Taylor-Sampson Win Low Ball Open At T-Bar

Alan Taylor and Tim Sampson of Lubbock won the championship flight of the T-Bar Country Club's Low Ball Open last weekend, shooting 68-70-138. Second in the championship flight was the team of Kent Payne and Bobby Crump, with 70-68-138, and third was Mike Whitefield-Bob Young with 71-69-140.

The first flight was won by the Tahoka team of Jerry Jolly and Thomas Jolly, with 79-75-154. Second were Gary McCord and Joe Brooks with 78-77-155, and third was the team of Ricky Kahlich-Fred Martin with 82-74-156.

Second flight winners were Harry Short and Wayne Huffaker, with 85-78; second was the team of Randy Ward and Robert Warren with 85-79-164, and third were Lloyd Hamilton and Jimmy Taylor with 88-77-165.

Two holes-in-one were made Saturday on No. 3 green, 127 yards. Ricky Kahlich made the first one, witnessed by Jeff Martin; and Johnny Brandon made one with a 9-iron, witnessed by Mitch Raindl.

U.S. Senate Phil Gramm has announced the award of $2,531,000 to the State of Texas by the Department of Justice to help support state and local agencies that provide services for crime victims and their families.

NOT MANY YARDS—An unidentified Tahoka running back goes down in the game against Coahoma last Friday. Tahoka gained few yards on the ground, and hopes to regroup this week in the district opener at Ralls. No. 61 for Tahoka is Cruz Rivas.

Dogs Lose, Hope To Catch Rabbits

The Tahoka Bulldogs, having a tough time getting anything going on offense, were battered 49-0 by Coahoma last week for their third straight loss (although they were awarded a win when Plains later forfeited the first game of the season).

Tahoka managed just two first downs and 12 yards rushing in the game at Coahoma, and Coach Joe Paradis and his helpers hope to do a lot better this week as the Bulldogs journey to Ralls for the first district game of the season.

Ralls last week tied another Lynn County team, O'Donnell, 27-27, leaving both Ralls and O'Donnell unbeaten for the season so far.

Noting that Friday night's district opener starts a "brand new season," Coach Paradis is hoping that the Bulldogs will catch fire against the Jackrabbits.

Against Coahoma, Paradis said some of the interior linemen played well on defense, but the Red Bulldogs ran almost at will around the outside. "Dallas Williams, Ricky Saldana and Valentin DeLeon all did a good job in the middle on defense," said the coach. He also noted that Joey Stone played a good game until he was injured. He added that Stone may not play this week at Ralls. Also, he said, Michael Isbell still has

County Residents To Pay More Taxes

By JACQUI LOCKABY

Texas Tech Journalism Student Lynn County taxpayers will pay increased property taxes this year due to state mandated programs and loss of tax base, officials said, explaining that eight of the 11 taxing entities in the county have raised property tax rates.

"The increase in eight of the county's taxing entities is due to the loss of oil values, no new properties in the area and the cost of mandated programs that must be met," said Dovie Miller, chief appraisal officer of the Lynn County tax appraisal district.

In Tahoka a person whose home is valued at $40,000 paid $615.43 in taxes last year and will pay $643.57 this year, a difference of $28.14 to school, city, county, hospital and water districts.

Tahoka's city tax increased from 47.40 cents per $100 valuation to 51.17 cents while the school tax remained constant at 72 cents, she said.

The Lynn County Hospital tax increased from 16.756 cents per $100 valuation to 20 cents, an increase of about three cents. The Lynn County tax remained constant at 26 cents.

Tahoka Mayor Jim Solomon said the city tax rate is still one of the lowest rates in the area and it has been three years since the last increase.

"Taxes is not a dirty word since they are necessary to run city operations on a cost effective basis. We all hate higher taxes, especially the elected officials held accountable to the public for the spending of these tax dollars. I believe an evaluation of our tax rate relative to the surrounding community show Tahoka to be very efficient in our operations," Solomon said.

The mayor cited as the primary reasons for the city tax hike in Tahoka increased health insurance rates for city employees, workers'

Items Stolen Last August Recovered

Lynn County sheriff's officers this week recovered more than $8,000 worth of goods stolen last August from a storage house owned by Wayne Hatchel, north of Tahoka, last August 4. Investigation led officers to a location in Slaton where the items were found, and a deputy said seven Slaton juveniles were involved in the burglary.

The case will be turned over to juvenile authorities, he said, and the stolen goods will be returned to the owner. Among the items recovered were a 9-inch Panasonic TV monitor, two power amps, police lights, ten speakers, including some up to 18 inches in diameter, and other electronic equipment.

More irrigation pipe thefts were reported, plus other burglaries in rural areas during the last week. Valton Stephens of Tahoka reported that sometime within the last week or so a barn 10 miles northwest of Tahoka was burglarized, with stolen items including a red Lincoln welder, Rego cutting torch and bottles.

Bobby Joe Smith of Rt. 4, Lubbock, reported theft of 700 feet of pipe from a trailer at a location about six miles northwest of New Home within the last month. The pipe was valued at $1860. The owner reported he had located some of the pipe and that it had been cut up into short pieces.

Pipe owned by Clay Oats of Slaton was recovered after a witness reported seeing a van leaving the scene of the farm in north Lynn County Tuesday. Arrested in Lubbock were two men, and one of them, Samuel Hunter Leslie III, 27, was charged with theft over $750 and under $20,000.

Jim Cloud of Slaton reported his blacksmith shop at Gordon Gin on FM 212 burglarized in the last month. Missing items, valued at a total of $150, included a Skil saw, tin snips and other small tools.

A barn owned by Walter Steen and located on FM 1054 just south of FM 211 was reportedly burglarized on Sept. 13. Missing were a 6-gallon air tank, two tires and wheels, a pump and motor and floor jack.

A sheriff's deputy stopped a man driving a pickup reportedly stolen in Rosenberg, TX. The vehicle was stopped 12 miles north of Tahoka Monday and the 35-year-old driver was held for Fort Bend County authorities.

Tahoka Police investigated an accident Sunday involving two boys, age 12 and 13, who had reportedly taken a 1977 Thunderbird owned by the mother of one of the boys, and then lost control of it and ran into a house at 1828 N. 6th, belonging to Mrs. Dorys Ekin. Also damaged was a parked 1979 Chevrolet El Camino owned by Rufus Gerner of Tahoka. Total damage was estimated at $5500. The case was turned over to county juvenile authorities.

Also investigated by police Sunday was a collision at 1900 N. Main involving a 1977 Chevrolet pickup driven by Fidel Garcia Jr. of Tahoka and a 1977 Ford driven by Janie Mitchell Milton of Tahoka. No injuries were reported.

On Friday, police investigated a burglary of a vehicle. J.C. Thomas Payne of 1201 N. 6th reported that someone had stolen a Regency programmable scanner and adapter valued at $163 from his vehicle parked at his residence.

In jail during the week were two persons for public intoxication, and one each for speeding, reckless driving, driving while license suspended and disregarding stop sign, driving while intoxicated, DWI second offense, DWI third offense plus no seat belt for child, unlawful use of a motor vehicle, and two persons arrested on grand jury indictment for DWI.

compensation and general operation expenses.

City taxes go into the general fund which pays for city operations, including police and fire protection, he said.

City and school districts at Wilson also have a tax increase this year. According to Mrs. Miller the city tax rate rose from 79 cents per $100 valuation to 83 cents and the school district rate climbed from 80 cents per $100 to 85 cents, causing the tax for an average home, which is valued at $19,100, to increase $28.43 O'Donnell's city tax remained the same at the rate of 86 cents per $100, but its school tax increased from 79 cents to 80 cents, causing a home valued $28,000, to increase $11.45 this year.

The New Home school district tax increased this year from 98 cents to $1.05 cents per $100, she added, while the city tax remained constant at 45 cents. The average valuation of a home in New Home is $32,600, and the property tax on those homes will rise $29.97.

Tax statements will be sent out from the county appraisal office in the first part of October.

BURR WINS FLAG—C.W. "Buster" Burr won the American Flag set on Wednesday, Sept. 20. This flag was presented in Tahoka by Sumner M. Clayton, III, Commander, District 7, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Assisting in the presentation were Lynn County Judge J.F. Brandon, in white hat, Commander VFW Post 6721, Keith Pierce of Slaton; VFW Post 6721, Herbert Ehler, also of Slaton; Sr. Vice Commander, District 7 Carl Simons; James P. Chisholm, Q.M. VFW Post 6868, Virginia Clayton, VFW Ladies Aux. 2466 and Phyllis Chisholm, VFW Ladies Aux. 6868, all of Lubbock.

Woodwork...

by Dalton

IT TOOK ME MORE than 40 years to get around to it, but last week I finally made my first visit to Knox City, a town I once claimed (in desperation) as home.

Last week I made a trip to Seymour and on the way back I decided to go through Knox City. I don't really know anybody in Knox City, except David Counts, our state representative, and I didn't see him out walking around town during the 30 minutes or so I was there.

Once, in 1946, as a freshman in North Texas State University at Denton, I stood up in a crowd of about 75 people and announced that I was from Knox City, although I only had a vague idea of the geographical location of that city.

In those days, NT freshmen were required to attend, for one hour each week, a class in "library service" which was supposed to teach dumb freshmen how to use the library. Since the class met just for that one hour each week, and since there were about 100 freshmen in the class, the teacher didn't know any of the students. Roll was taken by turning in a white filing card with your name on it. Many freshmen, therefore, not liking to spend even an hour in such a boring class, decided to team up with someone else and take turns attending. I was slightly acquainted with a fellow student named Dale Graham, and I knew he was from Knox City, and we took turns going to the class and turning in each other's attendance cards.

The teacher realized she was getting about a hundred cards turned in and there were only about 75 persons in each class session. So on a day when it was my time to attend, she took up the cards, then announced that "maybe we all ought to take a few minutes to get acquainted—I will call a few names from some of these cards, and when I call your name, you stand up and tell us where you are from."

She called out three or four, and one of them didn't answer, so she just put that card aside. Then, sure enough, she called out "Dale Graham," and I stood up amid the snickers of some of my friends, and said "Knox City." Hearing a few snickers, she asked, "Where is Knox City, Mr. Graham?" and I told her it was "up near Wichita Falls." Fortunately she didn't know the area, and I got away with it, and even more fortunately, she didn't call my real name after that. The next week we both attended class.

In Knox City last week, someone told me that Dale Graham now lives in the Houston area. It has been so long ago that I wouldn't know him if I saw him. Anyway, I did a good job of using facts to confuse the public on that occasion, but I don't want to hear from any of you saying that's probably what got me started in journalism.

T-Bar Country Club Annual Meeting Set

T-Bar Country Club annual meeting is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 30. There will be a 18 hole Play Day, tee time is 1 p.m. and a fee of $5 per person will be charged.

At 6:30 p.m., there will be a hamburger cookout for all T-Bar Country Club members followed by the annual meeting and elections of new board members. All members are urged to attend this important meeting and vote.

Cash, Trips, Prizes Among Give-Aways at Harvest Festival

The 14th annual Lynn County Harvest Festival will again feature cash, trips, and prizes in drawings to be held at the festival on Saturday, Oct. 7. The Harvest Festival Committee will give away $50 cash in a drawing from a bubble gum toss sponsored by the Tahoka High School Student Council.

Student Council members will toss bubble gum to the crowd in the stadium at the Homecoming football game Friday night, Oct. 6. Anyone who receives a gum wrapper with a number in it should bring that gum wrapper and number to the Harvest Festival band stand to sign up by noon Saturday, Oct. 7 for the drawing to be held later in the day. The $50 cash prize will be drawn from the names of only those people who bring their numbers to the band stand. "Only one entry per person is allowed, and you must be 18 or older to win," stated Nadine Dunlap, chairman of the Harvest Festival Committee.

The committee will also sponsor other drawings for different age groups, including one for children up to age four for a sand castle. Parents should bring their children to register at the festival band stand for this drawing, which will be held sometime Saturday. Other drawings will be held for other age groups, which will be announced at a later time.

Harvest Festival Queen candidates are selling $1 tickets to win a trip for two to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. The trip includes four days and three nights lodging (meals not included) and air fare, with the winner setting the departure dates. The drawing will be held the day of the Festival.

Tickets may be purchased from any Queen candidate. They are: Michelle Bertreaux, Betsy Huffaker, Lucy Gassiot, Terri Solomon, Misti Lobban, Christy Huffaker, Amy Holland, Jodie Williams, Jay Jay Wiseman, Carrie Taylor, Jennie Wells, Connie Parker, Lead DeLeon, Kim Ingle, Kris Belew, Cheryl Isbell, and Candice Bailey, all Tahoka High School students.

To qualify for the finals in the Queen competition, each candidate must sell at least 100 tickets. The girls will also receive points for personal interviews and judging at the Harvest Festival Queen Contest.

Harvest Festival Princess contestants are selling tickets to win a Texas Tech weekend, which includes two tickets for the Tech-Arkansas football game on Oct. 14 and lodging at a hotel in Lubbock. Two bicycles will also be given away from the drawings from the Princess tickets. Both the Tech and bicycle tickets are being sold for 50-cents each.

Girls in Kindergarten through sixth grade may compete for the Princess title. The candidate who sells the most tickets will be named Princess at the Festival on Oct. 7. This year's candidates are Melissa Rodriguez, Eva Morin, Angie Garza, Kerri Bryan, Kelly Flynn, Michelle Quisenberry, Debbie Garcia, Jennifer Sepeda, Andrea Gutierrez, Lisa DeLeon, Victoria DeLeon, Sarah Curry, Krystle Calvillo, Jessica Flores, Lindsey Miller, Sheila Martin and Eva Castineda.

Money raised by ticket sales in the Queen/Princess contests is used to purchase the prizes offered and for Festival expenditures. Mrs. Dunlap emphasizes, "The Harvest Festival is strictly non-profit. Funds left after expenditures is donated to worthy causes in the county, as voted upon by the committee."

The Harvest Festival Committee and Tahoka Junior Class are sponsoring Cow Patty Bingo this year, with tickets being sold for $10 by members of the Junior class. The "Bingo" will be held the day of the Festival, when a cow will be turned loose on a downtown street marked off in squares. The cow will determine the winning number when (there is no other way to say it) a cow patty is "dropped" on that square. Those who have purchased tickets will have their names put in a drawing to determine which number they get. Winner will receive a $300 meat gift certificate.

Lynn County Senior Citizens are also selling $1 tickets to win a handmade quilt which will be given away in a drawing during the Festival. This quilt is on display at the First National Bank in Tahoka.

The hourly merchants drawings held at the band stand are a popular feature at the annual Festival, and will once again be held this year. Cal Huffaker will be this year's master of ceremonies.

Homecoming Parade
The Homecoming Parade will be held on Friday, Oct. 6 in conjunction with the Harvest Festival. Parade floats may have a Homecoming or Harvest Festival theme. Any community organization, club, group or individual who wishes to participate in the parade should contact Mrs. Sherri McCord, Counselor and Student Council Sponsor, at Tahoka High School at 998-4538.

Elementary students are encouraged to decorate their bicycles and ride them in the parade as a unit. Permission forms for those students participating will be sent home from school for parents to sign.

The parade will line up at approximately 2:30 p.m., and start at about 2:45, traveling through downtown Tahoka to the square where a city-wide pep rally will be conducted.

County Fair
The Arts and Crafts Fair will be open from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday during the Festival at the former Heritage Furniture building on the west side of the square. Entries will be accepted from 3-7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 4 and from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 5. Entries will be judged before displaying at the Festival.

School art from children at Tahoka I.S.D. will also be featured at the Fair. Gerald Deane Wood and Chloe Jan Wells are chairmen for the school art.

All county citizens are invited to participate in the Fair. For more information, contact Charlsie Tekell at 998-5336.

Booths
Booth space rentals have almost reached a maximum, according to chairman Kandy Jay. Deadline for reserving a booth space is Friday, Sept. 29. The committee makes an effort not to duplicate items offered in booths, which are sold on a first-come basis. Food, games, crafts, etc. may be offered at booths. Mrs. Jay's phone number is 924-7314.

Entertainment
A country and western band who has played at the West Texas Opry will play for the crowd all day Saturday at the Festival. The "Country Edition" is a group from Lubbock, and they will also play for the street dance from 8 p.m. until midnight at the courthouse square. Tahoka Rotary Club, who sponsors the Festival band each year, will sell sausage on a stick during the street dance.

Games
Children will have several activities to interest them at the Festival, including a Pet Contest, Stick Horse Race, Hot Wheels Race (Kandy Jay, Susan Tipton and Jonama Cox, chairmen); and Frog and Turtle Races sponsored by the Tahoka 4-H Club (Leah Taylor and JoElla Rash, sponsors). All participants in children's games will receive prize ribbons and participant ribbons. A B-B Shoot will be sponsored by Tahoka 4-H. Randy Erickson and Valton Stephens are chairmen of this event.

For the adult crowd, Tahoka Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Slave Auction at the Festival. Chamber Directors have "convinced" a group of prominent Tahoka citizens to consent to being auctioned off as slaves to the highest bidders. These "slaves" will then supposedly do as their masters say.

VITAMIN 'A' - SOURCES

Preformed vitamin A is most prevalent in fish liver oils, liver, egg yolk, butter and cream, but these are also high in negative saturated fat and cholesterol. The body can produce vitamin A from carotene, found in dark green and yellow vegetables and fruit, including carrots, dark greens, yellow corn, sweet potatoes, peaches, apricots, canteloupe, etc. These are the better source of essential vitamin A.

Local Resident To Undergo Kidney Transplant Surgery

O'Donnell resident Jimmy Garrett, 46, is in St. Louis where he is scheduled to undergo kidney transplant surgery at St. Louis University Medical Center.

Garrett, a native of Lamesa and a longtime tractor repairman in both Lamesa and O'Donnell, is suffering from an inherited kidney condition. His one remaining kidney reportedly shut down about two weeks ago and was removed.

Following two weeks of dialysis and other treatment, Garrett is scheduled to receive a kidney transplant on Sept. 28 from his 21-year-old nephew, Lance Hunt of Lamesa.

Garrett had been scheduled to have the transplant this past June at Lubbock but the surgery was delayed when his doctor was transferred to the St. Louis facility. The families of Garrett and Hunt are requesting their friends' prayers and support during the process. The address of the St. Louis University Medical Center is P.O. Box 15250, St. Louis, Mo. 63110-0250 (Phone 314-577-8000). The home address for Jimmy and Shirley Garrett is P.O. Box 235, 400 12th St., O'Donnell, 79351 (Phone 806-428-3286).

Garrett is the nephew of Roy and Betty Burdett and Hunt is their great-nephew.
