

First Cotton Ginned

First bale of cotton delivered locally this season arrived Saturday, exactly one year to the day since first bale of last year. Delivered to the Mills & Fleming Gin, the cotton was grown by J. C. Redwine farming south of Hub. His yield has been guessed from 1 1/2 to 2 bales per acre. Friona Chamber of Commerce President Dan E. Arledge is shown here presenting Redwine a $25 check as award.

The Man on the West Loop offers this: "Is it possible for a man to make an idiot of himself without knowing it?" "Not if he has a wife!"

Dick Habbinga asks that we pass on his appreciation for cooperation of everyone who participated in the parade Wednesday. Dick is one of the most enthusiastic and hardest of workers at events of this kind, and we kinda think he deserves some posies also.

Grade School Principal John Parish reported that the fly situation at grade school is somewhat improved this week, and to date he has killed 8,932. We think he's bragging just a little because he's using a rubber band—

The hospital manager, Jimmy Baxter, has asked us to again publish the telephone numbers of each doctor can be reached at the hospital. If you will remember to dial these numbers, their work will be simplified and your wait will be shorter. Dial 3081 for Dr. Lee Spring or Dr. Lloyd Shackelford. Dial 2001 for Dr. Paul Spring or Dr. Tom Smith.

If you have any doubts about the rapid growth of Friona this should prove something. John Parish reported that to date (Wednesday) there have been 20 new students enrolled in the grade school. Sixteen of these students came in during the first week of school and the remaining four enrolled this week. This makes a total enrollment of 612 in the grade school.

Then there was this note received by the teacher: "Dear Ma'am: If all that Johnny learns in school is to swear, I'll keep him at home and teach him myself!"

And this for a true fact: The middle-aged lady was visiting her physician and upon learning she might expect a call from Mr. Stork, she broke into tears. The doctor comforted her and explained how she should be so happy. "Oh, it's not that," she said, "it's just having to go through P-TA again!"

Have you noticed the new fence inside the new fence at the football field? The outside link fence is certainly a wonderful improvement over the old barbed wire, and the new fence inside is to be four feet high, with the purpose of keeping everyone off the playing field and out of the path of the players. Coach Cook and the boys of the team are erecting this fence, and the link job was done by a former Frionian, Glenn Green, now living in Clovis.

Elroy Wilson calls our attention to the following very good comment on safety, entitled "Don't Run Over My Little Girl." We think it not only worth reprinting but worthy of attention of every one of us. We hope you read it.

Today, my daughter, who is 7 years old, started to school—she wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is "Coot," sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved "good-bye" and started off to the "hall of learning."

Tonight we talked about school! She told me about the girl who sits in front of her—the girl with the yellow curls—and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces—

She told me about her Teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head! We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital, unimportant things—then we studied spelling, reading, arithmetic, and then to bed.

She's back there now—sound asleep! But I can't be with her all the time. I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So, please help me look out for her! Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections and please remember that children run from behind parked cars! Please don't run over my little girl!

Barbeque Attracted Largest Crowds At County Fair; Quality of Exhibits High

Quality (not quantity) of livestock, exceptionally fine community exhibits, overflow crowds of over 2,000 at the free barbecue, and colorful though limited parade entries—that is the story of the Farmer County Fair held this year for the first time at the beginning of the week rather than the week-end. Entertainment for the occasion included rides supervised by the Lions Club at the fair barns, dunking board at the Legion Hall (netting some $62 for the Legion in the short time it operated during the barbecue), and the well-attended Legion dance.

Grand champion bull for the '54 fair was a 2-year-old Hereford exhibited by F. T. Schlenker. Reserve champion went to a Roy Williams Hereford bull.

Eighteen units marched in the parade climaxing the show festivities, Wednesday afternoon.

Led by the Friona Band, Friona Fire Department, and the colors carried by Dave Moseley and Ben Stokes, the parade included local riders, the Hereford band and Hereford Riders, Uncle John White in his buggy, clown antics, Legion float depicting an injured veteran being cared for through Legion and Auxiliary help, the Opel Jones-driven vehicle of ancient vintage, Farm Bureau float featuring County Queen Phyllis Fairchild, Woman's Club float, school floats, Brownies car, new hospital promotion float, various children with pets, vehicles, horses, etc., and the commercial exhibits.

FOOTBALL HERE FRIDAY

After the 32-6 defeat at the hands of Vega last week, the Friona Chieftains have held heap big war talks, have sent up countless smoke signals for added savvy, and in general have shrugged off the season opener with a big "Ugh," in their rugged preparations for the game here Friday night against highly-touted Portales Rams.

Much interest is being shown in this initial home appearance of the Redmen.

Actually the lop-sided score of last week does not present the whole picture; the team beset with injuries and inexperience actually outplayed the capable Vega eleven throughout the first half, in the opinion of many observers.

Starting lineup this week is expected to be the same as announced previously, with two exceptions, that of Dudley Bainum being out with injuries (dislocated shoulder), and the return of Jerry Houlette as fullback. The lineups of both Friona and Vega teams will be found in the programs distributed at the game and through the courtesy of the Santa Fe Elevator on the inside pages of this paper. (See picture of team published by other local boosters.)

Big Minnie Resumes Friona School Letter

DEAR UNCLE BERT:

School is well underway and the students are once more frequenting the halls of FHS. Vacation time is over so I thought I would write and tell you of the happenings that are making news at school.

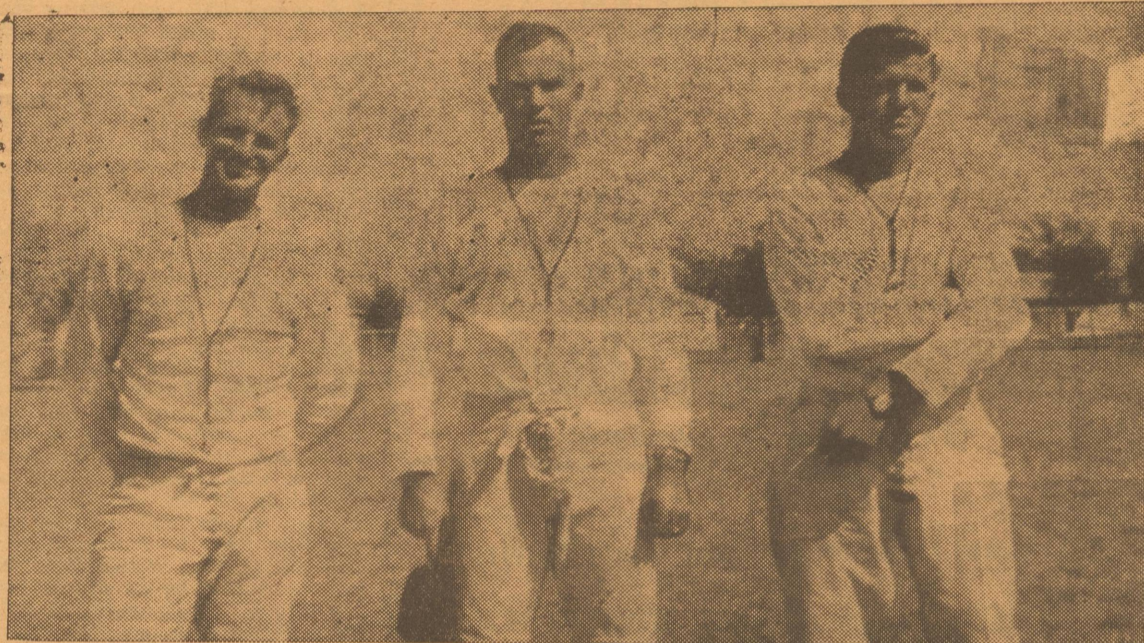

First of all, the football game with Vega was last Friday night. Though the final score was 32-6 in favor of Vega, there were some exciting plays. Jerry Chiles made the first touchdown. Jerry Houlette was unable to play because of an injury. The B-team will play Springlake

Thursday night, and Friday night, the first home game will be played for the A-team. It will be with Portales.

Speaking of football, have you noticed the new fence around the playing field? Everyone has been asked to please not cross this fence, for their own safety and that of the players.

The halls are covered in posters and signs this week, concerning the coming election of the Student Faculty Congress officers. Candidates for presidency are Don Lewis Coach Raymond Cook, flanked here by staff members Watkins and Lehnick, though non-committal regarding season outlook, have been giving the Chiefs the works in preparation for Portales.

Deniese Magness Is Band President

At a meeting Monday morning, members of the Friona High School Band elected their new officers for the new school year. Deniese Magness was elected president; Elizabeth Grubbs, vice-president; Don Lewis, secretary; treasurer; and Gladys Baxter, reporter. Doris McFarland and Don Reeve were named Band Sweethearts. Band parents will be Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Beaton and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reeve.

During the past week the band has made a trip to Vega for the game between Friona and Vega, Wednesday, and will play at the game here Friday night between Friona and Portales. On Saturday the band will go to Dimmitt to march in the Castro County fair parade and will attend the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dixon took their son, Jim, to College Station Thursday where he will attend Texas A. & M. College. They returned to Friona Friday night.

Patterson Makes Good Use of Surplus Spuds; Gives to Boys Ranch, Girlstown

A lot of the world surplus problems might well be solved to the benefit of mankind if more people could follow the example set this month by O. T. (Pat) Patterson, our friend living some 10 miles east. Faced with a surplus of potatoes, Pat set to work disposing of them where needed. Boys' Ranch was given 100 sacks of the spuds, and a truck load of the boys came to the field Monday of this week to load the truck with the free potatoes in Patterson.

Then Pat looked around and found Girls' Town at Whiteface could use some starch, so 100 sacks went there. Another load was given to the Boles Orphan's Home at Greenville, with the local Church of Christ paying the freight to destination.

The following item appeared in the Greenville Banner regarding some of Pat's activities:

GREENVILLE BANNER (Special) "There's an old song that goes: 'Potatoes are cheaper.' Well, for members of the Banner staff they were cheaper today and all because of the thoughtfulness and generosity of an old friend, Pat Patterson of Friona, formerly of the Jacobia community in Hunt County.

Pat, who has been living in West Texas the past four years, and who is a faithful Banner subscriber, drove by the office in a big truck and dropped off two 100-pound bags of spuds which are about the finest things you ever saw. And he had just unloaded 100 bags—over 10,000 pounds of spuds, all free, at Boles Home, south of Greenville.

Now farming 630 acres near Friona, Pat tells me that he is making a fine crop—his cotton will probably yield a bale to the acre. Last year he produced 188 bales. "I left here four years ago after the last crop failure, and now I'm making in one year what it used to take me five years to produce," Pat said.

Pat put 32 of his productive a into potatoes. "Looks like the p is about to turn into spuds," said. He still had a number of 1 in his truck when he left Greenville for Friona. "Think I'll give to Boys Ranch, and if I want more all they have to do pick them up in my field."

Irrigation is responsible for the fine yields on Mr. Patterson's farm. He has four wells and plenty of water for his crops and livestock. "High now," he said, "I've had the wettest winter I ever saw—enough extra water to grow rows to provide for ten years." Anyway, our thanks to Pat Patterson for remembering the spuds are mighty good.

reflected that there is now in the employment of the Executive Agencies of the Federal Government 2,332,223 employees. This total does not include the major portion of foreign nationals employed in U. S. Government activities abroad. That is, in addition to the above figure of 2,332,223 civilian employees, your government is also hiring 401,647 foreign nationals working for U. S. Military Agencies overseas. One hundred seventeen thousand, eight hundred and ninety-four of these are in Germany; 172,708 in Japan; 93,880 in Korea; 194 in Libya; 15,911 in Ryukus; 392 in Saudi Arabia and 668 in Trinidad. Of these, 305,094 are in the employ of the Army; 76,303 in the Air Force, and 20,250 in the Navy.

In a previous newsletter, I called to your attention the cash balance that has been carried by the Treasury Department in private banks in this country. This cash balance plus other cash on hand, but not in private banks, has been approximating in recent months around 5 1/2 billion dollars. This simply means that, although the national debt has been somewhere around 274 1/2 billion dollars in recent months, actually the net amount we would be in debt, if we used this cash to pay off part of the public debt, would be some 269 billion dollars. The Congress recently authorized an additional 6 billion dollars rise in the debt ceiling which increases the debt ceiling from the present ceiling of 275 billion dollars to 281 billion dollars. I regret to tell you that the public debt has been rising month by month. On June 30, 1952, which was the end of the fiscal year for 1952, the national debt was 259 billion dollars. At that time, we had cash on hand in an amount approximating 9 billion dollars. This meant, that at that time, the net debt would be around 250 billion dollars. On December 31, 1952, the national debt was 267 billion dollars, and we had on hand at that time approximately 6 1/2 billion dollars in cash, which made the net debt somewhere around 261 1/2 billion dollars. The most recent figures available show that debt will continue to increase and that securities will be issued to absorb the additional 6 billion dollars authorized by Congress. Should this be done, it will mean that in the very near future, the national debt will reach an all-time high. In other words, a record is in the making. Heretofore, the highest public debt ever reached was on February 28, 1946, at which time the people of this country owed $277,972,315,345.00.

The monthly reports for July to the Committee on the Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures

This country is presently faced with probably one of the gravest foreign situations since immediately prior to World War II. The key to the entire situation lies in Europe. That is, if the problem that exists today in Europe, and has existed for many centuries, can be solved and worked out, it could well determine whether or not we have peace for the next several decades. Italy and France definitely do not want to see a re-armed Germany, but as an alternative, they have the Russian threat on their doorsteps. Russia is definitely playing this situation to the hilt in the international political chess game. Germany is in fact recovering from ravages of World War II and will, no doubt, continue. People who are returning to this country from social and business visits to the continent, almost without exception, tell me that Germany is showing, by far, the greatest progress of any country on the continent in so far as rehabilitating herself is concerned. Whether or not Germany is re-armed is a matter that is going to have to be faced in the very near future. You will recall that after World War I and during a period of disarmament, Herman Goering, by the use of gliders, built up the Luftwaffe, one of the most effective Air Forces in the history of mankind. Relatively speaking, this was accomplished in a very short time, when it is compared with the results attained. It was this Air Force that literally knocked out the entire continent of Europe, both east and west of Germany. If we are to prevent a repetition of the history that has been written during your lifetime and mine, we must face facts, and we must deal with them now. The foreign situation must be strengthened, and it must be strengthened immediately; otherwise, we are going to find ourselves with very few and very weak allies.

More Roads - Less Politicing Seems Reasonable Course

EDITORIAL

A friend this week called our attention to editorial comment in a neighboring paper wherein this editor and the local county commissioner were referred to in thinly veiled innuendoes as being guilty of a gamut of sins, from "misunderstanding" to seditious plottings.

And all because of true facts regarding equitable road planning within Parmer County.

Two weeks ago we commented in this column regarding a letter prepared by parties unknown to us, signed by the county judge and three commissioners—and then and only then brought to our own commissioner for signing; a letter prepared without Mr. Osborn's knowledge and brought to him by parties connected in no legal capacity with the commissioner's court!

It is superfluous to reiterate we are for more roads, sensible road planning, and unified front in our dealings with down-state engineers and boards.

To say that solemn effort has been made throughout the county in this direction would call for a good bit of pondering, head scratching and finger-crossing on our part before answering in the affirmative. Too many on-record letters and off-record caucuses weaken any statement otherwise.

Friends, we have never known a county that accomplished much that did not go about its business in a business-like manner, tending to county business IN COMMISSIONERS MEETINGS duly publicized to all commissioners, and not in huddles across the street or in caboots with distinct factions.

Imagine in the instance at hand—some county officials reported to be upset by any allusions to "the letter," when the letter was presented Commissioner Osborn OUTSIDE of either regular or irregular meeting, by a man representing himself as a chamber of commerce worker in the far corner of the county!

We were taken to task for assuming that Number 5 project in the letter (road north from Friona to Harrison Highway) meant Number 5, and to be considered in Number 5 priority! There evidently are some commentators so naive as to believe we swallow the story that "Number 5" could and would be most welcome as Number 1 project—that order of road building was immaterial—that most likely the reason for Farwell workers (outside of the commissioners court or county government) bringing this letter to our commissioner was to speed the Friona road. A beautiful story; can Utopia be upon us?

The opening request (Number 1) was:
1—We request that the Lazbuddie road be completed to the county line, as the first road project in the county.

Of this we are in favor, heartily.

We only trust that the highway department recipients of the letter, did not gather that anything at all regarding precedence was intended in the subsequent numbering of 2, 3, 4 and 5. And poor fellows, they likely even thought the epistle was prepared over the conference table after open discussion by the commissioners in regular meeting.

Before we can give credence to any genuine effort for county-wide equity in roads, we shall have to see the handwriting in commissioners court meetings, prepared and executed by sincere men working together, without the aid of clever or more intelligent counsel or axe-grinding outside influences.

Our purpose in repeated comments on county affairs has certainly been without aim to create disunity; rather we do believe it well to point out existing disunity and press for improvements in the field of good works. We have understood our responsibility in reporting the facts—asking for remedial measures when we believed such necessary, offering a pat on the back at other times in equal sincerity.

Such is our duty to the subscribers for whom we publish, and shall continue to publish, unshackled by any illusions or involvements incurred as "Official Publication" of any county. When we print for the county, we charge commercial rates, printing exactly as the party orders, with the subject matter of no concern to us; but when we print The Star, FOR OUR SUBSCRIBERS, you can depend on our printing the truth as we best can discern it. As for the "official" handle on Texas newspapers, it merely is a questionably shrewd promotional allusion at the most, and otherwise a panacea for countless "ifs" or too often mere food for the egotist who waves the banner. In Parmer County it came upon personal solicitation from the paper carrying the line, and not from a court meeting out awards and honors from a contrite heart.

On roads: Road counts are a matter of record in the files of highway department officials and in letters received locally. Facts and figures are hard to replace, and we believe few injustices will be incurred if Parmer County roads are improved in accordance. We ask nothing else, but plead for this equitable improvement program with every facility at our command.

and Mickey Ready, and candidates for the office of vice-president are Carol Blackburn and Harold Taylor. The campaign is one of the most exciting highlights of the year, even though it isn't quite so heated as other political campaigns. Class officers were elected last week. Thought you might be interested in who they are so I'll jot them down. Seniors: Gordon Wright, president; Dudley Bainum, vice-president; Deann Buske, secretary; Evelyn Ray, treasurer; and Bennie Grubbs, parliamentarian. Juniors: Donald Petty, president; Joe Allen, vice-president; Ann Mc-

Kee, secretary-treasurer; and Billy Parker and Charles Kirk, sergeants-at-arms. Sophomores: Phyllis Treider, president; Juanita Fulks, vice-president; Barbara Deaton, treasurer; Wesley Barnett, secretary; Don McMahan, sergeant-at-arms; and Patsy Anthony, reporter. Freshmen: Betty Agee, president; Nolan Johnson, vice-president; Weldon Fairchild, treasurer; and Phyllis Dean and O'Neill Greeson, parliamentarian. The school booth at the fair won first. The display was of representative work of different departments with special emphasis on teaching tools and school equipment. Different uniforms were exhibited and also grade school handwork. Miss Smith reported that the exhibit of protozoa attracted the most attention.

Gracious, Uncle Bert, you should see all of the new students. They are: Marty Ann Carthel from Clovis, New Mexico; Larnie Glen Blake, Deadow; Betty Bradley, Melrose, New Mexico; Deloris Fleming, Burkburnett; Bobby Hix, Bovina; Lawrence Odell Ivey, Amarillo; Don McMahan, Plainview; Cecil Mandrell, Bovina; Roy Mack Nazworth and Calvin Nazworth, Sweetwater; James D. Rains, Marshall, Arkansas; Jerry Flynn Darby, Lazbuddie; and Albert O'Neil Greeson, Lazbuddie.

If you have visited the cafeteria since school began, you will have noticed the two new stoves, new deep fryer, Coca Cola machine to keep the milk icy cold, and the new refrigerator and screen doors. The cafeteria women are certainly preparing good, well-balanced meals this year, which, of course, is nothing unusual.

Mr. J. P. Ready is the new bus foreman this year. Oh, yes, did you see the little bench built around the tree, in front of the high school? That was donated by the senior class last year.

If you see any parents or teachers, be sure and remind them of the PTA meeting that is to be Thursday night.

The band is off to a good start this year. They looked wonderful in the parade Wednesday but will look even more so when they get their new uniforms. The 18th of this month they go to Dimmitt to march in the parade there.

Well, I must stop and study the foreign language I am taking this year—short-hand.

Your loving niece,
Big Minnie.

Annie Dukes - Billy Moore Wedding Vows Read Tuesday in Local Church

The Friona Methodist Church was the scene of a wedding Tuesday night, September 7, at 7:00 o'clock, when Miss Annie Dukes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Dukes of Friona, became the bride of Billy Moore. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore of Dawn, Texas.

Mr. M. B. McKinney, minister of the Friona Church of Christ, read the double ring ceremony following vocals sung by Miss Joyce Miller. The numbers were "Promise Me," "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Denise Magness played a prelude of wedding music and accompanied Miss Miller.

The altar decorations included baskets of white gladioli and mums, flanked by candelabra and palms. The widows were decorated with lighted candles and palm leaves.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon lace and tulle over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her veil of nylon tulle was held by a tiara of orange blossoms. She wore ballerina satin slippers with embroidery scroll. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamered with white satin ribbons and orange blossoms.

Miss Lettie Dukes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an orchid organdy dress over taffeta, patterned from the bride's gown and carried a nosegay of yellow asters streamered with yellow ribbon. The bridesmaids were Wedia Nell Day and Wanda Beaty, who wore yellow organdy dresses and carried nosegays of orchid and pink asters with orchid ribbons.

Bryant Dukes and Weldon Nelson were the candlelighters and ushers. Paul Myers, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dukes chose a dress of off-white with pink and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a navy crepe dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Reception

A reception was held in the Methodist Annex following the ceremony and a number of out-of-town guests were present. The bride's table was decorated with a white lace cloth, silver and crystal appointments and yellow and pink carnations. Portions from the wedding cake and punch were served to guests by La Vern and Jennett Pope, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Paulie Myers, sister of the groom. Wilma Chunn, sister of the groom, presided over the bride's book.

For the wedding trip to the mountains of New Mexico, the bride wore a white and black tweed suit styled with dolman sleeves and pencil slim skirt. Her accessories were white and black and she wore an orchid corsage.

Buffet Snapper Starts Progressive Club Year

The Progressive Study Club began their new club year with a buffet supper at the Clubhouse on Monday night.

An Indian theme was carried out in the decorations of the club room and the tables. To gain entry the club members had to pass through an Indian tepee set up in the entrance.

The tables were beautifully decorated, each centered with an arrangement of gourds, maize heads, ears of corn and honeysuckle leaves, depicting Indian Summer. Plate favors were small felt meccasins trimmed with Indian beads. Place cards were small name plates attached to the tip of various colored feathers.

The welcome speech was given by the president, Gloria Knox.

Attending were Betty Baxter, Joyeline Costin, Jean Gore, Margie Herring, Gloria Knox, Emmarie Lehnick, Juanda Jerrell, Thelma Johnson, Billie Faye Parish, Sue Procter, Betty Rector, Lynn Roberts, Waneta Taylor, Audrey Terrell, Mamie Lou Welch and Avis White.

Farm Bureau Report

By RAYMOND EULER

Phyllis Fairchild, Farmer County's Farm Bureau Queen for this year, gives us reason again to hope we will have a winner in the district contest. The judges may view her differently, but we thought she rated at least a "place" among the eleven contestants appearing with her at Lubbock's KDUB-TV last Thursday night. By the time we write again we'll know more about this, because she appears this Saturday afternoon as a participant in the final district contest in the Hotel Lubbock. There will be a number of Farmer County people there hoping with and for Phyllis. Vogue Beauty Shop of Friona sponsored our queen in the county contest.

Please note that Farmer County and Texas Farm Bureau got the wheat acreage provision in the new farm bill. Your resolution last year asked, in effect, that wheat acreage allotments be handled in the same manner as cotton, in reference to acreage allotted but not planted. Lyndon Johnson was the Senator contacted by phone from College Station, August 6, concerning this provision. Your county president, A. J. Ellison, called the matter to J. Walter Hammond's attention. Within a few hours, the amendment requested was incorporated into the national farm program that was being considered. To most farmers, this single accomplishment will mean enough in one year to pay their Farm Bureau dues for a lifetime, and much more.

Do you know of a better place to invest $10.00 per year?

Here is a question for one of our congressmen: Why should he be "deeply disappointed" in the farm program just adopted when it is basically the program promoted under the direction of the largest organized group of farmers in the history of America? Whom may we ask, should it please?

Two or three that we know of are already making plans to go to New York in December on the Farm Bureau Special Train. The sounds like a very enjoyable eleven days between Ft. Worth and New York, including a day and night aboard a ship and a tour of Washington, D. C. The rates are low, too.

October is convention time. Farmer County Farm Bureau is going to have a part in some legislation affecting farmers. If you want to be sure it suits you, be there and vote "yes" or "no."

CONSIDER THIS: If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thine mouth. —Proverbs 30:32.

Winners in the doll contest sponsored by Ethridge-Spring Agency for the county fair were announced Tuesday afternoon.  In the most beautiful doll class, Linda Carol Beaty won first place and was awarded a Joan of Arc doll. Second place winner was Joe Beth Brummett, and third place went to Jimette McLean.
 In the most unique doll class, Cynthia Ann Guinn won first place honors and was given a John Alden doll. Nan Miller won second and Karen Turner placed third.
 Judged as the oldest doll was one entered by Mikie Welch, who was presented the first place award of a gay 90's doll.
 Second place winner was Carolyn Parker.

CATTLE SELL WELL,
STOCKERS STRONG

Fort Worth.—A big run of cattle appeared at Fort Worth and at other major markets as the mid-September marketing got under way last Monday. However, the buying power remained strong on cattle and prices were favorable.

Cows were fully steady and bulls also held fully steady. Slaughter steers and yearlings brought strong prices, with some fat steers and yearlings fro $22 to $25, the latter price for a short load of fed cattle from the State Home at Corsicana. This $25 price was the highest fed cattle price in some months at Fort Worth. Numerous loads of well finished steers sold from $20 to $22.

Stock and feeder demand remained strong and a load of fancy feeder calves weighing 513 pounds from P. R. Bonds of Tarrant County topped at $21, and their heifer mates sold at $18.75. Order buyers reported the numbers of high quality stockers and feeders was short of the demand for them from Corn Belt and Western feeding areas. Some of the plainer kinds of stocker and feeder steers drew strong prices.

Slaughter calves ruled weak to 50 cents lower with a top of $18 sparingly, and most sales from $17 downward of fat calves.

Sheep and lambs drew mostly steady prices except slaughter ewes were around 50 cents per hundred lower at Fort Worth, Monday. Fat lambs topped at $19 and feeder lambs drew $12 to $15. Some feeder lambs at $15 were considered stronger than comparable lambs sold late last week.

Slaughter ewes sold around $3 to $4, a few outside that range. Slaughter yearlings sold from $8 to $12.50, and old wethers drew $9.50 down. Old bucks sold around $3.

HOGS IN SHARP
PRICE ADVANCE

Butcher hogs moved up 50 to 75 cents per hundred at Fort Worth, Monday. Top hogs sold at $21 to $21.75, mostly at $21 on top hogs.

Less attractive butchers including fatbacks, cold bloods, lights and heavies were reported from $19 to $20.75.

Last week hogs had closed at $20.50, the lowest price of the year and also the lowest price since February of 1953 at this market.

Sows were 50 cents higher at 615 to $18.

The strong demand for stocker and feeder calves has been a firm prop under prices at the market at Fort Worth recently. The continued demand from principal feeding areas in the Corn Belt was bolstered by the predictions of a whopping corn crop this year. Fort Worth order buyers report more orders in hand than they can fill for the high grades.

In general, it is believed that feeding margins may be smaller this year than last, since stockers and feeders are currently selling $2 to $4 above a year ago. However, recent strength in the fat cattle market has been highly encouraging.

Stories of the drouth in Texas have been exaggerated in the minds of some of the mid-westerners who were at Fort Worth for the Aberdeen-Angus feeder calf sale last week. One Iowan cornered this writer and asked in surprise, "What's this, I thought all the cattle in Texas were thin?"

Apparently he thought that all the cattle in this section were staggering around virtually starved to death. Fact is that because of the supplemental feed they have had, most calves and cows coming to Fort Worth this year are heavier than normally is the case.

Feeder lambs coming to the Fort Worth yards are averaging 8 to 10 pounds heavier than normal this year. The reason? Not better pasture, but the supplemental feed the ranchers and farmers have been giving the stock.

In fact, some lambs in feeder flesh are too heavy to suit most of the feeder buyers, indicating they had more milk from the supplementally fed ewes than was expected. They also probably picked up some of the feed, too!

Glenn Reeve, Jr., left this week for Canyon where he will attend WTSC.

Vera Ann Jones is teaching this year at Lefors.
