TOM CONNALLY ASSERTS AMERICA DESIRES PEACE BUT WANTS PREPAREDNESS

Declaring "The United States and its people are lovers of peace," and "we want no part in any European war," Senator Tom Connally of Texas, in a radio broadcast by electric transcription from Washington Tuesday night, July 23rd, asserted: "The most imperative duty of the American people and of their servants in Congress is to adequately arm and prepare our nation in self-defense that our security may be secured."

"We have treasure that may well attract the ambition and the greed and the avarice of military masters and conquerors, who may seek to dominate the world," Senator Connally stressed, adding: "We are determined that none of them dominates the United States of America."

"Our security requires defense within as well as without," Senator Connally continued, saying: "All un-American activities must be stamped out. The fifth column must go."

Explaining inability to return to Texas this summer as has been his custom, Senator Connally said: "My post of duty is in Washington. Congress is in session. The most important and vital concerns of the American people are being considered. I think Congress should remain on duty. I shall remain on duty as long as the emergency requires."

Army Air Cadets Are In Demand

An opportunity to earn $75.00 per month while learning to be an aviator with all expenses paid by the United States Government is now available to young men of the Nation.

Unmarried men between the ages of 20 and 27 years are eligible to receive this training. They must be citizens of the United States and must have two years college work or pass a written examination in lieu thereof.

They also must be of excellent character, sound physique, and excellent health.

Graduates of the Flying Cadet course will receive commissions as Reserve Officers in the United States Army Air Corps. They will serve to the extent permitted by Congressional appropriations as Officers of the Regular Army Air Corps, and will receive Regular Army Officers' pay during this service.

During the period of training with tactical units of the Air Corps, the Air Corps Reserve Officer has the opportunity to observe all various phases of aviation and, in addition to build up his flying experience toward the objective of every Air Corps Reserve Officer a total of 1,200 hours flying time.

This accomplished, he will be eligible as to total flying time to secure a rating from the Civil Aeronautics Authority as an Airline transport pilot.

At present Airline pilots receive an average of $600 per month and co-pilots from $190 to $350 per month.

In addition to intensive flying training the Air Corps Reserve Officers during his tour of extended active duty, receives instructions in Air Corps Navigation, Engineering, Radio, and Armament.

This special training helps to qualify the Air Corps Reserve Officer for administrative and executive positions in the industry.

Aviation leaders agree that the best foundation for the majority of positions in the field of aeronautics is through pilot training.

Eligible young men interested in the opportunities offered to Flying Cadets should apply in person at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Room 217 Post Office Building in Lubbock or at the Army Recruiting Stations in Amarillo, Plainview,

Way "Build-up" Helps Will Interest Women

The cause of a woman's periodic suffering from headache, irritability, cramp-like pain, may be functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, a condition that is often helped by CARDUI.

Principal way CARDUI helps is by stimulating appetite and the flow of gastric juices. Thus it may aid digestion; help build up a woman's strength, energy and nerve-force; so increase physical resistance to periodic discomfort.

It also helps reduce periodic distress for many who take it a few days before and during "the time." Your confidence in CARDUI is invited by its 50 years of popularity.

P. T. A. HEALTH OFFICE PLANS RE-SCHOOL ROUND-UP

The Tahoka Parent-Teachers' Association with the cooperation of the County Health Department is sponsoring a free clinic for all children who will start to school this fall.

The purpose of this Round-up is to arouse the interest of parents in improving the health of children entering school for the first time, and to bring about continuous medical and dental supervision of children of all ages, especially of those who are apparently healthy.

Your local P. T. A. unit urges that the parents of Lynn county lend your support to this worthy cause. Parents of children who are starting to school this fall will be advised as to the time and place of the Clinic. —Mrs. Guy Stroud, President, Tahoka Parent-Teachers' Association.

REV. W. C. HINDS WILL CONDUCT REVIVAL AT DIXIE CHURCH

During the past ten years he has served three years as pastor of the First Church at Childress, four years as Presiding Elder of Perryton District, and is now in his third year as pastor at Midland.

His many friends in Tahoka and surrounding communities will be glad to know of his return to Lynn county for these few days and will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him while at Dixie.—G. W. McLain, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH

Summer is fast passing away, and the Conference year with it. Let us do our very best to attend all the services of worship and study and work that the church and its auxiliaries afford. Some of our faithful workers by reason of age and others by removal from the community make it necessary to continually replenish the supply of teachers, singers, etc. If you are willing to labor in the Lord's vineyard we can find a place for you in some field of endeavor.

Two of our intermediates enjoyed the Ceta Canyon camp and others are already planning to go next year. If you have opportunities on your vacations to attend any of our summer Assemblies do so and you will have a new vista opened before your eyes.

The pastor will assist in a revival in Ropesville next week and following, but will return for Sunday services. All services as usual Infant Baptism Sunday morning.—Geo. E. Turrintine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite and daughters, Greta and Dorothy, left Wednesday morning for Cheyenne, Wyoming, to attend the big rodeo being staged there this week. They expect to go from there to Lake City, Colorado, for a week of fishing and resting.

J. H. Dyer and family are planning to move to San Angelo early next week, the News is informed.

Sonny Roberts left Tuesday to join the Roberts family up in the White Mountains near Ruidoso.

A Gentle Laxative Good For Children

Most any child who takes this tasty laxative once will welcome it the next time he's constipated and it has him headachy, cross, listless, with bad breath, coated tongue or little appetite.

Syrup of Black-Draught is a tasty liquid companion to the famous BLACK-DRAUGHT. The principal ingredient is the same in both products; helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles.

The Syrup's flavor appeals to most children, and, given by the simple directions, its action is usually gentle, but thorough. Remember Syrup of Black-Draught next time. Two sizes: 50c and 25c.

DRAW-GRASSLAND METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor, Mary Gene Luttrell and Kenneth Caswell returned Friday from the Intermediate Camp at Ceta Canyon, composed of Lubbock and Sweetwater districts. All report a nice time.

The beginners' class led by Mrs. J. E. Sherrill gave the pastor a happy surprise Sunday morning with a basket filled with jellies, preserves and other good things to eat. This was a fine birthday remembrance.

The revival begins at Grassland Wednesday night and will continue through August 4th. Rev. Preston Florence will do the preaching. May we count on you with your presence and cooperation in this special effort? It is for you, will you take advantage of it?

The revival at Draw begins Sunday night, August 4th, with Rev. R. S. Watkins of Panhandle doing the preaching. Keep this date in mind and attend these services. You will enjoy them.—The Pastor.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

We are on the eve of a hot Presidential campaign. At this time, it looks to us as if there will be two over-shadowing issues in the campaign, the third term issue and the power of the public service corporations in politics and government.

Next Saturday will be primary election day. We are sure that in many instances our preference will not be nominated. Some of our favorites possibly will not even get in the run-off where there is a run-off.
But in this country, elections on the whole are fair. We all believe in majority rule. Therefore we gracefully submit to the will of the majority.
That is how democracy works, and we are proud of the fact that here it has a chance to work. In some countries, if a faction can not win by ballots it undertakes to win by bullets. In some countries there is not even a pretense that the people have a right to rule. Some dictator or some little bunch of autocrats asserts the right to rule the people, denying them any voice in governmental affairs. That is the doctrine that Hitler is trying to put over on the world today. It is passing strange that there is even one Hitlerite in our own country.

Some good citizens have become super-sensitive about what they call mud-slinging. Discussion of a man's political record is not mud-slinging.
Discussion of a man's personal honesty is not necessarily mud-slinging.
Honesty and competency are necessary qualifications for any office. If a man has been dishonest in his dealings, disreputable in his private conduct, or is grossly incompetent to perform the duties of an office, these matters should be known by the voters. When a person knowing the facts undertakes to make them known, he may not be "slinging mud"; he may be performing a patriotic duty.
Usually, if a candidate or other person proceeds to tell the truth on the other fellow's candidate we cry,
"Pour it on". If he tells on our candidate, we call it "mud-slinging".

This political game is funny business. Up till about 1924, nobody knew whether Herbert Hoover was a Democrat or a Republican. He had served in important positions under Woodrow Wilson. Then he began to flirt with the Republicans and they nominated him for the Presidency in 1928.
The Democrats nominated Al Smith.
Hundreds of thousands of good Democrats rebelled and voted for Hoover. They were castigated as bolters from Texas to Virginia. Smith wanted to be nominated again in 1932 but the Donkey smiled benevolently upon Franklin D. Smith got miffed and bolted the party himself.
Roosevelt was elected but placed two or three erstwhile Republicans in his cabinet. One of them last week was nominated by the Democrats for the vice-presidency. Roosevelt recently named two other Republicans to cabinet positions and the Republicans themselves yelled their heads off in protest. Then they turned around and nominated as their candidate for the Presidency a man who until two years ago had been a Democrat. Roosevelt himself has publicly stated more than once that he has not always voted the straight Democratic ticket. So, what we want to know is, Are there any brass-collar Democrats left? Some are asking, Are there any Democrats of any kind left?

Odds and Ends See Eye, the Elder

Well, folks, we guess a lot of you attended the big Democratic convention in Chicago last week. We mean you tuned in your radio and listened to the proceedings. You probably attended the big Republican convention at Philadelphia in the same manner a few weeks ago.

So, what do you think of the big national pow-wows by this time?
Don't you think there could be a decided improvement in the manner in which they carry on?

We do.
There has been improvement in practically everything else. Long ago
we discarded the services of old Lep and Spot, Buck and Jerry. Then we put the old buggy in the shed and turned old Dobbin out to pasture.
We are now shelving old Jack and Pete and Beck and Kit and pulling our plows with tractors. The old Model T has given way to the v-8
and the Cadillac.

Our schools and our church services have been modernized and adapted to the present-day manner of life, whether they have been improved or not.

But we are holding our big party conventions in about the same old way that we held them a half a century ago.

To one listening in on one of these conventions over the radio, most of their proceedings sounded like a lot of fanfare and foolishness, of pure-dec hokum and hokey.

Take those "demonstrations", for instance. The Republicans put on a great demonstration when Governor Stassen, that boy from Wisconsin, concluded his speech at the Philadelphia convention. Then they demonstrated again when Hoover spoke.
And they put on a big parade
neverthing when Willie was nominated.

Then the Democrats just had to out-do the Republicans. They tried to get up steam while Bankhead was delivering the keynote address. They hollered and yelled again when Barkley stirred up the natives. And then when Roosevelt was placed in nomination by that fellow from Alabama,

everybody was so taken by surprise and so thrilled that they marched and yelled for nigh onto thirty minutes.
The chairman banged his gavel till he almost wore out the gavel as well as the stand on which he was hammering. It was a great demonstration!

Say, folks, didn't all that sound silly? Haven't we about outgrown all that sort of foolishness? What did those howling fighting, marching guys think they were accomplishing anyway? Did they make any votes for their respective candidates by the howls with which they rent the air?
If so, the delegates whose votes they won must register about zero in intelligence.

Any intelligent person listening in
on these "demonstrations" naturally concluded that about one per cent of it was spontaneous enthusiasm and ninety-nine per cent of it was propaganda—propaganda so transparent that it failed to register very impressively.

O that our national conventions
would cut out all this hokey and act like men who at least had common sense!

Yes, and why not cut out the soph-

istry, the bombast, the intemperate
and senseless praise of our side and the senseless and intemperate abuse of the other side? There is in fact a lot of good and some evil in the make-up of the men on the other side and there is likewise some good and a lot of evil in the make-up of the men on our side. None of them is wholly bad, and none of us is perfect. Every voter in this country that knows as much as a duck knows that, and yet we talk and act as if we were trying to make the people believe that all our folks are angels and all the other fellows are devils. Why can't we be sensible in our national conventions just as we try to be sensible back in our homes and our offices and our stores.

There is one thing about the Democratic convention that so far has been a mystery to us. Why did they put up that Senator Hill of Alabama to place Roosevelt in nomination? He may be an able man and he may be a great orator, but if he had been down here in Texas making a stump speech as a candidate for governor or sumpin' and had employed the brand of oratory that he used before that Chicago convention, he would have become the laughing-stock of his audience in fifteen minutes. Many Southern orators are noted for their peculiar Southern drawl, but his particular drawl was the limit.

The long-drawn-out intonation of his words, the dolorous, sonorous sound of his voice, and his grandilo-quent, grandiose style was enough to lull any baby to sleep and to excite the risibilities of any intelligent grown person. It was a show worth the money, a show worth any man's money. Will some delegate to the Chicago convention please up and tell us why they put that bird up to

RE-ELECT
GEORGE
MAHON
FOR CONGRESS

He has remained at his post of duty in Washington during our grave national emergency with a firm resolve to serve the Nation in every possible way regardless of political considerations.
Congress is still in session and he is working for a program of strong national defense and a foreign policy designed to keep our Nation out of war. He is the only Texan on the Appropriations Committee and he has a vital part in the national defense program.

He has served the 19th District faithfully and efficiently throughout his term in office, and has acquired a place of influence in the House of Representatives.

He has worked for and voted for legislation to promote the best interests of the District and the Nation.

He has given prompt and diligent cooperation on the many community and individual requests made by the people of the District.
Let's give George Mahon an overwhelming vote of confidence in Saturday's Primary. He will deeply appreciate it.

CYNTHIA PARKER'S GREAT-GRANDSON WEDS INDIAN GIRL

WACO Texas, July 21.—Baldwin Parker Jr., great-grandson of Cynthia Ann Parker and grandson of Quannah Parker and Marguerite Tachaw-Wickah, both of Cache, Okla., were married here Friday in the office of County Judge D. Y. McDaniel by Dr. Arthur Stout, county probation officer.

Parker's father Chief Baldwin Parker, was present and the attendants were Alton James and J. O. Clemons of McGregor, where Parker and his bride have been with a group of Comanche Indians in connection with a rodeo.

The wedding took place in the home city of the late Gen. Lawrence Sullivan Ross who, as a captain in the ranger service, co-operating with federal forces, rescued Cynthia Ann Parker and her child from the Comanche Indians in the fall of 1860. She and her brother had been captured by the Comanches and Kiowas on May 19, 1836, in a raid on Fort Parker, five miles from Groesbeck, now a state park.—S. W. Farm News.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rabun of Dallas are spending the week here visiting Mrs. Rabun's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nance. On Monday, however, the visitors drove over to see the Carlsbad Cavern, and other scenic spots in New Mexico.

MARSHALL FORMBY

FOR—
State Senator

We, the undersigned Farmers of Hockley County, Texas, which is the home of Alvin R. Allison, endorsed and will vote for and support MARSHALL FORMBY for State Senator of the 30th Senatorial District

BECAUSE—
The last legislature bitterly disappointed the people—

BECAUSE—
In four years he as County Judge of Dickens County with help of his Commissioners put his county on a cash basis—and favored them with the lowest Tax Rate possible—

BECAUSE—
He is outspoken on matters he disfavors as well as those he favors—

BECAUSE—
We endorse his method of paying OLD AGE PENSIONS—His position on raising the Truck-load Limit Law—and the views he takes on tax NATURAL RESOURCES instead of placing a GENERAL SALES TAX on the people.

We ask the patrons of the entire District to join with the Hockley County voters—And send Marshall Formby—a new man to Austin to represent us—

Table listing names and years in office for various candidates, including J. W. Christian, M. E. Allen, W. A. Gill, etc.

"Freedom-of-the-Press" Exponent Candidate For Criminal Appeals Judge

Hon. George E. Christian, Who Wrote Opinion Upholding Rights of Newsmen to Report Trial Testimony to Public, Seeks Promotion; 13 Years Experience As Commissioner.

By Texas Capital News Service.

AUSTIN.— Candidacy of Hon. George E. Christian of Burnet County for judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals recalls to newspaper men throughout the State the opinion written by Judge Christian as appeals court commissioner in 1935 that definitely set out the "freedom-of-the-press" in the matter of reporting and publishing for the public accurate news of testimony and proceedings in a trial court. A district judge presiding over a murder trial in Brazoria county had instructed three Houston newspaper reporters present not to publish the testimony in the case until after the trial of companion cases set for later date involving two others in the same alleged crime, lest it prejudice and thereby disqualify prospective jurors in the subsequent trials, possibly requiring a change of venue.

The newsmen, Harry McCormick of the Press, Frank L. White of the Post and Ed Rider of the Chronicle, communicated the court's instructions to their respective managing editors, Ed M. Pooley of the Press, Max Jacobs of the Post and George Cottingham of the Chronicle, who refused to refrain from publishing the testimony. The six men, after being duly cited and given a hearing, were adjudged to be guilty of contempt of court and assessed fines. The case attracted nationwide attention in the summer of 1935.

When it reached the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, and was given a hearing, it devolved upon Judge Christian to write that court's opinion. As recorded in the 88 South Western Reporter, 2nd series, pages 104-8, this opinion reveals some gems of democratic philosophy, couched in terse phrases, that are appropos at this time in light of contrast between democratic and totalitarian governments.

Bill of Rights Involved

Overruling the lower court, the commissioner opined:

"It appears to us that respondent unduly stresses the tendency of accurate newspaper reports of public trials to embarrass the administration of justice. Under our statute opinions formed from reading newspaper accounts may not disqualify a juror from sitting in a particular case."

More important, the record shows the issues involved the 8th section of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution, which in part reads:

"Every person shall be at liberty to speak, write or publish his opinions on any subject, being resp-

Judge Christian

nable for the use of that privilege; and no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press."

Commenting on the quoted section, the opinion reads:

"The language of this provision makes plain its purpose to prevent previous restraints upon publications. The privilege of writing one's views is accorded and protected, and at the same time accountability to the law is demanded for the abuse of the privilege."

And then it continues:

"It is generally conceded that liberty of the press means immunity from previous restraints or censorship."

It concludes:

"In the nature of things, the proceedings of public trials constitute news which newspapers have the right to publish in informing the public of current events."

A flood of newspaper editorials evidenced approbation of the Christian opinion.

Another Important Decision

Another important decision of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, where the opinion was prepared by Judge Christian, is the case against Herbert Tigner from Harris county that holds in effect the right of the state legislature to enact anti-trust legislation for control of industrial interests who would combine in restraint of trade, but exempt agricultural and live stock producers, labor unions and taxpayers' groups. This opinion was sustained May 6, 1940, by the United States Supreme Court.

A native and resident of Burnet county, Texas; a student in Southwestern University, Georgetown, and a graduate in both arts and law from the University of Texas; an officer in the American Expeditionary Force during World War I, George E. Christian has served as a district attorney, assistant attorney general, and as a member of the Board of Pardon advisers before his appointment as a judge of commission in aid to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, July 1, 1927. A commissioner is appointed by the Court to sit in on consultations and write opinions, but has no vote. After a service of 13 years in this capacity, Judge Christian is now going before the court of public opinion to ask a promotion.

MEDICAL MISSIONARY VISITS DALES

Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Walker and baby who are on a furlough to their home in Dallas after several years in Nigeria, Africa, where Dr. Walker is a medical missionary under the S. B. Mission Board took dinner with Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale here Wednesday.

Dr. Walker is a former student of Wayland College and was looking up former friends and schoolmates in this section, being enroute to Floydada for a visit with Rev. Vernon Shaw and family. Dr. E. Prohl was a school mate in Medical College.

Dr. and Mrs. Walker expected their furlough in August but thought best to take passage on the last ship bringing Americans out of the war zone to the home-land.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fenton and afternoon from a vacation and fish-little daughter returned Tuesday morning to Colorado. They were accompanied home by Mrs. L. J. McCarty whose husband was formerly pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church here. Mrs. McCarty expects to spend some time here among her many friends. Her home is in Cedar-edge, Colo.

Alton Freeman of Seminole was here Thursday in the interest of his candidacy for the office of district attorney.

ATTEND FAMILY REUNION NEAR GATESVILLE

The Tippit families, one of the Botkin families and other Tahoka people attended a family reunion held in Neff Park situated on the Leon River about twenty miles southeast of Gatesville last Sunday.

Included in the Tahoka party were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tippit and son, Burl, and their daughter, Miss Percy Dean, who is now in school in San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Tippit and son, Gerald Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tippit and daughter, Dorothy Mae, and two sons, Elsie and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Tippit and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Finch; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nowlin and baby; and Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Botkin and sons, Louis Allen and Finis.

Most of this party left here Thursday and spent that night on the Colorado river. The next night they spent on the Cow House in Coryell county, and Saturday night in Neff Park. From 260 to 300 of the kin folks gathered at the park the next day and at the noon hour they spread a great feast. A number of Tippit and Moore families residing in Coryell and neighboring counties constituted the larger part of the gathering.

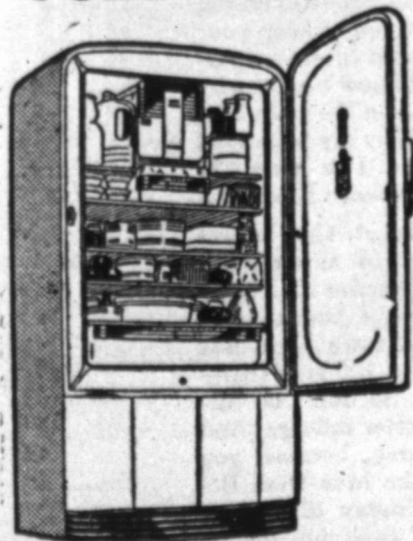

The Tahoka party came home Monday and Tuesday.

Many friends regret that J. K. (Uncle Joe) Callaway has been seriously sick the past several days, but he is apparently somewhat improved since Sunday.

Miss Vaudine Thompson of Dallas left for home Wednesday morning after a week's visit with her brother, Dr. Chase S. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson. While here Miss Thompson also visited Carlsbad Caverns.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison of Lubbock, longtime residents of Tahoka, were visiting friends and relatives here Tuesday.

Texas-New Mexico Utilities Company

DALLAS, Texas, July 24—All but three of Texas, 254 counties now have oil or gas activity, E. L. Smith of Dallas, president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, reported today after a statewide survey just completed by association statisticians.

Reflecting the readiness of the Texas petroleum industry to meet any demands of the U. S. armed forces, a total of 158 counties out of the State's 254 now produce oil or gas or both, Mr. Smith said. An additional 93 have land leased for oil and gas exploration, making a total of 251 out of the 254 with oil or gas activity. Only Maesen, Llano and Rockwall counties are not included.

"Twenty-four additional Texas counties were opened for oil or gas production within the past 18 months," Mr. Smith said. "There are now over 900 separate oil and gas fields in Texas in contrast with around 20 in 1917-18 when Texas oilmen were called upon to furnish fuel for the army and navy.

"Although the number of wells then is not recorded, it certainly was fewer than the 15,450 producers first reported in 1922. Now Texas has 93,630 producing wells scattered over the State. Production of all Texas oil wells in 1917 was 90,000 barrels a day. Today the State is producing around 1,300,000 barrels a day under the most rigid restrictions and could be opened up to produce several times this amount if necessary arose."

During World War days, Texas contributed only 6 per cent of the oil produced in the United States. Last year, despite closely curtailed output, this State produced 38 per cent. In 1922, first year oil reserves were estimated, Texas was credited with only 732,000,000 barrels in known reserves. Now Texas has 9,768,000,000 (billions), or over half of all proven unproduced petroleum resources of the Nation. Last year the State produced around 485,000,000 barrels, but new reserves discovered amount to 805,000,000.

"All this expansion has been effected by the Texas oilman himself at his own risk and expense," said Mr. Smith. "The widespread and costly campaign of exploration covering the entire State has resulted in opening nearly one thousand oil and gas fields in Texas and discovery of sixteen billion barrels of petroleum reserves, of which nearly ten billion are yet to be produced. And this has been done in the face of deeper and more expensive drilling, higher wages, higher costs for materials and vastly increased taxes. Texas oilmen now pay five times as high taxes as they did in 1918, yet the price of oil now is half of what it was then while the average production per well is only a small fraction of that of the old gusher days. As for refining, Texas now has 141 plants with a daily capacity of 1,286,000 barrels, or

RURAL AID PAYMENT TO BE 100% AGAIN FOR 1940-'41

State Superintendent L. A. Woods announced today that Rural Aid schools can expect 100% payment on Salary Aid grants for the coming year on the same basis as was paid for the past year. Thus, the 4,023 schools participating in this Fund will be able to determine before the opening of the 1940-'41 term how much to budget for the approved items of expense in order to pay the teachers in full.

The forms to be used in making applications for Equalization Funds will reach the County Superintendent within a week, Woods stated.

FORMER CENTRAL TEXAS RESIDENTS PLAN REUNION

An old-fashioned reunion and picnic by ex-residents of Hill, Johnson, Ellis, Navarro, Bosque, Hamilton, and Erath counties will be held at Buffalo Springs Lake near the Slaton-Lubbock highway on Saturday, August 3, according to Geo. W. Dupree of Lubbock, who is one of the promoters of the affair.

"Every ex-resident of either of these counties and his family who are now residing in West Texas are invited to come, bring a well-filled picnic basket, and all will have dinner on the ground together", the invitation states.

There will be no charges for the use of the grounds and the affair will not be commercialized in any way.

There will be no formal program but there will be speakings from some of the ex-residents of these counties. Politics in the speeches will be taboo.

From 2 until 5 in the afternoon those who desire may indulge in Swimming and boating. A cordial and urgent invitation is extended to every ex-resident of any one of these counties to attend.

Remains In Race

To the voters of the 106th Judicial District of Texas:

The report has been circulated that I have withdrawn from the race for District Attorney due to my recent illness.

It is true that I have made a supreme fight for my life to overcome the serious illness which I have had to endure since March of this year, and now it seems that the good Lord has spared me for a purpose.

I assure you your loyalty to me will ever be remembered and I feel sure I can see many of you before the Second Primary if you will put me in the run-off.

Texas - Mexico Fence Proposed

AUSTIN, July 25—Suggestion by Will J. Tucker executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission that the United States-Mexican border be fenced is being given serious consideration in high places in Washington.

A properly constructed fence the entire distance of the border between the two countries would not only prevent the infiltration of coyotes and other predators into the U. S. (The Game Department's interest in the fence) but would aid in preventing cattle rustling, smuggling, unlawful immigration, and the like.

going to be. Even the pumpkin-colored bell-hops in all the hotels knew that he was going to be. We can't understand how Garner could have been surprised and peeved. If he was going to become peeved about it, he should have become peeved several months ago. For everybody had known for weeks and weeks that what did happen was going to happen. We guess what peeved 'em was that it was Roosevelt himself who back behind the curtains deftly pulled the strings himself in such a way as to make a campaign for any other person impractical and futile and the draft of himself as necessary and even imperative. It was a perfect game of politics that Roosevelt played, and he played it by seeming not to play at all.

There is one political blunder that we think the President made. After he was nominated he dictated the nomination of the candidate for the vice-presidency. His nod of approval in the direction of Secretary Wallace re-acted in a manner that left a bitter taste in the mouths of many of his warmest supporters. The consequences of that nod will be heard and felt throughout the entire campaign this fall. It is possible that the feeling of resentment may be so deep and wide-spread as to cost him the Presidency.

So many politicians—and we do not use the word here in its offensive sense—so many politicians have made the same mistake. In the glow of victory, while "feeling their oats" as it were, they overstep the bounds of discretion and use their dominating influence when it should be unused. Governor O'Daniel made such a mistake two years ago when, soon after his own unprecedentedly successful campaign, he approved certain other candidates for certain other offices in the run-off primary. Good politics would have dictated to the President that he stay out of the race for the second place on the ticket. If he had indicated to the convention that any good Democrat in sympathy with his policies would be acceptable to him as a running-mate, there would have been no feeling of resentment against him. His approval of one man to the exclusion of many others just as good and just as fit may cause some men of great influence to sulk in their tents and it could cost him the Presidency.

Any way, we hope the next Republican convention and the next Democratic convention may cut out all their senseless demonstrations and parades and noisiness and other brands of hooey, get right down to business, perform promptly what they were sent to the convention to perform, create the feeling that matters of great importance have been attended to in a business-like manner, then adjourn and go home.

"Build-Up" Important Protector of Women

A weak, undernourished condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get a foothold; thus leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort. CARDUI's principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite; increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many. Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our appreciation and thanks to each and every one who contributed to us in our misfortune of fire. We sincerely thank each and every one who helped in any way. May God richly bless each and every one is our prayer.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Sewell.

Mrs. Oscar Roberts and two daughters, Eloise and Betty Sue, and Mrs. Van Swafford and daughter Billy are spending a few weeks in camp at Ruidoso, New Mexico.

THANKS NEIGHBORS

We wish to thank each and every one who has been so nice to us since our misfortune. Thanks to the Masonic Lodge and others for the nice flowers and cards and for numerous other deeds of kindness done by several individuals. Especially do we thank Oscar Roberts and Lee Roy Knight who led a group of neighbors and friends in working out our crop, those who furnished tractors and those who labored with their hoes. We just wonder what we have ever done to deserve these nice things, or maybe they know we do not deserve it. Any way it helps so much to know we have friends who are friends in time of need. Many thanks to everyone.—J. O. and Lorene Tinsley and children.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Edwards and Charles and Miss Lottie Jo Townes left Tuesday afternoon for a few days outing at Colorado Springs, Colorado. They planned to visit the Oscar Roberts family at Ruidoso in route.

READER'S FORUM

Good morning! Mr. Editor. May I come in?

I had such a pleasant surprise last week from a number of our old friends and neighbors of the Gannolia community, but too late to report last week.

One friend came in from the back of the house alone. I bid her the time of day, asked her to be seated thinking that she had dropped in for a visit as my old friends do, but she kept looking toward the kitchen, smiling all the while. Soon a few more came trekking in from the back, telling me that they had decided not to wait until my next birthday, which made me a bit suspicious.

Sure enough they had slipped in with a feast, fit for a king, and the variety was so great that I could not even get around to tasting it all. One dish out of the ordinary was a big chicken pie like our mothers used to make.

These old friends came to our rescue many times in times of need and proved themselves to be friends, indeed. Anyone who did not appreciate them would be a most ungrateful wretch. We will always be glad to have any of the old friends from the country come to see us.

When we moved to Tahoka last summer I knew very few, but soon found good people here who came to our rescue when I was so very sick. Since getting better acquainted a number of them have been so nice to me, keeping me supplied with beautiful flowers ever since flowers began to bloom. I have loved those flowers dearly, they have cheered me day by day. Would that I could be like them, scattering sunshine wherever I stay.

Many who have no flowers bring me fruits and some nice delicacy that they have prepared in their homes, for all of which I am very grateful.

Mr. Editor and readers I know that you would like to listen to the other fellow chat awhile, so I will run along home down Sweet Street, thanking you ever so much for your patient listening. Respectfully, Mrs. W. J. Paires.

NEW LYNN H. D. CLUB

"Obedience is more than what is generally implied when casually used in relation to children", stated Mrs. Newman Bartley at the club meeting with Mrs. Doyle Terry, Tuesday, July 16.

Whether children are obedient or disobedient is to a great extent dependent on the standards and requirements of the environment and the attitude of those in authority. Adults must beware of the danger of checking normal responses to fundamental impulses in order to gain obedience to some unimportant demand of their own. If the child finds that obedience to these impulses is associated with pleasure and satisfaction he will continue to obey them.

Members present were: Mmes. Dick Bailey, Bill Rowland, Roy Kelley, P. K. Fleming, Newman Bartley, Doyle Terry, Susie Bartley, R. W. Barton, and John Meeks.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. John Meeks, August 6, at 2:30 P. M. Visitors are welcome.—Reporter.

J. Fred Bucy, Jr. has returned from a three weeks' visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Wardy Bucy, and other relatives in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Walker and son James Prentice spent several days last week in Oklahoma City visiting their uncle, J. S. Staggs, and family.

Congressman Geo. Mahon Has Place On Powerful Committee In House

(Excerpts from article in the Houston Post, June 7, 1940, by Geo. Stimpson, Washington Correspondent and former President of the National Press Club.)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(Sp)—In every crisis younger men, little noticed before, rise to positions of responsibility and leadership.

Keep an eye on George H. Mahon, 39-year-old Texas congressman from Colorado City.

Six years ago Mahon was elected to the House of Representatives from the newly created Nineteenth district, which produces more cotton than any other congressional district in the United States.

Like most wise beginners in Congress, young Mahon accepted the minor committee appointments assigned to him without complaint and made no special attempt to push himself forward beyond his experience. But he had ability, a pleasing personality, a thirst for knowledge of public affairs, and the faculty of making friends and tackling every problem, irrespective of importance, with vigor and thoroughness.

After James B. Buchanan was removed from the House Appropriations Committee by death and William D. Macfarlane by defeat, George Mahon was the unanimous choice of the Texas delegation for the vacancy on that powerful committee to which the Lone Star State was entitled. Of course, there was a reason. Mahon had proved himself in small things and was now asked by his elders to undertake bigger ones. That committee passes on billions of dollars of appropriations every session. It controls the purse strings of the nation. Without fanfare George Mahon set to work to do his new job.

How well he has succeeded may be gathered by the fact that the other day Edward T. Taylor, the 82-year-old chairman of the Appropriations Committee, asked the young Texan, less than half his age, to serve on the War Department subcommittee, which is handling the enormous defense program. Mahon was not asked to perform this job because he is primarily interested in military affairs. From the first day he entered Congress he has been a strong advocate of adequate national defense as a means of keeping this country out of war, but primarily he was interested in the problems facing the farmers in his district and throughout the country.

He was asked to serve on the military subcommittee because the job requires good judgment, tremendous industry and a broad understanding of national problems.

His father, J. K. Mahon, still lives on the farm where George spent part of his boyhood, and the congressman is chiefly interested in agriculture, freight rates and related problems. His heart has always been with the people who must dig their living out of the soil.

You just can't help like George Mahon. More than six feet tall, handsome, kindly in disposition, considerate of everybody, fair in debate, clear in thought, conscientious almost to a fault, he was bound to attract attention in Washington and to go places in public life.

Now his days and nights are occupied with an enormous emergency program that contemplates no less than the defense of the Western hemisphere against the rest of the world.

NEW LYNN LEAGUE

The New Lynn Epworth League met Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The subject of the program was "Great Preachers, Ancient and Modern."

Miss Pauline Perkins, who had charge of the program, rendered it very interestingly. Miss Mezzie Mae Baker and Mrs. Lester Keeton sang a song which he was very inspirational to everyone.

A new member joined our league and we hope others will join that they may be a help to the league and the league will be a help to them.—Publicity Superintendent.

Supt. and Mrs. W. T. Hanes and Billy returned the first of the week from a ten-day vacation trip to Houston, Galveston, and Commerce. Most of the section they visited, Mr. Hanes says, has had too much rain, but the crops are good. He said Hunt county had 17 days of heavy rain during the month of June.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gates Carr of Denver, Colo., were here the latter part of last week visiting the N. M. Wyatt family. Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Wyatt are sisters.

Dumagan Urges Thought In Voting

Editor Lynn Co. News: I would thank you for space in your paper for an article we might call chaff.

First, I wish to say we have a fine set of men offering themselves as candidates to the voters of the district, county and precinct for the various offices.

They have to date conducted high-plane campaigns, which I for one appreciate. But, some friends of some candidates have not been as fair as the candidates themselves. I regret to say this, but it is so, nevertheless. They have, and still are, carrying on a whispering campaign against some of the boys they oppose.

Let me suggest to the voters of the county that they pay no attention to any whispers. Go to the polls and vote for the man of your choice. You will feel better for having done so, and the candidates will appreciate it, also.

Allow me to warn the voters against any trades or swap-outs. As you know, sometimes the other fellow cannot deliver the goods as promised. And, again, someone always gets cheated in a swap. It might be you.

The big boys running for the office of governor are slinging much mud at one another, calling one another vile names.

They remind me of the story of the wife who tried to break her husband from the habit of getting drunk. The husband would get drunk most every time he went to town and come home drunk. The wife would raise Cain with him. He would get mad, of course, and they would call one another very ugly and vile names. Finally, the good wife decided she would try to break him of the awful habit. Her plan was to scare him while he was drunk. She made herself a costume of the Devil. A few days later, her husband went to town and, as usual, got drunk. Late in the night, the wife heard him coming. She put on the Devil costume, got behind the door, and as he came in she stepped out in front of him and said with much emphasis, "I am the Devil". He staggered toward her, offering his hand, and said, "Howdy do, I am glad to meet you. We are brothers-in-law. I married your sister."

Let me remind the voters again, as our county chairman has previously requested, to co-operate with the election officers by voting early. This will enable the election officers to get the returns in earlier.

Respectfully, A. L. Dumagan, chairman precinct No. 13.

at today's low prices!

YOU KNOW THE LEADER IN TRUCK SALES MUST BE THE LEADER IN TRUCK VALUE

Truck buyers are careful buyers—they thoroughly analyze and compare all types of trucking equipment—they want to make certain that they'll get the make and type of truck best suited to their business requirements.

It is a significant fact that more truck users choose Chevrolet than any other make of truck . . . because Chevrolet trucks could not have established their record of leadership in 1940 and maintained it for six out of the last eight years had it not been that Chevrolet trucks deliver more dollar-for-dollar value than any other make.

All models and types of Chevrolet trucks may still be purchased at today's low price levels, so it would be wise to consider replacing some of your trucking equipment with new Chevrolets now.

TRUCK OWNERS WANT FACTS...CHEVROLET GIVES Certified Proof!

On the longest test run ever conducted under the supervision of the American Automobile Association, a stock Chevrolet 1½-ton truck turned in a marvelous performance and economy record. The facts of this test run are clearly outlined in an interesting booklet entitled "Says Who?"
