Band Marches To First Place For 11th Year

The Ozona Lion Marching Band, under the field direction of Drum Major Melanie Lozano and musical direction of Kelly Glaze, assisted by Norman Carroll, traveled to Brady Saturday for the annual Region VII Marching Contest. For the 11th consecutive year and 12 of the past 13 years, the Lion Band earned a Division I or superior rating from all three judges on the panel.

The music selections for the contest show were "Mustang" featuring the quartet of Adam Carroll, trumpet; Emily Stuart, french horn; Rene Tambunga, trombone; and Marty Martinez, trombone.

Following "Mustang", the percussion section was featured in the selection "Oh, Susanna" while the rest of the Lion Band performed an intricate marching routine. To contrast the high knee lift style of marching, the band used a glide step marching style and featured trombone soloist Marty Martinez in the ballad "Sloop John B." Following a short percussion transition cadence, the band concluded the contest show with the up tempo march "Ovation".

Judging the U.I.L. Region VII Marching Contest were Bryant Harris from Sundown, Daryl Trent from Frisco and Pat Norton from Seguin.

In that this is the even number contest year, only 3A and 5A schools can advance to the next level of competition. A, 2A and 4A schools advance only in odd number years.

The directors were very pleased with the hard work and effort demonstrated by the Lion Band members this year, and most appreciative of the police escort and community support shown these talented students upon their arrival to town.

SENIOR CLASS MEMBERS OF THE OZONA LION BAND proudly show the trophy the band earned Saturday at Region VII Marching Contest. This is the band's 11th consecutive year to earn a first division in marching contest.

Deerfest Association Elects Officers, Prepares For Big Event

On Wednesday, Oct. 12, the Crockett County Deerfest Association held its annual meeting. Officers elected were: John L. Henderson, president; Vaden Aldridge, first vice-president; Mike Preddy, second vice president; and Laurie Hale, secretary-treasurer.

Directors are: Will Thompson, J. T. Hibdon, Pete Maldonado, Vince Huffman, Garland Young, Keith Olive and Jeffrey Stuart.

The association approved a $25,000 donation to the Fair Park Convention Center Building Fund and will also donate 60 percent of Deer-Fest profits each year until the convention center is paid for.

Tickets and caps are on sale at local businesses and at both banks. If you need tickets or caps, you can contact Will Thompson at 392-3292 or go by The Outpost. Tickets are $1.00 each.

This year's Deerfest promises to be the best one yet. Approximately 100 plus guns will be given away along with many more prizes. The grand prize, a Polaris 4-wheeler, will be given away at the end of the evening.

The 1994 Deerfest will be the official grand opening for the Fair Park Convention Center. Fast serving lines, seating for 1400 and added restrooms promise to make the evening a great experience.

The Deerfest Association would like to thank all the people and businesses who helped with last year's show, and all the ticket buyers. Without the community support you have shown, the show could not go on.

County 4-H Food Show Set For Saturday

4-Hers have selected their best recipes, planned a day's menus, and completed their project work just in time for this Saturday's (Oct. 29) annual Crockett County 4-H Food Show.

The food show will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church's Parish Hall. Contestants will begin arriving at 9 a.m., with judging from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m. Public viewing and tasting of dishes in the food show will be held from 11:15 to 11:45 a.m., and the awards ceremony will take place at 11:45 a.m.

All interested persons are invited to attend the food show and support the 4-H members. There is no charge to attend, and guest will receive a free cookbook with all the recipes as well as the opportunity to see and sample each dish.

According to Tedra Ulmer, County Extension Agent, "These 4-H members and the parents have put in many long hours in project lessons, preparations for the food show, and in studying their nutrition information."

Ulmer noted that the contestants in the food show are judged in three age divisions: Junior, grades 3-5; Intermediate, grade 6 up to age 14 as of January 1, 1995; and Senior, age 14 as of January 1995. There are seven different categories from which contestants may choose: Main Dish, Breads & Cereals, Nutritious Snacks & Desserts, Fruits & Vegetables, Pork, Lamb and Beef. First place winners from these categories in each age division will advance to district competition on Dec. 3 in Fort Stockton.

The 4-H members will be judged on the quality of their dish, their knowledge of the preparation and nutrition of the dish, knowledge about menu planning, and their communication skills. Each age group has a list of questions ranging from knowledge of the basic food groups and servings needed each day to the activities they completed during their project.

Crockett County 4-Hers have been fortunate to enjoy a number of different learning activities. They began the project with a Saturday workshop which featured fitness, learning to measure ingredients properly, and eating nutritious foods. Each Monday night throughout September and October, the group has met for lessons on garnishing and food preparation, beef nutrition and food safety, menu planning, exercise and nutrition for athletes, lowering fat, sodium and sugar in foods and preparing for the food show.

In addition, 22 youth and 10 adults attended the Southern Living Cooking School in San Angelo on Oct. 23. They viewed demonstrations on decorative pie crust ideas, deglazing plans, eliminating fat by using evaporated skim milk or nonfat yogurt in place of cream, garnishing and presentation, and tricks for making a successful soufflé.

Part of group ate at Chinese Kitchen and toured Pier 1 as part of their day's activities. One lucky 4-H'er, Erin Castro, was chosen to sit on stage at the cooking school and sample some of the delicious recipes prepared by the Southern Living Home Economist. Other 4-Hers met the Pillsbury Doughboy and brought home neat gelatin molds with cookie cutters for the holidays.

Ulmer noted the food show would not be possible without the support of local merchants and individuals. A complete list of donors will be published in next week's Stockman. "If you have not been contacted but would like to contribute, please contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721," said Ulmer.

The agent also thanked the individuals and organizations who have assisted with the project, including the Methodist and Catholic churches and the civic center for use of their facilities, Cecelia Schwartz of Garden City and Will Thompson of Ozona for presenting programs, Senior 4-Hers JoLynn Vannoy, Tara Wilkins, Amy Laughlin, Lauren Wilkins and Camelia Williams for assisting with lessons, Junior 4-H members Amanda Carson, Codi Richardson, Ty Porter, Kyle Richardson and Trey Hale for presenting programs, and all the parents and leaders who have helped with supervision, transportation and supplies.

"We especially thank our donor committee, including Laurie Hale, Kathy Hall, Debra Vordick and Robin McNeely for their help in contacting donors," said Ulmer who noted that funds are used for supplies, awards and other expenses incurred in the Foods and Clothing projects as well as other home economics-related projects during the year. "By having money to help pay for supplies and awards, we can keep the cost down so that every 4-H member can participate in the lessons and workshops," she said.

For more information about the foods and nutrition project or the food show, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Educational programs and information provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Individuals with disabilities who require an auxiliary aid, service or accommodation in order to participate in this meeting are encouraged to contact Tedra Ulmer at the number above to determine how reasonable accommodations can be made.

League Bazaar To Feature Special-Order Baking

Too busy to bake for the holidays? Let Ozona Woman's League take you out of the kitchen with their scrumptious home-baked goodies, available by order at their annual bazaar on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the civic center.

Woman's League members are gearing up to bake cakes, pies, cobblers, cookies, candies, quick breads, dinner rolls and meat casseroles. For more information on specific dishes offered this year and their prices, either check the posters which will be going up around town soon, or call food committee members Tina Bean at 392-3334 or Peggy Logan at 392-5470. They'll be happy to provide information or take an order.

For those who have made foods from bazaar a holiday tradition at their home, it's important to be aware there is a cut-off date this year for ordering food. No orders will be taken after Friday, Nov. 11. In addition, there will be fewer extra baked goods offered for sale the day of the bazaar - so to get the items you want, the food committee suggests you special-order ahead of time.

If you haven't made bazaar goodies a ritual at your house, this is the year to do so. The money you spend at bazaar goes right back into the community through scholarships, charities, educational programs and equipment for the schools, civic improvements and much more. Each year, proceeds from the "Diamonds in the Desert" cookbook and bazaar help League to invest as much as $10,000 into worthwhile projects in Ozona and Crockett County.

For those of you on a diet, don't forget that craft items will also be offered at the bazaar. It's the perfect place to "shop ahead" for Christmas and support your community at the same time. Everyone is encouraged to put Nov. 22 on their calendar and bring their friends to the bazaar.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT THROUGH DONATIONS continues to come in to the Fair Park Convention Center. John L. Henderson of the building committee accepts two checks for $5,000 to add to the building fund.

Making the presentations are Randy Branch, (r) president of Ozona Lions Club, with that organization's donation, and Robert Bryson for West Texas Utilities. Bryson, utilities company manager, and employees Armando Arredondo, Randy Wilson, Marina Vallejo and Marta De La Garza share the Lions Club's beliefs voiced by Branch that the convention center will be a good thing for the community, bringing out of town conventions and enhancing the business of hotels, restaurants, everything to do with Ozona.

Halloween Carnival Monday Night

Ozona Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the annual Halloween Carnival Monday night, Oct. 31. The evening begins with a costume parade at 6 p.m. This year the starting point has changed. Contest entrants will line up in the parking lot in front of the school administration building. Ribbons will be given to all entries, and first, second and third place ribbons will be given in the four age divisions. They are: five and under, six to 10, 11-18 and 19 and over.

Those who want to enter the pumpkin decorating contest may do so at the gazebo on the square between 6 and 7 p.m. Again, ribbons will be given to all entries and first, second and third place ribbons will be given in all age groups.

Community organizations sponsoring events at the carnival are: Alpha Alpha Mu and Preceptor Mu Chi chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Helping Hands, Crockett County Arts and Crafts Guild, Ozona Southside Lions and Ozona Chamber of Commerce. Local individuals will also have booths for food and games.

Game and food booths listed with the chamber as of Oct. 24 were: spinning wheel, pumpkin toss, pan for pennies, floating duck, sucker draw, cake walk, Connie's train, Basketball throw, pencil pick, bean bag throw, fishing pond, win-a-fish, Cokes, tea, hot chocolate, hamburgers, tamales and funnel cakes.

Time Change Is Sunday

Remember to set your clocks back one hour before going to bed Saturday night.

Daylight Savings Time ends on Oct. 30.

Letters To The Editor

TO LION FOOTBALL FANS, COACHES AND PLAYERS:

Sometimes, the most innocent and well-meant acts are misinterpreted, and this has happened, I guess, with the varsity football article in last week's Stockman. Many of you may not know that I was once employed by the Hood County News in Grandbury and often covered sports events; occasionally, I help Neal with his articles when he's pressed for time, and that's what happened last week.

Like many other Lion football fans, I have been overwhelmed with pride at the way our young men have stepped forward to meet the challenges facing them this year. As usual, I have joined many other fans in being aggravated (not actually angry) at the media in San Angelo who have continually underrated our boys and have missed the whole point of our team's success - the excellent teamwork and many outstanding athletes which make up the Lion team. In fact, I would suggest that the Lions are like the highly successful Dallas Cowboys in that we have so many offensive weapons we're hard to defend against - along with a multi-talented and aggressive defense that just doesn't quit and - again - doesn't just rely on one or two players.

Having been involved in sports from the time I could walk, I know the value of teamwork, and ever one of our young men and coaches have demonstrated that value time and again as they've played higher-ranked, bigger teams to a standstill. I also understand the divisiveness which occurs when one player rates him or herself above everyone else and how that can lead to the downfall of a successful team.

That's what is so important to the Lions' continued success - the young men who possess such outstanding athletic ability have obviously made it a priority to shun the individual spotlight, put on the role of leadership, and work as a team - a family, if you will,

who fight together against superior odds to win.

Our Lions this year have displayed the highest standards of sportsmanship, integrity and athleticism that we as fans could possibly ask for. The article in the Stockman last week was meant to emphasize the victory of the Lions' teamwork over the media's trumped-up "Superstar vs. Superstar" articles in that other newspaper.

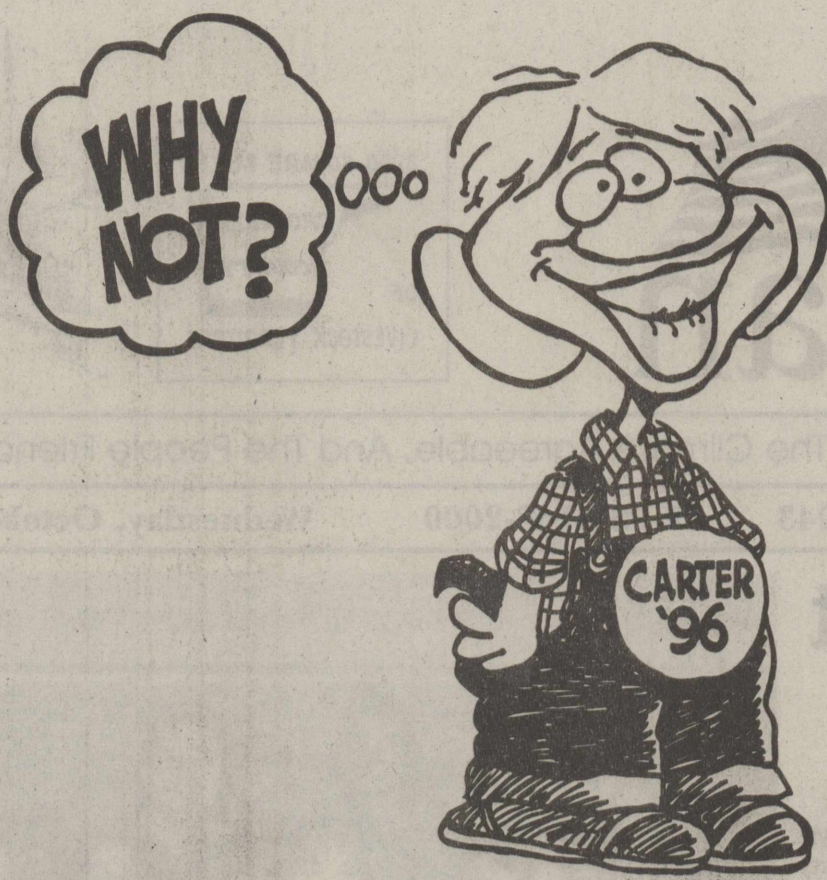

There was never any intention of belittling any of our individual players or suggesting they were trying to be more important than the others - rather, to praise these mature young men for ignoring as best they could the opportunity to be singled out and also for taking the opportunity each time they have been interviewed to give credit to other members of the team for their own success.

In case you haven't noticed, there is a tendency in the media (worse in big newspapers and TV stations, I think) to exaggerate and play up an angle for all it's worth, even if it doesn't really amount to a hill of beans. That sells newspapers, but it doesn't necessarily show the way things really are. And when a reporter interviews you, he may twist and skew what you've said - intentionally or not - and add his own angle to make the story more interesting (in his opinion).

When I suggested the lead sentences for that article, I just knew that everyone felt as I did - what we saw on that wet, miserable field in Eldorado two weeks ago was superior teamwork and leadership, plus outstanding athletic ability - against a team that was truly a "one-man show". Otherwise, how do we explain the way Eldorado just simply gave up the ghost when Bownds left the game?

If Chris or Travis or Julio or Tony or any of the other players had been knocked out of the game, would the Lions have rolled over and given up? I think not! In fact, there was Matt

Miss Cooper, Mr. Trolinger Exchange Vows In West

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Michael Trolinger

Jeanie Marie Cooper and Christopher Michael Trolinger were united in holy matrimony Sunday, Oct. 9, 1994, in West at St. Mary's Catholic Church of the Assumption. Officiating was Rev. Dean Coultas, Methodist minister from West.

The bride is the daughter of Gene and Vikki Cooper of Ozona. Parents of the bridegroom are Robert and Marty Kreid of West and the late Fredrick Michael Trolinger.

Special music was provided by Dorothy Kucera, organist; Keith Hoelscher, guitarist, and Laurie Sykora, soloist. Music sung was Friends, Wind Beneath My Wings, Sunrise, Sunset, Lord's Prayer, On Eagle's Wings, If You Could See What I See and The Rose.

Vows were spoken at the altar which was accented by purple and white iris and English ivy. Arrangements of English ivy were placed along the first pews as well as satin bows and stargazers. Along either side were tiered candelabrams holding candles entwined with English ivy.

Mothers of the couple were ushered down the aisle to the family candles which they lit to the tune of Sunrise, Sunset, followed by the couple's lighting of the unity candle to the tune of The Rose.

Following the wedding, a reception and dance were held in the reception hall.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Gene Cooper. She was dressed in a white satin floor-length gown with chapel train and puffed veil. The shawl collar and bodice were covered with silk illusion and encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. Long sleeves were also encrusted with both seed pearls and sequins and ended in a point just at the fingers. The gown was fitted to the floor in front. A pearl necklace and pearl drop earrings completed the ensemble.

Maid of honor was Kimberly Cooper of West, cousin of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Amy Trolinger, sister of the bridegroom, of West; Tess Worthington of San Angelo and Bonnie Martin of Uvalde. The bridesmaids were lovely in floor-length jacquard dresses of burgundy with white jacquard shawl collars. They wore matching pearl-drop earrings, a gift from the bride.

The bridegroom, who is stationed at Fort Campbell, KY, was attired in his dress blue uniform of The United States Air Force with various ribbons and medals.

He was attended by best man Tim Trolinger, brother of the bridegroom, from Austin. Groomsmen were: Shane Cooper, brother of the bride, from Stephenville; Darrell Sulak, cousin of the bridegroom, from Itasca; and Steve Deeter of West. Usher was John Ondrej, uncle of the bridegroom, of West. All were attired in traditional black tuxedos with bow ties.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cooper chose a three-piece floor-length suit of chiffon and silk in an ivory with gold patterned inserts and gold buttons. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Kreid selected a jacquard ivory and cream suit with a pearl neckline. Each mother wore a white orchid corsage.

At the reception, music was played by Eddie Conterras of West. The reception tables were lovely, decorated with white and burgundy cloths. The bride's table was covered with burgundy cloths with an overlay of white crocheted cloths. Runners of English ivy were placed the length of the tables.

The food tables held silver trays of ham and chicken salad sandwiches, and a punchbowl of crystal held a delicious burgundy punch. There were beautiful burgundy and country blue flowers throughout the room.

The wedding cake was a three-tiered vanilla creme decorated with clusters of roses and grapes, all in a solid creamy ivory. The adjacent table held the traditional bridegroom's chocolate cake.

House party attendants were: Marilyn, Erin and Melissa Ondrej, aunt of the bridegroom and cousins from West; Kelly Cooper, cousin of the bride from West; Jerri Martin of West and Katy Overstreet, cousin of the bride, from Eldorado.

Out-of-town guests attending were: Donnie and Marian Overstreet with their children David, Katy, Lee and Robert Todd of Eldorado, Jim and Cecilia Overstreet, Janette, Charlotte and Jacob of Friendswood, Billy and Jonell Overstreet of Grand Prairie, Ula Yea Cooper, the bride's grandmother from Perryville, Arkansas, Gilbert and Thelma Cooper, also the bride's grandparents, from Woodway, and the bridegroom's grandmother from Muskogee, Oklahoma, Dary and Ruth Schmidt of Oklahoma, Frank Macitak of Abbott, Louise Douglas of Abbott, Janie Geisland and Bryan and Cornelia Kreid of Evant, Lisa Vorgrin, Raymond Barton, Karen Barton, Ryan Arwine of DeSoto, Bill, Carol and Amy Duncan of Dallas, Adella Ondrej of Abbott, Audra Sulak and Michael Smith of Nacogdoches, Cookie Worthington of Ozona and Fleet and Cindy Worthington of Stephenville.

Both the bride and bridegroom are 1994 graduates of West High School in West. He is in the United States Air Force where he is currently studying to become a meteorologist.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents in West on Oct. 8. A delicious meal of brisket, potato salad, rolls and various desserts was offered.

The bride enjoyed a wedding shower in the Crockett Room in Ozona on Sept. 10, and received many lovely gifts. Hostesses for the shower were:

Nancy Hale, Laurie Hale, Jill House, Cookie Worthington, Jean Conner, Carmen Sutton, Jane Richardson, Rose Williams, Peggy Dickerson and Chris Beckham.

After a short trip to Waco the couple are at home in Clarksville, Tennessee. They invite anyone wanting to wish them well to do so at 170 Lexington Drive M109, Clarksville, Tennessee 37040.

Fashion Show Set For Nov. 19

Xi Sigma Omega met on Oct. 10 for a style show workshop. Members brought a sack lunch and got down to business for the show scheduled for Nov. 19 at 10:30 a.m.

The style show was the biggest fund raiser for the sorority group last year. Small Fashions and The Teacher Store will again be featured in the show.

Members agreed the name will be "A New Season" with the theme to be carried out by the decorating committee. The show will be at Ozona Country Club. Ticket prices are $10. Tickets may be purchased from any member. The Teacher Store will be taking reservations for tables at 392-3216.

Sorority members will sell raffle tickets for $1.00. They are raffling off two gift certificates for $300 each. One gift certificate will be to The Teacher Store and one will be to Tedford's Jewelers. In addition, there will be several door prizes at the show.

Members voted to hire Linda Love of Sonora to cater the event. A brunch menu with several items to choose from will be served.

Several other items pertaining to the style show were discussed. Members are very excited and hope to have the community's support once more.

Present were Xi Sigma Omega members Donna Herring, Barbie Myers, Roylan Sullivan, Susan Buchanan, Martha Weant, Leslie Wilson, Shannon Hunnicutt, Paula Westmoreland, Cynthia Hokit and Pam Tarr.

If you have any questions about the style show, contact any member of Xi Sigma Omega.

Preceptor Mu Chi Meets

On Oct. 24, at 7 p.m. in the home of Billie Jean Morris, Preceptor Mu Chi held its meeting. Those in attendance were: Billie Jean Morris, Brenda Newton, Mavis Dunlap, Nancy Hale, Zoe Green, Betty Koerth, Bobbie Fatout and Terry Adams. New pledges Barbara Carter, Sonja Norris and Sylvia Tomlinson were also there.

The chapter was honored by the candidate for county judge of Crockett County, Jeffrey Sutton, and his lovely wife, Carmen. Mr. Sutton briefed the group on the importance of our privileged right to vote as American citizens and not to forget to exercise this right by either early voting which is going on now at the courthouse from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. until Nov. 4, or to vote on election day. He also explained the position that he was running for and the honor it would be for him to serve the people of Crockett County with his platform of honesty and fairness to all.

Afterward a short meeting was held to discuss the upcoming Halloween Carnival. After the closing ritual refreshments were served. The next meeting will be the pledger ritual meeting Nov. 14 at the home of Terry Adams at 7 p.m. New members Barbara Carter, Sonja Norris and Sylvia Tomlinson will be honored.

Don't forget to vote.

Alpha Alpha Mu Has Busy Meeting

The Alpha Alpha Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi had a busy meeting Monday, Oct. 17, with their annual trash pick up on Hwy. 163 followed by a regular meeting. The group was hosted by Molla Mayubby and Jana Wilson at Jana's house. Mary Lou Lilly from the Concho Valley Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse gave a program on some new treatment options available to Ozona and San Angelo residents.

The chapter will sponsor a booth at the chamber of commerce Halloween Carnival from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. The booth will be geared toward children 8-years-old and younger. There will be a basketball toss and a pencil search game.

League Year Begins With First Meeting

The Ozona Woman's League held its first meeting of the year on Sept. 13 at the home of Belinda Wilkins. Assisting Mrs. Wilkins as hostesses were Luann Pierce and Peggy Dickerson. Each member present answered roll call with "a summer highlight".

President Vicki Stokes conducted the business meeting and Becky Childress presented the yearbooks for the new year. As a club project, each member brought a school supply item for the Ozona Community Center.

On Sept. 27, League members met at the home of Jeannine Henderson. Katrece Hale assisted as hostess. Members enjoyed an informative talk given by Superintendent Larry Taylor. Mr. Taylor discussed the past, present and future educational aspects of Crockett County.

Following the program, League members were able to meet Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and welcome them to the community.

Help Children To Develop Good Eating Habits

Family members have a big influence on the development of eating habits in children. If you don't think that's true, try to get a three-year-old to eat broccoli if Dad doesn't like it!

Researchers have found children and parents often have the same tastes. Of course, if the same foods are offered to the whole family, they'll probably eat the same things.

What unspoken messages are we, the parents, sending to our children? For example, what is a mother who drinks diet drinks all day long, one after the other, saying to her kids? And a father who says, "I don't like vegetables, so don't give me any," is also a model. And those wonderful brothers and sisters who misbehave at the table also send a strong message.

Television also plays a big role in children's food habits. With 98 percent of American homes having at least one TV, and with preschoolers watching an average of more than 25 hours of TV per week, we see less physical activity and interaction with others—not to mention all those messages from commercials and television shows.

Parents must take responsibility for teaching their young children about a good diet. Talking with children about the kind of food needed for good health can help. You can have these discussions while grocery shopping, watching TV or at the dinner table.

Help children develop an interest by allowing them to help in preparing food for snacks and meals. Point out questionable claims on TV and on food packages. Make mealtime pleasant and limit distractions so your child can focus on eating. Praise good behavior at the table and remember—your child learns by watching how you eat and behave at the table.

It's important to be aware of "feeding cues". Children shouldn't be forced to clean their plates if they're full, but they should also not be forced to wait until a mealtime if hungry. A light snack such as a cracker or apple will carry them over till mealtime without ruining their appetite.

Keep nutritious snacks around the house, and try not to buy things you don't want them to have. Just remember—an occasional soft drink or candy bar won't kill them, but if you totally eliminate any kind of "junk" they may really go for it when they get older and you don't have 24-hour control! Teaching sensible eating habits is the best way to control junk food intake.

As children try new behaviors or make mistakes, give positive feedback. Be consistent—not rigid one time and indifferent the next. Mixed messages are confusing to a child. Be sensitive to your child's development readiness and set some mealtime standards that will help your child develop good lifelong eating habits.

For more information on children, food, and nutrition, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721 or come by the office, located on the second floor of the Courthouse Annex (11th & Ave. D). Educational information provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is available to persons of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

October Thirty-First

By Dennis J. Prutow

We get more and more hype and gore on October thirty-first. We not only have witches and goblins. We have chain saw massacres, Freddy slashing his way across the big screen, and every other conceivable horror brought to our attention.

October thirty-first was a similar time of feasting and celebration back in the 1500's. It was All Hallows Eve or the eve of All Saint's Day. A German monk by the name of Martin Luther challenged his contemporaries on that day. He took issue with the idea heaven could be bought with money or a good life. In fact, Martin Luther started a great controversy called The Reformation. It started on October 31, 1517. And that day is called Reformation Day.

It is the day celebrated by all protestants, those who protest the teaching that heaven can be earned through good works. The cry of the Reformation was salvation by grace through faith alone. "But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works" (Romans 11:6). Martin Luther proclaimed faith in Jesus Christ and His sacrifice for sin as the only pathway to forgiveness and eternal life. "For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, that no one should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

The Halloween Carnival will be Monday, Oct. 31, 1994, on the town square. There are several organizations that will benefit from the event. The first priority of the night is to give the children of our area an activity that can be fun and shared with the family. Plan on supporting the organizations and individuals that are donating their time to help us provide a safe place for our children to participate in the Halloween carnival.

Smokey The Bear Interviewed

Neal Ulmer
Stockman Writer

The second grade gifted and talented students presented a mock television interview with the famous Smokey Bear during National Fire Prevention Week Oct. 9-15. Several of the youngsters presented the 10-minute interview to all the students of the Ozona Primary School and the children from Ozona Community Center.

Smokey Bear turned 50 years old this year as he was more or less born in 1944. Actually, in 1944 a creative advertising agency chose a bear as the ad campaign's appealing symbol and named the character Smokey.

A few years later, in 1950, the fictional bear gained a real persona when firefighters rescued a burnt bear cub from a forest fire in the mountains near Capitan, NM. The orphan bear was christened Smokey, and when his wounds were healed, he was sent to live in the National Zoological Park in Washington, D.C., as the living symbol of fire prevention.

Both boys and girls and adults alike have become more aware of fire prevention due to the Smokey Bear campaign. Smokey is best known for the phrase, "Only YOU can prevent forest fires!"

Those second graders under the direction of teacher Jeannine Henderson presenting the interview include: Jared Bird and Stephen Lara as Smokey Bear; Jenna Henderson and Taylor Oglesby played the news broadcaster; and Derek Fierro was the TV cameraman.

Remember what Smokey said, "Only YOU can prevent a forest fire!" or in West Texas, "Only YOU can prevent a range or house fire."

Library News

GREEN THUMB PROGRAM

We are very lucky to have Mrs. Eloisa Ramos on the Crockett County Public Library staff. Mrs. Ramos is a part-time worker participating in the Senior Community Service Employment Program of Green Thumb Inc.

Mrs. Ramos is an Ozona native married to Eberardo Ramos. She has five children and 12 grandchildren. Mrs. Ramos worked for the Texas Department of Human Services for three years under the Green Thumb program and then moved to the public library this summer. She has worked at the library for six months now and has learned her way around the collection. She is very good at helping patrons find the books and materials they need, cheerfully answering the phone and making Xerox copies. Mrs. Ramos is learning to use the FAX machine and the computer.

Green Thumb Inc. is a non-profit corporation providing parttime employment and training opportunities for economically disadvantaged seniors. Green Thumb's genesis can be traced to the 1960s when National Farmers Union leaders worked successfully to turn Congressional attention to chronically unemployed, low-income adults in rural areas. Under the leadership of National Farmers Union president James Patton, the Farmers Union convinced former President Lyndon B. Johnson to include a pilot employment project for older, rural workers in his "War On Poverty".

While the Senior Community Service Employment Program increasingly is focusing on preparing older individuals to participate in the workforce, community service remains an important program goal. The lasting success of the SCSEP may be attributed to the balance that has been struck between the equally important goals of providing training, employment and supplemental income to participants, and vital services to their communities. Green Thumb empowers seniors to obtain employment and improve their quality of life through training, re-training and work experience.

All seniors interested in participating in the program are urged to visit with Mrs. Eloisa Ramos at the public library. Information about the program and how to get involved are available at the library. Come check it out!

Ozona Primary School Attends Beauty And The Beast Play

Tuesday, Oct. 18, Ozona Primary School students traveled to San Angelo to see the live stage version of the magical tale, Beauty and the Beast.

Before the trip, teachers discussed the story about Beauty and the Beast and how Beauty was able to see through the Beast's harsh exterior and into his heart where a gentle and caring soul existed.

In P.E., the students were taught bus safety so that all students knew the bus rules before the trip. In music, the children heard a narrative of the story, then listened to a musical selection "Conversations of Beauty and the Beast" from Mother Goose Suite by Maurice Ravel. The music had no words, but the children could picture a story inside their heads. While listening, the students pretended to be Beauty and the Beast. The story was sent home for parents to read as a reinforcement before the trip.

After the play, teachers and students compared the play to the Disney movie and to different story versions read. Likes and differences were talked about. Characters, events, places and story lines were also discussed. Teachers and students compared the play to real life situations. Students role played different scenes in the play, wrote paragraphs about the trip and play, drew their favorite characters or scenes from the play, made up words about Beauty and the Beast to the tune "The Farmer in the Dell" and "Oh, My Darling", and some students read the story out of their reader and made up new endings to the story.

The bus trip was also an educational experience. The children played games, read books, told jokes, drew and colored pictures, sang songs, worked puzzles, and observed animals and scenery along the way. Some children were so tired on the way back they even slept.

The Ozona Primary School faculty, staff, and students would like to thank the schoolboard and administration for allowing us to attend the cultural experience. We would also like to thank the cafeteria ladies for getting all the lunches prepared.

Ozona Seniors Enjoy October Fest

Ortiz on the sidelines - one of our leading rushers - but Anthony and others came up and filled the hole caused by his absence. We had an outstanding game by a Freshman player - who worked closely with the other, more experienced players to successfully fill the spot where he was needed. Could there be better examples of the teamwork spirit than those?

I'm sure neither Reagan Bownds nor his parents (who we visited with prior to the game) have welcomed all the attention he has received - nor have our own outstanding players and their parents. It's simply too much to ask one person to take credit or blame for the rise or fall of one team - especially a high school student!

As fans, we need to give credit where credit is due - credit is due a team that can snap back if one player is hurt, or has a bad game (even Emmitt and Troy have those occasionally!). We're lucky to have the caliber of players we have, and to have such responsible, dedicated young men in our community.

Therefore, I apologize for any misunderstandings which occurred as a result of this article. I didn't sit out in the rain with the rest of the crowd in Eldorado to criticize "our" team - rather, because I think they're absolutely great and a pleasure to watch, individually and as a group. I apologize to my husband (who strongly shares my feelings about the Lions) and to the Stockman for any inconvenience this matter has caused.

And to adults who are so quick to criticize and pick on the student athletes - whether in football, baseball, track, golf or whatever - shame! They do their best, and they're out there taking the heat - more power to them. As for me, no matter what the record, I will continue to be a fan of what I truly believe is the "Biggest (and Toughest) Little Team in the World".

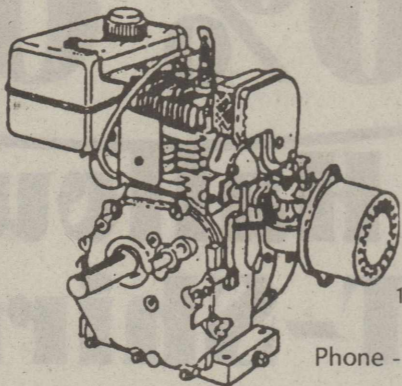

Sincerely

Cubs Win Over Iraan Warriors

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Cubs kept up their winning ways by defeating the Iraan Warriors in both the seventh and eighth grade games. The eighth grade won 14-0, improving their record to 5-1. The seventh grade won 14-6 to better their record 5-2.

The Eighth Grade Cubs' offense racked up 298 yards, scored two touchdowns and converted a two-pointer to win the game. The Cub defense deprived the Warriors of scoring.

Coach Lee Gonzales said, "Our defense kept us in the game. Any time you hold a team to '0', you must credit the defense's discipline and determination."

The defense kept the Warrior offense in awe of them by making two pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries. David Gutierrez and Will Roane each had a pass interception. Players recovering fumbles included Luis Hernandez, Robert Kelly, and Ryan Ramos. The defense also stayed busy in the tackling department with David Gutierrez and Robert Kelly making seven solo tackles each and Jason Alvarez with five solo tackles.

The Cubs' first touchdown occurred early in the second quarter on a 33-yard run by David Gutierrez. A pass from quarterback Anthony Ortiz to end Mitchell Martinez fell incomplete on the two-point conversion attempt.

Ortiz kept the ball on a quarterback option to run 73 yards for the second Cub touchdown. Gutierrez ran the ball in for the two-point conversion, making the score Ozona 14, Iraan 0.

According to Coach Gonzales, Gutierrez made a key pass interception with 2:43 left in the fourth period to kill an Iraan scoring drive. Offensively, Gutierrez had a great day, with one touchdown, a two-point conversion and 123 total yards.

Ortiz was second in rushing with 108 yards, and Jason Alvarez made 67 yards to complete the Cub rushing.

The Cub Seventh Grade team had less trouble with the Warriors, increasing their margin of victory to 14-6, more than the 16-14 win two weeks ago. A fourth quarter touchdown by Miguel Rios with 1:19 left in the game sealed the victory for the Cubs.

The Warriors drew first blood with their beginning offensive play. An Iraan back threw a sweep pass which was complete for a 47-yard touchdown. The point-after attempt failed, and the Warriors led 6-0 in the first quarter.

The second quarter became a defense one, as each team held the other scoreless. The first half ended with Iraan leading 6-0.

The Cubs began their comeback in the third period on a 43-yard run by Matt Castaneda. The PAT failed, and the score was tied after three quarters at 6-6.

With a "I'm not giving up" attitude, the Cubs buckled down and played harder. In the fourth quarter, a key fumble recovery by Peter Rodriguez with 2:15 left helped set up the game winning touchdown.

With 1:19 left, Miguel Rios ran 26 yards for a score. Castaneda ran the ball in for the two-point conversion to put the "icing on the cake" for the Cubs.

Delighted for his team, Coach Rodney Johnson said, "I was proud of the way our kids came back and played after Iraan scored on the first play of the game. Seth Webster had a great game for us. He made a good block to allow Matt Castaneda to score, and he also made a crucial fourth down catch."

Quarterback Ross Crawford completed two passes of three thrown for 13 yards. Receiver Cole Wadsworth caught one pass for seven yards, and Seth Webster caught a six-yard pass.

Three Cub running backs amassed a total of 250 yards in rushing. Miguel Rios led the Cubs in rushing with 117 yards and one touchdown. Matt Castaneda scored one touchdown, one two-point conversion and ran for 106 yards. Quarterback Crawford ran for a total of 27 yards.

One of Coach Gonzales' sayings is "Do It To It", which is exactly what the Cub defense did. The defense held Iraan for four quarters with the exception of their first play.

Bobby Cervantez made a crucial pass interception with 0:56 left in the game to kill an Iraan drive. Rodriguez's pass interception earlier in the quarter helped give the spark needed by the Cubs.

Other defensive players having a good game were Miguel Rios with seven solo tackles, Matt Castaneda with six solo tackles and Tim Maldonado with five tackles.

The Cubs will play their next game at 5 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 27, with McCamey in Lion Stadium.

Physical Therapy Can Help Shoulder Injury

What do a young, multi-million dollar professional athlete and a 50-year-old secretary who plays tennis and swims have in common?

It could be shoulder problems according to an orthopedic surgeon at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

"Rotator cuff injuries fell athletes every year due to extreme, repetitive motion such as throwing a ball or swimming," said Dr. Gerard Gabel, an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at Baylor. "Also, as people reach their 40's and 50's, age begins to take a toll on the tendon that forms the cuff and it can be more easily injured."

The rotator cuff is a tendon that forms a circular joint where four large muscles support and move the humerus - the upper arm bone. If damaged or torn, the top of the humerus can press into the undersurface of the shoulder, resulting in sharp pain and stiffness.

For people who suffer a rotator cuff injury, the first step may be physical therapy if there is no evidence of a severe tear. If the tendon is badly damaged surgery may be required.

"The tendon that forms the rotator cuff is brought back into place, reattached to the bone and any tears in the tendon are repaired," Gabel said.

Some professional athletes have surgery as soon as possible for a quick return to action. But, for most age-related injuries a more conservative approach involving therapy is taken to minimize further injury.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT) has filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) to restructure the current PLEXAR I and II service offerings. This restructure will significantly change PLEXAR I and II services.

The restructuring of PLEXAR I will, among other things: (1) reduce the maximum line size from 30 to 9; (2) obsolete and grandfather certain optional features; (3) eliminate the requirement to subscribe to Feature Package Two in order to subscribe to certain optional features; (4) reduce the nonrecurring and monthly rates of certain features; and (5) increase the nonrecurring charges for the PLEXAR I System Charge ($2.10 to $8.00), Call Transfer Disconnect feature ($3.00 to $8.00), and Convenience Dialing I feature ($6.35 to $8.00). All current PLEXAR I customers will have the option of keeping their current PLEXAR I service, switching to the new restructured PLEXAR I service, or switching to PLEXAR II service with ten or more lines.

The proposed PLEXAR II restructure will, among other things: (1) change the tariffed offering to serve the market segment of 10-74 stations; (2) create two station pricing structures, one for customers with 10-29 stations, and one for customers with 30-74 stations; (3) reduce the sensitivity for the loop portion of the rate to two price bands: 0-2 miles, and beyond 2 miles; (4) offer a PLEXAR II basic station that can be flexibly configured, from a number of standard features, to meet the individual customer requirements; (5) change the way the termination liability is calculated so the customer is responsible for 65% rather than 56% of the present worth of the remaining monthly payments in the contract; (6) create an option that allows month-to-month customers to convert to long term contracts of at least three years and receive a credit or "contract signing bonus"; and (7) establish a System Subsequent Change Charge which applies per serving central office when changes are made that affect the entire system.

Current PLEXAR II customers will also have the option of keeping their current PLEXAR II service, or switching to the new restructured PLEXAR II service. PLEXAR II customers with at least 75 stations also have the option of switching to PLEXAR Custom service in certain situations.

This application has been assigned Docket Number 13210. Persons who wish to comment on this application should notify the Commission by November 28, 1994. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or you may call the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf. # Fighting JV Lions Earn 14-14 Tie With The Iraan Braves

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona JV Lions made a second half comeback to tie the Iraan Braves 14-14 in last Thursday's action in Lion Stadium. The Lions gave it all they had and fought hard for the tie, making their season record 2-4-1.

Coaches Don Payne and Keith Hall expressed their satisfaction with the Lion comeback. "We were real happy with the outcome. I was real proud of our kids for never giving up, and I was particularly proud of our defense for coming back in the second half and not giving up any more points," said Coach Payne.

"The kids did an excellent job all the way around. They showed a lot of character by coming back from the previous game in Iraan (score Iraan 26, Ozona 0)," said Coach Hall.

"It shows the progress we've made and how much better we are getting

Lady Lions Face Tough Schedule

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

Lady Lions' basketball fans will see a tough schedule and a young but talented team in the 1994-95 season. The Ladies will face two new schools and a somewhat different schedule this year.

With the rearrangement of districts by the U.I.L., the Ladies and the Lions will play Anthony and Van Horn in District 5-2A. Principal and head boys' basketball coach John Curry said that the schools in the district have been divided into pairs to play the far west schools of Anthony and Van Horn.

Ozona will be paired with Eldorado; Iraan and McCamey are paired together, and Van Horn and Anthony are paired together in the district.

For example, Ozona and Eldorado will travel to Anthony and Van Horn with Ozona playing Anthony on a Friday evening and Eldorado playing Van Horn at the same time. On Saturday, with the team spending the night in the area, Ozona will travel to Van Horn and play them at 1 p.m. Likewise, Eldorado will travel to Anthony and play at that time.

Coach Dickie Faught will be returning in his third year as varsity girls' coach and will be assisted by Coach Rodney Johnson, who will also coach the girls' junior varsity team.

In a meeting earlier this year the district coaches chose Eldorado to win the district, followed by Ozona and McCamey. Although Eldorado looks to be the favorite in the district race, it does not actually start until after Christmas.

"We are a young team, and have a lot of proving to do, but we may surprise some people. Eldorado has the most talent returning from last year's team, and our talent has taken a drastic jump from last year," said Coach Faught.

Fans will be seeing some new faces, with 18 freshmen, including two transfers. There will be a total of 28 girls participating and competing for spots on the junior varsity and varsity squads.

Ozona will be returning five lettermen on the varsity squad. "I think we are going to be much improved from last year. Our talent is better, and our desire and dedication among this year's group is at a higher level," said Faught. Returning Ozona senior Gloria Peña-Alfaro was a 1993-94 First District All-Team selection, and junior Tara Wilkins was a Second Team All-District selection.

Three other lettermen include seniors Connie Fielder and Heather Hall and sophomore Shelly Sullivan. Rounding out the squad will be senior Leigh Chandler and junior Isabel Esparza.

Also joining the varsity squad are freshmen Amber Tarr, Amber McWilliams and Bobbie Bryson. "These freshmen greatly increase our talent level, and we look forward to great things from them," said Faught.

Looking forward to a good season will be 18 junior varsity players. According to Coach Faught, "The junior varsity talent is much better this year as well because of a very strong freshman class combined with three quality sophomores."

Leading the junior varsity will be sophomores Julie Perez, Megan Tambunga and Amy Laughlin. Freshmen playing on the team include Jessica Avila, Leslie Avila, Stephanie Franco, Juli Hall, Haley Holden, Autumn McWilliams, Traci Screws, Stormi Sesson, Lauren Wilkins, Stephanie Castro, Joyce Couch, Angelica Longoria, Maria Quiroz, Kristen Shurley and Araceli Tijerina.

The Lady Lions will be playing their first scrimmage with Wall and Sonora in Sonora starting at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 8. A second three-way scrimmage will be held Saturday, Nov. 12, with host Rankin and Klondike starting at 5 p.m.

each time," added Payne.

A tough Brave defense and penalties plagued the Lion offense and prevented them from reaching the end zone in the first half. Iraan had their share of trouble too - meeting up with the Lion defense.

The Braves got busy in the second quarter, scoring two touchdowns in the last two minutes of the second quarter to take a 14-0 halftime lead. The Brave quarterback scored both touchdowns, making the first one on a four yard run. A kick for the extra point missed the uprights, making the score 6-0.

With time running out in the second quarter, the Brave quarterback sprinted out for a pass. Finding his receivers covered, he ran 30 yards for the score. A run for the two-point conversion was good, giving the Braves a 14-0 halftime lead.

The Lions started their comeback in the third period with Shayne Fuentes picking up nine yards from about the 44-yard line. On a second-and-one, Justin Browne took the ball on a reverse play and ran about 35 yards for the score. Pete Castaneda tried to kick the ball for the extra point but failed.

Several minutes later on a first-and-goal situation, Brian Badillo took the ball in on a sweep play, scoring from five yards out. Being behind two points, the Lions chose an option play for their conversion attempt. Castaneda reached the end zone for the crucial points, making the score Ozona 14, Iraan 14.

The Lions received the ball twice in the fourth quarter but were unable to convert either possession into a touchdown. An Ozona pass was intercepted by a Brave in the Iraan end of the field, but the Braves were unable to score, and the game ended in a tie. Having a good game defensively for the Lions were: Manuel Mendoza, Steven Montes, Albert Flores, Jason Baker and Jason Stuart. Stuart performed well on offense, along with teammates Albert Flores and Manuel Mendoza. Justin Browne got in some key runs with the help of good blocking by the linemen.

The JV Lions will be playing their next two games away, with this week's game at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 27, in McCamey.

District Race Challenging For Lions

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Lions basketball team will be facing a tough and different schedule for the 1994-95 season. The district coaches have voted and Anthony has been picked to win the district with Eldorado second and Ozona third.

Head boys' basketball coach John Curry will start his 13th year as the Lions' varsity coach. He will be assisted by Ronnie Casey and Brandy Gothard who will also coach the boys' junior varsity team.

The coaching staff will welcome back six talented lettermen from last year's varsity team. Chris Sanchez and Julio Martinez will start their fourth year on varsity, with Tony Valencia and Doug Meador starting their third year. Lettering last year on varsity were Ray Fierro and David Browne. These six young men will make up the nucleus of the team.

Chris Sanchez and Ray Fierro were chosen on the 1993-94 All-District Team last year. Julio Martinez was on the Second All-District Team and Tony Valencia was Honorable Mention All-District last year.

Coach Curry will be getting some help from last year's junior varsity team, including James Nelson, Lupe Llanos, Mel Martinez, Joe Esparza and Lance Jamerson. The coaching staff expects 30-35 players to participate on the JV and varsity teams.

"We will carry ten kids on the varsity, and the kids coming up from JV will have a chance to compete at varsity level," said Coach Curry.

In discussing Ozona's possibility of winning the district race, Coach Curry said, "I feel like we have a chance to be a contender - we've been close the last two years. We can make a statement about the teams that win on the road, and they will be the district representatives. That is true every year, but truer this year because of the extreme differences."

Those differences Curry talks about are the changes in the district with rearrangement of schools by the U.I.L. and the distance traveled to play. The schools in district 5-2A are Van Horn, Anthony, Eldorado, McCamey, Iraan and Ozona.

According to Curry, the unique thing about the district is the travel. For example, when Ozona travels west, we will be paired with Eldorado to play Anthony and Van Horn on Friday and Saturday. Ozona will play Anthony on Friday and Eldorado will play Van Horn. On Saturday, the teams will switch, and Ozona will travel to Van Horn to play.

Other pairings in the district are Iraan and McCamey and Van Horn and Anthony. Look for the schedule and playing times in this issue of The Stockman.

The probable opening playing date for the Lions is with Rankin on Tuesday, Nov. 15, starting at 5 p.m. in Rankin. The following scheduled game will be held in Ozona, as the Lions host Reagan County on Tuesday, Nov. 22, starting at 5 p.m.

THE STONE OF SCARLET BRIDGE was unearthed in 1970 by a man cleaning the watercourse where the stone had been placed in 1745. The discovery adds to the legend of Hogstow Hall.

A Ghostly Tale Of Halloween

By Joan Nicholas

At first what I am about to tell was thought to be legend; but during the course of thorough research into history, it would seem that, indeed, it could all be true. My story centers around an old mansion built in the year 1200, containing three storeys and twenty-six rooms. Its location was in the Welsh Marches (the beautiful borderlands between Wales and England, and this particular part is in the county of Shropshire).

This old manor house was known as Hoggestowe Hall, and my great grandparents, Jeremiah and Jane Powell, farmed this large acreage beginning in 1850. When they moved into the hall, half of the family of twelve were already born at a farm close by. My grandmother, also Jane Powell, a daughter, married William Vaughan of the village of Worthen, six miles away, and my own mother was one of thirteen children born to this union in addition to three children born to my grandfather before his first wife died.

Since 1200 the name of Hoggestowe has been shortened to Hogstow, but I used to wonder if the name had something to do with hogs. I couldn't have been farther from the truth. This old place was in what was known as the Hockestowe Forest - "Ac" in the old Anglo Saxon language meaning oak, pronounced in the local dialect as "Hocke" and "Stowe" indicates a holy place which could have been because of its connection with Shrewsbury Abbey or because of its pre-Roman Druid connection.

Sadly, I never saw this place as the last of the Powell sons died in 1921; his youngest daughter, my mother's cousin, is still alive and lives in Shrewsbury. The place was sold to the Sandalls, and they built a new house alongside the old hall.

In 1981, when visiting in England, my curiosity was piqued about Hogstow Hall as I found it mentioned in an old family Bible, and I was put in touch with the current owners, Hylton and Ruby Parry who at that time were sheep farming in Western Australia and their son was running the place. The son, Roger, said his father was quite a history buff, and had some interesting tales to tell about the hall and its surrounds, and the following is what he told me.

Now, in order to really understand this story, it is necessary to gain a sense of the history of the times, not only in England and Wales but pertaining to this particular area.

As you will remember, in 1066, William the Conqueror came from Normandy and invaded England. Until 1066 Hockestowe Forest was a royal hunting ground; the last Anglo-Saxon king to use it was Edward-the-Confessor. (King Harold of Hastings fame never had the time before he lost the throne) so William took it for himself. It was also part of the area roamed by the outlaw known as "Wild Edric the Forester" (Welsh) who rebelled against the Normans until making peace in 1070. Because of the marauding Welsh this area was very sparsely populated. William's lieutenant, Roger de Montgomery, was given control of the land along the Welsh border including Shropshire, and he built castles at Shrewsbury and many other places along the border, not only as a defense against the Welsh, but in the early years, against the Anglo-Saxons.

In 1080, Montgomery, having lost his first wife, sent to Normandy for a countess to be his wife. She was accompanied by the monk, Ordellisius, who had just returned from a pilgrimage to Rome. A great storm blew up in the English Channel as they were crossing, and he vowed that if they reached England safely he would build an abbey in Shrewsbury in thanksgiving, and this was built on the site of the wooden Saxon church of St. Peter at the Foregate in 1083. In less than 150 years the Abbey owned 71 grants of manors or lands, 24 churches and the tithes of 37 villages, and Hogstow Hall and its land was among these. The last Abbot at the Abbey before Henry VIII's dissolution in 1539-40 was Thomas Bateler. The monastic buildings were all destroyed, leaving the beautiful Abbey Church which still functions as an active parish church, and it is where I was baptized at three weeks of age.

It is thought that Hogstow Hall was built as a house of penance or rest for the many monks and nuns and the Abbey and other monasteries in the county.

In or around the year 1400, a monk murdered a nun in a third floor room of the hall, or so the story runs that has been handed down through the ages. We took all this with a pinch of salt until the Parrys tilted me in on subsequent events. The nun is reputed to have been buried underneath the window and a Yew tree planted next to the grave. Yew trees are supposed to scare off evil spirits, and this somewhat pagan custom, as with several old ways, was carried over into the present as the old churchyards still have Yew trees in abundance. We have also learned that in those days monks and nuns were not kept separated, so it was not unusual for monks and nuns to be in this house at the same time.

Another point of interest - it is not known whether my great grandparents grew hops, but there are wild hops now growing around the gateway to the grounds. Hops were introduced to this area in AD 90 to AD 410 during the Roman occupation and when they were operating the lead mines nearby. The remains of these shafts may still be seen.

The Parrys moved to Hogstow Hall in 1955. They found 13 of the rooms of the old hall still standing, but in such poor repair they dismantled most of the building except for the watchtower and one wall which was retained in building of new barns. They noticed at this time that one window was boarded up, and so they asked the Sandalls about it and were told that the glass was constantly breaking.

In the 1700's, a man by the name of Scarlet owned the place and became extremely agitated about this window as it was said it was the work of the ghost of the nun trying to get back into her room! He, therefore, called on the priest at Worthen Church to exorcise the spirit of the nun into a small iron casket and took it over a stream (creek) half a mile from the house where it was buried near the entrance to the property; the theory being that spirits cannot cross water!

That created another problem! Scarlet found that his horses would rear up at the spot and refuse to go through the gate, and many carriages were overturned. So, again, in 1745, the spirit was exorcised and taken to the edge of the estate and buried in the middle of a stream, and, for safe measure, Scarlet placed a huge flat boulder over the small casket, leaving it partially above the water so it could be used as a stepping stone or bridge. A local elderly man said that he remembered seeing this back around 1912, but since then it had become overgrown and silted up and lost to view.

In 1976, on a return visit from Australia, Parry had a phone call from the old man to say he had found the stone. The Parrys went with him and found that the watercourse was being cleaned out with an excavator and the stone had been removed and laid on the bank. On it was inscribed: "E.L." (probably the initials of the inscriber), then "1745 Scarlet Bridge", and strangely enough, in the mud where the stone had been was a small piece of rusty metal! Could this be the remains of the casket? The stone was replaced in the watercourse.

In 1968, the Parrys had received a letter from the Bishop of Hereford's office at the diocese headquarters suggesting that instead of paying an annual tithes of two pounds a year which had been paid to Worthen Church ever since the 1700's, they might like to pay a lump sum and retire this debt. They did this and in return received a document stating that this tithes was incurred by Scarlet for two exorcisms performed in 1745! So it would seem that this part of the story is true, also.

Later, in the 1970's on another visit home, the Parrys were laying some water pipe, and a hired man was using an excavator. When the machinery passed under the Yew tree, the man shouted, "I've dug up a gravel!" And there, sure enough, lay a pile of stones as if from a tomb, and some bones. They laid everything back in the trench and covered it up and bypassed that spot with the pipe.

So, once more it would seem that the story of the murdered nun and her spirit is true. On telling my cousin in Shrewsbury about all of this, she said that before her father died, she had a vague memory of the boarded up window and was given instructions never to try and enter the room which was kept locked at all times.

As a postscript to my story, this May when in England, I visited with the Parrys one day, and we drove through this beautiful hilly area; I took a picture of the old Yew tree at Hogstow Hall. After our drive we went for tea to their present home close by, known as Venus Bank Farm. The house was built in 1542 and has the usual black and white timbered exterior. They have completely modernized it inside, but have retained all the dark oak exposed beams. They showed me the huge open fireplace which, when they bought the place, was bricked up. They dismantled it, and looking up this expansive rock chimney one can see an opening, halfway up, leading into a secret room! I asked if King Charles had hidden there when he was on the run during the civil war between the Parliamentarians and the Royalists. They laughed and said they did not think they could lay claim to that! King Charles did have several known hiding places in Shropshire, including an old oak tree!

My great grandfather Powell died in 1865, and my great-grandmother farmed there until 1905 when she died at age 93. At her death they found hundreds of gold sovereigns hidden in the hems of her dresses! She must have been quite a business woman, because according to a copy of her will which I have, she owned three or four more farms in the immediate area. These were worked by some of the sons.

My parents' ashes are buried in the churchyard of a tiny church on Shelve Hill next to the large tombs of the Powells of Hogstow Hall in this wonderful bit of Shropshire.

Do you believe in ghosts? I do, now!

Conservation Winners

Miller And Shelton Are Conservation Winners

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District honored Eugene Miller and Ray Shelton at a conservation awards Banquet held in San Angelo in March. Eugene and Vickie Miller were honored as this year's Outstanding Conservation Ranchers and Ray Shelton received the Conservation Wildlife Award. Earl Acton and Larry Williams, District Directors, presented the honorees with the awards.

Eugene and Vickie ranch approximately 13,700 acres of rangeland in the southern part of Crockett County. They have been district cooperators for 41 years. A combination of cattle, sheep and goats are used to get most efficient utilization of existing forages. Adequate amounts of cover are always present to prevent soil erosion and to ensure vigor of grass stands.

Eugene has drilled wells, constructed several water storage facilities and troughs and installed many miles of livestock water pipelines to improve livestock grazing distribution. Several miles of crossfences have been constructed to facilitate his grazing program.

Brush control is an ongoing project in the Millers' operation. Approximately 85 percent of the ranch has received some form of control. A large portion of this area has been treated two or three times. An individual plant retreatment program has been initiated to control growth of mesquite, juniper and pricklypear.

Eugene and Vickie have demonstrated their tireless effort of maintaining and improving the rangeland resources. It is easy to see how their overall conservation program stands out among the best.

Ray Shelton is game manager of the Perry Ranch in western Crockett County. Ray initiated the wildlife management program back in 1982 and set goals for the ranch. Reducing buck:doe ratios, improving antler growth, increasing body weight of deer and maintaining population levels of all other species of wildlife were number one on his list.

After establishing annual deer surveys to monitor deer populations, harvest recommendations could be made to meet the goals set for the ranch. Genetically inferior spike bucks and bucks with abnormal antler growth were the first to go. Doe hunts were scheduled to remove excessive numbers of does.

Deer weights are recorded and ages are determined by evaluating tooth wear. Proper livestock stocking enhances the overall game management program and the Perry Ranch practices this philosophy.

The results of the program are outstanding. Buck: doe ratios are now 1:3. Average points per buck increased from 5 to 8 1/2 on mature bucks. Antler spreads have increased from an average 10 1/2 inches to 16 inches. Average body weights have increased to 120 pounds. Several outstanding bucks taken in the last two years have qualified for the Texas State record book and one made the cover of the Texas Sportsman.

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District would like to congratulate Eugene and Vickie Miller and Ray Shelton for their work and dedication in improving and protecting our natural resources.

Gene Perry accepts appreciation plaque from Crockett SWCD for 14 years of service on the Board.

Conservation Education

4-H Range Evaluation and Plant I.D. Contest

The District annually sponsors the local 4-H Range Evaluation and Plant I.D. contest. The kids learn to identify various types of plants and learn their value for livestock and wildlife. The 4-H'ers learn to evaluate range condition based on the existing plant communities compared to the climax community or what grew here in pristine conditions. This enables the youngsters to determine ecological change in plant communities due to drought, livestock management practices or presence of man.

Watershed Protection And Flood prevention

After a disastrous flood occurring June 28, 1954, the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District and the Crockett County Commissioners Court co-sponsored an upstream watershed protection project in the Johnson Draw area above Ozona. This was the first project of its kind to be completed in the United States. The Commissioners Court and the District have the responsibility for maintenance of all works of improvement.

CROCKETT SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT 43rd Annual Report

District

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District was established in 1950 to identify and prioritize resource concerns within the county and to serve as a medium for local ranchers in coordinating assistance from federal, state and local agencies. Agencies providing assistance include the Soil Conservation Service, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service, Texas Agriculture Extension Service, Farmers Home Administration, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and University of Texas Lands.

A Memorandum of Understanding between the USDA-SCS and the District allows the SCS to furnish technical assistance to ranchers, farmers and other interested individuals in order that conservation plans can be developed to meet the needs and capabilities of the land and the objectives of the landowner.

The District is governed by a five member board of locally elected directors. These directors serve as a voice for landowners and operators within the District. Directors for the past year include Earl Acton, chairman; Larry Williams, vice-chairman; Gene Perry, secretary; Pleas Childress III, member and Paul Perner, III, member.

Improper grazing management, brush infestation, conserving soil, water, plants and related resources and improving wildlife management on rangeland as a secondary land use are the primary concerns outlined in a long range program and plan.

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District realizes these concerns need to be addressed and steps taken to solve these problems in order to protect our resource base.

Education

George W. Bush says Texas can do better for its children. Test scores are where they were in 1978 and too many graduates can't read or write. Fundamental changes are needed.

Bush will make quality education our state's #1 priority. He believes the standard must be excellence in reading, writing, science, social science, and math.

Make Education the #1 Funding Priority for State Government.

The state's share of education costs is the lowest in half a century. By shifting the burden to local taxpayers, Gov. Richards forced property taxes up 44%. They'll go even higher under her Robin Hood bill.

To relieve property taxes, Bush believes the state must assume a larger share of funding schools now by devoting most of its new revenue and budget savings to education.

Strengthen Local Control of Schools.

George W. Bush believes a school district should have the option to become independent of state rules and unfunded mandates.

Bush believes in empowering teachers, principals, educators, and parents to be able to design an education system that best meets local needs.

Abolish the Regulatory Authority of the Texas Education Agency.

Austin bureaucrats should not dictate to our local schools. Bush will cut TEA's bureaucracy and abolish its regulatory powers.

Public Notices

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS
Published as a single document, this combined NOTICE: Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) and Request for Release of Funds (RROF) is intended to meet two separate procedural requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, Public Law 91-190.
TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS: Seventeen (17) days after this publication Crockett County intends to request the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383), to be used for the following project:
ACTIVITY TEXAS COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM
Sewer Improvements Contract No. 703179
Project to be located Ozona, Crockett County, Texas. A more detailed description of the project and a map showing the specific locations of the proposed improvements are available for public examination at County Courthouse, 907 Avenue D.
Finding of No Significant Impact

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above named Crockett County has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190).

The reasons for such decision not to prepare such Statement is based upon the fact that all environmental concerns could either be minimized or mitigated:

An Environmental Review Record for the proposed project has been made by Crockett County which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request in the office of the County Judge between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Public Comments on Finding

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by Crockett County, to the address set forth above. Specify in your comments if you are addressing your response to this Notice (FONSI). Such written comments must be received at the address specified within sixteen (16) days after this publication. All such comments so received will be considered and Crockett County will not request the release of funds or take any administrative action on the project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

Release of Funds

Crockett County will undertake the project described above with Community Development Block Grant under Title I from its program year 1993 under grant numbered 703179 from the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. Crockett County is certifying to TDHCA that Al Fields, in his official capacity as County Judge, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, Crockett County may use the Block Grant funds and it will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Objections to State Release of Funds

Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs will accept an objection to its approval only on one or more of the bases: and the procedures described in 24 CFR Part 58.75. Objections are to be addressed to Texas Community Development Program, Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs, P.O. Box 13941, Austin, Texas 78711-3941. Specify in your comments if you are addressing your response to this Notice (RROF).

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than one of those stated above will not be considered by TDHCA. No objection received later than thirty-three (33) days after this publication will be considered by TDHCA. The Chief Executive Officer of Crockett County is Al Fields, County Judge. 1c37
