Here's Proof OF THE VALUE OF PROTECTION WITH A LIBERAL HOSPITAL & POLIO INSURANCE POLICY

It wasn't raining when Noah started building the ark — what will you have to sacrifice if disaster strikes? We list on this page a partial list of claims we have paid to policyholders in this area—people who looked ahead and provided protection. You, too, can be protected. It is better to HAVE IT and NOT NEED IT than to need it and NOT HAVE IT!

REMEMBER — We Plan to Pay All Claims When We Place the Policy.

NOTE: The Staffs of the Hospitals at Glen Rose, Hico, Dublin, De Leon and Comanche Have a Group with This Company, and They Endorse This Plan

SEEIN' WHAT'S DOIN'

"Let's see now, I should know that . . . She told us during review."
"Oh dear . . . I'll never work that one."

These were some of the varied (?) comments floating around the classrooms last week during the Six Weeks' Tests. Everyone is now eagerly awaiting their report cards. Some not so eagerly, as always.

Congratulations to the basketball girls who managed, in spite of the tests, to win the District Championship. We hope they do as well in the State competition.

The YMC met Friday night. There were about 42 present, and 7 or 8 new members. The organization is going to have a radio program over station KCLW in Hamilton, beginning Sunday at 12:45 a. m. Be sure to listen.

Here's one the English class missed in their study of Shakespeare:

Shakespeare—1954 Version
I see he.
I love he.
For he I would die.
He tell I.
He love I.
But darn he, he lie.
It's just like teenagers department: "Oh, here's the place mother told me to stay away from . . . I thought we'd never find it."

Now that tests are over, at least for the time being, everyone is turning their thoughts to thoughts of Spring. The Senior play, the Junior play, the Banquets, and Commencement. The plays especially will be coming up soon and don't miss them. We'll have more on the One-Act Play next week. It will be given for the P-TA Monday night, which will be over by the time you read this.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The Homemakers are making plans for their new lawn. Plans for rose bushes and different varieties of flowers and shrubs are being discussed. The landscaping of this lawn will serve as a chapter project. Monday morning of this week, the Homemakers saw "Modern Roses," a film on the development of the rose and their different varieties of color and shape.

Most of the first year Homemakers have finished their blouses and will begin making dresses as soon as possible.

A few of the second year Homemakers have finished their dresses and will begin making a child's dress.

Mrs. Pittman and some of the Homemakers are planning to attend an F.H.A. Area Meeting March 6, in Stephenville.

Whereas, the city council of the City of Hico, Texas, deems it necessary for the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals, and the general welfare of the city to regulate and restrict the type and kind of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes within the municipality.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HICO, TEXAS:

Section 1: The zoning regulations and districts as herein established have been made in accordance with a comprehensive plan for the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the city. They have been designed to lessen congestion in the streets; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers. They have been made with reasonable consideration, among other things, for the character of the district, and its peculiarities, suitable for particular uses; and value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the city.

Section 2: GENERAL. Zoning districts and regulations as herein set forth are approved and established. The city of Hico, Texas, is hereby divided into two classes of districts: (1) commercial (2) residential.

Section 3: All new territory annexed to the City of Hico hereafter shall be classified as residential districts until changed as provided by this ordinance.

Section 4: COMMERCIAL DISTRICT. The use in said district is for any legitimate business enterprise except that a gasoline service station may not be erected, nor any existing building converted into the same, wherein said gasoline service station would be within three hundred (300) feet of any existing frame building or within three hundred (300) feet of any existing gasoline service station. All buildings constructed in said commercial district must comply with the building restrictions as set forth in the fire zone regulations of this said city.

Section 5: All of the remaining portion of the town of Hico, Texas, shall be classified as the residential district and any building or premises therein may be used, and any building may be erected or structurally altered for any lawful use.

Section 6: COMPLETION OF EXISTING BUILDINGS. Nothing herein contained shall require any change in the plans, construction or designation use of a building actually under construction at the time of the passage of this ordinance and which entire building shall be completed within two (2) years from the date of the passage of this ordinance. Nothing herein contained shall require any change in plans, construction or designated use of a building for which a building permit has been heretofore issued and which entire building shall be completed within two (2) years from the date of the passage of this ordinance. If any amendment to this ordinance is hereafter adopted changing the boundaries of district, the provisions of this ordinance with regard to building or premises existing or buildings under construction or building permits issued at the time of the passage of this ordinance shall apply to buildings or premises existing or buildings under construction or building permits existing in the area affected by such amendment at the time of such amendment.

Section 7: ENFORCEMENT. The provisions of this ordinance shall be administered and enforced by the City Council of the City of Hico. All applications for building permits shall be accompanied by a plat in duplicate, drawn to scale, showing the actual dimensions of the lot to be built upon, the size of the building to be erected, the use of the property, and such other information as may be necessary to provide for the enforcement of these regulations. A careful record of such applications and plats shall be kept in the office of the City Council.

Section 8: CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS. The City Council of the City of Hico may from time to time, amend, supplement or change by ordinance the boundaries of the districts herein established, or the regulations herein contained. The City Council shall also give notice to the citizens of the City of Hico of such proposed amendment, supplement or change and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith, by publication in the official paper of the City of Hico once a week for three consecutive weeks. Such hearing shall not be held earlier than twenty-one (21) days from the date of first publication of said notice.

The City Council shall thereafter and in accordance therewith hold such public hearing. If there is a protest filed with the City Secretary against such proposed amendment, supplement or change, duly signed by the owners of twenty (20%) per cent or more, either of the area of the lots included in such change, or of those immediately in the rear thereof, extending two hundred (200) feet therefrom, or of those directly opposite thereto, extending two hundred (200) feet from the street frontage of such opposite lots, such proposed amendment, supplement or change shall not become effective except by a three-fourths vote of all of the members of the City Council.

Section 10: VALIDITY. If any sections, paragraph, subdivision, clause, phrase, or provision of this ordinance shall be adjudged invalid or held unconstitutional, the same shall not affect the validity of this ordinance as a whole or any part or provision thereof other than the part so decided to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 11: WHEN EFFECTIVE. Listen as the Redbird Rambles

By Carolyn Holford

A YEAR AGO, this Redbird perched on a branch outside and in the spring weather composed a beginning chapter which has now become a weekly column. The headline on that first report was entitled, "Look Around You and You'll See Signs of Spring Unfolding."

History, which usually repeats itself, has double-crossed us in the respect of weather, and this week our community, along with the rest of the nation, finds itself in the wake of one of the coldest spells of the winter. February, which was wild as March usually is, now comes in for its share of cold spells in March. The two months seem to have exchanged places on the calendar, or at least on the almanac.

OTHER SIGNS of Spring are unfolding, however. Announcement was made this week of several forthcoming annual events which means that the town is coming out of hibernation and the slack season is just about concluded. The F. F. A. Livestock Show has been set for March 25, and dates for the statewide golf tournament have been announced for the July Fourth week-end.

Activities up until now have been centered around the public schools, and basketball season draws to a close with Hico girls sitting in the top bracket. Gradually building up their strength all during the season, they reached a peak last Thursday night when they defeated the Irredell girls 19 points to win district.

To avoid confusion, an explanation of the Girls Basketball League might be in order. There are 10 districts in Class AA, in which Hico plays. During the state tournament in Waco next week, these 10 teams and 18 district winners in Class A, composed of schools of less than 100, will be competing for two state championships, one in each class.

This league is what coaches and other sports fans refer to as the "old league." Before 1951 this was the only league in basketball. That year the University Interscholastic League created a new league, play-offs for which are played in Austin. The I.U.L. was the league the 1951 girls team played in, and it includes regional play, where the other league does not.

The league in which Hico is competing is still composed of some of the strongest teams in the state, and will be a real challenge to these girls. They are optimistic and their coach, Archie Chandler, thinks they have a chance at making a good showing at least, although he says that they will not be playing any easy games first, as they drew a bye to begin with.

It is the first year our girls have gone to State, and it will be a real experience for them, win or lose. It will be a little easier for them if there are lots of fans in the stands to yell for them, so if you like basketball, come along and follow these gals and give them your support.

SKYSCRAPERS COME and skyscrapers go, but we don't think there is anything in the air to compare with the new copper steeple on the Methodist Church in Hico. It is really something to be proud of, and will be a pleasant and inspirational sight for tourists as they pass through our town.

The brick siding on the church is rising rapidly now, and inside work is drawing to a close. Tentative plans are to finish the building around March 15.

It's certainly encouraging to note that the church was not altered in its general architecture. The old-fashioned steeple seems to represent a church more than the modern forms frequently seen around other cities today. And by the way, what became of the old-fashioned custom of ringing the church bell on Sunday? Ministers can preach forever from the pulpit about having more in Sunday School and church and yet the ones they talk to are not the ones who should be hearing it.

When the church bell rings, everyone in the area hears it and is reminded that others are in church even if he is not. Perhaps some come who would not otherwise be there. At least everyone suffers a little twinge of conscience and possibly a feeling of reverence which could almost be as beneficial as church attendance.

ALMA MATERS command a sort of allegiance that isn't found anywhere else. For ex-students of my school, Independence Day is the day for this celebration, and just like the Aggie Muster, it is characterized by groups meeting everywhere from Tokyo to London and throughout the States.

Tuesday night, a group of Texas University ex-students met in Hamilton for the first meeting of this type in this district, hoping to make it an annual affair. It was a very enjoyable event, although it did not come close to representing all the ex-students in this vicinity. Charles Clark, member of the administrative staff on campus, came from Austin to deliver the main address. And then students got together for a chat about old times and how the place had changed, etc.

Visitors expected a dance to follow the banquet, but just after the eating and speaking they began to look around and wonder where the juke box might be. Sure enough, there wasn't one! It had been removed that afternoon around 5 o'clock. It was rather strange, and yet not entirely unexplainable. Some suspected foul play from ex-Aggies.

Betty Knight Assisting In Area Sponsorship of Nursing Essay Contest

Students in high schools in 15 Central Texas counties have a chance to win a trip to Houston, and $100 and a $25 government savings bond and at the same time give some thought to a career which they might choose in a few years. The Texas Hospital Association and its 17 area hospital councils are conducting an essay contest, "Why I Am Choosing Nursing as a Career."

Miss Betty Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Knight of Hico, member of the Veterans Administration Hospital staff in Temple, is one of six members of the Central Texas area of the Texas Hospital Council.

In the 15-county Central Texas area there are three professional nursing schools, two at Waco and one at Temple.

Hico Hospital and Clinic is one of the vocational nursing schools in the area.

South Hico Ladies Take Sewing Course at Homemaking Cottage

The South Hico Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Cyrus King, with the county agent, Miss Frances Wilshire, present. Also present were seven members, one new member, Mrs. Cox, one visitor, Mrs. A. R. Jackson, and three small children.

Mrs. Sammie Pittman, teacher in homemaking in Hico High School, is teaching sewing to a number of club ladies on each Monday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. at the homemaking cottage. The first thing Mrs. Pittman is teaching is the making of a foundation pattern. This course is open to all ladies who are interested.

Miss Wilshire's program was the subject of the dressing center. This consists first of the bathing facilities, the clothes closet and storage place, which should be arranged for easy access to the articles most frequently used. The chest of drawers should have drawers in the drawers which can easily be made from cardboard boxes and covered with cloth or wallpaper, and are nice for small articles of clothing, also for make-up. A cluster of toilet articles on the dresser top can ruin the looks of an otherwise nice looking bedroom, and these things can be kept in a drawer or on a shelf.

Miss Wilshire showed pictures of bathrooms, bedrooms and dressing tables. This last can be made for very little expense, the skirt for the table should be plenty full and made of cotton material so it can easily be washed. The mirror above it should be well lighted.

The District T.H.D.A. meets in Clifton March 25 and 26. All club members should make plans to attend, as this is educational as well as enjoyable.

Two games were played, after which the hostess served sandwiches, cookies, coffee and cocoa. The next meeting will be on March 16 with Mrs. Johnnie Williams. The program is the care of the sewing machine. A dealer in sewing machines will give this program and a demonstration on using the different attachments.

Suburban Editor on Cowtown Radio

Boosts Coverage of Many Texas Weekly Newspapers

At least one "big-town" newsman figures the country would be in better shape if more attention were paid to the down-to-earth comment of the editors of Texas' small-town weekly newspapers.

Jack Nuntery, a veteran newsman whose "Suburban Editor" program each Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. is broadcast by radio station WBAP-820 of Fort Worth, probably reads more Texas weeklies than anyone else. He sees the "country weekly" as generally representative of rural thinking, and, as his own radio program proves, a gold-mine of constructive opinion and honest wit.

The front page and editorial columns of state weeklies provide the variety of subjects Nuntery treats on his Suburban Editor show. Bits of wit and humor from more than 100 state weeklies are quoted on the radio program. Nuntery's fan mail includes many letters each week from out-of-state points, far distant from the weekly newspaper's normal circulation range. So WBAP's Suburban Editor himself has expanded the "coverage" of weekly newspaper editors' comment to points exceeding the weekly's normal range.

While his widely-circulated "Suburban Editor" is familiar to many thousands of radio listeners, Nuntery's own interesting and many-sided personal career has gone relatively unpublicized.

Except for his interest in news reporting, Nuntery might have continued on a singing career that already had met with more than a measure of success. At 16, he was out of high school and into a Gus Edwards Public Presentation unit that toured the country. When national radio networks were brand-new the young Memphis, Tennessee, with an Atwater-Kent winning baritone moved into Chicago for singing jobs on both CBS and NBC radio.

Subsequent jobs took him on a vaudeville tour with a dance act on the RKO circuit—and more singing with such hotel dancebands as Dave Harmon, Anson Weeks and Blue Steele.

But Nuntery gave up singing temporarily to complete his education. He graduated with an English and Journalism major at the University of Oklahoma with the class of 1934.

Nightclub work in Hollywood followed—and after a while Nuntery was doing choral recordings for such film musicals as Bing Crosby's "Doctor Rhythm" and MGM's "Maytime."

JACK NUNTERY

The Civic Opera company at Riverside, California needed a good baritone and Nuntery took the job. Before long, he had given up his singing entirely—except for an occasional aria in his show—and had joined the Riverside Press and Enterprise as a sub-reporter. A job on the copy desk at the Dallas Morning News brought Nuntery to Texas; three years at the post qualified him for the night news editorship at WFAA radio—and following that, an early-morning (6:15 a. m.) news program with the Star-Telegram and TV station, WBAP.

Through the years embodying his many-faceted career, Suburban Editor Nuntery maintains a sense of wit and humor he admires so much in the State's country editors. His both- feet-on-the-ground approach to news presentation earns the radio-TV newsmen a distinction as a "country editor" himself.

The meeting was started by the regular opening singing session led by Carol Harris.

Following the discussion of busi-ness the idea of a radio program was discussed further. Rev. L. H. Gaden has been very good in giving $10.00 for organization his sugges-tion found out about the

The meeting progressed further by a very unusual baseball game in which questions and answers were substituted for ball and bat. The girls came out ahead with two runs over the boys' none.

This amusement was followed by a very inspiring message by Dun-ald Ross and a session of prayer.

After another singing session, refreshments were served and the group was dismissed.

The next meeting was held Thursday night, March 4, at 7:30 at the First Baptist Church. We need you young people. You need the blessing you will receive from coming. Bring your friends.

Ben Branch of Weatherford sang "Through the Years" and "Be-cause" accompanied by Mrs. F. H. Burnett at the organ. Miss Nan-cy White read a poem "How Do I Love Thee."

Candlelighters were Charles Weidner and Darrell Allison, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of French lace and nylon tulle over satin. The strapless bodice was covered with a fitted lace jacket fashion-ered with small collar and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt, worn over crinolines, had a deep-pointed lace yoke from which tulle layers extended to waist length. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and a shower of stephanotis.

She carried out the traditional, something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. Her ensemble was new except for the satin opera pumps which she borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Leslie Billingsley. For some-thing old she wore an antique diamond necklace; she wore a blue garter made by Mrs. Grace Alex-ander and a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. Carroll Peck of Dallas, sister of the groom was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Sherry Seago, Waco and Mary Lou Hartgraves of Bishop, both cousins of the bride. Bridesmatron was Mrs. Texie Allison of Fairy, aunt of the bride.

They were attired in identical gowns of rose chromespun taffeta made with fitted bodice and bouffant waist length skirt with net overskirt. The matron of honor chose a blue taffeta dress in the same style as other feminine at-tendants. They wore matching headresses and a strand of pearls a gift of the bride, and carried colonial nosegays of daisies.

Gentlemen attendants were Ed-ward Hickey, best man, James Ber-na, Texie Allison, Jerry Hooks and John Templeton.

Mrs. Allison chose a navy sheer dress with lace bodice with win-ter white and navy accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. The groom's mother was dressed in an ice blue silk shantung with white and navy accessories and a cor-sage of pink carnations.

A reception was held immedi-ately after the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crouch, 509 North Patrick Street.

The serving table was laid with a lace cloth over pink. The punch bowl was encircled with pink and white daisies and at one end of the table was the four-tiered wed-ding cake frosted in white and adorned with pink roses and topped with miniature bride and groom.

The cake was baked by Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, aunt of the bride, of Fairy, and decorated by Miss Sam-mie Finley of Bangs.

Frosted punch was served by Misses Harlean Brown, Nancy Brannan, Barbara Raspberry and Wilma Grace Goyne. Miss Sammie Finley served the cake. Mrs. Vestal Richey presided at the bride's book.

When the couple left for a wed-ding trip to Western Hills Hotel in Fort Worth and Lake Murray Lodge in Ardmore, Okla., the bride was wearing a navy printed an-tique taffeta dress with navy hat, red lizard shoes and bag and white gloves and an orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple plan to make their home in Dublin.

Fairy

By Mrs. Eunice Massengale

Well the weather man seems to have his wires crossed up for our first month of Spring, sending in a cold norther, with temperatures predicted to be in the lower twenties tonight (Tuesday) but we feared this, since we have had a warm spring like February. Many fruit trees are leafing out and in full bloom and we notice tiny rose buds are visible on our rose bushes. Since we have a dark moon we fear all tender vegetation will be killed if the mercury drops as low as predicted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bridges of McGregor spent the week end here visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley, Lera Jane and other relatives.

We made mention recently of the new baby of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Blount of Brady, which was born at the Hico Hospital, as being a little daughter. We have since learned the new arrival was a little son. We received our first information through the Chamber of Commerce program over KCLW, Hamilton, but seems they too had been misinformed. The Blounts are former residents of Fairy and have one other little son, Tommie, age 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wolfe and family of Hico and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones and Cart of Hamilton were visitors Sunday in the home of the ladies sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gum Hanshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Will Green and Mrs. A. L. Newlin were Fairy visitors Wednesday of last week. They came out for a visit at the Fairy Cemetery where Mrs. Newlin's husband is buried and the Greens also have a relative buried there. They praised the upkeep of the cemetery and Mr. and Mrs. Green left a donation of $5.00, and Mrs. Newlin left $2.00 for the cemetery fund. We sincerely thank each for their donation and the interest manifested in our cemetery. Other donations to the Fairy Cemetery are: Mrs. J. W. Leeth, Hico, $1.00; Mrs. Leeth's daughter, Mrs. J. A. Johnson of Phoenix, Arizona, $3.00; Mr. Ralph Pittman, Lubbock, $1.00; W. N. Bridges, McGregor, $5.00. We thank each for your donation.

The writer visited a while last Friday night in the A. H. Sumner home in the Ohio community south of Hamilton. We enjoyed several hours of song practice together, followed by a feast of ice cream and cake before our departure for home. We also attended singing at Carlton on Thursday night and visited a short while with Mrs. Marie Turner.

Work began Monday on the new dwelling being erected on the former Petty place.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield visited Sunday with his father, Walter Porterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Jimmie Don were in Waco Monday for a check up for Jimmie Don at the Hippe Clinic. The examination revealed great improvement derived from the second brace he began wearing the first of the year. It was thought he would be able to discard the brace by May 15, but will have to continue wearing the brace on the limb affected by polio.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stringer and family of Hico and Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison of Fort Worth visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison.

The writer attended singing at Plainview Church Sunday afternoon. We were accompanied from Hico by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sumner of Hamilton. After singing hours the writer visited a while in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Green, who are former residents of Fairy. We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Green's niece, Mrs. Joe Elder of Waco, is again hospitalized in a Waco hospital of a nerve disorder. Both Mr. and Mrs. Elder were reared in the Fairy community, she being the former Miss Eula Kent. Their many friends and relatives here wish for her an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited a while Saturday night in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton and tried out their new television set. The Sellers also visited Sunday afternoon in Dublin in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman.

We promised to give a little history of Fairy in last weeks news letter, so here goes for what space will permit.

When the writer moved to Fairy fifty-one years ago January 3, as a small kiddo, we can remember the old two-teacher school building with its large bell that could be heard tolling for several miles on still school day mornings. The old public tabernacle on the Methodist Church lot was used for revival meetings and funerals during the summer months. After the school building was remodeled and the auditorium done away with, the old tabernacle was used for graduation exercises and Christmas trees, childrens day programs and what have you. Later the churches were enlarged and also our new gymnasium built which takes care of all large crowds. The old tabernacle was purchased and moved away last year.

We had four churches. The Presbyterian Church and Masonic Hall on upper floor, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin in the 1890's. The Baptist Church which was located at the foot of the east Fairy Mountain was moved to its present site and completely remodeled, together with several other recent remodeling jobs. Today they have a nice modern church. The Church of Christ building was located on the present school grounds and as our school grew they needed more space, so a new site was purchased in the north edge of Fairy and the church building moved there. This building also being remodeled, roof lowered and completely refinished inside and in later years two new class rooms were added.

Back in 1920 the old Methodist Church was torn down and a new one built. Gathered around our churches were the old horse and buggies at the hitching post. We well remember going out to our buggy one night after church to return home and found our rig was missing. Hubby had failed to tie the horse and a down-pour of rain had fell during the service, so old Billy decided he'd hit the road for home, when he found he wasn't hitched. He had made his way safely through two opened gates at our home and was found with the rest of the stock at our old time straw stack. The buggy had turned on its side, but was undamaged. A stream then, near our home, which during heavy rains, could not be forced, halted all going that way. We remember making down beds all over the house to take care of the stalled church folks.

Back in those days our little town could boast of two general merchandise stores, The Jenkins & Phelps Store and John Fort. We had two blacksmith shops, two drug stores and three doctors part-time, these being the late Dr. S. W. Young, Dr. O. J. Colwick and Dr. Cowan. We had two confectionery stores, barber shop, millinery shop and hotel, which was operated by Mr. and Mrs. Trimmer. But the good roads nowadays take our folks to the larger cities to do a lot of their shopping and the smaller places have dwindled. But we are proud of our general merchandise store, the Parks Store under the management of Audie Parks, who keeps the stock up to date and can most always supply his customer's needs in their line of merchandise. We have our Post Office and drug and confectionery operated by our Postmaster, W. E. Goyno, one gas and service station operated by Otis Danby, one garage, operated by Oran Williford, over which is the Masonic Hall and the Woodman building. Other old business sites have been turned into gardens or what have you, but as the song says, despite our dwindling down, to fewer business establishments, we're still here, and everything is all right.

Now if you want some information of Fairy dating back prior to the 19th Century you'll have to get Uncle Bob Parks or Mrs. Britnie Little to give you the information. Good luck folks.

The Returning Dust Storms

The choking shroud of dust which smothered the state in the last days of February poses an ominous threat to the future of Texas agriculture. It means our soil is blowing away at a rate greater than at any time in the past 15 years. Our soil moisture content is at such a low ebb in some sections that early crop prospects are very poor. If the dust storms continue, then much of our cropland in West Texas can be counted out of production this year. These recurring dusts raise the question "What is wrong with the extensive soil conservation

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Fort Worth, Mar. 2.—Two new developments on the livestock horizon reported lately lend encouragement to the cattle picture in the future, which together might increase values and returns a great deal. Feeders of cattle and sheep have watched the increasing perfection of rations for poultry and turkeys that include a "growth factor" which increases the number of pounds of meat produced per unit of feed. On February 18, Dr. Wise Burroughs of Iowa State College announced that experiments with hormone feeding of beef cattle increased gains as much as 25 percent and cut feed costs as much as 20 percent. Previously hormone feeding of cattle had been unsatisfactory. However, discovery that some grain fed animals which made extraordinary gains contained an estrogenic hormone of low biological activity (diethyl stilbestrol) and this substance resulted in gains that cost from 20 to 25 cents per pound. Feeders around Fort Worth say it currently costs 32 to 35 cents per pound of gain on steers in view of feed costs. Second important news was the success of using inedible animal fats in poultry rations. Tallow has been losing its market to the synthetic or detergent soaps and with the use of these fats in poultry feeds, it should aid prices of livestock. New methods of blending the inedible fats into the rations and success in warding off the rancidity factor, were important steps. The thundering hooves of cattle going to market again reached beyond the hundred thousand marker Monday. Twelve major markets, reported over 120 thousands cattle and calves, this was 34,000 above the same date a year ago. It was enough to weaken prices on virtually all cattle and calves. The continued dry conditions in much of the West and Southwest was putting a damper on the stocker trade, too. Fat steers and yearlings and stocker cattle and calves wound up around 21 lower, some sales off more and some off less, at Fort Worth. Cows were largely steady due to good shipper and small packer demand, but some late sales were 25 to 50 cents off. Bulls averaged 50 cents lower. Killing calves ruled mostly steady until later in the day and they weakened somewhat in line with other kinds. At Fort Worth good and choice fat cattle drew $17 to $22.50, while common and medium kinds drew $12 to $17. Fat cows mostly $10 to $11.50, a few smooth heiferish kinds higher. Canners and cutters $8 to $10.50, some above and some below that. Bulls mostly $10 to $13.50, though one outstanding bull of near 1,900 pounds topped at $14.75. Good and choice fat calves drew $16 to $20, and lower grades $10 to $15. Stocker calves and yearlings of desirable kinds $15 to $19 and stock cows $10 to $12, a few higher. Hog trade at Fort Worth Monday followed another of those weird patterns, where opening sales were just steady and trade picked up and butcher hogs closed 50 cents higher. Top Monday was $27 and $27.25. Sows drew $21 to $24. The run of 7,300 sheep and lambs was largest of the season at Fort Worth. New top price on new crop milk lambs was $24.50. Good and choice milk fat lambs was $24.50 and choice milk lambs at $22 to $24.50, and the lower grades $15 to $21. Good and choice shorn lambs, fat, drew $15 to $20.25, the latter figure a new high for the season on clipped lambs. Woolled fat lambs topped at $22. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $15 to $21, latter price on woolskins, and shorn feeders drew $19.25 down. Yearlings and two's sold from $15 to $18. Old wethers $12 down. Old ewes $7 to $9. Old bucks $4 to $6.

methods advocated and practiced during the past two decades?" Where did we go wrong? The truth is, we didn't go wrong. We just haven't gone far enough in the right direction. We have done wonders in some sections, but our soil saving measures have broken down under the constant buffeting of a three-year drought. We need to exercise every known conservation practice to the "nth" degree in all sections of our state. One good pasture or crop can be eradicated or buried by a nearby blowing field where no soil and moisture saving plan is in effect. Conservation is a state-wide, full time job. The task now rests with the state, the county and the individual farmer. The federal government has already announced it will not provide funds to initiate soil and pasture restoration programs which were recommended by the drought states. A study of 17 states, including Texas, showed that on pasture restoration alone, some $308 million would be needed. And this is merely for seed, lime and fertilizer required to restore about 39 million acres of land. Actually, this 39 million acres includes only land within "major disaster" areas. The figure would be considerably increased if pastureland were included where weather conditions have been bad but not severe enough to warrant designation as a disaster area. Since we cannot turn to federal aid in this time of need, then Texas must depend upon its farmers to do the best they can under the circumstances. It is a job that must be done!
