County School Districts Elect Board Members

In the school trustee election last Saturday, Tahoka, New Home and O'Donnell each elected two new trustees, and Wilson re-elected two men already serving on the board. One new member was elected to the county board and two others were re-elected.

Tahoka school district voters elected Clifton Hamilton and Roy Stephens new board members, succeeding Clint Walker, board chairman, and Clint Sikes, who were not candidates for re-election. Of the 311 votes cast, Hamilton received 204 votes and Stephens 183. Other names on the ballot were Dale Thuren 143, Larry Hagood 66, and Ray Hopkins 22.

Holdover members of the board are Olen Renfro, Maurice Huffaker, J. T. Miller, Cleve Littlepage, and Wilton (Jim) Payne. Tahoka's board, in a meeting Tuesday night, elected Cleve Littlepage new board president; Maurice Huffaker, vice president; and Wilton Payne, secretary.

In a spirited race at New Home, where 304 votes were cast, Dick Turner polled 56 votes and A. C. Fillingim Jr. 53 to become new trustees, while incumbents Roy Blevins and Edwin Nettles received 31 and 27 votes respectively, and Harold Gene Franklin, 30, and Milton Evans got seven write-in votes.

Holdover members are E. M. Rudd, Frank Liseby, Robbie Gill, N. B. Hancock and George Sealy. J. M. (Jack) Wood and D. J. (Bud) Besire were elected new trustees at O'Donnell over Kenneth Pearson and Earl Greenlee. Besire received 81 votes, Wood 52, Pearson and Greenlee 43 each. Outgoing trustees are Ralph Beach and Elbert Crawford, who were not candidates for re-election. Holdover members are Julian Pirtle, Willard Emerson, Shorty Vestal, W. H. Cook and Dick Franklin.

Wilson voters re-elected Jiggs Swann and Edmund Maeker, who received 53 and 38 votes respectively, to 21 for Sam Gaski and 14 for L. E. (Nitt) Yennig, the other two candidates. Holdovers are Lloyd Mears, Jimmy Lane, Cecil Wied, A. N. Crowson, and Walter Ray Steen.

Aubrey Smith of New Home appeared to be the winner over Mrs. Geneva Cain of Tahoka in a write-in campaign for trustee-at-large on the county board to succeed J. K. (Jimmy) Applewhite, who was not a candidate for re-election.

Unofficially, a write-in at New Home gave Smith 45 votes, while a similar write-in in Tahoka gave Mrs. Cain 41 votes. There were a lot of other write-ins, but no other name was in the running. The News was informed Thursday. Votes will be canvassed Friday by the Commissioners' Court.

T. B. Mason was re-elected as the trustee from Precinct 1 and Homer Hardberger from Precinct 2. Holdover member of the county board are Graham Hensley of Precinct 2 and Harlan Dean of Precinct 4.

Church Rejects Building Bids

At a conference held Sunday night at the First Methodist Church, members voted to reject bids made on a proposed reconstruction of the sanctuary and building of an attached, educational building.

The members turned the construction program back over to the building committee for further study. Low bid on the reconstruction plans was $135,900.00, several thousand dollars higher than expected. The rejection vote came following a recommendation from the building committee that such a vote be made.

The conference gave the building committee, of which A. M. Bray is chairman, the go-ahead for study of all phases of a building program and other plans will be forthcoming at a later time.

MISS AINA ESTER HOGLUND, 24, from Lund, Sweden, will be this summer's foreign student guest of Tahoka Rotary Club, the first girl but the ninth such "goodwill ambassador" the club has sponsored in as many years. She will arrive here about July 5, and will live in homes of local club members for about two months.

Shows Total 1.12 Inch Here

Misty weather Thursday and Friday of last week added 42 inch of moisture in Tahoka to the 70 the previous week end, bringing the total rainfall in Tahoka to 1.12 inches. Total for the year is now 1.90 inches.

More than half of the county was materially benefitted by the rains, which measured up to three inches or more north and northwest of Tahoka in the Dixie area. Most of the west and north sections and part of the south part of the county received an inch to an inch and a half.

Rain was very light in most of the Grassland, Redwine, and Draw areas, although a strip about two miles wide extending from Draw to O'Donnell received a good rain.

Warm weather the last few days has given farmers "planting fever" but most of the county's dryland will need more rain for planting.

New Oil Well At Mound Lake

Cities Service Oil Co. of Midland has completed its No. 1-B Lindsey oil well as a producer a half mile southeast of the lone producer in the Mound Lake (Fusselman) field in east Terry county, just over the line from Lynn county but in Tahoka School District.

However, operators expressed disappointment when the well tested 172 barrels of 36.5 gravity oil plus 200 barrels of salt water through a 33-64th inch choke with a gas-oil ratio of 200:1 at 11,332-236 feet.

The well is 1,900 feet from the north and east lines of section 48, block E, ELARR survey.

The company has another location to the south on land owned by R. C. Roberts of Tahoka. This location was changed two weeks ago from a site originally staked to the east on land owned by Eldon Carroll and James F. (Sonny) Roberts.

Church of Christ Meeting Continues

Funeral services were held at 4:00 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. James Eflrid, and Rev. George A. Dale of Lubbock and former pastor here officiating. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of White Funeral Home.

Mrs. Nevill was the victim of an automobile accident on Dec. 8 and other complications followed causing her long hospitalization. She had been in ill health for several years.

She was born Jennie Agnes Crouch Jan. 30, 1884 in Richland Springs, Texas and came to Lynn county from there with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crouch, in 1907. She was married to Joseph Leslie (Jodie) Nevill June 28, 1908 in the first church wedding in Tahoka following its organization. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors include her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Fay Fleming and Mrs. Jennie Reba Flowers, both of Flagstaff, Ariz., and Mrs. Jobie Bob Jones of Sanger, Calif.; three sons, Everton and Ray of Tahoka and William Alex of San Pedro, Calif.; five sisters, Mrs. Zetta Ashley and Mrs. Velma Self of Tahoka, Mrs. Ola Hughes of Alamogordo, N. Plan Work Day At Boys Ranch

Phi Delta Theta fraternity of Texas Tech has taken on a project for improvement of South Plains Boys Ranch here, and about 75 college men will meet at the ranch Saturday, April 20, for a work day.

Last Saturday, fraternity members set out 40 peach trees and 16 pecan trees at the ranch, and Saturday of next week they expect to fill in holes and level up grounds around the headquarters building, plant shrubs and decorative trees and make other improvements.

John Harding, a professor in the business administration department, is the fraternity sponsor. Mr. Harding's wife is the former Miss Lorene Childers, whose late father, Dave Childers, was a long-time foreman of T-Bar Ranch, and the Hardings now stock farm a part of the ranch.

Caprock District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, headed by Mrs. Bill Davis of O'Donnell, also has Boys Ranch as one of its projects and entertained the boys at the recent district meeting in Lubbock.

MRS. HARVICK IMPROVES Mrs. Roy (Opal) Harvick was dismissed from West Texas Hospital Sunday, and is home doing fine. She underwent major surgery and was in critical condition for several days, but a full recovery is now expected.

Telephone Micro-Wave Tower Work Is Nearing Completion

By Peggy Beckum "It takes a strong back and a weak mind to stay up there," and a wide grin broke over the face of I. W. Kirk, foreman of the seven man crew constructing the 250 foot micro-wave tower in downtown Tahoka this week.

Interviewed on the job, Kirk, a veteran of 10 years experience, talked freely about his unusual occupation. He considers his job interesting and different and says there is "no use" to worry over falls. Kirk's concern seems to be that the work takes him away from his family a great deal.

Micom, Inc. the tower constructing company he works for, built towers in 35 states last year and currently is doing a job in the Philippines. The tallest tower the company has done was a 300 foot job in Florida. Kirk's crew constructed a 300 foot tower in O'Donnell in about a week. Explaining the difference in the two, Kirk said the taller O'Donnell tower was slender and with guy wires for support, while the local one is a harder to construct self-supporting one.

Weather, of course, is the de-

School Tax Office In Abbe Building

Tahoka school district's tax office will be moved this week end to the new Robert Abbe building on the south side of the square, where Mr. Abbe will in the future collect school district taxes.

Maurice Small, who has served several years as combination district secretary and business manager and also tax assessor and collector, is moving his office to the high school building, where he will continue as secretary and business manager of the district. Small had asked for a division of the duties, and after May 1 he will serve in this capacity on a part-time basis.

WELLS IN LUBBOCK R. C. Wells was expected to be transferred to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Thursday or Friday of this week. He has been hospitalized in John Sealy Hospital, Galveston.

Cakes of ice from the first commercial ice plant were four feet long, two feet wide and one inch thick.

MRS. BILLIE L. CARR

County Secures New H. D. Agent

Mrs. Billie Carr was employed Monday as the new Home Demonstration Agent for Lynn county, and will begin her new work here on May 1, succeeding Mrs. Connie Anderson, who resigned last year. She was employed by Lynn County Commissioners Court on recommendation of Mrs. Aubrey Russell of Lubbock, district H. D. Agent.

Mrs. Carr comes here from Andrews where she has been in training since February 1. Reared at Big Spring, she is a 1948 graduate of Texas Tech with a B. S. degree in Home Economics Education.

Mrs. Carr has three children, Bradley 5, Ben 8, and Barbara 16, who is attending high school in Colorado.

She said she is looking forward to working with the women and girls of the county in home demonstration and 4-H club work. Her office will be in the Farm Bureau building adjoining that of County Agent Bill Griffin.

Methodists Open Meeting Sunday

Spring revival services will begin Sunday at the First Methodist Church in Tahoka with Dr. E. D. Landreth of Lamesa as visiting evangelist.

Rev. Aubrey White, local pastor, will preach Easter morning, and Dr. Landreth will begin the revival services Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. to continue through April 21.

The daytime services will be each day from 12:00 noon to 12:40 p. m. in order for working people to attend. To make the noonday service convenient for everyone, a free lunch will be served in Fellowship Hall. Everyone is invited to come and eat from 11:15 a. m. to 12:00 noon before the service or from 12:40 p. m. to 1:00 p. m. after the service.

Mrs. E. W. Patterson, choir director, will be in charge of song services and will provide duets and solos each evening. A specially prepared booklet of old gospel songs will be used during the meeting.

A nursery for small children will be provided for the evening services.

Dr. Landreth is well known in this area as he was District Superintendent of the Amarillo District for six years. He served for several years on the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home at Waco and is presently trustee of McMurry College. He was pastor four years of the St Paul Methodist Church in Abilene.

MRS. WHITE HOME

Mrs. Roy (Jeanie) White returned to her home here after undergoing treatment at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston for about two months. She will return to Houston for surgery on April 25.

For the first time in about 10 years, county-wide free tuberculosis tests will be given all citizens on three evenings next week, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday between the hours of 6:00 and 9:00 p. m. in the county court house in Tahoka.

The program is under the sponsorship of Tahoka Jaycees, school nurses of Lynn county schools, and the State health authorities.

Because of Lynn county being reported as a congested area of tuberculosis victims, the tests are being offered free of charge to every man, woman and child in Lynn county.

Persons having a positive reaction to the tests will be given free X-ray tests when the State Mobile Unit comes here at a later date.

The Heaf-gun will be used for the tests here next week and will be administered by Mrs. Lillian McCord, Tahoka school nurse; Mrs. Cleone Bingham, Wilson-New Home school nurse; and Mrs. Jean Harvick, O'Donnell school nurse.

Although the Heaf-guns used in the schools will be used in the county-wide program, additional guns and supplies are being sent here from Lubbock, and the TB Association in that city will be standing by with more supplies in case of a shortage here.

All adults and children are urged to take advantage of the program, and farmers are urgently requested to see that Latin-American farm hands and families be given the tests, since this segment of the county population has been found to have a high rate of tuberculosis.

However, white school children have also been found to have the disease, as well as the Latin-Americans with 11 cases being detected in Tahoka during this school year.

The tests will be given only in Tahoka because of lack of equipment, Harry Lee Short of the Tahoka Jaycees says, and residents of the county are invited to come on either of the three evenings to Tahoka for the tests.

The Heaf-gun test is painless and the program will move along as rapidly as the Sabin oral-polio vaccine did recently.

There will be no request for financial aid in any way, but those wishing to do so may donate change for the program if they so desire.

Walter Savell of Wilson Buried

Walter Savell, 68, well-known Lynn county farmer living east of Wilson, died Sunday in Mercy Hospital in Slaton. He had been in ill health several years, but had re-entered the hospital only recently.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. in First Baptist Church of Wilson, with Rev. W. C. Rucker, pastor of Wilson Methodist Church, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Billy Wilkinson, pastor of Oakwood Methodist Church in Lubbock and a former Wilson pastor. Burial followed in Wilson Cemetery.

Mr. Savell came to Wilson in 1916, saw service in World War I, and was married to Miss Essie Coleman, member of a pioneer family, on Sept. 12, 1919. He farmed two and a half miles east of Wilson.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Blanton Cogburn of Colorado Springs and Miss Ruby Faye Savell of the home; one son, James L. Savell of Seattle, Wash.; and Woodrow of Oklahoma; three sisters, Mrs. Ollie Stirman of Seattle, Mrs. Elsie Rogers of Newcast, and Mrs. May Johnson of Wichita Falls; and six grandchildren.

Mrs. S. J. Cowart, 82, was a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital from Friday until Sunday, when she was released.

3.8 Births For Each Death Here During Past Decade

(Special to The News)
New York—Lynn county produced a big excess in the number of births over the number of deaths during the past decade, according to a special population study released by the government. It shows that 3.8 local residents were born in the period for every one who died.

The composite figures reveal that there were 3,000 live births and 790 deaths in the 10 years. This refers to local residents only. Excluded are any non-residents who were born or who died in the county.

The source of the data, assembled by the Department of Commerce, was the vital statistics that have been gathered each year by the U. S. Public Health Service. The results are given for each county in the United States.

Although the rate of births is still at a high level in Lynn county, such is not the case in every part of the country. The figures indicate that the national rate has been dropping for the last five years, reversing the upward trend that had been in progress since 1945.

Locally, over the past decade, the average annual birth rate amounted to 28.3 per 1,000 population.

By way of comparison, the birth rate throughout the United States averaged 24.7 per 1,000. It was 27.4 in the West South Central States.

From the evidence at hand, it appears that the large-family era is at an end, at least for the present. The desire, or the intention, to have more than one or two children seems to be diminishing.

Young couples are waiting longer or before taking on the role of parents. They are delaying this step for a few years after marriage. Older married couples, by the same token, are ending their child-rearing careers sooner than was the case ten years ago.

What is the reason for this change in attitude? A number of explanations are advanced. One is that it is becoming increasingly expensive to bring up children. Providing for their food, clothes and education, while carrying the present-day tax load, takes a lot of income.

Added to this is the tighter job situation and the trend toward apartment house living, with the space limitations that it involves.

Mrs. Slover's Sister Buried Recently

Mrs. Ada Jane Welsh, 65, of California, sister of Mrs. J. W. Slover of Tahoka, died at 9:00 p. m. March 27 in a Los Angeles hospital of a heart condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Slover left here the following Friday and returned home Tuesday of last week.

Funeral services were held in the chapel of the Armstrong Family Mortuary on Monday, April 1, with Rev. Fred Hays officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Welsh was a member of the First Christian Church, Eastern Star and Retired Teachers Association of Los Angeles county. She taught school in New Mexico and Colorado before moving to Los Angeles in 1926, where she taught in the Culver City schools before retiring in 1955 because of ill health.

Survivors include her husband, C. M. Welsh; two brothers, Harrison Rector of Reno, Nev., and George Rector of Monterey, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Slover of Tahoka; and other relatives.

Grassland News

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

One of the Grassland community's old landmarks has been torn down. The First Nazarene Church, a wooden structure, has been replaced by a brick building. The old church was once used to finish out a school term, after the little three-room school house was destroyed by fire.

All the members have had a part in tearing the building apart. The men have torn the building down, and the ladies have been pulling nails out of the old lumber. The lumber is then stacked, and will be used some time in the future to build a new and bigger parsonage.

Mrs. E. M. Walker, who still lives here, will remember the morning the "little white school-house burned," as she was one of the teachers at that time. Another one is Mrs. Beulah (Smith) Pridmore. Mrs. Pridmore now lives in Tahoka.

Visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Walker, Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Walker, Dennis and Tim of Littlefield, and the C. A. Walkers.

Mrs. (Beth) Ferman Chapman and surgery Saturday morning in West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. She is reported to be doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Walker returned home from Odessa Thursday where they had been for about ten days, visiting relatives and doing some fishing. They say the fish were biting, but "the big one got away." However, they did manage to bring a few small ones home, as evidence.

The Norris Workman family who have been living in Grassland for some time, have moved over to the H. W. Edwards farm, northwest of Grassland.

Rev. George Turentine, minister from Lubbock, will hold the Easter morning services at Draw Methodist Church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. A. Saylor, who is holding a revival at Grassland Methodist Church.

Several of J. E. Sherrill's children had a birthday dinner Sunday in his honor. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sherrill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathis of Tahoka and Mrs. Bea Brown and daughter of Brownfield; also Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sherrill and family of Tahoka, Gary Sherrill and family of Odessa and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield.

Mrs. Myrtle Mathis and Mrs. Clyde Jones had lunch with Mrs. Roy Appling, and in the afternoon they all visited with Granda Huddelston and Mrs. G. W. Grogan. Mrs. Jones was spending the week with Myrtle Mathis while having some dental work done.

Mrs. E. B. Mathis is in Tahoka Hospital again, but we understand she is undergoing some tests and is not seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Hoover of Littlefield spent Sunday night and Monday with his mother, Mrs. O. H. Hoover.

Mrs. Dorace Huff and Traci and Mrs. Hoover visited Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clem in Tahoka Thursday evening. Mrs. Clem is recovering from an operation on her feet.

Mrs. H. D. Gartman's mother, Mrs. Dixie Watley of Seminole, has been visiting them. She became ill so they took her back home on Monday and report she is feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greer went down to their vacation cabin to fish while but came on back because Mr. Greer was not feeling well.

Rev. and Mrs. Yeatts had as visitors Sunday their son, Jackie Yeatts and family of Snyder; their daughter and family, the Jess Hensons of Levelland and the song leader, Brother Zed Robinson.

Mrs. Grace Thomas underwent surgery last week in the Methodist Hospital and she is doing nicely. Rev. and Mrs. Yeatts visited her Monday morning.

A. N. Crowsons of Wilson Celebrate 25th Anniversary

By Margret Bartley

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Crowson of Wilson will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday. They were married in 1938 in Hopkins county.

The Crowsons have four children, Jearrel, Margret, Brenda and Susy with one grandchild, Mitchell Bartley.

Mr. Crowson was born and raised in the Birthright community of Hopkins county and has ten living brothers, Sam, Clifford, Thurman, Wilson, R. B., Jr., John, Hershel, Billy, Henry and Joe and one sister, Edna. Most of them and their families are still living near their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crowson.

Mrs. Crowson is the former Lorain Phillips, also of Hopkins county. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phillips of Wilson. She has two brothers, L. G. and William and one sister, Ailine Noble.

The Crowsons moved to Wilson from Sulphur Springs in the fall of 1947 and have farmed here ever since. Four years ago they moved into town but Mr. Crowson is continuing his farming. They are members of the First Baptist Church and are very active in community affairs. In November, 1962, they bought the Mustang Cafe in Wilson.

At the Tahoka elevator farmers are assured of many services—grain handling, planting seed, Sol-U-Phos Liquid Fertilizer and many others.

Included in the vast enterprises of Goodpasture, besides elevators, are ready-mix concrete, a very modern, up-to-date liquid fertilizer plant, chemical laboratory, manufacturing plant, all located in Brownfield.

The elevator at Tahoka was added to his business interest in 1951 in time for that grain season. The local elevator has enjoyed a healthy growth, according to Hale.

The system utilizes the farmer's present pipe, and is composed of a carrier unit for each joint of pipe and one gasoline-powered drive unit. With a system of this type a farmer is able to move a quarter-mile of sprinkler pipe from one setting to the next in a matter of some six or seven minutes. This pipe mover—the Wagner Sprinkler Pipe Mover—is now available at the local elevator.

Mrs. Jack Adams is at home recuperating from a severe sprained right knee received from a fall on Saturday. She was released from Tahoka Hospital on Monday to consult a specialist.

Life expectancy at birth in the 17th Century was 18.2 years. In the 20th Century it is 58-60 years.

Goodpasture Is Factor In Growth

A youngster's determination to town an elevator has developed into one of the most unusual progress stories ever told.

It was shortly after graduation from high school in Brownfield, Grady Goodpasture set his sights on owning an elevator. However, it was 10 years before the initial step in his dream was accomplished.

In 1940 Goodpasture started operation on the present site of the elevator located in Brownfield. The first elevator was a wooden structure, constructed to handle Terry county's then booming corn economy.

Today, the modest beginning has blossomed into 14 elevators, one of which is located in Tahoka. The Lynn county elevator is ably managed by Tom Hale, with his wife Connie as bookkeeper and his assistant is Bill Hancock.

At the Tahoka elevator farmers are assured of many services—grain handling, planting seed, Sol-U-Phos Liquid Fertilizer and many others.

Included in the vast enterprises of Goodpasture, besides elevators, are ready-mix concrete, a very modern, up-to-date liquid fertilizer plant, chemical laboratory, manufacturing plant, all located in Brownfield.

Back in 1950, Goodpasture began the manufacture of Sol-U-Phos Liquid Fertilizer, and it, too, is available to area farmers.

For many years the company has carried the slogan—"supplying everything for the farmer but rain." And, figuratively speaking, this is borne out in the many services Goodpasture Grain has to offer.

Always ready to do anything to add to the progress of area farmers, each year the company carries on many different types of tests. Included in these are field seeds, fertilizer applications, different types and kinds of farming implements, etc., and most anything else farmers can think of that will add to the increased production so necessary for the growth and prosperity of farmers.

"We are always open to suggestions as to how we can be of more service to our customers. There is nothing we enjoy more than being able to point with pride to the fact that 4-H club and FFA boys can always count on our company to back them in their every endeavor," said Hale.

Another division, but a very important one of Goodpasture Grain, is its hybrid seed department. Since the advent of hybrid corn, production for the farmer has increased tremendously. Among the many reasons for this are the use of improved varieties, increased use of irrigation, more widespread planting of superior hybrids, better cultural practices and wiser use of fertilizers. Lynn county has come far in its farming practices and production, and we are proud to be a part of this very progressive community, Hale commented, adding:

"Time was when a farmer was satisfied to 'make a living,' but nowadays there is more to it than that. We have fine schools, as sorted recreation and the one big interest—to do better with the resources we have. We know that we are working our land hard, and we realize that we must take better care of our farms if we are to pass them on to our children, who will have our job of feeding more people on less soil. Never losing sight of the fact that we are only caretakers of the land, we make this pledge to our customers—if we can be of service to you, no matter how small or large, you have only but to ask and we will do our utmost to please."

Methodist WSCS Completes Study

Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met for Day Apart and the final session on the current study, "Prayer," Tuesday from 10:00 a. m. until 2:00 p. m. in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

During the morning hours, Mrs. James Roberts presented a portion of the program on meditation in the home. Mrs. W. E. Cantrell spoke on devotional reading. Mrs. E. W. Patterson accompanied by Mrs. John Wells sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

The program was under direction of Mrs. R. M. Stewart, who also provided the worship center. The table, when lunch was eaten, bore a large picture of the "Praying Hands" by Albrecht Durer lighted with a candle. At each place was a cup filled with food customarily eaten in Jesus' day, olives, figs, nuts and cheese. Bread was also placed at each place setting to complete the theme. During the lunch, Mrs. G. M. Stewart read the scripture on prayer.

To close the day's program Mrs. R. H. Gibson presented the chapter on relinquishment from the book "Beyond Ourselves" by Catherine Marshall.

As a result of the study on "Prayer," which has been directed by Mrs. A. M. Bray, the W.S.C.S. will buy a record player for the church, books for the church library, and will set aside a time each day for prayer and meditation.

TOWER . . .

(Cont'd. from Page 1) terminating factor, but Kirk estimates the entire job should be completed by Wednesday. When finished, the 250 foot tower will have two flat faced reflectors on top which will send and receive telephone messages by microwave. The reflectors used in this operation will be similar to the ones used in television transmitting. General Telephone's long range plans call for this type of transmitting throughout the system.

The seven men in Kirk's crew are all expert climbers with from two to eight years experience. The crew works with four "top men" and one operator below. The remaining crewmen run the "tag lines", which are ropes attached to the iron to hold it away from the tower as it is lifted by the hoist.

The "top men" use heavy safety belts similar to those worn by highline workers, with about 15 pounds of tools swinging from them. A ladder runs part way up the structure but past that the men climb the outside braces without any safety device, which explains why Kirk says "the wind is the hardest thing on the men."

Generally, the same crew travels together so they become accustomed to working smoothly with each other. The men Tahokans have been working to all week are: C. E. Adams, Knott, Louis Buck, B. E. Roberts, Lonnie Courtney and Kenneth Hamilton, all of Ft. Worth; Dick Pinnick, Dallas and Kirk of Ft. Worth. An ironic twist occurred when Kirk's family visited him on a recent weekend. His two year old daughter, Nell fell from a chair in a local motel and spent two days in Tahoka Hospital for observation.

Tom Gosdin, employee at the Dwan Jones farm, was dismissed Tuesday from Tahoka Hospital, where he received treatment for lower leg injuries received when his left leg was caught in a tractor power lift Saturday.

Draw Farm Home Damaged By Fire

Friday a fire in the W. E. Pierce home in the Draw community caused heavy damage to the living room and smoke damage throughout the house.

It is believed lightning struck the house about 4:00 p. m. during a heavy rain and hail storm. The Pierses had been away from home and returned to find the house already ablaze. A passing motorist, Dan Curry, issued the alarm at Draw and the Tahoka Fire Department was called.

Although everything in the living room was a total loss and windows throughout the house were broken, the Pierses report the damage can be repaired.

Highlights Of Proposed Wheat Program Given

County Agent Bill Griffin attended on Friday a regional meeting in Lubbock conducted by Texas Agricultural Extension Service to explain the 1964 wheat program and the May 21 referendum. Although Lynn county has less than 100 wheat producers, these and all other farmers should, he says, acquaint themselves with the proposals.

A team of administrators and specialists from the Extension Service pointed out that wheat has had its problems for many years. Despite acreage controls the surplus has increased until it is now near the 1.3 billion bushels mark or about equal to a single year's production. For acre yields have increased while domestic consumption has remained stable, around 800 million bushels per year. Exports have been erratic depending to a large extent upon government financial assistance.

The supply control concept which is emphasized in the 1964 wheat program is not new, the speakers pointed out. In the past, only one factor of production—land—has been regulated. But yields have increased, for example in Texas from 8.6 bushels in 1935-39 to 16.3 bushels in 1955-59 and still higher to 32 bushels an acre for the 1961 crop. This same trend holds for the nation. The 65 million acre national minimum allotment, in effect for many years plus the yield increase, has resulted in more wheat than we could use, the speakers said.

For several years, some national wheat leaders have advocated a program similar to the one to be voted on May 21. On the other hand, other leaders have advocated a trend toward less control.

The specialist team spent some two hours outlining the wheat situation, the alternatives up for consideration by wheat growers, and the short and long-time effects of the program, both monetary and non-monetary.

Extension Director John E. Hutchinson pointed out that the Extension Service was fulfilling its role of education by bringing the facts to those interested in order that they might be in a better position to make their decision when they mark their ballots on May 21. We plan to do everything possible, he added, to see that every person desiring factual information on the program gets it. Sub-district meetings with grower participation will follow the regional meetings, he said.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced the following actions for the 1964 wheat crop:

1. Set May 21 as the date for a referendum on the 1964 wheat program.
2. Established wheat support prices at $2.00 per bushel national average for certificated wheat and $1.30 per bushel for non-certificated wheat if the referendum carries.
3. Set the national marketing quota at 1,500,000,000 bushels and the national acreage allotment for 1964 at 40,500,000 acres—the same as in 1963.
4. Determined a wheat marketing allocation for certificated wheat of 970,000,000 bushels, 65 percent of the national marketing quota. Individual producers will receive marketing certificates for 80 percent of the normal production on their acreage allotments.
5. Announced State acreage allotments based on the national allotment.
6. Set diversion payment rates on wheat acreage put to conserving uses.
7. Announced there will be a no non-commercial wheat-producing States designated under the 1964 program.

Like Tahoka, O'Donnell community leaders have on a drive to develop more civic pride in the community. A chamber of commerce has been organized with Weldon Martin the president, and a brochure similar to Tahoka's will be published soon. The town has new homes, new schools, new churches, new paving, community center, is taking steps to build a medical clinic building, and everything in general is "looking up."

Editor of the Index, "Mister Big O" or "Smitty", or O. G. Smith, last week had a column of brag in his "Country Editor" column. One of the facts he points out is that O'Donnell has eight gin plants that gin more cotton the average year per capita than any town in the world. More power to our sister city!

WOODS JEWELRY
Established 1927 in Tahoka
West of Court House on Square Tahoka, Texas

For at least six or eight years, this column has been expressing the belief we are losing our cotton markets because of too-high support prices. Mill owners and some other industry leaders have argued the same line. Mr. Freeman and the New Frontier brought even higher support prices. Now we are in trouble—serious trouble. Unable to meet competition of foreign mills, who buy American cotton 8.5 cents per pound cheaper and manufacture competitive goods with cheap labor, American mills are converting to synthetics. Washington has continued to "fiddle while Rome burns." But, at last the Administration and the bureaucrats seem to be awakening.

Last week, Joseph A. Moss, director of the cotton policy staff of the ASCS, stated before the Texas Cotton Ginners meeting in Dallas, "One of our cotton problems is increased production outside the United States," and noted that other nations have boosted their harvest by 12,000,000 bales annually since 1953, while the U. S. has held its production to 13,700,000 bales with national controls. In nine years, he says, foreign countries have increased production of cotton and man-made fibers by 21,900,000 bales.

Just recently The Springs Cotton Mills, largest producer in the world of exclusively cotton textiles, announced it is converting to production of synthetics. It's president, Hugh W. Close, said they could wait no longer, because of the uncertainty of cotton legislation and as long as U. S. cotton is priced out of the market; to remain in business, it has to get competitive by switching to synthetics. This company used 295,000 bales of cotton in 1952 and employed 12,500 people.

But, this same old big hearted Uncle Sam still is sending cotton production experts around the world to teach our competitors how to raise more and better cotton. And our "give-away" foreign aid program is putting a half dozen other nations into the cotton textile business to compete with American mills and merchants.

WOODS JEWELRY
Established 1927 in Tahoka
West of Court House on Square Tahoka, Texas

SWPSC Pioneer In Development

Southwestern Public Service Company has been serving Tahoka for 35 of the 69 years since the town was established.

Electricity first came to Tahoka back in the 'teens, and the town was served by a municipal light and ice plant until purchased by this company on January 6, 1928, from the City of Tahoka under a contract dated November 21, 1927. The generating facilities at that time consisted of a three-unit electric plant in northeast Tahoka housed in a concrete, frame and stucco building.

The electrical plant consisted of one 75 horse power Fairbanks-Morse engine, one 100 h. p. Fairbanks-Morse engine, and one 150 h. p. Fairbanks-Morse engine, each directly connected to three-phase alternators. Total generating voltage was 2300 volts. Also housed in the building was an eight-ton electric-driven raw-water ice plant.

The distribution system in 1928 covered the residence and business sections of town and served 375 customers.

Since then the distribution system has been extended as the town has grown and has also been extended to serve some rural customers.

Today, the company serves approximately 1,365, which is nearly four times the number in 1928. During the past year meter installations have totaled 70 over the same month a year ago.

Tahoka today is served by a 69-KV line with a 5,000-KV interchange, but within the next year a new 115-KV line and 40,000-KV interchange will be serving Tahoka, a part of the $130 million that Southwestern Public Service Co. will spend on construction over the next five-year period.

The Company encourages its local employees to take a part in community affairs, and the firm takes an active interest in the development of the town and area.

Local manager is Harold Roberts, who succeeded Johnny Reasonover in the position in October of 1961. Harold is active in Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, Rotary Club, and other civic work.

Mrs. Florine McCracken, cashier and bookkeeper, has been with the office since 1945, and currently is secretary of the Salvation Army and the Community Benevolent Fund and in the Pythian Sisters. Service men, E. W. (Pat) Patterson and Charlie Bosworth, have been here with the firm since 1950 and 1948, respectively. Both are active in Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department, of which Pat is Chief, and give their spare time to other community activities.

"Building of Men" Rotary Subject

"What kind of men will be sitting in our seats tomorrow?" was the question raised by Horton Shipley, Lubbock businessman, in a talk before Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon on the subject, "Building Men of Tomorrow" through the Boy Scout program.

Every boy is the product of the home, church, and school, and the Boy Scout program seeks to supplement these influences in building better men. The Boy Scout organization "does not do things for boys—it teaches boys to do things for themselves and for others," he said.

Much is heard about juvenile delinquency. Boys of Cub Scout age have an insatiable curiosity, a desire to do things, and need direction in the right way. He told of a recent incident where he sat on a jury as three boys were tried for murder, and these boys' only excuse for the crime was they "had nothing else to do."

"We can either support a positive program," he continued, "or do nothing and risk the chance of sitting in judgment."

The speaker said the South Plains Area Council was chartered in 1926, and from this small beginning has grown to an organization in which 9,100 boys and 3,000 adults now participate. But, he pointed out, this program is reaching only one in four boys in our area.

More workers and facilities are needed by the Area Council, and for this reason a headquarters building has been erected in Lubbock with facilities for training leaders. More camp facilities and more equipment is needed, and for this reason a Capital Funds Campaign has been started to raise $162,500 for permanent improvements. Citizens of the area are being asked to contribute to the campaign, and payments may be stretched out over a three year period.

Harold Roberts, program chairman for the month and also local chairman of the Capital Funds Campaign, introduced the speaker, who formerly was one of the owners of KDUB-TV station.

Dale Thuren announced the rural-urban program for this Thursday, to which each member will bring a farmer guest.

Screens, with openings as small as 15 ten-thousandths of an inch, are used for fuel filters in jet aircraft. They are made by electro-forming pure nickel.

New Home Gin Started In 1924

New Home Gin Co. is one of the older gin firms in Lynn county, established in 1924 by the late Jack Edwards and now managed by J. Boswell Edwards, member of a pioneer family and born and reared here.

The plant has been rebuilt and keeps up to date with installation of the most modern equipment available for processing cotton to meet the desires of the farmers of the area. The operators have had long years experience in gin operation, and keep up to date in latest ginning advancements.

Boswell was born and reared in Lynn county, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Burton Edwards, attended Tahoka schools and was a leader in student affairs, and participated in Bulldog athletics, met and married Margaret Strain, and now has three children, Sylvia, Larry, and John Lynn.

He is active in the work of his church, New Home Baptist, and is in demand as a soloist and song leader. He is also a member of New Home Civic Club, Texas Ginners Association, and Plains Cotton Growers.

He joined the gin firm in 1960 as bookkeeper, and was made the manager in 1960. Jack Clements, bookkeeper, is a native of Kansas, and was on the football and track teams at Lakin, Kansas, where he attended school. Following high school, he attended Midwestern University at Wichita Falls, before coming to New Home Gin Co. on August 1, 1954. Mr. Clements and wife, Katie, have three children, Jackie, Kathy, and Shirley.

He is also a member of New Home Baptist Church and is scoutmaster of Troop 536, New Home Boy Scouts of America.

Both say they are proud of the privilege of living at New Home, "the most progressive rural community on the Plains."
