HALE CO. WANTS WINNING EXHIBITS

WON 19 FIRST AND 6 SECOND PRIZES OUT OF 27 ENTRIES LAST YEAR.

APPEALS TO CITIZENS' PRIDE

President of Chamber of Commerce Urges Hale County Farmers to Bring in Exhibits.

No citizen of the Central Plains has labored more unselfishly for the advancement of this country than has O. M. Unger, President of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Unger has worked without charge, and he has labored, not alone for Plainview, but for Hale County and the entire Central Plains. Undoubtedly his appeal will be responded to.

"To the Citizens of Hale County:

"It will be remembered that last year Hale County came out with flying colors with its exhibit at the Dallas Fair.

"Twenty-five prizes out of twenty-seven exhibits is a record that should appeal to the pride of every citizen of the county. The reputation of Hale County and her achievements is attracting attention throughout the United States, and we can not afford at this time to let our banner trail behind.

"In order that we may push forward and achieve other victories, I appeal to every loyal citizen of Hale County to get up a collection of the best products of the field, garden and orchard, so that we may send to Dallas the largest and best exhibit we have ever had at the State Fair.

"We will have a County Fair and Stock Show at Plainview on October 2, 3 and 4, 1912, and we wish to assemble all exhibits there so our home people may see and enjoy them, and when this Fair is over, we will send them to the Dallas State Fair.

"A list of articles that may win prizes will appear in the county papers this week, and the prizes offered exhibitors by local people will be published next week.

"I, therefore, hope every citizen feeling an interest in the county and its success and advancement will furnish us with an exhibit of his best products.

"Very respectfully,

"O. M. UNGER, President,

"Plainview Chamber of Commerce."

SETH WARD AND WAYLAND START FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

First Game Is October 7; Rivalry Is Keen Between Local Schools.

Athletic fans are promised things of interest in Plainview during the next few weeks. With Wayland College, Seth Ward and the High School all playing football, there should be many good games on local grounds.

The Seth Ward Athletic Association organized last week, with Will Elliott, president, and Charlie Glenn, secretary-treasurer. Will Elliott is captain of the football team. More than forty candidates are out for places on the team.

Six of Last Year's Eleven Out.

Six of last year's eleven are out for places. "Curley" Dunaway and Adamson at right and left tackles; Pointer, half back; Grady Hicks, last year's quarter; Nations and "Slim" Edmonson, guards, are the experienced men. Elliott, Cole, Russell, Jeffries, Woolverton, Perdue, Formway, Cousineau and Rook have all had more or less experience and other new men are appearing very likely.

Professor Hendry, formerly of Southwestern University, is coaching the team. A full schedule has not been made out yet. The first game will be played with Wayland College, Monday, October 7—just two weeks off.

A. and M. Man Coaches Wayland.

Twenty men are working out for places at Wayland, under Otis Shropshire, who learned his football at Texas A. and M. College. Captain C. B. Harder says: "Our boys are light, but they are fast." Only two of last year's team are out this fall.

So far work has been confined to falling on ball and tackling, but Coach Shropshire and Captain Harder will start signal practice probably Saturday.

The teams at Wayland and Seth Ward are working every day. The boys would be encouraged greatly if their friends in town would go out in the afternoon and watch them practice.

The wet weather has prevented any organized work in athletics at the High School yet. But the boys have been tossing the pig skin, and will get down to practice early next week. Basket ball will be taken up a little later. Many of the girls, both at the colleges and in high school, are trying to arrange basket ball teams at once. A three-cornered series of games is talked of between the colleges and high school girls.

SEATTLE CAPITALIST TO IRRIGATE HALE COUNTY FARM.

T. C. Criswell Will Put Down Well on His Section of Land.

T. L. Criswell of Seattle, Washington, who was here last week looking after his land south of Plainview, returned Saturday.

This is Mr. Criswell's first trip to Plainview since he invested in a section of land here eight years ago. Mr. Criswell says he is surprised beyond measure at the development here during eight years. He intends having his entire section put under irrigation at once.

PLAINVIEW MUST HAVE SIDEWALKS

MAYOR DORSETT SAYS CITY WILL PROVIDE TEMPORARY CROSSINGS.

MAY ISSUE $10,000. OF BONDS

Teams Are Promised for Grading When the Mud Has Dried Up.

"Plainview must have more cement sidewalks," said Mayor J. L. Dorsett Wednesday afternoon. And not one of the scores who had to wade through water over shoe tops during the past week but agrees with him.

Mayor Dorsett has been busy this week, draining the water from the streets and putting in temporary street crossings. Temporary street crossings have been provided at both the school houses, and concrete blocks were placed at some of the crossings in East Plainview.

Dirt for filling in the east side of the square will be taken from the Finnie building, to be put up next to the Third National Bank. Mayor Dorsett has a number of teams promised for work just as soon as the ground dries up sufficiently to permit of anything to improve conditions. More grading will be done wherever it is desirable and drains put in to carry away surplus water.

Can't Force Citizens to Build.

"I have been in consultation with both Judge Randolph and Mr. Joiner," Mayor Dorsett said Wednesday, "and both of them tell me that we cannot force citizens to build concrete sidewalks until the city can put in the crossings. Just now we haven't the money to put in the crossings. We hope to have it soon."

Mayor Dorsett says that a resolution favoring a bond issue of $10,000 has been presented. The tax rate has already been fixed for this year, he says, and the proposition for $10,000 of bonds will likely be submitted so as to get to work early in 1913.

Wherever citizens are sufficiently interested in the welfare of Plainview and general health conditions to put in good sidewalks, Mayor Dorsett will try and provide temporary street crossings. The city cannot now.

Many Favor Paving.

Many of the citizens are in favor of paving the square and North Pacific Street to the depot. "I was in Amarillo the other day," said Dr. Lindsay. "It certainly gives one a favorable impression to pass from the depot onto a paved street up town."

"Paving is the only way to permanently relieve the situation on our most frequently traveled streets," Dr. McClendon said, "and with the putting in of the park and lake north of the depot we should have a good walk and driveway on North Pacific St."

Dr. McClendon thinks it is a marvelous tribute to the prying powers of our atmosphere that there is only one case of typhoid fever in Plainview. The mud and weeds make health conditions bad.

F. W. Clinkscales says that he would gladly pay for paving in front of his property. Many other citizens are of the same opinion. But Mayor Dorsett thinks it best to drain the water, grade the streets and build concrete sidewalks first.

Mrs. E. R. Gibson of Floydada was here Wednesday, to meet her daughter, Miss Dulcie Gibson, who came in from Taylor, Texas, where she has been visiting for some time.

STEPHENS TALKS OF EXPERIMENT FARM

JOHN H. STEPHENS EXPECTS TO SECURE AGRICULTURAL STATION FOR PLAINVIEW.

BILL REPORTED FAVORABLY

Says Representatives Censured Unjustly Because Senatorial Courtesy Does Not Hold in House.

Hon. John H. Stephens, Member of Congress from this district, visited his daughter, Mrs. C. H. White, in Plainview, this week. Congressman Stephens says that he expects to secure the passage of his bill providing for an agricultural experiment station at Plainview.

The bill has been favorably reported to the Agricultural Committee of the House by the Subcommittee having it in charge, but, like many other similar bills, it went over to the next session. The Herald is in receipt of the following communication regarding the matter from Mr. Stephens:

"Plainview, Texas, Sept. 18, 1912.

"Editor of Herald:

"Sir: I desire to state through your paper that I expect this winter to secure the passage of my bill providing for an agricultural station at this place.

"The bill has been favorably reported to the Agricultural Committee of the House by the Subcommittee having it in charge, but, like hundreds of other similar bills, it went over to the next session of Congress.

"The Culberson Bill has not been considered by the House.

"JNO. H. STEPHENS, M. C."

Mr. Stephens says that senatorial courtesies permit a Senator to call up a bill at any time for small appropriations in his state and pass it through the Senate. It then goes to the House and is always considered carefully by the committee having it in charge, and if the bill is unimportant it cannot pass.

As an example, Mr. Stephens calls attention to the fact that Senator Warren of Wyoming secured an appropriation of $75,000 for a public building at Sundance, in his state. Sundance has only 275 people. In order to get public buildings the rules of the House require that a town must have $5,000 inhabitants and post office receipts must exceed $10,000 a year.

Congressmen Censured Unjustly.

"The people cannot understand why their Congressmen cannot secure the passage of such bills after they have passed the Senate, and they are censured unjustly for the failure of such measures. Senator Culberson's Plainview bill is a case in point."

Mr. Stephens referred to the fact that the line between Texas and New Mexico has been settled in favor of Texas, over the opposition of Senator Culberson. Mr. Stephens drew the bill that passed the state Legislature and later passed Congress. And because of public opinion and the merits of this bill, he says Senator Culberson finally agreed to the bill.

Mr. Stephens says "This boundary bill affected my district more than any other, and the opposition of Senator Culberson to it was not appreciated by me. Neither are his efforts to secure all the credit for passing the Plainview Agricultural Station bill."

Congressman Stephens has represented the Thirteenth District for nearly a score of years. His constituents feel that their interests are safe in his hands.

CARTOONIST TO OPEN SETH WARD'S LYCEUM.

President Pearce Urges Citizens to Help College Make Course a Success.

The announcement of Seth Ward's Lyceum has been placed in R. A. Long's window. Ross Crane, cartoonist and entertainer, will open the course on October 12. The Ernest Gamble Concert Company will give an instrumental and vocal concert November 30th.

The Fine Arts Faculty of Seth Ward will give a recital on January 9. On February 26 the Euclid Male Quartette will entertain. Elias Day, humorist and expressionist, will close the course, on March 15.

All attractions will be given at the Methodist Church. A season ticket can be purchased for $1.50, or at the rate of 30 cents for each attraction. Single admission will cost 50 cents.

President Pearce says these are some of the highest-priced entertainments offered by the Dixie Lyceum. He hopes that the people of Plainview will encourage this class of entertainment by helping the college make this course a success.

SIX SHOATS BRING $107.35.

T. W. Canterbury Sells Six-Months-Old Pigs for $18 Each.

T. W. Canterbury brought six shoats to town Thursday and sold them for $107.35. The shoats were all less than seven months old. They were raised on skim milk and chops and topped with Indian corn.

Plainview has topped the hog market in Fort Worth three times during 1912.

Mr. Canterbury has lived in Hale County more than twenty years. He says he has been reading the Herald since it was founded, twenty-three years ago.

CITY FINES VIOLATORS OF HOTEL SOLICITING ORDINANCE.

Two complaints against parties for violating an ordinance prohibiting hotel proprietors from passing beyond a fixed line at the depot to solicit or call for their hotel, were taken up by the City Court this week. Each case was fined $1 and costs. One of the cases has been appealed to the County Court.

BAKER-LASH MARRIAGE A SURPRISE TO FRIENDS.

Mrs. Zetta Baker of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and J. J. Lash of Plainview were married, in Muskogee, Monday night at eight o'clock. It was a home wedding and was a surprise to friends of both bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Lash returned to Plainview Thursday. They will board for a few weeks.

MOORE-BARR NUPTIALS.

Miss Neoma Moore of Hale Center and Dr. C. B. Barr of Plainview were married Sunday, in Plainview. The wedding seems to have been a surprise. Dr. and Mrs. Barr returned to Plainview Thursday from a honeymoon trip.

SILO DOUBLES PROFITS.

Kansas Experiment Station Finds Cows Yield Better on Silage.

The Agricultural Experiment Station of Kansas conducted an experiment comparing the cost of manufacture of milk from grain and from a silage ration.

It was found that the grain ration cost $1.05 to produce 100 pounds of milk, and when silage was substituted in that same ration for half the grain it reduced the price to 68 cents per 100 pounds, a difference of 37 cents.

It cost 22 cents to produce one pound of butter fat where grain was used, and only 13 cents where silage was used to take the place of half the grain, a difference of nine cents.

The profit on each cow for the year where grain was used was $24.60, and where silage was fed with grain was $58.50.

TO SHIP MAIZE TO MITCHELL COUNTY.

T. J. Zeller, G. J. Brown and E. Brown, from Loraine, Texas, were here Tuesday making arrangements to have Hale County maize shipped to them in Mitchell County.

HALE COUNTY FAIR OCT. 3, 4, AND 5

PERMANENT ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED AT MASS MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT.

$2,500.00 FOR RACES

Movement Inaugurated by Driving Club to Become Permanent; County Fair Each Year.

The first annual agricultural exhibit and race meet of the Hale County Fair Association and Driving Club will be held in Plainview October 2, 3 and 4. Permanent organization was effected Tuesday night, at a meeting held in the Hale County Court House. H. C. Whitworth was elected secretary.

The Driving Association had already secured a lease on the section of ground southwest of town where the races were held this summer. There is a well and windmill on the ground. The barn contains twenty box stalls. Only temporary buildings will be put up this year, but it is planned to have permanent buildings before next October.

Committee Is Sealing Farmers.

James R. DeLay, O. M. Unger and Judge Joe E. Lancaster were appointed as committee to see farmers for exhibits of farm products and to arrange for premiums. Calloway, Shepard and Hatchell were appointed to assist the committee on arrangement and in securing premiums.

E. Dowden is superintendent of the agricultural department, T. C. Shepard is superintendent of the live stock department, S. S. Sloneker is superintendent of the poultry department, and Mrs. R. W. Brahan and Mrs. H. A. Quisenberry are in charge of the ladies' department. This last includes needle work of all kinds, pastry and canned fruits.

Races will be held each day of the Fair, beginning at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. George McKinty is in charge of the races. Purses amounting to $2,500 will be offered; $1,500 in purses will be offered during the three days for harness races, alone.

No Charges for Exhibits.

The Association has decided that no stall charges will be made this year on county exhibits, but all speed horses will pay for stall. Feed will be sold on the grounds by the Fair Association, under the supervision of Clint Shepard. All persons desiring to enter live stock exhibits or other exhibits must notify H. C. Whitworth, Secretary, not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Monday, September 30.

More than forty horses have been entered for the races.

The Hale County Fair will aid materially in bringing together the best products of the county, from which selections may be made for exhibit at the State Fair, at Dallas. Last year Hale County won nineteen first prizes and six second prizes out of twenty-seven entries.

W. H. RANKIN COMES BACK TO STAY.

Former Resident Says Plainview Is Best—Had Chills in Arkansas.

Mr. W. H. Rankin was in Plainview this week, on his return from Russellville, Ark., where he has resided the past year. He is returning to the Plains county to stay this time. Mr. Rankin says this country looks good to him. He wants to stay where all chills are not rigors.

RECOUNT INCREASES MAYFIELD'S LEAD.

In the R. M. Ellerd Contest, County Judge Gets Two More Votes When Ballots Are Counted Again.

The recount in the contest of R. M. Ellerd against Judge Geo. L. Mayfield for District Attorney, increases Judge Mayfield's majority from seventy to seventy-two votes. The West Side box tallied with former count; the Plainview box gave Judge Mayfield an increased majority of two votes. There were no other boxes contested in the county.

CITY COUNCIL TRANSACTS ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The Plainview City Council met Monday night and transacted routine business.

SNEED SHOTS AL BOYCE.

Husband Slays Man Who Eloped With His Wife to Canada Last Year.

Al Boyce is dead and J. Beal Sneed is in custody. Saturday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, on Polk Street, in Amarillo, J. Beal Sneed shot and killed Al Boyce.

Al Boyce had been at the home of his mother, in Amarillo, about a week. Reports indicate that he was shot from ambush. More than thirty buckshot entered his body. Sneed fired three times.

Immediately after the shooting, Sneed made his way to the jail and surrendered, giving to the officers two automatic pistols and the shot gun used in the killing.

The body of Al Boyce was removed from the pavement to the Boyce home, and later to the Eakle establishment, and was buried Monday.

This marks another stage in this lamentable domestic drama. The entire Southwest is shocked at the revival of the details of succeeding events connected with this latest development in one of the most deplorable tragedies ever enacted in the Southwest.

Sneed is to be tried a second time at Fort Worth in November for killing the elder Boyce, last January. Mr. Boyce was shot while sitting in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel in Fort Worth. This occurred just after Sneed had brought back his wife from Canada, where she had eloped with Al Boyce.

MISS MOORE TO AUSTIN.

An Accomplished Musician and Enters State School for Blind to Continue Study.

Mrs. C. H. Moore of Lockney came in Tuesday with her daughter, Anna, and remained over for the 2:20 train. Miss Anna was going to Austin to enter the State School for the Blind. She is quite an accomplished musician, and expects to do special work in music this winter.

Mr. Joseph Buchheimer, who has been spending the summer with his family, returned to St. Louis Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Geo. Saigling, Miss Zollie Saigling and Mrs. Saigling, their mother, who have been visiting here some months, left for Plano Saturday.

from Lubbock. There will be two sessions, Mr. Cook says, one in the afternoon two hours in length and at night the session will be two and one-half hours.

TUESDAY IS CIRCUS DAY.

Cole Brothers' Menagerie Will Visit Plainview Next Week.

Flaming posters proclaim the fact that Cole Brothers' United Shows are to be seen in Plainview Tuesday, September 24.

Already the small boy and his elders are anticipating the coming of this mighty, tented amusement enterprise. For this season, according to our information, Cole Brothers enlarged their shows in every department and their greatly augmented list of performers, feature acts and menagerie exhibits made it necessary to add several more railroad cars. Three special trains are required to transport the huge tents, ponderous wagons, cages, dens, chariots, tableaus cars, elephants, camels, horses, ponies, men and women.

In the triple zoological gardens, combined under one spread of canvas are to be found living specimens of rare, strange and curious animals from every quarter of the globe. Prominent in this collection, we are told, is a full-grown yellow Obvious Moschatus, positively the only one ever seen by man. Captured north of Great Slave Lake, at latitude 64, it was only by exercising the greatest diplomacy that Cole Brothers' agents were enabled to get the animal out of the country. Covered with a heavy coat of pure golden hair, the beast was regarded as sacred by the natives, not one of whom could be induced to aid in its capture.

There are other rare exhibits of animal life, making a visit of Cole Brothers' menageries of great educational value. Inside the canvas amphitheater are three great rings and as many elevated stages encircled by a modern hippodrome track. Overcapping all are trapeze and horizontal bars, flying rings, ropes, wires and other aerial rigging.

There are forty-one clowns.

LIGHTNING KILLS HORSE.

A horse presumed to be Mr. Light Knight's was killed by lightning Monday night. The horse was found in a small pasture in the northeast part of town.

THE IMMIGRATION TO TEXAS IS HEAVY.

Incoming Army Brings $123,000,000 Into State Each Year.

One hundred and sixty-nine thousand and homeseekers come into Texas annually. They put into the channels of trade $123,000,000 of property. This mighty movement of world forces is a most significant event in the development of Texas.

The immigration to Texas the last decade has increased our population in excess of that of the states of New Hampshire, Vermont and Delaware; and, again, the money turned loose by this surging throng of humanity in the same length of time exceeds the assessed value of all property in all the above-named states.

"Confronting the property owners of Texas today," says a writer, "is something more important than money OPPORTUNITY. As yet our civilization is young, and is unfolding its powerful agencies of, not only unlimited prosperity, but untrammelled democracy. Economists look with astonishment upon this mass of human power in Texas which must in the near future result in a recasting of the civilization of the world."

The reader naturally wonders how many of these will come into Hale County this year.

OPEN AIR SCHOOLS SHOW RAPID GROWTH.

Increase from 1 to 200 in Five Years. Tuberculosis Causes Million Dollar Educational Loss.

With the opening of the fall school term, over 200 open air schools and fresh air classes for tuberculous and anaemic children, and also for all children in certain rooms and grades, will be in operation in various parts of the United States, according to a statement published recently by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

All of these schools, the Association says, have been established since January, 1907, when the first institution of this character was opened in Providence, R. I. On January 1st, 1910, there were only 13 open air schools in this country, and a year later the number had increased only to 29. Thus, the real growth in this movement has been within the last two years.

Masachusetts now leads the states, with 86 fresh air schools and classes for tuberculous, anaemic and other school children, Boston alone having over eighty. New York comes next, with 29, and Ohio is third, with 21. Open air schools have now been established in nearly 50 cities in 19 different states.

Based on figures of population and mortality furnished by the United States Bureau of the Census, it is estimated that not less than 100,000 children now in school in the United States will die of tuberculosis before they are eighteen years of age, or that about 7,000 of these children die annually from this one disease. Estimating that on an average each child who dies from tuberculosis has had six years of schooling, the aggregate loss to this country in wasted education each year amounts to well over $1,000,000.

This loss and much of the incident suffering could be materially decreased if open air schools or classes for these children and those who are sickly and anaemic were provided. The National Association estimates that there should be one such school for every 25,000 population, especially in cities.

PLACES 3,000 CATTLE WITH HALE COUNTY FARMERS.

H. M. Patterson Says Feed Crop Will Be Eaten at Home This Winter.

Mr. H. M. Patterson, manager for the firm of Nations & Co., cattlemen at El Paso, left Tuesday for his home, after spending the summer here. Mr. Patterson, while here, sold 3,000 head of cattle to Hale County farmers.

A large part of Hale County's feed crop will be fed to this stock this winter. Our farmers have long recognized the fact that the best way to sell feed is to feed it to stock.

Nations & Co., through their manager, Mr. Patterson, have stocked this county for several years, and report a satisfactory and gratifying business.—Hale Center Live-Wire.

PLAINVIEW PEOPLE WILL STUDY IN NEW YORK CITY.

Rev. J. H. Abney and wife, accompanied by Miss Ina Dowden, left Tuesday for New York City. Mr. Abney expects to take a course in Union Theological Seminary. Miss Dowden will enter Columbia University for literary work and will do advanced work in art in one of the studios.

TEXAS WEALTH INCREASES.

More Than $59,000,000 Added to Values of Commonwealth During August.

Statistics recently compiled by the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association show that the wealth of Texas increased approximately $59,210,000 during the month of August. Foreign capital, which is the largest item of increased wealth, shows a gain over the previous month of $11,750,000, or 93 per cent.

The sources of increased wealth for the month of August classify as follows:

Agricultural Production	$19,855,000
Mineral Production	1,855,000
Factory Production	12,750,000
Foreign Capital	24,750,000
Total	$59,210,000

PLAINVIEW SALESMAN LEADS LEYHE AGENTS.

Ed Arion, manager of the Leyhe Piano house at Plainview, went to Amarillo Saturday, after a successful trip to Post City and Lubbock. Last week Mr. Arion sold five pianos, including two electric-player pianos, one each at Post City and Lubbock.

Mr. Arion said that during the twelve months the amount of sales he has made foots up to over $4,000 more than the sales of any other Leyhe agent.

HOTELS TO BE FILLED WITH BOOSTER DATA.

Fort Worth Secretary Believes Attractive Signs Will Help City.

That travelers who visit Fort Worth may know the advantages of the city, Secretary McCormick of the Chamber of Commerce has devised a plan to catch the eye of hotel guests, say the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Large attractive signs will be enclosed in a beautiful frame and hung in each hotel. They will read:

"The advantage of Fort Worth as a manufacturing center and ideal location for manufacturing are clearly set forth in the booklets issued by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce. All information given cheerfully."

Below the signs a neat frame will be suspended in which will be placed literature and printed on the frame will be the words, "Take one and read."

"Many people come and go from a city without learning much of its interior," said Secretary McCormick. "Usually hotel guests are eager to get printed matter to read, and it is thought the glories of Fort Worth will be read by many under this scheme."

It has been suggested that this plan might prove profitable to Plainview.

VOTING FOR GOOD ROADS.

Only One County Refused to Make Provision for Better Highways.

There were four road bond elections held in Texas during the month of August, all of which carried with the exception of one. The total bonds voted amount to $300,000. Elections have been called in three counties for the next two months, and six elections have been petitioned for.

The total bonds to be voted during September and October, as reported to date, are $625,000, while the amount of bonds asked for in six other counties is $515,000. Following is a list of the road bond elections held, called and petitioned:

County.	Amount.	Result.
Ellis	$100,000	Carried
Lamar	100,000	Carried
Ellis	100,000	Carried
El Paso	100,000	Defeated

Total $450,000
Elections Called by Commissioners' Courts.

County.	Date.	Amount.
Milam	September 17	$200,000
Cameron	October 1	250,000
Fort Bend	September 24	175,000

Total $625,000
Elections Petitioned for.

County.	Amount.
Harris	$300,000
Wood	100,000
Refugio	25,000
Hamilton	10,000
Orange	20,000
Medina	49,000

Total $515,000
It is estimated that good roads roads would save farmers in Texas more than $30,000,000 every year.

S. SJOGREN SAYS CROPS ARE BETTER AT KRESS.

S. Sjogren of Kress was in Plainview Wednesday. Mr. Sjogren says that he thinks crops are a little better around Kress than at Plainview. They have had plenty of rain during September.

Mr. Sjogren is a graduate of the Agricultural College of Nebraska. He has two brothers in the College of Agriculture, each of them won an Armour scholarship amounting to $250 this year. The scholarships are awarded for high class of scholarship at the College.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The Farmers' Institute meets the first Saturday of each month, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., promptly. The Farmers' Institute is encouraged and supported by the State. It does not cost anything to join or attend. Its object is to get farmers to get together to discuss their best interests, and to profit by each other's experience. Come, and if you have learned something that will do us good, we would like to hear it. If we know anything that you don't know, we will be glad to give you the benefit of it.

If you will become a member, the State will send to you, free of charge, bulletins giving you the best results of different crops, and the best manner of cultivating them.

The subject for the next meeting (at 1:30 o'clock p. m. the first Saturday in October) is to be the best way to gather our crops, with suggestions of how to overcome the destruction of our grain by birds and how to market our products. There will also be a paper read in the interest of the fruit industry, with suggestions as to how to overcome the depredations of rabbits on our trees.

MULE KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Saturday afternoon during the thunder storm Mr. E. B. Thomas, one mile south of town, had a fine mule killed by lightning. The mule was valued at $250. Mr. Thomas says this is the second mule he has had killed by lightning since he has been in Hale County, yet he is for the Plainview country—lightning, rain, mud, wind, dust and all.

CROP CONDITIONS GOOD.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17.—A statement given out by the Federal Department of Agriculture on the 25th of August gives a report of crop conditions in all states in the Union. All Texas crops are shown to be in excellent condition, being 5 1-2 points above normal, while those of surrounding states are from four to eight points under average conditions.

"FORMALIN TREATMENT" BEST.

H. M. Bainer Says Seed Wheat Should Be Treated to Prevent Smut.

"There are two kinds of wheat smut," says H. M. Bainer, Agricultural Demonstrator of the Santa Fe Railway, "loose smut and stinking or ball smut. Both can be prevented by treating the seed and rotating the crops. The spores of both kinds of smut are carried by the seed, but the spores of loose smut may be carried in the soil from one year to another.

"Treating the seed prevents the stinking smut, but loose smut requires that the seed be treated and that the ground on which it grew be planted to another crop the following year. The stinking or ball smut is the kind most commonly found. It destroys the kernels only, while the loose smut destroys the grain and chaff entirely, and the spoty mass of spores remain. The stinking smut gives off an offensive odor when broken.

"The following 'Formalin Treatment' will prevent stinking smut in wheat, also the smuts which commonly affect barley and oats:

1 Pound Formalin to 2,500 of Wheat.

"Secure a 40 per cent solution of formalin at a reliable drug store. One pound of formalin is sufficient to treat from 2,000 to 2,500 pounds of wheat. Before mixing the solution, get the seed wheat ready. The treating solution is made by carefully mixing a one-pound bottle of the formalin with 40 gallons of water.

"The seed may be treated," Mr. Bainer says, "by dipping or sprinkling. To dip, the seed may be placed in a gunny sack and the solution in a barrel or tank. The wheat should be immersed in this for at least ten minutes and then taken out and allowed to drain back in to the barrel for a short time. The wheat should then be emptied into a pile in a clean place and covered with sacks or blankets for two hours, after which it should be thoroughly dried before sowing.

Dry Wheat Before Sowing.

"To sprinkle, prepare a clean place on a canvas or smooth floor. Thoroughly sprinkle the place with the solution before spreading the wheat on it. Now thoroughly sprinkle the spread-out wheat and at the same time shovel it over. Continue to sprinkle and shovel over the wheat until thoroughly moistened. Next, shovel the wheat into a pile and cover with sacks or blankets for two hours, after which it should be thoroughly dried before sowing. Do not allow the wheat to remain wet too long after treating, as the germinating qualities may be injured.

"Place the dried wheat in sacks which have been dipped in the solution. It is advisable to sprinkle the grain drill with the solution before using it. Exercise every precaution not to bring the treated seed in contact with any that has not been treated or in bins which have contained smutted wheat. The wheat should be treated but a short time before sowing."

Miss Nell Sansom pupil of Harold Von Miekwitz, and also graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, announces that she will open a class in Voice and Piano in September. Leschetizky method of Technic used, and special attention given to instruction in Harmony. Those interested, telephone 455 for terms. tt

System in business, system in advertising, system in city building—all lead to success.

There is no better way to boost Plainview than to tell the plain, unvarnished truth about Hale County; and build more good sidewalks.

Plainview hogs have topped the market three times this year, already. And Hale County exhibits took nineteen first prizes out of twenty-seven exhibits at the Texas State Fair last October. Can you match it?

With four and one-half inches of rainfall all over our trade territory during the last ten days, with crop acreage doubled, with more than two hundred irrigation plants contracted for, with three hundred visitors a week in Plainview—why shouldn't the hum of prosperity sound in Plainview?

THE TRUTH ABOUT TEXAS.

Publicity must be truthful if it is to underwrite permanent results. Wherefore every commercial organization in Texas can afford to line up with the movement to raise $50,000 for advertising Texas to the standard enunciated by the Associated Ad Clubs of the State: Tell the real facts. And that is good counsel. Exaggeration and misrepresentation by the over-enthusiastic is to be stopped if the $50,000 campaign is promoted to success. The truth about Texas is all-sufficient. No state in the American Union is ideal in every particular. Demagogic legislation, irregular rainfall, crop pests and the sort are everywhere. At that, Texas is making progress, not in picking solved problems of welfare and advancement right off the bush, but in rolling up its sleeves, getting in the game, and hammering resources and opportunities into the creation of new wealth. And that is accomplished in the glare of the forge of thrift; not in the ecstatic glow of super-enthusiasm and misrepresentation. Tell the truth about Texas and let her grow.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

WAYLAND'S NOTES.

Rev. Burke, the evangelist, addressed the faculty and students of Wayland College Thursday morning. His subject was "Smart Alecs." His speech was full of good, sound advice to all classes of young people. The affiliated societies will hold a meeting this afternoon to lay plans for beautifying their society hall.

SETH WARD COLLEGE NOTES.

All features of college work have begun with unusual interest at Seth Ward. The enrollment is a little more than one hundred and fifty at present, and every day one or more new pupils matriculate.

The Literary Societies have begun work in earnest and are preparing for their open session programs and contests, and they are planning for one or two intercollegiate debates. Two large halls have been provided for the young men's Societies, and they are making plans to furnish them nicely.

Every one remembers the winning football team that Seth Ward had last season. The prospects are much better this year. Few of the old men are gone, but the majority of the old players are out again, and new ones are making fine showing. A schedule is being arranged, and it is probable that the first game will be with Wayland College on Monday, October 7th.

An excellent Lyceum Course has been booked. The course consists of five numbers, and they are all first class. The tickets have been put at such a price that every student can secure one.

The campus is beautiful. Several improvements have been and are being made. There is a general spirit of hopefulness along all lines. A splendid year's work is predicted.

IOWA FARMER URGES SILO.

R. Pilmer Thinks Silage and Cattle Are Sure Crops for Plains.

R. Pilmer of Des Moines, Iowa, was in Plainview this week, looking for feeding cattle which he might ship North. Mr. Pilmer likes the Central Plains. He says farmers here would increase their profits much by using the silo. M. Pilmer is a large user of silage and a strong believer in its worth.

A silo built of hollow vitrified brick blocks Mr. Pilmer thinks is best. It will not dry out and shrink, he says, as the wood silo does, and costs less.

Mr. Pilmer says these blocks are 4 x 8 x 12, slightly curved, and have a hole about two inches in diameter running alongside. A No. 3 (quarter-inch) wire is laid on a layer of bricks and set in cement just like a brick wall. For a very large silo two wires are placed on each layer of brick for the first six or eight feet, and one wire higher up, while at the top even smaller wire may be used.

The door is a frame of reinforced concrete with upright rods, to which the supporting wires are tied. The inside of the silo is whitewashed with a thick concrete mixture.

Brick Silo Inexpensive.

Mr. Pilmer says he put up a vitrified brick silo 18 x 38 feet for $267.50. He built a scaffold for this, also forms for the door, at a cost of $36, and these forms may be used again. But this cost is included in the $267.50. He thinks it would cost somewhat more to build the brick silo here. In the silo Mr. Pilmer put up he used

Women's Fall Wear

The New Fall Styles are here—and such charming ones—carrying us back to the dandies of 1880, picturesque mortals who wore the Robespierre collar, long tight sleeves and fine ladies who draped their skirts in panier effect.

From these the clever French and American Courturiers have evolved the Fashions for the Autumn, following the hint the Spring and Summer gave.

Tailor Made Suits

Though suggesting that period, have the simple straight lines which are becoming. Some are in rough materials and others are Serges. Some All-Wool, Satin-Lined Suits are priced as low as $12.50. Others variously priced up to $30.00 and $35.00.

And Then the Charmeuse Frock

With its long, tight sleeves, suggestions of drapery, fascinating collar or frill conceit, is outdoining in charm all the attractive models of the previous season.

A simple Frock is as low as $7.50; others range up to the Reception Gown, at $25.00 to $27.50.

The Separate Coat

There's a bunch of fashionable effects in Coats—the Mackinaw, the Johnny (or London Top Coat), and the regulation, fifty-four-inch, Coat.

The later Styles, made of Blue, Brown or Gray Chinchilla, are attractive, comfortable and warm. Some exceedingly smart-looking Coats are made of Caucasian, Zibeline, Boucle, and Worombo Cloth.

Prices are $7.50 to $30.00.

3,000 brick. These cost $25 a thousand. They would perhaps cost more than that here, but he says there is no patent on their manufacture. They might be manufactured here.

Just enough lime should be used, Mr. Pilmer says, to make the cement hang together. The lime, he finds, is better if it is slacked and let age for a month or six weeks.

Mr. Pilmer likes the brick silo better than a concrete silo because he thinks the latter absorbs too much moisture. He has used both the wood and concrete silo extensively.

Don't cut silage too green, Mr. Pilmer thinks is a good warning. He says when the farmer is busy corn or other silage may be cut and let stand in the shock six weeks. It will be all right if water is run into the shock occasionally.

Gain of 125 Pounds a Month.

Mr. Pilmer says that he fed a herd of steers on silage in which he mixed corn ground on the cob and some cotton seed meal. These cattle made an average gain of from 115 to 125 pounds a month. He has also fed yearlings on nothing but silage, and they made good gains. He finds, however, that if the silage is too green it is likely to produce scours.

The Plains country can produce crops for silage every year, Mr. Pilmer thinks, and by using the silo the value of crop yields may be doubled. Considering the fact that when feeding all the fertility goes back into the soil and the present high price for beef cattle and hogs, Mr. Pilmer thinks the silo would make the Central Plains farmer independently wealthy in a few years by raising a few hogs and cattle to feed. He would never wear his farm out, as the grain farmer must ultimately do.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, man-drake and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "Golden Medical Discovery."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, or pneumonia. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience at this time of the year is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin—you feel "blue."

"More than a week ago I was suffering with an awful cold in my head, throat, breast, and body," writes Mr. JAMES G. KERR, of 710 L. Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. "Some called it La Grippe, some pneumonia. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I tried a bottle and it did me so much good that I feel safe in saying it is the greatest and best medicine that I ever took. My health is much better than it was before using your medicine. Is does all you claim for it and is satisfactory."

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure, be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, 75c per bottle.

The Prodigal Judge
By Vaughan Kester

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—The scene at the opening of the story is laid in the library of an old worn-out southern plantation, known as the Barony. The place is to be sold, and its history and that of the owners, the Quintards, is the subject of discussion by Jonathan Crenshaw, a business man, a stranger known as Bladen, and Yancy, a farmer, when Hannibal Vayne Hazard, a mysterious child of the old southern family, makes his appearance. Yancy tells how he adopted the boy.

CHAPTER II.—Nathaniel Ferris buys the Barony, but the Quintards deny any knowledge of the boy. Yancy to keep Hannibal, Captain Murrell, a friend of the Quintards, appears and asks questions about the Barony.

CHAPTER III.—Trouble at Scratch Hill, Yancy's home, when Hannibal is kidnapped by Dave Blount, Captain Murrell's agent. Yancy overtakes Blount, gives him a thrashing and secures the boy.

CHAPTER IV.—Yancy is served with a warrant for assaulting Blount. Yancy appears before Squire Balaam, and is discharged with costs for the plaintiff.

CHAPTER V.—Betty Malroy, a friend of the Ferris, has an encounter with Captain Murrell, who forces his attention on her, and is rescued by Bruce Carrington, who threatens to whip the captain.

CHAPTER VI.—Betty sets out for her Tennessee home. Carrington takes the same stage. Yancy and Hannibal disappear with Murrell on their trail. He overtakes them in the mountains of Tennessee. Murrell gets Yancy drunk and stabs him in a fight that followed. Hannibal escapes in a canoe.

CHAPTER VII.—Hannibal arrives at the home of Judge Slocum Price.

CHAPTER VIII.—The Judge recognizes in the boy, the grandson of an old time friend. Murrell arrives at Judge's home. Hannibal hears of the finding of Yancy's body. Price arrested as counterfeit.

CHAPTER IX.—Cavendish family on raft rescue Yancy, who is apparently dead. Price breaks jail.

CHAPTER X.—Betty and Carrington arrive at Belle Plain.

CHAPTER XI.—Hannibal's rifle discovers some startling things to the Judge. Hannibal and Betty meet again.

CHAPTER XII.—Murrell arrives in Belle Plain. Is playing for big stakes.

CHAPTER XIII.—Yancy awakes from long dreamless sleep on board the raft.

CHAPTER XIV.—Judge Price makes startling discoveries in looking up land titles. Charley Norton, a young planter, who assists the judge, is mysteriously assaulted.

CHAPTER XV.—Norton informs Carrington that Betty has promised to marry him. Carrington bids Betty good-bye. Norton is mysteriously shot.

CHAPTER XVI.—More light on Murrell's plots. He plans uprising of negroes.

CHAPTER XVII.—Betty and Hannibal are made prisoners in a lonely cabin.

CHAPTER XVIII.—Murrell appears at the cabin and shows his hand.

CHAPTER XIX.—The Judge hears of the mysterious disappearance of Betty and Hannibal.

CHAPTER XX.—The Judge takes charge of the situation, and search for the missing ones is instituted.

YOU INTO TOWN LAW EVENING? I jes been down at Shanty Hill whar Milly, his wife, is carryin' on something scandalous 'cause George ain't never come home!" Steve was laboring under intense excitement, but he ignored the presence of the overseer and addressed himself to Slocum Price.

"Well, what of that?" cried Hicks quickly. "Thar warn't no George, mind you, Mas'r, but dar was his team in de stable this morn'ing and lookin' mighty nigh done up with hard driving."

"Yes," interrupted Hicks uneasily; "put a pair of lines in a nigger's hands and he'll run any team off its legs!"

"An' the kerriage all scratched up from bein' thrashed through the bushes," added Steve. "There's a nigger for you!" said Hicks. "She took the rascal out of the field, dressed him like he was a gentleman and pampered him up, and now first chance he gets he runs off!"

"Ah!" said the judge softly. "Then you knew this?"

"Of course I knew—wan't it my business to know? I reckon he was off skylarking, and when he'd seen the mess he'd made, the triffin' fool took to the woods. Well, he catches it when I lay hands on him!"

"Do you know when and under what circumstances the team was stabled, Mr. Hicks?" inquired the judge.

"No, I don't, but I reckon it must have been long after dark," said Hicks unwillingly. "I seen to the feeding just after sundown like I always do, then I went to supper," Hicks vouchsafed to explain.

"And no one saw or heard the team drive in?"

"Not as I know of," said Hicks. "Mas'r Ca'nting's done gone off to get a pack of dawgs—he 'lows hit's might' important to find what's come of George," said Steve.

Hicks started violently at this piece of news. "I reckon he'll have to travel a right smart distance to find a pack of dawgs," he muttered. "I don't know of none this side of Colonel Bates' down below Girard."

The judge was lost in thought. He permitted an interval of silence to elapse in which Hicks' glance slid round in a furtive circle.

"When did Mr. Ware set out for Memphis?" asked the judge at length. "Early yesterday. He goes there pretty often on business."

"You talked with Mr. Ware before he left?" Hicks shook his head. "Did he speak of Miss Malroy?" Hicks shook his head. "Did you see her during the afternoon?"

"No—maybe you think these niggers ain't enough to keep a man stirring?" said Hicks uneasily and with a scowl. The judge noticed both the uneasiness and the scowl.

"I should imagine they would absorb every moment of your time, Mr. Hicks," he agreed affably.

"A man's got to be a hog for work to hold a job like mine," said Hicks sourly.

"But it came to your notice that Miss Malroy has been in a disturbed mental state ever since Mr. Norton's murder? I am interested in this point, Mr. Hicks, because your experience is so entirely at variance with my own. It was my privilege to see and speak with her yesterday afternoon; I was profoundly impressed by her naturalness and composure." The judge smiled, then he leaned forward across the desk.

know about the boy?" Hicks was silent, but he was grateful for the judge's question. From Tom Ware he had learned of Fentress' interest in the boy. Why should he shelter the colonel at risk of himself? "If you please, Mr. Cavendish!" said the judge, nodding toward the knife.

"You didn't ask me about him," said Hicks quickly. "I do now," said the judge. "He was here yesterday."

"Mr. Cavendish—" again the judge glanced toward the knife. "Wait!" cried Hicks. "You go to Colonel Fentress."

"Let him up, Mr. Cavendish; that's all we want to know," said the judge.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Colonel Fentress. The judge had not forgotten his ghost, the ghost he had seen in Mr. Saul's office that day he went to the court house on business for Charley Norton. Working or idling—principally the latter—drunk or sober—principally the former—the ghost, otherwise Colonel Fentress, had preserved a place in his thoughts, and now as he moved stolidly up the drive toward Fentress' big white house on the hill with Mahaffy, Cavendish and Yancy trailing in his wake, memories of what had once been living and vital crowded in upon him.

Some sense of the wreck that littered the long years, and the shame of the open shame that had swept away pride and self-respect, came back to him out of the past.

He only paused when he stood on the portico before Fentress' open door. He glanced about him at the wide fields, bounded by the distant timber lands that hid gloomy bottoms, at the great log barns in the hollow to his right; at the huddle of white-washed cabins beyond; then with his big fist he reached in and pounded on the door. The blows echoed loudly through the silent house, and an instant later Fentress' tall, spare figure was seen advancing from the far end of the hall.

"Who is it?" he asked. "Judge Price—Colonel Fentress," said the judge. "Judge Price," uncertainly, and still advancing.

"I had flattered myself that you must have heard of me," said the judge. "I think I have," said Fentress, pausing now.

"He thinks he has!" muttered the judge under his breath. "Will you come in?" it was more a question than an invitation.

"If you are at liberty," the colonel bowed. "Allow me," the judge continued. "Colonel Fentress—Mr. Mahaffy, Mr. Yancy and Mr. Cavendish." Again the colonel bowed.

"Will you step into the library?" "Very good," and the judge followed the colonel briskly down the hall.

When they entered the library Fentress turned and took stock of his guests. Mahaffy he had seen before; Yancy and Cavendish were of course strangers to him, but their appearance explained them; last of all his glance shifted to the judge. He had heard something of those activities by means of which Slocum Price had striven to distinguish himself, and he had a certain curiosity respecting the man. It was immediately satisfied.

The judge had reached a degree of shabbiness seldom equalled, and but for his mellow, effulgent personality might well have passed for a common vagabond; and if his dress advertised the state of his finances, his face explained his habits. No misconception was possible about either.

"May I offer you a glass of liquor?" asked Fentress, breaking the silence. He stepped to the walnut center-table

'I Had Flattered Myself That You Must Have Heard of Me,' said the Judge.

where there was a decanter and glasses. By a gesture the judge declined the invitation. Whereat the colonel looked surprised, but not so surprised as Mahaffy. There was another silence.

"I don't think we ever met before?" observed Fentress. There was something in the fixed stare his visitor was bending upon him that he found disquieting, just why, he could not have told.

CROCKETT COUNTY SCHOOL LANDS FOR SALE.

Crockett County School Land, Leagues 214, 215, 216 and 217, of 4,428 acres each, situate about ten miles about west from center of Lamb County, are now offered for sale, in four lots, each League forming one lot. Sealed bids to be opened by Commissioners' Court at Ozona, Texas, October 14th, 1912, may be filed with County Clerk Tom Nolen, Ozona, Texas. Bidders will observe: That the Court believes a sale by leagues, 1-40 cash, balance forty years time at 5 per cent per annum interest, interest to be paid semi-annually, in advance, with privilege of purchaser to pay out his league after five years and obtain release of his league, to be best for buyer as well as seller. That there be no confusion, bidders are warned as follows: Even if a bidder desire to purchase more than one league, he must nevertheless make separate bids for each one he shall bid on. No less bid than ten dollars per acre will be considered. The Court reserves the right to reject any bid. Court will meet October 14th, 1912, to open and act on any bids then on file with County Clerk. Bidder should write across envelope the word "Bid." Every bidder will receive a square deal, but all are cordially invited to be present in Court when the bids shall be opened. Remember this is a sale by leagues. There are nearly seven sections in a league; while only one deed to a league will be made, several persons could jointly buy a league. There is a separate patent to Crockett County to each league, and this league unit has been adopted by the Court; so do not ask that smaller units be recognized, for your request would not be granted. Remember, one deed to each league, deed reciting the true consideration; all deferred payments secured by a deed of trust. It is presumed that the Santa Fe Railway will soon be grading across League 217, as right-of-way for track and switch was granted to said railway company May 6th, 1912. For further information, write County Judge Chas. E. Davidson or County Clerk Tom Nolen, Ozona, Texas.

W. W. WISE PUTS UP SILO.

Hale County Pioneer Says Mules, Cattle, Hogs and Slage Bring Independence.

W. W. Wise was in Plainview Wednesday. He lives six miles northwest.

Mr. Wise came to Hale county from Indiana nearly twenty years ago. He says he has always been able to make a living, and that he likes the Central Plains. He is putting up a metal silo and will devote himself largely to the raising of mules, cattle and hogs.

Mr. Wise thinks that the man in Hale county who has a large silo, a few growing mules, a small herd of cattle and a bunch of hogs couldn't ask for a better place. He says we have none of the hog cholera and other diseases that trouble the farmers back north and east.

HONORS ARE CLAIMED BY E. CALLAWAY.

Says "Beauty C" Is First Registered Percheron Colt Raised in Hale Co.

I claim the honor of having bred, raised and had registered in the Percheron Society of America at Chicago, Ill., the first Percheron colt in Hale County, Texas. Her name is "Beauty C," her register number 79918, recorded October 6, 1911. Any person disputing this will please give, through the columns of this paper, the name, date and number of animal so recorded in said Society.

Respectfully,

E. CALLAWAY.

TABERNACLE MEETING TO CLOSE SUNDAY. Plainview Has Been Stirred by Personal Experiences of Men of God.

The Tabernacle meeting conducted by the Rev. Steve Burke and the Rev. Mr. Hobbs will close Sunday night. Rains during last week and Monday night interfered much with the services. Twice services had to be abandoned, and for nearly a week it was necessary to hold preaching in the Methodist Church.

Tonight Mr. Burke will preach on "Pride and Temper." "The Old Black Sheep" will be his subject tomorrow night. Sunday morning he will speak on "How to Get Acquainted With Jesus;" Sunday at 3 o'clock he will talk on "Ingratitude." "The Last Farewell at Heaven's Gate" will be his closing sermon, Sunday night.

Special Meeting for Boys and Girls. Saturday at 3 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Hobbs will conduct a special meeting for the boys and girls.

Brother Burke preaches all of his sermons from present-day life. He speaks from personal experience. The people are acquainted with his illustrations. Plainview has been profoundly stirred by the messages of this Godly man.

HOLD FAMILY REUNION.

Saigling's Ranch is Scene of Joyous Festivities.

For four days the beautiful ranch home on Saigling's Ranch was open wide with Plains' hospitality and joyous hilarity.

Mrs. J. H. Harp adds emphasis to her reputation as a charming hostess during these four days of continuous merry making.

The occasion was the coming together of a number of the immediate family and close friends.

From the beginning to the end, the days were full of succeeding events of care-free ranch life. Even the ducks on the near-by lake seemed to "quack" in unison a welcome to every guest. But the turkey was like the tar baby, "he said nothing;" for his daily meditation and nightly dreams were mind pictures of himself or his mate stuffed and browned upon the ranch platter.

Abundance of good things to eat, horse-back riding, boating and games in the house and out of doors were enjoyed by those who were so fortunate as to be guests.

The guests were Mrs. J. H. Harp, hostess; Mrs. A. E. Harp, Mrs. W. Y. Buchanan, Mrs. J. J. Woody and little daughter, Marion; Mrs. Lyman McDonald, Amarillo; Mrs. J. W. Chrysler, Dallas; Miss Jennie Lillard, Farmers Branch, and Miss Jack Farrell.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.
