COUNTY INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET AND CLUB CONVENTIONS FILL PLAINVIEW WITH VISITORS

Sixteen Hundred Boys and Girls From Twenty-Six Hale County Schools Here to Participate in Athletic Contests, Spelling Bee, and Home Economics and Pig Club Conventions.

Hale County's first interscholastic meet and conventions of Home Economics Clubs and Pig Clubs, here Friday and Saturday, brought more than 1,600 boys and girls from all parts of the county, representing twenty-six schools. Their parents who accompanied them swelled Plainview's visitors to more than 4,000.

The interscholastic meet is to be an annual affair held under the auspices of the University of Texas, and with the success of this year's meet the future of a permanent annual meet in the county seems assured, while the interest and enthusiasm of the girls of the Home Economics Clubs, under the State Department of Agriculture, and the Boys' Pig Clubs, under the Young Men's Business League, is indicative of the possibilities of this work in Hale County.

In the spelling contest, Saturday morning, nine schools were represented. The contest lasted for three hours. The judges have not yet announced who will represent the Hale County Schools in the District Contest, at Lubbock.

Economics Clubs Exhibits.

Mrs. J. L. Landrum stated to a Herald reporter that in no part of the State had she found such excellent exhibits of girls' work as in Hale County. The awards made in this department are as follows:

Crochet—1st prize, Elsa Borchardt; 2nd prize, Verne Abney; 3rd prize, Flo Benson.

Risser, of Plainview, and Miss Gertrude Hunt, of Hale Center acted as judges in the fancy-work department, and Mesdames Nige McComas, Alex Anderson and J. H. Garner in the cake contest.

At 12:30 lunch was served on the Court House lawn to more than 1,600 Hale County school children. Lamar Mothers' Club served hot chocolate, cake and candy, and from the smiles on the faces of the boys and girls each evidently got his share of the many good things passed around.

Convention of Economics Clubs. Following lunch, 200 club girls, representing 22 clubs, gathered in the District Court room and rendered the following reports.

East Mound, 23 members; Mount Vernon, 12 members; Hooper, 10 members; Snyder, 9 members; Liberty, 14 members; Prairieview, 11 members; West Side, 8 members; Woodrow, 11 members ($7.50 made since organization); White School, 8 members; Belleview, 18 members ($44 made since organization); Norfleet, 22 members; Mayfield, 11 members; Runningwater, 23 members; Center Plains, 6 members; Abernathy, 23 members; Lakeview, 16 members ($7 made since organization); Midway, 12 members; Ellen, 20 members ($34.15 made since organization); Petersburg, 28 members ($6.70 made since organization); Hale Center, junior club, 36 members; Hale Center, senior club, 27 members; Stoneback, 15 members; McWhorter, 8 members; Halfway, 20 members ($7.50 made since organization); Plainview Camp Fire Girls, 9 members.

The total number of members in the county is 290, to which Mrs. Landrum yesterday added 75 from the Plainview Central School.

County Pig Clubs Meet. At the same hour the Hale County Pig Clubs met in session in the County Court room with H. C. Howard, secretary of the Young Men's Business League, with 249 accredited members, representing 25 Pig Clubs.

In speaking of this convention Mr. Howard stated that he had never seen a more enthusiastic set of boys anywhere. Reports were made by accredited representatives from each of the clubs, and it was decided to organize a County Club, following which the boys nominated and elected the following county officers: Mark Snyder, of the Snyder School, president; Foster Henderson, of the Snyder School, vice president; William Knupp, of Plainview, secretary; Hubert Henderson, of the Snyder School, press reporter.

William Ganzer and Dr. R. F. Hare both addressed the boys, and, commenting on the work of the evening, Mr. Ganzer said: "By the number of the boys and the number of clubs represented here, I can see that you mean business, and by the manner in which you have gone into this work I predict for you the most successful organization in Texas."

Following the addresses, Mr. Howard outlined the coming work and urged that the boys do their very best to raise the prize pigs of Hale County and of Texas.

Lamar Wins Track Meet. At 2:30 was held the track meet, at Lamar School grounds, and, with the exception of one first place won by Snyder School and one first place won by Plainview Central School, Lamar School made a "clean sweep," winning in every event 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes, piling up a score of 80 points to Central School's 9 and Snyder's 5.

In both the Junior and High School divisions, Lamar won the county championship, with Mack Alexander the champion in the High School division and Ernest Hudgins in the Junior division.

Following is the list of awards as made:

COMMISSIONERS ORDER COURT HOUSE YARD IMPROVEMENTS

Voters Ask for Election on County School Superintendent; Dr. Barr Appointed Veterinarian.

County Commissioners' Court convened Monday morning, with Commissioners W. J. Espy, J. W. Roberson, and G. L. Phillips, Sheriff J. C. Hooper and Clerk B. H. Towery present. Judge W. B. Lewis presided.

The court authorized that Dr. R. F. Hare, county demonstrator, be allowed the use of the Commissioners' Court room for office purposes when not being used for the court.

Dr. C. D. Barr was appointed county veterinarian at a salary of $25 per month, in addition to fees for inspections and certificates. He will have full power of quarantine.

Tuesday the court received a petition, signed by the required number of qualified voters, asking that election be held to determine upon the creation of the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. Election was ordered for Saturday, May 13th.

Voting precincts Numbers Eleven and Twelve were established. Number Eleven is at Lakeview, and corresponds with the school district lines of district Number Twenty-one. A. Landers, Tex Smith and P. L. Wimberly were appointed election judges of this precinct for a two-year period. Precinct Number Twelve was established at Halfway, and R. L. Hooper, J. W. Dye and J. H. Helm were appointed election judges for a two-year period.

The returns of the election held April 1st, to select five County School Trustees, were canvassed. The court declared the following elected: S. S. Sloneker, R. L. Hooper, A. S. J. Martin, S. W. Meharg and J. H. Hooker.

Returns of the special election held in Petersburg, Precinct Number Three, were canvassed, and the court declared that the proposition of a special tax of not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred-dollar property valuation had failed by seven votes.

The court ratified warrant for $175 in favor of Jeff Williams, in part payment for surveying Hale County school lands.

Warrants were ordered drawn for: $5.00 to Albert Carlton, for road work; $10.00 to S. R. Merrell, for expense of funeral of county pauper, and $100.00 to N. Nittler, for land used for county road purposes.

The court contracted with E. H. Bawden to build an eighteen-inch curb, with three-foot gutter, on the property line of the Court House square, E. H. Bawden agreeing to put in said curb and gutter for 75c per running foot. The clerk was authorized to issue warrant to Mr. Bawden when the work has been completed and approved, the warrant to be payable February 1st, 1917, and to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent.

Action on Improvements.

The following statement regarding the improvement of hitching facilities around the square has been made by the County Judge and Mayor:

"We, the undersigned County Judge of Hale County and Mayor of the City of Plainview, wish to present to the citizens of Plainview and Hale County our plan for the improvement and beautifying of the Court House Square:

"Unfortunately, the public has been largely misinformed regarding the purpose of these improvements, some making the contention that the public will not have a right to hitch around the public square, and the improvements will be made for this purpose.

"We wish to say emphatically that it is not the purpose of the Commissioners' Court of Hale County nor the City Council of Plainview to eliminate hitching around the public square, but it is the purpose to remove the unsightly racks and build a curb and gutter and provide means for hitching which will be more sightly and safer for the public, and at the same time making something which will be permanent and lasting and which will remove the mudholes and the unsanitary condition which now exists.

"We feel that with such arrangements the Court House will be beautified and at the same time the City Council will be able to maintain hitching places which will be more sanitary and make hitching safer.

"We have decided to place the curb on the property line which is twelve

GAVIRA WANTS AMERICAN FORCES OUT OF MEXICO

Carranza General Says the De Facto Forces Can Handle Crippled Villistas.

EL PASO, Texas, April 10.—General Gabriel Gavra, Carranza's commander of the Juarez garrison, seems to be the mouthpiece of the military de facto government in Mexico. He is authority for the statement that if the American troops will withdraw from Mexican soil the Mexican government troops can and will take care of the scattered Villista bands.

The Mexican general asserts that the de facto troops are better equipped than ever before and greater in numbers, and that they will have little trouble in breaking up the weakened forces of the bandit chief if they are given complete control of the situation. This information comes despite the fact that rumors and semi-official statements continue to reach here that other chiefs here and there are about to join forces with Villa.

General Gavra thinks that Villa will not be hard to take since he has been wounded, but that if he succeeds in eluding the hunting forces that he must soon succumb because of his weakened condition.

Salazar Denounces Carranza.

The arrival of General Bertani at Juarez today renewed the force of reports that Gavra has been ordered to take the field. Nothing has been learned of the whereabouts of General Petronillo Hernandez, said to have been named as the successor of Gavra, and who was supposed to arrive here today. Gavra said the trials of the men implicated in the plot to seize Juarez in the interest of Felix Diaz have been practically completed. The death sentence will probably be passed on three or four.

General Ynez Salazar is believed to have crossed the border near Ojinaga, after issuing a statement denouncing Carranza for the "invasion" of the Americans, and declaring his intention to "defend the sacred soil of his native land." Close associates here say he intends to declare for Diaz. Before his disappearance he received a large sum of money. A number of his friends here believe Salazar has a large following among the Carranza troops.

It is reported that American mining concerns at Parral were looted. The extent of the damage to American property is unknown. The looting is said to result from the condition of the people, who are destitute of food and clothing.

Elfego Baca, a prominent lawyer of the Southwest, was arrested today in connection with the disappearance of Salazar. Eight Mexicans, prominent in Mexican politics, were also arrested, including General Zaragoza, in command at Tampico under Huerta when the crisis precipitated led to the capture of Vera Cruz. All are said to have been working in the interest of Diaz. Baca was later released.

Reyes to Join Villa?

Canuto Reyes, at the head of a number of bandits, passed the Durango railroad today near Pedriceca going north. It is supposed that his object is to join Villa, who, according to latest reports, is somewhere midway between Torreón and Parral. Pedriceca is about thirty-five miles southwest of Parral.

A large number of bandits are reported by arrivals from the north to be operating in the Sierra Mojada. The Sierra Mojada is 120 miles north of Torreón and an equal distance west of Parral. It is one of the wildest and most desolate spots in Mexico. There is a good deal of speculation here as to the possibility of Villa and Canuto Reyes planning to concentrate their forces in this sierra. If they do, any troops coming from the direction of Parral would have to cross the terrible Mapiimi desert, a burning waste stretching a hundred miles north and south and from fifty to sixty miles in breadth. It is a spot that is dreaded by Mexicans and shunned by foreigners.

Partial Co-operation.

Co-operation to a limited extent by the Mexican military authorities in the work of the American punitive forces in Mexico was indicated by their offer to General Pershing of the use of the telegraph and telephone lines. The offer was made to the aviators who landed in Chihuahua last week and was reported today by General Pershing.

Clothing

Lesson No. 22
MRS. LANDRUM

It is about time now that we put away our winter clothing and begin to get ready for our bright ribbons, white dresses and new hats, for Easter will soon be here. We must not forget, however, that we will have another winter and that our winter clothes are to be considered for next year and care and attention given to them through the summer. We must not take our new coat or suit that was dear and attractive to us last December and hang it upon a nail in the closet, exposed to dust and moths and to get out of shape from improper hanging. Let every club girl go over her winter wardrobe and sun and brush and air her winter clothing. Look after the buttons that have fallen off the coat. They will get lost by next winter. Sew them on now and sew a hanger, or a tape, on the inside of the collar, if you have not a hanger. Laundry carefully all your winter underwear and put that nicely away. Your winter hat was your particular care at first, so see to it now that it is put in a nice box, wrapped to keep it free from the long hot summer months of dust. You should protect from moths as much as possible by wrapping in paper, hanging in tar bags, putting them in cedar chests or trunks with some strong odor like moth balls or cedar oil.

It will be a good plan to take the winter clothes out once or twice through the summer and look them over for traces of moths, for they can ruin a winter garment in a very short time.

We are told by the leading dry goods houses of the State that voiles, linens and organdies, in flower designs for the voiles and organdies and stripes for the linens, will be the popular and leading materials for young girls. The trimmings will be more of lace than embroideries. The styles are going to be very pretty and simple, and any of the club girls can learn to make up her dainty little dresses.

Now linen is sometimes adulterated with cotton. If bought as union goods one may expect it. If you buy and pay the price for pure linen, try this test to see if it is what you are paying for. Ravel the material and untwist warp and woof threads. Do the threads appear long and lustrous? The round threads are best. If cotton has been used the ends will fly apart and fuzz; if linen, they will appear more parallel and pointed at the ends when separated. The cheaper "all linens" are sometimes made from the tow or short refuse. If the fiber is short it will not last as well as the long. Moistening with the finger was an old-fashioned test. A better one is to use a drop of olive oil. This test should be made at home. Water spreads more rapidly on linen than on cotton. The oil makes the linen fibers more translucent than cotton. Cost is one good guide. Linen is more expensive, and if the price is too cheap you should test the material. Feel the cloth. Is it cold, and does it feel rather heavy when crushed in the hand? Many people judge by the weight. Notice the finish. Is it full of starch and what is called sizing that can be picked off? If it is, when washed the size will disappear, leaving a loosely woven material instead of the satiny surface. It is better to buy a soft linen or domestic than a stiff one.

Some things to remember about colors. Dark blue in woolen materials or gingham usually fades a little. Light blue is not so durable. Black and gray or white and black are apt to show the starch in washing. Lavender is a very poor color to buy. It fades very easily in cotton goods. Pink fades with washing. If a deep shade be selected it may be satisfactory. Green is usually very unsatisfactory. In good, high-priced gingham it may not fade, but in the cheap ones it is apt to turn yellow. Brown is good in gingham, but is apt to fade in wool materials.

The little-flowered organdies will be very dainty, and with care can be worn a good while. Always set the color before laundering by soaking in a solution of salt water and washing in cold or lukewarm water, and hang in the shade to dry. Do not use the iron too hot.

Next week we will talk about the styles and the materials good for the average club girl.

With the Snyder Club.

SNYDER SCHOOL. April 6.—Our club was organized with the membership of seven. We have decided to meet on Wednesday of each week. We have chosen lavender and white as our club colors.

We haven't been able to meet regularly, so haven't accomplished much yet. We have studied bread making and have made Parker House rolls.

School closed here: March 30. A picnic dinner was served, which was attended by most of the patrons. After dinner an interesting program was rendered, followed by an address by Mr. Griffin.

In the afternoon the school boys and the young men of the neighborhood played a game of baseball.

Our school house has been remodeled and fitted up with a furnace and new library. A well has been drilled on the school ground, and a windmill will be put up soon.

WHEAT FINE; FARMS READY TO PLANT AT LAKEVIEW.

LAKEVIEW. April 10.—The cold weather of the last few days has, it is feared, been very damaging to the fruit crop.

The community's health is very good.

Quite a number of Lakeview people went to Plainview Saturday to attend the Interscholastic Meet. Among them were Messrs. P. L. Wimberly and family, W. T. Moreland and family, Justice Rosser, Wayne Riley, Anna Lee Riley and King Riley. D. H. Stovall and Ruby Houston went in Mr. Wimberly's car.

John Ellerd has sold a section of land near the school house to his brother, G. T. Ellerd. He is having a lane opened on the west side, which will put the north side of the community much nearer the school.

Mr. Birchfield, recently of Iowa, was a visitor at the singing Sunday night. He is delighted with the Plains country.

Recent rains have put a fine season in the ground. Wheat is looking fine. Much of the land is ready for planting.

The Girls' Home Economics Club had a very interesting meeting Thursday afternoon.

NEIGHBORING TOWN WANTS SETH WARD COLLEGE REBUILT.

Efforts are being made at Plainview to replace the building of Seth Ward College, recently destroyed by fire. It was stated at the time the property was destroyed that the building would not be replaced, but since then it has been decided to rebuild, and build more modern buildings and better equipment. Here's hoping that Plainview citizens will rally to their college interest and build Seth Ward back better and more modern.—Lockney Beacon.

The Herald's Review of the Movies

On the screen at The Mae I. Thursday will be seen "A Broken Cloud," Nellie Armstrong loves Jo Bradley, a young writer. Her father, however, mortally stricken with heart disease, desires his daughter to marry Robert Joffrey, an unprincipled lawyer. Joffrey conspires with Clara Bain, a woman of doubtful reputation, to ensnare Nellie in a plot which will enable him to play the deliverer and force the girl to marry him. Clara enveigles Nellie to her room, slips a locket into her pocket and then accuses her of theft. Joffreys, however, fails to put in an appearance at the psychological moment. Instead, Jo comes to Nellie's rescue, and old Colonel Armstrong is convinced that it is Jo, not Joffreys, that Nellie should marry. Just before he dies he writes a note, "Marry Jo. It is my dying wish." Joffrey discovers the note and changes it to read "Marry Joffrey." Nellie decides to accede to her father's last request. But Jo suspects trickery. He examines the blotter on the Colonel's table and finds the proof of the lawyer's perfidy. The two men confront one another. Jo forces Joffrey to confess.

The Mae I. also presents "Doctor Jerry"—Cub Comedy. Father tries to nip in the bud the growing affection between his daughter and the dautless Jerry. Jerry suggests that his sweetheart play sick and that he masquerade as the doctor, and so get around father. They succeed in putting it over. An epidemic of smallpox breaks out in the neighborhood. Father becomes suspicious of the supposed doctor. He gives his daughter a sleeping powder and decorates her face with red ink spots. Then he summons Jerry, who flees in terror. He is captured and imprisoned in the home of the fair patient. A sleeping potion is administered to him, and father repeats the red ink spots on Jerry's unconscious features. Doctor Jerry escapes. Everybody he meets runs from him in a panic, and he concludes that he must be a great hero. The fright-stricken police inform the sergeant at headquarters, who orders them to catch Jerry by lassoing him. The scheme is successful. A stream is crossed and Jerry is obliged to swim. The red spots of ink are washed off. A country doctor pronounces him immune from the dread disease, and the police department offers him substantial apologies.

They also offer "Stanley in Darkest Africa," a Centaur feature in two parts, featuring Roy Watson and the Bostock animals.

Thursday The Ruby Theatre offers "The Merry Models" (Essanay). One reel of lively burlesque is the measure of this photoplay, and Ben Turpin and Harry Todd are responsible for most of the fun. Margaret Joslin and Carrie Turpin are valuable members of the cast, also, but Ben and Harry are the big punch in the picture.

"The Luring Lights" (Kalem) will also be shown at The Ruby on Thursday. This four-reel drama, adapted from a novel by George H. Brennan, is an intimate study of life behind the footlights. The atmosphere of the stage in connection with a small repertoire company, is convincingly maintained. The plot is mildly dramatic. Stella Hoban is attractive as the heroine, Anna Malleen. Bradley Barker, Frank Woods and Helen Lindroth are important members of the cast.

Thursday is "Red Circle" day at The Olympic. They also offer "September Mourning," a two-reel eccentric number.

"The Red Circle." The ninth chapter of this serial, entitled "Dodging the Law," presents another of the charitable crimes of June Travis. This time she helps a crime suspect to elude the detectives, because he has previously saved Lamar from death. As usual the interest of the story never flags, and one is left with a desire to see the continuation of the story.

"September Mourning" is a two-reel eccentric number, featuring Gertrude Selby, H. Pathe Lehrman, Gene Rogers and Chas. Wininger. The action of the first reel contains some laughable moments, centering about the usual park flirtations. In the second reel the two artists invade the grounds of a girls' school, where they watch the girls dancing and try to choose a subject to pose for September Morn. This, of course, is not in the best of tone, but it escapes any pronounced vulgarity and has enough amusing features to keep the observer interested. Some of the settings in the second reel are quite picturesque.

The Universal "Animated Weekly" of current events today.

"Silas Marner," the famous George Eliot character, will be presented at The Mae I. Theatre Friday night. The story, it will be recalled, was that of a man who had become embittered and estranged because of a false accusation for thievery, which had been placed on his head by a friend whom he had trusted. Driven from his home, he had settled down a miserable, unhappy weaver, far from home, and let one passion, the love for gold, become the absorbing motive of his existence. In the town where he plied his trade lived Squire Cass, the father of two sons. One of them, Godfrey by name, was a serious-purposed, conscientious young man, on whom his father leaned for support. The other, Dustan, the younger, was a spendthrift and a roisterer.

As the older son grew in favor with his father and as his marriage to Nancy Lammeter, the daughter of the most respectable seemed imminent, Dustan resolved that his brother should be forced to fall from grace. Thereupon he succeeded in getting his brother under the influence of rum, as they were on a journey through the country, and while Godfrey was in this condition Dustan inveigled him into marrying a pretty barmaid. When he returned to sobriety, Godfrey was horrified at what he had done. He provided for this wife and returned to his home. But Dustan used this knowledge to force money from his brother's share. At length, the younger brother's rioting used up what money Godfrey could easily give him. Godfrey was forced to ask for time. As Dustan returned from hunting one night he stopped in Silas Marner's cabin as shelter from the rain. He discovered the miser's hidden gold, and taking it in his hands ran from the house. In the darkness and the rain he did not see an old well near by. He fell into it as he ran and was drowned. Silas, on returning home, was nearly crazed at the loss of the only thing he loved in the world.

Squire Cass and Godfrey hearing nothing from Dustan, believed that he had wearied of his restrict life and thought that he had run away from home, and so Godfrey married Nancy, and the following New Year's Eve the Squire gave a great ball. That same night Molly, Godfrey's bar-maid wife, decided that she would confront the squire's son with their child. But as she reached the road near Silas Marner's hut she became exhausted from her journey through the snow and fell by the way. Eppie, the child, ran to the light shining from Marner's window, entered the house, and fell asleep by the fire. The weaver was also asleep, and when he awoke and saw the child's golden hair shining in the fire light he thought it was his gold come back to him. He reached for it and picked it up in his hands, to find that it was the curly locks of the child. The mother's voice was heard calling, but when Silas reached her she was unconscious. She later died, Godfrey, recognizing his bar-maid wife in the dead woman, knew that Eppie was his own child, but he did not confess to Nancy—not until years had passed and life had granted them a childless fireside. Then the Squire's eldest son told his wife the tale. Together they went to Marner's hut and begged Eppie to come with them, but she remained with the old weaver, who had grown to love her more than life itself. When the old well was drained the remains of Dustan were found, the money box clutched in his hands. "Silas Marner" lends itself particularly well to picturization.

Fireboys' Benefit.

The Plainview Volunteer Fire Department are to be given the benefit of the show at The Ruby Theatre Friday night. In addition to the regular program, a male quartette will be given by Harrison, Burkett, Truesdale and Cousineau.

The program follows:

"The High Fliers" (Victor, Two reels).—One of the best comedies Harry Myers has done. In fable form, it tells of the marriage of Miss High Life and Mr. Dude. Miss High Life can drink ten cocktails without slipping an eyelid, and Mr. Dude wears no shirt, unattached cuffs and corsets.

They marry and come to a doleful ending, as the Dude discovers they can't live in a two-hundred-dollar apartment on a twenty-dollar salary.

On the other hand, Miss Plain Life and Mr. Honest strike a match, and the wedded life is happy.

Harry Myers and Rosemary Theby, as the Dudes, do excellent work, Myers playing the simpering poseur with ladylike grace and other effeminate affectations, and Miss Theby carrying the part of a swaggering girl to a fine burlesque degree. The subtitles aid in making "The High Fliers" a very good comedy.

"The Man from Town."—Alan Hale and Isabel Rea have the leading parts in this one-reel drama. The story does not sound any great dramatic depths, but has considerable action, and virtue triumphs over vice in the most approved fashion. It is well acted and produced.

"Sonny Jim and the Family Party."—This is a Thanksgiving Day story, and Sonny's adventures in search of his holiday turkey are very amusing. Tefft Johnson has filled the reel with familiar touches of human nature, and the climax will be relished nearly as well as Sonny does his dinner. Bobby Connelly is as cute as ever as the small hero.

"Mixed Kids." Two babies, one white and the other black, hold the center of this picture. They carry a scene together, in which they discover that they are in bed together, and the white chap doesn't like the idea at all. "It's one of the funniest scenes seen in many a day. Outside of this the picture is somewhat slow. Ray Gallagher, Billie Rhodes Stella Adams and Neal Burns are the principals. Al Christie had the idea and Horace Davey screened it.

The Olympic offers "Madame La Presidente" on Friday. A private showing of "Madame La

Presidente was arranged and given by the Morosco Feature Play Company at Woodley's Theatre, Los Angeles, one evening during the past week in honor of Anna Held, star of this subject, who was appearing in vaudeville at that time.

All members of the producing staff, including Director Frank Lloyd, and Elliott Clawson, author of the screen version, were present at this showing, together with a number of exhibitors and M. L. Lewis, of the Progressive Paramount Exchange, and his staff of assistants etoain shrdlu DE.t., etoain assistants.

This farce comedy will undoubtedly prove one of the most attractive Morosco offerings. The play from which this was adapted has numerous comedy situations that have been very excellently brought out in the screen version.

The settings, and especially the interiors, for this are extremely elaborate. This is particularly true with respect to that of the office of the minister of justice.

Miss Held appears as the star of "The Pet of the Harem" Company, and because she enjoys a wild night with several of the officers of a small French city, the chief executive of the city causes the chief of police to deprive her of the hospitality of the hotel.

Her acquaintances of the night before send her to see the unkind person who had issued such an order, and she, finding that his wife is absent for a few days, takes possession of the home.

Here she causes the elderly spotless town official to really like her attentions. It is while here she becomes acquainted with the minister of justice, played by Forrest Stanley, which acquaintance, after numerous misfortunes to her wearing apparel, results in her accepting the title of Madame Gaudet, wife of the minister of justice, instead of becoming the wife of the president of justices.

WORK ON NEW GARAGE OF KNIGHT CO. BEING PUSHED.

Knights Auto Company is making extensive improvements in their garage and Overland sales rooms. Workmen have been busy for ten days moving the old building to its new foundation, on the alley, and placing concrete foundations for the new front building, which is to be of cream-colored pressed brick and plate glass.

Temporarily the company office is located in a warehouse on an adjoining lot, and service is being kept up. Robt. Malone, manager, said to a Herald reporter today that it would probably be three weeks before the new building would be ready for occupancy.

The company will continue to handle Overland cars and Firestone and Republic tires and tubes and will add a full line of accessories and supplies.

FADS AND FANCIES FOR THE MOTORIST.

Wraps, Hats and Accessories for Motoring Use Variety of New Models.

The robe raincoat is a garment desired for a woman who drives her own open car. The coat when worn has the appearance of the ordinary double-breasted raglan. In the side seams, however, there are inserted wide panels of the material, lined with cravenette. These panels extend from just below the waistline to the hem and are wide enough when turned backward to button at each side of the back flap. After the wearer is seated she may unbutton the panels at the back and fold them across the front, where they form an excellent waterproof robe.

Italian straw hats trimmed with the flat folded silk scarfs are shown in smart new Alpine shapes. They are going to be much worn with the linen outing suits and pongee silk dusters for early touring.

Shetland robes in dainty spring colors are gaining deserved popularity. They are light, soft and warm enough for early morning and cool evening drives in the spring and early summer months.

Knitted silk vests with satin sleeves are being used by men under light-weight driving coats. They are very warm, but are light and not in the least bulky.

Another new coat is a Scotch tweed in a large black and white broken plaid. It is in the full raglan model with the full skirt, so popular this season, and is finished with a wide collar and narrow cuffs of Alice blue cloth. It is lined to the waist with blue taffeta to match the collar and is finished with large smoked pearl buttons.

Individual windshields, while not new, are nevertheless being featured for spring touring. They rest on the shoulders in a specially constructed wire frame. The mica plate before the face is a foot square. The shield when in place is several inches from the face.

Balmacaan coats are made this season in plaids and broken plaids, as well as in the familiar Scotch mixtures and tweeds. Some are lined and some are not, but all have the regulation leather buttons, and the model is the same as last year, except for a little added fullness in the skirt.

Fawn-colored corduroy is used in one of the new outing suits, which is trimmed with bronze leather. The skirt is a full shell model, buttoned from waist to hem on the left side with bronze leather buttons. The jacket is Norfolk in style, with three inverted pleats below the yoke in the back and one inverted pleat each side of the double-breasted front. Collar, cuffs, belt and buttons are all of the bronze leather. The hat to wear with the suit is a scullor with a bronze-leather crown and tan-straw brim, finished at the left side with a large straw cabochon.—Dallas News.

ONE AUTO TO EVERY NINE HOMES NOW.

Over Two Million Cars Registered in the United States on January 1.

There are 2,432,788 motor cars and trucks in use in the United States. This figure is the total number of registrations in the country January 1, 1916, all duplicate registrations of which records are available being deducted. This is a gain of 39.5 per cent of the 1,736,790 registered up to the end of 1914. Contrary to the general impression, over half of this increase was made during the latter half of the year.

There is one car to every thirty-eight people living in the United States, the Motor Age finds. This means that one out of every nine families in the country is the proud possessor of a motor car.

Refuting the frequent statement that the buying power of the United States is nearing its limit so far as motor vehicles are concerned, we may point to these registration statistics. These form a foundation for conclusions which indisputably refute all contentions of these pessimistic prophets.

During 1915 the production of cars and motor trucks by the manufacturers of the United States reached a total of nearly 900,000 vehicles, a goodly percentage of these being exported to Europe, Asia, South America, in all eighty countries in different sections of the globe, the number of cars and trucks shipped abroad increasing each month, as shown by the government export statistics, the increase for the year being 250 per cent, while the estimated value is $100,000,000. In considering the gain of 686,998 car and truck registrations during the year, it must also be remembered that a large number of cars must have been scrapped, their places being taken by new vehicles, and this fact makes the gain shown somewhat lower than if these older cars had remained in commission in addition to the newer machines.

The tremendous buying power of the country is well illustrated by the phenomenal increase in the number of cars and trucks in use in the United States since 1911. For that year a total of 677,000 was recorded, which during 1912 jumped to 1,010,483, a gain of 33,483. In 1913 the total was 1,253,875, or 243,392 more than were recorded as being in use during the preceding year. As shown by the 1915 statistics mentioned above, the increase in the number of vehicles in use from 1911 to the end of 1915 is 1,746,788, or practically the total number of cars and trucks in use in this country a year ago. In other words, the gain in car and truck registrations during 1915 is almost as large as the total number in use at the end of 1911.

Taken in conjunction with the yearly production statistics, the registrations are specially significant. In 1911 American motor car and truck manufacturers produced 209,957 cars and trucks, their annual output increasing rapidly with each succeeding year. In 1912 a total of 378,261 vehicles left the factories, increasing to 450,009 in 1913, and for 1914 the figure of 515,000, given by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, was held to be so conservative that it was from 5,000 to 15,000 below the actual production total for the year. The chamber estimated that 30,000 of the number given were commercial vehicles. During 1915 the same authority gives a total production of 892,618 cars and trucks, of which 842,249 were passenger cars and 50,350 were commercial vehicles. Over 200,000 freight carloads of motor trucks were shipped during that year.—San Antonio Express.

EXTENSION WORK SOON TO BEGIN AT BUICK AGENCY.

The Plainview Machine and Auto Shop, through its owner, E. E. Roos, has recently purchased from R. C. Ware the fifty-foot lot to the north of the present garage, and will begin the construction of a modern annex about April twentieth.

The new addition will be fifty feet by one hundred and forty feet, of which fifty by eight feet will be used as a show room for Buick and Allen cars. Back of the show room will be a car storage room and an extension of the machine shop.

The annex will be built of cream pressed brick with plate-glass front, and will be entirely fireproof. There will be a ladies' dressing and rest room. A feature of the storage room will be the individual stalls for regular customers. These will be provided with steel lockers.

APPROVE RIVAL DIXIE ROUTES.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 4.—The two rival routes which have been bidding for official recognition by the Dixie Highway Association will both be given recognition, upon the condition that improvements recommended by the directors of the association be carried out in the next 12 months. The inspection tour of the officials led to this decision, since each route has merits which the other cannot claim. The Waycross road is the shorter, measuring 258 miles. This is 92 miles shorter than the Savannah - Milledgeville branch, while the latter road possesses a historic interest in being the route taken by Sherman in his celebrated march. It has great scenic attraction also.

NEW BRICK AUTOMOBILE "HOTEL" FOR PLAINVIEW.

Arrangements are being perfected for a new and thoroughly fireproof brick garage to be built on North Broadway.

The business will be primarily a service business. The automobile owner will rent space, this space being his own, and with the space will go such service as will keep his machine ready for instant use. All cars will have radiators filled with water, engines oiled, gas tanks filled, differentials screwed down and filled, differential and transmission kept filled, tires tested, changed and pumped up, curtains and tops up or down, according to weather, storage batteries looked after, and the cars cleaned as soon as they are brought into the garage.

The building will be fifty by one hundred and forty feet, with wash rack and other conveniences indoors. Construction will begin within two or three weeks, and the building will be completed fifteen or twenty days later.

A. W. Oberste will act as manager in charge of the new plant.

EIGHTEEN DODGE CARS USED AS DESERT STAGES.

Out in the Imperial Valley of California a fleet of 18 Dodge Brothers motor cars are used as stages. They are known as the "Pickwick Stages," because of their starting at the Pickwick Theatre, San Diego.

Their route lies across a portion of the California Desert, and each car averages about 1,000 miles per week. Various makes of motor cars were tried out by the Pickwick Stage Company, which operates the line. About six months ago the first Dodge Brothers car was purchased and subjected to many tests on the route. The success was so striking that several more were bought and this number has been added to, until there are now 18 in use, and more are to be bought within a short time.

According to Mr. Hayes, one of the proprietors of the company, the upkeep on these cars has been remarkably light, and within a year he expects to operate Dodge Brothers cars only.

OLD WHITE BUICK WINS FIRST IN HYATT CONTEST.

With a record of 261,800 miles, equal to more than ten times around the world, to its credit, a 1909 Buick, owned by F. E. Slason, of Plainville, Kans., made the most remarkable showing of any car in the mileage contest conducted by the Hyatt Roller Bearing Co. The object of the contest was to learn how far automobiles have run in every-day service upon their original equipment of Hyatt bearings. Mr. Slason was awarded the first prize of $500. More than 300 tires, costing $8,000, were worn out by the car. Slason's "Old White Buick," which is known all over that part of Kansas in which Plainville is located, has been driven by more than 25 different drivers, in addition to members of the owner's family. It has carried loads of nearly two tons, including pianos, trunks and all kinds of baggage. This car has a straight track speed record of 70 miles per hour, and has been driven in stock car races in county fairs all over Kansas. It was a consistent first prize winner. During one week seven trips averaging 26 miles each were made at night after the car had been used throughout the day. Since the contest closed the car has been driven thousands of miles, and it is estimated that it will be able to cover at least another 100,000 miles before it has outlived its usefulness.

$8,000 WAR ORDER OF CARBONVOID CO.

Lloyd's of America, makers of Carbonvoid, put on an extra shift of workers today to handle the rush $8,000 war order for the Kinne Sales and Export Co., 111 Broadway, New York, representatives of the Allies. The order calls for 20 gross of Carbonvoid tubes for immediate delivery and 2,000 to be delivered next month.

All told, the order calls for 250,000 tubes of the substance which autoist feed by the teaspoonful into their gasoline tanks to eradicate carbon deposits in cylinder heads and points. That means a quarter of a million cartons to fill and label and, in the company's present quarters, it is a big task. The company only recently secured a factory site in Bradley Beach.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

You must have noticed that the first thing said about a car; in ordinary conversation, is almost always a direct reference to its quality. The fact is that the average owner of a Dodge Car is not merely satisfied with its quality, but almost extravagantly enthusiastic.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage unusually high.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.

There is positively no car in its class which has the construction of this master car. Its many superior merits can be better demonstrated than enumerated here.

How Many Miles Are There in a Gallon of Gasoline?

That depends on the type of motor in your car.

When you buy a Buick Six Cylinder Valve-in-Head Motor Car, you not only get the last word in comfort, style; power and speed, BUT WE GUARANTEE THAT YOU GET AN AUTOMOBILE WHICH WILL GIVE YOU THE HIGHEST GASOLINE MILEAGE.

It is an admitted fact that the Valve-in-Head Motor does give 15 per cent more power than any other type of gasoline motor which means 15 per cent more mileage per gallon of gasoline.

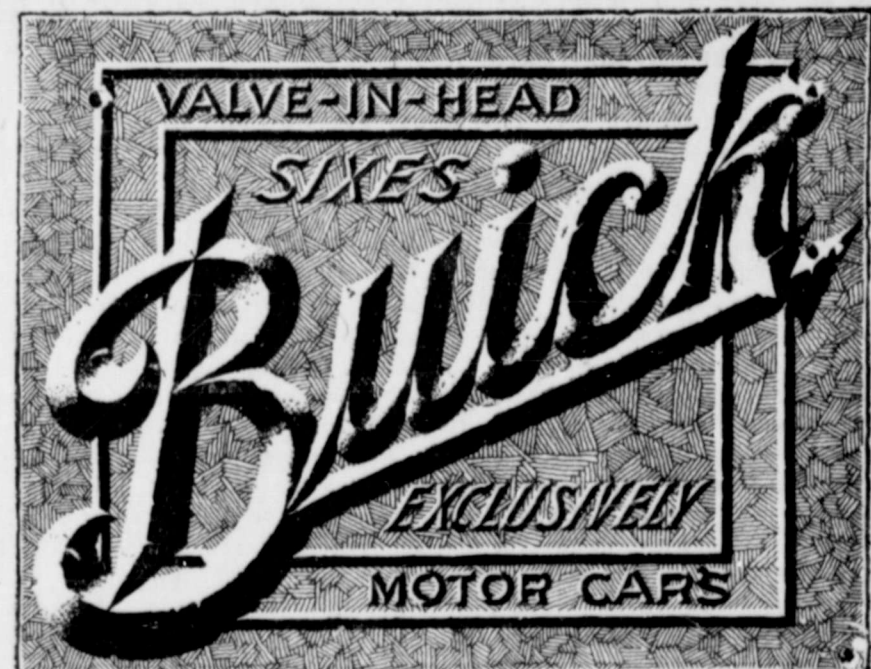

This is not a theory but a fixed engineering principle resulting from the perfecting of the Buick Valve-in-Head motor.

Thousands of users of Buick Valve-in-Head Six Cylinder Cars give evidence daily that they are getting 20 miles or more per gallon of gasoline consumed while touring with full passenger load, and many users report over 25 miles per gallon.

Remember—cost of operation is a part of the cost of your car.

WITH THE PRICE OF GASOLINE GOING UP, THE ECONOMY OF THE BUICK VALVE-IN-HEAD CAR SHOULD MAKE IT YOUR PREFERENCE.

SHOP EARLY FOR EASTER.

Now comes the ghost of "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early." It's not a very big or formidable ghost for most of us, but to the salesman and saleslady of the mercantile establishments, who will be weary from the rush incident to Easter shopping, it is a ghost nevertheless.

Many thoughtless buyers will buy the bonnets and the frocks and forget the shoes or the ribbons until the last minute before time for the Easter display. It is well to plan the Easter shopping and plan it far enough ahead that you will not be disappointed in deliveries, in seeking the articles which you want but which have been sold, and with consideration for the sales forces of the stores which serve you.

Easter is late this year. It promises fair and pleasant weather. Do your planning that you may do your Easter Shopping Early.

SELLING SAND.

Yesterday the merchant might sand your sugar, or your coffee, or the farmer might sand the craws of his poultry.

Today the merchant dare not do this, and the farmer is too honest to resort to such scurvy tricks.

But there is a sand which you may sell, and which is in great demand. It is sand that is required for the young man or young woman to go out into the world and carve out for themselves a place.

The merchant wants a "gritty" salesman. Professions, trades and callings all over the land are looking for good, honest sand, in any amount.

D. C. HOOVER, STRUCK BY AUTO, DIES IN SALT LAKE.

The body of D. C. Hoover arrived in Plainview this morning, from Salt Lake City, Utah. Last Tuesday, on the streets of Salt Lake City, Mr. Hoover was struck by an automobile. On the following Saturday morning death came as the result of the accident.

Mr. Hoover had been in ill health for some time, and was on his way to California, where he had planned to spend several months.

He had been a resident of Plainview for eight years—he and his wife. Mrs. Hoover departed this life about three months ago. Mr. Hoover was a blacksmith.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the Plainview Cemetery, by Rev. J. W. Story and Rev. Fronbarger, of Canyon, and the body will be buried by the Masonic Lodge. Mr. Hoover was a member of the Knights Templar.

The attendance at the contests was so large that the meeting which was announced for the court house had to be transferred to the Baptist Church.

STATE OFFICERS OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SPOKE HERE.

Sunday afternoon Dr. W. J. Herwig, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Texas, and Joseph G. Camp, State lecturer, made addresses at the Methodist Church, taking for their subject "Texas Dry in 1917."

In the evening Dr. Herwig spoke at the Methodist Church, making special reference to the confession of the brewers to contributing to defeat the cause of prohibition in Texas, and the suit which cost them a quarter of a million dollars and the annulment of their charters.

In Dr. Camp's address, at the Baptist Church, in the evening, the effect of strong drink on "The Successful Man" was most vividly portrayed. He also told of the influence of drink on the home, and gave a picture of the Christian and successful home.

The people contributed very liberally to the aid of the League at the services. A $150 collection was made at the afternoon service, and about $100 at the evening services.

"Her Confession." An unknown girl, dying on a hard cot in a prison cell, whispers to her father confessor the story of her crime. "It wasn't a year ago that I met him. We lived in the country, mother and I. Father was dead. Mother always kept me so much to herself. We had few friends and I never had a lover. Then he came. Mother never knew from the first time I met him in the woods, where he was sketching. I was garlanded in flowers that day, and I was kneeling by the brook, looking at myself in the water. He told me I was beautiful and begged me to pose for him. At first I was afraid. But day after day I went to him and forgot to fear him, and he told me he loved me and he would himself about my heart. He could have had my life had he asked it. He went away, and I waited for weeks and months, and no word came. At last, to remain unwed would have meant disgrace to me, and a broken heart to my mother. I went to seek him, and found him in the arms of another woman. He had not a look of love for me. I went back that night. He was sleeping. I picked up a knife lying on the table, thinking to kill him as he slept, and so have him for my very own. I loved him. I would renounce him forever."

"The Wayward Son" will also be shown at The Mae I Saturday. A Casion Comedy will be shown, "Curing Cissy."

Saturday at The Ruby.

"The Stampede in the Night" (Bison.

Two reels.)—A Western that truly deserves the name, as it is full of action, wonderful riding and appropriate acting.

A cast of favorites, including Olive Fuller Golden, Hoot Gibson, William Canfield, Peggy Coudray and Neal Hart play the principal roles. Harry Carry wrote the story and Jacques Jaccard directed.

"Uncle Sam at Work," No. 10 (Powers.)—This opens with a picture of Secretary of War Garrison and subsequently shows views of West Point, the cadets on parade and maneuvers of the regular army. In the print shown the photography was quite poor.

The "Pathe News," a reel of current events, and a one-reel drama featuring Blanche Sweet are also on this day's program.

"The Hazards of Helen," railroad film, will be started again in a few weeks, better and more thrilling than ever.

"The Undertow" will be shown at The Olympic Saturday night.

"The Undertow." The cast: Richard C. Travers, June Keith, Harry Dunkinson, John Lorenz and Williams Burns.

Molly Austin, the daughter of a crook, becomes engaged to "Weasel," her father's accomplice. Against her pleading, Molly's father, brother and Weasel plan to rob the home where Molly is employed as maid. They are caught and sent to prison. Meanwhile, Molly goes to the country, where she marries. When "Weasel" is released from prison he floods her and demands "hush" money. Molly gives him her engagement ring. Her brother, "Bull," now reformed, visits her. One day while driving her car, Molly accidentally runs "Weasel" down, injuring him fatally. On the way to the doctor's office "Bull" commits his last robbery.

He takes his sister's engagement ring from "Weasel's" finger.

"By Might of His Right."—William B. Courtney is the author of this highly amusing one-reel comedy, that will be relished by all beholders. The manner in which a happy family rids itself of a bore, is cunningly planned. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew and Donald MacBride share honors in the acting.

"Pathe News" also n today's program.

STOCKMEN, ATTENTION.

By special request of the undersigned, we have agreed to spend some time next Saturday, April 15th, in discussing the hog proposition.

Stockmen in Hale County are facing certain facts that can no longer be avoided. Come to the Court House Saturday afternoon at 2.30.

Our method is not one of abuse. We are willing to meet any man in the spirit of friendship. We extend a special invitation to those men who disagree with me in certain stands I have taken. Come and see for yourself that I am not as rattle headed and free with unreasonable statements as you have been led to believe.

Bankers, lawyers, veterinarians and all business men are invited. The successful marketing of hogs stimulates business of all kinds and keeps money in circulation. You owe it to your business to come.

I hereby ask, as a special favor, that every man to whom I have sold Fidelity Worm Powder will be present. Come either prepared to give me your support or to be convinced that I am wrong. You will be welcome regardless of your belief.

In Making Grape-Nuts

honest whole wheat flour and malted barley are blended, made into dough, moulded into loaves, and baked. The loaves are then sliced and baked a second time—in all about twenty hours of thorough baking.

Grape-Nuts possesses all the rich nourishing elements of the grains including the vital mineral salts so necessary for vigorous mental and physical activity. Many foods lack these essential elements—especially is this true of white bread and white flour products, because in making flour white most of the energizing mineral salts of the grain are thrown out in the milling process.

With Grape-Nuts it is different, for all the nutriment of the grain is retained. Then the long baking renders the food easily and quickly digestible.

Always ready to serve direct from its sanitary, tight sealed carton, Grape-Nuts is in the form of granules of tender crispness that have a delicious, nut-like flavor. Four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with a little cream alongside is a splendid, well-balanced part of any meal and gives a wonderful return in sturdy brain, nerve and muscle.

"There's a Reason"

Grocers everywhere sell Grape-Nuts.

THE QUESTION "What Will It Cost?"

Must be answered because that little dollar must cover so many wants.

This store justifies its existence by answering that question. Everything marked at the "Right Price." If you doubt it come and see, then you'll know as much as your neighbor.

Come and see what thousands of people saw at the great San Francisco Fair last year, what dozens of women saw at recent sales at our store. Learn why so many folks you know have paid us $1 in the past sales and ordered the Hoosier delivered to their homes. These neighbors will have many hours to spare when most women still are plodding 'round their kitchens preparing their meals or putting away supplies and tidying up. Hoosier has places for 400 articles all handily arranged at your finger's ends. But don't think it is merely a "shelf-room" cabinet. The Hoosier is really an "automatic servant." It has 40 features that aid you in cooking and save you time and labor.

- Its perfect construction surpasses all other cabinets made.
- 1- Hoosier's Shaker Flour Sifter makes flour fluffy and light. Works faster than rotary sifter. Avoids grit or broken wire. Can't wear out.
- 2- Hoosier's Revolving Spice Castor puts the spices you need at your finger tips. No danger of knocking over any or spilling them.
- 3- Hoosier's Double-Acting Sugar Bin is the only sugar bin from which sugar can be taken with equal ease from top or bottom; has three times the capacity of most bins.
- 4- Hoosiers are made with hinge doors or full view Roll doors above the base. The Hinge doors have remarkably convenient utensil trays. The Roll doors are open—no pockets or cubby-holes. The price has only 50c difference.

Remember, there are Hoosiers for farms, camps, apartments, big kitchens, little ones, for window spaces and the center of big kitchens. No further need for old-fashioned, built-in, uncleanable cupboards. If you think that you can't spare the time to come, then you confess that you need a Hoosier badly, because it will give you so many spare hours for a lifetime. Come and see this Gold Medal demonstration Saturday. Get our low prices and money-back offer. And please bring some friend with you.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist—has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play.

ing to General Funston. His report was sent from some part of the field whose location was withheld. It did not pass over telegraph lines, but was transmitted via aeroplane and wireless routes to Columbus.

The drivers of the aeroplanes that visited Chihuahua said they had been treated courteously by General Gutierrez, commanding officer at Chihuahua, after it was demonstrated that they had come on a friendly mission, although before that fact was determined by the alarmed public a few stones had been thrown at them and a shot or two fired, but no one was injured.

General Pershing said some supplies had been purchased in Chihuahua and that there appeared no disposition on the part of those with stores to withhold their goods, but that the limited amount of supplies at Chihuahua at present made it almost impossible to get provisions.

feet back and make the streets around the Court House twelve feet wider than the other streets. By doing this, when the time comes to pave the streets the present curb and gutter will be permanent, and will not have to be reconstructed. Should the curb have been located at any other place, it would have to be removed when the city paved the streets.

"It has been suggested by some that had the curb been set twelve feet back in the Court House property that the city would never have authority over that strip. This is a mistaken proposition of law, for the city is given by its police powers as much authority on the Court House yard for the purpose of abating a nuisance as anywhere else in Plainview.

"We are very sorry that the wrong impression has gone forth to the citizens of Hale County, and we wish to assure each and all of these additional improvements and conveniences for the people, and in addition thereto the city has purchased a Market Square, located near the public square, where those who care to trade and feed may leave their produce wagons with comfort and safety.

Then all the natural functions of the body will be easily carried on without the least sense of fatigue or drain. With plenty of red blood in her veins, mother will feel no ill effect from nursing baby.
