Dentist we won't name: "I'm sorry, but I'm all out of gas." Pretty Little Thing in Chair: "Good grief! Do dentists pull that old stuff, too?"

Our thanks to Judge Smith for his news reports promptly made from the courthouse. He called us last Thursday immediately after the county commissioners, in special session, voted unanimously to guarantee right-of-way to the Texas Highway Department for the two Farmer farm-to-market roads authorized in late October.

Our friend on the East Side observes that it's a funny world wherein a man won't kiss his wife for years; yet he'll shoot the first man who does!

Then there was the Wag who returned here recently from an extended trip, eating in cafes along the way. "They're slicing ham so thin in some eating places that it has only one side—that's a fact!" he tells for the truth.

Seems to us that a lot of us owe Chamber of Commerce President Dan Ethridge an apology at least. A Chamber of Commerce meeting was called and given adequate publicity for Tuesday night of this week, with pre-Christmas planning among items on the agenda.

How many showed up? Only Dan! We would like to comment for several paragraphs on this, but will let our better judgment rule and wait until later. We recognize it is hard in a community of this size for full participation in all functions that merit our attendance. In our profession we recognize this as well as anyone. So many times we wish we could be at three places at once.

In the case at hand, we only hope the Retail Activities Committee, with full cooperation of the merchants, gives Dan some visible support with early consideration, at least, of an early program. And unless everyone of us, to the man, devotes more time to civic activity through an organized body such as our C. of C., then talk of development and progressive spirit, etc., is just so much hogwash.

Also we miss the old-fashioned Community Thanksgiving observances. We recall one held here not so long ago, in fact, that was well received. Believe it was held in the school auditorium two years ago with ministers of the town cooperating and contributing to the morning service.

Understand no community-wide program is planned this year. And some of the churches state no program is being planned at all for their group.

To many of us, Thanksgiving is one of the most sacred observances of the year. The spirit it represents, when saturated in the human heart, brings feeble souls in closer contact with things eternal and good.

With Christmastime now being so commercialized, with X-mas taking the place of CHRISTMAS for millions, can we afford to neglect any occasion for soul-searching and thanksgiving?

Farm Bureau Report

By RAYMOND EULER

We don't know how many yet, but several men, and some of their wives and children are on their way to Galveston for the 21st Annual Texas Farm Bureau Convention. We well remember the 1949 Convention in Dallas. Everyone attending stayed in the convention hotel. Since then, it has become increasingly more difficult to obtain rooms even in nearby hotels. Such are the consequences of the growth of an organization that attracts the interest of its constituents.

It is interesting to note that Farmer County has consistently reached its quota of membership each year since they have been assigned. We are somewhat past that now, but we expect a further increase this spring.

While we are gone, our office secretary, Letha Turner will, we are sure, render any service you may have need of in the office. Don't hesitate to call on her, because we think she can take care of just about any situation that may be presented to her.

Door to Door Salesmen On Increase in County

Door-to-door salesmen of magazines and an assorted line of gimmicks are on the increase in the area, housewives in Friona and surrounding communities have found in recent weeks.

Some of the sales are entirely legitimate; in other cases very unethical means, to say the least, have been used in high pressure selling and misrepresentation of facts.

Several housewives have reported young men selling magazines, appealing as "veterans who fought for you for three long years," and similar tales, some becoming very impolite and insulting.

Anyone having difficulty with questionable salesmen should contact the local Chamber of Commerce office or local law enforcement agencies immediately.

Commission Assures F-M Right of Way

Farmer County Commissioners met in special session last Thursday, canvassing the recent election returns and studying the new road program offered by the Texas Highway Commission.

The court unanimously voted to guarantee right-of-way to the commission on farm-to-market roads north and west of Friona and from Bovina west to the county line. Motion to the effect was made by Commissioner Forrest Osborn and seconded by C. H. Jefferson. Next step in the road building process will be engineering by the state, followed by right-of-way procurement, in all likelihood permitting actual construction sometime next summer.

Under the amendment voted in the November 2 election regarding terms of office within Texas coun-

Pack Meeting Attended By 70 Cubs and Parents

Some 70 Cub Scouts and parents were present at one of the more unique programs of that group, held in the Scout Hut last Thursday evening.

With theme for the month being "musical hoedown," a demonstration of hoedown music was afforded through the courtesy of a local group of musicians including Reelford Shirley, George Green, Smokey Mayfield of Dimmitt, and the small son of Shirley, using the assumed names of Clem, Lem, Jake and Buckshot.

Stunts were presented by Den 5 of the Cubs; Den 2 had charge of opening and closing ceremonies; Dens 3 and 1 supervised the games; and Den 4 led in the song service. Eight Bobcat awards were made; 3 Bears, 2 Lions, several silver arrow points, and one Webelos award going to Floyd Reeve for 3 years of Cub Scout work, making him eligible to enter Troop 56 of the Scouts.

Cub exhibits were displayed on the theme of "conservation." Next pack meeting will be on December 2, Cub Master Fred Barker, Jr., announces.

Interest Holds In Teen-Age Meetings

With interest mounting in the Teen-Twenty Club here, spokesmen for the group this week re-extended invitation for any parents and other interested adults to visit the socials, acting as sponsors when convenient.

Adult sponsors are present at every meeting, though the organization is operated solely for and by the un-married teenagers.

It was further pointed out that the club is primarily for single young people, and married couples are admitted to the socials only upon invitation of a card-holding member, and both man and wife must attend in such instances.

This Saturday night is regular social night for the group at the Legion Hall.

With a percentage of membership dues earmarked for contribution to worthy causes, the first donation has been made to the local Hospital Building Fund.

All-Out Fund Drive Is Launched To Enable Building New Hospital

Concentrated drive to secure all needed funds to start construction of a new building for the Farmer County Community Hospital will be launched this Friday night at a county workers dinner in the Friona school cafeteria.

Manager Jimmie Baxter stated today that of $50,000 needed for commencement of construction, $20,500 in cash has been given at this time, with $10,000 in pledges on the books.

County workers for the building fund will meet at 7:30 this Friday evening, and Mr. Steve Walters, member of the board of directors of the Texas Hospital Association, will be featured speaker. Then on Monday morning, the Friona workers will meet for a breakfast in the Methodist Church annex, signalling beginning of an all-day canvass of the city for added building funds. Every resident of Friona will be contacted during the day, according to plans announced.

With workers being able to devote just a few hours time each week, the hospital management has been most enthusiastic in urging and anticipating completion of the fund drive during the week.

Charter Is Granted Friona Credit Union

Organization of the Friona Federal Credit Union will be completed in a meeting next Tuesday evening, with all interested parties urged to be present.

Federal Charter No. 9843 was granted to the local union on November 5.

Acting Secretary Lucy Jones states that election of officers will be of prime importance at the Tuesday night meeting. Also, functions of the savings and loan organization will be explained to those attending.

To be elected is a board of five directors, a credit committee of three, supervisory committee of three. A nominating committee named at initial meeting of the group will submit names for the offices, and nominations are invited from the floor. Serving on the nominating committee are Geneva Williams, Henry White and S. S. Pritchard.

Mrs. Jones points out that the credit union is a savings and loan organization, federally supervised but owned by people who reside in Farmer County or within a 15-mile radius of Friona, being operated for their service.

A similar organization at Hereford is said to be quite successful, now being largest of its kind in the nation. In 1953, it made loans to 688 members totaling over $300 thousand. It had loaned over $1 million since its founding in 1936, with a loan charge off during its entire life of $1,675.19.

Complete reports urged before the zone meeting at Friona in December. Commanders Joe Brummett emphasizes. Plans are underway for the annual work of the Legion in providing the Christmas sacks of candy, etc., to be given by Santa the fourth week in December.

The Friona Student Council will present the program next Thursday evening at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

FRIONA ITEMS FROM THE SCHOOLS

Dear Uncle Bert

Monday night, the Braves went to Dimmitt to scalp those Bobcats in a hair-raising entanglement. Didn't you think it was exciting? That hilarious play, "Finders Creepers," that everyone is talking about will be staged Friday, November 12. There will be both an afternoon and evening performance. I imagine that Wilber and Hercules will give you about as many fits as they do the cast.

Friday night, the Adrian girls will be here to play basketball. Mr. Ford thinks our team is really going to deal those girls some misery.

Approximately 60 FHA girls attended church Sunday at the Congregational church. This event marked the closing of National FHA week.

The Senior class has received the proofs of their Senior pictures. Isn't it funny how pretty some people think they are until they have their picture made? Mr. Melton from the Melton studio in Clovis will be here Friday to take favorite pictures and group pictures for the annual.

The annual staff was chosen recently. The members of it are: Don Lewis, editor; Geraldine Phipps, FHA; Lawrence Blake, FFA; Carol Blackburn, sports; Bennie Grubbs, music; Petty Ashcraft, Zelma Beaty, and Denise Magness, favorite; Patsy Anthony, advertising; Dean Buske, class editor; Gerald Floyd and Randall Allen, photographer; and Laura McClain, art. This is to be the greatest annual ever! It is to have 136 pages. The advertising section is to be changed completely. It will be featured with group pictures from the various departments. Approximately 243 students have been sold.

Two new students enrolled in high school Monday. They are: Jesse Flores from Waco, and La Dayne Moore from Sulphur, Oklahoma.

The Sophomore class and the Thespian club went to Amarillo, Monday afternoon. They saw a Little Theater production of "Julius Caesar."

Tuesday night, November 23, the Junior class will present their play, "An Adorable Imp." The curtain will rise at 8 p. m. and two and one-half hours of well-balanced entertainment is in store for all who attend. For a long time, it is very doubtful who is the imp, but this matter is soon taken care of. Be sure and be on time, Uncle Bert. You won't want to miss one single minute of the fun!

The girls' band shoes finally arrived, but it seems that they were not what Mr. Fry ordered, so they will have to be sent back. Everyone is patiently awaiting the arrival of the new band suits.

The unsatisfactory reports are being mailed to the parents this week. Too many students are failing in one subject or more. The traffic in the halls of the Friona High School is so complicated that now, traffic laws have to be obeyed. This has proved to avoid many collisions and students being late to class.

I'll see you in the funny papers. Love, Big Minnie.

Sanitone Service Featured at Gib's

Gib's Cleaners of Friona has announced procurement of the Sanitone cleaning process for use in their plant here, bringing to Friona the nationally-known cleaning method which means a new standard most enthusiastically endorses.

The dealers here installed considerable special equipment in conjunction with the switch to Sanitone, all of which is now in use. All garments sent to their firm are given the full Sanitone treatment, Gib reports.

Details are being carried in advertisements elsewhere in the Star.

All Offices Occupied In Legion Building

Full occupancy of the Legion building in Friona was effected this week with the rental of office space to Steve Messenger, accountant and income tax specialist. Legion Commander Joe Brummett reports that the office is being redecorated and finished throughout.

Also using the Legion building is the Soil Conservation District, the Chamber of Commerce, Retail Credit Association, City of Friona and the Pioneer Gas Company.

AUXILIARY DRIVE

The Friona American Legion Auxiliary is beginning its drive for new and former members this week and hopes to complete the drive by November 11, or soon thereafter. Application for membership or dues can be sent either to Mrs. Ruth Stevick or Mrs. Sam Williams of the membership committee.

AT AMARILLO MEET

Several Frionans attended a district meeting of Credit Unions held in Amarillo, Tuesday night. Going from here were Mrs. A. H. Boatman, Mrs. Minnie Hall, Mrs. Lucy Jones, Bill Woodley, Harry McCauley, Bonnie Wilson and Henry White.

- Washington Views

To the People of the 18th District:
THANKS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH

Words are, of course, wholly inadequate to express my deep feeling of gratitude to the fine people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas. I wish it were humanly possible for me to grasp the hand of each of you and to say "Thank You" for this great honor that you have again bestowed upon me. I deeply regret that I had to return to Washington immediately after the election, but one of my children had suffered an accident just before the election, in which he almost lost an eye. Thanks to Almighty God and the child's wonderful mother, the eye was saved, and the boy is progressing nicely.

WHAT DOES THE ELECTION MEAN?

The columnists and commentators who were trying to predict the outcome of the election are now busy trying to predict the results of the outcome of the election. The truth is that the American people have spoken in a true democratic form, and they will expect this government to be kept in balance. I feel that the first session of the 84th Congress will prove to be a most stabilizing influence. It will prove definitely that true statesmanship still exists.

Much has been said about the dynamic program of the President, but no one seems to have taken time to say just what that program is, or what laws he has in mind. In order to determine whether or not the program is dynamic, we must first find out what the program consists of. If it consists of proposals that will prevent the exploitation of one segment of our economy by another, proposals that can and will result in trimming government expenditures, proposals that will definitely and effectively deal with communist and fascist transgressions in or on our government, proposals that will serve to maintain the independence of the three separate branches of our government, proposals that will serve to strengthen this nation's position of world leadership and similar proposals, he can expect to have the full backing of the many members of Congress with whom I am personally acquainted. However, on the other hand, if attempts are made by some power-seeking groups and individuals to have enacted into law proposals that will grant favoritism, concessions, co-operation of the majority of the members will not be forthcoming, certainly it should not be.

QUEER QUIRKS IN THE NEWS

King Tribhubana, the King of Nepal, the little kingdom adjoining northern India, plans a visit to the United States with both of his wives. This is reported to have caused some headaches in the State Department in view of Section 212 of the 1952 Immigration Act, which provides for exclusion of aliens who are polygamists, or who practice polygamy or advocate the practice of polygamy. The headache was cured when it was found that the Attorney General may admit any persons otherwise inadmissible, when he believes that it is in the national interest to admit them.

Reports have it that West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer really made a hit. Although he could not speak our language, he knew how to shake hands in it. Columnist George Nixon reports that when the National Press Club's Italian-

Swiss chef, Alfonse Zappelloni, came out of the kitchen to signal the waiters, the Chancellor gave him a firm handshake. There is nothing as catching as good fellowship.

THE QUEEN MOTHER OF ENGLAND

The Queen Mother of England arrived in town and is a guest at the White House. On Tuesday, the British Embassy will be the scene of a reception in her honor. Mrs. Rogers and I will have the pleasure of attending, and I will try to give you the highlights of the affair later on. She is a very gracious person of whom England is justly proud.

OTHER EDITORS SAY:

THE GREAT HOAX

Lambertville (N.J.) Beacon (Ind.) Assistant United States Attorney General William F. Thompkins, in an address to the Camden County Bar Association voiced one of the questions which The Beacon has wondered about for many years.

Why is it, his and our question is, that whenever an ex-Communist testifies against his former conspirators, American newspapers, especially those holding sway in New York City, begin attacking that individual unmercifully?

Tompkins said he expects the Communist press to set up a clamor "but when such a characterization is utilized as a matter of policy by large metropolitan dailies, it is incumbent upon the Department of Justice to clearly and unequivocally set forth its position with regard to such witnesses and to make it clear the necessity for such testimony against the Communist cause."

The former United States Attorney from New Jersey continued, "If it were not for the use of such witnesses in criminal prosecutions, the crimes of such as Alger Hiss and Julius and Ethel Rosenberg would have gone unpunished."

In our estimation, Mr. Tompkins voiced only one of the questions which must be answered. The others are: Why do some American newspapers always protest whenever any attempt is made to uncover Communist subversion? Why do editorial writers immediately smear anyone and everyone connected with such a probe? Why is news slanted so as to reflect adversely on those trying to uncover traitors in our midst?

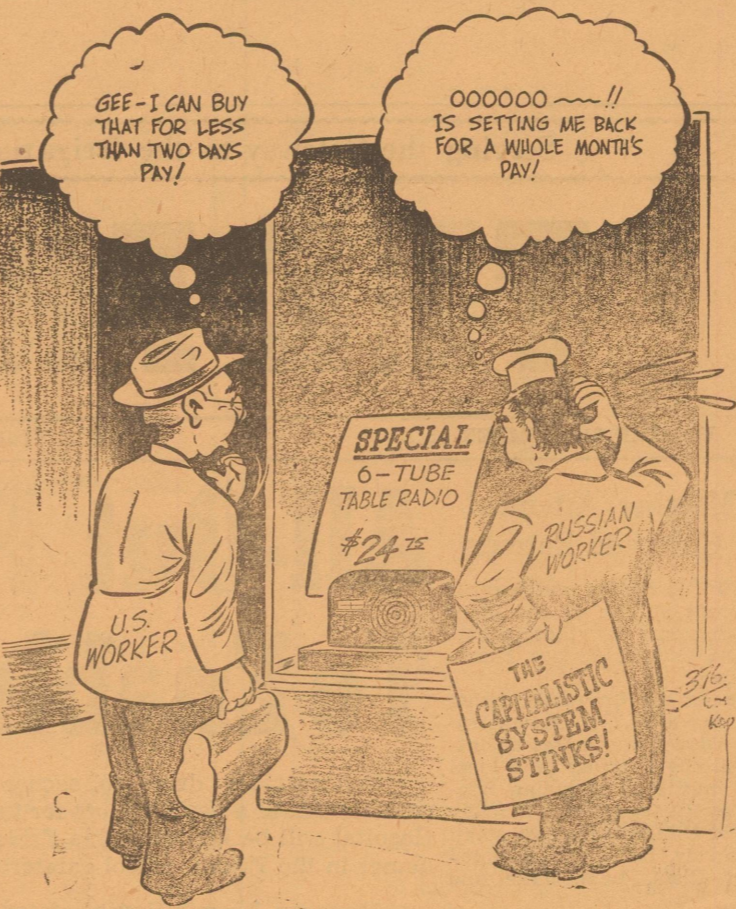

While we admit that we do not have all the facts available to the editors of large metropolitan dailies to see "the big picture," we feel that knocking down anyone who voices an opinion contrary to the Communist line will force us to suspect that not all so-called American newspapers are in the hands of people friendly toward our form of government.

Is it possible that traitors have infiltrated the ranks of the American press? Are Americans becoming victims of a subtle form of brainwashing through the mediums of the press, radio, and television. Whether it is the intention of clever schemers to subject the American people to brainwashing or not is beside the point. The result is the same.

All committees seeking to ferret subversion out of government are considered by the American public as contemptible. Can you imagine that? The forces working toward the preservation of our government are greeted with derision by the very people the committees seek to protect.

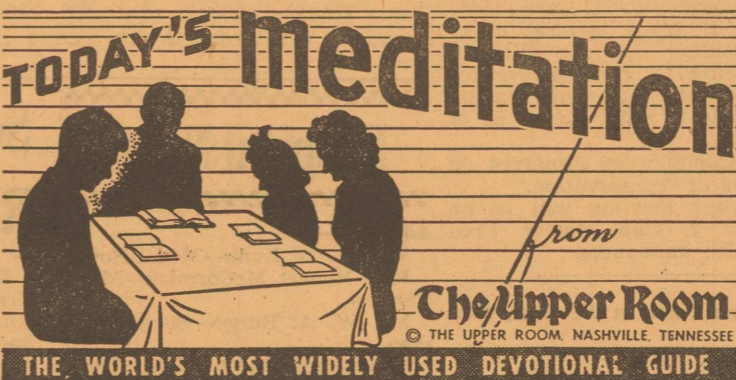

Realizing the danger anti-Communist committees are to Communism, clever men could be strategically placed in our news disseminating agencies by the Communists where they could successfully use the red herring technique to magnify the normal personal, human faults of the chairmen of these committees to the detriment of the real issues. Photographers could take their pictures only when the chairman seems to be grim, caricatures could show him in need of a shave and reporters could write only what fits their ideas of what they think their editors want, until by the end of the hearings, we have not an ordinary human being who can get up on the wrong side of the bed on a morning but an ogre who should be slain by the mob.

Americans have been fooled since Martin Dies first took on the job of destroying Communism in our country and they will continue being duped as long as they accept everything they read and hear as gospel. We Americans believe that everyone is inherently honest but we should also realize that Communist techniques are based on deceit and should be rejected.

The Real Stinker - Communism

Read I Thessalonians 5:12-22
Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. (Matthew 5:9).

We remember with gratitude those who have given their lives for peace. The best expression we can make of our appreciation for their sacrifice is to have within us that which makes for peace. If we show our longing for peace in everything we do and think, we would go a long way toward a peaceful, more Christian world.

Christ said, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." He made it clear that this was the second great commandment. Yet it is one of the most widely disregarded of all Christ's teachings! We remember our neighbor includes every person anywhere on the face of the earth.

Truly to love all people means that we would do no wrong to anyone. To be conscious of this thought is only the beginning. The next step, which is harder, is to practice Christ-like love to all, to serve anywhere we are, to help anyone we can, and to love all with a deep, true love.

Prayer

Dear Lord, help us to cleanse our hearts of our foolish, hateful ways, and replace them with a strong Christian love for all people. We pray in the name of Christ, who would have us pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven... Amen."

Thought for the Day
Let us learn to love all men as Christ loves us!

AUSTIN. — Except in Dallas County, Texas voters heavily backed the Democrats and the 11 constitutional amendments at the November 2 election.

In Dallas County, Republican Bruce Alger pushed into the win column, defeating Wallace Savage, former state Democratic chairman, in the fifth district race for Congress.

Among amendments to the constitution, Texans okayed women jurors, more pay for state legislators, hired terms for office holders to four years and upped expenditures for the state's senior citizens.

Governor Allan Shivers and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson came through with heavy majorities.

Johnson Cooperative

In Austin for the election, Johnson, now assured of majority leader of the senate, declared that the Democrats would continue their cooperation with President Eisenhower.

Moxe Taxes Inevitable

Legislative tax talk continued with two state officials believing the convening legislature will have to wrestle one way or another with taxation measures.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reports that spending from the general fund now exceeds the income rate.

School Poll Stopped

A survey of high school students to determine feelings about segregation was stopped by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd after the poll was made public. Shepperd said he halted surveys in Marshall and Waco high schools because public attention was influencing answers.

Results were to be used as part of the brief he is preparing for the Supreme Court in the public school segregation matter.

Auto Inspections

By waiting until deadline time draws near, Texas motorists are causing a potential log jam at official auto inspection stations.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Texas Department of Public Safety director, said that Texans are now 100,000 behind last year's figure. That means that motorists will soon start stacking up at inspection stations.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

It is difficult to ever establish accurate figures on nations unemployment.

But whether total now stands at 3 or 6 million is minor point against long range prospect, because the climate for increased unemployment exists.

A significant study was made recently by British economist Graham Hutton. While he probably did not read into his findings warning to American economic health his figures appear accurate.

Hutton states, "50 years ago an American industrial worker turned out roughly the same amount in a day as his opposite number in Britain, Germany or France, and enjoyed broadly the same standard of living. Today he turns out from 2 to 5 times as much and 8 hours work buys for an American from 1 1/2 to 4 times the quantity of goods that 8 hours work buys for a British or West European worker."

Thus to be equal with 1904, average American industrial worker today should be able to buy 20 to 25% more goods.

Of course, many say American worker with autos, television, et al, has world's highest living standard, so why the concern?

While this point is not argued, on the other hand, as every businessman knows, you cannot in the long run beat percentages. And thereby hinges the concern.

As it appears from this study, 20 to 25% of U. S. workers' productive capacity is being siphoned off. Naturally, while a British economist would not touch upon this subject, it is quite likely these siphoned off amounts are about equal to cost of present U. S. multi-billion dollar foreign aid programs.

Paraphrasing Gen. MacArthur's "In war there is no substitute for victory," in a free economy there is no substitute for consumption.

Detroit auto plants, Chicago television plants, New England textile mills cannot bite people to turn out goods for which there are no buyers.

It is a delicate balance, that is easily upset by development of even a few monopolies, even a limited import of cheaply produced foreign goods, or by government diverting a part of productivity to world hoarding.

The American system does not encompass principle of "ever normal granary" but is rather expressed by the ever full garbage can. And this latter symbol of waste has been focal point for rallying of socialists and communists in and out of Washington who have worked for so many years to march America in lock-step with rest of world.

Perhaps government owned monopolies, or government encouraged monopolies can so operate there is no waste.

But as all dictorships have found, including the Kremlin, in an economy without waste, eventually there develops a surplus of people which must either be supported at state expense, liquidated, or sent to Siberia. But for over 20 years American leadership has failed to understand fact that free American enterprise system cannot be compared to anything else existing in world so lacking courage to stand alone, every effort is made to get American system to conform to rest of world. It's something akin to a doctor injecting himself with tuberculosis germs so he can be just as sick as his patient.

The mural, largest of its type in Texas, will be completed early next month. Each panel will feature the likeness of a man or woman who made a significant contribution to the development of West Texas. Actual work on the mural was begun in February, 1953.

Progressive Club Visited Museum

Eight members of the Progressive Study Club went to Lubbock, Tuesday, November 9, for a tour of the Texas Tech Museum. Korean Missions Given Attention

The Methodist Committee on Missions met in the local church Monday evening, mapping plans for the mission program and offering this Sunday. "Missions to Korea" will be emphasized in Rev. Sherrill's message and in the offering at the morning worship hour. Attending the Monday night session were Mission Chairman Mrs. Thelma Ford, Mrs. A. A. Crow, Mrs. J. H. Boyle, Mr. R. A. Hilton and Rev. Sherrill.

Methodists in America are being asked to contribute generously to the Bishop's Appeal for rehabilitation of destroyed or badly damaged Methodist churches and other church-related institutions in South Korea. Their schools have suffered relatively less damage but few escaped completely and some lost one or more buildings by shelling. The Korean Methodist Church, under the leadership of its dauntless bishop, Dr. Hyungki J. Lew, now proposes to restore these destroyed or damaged buildings. At the same time it plans to carry the gospel to every corner of South Korea in evangelistic effort, and in the erection of new places of Christian worship. This program calls for the reconstruction or the erection of 763 church buildings within the next three years. Pastors and other workers homes, schools, hospitals, and social settlements are also a part of this magnificent program of rehabilitation.

Korean Methodism has established 127 new congregations within the past fifteen months and has now a compliment of over 700 full-time pastors and women evangelists. In spite of the war, more than 25 per cent of its churches are entirely self-supporting. And the percentage is rapidly rising.

The cost of this reconstruction task will naturally be great. Nevertheless, the Koreans themselves will raise one-third of the total need. American soldiers in Korea will raise 30 per cent, and the remaining 60 per cent must come from abroad. The Methodist churches of America are asked to cooperate with Korean Methodism and with their missionaries in Korea in providing these funds.

To meet the needs for relief and rehabilitation of Korea's people, The Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief has assumed a large financial responsibility. Feeding and clothing the orphans of Korea who have found their way into Methodist homes, caring for the aged and indigent, providing artificial limbs for those who have lost arms and legs in the war, helping to give employment and a new start in life for unfortunate but diligent people—these are some of the responsibilities of MCOB in Korea today.

On November 14, Methodists throughout the United States will be asked to give a large offering for this great need. It is hoped that it will amount to a million dollars or more. Certainly there is no more strategic spot for Christian help than in Korea today. The Church of Jesus Christ has been

Coffee Candy Pudding for Dieters

Hey, hold that coffee pot! Especially if it holds a little leftover coffee, — and especially if you are looking for a brand new dessert recipe that is low in calories and high in flavor.

Today's recipe for Coffee Candy Pudding with Mocha Sauce contains a low, low 28 calories for each big generous serving. This magic is due to Sucaryl, the new non-caloric sweetener that can be cooked without losing sweetness or becoming bitter. Sucaryl saves you one hundred calories for each serving in this recipe! If made with sugar, each serving would contain almost five times as many calories as when made with Sucaryl.

Coffee Candy Pudding
1 envelope unflavored gelatine 1-3/4 cups hot coffee
1/4 cup cold water (fresh or leftover)
2 teaspoons Sucaryl solution or 1/2 cup bran flakes, crushed
16 Sucaryl tablets, crushed

Soften gelatine in cold water, add Sucaryl and hot coffee; stir until gelatine dissolves. Chill until firm in pan or dish 4 by 8 inches. Cut into 1 inch cubes; roll in crushed bran flakes. Serve with following sauce:

Mocha Sauce
1 cup coffee (fresh, leftover, or made from instant coffee)
1 teaspoon corn starch
4 Sucaryl tablets or 1/2 teaspoon Sucaryl solution

Combine all ingredients; stir over low heat until slightly thickened and clear. Makes 8 servings (8 cubes plus 1/4 cup sauce for each serving).

Each serving contains 28 calories; 2.5 grams protein; no fat; 4.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 128 calories.

VETERANS ? Box

Q—I understand that if a Korean veteran's training entitlement runs out when he is half-way through his semester at school, he will be allowed to finish that semester under the Korean GI Bill. I am taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. What if my entitlement expires before I'm finished? Will I be permitted to complete my training?

A—No. Under the law, entitlement may be extended only in the case of veterans attending school. It may not be extended for veterans training on-the-job; for them, GI training ends when entitlement ends.

Q—I have a permanent National Service Life Insurance policy which lapsed two months ago. I want to reinstate it. I know I will have to pay back premiums, but will I also have to pay interest on the premiums?

A—No. You will not be required to pay interest on premiums in arrears so long as you reinstate your policy in the second or third month of lapse.

Q—I have been told that the Korean GI Bill prohibits dancing courses. I have enrolled for a degree in physical education at college, and one of the courses I am required to take is dancing. Will I have to give up this course?

A—No. You will be permitted to take the dancing course, so long as it is offered for credit as an integral part of your physical education program.

Q—I have some pressing bills for household expenses I would like to pay. Could I get a short-term GI loan for this purpose?

A—No. Loans for the purpose of paying household expenses—doctor bills, furniture bills and the like—may not be made under GI terms.

Turnpike Approved

A proposed $58.5 million turnpike between Dallas and Fort Worth has been approved as a sound financial investment with construction to start next year.

Refreshing Salad Can Double As Dessert

Delicious red apples star in this glamorous jellied salad that's good eating for family or company dinners.

One of the prettiest salads of the season is this molded red apple ring which you can serve for salad or dessert. If you want to be very dressy, top the ring with whipped cream or fill the center with sliced strawberries. For best flavor, select a good eating apple like the crisp, spicy red Delicious variety from Washington State's famous orchards. These popular, broad-shouldered red apples are tender and juicy for fresh fruit eating and in salads and may be used without peeling. Lime or lemon-flavored gelatin will provide good color contrast.

RED APPLE RING SALAD

- 2 pkgs. lime or lemon-flavored gelatin
- 3 cups hot water
- 6 tbsps. lemon juice
- 3 red Delicious apples
- 1 cup celery, sliced
- ½ cup broken walnuts

Dissolve gelatin in hot water and blend in lemon juice. Stir until sirupy. Cut 1½ apples in wedges but do not peel. Slice remaining apples. Fold apple wedges, celery and walnuts into slightly thickened gelatin and place a few apple slices near the top of the mixture. Turn into 8-inch ring mold and chill in refrigerator until firm. Unmold and garnish with sliced apples and salad greens. Serve with mayonnaise or mayonnaise mixed with an equal amount of sour cream. If served as dessert, top with whipped cream. Serves 6-8.

Cigarettes Sales Drop

Texas cigarette tax stamp sales for October fell a quarter a million dollars below totals of October, 1953, State Treasurer Jesse James reports.

Liquor tax stamps sales increased slightly during the month.

Radar Warnings

A new traffic sign will soon make its appearance on state highways.

It's the warning, "speed limits radar enforced."

Texas Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., said the new caution boards will be placed on all approaches to highway stretches covered by radar equipped patrol cars.

"Operation Radar" is planned to begin in mid-November on the main highways.

Shepperd said that he is now gathering information from cities over the state that have experienced noncompetitive bidding. The Austin bids, from four different firms, will be included, he said.

Mrs. Long attempted to get the council to back a request for a congressional investigation, but was outvoted.

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

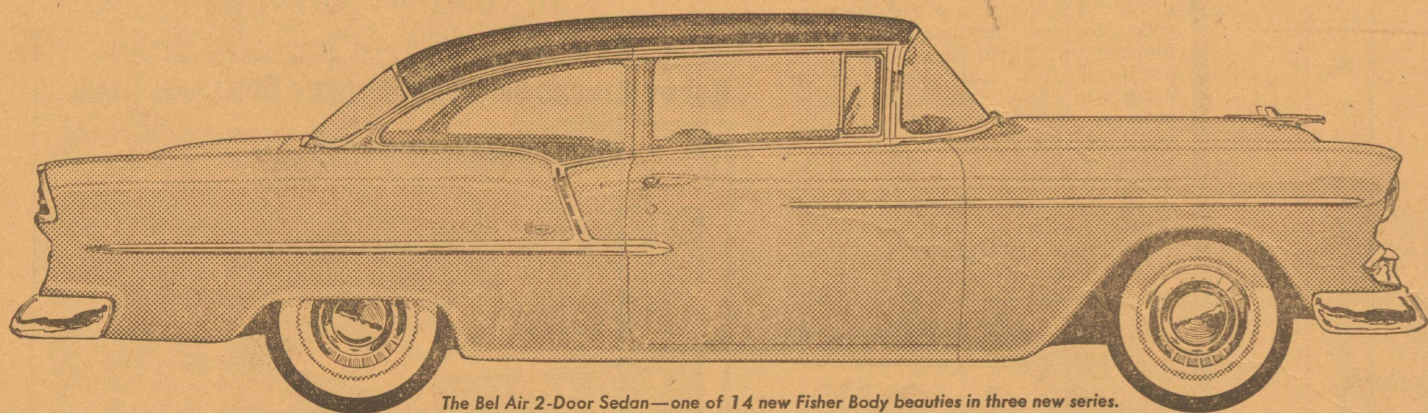

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and drive the new "Turbo-Fire V8!"

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. They're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car!

ATTENDED SPECIAL SCHOOL

Pete Hollis, Friona city employee, attended a special school in Lubbock for three days this week, taking a course in city sewage management.

Steve Bavousett was in Lubbock on business Wednesday.

SCS Comment:

Farmers in the irrigated belt of the High Plains are realizing increased profits from the use of honey bees as agents of pollination.

The widespread use of insecticides, and the burning or overgrazing of uncultivated areas, has reduced the number of our natural insect pollinators.

Where seed crops of alfalfa, sweet clover, and vetch are produced, bees are necessary for high seed production.

Plants very greatly in this response to pollination by bees. Alfalfa, sweet clover, and vetch are dependent upon insects for pollination. Cotton, most fruits, and vegetables, benefit from insect pollination, while Austrian Winter peas, cowpeas, and sorghums benefit little if any.

Plants that produce more than one seed per pod or fruit, require more pollen than do those having only one; therefore, the use of bees will result in more seeds per acre.

Research by the U. S. Department of Agriculture has shown that yields have increased as much as 700 pounds per acre when bees were properly used on alfalfa; vetch yields have increased as much as 200 pounds per acre, and sweet clover has increased up to 300 pounds per acre.

At least one strong colony of bees per acre is desirable, but with a good stand and a large number of blossoms, two colonies per acre may be required to get the best results.

Beekeepers will usually move in bees for the honey crop if a good yield of honey can be expected. The hives should be in a sheltered place, as near to the crop as possible and not more than one-fourth to one-half mile from a water supply. Best results have been reported when the colonies were placed in groups of five or six, distributed evenly over the field. Albert and Ernest Sarnaman, brothers farming in the Prairie View community, have recently harvested a seed crop of Madrid clover. They had several colonies of bees in the field, and reported very good yields.

Monument to Pioneers Completed at Tech

LUBBOCK, Nov. 3.—A pictorial monument to the pioneers of West Texas—three years in the making—nears completion on the campus of Texas Tech.

Artist Peter Hurd is applying the final touches on a 16-panel fresco mural in the Museum at Tech that will commemorate, as long as the Museum stands, those men and women who carved an empire from the Plains.

The mural, forming a continuous landscape around the Rotunda, will be completed early this month. Hurd began actual work in February, 1953, following almost two years of preparation.

Each panel will feature the likeness of a man or woman who made a significant contribution to the development of West Texas. While actual persons are portrayed, each has been chosen to represent a class of leadership.

Those persons honored are: Marey Mathias Dupre, school teacher; D. F. Couch, farmer; Cron Webster Furr, merchant; Dr. Clifford B. Jones, civic leader; Mrs. Dora Roberts, pioneer woman; W. H. Bledsoe, lawyer; James L. Dow, journalist; M. V. Brownfield, townbuilder; the Rev. Robert F. Dunn, Circuit rider; Sid Richardson, oilman; Sam C. Arnett, cowboy; Walter S. Posey, freighter; Dr. Marvin C. Overton, doctor; Charles Ernest Maedgen, banker; and William E. Halsell, rancher.

To complete the mural, a panel devoted to the chroniclers of West Texas is being donated by Hurd.

A panorama of the rugged West Texas land dominates the background and serves to bind together the lifesized panels.

Live models were used for all portraits and, where possible and feasible, the persons posed for themselves. In the case of those who were deceased or unable to pose, the heads were done from photographs. Models of approximately the same size and shape were used to get proper body dimensions.

Hurd signed a contract to paint the mural, the largest in Texas, in November, 1951. He began with charcoal sketches, advancing to a miniature model of the Rotunda.

On the model landscape, buildings and background were carefully reproduced with portraits of the persons to be memorialized being blocked in. From there, the artist prepared full scale cartoons or drawings. These were done to exact scale as they today appear on the walls of the Rotunda. He began actual work on the walls in January, 1953. All together, he has spent approximately one full year in the Museum painting the mural.

A formal dedication has been scheduled for November 18.
