AN EDITORIAL

Most Farm Accidents Could Be Prevented

A decent harvest was anything but certain for the old time farmer. He was at the mercy of not only the weather but also pests, disease and soil erosion. Though he did his best, he could only wait and hope.

Times have changed. The modern American farmer employs good management, horsepower, fertilizer, chemicals, "can do" crop and livestock varieties, efficient drainage and irrigation systems. Little is left to chance or luck.

When it comes to safety, however, many farmers are still back in the dark ages. They trust to luck and don't plan ahead to prevent accidents. Each year, as a consequence, 8,000 farm people die, an additional 750,000 are injured and more than $2 billion is lost.

Farm accidents can be prevented—by farmers themselves. The same concepts you use to assure a successful harvest will work in accident prevention: Good planning, good practices and leaving as little as possible to luck.

ANAMOSA, IOWA, EUREKA: "Nuclear power plants herald an era—the atomic age, if you will. They represent man's useful harnessing of atomic energy. . . . But never before did man consider the side effects of what he was doing. . . . For the first time in the development of a new science, and the building of a new industry, almost more time, effort and money is being used to limit the side effects on man and his environment, than on reaching the goal. . . . It's a great scientific step. Man has unlearned the secret and power of the atom. He will harness it to make electricity to light his home and cook his food and bring him music. But it is a great historical step too, because he has learned to protect nature, and himself, while enjoying the fruits of his harvest. Truly man is making strides ahead. He may yet become really civilized."

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:
A teacher at New York Junior High School Number 98 asked his pupils to write an essay about someone they greatly admired. A 12-year-old named Vivian Fields wrote an essay about Angela Davis, saying "monuments should be built" to her.

The teacher, William Burke, respected her right to choose her own hero, and gave her B plus on the essay. But he also exercised his own right of free speech and wrote in the margin that he hoped in the future she would find "someone else black or white" to admire.

He refrained from adding that Davis is a member of the Communist party, says she wants to see the American system destroyed, and that last year she was on the FBI's ten most wanted list as a fugitive from justice.

He refrained from saying anything like that, yet he was fired from the school. Nor has any complaint been heard from the teachers' union or the ACLU.

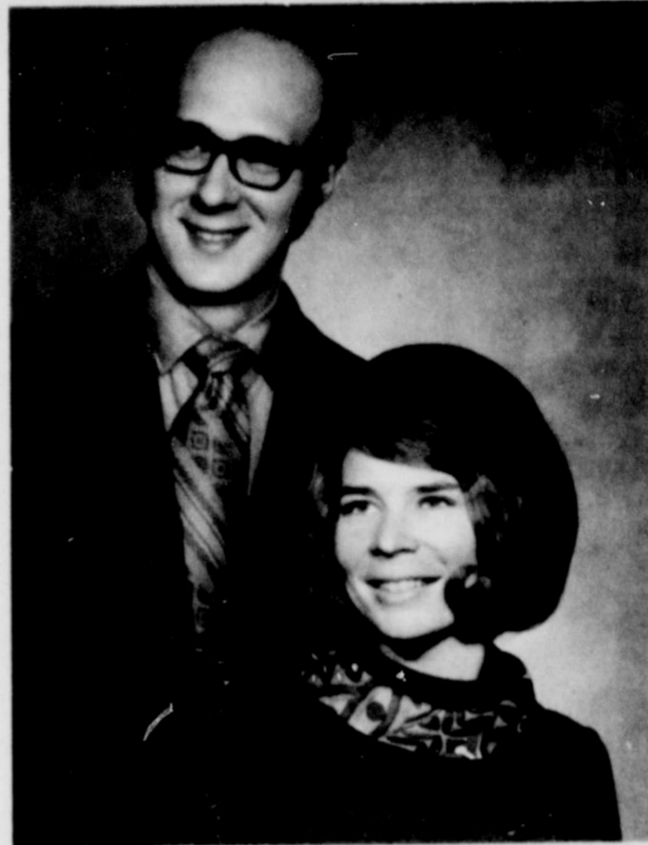

He lost his job because the Communist newspaper, the Daily Worker, protested his staying on and organized a protest. One other paper, the New York Post, picked up the story after it appeared in the Daily World.

It is a small incident. But unless we protect the right of teachers to teach free from harassment, we are going to lose our best teachers and be stuck with incompetents. Is that what we want in our classrooms?

Cordially,
Herbert A. Philbrick

Major League Stars Fall To Clovis 9-5

Friona's Major League all-stars lost their rain-delayed opening game in the District tournament at Clovis Monday, 9-5, to the Clovis National League all-stars.

Friona was off to a shaky start, allowing the Clovis team five runs in the first inning, thanks mainly to a three-run home run by the Clovis clean-up hitter.

The Friona team played on even terms after that, but the lead was too much to overcome. Friona did cut the lead to 5-3 in the third, on a walk, a hit batsman and an error. But Clovis National came back for three runs in the fourth to take an 8-3 lead.

The local nine didn't give up, as John Jarecki walked and scored on Joe Bermea's double in the sixth inning. Bermea then scored on an error, and that was all of Friona's scoring.

The tournament game had been scheduled originally for last Thursday, but rain postponed the tournament.

ACCIDENT PREVENTION on the modern farm and ranch is the message that both Governor Preston Smith and Texas Farm Bureau Queen Phyllis Shutt of Edna want to spread. Governor Smith signs a proclamation designating July 25-31, as Farm and Ranch Safety Week in Texas as Joe L. Smetana, Vice President for Farm and Ranch Activities, Texas Safety Association, exhibits a theme poster for the observance. Miss Shutt demonstrates the need for industrial type hard hats and rollover protection on farm machinery.

Fires, Explosions Cited For Many Deaths On Farm

Fires, drownings and machinery and tractor accidents continue to be the major sources of accidental deaths on Texas farms and ranches, according to the Texas Safety Association.

Joe L. Smetana, Vice President for Farm and Ranch Activities for the statewide safety group, discussing Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week, July 23-29, said today that accidental deaths took the lives of 203 persons in rural areas of the state.

"One of the most surprising factors in last year's accidental deaths is the large number of persons who were killed by fires, explosions and burns," said Smetana.

The TSA Vice President said thirty-five deaths were recorded which were a result of fires, explosions and burns. The safety group spokesman said the figures point up the need for farm and ranch families to provide adequate protection against the dangers of fire.

Other leading causes of accidental death last year on Texas farms and ranches included 29 drownings, 28 accidental shootings, 26 machinery accidents, 22 tractor accidents, 22 falls, and 17 accidents involving animals.

"These figures on accidental deaths in rural areas of the state during 1971 show a continuing upward trend of deaths in nearly every category," said Smetana.

The safety spokesman also turned his attention to the ages of the persons who are being killed in accidents on Texas farms and ranches. He revealed that four age groups have the highest number of accidental deaths. The largest number, according to Smetana, of accidental deaths occurred to persons between 10 to 19 years of age. Thirty-four persons were killed last year in that age group.

"Another of the apparent high-risk groups are persons between the ages of 60 to 69. Thirty persons in this age group lost their lives in farm and ranch accidents last year," said Smetana.

Twenty-eight persons between 50 and 59 years of age and 25 persons between 70 and 79 years of age lost their lives in accidents in 1971 on farms and ranches, according to the safety group spokesman.

"The great tragedy of these deaths is that none of them have to occur," said Smetana. "Every single one of the 203 persons who died accidentally on Texas farms and ranches last year could have been alive today if they had taken proper precautions, used personal protective equipment, or been prepared for emergencies," he said.

"Twenty-two persons were killed in accidents involving tractors. Most of these accidents were incidents in which the tractor overturned and in which neither roll-over protection devices nor seat belts were in use. The use of these items could have prevented most, if not all, of these deaths," Smetana commented.

"Twenty-six persons lost their lives in accidents involving machinery. These too are classed as needlessly lost lives. In most cases the individual violated some basic safety rule regarding the machine and its operation. Persons responsible for the operation of farm machinery need to make sure that they are familiar with all the details of safe operation. Those who have employees on the farm who run machinery should insure that every person who operates the machine knows its dangers and how to operate it safely," said Smetana.

"Perhaps the greatest of the tragedies are the drownings. Every farmer and rancher in this state should consider it a solemn duty to teach every member of his family how to swim as a first precaution against such an accident. In addition, flotation devices and other life saving equipment should be kept near stock ponds, creeks, swimming holes and other places of water recreation on the farm or ranch. Dangerous water areas should be declared out of bounds and should be fenced off for adequate protection," said the TSA spokesman.

1973 Wheat Program Provisions Announced

Major provisions of the 1973 wheat program have been announced by the Secretary of Agriculture. They include the set-aside required for participation, an option to voluntarily set-aside additional acreage and the payment rate for the additional acreage set-aside.

To participate in the wheat program, a producer must set-aside an acreage equal to 86 percent of the farm's domestic wheat allotment. Producers will again be allowed to substitute feed grains or soybeans for wheat to preserve allotment history. Barley will again be included in the 1973 feed grain program.

In addition to the set-aside required for participation, a producer may earn payment for setting aside additional acreage up to 150% of his domestic wheat allotment—twice the amount of additional acreage in the 1972 program—at a payment rate of 88 cents per bushel.

"The announcement of voluntary wheat set-aside is being made much earlier than last year so the winter wheat producer can plan his wheat operation before investing any money in his 1973 crop."

The loan rate is same as in 1972—$1.25 per bushel—national average.

Farmers who elect to participate in the voluntary option may set-aside additional acreage up to 150% of their domestic wheat allotment. Payment rate for this additional set-aside will be 88 cents per bushel, times the farm's established yield, times the acres set aside. In 1972 the voluntary option was limited to 75 percent of their domestic allotment with a payment of 94 cents per bushel. Producers who choose this option must agree to limit their total 1973 wheat program acreage planted for harvest. The limit will be their 1972 spring and winter wheat program acreages plus the 1972 voluntary set-aside minus the 1973 voluntary set-aside acreage. Program acreages are those reported and accepted for compliance in 1972.

Substitution provisions of the 1973 wheat program are identical to those in 1972 with corn, grain sorghum, barley, or soybeans allowed for preservation of allotment history. The USDA also announced that the 1973 feed grain program will have a mandatory set-aside for barley of not less than 25 percent of the farm's barley base, with other details of the feed grain program to be announced later. As in the past two years, a producer will earn certificate payments based on his domestic allotment times the farm's established yield, and producers are not required to plant wheat to earn certificate payments, however, failure to plant at least 90 percent of the farm's 1973 domestic wheat allotment together with corn, grain sorghum, barley or soybeans can result in reduction of allotment by as much as 20 percent. Under the Agricultural Act of 1970, if no wheat or substitute crops are planted for three consecutive years, the entire allotment may be lost. All allotments removed from farms will be reallocated to other wheat farms.

Substitution provisions allow acreage devoted to feed grain or soybeans to be considered planted to wheat to prevent loss of history and to qualify for payments. Acreage devoted to wheat or soybeans will be considered planted to feed grains to prevent loss of the base. This enables a producer to plant the combination of wheat, feed grain or soybeans that best fits his operation and preserve his planting history and program benefits.

As in 1972, land offered for set-aside must be equally productive and similar to that on which the program crop is to be grown. Producers may graze set-aside acres except during the five principal months of the normal growing season, but set-aside acreage must be protected against erosion, weeds, insect damage and rodents. In 1973, sweet sorghum again may be planted on the set-aside acreage and grazed, except during the five months of the growing season.

Producers who wish to qualify for program benefits need to sign up to participate. Sign-up dates will be announced later for the 1973 program. A producer may participate in the wheat program on any or all farms in which he has an interest, as he wishes.

Cattle Country, USA

Burke Inman stands in the yard of his company, with one of his fleet of trucks in the background.

Mrs. Irma Patton, book-keeper and receptionist.

IN 27th YEAR

Inman Trucking Has Grown With Industry

Cattle handling is a 24-hour business, according to Burke Inman, who should know.

Inman, who has been in the business for the past 26 years, says you're on call 24 hours a day, and you have to be ready to "Move 'em out" when the telephone rings (incidentally, the phone rang before Inman could finish that sentence).

Having served the Hereford and Friona area's hauling needs since 1946, Inman has seen the hauling business change considerably in that period. His main cargo has always been cattle and produce.

"But we used to haul anything you could pile in a truck," Inman says. "The strangest load we ever carried was a double-decker load of geese, for Curtis Traveek," Inman recalled. He explained that Traveek had used the geese to eat the weeds out of cotton fields. He sold them to a party in Las Cruces, N.M., and commissioned Inman to move them. "I did a 'double-take' on that one," Inman says.

But cattle has been the major portion of Inman's business, and has been responsible for the growth his business has experienced.

"When I first began hauling cattle, Easley's Feed Yard was the only feed lot in the area, and it had only about a 3,000 capacity," Inman says.

Before the feedlots and packing plants began to move into our area, Inman Trucking had some long hauls. "We hauled into San Jose and San Francisco, to Allen Packing Co., and to Fresno, California to the San Joaquin Valley Packing Company. It was a round trip of 2900 miles," Inman says.

But the construction of the feedlots in this area, as well as the packing plants, has changed Inman's business to more of a "short run" operation.

The longer runs today are to bring pasture and feeder cattle into this area. "We used to haul the cattle out of this area for feeders and packers; now we haul them in for the same purpose," he says.

The average job calls for anywhere from 100 to 500 cattle to be moved, but it is not unusual for Inman to be called to move up to 2,000 head at one time.

"The most we ever moved at one time was 3,761 head, on May 5, 1970," Inman says.

Burke Inman Trucking has used a slogan for several years: "Moving More Cattle Than the Chisholm Trail." He says an "advertising man" came up with the slogan, which isn't too hard to back up with figures.

"I would imagine a 200-head herd was about average for the trail drives. You read about some 5,000-head herds, but they would be exceptions. We probably move more cattle in a month than ever went up the Chisholm Trail," Inman figures.

Another comparison he pointed out was that the trail drives took about six months, from Central Texas to Dodge City, Kansas. Today, trucks could move an average herd the same distance in 17 to 18 hours.

There are hazards involved in moving cattle. The driver has to be careful on curves, or the cattle can be hurt. Also, on the long trips, exposure is a hazard, both to the cattle and to the driver.

"Hauling cattle calls for long hours, a lot of black coffee, some sorry food, some good food and the ever-present threat of a breakdown," Inman says. Breakdowns on the road are costly, as he pointed out in a recent repair job that cost him $108 on the road. He could have made the repairs in his own shop for around $30, he says.

Inman does most of his own minor repair work, such as work on lights, flats, wheels, brakes, etc. Motor overhauls are sent out.

Those large trailers with 18 wheels call for a lot of tires. Inman buys in quantity, keeping 80 to 100 truck tires in stock--no doubt the largest stock in Hereford. He says the trucks use more tires these days, due to higher-speed trucks, etc.

Inman is active in livestock carriers organizations. He is currently serving as president of the Livestock Carriers Association of Texas.

He is also on the board of directors of the Texas Motor Transportation Association and on the board of directors for the Common Carriers Conference, Irregular Route--Livestock Division, a nationwide organization.

Inman is also on the board of directors for the Agriculture Commodity Carriers of Texas. He is a former member of the Hereford Lions Club.

Inman Trucking employs from 12 to 20 people, depending upon how busy it is.

IN WILD FINALE

Senior Leaguers Win South Half

Friona outlasted Farwell-Bovina, 10-8 in the second game of a double-header at Muleshoe last Thursday, to win the south half of the District 3 tournament for Senior Little League.

Farwell-Bovina had stunned Friona, 8-5 in the opening game, to force another game in the double-elimination tournament. Farwell had lost to Tucuman in the tournament's opening day, but bounced back to beat that team, 12-11 on Wednesday to eliminate the New Mexicans.

Curve-balling Bobby Hightower stopped Friona on only one hit in the opener, although Friona jumped to a quick 2-0 lead in the first inning.

The Farwell pitcher got off to a wobbly start by walking three of the first four batters he faced. The fourth reached base on an infield error. But luckily for him, he escaped with only two runs scoring in the top of the first.

Farwell scored three runs in the third to take a 3-2 lead, but Friona came back on two walks and Robin Balze's single to go back in front, 4-3. Balze's hit was only one of two balls hit out of the infield.

Starting pitcher Davy Carthel gave up two more runs in the fourth, and walked the first two batters in the fifth. At this point, Randy Melton came in to finish up the game.

Friona threatened in their fourth, on walks to Clay Bandy and David Clark, but Hightower bore down to strike out Balze and Richard Bermea to end the threat with only one run scoring. Clark being left at third.

The second game was plagued by rain, and was finally stopped after four and one-half innings with Friona leading, 10-8.

Friona was off to a 5-2 lead, thanks to a pair of doubles and a single by Gene Strickland and a single by pitcher Eddie Waggoner.

Then in the fourth inning, the rain really began to be a factor. Friona sent ten men to the plate, and scored five runs. The inning ended on a weird play, when Carthel hit a pop-fly to the infield and Balze was called out for interference.

That gave Friona a supposedly safe 10-2 lead. However, Waggoner walked the bases loaded, and Strickland came in to pitch. The rain added two playing errors, as Farwell-Bovina began to whittle at the lead.

Finally, with the score 10-8 and the bases loaded, Strickland got Harrison to hit a pop-fly to first base to end the inning.

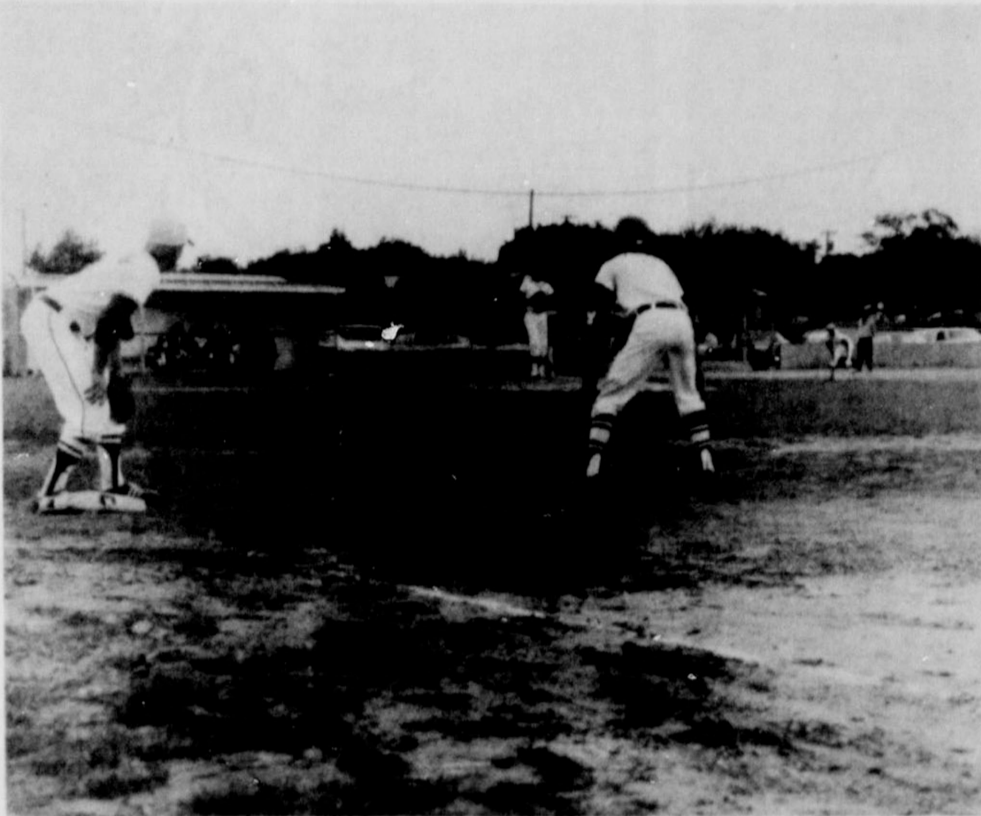

The umpires had a quick huddle, and decided to call the game at that point.

The game had been switched to Muleshoe's park after both Farwell and Friona parks were made unplayable by rainfall. The first game was played in almost perfect weather, but a misty rain began to fall just as it was concluded, and the second game was hampered almost in its entirety by the weather.

Senior Stars Bow At Las Vegas

Friona's Senior League all-stars were eliminated in the finals of the District 3 playoff at Las Vegas last Sunday afternoon, when Las Vegas took a 10-2 win.

Sandoval tossed a one-hitter at Friona, which never could get its attack going.

Pitcher Randy Balze, as he had done the previous Thursday at Muleshoe, prevented the no-hitter with a one-out single in the third. However, Balze was stranded at second when Gene Strickland was thrown out, pitcher to first. Score at that time was 1-0 in favor of Las Vegas.

The New Mexicans scored three times in the third, on three straight hits and one Friona error. They made the score 5-0 in the fourth on two singles and an error.

Friona got on the scoreboard in the sixth when Balze and Strickland each reached base on errors, and moved around on a passed ball, another error on David Clark's ground ball, and a fielder's choice. This left Friona trailing 5-2.

But Las Vegas dumped Friona's hopes with a five-run outburst in their half of the inning, sending ten men to the plate.

Friona had won the south half of the district, and Las Vegas the north half. The entire district tourney was a double-elimination, and Friona's loss to Farwell-Bovina last Thursday counted against them in the tournament. The loss to Las Vegas eliminated the local nine.

ADAMS DRILLING

MRS. CHARLES LEE BENTLEY

Brenda Dyer Weds Charles Lee Bentley

Miss Brenda Joyce Dyer and Charles Lee Bentley exchanged double ring wedding vows at 5 p.m. Friday, July 21, in the home of the bride's parents at 702 Dimmitt Road.

Rev. Larry Heard, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bovina, read the vows before an arrangement of pink mums and white pom pom mums on a pedestal flanked by seven-branched candelabra trees trimmed in greenery.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Travis Dyer of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Bentley of Friona.

Miss Linda Dyer of Bovina, sister of the bride, played traditional wedding music, including the bridal march, "More," and "Oh Promise Me." She played the theme from "Love Story" during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of pure silk organza designed with a slightly gathered skirt at the Empire waistline. Her short puffed sleeves and Victorian neckline were enhanced with delicate pink ribbon embroidery. Heavily embroidered flowers, enhanced with pale pink ribbon accenting the floral design, traced a pattern around the hemline of the gown. Her matching cathedral length veil of pure silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of silk organza trimmed with pink ribbon with delicate pink embroidery.

The bride carried a nosegay garland of pink carnations and greenery centered with cymbidium orchids.

For something old, she wore her maternal great-grandmother's wedding ring; something new, her bridal ensemble; something borrowed, slippers from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ronny Dyer; something blue, a garter; and she carried pennies minted in their birth dates in her slippers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donny Dyer of Farwell, sister-in-law of the bride.

She wore a formal length gown of pink crepe with delicate lace and chiffon ribbon accenting the slightly gathered waistline, short puffed sleeves and scooped neckline. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Ronny Dyer of Bovina, sister-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles.

Best man was Clyde Schilling of Friona.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dyer chose a pale blue two-piece silk shantung ensemble accented with white ruffles around the neckline and sleeves with matching accessories. She wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Bentley chose a green knit two-piece ensemble. She wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Jerald Reed of Summerfield.

At the reception following the ceremony, the bride's table was covered with a floor length pink dotted swiss cloth over pink and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and baby's breath interlaced with pink ribbon in a footed crystal compote.

A three-tiered pink wedding cake frosted in white and trimmed with pink roses and wedding bells, nuts, mints and pink punch were served from crystal and silver appointments by Mrs. Dale Stanley of Littlefield, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ronny Dyer, Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Larry Heard, all of Bovina.

For a wedding trip to Lake Altus, Okla., the bride wore a red and white checked hot pants ensemble with white blouse and matching lace trim with white accessories and the orchids lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Friona.

BRIDAL FLOWERS

Birds and bugs can say it with flowers. The male empid fly, for instance, wraps up a flower petal in a fine silk web he weaves with his front feet, and presents it to his bride.

Wedding vows were exchanged between Cindy Kay Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell, and Jerry A. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Simmons, all of Calhan, Colorado at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, July 1, in United Methodist Church, there.

The double ring ceremony was read by Norman Naff before a white satin arch of satin ribbon tied with satin bows and centered with white wedding bells. Tiered antique candelabra holding white tapers and antique footed vases filled with bouquets of spring flowers stood at either end of the arch. A lace covered table holding an open Bible and bouquet of roses completed the setting.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Bonnie Dungan, pianist, who also accompanied Sharon Olyar, vocalist, as she sang the theme from "Love Story," "The Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Joan Beaman, cousin of the groom, also of Calhan, was the maid of honor and Mrs. Tommy Blasingame of Falcon, Colorado, sister of the groom, was the bridesmatron.

Candlelighters were Ruthie Kelly, Calhan, and Mike Edwards, Tahoka, Texas. Rings were carried by Bryan and Scotty Simmons, brothers of the groom. The flower girl was Kelly Jane Manize, cousin of the groom.

Jimmy Blasingame, Calhan, was the best man. The groomsmen were Rich Simmons, Fort Collins, brother of the groom, and Dan Kyle, Flager, Colorado.

As the bride was escorted to the altar by her father, she wore a white formal wedding gown of flocked nylon organza. It was designed by her mother and was fashioned in eighteenth century styling with empire bodice, high neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves banded with wide cuffs, which were closed with tiny covered buttons.

Bands of lace and ribbon formed a v in the front bodice and trimmed the edge of the skirt. Her picture hat, which was also made by her mother, was trimmed with bands of lace.

An heirloom pin, which was borrowed from Mrs. G.E. Shackelford, Friona, was her only jewelry. Her wedding ensemble was new, she wore a six pence in her shoe and a blue garter.

She carried a cascade bouquet of greenery and spring flowers tied with satin ribbon streamers.

The serving table for the reception was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow and centered with a floral arrangement. The tiered wedding cake with a heart shaped base was decorated with a winding stairway and pink wedding slippers. It was topped with miniature bride and groom standing under a double arch. Crystal and silver serving pieces completed the table setting.

Wedding cake, punch, coffee, nuts and mints were served by Mesdames Edward Glazier, Hugh Kelly and Dale Beeman, all of Calhan, and Melvin Edwards of Tahoka.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Rich Simmons, Fort Collins, sister-in-law of the groom.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Elbert, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Beeman, Colorado Springs; Mrs. Zora Campbell, Canyon; and Mrs. Opal Strickland, Friona, grandparents of the bride couple.

Thoughtfulness Of Others Is An Everyday Challenge

Read Deuteronomy 24:19-22: John 15:12-17

When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. (Deuteronomy 24:21)

I was traveling on an electric train, when a girl pale and thin and dressed in rags got on. I called her to me and from our conversation learned that she had two sisters and two brothers. Her mother had died a year before, and her father was washing dishes in a hotel to support the family. She was thirteen years old, but she could not go to school. She had had no breakfast.

I put some money in her hand. She looked at it and smiled. I asked her what she would do with it. Quietly she said, "My baby brother likes biscuits. I'll buy some and give the rest of the money to my father." She got off at the next station.

As I thought of her unselfish love, questions came to mind: How often do we think of others in our big family when God in His love and mercy sends us blessings? Are we forgetting to love and share?

PRAYER: We thank You, Father, for pointing out to us in various ways that You want us to be unselfish. Help us to do all we can for those needing love and care. In the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven. . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Being thoughtful of others all day is our everyday challenge.

The Library Corner

BY MRS. BILL ELLS

Your Library is doing a roaring business this summer with 1,507 books having been checked out during the month of June.

There are 157 youngsters participating in the Summer Reading Program and 37 of these have already completed the required 12 books. The program is quickly drawing to a close. It will be over the first of August, so if your child hasn't yet completed the required number of books get behind him and push a little. Plans are underway to give the kids a party at the close of the program, with details to be announced later.

The Library Board met last Wednesday with Chairman Charles Allen presiding. New officers were elected. They are: Chairman, Mrs. Dan Ethridge; Vice Chairman, Rev. Albert Lindley; Treasurer, Mrs. John Gauder; and Reporter, Mrs. Bill Ellis.

You've been reading lots of magazine articles about acupuncture since President Nixon went to Red China. The Library now has the newest book on this controversial subject, "Acupuncture, Chinese Art Of Healing" by Marc Duke, in the adult book section. Interest in Chinese culture has been growing rapidly in the last few months and your Library has several books to choose from along those lines. Just ask.

Now liquid SEVIMOL CARBARYL INSECTICIDE helps keep borers out of corn

You can't keep profits up when Southwestern corn borers knock down your plants. Protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL.

Since last winter was mild, billions of Southwestern corn borers are getting ready to rip into unprotected crops. Once the larvae tunnel into stalks or girdle them, your plants lodge and your profits slump.

That's why it pays to protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL a proven mixture of molasses and SEVIN® carbaryl insecticide, recently labeled for use against Southwestern corn borer.

Start checking your crop now because maximum hatch occurs between mid-July and mid-August. If 50 to 75 percent of your corn shows egg masses or young larvae anywhere on plants, apply SEVIMOL. Then make a second application in 7 to 10 days.

SEVIMOL is used in low-volume applications. It gives you a heavy spray that falls fast and resists drifting. It spreads uniformly to leaf surfaces and "hangs in there" when other insecticides run off in rain or irrigation.

This year, knock out Southwestern corn borers before they knock over your crop. SEVIMOL carbaryl insecticide also controls corn earworm, fall armyworm and certain other corn insects.
