HERE IN HICO

By E. V. M.

Did you ever wonder how many businesses there are in Hico?

This department made a survey the other day and found out that there are approximately 78 established business institutes in our town.

Reason for this analysis? Well at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting there were a total of 16 members present. Yep, that's right, 16.

How many should a town the size of Hico have at such a civic meeting? It's hard to estimate exactly, but in our way of thinking and believing, no meeting should ever go without having at least 35 members present.

No town, regardless of size should be without proper representation from a good sound Chamber of Commerce. The Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, and numerous other organizations are fine and dandy, BUT... when any business establishment, manufacturing concern, etc., wants to investigate your town for business purposes, who do they depend on for their answers? Your Chamber of Commerce.

Take our local organization for example. Last week when the Soil Conservation Service wanted a so-called sponsor—that is some organized group to sign their name on the new watershed project—they called on the Hico C. of C.

The group is not necessarily for businessmen alone. Farmers, ranchers, and any other person interested in the growth and development of our town are welcome to participate in these meetings, either as guests or regular members.

We could probably rave on and on pertaining to the many things your chamber body can do for our town, but the point we are getting at is this... Don't ever let the Hico Chamber of Commerce meet without your attendance.

Meeting day for the group is every third Friday of each month. Place is at Loudermilk Cafe and the time is 12 o'clock noon.

Incidentally, the local group's regular meeting date will be today, Friday, at the usual place.

Be represented at these meetings and express your opinions on the many issues for the benefit of Hico.

Our sincere congratulations go to Stan and Mary Ella Bundy in their new business venture. As most of you know, the popular young couple recently purchased the Devils River News at Sonora, and assumed management June 1. We know they will find this venture interesting, and we wish for them all the success in the newspaper field. (How about putting us on the exchange list, Stan and Mary?)

Dates for Bluebonnet Country Club's 10th Annual Golf Tournament are fast approaching, and indications are that even a larger number of people will be here for the July Fourth week-end than in past years.

In the past visitors from all over the state who come to visit and participate in the tournament never cease to marvel at the fine facilities Hico has in the way of a golf course and club house. Many towns twice the size of Hico can't begin to compare with our set up.

It seems a shame that we have no more interest in our local club. Membership fees are perhaps the most reasonable of any club of any kind in the state.

Anyway, whether you are a golf fan or not, the visitors will be here and the town should make them feel as welcome guests.

Farmers, ranchers and home owners who haven't been reading E. R. Lawrence's column, "County Agent Reports," are missing a good deal of valuable information.

Sometimes space restricts the use of the column every week, but we do intend to carry it as often as possible. Give it a try and see if you don't find it worthwhile.

Pony and Little Leaguers are playing a double-header at Hico Stadium tonight (Friday), so why not give them your support by attending these and all the local games this year. We think you will enjoy seeing the brand of ball these little fellows play.

Dublin, Granbury and Glen Rose Winners In B. V. League

By LEON LEWIS

The Dublin and Tolar game Sunday was a pitching battle. Dublin used K. P. Pendleton for four and a third innings and Salyer went four and two-thirds innings, with the score Dublin 2 and Tolar 1. Deavers pitched all the way for Tolar.

Granbury defeated Iredell 8 to 4.

The Hico and Glen Rose game was a bit one sided with Glen Rose winning 14-0. It looked for a while like Stacey would have to forfeit on account of players not showing up. He finally mustered a team but three or four of them were not his regular players. Glen Rose had a good pitcher. Those things just happen sometimes in baseball. Joe still holds fast to first place, with the play-off games just around the corner. That's when you better watch Joe Stacey.

The game I had no report on last week was played with Granbury winning over Glen Rose 5 to 3.

Next Sunday finds Iredell at Dublin, Hico at Granbury and Glen Rose at Tolar. Go see these games.

Rev. Morgan Garrett Named Pastor of Hico Methodist Church

Rev. Morgan Garrett was named Sunday as pastor of the First Methodist Church in Hico, at the annual meeting of the conference held in Fort Worth.

Rev. Garrett comes to the local church from Corsicana, and succeeds Rev. D. R. McCauley, who in turn goes to Kerens.

Rev. McCauley has been pastor of the local church for the past 2½ years. He and his wife have worked with the congregation during these years to make a fine record. Mrs. McCauley has been very helpful in working with women's organizations, and has been in charge of direction of the choir.

Appointments were announced last Sunday by Bishop William C. Martin. Other nearby churches and their pastors are: Iredell, C. E. Wade; Carlton-Lamkin, J. W. Hodges; Clairette Circuit, Weldon Thomas; and Hamilton Circuit, Wesley Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Moss and son, Rex Denman, of Irving spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ramage and children.

It Happened Here or Near

By E. E. DAWSON

Next Sunday is Father's Day. Americans do not regard Father's Day as highly as they do Mother's Day. Fact is, the real interest taken in it, so far as this observer has been able to determine, is something less than half that given Mother's Day. That is not to say that Dad is not important, for everybody knows that he is, from a biological stand point and social and industrial and every other stand point. But really Dad is an onlooker in a rather large degree and Mom is the manager of the children and their main teacher and lavishes on them the love that they appreciate later when they begin to think of the real values of life. It is Mom who teaches the baby to walk, who feeds him his meals, who changes his clothes and keeps him comfortable, that kisses him goodnight, and rushes to his bedside when he has a nightmare or needs attention of any sort. Dad may wake up and inquire, "Now what's matta with the brat?" But does he have a look and reassure the youngster? This writer is a seven-time Dad, and he thinks he is about the average, and he knows that it was Mom who looked after the youngsters for the most part.

Now all this has not been said to dampen the enthusiasm for Father's Day, but more of a frank appraisal of the situation. Let's

Pony and Little Leaguers Will Play Double-Header

Report on Tour of Greens Creek Watershed Heard by Lions Club

Meeting in regular session Wednesday noon at Loudermilk Cafe, members of Hico Lions Club heard reports from various members on the tour conducted Tuesday of the Greens Creek Watershed projects.

Lions Roberts, Petsick, and Walker briefly outlined what the group saw, and commented that "you have to actually see these structures to really appreciate them." They heartily recommended the trip to anyone interested and said that it would be well worth the time and effort.

Only other report heard by the group was from Lion Walker. He reported that 29 of the Reunion booths had been sold to date. That leaves only 8 to be sold, and anyone interested in such a display booth, should contact him immediately.

Paul W. Hamilton Elected Master of Hico Masonic Lodge

Paul W. Hamilton was elected worshipful master of Hico Masonic Lodge No. 477 at a meeting last Thursday night at Masonic Hall.

Marvin Marshall was named senior warden; O. L. Davis, junior warden; John Reed, secretary; Ellis Randalls, treasurer, and D. F. Couch, tiler.

Installation will be held at a called meeting Tuesday night, June 28. The retiring worshipful master is Bernell Jernigan.

City Council Makes Plans for Paving of Hico Streets

At their regular monthly meeting last Monday night, Hico City Councilmen made tentative plans for 10,000 square yards of new street paving, and an additional 10,000 square yards of seal coating. Contract for the street work is expected to be signed next month.

The council voted to purchase a new electric water fountain for the city hall, which has been extensively renovated and refurbished, and to purchase two fire plugs. A contract with C. L. Chance of Austin for the collection of delinquent city taxes was renewed.

try to make the Old Man feel good and important next Sunday.

Now here are some excerpts from a letter a Dad has already had from a daughter in contemplation of Father's Day, and it is good reading for the Pater Familias. Quote: "I do want you to know I love you dearly, and to me you have always been my pal and brother, as well as my Father. May I thank you for winning me to the Lord so many years ago and living such a life before me that it would have been hard for me to go wrong. I know at times I have hurt you and for that I am sorry, but as a child I often thought differently to what you knew. But now I can look back and thank you and mother for guiding my feet in the Bible path. You have been a wonderful Dad to me and as time slips by I want you to know that I appreciate everything you have done for me and for my family. You are fast going near the sunset, but in my heart I feel that God has blessed me by sparing you so long. And now our wish is to make the remainder of your life as happy as human beings can with God's help. Your devoted daughter."

Now if that Dad does not grow about an inch across his chest it will be a seven-day wonder. My guess is that Dad will appreciate such a Father's Day letter a whole lot more than he will a shirt, or tie—even though it is a rare thing he does not need such things.

Hon. Omar Burleson
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Burleson:

The Helping Hand Bible Class (about 50 members) of the Hico Methodist Church, want you to know that you can count on our class as standing with you, and hope that you will use your influence in the Congress to urge the passing of the Langer Bill to take Beer Ads and Liquor Drinking scenes off Radio and Television, so that our families may have wholesome amusement without hearing and seeing the vicious and subtle propaganda and tactics of the Liquor Traffic used in promoting and selling their products.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Annie Waggoner, Pres.

OTTO CARL NEIE

A very large crowd was present for funeral services for Mr. Otto Carl Neie, which were held at 3 p. m. at the Lanham Methodist Church last Thursday, June 9. The services began at the home and continued at the church, with Rev. Wesley Jones of Lanham officiating. Burial was in the Cranfills Gap cemetery.

Mr. Neie was born Dec. 8, 1886 in Washington County, the son of William and Johanna Neie. He was married to Miss Lydia Mae Blum on November 16, 1916. They have lived in the Lanham community since their marriage and have been active members of the Lanham Methodist Church for about 20 years.

Mr. Neie was confirmed in the Lutheran Church as a boy.

The song service was rendered by the Hamilton Quartet, with Mrs. John Jordan as accompanist. Also a solo was rendered by Miss Nancy Roberts of Lanham with her mother as accompanist. The floral offering was very beautiful which bore tribute of love and respect for the life he had lived.

Mr. Neie was a good neighbor and numbered his friends by his acquaintances.

Surviving Mr. Neie are his bereaved wife and three sons and nine grandchildren, as follows: Reubin Neie, wife and three children of Lake Charles, La.; Marvin Neie, wife and three children of Gatesville; and Oliver Neie, wife and three children of Durango, Colorado; one sister, Mrs. Emma Kunkel of Aleman and one brother, Bill Neie of Hico; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters and two brothers.

Mr. Neie had been ill for several years. The last year of his life he suffered much but bore his suffering with patience. We extend deepest sympathy to his dear companion and other relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. Waynand Allison and Johnny Wayne of Baytown spent Sunday and Monday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison. Other children visiting in the home to be with them were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin and Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited a while Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton.

The writer visited a while Saturday afternoon in Dublin in the home of our daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel.

There is still some grain to harvest, since we received another good rain Wednesday afternoon of last week, which was accompanied by strong winds. We haven't learned of any damage as yet in this section, but noted on our way to Dublin Saturday that some TV antennae had been toppled in the Alexander area.

Housewives are busy canning and since we have the best gardens this year we have had in many years preparing vegetables for freezing, all are dividing their surplus with friends and neighbors, and not only do the farm women have pretty gardens but we have seen many pretty gardens in the cities this year.

We are sorry to report Grandpa Turner ill at this writing. He is the father of Willie Turner of Fairy and makes his home with him. We understand he was expected to be returned home Monday after several days stay in the Hico Hospital. We have not learned the nature of his illness other than that they were unable to awake him when his illness was first discovered. He is 80 years old but has been quite active for his age, walking to Fairy, a distance of about a mile, quite often. We hope he will soon be fully recovered from his illness.

The writer attended singing at Lund Valley Baptist Church Sunday, accompanying the A. H. Sumerfords from Hamilton. On our return to Hamilton we visited a while with Mrs. Minnie McCarty at the Hurley rest home. Glad to report her gradually improving from a rash or allergy from which she has been suffering for several months.

Birthdays for June which we have failed to mention earlier are Mrs. T. L. Betts, June 2; Mrs. Loreta Allison, June 5; Mrs. Gladys Cox, and our deceased husband, J. O. Richardson, June 9; and Carolyn Sellers June 15. June 13 was the wedding anniversary of the writer. June 21 is the birthday of Mrs. Marcille Cox Price, Austin, also June 14 is the birthday of Mrs. J. E. Blakley. A birthday dinner honoring her is being given today at the home of her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield of Fairy.

We learn this morning after arriving at the post office that Grandpa Turner is still a patient in the Hico Hospital and didn't rest so well on Monday night. The Willis Turner family have been ill of intestinal flu and virus. We hope all will soon be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Allison attended the commencement exercises of their granddaughter, Sherry Seago of Waco. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sellheimer of Fort Worth.

Action-Packed Story On Sports Car Racing To Show at Hico Theatre

In "The Racers," which will show at the Hico Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday, Twentieth Century-Fox has put on the screen for the first time the exciting and dramatic story of European sports car racing in Cinemascope and in the true-to-life hues of De Luxe color. The stars are Kirk Douglas, Bella Darvi, Gilbert Roland, Cesar Romero, Lee J. Cobb and Katy Jurado.

All the auto racing scenes for the story about a man, Douglas, who is torn between his two loves—the thrill of winning a race and the desire of winning a woman, Miss Darvi, were filmed in the actual European locale. Such well-known racing events as the Mille Maglia, Grand Prix de Italia were included in the important background of the thrill-packed story.

To insure complete fidelity the film company purchased three Ferrari and three Maserati racing cars and entered them as actual competitors in the European races. These cars were brought back to Hollywood where Douglas, Roland, Romero and John Hudson drove them at speeds up to 100 miles an hour for the close-up scenes. The accident scenes of cars hurtling over walls and skidding on oily roads are some of the most thrilling ever filmed by a motion picture camera. Cameraman Joe MacDonald used as many as twelve Cinemascope cameras at a time to capture the excitement and crack-ups of the speed events.

"The Racers" is based on a novel by a former European speed champion, Han Ruesch, and reveals the inside story of this sport with all its intrigue, romance and hazards for the men who drive their cars at break-neck speed and the women in their lives. Since many of the scenes occur on the Riviera and in other fashionable European centers, Miss Darvi has occasion to wear 22 changes of costume resulting in a veritable fashion parade.

TEXAS' BIGGEST CAVE

Underground map of famous Texas Longhorn Cavern shows the two miles of subterranean passageways that have been opened to visitors and some of the amazing natural phenomena that make the cavern one of the most spectacular scenic wonders of Texas and the nation. The tremendous cavern, located in Longhorn Cavern State Park near Burnet, is the largest cave in Texas and the third largest in the world.

Texas Longhorn Cavern Is Third Largest in World

The two miles of Texas Longhorn Cavern now open to the public and the six additional miles that have been explored hint at yet undiscovered marvels that may come to light if the subterranean vastness of the huge cave is ever thoroughly charted, in the opinion of qualified cave experts.

Longhorn Cavern, which is the third largest cave in the world in its present form, already can boast of a greater variety of natural phenomena than any of the other great caves of the world. Every one of the tremendous chambers and the passageways which connect them is different—due to the diversity of the rock layers through which the cavern was carved by an ancient river.

The Chandelier Room has grotesque stalactites hanging like weird chandeliers from the ceiling. In the Dome Room, the ceiling is pitted with strange dome-like depressions. Crystallized calcite in the fabulous Hall of Diamonds makes the walls sparkle as though encrusted with precious gems. One long tunnel is reminiscent of the Catacombs of ancient Rome. Iron oxide gives a rich glowing red color to the walls in many parts of the cavern. The Main Room is 183 feet long and has had as many as 2,860 people in it at one time (and wasn't even crowded).

In the section of the cave still closed off to the public, two lower levels have been explored, one 185 feet below the surface and the other an eerie 310 feet deep. And the end has not yet been reached, even by the most intrepid bands of "spelunkers." As the cave experts say, no telling how much further the cave goes, winding its way beneath the craggy hills of the Highland Lakes resort country.

Guided tours leave the cavern's administration building every hour and the cave is open every day of the year. The round-trip stroll to and from the deepest point on the tour, 120 feet underground, takes about two hours. Temperature remains at a comfortable 64 degrees, no matter how hot it gets outside.

Already one of Texas' most alluring scenic attractions for out-of-state tourists, the cavern is also unusually accessible for sight-seeing Texans from all corners of the state.

The famous cave is located in beautiful Longhorn Cavern State Park almost in the geographical center of Texas. Entrance to the park is four miles south of Burnet on U. S. Highway 281.

TURNBOW CEMETERY

By JIM TURNBOW

There is a little country cemetery 5 miles south of Alexander and 12 miles southeast of Dublin. It is known as the Turnbow Cemetery. Not that it belongs to them, but because there are more of the Turnbows and their descendants buried there than any other family. The first one buried there was little Henry Lee Rose. He died Dec. 23, 1879, at the age of 20 days. He was a son of Granville and Mary Rose, and grandson of Chesley and Sabra Turnbow.

The Turnbows were among the pioneers of Erath county. Andrew Turnbow, son of Chesley, came to Erath 101 years ago. He married Jane Salmon, who was living where the town of Clairette now is, when he and Granville Rose arrived here. But there was no Erath County then. Chesley Turnbow and four other sons, Houton, John, Bill and Joe, and five daughters arrived just 100 years ago. Chesley Turnbow and wife, all of his sons, and all of their wives except one, are buried here and two daughters are buried here. They are Mrs. Louise Caudle and Mrs. Elizabeth Key. She was the mother of Alec, John and George Maloney, and Mrs. Lawrence Moore, also Will, Sabra and Laura Key.

There are many other old-time settlers buried here. Uncle Henry Whisenant and wife and son Joe, Uncle Jessie Douglas, Uncle Ed Wiley and wife and son Cass, Mr. Brann and wife, Mr. Loden and wife, Mr. John Lowery and wife, Mr. Buchanan and wife, Mr. Jim Parrish and wife, Mr. Will Deisher and wife, Uncle Bill Fox and wife, who lived just 100 years. Mr. Henry Mitchell and wife, Old Grandpa and Grandma Peck, the Shaddicks, the Shaws and Mr. Montgomery and wife.

And the Palmers, the Andersons and the Roberts families, and the Love family. The Matthews, the Maloneys, the Ellisons and the Moores. I have only mentioned the larger families. Would love to call all of their names, but cannot. There are several unmarked graves. No one knows who some of them are.

We are proud of our cemetery and appreciate the way most people help to keep the cemetery in a way that when people pass by they will know that someone remembers and cares.

Some seem to have forgotten their folks that are buried there. But we remember them and their graves get the same care as that of our own folk's graves. Most who help, do it without asking. No one likes to ask anyone to care for their own folk's graves. Two or three dollars a year from each one who has folks buried there would keep the cemetery in good condition. But as it is some has to pay more. We like to meet once a year and see that all graves are in good condition. Not only our own folk's graves but our friends, and the unknown who have been forgotten. We want to remember them as we would like to be remembered. It helps us to remember them to visit the cemetery and see their graves.

Labor is higher and it would be nice if all who are interested would make their contributions early in the year.

There were enough people interested in 1934 to put a nice fence around the cemetery at a cost of $1500.00 and about $200.00 worth of other improvements. But the weeds and grass still grow. Not many who read this may be surprised to know that all of the first ones buried here were buried in pine boxes made by neighbors at home. There were no undertakers, no embalmers and flowers. The body was hauled to the cemetery in a wagon. The family and friends followed in wagons and on horseback. For many there were never any funeral services held. For some funeral services held a month or two later.

These were the good old days you have heard your grandfather speak of.

Handle With Care

Tractors are like horses—or mules—in more ways than one. They can be pretty tricky if you don't handle them right.

Too many tractor accidents happen because of carelessness. The day grows hot and drowsy, the job grows monotonous—and bingo! Someone forgets to throttle down when making a turn, or something, and there's a bad spill.

Credit Slim Hartman's misadventure for the fact that there's never been tractor trouble on her place. Midway through every morning and afternoon she brings him snacks. "He'll stay on the alert," she says, "if I get him off the tractor for ten minutes."

From where I sit, carelessness can cause plenty of harm in our off-the-job personal lives, too. For instance, suppose a neighbor prefers a glass of beer with supper. You might not share this particular preference with him—but if you're careless about protecting his right to choose, your own freedom of choice is in danger of being "plowed under."

Dazzling white... year after year! That's how your house will look when you paint with Du Pont House Paint. It actually cleans itself... sheds dirt and dust with every heavy rain! Normally, this "Self-cleaning" process starts within a few months. However, excessive soot or heavy shade, or stains from metal surfaces such as copper screening, may interfere with or delay this process.

Treat your house to this long-lasting beauty.

Specify "Self-cleaning" Du Pont Paint in white or popular tints. Your Du Pont dealer or painter will be glad to tell you how the "Self-cleaning" process works in your area. And where the surface is new wood or badly weathered paint, start with a coat of Du Pont House Paint Primer. It assures maximum adhesion of the finish coat.

1. All paints collect dust and dirt during the first few months.
2. With Du Pont House Paint, a fine white powder forms after a few months on surfaces exposed to sun and weather.
3. Rains wash off this powder—and with it, much of the accumulated dirt and grime.
4. Self-cleaning leaves surface clean and white... keeps it sparkling white for years. This cleaning process is gradual and does not adversely affect the long life of the paint.

Texas Viewpoint In Washington

By PRICE DANIEL U. S. Senator

In record time the Senate passed a three-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act last week. The debate lasted only three days. The Senate followed its Finance Committee in strengthening the escape clause and other provisions designed to protect domestic industry and to provide for actual reciprocity in trade rather than a one-way street whereby our markets are flooded with foreign imports for the purpose of additional financial aid to foreign countries.

A special provision was placed in the bill authorizing the President to limit foreign oil imports and other commodities essential to the national defense whenever it is found that they are damaging the domestic industry to the extent of endangering the national security. This is of particular significance with reference to oil, because the President's cabinet advisory committee has already reported that oil imports in excess of the 1954 ratio between imports and domestic production would endanger the national security. Administration officials have assured members of Congress that they will use the authority written into this bill by the Senate Finance Committee to keep foreign oil imports in line with the 1954 ratio.

Excessive oil imports have already damaged the domestic oil industry in our State. Unless imports are restricted, independent producers, who have no foreign oil production, cannot successfully compete with the major companies which own and import foreign oil at less cost than producing it at home. Independent producers form the backbone of the oil industry in our state and they are entitled to be protected against destruction by foreign oil.

In addition to the independent segment of the industry, our State tax revenues require protection from excessive foreign oil imports. When domestic production is reduced state tax revenues are reduced. Today oil production is limited to 16 days per month in Texas, and this is due partially to excessive oil imports. We are hopeful that the House will approve the authority to limit oil imports and that the President will enforce it so that this problem will be solved by the importers voluntarily or under the compulsion provided in this bill.

Farm Price Supports. By a vote of 206 to 201, the House last week passed a bill which would restore farm price supports of 90 per cent parity for the basic commodities. The measure now goes to the Senate Agriculture Committee, which may not complete action on the bill at this session. Some committee members who opposed Secretary Benson's flexible support bill last year think it should have a fair test before returning to rigid supports. However, if farm conditions do not improve, there will be a strong effort in the Senate to agree with the House on restoring 90 per cent of parity.

During the House fight on this bill a standing vote eliminated peanuts as one of the basic commodities. However, this action was reversed by a vote of 215 to 193 just before final passage. The bill as passed by the House includes cotton, wheat, corn, rice, and peanuts as basic commodities.

Business Disaster Loans. Hearings have been held before the Small Business Subcommittee of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee on a bill introduced by Senator Johnson and the writer authorizing the Small Business Administration to make emergency loans to small businessmen adversely affected in drought areas. Although it has been argued that the Small Business Administration has had this authority under existing law, the present administrators have taken the position that loans of this type cannot be made without amending the present law. Judge Edgar Taylor of Snyder and Judge Milton Ramsey of Andrews testified before the committee in behalf of the bill.

Rural Electric Co-ops. A large delegation of representatives from Texas rural electric co-ops gave a dinner for the Texas delegation in Congress last week and presented their views on matters pending in Washington. Strong opposition was expressed against recent Hoover Commission recommendations for reorganizing and changes in the REA, FHA, and other loan programs. They

Washington "As It Looks From Here" OMAR BURLISON Congressman 17th District

Washington, D. C., June 1.—Automation is suddenly in everyone's vocabulary. Translated in terms of a man's work, it means being replaced by a machine.

Many people have thought in the past that their jobs would be taken over by a machine, and in fact, many have been. On the other hand, it seems when a machine takes over a job, it has a tendency to create work for not only the person displaced, but for others also.

When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homestead property, and for all of the many possible combinations of surviving relatives. Each situation must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.

For example, here is a general idea of how the community property which you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving spouse receives all of the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parents who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

"IF I SHOULD DIE . . ."

What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

State Capitol NEWS By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

Despite the big news about final passage of the huge tax bill, news about Bascom Giles stole the spotlight from the Legislature the past week.

This time events took quite a different turn. The climax came when a 75-year-old retired mail carrier, John Cass Adrian, was arrested and charged with attempting to extort $800,000 from the former land commissioner.

Filing of the charge against Adrian was preceded by a series of events, all kept secret, dating back to Feb. 1. Giles reported receiving two letters, prior to the one Adrian is charged with mailing, in which the writer each time asked for $5,100.

Travis Co. Sheriff T. O. Lang revealed that the first letter, received by Giles before he was indicted, threatened to expose documentary evidence unless $5,100 was paid. With this letter was a crude drawing. It directed Giles to a culvert south of Austin where he was to leave the money, wrapped in a burlap sack. He was to drop the money there at 4 p. m. on Feb. 4. Included was a promise to return the money in 30 days—after using it "to pull a deal on the border" that would net $100,000.

As Giles was out of town, he did not receive the first letter in time to act.

When the second letter arrived, dated Feb. 9, it directed Giles to leave the money in the culvert by 4:30 p. m. Feb. 11, or "the evidence could not be bought at any price."

A trap was set. Giles drove to the site and left $70 in a burlap sack, as deputies watched the area. No one stopped to pick up the sack. But a man later identified as Adrian drove by. After 36 hours of waiting, Giles returned to the culvert and picked up the money.

A third letter then came. It was dated Feb. 11. It advised Giles that the writer was aware of the trap. It read "All three of us was watching you with field glasses when you placed the law on both sides of the culvert."

This letter directed Giles to prepare $800,000 in $20, $50 and $100 bills for delivery at a place and time to be designated in a future letter. But the promised instructions were never received.

When arrested, Adrian flatly denied knowing anything about the extortion attempt. He was released after posting a $1,500 bond. Trial was set for June 13.

More Taxes Coming.

Jefferson Davis' birthday was celebrated by the Legislature. The solons handed Governor Shivers a tax bill! It levied an additional $49,000,000 per year. Thus ended another bitter tax battle.

As finally voted, the measure provides $57,028,000 added revenue for general purposes during the next two years. Also $41,969,000 additional for road work. Thus it furnishes the funds to unblock the $56,000,000 new money requirements of the $1,525,000,000 appropriations bill already passed.

It's biggest take was from beer. And a bitter-end fight by beer partisans nearly wrecked the measure in its final stages. Their argument was based on the fact that conferees dropped out of the final bill the Senate's "token" $2,000,000 levy on "dedicated" natural gas and an intangible assets tax on gas pipelines.

On final passage the tax bill cleared the house only by a 72 to 67 vote; and the Senate by a scarce 18 to 13 margin.

Included in the tax bill was an one-cent increase in the present

Series E Savings Bond 14 Years Old

The popular Series E Savings Bond had a birthday in May—its 14th—and on hand to greet it were the wife of the Vice-President of the United States and two Washington school youngsters who were born in the same month as the first E bond, May 1941. Mrs. Richard Nixon is shown here on the Capitol lawn receiving a floral tribute from Marsha Baker and Thomas Bensinger, students of the Alice Deal Junior High School in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Nixon, as honorary vice-chairman of the National Women's Advisory Committee for Savings Bonds, received the offering in behalf of the thousands of women volunteers across the country, who have helped to sell 1.7 billion separate Series E Savings Bonds since 1941. The two youngsters were chosen for the honor not only because they are the same age as the E bond, but because they are regular purchasers of Savings Stamps in their school program. The spectacular 4½-foot floral piece was made of red and white carnations and blue cornflowers, with the Minute Man symbol of the Savings Bond Program in gold. It was donated by the Allied Florist Association of Greater Washington, Inc.

'Slow Down And Live' is Advice Given By Safety Association

Keep off the gas—slow down and live! This live-saving advice was given to drivers today by Mr. E. C. McFadden of Dallas, vice-president of Employers' Casualty Company and President, Texas Safety Association, Inc., which is sponsoring this month's speed control program in cooperation with the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"The thrill that speed-minded motorists get out of demonstrating the speed potential of their cars is short lived—and so frequently, are they," Mr. McFadden warned. "Excessive speed is often a short cut to eternity."

In 1953, nearly three out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents were violating a speed law at the time of the accident, Mr. McFadden said.

ROMANCE—Kirk Douglas and Bella Darvi are the romantic couple in "The Racers", the new Twentieth Century-Fox Cinemascope production in De Luxe color, which shows at the Hico Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday. Their tender love story furnishes a vivid contrast to the speed and action of Hans Ruesch's novel about sports car racing from which "The Racers" was adapted. Douglas plays a champion race driver and Miss Darvi is a French ballerina, who forsakes her art to travel the race circuit with her man.

CABBAGE PATCH MOTEL

By F. L. Rowley

"BUT they can't do this to me!" protested the young man in the white apron as he stared unbelievably at the furrow-streaked hill. "You say those surveyors up there are preparing to run a state road through your father's farm? Can't you stop them, Louise?" He turned to the slim girl at his side. "I know you've worked hard to make a success of your motel and restaurant, Billy," she said sadly. "But what can I do? The highway department certainly isn't going to listen to me. And dad—well, dad doesn't approve of my being engaged to you anyway. I think he's gloating over your bad luck. He says that this road running in front of your motel will be a goat trail in six months."

"And he's right," said Billy bitterly.

"Dad also says he's going to plant a windbreak to put your motel completely out of sight."

"He really likes me, doesn't he?" growled Billy.

"Let's get married now, before they build the highway," urged the girl, moving closer.

Billy breathed hard. "With what? You know I've sunk every dime I own into this place."

"I'll soon have some money," she said eagerly. "Remember the cabbage patch dad signed over to me? The state is cutting that in half too—dad says I'll get a pretty good check for my share."

"I suppose you think we can spend the rest of our lives living off your cabbage patch?"

"I had hoped that someday we might build our home ON it," she said wistfully. "But now there's hardly enough left to accommodate a chicken coop."

"Well, I wouldn't live on it if you paid me," said Billy. "As far as I'm concerned it's still your father's land, and I want no part of it."

Billy watched silently as she walked across the road. He thought she'd be back by nightfall, but he was wrong. Louise didn't return. Billy held his own for several weeks, serving construction gangs and putting up the few guests that straggled in, but he realized that his days in the motel business were numbered.

Then came the day when a chilling calm settled over his hopes and plans. A trickle of indifferent traffic passed his place; scarcely a half mile away a procession of trucks and cars marked the completion of the new state road. Billy groaned. He decided to stick it out for awhile simply because he had nowhere else to go.

Then one morning the impossible happened. A busload of picknickers pulled into the court clamoring for breakfast. Shortly afterwards a couple of trucks coughed down the old dirt road that led from the new highway. These were followed by several passenger cars. As the day wore on Billy had to enlist the aid of friends to cope with swarms of hungry customers.

By sundown Billy was tired. He grinned happily however, as another family entered the driveway.

"Reckon we'll stay all night," said the burly chap who was driving the car. "Kids is tired and me eyes is sore. That new road up yonder is whiter'n a barrel o'lime; fair makes a feller blink. These little huts got beds in 'em, Buster?"

"Saw yer sign up there," boomed the big man pointing in the direction of the new highway.

Twenty minutes later Billy was running up the old dirt road, hoping that someone hadn't made a mistake.

As he approached the new highway he saw Louise. She was standing in what was left of her cabbage patch, a smile on her lovely face. And behind her was a huge sign informing passing motorists that Billy Thompson's Motel was at the foot of the old dirt road.

"How—?" Billy began weakly.

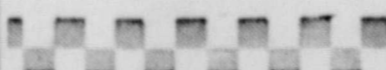

Louise laughed. "My cabbage patch!" she announced proudly. "There's just enough of it left to hold a sign. Do you think it will support us?"

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Cool, Cool Weather Helps Livestock Prices

The rains and cooler weather that are helping parched and blasted Texas ranges recover have put a firm prop under cattle prices in this part of the country. Abnormally cool weathers in the Eastern United States has kept consumption of meat at high levels in that area.

So the cool, cool opening weeks of June have been doubly delightful for livestock folks.

Cattle Prices Open Strongly at Cowtown

Usually on a mid-June Monday the market reporter is about as cheerful as a professional pallbearer. It is the normal thing for us to use words like "weak," "dull demand," "prices sharply lower," and movement "sluggish."

However, Monday at Fort Worth cattle started moving to the scales early and prices were fully steady. In fact, some cows were 25 to 50 cents higher. Stocker calves and yearlings of high quality were stronger, and very scarce. Slaughter calves were steady. Bulls drew fully steady prices.

Prices included: good or choice fed steers and yearlings $19.00-22.50; medium and lower grade yearlings and heifers $12.00-18.00. Fat cows $11.00-14.00, a few higher; canners and cutters $7.00-11.50. Bulls $10.00-14.25. Good and choice slaughter calves $16.50-20.50; cull, common and medium slaughter calves $9.00-16.00. Stocker steer calves $16.00-23.00; steer yearlings $14.00-21.00; stocker cows $8.00-13.00. Heifer calves and yearlings in stocker flesh usually sold $2 to $3 under comparable steers.

Widely Known Cattleman, Bill Bonner, to Judge

First of four judges to be named for the Hereford feeder calf sale at Fort Worth June 30 is Bill Bonner of Gainesville. Bonner is known the length and breadth of the cattle country as a good judge of cattle and his selection fits in with the purpose of the show and sale sponsored by the Texas Hereford Association. That is to give good commercially produced feeder calves a chance to be shown together under favorable conditions where the small cowman will be able to take advantage of the large numbers present and offer his calves to big time buyers.

Henry Elder, secretary of the Hereford group, reported an inquiry from Arkansas from a buyer wanting 100 "good Texas calves" at the same time another man reported he planned to have 100 calves in the sale. Things like that are what cause cattle trades!

Spring Lambs Weaken; Other Sheep Steady

Spring lambs opened steady to 50 cents lower Monday at Fort Worth. Top was again $22 on the best milk fat lambs, but the price was paid sparingly. Old crop yearling lambs were steady at $16 down. Stocker shorn wethers lambs sold from $13.50 down, but straight bunches of yearlings ewes again reached $15 to $16. Feeder type Spring lambs sold from $15 down.

Hogs Rise Sharply As Runs Are Smaller

Corn Belt points reported only 62,000 hogs Monday, and this was enough to boost the porkers into higher ground. At Fort Worth hogs opened 75 cents to $1 higher and topped at $20.25 to $20.50. The cool weather across the country has not hurt pork consumption either!

Sows shared the climb with 50-cent lurch upwards and sold for $12 to $16.

Livestock Best Cash Crop For Farmers

Speakers at a recent meat packers meeting stressed the likelihood that livestock production will remain high all over the country. Their conclusion was that farmers who once depended on dirt farming for a living had discovered

ERADICATION OF KHAPRA BEETLE

A continuing battle is being waged to keep the world's worst pest of stored grain—the Khapra Beetle—out of Texas.

This oriental-born pest, especially threatening in warm states, was first discovered in Southern California in November 1953. It has spread eastward across Arizona and on into New Mexico, infesting at least 172 locations in the three states.

Quarantine barriers were set up several months ago along the state borders to protect Texas grain and more recently a gigantic fumigation project was launched in states already infested.

The new fumigation-eradication program is a joint effort of state pest control agencies, property owners and chemical companies. In the unique extermination process, entire buildings are sealed over so the Methyl-Bromide gas fumigant will reach the crevice-seeking beetle.

More than a million feet of beetle-infested storage were cleaned in a California fumigation experiment last January by wrapping the area in a gas-tight cover of sealed tarpaulins and injecting 2 1/2 times the normal dosage of the gas. This method proved most effective against the persistent Khapra Beetle and has been adopted in other state eradication projects.

Khapra Beetles have been found by control workers in warehouses 21 feet deep under solid masses of grain. They have worked their way through a two-foot brick warehouse wall; hence their name "Khapra," which comes from an Indian word meaning "brick."

The Texas Department of Agriculture is cooperating with the Agricultural Research service in an extensive survey of farm storage to keep the destructive pest out of the state.

Any grain in warehouseman or farmer who discovers an unfamiliar insect is urged to notify the Quarantine Division of the Texas Department of Agriculture immediately.

YOU can have your ham and pineapple both, but more simply than usual: Simply used sliced boiled ham and place a few spoonfuls of drained crushed pineapple in the center and roll ham around it. Heat for 10 minutes. If desired or serve cold on a warm evening.

Do something special with a molded gelatin dessert for a party. Place finely crushed ice, packed firmly, into a deep baking dish.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Fiesta Cookies (Makes 40)
1 cup light or dark raisins
8 ounces semi-sweet chocolate bits
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup melted butter or substitute
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
Rinse and drain raisins. Beat eggs well. Stir in sugar and flavoring. Cool butter slightly and stir into egg-sugar mixture. Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add to egg mixture. Blend in raisins and chocolate. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven 15 to 18 minutes. Remove to wire rack to cool.

When ready to serve unmolded ice, then unmold frozen dessert on top of it!

Angel food Alaska can be an easy dessert with a baker's loaf of Angel Food. Slice lengthwise, sandwich in brick ice cream, then freeze until ready to use. To serve, cover all over with meringue and brown in the broiler for a few minutes.

For an easy dessert, cook together orange juice and sugar for 5 minutes. Chill, then let canned or cooked pears sit in it until serving time. Serve with a spoonful of vanilla ice cream.

One single mama moth and her offspring can destroy in a single year as much wool as it takes a dozen sheep to produce.

The names of some states are projected in other states. For example, New York has a town named Alabama, Pennsylvania has an Indiana, and Louisiana an Arizona. Five states have a California, three an Ohio and seven a Wyoming ed that livestock was their most reliable cash crop and listed these advantages which farmers like: Livestock can be sold any day. Equipment costs are relatively small.

Harvesting the crop requires little labor cost. Livestock converts soil building crops into cash.

Dependence on weather is less critical.

Crop rotation increases row crop yields without too much income loss, where livestock is pastured on the resting acres.

Sounds to us like those packers are, as usual, just as right as a fox!

CLAIRETTE

By Mrs. Lucile Mayfield

This community received two more rains the past week.

Due to the rain and cloud Wednesday night several did not attend the open house and community night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chance Sterling, who recently moved into their home built on their ranch on the highway between Clairette and Alexander. The ranch is better known as the Wadlington ranch.

Those visiting the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farrar were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Farrar and son and Mr. and Mrs. George Stevison of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Farrar and Clairence Farrar Jr. of Fort Worth, and Brenda Sue Farrar of Stephenville.

Roline Chaney of Hico, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chaney, will be pastor of the Baptist Church this year. Sunday was his first Sunday of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roberson and Mrs. Dorothy Erick visited in Fort Worth Sunday.

Bobby Marshall of Sherman is on a vacation visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Landes and children and Mrs. Jessie Lee of Denver City are here visiting relatives and friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Biri Havens put in a modern bath room and new fixtures last week.

Etheridge Menafee of Fort Worth visited a while with old classmates last Wednesday. He lived here several years ago, when his father, the late Prof. A. E. Menafee was superintendent of Clairette High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lambert of Dallas spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Edwards.

Mrs. Bertha Ward of Corpus Christi has been with her sister, Mrs. John Burks, who is in ill health.

Mrs. W. H. Walker of Marieletta, Okla., visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Sherrard and Mr. and Mrs. Hub Alexander.

Carolyn Eastman of Stephenville is staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wolfe and helping take care of Mr. Wolfe, who suffered a stroke 6 weeks ago.

Mrs. E. J. Pruett and Mrs. Tom Farrar were both reported on the sick list the past week.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dal Wheeler and Richard Lee of Killean spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Biri Havens on their vacation.

Mrs. Edgar Smith and Mrs. Doc Finley of Carlton visited Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Riechbourg Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Riechbourg, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Thompson and their two granddaughters, Susie and Vellie, enjoyed a picnic supper Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Riechbourg visited Rev. Carl McKenzie at the Dublin Hospital Wednesday.

WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

"Once more the silent wheels of time—Their annual rounds have driven. And I being nearly a month late, guess I had better get my check in the mail. Usually I have to be reminded of it, but maybe this will reach you before you need to. And with all good wishes to you," was the nice note written by W. F. Hooker of Stephenville in renewing his paper.

"I am enclosing two dollars for the 'good old home town paper' was the note received from Walter Williamson of Kerrville.

Mrs. J. D. Seago of Waco sent in her renewal check along with a gift subscription to her sister, Mrs. L. J. Patterson of Dallas.

"Do you have just one more Hico paper left every week?" inquired Mrs. Ralph Boone of Lubbock, recently visiting in Hico. We assured Marie we did and added the Boone family to our list of West Texas subscribers.

"Instead of 'stop the music', this is 'hold the paper.' Vacation time is when our paper is due so I'll see you when we arrive," said a card from Arietta Gray of Bakerfield, Calif. Arietta and husband, Buck, and son, Daniel S., arrived here the first of the week accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. O. Shaffer, who had been visiting in California for the past two months.

Since our last report the following additional subscriptions have been received, among which are many new names on our list. We hope they will be permanent additions to our growing circulation.
