By JERRY STOLTZ

William C. Brown, ex-Brownfield Legion commander, is one of 50 on the Legion 100-member club roster already this year. This means Will has certified 100 or more members.

The local Legion Post is 171 members short of the 432 member goal they have set for this year. They had 261 members at the December meeting time, which put them in second to Plainview where they reported 327. Snyder has 168.

Incidentally the modernization of the Legion Hall is complete and the interior is really nice looking.

Kiwanis club has put 10 chewing gum machines back into operation. Money from the machines goes into their underprivileged children's fund. The machines are marked "Kiwanis Club" so you'll know who they belong to.

Heard of one instance where a person thought the girls picketing the telephone office last week were advertising for Charlie Price.

Jaycees are going to set up poll tax booths in both bank lobbies this week to kickoff an intensive "Pay Your Poll Tax" campaign. They'll also pass out buttons saying "I Have Paid My Poll Tax" and put placards around town to remind everyone to pay up.

The County Tax Collector will be at the Wellman school on Jan. 16 from 10 to 12 and at Meadow school the same day from 1 to 3 to take poll taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harley Dallas got off to Iowa City this week. That will be their permanent home. They expect to be back for a short stay before long, probably in May.

Al Muldrow was elected permanent chairman of the new Higher Education Commission of Texas at the first meeting in Austin. Without going into considerable detail, it is difficult to explain just how important this Commission is. Burton Hackney explains it by saying "this is the 'hottest' thing in Austin."

Anyhow it is quite an outstanding honor.

Progress on the park is easy to see these days. They've torn down the fence along the east side of Coleman Park and cut a road between the new and old parks. Roads are going in, construction is progressing on the swimming pool, bath house and party house.

Chamber of Commerce directors will have their first official meeting with new manager Joe Satterwhite at 7:30 Friday evening. This is also the first Chamber of Commerce meeting of 1956 and Joe is enthusiastic about prospects of making it a record year.

Supt. O. R. Douglas and Coach Toby Greer and captains will receive the District 6-AA Sportsmanship trophy from the Crane Lions club at Crane next Thursday night. Mike Brumblow will be the principal speaker.

There's a new stop sign as you go west on Hill and enter onto 7th right there at the Light Plant. Watch for it.

Mrs. Morgan Copeland received notice this week that she was to appear in District Court Monday as a part of the jury panel.

ALL-TIME LEVEL IS REACHED

Bank Deposits Are Heartening

In the 50-year history of banking in Terry county, deposits are at a record level: $21,003,373. The figure comprises the total of deposits in the First National Bank, Brownfield State Bank & Trust Company and Brownfield Savings & Loan Association—as of Dec. 31, 1955.

Terry population and economic growth since 1940 is reflected rather accurately in the steady and steep climb of deposit totals: In 1941, the amount was $2,868,268.

The increase during the past 15 years, as shown in financial statements, amounts to approximately $19,000,000.

Three Sons Have Appendectomies

You reckon it's contagious? The Haram Cole family of Denver City, and formerly of Brownfield, set something of a record at Treadaway-Daniell hospital during the past week.

Three sons, Harold who is 15, Tommy age 9 and Arthur who is 12 all had appendectomies.

All three boys are doing fine, but the question of how or why three members of the same family should pop up on the operation table to have their appendix removed in such a short time is a puzzler as far as hospital attendants are concerned.

Free Polio Vaccine Only For Those Who Can't Afford To Pay

Dr. Jerry Bailes, clinician for the South Plains Health Unit and Mrs. Viola Simmonds, county health nurse, clarified the Polio vaccine situation here in Terry county Wednesday with the following announcement:

"There has been a misunderstanding in the county regarding the availability of polio vaccine to the general public through the local unit. The local health unit does have a limited supply of vaccine and an attempt will be made to vaccinate every child in the county by the health unit who is unable to afford this vaccine.

"This is not a mass inoculation program and those who can afford it will be vaccinated by their private physician.

"Vaccine supplied by the state has been placed in the hands of local physicians and those unable to afford the vaccine will obtain it free from their doctor and not from the South Plains Health Unit.

"The regular immunization clinic will be conducted as usual."

A graph of the deposit totals since the beginning of the 1940's would depict the steady climb—but there were ups and downs. The rate of climb was steady until 1946, when deposits dropped from a previous year-end total of $10 million to $9 million. In 1947, there was $12,805,775 in the banks. By the end of the next year, the figure has decreased to $11,500,000.

For the next two years, '49 and '50, the climb was upward, up to $19 million by the end of 1950.

Condensed financial statements of the three money institutions reveal a three-year decline, beginning with the $18 million deposits in 1951, $17 million in 1952 and $16 million in 1953.

Total year-end bank and loan association deposits since 1941 were as follows:

1941	$2,868,268
1942	$4,584,362
1943	$6,311,588
1944	$8,169,934
1945	$10,109,262
1946	$9,150,295
1947	$12,805,775
1948	$11,539,502
1949	$13,729,089
1950	$19,876,529
1951	$18,524,400
1952	$17,525,244
1953	$16,653,414
1954	$20,971,570
1955	$21,003,373

Undivided profits at First National Bank at the end of 1954 were $68,697; at the end of last year, $79,787—an increase of $11,090. Brownfield State Bank's undivided profits increased last year

Annual School Census Being Conducted

The annual school census in the Brownfield Independent School District is now under way, according to Delwin Webb, curriculum coordinator who is in charge of the census.

Webb said all students now in school were enumerated this week and many of next year's first graders were also picked up through this means. However, parents of children who will reach their sixth birthday before Sept. 1 and who have not otherwise been contacted should either call one of the school principals or Webb at 2844.

All children between the first grade age and those who will not have reached their 18th birthday by Sept. 1 are included in the census.

Jaycees To Make Sixteenth Annual Outstanding Young Man Award

Terry county's Outstanding Young Man of the Year for 1955—who will he be? Will he be tall or short? Fair or dark? Slim or heavy? Married or single? Whoever he may be, he will have earned the honor to be conferred on him the night of Jan. 17. The place: Jessie G. Randal cafeteria. The time: 7:30 p. m.

The up-coming OYMY dinner and award carries on a tradition begun the year Japan attacked Pearl Harbor 1941. At that time, the Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce recognized Ray Christopher as the OYMY for 1940.

"Our only break with tradition this time," explains Alvin Davis Jaycee president, "is that for the first time nominations are being accepted for anyone living in the county. Heretofore, we have limited our choice to a Brownfield resident."

The Tuesday night speaker will be Dr. Robert H. Black, head of the Animal Husbandry Department at Texas Tech.

Other OYMY honors have gone to Lynn Nelson, 1941; Virgil Burnett, 1942; C. C. Primm, 1943; Herbert Chesshir, 1944; Frank Szydoski, 1945; J. E. (Buddy)

Two Meadow Boys Wounded Saturday

Two Meadow boys were wounded and charges were filed on C. M. Maxson for assault with intent to murder Sunday following a Saturday night gunshot at Meadow.

Teenage students Lynn Hansard and Dean Browning were wounded, one in the shoulder and the other in the hand, as a result of a shot fired by Maxson from a Luger pistol.

Statements were conflicting, but apparently the boys who were riding with four other boys in a car past Maxson's, either accidentally honked the horn, or purposely honked it. Anyhow Maxson fired a shot which he stated was intended to scare them, and not to hit them.

However the shot entered the car from an angle and creased one boy's hand and entered into the shoulder of the other.

Maxson was released on bond.

Graham, 1946; Bruce Zorn, 1947; Sam Pruitt, 1948; John Kendrick, 1949; W. A. Roberson, 1950; Clyde Bond, Jr., 1951; L. G. Smith, 1952; J. C. Powell, 1953, and Ves Hicks, 1954.

"For the first time," Davis said Wednesday, "the Jaycees' Distinguished Service award will be made on the basis of a nomination, and judges will select the winner using a point system."

Davis continued: "Nominees will be graded on six points: contribution to community, state or national welfare during local residence; participation in all-round community, state or national activities; Evidence of personal or business progress, and cooperation with individual and civic organizations."

Deadline for submitting nominations to L. G. Smith at the Brownfield State Bank is Sunday, Davis cautioned, and added: "Only men 35 years of age or younger are eligible."

The OYMY will be named by a panel comprising four past winners and one representative from the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs.

Another award on the same level and of equal value is scheduled to be presented Tuesday night: a richly engraved plaque will be given to the OYFY Outstanding Young Farmer of the Year.

The OYFY is a "first" here. It begins what the Jaycees hope will be another long and colorful tradition. Nominations for the award may be submitted by telephoning (3640) Walt Meyer, vocational agriculture teacher at Brownfield High School. The deadline: Sunday.

Dr. Black is known in farm and ranch circles throughout the country for his work as a livestock and meat judge at state and national shows.

It was in September 1954 that the doctor joined the Tech faculty, coming from the University of West Virginia at Morgantown where he had taught 12 years.

He has a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma A&M and master's and doctor's degrees from West Virginia. He is a member of the American Society of Animal Production, American Association for

RIGHT-OF-WAY NEGOTIATIONS TOUGHEN

City Expects to Have '62' Right-of-Way Soon, Except for Condemnation Suits

The handwriting is on the wall as far as city officials are concerned with regard to the future widening program for U.S. 62 through Brownfield. This was made apparent this week by an announcement by City Manager Elmer Jones concerning the matter.

Jones explained that time is running out if the right-of-way is to be acquired in time for construction this summer. In view of this he said it will be necessary for condemnation proceedings to be instituted against some of the property owners along the highway to obtain the necessary footage.

He said that although the City has been hesitant in procedure there will be no alternative where right-of-way cannot be acquired by agreement.

Jones said the City Council now has in mind starting such proceedings against those property owners with whom the city has not traded by the end of the month.

In explanation of the matter Jones said, "You will recall that a bond issue of $249,000 was voted to buy this right-of-way and out of this amount the city is to pay for over 20,000 feet of curb and gutter. The bond issue is not sufficient to pay the property owners their asking prices.

"Considerable right-of-way was given to the City without cost, some for very small consideration and in several instances the property owner has made considerable concession because of his desire to see the highway improved.

"May we suggest that the property owners along this route contact us at the City Hall with a view of making definite arrangements for this additional right-of-way so that it will not be necessary for condemnation proceedings to be instituted by the city for such right-of-way."

In their first Council meeting of 1956 the Council also voted to continue contributing $425 a year to the Cemetery Association.

They also renewed the taxicab permit held by J. V. Bowen.

Eight Dollar Day Winners Are Named

Dollar Day Gift certificate winners this week were almost equally divided between rural and city residents. Two from Tokio, Martha Trout and Nadine Clanshan, were named winners along with two on Rural Route 3 and one on Route 2. The other three were from Brownfield.

Winners and the store in which they are to redeem their gift certificates were Martha Trout, Fostons; Maria B. Sattelo, Brownfield, Field's Clothiers; Nadine Clanshan, Franklin's; Mrs. W. F. Collins, Rt. 3, Furr Food; H. E. Durban, Rt. 3, Gore Fashion Shoppe; Mrs. E. A. Graham, 402 W. Cardwell, Bayless Jewelry; Ronnie Lee Skaggs, Rt. 2; Klein's; Mrs. W. A. Roberson, 1306 E. Buckley, Shelton's.

"Nothing New" On Coaching Situation

Two new school teachers were hired and the football coaching situation discussed in the first Brownfield School Board meeting of 1956.

Supt. O. R. Douglas said that Atha Lynn Mitchell will teach in the fourth grade, replacing Mrs. Ellsworth, who has joined her husband who is in service at Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Nancy Stultz, who recently moved here with her husband and who has a masters degree at Texas Tech, will replace Mrs. James H. Dallas in the second

TOURNAMENT OF TALENT EXEC'S—The trio pictured above "talked it up" bright and early—before sunrise—Wednesday, examining the latest plans for the Brownfield Lions' up-coming Tournament of Talent. From left, they are Herb Chesshir, O. R. Douglas and Virgil Crawford. Just as they did last year, the men find themselves carrying out the same duties in the club's tournament set-up: Chesshir, director; Douglas, steering committee head, and Crawford, emcee. Scheduled for Feb. 23-24 in the high school gymnasium, the fifth annual tournament was the discussion topic when chairmen and co-chairmen of 11 Lion committees met for breakfast in Nick's Cafe. "We invite anyone under 21 years of age—with a particular talent to present—to take part in our annual talent show," said Douglas. Applicants may use the registration blank found elsewhere in this edition, or they may register with any Brownfield Lion. The group agreed that Feb. 13 would be the deadline for registering. We're finally back on the job again after our vacation and brother! We're really loaded with the news this time.

The holiday season was really filled with parties. Shelby Thompson, Patsy McAnally, Barbara Chesher, Barbara Whitaker, and Carolyn Crites met at one of the girls' homes and exchanged Christmas gifts.

The same night, December 23, Le Norma Turner was surprised with a party in honor of her sixteenth birthday. It was given at Doris Ratliff's home and those were: James Szydoski, Keith Baker, Vernon Brewer, Patti Thomas, Bob Dumas, Shirley Wilkenson, Phil Addison, Johnny Rayson, Patsy Hulise, Freda Newsom, Bobbie Nell Richardson, Carl Moore, Gerald Jenkins, Rita Lou Goodpasture, Jorita Fulford, Mary Jane Brownfield, Nick Greer, Donna Sue Nelson, Kenneth Murphy, Sherry Don Spears, Larry Fulford, Ronnie Swan, Jimmy Jenkins, Roger Pendley, Glen Pendley, Arlon Odum, Clyde Trotter, Sue Shewmake, Shelia, Betty Ann Davis, Tommy Street, La Nell McAnally, Barbara Knox, Richard Baggett, and Jackie Meeks.

One of the latest fads among the girls is engagement rings. The Black twins, Era and Lela, both came back to school with rings; Era's from Leroy Little and Lela's from Cecil Marley. Other girls with rings are: Jo Hayes from Larry White; Barbara Whiteaker from Gene Zachary; Johnora Haynes from Tommy Franklin; and Josie Grissom from Gail Armstrong.

Maurine Webb and Tommy Winn were married December 20 at her home. They are now back from their honeymoon.

Sue and Glen Howard were also married over the holidays at Livingston. Sue and Glen are living here in Brownfield.

Wesley and Lesley Britton are our fourth set of twins. The boys are sixteen year old juniors. They were born in Meadow and are very definitely identical. There is a way to distinguish them, however: Wesley wears glasses, Lesley plays basketball and is going steady with Dale Wilson. Both boys are in Ag. When the school pictures come in, the boys always have trouble telling who's who unless Wesley wears his glasses in his picture.

Some daters seen over the holidays were: Chris Addison—Mary Jo Christian; Ruth Glen—Lonnin Bartley; Mike Hamilton—Sherry Don Spears; Carl Moore—Freda Newsom; Ann Daugherty—Bobby Casey; and Kitty Baker—Don Armstrong.

The band went to El Paso for the Sun Bowl game over the New Year's week end. Saturday night they went to a dance and ushered in the New Year. The next morning, Sunday, they all went to church and that afternoon, to Juarez. Monday, the band marched in a three mile parade for the game that afternoon. Before the game, the majorettes from all bands present were judged. Two of our majorettes, Patsy Hulise and Kay Kissinger, got into the finals, but were unable to compete further because they had to leave. After the game, they went to a show before retiring for the night. Tuesday, they left for home, going by Ruidoso way to curio-shop.

Donna Nelson gave a slumber party during the holidays. Those present were: Bobbie Nell Richardson, Barbara Chesher, Le Norma Turner, Dianna Adams, Patti Thomas, Freda Newsom, Jo Hayes, Mary Ruth Venable, Patti Wilder, Mary Jane Brownfield, Patsy Hulise, Barbara Knox.

In the Crosbyton basketball tournament over the holidays, the Cubs won first place, Floydada second, and Slaton third. Lanier Petty and Carl Moore were named on the all-tournament team.

Brenda Fenton and Ann McBurnett went to Ruidoso during Christmas; Peggy Adams went to a dance at Sherman; Janel and Betty Bragg went to the Big D City—Dallas; and Carole Johnson went to Phoenix, Arizona.

Melba Reid and Judy and Patsy Land all had parties before the New Year's midnight preview. Melba's guests were: Tinnie Wade, Glenna Moore, Chris Cloe, Pat Rinehart, H. W. Shelton, Bobby Turner, J. T. Shannon, Paul Brock, Lewis Hare, and Larry Simmons. Judy and Patsy's guests came back after the movie for a slumber party. They were: Linda Bost, Sharon Snedeker, Peggy Adams, and Patsy Teague.

The preview was a huge success, with nearly everyone in school present.

Some more of the daters have been: Jack Ivey—Dee Anna Ware; Wayne Metcalf—Violet Brown; Leon Hinson—Karen Foshee; Virginia La Rue—Adrian McWilliams; Betty Sessions—Billy Ray Harlan; Roger Pendley—Shirley Wilkenson; and Betty Hahn—Bud Portwood.

Melvin Sanders was also honored with a surprise party. Guests were: Sue Walls, Doyle Higgs, Junior Collis, Dolores Cortez, Preston Glen, and Sona Johnson.

The Brownfield Astronomy Club has started on a large new project; building the second largest telescope in Texas. The club started a kitty to raise their money. Charles Isbell is president, and the other members are: Thad Risinger, Byron Evans, Robert Conlee, and John Hill.

Our basketball team is doing an excellent job and we're mighty proud of them. They won their games with Kermit and Monahans both last week.

After the Monahans game Friday night, Beverly Norris had a slumber party for Patsy Curry, Brenda Fenton, Ruth Glenn, Ann McBurnett, and Carol Ann Bevers. The bleaching bug has hit the school as it does every year about this time. Some of the hair styles, like Larry Fulford's, are rather unusual.

Virginia Daugherty was married to Travis Tyler in Hobbs, N. M., last Friday morning. They are now in South Carolina where Travis is in the Air Force.

Saturday night, Betty Hahn had a slumber party. Guests were: Connie Carrouth, Barbara Hodges, and Jo Beth Dumas were her guests.

The steady bug has bit again. This time: Carol Ann Mayfield—Eddie McKay; Rose Ann Mulkey—Eugene Hughtlett; and Judy Phillips—G. R. Mullins.

"Lovely Doris Ratliff was presented a loving cup when chosen queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs in the Caprock Hotel in Lubbock Saturday. Doris won over six other girls. The girls were judged by secret judges and Doris was announced winner at the dance that night. Doris looked attractive in a red suit with yellow and white roses across the yoke and cuffs, and on the belt loops, white hat, tie, and boots, and a red and white belt. Doris' friends, Sid Szydoski, Kenneth Murryby, Kay Kissinger, were there for the dance also. Doris said, "I just felt like laughing and crying at the same time."

Warren; Ardeth Braziel—Kenneth Ingram; Roy Lee Chandler—Allene Brown; Junior Collis—Dolores Cortez; Barbara Hodges—Dennis Beades; Gretta Howell—Carlos Howell; Gerald Burney—Sandra Burt; Ronnie Grant—Juana Jay Barrett; and Mary Stowe—Duane Calloway.

This Activity Day will consist of contests such as: Job Application, Business Speaking, Advertising Copy & Layout, Window Display, and Sales Demonstration. These are the same contests which are held at the State and National Distributive Education conventions. San Angelo business firms are offering cash prizes to first, second and third place winners in each contest.

The Brownfield students will be in competition with all other D. E. students of the West Texas and South Plains area. The local students will leave Friday morning and return that night in order to work at their jobs Saturday.

"Hi! From Junior High"

Reporters:
Carol Crawford
Leoneil Chesshir
1956 is leap year and we are going to leap a new project by writing a weekly column from Brownfield Junior High.
We will start by briefly reviewing some of the events that have happened the first few months of school.

There have been two plays given to the student body by the speech classes. The fifth period speech class gave a one act comedy under the direction of Mrs. Wilson, the speech teacher. The name of the play was "Bobby Sox". This play was about a teen-ager who wasn't satisfied with boys her own age. The boy that Bobby Sox liked was her big sister's boyfriend and this leads up to a lot of laughs. The cast was: Mrs. Hanna played by Phoebe Key, Bobby Sox—Nedra Mixon, Norton Brown—Leon Clark, Margie—Sharon Frymyre, Cal—Cecil Pendley, Bill—Gene PurteLL, Cliff—Don Cortez.

The eighth period speech class gave a one act mystery entitled "The Uninvited Ghost". A group of fun loving teen-agers visit a haunted house and find an unsolved mystery surrounding them. The cast was: Betty played by Ann Baker, Madge—Leoneil Chesshir, Bill—Keith Addison, Rich—James Forehand, Nancy—Karia, Chisholm, Jim—Carroll Taylor, Dorothy—Brenda Grissom, Sisie—Carol Crawford, Elaine—Latrice Teague, Mr. Finch—Kenneth Oswald and Hortense Gardner—Joyce Day.

We had quiet a few assemblies at the first of the year but I think the one that we enjoyed most was Rubinoff. He played several pieces but we were fascinated by his "Ballads of Davy Crockett". He truly is one of the greatest vi-

They then lost to Morton's 51-52 and came back to win 49-36 from the same team. Bob Cloe has 82 points and Joe Oswald 80 to lead scorers.

lentist of all times and we certainly enjoyed him coming to talk and play for us.

The week before Christmas was "Red Cap Week". The student council all wore red caps and carried other students books for student council money. The day that we got out for the holidays was "Teachers Day". The student council members helped the teachers with whatever needed to be done for the holidays.

We have some fine basketball teams this year. The seventh grade team members are: Anthony Adams, Keith Addison, Don Caruth, Charley Crities, Eddie Guitierrez, Delbert Hadaway, T. H. Holland, Roy Jones, Doug Mason, Robert Prewitt, Rowe Stevens, Jimmy Street, Duane Steen, and Jackie Bradley. The eighth grade team members are: Don Cary, Leon Clark, Gene Gipson, Chris Greer, Jack Grigs, Jimmy Green, Elbert Landes, Edward McCutcheon, Danny Lewis, Joe Milburn, Curtis Morton, Richard Nayman, Homer Pendergrass, Leon Sexton, Issacs Summers, Donald Skiles, Eddie Taylor, and Gene PurteLL. The seventh, eighth, and ninth all won their games with Morton last Monday, January 9th.

In closing I would like to tell you some of the fads going around. Put your friends names on the back of your raincoat in colored tape. . . Start a "scalp box". In case you don't know what it is, it's a box in your room for ex-boyfriend's torn pictures, torn love notes, poems, postmarks, and boys signatures. . . Your books can be brightened up with plaid book covers made from shelf paper. . . Write your love letters in green ink. . . If someone tells you that you have "dropped a bomb", you goofed. . . Make your pin cushions to look like former beaus. . . He hasn't suddenly gone highbrow if he signs his letters L. L. D.—it just means, "Let's Live Dangerously". . . Riding a "bear" is a car or bus and if you are offered a "bird" ride, watch out—it means a motorcycle!

To My Many Customers:

I would like to take this means to thank each and every one of my many customers for their business in the past and I plan to reopen as soon as possible. I have sold my stock to Mr. Earnest Day, who will have the Fire Sale, beginning Monday, January 16. My employees and I will be there to help you with your selections.

BIGGEST OF THE BIG 3
-and mighty proud of it!

You certainly should look at the '56 Buick SPECIAL!

We've said it before, and we'll say it again: If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—and the sales figures make the proof of that stronger and stronger.

Just ask yourself: which cars would normally be in the top 3 of America's best sellers? The well-known smaller cars—naturally.

But which cars are in that Big 3? Two of the well-known smaller cars, and Buick—for over two years running now.

That means Buick prices are well within reach of more and more people—thanks primarily to the budget-tagged Buick SPECIAL, like the one pictured above.

And that's the whole point of the matter. For this low-priced Buick SPECIAL—so close in cost to the smaller cars—is so much more automobile for the money, it's the stand-out buy of its field.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in power thrill, in comfort, in size and breadth and luxury and sheer roadability.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in the solidity and softness of its all-coil-spring ride—in the sweep of its styling—and in the pure thrill of its performance.

For where else but in Buick can you get the nimble getaway, the gas-saving mileage, the electrifying switch-pitch action and the absolute smoothness of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflo?*

Come in to see and drive the biggest bundle of high-powered beauty and energy ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

It's proud we certainly are to be able to offer so much car for the money—but nothing to how proud you'll be when you boss a new SPECIAL. Can you come in tomorrow?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Schedule Golden Gloves Prep Bouts Here Monday

Brownfield's Golden Gloves team, back from the Plainview District tournament with the trophies to prove they were there this week, will fight a combined Plainview and Hart team here Monday evening. The 14-bout card will start at 8 p. m. at the Junior High and is sponsored by the Lions club.

Tuesday night was the bad night for the Brownfield boxers as five of them were eliminated at Plainview. Monday night they won three of five and in the Wednesday night semi-finals they smashed out 3 wins in 5 fights.

Finals are scheduled tonight with Dewey Bradley scheduled to meet Langley Fruit of Hale Center for the Open Division Lightweight title and Bobby Casey taking on Johnny Adams of Abertown for the High School Bantamweight crown.

Monday night found Steve Pendley, Jingle Hammer and Bobby Casey winning while Jimmy Layland and Graham Bostic lost TKO's.

Tuesday night Jerry Lowe, Johnny Willis and Donny Goodpasture all lost decisions and Bobby Layland and Hammer lost by TKO's.

Wednesday night little Steve Pendley was TKO'd in the first fight of the evening. Two Brownfield boys met when Bobby McDougal knocked Lloyd Little out in 1:13 of the first. Later in the evening McDougal returned to fight another Brownfield boy, Bobby Casey, and lost with a TKO in the first. Bradley won a close decision and Don Armstrong was a first round TKO victim.

The Monday night fights here will give the fighters a chance to sharpen up that much more before entering the Regional tournament at Lubbock, Feb. 2-3-4.

Brownfield will also have a couple of Lubbock fighters to augment their team in the heavier open division classes.

Kicking Off

Just a few words about Cub basketball prospects and then a little fight talk from Plainview. Despite a poor showing or "cold" night, whichever way you want to put it, against Seminole the Cubs are improving rapidly.

Coach Farris Nowell has one of the best balanced teams we've had in recent years, and most of the squad will be back next year. However, this isn't one of those "wait till next year" stories. We think the Cubs are still in the thick of the fight, and if they whip Pecos here Friday night they will remain a threat until proven otherwise.

Rated eighth in the district (that's the bottom) in pre-season, they have already disproved that and are one of the top four teams in the district today. If they continue to hustle and improve they'll give everyone a tussle.

As for the Golden Gloves, first let's mention that a great deal of credit is due Bill Higdon, Clyde Bond, Jr., and the rest of the fellows who work with these boys.

After watching the Wednesday night semifinals in Plainview it makes you wish the Federal Government would get on the ball and build the National Guard armory here so we could stage similar fights in Brownfield. It was a 15-

Advancement of Science, and of the Lubbock Kiwanis Club.

An active churchman, Dr. Black has taught Sunday school classes for more than 15 years, and currently is instructing in Lubbock's First Baptist Church.

He is author of several professional articles concerning livestock judging, farm meat curing and hog production. From 1943 until 1946, he served in the Navy, seeing duty in the New York and Pacific areas.

The doctor and his wife—the former Miss Theodora Ashby—have four children: Baxter Ashby, Robert Howell, John Leonard and Stephen Thayer.

"Tickets to the Tuesday night event," said Davis, "are being sold by all Jaycees. The price is $2."

First Meeting Of Commissioners Court In '56 Is "Routine"

Terry county commissioners formally approved pay increases, paid bills, and in general had a "routine" meeting to start the year 1956 on Monday.

The Commissioners also accepted a $1,588.60 bid from W. W. Thomson construction to pave a short stretch of road from the Levelland cut-off to the Halliburton Cementing Co. yard on the southeast corner of town.

The Court paid the South Plains Health Unit $1,525.29 and voted to continue paying the Meadow Cemetery Association $25 a month.

County finances were reviewed and of interest to the public is the fact that the Park Bond Fund now has $103,248.59 and the Park Maintenance Fund is $11,195.98.

Salaries were set as agreed on a few months ago.

News-Views—

County Attorney Morgan Copeland didn't have much trouble taking care of that. But it's amusing.

Two cases are set for District Court next week, both dealing with the robbery of Pat's 66 station.

The Grand Jury returned 15 indictments in their session last week. Including the young men involved in the oilfield brass bushing thefts.

Dr. W. A. Roberson has been hospitalized for a few weeks at John Sealey in Galveston for treatment of the neck injury he received several years ago in an automobile collision.

Services Are Held For Mrs. Grigsby

Funeral services for Mrs. Blanche Davison Grigsby, a 75-year-old Meadow resident who died in a Lubbock hospital Saturday from injuries received in a Floydada automobile accident the same day, were held at 10 a. m. Monday in Rix Funeral Home Chapel.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Alton Polk, pastor of the Meadow First Baptist Church, and Dr. Buell Wells of McLean, Graveland services and burial were held at 5 p. m. Monday at McLean.

Mrs. Grigsby died at 10:50 p. m. Saturday at Methodist Hospital following a collision at 7 p. m. in which she was a passenger collided with a cottonseed transport. The car was driven by her son, H. W. Grigsby, 55, Meadow.

Grigsby was treated for facial lacerations at Peoples Hospital in Floydada. The driver of the cottonseed transport, Gerald Piper, 30, Paducah, was not injured. Mrs. Grigsby was the third traffic fatality on the South Plains in 1956.

She is survived by two other sons, A. L. of McLean and Merle of Fort Lyon, Colo.; three daughters, Mrs. H. H. Lee, Freeport, Mrs. Marvin Marshall, Dallas, and Mrs. D. F. Maness, Midland; and a sister, Mrs. B. C. Horton.

Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist church of Big Spring, will be a Ladies Night guest speaker at the First Baptist Brotherhood meeting Monday night.

The Community Chest Campaign is within $1,250 of the goal. Work is continuing and officials expect to reach it soon.

Cubs Play Pecos Here Fri. In Tie For Second In District

Brownfield dropped from among the 6-AA leaders Tuesday night with a 29-66 loss to Seminole while Alpine maintained the Seminole pace to remain undefeated. The Bucks beat Crane 66-29.

Brownfield plays the potent Pecos Eagles tonight and Tuesday night they meet Andrews here.

The sharpshooting Indians roared into an 18-9 advantage at the end of the first period and never let up. They hiked their margin to 31-18 at halftime, then concentrated on defense in the third period.

Seminole was remarkably successful at it too. The Cubs failed to score a single point in the third quarter while the Indians made 15 and boosted their lead to 46-18.

Charley Benson was high point man for the Tribesmen with 19 points and tall Edwin Young tossed in 11. Donnie Wilson added 10 for Seminole.

Lanier Petty was the only Cub to get into double figures. He scored 11 points.

Andrews and Pecos moved into a second place tie with the Cubs with Tuesday night victories. Andrews beat Kermit 58-54 and Pecos beat Monahans 23-21. The Lobos put the tall Pecos team into a deep freeze for three quarters but thawed in the fourth. The Eagles led 12-10 at the end of the third. It was 10-8 at halftime and both teams managed two points in the third.

Monahans plays Kermit Friday night. Alpine is at Andrews and Seminole at Crane.

The Cubs overcame cold first and third quarters to breeze past Monahans for their second 6-AA win. It was 3 minutes, 15 seconds in the first period before Lanier Petty got a field goal to start the Cubs scoring.

The time was exactly the same in the third quarter before Mike Hamilton broke the ice with a two-pointer to start the Cubs rolling.

The Lobos scored first on a free throw. Brownfield scored on two free throws, Monahans dropped in another free throw and then the Cubs took off on Petty's field goal and were never headed. It was 12-7 at the end of the first quarter and 29-19 at halftime.

Monahans scored five points during the first 3:15 of the third to cut the lead in half and then the Cubs came to life to score 14 points and make it 43-32 going into the final quarter.

Both coaches substituted liberally in the last period during which the Cubs scored 18 points to 8 for Monahans.

Dodge presents... "The TEXAN"

Choice of this dashing Lancer Hardtop or the big, rangy 4-Door Sedan

The Texan by Dodge

A handsome, rugged car big as all outdoors, with the surging power of a quarter horse, sweeping lines of a gull in flight, the relaxed touch of push-button driving!

The Texan is built for Texas driving. It skims swiftly along the big broad highways, it rips over hills like a hungry cougar, it takes the bumpiest, ruttiest, sandiest road and comes back for more. Powered by the mighty engine that busted the AAA record book wide open at Bonneville Salt Flats, it gives you the same superior engineering and design that made Dodge the greatest sales-gainer in the industry in 1955.

Plenty of special features, too... specially designed interior trim, special paint combinations, jaunty twin exhaust pipes, and other smart touches. The Texan's name is proudly blazoned on both rear fenders. And the brave crossed flags of the Lone Star State are right up front where your fellow-Texans can admire them!

Best of all, the Texan is priced right down with the so-called "low-priced three." Yet it's big and powerful and luxurious... rivaling cars costing as much as a thousand dollars more! Visit your nearest Dodge Dealer now and drive the Texan!

W.S.C.S. of Methodist Church Holds Meeting

The W. S. C. S. of Brownfield Methodist Church had their first meeting of the new year Monday afternoon at 3 in the church parlor. With 18 members present, they started their new study, "This Revolutionary Faith."

Mrs. J. C. Criswell presided. Mrs. Glenn Harris gave the opening prayer. Mrs. J. H. Carpenter gave the devotional, and Mrs. Burton Hackney led the program.

The meeting adjourned with the Society's benediction.

Mrs. Bryant attended the bride as matron of honor, and best man was Granville Patterson of Lubbock, brother in law of the groom.

The bride wore a street length dress of silk and cotton in blue shot with gold. It was fashioned with a long bodice, edged with gold, with elbow-length sleeves and a high front neckline dipping to a V in back and edged with gold, and a full skirt. She wore a blue net and lace hat trimmed with pearls and matching mitts. Her corsage was of pink carnations. She wore a blue garter borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Allen Davis of Austin, and something old was a pearl necklace. For luck, the groom's father placed a new penny in her shoe.

The matron of honor wore a pink orlon and cotton dress and a carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's mother. The table was laid with a white cloth, centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. The bride's chosen colors of pink and blue were carried out in decorations, and crystal appointments were used.

Doris Tuttle and Mrs. Patterson, sisters of the groom, assisted with hospitality.

The bride is a junior student in Brownfield High School. The groom is a graduate of Brownfield High School, and served in the Army for two years.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will be at home in Brownfield, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Kirschner Home Built for Beauty and Livability

A picture of a colonial-type house; a notebook filled with notes and pictures, clipped from various magazines and newspapers; a lot of dreams and plans, gathered over the years. The result? A real dream-house, filled with charm, comfort and real livability.

Such is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kirschner at 1101 East Tate. From the moment you see the neat red brick colonial-type house, with its white wrought iron trim, you feel that this is a house with individuality.

And once inside, the glow of the warm colors of the floors, walls, and furnishings make you feel comfortable and at-home.

Stepping into the roomy foyer the tone of Early American furniture, prevalent throughout the house, is set by the server table of hand-rubbed maple. The walls all over the house are an easy-on-the-eyes cashew brown, a perfect background for the soft gleam of maple, bright brass accessories, and the warm, cheery colors of draperies and upholstery.

As you turn to the left, the expansive family room invites you to come in and sit. Center of interest is the large red Colonial brick fireplace, with raised hearth, brass fire set, and maple cricket. Antique brass wall scenes hang high above the mantle. The fireplace is flanked with bookshelves over deep cabinets, and the television set, to the right of the fireplace, can be rolled out into the room for easy viewing.

Colonial indoor shutters can be opened and closed in varying degrees, according to will. An oversized couch, upholstered in antique gold, a maple cobbler's bench, a wing chair, done in a flowered print, and a Morris chair, with ottoman, covered in a colonial print, invite easy lounging. Colorful braid rugs scattered through the room add to its glowing warmth.

Back to the right, a round maple table with captain chairs, make a cozy eating corner, and it's within easy viewing distance of the TV set! A pull-down brass lighting fixture assures plenty of light for eating, or for studying by the two daughters, Barbara, age 13, and Sherrill, age 8.

Separating the family room and the kitchen is a snack bar, which can be, and is, used as a pass-through from the kitchen to the dining table. Louvered doors can be shut, closing the kitchen off entirely from the family room. Tall stools with swivel seats make the bar a favorite place for the girls to have their after-school snacks and also to watch their favorite TV programs.

Paneling in the foyer, family room, and kitchen is parana pine on a cashew brown tone, and the flooring is also the same—parana pine in a natural oak parquet design, giving the impression that the floors are paved with brick.

It is evident at a glance that the kitchen is the product of years of planning. Entering from the family room, commodious cabinets on the left hold table linens, trays, and other articles necessary for hospitable entertaining. This cabinet is also handy for setting down articles to be placed in, or removed from, the refrigerator. Moving on around the kitchen clockwise, a long cabinet holds all china and glassware, handy to the sink, which is complete with garbage disposer and dishwasher. The cabinets, also of parana pine, move along in an unbroken line around a corner, in which lazy susans are installed in both upper and lower cabinets for accessibility, to a stainless steel built-in range with vented hood. The oven is built into a cabinet to the right of the surface units, with storage above and below, including a special spice cabinet. It is a completely functional kitchen, geared to save steps, and leaving the middle of the room uncluttered for the constant traffic from the outside entrance to the rest of the house. The outside entrance opens onto a large utility room containing the combination washer-dryer, cleaning supplies closet, sink and cabinet, and space for an in-the-future

Rev. W. J. Spreen Guest Speaker At Frances Bell PTA

"Man has divided life into the positive and the negative but to God there is unity in life. In reality it is one: all spiritual," Rev. William J. Spreen, pastor of the First Christian Church, told members of Frances Bell P. T. A. at their meeting January 5 in the Junior High Library.

Speaking on the subject of "Childhood Spiritual Experience," Rev. Spreen continued, "The fundamental textbook is the Bible." The minister listed prayer, family devotions, the assignment of worthwhile tasks to the child, and the sharing of self in helping others as further aids to spiritual growth.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. P. R. Cates, who served as program chairman for the meeting.

The room prize was won by Miss Marie Gracey's third grade room, for having the most parents present.

Next meeting of the group will be a Founder's Day Silver Tea on February 9, held jointly with the other Parent Teachers Association units.

roof and white wrought iron grillwork and shutters. Pictured, going up the walk is Mrs. George Schwartz of Oklahoma City, mother of Mrs. Kirschner, who visited here over the holidays.

FAMILY ROOM—Shown above, looking in from the foyer, is the family room. On the couch is Barbara, her mother is sitting in the Morris chair, and Sherrill is on the maple cricket. The large pitcher in the second bookshelf above the television set is a Schwartz family heirloom, having been brought over from Germany by Mrs. Schwartz' mother many years ago. The pitcher, which is more than 100 years old, is porcelain-lined and the front bears an old German legend.

Joe Mack Sears Is Birthday Honoree

SNACK BAR—and a favorite place for the girls for an after-school pickup. Shown, above are Barbara and Sherrill, enjoying milk and some of grandmother's famous cookies. On the table in the foreground is a soup tureen, a part of the Kirschner's ironstone collection. The lowered doors on the snack bar can be closed, so that the family room can be shut off from the kitchen. All other doors in the house, like the one alongside the bar, are sliding doors—real space savers! Ceiling paper in the kitchen and the ruffle over the kitchen window are matching provincial prints.

Leaving the kitchen, an angled hallway leads to the rest of the house. To the left is the family music room, which contains a small table model television set and the piano, which both girls play. An oversized coffee table, flanked with wing chairs, a credenza, and a straight chair are the only other furnishings. The chairs are upholstered in a warm, bright, colonial print and the drapes are cashmere, matching the walls.

Carpeting throughout the house is a gay, striped California cotton fabric. Flush ceiling light fixtures are used in all the rooms.

The master bedroom is simply furnished with twin beds and chests, and a rocker, with sewing table. Bedspreads are a colonial print, blending with the carpet. A large walk-in closet covers the entire wall, with shoe racks cleverly built into otherwise unused space. Another spacious closet is located opposite the master bathroom. The master bath is done in brown and suntan ceramic tile, and features a long dressing table with large plate glass mirror. The lavatory, built into the dressing table, is topped with a recessed double medicine cabinet with sliding glass doors. A glass-doored, tiled shower has its own light inside.

Going on down the hall, closets on both sides hold linens and other supplies, such as card tables, the vacuum cleaner, and seldom-worn clothing.

Barbara's bedroom features a large walk-in closet, raised about 10 inches from the floor to make drawer space for storage. The draperies, bedspreads, and chaise longue are done in a multi-plaid cotton taffeta.

In Sherrill's room, twin beds are covered in a colonial print, of which the draperies are also made. Twin chests are the only other furnishings, as her large walk-in closet, like Barbara's, features built-in chests, shoe racks, and drawers.

The girls' bath is done in pink and white ceramic tile, featuring a large dressing table, and a glass-enclosed tub and shower.

A house that has been carefully planned and executed, the new home of the Kirschners reflects the hospitality and geniality that are marks of modern living. The house was built to be lived in, and they enjoy it to the hilt, from the kitchen on down to the large double garage, which boasts a storage room for luggage, etc., and a cedar-lined closet for storing out-of-season clothing.

The yard has already been planted to grass, and by summertime, the Kirschners hope to enjoy many outdoor parties on the big, curving terrace which the kitchen overlooks.

Cadillac

Not Wealthy... Just Wise!

Most people think that the gentleman who owns and drives a new Cadillac must necessarily be blessed with an abundance of this world's goods.

But the truth of the matter is that a great many motorists of relatively modest means—like the happy man you see here—sit at the wheel of the "car of cars."

For wisdom and practicality lead to Cadillac—just as surely as prominence and prosperity!

Listen, for a moment, to this remarkable assembly of facts—and see if you don't agree.

The Series Sixty-Two Coupe... the beautiful and inspiring motor car pictured above... costs just a few dollars more than many cars in the "medium-price" bracket.

Cadillac's dependability is so extraordinary that the car is virtually free from all but the purely routine requirements of service.

A Cadillac stretches a gallon of gasoline over so many miles that it is actually the rival of much smaller, lighter cars in this regard.

And a Cadillac will retain its value over the years better than any other automobile in the land.

The conclusion is, we think, self-evident: Cadillac ownership is not only wonderful and thrilling—but sound and sensible as well.

Why not stop in soon for a look and a ride?

You'll discover the most beautiful Cadillac ever built... the finest-performing Cadillac of all time... and the greatest value in Cadillac history.

That's Cadillac's magical combination for 1956—and it's waiting for you now in our showroom.

BROWNFIELD, TEXAS

Roach-Jones Nuptials Read in Home Ceremony

Miss Amaryllis Maurine Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roach of Route 2, Brownfield, exchanged wedding vows with Lyndon Durwood Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, at 6:30 p.m. January 6. John McCoy, minister of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, read the double ring rites in the home of the bride's brother, Jarvis Roach.

The ceremony took place before banks of greenery, flanked by candelabra and baskets of white gladiolus.

Holland Boring, soloist, offered "Because" and "Oh Promise Me", as well as the traditional wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, scalloped portrait neckline and scalloped cap sleeves, accented with lace, and scattered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her waltz-length full circular skirt had a scalloped hem, over a flounce of gathered tulle. She wore a half hat of lace embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, from which her shoulder length veil fell. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white roses tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Don Jenkins was matron of honor, and candlelighter was Miss Nancy Gaston. They wore identical gowns of deep orchid taffeta, fashioned with long fitted bodices, portrait necklines, and full street length skirts. Their head bands were bows of deep orchid taffeta, with deeper tones of orchid veils, sprinkled with orchid sequins. The matron of honor carried a heart-shaped bouquet of orchid flowers, tied with matching streamers.

Flower girls to be added wore rose taffeta dresses with lace collars and cuffs, and head bands of rose lace and ribbon.

Jack Reed of Tahoka was best man.

A reception was held in the home, following the wedding. Mrs. Jarvis Roach assisted in the receiving line and Mrs. Jimmy Berryhill registered guests from Lubbock, Mississippi, Tahoka, Wellman, Post, and Brownfield.

MRS. DURWOOD JONES

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, and decorated with white tapers and the bride's and matron of honor's bouquets. Miss Helen Rogers presided over the crystal and silver punch service, and Mrs. Bert Heaton of Lubbock served the cake.

For a wedding trip to Corpus Christi, the bride chose an aqua tunic suit of embossed faille, with white accessories and a white rose corsage.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Brownfield High School. Mr. Jones graduated from Tahoka High School, served in the Armed Forces, and was engaged in farming prior to his marriage.

The couple is at home in Midland, where he is employed with the Humble Oil Company.

WE DELIVER

Wednesday evening, Jan. 12, the Wesleyan Service Guild First Methodist Church, will present their study of "The Indian." Mrs. Burton Hackenbecker is the leader for the first. Almost everyone who is "Who is the American Indian?" would answer, "The native of the North American continent." So-called by Columbus because he indeed believed he had reached the Indies.

This answer would be true, but today can give a more accurate answer to these questions relative to our contemporary Indian American.

Who are the Indian Americans? Where do they live? How are they provided with a livelihood? What do you know of their education, past and present?

Wesleyan Service Guild To Study Series On "The Indian American"

Wednesday evening, January 18, the Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church, will begin their study of "The Indian American". Mrs. Burton Hackney will be the leader for the first session. Almost everyone who is asked, "Who is the American Indian?" would answer, "the aborigine native of the North American continent." So-called by Columbus, because he indeed believed he had reached the Indies.

This answer would be true in its relation to early American history, but who today can give an accurate answer to these questions, relative to our contemporary, "The Indian American"?

Who are the Indian Americans? Where do they live? How are they provided with a livelihood? What education privileges do they have? What do you know of their religion, past and present? Do you

Indian and his possessions? Is the condone the exploitation of the Indian's creative ability appreciated as an enrichment to our culture?

The answer to these questions will be discussed as this study progresses through four weekly sessions, January 18, 25, February 1, and 8.

All employed women of the church are urged to attend this study that they may learn the responsibility of the individual and the church of the "Indian American".

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Griffith are in Fort Worth and Dallas this week. They are visiting their new grandson, their daughter, Mrs. Denver Dunlap, and family, and Mr. Griffith attended the Variety Show in Dallas.

GEE GEE'S Chat!

Please note the feature I did this week on Jerry and Dorothy Kirschner's house. For some time the features on 'new homes' in Brownfield have been an added attraction to the society page and I hope to be able to pick up where Mary Lena left off, and hope I can do as well as she did in covering them. From time to time, we also hope to do features on various hobbies that people here have, as well as anything else that will be of interest to our readers.

Therefore, if you know of anyone with an interesting hobby or pastime, please let me know so that I can pass it on to the rest of the public.

Speaking of houses, reminds me of a classic remark made by an acquaintance after she had been in a local home done in a special period, Early American, I think. "Come right in," she greeted her guests. "Notice my home: it's done in Early Miscellaneous."

I talked with Merle (Mrs. Frank) Wier this week via telephone. As always, when I call someone in the afternoon, I said that I hoped I hadn't interrupted her nap, but she told me no, that she was working on her USO scrapbook for Maids and Matrons Study Club. She clips cartoons, jokes, even short stories and novels, from magazines and makes them into clever scrapbooks to be given to the Armed Forces. Quite a nice project the Ms & Ms have, I think, and told her so. Merle also told me that the study club had, for the first time, made new cards to go on meal trays for the local hospital. Perhaps you are like I am: always amazed at the many projects these clubs have and carry out, and certainly proud to know that Brownfield has so many enterprising women.

I read with interest a press release that came to my desk this week, entitled "Motoring Is Safer With Seat Belts." Although I firmly believe that the automobile celebrated their birthday anniversary with a party in the home of their mother, Mrs. M. D. Richardson, Monday afternoon.

After games were played and the gifts displayed, refreshments of cake and cokes were served to approximately 43 guests.

manufacturers themselves are the real murderers for making their high-powered cars that can go 100 miles an hour, that still won't make them slow the things down. So the next best thing for us poor ignorant souls who persist in riding in them can do is to make riding as safe as possible.

According to this article, test drivers, racers, and stunt men have used safety belts for years. Also, per this article, recent safety tests by one auto manufacturer reveal that passengers are twice as likely to survive an accident if they are not thrown out of the car. And since safety belts fasten right across your little tummy, it will be mighty difficult to be tossed out if you are wearing one.

The article goes on to say that the growing ranks of safety belt users include state police, and, since they feel that safety belts help reduce injury in accidents, many insurance companies now offer discount rates on cars equipped with them.

This year, most automobiles can be equipped with safety belts, and I, for one, am all for them. Since nothing can be done about the growing speeds of the cars, looks like we'd better look to our safety belts. If you're interested, why not ask your local dealers about putting them on your automobile?

Hope you're not one of the superstitious ones. If you are, you'd better stay in the sack tomorrow, because it's Friday, the 13th. I don't hold with that type of thing myself, but am always willing to listen to any and all tales "re bad/good luck, etc., from those who do.

As a matter of fact, I am always willing to listen to any and all tales period. Do you know any?

ANCIENT BULB FOUND

KANAKEE, Ill. (AP) — An old carbon filament light bulb has been found inside the county courthouse dome. Still in operating condition, it probably was placed there when the building was built in 1911.

Television forced its retirement because carbon filament bulbs create interference which appears as a band across the TV screen.

THESE ARE IMPORTANT PEOPLE
IN YOUR LIFE

Dear Friends

The people in the picture in this advertisement are Humble researchers on their way to work in Humble's Houston Research Center.

They are important people in your life, because their studies and their constant experimentation have only one purpose: to supply your increasing needs for oil and natural gas.

At the Houston Research Center, they pool their efforts to make the finding and production of oil and natural gas more efficient. And since they are top people in their different fields, their work has met with notable success.

It has helped to make the Humble Company not only the largest but also one of the most efficient producing companies in the country.

The new ideas, new methods and new practices developed by Humble researchers have resulted in the discovery of new reservoirs of a valuable natural resource; in making these reservoirs more productive; and in prolonging their life for your future benefit.

Sincerely

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

NO BARGAIN AT ANY PRICE!

A RECENT SURVEY, conducted in 19 States in the Midwest, South and Southeast, reveals that there are nearly 21 million acres of rich, idle farmland available for crop production when more food is needed to feed the Nation. At the same time Government plans are under way to take additional acreage out of production because of the huge surpluses of food the Federal Government now has stored in bins around the country. Despite these facts Congress is being asked to approve the incredible Upper Colorado River Project to "irrigate" 583,000 acres of arid mountain land in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming at a cost to the Nation's taxpayers of $4 Billion in added taxes. Figures for the rich, idle land now available were obtained from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

THE 'HERBAGERE'

Machine and Chemicals Produce Edible Green Grass in Six Days, Says Owner

LITTLEFIELD (Sp.) — Farmers here in bewilderment at a machine that produces green feed from seed in six days, without soil. They don't believe what they see, and keep coming back with other farmer friends to see the revolutionary grass machine called "Herbager," an invention of Gaston Perin, a Belgian biologist. It requires no more attention than a modern refrigerator according to A. C. Chesher, West Texas representative and distributor for the invention.

The grass machine is not intended to replace pasture lands, but to supplement a shortage of natural grass and provide fattening for cattle and hogs. Chesher said. With it farmers will be able to provide fresh, green feed for hogs, cows, horses, turkeys, sheep and poultry every day of the year, in drought or on the coldest days of winter, he added.

Water Plus Chemicals

The grass machine is a chest with seven stages. The frame is made of angle-iron and heat insulating panels. The top stage is a feed-tank where water is mixed with nourishing chemicals that are poured into it. Each of the other six stages, called "cultivation stages," are shelf-like spaces equipped with a device regulating the arrival of water-contained chemicals from the feed-tank.

On each of the shelves are five perforated baskets, called "cultivation baskets." Into each is placed six to seven pounds of seed (corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye or grain sorghum), which will be transformed into fresh green feed in six days. Heat can be supplied by electricity, coal or wood, and is regulated by a thermostat, giving a uniform temperature in the chest.

A chest with seven drawers, or stages, represents the apparatus necessary to produce forage for 10 cows. For 20 cows, two sets of seven drawers can be fitted together; and for any multiple of 10 chests can be provided.

Entire Crop Edible

After the sixth day of growth, the five baskets from one shelf are moved. The seeds have now developed roots, passing through the perforated bottom of the baskets.

USDA Reports Export Of Farm Goods Is Up

Exports of agricultural commodities from the United States during the July-November period of 1955 are estimated at $1.3 billion, a gain of four per cent over the same period for 1954.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, farm exports in November are estimated at about $275 million, or 11 per cent greater than the monthly average in the first quarter of the current fiscal year but less than for November of 1954.

The chief difference between last November and the corresponding month a year earlier were the declines in exports of cotton and vegetable oils and oilseed, while increases were made by grains and feed.

Cotton exports, although aided by sales for foreign currencies, still were less than half as great in the 1955 July-November period as in the corresponding months of 1954. There was a slight increase in wheat and flour exports, and feed grain shipments abroad continued to advance.

Sales to Japan for that country's currency stimulated rice exports in the July-November period. Soybean exports were much higher than a year earlier, and favorable prices encouraged hard shipments abroad.

WORKING LEVEL TERRACE—One of the first farmers to sign with the Terry Soil Conservation District was W. J. Hinson, pictured above working a level terrace on his farm 4 miles east of Meadow. Hinson has been cooperating with the district since it was organized in 1944. He recently joined two neighboring farmers to solve a problem: Rapid run-off of rainfall from a watershed common to Hinson and W. I. Walker's farms was cutting gullies on W. M. Hunter's farm. After discussing the proposed project with U. S. Soil Conservation Service technicians here, who reported that the terraces were justified, the trio agreed to terrace their three adjoining farms. Hinson counts five terraces on his place; Walker, six, and Hunter, seven. The longest terrace is one and one-half miles in length, begins on Hunter's farm, crosses Walker's and ends on Hinson's. Wayne Mullins of Brownfield performed the work, operating an Adams grader owned by George Ashburn of Meadow. By their joint action, the three farmers now will be able to save what rainfall their farms receive, prevent gullying and up to 50 per cent crop yields. (Staff Photo)

Mahon Warns of Lower Support For Less Than One-Inch Staple

WASHINGTON—Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex.) warned here today, on the eve of scheduled Senate hearings on a new farm law, that steps should be taken to prevent the adoption of a plan for lower supports on cotton of less than one-inch staple.

"The present law requires that cotton loans be based on 7/8-inch staple. There is considerable sentiment in the U. S. Senate to raise the 7/8-inch basis to one inch. This would tend to reduce the support on all cotton on an average of about 2 1/2 cents per pound," Mahon declared.

Committee In Favor

He said Senator Ellender, chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, has indicated his committee might favor raising the basis from 7/8 inch to one inch.

"One proposal would require 90 per cent of parity support of one-inch staple, but a support level of less than 90 per cent for cotton having less than one-inch staple," Mahon said. "For example, the support level on one-inch cotton might be 90 per cent of parity and the support for 7/8-inch staple might be 75 per cent of parity."

This would not only be discriminatory, according to Mahon, but would deal a disastrous blow to West Texas cotton producers.

Returned to Washington—Since his return to Washington, Mahon has discussed the problem with officials of the Department of Agriculture and members of the Senate and House agriculture committees.

The outstanding farmer of Terry County will be revealed during ceremonies Jan. 17 in Jessie G. Randal cafeteria. The meeting also will be the occasion for naming the Outstanding Young Man of the Year.

The farmer-award was announced last week by the president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Alvin Davis, who also said that Robert Black, professor of animal husbandry at Texas Tech, will be the principal speaker.

The dinner will get under way at 7:30 in the cafeteria, said Davis. Tickets are being sold by all Jaycees," he added, "at $2 each."

Anyone in Terry, including all farmers, may nominate the man of his choice for the farmer-award by telephoning Walt Meyer, vocational agriculture teacher at Brownfield High School. The number is 3640. The nominee must be between the ages of 21 and 35.

"A straight line is the shortest distance between two points and a straight furrow on rolling land is the shortest line to soil destruction."

Anonymous
Eddie Taylor, R. J. and Kenneth Purcell, Jess McWhorter, L. M. Waters, Jr. and H. L. (Hub) King these Terry farmers this season will be planting acreage to the new hybrid grain sorghum.

The planting program was discussed last week by them when they met with Don Jones, Dr. Nick Kramer and Jack King of the Lubbock Experiment Station.

As explained by Jim Foy, Terry county agent, "These growers qualified themselves last year to plant the new hybrid for certified seed this year."

"At that time, they each had the one-acre 'apprentice plot,' which enabled them to familiarize themselves with the new grain. Milton Addison and Hermann Wheatley also had the one-acre plots last year."

The program here will give other Terry farmers an opportunity to see the "crossing blocks" and to watch the hybrid grow, said Foy. "Which crops are most destructive to soil? Tests continue."

Soil Testing Facility Established in Baylor

Ceremonies marking the formal opening of the new Baylor County Soil Testing Laboratory, located in the city hall at Seymour, were held Friday.

The new laboratory will be supervised by Roy L. McClung, Baylor county agent Mrs. Mary Boone is technician.

According to M. K. Thornton, Texas A&M agricultural chemist, the new facility is equipped to make the same soil tests as the state laboratory at College Station.

The tests include organic matter, available potash, phosphorus and lime, harmful salts, soil reaction and available nitrogen are estimated from the organic matter. The fee for testing will be the same as that charged by the state, $1.

Local finances made the laboratory possible. It was located at Seymour to better serve farmers and ranchmen in the area, which covers approximately 20 counties.

"It was the belief of those working for the establishment of the lab," says Thornton, "that soil testing should be the basis for programs aimed at soil improvement."

Fate and geography have played the same ironic trick on the land of Israel that plagues many farmers and stockmen in the American Southwest—the good growing land is in one place, but most of the rain falls somewhere else. But with help from U. S. experts and their own ingenuity and determination, the Israelis are making their desert lands fruitful.

Israel is a country of small distances, a little larger than Massachusetts. It would fit in a corner of Arizona, New Mexico or Wyoming. It would be lost on the map of Texas. But Israel is a Republic, a member of the United Nations, and a democratic ally in the Middle East. To survive and keep its independent status, Israel must feed itself. To feed itself, Israel must make its arid acres bloom.

Desert Keen

Israel's chief hope for the future is the great cone-shaped Negev desert, comprising the whole southern half of the country. Much of the Negev was fine farm and pasture land, about 2,000 years ago. Its Nabatean-inhabitants, expert water engineers, built reservoirs to catch the country's sparse rainfall and underground springs. Irrigation canals dug with primitive tools made the area a rich farm region.

Centuries of wars and invasions left the land neglected, arid. Today the Negev's ancient farm prosperity is being systematically restored.

The Negev soil is potentially good for growing, but the rainfall is only 2 to 8 inches a year and there are no rivers. Israel's rivers, such as they are—are all in the north. The north is also blessed with plenty of rain, sometimes too much along the coastal plain and in Galilee.

The Jews of the Old Testament prayed for food in the desert. Modern Israel is not looking for manna. It is a praying nation, but it is also a nation that builds. Today its people are praying—and building pipes to bring the water to the land.

New Armed Reserve Program Misses

Five months under the "New" Armed Forces Reserve program ended Monday, and on that same Monday the first man to take advantage of the plan from this area reported at Camp Chafee, Ark. Where are all the rest who were supposed to flock to the Selective Service Board office seeking to join under this program?

The new program, a modified form of universal training, but woefully inadequate in many respects, became operative on August 9. It calls for voluntary enlistment by men between the ages of 17 and 18½. In avoiding compulsory enrollment, it bypasses a major objection of opponents of universal training.

The program calls for six months active training and 7½ years of ready reserve status, and enlistees would be exempt from the draft.

Long-range goal of the program is the creation of a reserve of 2,900,000 trained young men outside selective service.

Perhaps the new program really hasn't been in effect long enough for a fair test. But the response by pre-draft-age youth during the first five months was so far below expectations that it isn't even worth talking about. As a matter of fact, if it hadn't been for the New Mexico National Guard's sending 273 men (15% of the National total up to that time), the program would have fallen even flatter.

The program was conceived by the Armed Forces in an effort to bolster the reserves, and the National Guard was generally ignored. But the first, and only, man to leave Brownfield to take the training was a National Guardsman. This has been the case all over the nation.

General lack of understanding of just what the program offers and the shrinkage of draft calls during the current period of uneasy peace, are cited as the chief reasons for the apparent disinterest.

We aren't going to try to go into full detail of what we think Congress should do, it would take too long, but we do think much sterner measures are called for. We don't believe the fact that present world conditions call for a strong armed reserve is even debatable.

AVOIDABLE?

Who Is To Blame?

Most of us react rather violently to headlines such as "Juvenile Goes To Reformatory . . ." It hurts us to think of a youngster, either boy or girl, going into the reformatory. And we always wonder what the future holds for that youngster. And we also know full well that it will be a hard row.

There have been two such cases recently, and before anyone gets other ideas, we hasten to side with the judge for his actions. There was actually no other course left.

And we also wonder if the summer YMCA recreation program, Boy or Girl Scouts, or a church couldn't have possibly led those youngsters to a better life?

It gives you something to think about. And it also lets us know that there are many more things we can do towards helping curb juvenile delinquency in our community and county.

Highlights and Sidelines State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — It seems that all areas of state government—executive, legislative, administrative and judiciary—are affected by the insurance debacle. There are Federal overtones, too—and of course political.

Developments were numerous as the state moved to close five more insurance or related firms and slapped another under state conservatorship. All this in the wake of the collapse of the $6,000,000 U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co.

Most far-reaching step was the order by the Board of Insurance Commissioners, for re-examination of all Texas insurance companies, none excepted.

Already under way, at the request of the commission, is a vast audit-examination sponsored by the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants. Auditing costs will be assessed the companies.

Any insurance firm refusing to open its books to the non-official examiners will have its license suspended immediately and an official examination of such firms will start within 48 hours.

Gov. Allan Shivers commended the unusual step and gave his emphatic endorsement.

In keeping with the requirements of state law the Insurance Commission named a new chairman for a two-year term. Casualty Commissioner J. Byron Saunders was selected. He succeeds Garland A. Smith, chairman for the past two years. Smith nominated Saunders for the post.

One of the first moves of the new commission was to suspend the license of the U. S. Life Insurance Co. of Waco. It is one of the companies under the direction of A. B. Shoemaker, who is president of the U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. as well as U. S. Automotive Service. Both of these firms now are in receivership.

Another Shoemaker concern, Southern Medical and Hospital Services, was placed in conservatorship. This means that a state conservator—virtually the same as a state liquidator—will operate the company until the insurance board determines further action . . . possibly the selection of new management.

Licenses also were revoked for Dallas Fire and Casualty Co. and American Atlas Life Insurance Co. of Dallas. American Atlas appealed to the district court. This suspends the order against them pending a court hearing on the appeal.

While the Insurance Commission was taking action, Secretary of State Tom Reavley seized the books and records of the Mercantile Investment Corporation, a holding firm, the Merchants National Security Corporation, its subsidiary, for investigation of their sales of securities. Both firms are in Dallas.

In Austin, District Judge J. Harris Gardner instructed a grand jury to make a full investigation of insurance affairs.

Several legislators had urged either grand jury action or a special session of the Legislature to consider insurance matters.

The Senate general investigating committee is resuming its investigation of the U. S. Trust and other insurance matters. House general investigating committee members will hold a three-day session beginning January 19.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd wrote district and county attorneys in the 13 counties in which U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. operated, reminding them that grand jury inquiry into possible criminal violations need not wait for completion of the state audit.

Federal agencies disclosed that they have begun investigations of the interstate operations of U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co.

And in Washington, U. S. Senator Price Daniel called on Federal agencies to determine if use of "U. S." in the trust company's name violated any Federal law or regulation.

Four Insurance Department examiners have been promised a quick hearing on charges they conspired to defraud the public. Suspended without pay by the Board are Larry W. Blancard, Robert R. Butler, William J. Noid and Lee L. Foreman.

They were charged in an Austin district court with knowingly making a false examination report in 1952, showing the now defunct General American Casualty Company to be solvent.

Other defendants named in the suit by the state's insurance liquidator were the officers and directors of General American and the banks and surety companies involved in its operation.

Insurance Commission agents are being sent to all Texas military installations to check reports of insurance being sold at higher than state-prescribed rates.

Some servicemen, the commission was told, were paying as much as three times the state rate for automobile insurance.

With candidates for top political offices already talking it up, more stringent regulation of insurance companies will play an important part in the campaign platforms of 1956 in Texas.

Short Shorts . . .

More than 6,000 Texas motorists were arrested by highway patrolmen the past 30 days for traffic violations. Of these, 3,620 never had owned a driver's license and 2,638 were driving with expired licenses or without licenses. Nearly 180,000 drivers' licenses were checked at various hours of the day and night on highways and farm-to-market roads . . . Over $7,000,000 will be spent by the Texas Highway Department in 1956 in an attempt to reduce highway accidents . . . Joe McMinn of Fort Worth has been named by Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd as an assistant in the veterans land division . . . Rain is needed over all of Texas, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Dryland wheat in the northwest is holding on surprisingly well, even though surface moisture is depleted. High Plains irrigated wheat is in good condition. In the blacklands, Central and East Texas, most small grains have fair to good color, but vegetable growth is short and rain is needed urgently. Heavy supplemental feeding of livestock continues over most of Texas . . . Twelve-month school terms and larger classroom units were among suggestions discussed by a committee of 50 citizens named by the State Board of Education to consider ways and means of better utilization of school personnel and facilities . . . Lt. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, says the Army will draft 289 Texans in February as its share of some 6,000 men to be called into service nationally. Only boards having a preponderance of older men will be asked to fill the quota . . . Texas construction projects totaled $949,213,349 for 1955, making it the fifth best year on record. An all-time high $174,600,000 program of road building scheduled by the Texas Highway Department brightens the construction industry's outlook for 1956 . . . Travis County's three district courts, in which venue of nearly all state cases is placed, are overflowing with veterans land, insurance and other state cases. District Judge D. B. Wood of Georgetown has been assigned to Austin in an effort to catch up with the overloaded dockets.

LOOKING AHEAD

American Ideals Must Be Implanted

Great principles do not survive merely because they are right, or because they have been painstakingly legislated. Unless an understanding of the great principles of the American way of life, their rightness and their priceless advantages, is implanted in the minds and hearts of each new generation, our nation one day will falter and start down the road toward human slavery and ultimate destruction. This is the conclusion I reached almost 20 years ago when the National Education Program has been producing educational materials and developing educational techniques designed to bring about a better understanding of our American system, its comparative advantages, how these advantages are created, and how each individual must assume certain obligations of citizenship—a program of positive education for our adult population as well as for the school and college youth of America. The whole effort has been a non-profit, public service enterprise.

New Film Series

There has just been completed in our National Program workshops a series of 13 educational motion pictures under the title, "The American Adventure." They are unique; there is nothing quite like them. The series was produced for use in schools and colleges, on television, in industrial training programs, in the armed services; and for discussion groups in various other areas. From start to finish the films teach, in a dramatic, fascinating way, the basic facts which every American, young and old, should know to uphold the urgent citizenship responsibilities of people living in freedom. For use with each film a teacher's or discussion leader's guide has been prepared.

The response of people who have seen these films is one of the most encouraging experiences I've had in many years of educational work. Previews have been for governmental leaders in Washington, for executives, for agricultural and industrial employee groups, and for educational specialists in the armed services. Almost with one voice the previews have said, "Every American must see these films and absorb their great lessons."

From The Beginning

"The American Adventure" series begins with a film dramatizing the founding of the American private ownership economic system at Plymouth Colony after a period of failure with a communal or collectivist system. The second lesson visualizes the creation of the two greatest governmental documents, the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution. No. 3 in the series spikes the fallacy, mouthed by Socialists and Communists, that "the American way of life" is an abstract term, and cannot be defined. This film shows the building of the structure of the American way of life, the foundations, and the political and economic rights.

Film No. 4 takes the viewer back into ancient history, tracing the rise and fall of the great civilizations of the past, and showing that certain factors were common in their failures—especially political, economic and moral decay. With film No. 5 the series begins a presentation on the philosophy and practical workings of first, Socialism, then Communism and Cautalism. There is a film on each. The interrelationship of Communism and Socialism is spotlighted.

Facts Not Widely Known? America's distribution of wealth, which is subject of much false left wing propaganda, is studied in Film No. 8. A woman with New York school system saw this film and exclaimed, "I've learned things that change some long-held notions of mine!" Film No. 9 dramatizes the true life story of a young couple who overcome circumstances and hardships to win success in a highly competitive business field. "The Secret of American Production" is set forth in No. 10. The widespread benefits of the profit system are graphically examined in Film No. 11.

The vitally important subject of economic security is carefully studied in Film No. 12. The relation of security to personal freedom prompts a lively discussion among the college-age students participating in this film. The final film of the series is devoted to the outlining and discussion of "The Responsibilities of American Citizenship." A challenging eight-point list of specifics is offered. Illustrated brochures on the series have been prepared. These may be obtained by writing me. Next week: Details on "The American Adventure" series.

EQUALITY

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

By George Peck

Just what does equality mean? We hear much these days about equality but there seems to be a wide divergence of opinion as to just what the term means when applied to the human family.

George Peck

Ask a socialist what he means by equality and he will tell you it means a civilization in which all equally share the wealth, or the poverty (which he doesn't mention).

Ask a capitalist, or a believer in the American Capitalistic System, and he will define equality as a civilization in which all have equal opportunity and equality before the law.

Commencing with the French Revolution, the socialistic dream of equality of wealth has led to vast cruelty, endless bloodshed and economic chaos wherever it has obtained the upper hand. At times the bourgeoisie and the upper classes have been relegated to the sidelines or have been liquidated by the proletariat; wealth has been confiscated and divided. But, in every such case, it was not long until the people discovered that the beautiful theory of equal sharing of the wealth did not work out in actual practice. By killing off or rendering inactive the brains and initiative of a nation, they found the sum total of accomplishment to be poverty for all.

Any government immediately can establish equal sharing of the wealth by taking away property from the rich "haves" and distributing it among the poor "have-nots." Wherever governments have tried this, sad to relate, the "have-nots" did not become less poor. Notable examples in fairly modern history are the French and Russian revolutions. Why did these fail? Simply because confiscation of the property of the rich, even if honestly distributed among the general population, no more raises the level of individual wealth than a cup of water appreciably raises the level of water in a bath tub. The net result of these two revolutions was to produce an equality of poverty. This is always easy to do and any dictatorship can accomplish it. What dictatorships cannot accomplish is the more difficult achievement of an equality of plenty.

Here in America we have made considerable progress toward an equality of plenty. It would be reached that much-to-be desired goal, but we are on the right track. At least we have traveled further toward it than has any other nation in the entire history of the world.

Through the instrumentality of the Income Tax Amendment, with its progressive scale of taxation, we have syphoned off the earnings of the very wealthy. It is a process, however, which portends eventual collapse of our economy, if expanded or even continued for long on its present scale.

We developed—we know the true formula for achieving an equality of plenty—we have learned from actual experience that when we produce a sufficiently large number of things, the distribution of them will take care of itself. The automobile, the radio, the refrigerator, the electric ket. The crop can be fed, roots, vegetation, and whatever is left of the seed.

From the six to seven pounds of seed, a basket of 40 to 44 pounds of forage is produced in six days' time.

The machine has controlled air temperature, moisture, humidity and water.

Chesher points out that no soil is used, and whatever feed is produced is fresh, green, clean and contains nothing noxious.

Niamco Inc., Dallas, has exclusive American patents and manufacturing rights, and Chesher had the first machine to be used in West Texas.

He now has three machines in operation, one near Olton, one at Seagraves, and the machine at his headquarters here.

Great claims are made by the manufacturer in tests with dairy herds around Dallas.

Digestible Grass

Niamco reports that with a 15 per cent increase in butterfat production and an additional savings in feed, a machine can pay for itself in a year's time.

Further claims are that the manufactured grass is more easily digested by livestock and poultry, egg production is maintained at summer levels the year round, and meat, milk and egg products are of a higher food value and richer in flavor.

Operation of the machine requires about a half-hour's time each day, Chesher said. Cost for a 10-cow unit is $1,400 and for a 20-cow unit, $2,750.

mittees. The Senate Committee opened brief hearings on the new farm bill today. Mahon has asked to be allowed to testify before the committee before final action is taken.

Briefly, here is the legislative outlook in Congress on the farm program. The House last year passed a bill providing for the restoration of 90 per cent of parity supports for the basic crops.

Senate Moves Next

The next move is up to the Senate, and it is expected that the Senate will modify the House bill to include many additional provisions before the House will again have a chance to vote on the new bill. Senator Ellender expects to have a bill on the President's desk by Feb. 15.

"We are interested in getting something done reasonably soon, but we are more interested in getting the right kind of legislation and most anxious to safeguard ourselves against discrimination in the new law as applied to West Texas," Mahon concluded.

Things—necessities, semi-luxuries and luxuries—has been accomplished, there will be plenty of everything for every American and an equality of plenty will have been established.

Home Hints

By MILDRED COX
Terry County HD Agent

Did the holiday season leave you with some uncomfortable extra pounds? Perhaps you made a New Year's resolution to get back to normal weight? If so, be sensible in mapping a diet plan.

There is no safe, easy way to reduce. The one accepted method is to begin with a consultation with your family doctor. After that, eat less but adequately. This means smaller amounts of a large variety of enough foods to insure getting all the nutrients for good health.

Texas Food Standard

One guide to form the basis of a reducing diet is the Texas Food Standard which includes a balanced variety of foods. It avoids much of the embarrassment and inconvenience caused by weird special diets. Best of all, it plans for a basic pattern of eating that will be continued after excess weight is lost.

Safe reducing is a fairly long-time project. Two pounds a week is generally considered a safe rate of loss.

Remember that the human body needs adequate fuel at all times.

Damage to the body and nervous system, as a result of improper dieting, can be permanent.

Copies Are Available

Copies of the Texas Food Standard are available at our office. During the month of January, home demonstration club programs are based on the theme of "Good Nutrition's Gift To You". Normal weight is one of the gifts of good nutrition.

Make the most of income in '56. Is your family satisfied with what your income bought last year? Do you really know where your money went?

More Texas families are making the most of their income by keeping better household and farm accounts. Records help families to see where income goes—and where it comes from.

The only time you can manage your money is before you spend it. Account-keeping will show where your spending has been wise—or what spending habits you would like to break. Why not plan before you spend this year?

Surprise For Breakfast

Like to give your family a breakfast surprise? Try Apple sauce Corn Meal Griddle Cakes: 1 cup yellow corn meal, 1 cup flour, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2 eggs, 1½ cups apple sauce, ¼ cup melted butter or margarine, ¼ cup milk.

Combine corn meal, flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Beat eggs

Turkey Project May Be Started In Tahoka

TAHOKA—Plans for a turkey growing project among area farmers will be discussed at a meeting in the county courtroom the night of Jan. 24.

Dale Thuren, local farm operator, and Ken Looper, Turina Mills say the demand is growing for turkeys on a year-round basis.

No large investment, they say, is needed in buildings or equipment to start in the business. At the present time, the turkey raiser can reasonably expect about $1 profit from each bird.

"There is only one large turkey producer in this section of the country," explains Looper, "and most of the turkeys consumed in the Lubbock territory are shipped in."

and add with apple sauce. Stir until blended. Add melted butter and milk. Mix well. Drop by spoonful on hot griddle, spreading thin. Bake, turning to brown on both sides. Serve hot with syrup and butter or margarine.

Apples contain minerals and vitamins needed in the daily diet. A half-cup of apple sauce contains 92 calories.

If the United States of America is permitted to continue on the course upon which it started and journeyed for 180 years, it is not unreasonable to assume that eventually we will achieve an equality of plenty—without any governmental planning, regulation or interference.

American—

planned irrigation network was completed last summer. It's the big Yarkon-Negev pipeline, carrying water from the springs of the Yarkon River at the rate of more than 100,000,000 cubic yards (better than two trillion gallons) a year, a distance of 65 miles. The pipe is 5½ feet in diameter.

The tiny Yarkon-really little more than a creek—is fed by underground streams a few miles, northeast of Tel-Aviv. For thousands of years it wasted its precious water into the Mediterranean, after irrigating a few fields along its short course. Now the Yarkon furnishes water to irrigate 50,000 acres at the southern end of the pipeline, as well as the farms of some 60 settlements along the way.

The Yarkon springs lie only about 60 feet above sea level. The lands irrigated are 325 to 485 feet above sea level. To make the water flow uphill the engineers constructed powerful pumping stations and reservoirs along the pipeline. The reservoirs also collect winter flood waters, augmenting the supply from the Yarkon and doing an important job of flood control.

A second pipeline, now under construction, will carry water from the Yarkon southeast across the foothills of the Judean Mountains to the eastern Negev by 1958.

Basic Crops
Much of the newly irrigated Negev lands are being put to basic crops, principally sugar beets, cotton, corn, and peanuts. These crops not only will help feed the whole nation, but will serve as the basis for developing regional processing industries, and thus for the establishment of new cities and towns in the Negev.

Present dry-land crops—wheat and barley for feed—will no longer have to depend on winter rains. This fall, 25,000 acres of grain and hay will be sufficiently watered, rain or no rain.

Several thousand acres had been devoted to grapevines and soft fruit orchards, cultivated by dry farming. "Imported water" will permit this acreage to be increased to accommodate Israel's important and growing wine and citrus industries.

Another thriving crop in the Negev is junco, a rush-like grass which grows wild, but is now cultivated for cellulose and paper production. At Gilat, not far from the Gaza border, have been planted 300,000 saplings of American alio, which will provide raw materials for the manufacture of rope and sacking.

Livestock
Cattle-raising experiments with Hereford and Arab breeds have been successful on both natural and artificial Negev pastures. High-grade sheep farming has gotten off to a good start on 1,000 acres with the importation of 200 Corriedales from Australia. The sheep were flown most of the 9,000 miles.

Small-scale agricultural experiments are showing promise in different settlements all over the Negev. Winter roses for export are being cultivated on the southern shore of the Dead Sea, low-est point on the earth's surface.

Potatoes, peas, carrots, cabbage, fig, almond, peach, pomegranate and apricot trees, hybrid corn, sunflowers, sorghum, tomatoes, watermelons, squash and cucumbers have all been grown successfully in the past year with out irrigation, in an area where the rainfall is about four inches a year. With irrigation all these crops can be greatly expanded.

Israel's Ministry of Agriculture recognizes the value of forests in arresting soil erosion, providing shade and acting as a windbreak against dust storms which damage crops. Already millions of young saplings have been planted on some of the estimated 500,000 acres available for afforestation in the Negev.

American Technique
A prominent American soil conservation expert first suggested that water be brought from the north of the Negev. Prof. Walter Clay Lowdermilk, formerly with the Tennessee Valley Authority, proposed that the water of the Jordan basin be harnessed and sent southward by a vast pumping network. University of Utah Prof. N. Jacobs of Salt Lake City supervised research on the amount of water available from underground sources in Israel.

Israel's master plan for irrigation aims, in the next 10 to 15 years, to supply water for at least 500,000 acres. The plan is to take water from the Jordan basin in the north and deliver it by a main conduit to a central storage reservoir in Galilee. From here the main conduit will cross the Esdraelon Valley, pass the Hills of Ephraim through a tunnel, and then continue along the coastal plain to a central point in the northern Negev. From this point the water will be distributed throughout the Negev by smaller pipelines.

Israel's population today is about 1,730,000. In 20 years this figure is expected to increase to 4,000,000. The seven-year-old nation's irrigation plan, if it continues to adhere to schedule, will enable Israel's farm production to keep pace with its more-than doubled population, an achievement unique in the world.

Moore Funeral Held in Fannin County

Funeral services were held at the Telephone Baptist church in Fannin county for Joe C. Moore, 50, who died shortly after noon Thursday following a heart attack. The attack occurred at his home at 108 E. Main.

Brownfield for 14 years and was employed as night man at Parker's Gulf station. He was a member of the AF&AM Lodge at Lamesa.

Survivors include three daughters, Joanna Jane, Peggy Jean and Norma Joe Moore, two brothers, H. L. P. Moore of Itasca and W. A. Moore of Fort Worth, and five sisters.

GROUND-WATER INVENTORY IN BAILEY—The portion of Bailey county within the boundary of the High Plains Under-ground Water Conservation District covers about 362,000 acres. (The total area of the county is about 532,000 acres.) The underground reservoir in the Ogallala formation beneath the area within the district contained approximately 5,770,000 acre-feet of ground water in storage available for pumping in January 1955. The above maps were prepared from data compiled from a study of about 500 logs of water wells and about 250 measurements of water levels in wells. The map in Plate 1 shows the thickness of the water-bearing strata between the water table and the redbeds in 1938, before an appreciable amount of water had been pumped from the reservoir. The map in Plate 2 shows the decline of the water table from the spring of 1938 to January 1955. The volume of water remaining in the underground reservoir was determined by subtracting the volume of material unwatered since 1938 from the total volume of saturated material in 1938 and multiplying the remainder of by the coefficient of storage of 15 per cent.

These data show that 6,100,000 acre-feet of water was in storage available for pumping in 1938, and that the net decrease in storage from that year until 1955 was 330,000 acre-feet. In other words, the net decrease in storage is five per cent of the quantity available in '38. The total pumpage, however, from '38 to '55 was considerably more than 330,000 acre-feet. The recharge which took place after the exceptionally heavy rains of 1941 added a large quantity of water to the underground reservoir. The 330,000 acre-feet, plus the quantity added by recharge, has been withdrawn by pumping. The approximate quantity of underground water in storage, available for pumping, beneath an individual farm may be determined by multiplying the number of acres in the farm by the thickness of the water-bearing strata underlying the farm and then multiplying by the storage coefficient of 15 per cent. Suppose the farm consists of 320 acres and has 200 feet of water-bearing strata underlying it. Then, 320 acres times 200 feet times 0.15 equals 9,600 acre-feet of water available for pumping.

EA Rates Hit All-Time Low

For the first time in the history of the 20-year-old Rural Electrification Administration, the average rate of power to residential consumers, including farm and non-farm, has dropped to less than one cent a kilowatt-hour. In a year-end summary of the R. E. A., a U. S. Department of Agriculture report reveals that the sale of electric energy went up 16 per cent and the cost to consumers dropped five per cent during 1955. The R. E. A.-financed systems sold an estimated 19 billion kilowatt-hours of electricity. Their generation of power was up 21 per cent and purchases of wholesale power were up 13 per cent.

Financial Condition Good
At the year's end, there were 1,026 borrowers with systems in operation. They were serving 4,244,000 customers. Ancher Nelsen, R. E. A. administrator, said the borrowers, largely farmer-owned cooperatives, were never in better financial condition. In 1955 revenues from operations amounted to $453 million, an 11 per cent increase over 1954. Net margins from operations amounted to $61.8 million, a 41 per cent increase. Nelsen also reported a drop of 25 per cent in the number of borrowers whose current operations might be considered financially unsatisfactory, from 194 in June, 1954, to 143 in June, 1955.

Payments in Advance
In 1955, the systems paid $111.12 million in principal and interest on their two per cent loans and continued their excellent repayment record. Last year, the borrowers also increased their advance repayment of borrowed money by $13.2 million. Payments on principal ahead of schedule now amount to $91.8 million.

"Loans over the life of the 20-year program," said Nelsen, "now total $3.1 billion. Of this amount, $2.6 billion has been advanced to the borrowers."

The Hinsons moved to Terry from Erath county in 1935. In 1945, they moved into a new home on their 120-acre farm. Hinson says that he and his wife have enjoyed some really good years on the farm—"despite its being dryland." He also farms an adjoining quarter-section. In cooperation with two neighboring farmers, he recently completed a terracing project which will control water run-off on the three farms. (Staff Photo)

PATTERNS IN THE SNOW

They make pretty patterns on the snow, these fences. But they were not built "for looks." They were erected for protection. They stand as bulwarks against the physical elements.

There are other kinds of bulwarks most of us need in our daily lives—spiritual bulwarks. For even the strongest of us cannot stand alone. Sometimes we think we can... but the moment comes when we realize how much we need help.

It is then that we turn toward the Church. And, no matter how remote we may have been, the Church stands there with doors open wide, ready to receive us.

But should we wait until we really need a spiritual bulwark? How much better to establish ourselves in the Church now and be assured of its strength and comfort through all our days.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

T-Formation to T-Bones

BEEF TRUST TO BEEF TRUST has a gill-edged, if repetitive ring. Yet it concisely fits 14-year saga of Tom Greenfield, ex-National Football League star. Nowadays he's recognized as Arizona's outstanding Angus cattle breeder with herd so valuable that local folks call them "Fort Knox on the hoof." As Green Bay Packers' center, breeder was in line trio labelled "big beef trust."

AFTER WORLD WAR II service, which earned him Silver Star, Greenfield started raising cattle for show and sale.

AT 1,500-ACRE Tomar Ranch, north of Tucson, Ariz., life revolves about cattle. Couple christened son "Rocky," honoring dad's idol, the late Notre Dame grid mentor.

GREENFIELD, NOW PRESIDENT of Arizona Breeders' Association, has developed stock from two brood cows in 1931 to 140-head herd. Ex-footballer operates own irrigation system with four gas-powered pumping units. Tomar's equipment includes nine International trucks and tractors, combines and hay balers.

Future Hogs To Be Meatier And Lighter Animals

By J. W. SUMMERS

The passage of time brings about revolutionary changes in many things, and farming and ranching goes right along with the trend.

In livestock breeding and raising, there has been a remarkable change over the years. Cattle raising, particularly, has grown by leaps and bounds. From the first Spanish cattle shipped to Mexico, through the famed Longhorn to the modern day, highly developed strains of outstanding beef and dairy herds are noted.

Now it is the hogs turn to come in for their change. Research has been going on for the past twenty years to give us the meat type hog. And it means what it says; he is raised to produce more good lean pork, pound for pound, than his fat type brother. And figures point out that this meat type hog is as economical for farmers to raise.

Not Yet Widely Available

It is new, and there hasn't been enough to put his superior quality of ham, bacon, roasts and chops on the dining tables of the country in any great quantity. The overly fat type hog is still standard, from the pens to the tables.

The changeover is coming in the public demand. The housewife wants lean meat, including pork, and it is all too often that she can't get what she needs or wants. It's the over the meat counter that counts. Housewives can't and won't pay for an inferior product.

Economic forces are pushing for a change in hogs. Not only is the consumer affected, but the farmer's payment for hogs also is geared to the type and weight of the hogs he sends to market.

Lard prices are low. It brings much less a pound than the packers pay for the hog. This means that prices paid by the consumer of finished pork cuts is higher at the same time it pulls down the price paid the farmer.

Calls For Changes

This change will require a change in growing practices and marketing procedures, true, and the one big question that stands out in the grower's mind is, "Will it pay off?" Meat type hogs, through the right changes, can pay. This has been discovered through research.

The Agricultural Research Administration says that meat type hogs come in all breeds. It is a matter of selection, breeding, feeding and marketing them at the right time and weight, and all of this can be done by the average hog raiser.

For over twenty years, United States Department of Agriculture scientists have been working through private breeders and through the state experiment stations to improve the types of hogs, both pure-bred and cross-breeds, for better pork production. They have come up with new breeds, six in the past few years, and more are in the making. Using the proper combination of older, established breeds, they will bring out more and better meat type hogs.

More Pigs and Faster Growth

It has been discovered, through studies of hog feeding, that 200 to 225 pounds is their best weight for market. Hogs turn too much of the feed into fat above that weight.

By using the meat type hogs, a farmer can raise just as many animals that grow just as fast, use feed as well and yield as high as the fine, fat type hogs.

In pork, as in any other meat, it's the preferred cuts that count. In pork, too much of the preferred meat is overly fat. The meat type hog produces more preferred meat and it is of better quality. The meat type hog produces more loin, bacon, ham, shoulder butt and picnic shoulder at no sacrifice in the dressing percentage. Thus the meat type hog is superior to the fat type hog on two important counts, more lean meat per pound and the pork produced has far greater consumer appeal.

Preferred Cuts Compared

In comparing the two types for preferred cuts and the percentage of lean meat produced, the weight of a hog may be 217 pounds, fat type. The dressed yield is 81.6 per cent while the preferred cuts amount to 52.4 per cent.

The fat type produces 13.5 per cent hams, while the meat type produces 16.2 per cent; loins 10.3 per cent against 12.4 per cent; bacon 11.4 per cent to 11.7 per cent; shoulder butts of the fat type are 3.9 per cent, meat type 4.9 per cent, and finally the picnic shoulders are 4.0 per cent for the fat type as opposed to 7.2 per cent for the meat type. So you can see there is a great deal of difference in the edible meat. As yet there is little incentive for the farmer to turn to raising the meat type animal on his farm. Most hogs are still sold on weight alone. However, judged on the value of the carcass, a meat type hog is sometimes worth $2 or $3 more per hundred pounds live weight than other hogs of the same weight class.

The first moves have been made in the direction of merit selling, or higher price for better quality.

Some packers are using hogs developed by the USDA Production and Marketing Administration on a limited scale. Tests on hogs by grading, show that quality buying is profitable and practical.

Consumer demand for leaner pork should bring the meat type hog into prominence. Perhaps this demand of today is the first step toward the meatier hog of the future.

Battle of Farm Debates Begins in Washington

WASHINGTON—A farm debate flared up in the Senate last week, accompanied by Democratic demands that President Eisenhower "keep the promises" he made to agriculture in 1952.

The argument began a few hours after Eisenhower, in his State of the Union message, said he will open a stepped-up attack on the "deep-seated problems" plaguing farmers.

Humphrey Complains

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) complained that Eisenhower "promised more than any other candidate" four years ago and "has delivered less." Now that another election looms, Humphrey said the President is adopting many farm proposals that Humphrey, as a Democrat, has pushed for three years.

In his message to Congress the President urged that the plight of agriculture be placed "above and beyond politics."

"Too much is at stake," he said. "No group is more fundamental to our national life than our farmers."

Would Call on Benson

Humphrey suggested that Eisenhower call on Sec. of Agriculture Benson, read to him the farm pledges Eisenhower made in 1952, and then instruct him to "carry them out or resign."

This brought Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) to his feet with a protest that the Democrats, now in control of the Senate and House, "have done nothing" about the legislation referred to by Humphrey.

Earlier, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate's Democratic leader, said it is obvious that the Eisenhower administration "has become frantic about the farm situation."

Without waiting for the detailed program Eisenhower plans to submit next Monday, Sen. Anderson (D-NM) announced he will ask Congress to order "a complete and orderly liquidation within five years" of the government's $7 billion holdings surplus farm stocks.

Declaring "the key solution is to get rid of the surpluses," Anderson said he will introduce a resolution requiring Benson to present such a surplus disposal program to Congress "within 30 days."

Anderson, who was secretary of agriculture in the first part of the Truman administration and who has supported major farm propos-

Jan. 31 Is Deadline For Farmers Paying Social Security Tax

The U. S. Internal Revenue Service this week reminded farmers who employed hired hands last year that they must file social security returns and payments by Jan. 31.

Under a law which went into effect last year, a farm worker is covered by social security if he earned at least $100 from any one employee during the calendar year.

Farm operators are also covered. And, as in the case of their employees, operators pay on income up to $4,200 a year. The self-employment tax is reported on the regular federal income tax blank.

Coverage Outlined

The government estimates that the new law will bring social security benefits to approximately 2,200,000 farm hands and 3,000,000 farm operators.

als of the Eisenhower administration, outlined his views in an interview.

Surplus Lower Prices

He said he is convinced that "the chief cause of low farm prices and incomes are these huge surpluses."

As examples, Anderson said the nation needs perhaps 250 million bushels of wheat "for housekeeping purposes" from year to year and perhaps a million bales of cotton. Instead, he said, it has more than a billion bushels of wheat stored under price support programs and several million bales of cotton.

Some legislators said they are disappointed in what the President had to say about the farm problem, which promises to become one of the hottest issues in the election-year session of Congress.

In his message, Eisenhower dealt only in general terms with the "many-sided assault" which he said must be made on the problem.

"I shall urge," he said, "authorization of a soil bank program to alleviate the problem of diverted acres. This will include an acreage reserve to reduce current

The law provides coverage for all agricultural labor, including cotton ginning and domestic service in a farm home, unless such service is performed by the employer's children under 21, or the employer's parents or spouse. Mi-

"I shall propose measures to strengthen individual commodity programs, to remove controls where possible, to reduce carryovers, and stop further accumulation of surpluses. I shall ask the Congress to provide substantial new funds for an expanded drive on the research front, to develop new markets, new crops, and new uses."
