Tahoka Wins First In League Contests

DRAW WINNER "B" DIVISION

General Championship Awards And Literary Winners Are Announced

In the County Interscholastic Meet held here last Friday and Saturday, the Tahoka High School won first place in Class "A" schools, Draw first place in Class "B" schools, and Lakeview first place in the Rural School Division.

In Class A schools second place was won by O'Donnell and third place by Wilson.

In Class B schools, New Home won second place; and in the Rural school division Midway won second place.

This meet was one of the best in recent years, though the sandstorm Saturday afternoon interfered very materially with the pleasure of the occasion.

Great crowds were here both days of the meet and the contests, both literary and athletic, were excellent.

General awards and the awards in literary contests are given below:

Class "A" school winning Meet:

First place: Tahoka; literary points won 80; athletic points won 60; total points won 140.

Second place: O'Donnell; literary points won 75; athletic points won 30; total points won 105.

Eastus Charges People Prejudiced

The News has received a communication from Clyde O. Eastus, U. S. District Attorney for the Northern District of Texas, complaining that false propaganda against him has been circulated throughout this section of the state for the purpose of prejudicing the people against him and the Government in the narcotic and murder cases soon to be tried in the Federal Court in Lubbock and appealing to the good citizenship of this section of the state to give him their cooperation in the enforcement of the laws.

This communication is entirely too lengthy for us to publish in this newspaper, but we give excerpts. One paragraph is as follows:

"May I say this: That I have at no time made any statement or said anything that any good, honest, conscientious, law-abiding citizen in Garza county or any other county in West Texas could take offense at. I want to say here that I think the majority of people who live in Garza county are law-abiding, and may I say further, that I think a great majority of the people who live in West Texas are God-fearing, Christian, law-abiding citizens and I now ask your whole-hearted cooperation in the enforcement of the laws that come under my jurisdiction as your United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas."

Eastus again charges that there was "a well organized ring of dope peddlers who were flaunting the law, with no effort on the part of those whose sworn duty it was to enforce the law to prevent it." Then he proceeds to repeat charges that he has previously made relating to W. F. Cato, sheriff of Garza county, Dr. L. W. Kitchen, and Dr. V. A. Hartman, and again he states that approximately a carload of morphine and cocaine has been dispensed illegally by the doctors.

He claims that the Government could not have gotten a fair trial in the state court in Garza county. Such a trial, he says, would have been farce, etc. etc.

Little A. E. Houston Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Houston, has been suffering from an attack of diphtheria but is now reported as much improved. The patient is under quarantine and every reasonable precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

Crowd In Town On First Monday

Tahoka's monthly trades day brought many people to town Monday, in spite of the fact that this day followed so closely upon the Interscholastic League Meet held here Friday and Saturday.

Considering the times, the merchants enjoyed a good business.

JIM DYE NEW MAYOR OF CITY

Burleson, Bovell, And Parks Are Elected Aldermen; 166 Votes Cast

In the city election Tuesday, Jim Dye was elected mayor by an almost unanimous vote. His name was the only one printed on the ballot as a candidate for mayor and he received 137 votes. Twenty-eight voters wrote in the name of Carl Griffing and one wrote the name of Judge C. H. Cain.

There were four candidates for aldermen, three to be elected. The four whose names appeared on the ballot were S. E. Reid, Joe Bovell, Jim Burleson, and E. A. Park. The vote was as follows: Reid 73, Burleson 153, Bovell 140, and Park 124. Reid has been a member of the council the past several years. The new council is composed of J. L. Heare and W. O. Thomas, holdovers, and Jim Burleson, Joe Bovell, and E. A. Park, new members.

There were no candidates for city attorney but the names of Judge C. H. Cain and Hon. Tom Garrard were written in by the voters. Cain received 18 votes and Garrard 81.

There were likewise no candidates for city marshal, but the names of Mill Finch and Bill Anderson were written in. Finch received 27 votes and Anderson 19. Finch is the present city marshal.

Mahon Proposes New U. S. Court

Congressman George Mahon introduced a bill in the House of Representatives Monday, April 1, providing for the creation of a new Federal Judicial District in West Texas. The district is outlined to include those counties which have heretofore made up the Amarillo, Lubbock, San Angelo, and Abilene divisions. These divisions are now in the Northern District of Texas.

A study of the conditions of the courts now in the Northern District reveals that the four divisions in the proposed new district are from 6 to 12 months behind with their work. With a new judge resident in the territory included in the new district, the litigants will have the advantage of convenience and efficiency of the court itself should be greatly increased.

In commenting on the bill, Mr. Mahon said: "It is unfair for the people of West Texas to be compelled to travel all the way to Dallas or Fort Worth to contact a Federal Judge. This is often true when injunctions or special orders are sought. The three present judges of the Northern District reside in Fort Worth or Dallas. I believe that the new court can well be established on the basis of service rendered to the people of this great area."

WINS BLUE RIBBON

In giving the names of Tahoka people who won blue ribbons in the music festival in Lubbock last week, we failed to mention the name of Miss Helen Park, for the reason that her name was not given to us as one of the winners.

Miss Park did win a blue ribbon, however, in the ensemble, this being the second year in succession that she has won a blue ribbon in the music festival. She is a pupil of Miss Mary Dunn of Lubbock.

R. A. Hoover is able to be back at his place of business, after an attack of illness that confined him to his room several days.

CENSUS SHOWS FEW CHILDREN

Scholastic Enrollment For Tahoka 672, Secretary Of Board Griffing Announces

There has been a decided decrease in the number of scholastics in the Tahoka Independent School district during the past year, according to the rolls of Carl Griffing, census trustee and secretary of the school board.

A preliminary survey of the census taken by him in the month of March shows a total of 679 scholastics in the district now as compared with a total of 736 shown by the census of one year ago. The census two years ago, however, showed a total of only 672, seven below the number for this year.

The high number last year can be accounted for only by the fact that many people residing in other parts of the county had migrated to town, some of them being on the relief roll. Not so many people are here now on the relief roll as a year ago, it is said.

However, the schools in the rural districts are showing a decrease again this year, Mr. Griffing says. So, it seems evident that the people who had migrated from the country (Cont'd on last page)

College Quartet Coming Sunday

A home boy, Gordon Suits, will appear here in the Male Quartet of Hardin-Simmons University in a program to be given at the Baptist Church, beginning at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. The program will continue possibly one hour.

Gordon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Suits of this city and was quite a favorite here in music circles before he entered Simmons last fall. The entire quartet has won quite a reputation throughout West Texas, and the program next Sunday afternoon will doubtless be worth going miles to hear.

Everybody is cordially invited. There will be no admission charges.

BAYLOR COUNTY FARMERS LAY 10,600 FEET OF TILE

Seymour—More than 400 feet of subirrigation tile were laid by 18 farmers in Baylor county in January and February of this year, according to P. C. Colgin, county agricultural agent. In addition to the amount already laid, 2015 feet of tile are still in the hands of three local men who are making tile for sale and in the hands of three farmers who have not yet laid it in their gardens. During 1934, 10,600 feet of subirrigation tile were laid by Baylor county farmers.

SMITH IN TWO MEETINGS

Rev. H. C. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church, is conducting a revival at Roaring Springs this week. The meeting began last Sunday.

Next week he will conduct a revival at Friona.

The pulpit will be filled on Sundays during his absence.

ON HONOR ROLL

Last week we published the names of three pupils in the Tech from Tahoka who are on the honor roll. We are informed that Miss Margaret Wetzel's name should also have been included.

Oil Showing Found In Test West Of Tahoka

There was a little ripple of excitement here Tuesday afternoon when a report gained circulation that strong showings of gas and oil had been encountered in the Wanette-Hart Bros. Oil Company test well being drilled on the T-Bar ranch 10 miles west and south of Tahoka.

The first showing of oil came, it is said, at 4,160 feet; the second showing at about 4,180 feet. It is not believed, however, that pay oil has yet been struck. The showing has been sufficient, nevertheless, to attract oil people here from many parts of the state; and it is said that some of the big companies are now buying up leases in this territory.

JUDGERS TAKE POULTRY PRIZE

Tahoka High School Poultry Team Scores High In Annual Tech Judging Contest

In the annual Texas Tech Vocational Agriculture contest at Lubbock Monday of this week, Tahoka with only one team entered in the five groups, won the poultry contest. This team was high with a score of 1825 out of a possible 2100 and beat the next team, McLean, by 17 points. The team is composed of Harold Snowden, Robert Maddox, Joy Edwin Brown and Wilson Edwards.

High point individuals in this contest were: Robert Maddox making perfect score in egg judging, Joy Edwin Brown making 90 out of a possible 100 points on examination. In the entire poultry contest Brown placed second and Harold Snowden came in fifth. Monday night a (Cont'd on last page)

Masons To Have History Program

The part that Masons have played in the history of Texas will be discussed at a special meeting of the Masonic Lodge here next Tuesday night.

It is said that the Masons provided the funds with which to conduct the first public school in this state before it had yet won its independence from Mexico. The Masons have ever been staunch friends and supporters of public education.

This promises to be an interesting feature of the work and all Masons are urged to attend.

Resident Engineer Goes To Muleshoe

T. B. Ingram, resident state highway engineer who has been stationed in Tahoka since the building of No. 9 through the county was begun several months ago, has been transferred to Muleshoe and left for his new field of labor Wednesday. Mr. Ingram has made many friends here, who deeply regret his removal. He will be succeeded by C. F. Stanley of Lubbock, but Mr. Stanley will continue to reside in that city.

CLOVIS PASTOR HERE

Elder Clarence C. Morgan of Clovis, New Mexico, was here Tuesday night as the guest of Elder R. P. Drennon. Elder Morgan is the minister in charge of the Church of Christ at Clovis but has been called recently to the pastorate of the Church at Lamesa. He has not yet indicated whether he will accept.

C. A. Cashion returned Saturday from Trenton, Pannin county, where he has been residing the past year. Mr. Cashion says that some of the corn there is large enough to plow. He also says that onions are becoming an important crop there, more than 2,000 acres being planted in the vicinity of Trenton.

POWELL DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Prominent Business Man Was Buried At San Angelo Tuesday Afternoon

The death of J. H. Powell, 43, local manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Company, which occurred in the Lubbock Sanitarium at 4 o'clock Monday morning, brought genuine grief to a large circle of friends. The body was taken Monday to San Angelo, his native city, for burial.

Death came to this good man on swift wings. He was stricken with pneumonia on Sunday, March 24. Hiccoughing which could not be controlled nor abated developed about the middle of the week and he was taken to the sanitarium Thursday. Finally the hiccoughing was conquered but the patient grew no better otherwise.

Mr. Powell left surviving him the widow and two children: a son, Jared H. Jr., and a daughter, Martha Helen; a mother, Mrs. Martha Powell of San Angelo; five brothers, L. H. Tyler, D. N. of Fort Worth, Sam of Robert Lee, W. K. and E. H. Powell of San Angelo; and two sisters, Mrs. Mark Pulliam of Corsicana, and Mrs. T. B. Akin of San Angelo.

Mr. Powell and family had been residents of Tahoka about seven years. He came here in 1927 to take charge of the local yard of the Cicero Smith Lumber Company. During his residence here he has been an unassuming but useful citizen. He doubtless had not a single enemy here while he was blessed with a great circle of friends.

Mrs. Powell and the children have the deep and genuine sympathy of the people of Tahoka.

Softball Teams Are Organized

Tahoka softball fans met Tuesday night and laid plans for a summer-long program of recreation and fun. Five teams were organized: The Lumberjacks, the Fireboys, the Cleaners, the Oilers, and the Bankers.

A schedule of games is being prepared, each team to play two games each week. The first game will be staged next Monday afternoon between the Oilers and the Cleaners. The same diamond will be used this year as last.

The series of games last year not only provided recreation for the players but usually attracted large crowds of fans who enjoyed watching the sport.

Last year the Bankers won the first half of the series and the Cleaners the second half. Then in the final contest between the two winners, the Cleaners cleaned the Bankers. The money-changers are therefore going into this series with blood in their eye.

REMODELING FILLING STATION

A. I. Thomas is remodeling and rebuilding the structure in which Claude Wells is conducting a service station, known as the Billie Brandon place, on the highway just south of the courthouse square.

The completed structure will be 16 by 27 feet in size and will be neatly finished.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Smith returned last Thursday from Matador, where they were called by the death of Dorothy Nell Jameson, 11, a niece of Mrs. Smith, who was a victim of appendicitis.

WILSON GIRL'S HOG CHAMPION

Animal Takes Grand Championship; Lynn County Is Third In Baby Beef Show

Christine Wenzel, a Wilson school girl connected with county club work, won the grand championship on her entry in the hog division of the Meat Show held in Lubbock the first three days of this week, after having won first place in the junior group. Her sister, Lilly Wenzel, won third place in this group.

Another sister, Lorene Wenzel, won fifth place in the senior group, and Weldon Ahrens, also of Wilson, placed eighth.

Lynn county entrants also made a good showing in the calf division. Dickens county placed first, Stone-wall second, and Lynn third.

In the senior group, J. W. Gardenhire of O'Donnell won fifth place.

The grand championship was won by Durwood Pickens of Spur.

C. T. Potts Jr., winner of the senior group, showed a calf from the Bob King registered herd in Borden county. Mr. King was a former resident of Tahoka, being cashier of the now defunct Security State Bank for a number of years.

Many counties in this section of the state had entries in the show, and County Agent V. F. Jones is well pleased with the showing that Lynn county made.

Women Win On Canned Products

With fifteen counties competing, Lynn county won second place in the Canned Meat Division of the Quality Meat show in Lubbock this week. Lubbock county won the first prize, Hale county the third, Hookley fourth, and Jones fifth. Lubbock and Lynn were the only two counties having exhibits representing all their H. D. Clubs.

In the county team demonstration, with 15 counties competing, the Lynn county team composed of Mrs. L. R. McCormick and Mrs. Joe Poindexter of New Home won fifth place.

Lynn county was awarded two grand champion (purple) ribbons, three blue ribbons, one red ribbon, and several white and yellow ribbons.

Individual winnings by Lynn county H. D. club members are given as follows:

Best No. 2 can of sausage, solid pack: First, Mrs. Billingsley, of Gordon, and fifth, Mrs. H. O. Hargett of Edith.

Best No. 2 can of sausage, in cakes: First, Mrs. Billingsley of Gordon.

Canned Beef Products—Best No. 2 or 3 can roast: First Mrs. H. R. Williamson of Wilson; third, Mrs. L. R. McCormick of New Home.

Best No. 3 can of tamales: Third, Mrs. Joe Poindexter of New Home. Soap—Best half pound of cold soap: Fourth, Mrs. L. D. Mueller of Wilson.

Best half pound of cooked soap: Third, Mrs. Joe Poindexter of New Home.

Canned Chicken—Best No. 1 can boned chicken: Second, Mrs. J. T. Owens of Edith; Third, Mrs. Sam Holland of Edith; Fifth, Mrs. F. A. Anderson of O'Donnell.

Best No. 1 or 2 can ground chicken: Third, Mrs. G. N. McWhorter, New Home.

Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, is delighted with the splendid showing that Lynn county women made.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Among the Tahoka people who attended the funeral of J. H. Powell at San Angelo Tuesday were Alvin Hicks, Joe Nevils, Supt. J. B. Pace Jr., Mmes. C. B. Townes, Oscar Roberts, H. A. Maasen, Jack Alley, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gagnat, Miss Gaudette Tate, Jack Alley Robinson, and Nathan Woosley. There were possibly others whose names we failed to get.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

For several years following the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment and the enactment of the Volstead law in Washington and the Dean law in Texas, the liquor laws were reasonably well enforced. In the cities of Texas as well as in the rural districts, comparatively little liquor was sold. For several years even the wets in the North and East lay dormant and little protest against liquor laws was heard. Most of the wealthy wets had supplies of liquor in their homes as a hang-over from pre-Volstead days. As these stocks began to run low, these wets began to raise a cry for repeal of national prohibition. The cry was rather feeble to begin with, but it rapidly increased in volume and vociferousness. They began to employ the newspapers and the magazines through which to spread their propaganda. Then came the campaign of 1928. Al Smith made repeal the paramount issue. The dripping wets all rushed to his support.
He was defeated by an overwhelming majority; but the wets in the Republican party immediately thereafter joined with the wets in the Democratic party to bring about repeal. As they waged their fight, more and more lax became the enforcement of the law. In 1932, the Democrats again demanded repeal and the Republicans virtually did
so. That meant that national prohibition was doomed. Many peace officers gleefully ignored the dry laws. Others felt that it was no use and made little effort to enforce them. Then when the Eighteenth Amendment was actually repealed,

the whole fabric of prohibition,
state as well as national, seemed to collapse. Since that time little effort has been made in the cities and wet centers of the states to enforce their local prohibition laws. This has been the case in Texas. The cities have been almost wide open.
Saloons have been operating almost as openly as they did before statewide prohibition came fifteen years ago. It was a shame and a disgrace.
It was a fine thing that Governor James V. Alfred did, therefore, when he ordered the rangers to enforce the law. They have been closing these liquor palaces and smashing luxurious and expensive gambling paraphernalia. It looks as if law and order were to have an inning
again. Hurrah for Jimmie!

Soil erosion and water conservation are the two big problems vitally affecting West Texas and a number of other states yet to be solved.
The present administration has made a start. The shelter belt will prove of little value unless it is extended to cover the entire region,
and it may not amount to much then. But it will help, and we hope that the movement is carried to a successful conclusion whether Roosevelt continues to occupy the White House after the next election or not. In the meantime, other methods of protecting the soil against the ravages of wind will doubtless be employed. In the meantime also an extensive and sustained water conservation program for the semi-arid sections of the United States should be begun.
There is no richer soil anywhere
than that which covers these plains,
and it should be preserved for the use of future generations as well as ourselves.

George Mahon has introduced a bill in congress to create a new federal district in west and northwest Texas. The district would include the cities of San Angelo, Abilene, Lubbock, and Amarillo, within its bounds, embracing the entire Panhandle and Plains region and much of the sub-arctic territory. Mahon is advocating the creation of this new district in lieu of the proposal that is being made in congress to give the North Texas District three permanent judges. This district includes all the above mentioned territory together with Dallas, Fort Worth, and much of the surrounding territory. Two of the three judges reside in Dallas, Judge Meeks
and Judge Atwell, and the third one,
Judge Wilson, resides in Fort Worth.
Mahon's bill was introduced in response to the general demand of the lawyers of west and northwest Texas. It has merit and should be passed.

THE CROOKED LAWYER
No profession should hold to higher levels of honor, integrity and plain honesty than should the law.
The right to practice in the courts of justice carries with it a vast and inescapable obligation to the public.
Most lawyers live up to the essential standards—a few do not. And these few, as Courtney Ryley Cooper points out in an interview with Attorney-General Cummings, appearing in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, are as much the enemies of the public as the gangster they defend.
Mr. Cooper cites almost incredible instances of lawyers who are retained by known criminals and are given large sums of money to use in any way they like—so long as acquittal
is obtained for the underworld client. Such lawyers worry little about evidence or justice—they know that bribery is a more effective weapon. They train their clients like actors, so that when they appear on the witness stand they can make
"staged" answers to any question.
They obtain perjured alibis—and buy off prosecution witnesses. In Mr. Cooper's words, "It is all fakery, crookedness, chicanery."
Bar associations, the judiciary and honest individuals are working tirelessly to rid society of this type of lawyer. But, as the interview points out, all such worthy efforts are doomed to failure without aggressive public support. Many people are inclined to be amused by the unethical lawyer—they even go so far as to admire the "cleverness"
with which he manages to circumvent the ends of justice. So long as this attitude obtains, the shyster will prosper—and the ethics of the legal profession will suffer accordingly.
The law is the very life-blood of society. Its honest administration is our main defense against medieval darkness. The crooked lawyer minces us all—and his good offices (at high price) on behalf of the most desperate criminals are carried on at the expense of the entire public.—Industrial News-Review.

We never make prophecies about the weather. We don't know what tomorrow is to be stormy or as peaceful as a mountain lake on a breathless moonlight night. We don't know whether it is to be hot as blazes or as cold as Iceland. But these mesquite bushes hardly ever lie. They scarcely ever get fooled.
They say that spring is here. They are beginning to send out their green leaves, and only once since we have been living on these plains
have we had freezing weather after the mesquites began to don their greenery. Once, to be sure, they did get badly fooled. They decked themselves out in a brilliant verdant garb, and then old Boreas came sweeping back from the north, leaving death in his wake, and the next day the mesquites were as naked as a beach beauty. But as a rule, the Mesquite never dresses up in spring clothes until spring arrives. So we hope that April will bring its showers but no snow, no frost, no biting winds.

WIND AND EROSION
It is strange how nature alters man's course. Two months ago wind erosion control was just one of the several important features of soil erosion control. By virtue of a series of unprecedented dust storms, wind erosion control becomes of paramount importance, and the word from Washington is that funds for controlling wind erosion may be the first to come from the work relief bill. That is an important development to the people of the plains
areas.—Temple Telegram.

The ingenious Dr. Tugwell, most conspicuous survivor of the erstwhile brain trust, has been directed to take the congressional appropriation and put a stop to wind erosion.
Money is sometimes said to be able to do anything, and we shall look on with admiration as Dr. Tugwell stills the wind with dollars. But he may not undertake to calm the winds. He may decide to let the wind blow where it listeth, while he sows the wide expanses with cover crops. The great plains originally were carpeted with grass. The wind could puff and it could huff, but it couldn't blow the grass out. Along came the man with the plow and started putting plowed land where grass land was before. The plow did away with the grass and started the dust. Today there are wide areas in half a dozen states that ought to be grassed instead of cropped. Dr.
Tugwell may succeed in restoring these areas to pasture. It is hardly possible for him to stop wind erosion otherwise. Certainly some years are worse for such erosion than some other years. Drouth makes dust and the wind raises it. Nothing can be done to make the wind
lie. Not even swarms of windmills would grind up all the wind, and we hope Dr. Tugwell gives no consideration to any such proposal for the use of his appropriation.—State Press in Dallas News.

Charley Guy, known to the readers in his "colyum" in the Lubbock Journal as "The Plainsman", gave his clientele a pleasant surprise Monday by leaving his entire column
blank except for the two words
"April Fool" printed in the middle of it. The only fly in the ointment was his photograph appearing at the top of the column. For Heaven's sake, Charley, why didn't you leave the picture off too?

just passed into history probably brought more high winds and sand

more cursing out on these plains

of the white man into this region.
We are devoutly hoping that April acts more circumspectly.

First of a Series of Statements on the New "Ultimate" Rate for Residential Service

STARTS THIS MONTH MORE ELECTRICITY IS AVAILABLE AT NO EXTRA COST

Without a doubt the thought has many a time come to you that you would like to have at your disposal a larger amount of electric current in your home at no increased cost. This same problem has been at the foundation of a careful, thorough study on the part of your electric company and our efforts in this direction have been successful. The application of the "ultimate" rate will be reflected in the electric service bill you will receive May 1st and thereafter.

You are cordially invited to visit our local office where the unusual benefits of the new "ultimate" rate can be easily shown you. In fact, it is to your advantage to become familiar immediately with the possibilities under the rate. You do not have to sign any agreement, but merely put to work some of your idle appliances, fill up the empty sockets, or eliminate a number of the menial tasks by the substitution of some of the labor-saving appliances which you may have deferred buying—and remember that under the rate's application there's little, if any, increased cost to you.

The liberalization of electric consumption is in step with your own desires for more current and in such an inexpensive manner.

Museum Society Holds Annual Meet

The sixth annual meeting of the Plains Museum Society was held in the auditorium of the engineering building of the Texas Technological College Friday afternoon and night, with a buffet supper served in the lounge of the Women's Dormitory. Tahoka people present included the publishers of the News and their wives.

Appearing on the afternoon program were Dr. C. J. Wagner and Prof. Gus L. Ford, both of Lubbock, and Prof. L. F. Sheffey of Canyon. The principal speakers at the night session were Dr. W. C. Holden of the Texas Tech and Mr. W. G. McMillan of Lubbock, with Dr. Bradford Knapp presiding.

At the conclusion of the program, Dr. Holden presented to the Society a collection of curios and other handiwork of the Yaqui Indians of Mexico, which he and others had gathered on an expedition to that country.

The purpose of this organization is to create an interest throughout this section of the state in gathering material for and building a museum at the Texas Technological College at as early a date as possible.

A business meeting followed, at which Dr. L. T. Patton was elected President, succeeding Prof. Gus L. Ford. A number of vice-presidents and other officers were also elected.

B. R. Tate is still confined to his bed with flu and other complications, and is not showing much improvement.

Brown, acting postmaster, appointed at the expiration of the Republican appointee's term, J. L. Vaughn.

The new appointee, an abstractor, served six years as Lubbock county clerk. He was reared in Crosby county. He is well known by many Tahoka people, and is a brother of Mrs. Frank Hill.

Local Men Attend Judges' Convention

County Judge W. E. Smith reported a most excellent meeting of the county judges and commissioners association of West Texas held in Brownwood on Friday and Saturday of last week. Others attending from this county were Commissioners George Small, Jim Izard, and Waldo McLaurin. "Happy" says George Small could hardly listen to the proceedings of the convention, however, on account of his friends. George grew up down in that country somewhere, and Hap says the cow-punchers kept George busy shaking hands.

The territory of this association embraces 119 counties, and naturally there was a large attendance. Among those present were Attorney General William McCraw and State Treasurer Charley Lockhart.

Many matters of importance were discussed and a number of resolutions were adopted. Among these were: A resolution asking the legislature to enact a law requiring the State to assume and pay the lateral road bonds of the various counties of the state, and to add one cent to the gasoline tax to take care of this added burden. The claim was made that this would enable commissioners courts to greatly reduce the ad valorem tax and relieve a great majority of the tax payers.

Second: A resolution placing the convention on record as favoring a bill now pending in congress to appropriate $200,000,000 of Federal funds to be spent in improving lateral roads in the various states of the Union.

Third: A resolution to move back to January the time for paying the automobile license tax.

Fourth: A resolution in favor of an amendment to the law requiring county prisoners who fail to pay their fines to lay the same out in the county jail at the rate of $1.00 per day instead of $3.00 per day as the law now provides. The argument for the resolution is that it will induce prisoners to pay their fines rather than lie them out in jail.

The girls tried on their dresses and fitted them with the help of Mrs. Etter.

GARZA'S FIRST SHERIFF PREDICTS FREEZE IN APRIL

One of Garza county's pioneer citizens, none other than our first sheriff, O. B. Kelly, comes to us with a bit of information that may be worth while to check. Mr. Kelly has invited us to make a note of his weather forecast for the first part of April.

"On April 8th, and possibly the 11th, we are in for a killing freeze," Mr. Kelly said. "On February 8th of this year it thundered and I am told it also thundered on the 11th, however I did not hear it on the latter date. When it thunders the first part of February, you can mark it will sure as thunder freeze on the same date in April," Kelly is quoted as saying.

Mr. Kelly claims that his sister told him this many years ago and that he makes it a point to check up on it each year. "It never fails to check," Mr. Kelly said.—Post Dispatch.

Tahoka also came in for a liberal slice of the track honors. A complete list of winners in all events is found elsewhere in this paper.

Some of the winners will go to Lubbock to participate in the district meet Friday and Saturday of this week.

ARE YOU A DREAMER?
The greatest of all men are dreamers. Not the possessors of idle illusions or mysterious interruptions of slumber but possessors of vision that often seems so unreal, that their fellowmen term it "merely a dream."

America was discovered, the Panama Canal built, aviation perfected, as well as many other notable achievements because of some one's vision, that seemed so unreal that it too was termed "merely a dream."

High school campuses are not excepted, each has its "dreamer". Usually an insignificant person in the opinion of the average student "the dreamer" is a poor mixer and enjoys only limited acquaintances.

School life to him offers few pleasures yet his associates who today scarcely care as to his existence are destined to honor him tomorrow. The man with vision, in time, becomes the champion of his vocation. —Clipped.

LOY PERFORMS DAREDEVIL ROLE IN NEW PICTURE

Cast in the role of a daredevil aviator who risks life and limb for sake of the man she loves, Myra Loy, screen favorite, heads the cast of Paramount's "Wings in the Dark" which shows at the English Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Cary Grant, —"tall, dark and handsome," is coupled with Miss Loy in the romantic leads of the picture as an aviator who is a sensation and adventurer. His life is devoted to making flight safe through the perfection of instruments for blind flying.

On the eve of the transatlantic flight which will prove the complete success of his experiments, he is blinded by an accident.

Despairing of ever recovering his sight and disdaining charity, he retires to a cabin in the woods to brood. But Miss Loy, who loves him, persuades him to return to his work, even furnishes money which he believes is coming from a series of articles on aviation which he is publishing.

Just as his experiments are nearing completion the airplane is recovered by the company from whom he bought it. Then Miss Loy, in a final effort to help him, undertakes a flight from Moscow to New York for an enormous purse.

In a final, gripping climax Cary Grant goes aloft to bring Miss Loy down when she is fog-bound above the landing field at the end of the flight. An accident restores his sight and the two lovers are happily united.

Directed by James Flood, "Wings in the Dark" features Roscoe Karns, Hobart Cavanaugh and Dean Jagger in the supporting roles.

Black-Draught For Dizziness, Headache Due To Constipation

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught several years and find it splendid," writes Mr. G. W. Holley, of St. Paul, Va. "I take it for dizziness or headache (due to constipation). I have never found anything better. A short while ago, we began giving our children Syrup of Black-Draught as a laxative for colds and little stomach ailments, and have found it very satisfactory. . . . Millions of packages of Theford's Black-Draught are required to satisfy the demand for this popular, old reliable, purely vegetable laxative. 25¢ a package. *Children like the Syrup."

TYPHOID FEVER DANGEROUS HITCH-HIKING DISEASE

Austin, April 6—A warning against the hitch-hiking germ of typhoid fever has just been issued by Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. They must catch a ride from an infected person to the well person; this is generally accomplished by water, milk, flies, fingers, or food. Every case is contracted by way of the mouth and digestive system.

A carrier is a person who has had typhoid fever at some time and who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in the urine and discharge of the bowels. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands. Some of the most serious and far-reaching outbreaks of the disease have been caused by drinking milk or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. Persons may be carriers without knowing it.

Typhoid fever is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the ignorance or carelessness of some individual. Persons planning a vacation or trip where sanitation may not be rigidly enforced should protect themselves against this disease by being vaccinated. Three inoculations with typhoid vaccine, a week apart, are all that is necessary to secure protection against this disease for two years. The purity of water, milk, or food cannot be judged by looking at it, so the best thing to do is to play safe and have your physician protect you.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Weathers returned Monday from Celeste, Hunt county, where they spent the winter. Mr. Weathers says that they even had some dust storms down there.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN NEXT YEAR

According to all signs, the Presidential campaign of 1936 is likely to make that of 1932—which was considered exceptionally bitter—look like a tea party. Issues are forming, forces are appearing, that are entirely unprecedented in American politics.

It seems inevitable that there will be a third party in the field—and it seems equally inevitable that that party will be of the extreme left. It may be led by Huey Long, backed by Father Coughlin, and use as its appeal the "Every Man a King" thesis. It may be led by a Townsend Plan advocate, promising prosperity for all through governmental largesse to the aged. It may be led by someone who stands for something we haven't yet heard of.

Few think that the third party candidate would win—the Electoral College system of counting votes for the Presidency makes that practically impossible, as Roosevelt the first discovered, and La Follette the elder did after him. The third party's importance lies in what effect it will have on the vote obtained by the regular Republican and Democratic party candidates—and therein is an opportunity for endless conjecture.

Backers of the President pooh-pooh the third party, say he is certain to win a sweeping victory in '36 whether the movement materializes or not. Opponents of the President hold that the third party would draw millions of votes that would otherwise go to Mr. Roosevelt, would thus indirectly cause the election of a conservative Republican, who would have the support of most business men, together with the party's established following.

It was that aspect of the question which General Johnson spoke on in his amazing speech of a fortnight ago. Whatever you think of the General's views, you have to admit he has courage, he isn't afraid to speak his mind. In his speech, he made a bitter attack on Long and Coughlin and all they stood for. Then he turned and lashed the conservatives who might encourage them in order to draw support away from Roosevelt and split the liberal-radical camp. General Johnson said that such political opportunism pushes the American democracy steadily toward a "licking or a dictator." It is an interesting fact that, following the speech, the General's views were heartily endorsed in many substantial quarters—including newspapers, public men and industrialists.

A question of the hour is, How does Mr. Roosevelt's strength compare to what it was a year ago? The answer, made by boiling down the opinion of a legion of observers, is that he is slipping—but that he still has the confidence of the bulk of the voters. That, of course, does not answer the question of how far he may slip—or have regained or added strength—by next year. That, in turn, is going to depend on the state of recovery.

At the present time, the recovery program has failed in various important particulars—and, in addition, it has become confused with the reform program. Unemployment soars. More people are on relief than ever. Industry is sitting still, and many leaders seem pessimistic. A belief is prevalent that the President's program has lost direction—that it is whirling around in circles, is going nowhere.

It is a fact which supports the hopes of third party radicals—they feel that the people, if they see the failure of a more moderate program, will go far for one that is really left-wing. And the conservatives, strangely enough, base their hopes on exactly the same thing—they believe that a Roosevelt collapse would send voters scurrying back to right-wing of conomic thought.

What is right? Guess as much as you like—but don't bet on it.—Industrial News Review.

CONTINENTAL OIL ADOPTS NOVEL ADVERTISING PLAN

One of the most unusual and dramatic ways ever conceived to exploit the use of newspaper advertising has been adopted by the Continental Oil Company. A novel contest has been inaugurated whereby during the coming Spring months cars and trucks will be seen on the streets and highways of some forty states plastered in hodge-podge compelling fashion with reprints of Continental's newspaper advertisements.

In addition to the circulation of ten million that Continental Oil Company gets for its advertising by using 1,363 daily and weekly newspapers, Continental's advertisements through this unique stunt will do double duty this Spring.

The unique appearance of Continental cars and trucks not only serves to call attention to the Conoco campaign now running in newspapers, but also reminds Conoco salesmen of the tremendous number of car owners who read about Conoco products throughout the year in their newspapers.

It is estimated that more than 3,000 cars and trucks will participate in the stunt. Aside from this company-owned and operated vehicles, it is expected that a good percentage of the 22,000 Conoco dealers will likewise participate.

CLUB WOMAN FILLS PANTRY IN SPIRE OF DROUTH, HAIL

Crowell — "I have fought the drouth and hail storms this year to fill my food budget but by planning and trading articles of which I had a surplus I managed to cap 1072 pints valued at $163.92," Mrs. H. H. Beggs, farm food supply demonstrator for the West Side Home Demonstration Club of Foard county, told Miss Myrna Holman, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Beggs sold a calf to buy corn and tomatoes and sold enough cream and eggs to pay for her fruit. The total expense of her garden seed, cans, sugar, and of shelves added to her cellar was not more than $20, she reports.

Mrs. Beggs stored her canned goods in her cellar which was dark and had no shelves. With the help of her sister, she built enough shelves to hold her canned products, painted them white, and then whitewashed the walls and the ceiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Eihon Barley have their first son, born Sunday night, they have three daughters. Mother and babe doing well.

The First "Alloyed Oil"

—for better lubrication of today's high-speed, alloy-steel motors!

YOUR MOTOR is built of parts made of special alloy metals. Car manufacturers and metallurgists worked together to produce metal alloys strong and durable enough to withstand the greatly increased pressures and temperatures of the modern motor.

Oils, too, must withstand these pressures and temperatures and they must have extra oiliness and film strength to do it. Yet oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength than they had ten years ago. And many new refining methods now used to make oils free from carbon and sludge have lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength!

Continental, pioneering as it has pioneered for 60 years, has developed the first alloyed oil—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! It is custom-made for high-speed, alloy-steel motors. It has 2 to 4 times the film strength of straight mineral oil, as tests on the Timken machine have proved! It has more oiliness than any oil has naturally. It penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, forming a permanent lubricating film—the "Hidden Quarr". It is a pure, clean oil, free from carbon and sludge troubles. It gives extraordinary mileage as well as motor protection, as proved by the Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Say "O.K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and you will have the finest lubrication you can buy!

Alloyed by the Germ Process

Just as the metallurgist adds small amounts of other metals to make special alloy steels, so we add small quantities of a concentrated oily essence to highly-refined, paraffin-base motor oil. This Germ Processing, discovered and patented by Continental scientists, gives Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil lubricating qualities no other oil has.

CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL

They took a planned trip and enjoyed it.

"The Conoco Travel Bureau at Denver sent a complete free plan for our trip—marked road maps of every state and travel booklets and hotel and camp directories. They also sent excellent information on where to fish."

"We stopped at Conoco stations along our way for many helpful, free services. You can apply at any Conoco station for such a plan for your motor trip."

SING-SONG STAGED HERE LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

 rural schools of the county were represented. County Superintendent H. P. Caveness presided while Miss Madeline Ely of West Point was the general director, with Miss Lois Webb of Wells as piano accompanist.

The first selection of the program consisted of a series of numbers by the Junior Chorus, consisting of 75 children of the primary grades.

Then came a series of special numbers given respectively by pupils of Draw, Petty, Newmoore, Grassland, Dixie, and West Point schools. All these were much enjoyed. Among these numbers were two Rhythm bands, one from Petty and the other from West Point, the latter in uniform.

The last portion of the program consisted of four numbers by the Senior Chorus, made up of 70 or 75 voices, and a final number by both choruses, America.

Programs similar to this are being conducted in many of the counties of Texas, this being a state-wide movement inaugurated by State Superintendent L. A. Woods. If the programs generally are successful as the one rendered here, the permanence of this innovation is assured. As County Superintendent H. P. Caveness observed in a brief introductory talk, it is fully as important that the children learn to sing as to learn many other subjects that are taught in the public schools.

into town prior to the taking of the census last year have not returned to the rural districts of this county. They have gone somewhere, but nobody seems to know just where.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion among those who have studied the situation that the Government's cotton reduction program and the increased use of tractors have driven many people from the farms of the county. They came first to the towns of the county and thence drifted elsewhere, probably to the cities.

large loving cup was awarded the local team in the livestock pavilion. McLean won sweepstakes in the five divisions of the contests, while Post captured more cups than any other school represented. McLean won the farm shop loving cup as a permanent trophy, having won it three times in succession. Post won plant production and dairy judging contests, besides Guernsey judging.

Melvin was livestock winner. J. D. Strickland, coach of the local winning team, had the honor of being the only 1934 Tech graduate with a winning team at this contest.

Because of the commendable record which this team has made this year, it will compete in the A. & M. contest on April 15.
