

Austin, June 28.—This year's campaign for the governorship of Texas is boiling down to an old-fashioned political battle.

Governor Allan Shivers and his opponent Ralph Yarborough are touring the state and throwing punches.

Shivers calls Yarborough the "hand-picked candidate" of the CIO political action committee.

Yarborough accuses Shivers of running an anti-labor campaign.

Yarborough asks for sportsmanship and fair play in campaigning.

Shivers replies that he is happy to learn that Yarborough is going to quit telling "untruths and run a clean campaign for a change."

Yarborough criticizes Shivers for seeking a third term and pictures him as a Democrat-Republican.

Shivers also drew a jab from the Texas State Federation of Labor at its convention in Corpus Christi. The Federation urged his defeat for re-election and termed his record "obnoxious."

Shivers says his labor opposition is originating from the big party bosses and not the rank and file of workers.

The tempo will increase with the temperature as July 24 approaches.

Meanwhile Shivers will be using newspaper ads and radio time to get his message to the public. Yarborough, on the other hand, will concentrate largely on radio and TV.

Political Pot.

Other state political races, warming up now, saw these developments:

Dudley T. Dougherty, candidate for the U. S. Senate, pounded away at incumbent Lyndon B. Johnson's voting record, declaring Johnson "absolutely unfit to be nominated for Senator."

Dougherty listed nine counts to "indict Johnson before the bar of Texas public opinion."

Former Governor Coke Stevenson, who now is helping to mastermind Dougherty's campaign, reports that the response to his appeal to voters to help elect Dougherty "has been heavy."

Jabs at Vice.

Doug Crouch of Fort Worth, candidate for Attorney General, charged that opponent John Ben Shepperd was going easy on friends and prosecuting his enemies.

Crouch also lashed out at what he called flourishing vice organizations in Galveston and guaranteed that he would start his clean-up campaign of the Island City in 24 hours if elected.

Insurance Tangle.

Meanwhile Shepperd and Insurance Commission Chairman Garland Smith tangled over an issue involving the General American Casualty Company of San Antonio, latest insurance failure.

Smith held that the firm should include an "unjust" reason for its failure in the report to the commission—that an accusation by a political candidate had accelerated its bankruptcy.

Shepperd said he wasn't in favor of politics being injected into the issue.

General American directors, although not naming the source, had complained that many of their troubles arose when a candidate for governor had charged that a Texas Insurance firm was deeply in the red. This called unfavorable attention to their company and prevented the reestablishment of financial soundness, they said. A later check revealed that Yarborough had made a similar accusation on the date given by the company's directors.

Shivers Lauded.

A committee set up to aid the State Board of Hospital and Special Schools has commended Governor Allan Shivers for advances made in mental and tubercular care.

Headed by Dr. R. L. Sutherland of Austin, the group listed progress in the state mental and tubercular treatment program as including more patients being discharged from hospitals, reduced hospitalization time, a decline in the death rate of patients, and construction of new buildings.

Committee recommendations called for better salaries for doctors, a new research and training hospital, and organization of a research and training program.

SDX To Help Orphans.

High-school age youngsters at the State Orphan Home in Corsicana will enter Corsicana public schools—for the first time—next September. The state provides these girls and boys with everything but spending money.

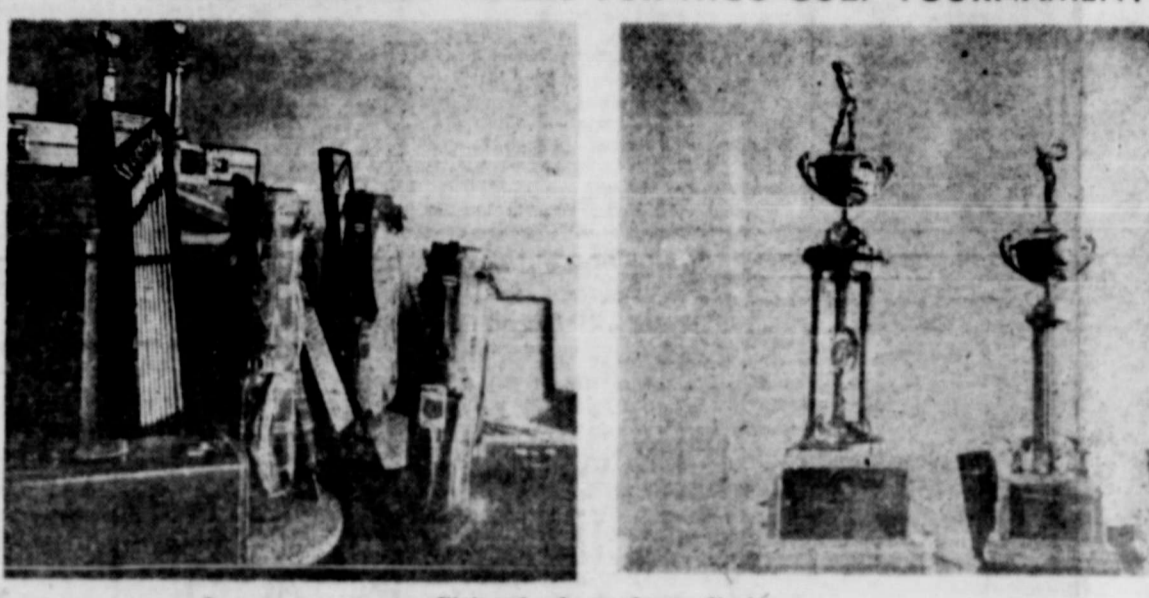

Members of the Austin Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi became concerned about this unhappy situation and decided to do something about it.

"A little spending money, that's all they want," said Bill Gardner, chapter president. "Just enough to jingle in an otherwise empty pocket. Enough to buy a coke, or an ice cream cone, or a candy bar—just like the other boys and girls."

So SDX invited Robert Byrd, superintendent of the schools, to come to Austin and talk to the chapter.

As a consequence the journalists have promised to raise enough cash to keep these 60 young orphan boys and girls in spending money until they finish high school. And it will be a continuing program for the benefit of the new ones who enroll each year.

The town will observe the Fourth of July holiday, which comes on Sunday this year, by closing business establishments all day Monday, July 5. This is in accordance with Chamber of Commerce closing dates set up in agreement with all merchants.

This closing date will serve two purposes. It will allow the families who wish to make a trip to have a longer week end, and it will enable golfers to participate in the annual golf tournament at Bluebonnet Country Club, which will be staged Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Hico Bathing Beauties Invited July 5th to Dublin's Pool Opening

The group from this locale, which include the seven agents and manager of the Stephenville District Office, will be flown via Delta Airlines new DC 7 planes direct from Dallas, non-stop to Havana.

C OF C LUNCHEONS SET THIRD FRIDAY EACH MONTH

At the regular meeting of the Hico Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening, it was agreed to change the meeting date to the third Friday in each month, the meeting to be held in the dining room at Loudermilk Cafe at 12 o'clock noon.

TOURNAMENT WILL HIGHLIGHT FOURTH

Golfers here were "getting in the swing" this week in practice for the week-end tourney to be held at Bluebonnet Country Club Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

This Texas Sand Green Championship Golf Tournament, played for eight years in succession since the end of World War II, will again provide interest for a large number of visiting tournament players.

Ray Cheek, defending champion of last year and two previous years, is reportedly in good shape for making a serious threat to other champion contenders. The local boy, who plays after working hours, has continually held his own against fellows who make a full-time job of playing in tournaments. Cheek and J. H. (Doc) Brinkley of Fort Worth are the only two players who have copped the crown during the eight years, Brink winning five times and Ray, three times.

A delegation from Corsicana and other visiting players will be out to break this record, but Brink will again be here in the running to try again for his turn at championship. He has also come in for his share of medalist honors and long-driving awards. This year's winner will have a new challenge—the shiny trophy offered for the first time at this tournament.

Clyde (Sandy) Ogle, tournament chairman, has received word that there will be a Star Telegram writer, John Morrison, on hand during all three days of this event. He was in Lampasas last week end to cover their tournament, in which a number of the same golfers participated.

Those who haven't sent in their qualifying scores will be out all day Saturday to get their entries in, and visitors are invited to come out and watch. Late that afternoon, probably after 6:30 p. m., the traditional long-driving contest will take place. If time permits, the approaching contest will follow this event, and barbecue will be served shortly after 7:30 Saturday evening. Golfers will be accepted until 6:30 p. m., Ogle said, and pairing will begin after that. Ellis Randals said he expected the matching would be completed by 8:30 p. m., and will be posted on the bulletin board at the club house.

Tournament play will begin at 6:30 a. m. Sunday for the various flights, and will continue throughout the day. Semi-finals are set for Monday morning, with final rounds to be played Monday afternoon.

One Win, One Loss, One Tie Are Results of Little League Games

Hico's Little League, the younger group of baseball players, won over the Waco Club boys in a game played here Monday night. They scored 1 point to Waco's 0, and Shelly Hooper led the boys to victory with his run.

The Pony League boys also played the Waco Club boys that night, and were defeated, 4-2.

Doug Moon was pitcher for the winning Little League, and he gave up no hits. The boys wore their new uniforms for the first time since they have been completed with names on the back.

Tommy Britton pitched for the older boys, and gave up 5 hits. The Hico boys carried the lead until the last inning, but Waco scored 4 runs then.

E. F. Mason, of B. & B. Sporting Goods, is sponsor of the Waco team.

Tuesday night, Hico and Hamilton played seven innings in a Little League game which ended in a tie score of 9-9. Both teams played equally well, and settled on leaving the game at a tie, after playing the one extra inning more than the usual six played in Little League. Both teams had six hits and nine runs.

Milton Lowry, new member of the team, alternated in pitching with Tommy Britton in the Tuesday night game.

Local Boy Scouts Win Swimaree and Other Honors at Tahuaya

Hico Boy Scouts brought home the blue ribbon as first place winner in the Swimaree at Camp Tahuaya near Belton last week. They also won first and second places in Adventure Trail. For camp neatness the group received top awards every day, Sunday through Saturday.

Scoutmaster Weldon Pierce accompanied the following boys to the camp: Buddy Ables, James Eubank, Alan Hodges, Shelly Hooper, James Jordan, Monty Ogle, Lavon Pierce, Douglas Moon, Winford Vinson, Gerald Hodges, and Roy Goodie.

Buddy Ables is a new member of the order of the Arrow. Alan Hodges, Scout Scribe.

Reunion Exhibit Is Among Summer Projects Completed by F. H. A.

Hico Chapter of Future Homemakers of America will be among the exhibitors to occupy a booth at the annual Hico Reunion in August. Under the instruction of their teacher, Mrs. Sammie Tate Pittman, a group of the girls in the chapter have planned and constructed an exhibit of their work.

The local chapter has completed a number of worthwhile projects this summer.

Outstanding among these was the improvement project carried out in the Homemaking Cottage. Various members worked through the month of June to paper and paint the living room and bathroom.

Other groups worked in the community with Vacation Bible Schools at the Baptist and Methodist Churches. This group helped with the handwork and play groups in the primary and beginning classes.

In addition to working in a group project, each girl carried out an individual project on some share of homemaking in her home.

Lions Hear Plea for C. of C. Support at Weekly Luncheon

T. A. Randals, president of Hico's Chamber of Commerce, called on those present at the Wednesday luncheon meeting of the Hico Lions Club for stronger support of the organization which he heads.

"Most of you business men are members," he said, "and are interested in the program we are trying to carry out. This is important. This club can do things that the C. of C. can't do, and likewise an active commercial organization can handle projects and affairs that more properly are considered its responsibility. Attendance is lagging, but I believe this can be stimulated with your help, which I assure you will be more than appreciated."

A plan is under way, Randals said, for a luncheon meeting to be held the third Friday in each month at noon. Members will be advised by post card, and those who are not members are invited to join and enter actively into the work.

Wayne Rutledge, presiding at the Lions Club meeting, recognized the need for an active Chamber of Commerce, and suggested the need for better cooperation with that organization.

Scoutmaster Weldon Pierce reported on the trip to Camp Tahuaya near Belton, which was enjoyed by 11 of the 14 boys enrolled in Hico Boy Scout Troop 99. He exhibited a number of the awards won by the local group, and said the boys made a good record while having such a good time that they all wanted to return to next year's camp. Pierce reported that $190,000 had been raised on the $200,000 quota for the Heart O' Texas Council's building fund, with the remainder expected soon. The camp has been greatly improved in recent months, he said.

Fred Red Harris reported that the Little League baseball program was well under way, and invited everyone to see the games. The Pony League, composed of boys up to 14 years old, played two games this week, losing to Waco and marking up a tie with Hamilton. "The boys look mighty good, and we are proud of them," he said, "and I believe the general public will feel the same way about them when they see what the lads are doing."

President Rutledge advised that it was time to pay dues again, and suggested that the members could save Secretary Ray Cheek a lot of time and effort by taking care of this matter voluntarily, and promptly.

Announcement also was made of the regular monthly directors' meeting to be held next Tuesday at noon, at Loudermilk cafe.

Guests present at Wednesday's meeting were B. B. DuBose of Waco and Bill Speed of Fort Worth.

Resignation Announced Of Henry Loudermilk As Deputy Sheriff

The News Review has been authorized to announce the recent resignation of Henry A. Loudermilk as deputy sheriff of Hamilton County. His resignation was accepted by the Commissioners Court in Hamilton, effective June 15.

Sheriff W. W. (Woody) Young, in Hico Wednesday, said that so far there is nothing definite to announce on a new appointee, but that he will announce this as soon as possible.

Loudermilk was appointed a deputy about two years ago, and was the first one to serve in this section of the county. Hamilton also has another deputy, Cliff Tinkle.

DENNIS R. STIPE WINS ONE-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP TO TEXAS A & M COLLEGE

College Station, June 30.—(Spl.)—Ninety-three top high school students have been named winners of four-year Opportunity Award scholarships at Texas A. and M. College, it was announced today by Dr. J. P. Abbott, dean of the college and chairman of the Faculty Committee on Scholarships.

An additional 22 students were awarded special one and two-year scholarships. Included in this group is Dennis R. Stipe of Route 1, Hico, who completed Hico High School this spring, and is eligible for a one-year scholarship in agriculture.

Winners were chosen by the Faculty Committee on Scholarships of the college through a statewide contest participated in by 410 candidates.

The Opportunity Awards are valued from $500 to $700, recipients receiving $200 to $300 each year for four years, plus employment provided by the college. Winners were chosen after careful consideration of each candidate's character, scholastic record, evidence of leadership and financial circumstances.

The plan was started nine years ago by former students of the college and is further supported by clubs, business organizations, foundations and individuals.

Care in Planning Menu For Picnics Can Help Prevent Food Poisoning

Austin, July 1.—Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, warns that now hot weather is here, everyone should be careful in handling and storing food to prevent food poisoning. The organism grows best in foods that are quite fatty, such as ham, pork, salads, or sandwiches with rich dressings, cream pies, cream puffs, or any food with custard filling. Keep this in mind when you prepare a picnic lunch or when anyone in the family takes a lunch to work during the hot months.

Symptoms of food poisoning usually strike quickly and explosively, and those who do not eat the contaminated food do not become ill. Usually from one to four hours after eating contaminated food, victims feel ill. If it is a mild case of food poisoning, recovery usually begins in eight to 12 hours, but victims may feel the ill effects for several days.

Usual symptoms of food poisoning are diarrhea, nausea, vomiting, abdominal cramps, and weakness. Whenever you feel these symptoms, be sure to call your physician. Do not wait, hoping it will wear off. Sometimes food poisoning causes death.

Careless handling of food before cooking or serving, improper home canning, storing food too long at room temperature, and improper heating of leftover foods are the main cause of food contamination. So, in order not to endanger your family's health, be especially careful in preparing and storing food. Never let a cut or sore place on your hand come into contact with food. Remember, don't take on a picnic or pack in a lunch, fat meats, salads with egg dressings, cream pies, cream puffs, or any food with a custard filling, unless you can keep them properly chilled until serving.

Dallas Church Puts on America's Most Unusual Sunday Evening Program

Dallas, June 29.—On the hot Sunday evenings of July and August, it is not unusual for the 2600 seat auditorium of the First Methodist Church in Dallas to be filled to overflowing. This amazing phenomenon is the result of the most unusual Sunday evening program in America—the Chautauqua Sunday evenings.

Chautauqua is the name of a lakeside village in New York where a summer educational program was instituted, a program which included lectures, study courses and music. Later, traveling Chautauqua-type programs made summer visits to scores of towns and cities across America.

The coming of radio and the development of the moving pictures crowded this educational-entertainment medium off the scene, but the word "Chautauqua" remained to describe a series of lectures and programs.

This year the Dallas Church will present its sixth Chautauqua season. Included in this summer's schedule are such persons as Fred Waring, who will conduct an entire evening's program; Olin Stockwell, missionary-author of "With God in Red China"; opera star Patrice Munsel and TV and movie star Gale Storm, both of whom will be in Dallas for the State Fair Musicals.

Dramatic presentations will be featured on two of the evenings. A southwestern premier of the Christopher Fry drama, "The Boy With The Red Cart" will be given.

On each of the evenings, Glen Johnson, minister of music at the church, conducts the Chautauqua Chorus of 80 voices and a Symphony Orchestra in unusual musical presentations such as "The Ballad of Judas Iscariot" which will be given July 11.

Dr. Robert E. Goodrich, Jr., who conceived the idea of the series and plans each year's programs, believes that the 1954 season will be the greatest yet. "A person can attend the full Chautauqua series and hear great music, see great personalities, receive inspiration and information which could hardly be found anywhere else in one city and without any admission or charge," Dr. Goodrich explains.

Following is a schedule of the Chautauqua features: July 4, Gale Storm singing favorite hymns and patriotic songs and a July 4 address by Dr. Goodrich, "Freedom and Faith." July 11, Olin Stockwell, author of "With God in Red China," Methodist missionary who was held many months in prison by the Chinese Communists; July 18, Mary Welch, author of more than a dozen books on Prayer and prominent leader of prayer missions throughout America; July 25, Dr. Jim Mathews, recently returned from India; August 1, Patrice Munsel, Metropolitan Opera star, and Mr. Franz Allers with the Singing Chorus of the State Fair Musicals; August 8, "The Boy With The Red Cart," drama by Christopher Fry; August 15, Fred Waring, conducting three choirs (two negro church choirs) in "God's Trombones" and other numbers; August 22, Dr. Charles Wells, cartoonist, world traveler, lecturer; August 29, "Faith Is Born," the dramatic musical production originally presented in San Francisco for the General Conference of the Methodist Church.

The Sunday evening programs begin with a film featurette at 7:30 followed at 7:45 by the Chautauqua Chorus and Orchestra in the special musical presentations. The Chautauqua "feature" is usually presented around 8:15 p. m.

Fairy

By Mrs. Eunice Massengale

Hot, dry weather still prevails, however we have had some breeze blowing the past several days. Grasses and other vegetation are becoming very dry and all should be very careful in throwing out matches or cigarettes along the highways, also in trash fires and such like around the home. For as the old adage says "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." It is much harder to get a fire put out than to get it started. Some cattlemen have had to begin feeding range cattle.

We are very glad to inform our readers that we received information through the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce program by radio today, Monday, that a telegram had been received from the Elmo Newsome family at Galveston, that Elmo is much improved and expects to soon be able to return to their home at Hamilton. Mr. Newsome, who is a brother of Mrs. T. R. Parks of near Fairy has been seriously ill for a number of weeks, having been hospitalized for a time at Hico and Waco hospitals and then transferred to John Sealy Hospital, Galveston. His many friends and relatives will be glad indeed to learn that he is now thought to be on the road to recovery. Elmo is a son of Mrs. John Newsome and the late John Newsome of Hamilton, who formerly resided in the Fairy community.

We were informed several weeks ago that Mr. Jim Jacobs of Stephenville had suffered a paralytic stroke and have intended to inform our readers and overlooked this news item. The Jacobs are former residents of Fairy. Mr. Jacobs operated a barber shop during their residence here. We hope he is improved by this writing.

We also failed last week to state that our cousins, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. May of Moody visited a while with the writer, Mrs. Gladys Cox and other relatives here last Thursday week. They were returning from Gorman where they had visited his uncle, Tommie May, who suffered a stroke several months ago. He is 86 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darwin Hoover and little sons, Charles D. Jr. and Peter Jameson of Phoenix, Arizona, returned home last Friday week after a week's visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don and the writer visited a while Wednesday night of last week in the home of their sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin. Other guests were the Allison's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman. The get-together was in honor of Wayne's birthday. Members of the party enjoyed playing croquet on the back lawn, the set being a birthday gift from Mrs. Pittman. He received several other nice and useful gifts. Refreshments of hamburgers, home made ice cream and cake was enjoyed by all.

The Baptist Vacation Bible School will open Monday morning, July 5. The time will be from 8:30 to 11:00 a. m. The preparatory service will be held this Saturday morning and they would be glad to have all who plan to attend enroll at this time. The commencement program is expected to be held Friday night, July 9. Will try and announce this next week.

The annual Church of Christ series of meetings will begin this Friday evening, July 2, with evening services beginning at 8:00 p. m. Day services will be held at 10:00 a. m. each day throughout the week and will continue through the evening service of Sunday, July 11. Minister Milton Poage of Bangs will conduct the services with the song service under the direction of John Clovis of Abilene Christian College. All have a cordial invitation to attend these services.

Mrs. Ralph Spencer and little sons, Donald and Richard Karin of Lubbock left for home Wednesday of last week after more than a week's visit with relatives here. She was met in Brockenside by her husband for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Spencer and joined by her sister, Miss Daphne Hoover, who had also been visiting the week, and who accompanied them home, returning to her home in Midland the first of the week.

We intended to ask for a birthday card and letter shower for Mrs. Minnie (Penny) McCarty of Hamilton on July 1 and just let the date slip near us before we knew it and since we didn't have time through our news letter, we had it announced on the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce program beginning today (Monday) by radio. So if you have failed to catch the announcement and would like to send her a card or letter, we feel sure it would be appreciated even though it is a few days late. She will be 78 years old and as we have stated previously is an invalid having been bedridden for 6 years. She is very sad and lonely since the passing of her daughter, Mrs. Willis Oglesby and we feel sure she would be glad to hear from her many friends and acquaintances. Address her in care of Willis Oglesby, Hamilton, Rt. 3. Thanking all in advance who comply to this request.

Postmaster W. E. Goynes states he bought about $40.00 worth of paint for his wife and daughter, Miss Lynda to play around with and from the outward appearance of their residence, looks like they're doing a pretty good job. They purchased the Methodist parsonage several years ago and have been making improvements inside and out, as time permits and also had a new roof applied some time back. They spend quite a

Mrs. Goynes has been a member of the Dublin school faculty, but term Fairy their permanent home. Mr. Goynes being reared here.

The writer attended singing at Hazeldehl last Sunday afternoon, accompanying the A. H. Sumerford from Hamilton and visited after singing hours in the Willis Oglesby home with Mrs. Minnie McCarty and Willis. They have employed a lady to keep house and take care of Mrs. McCarty and as long as they can secure these services in Hamilton, they now plan to remain there. It was first thought they might have to move to Florence to be with the children and grandchildren.

Walter Porterfield and T. L. Betts left Thursday of last week for a visit with relatives in California. Mr. Betts will visit his son, Joe Betts and family of Reedley, Calif., and Mr. Porterfield will visit his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hurt and twin daughters, but we failed to remember what part of California they reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family visited Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton. Mrs. Dorman Vance and baby of Fort Worth are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson and Gwen.

Washington

As It Looks From Here

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Underlying all actions of our Government is the search for a "way out" of the several dilemmas now being faced.

The motion had my greatest sympathy. A year ago I introduced an amendment on the Floor of the House of Representatives to postpone any further spending and reconsider the fact that at the time there was unexpended approximately ten billion dollars.

Several weeks ago, Secretary of State Dulles told the French that unless they ratified the European Defense Agreement, it would be necessary for us to make an "agonizing reappraisal."

In this world of uncertainty, every individual must at some time ask himself, "Is there anything I can do?"

Every person can contribute to the mental and spiritual force now urgently needed to control the vast new physical force unleashed in the world.

Teddy Roosevelt warned that in time of peril we should speak softly, but carry a big stick. It is a dangerous thing to carry a little stick and try to make up for it by talking louder.

The greatest care is always exercised in this column not to refer to anything of a personal, political nature. However, since I have no opponent in the coming election, may I express to everyone my deepest appreciation for your help, interest, and understanding, which I know would be forthcoming if I had a campaign.

Listen as the Redbird Rambles

By Carolyn Holford

RAMBLING so far from home, as the Redbird did last week, one is apt to overlook news right around this vicinity.

APPLICATIONS taken recently numbered around 60 persons who would be interested in working in such a business if it should come to Hico, according to one source.

NEW SERVICE STATIONS are past that planning point, however, and it looks as if Hico will soon have three of them, in addition to those already in operation on Highways 6 and 281 west of town.

Alvin Casey's station is the nearest completed, and will combine a parts department. He moved his place from Druid Jones' building to the shop formerly operated by Keller and Rainwater.

Meanwhile Pete Keller, who was working in that location, has moved his mechanical and body work business to work in conjunction with A & J Grocery on the other end of the highway.

NEW SINCLAIR station which has been in the talking stage the past several months, has progressed to the point of letting a construction contract to C. M. Bailey of Stephenville.

Workmen were clearing trees this week in preparation for the beginning of work. No definite statement has been made, either, as to who will operate the service station.

FELLOW FROM IREDELL by the name of Oldham has created a great deal of activity a little farther west on Highways 6 and 281, on the old Phillips property.

After several weeks' work, a building of concrete blocks is taking shape for a filling station. He spent some time previously in hauling dirt to build up the lot and plans to have a store of groceries and general items besides the station.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Oldham and two sons, Harold and Geary, moved to Hico from Ireddell about a month ago. She is the former Alma Phillips, who was reared in Hico.

We are glad to welcome these Ireddell folks to our community, as well as the other improvements mentioned above.

CITY WORKERS were busy this week repairing paved streets which will be re-topped some time in the near future. There will also be some streets in the area of the public school buildings which will receive a paved surface treatment.

PUBLIC UTILITIES are not behind in this spirit of remodeling either. Work was completed this week at Gulf States Telephone Co. on a complete new job of papering and painting the upstairs office.

FOR PUBLIC USE another project is also in the planning stage. The veterans vocational agriculture building, which occupied a lot formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, has been vacated since the close of the school, and according to provisions set up by governmental agencies, this building will revert to the local public school.

There has been some talk that the school plans to move the building on to the public school grounds and put it in the hands of the Parent-Teacher Association to remodel for a youth center.

The P-TA has searched for an opportunity to operate a youth center since last spring when they heard desires expressed by the students for some such place. The frame building is approximately 100 x 40 feet and will probably be moved by next fall.

IN THAT AREA where the veterans building now stands, there is another new residence in the neighborhood which has seen so much expansion in the past couple of years.

OTHER NEW HOMES have found location on lots within the city limits formerly overlooked by prospective home-owners.

BRICK HOME will be the new residence for Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Herrington Sr., when it is completed.

Olin Baptist Church Invites Youngsters to Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School at the Olin Baptist Church will begin Monday, July 12, according to an announcement from Rev. Moody Smith, pastor of that church.

ATTENDING SUMMER SCHOOL Stephenville, July 1.—Carol Ross of Hico is attending the first six weeks of summer school here at Tarleton State College.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the flowers, cards, food, words of sympathy, and any kindness extended at the death of my brother, Vernon Gandy, of Keller, Texas.

WILL THE Supreme Court decision ruling out segregation in public schools have election repercussions? Definitely so, say the political observers, with full impact when the 1966 ballot boxes are counted.

Despite the fact that the decision was rendered by a Supreme Court made up of seven Democrats and two Republicans, it occurred during a Republican Administration and is therefore expected to make the President, and perhaps his party, more acceptable to Negro voters in the Northern and Border states—voters who have been predominantly Democratic since 1944. Strangely enough, it is not expected to bring any appreciable change in the Negro vote in the South.

The decision may cause some Southern white voters to turn away from moderates on the race issue in favor of candidates who openly oppose the Supreme Court ruling.

Just how important is the Negro vote? There are now an estimated 16 million Negroes and about three million of them are registered voters, with more than a million of these in the South. Negroes in the South voted Republican from the Civil War until 1940, have since voted Democratic. In the 1952 Presidential election, the Negro vote was 73 per cent Democratic and 27 per cent Republican in Negro wards and precincts of 47 cities, according to a survey conducted by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The survey disclosed a more than 90 per cent Negro Democratic vote in Detroit, Gainesville, Ga., Wilmington, N. C.; Columbia and Darlington, S.C.; and Corpus Christi and Houston, Texas. Many politicians have also expressed belief that the states of Louisiana and South Carolina stayed in the Democratic column in 1952 on the strength of the Negro vote.

The Republican National Committee is attempting to "sell" its party to the Negro. Immediately after the Supreme Court decision was handed down, Republicans made a survey among 416 Negroes in the District of Columbia to find out what they thought about the decision, who they felt was responsible for it, and to what party they belonged. All of those interviewed favored the decision, and 304 replied that President Eisenhower, the Republicans or Chief Justice Warren was responsible for it. Seventy said they didn't know and 42 said the Democrats were responsible for it. Of those queried, 240 said they were Democrats, 144 Republicans, 32 would not say.

The Negro vote could be of vital importance this year in marginal Congressional districts, particularly those where it is more than five per cent of the total. It is not likely to swing Republican in most Southern states, however, because there the Negro, like the white, feels he must vote Democratic if his vote is to have impact.

While both the Republicans and the Democrats believe the ruling will definitely affect the Negro vote everywhere, they agree that Negro voters are more likely to be influenced by other important issues, such as employment opportunities, availability of housing, cost of living and economic conditions in general.

STAINS and spots commonly found on rugs respond to home removal methods quite well if you'll follow the directions given below. An important part of success in their removal is to get to them as soon as they occur.

Mud stains are common, but offer little difficulty if you permit the mud to dry and then brush out with a stiff-bristled brush. Use a dry rug shampoo if any stain remains.

Candle wax on rugs responds usually to sponging with carbon tetrachloride (cleaning fluid). Blot

New Billing System Announced by Local Telephone Company

A new system of billing, rather unique among telephone companies, has received favorable comment among subscribers in Hico, according to information submitted by Art Anderson, manager of Gulf States Telephone Co. in this district. Introducing this system last month, they sent out letters to customers, which said in part:

"As a part of our progress to continually improve our service to our subscribers, we are making a change in the method of billing charges for long distance calls. Instead of receiving an itemized statement of your calls attached to your bill, you will receive the original tickets made by the operator at the time you made the call. The total charges for these calls, including applicable federal tax, will, however, appear on your regular rental bill. A microfilm or photographic record of your call will be kept by our company for future reference.

The principle is fashioned after that used commonly by banks, in that the tickets which subscribers will receive will be similar to receiving your cancelled check from the bank. All the information recorded at the time the call was placed is included on the ticket, and should be submitted to the company in case of any question regarding a long distance phone bill.

Members of this group are asked to meet at First Baptist Church at 7:30 this evening. They will then go to Debbie Pruett's home, where the social will be held. "You are urged to be there," says a prepared announcement of this meeting. "The refreshment committee requests that you bring your own wieners. Everything else will be furnished."

BASIC AMERICAN PRINCIPLE REFLECTED IN DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Our Declaration of Independence, signed 178 years ago, is considered by lawyers as expressing a basic principle of our American way of life—our belief in a government of laws rather than a government of men, and in certain individual rights that must not be denied by governing bodies. The indictments set out in the document against King George III of Great Britain charged him with numerous violations of that tenet. Among the complaints enumerated are the following:

"He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people."

"He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent for laws for establishing judiciary powers."

"He has made judges dependent upon his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries."

"He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation: . . . For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury; For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses; . . . For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our government; . . . For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever."

"Our forefathers who subscribed to the principles of the Declaration of Independence were willing to fight for their beliefs. The Revolutionary War followed, dragging through weary years of suffering and suspense. Each of us takes pride in their eventual triumph over gigantic obstacles."

In 1787 when the framers of our Constitution met at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, where the Declaration of Independence had been signed 11 years previously, they set to work to create a system of checks and balances in government which was to perpetuate the fundamental theory mentioned in the preamble of the earlier document:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident; That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain 'inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

"That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; . . ."

Some 5 years later, the first ten amendments to our Constitution were adopted at one time, specifically detailing various basic civil rights stemming from the underlying theory of the Declaration of Independence. . . .

'Home Safe Home' Is Common Sense Motto For All Vacationers

Autin, July 1.—Home safe home is not just a take-off on a well known cliché but a good common sense motto for vacationers.

A few pre-vacation precautions suggested by Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, may save home-owners both money and worry.

Vacationers require a great deal of planning but your home deserves preparation for your absence as well—much more than putting the cat out. Remember a vacant house is a constant temptation to fire and theft!

A thorough job of housecleaning is number one on the list of safety preparations. A clean house, garage and yard can greatly reduce the possibility of fire. Such dangers as using water heater closets as storage places should be checked and corrected.

Outside doors as well as cabinet and closet doors on the inside should be locked. Then if a fire should start, it may be confined to one room until it is discovered and extinguished.

Leave window shades up and blinds open so that a fire may be quickly observed by neighbors or passersby, Mr. Parker explains.

All appliances such as radios, television sets, toasters, lamps, etc., should be unplugged and refrigerators and home freezers turned down to vacation level.

Burglaries are almost as common as fires. According to national statistics, a burglary occurs somewhere, about once a minute, so make your home burglar-proof as well as fire-safe.

Accumulated milk bottles and newspapers are fire-tips that the house is vacant. Notify your milkman and newsboy by letter or telephone and not by note.

Tell your neighbors when you leave so that they can keep an eye on your place and report immediately any trouble. The appearance of any strangers or suspicious person should be reported to the police.

Don't tell strangers that you are leaving town. Ask your neighbors not to advertise your absence, either. Never allow strangers without proper credentials to enter your home. Many times thieves pose as salesmen, or repairmen in order to "case" your house for future operations.

Follow these simple rules, Mr. Parker advises, and your home will be less likely to fall prey to one of these vacation-day hazards.

Mrs. Edith Van Patton and daughter Joyce of Pangburn, Arkansas, who have been visiting in West Texas, have returned to Hico for another visit with their parents and grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown.
