Congratulations are in order to Missouri Beef Packers on the completion of their beautiful new plant at Plainview.

We had the pleasure of getting a first-hand look at the plant last Thursday when members of the press, radio and television were hosted for a special tour, and like all of the others in attendance, we were impressed. MBP has placed several new innovations in the Plainview plant. Like Friona's plant, it is a masterpiece of functional design. However, just as in any "new model," there are always improvements. Plainview's beef plant is no exception.

Plainview and its surrounding area can rightly be proud of this latest achievement of the young industrial giant, Missouri Beef Packers.

The Plainview area should be helped immensely by this addition to its industrial family. MBP becomes the largest industry for Plainview, just as it was (by far) for Friona when it opened its plant here.

Friona received a good amount of publicity out of Plainview's plant opening, as it will, no doubt, anytime the name Missouri Beef Packers is in the news. After all, our town was the first one selected by the company for its expansion into Texas.

From a Chamber of Commerce standpoint, we are happy that the Plainview MBP plant, although larger in size, will have approximately the same slaughter capacity as our plant in Friona.

Dave LaFleur, manager of the Friona plant, tells us that many of the innovations which have been added in the Plainview plant that are improvements over the Friona plant will be added here at a later date.

At Lubbock this past weekend, we saw a sign on a restaurant window that made us wonder which way we are "progressing."

You may remember having been to fancy restaurants and seeing a sign that read "ties, please." This sign we observed the other day went a bit further. It said "Shoes, please."

We are in constant contact with other newspapermen, and we heard the following story about a man who was too cheap to subscribe to his hometown newspaper.

This man sent his young boy over to borrow his neighbor's newspaper. In his haste, the boy ran over an $8.00 hive of bees and in 10 minutes he looked like a warty squash.

The father ran to his assistance, and failing to notice the barbed-wire fence, ran into that, cutting a hold in his anatomy as well as ruining a $10.00 pair of trousers.

The old cow took advantage of the hole in the fence and killed herself by eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran out, and upset a four-gallon churn of cream into a basket of chicks, drowning the entire batch. In her haste she dropped a $250.00 set of false teeth, which the family dog buried, thinking it was a new type of bone.

The baby, having been left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $1250.00 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, a stray dog broke up ill setting hens, the calves got out and chewed the sleeves off four fine shirts on the clothesline, and the cat had a batch of kittens.

Surely, this could never happen here. You might remember that story if you should ever consider not renewing your subscription to the Friona Star.

We haven't pushed the voter registration this month like we probably should have, and the deadline is just about here.

There are no "big" elections on this off-year, but there will be at least two local elections, the city and school board elections, and there might be a special state election called by the legislature.

So, it behooves voters to keep a current voter registration, so they will be equipped to vote on whatever should come up.

AREA TRADEMARK. . . The trademark of the High Plains, both in present and bygone days, has been the tumbleweed. This one weed was snapped by the Star photographer as it had reached a stopping place against a barbed-wire fence.

The current drought conditions, which has produced less than an inch of rain in the past four months, may cause even the weed crop to be thin, unless something happens in the near future.

HEATHINGTON

Lumber, Hardware Store To Open In Near Future

Heathington Lumber Company, Inc. and Ace Hardware, which is a longtime business concern in Muleshoe, is preparing to open a store in Friona. It was announced this week.

The company expects to open its doors about February 8, but will make a formal announcement in the near future. It is located at 1002 Main, in the former Nunn Lumber Building.

Ronnie Shafer, a native of Muleshoe, will manage the Friona concern. He has been employed at Heathington's store in Muleshoe the past two and one-half years.

Eddie Massey, a Friona product, will be employed by the new business, and Shafer's wife will assist with the bookkeeping.

The store will feature lumber and building supplies, Pittsburgh and Ace paints, small appliances, tools, plumbing, lawn and garden supplies, guns and ammunition, sporting goods, housewares and electrical supplies.

The Shafers have two school-age children, and are in the process of finding housing locally.

"Friona looks like a growing city and we think we're going to like it real fine," Shafer says.

Price's Son Is Casualty

The war in Vietnam has struck close to Friona once again, with the news that the son of a Friona area man has been killed in Southeast Asia.

Larry J. Price, 20, was killed in Vietnam on January 18. His father, John V. Price, lives on Route 2, and is employed by M.C. Osborn. Young Price never lived in Friona, however. The youth was raised in the Denver area, and funeral services and burial are slated in Denver.

County Bank Deposits At Record $26 Million

Deposits in Parmer County's three banks set an all-time record at the December 31 quarterly report, it has been revealed.

Total deposits on December 31, 1970 at the three banks stood at $26,235,255.28. This was an increase of $3,640,290.20 over the amount of deposits exactly a year earlier.

Friona State Bank accounted for almost half of the total deposits in the county, or $13,090,326.28. Security State Bank at Farwell had deposits of $10,019,105.73. Bovina's First National Bank reported $3,125,823.27 on deposit.

Deposits in other area towns included $14,996,427.77 at Dimmitt; $18,170,233.70 at Muleshoe; $40,795,447.47 at Hereford and $13,257,813.31 at Floydada.

All of the banks and cities listed showed good gains from the preceding year. Factors such as better than average crops and crop prices, an earlier harvest, increased income from the cattle business and an inclination for saving were cited as reasons for the good report.

A 30-county area with Lubbock as the center showed deposits on December 31 of $1.5 billion dollars, compared to $1.3 a year earlier.

Residents Face Multiple Deadline On Saturday

Friona area residents face a multiple deadline on January 31, and are reminded that the date falls on a Sunday.

It is the last day to register to vote. It is also the last day to pay city, school, county and state taxes without penalty.

On February 1, automobile vehicle license plates go on sale at the County Tax-Assessor's office. Dates that he will maintain a Friona sub-station will be announced soon.

Clayton On Committees

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake has been appointed to six committees by Gus Mutscher, Speaker of the House.

Clayton was appointed chairman of the Committee on Counties, and vice chairman of the Committee on Banks and Banking.

Other committees on which the representative from the 72nd district will serve include the Rules, State Affairs, Conservation and Reclamation committees.

The preceding week, State Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon, who represents Friona in the Senate, was named president pro tempore of the senate, as such making him the third most powerful man in state politics.

Medal Service To Honor Late City Soldier

A posthumous award ceremony for the late Specialist Fourth Class James Richard Fortenberry will be held in the Community Room of Friona State Bank at 3:00 p.m. Thursday, January 29.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortenberry, will accept the awards, which will be presented by Lieutenant Colonel John O. Childs, professor of military science at West Texas State University, Canyon.

The awards to be presented include the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with second through eighth award, Army Commendation Medal and the Good Conduct Medal.

Prior to his death, Fortenberry was awarded the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal, Aircraft Crewman Badge and the Sharpshooter Badge with rifle and automatic rifle bars.

Friends and relatives of the Fortenberry family are invited to attend the ceremony.

C-C Ticket Sales Brisk

Chamber of Commerce manager Billy Jones reminded that any member of the chamber board, plus other civic officials have tickets available. They also may be purchased at the Chamber office or at Bi-Wize Drug.

Tickets are $4.00 each. Featured on the menu this year will be rib-eye steak, which will be catered by the Caison House.

Speaker will be Reagan V. Brown, who has been called "Mr. Community Improvements" for his work in the field of community development.

Pause and Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

A few years ago someone asked Sir Edmund Hillary why he climbed a mountain. The answer came without a moments hesitation, "Because it is there!"

I share Sir Edmund's fondness for viewing the landscape from the highest peak in the neighborhood; however there is a world of difference in our mountains and in our method of ascent.

He scales the really rugged ones and seems to enjoy hanging like a Yo-Yo over yawning canyons and rocky valleys. Right here is where we part company: the Prairie Prowler doesn't mind climbing and scrambling but the human pendulum bit is not his cup of tea.

I prefer my hands and feet to be on Terra Firma--and the more Firma--the less Terra!

Since time immemorial mountain tops have exerted a magnetic force upon the human animal.

Moses did not descend into a valley to obtain the Tablets, but rather climbed into the misty upper regions of Mt. Sinai. The Psalmist said, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills--"

The path of civilization has been an uphill struggle, and everyone has heard that "there is always room at the top."

In the northwestern part of Kansas are the Smokey River Hills, sacred to the early Kaw Indians. About two hundred miles southeast of Friona another of these Spirit Dwellings can be found. Five miles south of Quanah, Texas, four cone-shaped hills rise 350 feet above the surrounding plains. These are the Medicine Mounds held in awe and reverence by the fierce Comanche Indians who considered them to be the stronghold of powerful and benevolent beings. Whenever their nomadic wanderings brought the tribe into the area the Chiefs and medicine man would ascend the steep rocky sides and ask the spirits to preserve the health of the people and bring success in war and the hunt. During the time of making this "big medicine" the entire tribe would roll around the snow white gypsum in the belief that it was "holy dust" with magical healing powers.

Sincerely Yours

BY REV. ALBERT LINDLEY

I would imagine that most of you have some kind of pet--or several--(may be your wife)--around your place of adobe (I didn't mean several wives)--At any rate, the pets have probably become an important part of your family.

We have almost run the whole gamut of having some or all in our possession at one time or another--As of yet we haven't had a rhino or a panda bear--but we have done pretty good. . . .

If I went into my own personal pet possession era, I could even trace back to a pet skunk that I kept in a bird cage in my room in the college dorm. . . . He was operated on by a vet so he would be safe--We found out that the vet must have been absent on the day they studied the chapter on the "Art of Skunk Deodorization". . . .

We recently came into the possession of a small pup. . . well. . . actually, she was the last of a litter to go and we had grown rather fond of her. . . She thinks people are to jump on. . . She thinks people are a dog's best friend. . . She likes the taste of all kinds of foods, flesh and fabrics. . . She seems to miss the whole idea of training. . . I've never sent a dog to a training school. . . I have always maintained the possessor should be more intelligent than the possessed. . . or switch roles. It seems to me that our family is quickly adjusting to the role of being possessed by the pup.

Isn't it funny how we pick up things--or let habits pick us up--or cling to us with grim determination? . . .

You know, there is a statement in the Bible. . . it's that big black book that gets covered up with the later publications and Christmas catalogs. . . and I read it--especially if I'm looking for some proof to back up a prejudiced idea I have run across and want to keep. . . At any rate, there is a reference to some concerns that I think are rather important and this whole idea about the dog that jumps all over us remind me of the passage--or was it the other way around?--At any rate the truth we find in conclusion is the important thing.

In the "Letter To Jewish Christians," (you can find it headed "Hebrews" and it begins on page no. 1248--in my Bible) and then look over into the chapter about why we should consider certain examples and Christ as the perfect example, (page no. 1257, or chapter 12, verse 1, whichever you find first) and then you will know where I got my idea.

There is a reference to "the sin which clings so closely." Other translations use different words but I sure do like the phrase that J.B. Phillips uses, which states, "the sin which dogs our feet."

Now that's what I mean about my dog story. . . No, the dog is not the sin but I sure do have some sins that "dog my feet". . . You know--jumps all over my shined shoes, muddies my pants and even will rip them if I'm not careful or will trip me when I walk, always under foot. . . you know. See what I mean? . . . O, come on now! Surely you can see that we all fall into this category with something. Surely you know that we all have something that clings to us and that dogs our feet, which can very properly and soundly be understood as sin. . . or even sins. . . You know that! Gee, I do hope I haven't messed up your week with this ole' idea, but honestly, I think it is high time we do something about it--I mean we might just have to go to some type of "training school." (There are several right here in good ole' Friona.)

But, I think it will take even more than that. It seems like we will all need to do something like the Hebrew Author suggested. . . Just keep reading in that chapter and you will find: "run the race that we have to run with patience, with our eyes fixed on Jesus the Source and the Goal of our faith." How 'bout that? That can sure do alot for what dog's you. . . .

PAUSE AND REFLECT. . .

Ye faithful scribe being one of the clan who can not bear the sight of an unclimbed hill, betook himself and son to the slopes of the Big Mound on a camping trip last weekend.

We pitched camp near the bottom of the sharply sloping north side. Tent camping is not a pass time for tender feet; however having proper equipment and some know-how a very pleasant adventure developed.

Much of the credit for the successful trip is due to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brown whose beautiful ranch surrounds the four mounds.

We called at the ranch home, presented press credentials and explained our mission--taking pictures and landscape inspecting.

The Browns proved very gracious hosts and allowed us to pick our own campsite.

A visit to the town of Quanah is not complete without stopping by the Medicine Mounds Trading Post operated by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cummings.

The building housing the Post was built by the Kansas City, Mexico, and Orient Railway Co. at the town of Medicine Mound in 1910.

This passenger and freight depot served a village near the Mounds until a fire in 1935 destroyed the entire town with the exception of this station.

It became part of the Santa Fe system and served until 1959 when it was moved to its present location on highway 287.

The stock includes Indian artifacts, settler and pioneer tools and furnishings, relics, firearms, and railroad items.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings have a thorough knowledge of the area and are a wonderfully pleasant couple to visit.

They offer items for sale (at very reasonable prices, too) that one seldom sees outside of a museum.

For anyone interested in the history of our State or in antiques, a visit to the Quanah area will prove rewarding.

Church Women To Meet Friday

All women in the area are being invited to attend by Mrs. Howard Ford, spokesman for the group.

DIMMITT, TULLA

Squaws Split One-Point Games With Old Rivals

The Friona Squaws split a pair of spine-tingling games against old foes last week, winning a one-point decision against Dimmitt but dropping a game on Friday against Tulla by an almost identical score.

The Squaws started the week with a hectic 31-30 win over Dimmitt in a game that launched the second half of their district campaign.

On Friday, the rival Tulla Hornets came from behind for a 32-31 win, to hand the team only their third loss of the season against 20 wins. However, the game was a non-district encounter, and will not affect their district standing.

Both games were all the more hectic because of the fact that the clock portion of the scoreboard at the Friona gymnasium was out of order, making it hard for players, coaches and fans to know how much time was remaining at critical points.

The Dimmitt game was a defensive-type contest. The Squaws had a five-point lead with only 1:30 left in the game, but had to hold on for dear life, to capture the win and start the second half of district on the right foot.

The low-scoring game saw Friona out in front all the way, holding a 16-13 lead at the half, which was increased to 23-19 going into the last quarter.

Dimmitt pulled to within one point, 25-26, halfway through the final quarter, and fans were given an idea of the type of finish the game would have.

Two free throws by Karen Crofford with 1:30 left to play stretched a 29-26 lead to five points at 31-26, and Friona fans breathed a bit easier.

However, Dimmitt took advantage of two quick turnovers by Friona to score baskets and cut the lead to one point, 31-30, with 45 seconds left to play.

The Squaw guards froze the ball for about 40 of the remaining seconds, until a travelling violation was called. Dimmitt got the ball, and by the time they could get a time out called, only two seconds remained to be played.

The Bobbies just had time to throw the ball inbounds, and a long desperation shot came close—bouncing off the rim at the buzzer.

Diane Day's 13 points and Karen Crofford's 10 led Friona scoring.

The Tulla game was almost a carbon copy. Trying some lineup innovations, Coach F.G. Crofford nursed a slim margin for throughout the contest, rocking along at around a five-point margin for three quarters.

However, Tulla made threatening noises late in the game, and finally tied the score at 31-31 with two minutes to play.

Then, with less than a minute left, Tulla's fine forward, Tanya Toles, gave the Hornets their first lead with a set shot.

Friona had the ball and called time with 29 seconds to play. The Squaws worked for a shot, and Diane Day took it with about 15 seconds left. The shot bounced off the rim, and Miss Day fell to the floor in the lane.

Although Friona got the rebound, the three-second violation was called against Diane, so Tulla was able to stall out the last 10 seconds or so.

The game was another in the long and colorful series between the teams. The teams have met 29 times since 1958, with Friona holding a 15-14 edge. Fourteen of the games have been decided by five points or less. Ten of the games were decided by one or two points.

Dimmitt Hands Eighth Graders Second Loss

Friona's eighth grade boys lost their second game of the season, losing to Dimmitt, there, January 21. Friona had their lowest score of the season of only 28 points.

Friona had the lead early in the game but Dimmitt took it over and the game was tied at the end of the first quarter.

Dimmitt took the lead in the second quarter, 10-8. Friona made the next seven points to give us a 15-10 lead then Dimmitt made the next seven points to lead 17-15 at the half.

Dimmitt made the first two baskets of the third quarter, but Friona came back and trailed by one (23-22) at the end of the quarter.

Friona took the lead, 26-25, with 3:10 left in the game and then led, 28-25 with 2:20 left. Dimmitt got the next five points, and won 30-28.

Longhorn Stampede

By Mike Casey

The Longhorns of Lazbuddie continued their winning ways when they downed the Nazareth Swifts, 87-37 in district play. The 'Horns still are undefeated in district competition.

Charles Lee and John Jones were the big guns for Lazbuddie as they came up with 24 points apiece. Mike Casey and Arthur Graves also were in double figures, each turning in a 16 point performance. Nazareth's Keith Serber was credited with 11 points to lead his team.

In the girls' contest, Nazareth edged by Lazbuddie, 53-48. Debbie Engelking had a whopping 31 points and Jeanne McGehee tossed in 11 for the Longhorns. Nazareth's leading scorers were Monette Pohmeier with 13 and Kay Dobbins with 15.

The Amherst Bulldogs were the 'Horns next opponent and they were handed a 57-43 setback. Mike Casey tallied 16 for the winners and Charles Lee followed with 14. Eddie Moates accounted for 20 of his team's points in a losing cause.

The Lazbuddie girls met with defeat again at the hands of Amherst. The Bulldogs downed the Longhorns, 57-40. Debbie Engelking put in 29 points for Lazbuddie and for Amherst Alene Weaver ripped the cords for 36 points and Rita McAdams contributed 20 to pace their team to victory.

Seventh Graders Edged In Tilt At Dimmitt

The seventh grade boys lost a close game to Dimmitt there January 21. Dimmitt took a 5-0 lead before Troy Messenger hit for Friona.

Davy Carthel tied the game up at 7-7 and Loren Martin put Friona ahead 9-7 with five seconds left in the first quarter.

Friona led the rest of the game until Dimmitt tied it up 29-29 with about 1-1/2 minutes left in the game. Kent Miller put Friona ahead again, 31-29 with 58 seconds left.

Friona fouled and they made a free throw with nine seconds left, 31-30. Dimmitt got the ball again, shot, made it and won the game, 32-31.

Leaders Clip Chiefs In 1st Half

The Friona Chieftains finished the first half of their District 3-AA schedule last week, meeting the top two teams in the district, Dimmitt and Morton.

Unfortunately, for Friona, these two also happen to be two of the top teams in West Texas this season, and the Chiefs went down to a pair of stinging defeats that left the team standing 3-4 for the first half.

On Tuesday at the local gym, Dimmitt raced to an 81-51 win. Friday's score at Morton was 79-49 in favor of the Indians, who won the first half of district play.

In the Dimmitt game, neither the Chiefs nor the Bobcats could hit the basket in the early going.

Dimmitt finally found the range to pull out to an 18-6 margin. Friona came to life in the second period. They trimmed the lead to five points, but Dimmitt came back on the shooting of Kent Bradford to post a 39-25 lead at halftime.

The Bobcats, who substitute liberally, had a great second half, outscoring Friona, 42-26. Bradford led Dimmitt with 15 points. Don Fortenberry's 12 points led Friona.

The Chiefs ran into a hot-shooting band of Indians at Morton on Friday, and were never in the ball game. Morton had a 24-10 lead at the end of the opening quarter, and it was 48-20 at halftime and was all over but the formalities.

Keith Embry paced five men who were in double figures with 18 points. Ronnie McPherson's 15 points led Friona.

ASCS Manager Details 1971 Farm Program

By Prentice L. Mills
The 1971 Farm Program for wheat, feed grains and cotton is similar in many respects to the programs which have been in effect for the past few years. There are, as most everyone knows, some major changes. These are: 1. Barley is not included in the Feed Grain Program for the coming year. 2. There will be set-aside (diverted) acres, but no set-aside acreage payments. 3. The planting requirements are much more relaxed and different than last year. The general provisions of the three programs are as follows:

COTTON PROGRAM
The 1971 allotment for a farm will be approximately 67 per cent of the 1970 allotment for the farm. The price support will be made on the entire allotment at a minimum of 15¢ per pound times the payment yield for the farm.

The allotment is used only to determine the acreage on which payment is made and to determine the acreage to be set-aside. The required set-aside (diverted) acres will not be more than 20 per cent of the farm's allotment. There is no cross-compliance provisions and a person may plant as much cotton as he desires on any of his farms.

The 1971 payment yield will be determined by using the 1970 actual yield and will not be computed until after the farm operator has furnished the ASCS office with his 1970 cotton production records. These production records must show bale number and weight of each bale produced on the farm.

This 1970 yield will be added to twice the 1970 projected yield and divided by three to arrive at the payment yield for 1971. The County Committee may make adjustments in the 1970 yield; and, no doubt, will in many cases. 1971 cotton allotment notices were mailed a day or two ago on eligible farms in Parmer County.

FEED GRAIN PROGRAM
Feed Grain bases and yields for 1971 will be the same as 1970 on most farms. A price support payment will be made on 50 per cent of the base acreage and the required set-aside (diverted) acres will not be in excess of 20 per cent of the farm base.

A farm will be eligible for its price support payment if the required set-aside acreage is made. There is no cross-compliance provision and a producer may participate in the program on one farm and plant as he pleases on any other farm in which he has an interest. If the 20 per cent set-aside requirement is not changed, a farm's price support payment will (or could) be about 98 per cent of what it was in 1970. If it is determined (by the Secretary of Agriculture) at a later date that the set-aside is only 10 per cent--then, the price support payment could possibly be 50 per cent less than with the 20 per cent set-aside.

WHEAT PROGRAM
The 1971 wheat allotment for a farm will be approximately 44 per cent of the 1970 allotment for a given farm. The set-aside acreage requirement will not be more than an acreage equal to 75 per cent of the farm's 1971 allotment. This set-aside requirement is approximately the same number of acres required for participation in the 1970 wheat program.

Set-Aside Acreage: This acreage may be treated in about the same manner as was diverted acreage in the past few years with the following changes:

A. In a regular skip row planting pattern, two rows skipped may be counted as set-aside acres. B. This acreage may be planted to sweet sorghum. C. This acreage may be grazed except during the period May 15 to October 16. D. This acreage may have a cover of small grain (wheat, rye, oats, barley, etc.) left on it-provided, the farm operator requests approval of this practice before May 1.

Transfer of Cotton Allotments: Cotton allotments may be transferred by sale or lease from Parmer County to any other county in Texas. Allotments can be transferred to Parmer County from almost any other county in Texas. Transfers may be initiated at any time from now until May 3, 1971.

Application To Average Farm in Parmer County: In the following example we take a farm that has 640 acres of cropland--The 1970 Feed Grain Base was 200 acres, the 1970 Wheat allotment was 180.5 acres and the 1970 Cotton allotment was 194.5 acres. If this farm is to participate in the 1971 programs, the situation would be:

Crop	Allotment or Base	Acres on which Payments Made	Acres to be Set-Aside
Cotton	130.0	130.0	26.0
Feed Grain	200.0	100.0	40.0
Wheat	80.0	80.0	60.0
Total to be Set-Aside. . . .			126.0

Program Seeks Increase For Farm Cash Income

Cash income to farmers and ranchers in Parmer County should be more than $86,000,000 by the end of 1976, according to Mack Heald, county agricultural agent.

This will be an increase of more than $22,000,000 from 1968-69 figures, with grains sorghum and fed beef contributing a large part of the gain. The projections are based on studies of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and are part of the "3.76 in '76" program, a statewide project to increase Texas agricultural cash receipts by more than one billion dollars.

Total cash receipts from all agricultural enterprises in Parmer County are presently about $69,000,000, says Heald. The most important ones are grain sorghum, fed beef, and stocker cattle. They are expected to account for about 80 percent of the projected 1976 totals.

The county will be aided in its production efforts by the Panhandle Economic Program.

The projections are based on estimates from the County Program Building Committee:

Minimum acres to plant for full protection of all bases in future years:

Cotton	130.0
Feed Grain	100.0
Wheat	80.0
Set-Aside	126.0

acres to be utilized on the farm in meeting the minimum program requirements.

Of course, wheat may be substituted for feed grain and vice-versa in meeting the minimum planting requirements for grain on the farm. In this example there should be a minimum grain acreage of 180.0 acres. This could be all wheat, all feed grain or a combination of the two. As this example farm has 640.0 acres of cropland, there is 204.0 acres of land left (after meeting the minimum requirements) which the farmer may use in any manner in which he sees fit. This acreage could be planted to any of the program crops or in any other crop; except rice, tobacco, peanuts, sugar cane or ELS cotton.

FARMERS SHOULD KEEP THIS IN MIND: There are no cross-compliance provisions under any of these programs. He can plant wheat, feed grain and cotton on a farm (s) with no bases or allotments and participate on his farm (s) with bases and/or allotments.

An Invitation: There are, of course, many questions which are left unanswered in this news item. The people at your local ASCS office will be happy to answer any questions presented to them. Call on them.

Crop	Allotment or Base	Acres on which Payments Made	Acres to be Set-Aside
Cotton	130.0	130.0	26.0
Feed Grain	200.0	100.0	40.0
Wheat	80.0	80.0	60.0
Total to be Set-Aside. . . .			126.0

after separate predictions were made by Extension economists. The figures were published for each county, Extension district and economic area in Texas. "Parmer County producers will have access to production information and techniques that can help spell success for the Texas goal of $3.76 billion in 1976," says Heald.

On The Farm In Parmer County MACK HEALD County Agent

Although the disease, anaplasmosis, is now at a low level, thought should be given to what can be done to protect livestock during the coming season, advised Dr. James M. Armstrong, Extension veterinarian.

Anaplasmosis, he explains, is caused by a small parasite that enters the red blood cell of the infected animal. It is usually spread, he adds, from a "carrier" animal (one that has recovered from the disease) by ticks, biting insects, or even unclean instruments that cause a break in the skin of the animal. Care must be exercised to keep equipment for dehorning, ear-marking, and castration, as well as nose tongs and hypodermic needles, clean and disinfected between each animal to prevent the spread of the disease.

Infected animals may go off feed, breathe fast, and show evidence of constipation, explains Dr. Armstrong. Frequent urination and slobbering may be observed, he adds. As the disease progresses and fever rises, the skin and eye may show some yellowish color. Since these symptoms are common of other diseases, it is recommended that a veterinarian be called early to make a diagnosis and start treatment. To wait may mean a dead animal, as untreated animals can die within 24-48 hours, warns the veterinarian.

To prevent anaplasmosis, animals can be vaccinated. Recommended procedure is to give two shots of vaccine a month apart so that the second shot precedes the insect season by

AT PLAINVIEW

MBP Dedicates Third Major Packing Plant

Missouri Beef Packers, Inc. opened its third major beef processing plant with formal dedication ceremonies on January 23.

The plant, located 75 miles south of Amarillo, Texas in Plainview, is expected to begin operations in late February.

Located in the heart of the Texas Panhandle, said to be the fastest growing cattle feeding area in the nation, Missouri Beef's new 10,000-head-per-week-capacity plant will have an annual sales volume of approximately $100 million.

According to J.C. Walker, president, it takes several months to break in a new plant. Equipment must be debugged and personnel most of whom are new to packing plant trades, must be trained on the job.

Both of Missouri Beef's other plants, however, proved to be profitable in their first year of operation, and Mr. Walker said he expected the Plainview plant to follow suit.

The new plant was designed and built by Missouri Beef personnel. The company has always built its own plants to save on construction costs.

The plant's total square footage is 190,000, compared with 136,000 sq. ft. and 124,000 sq. ft. for the company's plants in Rock Port, Mo. and Friona, Texas.

The Plainview plant has several industry innovations, according to Walker, to reduce labor costs and increase processing efficiency. These include a cattle restrainer, two overhead mechanical hide pullers, a fully automated walking beam system which moves beef carcasses throughout the plant at the push of a button, and several other automated features.

The new plant also features a hide processing system that is thoroughly unique in the beef packing industry. Where all packing plants generally sell brine cured hides, Missouri Beef has installed a new system that actually produces the first stage of leather.

This new system, which involves the use of seven hide processors resembling cement mixers, enables the company to command a higher price for its hides and simplifies processing at the tannery.

Among the plant's other innovations are color coded air, water, electrical and gas pipes to simplify maintenance; a magnetic metal detection and separation system that will prevent processing machinery from becoming fouled by stray bits of metal and an edible rendering system that can simultaneously blend and process bone and fat.

At full capacity, the plant will employ 400 people.

Plainview is Missouri Beef's second Texas plant. The other, in Friona, opened in May 1968. The company recently moved its executive headquarters to Amarillo from Rock Port, Mo.

GIFFORD-HILL'S 360 SPRINKLER SYSTEM

Beautiful days oft times come at the wrong time. You might just as soon see a gentle, soaking, half-inch rain. But because Mother Nature isn't always as dependable as she might be, Gifford-Hill has stolen some of her thunder.

The electrically powered 360 sprinkler system lets you schedule your own rain. The exclusive sprinkler spacing concept applies the same amount of water at one end of the system as it does at the other. No puddling. No runoff.

The 360 goes in either direction, uphill or down. It will water a quarter-circle, a half-circle, any portion of your field with the exact amount needed. And the positive gear drive motor lets it move only when you want it to.

You should have a 360. On those beautiful sunny days, you'll have everything going for you, including the rain.

Fryer, Palm Springs, California, and the late W.H. Fryer of Atlanta.

Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor of First United Methodist Church, read the vows before an arrangement of wrought iron baskets filled with red carnations and white pom pom chrysanthemums with three branched candelabrum holding white tapers on either side of a white satin kneeling bench.

Rhonda and Alesia Ragsdale, sisters of the bride, presented a prelude of wedding music preceding the ceremony. The former sang, "One Hand One Heart," and "We've Only Just Begun," accompanied by the latter, who played as a solo, "Clair de Lune," by Debussy.

Paula Birdwell, Dimmitt, pianist, played the processional music, the love theme from "Romeo and Juliet."

Rhonda Ragsdale was her sister's maid of honor and Alesia Ragsdale was the bridesmaid. They wore identically designed pants of red velveteen cuffed with white fur. Their matching tunics were designed with necklines and long white lace sleeves. They wore dyed to match satin shoes and carried white fur muffs with clusters of pink rosebuds.

Michelle Axe, carried the rings and John Fryer, brother of the bridegroom was the candlelighter.

Captain Eugene D. Fryer of the Judge Advocate Corps, Fort Lee, Virginia, was his brother's best man. James Brant Hall of Houston, cousin of the bride, was the groomsman-usher.

As the bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, she wore a formal pant suit of white peau de soie with floor length tunic and Chantilly lace blouse fashioned with wide French cuffs and covered buttons.

Her tulle veil was attached to a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids enhanced with seed pearls and satin streamers. She wore a string of heirloom matinee length pearls, which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother.

A reception in the Axe home followed the ceremony. Linda Carson, Friona, presided at the guest book. Mrs. Flake Barber and Mrs. Buddy Peeler, Hereford, and Mrs. Homer Lindeman, Friona, were in the hospitable party.

Centering the table was a candelabra arrangement of white tapers, red carnations and white chrysanthemums. The table cloth was white satin decorated with seed pearls and sequins.

Nuts, mints and punch were served with the wedding cake. Tiers of the cake were separated with columns and ornaments were red and white sugar flowers, white satin bells and love birds.

CURTIS MURPHREE

Friona Man Named Wayland Trustee

Four new trustees and their wives were guests of Dr. Roy C. McClung, president of Wayland Baptist College, for new trustees orientation last week-end.

Attending the meeting as new trustees were Rev. and Mrs. Bob Beck, Paducah, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Davis, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Kendrick, Stratford, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Murphree, Friona. Unable to attend was a returning trustee, Preston Johnston, Lubbock.

The five will assume their official duties as trustees of the college with the spring trustees' meeting on the campus on March 11. Beck is pastor of First Baptist Church in Paducah. Davis is an Amarillo businessman and both Kendrick and Murphree are farmers. Johnston is in investments.

Joining Dr. McClung, Mrs. McClung, and the new trustees for dinner in Slaughter Memorial Center were Joe P. Wood, Wayland vice president, Dr. and Mrs. W. Wayne Alford, dean of the college, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Butler, dean of students, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bassett, business manager, all representing the administration.

Trustee representatives at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Lester James, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tunnell, Rev. and Mrs. Carlos McLeod, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heck, all of Plainview. Representing the student body was Miss Sylvia Nadler, president of the Student Government Association and senior from Wellington, Mo., and Miss Betty Branton, sophomore from Grain Valley, Mo., representing the Student Foundation at Wayland.

Following the dinner, the group moved to the home of Dr. and Mrs. McClung at 1307 W. Sixth for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Branton reviewed the history of Wayland for the group and answered their questions before Miss Nadler led a discussion on the corporate structure of Wayland. An analysis of the student body was given by Butler and Dr. Alford gave a description of the faculty. A fellowship time followed the discussion.

Following breakfast on Saturday morning, the group toured the Wayland campus by automobile and then by walking tour. They visited the Home Life Building, Harral Memorial Auditorium, Moody Science Center and the administrative offices in Gates Hall.

Matters of finance, the development program and the outlook for the future were topics discussed before the group adjourned.

The five will join the other trustees who are responsible for policy making and overseeing the business of Wayland. Included in the group are Heck, McLeod, Tunnell, James, E.
