Mrs. R. L. Miller, Jr., was able to return to her home Wednesday after having undergone minor surgery at Tahoka Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bray of San Antonio left Tuesday after visiting here two or three days with their son, A. M. Bray, and family.

John Slover returned home Thursday of last week from Denver. Mrs. Slover is remaining an indefinite period with her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Townsen, and their newborn babe, John brought back pictures of the Denver snowstorm of March 21, when 17 1/2 inches of snow fell there.

Answer to Question No. 1:
The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics shows that clothing costs in June 1951 were 104 per cent higher than the 1935-39 average, house furnishings 112.5 per cent higher, and recreation 68.3 per cent. Medical care costs, however, were only 54.7 per cent above the 1935-39 period. When there is serious illness in the family, medical costs can be high. Nevertheless, the financial burden of medical, surgical and hospital costs to an individual can be lessened by health insurance plans now available.

Answer to Question No. 2:
Antibiotics are substances developed from moulds. They are used to destroy or limit the action of certain bacteria or viruses. Antibiotics include penicillin and several others. They ordinarily do not harm normal cells. Antibiotics have been very successful in curing pneumonia, tuberculosis, syphilis and many other infections. Your family doctor is well informed in the use of antibiotics.

Answer to Question No. 3:
Presence in your household of the cockroach means that your housekeeping could be improved, for the roach loves dark, damp, dirty places. It may act as a carrier of disease germs.

Spring Season Is Critical Period For Range Plants

COLLEGE STATION. —Pasture plants in most sections of the state have taken a beating from the weather during the past several months. Rain and more rain is badly needed before the hard hit range plants can even begin their comeback. A. H. Walker, range specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says even under normal conditions the spring season is the most critical period for range plants.

He says pasture plants need a rest period to regain their vigor and to allow them to produce a seed crop. He encourages livestock producers to graze supplemental pastures, if available, to give ranges a rest for a month or six weeks. This spring rest will give vigor to nature drouth stunted and over-grazed plants. He points out that the usual practice, following a drouth, is to start grazing the range just as soon as the first plants appear and this is not good for the range vegetation.

Such practice may reduce an annual forage production by as much as 40 per cent, says the specialist. Such a reduction means that a ranchman could only run 60 head of cows instead of 100 head on an annual basis if he had used better management during the spring season.

Walker says he realizes that unless weather conditions change very materially in the near future, the spring growing season will just not happen on a lot of the state's range lands. But when the drouth is finally broken, he urges ranchmen to give the range vegetation a chance to become re-established. The drouth has sapied their vigor and stopped root development.

A spring to fall deferralment period may be needed in the most critical areas. Such a practice will give the plants a chance to make a seed crop that will be needed to insure a stand of the desirable species, says Walker.

A rotation plan for deferring different pastures on the ranch should be worked out and at least one pasture should be deferred each year. Walker points out that range demonstrators have proved that deferred grazing is not only

How To Prepare Pans For Baking

COLLEGE STATION. Success in baking depends a great deal on the proper preparation of the pan. Many times we are doubtful about whether to grease the pan, dust it with flour after greasing or line it with paper.

Maeona Cox, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, explains that the preparation of the pan depends on the ingredients in the food to be baked and the temperature of the oven. It is added insurance against sticking, says the specialist, to flour the pan after greasing, but this practice does have the disadvantage of forming a slight extra crust that many cooks dislike. Greased paper protects bread and cakes from sticking but unless it is pulled off immediately after baking, it may stick to the food. Then too, paper scorches easily and should be used only when baking in a slow oven.

For cakes and cookies that contain both fat and sugar, Miss Cox says either plain greasing or greas plus dusting with flour may be used.

For quick bread, like muffins and quick loaf bread, and for hot rolls that are cooked at a high temperature, greased pans but no paper are recommended.

On the other hand, heavy unglazed paper can be used successfully when baking macaroons which are mostly egg whites and are baked at a low heat. Miss Cox says this same type of paper, if greased, may be used for rich mixtures such as fruit cakes, which burns easily and needs a long slow baking period.

Sponge and angel food cakes are something different. These cakes do not contain fat and the leavening agent is beaten in air.

Therefore, states Miss Cox, use an ungreased pan. In a greased pan the cake batter cannot cling to the sides of the pan as it bakes and the cake does not reach its full height. Greasing also causes the cake to fall out of the pan when it cools, which makes a flat and soggy product.

Grease only the bottom of the pans when baking cakes. Leave the sides ungreased so the batter can cling as it rises.

RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

H. M. SHEVNAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, Friday and Saturday only, April 18-19, 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over an all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly but it will increase the circulation, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge.

ABILENE.—Don Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Smith of New Home, is a member of the Grounds Committee for the Sixth Annual Hardin-Simmons University Intercollegiate Rodeo to be held in Carl Myers Memorial Arena April 24, 25, and 26.

Smith, a senior at the university, is a Physical Education major with a minor in Geology. He is a member of the Rodeo Association, the Physical Education Club and is president of the Geology Club.

One of the largest fields in the history of the six-year-old rodeo is expected for the three-day affair which begins Thursday with a downtown parade and ends Saturday night with the naming of champions in each event. Shows are slated for 8 p. m. Thursday and 2:30 and 8 p. m. Friday and Saturday.

More than 30 colleges and universities from ten states have been sent entry blanks for the show, which will be held in the three-year-old Carl Myers Memorial Arena, named in honor of one of the founders of the Hardin-Simmons Rodeo Association and the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

In the steel industry, "whiskers" are the thin fins of steel which cling to the point of a nail as it comes from the nail machine.

Tankersleys Tell Of Recent Trip

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tankersley returned home Saturday of last week from a ten days trip and visit in Central, East, and South Texas.

First, they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rutland, and their two children, Buddy and Patsy, in Waco. Mrs. Rutland is the former Miss Pansy Tankersley.

On Saturday, March 29, accompanied by Mrs. Rutland, they drove north from Waco to see places of interest, including Whitney dam.

Sunday, the Rutland family accompanied them about 200 miles east of Waco to see East Texas. Mrs. Tankersley said they had a very interesting day. It was warm, cloudy, and sprinkled rain most of the day.

While eating lunch at Palestine, Mrs. Tankersley asked a man what land was worth around there. He said it was pretty high, about $10.00 or $15.00 an acre, and it really looked to her like it was high at that price. He said there was very little farming being done there anymore. The old fields have been sowed in grass, and mostly cattle are being raised. All the little branches were running. The freeze had damaged the dogwood, and they are not as pretty this year as usual.

From Palestine, they went to Jacksonville, then to Henderson, and back to Tyler. They were disappointed that there were not more roses blooming. They returned through Corsicana and Hubbard.

One other point of interest they saw that day was old Fort Parker, where Cynthia Ann Parker was captured by the Indians and several members of her family were killed in about 1836. There is an interesting park at the site. Leaving Waco Monday, March 31, the Tankersleys visited at Lampasas her brother, John Bulman, and family, formerly of Tahoka. John has just sold his ranch near Lampasas and bought another ranch near Marlin, and was moving down there.

Leaving Waco, the country to the west and southwest begins getting drier and drier until it is pitiful to see, she says.

On Wednesday, April 2, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bulman, they drove down to Austin, talked with H. C. Story, former Lynn county clerk, in the capitol, then drove to Round Rock and visited a half-brother and his wife Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Franklin.

On Thursday, they left Lampasas for Christoval, where they visited Mr. Tankersley's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parsons, and Mrs. Sam Ellis, formerly of Lynn county.

They came back home Saturday. Mrs. Tankersley writes: "We had a wonderful trip and enjoyed all the visiting, but somehow there is no place like Lynn county and home."

She says the bluebonnets were beautiful around Waco and eastward, but going west they did not last too long.

The annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup will be held at Texas A. & M. College, on June 9-10.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hendrix returned to their Wilson home last week from a trip to South Texas. Pete tried his hand at deep sea fishing but had no luck. However, he says they caught a lot of big crappie and sand bass at Buchanan Lake.

Never Too Old To Learn New Tricks

COLLEGE STATION. —Knowledge and skills can be acquired at all ages. People continue to learn when they develop habits of mental alertness and keep up with the times.

Eloise Johnson, specialist in family life education with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says investigations show that the ability to learn seems to reach its peak at about the age of 25. Then it drops slowly until at the age of 45 the ability to learn is about the same as it was at 18. After 40 the learning capacity drops slowly, about one per cent or less each year.

Older people do learn and can acquire skills as well as young people, but adults over 40 take longer to acquire new ideas. Mrs. Johnson says skills are learned in later life as easily as in adolescence. Within limits, ability, interest, energy and opportunity are more important factors in learning than age. The ability to solve problems often improves with age. Whenever knowledge of ways to do things is important, then the older person's experience is valuable.

People should be learning continually if they are to grow older gracefully. This means acquiring dignity, patience, unselfishness, tolerance and sympathetic understanding for others. It means building the kind of personality which is a source of strength to others as well as a source of strength to the inner self against stress and strain of living.

Mrs. Johnson says that older people have a contribution to make to society. They must be made to feel useful and to know they do have worthwhile contributions to make. As the world faces more and more serious problems, well adjusted people with experience, knowledge and judgment are needed. People who continue to learn as they become older have these qualities and by example, give courage to others.

Mrs. Lon E. Spann of Houston visited from Thursday until Monday at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Frank Raindl, Sr., and with other relatives.

The average admission price to British film theaters now is 2 cents.

1952 Grasshopper Infestation Light

COLLEGE STATION. —Forecasts based on surveys and actual egg bed counts indicate that grasshoppers will not be a threat to crops and pastures in Texas this year. In only a few spots were enough eggs found to rate the areas as threatening, says Allen C. Gunter, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The areas are small and are found in the upper northwest Panhandle; in the Trinity bottoms of Ellis and Kaufman counties; in Hill, Falls, Milam, Robertson and Washington counties along the Brazos River. In these areas farmers should watch for the early hatches and if the young hoppers show up in large numbers, they should be controlled before they leave the egg bed areas, says Gunter.

Other counties in these general areas may expect light infestations and some damage is possible. Serious damage may develop in the fall if the weather is hot and dry.

Gunter advises farmers and ranchmen that control measures, if needed, should be used before the grasshoppers leave the egg beds and scatter. Wiping out this year's hatches will reduce the chances for major outbreaks next year, points out the specialist, and from this standpoint, the use of control measures is justified.

For information on the best insecticides to use, Gunter suggests that farmers contact their local county agents. They can also advise on whether control measures should be used.

Homemakers who use greased paper to prevent breads and cakes from sticking in the baking pan should remove the paper immediately after the product is removed from the pan. Paper also scorches easily and should not be used when high temperatures are required for the baking job.

Mrs. Clarence Proctor entered Tahoka Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

GOOD HEALTH

1. CAN PEOPLE WITH HEART DISEASE BE GAINFULLY EMPLOYED?
 A program of selective placement by many employment agencies opens the way to economic independence for people suffering heart disease. At the same time it taps a source of urgently needed man power for the nation's industrial program. With the advice and consent of a doctor, a heart patient can now be gainfully employed in jobs which will not impose too great a strain on the heart.

2. CAN MEDICAL EXPENSES BE BUDGETED?
 In addition to accident and health insurance, family costs of maintaining good health should be budgeted as a regular household expense and planned for out of wages or salary. Regular budgeting of medical expenses prepares for the health needs of the family so that when any member of the family needs health care it does not become an undue financial burden.

3. WHY DO WE HICCUP?
 Hiccups or "hiccups" are spasmodic convulsions of the muscles of the diaphragm. Their chief cause is indigestion, frequently from an overdistended stomach and sometimes made worse by nervousness or fear. It is well to avoid heavy rich meals. Attacks of hiccups may last from a few minutes to hours, and in rare cases, days and weeks. If you suffer frequent attacks, consult a doctor.

Wayside Wins Over New Home

The Wallace Waysiders greeted New Home's entry into the exhibition Junior baseball play last Sunday afternoon with a 22-6 onslaught.

James Foster hurled six hit ball for Wayside, striking out 10 batters in seven innings to win his first game of the season. Lynn Halamecek and Benny Brookshire worked on the hill the final two frames for Wayside.

Wayside pounded New Home pitchers Ronny Smith, Ganaway, Fletcher, Crooks, and Rodgers for 13 hits and 22 runs. Smith was tagged with the loss. New Home committed nine errors, while Wayside made two.

John Foster homered in the second with two men on base while he and brother, James, and Brookshire led the victors' hitting attack.

Probably the largest crowd of the young season watched the two teams play under clear skies on the Tahoka diamond.

Next Sunday, April 13, on the Tahoka field, Tahoka North Side, having won one and lost one exhibition game, will meet Denver City at 2:30 p. m. Denver City and North Side met twice last year, each winning one game. El Cary will be the starting pitcher for Denver City, while Manager Doug McNeely will probably send Gordon Smith on the mound for North Side.

Wallace Wayside and New Home will be idle.

Production Credit Plans Stockholders Meeting Monday

Eighteenth annual stockholders meeting of the Lubbock Production Credit Association is to be held in Jamboree Hall at the Municipal airport in Lubbock, Monday, April 14, 1952. Registration of members and guests will begin at 9:30 a. m. and the business session will be called to order at 10 a. m. by E. R. Davis, President of the Association.

The announcement came yesterday from the office of Alton Strickland, association Secretary-Treasurer, who said that the nearly 1500 stockholders now own a little more than $670,000 in member stock and reserves. Strickland said he expected from 1200 to 1500 at the annual meeting from nine counties served by the association, which finances farm and ranch properties. The nine counties consist of: Cochran, Crosby, Garza, Gaines, Hockley, Lynn, Lubbock, Terry, and Yoakum.

The Directors and Secretary-Treasurer's report to be given by C. E. Hicks, of Terry county, vice president, is to include information concerning the progress of the association for the past year and will outline details of operations, and the financial condition as of close of business March 31, 1952. A total of 480 members borrowed $4,108,000 last year. The association has loaned a total of $31,318,000 since organization.

Two Directors are to be elected to fill expiring terms of Fred McGinty of Lynn county and E. L. Carlisle of Crosby county.

Dr. Virgil P. Lee, President of the Production Credit Corporation, of Houston, will be principal speaker of the meeting.

Another feature of the meeting will be serving of an old fashioned barbecue at noon, by Walter Jetton, "Barbecue King," from Fort Worth.

Directors of the association, in addition to Davis and Hicks, are E. L. Carlisle of Crosby county, Fred McGinty of Lynn county, and A. B. Roberts of Hockley county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McElroy are remodeling and redecorating their home on Main Street. They have added a large play room at the rear and are otherwise remodeling the home and redecorating the interior.

Grassland Farm Labor Association Announces Details Of Organization

Grassland Farm Labor Association officers at a meeting Monday night worked out details for operation of the new organization during the coming months.

Members of the board are: Carl Jones, president; H. H. Roberts, vice president; E. L. Short, secretary and treasurer; and Clyde Jones and S. A. Bengel, directors.

The annual general membership meeting will be held at Grassland school the second Monday in May, which comes on May 12 this year, at 8:00 p. m. All members and prospective members are invited.

However, farmers may join now by contacting any of the above named men. Membership fee has been set at $10.00, and any farmer in Lynn or Garza counties may become a member.

The association will furnish Mexican National farm hands to its members at $30.00 each, with return transportation guaranteed.

Short says. The by-laws specify that any surplus money at the end of the year will go directly to the members. This will be figured on a "per worker" basis.

Members will be allowed approximately 16 hands to the quarter section. In order for the organization to make application for the hands, each individual member must list his acreage and also show sufficient housing available. This must be included on the application blank which goes to the Texas Employment office at Lamesa and thence to Washington for approval.

Contract period for the hoeing season will be of six weeks duration, with a 15-day extension period allowable without cost. Application for such must be made by around June 20.

Farmers desiring further information may contact any one of the officers or directors.

What Easter Proves

The Christian Church celebrates Easter for more than sentimental reasons. It knows that far more important than the corsages and bouquets, the bunnies and the baskets which have usurped the original significance of the season in many an American home, is the great historical fact which the day commemorates.

The resurrection of Christ from the dead on Easter morning is a historical fact. It is the cornerstone of Christianity. For by His resurrection on the third day Christ gave irrefutable answers to several crucial questions.

In the first place, by His resurrection He proved Himself to be the Son of God, as He had claimed. Or as the Bible puts it, He was "declared to be the Son of God . . . by the resurrection from the dead."

Furthermore, by the miracle of Easter Christ proved that all His doctrines were the truth. What He had taught about sin, about salvation, about heaven and hell—all must be true. Thirdly, the happenings on that first Easter morning afforded proof positive that the Father in heaven had accepted the sacrifice of His Son for the sins of the world.

And finally Christ's resurrection is the guarantee that all believers will arise some day "unto life eternal." For as Christ put it, "Because I live, ye shall live also."

These are the tremendous facts of Easter. It is because these things are true that Christ could say: "I am the Resurrection and the Life . . . Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."—Do you believe?

Basketball Boys Paid Tribute

Tahoka High's 1952 basketball squad, District 6-AA champions, were honored last Thursday noon by Tahoka Rotary Club.

Polk Robinson, head basketball coach at Texas Tech, was the principal speaker of the occasion. His talk was an impressive one in which he pointed out the objectives of life and of sports, praised the Tahoka team for their fine play throughout the season and for their excellent showing in the regional tournament against Quanah, and praised the local team for their team play and sportsmanship.

Robinson told of his recent trip to the National tournament and some of the great players he had seen.

In a brief talk, Coach Jake Jacobs stated his boys won the championship by team play and devotion to the game. He emphasized that winning was incidental in sports—that the building of character and citizenship was the principal objective. Naturally, he was proud of the type of boys he had on his squad.

The speaker was introduced by Charles Townes, a former fellow student with Polk Robinson in Texas Tech.

Head Coach Bill Haralson and Junior High Coach Tom Bartley also were guests.

President Clint Walker announced the resignation of Ernest West, local Church of Christ minister and president-elect of the club, who is moving to Brownfield. West spoke briefly in which he expressed his regrets in not being able to accept the honor and his appreciation to his fellow-Rotarians.

Walker announced that the board would elect a new president Thursday of this week.

Miss Lillie Ragsdale Goes To Brownfield

Miss Lillie Ragsdale, educational director at the First Baptist Church here for nearly two years, has resigned to accept a similar position with the First Baptist Church at Brownfield, according to Rev. Le Ramsour, local pastor.

She will work under Rev. Jones Weathers, the Brownfield pastor. Bro. Ramsour says the Brownfield Church is setting up quite a staff of workers with Miss Ragsdale as the educational director. The church will also have a music director, a youth director, and a church secretary.

Driving Contest

"I want to nominate an excellent driver, one of the most beloved citizens of the Plains, Rev. Ben Hardy. Brother Hardy has not been able to drive a car in a long, long time, but when he did drive he was a model courteous driver. Possibly he should not be eligible for this award, but I just want to pay tribute to him and set him up as an example."

Others nominated include: H. O. Hargett, Mrs. Frieda Lichey, Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mrs. Clay Bennett, Rev. C. C. Ehler, Wilson, Ira Carter, Wiley Lee Curry, Floyd Tubb, Echo Milliken.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our good neighbors and friends and Sunday School classes at New Home, for their nice gifts. May God bless each one. —Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott.

C. of C. Will Hold Directors Meeting

Officers and directors of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce will hold their first meeting of the new year next Monday night at the City Hall, according to Clint Walker, the new president.

Plans for the year's projects will be discussed.

New directors of the body are: Herman Renfro, O. C. Elliott, Jr., H. B. McCord, Jr., and Ross Smith.

Holdover directors are: Charles Verner, the outgoing president, Fred McGinty, Hick Gibson, Tom Gill, and James Applewhite.

Russell McGee is the secretary.

TWO NEW WELLS IN PEPTY COMMUNITY

Maurice Small this week brought in a 6-inch irrigation well on his farm four miles southwest of Petty. The depth is 145 feet.

Small's new well is about a mile southeast of another new 6-inch well recently completed on the Jack Fenton place.

Many additional acres will be under irrigation in Lynn county when planting time arrives this spring. Some estimate as many as 100 new wells have been drilled since last season.

MAJOR TRUETT COOPER DUE TO LEAVE SOON

Major George Truett Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper, writes his parents from Fort Sill, Okla., where he has been stationed the last three years, that he expects to be assigned to duty in the Mediterranean some time this summer.

Major Cooper is a graduate of Tahoka High and Texas A. & M. He saw service in the southwest Pacific for three years during World War II with the First Cavalry, and following the war was Food Administrator in Korea for two years.

Farm Labor Men Hold Meetings

The Lynn County Farm Labor Association met in the county court room at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, April 5, and was called to order by the president, Jno. Inman, who explained briefly how, when, and why the Association was organized.

He then introduced the speakers of the evening.

The first speaker was Fred Presley, the U. S. E. S. man from Lubbock, who explained in some detail the law and procedure in securing Mexican Nationals, and answered some questions which were asked by the men attending the meeting.

He was followed by J. T. Fulford, president, and E. L. King, secretary, of the Brownfield Association, who spoke briefly about their organization.

Mr. Robertson was introduced; also J. O. Allen, manager of the Lynn County Ass'n. Then the Association was opened for membership.

On Tuesday night, the manager and some of the directors attended a district meeting held in the City Hall at Brownfield at 8:00 p. m. Several Labor Associations were represented.

J. R. Fulford presided, and Fred Presley from Lubbock, Mr. Travis from Amarillo, and Cecil Grimes from Lamesa, Texas Employment Commission, were present and made some very informative talks.

The associations joined in sending telegrams to Congressman George Mahon and other Government officials protesting Union plans to impose 75 cents per hour minimum wage scale for Mexican National or Bracero labor. All present felt that the proposed law would be very harmful to the farmers of this area.

The meeting had the distinction of breaking up during a heavy downpour of rain and hail.

Men's Class Has Large Attendance

Eighty-seven men were present at last Sunday's meeting of the Men's Bible Class, sponsored by the Methodist Church, which meets in the WOW hall each Sunday morning.

Rev. Jim Sharp taught the class Sunday, Condy Carmack is the teacher for next Sunday.

The class room opens at 9:30 a. m., and a half hour is spent in fellowship, during which coffee is served. The Bible lesson begins at 10:00 a. m. All men of the community have a cordial welcome.

Dairymen Face New Problems

COLLEGE STATION. —The coming of warm weather will bring with it new problems for the dairymen. Higher bacteria counts are sure to show up in the milk unless precautions are taken. High counts can be caused, says R. E. Burleson, dairy husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, from flaws in the milking procedure, milking unclean and unhealthy cows, using improperly cleaned utensils and milk cans and unclean attendants.

Be sure, warns the specialist, that cooling facilities are adequate for doing a rapid job of cooling the milk.

He says it is not too early to start a fly control program. The elimination of breeding places is of great importance in keeping flies under control. Manure should be spread on fields and all lots should be well drained as a part of the program.

To control hornflies, dairy cattle should be treated with sprays or washes containing five-tenths per cent methoxychlor. Such applications are usually effective for two to four weeks and in most areas of the state, two or three treatments in the spring and one in the fall is sufficient.

As an aid to controlling houseflies, Burleson suggests spraying the inside of the barn and around the entrances with a mixture of two and one-half per cent DDT and two per cent chlordane prepared from an emulsion concentrate. Washing the walls occasionally before spraying is also an aid to sanitation.

And finally, says Burleson, now is the time to plant a sudan or a sudan-cowpea mixture for summer grazing. Plant one acre per cow and use plenty of fertilizer. July pastures depend on cotton in April and May.

Methodist Men Hear Senator

State Senator Kilmer Corbin of Lubbock was the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Methodist Men in Fellowship Hall of the church Monday night.

The program was arranged by Mitchell Williams and John Slover. Forty-two men were present and were served a buffet style dinner by Eldon Gattis and David Weathers.

Mrs. Joe Cromer and three children, Lynn, Cheryl, and Tim, of Tyler, are visiting Mr. Cromer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Cromer and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nolen, all of Tahoka, and relatives in Lubbock. Joe will fly in Saturday morning by private plane for the Easter holidays.

Green and Calloway Huffaker, and the dinner will be served by Earl Tunnell and Ira Joe Hart.

Plans were discussed for the coming revival, and committees of men were appointed to arrange the breakfasts for the morning sessions of the revival.

MRS. HARVE SMITH IN HOSPITAL AT TEMPLE

Mrs. Harve Smith of Tahoka underwent major surgery in Scott & White Hospital at Temple last Friday morning. A local friend suggests that friends of Mrs. Smith here write her at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were in Temple at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Vicki Balch of Big Spring, formerly of New Home, who had undergone major surgery. While they were there, Mrs. Smith became ill, and surgery was found necessary.

It is a little difficult for a stranger down here to know whether or not he is violating some law if he writes or talks too much about either religion or politics, so I am going to start off this morning on a perfectly safe topic, the weather.

My room-mate and I have a grievance against the weather. So far as we can tell, it is not whit warmer now, especially at night and in the early morning, than it was when we came down here in early February. We ate breakfast this morning, as usual, between eight and nine o'clock, then came back to our room, and he has gone to bed to keep warm. I am writing this without having my coat on but am sitting in the warm sunshine that comes streaming in through our east window. We do not dare to open the window for an hour or two yet, for then the cool air would come in, although the wind is scarcely moving a leaf on the trees. We have not had a real old West Texas sandstorm down here since we crossed the border, though the wind has blown rather briskly a few days. So we have escaped one misery that you have been suffering in West Texas.

I don't know either the minimum or the maximum temperatures that have been registered here since we came, for I can not remember having seen a single thermometer since we came. And the drought? Well, we have seen no rain whatever since we arrived, except a little sprinkle once up in the mountains south of here. The rainy season is booked to start about the last of this month, however, and we are planning not to be here at that time. It will really do its stuff in June, July, and August.

The rainy season and the wet season each lasts about six months. So, old Jupiter Pluvius will probably go into winter quarters and bolt the door along about October and keep it bolted for six months. That's the low down on the weather in Mexico, so now I will have to hunt another subject to fill out this column with. Well, I have it already.

In the preceding paragraph I made mention of a little sprinkle of rain which we encountered up in the mountains south of this city. That was one Sunday afternoon when we visited an old abandoned convent up in the mountains about fifteen miles out, at a little place which they called the "Desert of the Lions"—at least that is what they called the convent. Since the convent was abandoned, the site and surrounding terrain have been used chiefly as a camping ground and a pleasure resort for anybody and everybody who cares to make such use of it. Many people have built summer cabins, most of them being constructed after the fashion of the numerous Indian huts to be found all over Mexico, some of them being open, some of them having crude walls made of poles, and all of them having thatched roofs. These are to be found all along the highway for two or three miles and terminate at a regular sure-enough Indian village. The Government has made a forest reservation out of a rather large area of the convent, and in the vicinity and is very strict in guarding and protecting the pines and other scenic features against vandals and other intruders who might be disposed to do damage to them or otherwise impair the beauty of the place. As a result, I guess the tallest pines to be found in all North America are to be found at the Desert of the Lions. My room-mate has seen the big Sequoia and other Redwood trees in California, and he declares that these pine trees looked almost as tall as the California wonders. I believe they are fully twice as tall as any pine trees I have ever seen in East Texas. At places they are also so thick on the ground that even with all the underbrush cleared away one can scarcely see fifty feet out into the forest from the highway. To me, that was one of the most marvelous beauty spots I have ever seen.

But we had not gone out there primarily to see the scenery. Our good Mexican friends had directed and accompanied us out there to see the old convent and its immediate environs. That was in fact one of the most pleasant features of the visit. Hundreds of people had gathered there that Sunday afternoon, and among them were scores and scores of pretty girls. That was an especially pleasing feature to my room mate. He admits that he was really interested, in the pretty girls but declares that I was still looking for the ocean. No, Brother, not that afternoon. I think that the pretty girls immediately recognized my friend and me as Texans and looked upon us with something of the same delight that a small boy has when he looks upon the first giraffe or orangotang he ever saw. At any rate those girls seemed to enjoy the fun that the young women of our own party were having with us. One of the stunts they pulled was to lift me up onto a ledge in one corner of the building and insist that I put my ear up close to a hole in the wall, the end of a concealed pipe, then for one of them to go to the other end of the pipe at another distant corner in the building and whisper into my ear. The pretty Mexico lassies watched the performance with a good deal of seeming delight.

Another stunt was to take me down a flight of winding stairs into a dungeon as dark as the Carlsbad Cavern ever was before it was lighted up. Of course they thought I would be frightened and so I played the game as best I could, and they thought that I was really frightened.

They treated my partner the same way later, but I think he failed to hear the whisper through the pipe and failed to get scared in the dungeon. Possibly he was displeased in the dungeon because all the pretty girls had disappeared. . . . Now, no joking, folks, there are more pretty black-eyed, brown-skin girls down here than you could shake a stick at. Those old tales and legends about Spanish beauties are no myth. They are still here and doing their stuff. There is a Spanish-English College within two blocks of the cafe where my partner and I take most of our meals, and many of the student, men and women, take their meals there also. Much of the time it is crammed and jambed with students, and that is what reminds me of those Lynn count/sparrows, which I spoke about some time ago. There was one fault in the comparison, however. This group of diners is ten times more noisy than 10,000 sparrows would be.

But back a moment to the Desert of the Lions. I do not know why they gave that name to the convent in the first place. There are, the tallest timber and the rankest vegetation there imaginable, and not a thing to suggest a desert; and I am sure that there is and never was a real lion closer to the spot than is the zoo in Chapultepec Park. There

helping Give the little lady a hand

THIS ad is addressed to husbands—Husbands who've yearned for the thrill of sitting behind a broad hood packed with horsepower—and the pride of rolling down the street in a car that tells the world, "Here's a man who knows the finest thing on wheels."

But husbands have wives. And wives have been known to say, "No big cars for me. They're too hard to handle."

Well, we have an answer for that one. It's a ROADMASTER with Buick's new Power Steering.† And Power Steering takes over any time the steering gets tough—works like a helping hand—reduces the effort of turning the wheel of a car at a standstill to about the same effort it takes to pick up a mink coat.

BUT out on the open highway—with a clear straight stretch before you—your hands still have command of the wheel—you can feel that sure, firm, easy and eager responsiveness that's a part of the fun of driving.

The rest of the fun is in something else that's new this year—the highest horsepower that a Buick Fireball Engine has ever delivered—and an Airpower carburetor that lets loose an extra reserve of power when needed, and still adds extra miles to your cruising range on each tankful of gas.

So we suggest a family demonstration. You'll both like the hushed and restful silence of this superbly able traveler. You'll like the harmonious beauty of its interior, and the deep and luxurious softness of its seats.

You'll like the velvet-gloved grip of its Wide-Band brakes, and the most capacious trunk in Buick history.

You'll like the smooth surge of Dynaflo Drive, and you'll like—but why waste time talking, when you could be finding out more than we can ever tell you? How about making a date to do that right now?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. While normally optional at extra cost when available. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

must have been some story back of the establishment of the convent that suggested the name, but if so I have never heard the story. Some of you may wonder why the convent had been abandoned. Well, that is a matter of history that I will tell about in some succeeding contributions to this column. All the convents were closed, to the great grief and consternation of all devout Catholics. The bedraggled weather-beaten old Catholic Church adjacent to the dilapidated old convent still stands but I am not sure that even it is now being used.

On the Sunday following our trip to the Desert of the Lions we went out to Chapultepec Park to see the real lions and other animals. I wanted to renew my acquaintance also with the Monkeys. The friends who usually constitute our visiting party went along also to see that no harm befell me. Most of the monkeys seemed glad to see me but I was really ashamed of some of my best friends among them; they didn't have enough clothes on. Must not have been expecting company. All jokes aside, the monkeys did put on quite a show and seemed to be doing their best to entertain us. There are several varieties of various sizes out there in the zoo and we really did enjoy their performances. They really have a pretty good menagerie out there, although many of the animals usually seen in a menagerie were not present. Among those which we saw were a couple of elephants and tigers, leopards, pumas, rhinos, a big polar bear, several better known in our country as panthers, ten or fifteen members of the monkey family, javelinas, and a variety of gaudily plumaged fowls and birds. Among the number was a snow-white peacock with not a single colored feather on him, proudly spreading his great expansive tail and staging his ever pompous strut. Actually I believe his plumage was as white as the snow on the summit of old Popocatepetl or on the prostrate form of his bride, Señora Iztacihuatl, who reclines at his side.

Yes, and in that park, they also have a lake with boats on it, and a fine little beach with pretty señoritas on it. I didn't look in the direction of the señoritas but did catch a glimpse of the lake and the beach. That park also is covered with the finest trees one ever saw and is penetrated, crossed and crisscrossed, by some of the finest drive-ways on the American continent. Again we traversed one of them up to the top of Chapultepec Hill where is situated Maximilian's Castle and just feasted our eyes on the great city that lay out below and before us. A gain I had left my kodak behind and hence took no pictures but I have bought some that other folks had made.

Speaking of pictures, I have taken four pictures in the fine little park that lies just two blocks west of our present boarding place, three of them last Sunday afternoon. I had taken one picture in this park during the preceding week, which is supposed to have featured my Lynn county friend and the wonderfully beautiful flowering tree therein, the trees with the purple flowers being the bougainvillea and those with the red flowers the tabachiens—I am not sure of the correct way to spell these names, nor of many other Spanish words I have heard repeatedly. Spanish orthography and especially pronunciation seem to be rather vague and unsettled any way, in so far I have been able to find out.

But Sunday afternoon I wanted to get the pictures of the Mexican friends I have been mentioning, and so we all went down to that little park, the prettiest in the city next to Chapultepec, and there I took their pictures under some of these trees. I hope they prove to be good ones, for these are among the finest people I have ever known, and they have treated me like a father.

I will probably have something further to say about our visit to this park, for there were some features of it that I wish to mention in another connection later—a matter that deeply concerns or should concern all Americans north of the Rio Grande who believe in the "four freedoms" and especially of all Evangelicals who are interested in the matter of missions. But I have neither the space nor the time to discuss those matters here and now, nor would it be proper or advisable for me to do so. But I will give attention to those matters later.

But the good friends I have been mentioning in this column are not the only good people down here by any means. I find many of the best-hearted and most accommodating people here I have ever met. I want to give a few examples.

A few weeks ago, when I was failing to get my mail, I was told that the mail which is distributed in this block came from a sub-post office several blocks away, although there is one within two blocks of where I sit. I hunted up that other sub-office to find out why my mail was not coming. A gentleman connected with the service and whom I took to be the manager of that sub-office proposed to take me in his car to the sub-office from which he maintained that I should be getting my mail. I thought he was going to a lot of trouble and protested but he insisted on taking me. As I turned to follow him the heel of my shoe caught a metal hasp that protruded upward out of the concrete at the bottom of the door-way and I fell violently upon the floor. He grabbed me and picked me up, but I was not seriously hurt and he still insisted that I go with him and we would try to find out the trouble. The trip involved the traversing of several blocks in his car and the loss of some time on his part. When we arrived at my

Now some other examples. A few days ago I wanted to buy a couple of books and thought that I could most probably procure them at the Presbyterian Publishing House here. I engaged a taxi to take me to the house number and the street given me, but

CHRYSLER FirePower is so much more than HORSEPOWER

+ It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new... the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that...

+ FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work... the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command...

+ FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed...

+ Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

when I arrived at that point I found no Presbyterian Publishing house there and no No. 25 as given. I made numerous inquiries as to where The Presbyterian House was but nobody could tell me. After a prolonged and unsuccessful search, I stepped into another publishing house—they are numerous in that part of the city but few of the managers or clerks can speak or understand English—and I asked a 17 or 18

No books I wanted there, so the manager sent me back and down to Gante No. 5. Gante No

5, didn't have the books but sold me another one that I had decided I could use, and so I had at last made one purchase.

Gante No. 5, directed me to go back east three blocks and then west two blocks, or maybe it was three, to the "Christian Union Book Store" on Chile St. There I browsed around a half an hour, but did not find the book I most wanted; almost bought another one that I was sure was good but hated to part with so many pesos all at one time, and so the Union Book Store kept the book and I kept my pesos.

I am going to purchase the book I was hunting in the United States yet if I can find a Spanish version of it, for I wanted it for special purpose here.

Everywhere I went hunting for that or a similar book, I was treated with the utmost courtesy and consideration. I decided—in fact I already knew—that there are countless good people here in Mexico City. But I am coming home soon—may get there before this letter appears in print. Good afternoon and good luck to everybody.
