TITLES CAN BE HAD FOR CO. VEHICLES NOW, SAYS DAVIS

A new ruling has been passed that vehicles owned by the county, county schools—in fact—any county vehicle can be registered or a title can be had on them.

This has proven difficult for schools wishing to sell or trade old ones when the papers had been misplaced.

J. W. Ramsey, now of near Waco, and ardent GHS Hornet fan was here Saturday for a visit.

Pvt. Donald McKinney who has been in Gormany arrived home on furlough Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prewitt and family of Ft. Worth are visiting his mother, Mrs. J. M. Prewitt and other relatives.

Two new "citizens" just arrived by discharge route are Lloyd Ivy and Oliver M. Williams. One got it at Ft. Dix, and the other at Fort Sam.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newland of Hamlin were visitors in Gatesville. Mr. Newland is farming there and reports bumper crops.

Fred Prewitt of Austin was a week-end visitor in Gatesville.

PFC. John Soule of St. Albans, Vt., will tell you to buy all the War Bonds possible if only to repair physical damage of war. He's been through tough days as a result of a strafing by a Nazi plane in Europe.

War Bonds do great things for our fighters. They furnished this apparatus for Army fighter in Italy to support his head until his neck was strengthened. He shows he's pleased. Name of the heroic lad was missing from photo.

Dean Blatchley, 28, Lebanon, Ore., dropped safely behind enemy lines in Europe but an "88" bowled him over. He came back to tell Americans everywhere to buy War Bonds to rebuild shattered bodies of the lads still fighting Japan.

Pvt. Patrick A. O'Connor, Cleveland, O., recovering in Hawaiian hospital from wounds suffered in action with 11th Airborne Division, says dig deep for War Bonds because the men over there will need the best care doctors can give to the fighters who are being struck by Jap ammunition every day. More money is needed for the ships and supplies to support the millions who will be blasting at Japan for months. O'Connor will tell you how tough it is.

"... A guy in the army is something a civilian couldn't understand. I've been in long enough to know I've got a job and whatever it is, I can stay until the Army is ready to let me go.

"I said I didn't think I'd be coming home for some time to come and if I did then I would get a furlough and go to the Pacific. Maybe I'm crazy, but I'd like to go if they'd give me a furlough first. Staying over here in the Army of Occupation isn't going to be for many guys that's over here. The biggest majority had rather take a furlough and go to the Pacific.

... Oh, yes, I've sent you things I said I'd send. Two cups, a bayonet, a Nazi flag, canteen, some German and French coins and the German decoration, the Iron Cross. I didn't know just what kind of decoration it is for but it is counted as a high decoration. Mom, I don't know whether or not you know I'm in the infantry or not, but anyway, I'm not. From the time I left home until I got overseas I was infantry, but was transferred to the Army Air Corps and I've considered myself lucky since, because I might not be writing this now if they hadn't transferred me. We are with the 10th Air Depot Group but was with the 42nd Air Depot for a while, and attached to the First Army. The job didn't call for us to be in the front line, but we've been mighty close most of the time. We caught our share of the air raids and scares from buzz bombs. We used to be with an air evacuation squadron that had charge of flying out battle casualties and we usually have charge of the whole airfield when we take one. We were the first troops to land on the 2nd air strip, in Normandy.

May be we haven't done much of the work, but my outfit has worked hard securing the air fields that the Infantry captured. While fighting was going on across the Rhine we were supposed to take over an airfield at Krefeld right next to the Rhine.

We sent up an advanced party to look it over, but they were back in about a week because it was under artillery fire across from the German side of the river. So you see we have had our share of good and bad luck but the front line Infantry and tanks are the boys that took the real hardships. Old Elray is a front line man and he was right up there all time and I sure would rather he got home than I because I've had it a lot easier than he ever did. I was driving a truck for a while, but I'm not now. That is why it is going to take some time to get everyone back so they are using the point system and I guess you have heard it talked about over the radio a lots. The men with the most points and combat time in the front lines are going home first and they sure deserve it too. Oh, yes, I think that you'll like the souvenirs I've sent, but if you don't want the caps you can give them to the kids to play with, but if you do, you'd better take the Nazi pins off or somebody is liable to get mad...

This letter is from Cpl. J. M. Woodson, and is written to his mother Mrs. Ada Woodson of Gatesville.

This letter was written by Francis L. Powell, S-1/c of the U. S. S. Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phillips and family of Gatesville.

"... My girl sends me clippings of the News about boys I know and that way I keep up with where everybody is.

"I saw some of the guys ships that I knew from Gatesville in Pearl Harbor, Iwo Jima and Okinawa, but where I am now, so far, I have seen no one I knew. I got off the ship twice last week for the first time this year. They let us go over on an island and go swimming and play ball. It was almost too hot when we started to play and five minutes later it was coming a flood. That is the kind of weather we have here. It is either too hot or raining."

Well, we must be in the "tropics" here in Coryell county this July because that's the way it is here now, and usually this time of year, it's just straight, dry and hot.

WITH THE COLORS Add to... Lt. (jg) Whitthorne, of Jonesboro has returned from a 10 month tour of duty in the Atlantic where he served as pilot of one of the Navy's land-based LIBERATOR search planes on 40 combat patrols with Patrol Bombing Squadron 107.

The 22-year-old Jonesboro airman's group comprised one of five squadrons operating as front-line units of Fleet Air Wing Seven. The five groups sank 14 Nazi U-boats, probably destroyed two others and damaged 16. In their day-and-night patrols over vital sea lanes, they were of material assistance in curbing the menace of Germany's undersea raiders and speeding the safe flow of men and supplies to European fronts. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conley of Jonesboro, and received his commission in Feb., 1943.

DIFFERENT from all others THE GAS REFRIGERATOR

THE GAS FLAME

makes the difference

Operating with a tiny gas flame, the Gas Refrigerator is the simpler method. It has nothing to wear, nothing to get noisy, nothing to need fixing. Wartime is proving the value of this silent, trouble-free system of refrigeration. It is little wonder that many are saying, "my next will be a Gas Refrigerator." They will be back in the stores as soon as factory is released from war work. Save for one. Buy War Bonds.

Byron Leaird, Prop.

July 6, 1945.

Dear Friends:
For me, this has been a week of travel although I have been present at every session of the House. On Tuesday night I left Washington at 9:40 P. M. I flew to Texas and spent the Fourth at home. I spoke in West in the afternoon, and at Belton that night and caught the American Airways plane out of Dallas about three o'clock that night. I arrived in Washington in time for the session of the House Thursday. The very fact that anyone can make such a trip seems to me to emphasize the impossibility of national isolation. No point on the globe is now more than sixty flying time from any other point.
To me this indicates the absolute necessity of working out some practicable plan of world cooperation. We simply must preserve the peace, even in distant lands if we are going to enjoy peace for ourselves.

Doubtless the Charter of the United Nations is not a perfect document, but I think it offers the best hope that we have of a cooperative world. I was, therefore, greatly pleased to have the opportunity last Monday to sit on the Floor of the Senate and see and hear President Truman deliver this Charter to that Body for their consideration. I am convinced that Senator Connally will be able to secure prompt Senate approval.

The Congress is much disturbed by the F. E. P. C. issue. As I see it, these initials stand for Fascis-tic Employment Practices Committee.—Fascistic because it is proposed to deny to any employer the right to decide for himself whom he wants to employ and to substitute therefor some government bureau. Of course employers are not going to continue to spend their own money very long to employ people whom they do not want no matter what some 'Committee' says. It adds another obstacle to business activity after the war. The racial aspects of this problem have been so over emphasized by those, of both Parties, who are seeking the support of the negro vote in the large northern cities that many people have entirely overlooked the far reaching control over private business that this carries. I think it should be killed, and, of course, I have voted and shall continue to vote against it on every opportunity.

There is little doubt but what a great majority of the House feels as I do, and if they could cast a secret ballot, would vote as I do, but many Members who know how dangerous this proposal is are afraid to vote against it.
They have, therefore, refused to sign a "petition" to bring the measure on the Floor. (If a majority of the Members actually wanted to pass this, they could do so by signing.) They have also been willing to prevent the matter from coming to a direct vote. The result is that after the House passed the regular appropriation bill for the support of a number of war agencies, the Senate added an appropriation for the F. E.
P. C. The House Appropriations Committee came back with a new bill making exactly the same provision for the war agencies that both the House and the Senate had approved. The proponents of F.E.P.C. could not, under the rules of the House, put an amendment on this bill, but since they could not get the appropriation they wanted, their leader, Mr.
Marcantonio of New York, raised points of order against most of the other appropriations in the bill, taking the attitude that if he could not get what he wanted, he would not allow anyone else to get anything — even important war agencies. Mr. Marcantonio is neither a Republican nor a Democrat although he runs on both tickets. He is the sole representative of the Communistic New York "American Labor Party," but he has taken over the leadership of the fight for the F.E.P.C.
I do not propose to follow such leadership.

I hastened back from Texas that I might be present to vote against such unsound legislation.
I am still anxious to get home and expect to do so just as soon as possible, but this fight may keep us here longer than we had anticipated.

With best wishes, I am
Yours for Victory,
"W. R. POAGE"
W. R. Poage, Congressman,
11th Texas District

Miss Betty Hudson Is Bride Of Capt. Augustauskas

Miss Betty Jo Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hudson of Gatesville, became the bride of Anthony S. Augustauskas, captain, air corps United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Augustauskas of Waterbury, Conn., in a double-ring ceremony performed on Saturday, June 23, at 5:30 p. m., by Chaplain C. Fleckenstein of Michigan in the chapel of the Boston, Mass., army air base. Captain I. B. Rasmussen played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by Major W. T. Nichols of Jackson, Miss. She wore a light blue suit with dark brown accessories and her flowers was a shoulder corsage of white orchids. Miss Regina Gleneckie of Boston and

Independence

Arkansas and Mississippi both can have splendid public schools without accepting financial aid from anywhere. I am prepared to prove this statement with figures I presented early in May to the Education Committee of the House of Representatives in Washington. Moreover, if these states can do well without help, any of the other states can do likewise. Federal aid is not needed anywhere.

I have singled out Arkansas and Mississippi for good reason. It has bearing on the subject in hand. Measured by a money standard, these two states are lowest on the educational roster. Only one state has less income per person than Arkansas, provides less school money per student and pays its teachers less; that's Mississippi. These are our two low states in the respects named.

There is a Reason

Poor as these two states are on a basis of income per capita, each of them has more net worth than the federal government. Our national debt probably will reach 300 billion dollars before the war is over. Mississippi had a cash surplus of 11 million dollars last year and Arkansas accumulated 45 million during recent years. Arkansas schools are inadequate, due to politics, not poverty.

What the school system in my home state needs is re-organizing, not subsidizing. For example: About a year ago there were 100 school districts with assessed valuations below $10,000. Some districts could not raise $100 a year from local taxes. School districts varied in size from one square mile to 100 square miles.

Why Squander Money?

There is one community in Arkansas which, although it has only 35 students all-told, is made up of six school districts and thus uses six busses to take the 35 students to school and back each day. Transportation costs $600 a month when one bus might easily do the whole job at a cost of $150 a month. The saving of $450 would pay three teachers at the prevailing Arkansas scale.

The problem is local and political. More money for such an inefficient operation probably would tend to aggravate a bad situation and make it even harder to remedy. The federal government spent $80,000 for a WPA survey of Arkansas schools in 1937 and the analysis showed that the state could have a good school system for an outlay of 17 million dollars a year. The outlay was made promptly.

Taxpayers Respond

Arkansas' income per person has more than doubled since 1939, due to new industries and new discoveries of oil and bauxite. More than 20 million dollars were spent for education in Arkansas last year, and a recent legislature raised that figure considerably for the next biennium. Already about 25% more money is being spent on Arkansas schools than the government-supported survey called adequate in 1937.

This however is not enough. Arkansas should have better schools; better financed. Arkansas teachers should be better paid, probably the salary scale ought to be doubled. I'm for it when the system is re-organized and made efficient, but I oppose federal aid. Easy money would sacrifice state sovereignty on the altar of politics when we are able, really, to increase our school revenue as soon and as fast as conditions justify.

Captain John M. Heck of Michigan attended the couple.

Mrs. Augustauskas was graduated from the Gatesville High school and a local business college. She has been employed at Camp Hood for the last 26 months as a stenographer. Captain Augustauskas was graduated from Crosley High school and from a business college, both in Waterbury, Conn. He returned to the United States during September, 1944, after two years with the Fifth army in North Africa and Italy. He is now stationed at the Boston port of embarkation as an A.G.F. liaison officer.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony by plane for a short wedding trip to New York City. They are now residing at the Riverside apartment hotel in Cambridge, Mass. — The Waco News-Tribune.

Our Country Needs Still More Used Fats...And We're the Folks to Save them!

IN between the good news about the war these days, careful readers of the paper will see grave words about a serious national shortage that has a direct bearing on military and civilian production schedules.

Our domestic supplies of fats and oils will be approximately one and one-half billion pounds less than last year. Yet thousands of tons of fats are still needed to help make countless essentials for the battle- and home-fronts.

While country people have been doing an even better job of saving fats than the city folks, we must remember that, because of the meat situation, we are in a better position to save. That's why we can't afford to miss a trick.

So, let's save not only the big amounts from frying and roasting, but also meat trimmings, plate scraps, and scrapings. Melt them down once a week and add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Skim soups and gravies. Scrape every pan. Every drop is important.

When your salvage can is full, take it to your butcher, and get 2 red points and up to 4¢ for each pound. If you have any difficulty, call your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent.

100,000,000 More Pounds of Used Fats Are Needed This Year!

Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.

Nation's Leading Oil Transporter

Humble, through its vast pipe line system, is transporting more oil than any other system in the country. Nearly 700,000 barrels, or one-seventh of the nation's total production, moves through Humble pipe lines daily.

These Humble lines serve every major producing area in Texas as well as Southeast New Mexico. Humble has supplied one-third of all the oil moved to the East Coast through the "Big Inch" line built by the Government. This gigantic transportation accomplishment is one of four significant FIRSTS* Humble has achieved in producing for war.

- ★FIRST in U. S. crude oil production
- FIRST to produce a billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at one refinery
- FIRST in production of synthetic toluene
- FIRST in transportation of oil by pipe line

Building on such resources as these, Humble technologists have been able to develop top quality Humble products for your car.

TEXAS' LEADING MOTOR OIL

Humble 997 Motor Oil is a product of the Humble Company's long-standing policy of continuous improvement, and has been a favorite of Texas motorists since 1931. The balanced quality of 997 is of special significance under today's driving conditions. Lower speed and restricted driving result in abnormal accumulation of moisture in the crankcase. The marked sludge-resisting properties of Humble 997 minimize the formation of harmful sludge.

In 997, all the qualities of quick starting, low consumption sludge-resisting tendency and low carbon content are combined in one motor oil, a completely balanced lubricant which performs equally well under all conditions of speed and temperature. Today, as never before, your car needs the safeguard of Humble 997 balanced lubrication.

WITH THE COLORS

With the 77th Infantry Division on Okinawa:—Arthur D. Blanchard of Coryell county has been awarded the coveted Combat Infantryman's badge for exemplary conduct in combat with the enemy and was promoted to the grade of private first class.

A rifleman with the 307th Regiment of the veteran Statue of Liberty division, Blanchard joined his outfit here as a replacement. Okinawa was his first combat.

Blanchard is the husband of the former Vinnie Murl Palmer of Gatesville, and she now lives in Coryell county with their two sons.

Three of Blanchard's brothers, Overton, Ralph and William are servicing with the armed forces. A fourth, S/Sgt. Jess T. Blanchard was recently honorably discharged from the Army.

Pvt. Lloyd J. Sexton of Gatesville was with the 303rd Battalion of the 97th Division, which was the division that captured the Rhineland city of Dusseldorf in a climas to its part in the battle of the Ruhr pocket. The 97th then moved to the Third Army's Czechoslovakian front where it's 387th Regiment captured Cheb (Eger), first major Czech city to fall to Americans. Striking east of Weiden, Germany, the 97th advanced 28 miles in 30 hours on a 25-mile front into Czechoslovakia, and on May 5 set up headquarters at Tachau, Czechoslovakia, the first American infantry division to establish its command post on Czech soil. Two days later a message from Supreme Headquarters halted all advances pending total Nazi surrender. Even on May 8, VE Day, a lone German fighter plane strafed the command post of the 3rd Bn., 303rd Inf.

Pfc. Dean Hopson, Rt. 2, Gatesville is with the 222nd Signal Depot Co., a communications equipment company which has won a Unit Plaque, which was presented by Maj. Gen. W. S. Rumbough, Chief Signal Officer of the ETO. They supplied radio and telephone equipment to all the armies, and it was often necessary for the men to work 24 hour shifts in order to keep battle units ready for any communications emergency.

Otis C. Crawford, 24, aviation radioman, 1/c, and his Mariner crew made their debut the first night out with their squadron, sinking a Jap schooner and in succeeding strikes proved that it wasn't a lucky break. Later, on the China coast, they sunk a 4,500 ton freighter transport using only two bombs, one of which burst beneath the ship. Nights later, they strafed a barge and Jap freighter near Tainan, and the freighter exploded.

Crawford is a son of Vernie O. Crawford, Gatesville.
