

Tahoka Woman Beaten, Raped

A Tahoka woman was savagely beaten and raped and forced to suffer other indignities early Monday morning by a man who apparently had been waiting for her to return home Sunday night. It was the second rape reported in Lynn County in three weeks and Crime Line officials have posted maximum $500 rewards for information in either case.

The victim of this week's attack, in her early 40s, told officers that she returned to her home in the city about midnight Sunday, unlocking the door and going inside. When she returned to lock the front door, she was seized by a muscular man wearing no shirt, who forced her back inside the house. Officers believe he had been hiding in the yard when she returned to her home.

Attacker Described

The intruder, described as a Mexican-American between 30 and 40 years old who speaks good English, told her he had a gun, but she saw no weapon. He forced her into a bedroom and ordered her to remove her clothing.

During the ordeal which lasted about an hour, the woman was raped twice and subjected to other acts. He then tied her hands and feet, beat her savagely and left her tied in a bathtub.

She was found by a neighbor after one of them had seen someone running from the house. The victim was taken to Lynn County Hospital and then to Lubbock

General Hospital, where she was also met by a representative from the Rape Crisis Center.

A further description of the suspect given to officers indicated he had short, well-groomed hair, with a neatly trimmed short beard, that his complexion is darker than usual, he is muscular with medium build, 5-8 to 5-10, with rounded facial features.

On July 19, a 27-year-old farm wife was raped by a man who came to her home on a pretense of asking directions, then returned, threatening the woman with a hammer. This rapist's description is that of a white male, late 20s or early 30s, slender build, about 5-8, with dark brown hair short and styled. He has dark complexion, and possibly drives a small American-made or foreign two-door car, bronze color.

Anyone with information in either case is urged to call Crime Line, 998-5145. The caller need not give a name, but will be assigned a number and arrangements made to pay the reward later through a third person if the information leads to solving the crime.

Tahoka police answered two family disturbance calls and two complaints of loud music over the past week.

Bonnie Trammel of 1828 N. 1st reported to police that her hubcaps had been stolen from her El Camino on Sunday.

A Tahoka man reported to police that he saw someone breaking into the ice box at Venture Foods around midnight on Saturday.

Police also answered a call about picking up a dog, and a prowler call.

In county jail during the last week were two persons each for public intoxication and for driving while intoxicated, and one person was jailed for public intoxication and disorderly conduct.

WOODWORK

by DALTON

SOON IT MAY be more common to call for repairs on your computer or television set or for a plumber and the company will send out a woman right away to fix whatever is wrong.

Yes, according to the National Assn. of Trade and Technical Schools, nearly 18 per cent of the blue-collar work force is composed of women now and if predictions by the Bureau of Labor Statistics are correct, the percentages will increase.

The association says women of all ages are increasingly finding jobs in trade and technical fields traditionally dominated by men. Today, it was reported, nearly 52 per cent of all students enrolled in postsecondary school with occupational programs are women, anxious to learn a skill and begin a career.

It also noted that thousands of students each year are leaving careers with uncertain futures and low salaries for more lucrative fields such as computers that promise to grow at a rapid rate in the next decade.

Good service people are in much demand in all fields. When something breaks down, the owner wants it fixed right away. And the service departments of many big companies are often overworked and underpersonned.

Interested in buying a home-computer system?

List the types of applications you expect the appliance to do, and ask sales personnel to demonstrate software that will perform these activities, advises Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist.

Otherwise, she says, you might make an expensive decision in buying a model that cannot meet your needs.

Take some tips on selecting panythoses, says Becky Saunders, a clothing specialist.

Since this item represents a sizable budget amount throughout the year, consider these points:

- *sheers and semisheers fit best, while ultrashiners tend to bag,

- *hose with reinforced toes and top will last longer as will support hose, which are almost indestructible and can be machine washed.

- *price does not always determine lasting qualities.

NO ONE ESCAPES PRESBYOPIA

The word "presbyopia" is Greek in origin and means "Old man's eyes." Presbyopia comes to all of us if we live long enough. It's part of the process of aging.

Presbyopia is a condition that exists when vision at reading distances becomes difficult and blurry due to a gradual decrease in the focusing ability of the lens of the eye. Presbyopia usually occurs between 40 and 45 years of age and often appears to come on suddenly. It is characterized by a need to hold reading matter farther away ("If my arm was only longer") better close vision with brighter light, and symptoms of eyestrain and headaches.

Presbyopia is a normal aging process and, as of today, cannot be prevented. However, properly prescribed reading glasses or bifocals will correct for the progressive loss in near-focusing power and make reading at normal distances clear, sharp and comfortable.

If you are having difficulty reading printed matter, don't put off an eye examination. It's a simple procedure and can make reading and close vision work a pleasure again instead of a strain.

Opt for Cabbage Instead of Lettuce

One way to avoid using lettuce in every salad is to try cabbage instead. This inventive salad from the Kraft Kitchens uses cabbage in a unique way. Macaroni Vegetable Salad actually puts cabbage both "in" and "under" the salad, by using cabbage leaves to form individual "cups." These cups are filled with a mixture of cooked elbow macaroni, chopped cabbage, tomato, and green pepper, and Kraft coleslaw dressing.

An alternative to the cabbage leaf cups would be to serve the salad in a bowl lined with the cabbage leaves. Either way it's presented, Macaroni Vegetable Salad makes a delicious change of pace from lettuce.

MACARONI VEGETABLE SALAD

- 2 cups (7 ozs.) elbow macaroni, cooked, drained
- 2 cups chopped cabbage
- 1 cup chopped tomato
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- Kraft coleslaw dressing

Combine macaroni, cabbage, tomatoes, green pepper and enough dressing to moisten; toss lightly. Chill. Add additional dressing before serving, if desired. Serve in bowl lined with cabbage leaves. 6 to 8 servings

DO YOU KNOW?

Every year, we use thousands of gallons of water, little realizing how valuable it is. Our factories use more water than any other material. Here are some facts you may not know about this precious resource.

On the average, a family of four uses more than 90,000 gallons of water a year.

Drinking water is the cheapest utility Americans enjoy today. Unlike the telephone, electricity, or gas, it's absolutely essential.

Water is free. What people pay for in their water utility bills is the necessary processing of water—the gathering, treating, pumping, storing, distributing, and replacing that water utilities do 24 hours a day.

The Federal Safe Drinking Water Act has done much to keep our drinking water clean and pure. However, John Stacha, President-elect of the American Water Works Association, says it must be amended to make sure that its health standards are issued with adequate scientific basis.

The result of amending the Act—and pricing water reasonably—could be a more plentiful, safer water supply for us all.

Airplane fuel tax could help maintain local airports

COLLEGE STATION — An aviation fuels tax similar to the gasoline tax paid by motorists is needed to maintain local airports so vital to the state's economy, says a Texas Transportation Institute researcher.

George Dresser, who has studied Texas airports for more than 10 years, said a five cents per gallon tax on noncommercial use of aviation fuel would bring in about $7 million per year.

Many existing general aviation airports have not been maintained or modernized and will require substantial investment to bring them up to acceptable standards, he said. Dresser, a researcher with the Texas A&M University-based center, said an aviation fuels tax seems the best solution to the problem.

A Made-in-Minutes Main Dish Salad

When the end of the week calls for a simple supper, main dish salads could fit the bill. This recipe from the Kraft Kitchens takes the flavor of favorite Tex-Mex dishes and combines them in a made-in-minutes entree.

Texican Salad starts with browned ground beef. A can of kidney beans is added, and the mixture is simmered for ten minutes. Then the mixture is tossed with shredded lettuce, chopped tomato and avocado, shredded cheddar cheese, and sliced green onion.

Lastly, add an 8-oz. bottle of Kraft thousand island dressing and broken tortilla chips, for a simple, but satisfying salad supper.

TEXICAN SALAD

- |                                      |  |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1 lb. ground beef                    | 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Kraft sharp natural cheddar cheese |
| 1 16-oz. can kidney beans, undrained | 1 cup green onion slices                                   |
| 2 qts. shredded lettuce              | 1 8-oz. bottle Kraft thousand island dressing              |
| 2 cups chopped tomato                | 1 8-oz. bag tortilla chips, broken                         |
| 2 cups chopped avocados              |  |

Brown meat; drain. Stir in beans; simmer 10 minutes. Combine lettuce, tomato, avocados, cheese, green onion and meat mixture; toss lightly. Add dressing and tortilla chips; mix lightly. Serve immediately. 10 to 12 servings

A Visit With Your County Agent

By Stanley Young

Reduce air conditioning costs in summer by minimizing heat gain through windows. In many parts of Texas, more is spent for cooling than for heating. Methods that can be used to reduce heat gain in order of priority are: exterior shading, interior insulating window treatments and lastly, additional glazing or storm windows.

Exterior shading is approximately twice as effective as interior shading for the same window. Solar heat gain can be reduced by 80 percent if a window is totally shaded and air can circulate between the exterior shading device and the glass. The best method of shading is use of roof overhangs or porches. Vegetation is another effective tool for shading. Deciduous trees, those that lose their leaves in the winter, are effective, summer shading when planted on the south, west and east sides of the home and they allow heat gain that is desirable in the winter.

Other effective shading methods are various types of awnings and screens. An awning should be mounted with narrow continuous gap between the awning and house to allow for air circulation. Mesh screens can be installed in existing frames at little expense if done by a family member, but they will eliminate desirable heat gain in winter. Louvered or roll-up screens are other methods of exterior shading that are effective.

Conventional interior window treatments already can be retrofitted to make them more energy efficient. Many kinds of insulating shutters and shades can be constructed with minimal skills and a few simple tools. These include insulating Roman shades, quilted window shades, insulating hinged shutters or pop-in shutters. Since these are moveable insulators, they can be added when window insulation is needed and removed when the heat gains is desirable in the winter.

Because their impact is primarily on heating, storm windows may not be cost effective in the more temperate climates of the southern and southwestern United States. Storm windows are of little benefit if the chief problem is solar heat gain, since multiple glazing has only a limited effect upon solar transmission. According to research done at Cornell University, in almost all U.S. cities, single glazing with insulating window treatments outperform bare double or triple glazing on south windows, assuming the window treatment is opened to allow heat gain in winter.

As strategies for insulating windows are compared, cost of the treatment as well as the effectiveness should be considered. Remember that to reduce heat gain and air conditioning costs in summer, the most effective method is exterior shading, followed by interior insulating window treatments and then by additional glazing or storm windows.

Cotton Varieties Planted

Growers GSA-71, Paymaster 792, Paymaster 303 and Tamcot-CAMD-E were the leading cotton varieties planted in the Lubbock area this year, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

The Growers GSA varieties accounted for around 15 percent of the total planted while GSA varieties accounted for around 15 percent of the total planted while GSA-71 amounted to 13 1/2 percent. Paymaster varieties amounted to about 31 percent of the planted acres while Paymaster 792 accounted for 11 1/2 percent and Paymaster 303 was 10 percent of the total. The Tamcot varieties were planted on about 12 percent of the area acreage. Tamcot CAMD-E amounted to 9 1/2 percent of the cotton seed planted, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director at the Lubbock Marketing Services office.

"Ginners, growers and other industry sources were interviewed," Bennett continued. Other major variety groups and percentages were: Dunn-10, Cascot- 6 1/2, Lankart, Lockett and Pioneer- 5, Stripper- 4, Quapaw- 4, Coker- 3, Deltapine- 2, and McNair-1 1/2.

About 100 varieties were planted in the Lubbock Marketing Service Office territory for the 1982-83 crop year.

Texas Crude Production Listed

Texas crude oil production totaled 74,259,586 barrels in May, according to Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Nugent.

The figure compares with reported April production totaling 72,854,773 barrels and May 1981 production of 76,662,263 barrels.

Texas oil production averaged 2,395,470 barrels daily in May, down from 2,428,492 barrels in April and down from 2,472,976 barrels daily in May 1981.

The May allowable totaled 95,864,343 barrels. The preliminary May

Brown Warns About Pesticide Sales

Farmers being solicited by telephone to buy Knock-Out pesticide are warned to be aware that the product may be grossly misrepresented, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said.

"We have received several calls from scattered locations in the state from farmers who have purchased the pesticide after telephone solicitations and have found that it does not live up to the sales pitch," Brown said.

The telephone salesman has stated that it is as

Reward Is Offered In Oil Thefts

An aggressive campaign against oil field thefts in Texas has begun with the installation of a new permanent statewide hot line. The Petroleum Industry Security Council (PISC) is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of persons suspected of stealing crude oil or oil field equipment. The new toll free hotline number is 1-800-645-2677 or 1-800-OIL-COPS.

PISC plans to develop a uniform marking system for oil field equipment, theft prevention programs for the industry, and a computer backed theft reporting and inquiry system. PISC also plans to place experienced criminal investigators across the state to cooperate with and support law enforcement efforts to reduce the theft problem.

Any citizen having information about oil field theft is requested to call the PISC hotline or write: P.O. Box 15392, Austin, Texas 78761. Citizens are not required to reveal their name, just provide the information and they will be assigned a code number of identification. Ed Richards says citizens should call 1-800-OIL-COPS and help reduce oil production costs by stopping the oil field thefts which ultimately drive up consumer costs for oil products.

summary indicated Texas oil production was 22.54 percent under the allowable for the month.

Throughout the first five months of this year, Texas has produced 363,895,996 barrels of oil.

good as or superior to another well-known, commonly used herbicide (Roundup). The most recent telephone solicitations have been from Alpine Farm Products in Long Island, N.Y.

Knock-Out is registered for sale with the Texas Dept. of Agriculture with a label specifying a 1.8% active ingredient. "There is nothing illegal about selling this product, but its performance is being misrepresented. The pesticide being compared contains 41% active ingredient."

Brown urged farmers before ordering such pesticides from out-of-state firms to compare the active ingredient percentage on products formulated for the same purpose. "There is still no assurance that the contents meet label specifications on purchases resulting from such telephone solicitations."

Pesticides sold by such out-of-state dealers could lack the proper precautions on the label. There is no assurance that the pesticides are not contaminated or that they have not been diluted.

If farmers have purchased pesticides from this company and still have the containers, they are requested to notify the Texas Dept. of Agriculture.

Roads of the future may be litter-paved

COLLEGE STATION — Motorists may shudder at the thought of driving on broken glass, tin cans, rusty appliances and other trash, but with asphalt costs rising, highways may soon be paved with our trash.

Littercrete — so named because it is an asphalt paving mixture that uses a city's incinerated solid waste as aggregate — has proven successful in testing by Texas A&M University engineers.

The drawback is we may not have enough trash, says Dr. William B. Ledbetter. The civil engineering professor has worked in the Texas Transportation Institute littercrete project since a test section of roadway proved successful on a Houston city street.

Field observations and laboratory tests on field core samples "show that the littercrete is performing essentially the same as the conventional control section constructed of a conventional asphalt concrete base," Ledbetter said.
