VACATION

Something, somebody invented years, and years ago, which was designed to get people 'away from it all', and give them a chance to recuperate from the 'mill' and rest, and be ready to go back in the 'mill' after they've rested and recuperated.

It positively ain't so! Most cases, that is.

They get everything done they can, get do ne, put off what they can't do, shine up the bus, dig out about 99 44-100 per cent of the many things they don't need, over load the old bus, and get off EARLY so they can get a long way 'over the hill'. Try to cram every mile they can into the first day or so, and really tire themselves out, because they're not used to the hard grind of driving.

Then, if there's kids, there ain't enough front seats, the radio is on the wrong station, the window that's down ought to be up and the window that's up ought to be down. Trying to get them all 'fresh up' at the same time to minimize the stops is positively silly. They never do it. One stop for a drink, the others don't want, then they want, then others don't.

Then there's the question of sleeping, one wants this place in the motel, another wants another, and so it goes. Then next day

There's the usual morning argument as to who's gonna ride where, and if there are any drivers in the bunch (besides the parents) they want to drive when there's nothing to see, and when there's something you particularly want to see like high mountains, gorges, or other outstanding sights—drive? Don't be silly! They won't.

Souvenirs. Everybody gets theirs, but there's one in the bunch that looked at every dang-ed thing in the joint, and there's the same thing in every joint you pass (maybe in Indian territory, but, still, all made in Chicago), but still, you gotta lose time while they could more'n likely have this ninny gets what, after all gotten at home already.

Then, when you get to the high point on the trip, somebody gets the bright idea you all got to get back and break your collective necks to get back for no good reason but to get back. This causes arguments—as useless as the first one encountered on the trip. The last day is a 'forced march' and you finish yourself and selves up so it's going to take two more weeks to get over the vacation, which, after all, was much harder than staying home in the 'mill' and grinding out your daily work in peace, quiet and ease.

The fact remains, among the 'adventurers' and what American isn't, that you just gotta have a vacation and before you're getting back to Blanksville, you've already planned one for 'next summer'.

And, now, so you're back, and you've told everybody what a wonderful time you've had and now you're telling them how far behind you got with your business, and that if it hadn't been for the vacation that you'd a been caught up with everything which you know durned well wouldn't be so and if you'd a just shut off all your business and locked your doors and tried to catch up in the two weeks you actually went on your vacation you'd still be two weeks behind so in the final analysis, there was a reason for this vacation and that is that you wouldn't have caught up, so what

More power to ALL Vacation-ists. If we only had one!

TRAILERS, 4,000 POUNDS UP MUST HAVE LICENSE TAGS: NEW LAW

License plates for farm trailers not used for hire are now available, Bob A. Lilly, Texas Farm Bureau legislative director says.

$5 is the fee, and they're in the assessor-collector's office if you have a trailer 4,000 and 10,000 pounds gross weight, you gotta have 'em.

Speed with these is limited to 30 miles per hour, but exempts trailers up to 10,000 pounds gross from brake requirements.

If you fail to obtain tags, might be fined, and must then get a commercial license, and one for a 10,000 pound trailer would cost $55.

$74,427 To 1480 In Coryell County: Helps To Increase Purchasing Power

$46,237 go 802 on old-age insurance benefits, 31 get disabilities of $2490, and the remaining $24,700 goes to 647 survivors of aged and disabled workers.

This helps maintain the purchasing power of families whose income has been reduced or cut off entirely, and helps the economy of the community, Charles E. Bass, field representative of the Temple District Office says.

BAIN ALLEN HAS 300 OR MORE TO HELP CELEBRATE 81ST BIRTHDAY

Bain Allen, No. 1 citizen of Coryell County, had more than 300 of his friends at his home to help celebrate his 81st birthday, which was July 9. The party had been postponed on account of rain. The party was Wednesday evening, and featured barbecued goat, fried chicken, and every last one of the trimmings including watermelon and Okie Davis and His Band.

Harry Flentge, Gatesville attorney took care of the formalities in a brief speech, thanking the folks for coming and telling of a few things done for Gatesville and Coryell County. The only thing about Harry's comments about Mr. Allen, was that they were too conservative—Allens just a lot better than that.

Former District Judge R. B. Cross gave the invocation, and then food and drink was the next item.

The guest list included: Mrs. Kate Allen, Willie Ann Miller, both of Wortham; Margaret and

Beth Sties, Waco; W. H. Lawrence, W. M. Donaldson, C. L. Bates, C. M. Sydow, H. T. Moore, Walter and Cal Willie, Jan Dickie, X O. B. Diekie, Mrs. Katie Capps, D. F. Weekly Stock Market Round-Up

Prepared by the Investment Research Department of Hemphill, Noyes & Co., 8 Hanover Street, New York 4, N. Y. Members of the New York Stock Exchange

Conservation Vs. Glamour

July 19, 1961

Until recently the investor who purchased the glamour stocks has done extremely well in most cases. Not until the last couple of months has there been a reversal in the general trend of this group, but it was sufficiently great to make one pause and think at this time.

To the individual who is seeking quick profits without regard to quality of his investment the following statistics may be of interest: Three groups of glamour stocks were selected, five made up of blue chips, five with medium grade investment ratings and five speculations. From their 1961 highs the blue chips have declined 10%, medium grade growth 18% and speculations 25%. In other words, quality pays off during a market decline. Although it might be argued that during a favorable market the more speculative stocks would fare better, it is worthwhile pointing out that the five blue chip quality stocks have had an average price increase of 7 1/2 times in the past ten years as compared to 2 1/4 times increase in the Standard & Poor's composite averages of 500 stocks.

Today we have the same cautious approach to the stock market with all the uncertainties that seem to be surrounding us including the international situation, the Administration's attitude towards big business and the question of how great the business recovery will be. Therefore we feel it prudent to take a rather conservative approach to the market.

We have listed eight stocks from which a portfolio could be made up giving a return of almost 5%. They are: Cream of Wheat, International Shoe, Kresge, Liggett & Myers, Parker Rust Proof, Union Tank Car, United Engineering and Westinghouse Air Brake.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

As evidenced by voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, over 70% of the nation's independent businessmen, 74% to be exact, favor enactment of the bill presented by Sen. Kenneth Keating to tie import duties on foreign imports to the wages in the country such merchandise is made.

For just as it was once said that this nation cannot endure half slave and half free, it is becoming more apparent that 100 years later the nation's economy cannot endure with goods from free labor competing in marketplace against goods made by labor at near slave wages.

Aggressive Japanese businessmen realize fully the advantage they have in cheap labor and are exploiting it to the fullest in their bids for U. S. commercial connections.

For example, Japanese firms are carrying on direct mail campaigns to American merchandisers, asking for the opportunity of getting their merchandise requirements made for them in Asia.

One firm in Tokyo, is offering as bait, to send to the recipient of their letters a nine piece carving set which they say is available in Tokyo for $7.96.

As a matter of fact, they are using this offer to illustrate their sales "pitch." This carving set, they point out, was made at the request of an

They claim the Japanese made set is not only less than 1/10th the cost of the American item, but due to the fact it was handmade by craftsmen long skilled in making Samurai swords it is quite superior to the American made article.

Interestingly enough, the Japanese do not claim to be in any way competitive with products where the principal cost is raw materials. But on the other hand, if the major cost is labor, they quite bluntly say their chief resource is cheap labor.

It is this cheap labor, they claim, which is causing major American firms to establish plants in the Orient, and which will account in 1961 for a per-capita purchase of $6.02 in Japanese made goods, or over a billion dollars.

And herein is highlighted the major fallacy committed by the internationalists when seeking to defend the lack of tariff protection for the U. S.

These people will invariably point to a set of figures which shows, for example, that while a billion dollars worth was imported from Japan, U. S. exported similar value to Japan.

This is not a proper measurement. While America's exports are valued in their U. S. production costs, the imports from Japan are valued in their cheap labor costs of production. Thus, every billion dollars worth of Jap goods flooding into this nation replaces in actuality somewhere around 10 billions of dollars in American production. It is estimated in many Jap plants the labor payroll in total is no higher than just the employee welfare assessments and

OHIO-LIBERTY NEWS

By Bess Brown
The Liberty people are very anxious about Mrs. L. C. Perryman, who has been a patient in the Hamilton General Hospital for the past week. She suffered a stroke last Sunday after attending every service of the revival at the Purmela Methodist Church, for one week. Mrs. Perryman has always been a very devoted church member, and a loyal club worker. She is greatly missed from all our local activities. We hope for a speedy and complete recovery.

We are wondering, is it ever polite and correct to say, "We are getting too much rain"?

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Perryman and children, Larry, Susan and Ronnie; also Miss Dolly Morgan drove to Kerrville, where they spent the night with the Mark Morgans. Saturday, the two families drove to Del Rio. The children's long promised trip to Mexico was a disappointment. The bridge was washed out, and was being rebuilt. A narrow bridge for pedestrians had been constructed to accommodate commuters. The group walked across this structure and found themselves in Mexico afoot on muddy streets. They were able to visit only a few small shops near the border. Their greatest mistake was leaving their water jug in the car. They were not tempted by any of the drinks offered them south of the border. Consequently, a thirsty group walked back to appreciate the clean paved streets on our side. The two families drove to Leakey, in Real County. There they spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Morgan before coming home Sunday.

Mrs. Paul J. Billingsley and son Jeff spent most of last week with Mrs. Leona Billingsley and the James Billingsleys.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances McGuire and daughter Kimber from Dumas and Jack McGuire from Evant visited the L. A. Brewers Friday.

Mr. Abb Flippen from Hobbs, N. M. has been visiting with his old neighbors at Liberty this week. He was born and reared on the farm now owned by the Floyd Kemps. He has been away for 20 or 25 years so there are only a few left who knew him then.

The Liberty people extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ledenhain in the death of his sister Mrs. Lumpkin at Clifton Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Laxson has returned to her home after a long visit in Los Angeles Calif. with her daughter Freeda Greenwood.

Misses Joan Murdock from De Leon and Martha Foster from Gorman visited the George Parrishes Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brewer attended the chuckwagon barbecue at the Pearl Community Center. It was given to announce the wedding of Wanda Windbom and Bobby Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baskin from Jonesboro visited the J. O. Winslars Sunday. Other visitors present were Mrs. Otho Winslar, Sue and Joan from Gatesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Burton of the Coryell Church Community visited their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Calhoun Sunday visitors with the H. M. Browns were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Fuller, Brownwood; the Morris and B. M. Brown families from Waco; the Gerald Cummings family of Izoro; Wednesday: Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and Michelle of Lampasas were supper guests.

The Clifford Onstotts have had these guests: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whately, Larry and Glen, Jr. and Christie Martin from Houston; Mrs. Jack Harris, Jack Jr. and Jim from Ponca City, Okla; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Underhill, Mike and Terry and Miss Donna Burch from Hurst; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Onstott, Ray and Alvin from Arlington.

Early this week Mr. and Mrs. Onstott, Christie Martin, Mrs. Jack Harris and sons went to Kerrville to visit Mr. and Mrs. Doland Chilton.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Onstott and Christie were supper guests of her cousin and husband Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kolse of Meridian.

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Belvin, and Mrs. Maude Belvin visited at Edenburg. They came back by Corpus Christi where they visited Mrs. Belvin's brother's family the Bernie Baizes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bynum and children of San Antonio visited her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Audley Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parrish visited the Jim Hodges, David Hedgpeith's and Garland Leonards all at Hamilton Friday.

At a family dinner at the Audley Harris home Tuesday these guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Adams and sons of Prescott Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wright and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Barfield and sons, Mr. Bob Wright and children; Mr. and Mrs. Benney Waldrop, all of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Chumney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chumney, R. G. Chumney and daughters, Hamilton; Miss Cynethia Kreuger, Levelland; Lucian Sanders.

LIBERTY LADIES CLUB

By Bess Brown
The members and visitors of the Liberty Ladies Club spent a very happy afternoon with Mrs. Herbert McCarver at her home July 13.

They quilted two colorful quilts of the TRIP AROUND THE WORLD pattern.

Mrs. McCarver's appointments were of silver and china. The table was laid with a lace cloth of her own handwork. The centerpiece was a bouquet of pink roses from Mrs. J. O. Winslar's flower garden. Another floral decoration that attracted much attention, was a bouquet of purple Iris. Mrs. Winslar has been developing this monthly blooming Iris from a sport plant that appeared in her garden. It continues to bloom all summer.

Mrs. Billingsley announced that the next meeting would be with Mrs. W. T. Perryman, July 25.

Refreshments of Diplomatic Charlotte, with fresh blackberries, sponge cake, ice cream and lemonade were served to: Mesdames Audley Harris, Hill Parrish, Raymond Winslar, Bess Brown, Frank Bunderant, Milton Brown, Clifford Onstott, George Parrish, Jim Winslar, Leona Billingsley, W. T. Perryman, Edith McCarver Oren Hagan, Austin Bertrand, Oscar Smith, Clovis Belvin, Gayle Calhoun, Ralph Perryman, Berkeley Laxson.

Misses Joan Murdock, Martha Foster, Grace Elam, Alvarie Kautzsch, Kristi Brown, Susan Perryman, Jacquelyn Brown, Diana Millsap, Christi Martin.

Larry, Ronnie, Darrell and Vicki Perryman.

At the request of the hostess, Mrs. Fannie Budrant brought and displayed her beautiful quilt tops. The ladies admired them very much. Her color combinations were gorgeous; her patterns were unique; and her workmanship was excellent.

The ladies enjoyed the display. C. W. Parrish entertained a group of friends with a horseback party Sunday. The riders were Misses Dona and Alvarie Kautzsch and Marcia Buster. Messrs. G. W. Parrish, LoyGene Brown, Jr., Joe McHargue of Mound, Joe Buster and Carroll Penny also of Mound. After riding over the Elam Ranch to the LoyGene Brown place and on to the George Parrish home where a wonderful dinner awaited them. They all reported a good time despite the rain through which they rode.

VIEWS and NEWS

from our Congressman BOB POAGE

Dear Friends:

It is human nature to let local problems obscure more vital problems which have their location at a distance and we are all prone to emphasize the irritations of the moment rather than the critical threats of tomorrow. So it is with Congress, but I would not want to let our interest in taxes, unemployment, low farm prices or civil rights cause us to forget that we are right now very close to a shooting war.

I don't mean to say that anybody wants war, but we want to get Castro out of Cuba. Mr. Krushchev wants to get us out of Berlin. The Communists want to get the West out of Southeast Asia. Any one of these areas could erupt into a real conflict at any time.

Probably the most dangerous is Berlin simply because it is here that we are at the greatest disadvantage. Berlin is 110 miles inside a Communist country. The Communist powers can put any number of troops there in a matter of hours. It is probably impossible for us to physically hold Berlin against any determined attack but were Berlin attacked or besieged we would, as I see it, be required to use all the force at our command to defend or to free it. This of course means all-out war if the Russians want it that way. I don't think Russia wants war, therefore as I see it our only chance of avoiding war (without abject surrender) is to convince the world that we will honor our commitment to protect Berlin. Should we start down the road of appeasement we will only open ourselves up to repeated blackmail and will ultimately be forced to make stand as Britain was in 1939 under even less favorable circumstances.

I would do nothing to provoke anyone, but I think it is of vital importance that we maintain a firm stand. The world today is so small for us to back away from our commitments, and every crisis is the times in which we

The Congress has got back to work after the disruption of July 4 and will probably be very busy until adjournment which will not likely occur until some time in September.

We are receiving lots of mail on many subjects. Hardly a day passes that we don't find a letter. We simply cannot keep up with the letters, and we cannot reply without a return address. Please print your address on the letter if without a return address. Please

TOTAL RUNNERS NOW 125 OR MORE: NO LATE ONES REPORTED: WHAT'S NEXT?

Unofficial total of the SSB runners is 125, or was, in the 3-day race for freedom, reputedly caused by the dismissal of two employees. James Nichols and Jack Painter.

Ranger Capt. Clint Peoples, District Attorney Truman Roberts FBI and most Central Texas Peace Officers have been working on the situation, and off the record ruddles have been reported this week at the institution.

Harry W. Flentge, attorney for Nichols and Painter, has denied the guards are at fault in Gatesville, and reports the guards have given complete statements about the recapture of an escaped inmate, and has two statements from disinterested persons backing up the tatements.

The guards refused to take polygraph tests because, Flentge said, both men felt that since they were reputable citizens of Coryell County the tests were not necessary, and no law requires their taking them. Flentge said the guards were willing to testify at a court of inquiry so long as it is "held public as required by law." Flentge also claims no laws were violated in apprehension of the escapee; rather that the guards were doing their jobs in protecting the citizens of Coryell and other counties.

Investigating officers said Nichols had been extremely popular with the boys confined at the school and was particularly liked by youths of Latin American extraction, and they were the majority of those who ran.

DA Truman Roberts said he the escapee's contention. "One of the first things you learn about these youngsters is that you can't believe everything they say." I entered the cas with an open mind," he said.
