Took a gallon of worms and brought back a gallon of fish! Now who can criticize that?

The situation is actually embarrassing, however. You see, we had a good tale outlined—all about a very successful fishing trip—but the story fell through. And it is all due to some fellows here whom I had presumed to be friends. Judge for yourself if they were acting as friends should: Just as we drove in to the driveway late Sunday evening, attempting to sneak our small catch in through the back entrance, up drives Meathhead Thornton, and others, to check me in! No kidding, they watched un-blushing as we dug through bushes of gear, bedding, food, etc., finally coming up with that little bucket of fish soundly cache; in the ice box.

So after having been observed, we feel that the trip was a failure—no tall tales permitted and few fish exhibited.

A fellow can get some distorted viewpoints when he sees only one side of a situation. There's O. W. Rhinehart from Bovina whom we had presumed to be a hard-working old boy—just because our only contact with him had been at his tasks there. But he was the first fisherman we ran into up at the Vallecito reservoir some 50 miles northeast of Durango! And we came to find he knew practically every fishing hole both there and in northern New Mexico. Also knew the moon signs for fishing and all that stuff.

Which all adds to: better open your eyes and look around before forming opinions!

Also saw Frank Wilson (who already had the reputation of a fisherman, however); and we'll vouch that he had a mighty good excuse for bringing back a small catch. He couldn't get his outboard motor to percolate for trolling—still hadn't got it started when we left Sunday.

Sorry we missed Elroy Wilson who coincidentally fished in the same lake on Saturday (the day we chose to do some trout stream angling).

About four out of five cars at the Colorado resorts seem to bear Texas license plates. And practically every one of the remaining Colorado cars bear the sticker "I Like Ike."

Ran into a number of Texans who managed or owned campsites and resorts along the Colorado rivers. Enterprising fellows, most of them. But when we talked with the native Colorado landowners, that group seldom missed mentioning that the 'Texans are taking over up here'—in no complimentary terms.

Well, it's true that a number of out-of-state folks have bought a lot of property along the trout streams and have posted this land against public use.

But it is equally evident (or more so) that the Texas tourist dollars are pouring into the state and are being welcomed, too, believe me.

Believe it or not: Stopped at a cafe in Bayfield for breakfast and was served two eggs and TWELVE slices of bacon! Plus biscuits and toast! What's the explanation—bacon cheaper up there? Whatever the reason for this unusually ample meal, we must say we'll stop back by that little place if ever again in the vicinity.

Had better luck fishing in the streams rather than the lake. With anyone knowing fish won't

Rehearsals Commence Next Monday For Senior Band; Director Fry Here

J. D. FRY, Band Director

A meeting of the Senior band was held Wednesday night where it was decided to hold playing rehearsals at 2:00 o'clock p. m. beginning next Monday.

Band Director Fry states that he plans to take some of the school instruments to be repaired and will be glad to take any personal instruments at the same time. Anyone whose instrument is in need of repair should contact Mr. Fry at the high school this afternoon.

Fry has urged all interested students to contact him at these periods or at the school any afternoon. Also he welcomes consultations with beginners or parents of the band members.

Fry arrived in Friona Saturday to assume his duties here, and he has expressed extreme optimism regarding the music department here. He is 26 years of age, single, and is a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He spent 27 months in naval service in the South Pacific in World War II. He is a graduate of Paris Junior College and of the Southeastern State College at Durant, Oklahoma. He is a member of the Methodist Church.

Light Ballot Will Face Voters 23rd

A very light ballot will be presented Texas voters this Saturday in the Second Democratic Primary Election. Candidates for only four positions will be listed on the Parmer County ballots, with only one of those being for a county office. T. E. Levy and E. F. Billingsley were placed in a run-off for commissioner, precinct 3.

The name of Martin Dies appears on the ballot without an opponent, due to a recent ruling by the state committee. Actually, Dies lacked a very small percentage having a clear majority of the total votes in the first primary, and John Lee Smith was placed in the run-off as candidate polling next highest votes. However, Smith withdrew from the race.

Birthday Dinner Honors Mrs. Julia Dennis

Mrs. Julia Dennis, 87, was honored Sunday with a dinner on the occasion of her birthday.

Among children and friends calling during the day or during the week were John Dennis and family of Glendale, Ariz.; Lee Dennis and family of Roger, Arkansas; Albert Dennis of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Travis Light and Pearl Marie, Alice Faye Ralph Marion and Cap Dennis. Other callers included Mrs. Rosa Anderson, Mrs. Jack Anderson, Mr. Mrs. Jimmie Teiford Charles Rauh and Mrs. Z. Ne-therton of Blair, Okla., a niece.

State X-Ray Unit Coming Nov. 12th

An x-ray unit of the Texas Health Department will be in Friona November 12th, resulting from plans laid here Monday by Charles H. Hoover of that organization.

The unit will be in Parmer County only one day, and will be set up in Friona all day long for free x-ray of anyone over 15 years of age.

Local civic organizations and clubs are cooperating in the project, encouraging the public to avail itself of the use of this free and useful service.

No charge is made for the x-ray service, and no embarrassment is involved. Anyone visiting the unit will merely sign an identification card and step fully clothed in front of the x-ray camera for the picture; the entire process will involve only a few minutes time.

A state x-ray unit last visited Parmer County in 1948.

FFA PLANS TRIP

About twenty-five local FFA boys met Monday to plan their approaching trip to Colorado. The group, under sponsorship of J. T. Gee, probably will leave this weekend on their trip.

Ten-Day Revival Will Begin Friday At First Baptist Church

REV. J. H. WRIGHT

The Friona Baptist Church of Friona announces its summer revival to begin Friday evening, August 22 and to conclude Aug. 30. In making the announcement the pastor, Russell Pogue, was anxious to extend an invitation to each friend of the church to attend the services.

The evening services are to begin at 8 p. m. with prayer groups by ages and choir rehearsal led by the evangelistic singer. The evening worship services will begin at 8:15 p. m.

The evangelist for the ten days revival is Rev. J. H. Wright, pastor of the First Baptist church, Levelland, Texas. Rev. Wright is one of our very popular pastors in this area. He has served in several official capacities in this district and has proven to be a very successful pastor. His sisters taught in the local school system several years ago.

Bro. Raymond Jones, director of music and education at the First Baptist Church, Tulia, is the singer for the revival. Bro. Jones has only recently come to Tulia; he has held similar positions in Waxahachie and in Dallas.

In introducing the workers, the pastor of the local church expressed a keen feeling that no finer team of workers could have been secured.

Receiving Degree

Among candidates for degrees at the Texas Tech graduation exercises August 27th is listed one Parmer County student, J. R. Roop of Farwell. Roop, accounting major, has applied for the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration.

R. H. Johnson Wall Street securities broker and a native of Anson, Texas, will be the commencement speaker.

A tentative list of names released by the college indicates 303 candidates for bachelor, master and doctor degrees.

Piano Class Registration

Mrs. Margaret Caldwell will begin classes in piano the second week in September in Friona and Bovina.

Students may take musicianship for music grades in their school if they desire and should register before school begins, if possible, at the home of Mrs. Henry Outland, August 28th from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Local SCD Now In Vetch Business

The Board of Supervisors of the Parmer County Soil Conservation District has purchased 30,000 pounds of vetch seed for re-sale to farmers of the area, Bill Kennedy of that organization announced this week.

The vetch is for sale at $17.50 per hundred pounds, and it can be obtained at the Santa Fe Grain Company in Friona or the Shrelley Grain Company in Bovina.

Kennedy notes that vetch can be planted in the winter; and in the spring it can be turned under to increase the yield as high as 25 per cent.

The Parmer district has three legume seeders to rent; they are located at the Buddy Jones farm near Farwell, the A. L. Black farm southeast of Friona, and the Ronald Berggren farm at Bovina.

Showered With Advice, No Doubt—

Unusual Fete Honors Groom-Elect Tim Magness at S. H. Osborn Home Recently

One of the outstanding events of the summer social season was the recent stag shower given for Tim Magness, groom-elect of Miss Dorothy Guinn.

Joe Osborn, G. B. Buske, Sloan Osborn, A. L. Black and Claude Osborn were hosts for the affair given in the home of Sloan Osborn.

Pudge Kendrick opened the evening's entertainment by stating it seemed a shame that brides were forever and eternally being feted at showers and other pre-nuptial courtesies, while the poor groom sat home and twiddled his thumbs. Consequently, the hosts had decided to do something about this deplorable state of affairs by honoring the groom with a shower. The guests then gave the groom bits of advice designed to help him over the rough spots in the coming years.

A skit entitled The Honeymoon is Over, was presented by A. L. Black as the Bride, and G. B. Buske as the Groom.

Paul Fortenberry administered the oath of office which included the following promises: to always answer 'Yes, dear,' to never laugh at the bride's hats, and always put the paper down when the bride started to tell him what 'the girls' had done. The bride arrived in time to get the groom's signature on the oath in front of witnesses.

Black presented Tim Magness with the badge of the brotherhood—a ring for his nose.

The highlight of the affair was a style show of hats concocted of kitchen utensils and modeled by the male guests. Wayne Bainton was particularly fetching in a chapeau designed with a stew pot body, egg beater feathers, red ribbon and bow and draped with a dish rag veil.

The honoree was presented with a violent corsage of glad-joli and rainbow ribbon.

Twenty-three guests enjoyed games and refreshments to round out a most stimulating evening.

Sanders, formerly of Canyon, will direct the Home-making department.

FRIONA, The Gateway to The Irrigation Belt — Or The Biggest Little City in The Panhandle?

Wonder if the Chamber of Commerce isn't overlooking a good bet on publicity for this area, publicity that would pay off in more homes, more people, and more farms.

With the exception of a few (and very few) fertile valleys, there is no rich farmland between the California farmlands and the irrigation belt right here in Parmer County. Living here in the midst of this rich land we fail to appreciate the gem that we have in our water and our soil—but to the traveler who spans the nation, on Route 60 especially, the value of our situation is clearly visible. Time after time we have heard these travelers discuss this territory over a cup of coffee, stating how glad they are to reach this productive area—"the first we've seen in two days of travel" some of them have expressed it.

Alice, Texas, has long been known as "The Gateway to the Valley." This slogan has been publicized over the entire United States, and the population of that area has been doubled time and again because of immigrants associating the name "Alice" with the valley, although in reality the true valley lands lay far to the south of the city proper.

But Friona is in reality the "Gateway to the Irrigation Belt"—no false claims or even mildly misleading so-called "Chamber of Commerce publicity" involved; Friona is the gateway to a rich irrigation belt.

Rather than having displayed signs telling that Friona is "The Biggest Little City in the Panhandle"—in our opinion a meaningless slogan if we ever heard one, why not get down to facts that could be understood, and appreciated—at the same time contributing to the progress of the community; let's let the country know that we ARE the GATEWAY TO THE IRRIGATION BELT.

Are you with us? And in no time at all any of us could tell the world that we were from Friona and the listener would recognize that "Oh, you live in that irrigation belt that we've heard so much of."

That would be much more beneficial and ear-pleasing than the now-present observation—"Oh, isn't that somewhere near Amarillo where the helium plant is?"

We don't imply that publicity for publicity's sake is a panacea for all our ills—but we do think that truthful claims for the attributes of this or any other area results in a more progressive community—in our case resulting in more people and more farms—a brighter economy.

THE AMERICAN WAY

But Our Government IS All The People

WASHINGTON AND "Small Business"

—By C. WILSON HARDER

The settlement of the recent steel strike will be studied by Congress.

No one in Washington is ignorant of the solution worked out.

The strike limelighted a problem which American statesmanship has been unable, or unwilling to solve.

That is the problem posed when two great monopolies as Big Steel and Big Labor are deadlocked.

C. W. Harder

During negotiations, one steel firm was reported ready to settle, but promptly withdrew this offer to stay aligned with the U. S. Steel forces.

No faction of labor had a chance to deal separately.

The big issue remains. When monopoly locks horns with monopoly, what happens to the rest of the country? Must the nation chance disaster?

In this particular case, settlement was reached by direct White House intervention. And as to be expected, the settlement was such that everybody won but the public. But obviously, it is pointed out, a system that requires a President to settle every serious economic dispute is a system that can easily head into a dictatorship.

The situation becomes even more peculiar when it is fully realized what was done during the strike importing steel.

Plumbing supply houses all over the country were receiving pipe made in France, Belgium and other European nations that are receiving steel and steel equipment from the U. S. as a gift under the Marshall Plan and the MSA.

This importation of steel might point to a solution of the basic problem. Free competition in the U. S. market between domestically produced and foreign produced steel might be a check on the powers held by the financial and labor monopolies in American steel production.

Such a course might even check the big rise in steel prices awarded as the settlement of the strike.

However, through some strange arrangement, foreign steel prices will also jump.

Therefore, there appears only one solution to the problem. That solution will be the encouragement of more independent steel plants.

It is believed that strict enforcement of the nation's anti-trust laws would result in not only more steel production capacity in this nation, but also a greater percentage of independent production.

Free competition in the market place would then level off prices.

That appears to be the blueprint of action that will be pursued by many Congressional leaders to avert such economic disasters in the future.

The plan doesn't call for revisions of labor laws, the setting up of new or different arbitration boards, or in any way bringing government into industrial disputes. The plan is merely to eliminate monopoly deadlocks by using the already existing anti-trust laws.

The Law and You

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW why the acknowledgment for legal instruments is different for married man and a married woman?

There is considerable difference in the type of acknowledgment used in connection with legal documents depending on whether the woman signing the instrument is a married woman, or whether she is an unmarried woman or widow. For the unmarried woman or widow the acknowledgment is the same as for a man, but the acknowledgment for a married woman is considerably longer and involves a definite showing that the married woman had the instrument fully explained to her, separate and apart from her husband that the same was her act and deed and that she did not wish to retract the same. The married woman's separate acknowledgment was established many, many years ago for the protection of the wife, who was not familiar with business matters, did not know the effect of signing legal instruments, and could be imposed upon and coerced by her husband into signing instruments which would deprive her of her home, or other valuable rights. Since the emancipation of women, and their entry into business, and their active participation in the business affairs of the family, this type of acknowledgment is not so necessary to protect the rights of the married woman. Today, there are few cases in which such an acknowledgment separate and apart, is really necessary. However, until the Legislature changes the Statutes in regard to acknowledgments, it shall continue to be necessary that the husband shall be asked to leave the presence of the wife and that the instrument shall be fully explained to the wife separate and apart from her husband, and that she shall declare that she does not wish to retract it out of the presence of the husband. Failure, at this time, to carry out the acknowledgment in proper manner, is still sufficient to void the acknowledgment. All Notary Publics, and those acknowledging instruments before Notary Public, should make certain that where a married woman acknowledges an instrument, that the proper procedure is followed.

CHICKEN FRY HELD
The home Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Taylor recently was the scene for a chicken fry held by the young adults class of the First Baptist Church. The evening entertainment was centered around the chicken fry and the evening meal. Other entertainment was fellowship visiting. Those attending were the Buddy Stwers and family, the Johnny Mars and sons, the Sam Williams, the Jeff Buskes, Mrs. Jay Kuykendall, the Russell Pogue's and family, Dean Hall, Ella Mae Woods, and the Clayton Taylors.

MADE MISSOURI TRIP
Joe S. Menefee and Russell Pogue made a trip to Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri last week. While away they saw former Friona residents, visiting in the Clifford Crow and Jesse Williams homes. They report that the drought had struck deep into the grazing lands there.

CARD OF THANKS
We take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation to our many friends and loved ones who remembered J. R. with in the hospital. May God bless each and every one of you.

Grass Roots

The potato season is KAPUT (German for all done) and Mrs. Estes son John is KA-POOPED (Estes word meaning done in) at any rate it was quite a season and everyone so far is happy about the outcome. It all started off with a bang and ended the same way. All of the crew here at the warehouse considers it ending with a bang since we all banged our heads off the floor when it was finished. I was so optimistic about it all and the harvest started. Guess I'd better quit this yelling about spilled milk, but anyone wanting a good way to lose weight come around next year and I can show you first hand how it is done.

Am very happy to report that pasture seeding time is at hand and the farmers are already getting started. All three of our grass seeders are busy and all indications are that they will stay busy until time to seed next spring. Any of you farmers who are interested in getting your pastures in this Fall will certainly want to get your name in the pot for one of these drills. To qualify this statement a little further. There were one or two seedings last Fall that were late getting in and they didn't make it through the winter, but they did come up to a stand so the record still stands. Am going to try to work the drill system a little differently this year. Last year I was slow rolling all over the area trying to keep them going so all could use them that wanted them. This year I think that I'll slow roll all the country trying to keep them going to everyone can use them that wants them. I'm afraid my mind has been a little affected by it all.

The boys who planted the vetch last month report good stands. Robert Veigel and Ralph Hastings seeded some and informed me after a months time that the stuff wasn't going to come up. Robert was in the other day and told me that the seed was sprouting now, which proves further to me that Vetch can make it under all conditions. Plant it deep or plant it shallow and it will come up. I still recommend a shallow seeding, and feel sure the L. W. Norvell, O. C. Hill, Jr., and Morris Easley agree. They seeded theirs with our cyclone seeder that works off the power take off of the tractor and report good stands. There is still a good forty-five days to get this legume in the ground.

I planted a seed of BUFFLE GRASS just before the spud harvest started and immediately forgot it. It was planted in a number two can and I watered it when I planted it. It is about six inches high now and has been in that can for nearly two months without water. This is going to be a grass for this area. It is a perennial but will probably winter kill this far North. However it is extremely drought resistant as proved by my horticultural endeavor, and from all other appearances will most certainly find its place here as an annual plant, possibly replacing Sudan as a summer grazing crop.

Needless to say we are still keeping an inventory of the top quality grass and legume seed as always and have them ready for mixing or direct delivery at competitive prices. I always get a kick out of that phrase "We have anything you need at competitive prices." I honestly believe that those of us who use that phrase actually mean—"If the competition is cutting under, don't pass us by, we can whittle too." However there is no substitute for high Purity and Germination Seed, and it often happens that the cheaper stuff turns out to be the high price stuff when you figure how much PURE LIVE SEED you have actually paid for in a hundred pounds of the seed you thought you were saving money on.

28 YEARS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE

This is the first newsletter that has been written in several weeks for the reason that I have been visiting in the District, as many of you know. I am sorry that I wasn't able to remain in the District. I was forced to return to Washington in order to appear in behalf of several constituents before some of the bureaus. Shortly after coming to Washington I discovered that a personal appearance before these bureaus on behalf of veterans and other persons whose rights were involved was much more effective than letter writing. The drift toward assembly line treatment of many of these problems was alarming to me. A great number of these people whose daily lives and businesses could be materially affected by these bureau directives do not have the finances to make a personal appearance or to employ counsel to represent them. It is my thought that if enough appearances are made before these boards and bureaus on behalf of these unfortunate people by the elected representatives, much good can be accomplished toward proper treatment of the matters. During the last session of Congress the Veteran's Affairs Committee, of which I am a member, had before it a bill providing that claims of veterans could be appealed from decisions of the Veterans Administration to the courts. This was known as the "Judicial Review Bill." I was on a subcommittee that held hearings on this bill, and I state to you frankly that I had hoped it would pass. It did not reach the floor of the House before adjournment, therefore it must be taken up at a special session or refiled after January 3, 1953. It is my intention to see that such a bill is refiled so that these veterans may have access to the courts, where they can make a personal appearance and be viewed as a human being rather than another file number.

The trip to the district was most enjoyable and I hope to return for another visit as soon as the backlog of work in the office has been disposed of. There were many places that I wanted to go but could not because of the limited amount of time. Two of the most impressive sights that I viewed during the trip were Stinnett and Dumas. The one at Stinnett was the grand improvements that have been made there. Sometimes as you watch these improvements progress they do not appear as outstanding as they do to one who has been away from the town while they were being made. This work at Stinnett has certainly done wonders for the town and the citizenship there are to be highly commended for the fine and outstanding progress that they have been making. The other matter to which I refer is the new hotel Sneed at Dumas, Texas. I had the honor and pleasure of attending the opening ceremonies when the hotel was officially opened. I heard a wonderful talk by Mr. Harold Dunn, and wish that his talk could have been heard by all of the people in that section of the country. In fact, it would have helped for it to have been heard by every American. Bill Rutherford did a wonderful job of introducing Harold, as he usually does. Jess Cooper and Ivan Boxwell played important parts in this ceremony, as did Bill Smith, all fine citizens of the Dumas and Moore county community. One of the most impressive things about the hotel is the fact that it was built without aid from Washington. The people of the Dumas community can be justly proud of their accomplishment and the great contribution that they have made to the Panhandle, not only in the erection of a fine building, but in proving that progress can be made by a local community without the help of the federal government.

Everything in Washington is quiet at the present, but as most of you know, it could well be termed the calm before the storm. Should the president call a special session, the pot will certainly begin to boil. Should he not call a special session, the calm will be short-lived because there are many things to be done by the 83rd Congress.

Foundations For Friendliness

So much of the lack of friendliness in this world—so much of the misunderstanding between neighbors and between nations—come from the fact that we do not know each other. But let us worship together — let us work together for the betterment of our homes and community—and we begin to understand each other. Today churches of every creed are cooperating in behalf of greater tolerance, greater good-will and greater understanding. Join your friends in the church of your choice each Sabbath.

juiciest, and most fish-enticing specimens we could find. And when securing these we headed for the streams — and sure enough those worms outweighed the wind and atmosphere disadvantages—and luck was with us for a change.

to CL: "Robbie Osborn and Jim Carl Lillard went for a spin Tuesday on Robbie's gasoline-powered wagon."

We like to see youngsters with ingenuity—and certainly the little red wagon as power-rigged by Robbie is ingenious to say the least.

Next week's issue will be the "back-to-school" edition of The Friona Star.

We urge all organizations and churches that have any change of programs or any special activities that need to be publicized in conjunction with the opening of school to let The Star know so that these announcements may be incorporated in this issue.

Also merchants who stock any item used by the student, whether its clothing, food, school supplies, or whatnot, to place their advertisements early. This will give the parents and the college students a few days to study the offerings of each merchant before the actual school trek begins.

BRIDGE CLUB MET

Couple's Bridge Club met Monday night at the clubhouse with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bainum and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ethridge as hosts and hostesses.

Bill Stewart won low score and Mrs. Wesley Foster won the bingo prize.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Pudge Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knox, Charles Allen and Bill Stewart.
