MORE "BLACK GOLD" IS HANDED OUT BY RATIONING BOARD

The lucky stiffs have more tires and tubes issued to them, according to "Mr." Johnny Bradford of the Board. We're only trying to nice—might need tires, too.

Standards: Luther R. Greenway, Mrs. Ouida Richardson, Guy M. Powell, J. M. Winters, D. W. Diserens, Ewing School, Herman W. Sadler, John F. Hodges, Loyd L. Allen, Roy Burton, Harmon H. Wilkerson, George Irvin Green, Felix A. Morris and John W. Laxson.

Obsoletes. Hulon P. Brookshire, Tony Rogers, A. T. H. Dreyer, Eddie B. Glass, Richard R. Gentry, Lonnie Lee Wright, David H. King, Young W. Lee, Goffrey B. Davis, Venita E. Powell, Emmitt E. Rhoades Etta Mae Parnell Crawford B. Delano and Jay Cox. Notice they've cut out those "middle names", and thanks—that saves space—but they were interesting.

REGISTRANTS, 18-45 MAY VOLUNTEER FOR OFFICER'S TRAINING

Registrants, 18-45, who are entitled to deferment on account of dependents may volunteer to compete for selection as officer candidates in the army, according to the local Selective Service Board.

They will be given 4 months training as privates at privates pay, and those not recommended to continue will be returned to civilian life to await call when their particular classification is called up.

The must be high school graduates, and sign certain dependency releases, all of which can be had in detail at the Selective Service office in the courthouse.

Watta Calf! Three Times Winner: Is Evant Boy's

Three times first place winner in one week, and in three different shows! That's something to shoot at.

That's just what Wayne Putnam's calf did.

He placed first in the Coryell 4-H-FFA Boys show in Gatesville last Friday; the following Monday, Wayne took his calf to the home-town show, Evant, and took first. That's extra good, in your own home town, and then, in Hamilton, competing with 37 calves, he pulled another first. To cap it all, this is the first year Wayne has fed-out a calf.

Wayne is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Putnam of Evant, and has certainly been bringing home the "beef."

Mr. T. J. Lawhorn of Temple bought this calf. He should have let Wayne keep him and show him in Fort Worth.

Rev. Lawrence Hayes Is Named New Pastor First Baptist Church

Last Sunday, Rev. Lawrence Hayes was named new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gatesville, and has accepted the position, according to Dan E. Graves, Chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Church.

Rev. Hayes comes from San Angelo where he has been pastor of the First Baptist Church for a number of years. He was also formerly pastor at Snyder, Texas.

Rev. Hayes has a wife and three daughters, and it is expected they will move in the Baptist parsonage today. He is said to be a graduate of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and also of the Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth.

All Gatesville and surrounding county will welcome Pastor Hayes here, and his first sermon will be Sunday morning at the church. Everyone is urged to be on hand to meet and welcome him and his family.

ADVERTISING-WINDOW MAN AT STILLMAN'S FORMER RESIDENT

You know him, of course you do. B. W. Lee, new advertising and window man at Stillman's, Ltd., is none other than the B. W. Lee that formerly formed one half of the partnership of Painter & Lee.

Mr. Lee has been in Huntsville and has not as yet brought his family over, but many people in Coryell county will be glad to know that he is back at that popular store, Stillman's, Ltd.

SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE IN BOND & STAMP BUSINESS, BIG WAY

Gatesville Public Schools are 100% in the Offense Bond and Stamp Business. Let's don't call them "defense" bonds or stamps.

Not including any teachers here is the count:

Stamps	Bonds	Total
Elem. . . . .	$584.55	$3300	$3884.55
Jr. H S . . . . .	343.35	1375	1718.35
Sr. H S . . . . .	489.40	3375	3864.40
Total	$1417.30	$8050	$9517.30

Income Tax
DUE MARCH 14TH

Them's hard words, McGee! But they're not as hard as those words that corporal or Sargeant says when he says: "Let's get 'em, boys!" And, those first words, are a lot safer. It's pretty nice to be able to pay income tax, and not have to spend it with MacArthur at Pearl Harbor, Java, or some other "living Hell of a place".

Incidentally, today's another Friday 13, and this is still good luck, here.

If you are single and grossed $750, and are married with no exemptions" and made $1500 you'd better file, brother, you'd better file.

THESE FIRES, GRASS HIGH WINDS: RATE'LL BE GOIN' UP

We ought to save "waste grass", as well as waste paper, and other junk. It's the fire hazard.

Sunday afternoon last, fence posts on W. F. & J. F. Barnes Lumber Company burned partially behind J. B. Martin's Filling Station. Tuesday afternoon about 2 p. m. grass, trees, and a garage burned at Crawford Scott's, and Wednesday night about 8 o'clock, Slim Fowler's house burned.

Then, there were two automobiles burned; one a light delivery truck said to be owned by Floyd White, and that was Tuesday a week ago near Tom Mears' home west of Gatesville and Friday nite, Slim Bond's car burned on the Osage road.

It's pretty dry, now, and it's a good idea to watch fire hazards.

OPM GIVES DOPE ON OTHER RATIONING YOU MAY NOT KNOW

From the Dallas office of the OPM we get the following:

"Other recent actions affecting the home front include orders to telephone companies to discontinue conversions of manual offices to dial offices and to refrain from replacing any more wall or desk phones by hand sets; laundries must get along with only 10 per cent of the chlorine they've been using; glass containers makers must turn out bigger and simpler jars so that the curtailment of tin cans won't be felt so drastically and orders placing bedding equipment under temporary price control, setting a permanent maximum price schedule covering wholesale sales of domestic wool rugs and carpets.

Guns "frozen"; new pistols, rifles and shotguns have been added to the list of consumers' durable goods frozen. Dealers are prohibited from selling or delivering only to agencies or officers of federal, state and local governments.

JAPS AFTER AUSSIES

(Associated Press)
By William Smith White
The hour of supreme test appeared Wednesday night to be approaching for Australia, for despite heavy losses inflicted by American airmen the Japanese enemy went on massing large invasion forces in the waters of New Guinea at the threshold to the mainland.

50,000 NAZIS BY REDS

London, March 12, (UP)—The red army reported today that in a tremendous offensive on the Kalinin front northwest of Moscow the Russians killed 49,700 German officers and men and recaptured 161 localities between Feb. 5 and March 8.

BRAZIL NEAR WAR

Rio De Janeiro, March 11 (AP)—Brazil was given pointed notice tonight that President Getulio Vargas hold single-handed power to declare war, and further indication of this nation's approach to open hostilities appeared in the withdrawal of all Brazilian merchant ships from seas where at least four have been sunk by the axis.

The government has also taken over Nazi property.

MANDATORY WORK

Washington, March 11 (UP)—

Mandatory civilian war service for draft-deferred men was envisioned today in a bill introduced by Rep. J. Percy Priest, democrat, Tennessee.

REDS TAKE IRAN PROVINCE

New York, March 11 (UP)—The Vichy radio said tonight that, according to reports from Teheran, Soviet Russia has annexed a northern province of Iran and that Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi has left the capital in fear of a coup d'etat against his government.

GAS RATIONING, EAST?

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes announced today the petroleum industry had recommended to him rationing of gasoline in the east by a card system to meet the supply caused by the sinking and war transfer of tanker ships.

MORE GOOD-WILL BOUGHT

Washington, March 11 (AP)—The United States and Peru signed a lend-lease agreement today providing for an undisclosed amount of arms and armament for the South American republic.

INDIA OFFERED

London, March 11 (AP)—Britain's war Cabinet has agreed unanimously on a plan to smooth the way for eventual dominion status

Copperas Cove To Gatesville Highway Looks Good!

According to County Judge Floyd Zeigler, notification has been received from General R. C. Donovan of the Eight Corps Area at San Antonio that approval by him has been given to a highway project Gatesville to Copperas Cove, entailing an expenditure of $371,000.00, and this approval has been sent to Washington.

Brig. Gen. A. D. Bruce of Camp Hood was said to have recommended this construction to the Eighth Corps Area.

Also good, is the fact, that in view of the urgency, 2 engineering crews have already started preliminary surveying, one beginning at Copperas Cove and working toward Pidcoke and the other beginning at Gatesville and working toward Pidcoke. They will check the alignment of the highway, which will on approval be worked out in detail, which will follow as soon as the preliminary work is completed.

Already, on U.S. 190 crews are working full 24 hours a day to complete this section from Killeen and the camp area to Copperas Cove.

4-H-FFA Boys And Show Stock Leave For Stock Show

Yesterday, County Agent Guy Powell, and four 4-H and FFA boys left for Fort Worth to enter Coryell county stock in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. With Mr. Powell were Stanley Edwards, Elmo King, Carl Goodwin and Tommy Thomson.

Animals taken, and owners are: Joe Bob Williams, 1 hog, Loyd Brown, 10 hogs, Elmo King, 12 hogs, Gayle and Edgar Franks, 15 hogs; Tommy Thomson, 6 hogs; Milroy Powell, 2 hogs and 2 sheep; Emily Ruth Powell, 1 hog; Alvin Koch, Jersey calf, and W. J. Watson, 1 horse.

These boys, in their various shows have brought back plenty of ribbons and "folding money", and this is expected to be no exception.

for India and Sir Stafford Cripps, trusted friend of the continent's 390,000,000 is going to India to determine if the plan will work, Winston Churchill announced Wednesday.

BRITS SCRAP IN N. RANGOON

Mandalay, Burma, Mar. 11 (AP)—British forces some 150 miles north of lost Rangoon braced themselves Wednesday for expected assaults on Toungoon and Promye by Japs, who have already gained possession of the broad Irrawaddy delta of lower Burma.

JAP PLANES WON, HART

Washington, Mar. 11 (AP)—Smashing Jap aerial superiority that showed up at every crucial phase of battle was credited by Admiral Thomas C. Hart Wednesday with having produced victory for the enemy in the first great campaign of the Pacific war. And, he's a battlewagon admiral!

Billy Mitchell told 'em that more than 20 years ago.

DIES WINS 4 YEARS

Washington, March 11 (AP)—The House committee investigating un-American activities won a 4-year lease on life Wednesday and Chairman Martin Dies of Texas promptly reported he would seek an appropriation of $300,000 to finance its work until next January 3.

Folk have started moving out of the Army Camp district here, and others are making preparations to move. Many have failed to locate a place to move to as land is so high that no one can buy compared with the prices they are to receive for their homes in the Camp District. Not many folk can get possession of the places that are for sale so it really works a hardship on families who have to move and no place to move to. Folk, let this be a lesson to you, and all try to gain a home in the sweet by and by that can't be taken away from you; one that is eternal, for if we gain the whole world and lose our own soul, what hath it profited us?

Pallbearers were, Tip Perryman, Lillard Graves, H. S. Perryman, Mat Kemp, Lawton McBeth, and Vern Perryman.

BELVIN, ED

Ed Belvin passed away Sunday morning, March 8, at two o'clock after a long illness. Funeral services were held at the Live Oak Cemetery Tabernacle, conducted by the Rev. Fred Grubb, former pastor of the Ohio Baptist Church, which the deceased always attended.

William Edward Belvin was born in Hayes County, Texas, January 7, 1882. His father's family moved to Hamilton county in 1905. One year later Ed followed and made his first crop with Will Chumney. He has lived in the Liberty community since that time. In 1911 he was married to Maude Jones, and to this union were born five children, two daughters and three sons. Four of the children preceded their father in death. Sunshine died at the age of nine months; Alton at the age of six years; Billy at the age of 2 years and 6 months; and Janis Leonade at the age of 5 years.

Surviving are: his widow, one son, Clovis Belvin; one daughter-in-law, Ozella, and two little granddaughters, Clova Dell and Mary Ella; Grandmother Stansell; five sisters, Miss Emmy Belvin of Hamilton, Mrs. Nora Livingston of Silvertown, Mrs. Fannie Ainsworth of Goose Creek, Miss Susie Belvin of Hamilton, and Mrs. Trudy Robertson of Waco; two brothers, Boyd Belvin of Roby, Texas and Joe Belvin of Hamilton. One sister, Mollie, died in 1905 at the age of 16 years.

Active pallbearers were, Jim Jones, Anglis Jones, A. L. McFadden, E. B. Hedgepeth, Will Chumney, and A. H. Calhoun.

Flower girls were, Clara Parrish, Josephine Parrish, Vada Parrish, Eva Francis Jones, Patsy Marie Onstott, Irene Perry, Katherine Perry, Billy Joan Laxson, and Pauline Glaze.

THE BROWN ABSTRACT COMPANY WANTS YOUR ABSTRACT WORK

I have heard of at least one friend of mine stating that I had so much work for the army that he didn't see how I could give good service. The large amount of work I have for the War Department enables me to employ plenty of efficient help and to turn out my regular work faster than ever before. In fact I need all the work I can get to keep my typists busy. Ask any lawyer in town if I am not rendering prompt and efficient service.

I have five typists and I would like to have at least five orders on hand at all times.

Bring on your abstract business, I will attend to it, and I will DO IT NOW! In making a land trade, the abstract is the most important thing. If you have your land advertised for sale, bring me your abstract, let me bring it down to date, so you will be ready to close your deal when you make one.

Members and guests of the Tuesday Night Bridge Club were complimented this week when Mr. and Mrs. Jim J. Brown entertained in their home on West Leon Street on the appointed night. Bouquets of blue iris adorned the reception rooms throughout.

Dr. and Mrs. Kermit Jones were recipients of the high score award, and after the presentation, the hostess passed a delicious refreshment plate, consisting of open-face chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, olives, chocolate roll and coffee.

Attending were the following: Dr. and Mrs. John Thomas Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Breithaupt, Mr. and Mrs. Rosser Sanders, Judge and Mrs. Floyd Zeigler, Mr. and Mrs. Johny Bradford, and Dr. and Mrs. Kermit Jones.

Miss Thomas Is Special Guest At Writer's Sessions, T.S.C.W.

Denton, Texas—Miss Joyce Thomas of Gatesville was extended a special invitation to attend all sessions of the fourth annual Writer's Conference at Texas State College for Women recently. Only a limited number of students who are interested in literature and the technique of creative writing were invited to participate in the conference.

Miss Thomas, the daughter of Mrs. R. Thomas of Gatesville, also attended a banquet honoring guest speakers at the conference. A sophomore majoring in foreign trade, she was recommended by her teachers to attend these sessions.

Outstanding writers appearing on the five-day program were, Carl Sandburg, famed American poet; Carleton Smith, music editor of Coronet and Esquire; and Hudson Strode, traveler and writer on South American and the Caribbean Islands.

LOVE FROM A STRANGER

SYNOPSIS

A success-stakes windfall completely changes her course of life for Carol Howard, pretty London clerk. She says goodbye to the drudgery of her job, resolved to enjoy travel and play with her friend, Kate. Her fiance, Ronnie, refuses to quit his job and join her in her tour. They break. But Carol has found a new interest in mysteriously interesting Gerald Lovell, whom she met when he inquired about renting her flat. They meet again on the Channel boat, and he becomes her host in Paris. Carol is rapidly falling in love with him.

Chapter Three

Whether it was because she really felt Gerald's attraction, or because she thought she was obstructing their romance, Kate returned to London. Amid this new gaiety, subtly infected by the charm and freedom of Paris, Carol felt herself exultantly becoming a new, alive, vital person. And through the bright new life ran the subtle undercurrent of the force that was drawing herself and Gerald irre-

When Carol and Gerald had had their fill of new pleasures, new places, new resorts they returned to London, to live for a time in the decorously expensive Hyde Park district while they planned for their permanent home.

Kate brought Aunt Lou to visit them one day shortly after their return. Aunt Lou was complaining of a pain in the side, and Kate maliciously asked her which side every few minutes, for the pleasure of watching her become confused.

Kate had not been able to dismiss her doubts about Gerald, and she was pleased to see how Carol glowed with happiness. She was gloriously happy, she explained, but for one thing. "I'm worried about Gerald," she explained. "He had a heart attack in Venice. You see, he was rather badly hurt in the war. Sometimes he gets the most dreadful pressure in the head."

"So that's why you're buying a house in the country," Kate surmised.

"Yes, Gerald must have quiet. Beside, he has a lot of important work he must do. Gerald has selected the house. In Kent, and he says it's a duck of a place. Ten acres and no prying neighbors."

Carol had ordered tea for her guests and when it arrived, she

"Oh Ronnie," she said, "I'm so sorry. I wanted to tell you in another way."

vocably closer together.

They decided to be married quietly.

On the day after the wedding, Ronnie stormed into her sumptuous apartment, his eyes full of beseeching and loneliness. Carol knew before he talked what he would say, but she could not halt the flow of his words.

"Carol, Carol," he pleaded, "don't be carried away by a foolish whim. Then he whirled and railed against the luxurious fittings of her apartment. So much unaccustomed wealth weighted him down with the sense of his own impotence.

"It's not like you. This gilded nonsense. Come back with me to England before you are disillusioned by this fortune hunter."

"Ronnie!" she spoke in startled amazement, "I won't hear another word."

"You must," he stormed, "I've checked up on all the yarns he told you about the South American oil company. There's no such company. There's no Lovell."

The door behind her opened and Lovell entered, cutting Ronnie's speech short. "Hello, Ronnie," he spoke shortly.

Carol extended her hand to him. "Darling," her voice had a tone of hysteria. "Ronnie came here to rescue me from you. He had so much to say he really didn't give me a chance to tell him we were married."

Then, with a slight break in her voice, "Oh, Ronnie, I'm terribly sorry. I wanted to tell you quite differently..."

With a mumbled apology, Ronnie extricated himself from the embarrassing situation and left. Carol would not see him again for some months, and then under totally different circumstances.

● The men who guard our coastlines are on the alert 24 hours a day. Aircraft spotters, naval patrols, and the pilots who range far out at sea maintain a constant watch for enemy movements. They know that upon their vigilance depends the safety of the nation.

● Unceasing watchfulness is also demanded of the men who provide your electric service. Theirs, too, is a 24-hour-a-day job... the job of maintaining a service vital to war production, to all industry, to business, agriculture and the home. They must be on guard against possible causes of service interruptions... quick to act in case of storms, floods or other emergencies. By Mrs. Bessie Brown, Square Deal Club Cors.

We all wondered when Miss Hope Parrish discontinued her college work at Daniel Baker at mid-term; we were again surprised when she went to California with her sister; but we never dreamed of the big surprise she had in store for us until last week when we learned of her marriage to W. M. (Dub) Coalson, at Los Angeles, California, where he holds a responsible position in an airplane plant.

Hope has spent her entire life in the Liberty community. She is one of our most popular girls. She is sweet, gentle and companionable, always considerate of the older people, as well as the younger set. These traits coupled with her glamorous blond beauty has made her a universal favorite. Though not a Liberty boy, Mr. Coalson is well known to us, as a splendid young man—possessing honesty industry and admirable habits in daily life. The Square-Dealers wish for these young people all the happiness that they justly deserve.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Chumney of Evant visited in the Belvin home last week.

Sergeant W. A. Smith is home on a furlough. He is stationed at Wichita Falls. He has been attending officers schools, and he is making rapid advancement. Both his father's and mother's people have lived in this locality for several generations. We all congratulate Mr. Smith on his success.

Another of our home boys has been visiting his friends and relatives at Liberty, Mark Morgan, of Abilene. He has for some time been in his country's service. Uncle Sam is really getting the "brain and brawn" of our community. Every boy who has gone from this section is of the brave, sturdy, dependable, good soldier type.

We learn that Bruce Jones is stationed at Wichita Falls and Jackie Parrish is at El Paso.

E. O. Elam shipped 41 finished steers to Fort Worth this week.

Mrs. Walter Ainsworth and son, Bobbie, of Houston, Mrs. O. B. Robertson and daughter, Nancy Doris, of Waco, Misses Emmie and Susie Belvin and Joe Belvin of Hamilton were at the bedside of their brother, Ed Belvin, this week during his last critical illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Powell and son, John, of Gatesville were business visitors at the Elam Ranch Saturday.

People of this section certainly appreciate Mr. and Mrs. Powell's work, interest and enthusiasm in their livestock improvement plan. Through Mr. Powell's influence, turkey and bird proof self feeders have been installed on the Elam hog farm. Creep feeders for calves are under consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Calhoun are doing their bit on Uncle Sam's food for defense program, as they fill their brooder-house with high bred baby chicks from Clinton, Mo. They believe in getting the best breeds and in taking the very best care of them. This principal also applies to their cattle, sheep and hogs. They are rated among our most thrifty and efficient farmers.

A group of Mr. Belvin's friends met at his home last week and finished the large barn that Mr. Belvin had started before he was taken ill. Those who were permitted to render this friendly service were, Luna Winningham, Jim Hyles, Edgar Newsom, Willie Harlein, Gayle Calhoun, Wm. Wenzel, Lawrence Perryman, W. T. Perryman, Mr. Christian, Homer Forrest and James Harkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ermon Hill and daughter, Shirley Ann, visited in the J. P. Keller home at Live Oak last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Glaze, Pauline and Rayford of Gatesville were greeting friends at Liberty this week.

230,000 ACRES OF PUBLIC SCHOOL LANDS ARE OFFERED

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, states that the Public Free School Fund which now amounts to approximately seventy-three million dollars, will be considerably increased by the selling of a large part of the 230,000 acres of land that is now being offered for sale.

Commissioner Giles further points out that these lands are sold on one-fifth down payment, together with a note on the remaining four-fifths of the principal bearing 5 per cent interest on forty years time, the payments on the principal being deposited to the Permanent School Fund; whereas the interest payments are payable to the Available School Fund for immediate use. The State retains one-sixteenth free royalty in all oil or gas that may be found on these lands.

Commissioner Giles also states that these lands offered for sale are of varying types and are located in 120 different counties of the State. A purchaser of said land is not required to live upon it.

Anyone interested in the purchase of these lands may secure, free of charge, lists giving complete description and location, together with application blanks, by writing Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Austin, Texas.
