Awards Presented at High School Exercises

A number of awards were presented to Hico High School students at graduation exercises on May 26. The awards were presented by Principal A. A. Chandler.

Perfect attendance certificates were presented to Jane Akin, Christine Bullard, Mike Lowe, Barbara Patterson, Gary Wooton, Harold Hathcock, Janet Hooover, Danny Reeves, Lynn Hanshaw, Clara Iyiles, Carol Akin, Doyle Crews, Alan Hedges, Carolyn Patterson, and Royce Samford.

Four students received special mention for the number of consecutive years of perfect attendance. They were Lynn Hanshaw, four years; Alan Hedges, seven years; Jane Akin, seven years; and Carol Akin, nine years.

Juan Williams was awarded the Valedictorian Trophy and certain tuition scholarships by posting a four-year average of 94.24 per cent.

Carol Akin received similar awards for her second place average of 94.12 per cent for four years.

Wayland Wooton was recognized at the highest ranking boy over a four-year period with an average of 91.47. These awards and accompanying tuition grants automatically go to those achieving the highest scholastic ratings.

Mrs. Robert Jackson presented the Review Club Award to Juan Williams as being the senior of Outstanding Achievement.

High School Faculty Awards were also presented at commencement exercises. These students are chosen on the basis of dependability, attitude, cooperation, ability, leadership, sportsmanship, scholarship, personal appearance and participation in school activities.

The faculty followed its usual custom of presenting only one award to each student. Principal A. A. Chandler made the comment that "Many deserving students did not receive awards because of the limited number to be presented."

Those receiving awards were:

Best All-Around Student, Carol Akin.
Citizenship, Alan Hedges.
Homemaking, Nelda Whiteside.
Vocational Agriculture, Wayland Wooton.
Science, Royce Samford.

Scientist Injured In Accident Near Hico Last Friday

Dr. Bruno Balke, 51, a prominent scientist, was seriously injured last Friday night when the station wagon in which he was riding overturned twice near Hico.

Dr. Balke has been a research scientist in the Physiology Department of the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine in San Antonio, and he and his family were moving to Norman, Okla. for his new job with the Civil Aero Medical Institute.

Mrs. Balke was driving the station wagon and they were pulling a trailer. Their five-year-old son, Pear Olaf, was riding with them.

Two other children, Hedda, 16, and Frank, 20, were riding in a second car.

Mrs. Balke attempted to pass another car when the trailer started whipping. She lost control of the vehicle and it flipped over twice.

Mrs. Balke and Pear Olaf were only shaken up but Dr. Balke suffered serious, but not critical, injuries. He was taken to Hico Hospital.

Light Vote Expected in Second Primary Saturday

One state-wide and one county race will face local voters Saturday, June 4 in the second Democratic Primary.

County-wide, incumbent W. W. (Woody) Young is facing former sheriff Houston White for Sheriff of Hamilton County.

The other race involves Judge Lloyd W. Davidson and W. T. McDonald for State Court of Criminal Appeals. Davidson is seeking re-election.

A light vote is predicted by most observers, due mainly to lack of contested races. Only a portion of the 400-plus voters who turned out in the first primary is expected to vote Saturday.

Sheriff Young led the ticket in the first primary, when four contestants battled for the office. White was second man, forcing the run-off.

'GOOD OLD DAYS' STILL IN EVIDENCE AT ALEXANDER; SHAVE AND A HAIRCUT 40c

Alexander may not have the fame of the early days when it was the commercial and trading center of Erath County, but it does have one outstanding distinction—its barber shop.

Trewitt Walker comes down every Saturday morning and works until late taking care of the tonsorial needs of his patrons. The price for a haircut is 25c; a shave 15c. One Saturday recently he served almost 100 customers.

Walker claims that he is satisfied with his prices. "This gives me a fair amount for a day's work and I am happy to be able to do something that I feel is a public service," he told one of his friends recently.

Other towns in the area charge all the way from $1 to $1.25 for haircuts. Few of them do any shaving at all and when they do, the price is 75c in most instances.

Back in the days before the railroad came to Stephenville, Alexander was the point where all incoming freight shipments of merchandise were unloaded. Long strings of wagon trains could be seen between Stephenville and Alexander every day transporting everything from a pin to mould oard plows, shoes, hats—and even whiskey. Stephenville had saloons in its early days.

A bank, 20 or 30 stores, two or three saloons, two railroads and other advantages at one time belonged to Alexander. Today its barbershop is its main distinction.

'Old-Fashioned' Cemetery Working Needed—

Cemetery Association Makes Appeal for Local Assistance

Louise Blair, Member of the Board Hico Cemetery Association

Officers and members of the Board of the Hico Cemetery Association recently made a survey of the local cemetery. Spring rains have sent the weeds and grass on a rampage. Strong winds have broken off dead limbs. Lack of funds on the part of the association have made it impossible to hire extra help to maintain the cemetery.

An individual is young as long as he is a "doer." It is only when he relaxes into the onlooker class that he and the world know that youth has deserted him.

We are grateful for the fact that our community is filled with "doers." Your help and cooperation in the cemetery project is urgently needed.

The Hamilton County Precinct 3 crew of workers have agreed to mow the larger areas.

Numerous dead trees must be removed. Anyone desirous of bid on this job for removal of all dead trees may submit their bid to J. B. Woodard within the next ten days.

The Cemetery Association feels that the true answer to our immediate problem would be to have a genuine old-fashioned Cemetery Working. With the help of several power mowers, rakes and hoes, we can make our local Cemetery a place of beauty.

We beg of you to give this matter your serious consideration. Watch the Hico paper next week for dates on the Cemetery Working.

USE SPRING FLOWERS TO BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME

Use spring and summer flowers to brighten your family meals, and add an extra touch of hospitality to your home every day. Flower arranging is fascinating, simple, and is fun. A well planned flower arrangement is a creative project.

Basic rules for arranging flowers are given in a new bulletin by Mr. A. F. DeWerth, head, Dept. of Floriculture and Landscaping Architect, entitled "Flower Arranging is Easy." The bulletin also gives suggestions for making cut flowers last longer.

SHEATH DRESSES SHOULD BE LINED

Versions of the "slim silhouette" dress are popular again this spring. Just a reminder that slim lines present several problems when it comes to keeping a crisp, unwrinkled look.

The dress may lose its shape across the back if the material you choose has a tendency to stretch. Also, wrinkles may develop across the front. To guard against this, line the dress. Use a light-weight rayon lining or other material that isn't too heavy, and doesn't cling.

Cut the linings about one-eighth inch smaller than your regular dress pattern and bring it eight to ten inches below the hip line. Machine baste to the front and back pieces of the dress before putting the seams together. This keeps the fabric from slipping and puckering as you stitch it in place.

DISTRICT 4-H TRAINING CAMP
Three days of this past week five people from Hamilton County have been attending the District 4-H Girls' 4-H Camp at Glen Rose. Misses Doran Gwen Willeford, Sandra Gardner, and Dorothy Grey, and Mrs. O. R. Willeford of the Fairy community and the agent have been enjoying the training camp.

Later this year the girls and the adult leader will be responsible for conducting the county 4-H Camp. This is a wonderful experience. To be eligible for the camp, the girl must be twelve, and not have attended this camp in the past. Three girls and one adult leader are chosen from each county, with the home demonstration agents and assistants, to attend this camp. The camp is conducted by junior leaders with the agent's help. This camp is one of the outstanding experiences of the 4-H members.

IT'S THE LAW—

Law Allows Many Ways to Set Up and Operate Business

The law allows a business a wide choice of ways to set itself up, to finance and manage itself.

You may have sole ownerships, partnerships, joint ventures, corporations; and within these classes you may have different forms.

To meet modern business conditions, to get full tax advantage, and to protect investors, for example, the law provides many ways for a company to finance itself. And these, in turn, influence the kind of management it can have, and the way it conducts its affairs.

We sometimes speak of "stocks and bonds," for example, as if they were one and the same.

But when you buy a share of stock in a company, you "own" an "undivided" part of everything it owns, but no particular piece of its property.

But what do you have when you buy a corporation's bond or debenture? You own nothing of the company. Instead you are lending money which it promises to pay back with interest when your bond "matures."

Unlike a stockholder, a bondholder as a rule has little to say directly about who manages and how he manages the company. Really a bond buyer by withholding or lending money may influence a company's ability to expand. The bondholder gets only his interest payments, which come before the stockholder's "dividends," since he takes less of a risk than the stockholders.

Thus if the corporation quits or goes bankrupt, it must pay the bondholders off before the stockholders get anything.

Where does the "preferred stock" come in? As a rule, preferred stockholders collect a fixed dividend—after the bondholders are paid but before the "common" stockholders get anything. There are many kinds of preferred stock arrangements. But in return for their first chance at the profits the preferred stockholders often give up any voting rights or ability to control the company directly.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Three new lakes have been added to the 1960 Travel Map, bringing the total shown in the major lakes and reservoirs category to 64. New water attractions recorded are Buffalo Lake in Lubbock County; Champion Creek Lake in Mitchell County; and Lake Tawakoni in Hunt, Raines, and Van Zandt Counties. Countless rivers, creeks and streams are also charted on the map.

The 816 roadside parks pegged on the map are those having full picnic facilities. Their locations are marked by a green dot. State Parks are indicated by a green triangle.

"All of Texas Welcomes You" banners the pictorial side of the map—reflecting, in eleven full-color pictures, some of the outstanding recreational, scenic, and historical attractions in Texas.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" telescopes information on Texas' terrain, history and industrial and recreational diversity.

More than half a million Official Highway Travel Maps of the 1959 edition have been distributed—in state, out of state and to dozens of foreign countries.

The map is used by all state and governmental agencies in the state for determining official highway distances, mileages, zones, and other information.

More than 1,500 farm-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,000 miles of the state's 30,000 mile farm to market road system are shown on the map. All of the 26,378 miles of State and U. S. highways are shown.

Coffee Time CHATTER

By HELEN OGLE

Holidays are nice and especially those that extend time to a week-end, but for those who have to work or maybe use the time for work, it's just plain rough. In our case Sandy had to work, and I chose to work, so we are going to enjoy the holiday on our day off this Wednesday.

Varied interests were enjoyed by most of the local residents this past week end, with golfing and fishing rating first in the sports field. Couples and their children who enjoyed a weekend of fishing, boating and swimming at Lake Whitney were the J. D. Partains, Harold Walkers and J. T. Butlers.

Most of the local golfers took in at least part of the tournament in Stephenville or headed for Lampasas for a round. Most of the ladies joined their husbands for lunch in Lampasas and enjoyed an afternoon swim. Vada Fall took advantage of the week end to do some general cleaning.

Sim and Velma Everett spent a busy holiday getting things in order for a two-week vacation that will take them to Washington, D. C. Lucky people! A second look down the street proved not to be a new model car, but Jim Bullard motoring around town in his golf cart.

Mike Reeves and Denna Meador have been working hard this past week, getting their lemonade stand ready for the busy summer season. June Malone giving early Thursday morning greetings and ready for a copy of the NR. That's too rushing, June. Sharon Howard and Suzanne Burden sipping on Cokes and making plans for the evening that didn't coincide with plans their mothers had already made.

Congratulations and happy anniversary to Grace and Roy French who are celebrating their forty-second anniversary today, Tuesday. What happened to these places: Camp Branch, Big Eye, Indian Creek, Oak Grove, and Hog Jaw? In checking an issue of the NR dated back 42 years ago, these were names of neighboring communities. Safety sign: "Watch out for school children — especially if they're driving." Safety is as simple as ABC—Always Be Careful.

FAIRY

By MRS. ENNICE DANIEL.

A pall of sadness fell over this and surrounding communities Sunday afternoon as word was circulated that Mrs. Britt Little had passed away about 2:40 p.m. Sunday in the Hamilton nursing home. She had been a patient there for the past 18 months.

Mrs. Little had suffered a heart condition for several years and had also suffered several paralytic strokes. She lived alone at her home in Fairy or some 14 or more years before her health failed and she entered the rest home. She had also resided in and near Fairy since the summer of 1875 but had also resided north of Hico for some ten years with the exception of some two and a half years. Hico and Fairy had been her mailing address.

She was a person of many friends, for to know her was to love her. During her residence in Fairy she had many loyal friends who dropped by often to see her and many times bringing her a dish of food or canned goods. She was very appreciative of every good deed administered to her, and often remarked that she wished she could do something in return. Up until the time she entered the rest home her memory was very clear and many enjoyed talking with her, as she would talk of pioneer experiences, and has brought to our mind many happenings that had slipped our memory.

She and another of our pioneer citizens, the late Uncle Bob Parks, spent many pleasant hours together talking of their experiences of pioneer days. She was our pioneer mother and many came to her to obtain information concerning pioneer happenings.

She was greatly missed when she had to enter the rest home, but friends have been faithful in visiting her there, and this scribe will certainly miss her since we visited her most every Sunday or sometime during the week. Mrs. Little was born in Grayson County to the late Mr. and Mrs. S. O. (Dick) Dickerson on Nov. 16, 1873. She was married to W. W. Ratcliff in the fall of 1889. Mr. Ratcliff passed away in Jan. of 1891. They also lost their infant son, Claude, March 17, 1890.

She was later married to I. A. (Bud) Little, who passed away March 19, 1928. She was also preceded in death by three infants, a daughter, Roena Little, two sons, H. L. and Eugene Little.

She is survived by two sons, Harvey and Paul Little of Oklahoma City, six grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

Two sisters, Alice and Maud, also preceded her in death. Four brothers, Sid, Eustis, Charley and Pete Dickerson also preceded her in death. One brother, Walter Dickerson of Atlanta, Ga. is now the only surviving member of the Dick Dickerson family.

Funeral services for Mrs. Little were held Tuesday morning, May 31, at 11 o'clock at the Fairy Church of Christ, where she had worshipped most of her life. Bro. L. J. Wood officiated, and burial was in the Fairy Cemetery where all deceased members of her immediate family are buried. The bountiful floral offering bore tribute to the faithful life she lived.

Palbearers were H. O. Richardson, Audie Parks, J. T. Leonard, Woodard Brummett, Oran Willeford of Fairy, and Grady Hooper of Hico.

IN LOVING MEMORY

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is still.

A place is vacant in our midst, Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled The boom his love has given.

And though the body slumbers here Her soul is safe in Heaven.

The golden gates were open wide A gentle voice said come.

The savior on the other side, Welcomed our dear friend home.

Never a truer or better friend and pal Could ever be found.

Though no matter where you searched, Even if you searched the world around.

Dear Lit your memory lingers on In a place within my heart.

Though when we meet again

It will be never to part. Dear loved ones weep no more. Though she has passed away. For we know she is happy On the peaceful golden shore. There we shall meet you, In mansions bright and fair, We will all be together In a glad welcome there.

"I've killed a child!"

"Never had an accident before. Never been in trouble with the law. Always tried to do right by my family and friends . . . they'll tell you. Now I've killed a child—just by taking a foolish chance."

Every day it happens, often just like that, to drivers who thought accidents happen only to the other fellow.

Remember this. No one expects to meet death on the road. Certainly no one expects to be guilty of causing it. Yet, last year 40,000 men, women and children died in traffic accidents.

Thousands of drivers—many who never had or expected to have an accident—found themselves guilty of killing someone on the highway. Most of these deaths can be prevented—with your cooperation.

BACK THE ATTACK ON TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Here's how you can help stop traffic tragedies:

- 1 Drive safely and courteously yourself. Observe speed limits and warning signs. Where traffic laws are obeyed, deaths go DOWN!
- 2 Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you. Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

For a number of years the county has had 20 Grade A dairies producing milk for wholesale. As the years have gone along, some producers have dropped out, some have changed operations completely, but still the county has maintained 20 dairies.

Very few people realize these men derive from this small agricultural enterprise. Of the 25 counties comprising the Central West Texas Producers Association, through which Hamilton County producers market their milk, Hamilton County rates ninth in total pounds of milk produced, as of Nov. 1959.

The county this month marketed 547,311 pounds of milk. This is 3.7 per cent of the total amount of milk marketed through the association for November. It is an average of 912 pounds per day per producer. The average butterfat test was 3.71 per cent.

Gross income for the month was $30,634.62. If we can consider that November sales or marketings are an average for the year, then the 20 producers had a total income of something like $367,915.44. Each of the 20 dairymen has a bulk tank which contributes greatly to the quality product they are marketing.

The figures above were furnished by the Central West Texas Producers Association, through the A & M College.

Monday, June 13, a brush control demonstration will be held on the C. B. Cathey ranch south of Hamilton. Mr. Bobby Ragsdale, Pasture Specialist from College Station, will conduct the demonstration.

The demonstrations will consist of methods of applying brush controls and also the chemicals to use for controls. The meeting will start at 1:30 p.m.

Dereel Fillingim, Hico, has completed two new laying houses on his place which just about doubles his capacity of laying hens.

The new houses are about 40x300 feet and are of the floor type. They will house some six or seven thousand layers.

Dereel has a colony house that has automatic feeders, waterers, and egg gathering belt. This belt brings the eggs from the cages directly into the egg room which is at one end of the house. The eggs are taken off the belt and placed right in the cleaner. From the cleaner they go to the cooler. This system saves much time and labor and is rather cheap to operate.

Theo Eisen, Aleman last summer sprayed the pear in his pasture with 2.4.5-T and diesel oil and got some fine results. Only a few of the plants did not get killed. This summer he is going back over the pasture and killing the remainder. There are a few very small pear that were hid in grass that will be sprayed also. These small pear are in most pastures and in eradicating them, one might hold this in mind and rework it from time to time. They are hard to find in any pasture especially when there is a good growth of grasses and when the pasture has not been overgrazed. Theo said he was certainly well pleased with his results and the low cost of doing the work.

It has always been a practice in sheep raising to tell the age of sheep by their teeth. Very few cattle raisers use this method of telling the age of younger cattle, but it can be done rather accurately.

A calf from birth to 8 weeks has four pairs of temporary incisors. Senior calf, up to about 14 months, four pairs of temporary incisors set solidly in the jaw. Summer yearling, 14 to 18 months, four pairs of temporary incisors set loosely in jaw. Junior yearling, 18 to 24 months (inwear at 27 mos.), one pair of permanent central incisors have replaced temporary teeth.

When he enters the world, or soon after, a calf has four pairs of milk teeth in his lower jaw. When he is a senior calf, all his baby teeth are still firmly in place. At about 18 to 19 months, these teeth loosen until a person can wiggle them with his fingers. At this stage the animal is a summer yearling by show standards. His permanent pair of central incisors begin coming in at 18 months (junior yearling stage).

Then like a lippy first grader, his first teeth loosen and drop out. The big teeth come in at an angle first, straighten up later. By the time they're on the "chopping line" with the rest they are said to be "in wear." The whole process from break-through to in-wear takes about 60 to 90 days. Since no two calves are exactly alike, each individual set of teeth come in at a slightly different time. But the variation seldom goes more than three months over or under the average, so the teeth check works very well.

Oscar Witte, Shive, is building a new sheep and goat dipping vat on his place. Oscar says he believes that dipping will be a better job of controlling external parasites on his sheep and goats than spraying.

Files have been giving cattle a fit the last week or so and now it's a good time to spray or dip them, that is if you catch a day when the wind won't blow the spray out of the county.

A toxaphene spray of 0.5 per cent is recommended by the college. This should give protection for three weeks or longer. This spray will also get ticks. If you are having trouble with ear ticks, reduce the pressure of the sprayer and flush out the ears. Be sure and follow the directions and cautions on the container when spraying or mixing the spray material.

RECOGNITION OF A VITAL INDUSTRY

This is Dairy Month, the time of year when we pay tribute to what is perhaps our most vital farm industry because of its essential health-giving products.

As the saying goes, milk is nature's most nearly perfect food. Here are some interesting facts about milk and milk products: There are more than 200 nutrients in milk. Considering its cost per pound, milk offers more food for the money than any other food material available.

There is enough energy provided by one glass of milk to play 9 holes of golf, clean house for 2 hours, walk one mile, sew for two hours, or climb 186 stairs.

The record high of almost 60 billion quarts of milk produced in 1957 was enough to fill a river more than 3000 miles long, 40 feet wide and 3 feet deep. The river would stretch from Boston to San Francisco. Square quart milk bottles filled with this amount of milk placed side by side would form a band around the world 140 times, and these same bottles, stacked one on top of the other, would reach to the moon thirty times.

The fastest growing milk product in the U.S. today is cottage cheese. There are some 400 cheeses recognized by name today. In spite of its wide-spread use, cheese was not prepared commercially until about 100 years ago. It takes 10 quarts of milk to make one pound of cheese. The finished cheese contains a large proportion of the milk proteins, the minerals, the fat, and the fat-soluble vitamins found in the milk from which it was made.

Ice cream dates back to about the first century when Nero sent slaves to the mountain tops for the required snow and ice. Commercial production dates back to 1851 in Baltimore by the hand-cranked freezer invented in 1846 by a woman, Nancy Johnson. Butter has been churned for thousands of years as a homemade product. The first butter creamery established in the United States began its operation in 1848 at Goshen, New York. From that beginning, the butter industry spread across the nation to become a vital part of dairying. Today dairying is one of the greatest single sources of farm income in the nation. About 20 cents of each dollar of cash receipts from farm products comes from dairying. This means about one-fifth of the nation's agricultural income is from dairying.

Fund Campaign for Cowboy Hall of Fame Underway

Fort Worth.—All over the broad breadth of Texas the fund raising campaign for the $5 million Western Heritage Center Museum and National Cowboy Hall of Fame was launched this week.

Texas and 16 other western states have joined together to create, build and maintain a memorial to the great cattlemen, industrialists and others who pioneered the West which now is being built on Persimmon Hill, seven miles east of Oklahoma City, where the Turner Turnpike converges on U.S. Highways 66 and 77, and Interstate 35, 40 and 44.

As former Oklahoma governor Roy J. Turner put it: "Here is one of the truly natural crossroads of America—and a veritable gateway to the West." In August this year the first $1 million unit of the memorial is scheduled for completion, as the first stage of its expandable design.

Here as last the whole West is to have its own combined historic and cultural center and memorial. The caliber of men of the West who are behind the movement will insure its success. The governor of each of the 17 states is a trustee and serves as such. All state trustees are men of stature.

Texas' Governor Price Daniel is one of five Texas trustees. The others are Robert J. Kleberg Jr., president; and general manager of King Ranch; national vice-chairman A. M. G. Swenson of the SMS Ranch, Stamford; Amon G. Carter Jr., president of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram; author and rancher J. Evetta Haley of Canyon.

Last month Trustee Carter called an organizational meeting in Fort Worth. To the meeting came officers and trustees headed by Albert K. Mitchell of New Mexico, chairman of the board for the national organization; Glenn W. Faris of Oklahoma; Fred Dressler of Nevada; R. J. Hofmann of Wyoming; and many of the other national trustees.

With Carter presiding as temporary chairman, the organizational meeting and banquet at Shady Oaks Country Club was attended by 360 officers directors and their wives. At a meeting of the executive committee, Ralph A. Johnston of Houston was elected state chairman of the Texas Association. W. R. Watt of Fort Worth was named co-chairman and Holland McCombs of Wheelock, Texas association secretary.

At the recent Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association meeting in Austin, state chairman Johnston met with Texas trustee Kleberg, national chairman Mitchell, Texas co-chairman Watt, area chairmen Carpenter, Holland and Parks and laid plans for raising Texas' quota of $858,000 for the center.

On the subject of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame, just ask state chairman Johnston, and he'll tell you: "The story of the West is a colorful saga of courage, hardship and struggles, endured by our forefathers to make our way of life possible. We all know, too, that our youth today and of coming generations must be reminded of that story to keep that way of life in freedom."

"One way to perpetuate our Western Heritage is with a memorial to pioneers and builders of our land, a memorial that will interpret, reveal, preserve and advance the spirit of the West and to honor the men and women who made it. This will be done at the easily accessible, year around site where national trustees voted it."

"Because the shrine is to be called the National Cowboy Hall of Fame—because the man on a horse is the central image of Western expansion—it does not mean that the Cowboy is the only Western builder and trail blazer to be honored in its Hall of Great Westerners.

COWBOY HALL OF FAME—Architects model of $5,000,000 Western Heritage Center and National Cowboy Hall of Fame now under construction at Oklahoma City.

"There are many men and women who, in many ways, played an important part in development of the West—bankers, bakers, builders, merchants, miners, tillers of soil, packers, brewers, writers, artists, men who laid the rails and stretched the wires. We want to honor them all in a memorial that fits the stature of the land that they built—and the heritage they bestowed on us," Johnston said.

Ray Connally of Lubbock, former Hico resident, was here the past week visiting friends and attending to business.
