Kitty's Korner

Ozona law officers have had a busy week and some of them are wondering if their efforts will be in vain in view of past judicial decisions around the country. We are in such a habit of coddling criminals, one could almost believe the next step will be the arrest of the victims instead of the perpetrators.

This brings to mind the modern day version of "Little Red Riding Hood," I saw reprinted in the Wink Bulletin last week. As ridiculous as it sounds, it might not be far from the truth. Read it and ask some of the local law enforcement officers how far from the truth it really is:

"Once upon a time there was a little girl called Red Riding Hood. One day her mother asked her to take a basket of food to her grandmother who was ill and lived alone in a cottage in the forest.

"Red Riding Hood was happy to go as she loved the walk through the woods. However, as it happened a wolf was lurking in the bushes and overheard the conversation. He took a short cut and got to grandmother's house in time to kill and devour her. He then dressed in her nightgown and jumped into bed to wait for the little girl.

"When she arrived and the wolf tried to grab her, she was frightened and ran screaming from the cottage. A woodcutter working nearby heard her cries and rushed to her rescue. He killed the wolf with his axe, saving the child's life and all the townspeople proclaimed him a hero.

"But several facts emerged at the inquest. First of all, the wolf had never been advised of his rights. Second, the woodcutter had made no warning swings before he struck the fatal blow.

"Investigators pointed out that although the act of eating grandma may have been in bad taste, the wolf was only 'doing his thing' and did not deserve the death penalty.

"Some contended that the killing of the grandmother should be considered self-defense because she was over 30, and therefore could not be taken seriously.

"It was decided then, that there was actually no basis for charges against the wolf. The woodcutter, however, was indicted for unaggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

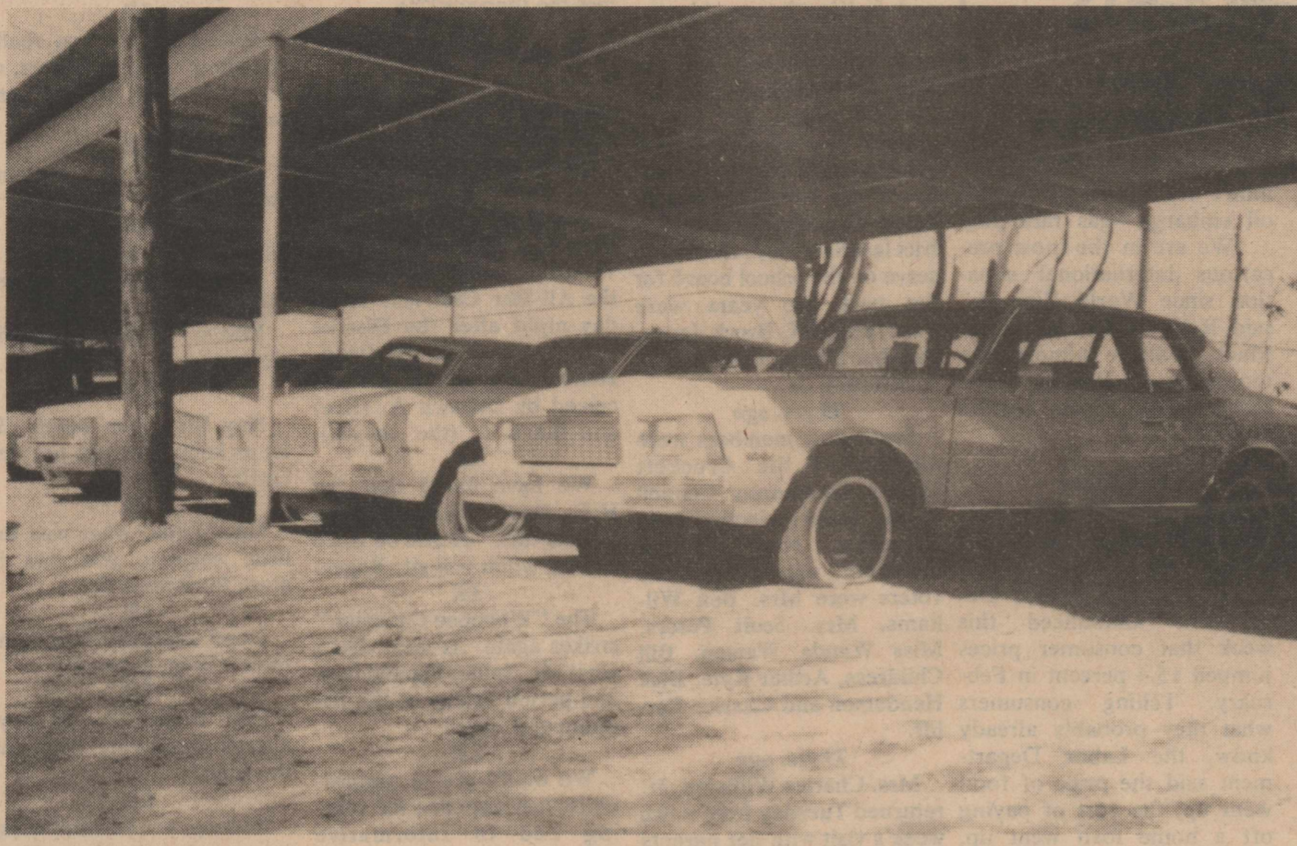

"Several nights later the woodcutter's cottage was burned to the ground. Within a week woodcutter's cottages throughout the countryside were burned as a protest against violence.

"Then one morning the woodcutter's body was found in the woods. At first it was thought he had been attacked by a pack of dissident wolves whose motive was revenge for their slain comrad. But the investigation committee decided that he had been overcome by massive guilt feelings and had killed himself.

"One year from the date of the incident at grandma's, her cottage was turned into a shrine for the wolf who had bed and died there. All the village officials spoke at the dedication.

"It was Red Riding Hood, however, who gave the final tribute. She said that, while she had been selfishly grateful for the woodcutter's intervention, she realized in retrospect that he had overreacted.

"As she knelt and placed a wreath in honor of the brave wolf, there was not a dry eye in the forest."

VANDALISM TAKES ITS TOLL-At first glance you might think these cars were parked in holes in the ground, but on closer inspection the uneven stances can be attributed to slashed tires. Twenty new cars and trucks parked under the shed at L-B Motors had tires slashed late Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Authorities are questioning an Ozona juvenile as a prime suspect in the case. Damage was estimated up to $5,000. The same night seven shots were fired through the glass front at the Red Apple. The Sheriff's Department has a description of the automobile from which the shots were fired.

Two elections on tap Sat.

Ozona voters will go to the polls Saturday to cast ballots for two new school board trustees and to vote on the separation of the sheriff-tax assessor collector office. The separate elections will be held on the same day, with all school board balloting at the courthouse and the separation election held in the various precincts. Only voters in precinct 1 will be able to make one stop do it. The school board election will be held in the commissioners courtroom or law library downstairs and the separation election will be held in the district courtroom. Precincts 2 and 3 voters will cast ballots at the Civic Center and those living in precinct 4 will vote at the Primary School. There will also be boxes at Powell Field and the power plant.

Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. for the school board election. The separation election will have polls open from 7 until 7.

Thirty-three persons had cast absentee ballots as of Monday afternoon, a very light turnout compared with the 2656 registered voters in the county.

There are three candidates for the two places on the school board. Joe Bean and Sam Perner, who filed for re-election are opposed by Jack Bailey. Bean, current president of the board, has served several terms, as has Sam Perner, currently serving as vice-president. Bailey is a local oil man.

The countywide election to separate the offices of sheriff and tax assessor collector, if passed, would make the two positions separate elected officials instead of one as in the past. The offices are already separate, but for years the sheriff has been tax assessor-collector by title. A new state law will soon require all persons with the tax assessor-collector title to be registered and certified. Many counties with a population under 10,000 are being faced with this situation.

Most sheriffs consider heading up a county's law enforcement department a full time job and do not feel they have the time to be schooled and certified in tax work.

If the proposition passes the commissioners court will appoint a tax assessor-collector and the office will be on the ballot for election next year.

No bids on fire station construction

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in a special meeting to open bids for the new fire station, only to find that no bids had been submitted.

According to reports, seventeen contractors picked up plans and specifications. The matter will be taken up at the regular meeting of the court Monday.

Fierro Services Friday

Funeral services for Macluvia A. Fierro, 65, were held at 3 p.m. Friday in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church with burial in Lima Cemetery.

Mr. Fierro died at 2:35 a.m. Thursday in Crockett County Hospital.

He was born Oct. 15, 1913, in Mexico and married Angelita Fierro Nov. 11, 1933 in Ozona.

Survivors include his wife;

two daughters, Frances Delgado of Lubbock and Tonia Trevino of Grand Prairie; three sons, Manuel Fierro, Chon Fierro and Maclovio Fierro, Jr., all of Ozona; two sisters, Manuela Perez of Ozona and Genoveva Gonzales of Utah; three brothers, Refugio Fierro and Juan Fierro, both of Ozona and Sepriano Fierro of Marble Falls; 18 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Youth charged in dog killing

Greg Wall, an Ozona High School student, was arrested Tuesday and placed under a $4,000 bond for the killing of a pet poodle belonging to a Big Spring family. The dog had been shot at close range with a shotgun and his head had been kicked in. Wall was awaiting trial in Crockett County Jail Tuesday night.

The poodle was the pet and constant companion of an ill child. The family was returning to Big Spring from a fishing trip when they stopped in Ozona for gas Sunday night. They were in two vehicles and had reached

Big Lake before they discovered the dog was in neither vehicle. They returned to the service station in Ozona and were told two boys took the dog and tried to catch the family. When they questioned the boys, they were told that when they were unable to catch up with the vehicles, they returned and let the dog out near the service station.

The mother and the ill child came in the Stockman office Monday morning to place an ad in the paper. They were sure the pet would be found. He was white with apricot ears, was wearing a silver collar with a blue stone set in it and had ribbons tied in its top knot. His name was "Skeeter." The mother told of major surgery performed on the little boy when he was younger and gave Skeeter the credit for the child's life. He was watched over constantly by the little dog, and was his sleeping partner as well as his everyday playmate.

Deputy Sheriff Wayne Wahl was led to the body of the dog Monday night by one of the boys, according to reports. He also told officers the Wall boy shot the dog and when it failed to die immediately, he kicked it in the head until it was dead. District Attorney Dixon Mahon issued a warrant for Wall's arrest and he was charged with a Class A misdemeanor and placed under a $4,000 bond. He had not made bail Tuesday night. According to Mahon, he will be tried in county court and Judge Johnny Jones will be out of town until next week.

IGNOBLE END FOR A NOBLE BEAST-The body of "Skeeter," a white poodle and the constant companion of an ill child, was found under the bridge on Hwy. 290 Monday night. He had been shot at close range with a shotgun and his head had been kicked to a pulp. A high school boy has been charged in the crime. [see story]

Ozona men die of gunshot wounds

Gunshot wounds were responsible for the deaths of two Ozona men over the weekend. Jesse Segars and Clifford Crawford were fatally injured in two separate incidents.

Segars, 49, was found dead at his home at 301 12th St. at 9:30 a.m. Friday morning. When he failed to show up for work at the Highway Department and failed to answer his telephone, his immediate superior went to his home to check on him. Feeling something was wrong, he called Sheriff Billy Mills. Officers entered the residence and found Segars dead of a gunshot wound to the chest and a 30-30 rifle nearby. The bullet entered the chest and exited through the back, crashing through a front window.

An autopsy report has not been returned to county officials, but the death has been listed accident or suicide. Tests indicated Segars himself fired the rifle. No foul play was ever suspected, according to officials.

Crawford was killed by an accidental gunshot wound while on a fishing trip with his wife in the Langry area. Reports from officials indicated he had a .22 calibre pistol stuck in his belt when he fell and the gun discharged, hitting him in a vital spot. Mrs. Crawford ran for help and some unidentified campers assisted her in taking him to Val Verde Hospital in Del Rio where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 2:45 p.m. Sunday.

Funeral services for Jesse Segars were held Sunday afternoon in First Baptist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

He was born May 23, 1929, in Winston-Salem, N.C. and was an engineer-technician with the Texas Highway Department. He had lived in Ozona about ten years. He was a member of First Baptist Church and a veteran of the Korean War. He was a part time photographer for the Ozona Stockman.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ken (Karen) Epller of McCombs; three sisters, Mrs. Betty Vaughn of San Antonio, Mrs. Frances Drago of Victoria, and Mrs. Johnnie Sue Moore of Tucker Ga.; a brother, J.C. Segars of Tucker, Ga.; two half brothers, Ralph Segars of College Station and Edwin Segars of South Carolina, and a granddaughter.

The Crawford services were scheduled for 10:30 this morning, April 4, in First Baptist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

He was born Clifford Eugene Crawford, Dec. 23, 1959, in Menard. He graduated from Ozona High School and married Sally Cawley, Sept. 3, 1977 in Eldorado. He was a member of Calvary Baptist Church and a plant operator for Indian Wells Oil Co.

Survivors include his wife, Sally; a daughter, Jimmie Grace; two sisters, Karen L. Bishop and Teresa Crawford, all of Ozona; four brothers, Ricky Crawford of Iraan, Randy Crawford, Danny Crawford and Terry Crawford, all of Ozona. His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crawford of Ozona; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnett of Ozona, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Crawford of Eden.

Schneider services today

Funeral services for Mrs. Lee (Myrtle) Schneider, 74, will be held this afternoon, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock in the Ozona Church of Christ with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

Mrs. Schneider died Tuesday at 6:30 a.m. in Shannon Hospital in San Angelo where she had been transferred after suffering a heart attack at her home here Sunday afternoon.

She was born Myrtle Amelia Fiest, April 8, 1905 in Barclay. She was married to Robert Lee Schneider April 24, 1926. He died July 2, 1951. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include one son, Charles Lee Schneider of Ozona; two brothers, Clarence Fiest of Mercury and Al Fiest of Comanche; two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Q: I received the final billing for some merchandise we recently purchased and paid for it with a check marked PAID IN FULL. The store cashed my check but the following month sent another bill for payment. Am I legally expected to pay this second bill? What can I do to make sure this won't give me "bad credit"?

A: Assuming you did pay the account in full, you are not obligated to pay the second bill. In general, unless there is a genuine dispute between the debtor and creditor as to the amount owed, the mere payment of a check for less than the total will NOT discharge the debt, even if the check is marked "PAID IN FULL."

Q: My ex-husband has, in effect, kidnapped my son right out of my yard. I know the child is also his, but in our divorce, I received total custody rights. I don't want my son to live with him. What can I do? Can he be arrested for kidnapping his own son?

A: When a child has been taken from the managing conservator — that is, the person given custody of the child in the decree of divorce — by the other parent — the proper remedy is a writ of habeas corpus.

Q: When my divorce was granted, my share of the settlement included the family cemetery plots. I have since discovered that two of these already have people buried on them. Is there anything I can do to have the bodies moved out of our family plot?

A: You must obtain the consent of the cemetery association and of the surviving spouse of the deceased; if there is no surviving spouse, then of the children, and if there are no children, then of the brothers or sisters of the deceased. If you cannot obtain the consent of any such person or of the cemetery association, you must obtain permission from the County Court in the county in which the cemetery is located. In addition, you must obtain a written order of the health department having jurisdiction, or of the county court of any county in which the cemetery is located, permitting you to remove the remains.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Top oil industry executives came to the State Capitol this week to deliver what amounted to somber predictions about this country's ability in the future to get reasonably priced fuel needed to power the nation's economy.

Oil company executives spoke at the Texas Railroad Commission's annual state-of-the-industry report. And, from the outset, it must be said that the "state" of the industry appears good. Government figures show that oil company profits jumped almost 30 percent in the first quarter of this year.

Overall, corporate profits increased more than 26 percent in the same period. And, the 1978 federal decontrol act is expected to mean $1 to $3 billion in additional revenues this year for oil and gas companies.

But it wasn't skyrocketing profits that oil executives came to talk about this week. It's the forecasted shortages of what they sell that has them worried.

Executive vice president James E. Barnes of Conoco Oil Co. said a serious gasoline shortage may grip the nation in two months unless the tap in Iran is turned back on and oil begins to flow to the U.S. again.

Barnes and John K. McKinley, president of Texaco, Inc., sounded what has become the oil industry's catch-all phrase to end all problems: "more decontrol."

Barnes, McKinley and colleagues claimed Texas alone has 100 billion barrels of known reserves not being sucked out of the ground with present technology because there is no profit in such undertakings and present regulations are prohibitive.

But U.S. Congressman Bob Eckhardt of Texas said in a press conference in Washington this week that more decontrol would not produce a surge in exploration.

Eckhardt pointed out that U.S. oil producers plan to drill 49,379 wells this year. That's the highest number of planned drillings since 1959. But on the other side of those numbers, is the simple fact that for more than 100 years the U.S. was the world's largest producer of oil. No longer.

Today, the United States is by far the world's biggest consumer of oil. And as a nation we have slipped to third behind Russia and Saudi Arabia in the production of crude oil. While our appetite for oil has gone up, our ability to find it and get it out of the ground has gone down.

Meanwhile, predictions are that gasoline will soon climb to $1 a gallon. The rising price of fuel already is one of the biggest contributing factors to a 10-12 percent annual inflation rate. But even more importantly, the primary reason for our worldwide economic power — cheap fuel — may be long gone. For years, Europeans and the rest of the world have paid heavily for gasoline and other crude oil products.

Spot shortages of gasoline already exist in the U.S. One spokesman for a farm supply cooperative in the Texas Panhandle claims some tractors are standing idle because of no diesel fuel.

Sunday closings at gas stations are for the most part the rule now not the exception. And those who remember the oil crunch of 1973, say what may be around the corner is something we

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After such a long, severe winter we have been surprised to have so many trees to burst into their beautiful bloom the last two weeks. Especially the fruit and red buds have been unusually full and colorful. Another colorful spot is the tulip display in the Max Schneeman yard just west of the post office on 12 Street.

Try to finish planting trees and shrubs this month before the weather becomes so warm than newly set plants must undergo additional stress.

Inspect all your plants closely at least once a week so that you can control insect problems as soon as they appear.

If you are starting a blue bonnet area in your landscape you can improve the flowering by pinching out the first flower stalk. This forces the plant to make a bigger leaf rosette at the base of the plant; more flowers, and a longer blooming season result.

You may have never noticed the delicately foliated vine of yellow jasmine, also called Carolina jasmine. It blooms from February through April. Again in the fall it puts on another flower show, making it one of the few vines with a recurring bloom. Even though it is an evergreen, the foliage will turn a subdued bronze color that lasts until spring. This vine has almost limitless home landscape uses. It can be in a naturalistic planting, or it can climb and twine through the top of an arbor where it will provide summer shade and the fragrant blossoms can be enjoyed. Yellow jasmine need not climb to be attractive. It is handsome as a ground cover on steep banks or weaving among stone or railroad tie construction of retaining walls. Another fine use is in elevated

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gene Maness of Eldorado announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Vonda Glynn, to Stanley Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Flanagan. The wedding will take place August 25, in the Eldorado Church of Christ. The bride-elect is a graduate of Eldorado High School and is employed with Fesco, Inc. in Ozona. Mr. Flanagan, a graduate of Ozona High School, is employed with Jay Miller Construction.

UIL contest results

Ozona Junior High School students participated in the annual University Interscholastic League competition held Saturday, March 31, in Kermit.

Students placing in the various areas of competition are as follows:
Placing first in Number Sense was Robert Massey. Darla Lovell placed 4th and Michelle Couch, 5th.
Placing in Spelling and Plain Writing were Dennis Young, 3rd, and Katrina Burger, 5th.

planters where it will fall over the container's edge.

It will grow in full or partial sun (flowers better in full sun.) Yellow jasmine prefers rich soil, similar to the friable loams of its native woodland habitat, but will adapt itself to a variety of soil conditions from slightly acid to slightly alkaline. Once planted, it requires little attention except for occasional thinning. Remember this is clean-up month.

Karise Aycock took 4th and Katrina Phillips 6th place in Ready Writing.

Tying for 6th place in Science were Michelle Couch and Cynthia Trujillo.

Other students participating in this event were: Carlos Borrego, Santa Castro, Nomi Gonzales, Cynthia Hartnett, Lydia Hayes, Elizabeth Jones, Melissa Layman, Jacinda Marley, Lisa McWilliams, Maricella Payne and Becky Ybarra.

High School students participated in the UIL meet at Angelo State University Saturday and Joel Sanchez, senior, placed second in Informative Speaking, becoming the only OHS student to qualify for further competition.

The only other students placing were Jack Thompson, fourth in Persuasive Speaking, and Clair McDaniel, fourth in slide rule. There were 24 entries in the high school division and entered in eleven events.

Debra Says

By Debra Price

Get canning equipment and supplies ready—harvest and preservation season for garden fresh fruits and vegetables is just around the corner.

Canning is one of the oldest methods of preserving food. Proper canning insures safe food by processing food with high heat and protecting it with an airtight seal.

Heat destroys harmful bacteria and other microorganisms that cause food spoilage.

Also, heat inactivates enzymes that could cause undesirable changes in flavor, color and texture.

Two processing methods to use in home canning are water bath and steam pressure.

The acidity of the food is the chief factor in determining which method to use.

For low acid foods such as meat, poultry, fish and vegetables, use a steam pressure canner—a heavy pan with a rack and cover which can be clamped down to make it tight.

The cover is fitted with a safety valve which will blow out if the pressure gets too great, a petcock to drive air out and a pressure gauge.

Keep all these parts of the pressure canner clean and in working order. Use directions for testing gauges once a year. Food needs 10 pounds of pressure for processing to insure that food reaches the recommended temperature.

If the rubber gasket becomes hard, soak it in boiling water and stretch it to keep steam from escaping.

For high acid foods such as tomatoes, fruits and pickled vegetables, the appropriate equipment is a water bath canner.

This could be any large pan with straight sides, a cover and a rack to keep jars from resting on the bottom of the pan, thus allowing water to move freely around the jars.

Use a pan that is deep enough to allow the jar tops to be covered one to two inches and have space to gently boil.

Large soup kettles could serve as water bath canners.

No matter what method of canning, use only standard, mason jars made especially for canning.

These usually have the name of the manufacturer on the side and are heat tempered to withstand steam pressure during processing and vacuum after cooling.

Also, they are mechanically shock resistant.

Never use jars with nicks or cracks.

There are a number of lids on the market. The most common type is the two piece flat metal lid edged with sealing compound and held in place by a metal screw band.

Other equipment to have on hand ready for the canning season is:

A jar lifter that can grip the container will help when handling the hot jars.

Tongs for removing lid and screw bands from the hot water are helpful.

A saucepan is needed for heating the lids. The size will depend on the number of jars.

A wide mouthed funnel and a cup-like ladle for pouring liquids and filling jars will help keep the jars clean and facilitate the filling process.

If the top of the jar is unclean, then the jars will not seal properly.

This equipment is essential to proper food canning.

For further home canning information, contact your County Extension Office (2-2721).

Talk Time

Communication... that's the name of the game. As long as you keep the channels open, you are in business. People don't get divorces when they can sit across a breakfast table and smile at each other, sharing coffee and conversation. People seldom get fired when they can express themselves, make their ideas known, say what they think.

And there's another kind of communication. The kind you find in church... with your pastor... with the other people in the congregation... but, most of all, with God.

Don't miss out.

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas

Activities Program Director

Well, here it is, column time again and I have been dashing around finding out what transpired at the Center while I was gone last week. It's always nice to get home, and I am glad to be back with all my people again.

The winners not mentioned last week, because there was no column, for the two weeks were: Bingo-Ruby Cooksey and Ola Mills winning the gift certificates, and Frances Borrego and Pop Bonnell winning second prizes.

At dominoes the winners were Mike Pena, Paul Cavin, and coming in second were Ruby Cooksey, Swede Lundgren, and Ola Mills and Leona Harris tying for second place.

The hats were finished last Tuesday and ready for the contest which will be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. immediately before Easter, which is the afternoon of the 12th. The public is invited. Ceramics was held as usual last Tuesday morning and items are on display at the Arts and Crafts Show this week.

Ann Mayo introduced cassette tapes for Bible class on the Book of James which were enjoyed by all members.

Birthdays this month are Frances Borrego, April 1, and Jessie Deaton on April 27. The birthday party will be held next Monday at 3:30 p.m. honoring these two special ladies; family members are invited, of course.

Last night I started my classes in San Angelo (Monday). They were to have run from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. but by general vote of the class and the cooperation of the instructors we have moved them up an hour to 5 p.m. which will, at least, put me home by eleven, I hope! These will be twice a week, the other night being Thursday, until June 11. It is going to be hectic, but as the popular song says "I'll Survive." I should be better versed in such subjects as gerontology, and a few other ologies concerning social care by the time I am through, and if the first session is anything to go by, it is going to be very interesting, informative, and fun.

Last night, after the general orientation we covered "Myths on Aging" and "The Nursing Home Setting." Coming up Thursday will be "Historical Roles of the Elderly," "U.S. Legislation; Target Groups," and "Aging Population."

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the following volunteers who have served during the past few weeks, also Ann Mayo for helping out while I was away: Rosa, Casiana, Melissa and James Fierro, Veva Vargas, Doris Kilgore, Velma Marley, Grace Dorsey, Glenda Winkley, Blanche Walker, Irma Galindo, Mickey Arredondo, Doris Karr, Liz Mary Pipes, Alice Ross, Georgia Kirby, Sophie Kyle, Beth Justus, Carol Carlisle, and Thelma Janes.

Junior Auxiliary was Patty Lanier, Phillis and Tasha Light, Leonora, Ida and Yvette Martinez.

Additional hats were brought in for decorating by Mrs. Welton Bunker, Mrs. Leon Dowdy, Mrs. Nunally, Alice Ross, and Mrs. Beardmore. We thank you for cooperating in our project.

Boyd to take over pharmacy

Kirk Boyd will take over the duties of pharmacist at the Village Drug April 16, replacing Clayton Robinson, who is opening his own pharmacy in Thornton's Super Market.

Kirk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyd, owners of the drug store. He is a graduate of Ozona High School and the University of Texas School of Pharmacy with honors. He has been working in the pharmacy in Gibsons in Midland for the past four years. He will take over the pharmacy at the Village and assist his parents in running the drug store.

His wife, Wynonah, and daughter, Crystal, will move to Ozona when the school term is out.

"If the IRS calls you in, we'll go with you. No extra charge!"

Henry W. Block

When we prepare your return, we stand behind our work. So if the IRS should call you in, H&R Block will go along with you at no charge. Not as your legal representative, but to answer any questions about how your taxes were prepared. That's another reason why we should do your taxes...which ever form you use, short or long.

P.L. Childress returns from land bank meeting .....

Pleas L. Childress, Jr. of Ozona, has just returned from Houston where he represented The Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora at the 34th Annual Stockholders Meeting of The Federal Land Bank of Houston. The meeting, held at the Houston Oaks Hotel, was attended by members of 64 Federal Land Bank Associations in Texas. There were about 650 persons in attendance.

Thomas H. Benson, President, in his report to the stockholders, stated that there was an increasing demand for new loans in 1978. This was the second largest year in the Bank's history with $245.5 million in loans and it appears the demand for loans will continue.

"In this time of historic highs in interest rates the advantages of the variable rate loans is apparent to the farmers and ranchers of Texas. Eighty-seven percent of our loans are on the variable rate, and our borrowers have 8 1/2% interest rate as compared with the 11 1/4% prime rate," Benson said.

Speakers for the meeting included Dr. Gary Schwendiman, Dean, College of Business Administration, University of Nebraska at Lincoln; Joe Griffith, a humorist from Dallas; Jeannette Clift George of Houston and David Alders, 1978

National Future Farmers of America public speaking winner from Nacogdoches, Texas.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long-term loans on farms and ranches and currently has 35,020 loans for approximately $1.5 billion outstanding.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora makes and services loans in this area. Members of the Board of Directors are Frank P. Bond, Otis Deal, Pleas L.

Childress, Jr., Frank F. McMullan, Jr. and James T. Williams, Jr.

Others attending the meeting from this area were James T. Williams, Jr. and Otis Deal of Eldorado and A.E. Prugel of Sonora.

Now is time to fertilize trees

Now is the time to fertilize your pecan and fruit trees according to Billy Reagor, County Extension Agent. It is important to have the proper nutrients available to trees in the proper amounts during Spring and early Summer when the tree is growing fast and setting fruit.

Many people prefer to use compost and other organic materials around their trees as a fertilizer. This is fine but remember it must decompose before nutrients are released to the tree for its use. These organic materials serve as a good mulch to hold water for long periods of time. Those that do not use these organic materials have to supplement the soil by applying commercial fertilizers.

The main ingredient needed for fruit and nut trees is nitrogen. Nitrogen increases tree growth and causes leaves to be dark green. Dark green leaves is a must for producing good crops. Most fertilizers contain nitrogen in various quantities. Some common nitrogen fertilizers are ammonium sulfate and ammonium nitrate. However, there are other fertilizers available which also contain phosphorous and potassium.

ASCS to take ACP applications

The ASCS office will start taking applications for cost-sharing of practices under the 1979 ACP. Competitive Shrub Control (formerly brush control) is now in the 1979 program.

Both chemical and mechanical control have been approved. Livestock water wells and livestock water pipelines are also eligible for cost-share assistance.

Ranchers may begin signing applications Monday, April 9, at the ASCS office. Requirements will be basically the same as last year. However, a request must be filed and approved by the county committee before practice is started.

When buying fertilizer there will be three numbers on a sack or bag such as 6-8-8. The first number represents the percent nitrogen, the second, the percent phosphorous and the third, the percent potassium. A 50 pound sack of 6-8-8 would contain 3 pounds of nitrogen, 4 pounds of phosphorous and 4 pounds of potassium. A sack of ammonium sulfate will have the numbers 21-0-0 printed on it indicating 21 percent nitrogen and no phosphorous or potassium. The various fruit trees should be fertilized as follows:

Apples-apply .16 pounds of nitrogen for each year of tree age. Do not exceed 2 pounds of nitrogen in any year.

Peaches, cherries, pears, Plums-apply .16 pounds of nitrogen for each year of tree age. Do not exceed 1 pound of nitrogen in any one year. Also Nectarines and apricots.

Pecans and walnuts-apply .3 pounds of nitrogen per inch of trunk diameter.

All fertilizers should be applied beneath the outer edge of the branches all around the tree and watered in with a hose or sprinkler. For deep rooted trees like pecan or walnut the best method is to punch holes 18 inches deep at three foot intervals around the tree and fill the holes with fertilizer. Pecan trees also need the essential element zinc. This should be put in the holes at the rate of one pound of zinc sulfate per inch of trunk diameter.

SPORTS FANSI

By Jerry Lay

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Here's a true story about what happened one day to the great golfer Bobby Jones--and, this is a story that illustrates the real meaning of the word "sportsmanship"...Jones was playing in the National Open of 1925 at Worcester...His ball went into the rough, and then accidentally moved very slightly when Jones's club touched a nearby blade of grass...Reporters later said that NOBODY saw the ball move...Jones, however, asked that he be penalized a stroke... Everyone tried to talk him out of taking the penalty because no one saw the ball move...But Jones insisted and as it turned out, that stroke cost him the title that year...Someone later asked Jones why he'd done it...He said, "That's the only way to play the game"...Is there a better definition of sportsmanship than that?

What was the longest fight on record?...Most boxing records show that the longest glove fight ever was between Andy Bowen and Jack Burke in New Orleans in 1893... Their bout lasted 110 rounds, or 7 hours and 19 minutes!..It ended as a draw when neither man could continue.

I bet you didn't know... L-B Motors is the place to go to see the car of your choice. There are many Chevrolets, Cadillacs, Oldsmobiles, Pontiacs and Buicks. Take your pick!!
