Huge Amount of Money Invested In Hico Homes

(Special to the News Review)

New York—Residents of Hico have a huge amount of money invested in their homes.

Their equity in these dwellings, representing market value minus outstanding mortgage debt, comes to a healthy $973,000.

This refers solely to non-farm dwellings which are occupied in whole or in part by their owners. Locally and elsewhere across the country, Americans have built up vast assets for themselves over the years by acquiring their own homes.

Huge Amount of Money Invested In Hico Homes

It adds up to a grand total of $1,738,000 in market value locally.

The total has been growing year by year in line with the general rise in reality prices.

How much would local home owners be able to realize from their property, if they were to sell it? In other words, what is its net worth? The amount of mortgage debt is the key.

The housing census shows that there are mortgages on 55 percent of the non-farm dwellings in the region encompassing Hico. The average debt per mortgaged home in the area is about 6 percent smaller than the average in the rest of the United States.

Taking these findings into account locally, the amount of outstanding mortgage debt on such housing within the city is estimated at $765,000.

It leaves $973,000 at the net asset value, which is the equity that local home owners have in their property.

Thirteen Christmas Baskets Distributed By Civic Club

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We were very sorry to learn of the passing of Mrs. Albert (Ina) Sarbec. Our sympathy is extended to those bereaved in her passing.

We also extend deepest sympathy to the relatives of little Ddra Ann Howerton in her untimely death. May they think of the hymn entitled "Gathering Buds." Jesus has taken a beautiful bud out of the garden of love. Borne away to the City of God; Home of the angels above. Full blooming flowers alone will not do. Some must be young and ungrown. So the frail buds he is athering too. Beautiful gems of His throne. Fathers and mothers weep not or be sad; Still on the Saviour rely. You shall behold them again and be glad. Beautiful flowers on high. Blooming in beauty in Heaven they are; Blooming for you and for me. Follow the Lord, tho the city be far. 'Till our bright blossoms we'll see, Gathering buds, Wonderful care will be given. Jesus is gathering, day after day, Buds for the palace of Heaven.

We had a light shower of rain Wednesday night and had cooler temperatures for the past few days. Today, Monday we again have misty weather.

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served at the Fairy school lunchroom last Thursday. On Friday all of the pupils and faculty members, bus drivers and members of their families enjoyed the school Christmas tree and program. Our school closed Friday afternoon for the Christmas and New Year holidays. Classes will be resumed on Wednesday, January 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Farris of Fort Worth are the happy parents of a little daughter, born on Nov. 17 weighing 6 pounds and 2 oz. She has been christened DeAnna Lynn. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Dansby of Proctor, formerly of Fairy. Mrs. Farris is the former Connie Dansby and attended school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and the writer spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin. Others present were the Allison children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Allison of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman, Karen and Kaye of near Stephenville. All enjoyed a turkey dinner and all the trimmings, and also a family Christmas tree in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, Cheryl and Ronald of Austin came in Monday afternoon and spent Christmas Eve night and Day in the home of her father, P. L. Cox and Mrs. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner of Killeen spent Christmas eve night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice, and enjoyed a Christmas dinner and family tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner had all of their children and families home on Christmas Day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner and baby of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Turner, Curtis and Rhonda, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Botkin, Tammy and Patsy, all of Killeen.

Many have in mind hearing from friends and relatives at this season of the year by Christmas and New Year greetings. We feel sure many were like myself. Still thought of many we would have liked to have heard from or sent a greeting, but we realize this is impossible and any way, to all the News Review readers, again may we say we hope you had a Merry Christmas and have a happy New Year. We received 48 cards and mailed out 50-odd.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Drew and Cynthia of Richardson spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike.

Mrs. Pedro Jones was having all of her children and families with her on Christmas Eve Day for their family turkey dinner and tree. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Drew and Cynthia, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones and two daughters of Lanham, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Jones and Claudette of Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones and family of Whitney and C. M. Broyles of Lanham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Sills and son, J. C. of Muleshoe spent the weekend and Christmas holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sills. Their twin sons, born on December 13 are still confined at Hico Hospital and will be there for another week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover left Saturday for Daly City, Calif. to spend Christmas in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Hoover and son, Charles D. and Peter Jameson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson and Jerry spent Monday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams of Hamilton where the Adams and their children and families and the Richardsons enjoyed a Christmas dinner and family tree.

Visitors at the Church of Christ Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Paulson of Fort Worth and her mother, Mrs. Bertha Brummett of Hico; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood of Hico and his sister, Mrs. Baize and her son and daughter, Lyle and Wilma of Odessa; Mrs. Claud Brunson of Hico; and Miss Margaret Taylor of Grand Prairie, great-niece of Mrs. Paulson.

At this time we would like to thank everyone who have had a part in helping in the financial support of the Fairy Cemetery the past year. It is your donations which have enabled us to keep the cemetery in its present condition. We deeply regret that there are a few unkept lots due to lack of funds from relatives. We wish it were possible to have income sufficient to care for all but since we do not we must take care of the lots of those who contribute. This refers only to lots that can't be mowed, as we keep many unsupported lots by mowing.

Our needy family is no longer a resident of Fairy. They were here just one week. They were given some groceries and clothing while here and he could have got work had he been the working type. The little children are to be pitied. Three, ages 3, 2 and 6 months. We understand the Hico Church of Christ also gave them a cash donation. We fear there isn't a change, they may like others have read of, have their children placed in homes where they will be taken care of. Honesty is all that will pay when otherwise people must suffer the consequences.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant had their sons and families home for Christmas. They were Mr. and Mrs. Garland Arrant and family of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arrant and family of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Gardner enjoyed having all of their children and families home for Christmas. They were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gardner and family of Arlington, Miss Cleon Gardner of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barnett and baby of Huntsville, and Randy and Sandra of the home.

J. E. Blakley had most of his children home during the weekend. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oglesby of Angleton, Mr. and Mrs. Red Blakley and family of Little Rock, Ark., Mrs. Irene Bankston of Temple, Cecil (Mutt) of near Lubbock. Some of the children will remain through the holidays, while others were unable to do so due to employment.

March of Dimes Helps Save Boy

Here's Johnny at age one after first operation . . . and today, leading a normal life at age four.

At his fourth birthday party, Johnny Wilson's big blue eyes sparkled as his mother carried in the most magnificent cake he had ever seen.

It was shaped like a huge boat plowing its way through mountainous waves of whipped cream and icing. Johnny's winsome smile beamed at friends and he gave out kisses all around.

It was a happy affair. Yet at one time, Johnny's parents had little hope he would live to celebrate even his first birthday. For he was born with the often fatal birth defect of water on the brain, or hydrocephalus.

Surgical treatment saved Johnny's life when he was three months old. At that time, doctors performed what is known as a shunt operation. They inserted in Johnny's head a plastic tube which allowed excess fluid from the brain to be harmlessly absorbed by the youngster's body.

Without the operation, fluid within the brain is prevented from taking its normal course, and causes the head to swell enormously. This is what had happened to Johnny. (If shunt surgery is not performed in time, mental retardation and blindness may ensue, even death, in certain cases.)

Since 1958, doctors have performed two other shunt operations and have treated Johnny for gastroenteritis and septemia.

Today, Johnny leads a relatively healthy, happy and care-free life. Like any other little boy who lives on a farm, he loves to hug lambs, chase cows and tease chicks on the family's 100 acres near Columbus, Ohio.

He is a good example of thousands of afflicted children being helped to live nearly normal lives through a unique medical care program financed by The National Foundation—March of Dimes.

Babies with birth defects are born every other minute in the United States, 250,000 of them each year, almost 700 each day. Johnny goes regularly to a special Birth Defects Clinical Study Center at Children's Hospital, Columbus, supported by March of Dimes funds.

It is one of more than 30 similar centers across the nation set up for the study and treatment of birth defects.

At the center, trained specialists work together to help children with many kinds of birth defects. They include a neurosurgeon, orthopedic surgeon, internist, psychiatrist, physical therapist and medical social worker. They have put their skilled hands and minds to work on Johnny's behalf.

Every four months, Johnny's mother drives him to the center for his check-up. A doctor always measures his head to make sure there is no change in size. Since 1959, his head size has remained relatively constant.

Johnny is growing up to be an impish, energetic and friendly little boy who likes to do everything and go everywhere. Especially, he likes to wheedle rides on a pony at the next farm. He'll settle, though, for a tour on the tractor with his mother or father, Julia and John Wilson.

Like Johnny, other afflicted children who receive proper treatment may live to enjoy shooting cap pistols, watching television, singing songs or playing a toy banjo—with the best of four-year-olds.

IT'S THE LAW—

New Year's Resolution—Keep Accurate Records

Back in pioneer times our forefathers found they could keep track of the family history pretty well with a few notations on the flyleaf of the family Bible.

But life's not quite that simple any more. Great-grandpa wasn't covered by social security or workmen's compensation. He didn't have a bank account or safe deposit box, a car or a dozen home appliances being bought on time payment, or a half-dozen insurance policies. We have taxes great-grandpa never heard of and wouldn't have believed if he had. And had you asked him for a certificate to prove his birth, he'd have thought you'd taken leave of your senses.

The point of this is that the average American today has a good many important papers to keep track of. There are birth certificates, receipts, copies of tax returns, sales contracts, and a host of other papers. With a little tidy record-keeping, you can make life easier for yourself and your family when you are gone.

So why not make a New Year's Resolution to follow these suggestions:

1. Get a heavily bound notebook folder or file folder as a central collecting point for all the records of your affairs.

2. Put your especially important papers in your safe deposit box, but make a list of those papers and a brief summary of their contents to put in your home file.

3. Get for your files copies of birth certificates for all members of the family, and add them to the file. Add your marriage license or at least a statement as to when you were married and by whom.

4. Insert your will or a copy of it. If your will is kept elsewhere, include a note telling where it may be found.

5. During the year, put into the file your income tax withholding statements and receipts for expenditures which may be deductible. Then keep a copy of each year's tax return in the file.

6. Make a list of all the stocks and bonds you own and where they are.

7. List all the places you have lived and worked and the names of persons there who you know. Include the schools you have attended and the dates you left or were graduated.

8. If you may have benefits coming under a profit-sharing plan where you work, make a note of that too.

9. If you're in doubt about whether an item should be included, put it in.

This all takes time initially, but it will save you both time and worry in the long run.
