NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS.

In the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas, in Bankruptcy. Abilene, Texas.

In the Matter of William Thomas Skinner, Bankrupt. No. 624. IN BANKRUPTCY.

Abilene, Texas, December 28, 1918.

OFFICE OF REFEREE TO THE CREDITORS OF William Thomas Skinner of Eastland, in the County of Eastland, and District aforesaid, a bankrupt. Notice is hereby given that on the 28th day of December A. D. 1918 the said William Thomas Skinner was duly adjudged bankrupt, and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at my office in the city of Abilene, Taylor County, Texas, on the 11th day of January A. D. 1919, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

K. K. LEGETT, Referee in Bankruptcy.

FOR COLDS AND GRIPPE FOLLOW DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Ask any physician or druggist and he will tell you that the first step in the treatment of a cold, cough, influenza or grippe should invariably be "a brisk calomel purgative, preferably the nausealess calomel, called Calotabs." This alone is often sufficient to break up a severe cold over night, or cut short an attack of grippe and possibly prevent pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasures or work. Next morning your cold has vanished and your entire system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists everywhere. Price refunded if you are not delighted.—Adv.

MEAT PRODUCERS DID FULL DUTY

Increase in American Hogs Will Help to Meet World Fat Shortage.

FARMERS SAVE SITUATION.

Government Justified in Stimulation of Pork Production—Sevenfold Increase Over Pre-War Exports.

Through increased production and conservation we will be able this year to export seven times our pre-war average exports of pork products. With the heavy demands added in caring for the millions who have been freed from German oppression, the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration are justified today in our every action of stimulation of hog production. In the coming year the greatest world shortage will be in fats, and pork will help to save this situation. The efficacy of the policy of stimulated production has built up in this country supplies which will enable us to supply a very large part of the fat deficiency of the world. In beef there must be a shortage in Europe, due largely to limited refrigerator ship capacity. All freezer ships available, however, will be filled by America, Argentina and Australia.

The contribution made by the producers of this country to the war program as applying particularly to animal food products is illustrated by the following:

Reports compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate an increase in cattle of 10,238,000 head and 12,441,000 hogs. These figures were compiled to January 1 last.

In this period there was a decrease in sheep of 819,000 head. The indications are that this decrease will show an increase, according to recent reports.

Since January 1 unofficial information indicates an increase in hogs of not less than 8 per cent, and not more than 15 per cent, as compared with one year ago, with an increase in the average weight.

Following the request of the U. S. Food Administration for an increase in hog production for marketing in the fall of 1918 and the spring of 1919 the increase may yield not less than 1,600,000,000 pounds more of pork products than were available last year. Without this increase the shipping program arranged by Mr. Hoover regarding animal food products would have been impossible.

The dressed hog products during the three months ending September 30, 1917, amounted to 963,172,000 pounds, while for the corresponding months of 1918 the dressed hog products totaled 1,277,589,000, an increase of over 374,000,000 pounds for the quarter.

During the same period for 1917 the records of inspected slaughter of dressed beef showed 1,263,000,000 pounds as against 1,454,000,000 pounds for the three month period ending September 1, this year.

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies In Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the interallied food council. And because the American food army had hitherto made good they took heart and went forward.

Farm enterprise and much soft corn increased pork supplies, food conservation increased exports—total shipments doubled.

 FAITH JUSTIFIED BY EVENTS.
 I do not believe that drastic force need be applied to maintain economic distribution and sane use of supplies by the great majority of American people, and I have learned a deep and abiding faith in the intelligence of the average American business man, whose aid we anticipate and depend on to remedy the evils developed by the war.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

MUST INCREASE FOOD EXPORTS

America Called on by End of War to Supply Added Millions.

ECONOMY STILL NEEDED.

Over Three Times Pre-War Shipments Required—Situation in Wheat and Fats Proves Government's Policy Sound.

With the guns in Europe silenced, we have now to consider a new world food situation. But there can be no hope that the volume of our exports can be lightened to the slightest degree with the cessation of hostilities. Millions of people liberated from the Prussian yoke are now depending upon us for the food which will keep them from starvation.

With food the United States made it possible for the forces of democracy to hold out to victory. To insure democracy in the world, we must continue to live simply in order that we may supply these liberated nations of Europe with food. Hunger among a people inevitably breeds anarchy. American food must complete the work of making the world safe for democracy.

Last year we sent 11,820,000 tons of food to Europe. For the present year, with only the European Allies to feed, we had originally pledged ourselves to a program that would have increased our exports to 17,500,000 tons. Now, to feed the liberated nations, we will have to export a total of not less than 20,000,000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports. Reviewing the world food situation, we find that some foods will be obtainable in quantities sufficient to meet all world needs under a regime of economical consumption. On the other hand, there will be marked world shortages in some important commodities.

Return to Normal Bread Leaf.

With the enlarged wheat crops which American farmers have grown, and the supplies of Australia, the Argentine and other markets now accessible to shipping, there are bread grains enough to enable the nations to return to their normal wheat loaf, provided we continue to mill flour at a high percentage of extraction and maintain economy in eating and the avoidance of waste.

In fats there will be a heavy shortage—about 3,000,000,000 pounds—in pork products, dairy products and vegetable oils. While there will be a shortage of about three million tons in rich protein feeds for dairy animals, there will be sufficient supplies of other feedstuffs to allow economical consumption.

In the matter of beef, the world's supplies are limited to the capacity of the available refrigerating ships. The supplies of beef in Australia, the Argentine and the United States are sufficient to load these ships. There will be a shortage in the importing countries, but we cannot hope to expand exports materially for the next months in view of the bottle neck in transportation.

We will have a sufficient supply of sugar to allow normal consumption in this country if the other nations retain their present short rations or increase them only slightly. For the countries of Europe, however, to increase their present rations to a material extent will necessitate our sharing a part of our own supplies with them.

Twenty Million Tons of Food.

Of the world total, North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States, including the West Indies, will be called upon to furnish 20,000,000 tons of food of all kinds as compared with our pre-war exports of about 6,000,000 tons.

While we will be able to change our program in many respects, even a casual survey of the world supplies in comparison to world demands shows conclusively that Europe will know famine unless the American people bring their home consumption down to the barest minimum that will maintain health and strength.

There are conditions of famine in Europe that will be beyond our power to remedy. There are 40,000,000 people in North Russia whom there is small chance of reaching with food this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy, and shortly many of their ports will be frozen, even if internal transport could be realized.

To Preserve Civilization.

At this moment Germany has not alone sucked the food and animals from all those masses of people she has dominated and left starving, but she has left behind her a total wreckage of social institutions, and this mass of people is now confronted with absolute anarchy.

If we value our own safety and the social organization of the world, if we value the preservation of civilization itself, we cannot permit growth of this anarchy in the world's vitals.

Famine is the mother of anarchy. From the inability of governments to secure food for their people grows revolution and chaos. From an ability to supply their people grows stability of government and the defeat of anarchy. Did we put it on a higher plane than our interests in the protection of our institutions, we must bear ourselves in solution of this problem.

Are You Open-Minded?

The average American is open-minded.

American business is conducted by true Americans of vision, open-minded men who believe in their country and strive to meet their country's needs. The men in the packing industry are no exception to the rule.

The business of Swift & Company has grown as the nation has progressed. Its affairs have been conducted honorably, efficiently, and economically, reducing the margin between the cost of live stock and the selling price of dressed meat, until today the profit is only a fraction of a cent a pound—too small to have any noticeable effect on prices.

The packing industry is a big, vital industry—one of the most important in the country. Do you understand it?

Swift & Company presents facts in the advertisements that appear in this paper. They are addressed to every open-minded person in the country.

WALTER B. CLEGG KILLED.

The remains of Walter B. Clegg reached Cisco Monday night from Miami, Ariz., where he was killed Thursday, December 26th, in an accident in the mill where he was working.

Walter B. Clegg was born June the 17th, 1861, he came to Cisco in 1881. He lived in this city a number of years and was tax collector for the city a number of years, and served Eastland county as treasurer for four years. He was a citizen who commanded the confidence of the people, and not only in Cisco had he scores of friends but over the entire county.

He leaves a wife, two sons, a brother and a sister. They are Mrs. W. B. Clegg, Vance Clegg of Brownwood and John Clegg of El Paso, Mrs. Jas. K. Garner of El Centro, Calif. He was an uncle of John H. Garner of this city.

He met his death by accident in a mill in which he was working in Miami Ariz., and as there were no eye witnesses the circumstances are not exactly known, although it is thought that his coat was caught in a belt and he was carried possibly one-hundred feet something like five times before his body was finally taken from the machinery. Both his right lower and upper limbs were torn from the body, and he was otherwise badly mangled.

The funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Garner in this city Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Umphrey Lee, pastor of the Methodist church of this city, and the body laid to rest in the Cisco cemetery.

Mr. Clegg was a member of the Methodist church, having united with that church years ago.

The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful, sent from different places where he had made warm friends, and a number were contributed by Cisco relatives and friends.

No bronze or marble shaft, no splendor of ancient or modern tombs and no play of immortal genius can adorn the memory of such manly men. Their lives, their deeds, their influence living or dead, and their pure aspirations are the monuments that will keep their names burning in the home and hearts of kindred and brethren, while the flying monuments are dimming with their dust and rust the inscription upon the brightest obelisk in the cemetery. While the silence of death wraps and chills us at this moment, memories, sweet and precious, come crowding in. The relatives have the sympathy of a host of sorrowing friends.

Rooms—Two-room apartments, furnished, for rent.—Phone 305.

B. W. Patterson of Pauls Valley, Okla., was in the city last week, the talk is that he will return to Cisco to live. If this be so the people will gladly welcome this good family.

John F. Patterson who has been living in Eastland for a number of years has purchased the B. W. Patterson residence on sixth street and will return to Cisco within a few days Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and family have lived in Cisco many years and it is only coming back to his old home. We gladly welcome this family.

C. D. Judd and wife now of Nashville, Tenn., were in the city Monday meeting old friends. Prof. Judd has taught school in Eastland county a number of years, was superintendent of the Eastland and Carbon schools and served 4 years as county superintendent. He then went to Colorado City where he served as superintendent two years, then went to Nashville where he has been attending the Peabody University. He will within a few months finish his work in that school and he contemplates returning to Texas to again take up his profession, and states that it is his desire to locate in this section. He is an able school man and it is hoped that he will again locate in Eastland county.

SAVE 16,000,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT THAT FORMERLY WAS LOST IN THRESHING

Farmers, Urged by Food Administration, Provide Seven Extra Loaves of Bread for Every American.

By adopting cleaner threshing methods and by literally combing harvest fields to gather grain formerly wasted, threshermen and farmers of the United States this year saved fully 16,000,000 bushels of wheat, estimated as equivalent to about seven one-pound loaves of bread for every person in the country. This result, accompanied by corresponding savings of barley, oats, rye and other grains, is shown by reports from 53 grain states to the U. S. Food Administration. Other states, although not prepared to furnish definite figures of conservation in the grain fields, report greatly reduced harvest losses.

This rural food saving achievement, accomplished in scarcely six months' time, was in direct response to requests by the Food Administration, which asked farmers and threshermen to reduce harvest losses from about 3 1/2 per cent.—the estimated average in normal times—to the lowest possible minimum. Country grain threshing committees carried into every grain growing community the official recommendations for accomplishing the results desired.

In numerous instances drivers of racks with leaky bottoms were sent from the fields to repair their equipment and frequently bad order threshing machines were stopped until the cause of waste was removed. But in proportion to the number of persons engaged in gathering the nation's grain crop, cases of compulsion were comparatively rare. The Food Administration freely attributes the success of the grain threshing campaign to patriotic service by farmers, threshermen and their crews. Incidentally grain growers of the United States are many millions of dollars "in pocket" as a result of the grain saved.

NO ONE SUFFERED HERE.

The marvel of our voluntary food-saving, now that we are "getting results," is that no one ever actually suffered any hardship from it; that we all are better in health and spirit and better satisfied with ourselves because of our friendly self-denial.

Food control in America held the price of breadstuffs steady, prevented vicious speculation and extortion and preserved tranquillity at home.

In no other nation is there so willing a sense of voluntary self-sacrifice as in America—that was shown in the abstinence from wheat.

Find more wheat; it came; more pork, it came; save sugar, it was done. So Americans answered the challenge of German starvation.

AMBITIOUS YOUNG FOLKS

Had it ever occurred to you that you had as well try to be a successful physician without attending a medical school, or a successful lawyer without attending a law school, or a successful minister without attending a theological school, as to try to be a successful banker, or merchant, or business man of any kind without first being trained for business in the Tyler Commercial College. You would attend a university with a reputation if you wanted to make a first class doctor, lawyer or minister. Why not use the same good judgment in selecting a business school in which to secure your training? The Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas is the business university of the South; it enrolls more students annually than any other similar school in America. Its students have come from 39 different states and seven foreign countries; its graduates are holding the very best of positions in the leading cities of the United States.

If you will spend from $125.00 to $200.00 for tuition, board and books for a course of Shorthand, Book-keeping, Telegraphy, Cotton Classing or Business Administration and Finance, or better still, will spend $200.00 to $250.00 and complete any two of these courses, you will have made the best investment of your life. What young man or woman with grit and determination cannot raise this amount? Hundreds of students who borrowed every cent of the money to attend this school, or gave their note for part of their tuition will readily tell you it was the best venture of their lives; they were soon able, through the good positions secured them by the college, to pay what they owed and continue to hold their good positions or go into business for themselves and succeed. If you always remain where you are, you will always be what you are. Think this statement over seriously. More than 300 new students, before this month closes, will be added to the twelve hundred that are now here. Why not you be among the number. You can enter any day and take up the work. For large free catalogue, verifying the above claims and more, fill in and mail.

The war is over, and it is not over. The Allies whipped Germany, and now she is whipping herself.

The recent rains have put an excellent season in the ground, the small grain continues to grow and the farmer is getting a great benefit from the pasturage it is affording for his stock.

The question is who will the republicans run for president in 1920? Another question, who will the democrats run for president in 1920? No one can answer these questions as yet.

President Wilson is meeting all classes in Europe. He is equal to the occasion it matters not if it be a king, queen, a general, a common soldier or a peasant. Wilson is the greatest man in the world to-day, the republican senators and the contrary notwithstanding.

There is to be built into the oil fields in Stephens county a railroad from Cisco. There has been a bid from Mineral Wells to take the road there to the east of Breckenridge, but it is still undecided as to the destination. It may be built to Graham or to Newcastle. These three places on the north are in the minds of the promoters, and May, Coleman, Brownwood, Rising Star and Comanche are the points on the south now thought of as the destination. There is one thing sure though and that the road will be built.

The year 1919 promises to be the greatest in the history of this country. The oil business is bringing in many men and most of them have big money, people living in Eastland and Stephens counties are becoming rich because they happened to own some of the sorry land that was not good for farming or grazing. If ever there was a people who deserved to become suddenly rich it is these very people. They have remained here when almost starvation looked them in the face, yet they were loyal to their county and they now deserve to enjoy life.

There should be a friendly rivalry between all towns in reference to their neighbor towns, and there is at present between the different towns in this section. Each one is striving to be the best, and that is right. The oil development in this section is creating enough business for all the towns, and then they are not able to take care of it. Let us hope that all the towns will grow into real cities. No town in this country is able to care for the crowds and business that are coming its way and naturally we have to co-operate and all together do the best we can. All the towns are building for which let us give thanks.

This and next week there will be considerable moving around in Cisco among the business men. This takes place every year in every town and city, and it is best in most cases. This way of running in the same old way gets business men so deep in the ruts that they can never get out until they absolutely quit business. The progressive business man is constantly looking for something new and something different and something better. Some times mistakes are made, but the next year the individual may profit by them. The business men of Cisco are getting in condition to push their business as never been before. New blood is being injected into the ranks of the town in the way of new businesses, and new blood counts. Of course there are some regrets because some of our best men move or sell out, but we have other good men to take their places. The business interests of Cisco will be oloked after in the year 1919 in a better way than it has ever been before because there will be a larger number of business men to take care of it. The new men in business have a welcome to our midst.

NEW YEARS ALL IT OUGHT TO BE.

If you were busy being kind Before you knew it you would find You'd soon forget to think 'twas true That someone was unkind to you.

If you were busy being glad And cheering people who were sad Although your heart might ache a bit You'd soon forget to notice it

If you were busy being good And doing just the best you could You'd not have time to blame some man Who's doing just the best that he can.

If you were busy being true To what you know you ought to do You'd be so busy you'd forget The blunders of the folks you've met

If you were busy being right You'd find yourself too busy quite To criticize your neighbors long Because he's busy being wrong.

DIED

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed.

Whose deeds doth great and small, Are close knit threads of an unknown thread Where love enobles all. The world may sound no trumpet, ring no bells The Book of Life the story tells.

In the going out of the beautiful life of Mrs. Stella Croom, wife of C. Hubbard Croom, in the city of Denver, Colorado, Monday night at eight o'clock, a beautiful thread was unwound from the thread of life. Mrs. Croom, nee Miss Stella Van Stenwyk, of Stamford, was married to C. Hubbard Croom of Cisco July 27th, 1916 in the city of Stamford. Immediately they departed for El Paso their future home, amidst a shower of roses and many kind wishes for this young couple's happiness. She departed for the west there to build a fortune; the many acquaintances that it takes to make a happy life, and Hubbard Croom, a bright young man raised in Cisco was a happy possessor of such a treasure. Moving to Denver, Colorado, in July they built for themselves a ready home, and it was in that city young son came to brighten their home the 16th of December, being just two weeks old when the spirit of the fond mother answered the roll call with many others who have gone over from the terrible disease that in fast taking off our loved ones. Only a few days ago she was hoping to be with her young son and raise him to honor the flag that nations are honoring today, but God had a greater purpose for her, and every noble life leaves the fibre of it interwoven for ever in the work of the world, and it is this little fibre that so tender now, will know how closely the lives of its fond parents hovered over it when it first opened its eyes to such a wonderful domain. Painful as this stroke may seem to the young husband left to mourn, God has his purpose in so dealing with you, the sunlight will come through and bright clouds will some day dispel the gloom that now surrounds you. There was none like her that could soothe your sorrows, and cheer your rugged path, that time has wrought for you. God can aid you in the care of this little one who now claims a double love from you to look to its future and teach him the lesson that his mother would have taught him when she knelt by his bed side to say his good night prayer with him.

Mrs. Croom early in life gave herself to the upbuilding of the Presbyterian church, and has ever been a faithful member, her spiritual advice to the young husband has been the inspiration to live closer to Him who doeth all things well. Weep not Hubbard, "For never a daisy grows but mystery guides its growing; Never a river flows but majesty scepters it flowing." Mrs. Croom's remains were buried in the Stamford cemetery Thursday at three o'clock, many friends gathering to pay the last tribute to her memory and scatter beautiful floral offerings upon the unsightly sod that covered the remains of the young wife, mother and daughter. The little son will be cared for by her parents in Stamford.

—Mrs. J. D. Alexander.

WEST TEXAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FORMED

BUSINESS INTERESTS ORGANIZE TO PROMOTE WONDERFUL RESOURCES OF WEST TEXAS.

West Texas is to have a Chamber of Commerce to represent this section of the state as a whole, just as a local commercial organization represents a particular city. Representatives from fifty West Texas cities met in Fort Worth last week and formed the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and appointed a committee to raise the necessary funds and complete final organization. The meeting was the most representative West Texas gathering ever gotten together and was attended by more than one hundred leading business men and city builders from every part of the western section of the state.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be incorporated under the laws of Texas at once. Its purpose, as announced in the by-laws which were adopted, will be to foster, promote and develop the agricultural, livestock, mineral, manufacturing, commercial and other resources of West Texas.

The organization is to be non-political and will take no part in the election or defeat of any candidate or party. Membership will be open to any individual, firm, corporation or organization interested in the development of West Texas.

Will Raise $250,000.

It is planned to raise a sum of $250,000. Membership dues will be based upon the financial ability of the proposed member, with a minimum of ten dollars. Officers will include a president, treasurer, vice presidents and general manager. Each West Texas county will select its own representative to serve on the board of directors. The board of directors shall elect the president, treasurer, and vice president from among their own number and shall also select from their number an executive committee of not less than five, which will employ a general manager. The board of directors will be the governing board and will have the authority to carry out the purposes of the organization.

A committee will start an immediate campaign for funds necessary for preliminary work. This committee consists of H. P. Brelsford of Eastland, Marion Sanson of Fort Worth, J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls, P. H. Landerger of Amarillo, C. C. Walsh of San Angelo, Brooks Smith of Brownwood, Frank S. Hastings of Stamford, and W. W. Turney of El Paso.

A declaration of purposes adopted unanimously by the meeting follows in part: "The necessity for concerted expression of public opinion of the people of this district exemplified itself in the manner in which publicity was given to West Texas during the drought. This was a matter on which West Texas should have expressed itself officially and emphatically before other sections of the state and nation gave our temporary misfortunes nation-wide publicity. The proposed organization would eliminate this kind of undesirable advertising and give West Texas the right of censorship on its own publicity.

"The masses of West Texas are dependent directly upon agriculture for a livelihood. Improved and scientific cultural methods, systematic marketing and distribution of farm products, assisting the tenant and farm laborer to become home owners, improvement of dairy herds, stabilizing the price of cotton are some of the important problems of agriculture that this organization should consider. There should be some medium for the expression of the common judgment of the people on these vital matters and they should not be left to chance or to the untried judgment of inexperienced persons. Organized effort is necessary for the common good.

"There is a most pressing need for a campaign for the conservation of flood waters in order that excessive rainfall may be utilized for the production of crops. At the present time there is scattered activity along this line but no more general concerted movement exists. There is no more important question than this, and it is a problem in which all West Texas is vitally concerned. Conservation of rainfall is the greatest single need of Texas today.

"One of the first tasks this organization should undertake should be to encourage the full development of our vast petroleum deposits. There will arise in all probability occasions where concerted action on the part of the business men of West Texas will be necessary to protect and defend this vast industry and certainly some central organized body should voice the judgment of the people.

"Another matter which is not entirely foreign to the general purpose of this organization is that when there are problems that should be called to the attention of our state and federal governments they would be received more seriously if presented by a non-political organization representing all the combined interests of West Texas. This feature alone manifests the pressing need for a central organization, and with such a medium West Texas would become a potent power in shaping the destinies of this great state."

AN APPEAL TO THE WOMEN OF EASTLAND COUNTY.

The American Red Cross seeing the part that women should play in the prevention of sickness and in building up the health and vigor of Our Nation, has added to its Patriotic services this course of Elementary Instruction in Hygiene and Care of the sick. The lessons are not intended to take the place of a trained nurse's technique and skill; but to supply a little knowledge of sickness to set forth some of the general laws of health, and to make possible the early recognition of symptoms; also to teach greater care in guarding against communicable diseases, to describe some of the Elementary principles of nursing, which are very essential. The woman who wishes to protect her family from preventable diseases is anxious to fit herself to care for those who are sick intelligently. With nurses becoming more difficult to secure, it is very essential that some member of each household know enough about Elementary Nursing to maintain comfort, and to carry intelligently the instructions of the physician. Every year thousands die, many babies are born, because some one is ignorant of the laws of government and health. A nurse in formal complicated duties, in critical situations, therefore, the necessity of thorough training is a true thing, it is no less a dangerous thing, it is no less a total ignorance may be still dangerous, for instance in cases of emergencies a little edge may be safer than no edge at all, and no one sure to be ignorant of the principles of Hygiene.
