about dividing is prompted by fear that the people of the dry territory will force prohibition on the saloon-cursed portions of the state. Let every admirer of Crockett, Bowie and Fannin and all the heroes of the Alamo say NO!—Clarendon Banner-Stockman.

Not as long as there is a native-born Texan who has any influence at all will there be any division of our grand old state. We are proud of it on account of its resources, its fine people, its great climate and its immensity. Texas is a state, one and indivisible, so far as the people of Texas are concerned. It is a great state for more reasons than one. If you are not a Texan with a love of the state as a whole, in your heart, you may possibly be for a division of its territory, but if you have the patriotism that should come from a citizen of the greatest state in the greatest division of government in the world, "Texas Forever!" will be your cry—Randall County News.

And yet, the "commercial interests" (?) should they so declare, will make the effort to divide the Grand Old State, and as in the past they have had everything their way, in this they may succeed better than one would think, brethren. There is but one way to prevent this, and that is to keep the right kind of "watchmen" on guard.

President Taft called a special session of Congress, which convened on Monday morning, the special business being a revision of tariff. Specialties seem to be the order of the day.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, styled the "Iron Duke of American Politics," has for the fourth time been selected as Speaker of the House of representatives.

FIVE YEARS IN PEN ON PLEA OF GUILTY.

Defendant Waived Right for Three Days' Time Permitted Him—Indictments Charge Theft of Goods to the Amount of $5,500.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 15.—Leftwich Homan, former manager of the collection department of the First National Bank and prominent in local society circles, was sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary by Judge R. H. Buck in the forty-eighth district court Wednesday morning on pleas of guilty to four indictments charging theft of over $50. Four years of the total sentence is concurrent, making the maximum penalty five years. A reduction of three months in a year is usually made on sentences for good behavior. This would leave a total of three years and nine months. Judge Buck announced the sentence. After Homan had signed a waiver of the three days permitted him, the entire proceedings occupying less than an hour and a half.

The total valuation of the goods taken in the case to which pleas of guilty were entered was $5,500.

The indictment which charged theft of property from Mr. Slack and Robert McCart was dismissed. By far the greatest number of articles is set forth in this. They are as follows: One Cluster diamond pin, $700; diamond pin, $50; pair of bracelet earrings, $150; diamond bracelet, $100; diamond and pearl cluster pin, $100; gold bracelet, set with two diamonds, $250; gold chain bracelet, $50; gold necklace, $50; cameo pin, $15; cameo locket, $15; gold band bracelet, $25; gold link bracelets, $25; pearl chain, $20; gold locket, $20; gold tumbler, $3; gold hoop ear-rings, $25; gold daisy locket, $10 gold chain, $50; gold daisy pin, $10; gold watch, $50; turquoise rings, $25; pair ear rings, $50; emerald and diamond ring, $150; solitaire diamond ring, $150; gold ring set with diamonds and emeralds, $200; princess ring, $200; emerald wreath pin, $20 diamond ear-rings, $500.

All jewelry, but the Hagler jewels, the bank officials say were in tin boxes in patrons were permitted without charge to file away papers and in which the bank did not know things of value to others than the owners were placed.

"I WILL BEGIN LIFE OVER AGAIN," SAYS HOMAN.

"I am glad I was caught, and I shall enter upon the serving of my term in the penitentiary without shrinking from the punishment," said Homan. "I shall go with the object and I shall hold to the determination to come out a better man than I have been. If I had not been caught I should probably have gone from bad to worse and I would never have had any chance in the world. I have already been punished.

"For the past six months, before my arrest, the thought of what I had done and was doing was a specter at my elbow all the time. I would rather be just where I am than to be back in a position where I was haunted with an ever-present dread, and where I felt I could not make retribution. "The law has been better to me than many of my friends, or rather those whom I had thought were my friends. I have had a square deal from the law, and feel no resentment toward anyone. I had rather pay the penalty the law inflicts than bear the punishment of a guilty conscience.

"I have much to hope for. I shall conduct myself as well as I possibly can, so that I may shorten my sentence by good behavior. A man who has a wife like mine, who sticks to him through thick and thin, has everything to live for. My brother, George, has proven himself the right kind of a brother. I have got to do my best for their sakes. When I get out, my wife and I will go away off somewhere and commence over again. I have learned many things since I have been in jail and shall learn many more about the big questions of life that will be of value to me when I am free.

"I shall never again offend against the law. I simply got caught in the whirl and never had time to stop and think. My jail sentence has done me lots of good and I think Billy McCain is one of the best fellows in the world."

MR. WHITESCARVER'S PLAN.

Give Some of the Best Plans for Encouraging Teachers and Pupils to Come Early and Remain Until the Close of the Sunday School Session.

This question implies many or at least several plans for securing the desired end, and while there may be many good plans, it is probable there is no "best" plan. There have been no means applied so far by which the conditions are made ideal.

People are by habit even if not by nature lazy, indifferent, careless and apathetic. Neither teachers nor pupils are wholly free from these weaknesses. Parents, teachers, superintendent and pastor have sought in vain for a remedy.

We have not the power to compel attendance nor the ability to hire it, even if we were disposed to use either as a means to that end, and in as much as both methods are in and of themselves questionable we can recommend neither.

The great end and purpose of the Sunday school is the development of Christian character. This can be done in no other way than by a willing response to proper incentives. We must interest pupils, parents and teachers, and when once interested, we must minister to their wants. We must interest parents in the school and frequently in their children; we must interest teachers in the school, their classes, individuals in their classes, the parents, the neighbors, the world and their own souls possibly, we must interest the pupils in their classes, the school, their teacher, their community, and if possible the world.

We might mention many things which should not be done, but we are rather looking for what should be done. The superintendent is the prime factor in awakening interest in the school. He must be fully prepared to discharge wisely, promptly and conscientiously all duties devolving upon him. He should be a person of ability, patience, perseverance and enthusiasm. He must know his business and feel the responsibility of his office. He should as far as possible secure teachers possessing like qualifications with himself. Teachers and officers should be made to feel probably very much more than they do the responsibility of the position. Teachers and officers should thoroughly understand one another and work unitedly and persistently for the one great purpose. Both pastor and parent should be a close second to teacher and superintendent. Parents, teachers, pastors and officers should consider themselves as humble servants in God's hands to evangelize, to Christianize the community. The school in its proper sphere should be second to nothing, but should be a school with intelligent, consecrated, humble, zealous teachers and officers who are willing as they have opportunity to do good to all men, especially those who are of the household of faith and who have a love for the work born of the spirit, a zeal that knows no denial. In short, the school must be made a school, neither a church nor a public social, a school whose teachers study the nature and needs of their pupils and minister to the same. A school which God can and will honor, and in which the Holy Spirit may and will work. Such a school it is true, is an uncomfortable place for the dressy teacher, or the teacher who has other selfish ends in view, but while they teach we cannot hope to have an ideal school. The first thing to be done is to plan and secure a corps of consecrated teachers who can and will teach, and work in harmony with pastor, superintendent and other officers to make the school ideal. Of course the school thus planned and administered will have all the adjuncts of an ideal school such as teachers' meetings, the home department, normal class and special Bible classes, not as an end in themselves, but as a means to an end.

PAYS DOLLAR FOR QUART.

Man Who "Bit" on Georgia Practical Joke Gets Small Satisfaction in Court.

Atlanta, March 17.—As one of the results of prohibition in the State of Georgia the interesting question has arisen as to what really constitutes a "quart of corn" in the eyes of the law.

"A quart of corn is a quart of corn, be it in solid or liquid state," Justice A. D. Patterson decided.

Charging that he had obtained $1 from him under false pretenses, Coy Fisher, a painter, prosecuted Elbert Bryan, 14 years old. The evidence showed that Fisher had been told that for $1 a quart of "Georgia corn" might be had on the quiet. He entrusted the lad with the coin, and at the appointed time went to the rear of a certain building, where he expected to find his bottle.

To his keen disappointment, Fisher found, not a quart of "booze," but a quart of corn in its original form as freshly shelled from the ear. He appealed for the return of his money, but the boy said that the transaction was bona fide and that he had delivered what the contract called for.

"Receiving and retaining $1 for the delivery of a quart of shelled corn is not getting money under false pretenses," said Judge Patterson in deciding the case, "though the contributing party may have separated from his coin under the impression that the corn was coming to him in liquid form. The transaction is held to be a practical joke and not criminal." Fisher paid $1.50, the cost of the prosecution.
