Lions Given Offer of "Sonora Day" at Fort Worth Show

Radio Entertainers From Florida Play at Tuesday Luncheon of Organization

A proposal of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that a "Sonora Day" be sponsored at the organization's building at the Frontier Centennial in Fort Worth was made at the Tuesday luncheon of the Lions Club.

In a letter, read by George Wynn, club secretary, Milburn McCarty, chairman of the West Texas Exhibit Board of Control, outlined what the organization was prepared to offer Sonora in the way of assisting in sponsorship of a particular day at the Exposition.

Study of the proposition was assigned to a committee composed of W. C. Gilmore, W. J. Fields, Jr. and Robert W. Jacobs. The committee was requested to consider the matter and to make some recommendation regarding it at the next luncheon.

Presiding over the program Tuesday was W. R. Cusenbary, club president, who has recently returned from Providence, R. I., where he was sent to represent the Sonora club at the convention of the International Association of Lions Clubs. Mr. Cusenbary spoke briefly regarding the sessions of the convention.

Entertainment was provided at the luncheon by Maureen Mathis and Charline Mathis, both of South Bay, Fla. The girls sang and played stringed instruments. Both have played over radio stations in Miami and Palm Beach. They were guests of Richard Vehle, a brother-in-law of their father, J. L. Mathis, who was also a guest at the luncheon.

Other guests at the luncheon were:

H. J. Skipwith of Austin, guest of his father-in-law, the Rev. R. F. Davis; E. R. Braunig, San Angelo, guest of J. D. Lowrey; W. E. Beard and Clyde F. Brink, guests of W. C. Warren; George Barrow, guest of C. H. Jennings.

At eight tonight in Junction the club there will be host to representatives from all the clubs of the Group 23 division. Ten or fifteen of the Sonora club indicated that they would be likely to attend.

Goats Wanted For Ft. Worth Shipment

Sutton Group Trying To Have Cafes Feature Chevron Meat

An appeal for assistance in supplying a carload of "fat, young chevons, yearlings and two-year-olds," was issued Wednesday by a group of Sonora citizens composed of B. M. Halbert, Fred T. Earwood, Tom Bond and B. M. Halbert, Jr.

The statement, given the NEWS by Mr. Halbert, was as follows:

"Mohair, as high as it is now, takes care of the goat raiser's surplus chevons; they are in demand at good prices. But how was it two or three years ago? Mohair was not selling at any price. There was no demand for chevons; they sold from 35 to 75 cents per head, with a few choice goats bringing $1.

"The 'mutton-goat men,' as they call themselves, were out of the market. These days are bound to roll around again sooner or later. Shall we sit still and not try to create a market for our edible goats?"

"We say 'No!' Now is the time while thousands upon thousands of tourists with money to spend are flocking to Fort Worth and Dallas to the Texas Centennials.

"We are working out a plan to send a carload of fat, young chevons, yearlings and two-year-olds, for advertising and introducing this delicious meat up to a Packer in Fort Worth, to be slaughtered and sold only to hotels and cafes that will put chevron on their menu cards at a reduced price, to be served during the Sheep and Goat shows October 3 to 11th, 1936.

"Will you help us?"

Captain Fred Bailes, noted polo player of Hollywood, Cal., was a guest Tuesday and Wednesday of his cousin, Lee Robinson, and Mrs. Robinson.

SONORANS TELEGRAPH TO LEARN ABOUT ELECTION

It costs nearly a dollar to telegraph from Seattle, Washington, to Sonora but Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilkinson, traveling in the Northwest, were interested enough to take that means of learning about things in "the home county."

After the recent election the Wilkinsons wired to Sonora to learn about the result in the sheriff's race, about Menard and Tom Green county results and the condition of Judge James Corneil who is seriously ill in San Antonio.

"Lefty" White Given Credit For Sonora Victories Sunday

San Angelo Threatens in Second Game But Drops Both To League Leaders

After two closely contested games in San Angelo Sunday afternoon the Station A Sonora team was "on top of the heap" with scores of 4 to 0 and 9 to 5 "on" their adversaries, the Ellis Parts team, San Angelo entry in the Concho Basin League.

White, pitching superb baseball, can justly be given credit for the two Sonora victories. In the first game he allowed only three hits. In the second game, after Ohlenburg had relieved Dossey on the mound, White went in in the third inning and finished the game. No hits were made by Ellis Parts the remainder of the game although the San Angelo nine scored once in the third.

In the second game the score was tied at 4-4 in the third inning. Two relief pitchers finished the game for San Angelo but Sonora's 9-run total for the game could not be equaled by the San Angelo players.

Highlights of the first game were a double play by W. McLeod, unassisted, and two-base hits by W. McLeod, P. McLeod and Mitchell. Two-base hits in the second game were made by P. McLeod, Earber, Mitchell, M. McLeod and P. McLeod. White struck out eight players in the second game and five in the first.

The Station A Sonora team has an open date Sunday, as far as league play is concerned. On Sunday, August 16, the Eola team comes here for two games, the following Sunday the Sonora team will be in Rowena for two games and August 30 the league schedule will be completed in Sonora when the Station A Sonora team clashes with the Lowake nine.

Summarized report of the games in San Angelo Sunday was as follows:

First Game—	R	H	E
Sonora	010	000	033—4 7 0
San Angelo	000	000	000—0 3 3
Second Game—	R	H	E
Sonora	013	022	1—9 11 1
San Angelo	401	000	0—5 7 6

BARKER BROS. OWNERS OF AMUSEMENT BUSINESS

Sale of the bowling alley business to Bill Barker and Raymond Barker of Sonora, was announced Thursday evening by R. J. Gardner of Carrizo Springs.

The new owners were given possession of the business the same day. Mr. Gardner will leave today for his home in Carrizo Springs. Before coming here he operated a similar business in Cotulla, Brady and other Texas towns.

Clint Chandler, who came here with Mr. Gardner and who has been employed by him, will remain in Sonora to work at the bowling alley which was moved this week from the Morris Building to the storeroom next to the Ranchogas Co., Inc.

Sonora Ranchman Recovering
W. E. Glascock, Sonora ranchman who underwent a tonsillectomy Tuesday in a San Angelo hospital is improving. Mr. Glascock has been in San Angelo for two weeks, but Thursday it was said that he could be brought home in a week.

R. D. Trainer, W. D. Martin and A. W. Awalt were in San Angelo Wednesday night to attend a banquet and sales meeting for dealers in Purina feeds.

DROUGHT AND STOCK CONDITIONS SEEN BY THE R. A. HALBERTS AND MANS HOGGETTS ON LONG TRIP

"When we saw a first-class Hereford herd we found, usually, that they came out of Texas."

That was the statement Monday of R. A. Halbert, Sutton county ranchman who returned Sunday with Mrs. Halbert and their daughter, Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Mans Hoggett, from a 4700-mile trip to Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Colorado.

No Cattle Bought
Asked about livestock conditions in that section, Mr. Halbert said:

"The picture seems to be painted a bit blacker down here than it is observed to be by one traveling in that section. Of course, we weren't in the Dakotas where drought conditions are said to be the worst.

"We saw no cattle that were attractive enough in quality and price to merit shipment back to West Texas. Without a doubt the best range we saw anywhere on the trip was in Sutton and Crockett counties.

"All of the two weeks we were gone we saw no rain. Some places appeared to have had rain recently; particularly is that the case in a part of Arizona. In one mountain village in Colorado there had been a rain in the mountains above the town and villagers were cutting up wood that had been washed down from the hills."

Stockmen Met in Denver

Two days were spent in Denver where the Sonora people met a number of livestock men. Among them were Les Miles, head of the loan department of the Financial Credit Corporation, George Hank, feeder and order buyer, and Al Cooper, salesman for Inter-Mountain Livestock Commission Co. A day was spent with Mr. Cooper in the Greeley feeding section where only a few high grade Hereford cattle were seen. The section is irrigated.

Cattle at Greeley, Mr. Halbert

said, were mostly crossed with German Hereford strain. The best Herefords seen were from New Mexico or Texas. The sheep were all blackface lambs which came out of Colorado and Idaho, principally. Lambs weighed 85 to 92 pounds and were bringing $9.60 to $10.25 a hundred.

Cheyenne Rodeo Seen
A few fall Rambouillet ewes were seen and these were of the smooth type with light wool.

The famous Cheyenne, Wyo., rodeo was seen by the Sonorans, who were there the second day. Steers are roped the old way, Mr. Halbert noticed, with the animals falling hard. Allen Holder, well known in West Texas roping circles, broke the neck of one animal that day.

The WHR Hereford Ranch was visited at Cheyenne. Ninety head of breeding cattle, for show purposes, seen there were declared by Mr. Halbert to be the best breeding animals he had ever seen.

The group went as far as Round-up, Montana. There they saw polled Hereford cattle which seemed to be in good shape. In the Montana section grasshoppers were thick, the grass was all gone and it was very dry.

Signs of Rain in Arizona

The wonders of Yellowstone Park were seen on the trip northward and on the return trip the Sonorans went by the Park.

In Ashton, Idaho, sheepmen said not as many fat lambs would go out of there this year as usual because of the drought. Wool brought 23 cents a pound there this year. Rambouillet ewes and Hampshire rams are used principally by stockmen in that section.

The Grand Canyon, Painted Desert and the Temple in Salt Lake were seen by the group who returned by way of Phoenix and El Paso.

Highway Official Gives Aid To Traveler To Mexico City

Traveling into Mexico from Laredo, the automobile driver now is assured of 524 miles of the 20-foot pavement before there is a single break.

That is the information given by H. H. Allen, assistant to the state highway engineers, state highway department, in a letter to J. B. Early, maintenance engineer. The letter in the form of a bulletin has been sent to H. L. Taylor, section foreman stationed in Sonora.

Mr. Allen's information is based on a trip he took to and from Mexico City in early June. It may be that by this time even more highway work has been done.

Suggestions made by Mr. Allen to those contemplating the trip to Mexico City are interesting and helpful. He includes such points as the following:

CONDITION OF SUTTON MAN SERIOUS THURSDAY

Little, if any, improvement was noted Thursday in the condition of George Burleson, Sutton county ranch worker employed by Aldwell Bros., who has been seriously ill in a San Angelo hospital since the latter part of last week.

Mr. Burleson was operated on Saturday morning and his condition has been critical several times since then. Mrs. Burleson and their children were called there Saturday.

Mr. Burleson is a brother of Mrs. G. W. Archer.

Hallums Complete 6 Tourist Cottages

Sonorans' Investment Provides Modern Conveniences

Sutton county's accommodations for tourists were enhanced this week by the opening of Sonora Courts, a portion of the $12,000 building investment made in Sonora during recent weeks by R. L. Hallum and his brother, Asa, who operates a service station on the highway between Sonora and Junction.

Six modern cottages have been built adjoining the service station recently completed by the Hallum brothers near the Lowrey Draw business. Each has a steel bed with a well known make of mattress. Shower bath facilities are provided for each cottage. A ceiling fan over the bed provides for comfort of the guest when night is warm.

Alongside each cottage is a covered portion where the traveler's car may be parked.

The cottages are finished in cream colored stucco with blue diamond decorative pieces to break the color. In the rear of the station and near the cottages is additional parking space which may, when business justifies, be the location for similar cottages.

Earn Dance Honors Del Rio Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dell Whitehead Living in Del Rio

One hundred and fifty persons made merry Thursday night at an invitation dance at the Willie B. Whitehead ranch, south of Sonora, arranged in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dell (Son) Whitehead of Del Rio, who were married in San Angelo July 20.

The bride of Mr. Whitehead, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitehead of Del Rio, was formerly Miss George Bowman, daughter of Mrs. Claude Mathews Jasper of Dallas.

Hostesses at the dance were Miss Topsy Whitehead, sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Willie B. Whitehead, his brother and sister-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitehead, his parents.

Invitations to the dance were printed on coarse, colored paper and were unique in wording.

Prominently displayed was the fact that the affair was "Not 'the Last' but Another Round-up." Location of the dancing on the ranch was given as—"Yeah, it'll be in the barn—count on that."

Choice of partners for the evening was left up to the recipient of the invitation, each of which was sent to a man, as it read: "Bring Your Gal—Bring Your Wife; It's up to you!" The informality of the party was emphasized with a final line—"You'll get no fancy invitation—THIS IS IT!"

Harrison's Texans of San Angelo supplied music from early evening until daylight. At midnight coffee and cake was served, together with barbecued meat, under the large trees, the site of the original Whitehead home.

Balloons of many colors gave a carnival atmosphere to the shearing shed where the dancing was done. Specialty numbers of several types were played by the orchestra during the evening.

Old-fashioned tunes, played by W. E. Whitehead of Del Rio, on his "fiddle," provided entertainment at one time during the evening. Mr. Whitehead, now 76 years old, played for great many dances in the Sonora section when he was a young man.

Texans Ask For Part of 300 Million PWA Funds Allotment

Proposed Waterworks For Sonora Among Public Works Which Would Benefit

Representing the city of Sonora, of which he is mayor, W. C. Gilmore went to Dallas Tuesday night to attend a meeting there Wednesday relative to the recent allotments of Public Works Administration funds which completely "overlooked" Texas.

Mr. Gilmore's attendance at the meeting was in the interest of Sonora's application for a grant for a municipal waterworks system.

Although 23 million dollars was allotted for Public Works projects July 28, Texas was left "high and dry" as far as having funds provided for any of its works. Reason

At the Dallas meeting officials of 120 Texas cities told the federal government by resolution that their works projects should be included in the money allotted for use in the United States. Senator Tom Connally expressed the opinion that the President did not understand the situation in Texas where, it is said many thousands of skilled and semi-skilled workmen are unemployed but not "on relief."

given was that lack of sufficient skilled labor in Texas prevented the securing of 100 per cent of the labor from relief rolls. Last year ten per cent of the skilled labor could be secured outside of the relief rolls.

City Encouraged in Efforts

The Dallas meeting of city officials and others interested convened Wednesday at ten o'clock in the auditorium of the city hall. The conference was called by P. D. Renfro of Beaumont who is president of the League of Texas Municipalities.

Encouragement was given city officials in their efforts to secure a city-owned water system in a letter written recently by G. E. Ramsey, Jr., chief expediter, Projects Division, Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works. Mr. Ramsey's letter read, in part: "RE Waterworks Projects — JFM-PJG:

"The study of this application has been completed by the examining divisions and it has received their favorable recommendations.

"However, no allotments can be considered until funds recently authorized by Congress are made available to the Public Works Administration for allotment to non-Federal projects."

Congressman Interested

Mr. Ramsey's letter was written to Charles L. South, representative in Congress, who wrote Mr. Gilmore in this manner when he sent Mr. Ramsey's letter:

"I am hopeful that the money will soon be available, in order that you may be able to proceed in the construction of this project, which is doubtless one in which the people of your little city are keenly interested."

Sonora's most recent efforts to secure funds with which to build a municipal waterworks system have been based on the securing of a federal grant to use in connection with obligation bonds to be retired by the revenues of the city-owned system.

RANCH ENTRANCE GATES ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Travelers along the Del Rio and San Angelo highways are commenting on the attractive ranch entrance gates recently constructed by Mrs. Velma Shurley and G. H. Davis.

Built of stone, the gates give an individuality to the ranch property that is extremely desirable.

The gates were built as a gesture of cooperation in the general program of Sutton county beautification which has been under way several months. Mrs. Roy E. Aldwell is Sutton county chairman in charge of beautification work. Mrs. L. W. Elliott is chairman of a group charged with giving encouragement to ranch people in the construction of attractive entrance gates to their places.

The large ranch on which Mr. Draper will be employed consists of the Lobaugh and McGregor ranches, acquired during recent months by officials of the lumber company organization. Succeeding Mr. Draper at the Sonora office of the company is W. E. Beard who came here from Telex, Texas. He has been employed by the company at Kigore but was reared in Mart, Texas.

PEOPLE—AND THEY ONLY—CAN COPE WITH ACCIDENT PROBLEM

The Gods of recklessness are devouring thousands of lives each month on American highways—and there is no limit to their appetite.

During the Fourth of July weekend, close to 500 people met accidental deaths—the largest number for that period since 1931.
Fireworks were responsible for a smaller number of fatalities than usual—but that greatest destroyer of all, the carelessly operated motor car, chalked up a grisly record. And every week-end witnesses similar occurrences. If, in a single disaster such as an earthquake or a fire, as many people were to be killed as have been killed in accidents in the last month, the world would be aghast.
But we seem to regard accidents as being inevitable, and look upon them with equanimity.

But the great tragedy is that accidents are not inevitable. Nine out of ten are preventable, and easily preventable. Carelessness, recklessness, ignorance and stupidity are the principal causes of accidental injury and death, and surely they can be cured—through law, through force of public opinion and, perhaps most important of all, through education of the individual.

Death walks the highway. He strides through our homes. He is an unseen visitor at every place of amusement. He is apt to put in his appearance in the happiest hours.
The deaths that follow accidents can be eliminated almost 100 percent if we will only make a small effort, and learn that a foolish act that saves a minute or provides a brief, futile thrill can send us or others into eternity. No graver problem faces the American people than the accident problem—and its solution is entirely up to the people.—Kerrville Mountain Sun.

nalism, Cornell University: "Fifty

TRADE AND INDUSTRY GAINS; DROUTH AFFECTS CROPS

This map represents business conditions in every state of the Union as shown in August, 1936, issue of "Nation's Business," official publication of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

June saw an upsurge in trade and industry as a whole, but widespread drouth retarded most crops. Losses in the northwest spring wheat crop were reported following a long spell of dry weather. Pastures suffered widely. Preparations were reported to ship cattle out of affected areas. Cotton suffered in the southeast.

These happenings plus the poor fruit crop reports of May cloud the agricultural outlook as a whole. Electric power output made new all-time records in June. Steel production, aided by active buying of automobiles, machine tools and railroad locomotives, cars and rails, showed a contra-seasonal increase and almost doubled the output of 1935. Carloadings for June were the heaviest of the year to date. Orders for aircraft were heavy.

Commodity prices, led by grains, rose following the May decline. Chain and mail order sales increased. Cotton consumption and exports surpassed 1935. Railroad fares were reduced. Cigarette and electric refrigerator production broke all records.

Stock market prices advanced for the thirteenth month out of fourteen. Dividend resumptions and new dividend announcements were numerous. Bank debits for the half year were a sixth larger than a year ago. Failures are well below recent years with liabilities about equal to 1935 but far below earlier years.

THE MAP

The striking change in the June Map is the darkening in spring wheat areas because of prospective losses of yield from 1935 due to drouth damage.

THE BAROMETER

The Business Activity Barometer for June rose for the third month this year, thereby tying that of December, 1935, and almost equaling that of November, 1930.

Highway Official—

etables and peeled fruits are recommended. Carry drinking water in a jug. Mineral water should be drunk in Mexico unless traveler is sure of source of water available.

Highway Conditions
After the 524 miles there is seventy miles of dusty highway base. Other than for the dust it is pleasant traveling road. Topping of the seventy miles is expected to be completed soon and in June while it is being done travelers will probably be routed over the half portion of the highway not receiving the construction work.

Jacala, a village, is located at the end of the 70-mile stretch and from there asphalt pavement extends to Mexico City.

Fog and rain often may be avoided between Matalpa and Jacala by morning travel. Rainy season begins about June 15 and ends about November 15.

Quoting Mr. Allen:
"The traveler need have no fear of being marooned by high water since all of the structures have been completed, thereby eliminating the necessity of any detours. At no place during the entire trip is a person farther than thirty-five miles from a fairly good-sized town.

"Anyone going into Mexico for the first time should spend some time acquainting himself with the conditions to be encountered in order that after entering he can enjoy to the fullest a country whose civilization is very, very old and which is unsurpassed in scenic grandeur and beauty."

Returns From Ft. Worth School
A business visitor in Sonora Tuesday was O. A. Oathout of Ozona, service representative for Electrolux refrigerators in Sutton and Crockett counties. Mr. Oathout has recently returned from a service school in Fort Worth which was conducted by his company.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adkins left Monday for Dallas where they will attend the Centennial Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Ogden and son, Wayne, left Sunday on a vacation trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Vander Stucken left Tuesday morning for a vacation trip to the Carlsbad Caverns and other places of interest in that section.

REFUTES IDEA THAT GIRAFFES ARE MUTE

Game Warden Says Young Bawl, Low Like Calf

Washington, D. C.—Some naturalists long have held that giraffes are voiceless animals, unable to make a sound even when in agony. A recent challenge of this occurs in the annual report of the Kenya (Africa) game warden, which avers that a young giraffe, separated from its mother, will bawl, and low like a hungry calf.

"Whether mute or not, the giraffe is one of the world's most peculiar animals," says the National Geographic society. "It has at least two other claims to distinction. It is the world's tallest mammal and one of the most expensive animals found in menageries.

"A giraffe's neck, long as it is, contains no more vertebrae than does the neck of a man. It is merely elongation of the vertebrae that elevates the giraffe's head among the treetops.

Thorns No Bother.

"Possessing few means of defense, giraffes are protected by their coloration. Their irregularly marked coats blend so perfectly with the dappled sunlight and shadows of the trees on which they feed that at a distance they are difficult to detect. Thorny acacias do not prove a trial to them, for the animals' tough hides protect them from long thorns, and their elastic tongues taper to pluck leaves without including the trees' piercing armor.

"When feeding among the tree tops, 16 or 18 feet above the ground, the giraffe's long-lashed eyes can scan a wide range for menacing enemies. When grazing, however, or drinking from a water hole, the animal cannot see lions prowling in the surrounding grasses. Since a springing lion could break a giraffe's neck, it is fortunate that the giraffe can survive a long time between drinks. Dew on leaves helps to quench its thirst.

"Lions usually stalk a giraffe in pairs. Attacked by a single lion, a giraffe might be able to fend it off by kicking viciously, or, if able to shake the lion off its back, it could escape by running.

"Giraffes usually seek safety in flight. Hunters pursuing them on horseback do not have an easy time catching up. Given a few minutes' lead, especially over uneven ground, they, traveling more than 30 miles an hour, can outrun a fleet Sudan horse. Young giraffes begin galloping shortly after they are born, and usually keep up with the herd.

Use for Tough Hides.

"Africans hunt these animals for food, and for their tough hides out of which they make shields and sandals. They often strip the hide off in pieces 30 feet long. Although indiscriminate hunting has rapidly decreased the number of giraffes, many herds still roam the heart of Africa.

"Giraffes are among the most costly animals in captivity, not so much because they are scarce, but because they are temperamental. They are delicate and nervous. Necessary surgical operations can be performed on many wild animals, but seldom on giraffes. They are so timid that they show alarm at the least cause. They even have been known to drop dead when their keepers approached to give them medicine.

"Catching them in pitfalls or traps is out of the question because of injury that would result to their necks and legs. The usual method of capturing them is to pursue a herd until the young drop out exhausted, or to drive a herd into a corral.

"The joke of the giraffe with a sore throat is not humorous to zoo keepers. Fogs give them sore throats and colds. Legs of the young frequently swell, become crooked and too weak to support them. Giraffes find unusual ways to hurt themselves. In the Calcutta zoo one hanged himself by catching his neck in a forked branch."

CHESTERTON IS DEAD

This is a recent portrait of Gilbert K. Chesterton, one of England's most noted men of letters and famed for his use of the paradox in his writings, who died in England at the age of sixty-two. He suffered a heart attack at his home at Beaconsfield.

"Where Flour is Proved"

DEWDROP ANGEL FOOD CAKE

8 egg yolks
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoonful cream of tartar
1/4 cup water
1 1/4 cups sugar
1 cup flour
grate rind of one lemon

Add salt to egg yolk and beat rapidly for 10 minutes (remember the beating counts in the success of this cake, so beat it well then add water and beat for another ten minutes). Fold in sugar, then the flour that has been sifted with the cream of tartar 4 times, adding the lemon peel while adding the flour. Pour into ungreased stem pan and bake in a slow oven, about 300 degrees F. for 55 minutes. When baked leave stand in inverted pan until cold.

CARAMEL CAKE

1 1/2 cups white sugar
3 cups flour
1 teaspoon mapeline
3-4 cup butter
2 cups milk
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla
4 eggs

In a heavy skillet melt one cup of the sugar over a low flame. The syrup should be a light golden brown by the time the sugar is thoroughly melted. Remove skillet from fire and add the boiling hot milk. Blend together until mixture is smooth returning to heat if necessary. Set aside to cool. Cream the remaining sugar with the butter. Add well beaten egg yolks. Mix well. Add caramelized liquid alternately with the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder 4 times. During this process add mapeline and vanilla. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and bake in a greased stemmed loaf pan 55 minutes in a moderate oven 375 degrees F.

APPLE CAKE (GERMAN)

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
2 apples
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons baking powder
1-3 cup shortening
3-4 cup milk
3-4 cup sugar
1 grated lemon rind

Mix and sift all dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening and add egg yolks which have been mixed with milk. Add lemon rind and pour into shallow cake pan and top with apples which have been cut into eighths. Sprinkle top with sugar, cinnamon and lemon rind. Bake in moderate oven 45 minutes. Cut in squares and serve with whipped cream.

Sonorans' Eastern Trip By Car Replete With Interest

By NINA ROUECHE

In an interview Thursday Mrs. H. V. Stokes told interestingly of the trip which she and Mr. Stokes, together with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cauthorn and Mrs. Alton Hightower, took recently to attend the International Association of Lions Clubs convention in Providence, Rhode Island.

The first morning the Sonora ladies were in Providence they were guests at a breakfast where 500 ladies were present. Immediately after the breakfast they attended a style show at a theater, and then spent the afternoon at Rocky Point on Narragansett Bay. At Rocky Point they saw water contests, boat racing, rowing and life saving.

New Orleans Intriguing

From Sonora Mrs. Stokes and her party drove to Houston where they were entertained by W. C. Webre, a friend of Mr. Stokes. The most impressive thing, to Mrs. Stokes, in Houston, was the beautiful homes.

They found New Orleans very fascinating. A friend of Mr. Stokes showed them through a cemetery at New Orleans. The caskets are in tombs and the tombs are small houses of marble which are used because of the danger of flood waters. Huey Long, the Texans discovered, is idolized by the working people of Louisiana.

The Huey Long bridge, a thirteen-million dollar structure, was interesting to the Sonora people. After a trip to a New Orleans museum and airport, they continued their trip through Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina and North Carolina, "a beautiful state."

Capital the Prettiest

A visit to Mount Vernon was an outstanding pleasure of their visit to Washington. Especially fond of plants and flowers, Mrs. Stokes found the natural beauty of Mount Vernon unusually appealing. An average of 300,000 tourists visit Mount Vernon yearly. Interesting, too, was the trip through the capitol where they saw the Senate chamber and that of the House of Representatives. "The city plan of Washington, is the most perfect in the world," Mrs. Stokes said. "The magnificent buildings, made it the prettiest town we saw."

Boats and ships of every size and description were seen on the pretty Potomac river. To Mrs. Stokes, New Jersey, Rhode Island, New York and Connecticut, were the prettiest states. The gentry rolling hills, the fir, maple, ash and pine trees, as well as the flowers were especially interesting.

"Sights" of New York Seen

The heaviest traffic in the United States is from Washington to the New England states. At Newport, they saw the summer homes of "the four hundred." Their private beaches are quite restricted.

After the convention the Sonorans went to New York City.

"The thing that thrilled me most," Mrs. Stokes said, "was Broadway—the bright lights and the many, many people."

At the Little Church A-round the Corner, they saw a wedding ceremony performed. They also saw Greenwich Village, Radio City, Chinatown, the Statue of Liberty, and the largest aquarium in the world. From the Empire State Building, 102 stories high, the tallest building in the world, they had a panoramic view of New York City. Central Park, the new tri-borough bridge and Coney Island were entertaining.

Coney Island Unattractive

Their trip to Coney Island on a subway was "dirty, hot, dusty." Peculiarly interesting to the Texans was the sight of children up to the age of seven or eight years being pushed around in baby carriage. A "loathsome sight" was the view on the beach "at Coney," as the New Yorker says it. The people were "young, little, old, fat, black, white and brown." Some were eating, some covered by sand, some sitting, some swimming. This was the working class of people.

They crossed the Hudson river and went to Ithaca, in northern New York, where they saw Cornell University. From there they drove to Niagara Falls and then 250 miles along the Lake Erie shore into Canada, and on to Detroit.

In Indiana the sand dunes interested. At South Bend, Indiana, they saw Notre Dame University. After driving through Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas they arrived in Dallas and attended the Centennial Exposition. "The Cavalcade of Texas, a marvelous pageant, is worth a trip to the Centennial," as Mrs. Stokes expresses it.

Consideration of the Figure Needed in Selecting Clothes Which Are Most Effective

Denton, Aug. 5.—Are you wearing the right type clothes? So many women give little consideration to the styles they wear, except whether or not they are fashionable. They think nothing of the design in relation to their respective figures.

A tall, slender person is blessed with a willowy appearance. She can "get away" with long trains, sweeping shoulder drapes, and can look perfectly stunning in huge fur coats or slim suits that boast large fur collars. The short person should never try to wear these items. They'll make her look dumpty and will cut what little height she has. Her evening dresses should give a swaying motion when walking, and should be short enough so that a tiny part of the slipper will show—otherwise she will give the appearance of being stuck to the floor.

Breaking the line of dresses is the best way designers have to give your figure just the style it needs. Some use peplums if the line is to be broken at the waist, others use capes of varying lengths to suit your individual preference; and girls at Texas State College for Women suggest tunics.

Skirt lengths should be adjusted to the individual figure and legs. Even if "everyone" is wearing her dresses eleven inches from the floor this season, you certainly shouldn't do so if that length exposes the fattest part of the calf. It will mar the entire effect of your costume.

Arms and neck should also be taken into consideration when discussing types of clothes suited to individuals. If you have a short neck, wear only the simplest, flattest necklines. Sleeves should be governed by the proportions of the arm.

CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION PLEASES A. W. AWALTS

Wonderment that such a production as "Cavalcade of Texas" at the Central Exposition in Dallas could be offered for such a nominal sum was expressed this week by A. W. Awalt when he returned from a vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Awalt and son, Sidney, left Sunday of last week and spent several days at the Exposition. They then visited relatives in the Mason and Brady sections before returning here.

Mr. Awalt said that they spent three days and three evenings in the buildings at the Exposition and that they would have enjoyed even more time for inspection of the many things of interest which are displayed.

100,000 DEATHS IS TOLL OF ACCIDENTS

Economic Cost to People of U. S. $3,450,000,000.

Chicago.—The American public, always the loser in the game of "Safety versus Accidents," heaped 100,000 lives on the altar of carelessness during 1935, declares the National Safety Council.

In its 1936 edition of "Accident Facts," the Council reported that an additional 9,340,000 persons suffered non-fatal injuries in accidents of one sort or another and that to pay the economic cost of their disregard for rules of safety, Americans dug into their wallets for at least $3,450,000,000—about $27.05 for each of the nation's 127,521,000 men, women and children.

The Council's averages showed that accidents killed 274 persons every day of the year and that the estimated daily bill for lost income, doctor and hospital fees and the overhead cost of insurance alone was $9,500,000.

The Council credited to automobiles the largest block of accident deaths, which it said rose to a new all-time high of 37,000 in 1935. The year's totals also showed 105,000 persons were permanently disabled and 1,180,000 temporarily disabled in motor vehicle accidents.

Fatalities in Home. Another set of totals indicated, the Council said, that members of American families, without apparent concern for loss of life, moved blithely about their homes—tumbling down stairs, falling out of windows, drowning themselves, getting cut and burned, dying by the thousands. The year's report listed 31,500 deaths in accidents that occurred in homes, placed at 140,000 the number of persons permanently disabled and at 4,460,000 the number temporarily disabled.

The third largest number of persons, 18,000, died in public accidents—drowning, burns, falls, heat prostrations, deaths by freezing railroad accidents, firearms accidents, poisonings, etc.—that occurred outside the home but not in occupational pursuits and that did not involve motor vehicles. This type of accident, the Council said, was responsible for permanently disabling injuries to 60,000 persons and for temporarily disabling injuries to 2,100,000.

Occupational accidents, those suffered while engaged in gainful employment, claimed 16,500 lives, 500 more than in 1934, the Council's statistics showed, and inflicted permanent disability upon 63,000. Less serious injuries were suffered by 1,340,000.

Of the total number killed in accidents during 1935, 47,800 were between twenty-five and sixty-four years of age. Other age groups and the number of accidental deaths which occurred in them, were: less than five years, 6,600; five to fourteen years of age, 7,600; fifteen to twenty-four years, 13,400; sixty-five years or more, 24,600.

Motor vehicle accidents were the greatest cause of accidental death in each age group except the "less than five years" and "sixty-five years or more" classifications. Automobile accidents as a cause of death were second to "burns" in the former group and second to "falls" in the latter group.

Fire, which the Council said annually takes an average of 8,000 lives, caused $250,000,000 property damage during 1935. Matches and the fire hazard connected with smoking cigars, pipes and cigarettes; defective chimneys and flues, petroleum fires, and defective stoves, furnaces and boilers, were given as the principal causes of the year's conflagrations.

Hazards on the Farm.

Of the total of occupational deaths the Council said agricultural pursuits, work on the farm, caused more accidental deaths, 4,400, than any other classification of gainful employment. Trade and service industries were next with 4,000 fatalities. Construction operations with 2,500 deaths was third on the list, while about 1,600 deaths were suffered by workers in mining, quarrying and other extractive industries. In the transportation and public utilities industries there were 2,100 accidental deaths and manufacturing accounted for 1,900 fatal accidents.

In relation to compensation insurance the Council said the largest slice of the total paid for industrial accidents, 28 per cent, went to accident victims injured in falls. However, falls caused but 22 per cent of all industrial accident cases.

The handling of objects—tools and material—caused 29 per cent of all industrial cases, the victims of which received, 17 per cent of the compensation.

However, the Council said proof of the progress in industrial safety in the United States is offered in statistics for 1935 that show the accident frequency rate (disabling injuries per million man-hours of exposure) 61 per cent below the rate for 1926. These figures, it was explained, were taken from reports of only those companies which have been carrying on continuous programs of accident prevention. This select group, said the Council, also has a 1935 accident severity rate (days lost per 1,000 man-hours worked) that is 43 per cent below 1926.

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF SUTTON COUNTY—GREETING:

You are hereby commanded to summon Mrs. Nadine Harper by making a publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Sutton County, to be held at the Courthouse thereof in Sonora, on the first Monday in September, 1936, the same being the 7th day of September, 1936, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1936, in a suit, numbered on the Docket of said court, number 831, wherein J. B. Harper is plaintiff, and Mrs. Nadine Harper is defendant, said petition alleging that plaintiff has resided in Texas more than one year and in Sutton County more than six months prior to filing this suit; that plaintiff was married to defendant, then a single woman by the name of Nadine Williams, on or about March 25, 1933, in Clovis, New Mexico. That they returned to Texas where they resided until Defendant abandoned plaintiff on or about January 5, 1934, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife. That during the time they lived together plaintiff supported defendant and was kind and affectionate to her, but that defendant soon after their marriage began a course of unkind, harsh and cruel treatment toward plaintiff which continued until defendant abandoned plaintiff. That defendant often abused plaintiff using harsh language toward him before their mutual friends, on one occasion accusing him of being no account and worthless and making other accusations which were untrue; that said marriage relation still exists, and that defendant's actions and conduct are of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable.

Plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer herein and for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, and for such other and further relief as plaintiff may be entitled to. Herein fail not, but have you before said Court on the said first

Like an exclamation point used to punctuate a $10,000,000 building program, the tower of the new Administration-Library Building at the University of Texas juts up into the sky and its carillon chimes a paean of Texas pride.

Erected at a total cost of $2,800,000, this building is the final unit of a vast construction program which has been under way on the university campus for more than a decade and which is being completed, opportunely, this centennial year. It affords Texas students a group of eighteen new buildings whose facilities equal those of any educational institution in the country, and increases the value of the entire physical plant to more than $14,000,000.

The Administration-Library Building occupies, appropriately enough, the crown of College Hill. Despite its height, 308 feet, it spreads over almost a city block. A broad arcade supported by classic pillars stretches between the two front wings, to be used as office suites for administrative authorities. Above the entrance are engraved the words, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Topped by Set of Chimes

The tower is an extension of the book stack levels in the back portion of the building, and contains thirty-two stack levels. It is surmounted by a belfry with a set of chimes. An observation deck and a clock room are also provided atop the tower.

Finishing touches to this building will be added in the fall, when the university holds its Texas centennial celebration. All buildings will be thrown open to visitors from June 1 to Dec. 31.

One of the largest universities buildings, Gregory Gymnasium, has been turned over to the university centennial officials, headed by William L. McGill, and will serve as a temporary museum. Construction is expected to be started during the summer on the first unit of a university museum.

The history of the university is closely allied with that of Texas, and in a sense the university as well as the state is celebrating its 100th anniversary. In 1835 and 1836, when founders of the Republic of Texas were voicing their protests against Mexican rule, they laid down as one of the charges against the Mexican Government failure to provide an adequate public school system.

University Opened in 1883

The first constitution of Texas declared one of the duties of the Texas Congress was to provide a general system of education. Legislature after legislature enacted bills directed toward the founding of a state university, and in 1883 the University of Texas opened its doors, with an enrollment of some 200 to 300 students.

Formerly, a mere handful of buildings sprawled over the "Forty Acres" and grotesque wooden shacks speckled the open spaces between the permanent structures. These were used not only for classrooms but for laboratories and offices. Occasionally, a new building was erected. The institution owned, by endowment of the Texas Constitution and the Texas Legislature, 2,000,000 acres of West Texas land, but its value was only a few cents per acre, and the income from grazing leases was paltry.

Then, on May 17, 1923, a chance wildcat oil well blew in on a tract of university land in Reagan county, and the famous Big Lake oil field was born.

Money Pours In

A few years passed, and money from rentals and bonuses on oil leases and from royalties on oil and gas production began pouring into the permanent fund of the institution.

This oil revenue proved a bonanza. The good sense of the forefathers of Texas, who drafted the constitution of 1876, caused them to incorporate in that document the provision that the university's endowment should constitute its permanent fund, and that that fund could not be touched for building, maintenance or other purposes.

It did permit the investment of that fund in approved securities, however, and through the interest on such investments the university has become a veritable Cinderella among educational institutions. Fortunately, its new furnishings have assumed such a substantial nature that they are not expected to vanish at the waving of a wand. The permanent fund now totals more than $22,000,000.

The institution's student body has likewise grown in full proportion to the expansion of its physical plant. More than 7,000 students matriculated in 1935-36, and university administrative officers already foresee the necessity of still further building plans.

SEVERE BURN SUFFERED BY FORMER SONORA MAN

Recovering from a painful burn received recently is George Baker of Fort Stockton, former publisher of the NEWS. Mr. Baker was a business visitor in Sonora last week-end.

Hot, molten lead from a casting box in the shop of the Fort Stockton Pioneer poured into his shoes while Mr. Baker was engaged in the work of casting cuts for the next issue of the Pioneer. Summer-type shoes with holes in the uppers permitted the metal to enter the shoes.

One foot was burned much more severely than the other and it will be several weeks before a shoe may be worn on that foot.

Week by Week in TEXAS HISTORY

Week of August 2

1823—On August 4 Stephen F. Austin and Baron de Bastrop reached Sylvester Castleman's and the settlements on the Colorado river. In a proclamation issued by Bastrop, he stated his position as commissioner and gave authority to Austin as supreme civil, judicial and military officer until constitutional order could be devised.

1832—A battle was fought on August 2 at Nacogdoches between the Mexicans under Col. Piedras and the Texans under Col. Bullock. The refusal of Piedras, commander of the garrison at Nacogdoches, to favor the constitution of 1824 led to the battle. He and his 310 men were taken prisoners.

1836—On August 4 Austin wrote to General Rusk in which he said that he consented to be a candidate for the presidency "for only one reason, which is that I believe I can be of material service in procuring the annexation of Texas to the United States."

"Greatest Shortstop" -- John Honus Wagner
--Surrounded by Bevy of Texas Rangerettes

Texas Rangerettes called on John Honus Wagner, coach of the Pittsburgh Pirates and for many years a famous "big league" ball player, when his team was in spring training in San Antonio.

Recently in the Christian Science Monitor this sketch of Wagner's career in the National League appeared:

Still a member, although not playing in any games, of the Pittsburgh National League Baseball Club, John Honus Wagner, is one of the holders of a gold life-time baseball pass. For twenty-one years he was an active player in the National League, the first three with Louisville and the rest of the time with Pittsburgh, which took over the Louisville franchise and team in 1900.

Wagner first broke into the majors in 1897 and he has remained with Louisville and Pittsburgh during his entire career. He played first base, third base and the outfield during his stay in Louisville and started with Pittsburgh in the outfield, but was soon shifted to shortstop and it was in that position that he made his greatest showing. He is generally regarded as one of the greatest players of all time.

In seventeen of his twenty-one years he batted for .300 or better, and he left a life-time average of .329. He made 3,430 basehits and scored 1,791 runs. He had a fielding average of .941 for the seventeen years he played at short and that was a fine average considering the large amount of ground he covered. He engaged in two World Series. He failed to show up at his best in the first one but was his old self in the second in 1909.

Visitor Tells About Road-Building Work

Pastor's Son-in-law Employed in State Testing Division

Enjoying a vacation visit this week in Sonora was H. J. Skipwith of the division of materials and tests, state highway department, Austin, who joined Mrs. Skipwith who has been visiting her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Davis.

Mr. Skipwith spoke interestingly of the state department with which he is associated.

The department, recognized as operating far more efficiently than those of many other states, has the state divided into twenty-five separate divisions in order to carry on more effectively the highway work in a state having a land area of 262,398 square miles.

In Mr. Skipwith's division at Austin materials are received from highway work being done in all sections of the state. Concrete is received in cylinders which are wrapped in wet papers and bur'ap. After the concrete has remained in a damp room for a specified time it is broken apart and analyzed.

"Specimens" of gravel, cal'ch, and road building materials of all types used in the state of Texas are examined and the extent of their efficiency as road building materials determined. The thoroughness used by the central

"laboratories" in Austin and those in other towns over the state is largely responsible for the system of worth while highways being developed in the Lone Star State.

"Dad's All In — He Wonders 'Why?'"

"Can't figure it out," says Dad, "I haven't worked any harder today than on other days yet I'm all fagged out. My back aches and my legs are tired. Feels like rheumatism; something wrong with me, anyway."

Nothing's wrong with you, Dad. It's your shoes.

You've been standing or walking about in shoes with run-over heels and worn-out soles. Those shoes need re-servicing.

CROOKED heels have put a strain on muscles where the strain doesn't belong. Your arches hurt. The worn soles have calloused your feet and slowly but surely drained your energy. When you feel "achey" and your nerves are "on edge" it's high time to have your shoes properly repaired in our shop.
