PLIGHT EXPLAINED

County's Assistance Asked For Ambulance

Frequently our readers demand: "Why don't you put more good news in the paper?" Well, the Texas Daily Newspaper Association has come along with headlines for seven stories that certainly could be categorized as "good":

1. Seven and a quarter million college students did not riot last week.
2. Most nations were at peace this week.
3. Americans have money left after taxes.
4. The Bible is still the best seller.
5. Hippies are .00057 per cent of the population.
6. Millions love and obey their parents.
7. Spring always follows winter."

Two men were talking about a mutual acquaintance who was doing a "stretch" at Huntsville. One said, "You know, I believe Jim is mad at me."

"Why do you say that?" asked the other fellow.

The first man replied: "Because I went to the prison on visiting day and they took my name and he sent back word that he wasn't in."

An old-timer remembers this bit of historical lore: "Back in the 1890's, we moved from Arkansas to far West Texas. We took some bacon along with us but at last it was all gone except a piece of the rind about six inches square, which we saved to cook navy beans with."

"The neighbors learned that we had this bacon rind and some came from as far as 25 miles away, always with the understanding that it was to be used to cook with navy beans."

"But one neighbor borrowed that bacon rind and cooked black-eyed peas with it! That broke up the friendship between the two families and it was almost a year before my father even spoke to him again."

Veteran West Texas editor Sam Braswell was attending a press convention when he was a young man. He was chatting with the distinguished editor of the Fort Worth Record. In some way, the discussion got around to the subject of given names and Braswell cited several he didn't like.

"But the one I like least of all," he said, "and I wonder why any parents would bestow it upon a defenseless baby, is Clarence."

The other man gave him a bleak look--and, too late, Braswell recalled that he was talking to Colonel Clarence Ousley!

As the publication "Farm Chemicals" puts it, "...the control of pesticides has been shifted into new hands in Washington." There is danger the new regulators will be more interested in protecting their conception of an ideal environment than in protecting the food supply.

In this day and age, when so very few people are directly involved in the business of producing our food, it could be perilously easy for regulators, not experienced in farming, to cripple the complex agricultural technology which, today, spells the difference between famine and plenty.

Heretofore, governmental agencies such as the Department of Agriculture have worked with the pesticide industry and farmers to strike a workable balance between environmental protection and food production requirements. There has been general recognition that certain pesticides are essential to agriculture. Without these pesticides, many vital crops would perish, and food prices would soar. Farmers cannot produce for a nation of over 200 million people without using every scientific device available to them. Pesticides are one of the devices. Through research and education, the pesticide industry and government, at every level, have been working to make pesticides compatible with the environment and a safe ally of the modern farmer. They have realized that an abundant food supply is a first requisite of a wholesome environment, and until suitable substitutes are found, present-day chemicals are an indispensable element of agricultural technology.

Friona Mayor R.L. Fleming presented a case to the Parmer County commissioners on Monday, asking that the commissioners consider voting county funds to subsidize Claborn Ambulance Service, and assure ambulance service for Parmer County.

Fleming produced figures supplied by J.C. Claborn, owner of the service, which showed that the ambulance service was losing an average of $720 per month.

Claborn also attended the commissioner's meeting, and answered questions regarding the service. He said that in a business as risky as the ambulance business was, he had come to a conclusion that it was not worth the risk to his other business (funeral home) to continue the ambulance as a losing proposition.

"This isn't something new. It has been building up over a period of years," said Claborn, who also indicated that bad debts weren't necessarily to blame for the business losing money. "If we collected 100 per cent of our calls, it still wouldn't come close to making up the deficit," Claborn said.

Guy Cox, commissioner from Precinct 3, asked Claborn if he didn't think his ambulance fees needed raising as a partial solution to the problem. Claborn responded by saying that some of the fees had been revised recently.

Claborn indicated to the commissioners that if the business could be subsidized the $720 per month it was losing, that he would be willing to continue to operate the ambulance on a "break-even" basis.

The Friona city council had verbally agreed to participate to the extent of $200 per month.

Bovina Mayor Charles Flynn also attended the meeting. He said he thought Bovina would participate for its "fair share," although voicing disappointment that Friona chose not to take part in an O.E.O. training program which had been proposed to be held in Bovina.

"However, we need to forget what has happened in the past. The county needs to start working together," said

Flynn, who brought up the possibility of a centrally-located trash burning facility for county municipalities, which might be needed within the next five years.

The Farwell city commission had not been contacted about the matter, and the county commissioners said they would like an official indication from each city government before it took any action on the question.

Claborn produced figures which showed that numerous counties in the Texas Panhandle were participating in programs to subsidize their ambulance services and keep them operating.

Proposed legislation which would put further and crippling requirements on ambulance services were discussed. Should some of these requirements be passed, ambulance service for small communities would be all but doomed, Fleming said.

Claborn had notified the City of Friona and the county officials that he would stop his ambulance service on March 12. However, he indicated this week that he would continue it until the commissioners had time to act on the proposition.

MACHINE INSTALLED... Nurse Carol Fallwell and Dr. Paul Spring of Parmer County Community Hospital demonstrate the new heart monitoring device which has been purchased and installed at the hospital to Mrs. George Taylor. Mrs. Taylor is president of Modern Study Club, whose "Project Christmas Card" provided most of the funds for the $5,000 machine.

PROJECT REALIZED

New Heart Machine Installed Locally

Parmer County Community Hospital has received its heart monitoring machinery which was financed primarily through last year's Project Christmas Card fund drive.

The machine, which is a sophisticated piece of equipment, was installed during the past week, and hospital personnel were instructed as to its use. The machine has been installed in a patient room adjacent to the nurse's desk. Information from the machine is fed to a monitoring machine located at the nurse's station, where a heart patient can be monitored at all times by nurses at the desk, without being in the patient's room.

Patients suspected of having suffered a heart attack will be connected to the machine after they are admitted to the hospital. The machine then monitors the patient's heartbeat, and if there is any change, a bell rings and notifies attendants.

A screen on the machine shows the patient's electrocardiogram (EKG) at all times. A record of the EKG can also be reproduced on a paper tape.

Doctors can use the machine to send a "tracer" report via telephone, in order to have a heart specialist in a city many

Girlstown Food Drive Planned

The Black Study Club is sponsoring a drive beginning the week of March 29 for food items for Girlstown.

Students in Friona's elementary and junior high school are assisting with the drive, and will bring canned goods, staples and drug items to school during the week.

Prizes are to be given by the club to the room in grades one through eight for the room bringing the most food items.

Any individual wanting to contribute to the drive may bring food items or toiletries to either of the elementary buildings or the junior high school.

A similar drive was conducted here in 1970, and it was well received both by the community and by Girlstown.

AYERS UNDER ATTACK

Solon Asks Probe Of Guard

State Adjutant General Ross Ayers of Friona came under attack this week by the lone Republican on the Senate General Investigating Committee, who demanded a probe of the Texas National Guard.

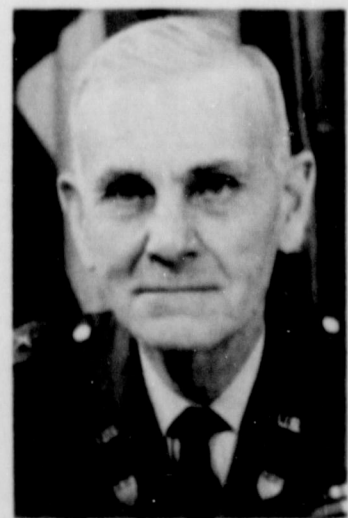

Sen. O.H. (Ike) Harris of Dallas said he would ask Gov. Preston Smith to get rid of Ayers and Col. Walter (Buck) Staudt, chief of staff for air for the Texas Guard.

As of press time, Gov. Smith had not commented on the remarks.

Harris charged that the Texas National Guard with "political involvement" with the governor's office.

The Dallas senator was critical of the Air Guard carrying politicians and influential businessmen to Las Vegas and newspaper reporters and their wives to the 1969 Southern Governor's Conference at Williamsburg, Va.

Gen. Ross Ayers

Harris said Ayers had retired from the national guard but was still serving as the governor's "political appointment" as adjutant general, and "may not be entitled" to serve in that position.

The senator also said there was a legal question over the job Staudt holds because it was never created by law but merely added to the appropriations bill at "just under $20,000" a year.

Harris charged Governor Smith with violating an agreement with the Texas Senate when he appointed Staudt to the new job. Harris said the Senate had agreed in 1969 to confirm Ayers only if Brig. Gen. James Rose were retained as top guard officer. But after the confirmation, Harris said, the governor named Staudt to the post.

Crim Offers Little Hope For Farmers

J.W. (Indian) Crim offered Parmer County farmers little hope this week that the prolonged dry spell would end in the near future when he made his annual weather observation near Oklahoma Lane.

With prevailing winds from the north and northwest when he made his reading on Monday, Crim said the weather in Parmer County and surrounding area would be mostly fair for the coming year.

He did, however, expect less violent weather in 1971 than we had last year.

Crim made his prediction at sunrise, and the annual ceremony was attended by almost 30 people at the Crim home 17 miles south of Friona.

It was the 48th consecutive year for Crim to take the weather reading. He said that although his predictions have been fairly accurate that his forecast of last year proved to be the farthest from right of any he has made yet. Last year Crim's prediction called for more rain.

Local Masonic Lodge Hosts Sen. Hightower

The honorable Jack Hightower, state senator from the 30th Senatorial District and Deputy Grand Master of Texas Masons, will be guest speaker at Friona Masonic Lodge #1332 on Saturday, March 27.

A meal will be served beginning at 7 p.m., with the talk by Senator Hightower set for 8 p.m.

Jerry Brown, worshipful master, says that Sen. Hightower will bring an inspirational message on Masonic activities from throughout the state. Brown issues a special invitation to Masons and their wives in the area. Other friends of the senator are also invited.

The Lodge is located at 7th and Ashland.

Appraising Work Begun On Project

Appraising of the right-of-way for the proposed overpass on South Highway 214 began last week, setting the wheels in motion once again on the project which had been bogged down for some months.

Dan MacNaughton of Plainview, professional appraiser, began the work after Mayor R.L. Fleming contacted him about the urgent nature of the project. The work had been ready for the appraiser since last fall.

Just how long the appraisal work will take is not known for sure. MacNaughton was in bed with the flu on Tuesday, and could not be contacted on the matter.

One-Third Of C-C Members Are Delinquent

About two-thirds of the 1970 members of the Friona Chamber of Commerce have paid their dues, it was revealed this week.

Chamber president Ralph Shirley urged those who have not paid their dues to do so, in order that the Chamber can carry out its 1971 program of work.

The Chamber leaders are currently working on a possible garment factory for the city, and have made some favorable contacts. Also, the Chamber representatives will attend the American Apparel Conference in Dallas in May.

POOR POOCH... Spot, a Friona canine resident, got his rabies shot and 1971 city registration tags last Friday at the small animal clinic at City Hall. Only some 60 dogs were vaccinated and tagged during two clinics, and city officials urge other animal owners to get their dogs vaccinated to comply with city ordinances. Unregistered dogs will be impounded.

AN EDITORIAL

Here's One Solution To Ambulance Subsidy

Here is a way the various county agencies could subsidize Claborn Ambulance Service that would be fair and equitable to all concerned.

Claborn has stated that the service is losing an average of $720 per month, and that it would take a payment of that figure for the business to break even, and allow him to continue.

The City of Friona's 1970 official population of 3,111 is 29 per cent of the county's total. Twenty-nine per cent of $720 is roughly $210. (Ironically, the city commission had verbally agreed to consider budgeting $200 per month as its share.)

Bovina's 1970 population of 1,428 is roughly 14 per cent of the county's total. Fourteen per cent of $720 is $100.

Farwell's 1970 population of 1,185 is roughly 11 per cent of the county's 10,530. Eleven per cent of $720 is $80.

If the three cities would agree to contribute at least this "pro rata" share toward the ambulance, it would total $390.

This would leave $330 for the county to pick up, representing the "non-city" portion of Parmar County. $330 is 46 per cent of $720. That is also the percentage of non-city residents, according to the recently released population figures.

The Public Service Company of Colorado gives us a few figures that bring home the immensity of a billion, in these days of high finance: "A billion one dollar bills laid end to end would encircle the earth nearly four times. . . . The propeller of an airplane traveling 300 miles per hour would turn a billion times if the plane would cruise continuously--24 hours a day--for nearly two years."

40 YEARS AGO--MARCH 27, 1931

Parmar County is in a very fortunate position regarding the paving of Highway 60, inasmuch as it traverses the entire length of the county, in a diagonal direction, giving us many miles of that highway, and three of the 13 Texas towns on it. That fact alone will bring Parmar County more than the usual county's share of tourist money to be spent by travellers along the highway.

35 YEARS AGO--MARCH 27, 1936

The fireboys of Friona's Volunteer Fire Company have during the past week removed the rack on which they dried the hose from the Blackwell lot to the lots which the city has purchased on the south side of Sixth Street. They also removed all undesirable objects from the two lots just north of the city jail, which makes the premises look much more desirable than while littered with the many articles on the lots.

30 YEARS AGO--MARCH 28, 1941

On Sunday afternoon, a car belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Boren was totally wrecked by an east-bound freight train, on the Santa Fe tracks near the depot. Mr. and Mrs. Boren got the car stalled crosswise of the tracks and could not get it off before the oncoming freight train arrived. They ran clear of the car prior to the collision.

Unquestionably the most significant event in the local Masonic Lodge history will be the called meeting for next Monday night, at which time the local Friona Lodge will be set to work as the Friona Masonic Lodge U.D. (under dispensation). This will be the first dispensation of a new lodge in this area in over 15 years. Local Masons have heretofore been affiliated with the Farwell Lodge, with meetings in Bovina.

15 YEARS AGO--MARCH 23, 1956

The recent dust storms in Parmar County have taken their toll in wheat damage, according to Agricultural Agent Joe Jones, who pointed out that reports from scattered sections of the county indicate that here and there some farmers have had their wheat blown out.

10 YEARS AGO--MARCH 23, 1961

A postmaster appointed that didn't materialize after it had been announced had Frionans shaking their heads in wonderment this week. Roy V. Miller, who received word last week that he was to be installed as acting postmaster, received another letter Friday that revoked the first order. In investigating the incident, this writer learned that several Frionans had been asked to write letters to postal authorities asking that Mrs. Roy Clements receive the appointment.

Junior Martinez, son of Mrs. Nora Martinez of Friona, was serving aboard the destroyer USS Mason last Wednesday when the vessel picked up the United States' two latest astronauts. Martinez, who was employed at Gib's Cleaners prior to enlisting in the U.S. Navy, has been in the service about three years.

TOWANDA, PA., REVIEW: "Every American city, large and small, is plagued by the vandal, that peculiarly surreptitious individual who feeds his ego by marring or defacing anything that gives pleasure and a sense of well-being to others. He seems to glean vicarious pleasure by stealthily destroying what little of beauty there is in the world. Public buildings, monuments, schools seem to be the special targets of the vandals. When reading of such destruction, every civic-minded citizen should be outraged by what is nothing less than an invasion of his own personal rights."

Sincerely Yours

BY REV. ALBERT LINDLEY

Have you bought any for your dog yet? I'm talking about the new dog food which they call "People Crackers." It seems that we have had animal crackers long enough so some wise guy has come up with--"People Crackers."

These are crackers for the dog and they are made in the shape of people--like the Mailman, the Meter-reader, Delivery Boys, Burglers--something a dog can get his teeth into. . . .

Boy, this really takes the cake--people crackers, yet.

If they aren't careful someone is going to ruin the swell relationship that man has had with dog ever since dog found man wandering aimlessly around one day. . . .

I suppose the "people crackers" matter has hidden meaning but I would be hard pressed to know what it is. I just don't want anyone telling my dogs about it or we will have to stock up as much dog food as we do breakfast cereal now. . . .

Isn't it funny how quickly we become the receptors of some witty publicity stunt? I try to realize that it is important for the product, to use some kind of method to get it sold or before the public, but I also often feel pretty stupid to think they believe I am so gullible.

I'm fearful that they never really tell the whole truth about some items.

I saw a dog just last night, go through what I believed to be his last motions of life after having been struck by a car just before I arrived on the scene. It was very pathetic. He couldn't have cared less for "people crackers."

Face it! Everything has its importance, but in its place.

Well, I'm this close to a moral for this article, I suppose I just soon go on and come out with something. . . . "All that glitters is not gold". . . . "Saying it's good don't make it so". . . . "people can't live without it". . . .

Have you ever noticed how much the young person's attention is sought, via the ad? One would think that the future of the item rested on their acceptance--and that's about it.

It makes me think of the many times I tried (in younger years) to win at some of those games they have at Fairs. . . . I always thought I could win with the next pitch. . . . I never did.

It does bother me that the unsuspecting young person often becomes the brunt of many ill-planned programs and projects. . . . and still they try to get the "eye" of the young person again--and often do--but let us not be too quick to point accusing fingers at them because I have a notion that we too, have some logs in our own eyes. . . .

The advertisement is often able to accomplish the feat because there are those who are kinda like me. . . . gullible.

Now, I'm not sure just where this leaves me with the dog food but I do know where it leaves most of us. . . all in the same boat. . . dogs, youth and you and me. . . caught up in the fancy world of publicity and sales.

Who of us have not been caught at one time or other and ended up with the short stick?

What we really need to think about is that we have been wonderfully blessed in God's own way, to be able to make the distinction between what is good and some times, what isn't. It becomes our responsibility to do just what we need to do. . . really give it a "look-see."

Can you think of something anymore outlandish than to have traded our valuables for the cheap bauble?

Just think about that one little thing the next time a "pitch" is made in your direction that is somewhat questionable. The tragic situation is to see a person sell him/herself so cheap.

Do you have a price? I once said that it wouldn't always be funny to read these articles. . . .

Now, where is that shelf of dog food? . . .

Heart Monitor. . .

miles away monitor the heart-beat, and make recommendations.

Actually, the hospital has been able to send tracer reports by telephone for the past two or three years.

The machine was manufactured by General Electric. It cost $4805.00, and the installation ran the total cost to $5066.85.

The purchase of the heart monitor was the primary goal of the 1970 Project Christmas Card, co-sponsored by Modern Study Club and the Friona Star. With the heart monitor as a goal, the 1970 drive raised a record $3532.92. The balance to pay for the machine is to come from the hospital's memorial fund.

Dr. Paul Spring, hospital chief of staff, says the machine can be a vital addition to the hospital and will aid materially in treating heart patients.

Appraising Work

Following the appraisal of land involved, it will be up to the City of Friona and Parmer County to purchase the needed right-of-way, after which the contract can be awarded.

Actually, the delay from the appraisal standpoint may not have held up the work on the project, as all highway construction has been at a virtual standstill for the past few months.

Rhea Bradley of Littlefield, resident highway engineer, said that there had been a virtual standstill in highway construction for the past three months, due to a shortage of government funds.

However, he said the trend was changing, and was optimistic that by the time the overpass project is ready to go to contract that the slowdown will have been reversed.

Also involved in the project is the widening and repaving of the highway from Friona to Hub. This part of the project isn't expected to present any problems, as there will be no additional right of way needed.

However, the paving and the overpass is to be awarded at the same time, so the overpass has held up the highway widening, which is badly needed. Highway 214 was originally constructed as a Farm-to-Market road several years ago. Due to the increased traffic on the road, particularly trucks, and the direct access to Muleshoe, Lubbock and points south, the road has long been inadequate.

The widening of the highway from Hub to the Bailey County line has not been programmed as yet.

Friona School Lunch Menu

Friday--hamburgers, potato chips, pickles, lettuce, tomatoes and onions, and milk.

The Library Corner

The Friona Public Library is experiencing a steady growth. During the month of February this year there were 947 books checked out to 458 readers with fourteen of them being new members.

Records show that during the same month last year 344 patrons checked out 771 books. During this month there were only five new readers.

As local people become more familiar with what the local library has to offer, the more it will be used. As demands on the library are increased, its services will be increased.

Are you aware of what it has to offer? Books for the very young to look at. Fiction books for the junior and adult readers. Non fiction and reference books for the juniors and adults.

The library has a reference room equipped with table and chairs for studying. Reference books may be checked out for two days.

Also available is access to the inter-library loan. This service enables patrons to secure the loan of books from an Amarillo library on a two or three day notice for the prices of postage only. This is usually ten or fifteen cents per book.

Two new adult books "In This Sign," by Mrs. Greenbug and "Whistle and I'll Come To You," by Turnbull.

For anyone who is interested in learning more about superstitions, there is a book entitled, "Superstitious? Here's Why."

Jack Tomlin Buys Country Club Gin

Jack Tomlin has purchased the Friona Country Club Gin. It was revealed this week in a joint announcement from Tomlin and directors of the corporation which owned the gin.

Tomlin, a former ginner here and at Hub, has been away from Friona for the past five years.

He was a former manager of the gin he is purchasing.

A veteran of 18 years in the ginning business, Tomlin for many years was with Fleming & Sons Gin at Hub.

He said that his plans are to construct a new and modern office for the gin on the location of the old former gin office, adjacent to the scales. The old office will be torn down. The gin is to be known as "Jack's Gin."

"I am happy to be coming back to Friona, and look forward to seeing all of my former friends and customers once again," Tomlin says.

In making their announcement, Country Club Gin's directors said they congratulated Tomlin on his new venture.

"We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation and thanks to all of our customers for letting us serve them," said a spokesman for the board.

"Tomlin is an experienced, capable ginner, and we hope you will give him the opportunity to serve your ginning needs," he concluded.

Official announcements may be found on page 7 of this issue.

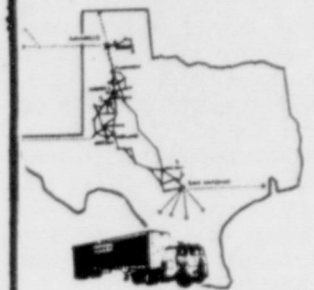

Tomlin and his wife are in the process of securing a house in Friona. They have been living in Dismitt for the past five years.

Farm Program Participants Face Three-Step Procedure

Compliance by farmer certification is now nation-wide for participants in the 1971 farm set-aside programs for feed grain, wheat and cotton.

From a limited beginning in 1964, this method of accepting the farmer's word that he has followed program regulations has now become standard in all agricultural counties—nearly 2,800—across the nation.

In Parmer County, farm program compliance by certification has been in effect since 1965.

This method of compliance is used for all crops except some types of tobacco. Photographic copies of fields and farms are provided farmers, who then use these aerial photographs to designate their set-aside, crop, and conserving base acreages when certifying that they have complied with farm program provisions.

Certification is actually the third step a farmer takes in participating in the feed grain, wheat and cotton programs for 1971.

First step is signing up at the County ASCS office. Signup for these programs is in progress now and will continue through April 9. To participate in feed grain, wheat and cotton program benefits, a farmer must sign up. Participation is not automatic.

At the time he signs up, a farmer is encouraged to take step No. 2—requesting measurement. This service, provided by County ASCS Offices at nominal cost, has become an integral part of the farm operations for many program participants.

By having the ASCS Office furnish him with measurement service, the farmer is guaranteed to be in compliance with acreage requirements of the programs.

Step three—certification—follows sign-up and measurement. Farmers are reminded that at the time they certify they will designate precisely the set-aside acreage on their farms. They are also reminded that the farm must be in compliance with program provisions at the time of certification.

Final date for certification for the wheat program is May 3, for feed grain and cotton it is August 2. Following certification, program participants must continue to comply with farm program regulations throughout the calendar year.

Spot checks on approximately 25 percent of the farms in the 1971 set-aside program will be made following certification, to help assure full compliance with farm program provisions. The 25 per cent figure is an average for the nation and will not necessarily apply county-by-county.

Some counties may have fewer than 25 per cent of their farms spot-checked, while in other counties all of the farms may receive compliance visits.

Discussions related to guiding youth and comments from a number of young people on what youth think will highlight the PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) Family Living-Youth Seminar on April 6 in Amarillo.

The seminar will begin with registration at 9:00 a.m. at the Quality Motel, announces County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Janice Fant.

Theme for the program is "Guidelines for Guiding Young People."

Keynote speaker on the program will be Dr. Bernice Moore of Austin with the Hogg Foundation, University of Texas. She will discuss "Communications within the Family."

Also featured at the morning session will be Leo Forrest of Amarillo, PEP chairman, and Ronnie Parker of Dimmitt, minister of the Church of Christ. Forrest will describe "How Family Living Relates to PEP" while Parker will give a report on "The Whitehouse Conference on Children and Youth."

Edd McLeroy of Dimmitt, chairman of the Family Living-Youth Task Force, will preside at the morning program and will deliver the welcome. The afternoon session will feature two panel discussions, one on "Awareness of Opportunities for Youth" and the other, "Youth Think."

The panel on opportunities will include Robert Holman of Hereford, superintendent in charge of curriculum; Bruce E. Romig of Amarillo, Texas State Technical Institute; and Don Hileman, manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. Holman will discuss "Opportunities through Counseling"; Romig will speak on "Training for Youth," and Hileman will talk about "Financing the Training."

The panel on "Youth Think" will allow a number of area youth to express their own opinions and give their ideas relating to the program theme. The panel will include Steve Dauer and Ronnie Burks, students at West Texas State University; Debi Goodin and Cindy Youngblood, members of District I 4-H Council; Klipp Burnett, area FFA president; and Pat Palmer, Wheeler county home demonstration agent, panel advisor.

Summary remarks will be made by Dr. Moore. Presiding at the afternoon session will be Mrs. Argen Draper, Deaf Smith county home demonstration agent. She will offer closing comments.

According to Mrs. Fant, the objectives of the seminar are threefold:

1. Adults develop a workable understanding of youth.
2. Adults become more aware of training opportunities to aid youth in developing their potential.
3. Adults more wisely guide young people in choosing suitable training for their selected careers.

The seminar is being sponsored by the Family Living-Youth Task Force of PEP and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. The Family Living-Youth Task Force along with the Agricultural Industry and Agricultural Production task forces are designed to provide overall direction to PEP in its effort to bolster the social and economic development of the Panhandle.

Four-H Club members and adult leaders in Parmer County who are interested in quarter horses are invited to participate in a 4-H Quarter Horse Clinic in Amarillo on March 27.

The clinic will begin at 9:00 a.m. in the Bill Cody Arena at the Tri-State Fair Grounds. It is being sponsored by the Golden Spread Quarter Horse Association and District I of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

An excellent program is being planned which will assist 4-H'ers who have horse projects or who are interested in enrolling in the 4-H horse program.

The program should also be of special interest to adult leaders who are assisting in the horse program or who are interested in providing leadership for the program in Parmer County.

Anyone interested in participating in the 4-H Quarter Horse Clinic should contact the County Extension Office.

There will be a sale of registered Chester White boars and gilts on Saturday, March 27, 1971. It will be conducted at the South Plains Fairgrounds in Lubbock. Placing of the sale animals will begin at 10:00 a.m. with the sale beginning at 1:00 p.m. This is an excellent opportunity to buy breeding stock to use in a purebred or commercial operation.

County 4-H Food Show Is Saturday

The Parmer County 4-H Food Show has been set for this coming Saturday, March 20 in the Parish Hall of St. John's Lutheran Church, Lariat.

Judging will begin at 2:00 p.m. with the awards presentation at 4:00 p.m. according to Mrs. Janice Fant, County Home Demonstration Agent. A tasting party will immediately follow the awards presentation.

Two participants from the senior division will be eligible to compete in the District Food Show, April 3.

This year the senior entries are required to enter a quick-dish—one that takes no more than 1-1/2 hours to set up for preparation, prepare and clean up. All entries will be judged on their knowledge of foods and nutrition, the food exhibited, the exhibit, the recipe, day's menu and foods records. Seniors will also be judged on the timesheet for their quick dish.

Hi-Plains Announces Addition To Staff

Hi-Plains Feed Yard this week announced two top-level additions to its managerial structure.

Manager Earl Elam announced that Bill Bailey has been named assistant manager, and Redge Priest has been employed as cattle buyer and customer representative.

Bailey has served as office manager and head bookkeeper since the feedlot opened in 1967.

Priest's position is a newly-created one. He is the former manager of Bovina Feeders. As head of the company's customer relations, Priest will represent all of the customers, and invites them to call him in regard to any of their questions or problems relating to the business.

"We feel that this position will be an important one in our organization, and we are fortunate in having Priest to fill it for us," says Elam.

Elam, the former assistant manager at Hi-Plains, was elevated to the manager's post early last month, replacing Paul Morgan.

"Our goal now is to fill up the yard with cattle," he said this week.

Hi-Plains, with a capacity of 50,000 head, is one of the larger operations in the High Plains region.

STAFF CHANGES. . . Hi-Plains Feed Yard announced this week that Redge Priest, left has been added as cattle buyer and customer representative. Bill Bailey, right, has been promoted to assistant manager. Earl Elam, manager, is seated.

BEST SHOWING

Chiefs Runners-up At Hereford

The Friona Chieftain track team made its best showing of the 1971 season at the Hereford Relays last Saturday, scoring 73 points to take the runnerup trophy in Division II of the meet. Friona stood out in the field events, where Wesley Clark and Ronnie McPherson placed 1-2 in the high jump. Clark cleared 5-10 and McPherson 5-8. It was Clark's best jump of the season. Clark also was second in the pole vault, and James Bartlett was fourth. Bill Bailey turned in a fine 19 feet, 11-1/2 inch broad jump, to place second in that event to an Amarillo Sandies B-team lad. James Weatherly placed third in the discus and fourth in the shot, and Kevin Wiseman was sixth in the shot to round out the team's scoring in the field events. McPherson placed second in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles, for the team's top spot in the running events. The sprint relay team of James Harvey, James Bartlett, Wesley Clark and Charles Bentley placed fourth with a clocking of 46.9. It marked the first time this season for the four-some to break 47 seconds. The mile relay team of Larry Nickel, McPherson, Don Fortenberry and Bentley placed fifth with a time of 3:44. Other point-makers included Bentley, fourth in the 220-yard dash; Nickel, fourth in the 440; and Mike Martin, fifth in the mile. The Chieftains enter the Dumas Relays this Saturday, and Coach Larry Dyess says he is looking forward to the meet. "The boys are just beginning to come around," he says. Friona's district meet will be held on April 7.

LITTLE DRIBBLERS

Hawks Win Challenge For 2nd

Second half play began last Monday in Friona's Little Drubblers league, and three more closely-contested games were featured. In the first game, the Bullets came from seven points behind in the last quarter to go ahead of the Suns, 29-28, and then lose by one point in the last 18 seconds, 30-29. Hal Blackburn scored 17 points for the Suns, and Randy Waggoner scored 12 for the Bullets.

The Celtics, winner of their first game the previous week, played the Lakers a good game, but lost 29-21. In a battle to settle second place in the league, the Bucks had to fight off a last-quarter rally by the Hawks to eke out a 17-16 win. Leslie Broadhurst, the league's second-leading scorer, had 13 points for the Bucks, and Keith Martin tossed in 10 for the Hawks.

On Thursday, the Bucks again had to battle for their second place standings. They started out tied with the Lakers with 4-3 records, but took an 18-14 win to break the tie and claim sole possession of second place. Leslie Broadhurst scored 13 points for the Bucks to take game scoring honors. The Knicks, still undefeated as the league leaders, rolled past the Suns, 31-17 for a 7-0 record. The Suns couldn't get going in the first half, scoring only three points. Sammy Felder scored 12 points and Mark Neill II for the Knicks. In the day's top game, the Celtics came from behind in the second half to win their second game of the season, 20-18 over the Bullets. The game was tied with 55 seconds left to play. Bryan Snyder scored nine points for the Celtics, and Chris Ingram nine for the Bullets.

SQUAW RELAYS

Panhandle Girls Are Local Meet Winners

The strong Panhandle girls track team won the second annual Friona Squaws Relay last Saturday, scoring 119 points in a meet hampered during the preliminaries by the wind and cold. The Squaws placed seventh, with 37-1/2 points. Hale Center, Amberst, Bovina, Hart and Sunray also placed ahead of the Squaws. Kress, Vega and Tullia followed them. Ten teams participated in the meet. Highest placers for Friona were Sharon Smith, second in the 440-yard dash, and Vicki Ulen, second in the 80-yard hurdles. Diane Day placed third in the high jump, clearing 4-10. Winning height was five feet. The mile relay foursome of Susan Martin, Jill Riethmayer, Sharon Smith and Jeanie Thompson placed fourth. Other point-makers included Darla Rhodes, fifth in the 880-yard run; Susan Martin, sixth in the 220; the 880-yard relay team (Ossie May Lee, Jill Riethmayer, Vega Welch and Jeanie Thompson), sixth; and Vega Welch, sixth in the 100-yard dash. Jill Riethmayer made the finals of the 60-yard dash, and Karen Crofford was just out of the point-makers in the discus throw, being seventh with her toss of 81 feet, three inches. The 440-yard relay team was one of several during the cold preliminaries which had the misfortune of dropping the baton, and failed to make the finals. "I thought the girls did a tremendous job, considering the weather," stated Coach F.G. Crofford, who indicated that the girls didn't seem to let the wind and cold bother them too much. "They just buckled down and got after it," he said. The Squaws will compete in a meet at Panhandle on Saturday. Most of the teams which competed at Friona last week are expected there, along with others.

SUPPORTING YOUR TOWN

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man"

P. S. How many new residents and out of town shoppers saw your name and business today; this week?

The following list supposedly appeared in a publication about the turn of the century as a "Washday Recipe" for brides. Present day brides probably need lists for a lot of things, but not for wash day. About all they need for this particular chore is an instruction book for the washer and dryer.

However, if you are a grandmother or great-grandmother, you will remember when the ideas expressed were not too far fetched.

The spelling indicates that the homemaker who handed the recipe to her daughter probably was an advocate of "spelling words like they sound."

1. Bild a fire in the backyard to heat the kettle of rain water.
2. Pit on a pot of beans for your man.
3. Set tube so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is pert.
4. Shave one whole cake of lye soap in bilin water.
5. Sort things. Make three piles. I white; one cullards and I work britches and rags.
6. Stur flour in cold water to smooth then thin down with bilin water.
7. Check beans, add salt, and some sow belly.
8. Rub dirty spots on board, scrub hard, then bile, rub cullards, but don't bile--just rench and starch.
9. Take white things out of kettle with broom stick handle then rench, blew and starch.
10. Spread tea towels on grass, hang rags on fence.
11. Check beans, wash turnip greens, pit them on to bile slowly with sow belly.
12. Pour rench water in flower beds.
13. Scrub front porch with hot soapy water.
14. Turn tubs upside down, so not to rust.
15. Stir greens and beans and make a pan of cornbr
16. Go put on a cleen dress-smooth hair with side cot brew a cup of tea, set and est a spell in the rocker, then count your blessins.

By now, someone is probably ready to ask, "What blessings?"

Of course, I don't really know a good answer, but some possibilities might be that she didn't have to draw the water out of the cistern, gather or split the wood for the fire or stop during the process to chase an errant cow or pig.

Some fruit trees have blossomed out in different parts of town. One day last week I saw a tree that appeared to be full of white blooms. That was the next day after the dirt blew, so probably the blooms were snow white a few days earlier. Spring flowers are also in bloom in a number of places. Most of them are yellow, but I have seen a few crocuses.

Local students of Texas Tech are home this week for a spring break. It is good to see them up and down the street. Real soon now college students will be coming home for Easter and then graduation will not be far away.

from relatives and friends. It isn't too early to begin to supply us this information.

Several Fronans completed requirements for degrees at mid-term and we are interested in them, too.

How would you like to bathe on an air cushion? The latest word in bath comfort is an inflatable vinyl bath "divan" which fits into the tub to support head, neck, back and spine.

Three large suction cups hold this body-length air cushion in place while you soak and scrub in warm soapsuds.

After your bath, this air cushion can be stored--still inflated--on the bathroom wall.

What's next?

Have April Fool's jokes gone out of style--or have we outgrown them? Here's one that can really be "pulled" at any time, but is more fun about April 1.

Have a piece of white cotton thread sticking on the back of your coat. Naturally someone will see it and try to remove it. Then the fun begins.

When the person tries to pull the thread away, it becomes longer and longer as you walk away. The trick is worked by putting spool of thread in the inside pocket of your coat, after enough of it has been threaded through a needle and passed through the back of the coat so that a small piece of the thread appears to be only sticking to the clothes.

Deadline Near For Auto Tags

County tax assessor Hugh Moseley said this week that registration of motor vehicles had totalled less than half the number that were registered by his office during 1970.

"This must mean that we are going to have quite a last-minute rush," Moseley said, and urged those who had not secured their auto tags to do so prior to the final date, which is next Wednesday, March 31.

As of March 13, a total of 3886 vehicles had been registered. In 1970, from Feb. 1 to April 30, a total of 8515 vehicles were registered.
