

"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

AS WE BEGIN the last year of this decade, we might take a moment to ponder the question, "For what will the years of the 80s be remembered in future times?"

We remember the 1940s as the War Years, the 1950s as The Age of Innocence, the 1960s as the Protest Years, and the 1970s as the Computer Age.

Perhaps the Age of Sensationalism would best describe the 1980s. We seem to have done everything to excess in the past few years. Crime, violence and drugs have hit an all-time high. We have seen abuse of laws, abuse of nature, abuse of fellow human beings. Even the weather has gone to excess with droughts, earthquakes, forest fires, etc.

I believe, however, that the trends are changing toward a better outlook in the near future. For instance, recent public opinion against smoking has resulted in a ban on smoking in public buildings and airplanes.

This may seem like a very small step toward curing the ills of our country. But remember, smoking was once considered the "in" thing to do. It was glamorized by the movies and by respected public personalities. Today, it is no longer looked upon as either macho or glamorous.

The tide is also slowly turning against the drinking of alcohol. There is a loud public outcry against those who drink and drive, and especially against drunken drivers who are involved in accidents resulting in deaths.

When a group plans to "party" all evening, a designated driver is appointed among the group...someone who will abstain from drinking so he or she will be sober to drive the rest of the people home after the party. Many bars offer free soft drinks to designated drivers. Such a thing was unheard of just a few years ago.

Everyone realizes the seriousness of our nation's drug problem. At one time, drugs were also being glamorized by the entertainment industry, luring young people through rock-song lyrics and innuendos made by popular stand-up comedians. We are seeing less and less of this as we go along. However, there is an underworld drug sub-culture of supply and demand that must be dealt with on an official level. No punishment is too harsh for drug dealers who would destroy the future of our nation.

Getting ahead in the 80s has come to mean "taking it away from someone else." Corporate take-overs, white-collar crimes, law suits for personal gain...such things are common occurrences today.

We must see a rebirth of individual responsibility and accountability in human actions in order to pull ourselves out of this uncivilized mire. Politeness, kindness, honesty, pride of accomplishment, respect for the property of others, respect for the feelings of others...these are the things which lift mankind above the animals. These are not learned instinctively, but must be taught and practiced from an early age. Some schools are beginning to teach classes in these social values, since it has become evident that values are no longer being taught in the average modern home today.

Teachers in the lower grades automatically work toward establishing acceptable behavior among their small pupils. Classes in social values need to be required at the middle school or junior high level, plus at least one refresher course during high school. Perhaps it could be possible to change the instant-gratification "gimmie now!" generation into responsible future citizens who have compassion and regard for their fellow beings.

Sixty million Americans over the age of 40 are waiting anxiously for the coming of that "kinder, gentler nation" which our new president wants us to have.

Sen. Gramm Blasts EEC At Excel Speech

U.S. Senator Phil Gramm visited Friona's Excel Beef plant on Thursday evening for a brief speech and tour.

The visit was part of a statewide economic tour by the senator, who discussed the recent European Economic Community (EEC) ban on beef imports, and how the ban could affect plants like Excel.

"Actually, the Europeans have a surplus of beef. This is just a new ploy. This is really just raw, rotten protectionism at its worst," Gramm stated.

Instead of admitting to protecting its own beef producers, the EEC has said in its latest ban that it would not import beef which was produced by using growth hormones, which hormones have proven entirely harmless, the senator pointed out.

Actually, Gramm said, you usually find less residues in beef produced through the growth hormone than you do in beef produced without using the hormone.

Roughly ten per cent of the beef produced in the U.S. is sold overseas. The problem is that the cuts sold overseas are a specialty market, including such items as tongues, brains, hearts, etc., of which there is no established domestic market. So, the loss of the European market for these products would essentially wipe out the market for these beef products.

"The steer will be less valuable to the cattleman and to the processor. We cannot allow foreign nations to cheat our producers out of their markets," the Republican senator charged.

The U.S. has retaliated, Gramm pointed out, by slapping European exports with special duties that will make these products less appealing to Americans.

"We could lose $100 to $120 million in sales (per year) to the European market," Gramm said.

There is some hope that by placing the extra tariffs on European goods, the EEC may back off their ban of American beef.

The ban is just the latest in a series of efforts by the EEC to protect their consumers, Gramm said.

Previously, the Europeans had placed restrictions as to how beef products had to be processed before they could be imported.

Excel's Friona plant manager Terry Wilkerson said that the local plant had just recently spent over $400,000 to make the plant meet the restrictions set out by the Europeans.

Gramm said he had spent a lot of time and effort trying to bring industry into Texas, and he appreciated the investment made by local citizens and the Excel Corp. in providing local jobs and stimulating the economy.

Prior to Gramm's remarks, Randy Lewis, representing the Friona Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that the Excel plant employs some 1350 hourly employees who are paid around $24 million in salaries each year.

"Excel pays 20 per cent of our Friona school taxes, plus they have been extremely generous in donating boxes of beef to school organizations for special projects," Lewis said.

Wilkerson, in his brief remarks, pointed out that since the plant opened in 1968, it had seen two expansion programs and now is capable of slaughtering 920,000 head of cattle per year.

He said the local plant supplies roughly 25 per cent of the beef exported by Excel plants, and the European ban could cost Excel up to $2 million per year. The negative impact could affect the price of beef from $5 to $10 per head, Wilkerson said.

Asked about Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower's statements in response to the EEC ban, Gramm said he was very disappointed.

"He is the only official in America to side with the Europeans, and there is no scientific evidence whatsoever to support his opinion," the senator said.

The senator was introduced by Mayor Clarence Monroe. He made some prepared remarks, then fielded questions from representatives of the three Amarillo television stations, as well as reporters from Amarillo, Clovis and Friona.

Gramm was given a whirlwind tour of the plant's fabrication department. Several members of the Chamber of Commerce joined on the tour, as did some of the news media.

The Women's Division of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture assisted by providing name tags. The group also provided refreshments for those attending.

School To Dismiss

Friona Schools will dismiss on Monday, January 16 to allow teachers a mid-semester work day.

After the one-day hiatus, the students will report to their classes at the regular time on Tuesday, January 17.

Update Given On Overpass

Superintendent of Schools Hal M. Ratcliff reported to the Friona School Board as to a status report on the school's request for constructing a pedestrian overpass at Friona Junior High across Highway 60.

The district highway department engineer at Lubbock contacted Ratcliff by telephone on Monday, requesting information as to how many times students cross the highways each day.

Ratcliff explained that three groups of students cross the highway each day during the fall; two groups cross every day during the winter, and four different groups cross each day during the spring, for athletic purposes.

In addition, it was pointed out that a number of elementary and junior high school students cross the highway each day coming to school and then leaving.

"I felt somewhat optimistic, after talking to the highway official," Ratcliff said.

The school official told the board that if such an overpass were constructed, there might be a possibility that the local school and/or city might be asked to participate to some extent in the cost involved in its construction.

"I sure intend to persue this matter. I think it would be great to have this overpass, and possibly save a terrible accident happening at the crossing," Ratcliff said.

In other business before the school board at its regular monthly meeting on Monday, the annual review of the superintendent's contract was conducted, and Superintendent Ratcliff's contract was extended through June 30, 1992.

Enrollment figures as of December 22, 1988 were as follows: 660 students in elementary school; 273 in junior high and 338 in high school, for a total of 1271 students.

The board was informed of a meeting of the Panhandle Area Assn. of School Boards in Amarillo on January 19, and an Education Legislative Workshop in Lubbock February 19-20.

The school's 1988-89 performance report was accepted.

Cold Snap Hits Area

Winter weather, which resembled the calendar more than that the region had enjoyed for most of 1989, invaded on Wednesday night, dropping temperatures into the teens for Thursday and Friday mornings.

Prior to the cold front's arrival, the high temperature had reached 65 degrees on Wednesday. The mercury had reached 64 degrees last Friday. Saturday morning marked the sixth consecutive day of low temperatures above the freezing point. Saturday also featured a bitterly cold wind.

Neither of the cold snaps managed to bring any moisture to the area. Some snow was predicted for the current cold spell, but as of this writing, none had materialized.

SCS News

By JODY LEWELLEN
SCS Technician, Friona

We are proposing habitat development as opposed to habitat management. Development means creating habitat where either no habitat or marginal habitat had existed before. Thus, practices such as minimum tillage or delayed tillage of stubble are ways to improve wildlife habitat.

There are some other ways to do this, also. Permanent wildlife habitat is one which permits the planting of trees and shrubs as well as herbaceous wildlife cover, thereby providing excellent winter cover in close proximity to other types of habitat. Native plants are preferred over introduced species if seed and nursery stock are available. Multiple rows of trees and shrubs are generally preferred over single rows even as travel lanes.

In Parmer County, we have playa lake bottoms. These depressions provide virtually all-over winter cover, serve as nesting and brooding cover, and supply foods such as barnyard grass and smart weeds. A water supply that is very accessible is one more thing we need to have to enhance wildlife.

Through the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District in Friona, there are wildlife packets available that contain several different types of trees that are good food and shelter for quail and pheasant. If interested in these wildlife packets, call or come by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District, 1306 West Ninth Street, Friona, or call 247-2220.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer. Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97 percent five year survival rate and a 90 percent 10 year survival rate. (The cost is only $50.00.) A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Repairs

For all your building needs call Lawrence Thompson, 247-3893

It matters not whether it is your home, rental property, storage building, or commercial property, they all have repairs which need to be made from time to time.

On roofs, it may require tearing off the existing shingles and replacing with new shingles, but sometimes just a repair job will do.

As the family grows, there is the need for more room. You may want to build on another bedroom, den or simply tear out one wall, making a larger room out of two.

Sometimes a carport is helpful. Consider these very important items: painting, insulation, paneling, concrete and patios.

For all of your building needs, contact Lawrence Thompson at 611 West 5th Street, or call 247-3893.

I was here in Friona from 1980 to 1983, doing roofing and remodeling work, besides being the pastor of the United Pentecostal Church. As of December 1, 1988, my family and I have moved back to Friona.

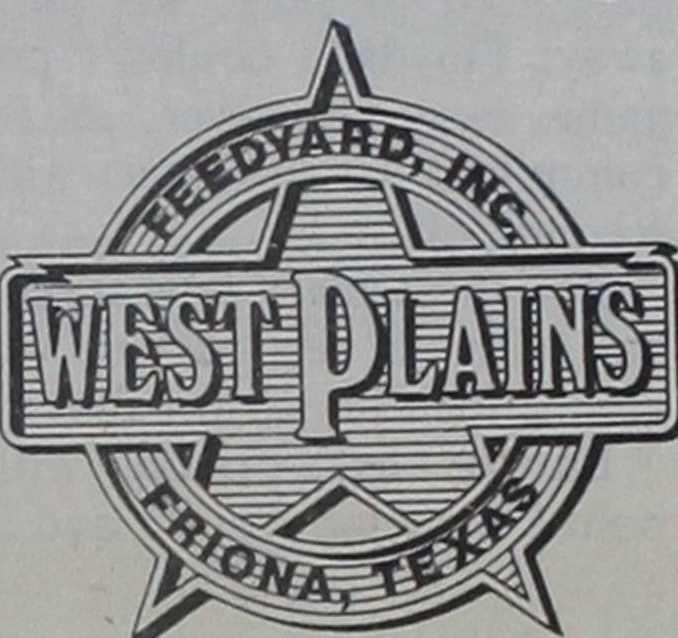

All of my former customers and everyone of you that does not have someone doing your new carpentry work or repair work are asked to please call on me. I give free estimates, and my work is guaranteed.

Third-Quarter Blues Plague Teams Against Floydada

If they had not played the third quarters of their games, both the Friona Chieftains and Squaws would have started district play with wins when they hosted teams from Floydada here Tuesday night.

However, you have to play all four quarters, and both teams failed to hold on to nice halftime leads and suffered heartbreaking defeats to the Whirlwind teams.

The Squaws were really a roller-coaster team, falling behind 18-8 after their opening quarter before virtually shutting down the Whirlwinds, 18-2 in the second quarter.

However, the visitors held the upper hand, 16-8 in the third quarter, and the Friona girls could not recover.

After seeing Floydada take the early ten-point lead, the Squaws came back on the shooting of Kenda Atwell and Elaine White to climb back into the game.

Miss Atwell's basket with 5:22 left in the first half gave the Squaws a tie at 18-all, and her free throw at the 4:46 mark gave Friona its first lead, 19-18.

Jenny Procter sank a long jump shot to run Friona's lead to 22-18, and made a nice turning jump shot for a 24-18 score. Miss Preston's jumper made it 26-18, and it took a shot by the visitors' Glasscock with 48 seconds left on the halftime clock for Floydada to keep from being shut out in the quarter. As it was, the Squaws had recovered from an 8-18 first quarter deficit to lead at the intermission, 26-20.

It was too bad the teams had to take the halftime break. Floydada's Hanna (20), who sat out all of the second quarter with three fouls, paced the Whirlwinds to 12 quick points as Floydada outscored the Squaws, 12-4 to regain the lead at 32-30 with 4:27 left in the third quarter.

It was 36-34, Floydada at the end of the quarter.

Susie Preston came off the bench to sink a pair of shots to keep the Squaws close, and Miss Procter stole the ball and drove the length of the court for a lay-in that cut Floydada's lead to 41-40 with four minutes to play.

The visitors hiked their lead to five, 45-40, but Sindy Preston's turning jump shot cut the lead to 45-42.

Miss Procter again brought the ball all the way down for a goal to trim the margin to 46-45 with 1:37 to play.

Sindy Preston's layup tied the score, 47-all with 19 seconds left, but Miss Hanna countered for Floydada, for a 49-47 score with six seconds left.

The Squaws got the ball back with four seconds left, but a desperation shot fell short in the 50-47 loss.

The boys' game was almost a carbon copy except that the Chiefs had a good first quarter. Friona ran up a 19-12 first quarter lead on the shooting of Darran Procter and Cody Burney, only to see the Whirlwinds score seven points in the final 40 seconds of the quarter to tie the score at 19-all.

Michael Reyes scored a pair of lay-ins, and Bret Bronniman and Burney each nailed a three-point basket as the Chieftains took a 29-23 lead with 4:00 left in the first half.

The 'Winds cut the score to 31-28, but Reyes and Procter each scored baskets after rebounds to send the Chiefs to intermission with a surprising 35-28 lead.

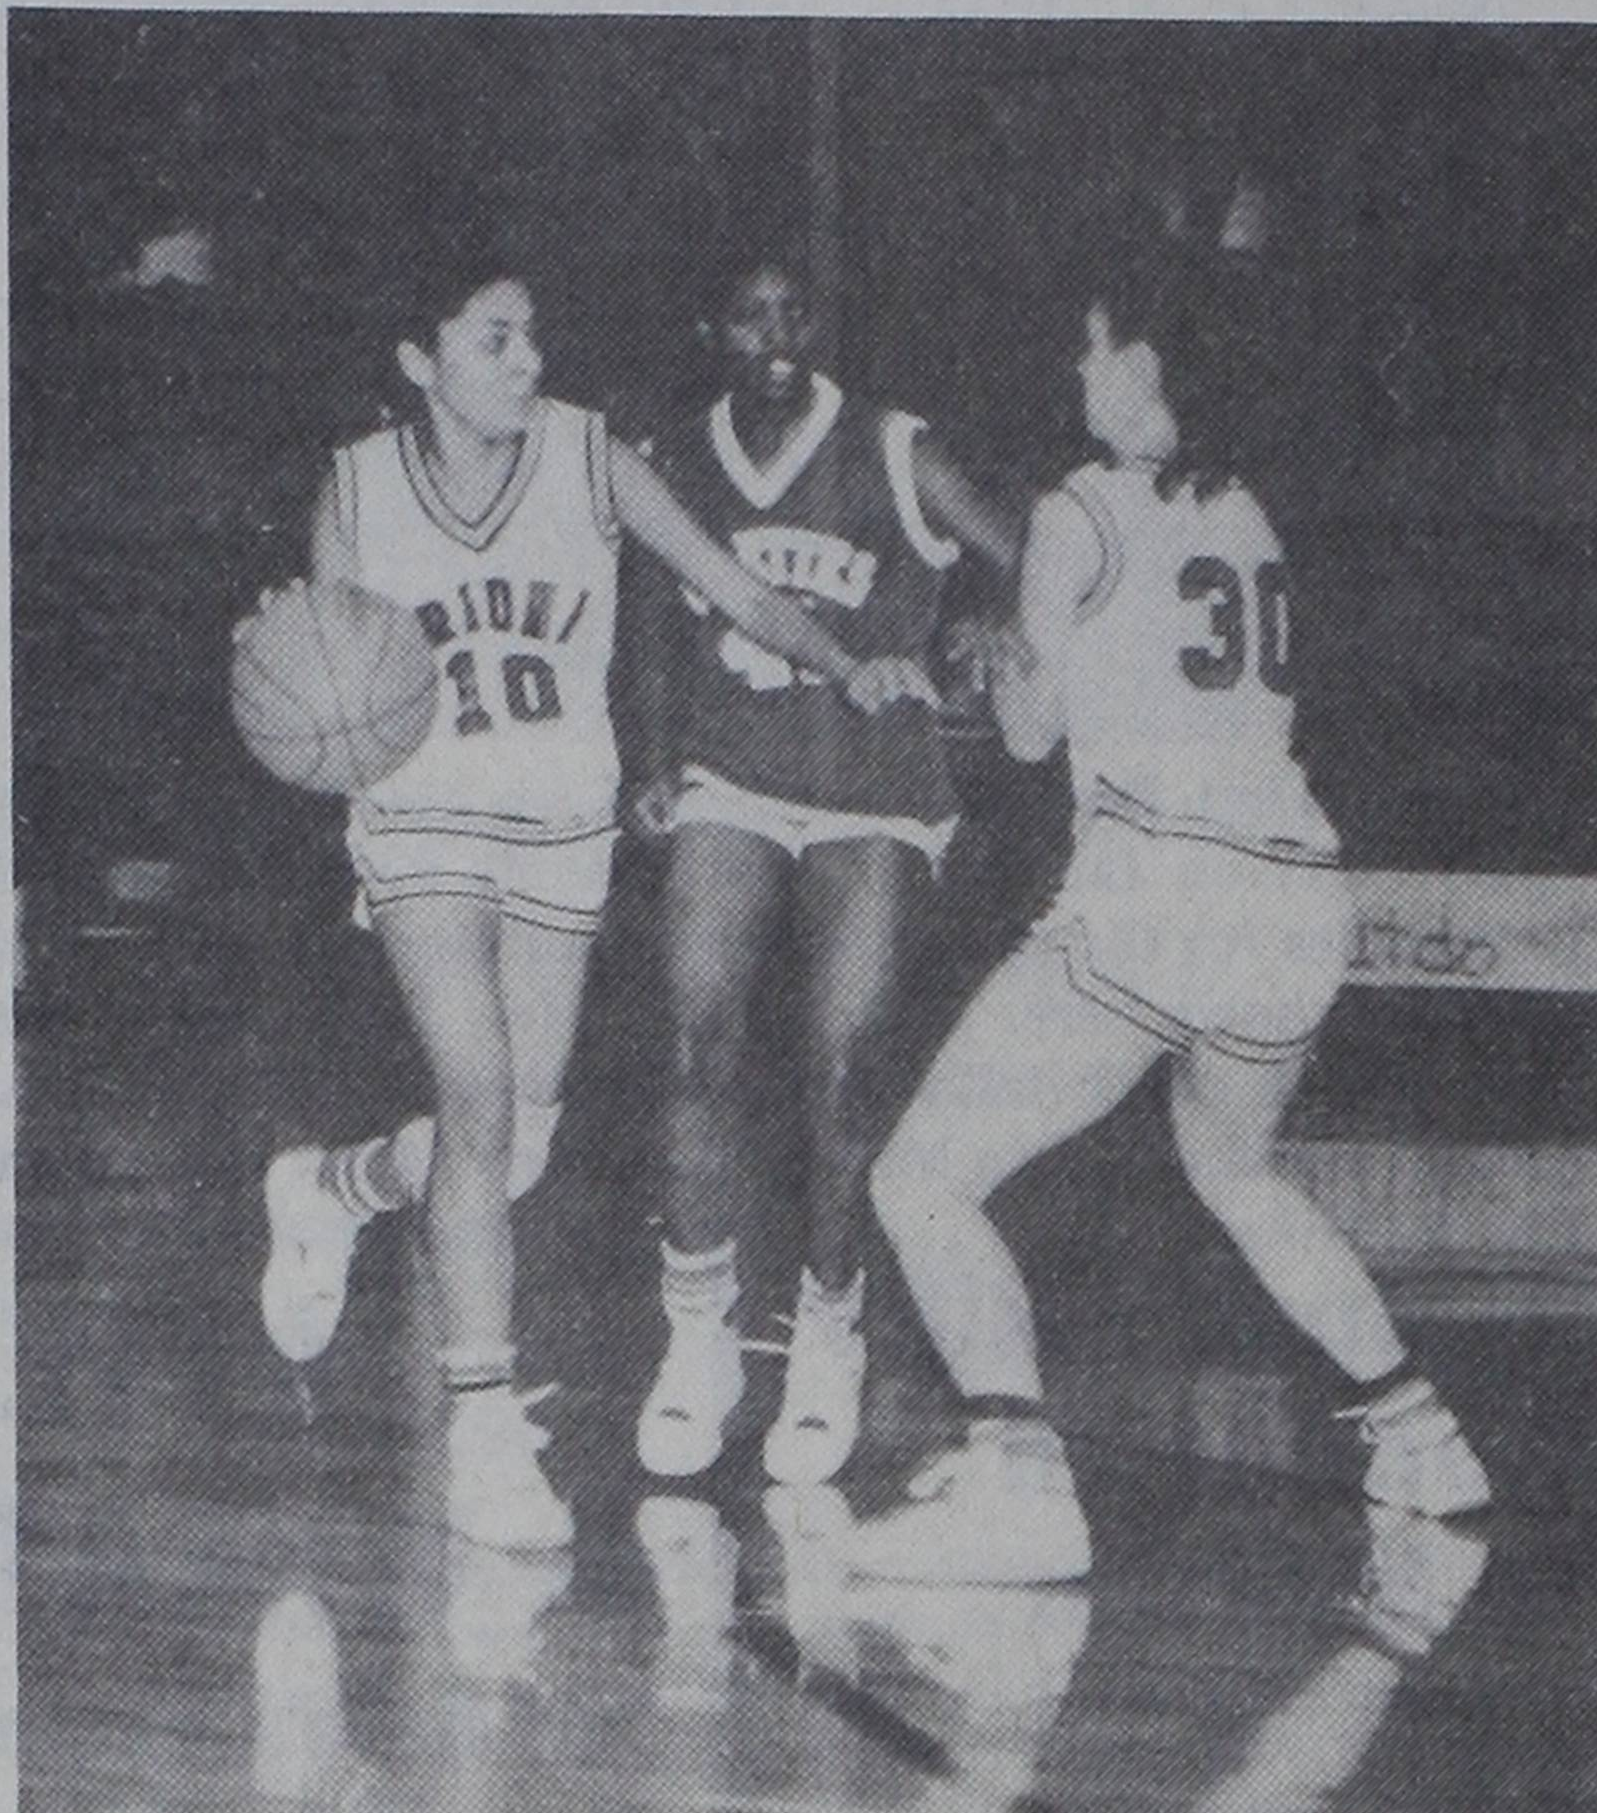

Even though their fans may have doubted that it would last, even the biggest doubter could not have foreseen what would happen in the third quarter.

Floydada exhibited the most dead-eye shooting seen at Chieftain Fieldhouse in many moons when Frank Suarez and Grant Stovall combined for four three-point baskets, and Suarez added a three-point play on a foul shot, as the Whirlwinds roared from behind.

The 'Winds outscored the Chiefs, 18-4 in a six-minute period to take a 46-39 lead, and after Friona rallied for a pair of goals, Suarez did his three-point play and the visitors sank another basket for a 51-43 lead at the end of the quarter. Floydada had owned the scoring in the third stanza by an eye-popping 25-8.

But the Chiefs didn't quit, and some good defensive work limited the Whirlwinds to a single three-point basket in the fourth quarter.

Baskets by Burney and Procter pulled Friona back in the game, and John Edd Duke ripped a three-pointer from the side with 1:50 left to make it a 54-52 game.

Friona had the ball to in-bound with 1:20 to play, but threw it away. Floydada couldn't put the game away, however, as Suarez committed a turnover with 23 seconds left.

But the Chiefs mishandled the ball with ten seconds left without getting their hoped-for shot away.

Burney led Friona with 17 points, Procter had 13 and Reyes

An investment in Your Future

...ATTEND CHURCH

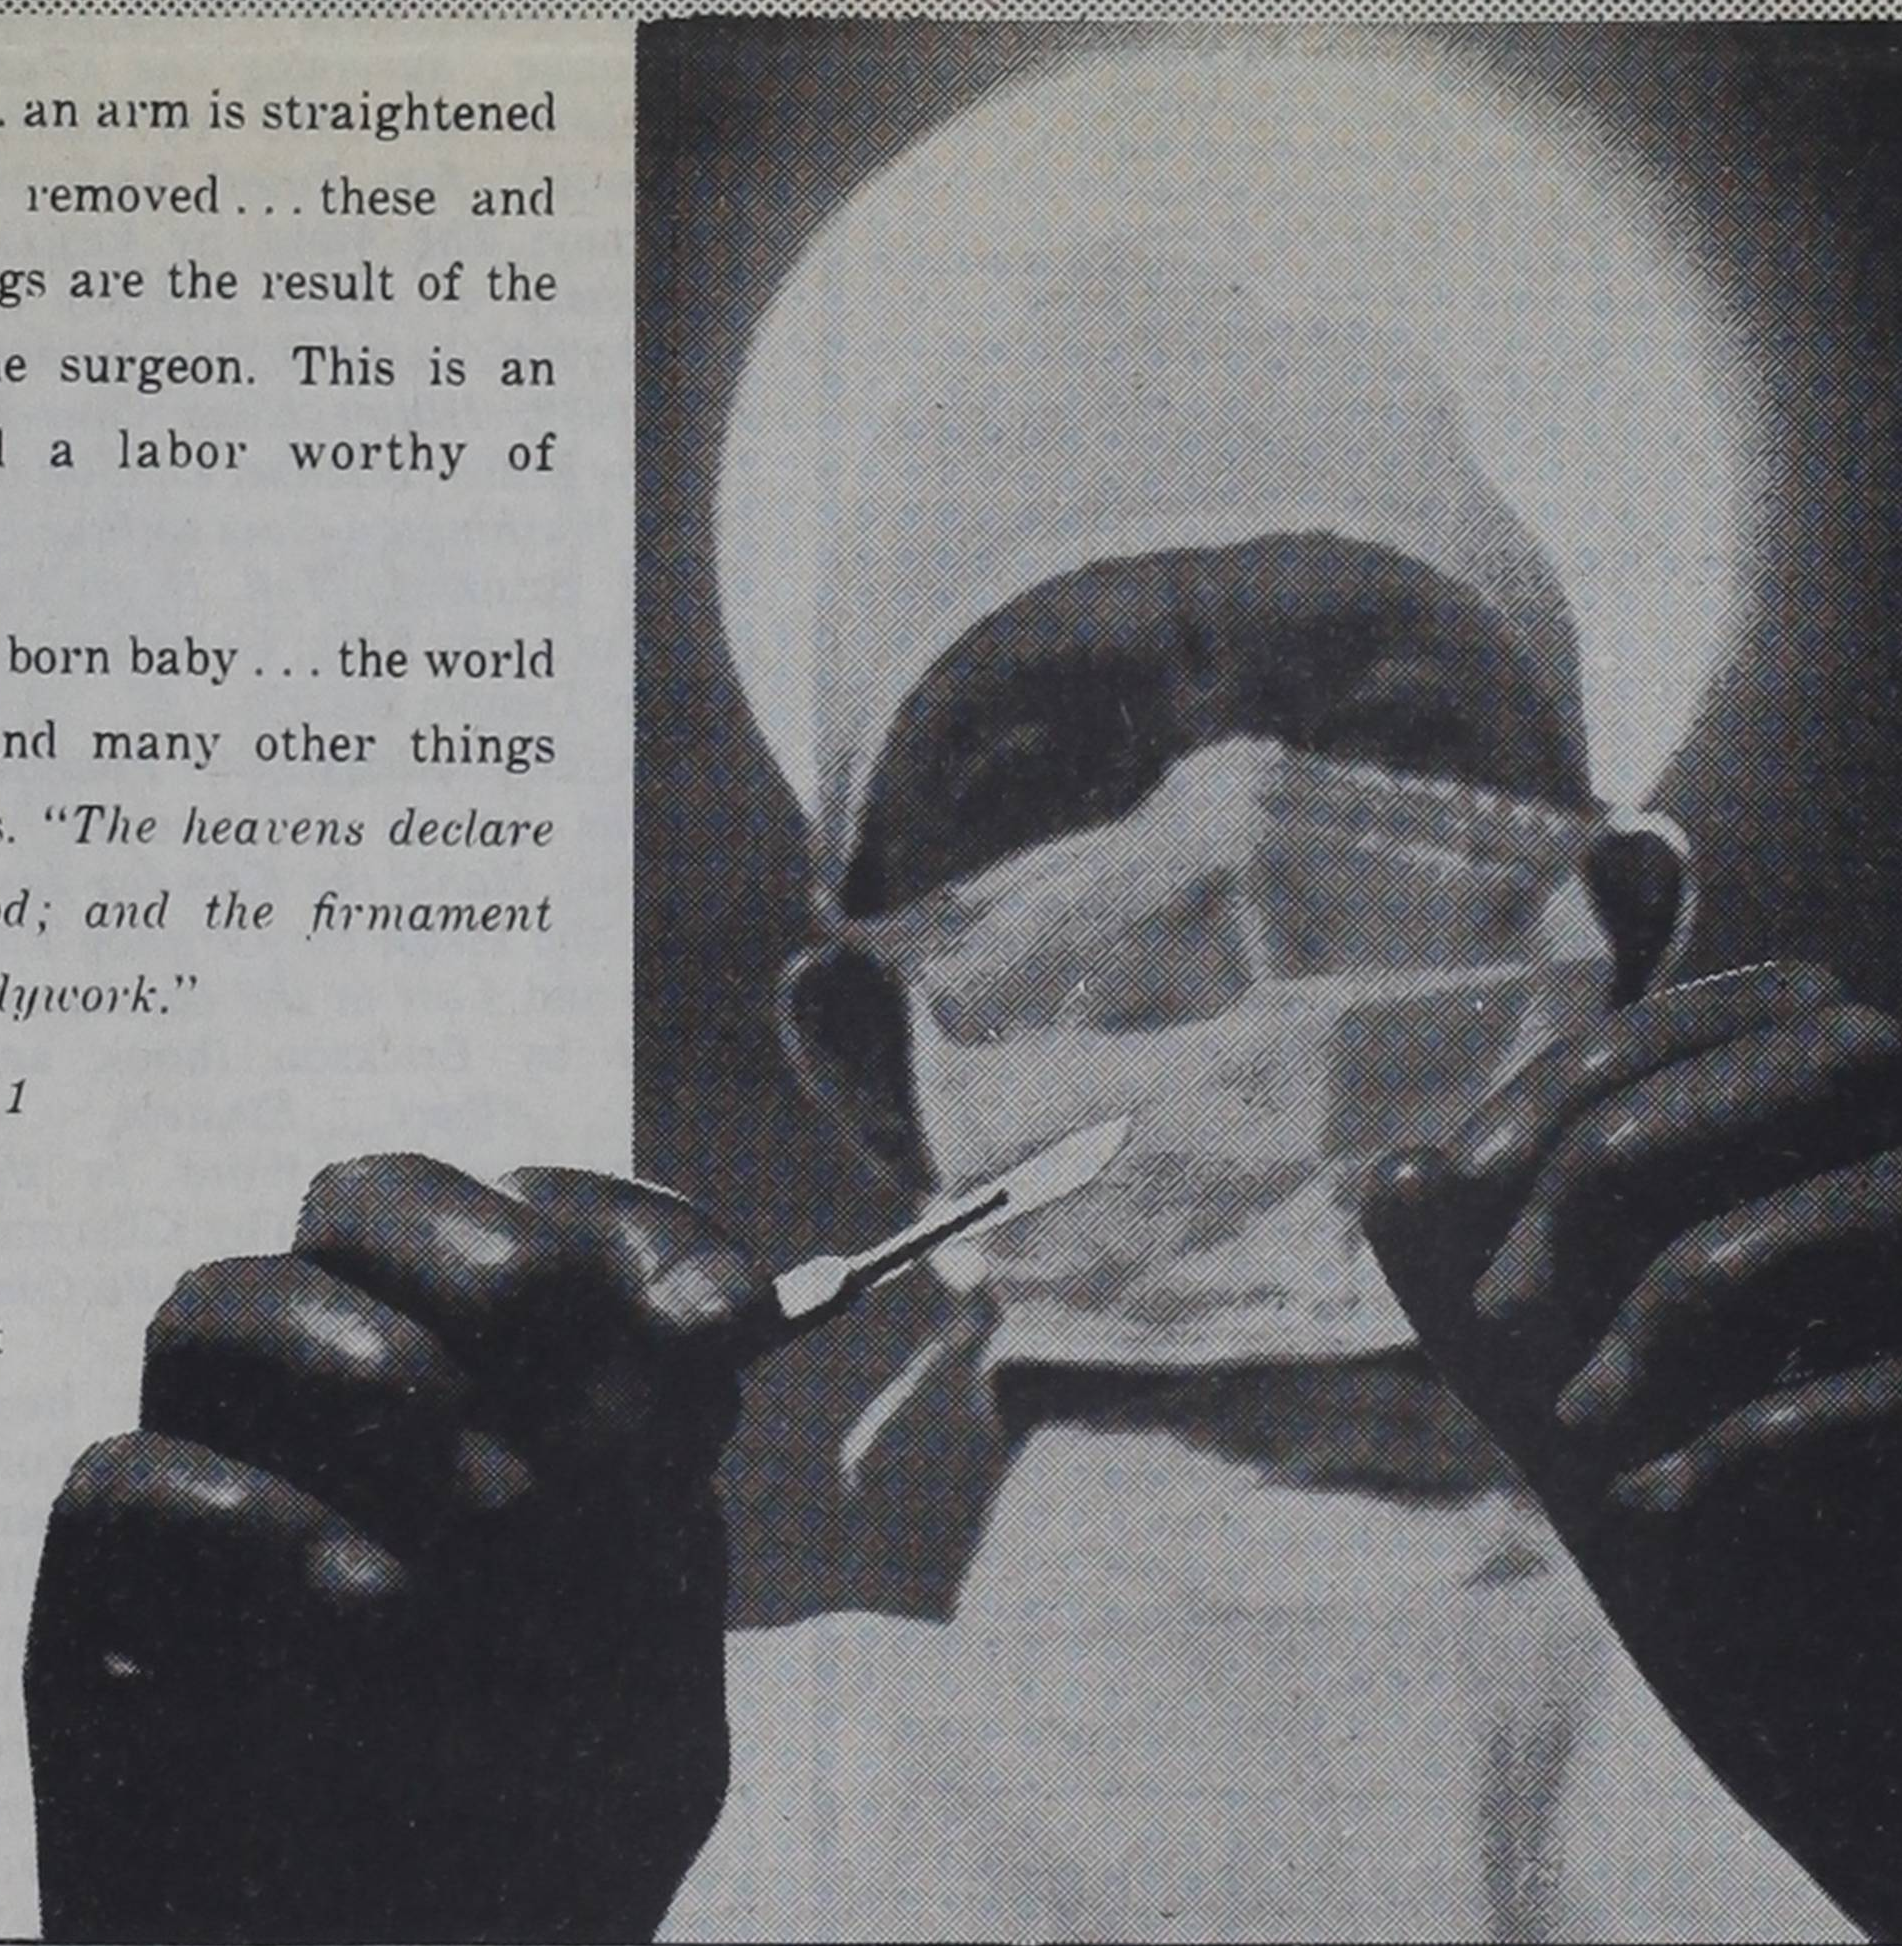

SURE HANDS OF THE SURGEON

A child walks... an arm is straightened... a growth is removed... these and many other things are the result of the fine work of the surgeon. This is an occupation and a labor worthy of appreciation.

A star... a new born baby... the world itself... these and many other things reveal God to us. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork."

Psalm 19, 1

God has wrought a great work. Let us show our love and appreciation by worshipping him in Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

As a new year begins, let us begin a new day, a new life. Each year, when a new year rolls around, most of us at least pause to think about our lives, to give thanks for our blessings and to make plans to correct our iniquities.

In this vein, some thoughts to share are: "How to Live 100 Years Happily," taken from the December newsletter of an area doctor. 1. Do not be on the lookout for ill health. 2. Keep usefully at work. 3. Have a hobby. 4. Learn to be satisfied. 5. Keep on liking people. 6. Meet adversity valiantly. 7. Meet the little problems of life with decision. 8. Above all, maintain a good sense of humor, best done by saying something pleasant every time you get a chance. 9. Live and make the present hour pleasant and cheerful. Keep your mind out of the past and in the future.

"Make Time," from the Guardian of Truth: Make time to think--it is the source of power. Make time to play--it is the key to freedom and relaxation. Make time to read--it is the gateway to knowledge. Make time to worship--it washes the dust of earth from your eyes. Make time to help and enjoy friends--no other happiness matches this. Make time to love--if you don't, it will fade away. Make time to laugh and pray--these are two things that lighten life's load. Make time to be alone with God--He is the source of everything.

And finally, from "Food For Thought," a political leaflet handed out by C.N. Jones, Justice of the Peace candidate for Cooke County, Texas in 1930: the greatest sin--fear; the best day--today; the biggest fool--the boy who will not go to school; the best town--where you succeed; the most agreeable companion--one who would not have you any different than the way you are; the great bore--one who will not come to the point; the greater bore--one who keeps talking after he has made his point; the greatest deceiver--one who deceives himself; the greatest invention of the devil--war; greatest source of production--saving waste; the best work--what you like; the best play--work; the greatest comfort--the knowledge that you have done your work well.

The greatest mistake--giving up; the most expensive indulgence--hate; the cheapest, stupidest and easiest thing to do--finding fault; the greatest trouble maker--one who talks too much; greatest stumbling block--egotism; the most ridiculous asset--pride; the worst bankrupt--one who has lost his enthusiasm; the cleverest man--one who always does what he thinks is right; the most dangerous person--liar; the most disagreeable person--the complainer; the best teacher--one who makes you want to learn; the meanest human feeling--feeling bad for another's success; the greatest need--common sense; the greatest puzzle--life; greatest mystery--death; greatest thought--God; greatest thing, bar none, in all the world--love.

Continuing Investment Study Is The Key To Success

The National Association of Investors Corporation, NAIC, is often mentioned in this column. The reason is that its members, like our readers, are composed of individual investors worldwide--no big corporations, institutions, banks or mutual funds, just average people interested in furthering their investment knowledge and learning how to make money in the stock market.

Each year the NAIC recognizes its All-Star Investment Clubs. Better Investing, the organization's official publication, includes not only statistical data on these top clubs, but also interviews with members to learn why they're successful.

This year the annual review was particularly interesting because the results and the reactions included October 19, 1987, Black Monday, the day the stock market seemed to collapse.

How did these investors react to an emotional situation that drove some investors out of the market forever? To begin, one must understand that the NAIC stresses long-term value investing. The principles they encourage members to follow stress active monitoring of investments with the understanding that stocks don't always rise in value. Most NAIC members are conditioned to ride out storms like the one that hit the market last October. These All-Star Clubs demonstrated their confidence by staying in the market and building their portfolio through selective buying.

For example, the ACTIFF, the acronym for A Commitment to Invest for the Future, Investment Club of Portland, Oregon, saw Black Monday as an opportunity to "beef up" their holdings with good stocks at bargain prices. Their president, Greg Button, told Better Investing the five-year-old club averaged a 22 per cent annual gain through November, 1987. That's an admirable record even for professionals.

The gains, however, were not as significant as how these clubs achieved them. None of the nation's top 16 clubs left investing to chance. A fundamental part of each club is a strict education policy.

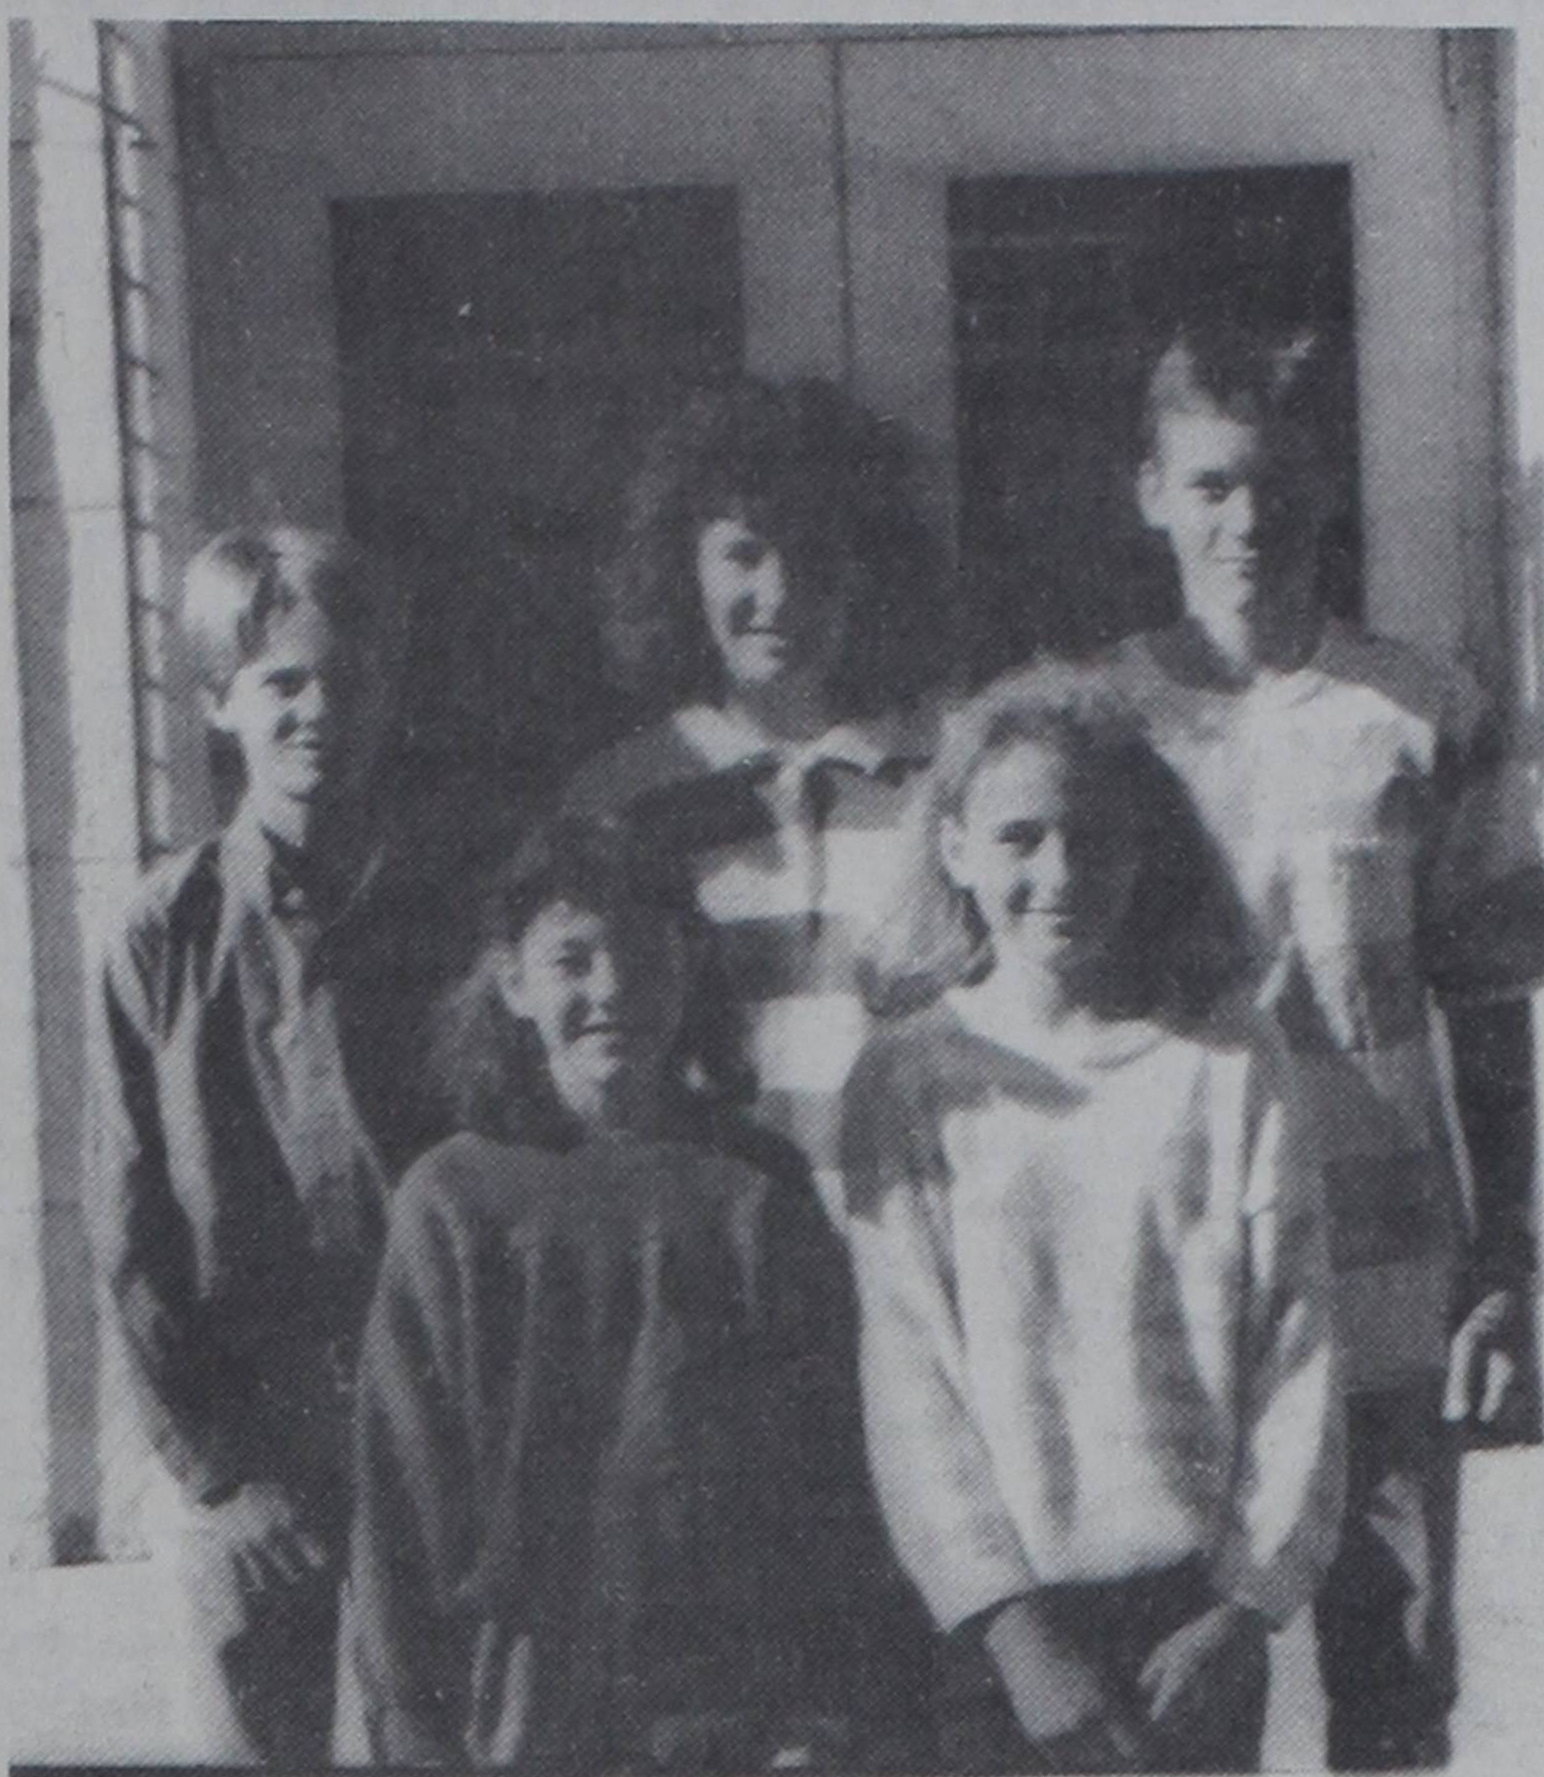

The County Employees Investment Club of San Diego, California, develops a schedule of topics at the beginning of each year. These are printed and distributed to the membership. It was education and strict investment discipline that, in a meeting shortly after the market's drop, led the club to analyze their position and "to stick with their unwritten rule of not selling unless there's a reason to sell."

Although membership of these top investment clubs is usually made up of both men and women, the Poor's Pupils Investment club is a product of the Dublin, Ohio, Women's Club. These twenty women have become true students of investing by studying stocks. President Ann Bumgarner says the club's objective is "to learn about stocks and to make intelligent decisions." Because of this philosophy, they invested $1,020 after Black Monday. "It was worth $1,800 just six months after the crash," she says.

The overall success of these clubs is an inspiration to individual investors nationwide. They represent men and women in virtually every profession.

President of NAIC's Board of Trustees, Kenneth S. Janke, applauds those clubs that work hard to help their members learn and grow. He sees it as "a formula that leads to financial success."

We agree and add our congratulations.

Call 247-3249 With Your News Item

Remember the expression-- "Where's George?" Do you suppose Ann Richards would object if we revised her expression to "Where's June?"

It seems that June is extending her Christmas vacation longer than expected and--there is no Toot like a substitute--Carol Ellis contacted me about writing this column while June is gone and it was with mixed emotions that I consented to give it a try. And, if I am to succeed--to any degree that June has done, I will need ALL of the help from ALL of you with your news items.

I don't feel that reporting your comin's and going's is bragging especially when it pertains to your family, children and grandchildren. If we can't brag on them, who will? I will be listening for your calls "till June returns."

Visiting with Sis and Bud Ferguson reminded me of the times when we were all at home or would come back for the holidays. Their children, Bessie and Ira Holt, Reba and Glenna; Fred and Shirley Ferguson, Gary and Kristy; and Doris Smith, Heather and Alicia, were with the Fergusons for both Christmas and New Year's.

It is a good way to start a new year--with family. Fred and Shirley, Gary and Kristy spent some time with her parents, the Troy Hutsons together with Ronny and Carolyn Stevick and children.

Tony Day, son of Leroy and Betty Burnett, got to enjoy some time in Friona with kith and kin and left Monday for Norfolk, Virginia, to join his ship, the USS America.

Rena Burnett, a daughter, from Dallas, spent the holiday here with the family. Another son, Harvey Burnett, who is stationed with the Navy at Ramona, California, was scheduled to come home, but his plans were changed. He has been in the Navy eleven years.

Goldie Smith, mother of Weltha (Herman) Nibert, who lives at Prairie Acres, celebrated her 90th birthday with some of her friends who visited with her at the home.

Athelea Neel is a patient at High Plains Baptist Hospital, Amarillo for eye surgery. The surgery was a success from reports and she may return home Wednesday of this week. Best wishes to her.

Word has it that several of the Friona "Snow Birds" will be leaving this week for their South Texas playground. We wish them luck and only wish we all could join them--some of the names mentioned include the Rene Sneads, Paul Fortenberrys and Eugene Boggess and there are probably others already there. Enjoy the warm weather!

Lauretta Brookfield spent the Christmas holidays in Plano, Texas with her children and grandchildren, Ronnie Brookfield and family and daughter, Joan Gayle.

Geneva Williams spent Christmas with her sister, Frances Baze, Dallas, Rick and Deb Rogstad, Grapevine, Texas.

Sue Rector has had knee surgery at High Plains Baptist Hospital, Amarillo, and is reported to be making good progress.

Stan and Nelda Benghe have enjoyed visiting with Stan's daughter, Sharla and husband, Craig Trimm and Michelle and Jerred from Mount Pleasant, Texas.

Red and Mattie Faye Crow of McAllen, formerly of Friona, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on January 14. They will be celebrating in Dallas with their children, Joy and George Masso and Earl and Linda Crow.

Gordon and Lucinda Stokes and girls had holiday visitors in their home, Rudy and Betty Aguirre and four daughters from Dalhart and John Aguirre of Lubbock. They all enjoyed Christmas together.

Mr. and Mrs. Shawn Aguirre, parents of Lucinda, Rudy and John, spent the holidays with family and friends in the San Antonio area.

Arthur and Lena Stokes are visiting with Shirley and Gary Harris at Marana, Arizona. They went with Bart Blackburn and Amy Smith.

Jerry and Dalinda Carr enjoyed Christmas with her parents and family, the Dean Shippis. Their holidays were saddened by the loss of Carolyn's mother at Post, Texas.

Jimmy and Barbara Maynard enjoyed their family through the holidays. They visited with Shauna and Randy Gillespie at Wichita, Kansas and their sons, Don and Diann and Mike, all of Amarillo. They also visited with kith and kin at Cordell, Oklahoma. Reports are that all are well.

Joe and Billie Tongate spent some time with their daughter, Sydonia and Danny Pena at Cotulla, Texas. They are expecting their first grandchild and are looking forward to this special event. They also visited with Billie's brother, Mike and Peggy McKee at Devine, Texas. Their son, Kemal, was home from Lubbock, but their son, Vohnya, is stationed at Oakland, California with the Marines and did not get to be at home for the holidays.

Visiting with Jimmie Su and Bill Gibson and Betty were their daughter and sister, Shana of Lubbock together with the other daughter and family, Dawn Ann, Jeff and Julie, Shana and Dawn Ann are both attending Texas Tech. The granddaughter is always a joy to have with them.

Clarence and Nona Martin of Friona, joined by Carol Dean and Otis Huggins of Farwell, travelled to the Dallas area during the Christmas holidays and visited with the Parmer County ladies' other two sisters, Glenda Deatherage of Mesquite and Zada Milhoun of Irving.

Nona said it hadn't been too awfully long since the four sisters had been together, but it was nice for the husbands to join them this time. They all had a good time visiting, she said.
