THE Editor's Corner...

By Joe Harrison

Did you hear about the guy who was running all over town yesterday morning looking for a place to vote?

"We're supposed to vote, today's the 17th," he maintained. This set off a chain reaction as businessmen began to scramble around in an effort to see what they were supposed to be voting on.

Well, the anxious gentleman had the date right, but his months wrong. The vote he was referring to concerned the bond election scheduled for August 17 to determine if this area—Ralls, Crosbyton, Post and Spur—is to have a lake.

The best is yet to come. This misinformed gentleman delayed his vacation one week so he could be here to vote.

Through laughing?
Where will you be on August 17?

Although it is too early to vote on this $4 million bond election, it is not too early to devote some thought to it. We are relative newcomers to this area, but without much thought we can think of two good reasons why this project should pass.

(1) Spur does not have State approved drinking water.

(2) Any industry, almost, needs water in quantity to function. How can Spur grow and attract industry without water?

To quote the words of one of the directors of the White River Conservation District. "If you don't want to grow, and can't be enthusiastic about West Texas—get out."

As a newspaperman, we have a deep-rooted interest in our community and naturally want to see it prosper and grow. And, who doesn't? We'd like to get some discussion started on this issue, and would be glad to air both sides in our "Letters to the Editor" column weekly. Of course, we would like to have all letters signed, with the writers name and address. We reserve the right to edit copy as to length and libelous material. Therefore, if you have something to say about this important election, either for or against, drop us a line.

We've been here over a month now, and have marked up a considerable number of bloopers. We aren't going to call them to your attention at this time, because if you didn't see them, maybe you think we're turning out an error-free paper. We're not and we'll be the first to admit it, but, does the Dallas News or Lubbock Avalanche turn out a paper completely free of typographical errors?

Bigham Enters Soap Box Derby For Fourth Year

Bubba Bigham, 15-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bigham, will compete in the Lubbock Soap Box Derby for the fourth time in as many years.

In 1954 Bubba tied for first, but was defeated in the runoff, and was awarded second place. He finished third last year. He was awarded a $300 scholarship for his second place finish; third place added another $100 scholarship to his winnings.

Bubba had to build a new racer after he tied for first in 1954, because Derby rules say that a car that has won, or tied for first can not be used again. This year he had to rebuild his car again since he has put on 20 pounds. Rules state a racer and driver may weigh a maximum of 250 pounds.

Bubba will take his car to Lubbock Saturday for a pre-race inspection. He is sponsored this year by Rickels Chevrolet Co.

First prize at the Lubbock competition will be a free trip to Akron, Ohio, a gold watch and plaque.

Friday, July 26 3-6 p. m.
Saturday, July 27 3-6 p. m.

The entire community may participate in this project. All races and ages are eligible. The typing operation is painless and lasts only minutes.

Lions Lead Little League; K-P Tops Pony League

By JIMMY JONES

Rickels Motor Co., bolstered by the addition of a new player from the Pony League, put a scare into Edwards-Kelley for 4 innings Tuesday night.

However, the Edwards-Kelley team finally solved his slants to score 3 times in the 5th and 6 times in the 6th to erase a 6-2 lead.

After Rickels scored 5 runs in the first two innings, Edwards-Kelley's manager Gordon brought in shortstop Ford to take over the pitching duties. Ford responded by pitching 3-hit ball the rest of the way, allowing 3 runs, only one of which was earned—a homer by Peek. Edwards-Kelley mustered three homers—by Hurst, Howell and Jones.

Dickens County Sheriff's Posse Will Play Lubbock Saturday Night

The Palmetto Polo team of the Dickens County Sheriff's Posse will meet Lubbock Rodeo Association team in a match in Lubbock Saturday night at 8:30 p. m. according to Everett McArthur, president of the Spur club.

The game will be played on the Rodeo Association field, in southeast Lubbock. A truck will leave Spur at 3 p. m. Saturday with horses of the local players.

These two teams met in Spur three weeks ago, with Spur winning by a 14-9 count. The Lubbock club was a finalist in Western States League play last year.

The Spur team has received an invitation from Socorro, N. M. to participate in a tourney along with 12 New Mexico teams and passed ball. After the dust settled and the inning was over, North Side had scored 5 runs for a 6-5 lead.

North Side then added 3 more runs in the bottom of the 6th for insurance. Walker held the West scoreless the rest of the way for the win.

West Texas Utilities Produces City Power

West Texas Utilities has taken over the electrical supply for the City of Spur, effective July 17, according to Reese McNeil, Mayor.

At the present time, West Texas is in the process of stepping up the power in their sub-station, located across the street from the City Light Plant. Currently, the utility company is using portable generators, until their units can be adjusted to full power. It will probably be early next week before the project is completed.

"West Texas Utilities will endeavor to offer the City of Spur electrical power as efficiently as possible," Bob Weaver, West Texas Utilities manager said yesterday.

"Next week we plan to publish the rates, which are standard,"

Weaver continued. Current plans call for the City to dispose of the generators and Light Plant equipment, and use the funds for paving and other civic improvements.

Auditor's Report Reviewed By Committee

A committee, made up of Herbert Lewis, Ned Hogan and Joe Long, have just completed a review of the Auditor's report on the finances of the City of Spur. Here is their letter to the Mayor and Alderman regarding their report.

Honorable Mayor and the Board of Alderman, City of Spur, Spurr, Texas: Gentlemen:

We the undersigned committee named by the Board of Alderman of the City of Spur, Texas, have reviewed the Auditor's report of the finances of the City of Spur, for the year ended April 30th, 1957, and find the affairs of the City to be making substantial improvements. We wish to commend the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen for their progress the past twelve months.

We call attention to the Gas System and hope the Board may find some means to put this operation on a profitable basis as this is a service that Spur can ill afford to lose.

The collection of garbage has been the subject of some discussion and this too is a service that is very necessary. Any excess rubbish such as trees should be hauled away by the property owners and the City should not be burdened with this responsibility.

We are pleased to note the improvement in the finances in the operation of Spur Memorial Hospital, but we feel that some greater effort to collect accounts might be profitable.

Respectfully submitted,
NED HOGAN

Duck Creek Directors Approve 22 New Conservation Plans

Twenty-two conservation plans were approved by the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District directors in their regular meeting in Post recently.

The plans included new district cooperators J. W. McAllister, Bill Hale, S. D. Hays, Jr., Roy Bateman, James W. Baker, F. W. Hagaman, H. V. Williams, Elmer Thomason, Ralph Bennett, M. C. Thomas, A. J. Harvey, H. G. Lackey, B. S. Haney, and Fred Arrington.

Supervisors present at the meeting were: E. F. Shugart, Giles McCrary and K. P. Brantner. Also present were SCS technicians John H. Taylor and Alex Ringhofer and County Agent Lewis Heron.

Equipment needs for planting native grasses in the district was discussed. Studies are being made to determine the needs, and the board will attempt to make needed equipment available in addition to that already owned by the district.

Dry surface soil conditions has slowed down the drilling or planting of cover crops under the conservation reserve program, according to SCS technicians. Where the land is clean some cooperators are drilling in their cover crops dry, expecting them to come up when it rains.

W. F. and Fike Godfrey and Beggs Ranch are constructing dams for livestock water. SCS technicians John F. Moore and Thedford Fry are assisting in the design and layout of the structures.

No word has been received about fingerling fish. The SCS office reports. Cooperators who have requested fish will be notified prior to delivery.

State-Federal Welfare Program Will Aid Mentally Sick, Disabled

Complete and permanent invalids or persons in the community so mentally deranged that they require continuous supervision to keep from harming themselves or others may soon be able to receive small monthly checks from their State Department of Public Welfare through the new state-federal program of Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled.

The Constitutional Amendment, which was adopted by the voters in November, 1956, limiting the amount of money that can be appropriated for this program to 1.5 million dollars per year, makes aid possible only to those who are helpless and have no relatives able to support them.

Mrs. Johnnie Weaver, Welfare Supervisor of this area, pointed out this is the only welfare program which requires consideration of the ability of relatives to determine the resources of relatives of persons who apply for aid.

The "permanency" and "totality" of the disability will be determined by a State Reviewing Physician after study of a complete physical or mental examination by the person's own private physician. Complete helplessness from a medical standpoint, rather than inability to work, is the criterion. The state will pay the private physician for his examination.

will not be available until September 1, 1957, but applications are being taken now. While the helpless individual will not be able to leave home, the persons responsible for his care may come to the local welfare office and acquaint the Department with his situation. A Field Worker will then call, as soon as possible, at the home to take the application.

Offices in this area are: Spur, Second Floor Wendell Building, Applications taken 3rd Monday, 9-4; Dickens, 1st Floor Courthouse, Applications taken 2nd Monday, 10-12; Jayton, 1st Floor Courthouse, Applications taken 1st Thursday, 10-12; Matador, Basement Courthouse, Applications taken 4th Monday, 10-2; Roaring Springs, the Mitchell Office, Applications taken 1st Monday, 10-12.

John A. Riefenberg is the Field Worker in the above offices. His office is located in Spur, 2nd Floor Wendell Building, Telephone 82.

'Paris Is Gay, Carefree City,' According To Joe Bruce Long

Without a doubt Paris is the city of "Wine, Women and Song" I have been there, I have seen it and I can testify to that fact. Amid gay laughter, strong drink and lusty songs these gay Parisians carry on a tradition that has been theirs for nearly a thousand years.

In Paris there are more saloons and beer parlors than residences, and more people spend more time in them than they do in their homes. This is what makes the difference in "Paris by Day" and "Paris by night." There is a great difference to be sure. One can go into nearly any shop on the streets of Paris chosen at random and purchase colored slides under title of either.

"Paris by day" is much like any other metropolitan center in Europe in many ways. Singularly styled six story buildings, black with age line both sides of the brick streets, while the main avenues of commerce are broad and easily accessible, the side and back streets are rough and little more than "glorified cow paths." Buying and selling begins at 8 o'clock in the morning and continues until well after 7 in the evening. Clothing is easy to obtain but very, very expensive.

There are two rush hours during the day when the day workers board the "metro" (subway) and "tram" (trolley) enroute to and from work. During these two hours it is almost impossible to go any distance in a short period of time. In fact, it is almost impossible to go any where at all. This is the time to stay at home or walk. At these times almost two-thirds of the eight million people in Paris are enroute to somewhere. To bear this fact out I'll give you a personal experience.

The three of us were returning from the Palace of Versailles, which some of you will recognize as the luxurious Palace Louis XI where President Woodrow Wilson signed the treaty ending World War I. We boarded the "metro" enroute to our humble abode. As fate would have it, it was the rush hour and every one and his dog was going home. I am convinced that even the Pope with his great gatherings has never seen so many people in one place at one time. We rode to our destination but could not get off the subway because of the crowds. I was less than three feet from the door but could not budge an inch. We had to ride through two more stops for the crowd to thin out enough to get off the subway, which necessitated our buying another 30 frank (15c) to get back to our destination. Experiences such as this, although at the time seems unbearable, is what spices the trip.

Like most all Europeans, Parisians enjoy from three to five days in the park. Paris has 53 good sized parks and all are usually packed to capacity, even in the middle of the week. Hundreds are gathered in "Jardin des Tuileries Park" today, where this article is being written, to spend the afternoon and many part of the night chatting over mint juleps and orange squashes. Topics of conversation (we are told) range from world situations and French politics to their favorite love and the most recent clothing styles in Paris. This I could not vouch for as I don't know a thing they are saying. They could be plotting to overthrow the American government and I wouldn't know it. But this is what we were told. It seems this grand old French custom has rubbed off on three American tourists. With only five days in Paris and so much to see, we have spent the last two afternoons in such fashion. More Americans would do well to try some of the same.

"Paris by night" is not anything like any other metropolitan center in the world. There is nothing to compare with it. It has characteristics which it can safely call its own. All the streets in Paris are so well lighted that the law requires that cars be driven with out lights.

Fountains and statues can be seen every two or three blocks which make indescribable scenes after dark. The bars and beer parlors mentioned before are always crowded with all-night partners.

Almost any type of place can be found in which to enjoy a night's entertainment, according to the number of franks one wishes to part with in one night. The categories of entertainment range from dining and dancing it

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

No will? Who inherits property?
What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homesteaded property, and for all of the many possible combinations of survivor relatives. Each situation must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.

For example, here is a general idea of how the community property which you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.

If your husband or wife surviving children or descendants of the surviving spouse receives all the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

TELEPHONE TALK
by J. C. Oakley, Manager

KEEP IN TOUCH

If you're like most of us, you sometimes have an uneasy feeling after out-of-town company has left, especially if they have a long drive to make on today's crowded highways.

A lot of folks do more than just worry about such a situation. They keep in touch by telephone. These words you hear, "Yes, we got home all right," can relieve lots of anxiety.

More and more people are finding out that Long Distance is a real bargain especially when calls are placed after six in the evening or all day Sunday. And when you call, don't forget to call by number. Your call will go through twice as fast that way.

A BIT OF COLOR

The trend today is toward color... whether in new cars, ladies' fashions or telephones.

The selection of modern telephone sets now available is certainly keeping step with today's colorful living. We have phones that blend into an overall room scheme; others that contrast with any background; and sets that harmonize with your present color scheme.

A color set will brighten up any room in your home, and you'll be surprised to find out how reasonable they really are.

If you'd like to find out more about the eight decorator colors that are available, just call the telephone company. Or better still, drop in to see them the next time you're close by.

Can you think of anything that makes you madder than running from one end of the house to the other to answer the telephone—only to find that there's no one on the line?

A handy extension telephone would have saved those extra steps—and might have meant that the call would have been completed, too.

Extension telephones, conveniently located throughout your home, can make it possible for you to reach for the phone instead of running to answer it.

And with the cost so small (only 3 cents a day), you can afford to have an additional telephone in the kitchen, bedroom, den, or just about any place where you spend a lot of time.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Local Broiler Raiser Has Turned Out 13,300 Chicks In 6 Months

William Starcher, local broiler and turkey raiser, has turned out three houses of broilers—13,300 broilers—since he went into the business in October, 1956.

Of the 13,300 broilers started, 12,863 were marketed at the average price of 21 cents per pound. These broilers had a livability ration of 96.7 per cent. (Starcher lost approximately 150 chickens due to a power failure during a February storm).

Feed conversion for the three houses was 43 pounds of meat for every 100 pounds of feed fed. Average weight for eight weeks and three days time, was 3.06 pounds per chicken.

Average cost per pound was 18.19 cents. Average labor profit for each house was $382.25, or $90.25 per thousand birds started.

The three houses, produced in 6½ months, showed a labor profit of $1146.75 or an average of

SGT. CLATE BARTON RECEIVES ORDERS TO REPORT TO D. C.

Mrs. Clate Barton has received word from her daughter, M-Sgt. and Mrs. C. V. Conaster, saying that he had received orders to report to Washington, D. C. where he will be in school before he departs for duty in Spain.

Mrs. Conaster and David will accompany him to Washington. The Conasters were formerly stationed in Altus, Okla.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Walsworth last week end were her brother, Dick Collier and daughter, Kay, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Guffy, all of Modesto, California. While here they all visited their brother, Pete Collier, who was recently hurt in an automobile accident at San Angelo. They report that Pete is some better.

Mrs. Estelle Kimmell and daughter, Mrs. Charles Scott, went to Snyder the past week end to attend the wedding of their niece and granddaughter, Dixie Lee, daughter of J. H. Kimmell.

$1911.25 annual labor profit from one broiler house.

Starcher is the first grower in the local area to raise turkeys on a commercial basis. Turkeys are now being moved to range at 9 weeks of age and will be marketed in about 12 more weeks.

Upon completion of a new broiler house, Starcher will start 9,000 baby chicks.

Growers in the local area are now feeding approximately 60,000 chickens.

DODGE outperforms "other two" low-priced trucks!

They're off! All three low-priced trucks are lined up at the bottom of a test grade equal to the steepest hill in San Francisco. The flag drops, and this grueling test of climbing power is officially underway. Dodge takes an early lead.

Halfway up. The extra V-8 power under the hood of the Dodge sends it quickly ahead. It's already two lengths out front. And there's a 1000-lb. test load on each one of these comparably equipped trucks. What's more, Dodge is still gaining!

Dodge flashes past the finish five lengths ahead of competition. Truck "C" and truck "E" just couldn't match that 204-hp. Power Giant. And this is just one of a rugged series of tests that prove Dodge is best of the low-priced three.

● Your Dodge truck dealer has proof that Dodge leads in many ways. Come in... see other certified test-photo sequences... and take a demonstration ride!

Way Back When

By Pauline Bateman
 I knew personally Arthur, Eugene and Walter Gates, S. K. McCall and John Patton, a man named Wright as son-in-law.
 The Gates relations scattered like Ward's ducks, leaving only Marian Bert to represent the Gates family. Marian was Eugene Gate's daughter. Her mother was a Harvey. Marian lives at Afton not far from where the Harveys resided when Dickens County was organized.
 Another pioneer family was C. M. Buchanan who settled on the head of Grapevine creek in 1888. Later they lived a mile or so south of Midway Post Office. Mrs. Buchanan was one of those exceptional in pioneer mothers, who found and took things in the raw. While living on the head of Grapevine creek, they used water from a hand dug well some eighteen or twenty feet deep, that stood some four feet in water.
 One day while Mrs. Buchanan and her three children were at home alone, two girls and a younger boy, the boy fell in the well. Mrs. Buchanan grabbed the well rope, slid down the rope, grabbed up her little boy, shook the water out of him, then stood in the water and held her baby in her arms until Mr. Buchanan came home to pull them out of the well.
 On another occasion while still living on Grapevine, Mrs. Buchanan took her three children in a wagon and drove to Dickens. On her return, the team ran away, so Mrs. Buchanan tossed the children out of the wagon, rode the fright out of the team, drove back picked up her children and went home as though nothing unusual had happened. Those three children are still living. Beulah near Post Texas, Emma in Spur and Albert some where in New Mexico.
 Old Man Beck. Did you ever hear of a place in Dickens County called Beckton? Old Man Beck was living and operating a store where the Forbis Ranch house is located, not the Clark Forbis home, but where Bob Forbis bought from Al Yantis, who in turn bought from old man Beck.
 Yantis imported Bob Collier to Dickens County to operate the store he had bought from Beck with the land Beck had, but Beck was there when the county was organized in 1891. Incidentally, Bob Collier settled and improved the Davis Chambers home, but either Collier or Chambers were here when the County was organized.
 The first time I ever saw Davis Chambers he owned and operated the "Palace Bar" Caloon in Quanah, Texas. Later, he bought the Collier home near Afton, and built the first gin at Afton, but that is later history.
 What is now spoken of as the Hext home, was first settled by old man Greer, with George, Frank and Dora Greer. J. D. Harkley bought out Greer, then sold to Pete Hext. A man by the name of Bows settled what is often called the cottonwood Jones place. North from Jones a widow Crawford lived and west from Jones Dod McCamant lived, the next fellow up the creek but north of the road going west was Bill Williamson, who sold to Bruce Zinn and a tornado blew Zinn's house away, but Bill Williamson settled higher up the creek and his widow still lives there. Across the road to the South from where the Zinn home was destroyed could be found where Thompson Askins who has previously been mentioned lived. Still up the creek, near the Robert McAtee ranch home, Marion Hale settled, the father of Mrs. Bill Stafford, but Hale first lived in Dickens at the time the county was being organized.
 Widow Crawford married Kefter the Dutchman and they settled, and sold to T. J. Hicks. Some of the Hicks girls live around Afton. Tom Hicks isn't to be mistaken or confused with T. J. Hicks the Methodist preacher from Matador who once pastored the Afton Church, and in reality built the first Methodist Church there.
 Another old timer was Haywood Alford who settled about a mile east of Afton on the north of the highway, sold to Bill Young. Young, I think, sold to Formby. Alford moved to New Mexico. Carlos Alford married Annie Jackson, Uncle Joe's oldest girl, and they went to New Mexico together.
 Haywood, Alford and Joe Jackson were like Johnathan and David, as brothers together. Haywood came back one on a visit, and he and Joe put their arms around each other and wept as though their hearts were broken. That could be termed a confident, happy respect for each other.
 Jeff Eubanks, a one-eyed bachelor, lived for a time down the draw from where Joe Jackson's home was when he died.
 I believe Will Jackson bought or owned a part of the Eubank's lands while Davis Chambers bought the balance.

Cost of living went thataway...

Price of electricity went thisaway

Actually in homes served by WTU, the average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electric service is 30% LESS than it was ten years ago!

In the last 25 years, the price of just about everything you buy has gone way up. Yet the price of electricity has gone down. Your bill may be higher, but that's because you put electricity to so many more uses.

How have we been able to keep power prices down? Well, partly because we're always looking for the best ways to serve you.
