

Four Vehicles Involved In Accident Downtown

Four vehicles were involved in a traffic accident in downtown Tahoka Saturday night, but only one of the vehicles had extensive damage, and only one person was treated for injuries.

Officers who investigated for the Tahoka Police Dept. said the worst damage was to a 1979 Thunderbird driven by Francisco Benavides of Tahoka, and owned by Candy De La Cruz of Hereford. A passenger in the car, Mary Helen Galvez of Tahoka, was treated at Lynn County Hospital for apparent minor injuries.

The report said the Thunderbird was headed east on Lockwood about 10:20 p.m. when it made a sharp right turn onto Main allegedly to avoid hitting a 1984 Pontiac driven by Jayson Scott Boydston of Tahoka, and owned by Don Boydston of Tahoka, at the traffic light at Main and Lockwood.

According to the report, the Ford then struck a 1990 Daihatsu Rocky driven by Mary Gayle Reid of Lubbock and owned by Pamela Miller of Tahoka, and then struck a 1984 Chevrolet pickup driven by Amanda Elizabeth Stewart of O'Donnell and owned by Charles Ray Isbell of O'Donnell.

Lynn County Sheriff's Dept. investigated three reports from O'Donnell during the last week, including a report from Dale Ward June 2 that a window had been broken out at the Fina building with a log. Estimate of the vandalism damage was not given; the business was not burglarized.

Also, a 17-year-old O'Donnell resident reported being assaulted by two older males from Post June 7 in O'Donnell after the three had been involved in a dispute the previous night.

In jail during the week were two persons for public intoxication, and one each for the following: disorderly conduct, false report to a police officer, DWI first offense, no drivers license, failure to control speed, failure to maintain financial responsibility, DWI judgement and sentence.

Grid Coach Resigns; Kirkland Named AD

by JUANELL JONES

Tahoka ISD Board of Trustees accepted the resignation of head football coach Joe Paradis Tuesday night at its regular board meeting, and voted to name head basketball coach Hulon Kirkland Athletic Director for the 1991-92 school year. In a full slate of agenda, the board also accepted the resignation of board trustee Gary McCord, hired several new teachers, and discussed the new County Education District taxing entity and a modified block schedule for junior/senior high school students next year.

The first order of business for the board was the swearing in of new board member Greg Henley, who won the runoff election in June. A letter of resignation was received from trustee Gary McCord, which the board accepted with regret.

The resignation of Paradis leaves the position of head football coach open, and Superintendent Dr. Duane Carter says Tahoka ISD is in the process of seeking someone to fill that position. The board voted to name Kirkland Athletic Director for the next school year.

Trustees accepted the resignations of high school teachers Lana Daniel and Lela Scott, and were informed that a teaching contract which was approved at last month's board meeting was declined by Sharilyn Ann Vernon at the elementary school.

New high school teacher contracts approved by the board included Julie Cypert for Reading Chapter I, Angie Ehlers for typing and computer science, and Barbara Foster for English. In the elementary school, trustees approved teaching contracts for Jana Nafzger and Kendra Alison Kerley.

In other business, the board approved a two-year depository bid contract with First National Bank of Tahoka. Bookkeeper Loretta Tekell reported a balance in all funds of $1,256,451 with a 94.5% collection of the total tax roll at the end of May. Trustees approved the paying of bills, with Mike Huffaker, Clint Gardner, Delbert McCleskey, Brad Hammonds, and Greg Henley in favor, and Juanell Jones abstaining.

The school calendar was discussed, and the board approved the calendar which must support the new 180-day school year as stated by Senate Bill 351. The first day of school for the 1991-92 term will be Wednesday, Aug. 21, with students and teachers receiving a holiday on Labor Day, Sept. 2. The last day of school will be May 28, and Homecoming has been scheduled for Sept. 22.

Trustees congratulated High School Principal Charles Cate for his achievements in being awarded the TASSP Outstanding Principal Award for District 17. He will be presented a plaque at the TASSP Summer Workshop in Austin on June 12. Board members also heard a report from Minnie Lou Ash on Chapter II and the Gifted/Talented program.

County Education Districts To Set Tax Rates

Dr. Carter informed the board that Texas Gov. Ann Richards signed a bill into effect Tuesday afternoon which approved the organizing of County Education Districts (CED) in the state, and requiring each independent school district to nominate a representative to serve on the CED board of trustees.

According to Dr. Carter, the state was divided into CEDs by looking at the taxable property, and making districts large enough so that each County Education District would have $280,000 worth of taxable income. Tahoka is in County Education District 6, which includes seven counties (Borden, Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, Lubbock, Terry and Yoakum) and the 26 independent school districts which operate in those counties.

One representative from each of these 26 school districts will be named to serve on the County Education District #6 board of trustees. This means that Lubbock ISD, which represents many schools and a large number of students, will only be allowed one representative and one vote, as will Tahoka ISD, Wilson, O'Donnell, New Home, and all the other school districts in the CED.

Tahoka trustees nominated board member Clint Gardner to represent Tahoka ISD on the 26-member CED board. He will serve a two-year term on that board, which will meet in the offices of Lubbock ISD.

Each County Education District

board of trustees will have the authority to set a tax rate for that district, collect those funds, and redistribute those funds back to the local school districts, proportionate to their Average Daily Attendance count. This tax rate must ensure that they will collect a certain amount of money in each district. The state is recommending that tax rate to be about 72 cents.

What this means, for local taxpayers, is that there will be one more taxing entity listed on their tax statement, with the County Education District and Tahoka ISD both listed as separate entities. However, because the current tax rate is 80 cents, Dr. Carter pointed out that theoretically the Tahoka ISD tax rate will be reduced accordingly, and that taxpayers will essentially be paying the same amount of taxes next year, except that it will be split between two separate entities.

County Education Districts throughout the state will receive a notice from the Texas Education Agency of how much money must be collected from each CED, and then each local ISD will supply a property tax roll to the CED so that they will know how much taxable property is in each district.

The CED tax rate will go into effect on Sept. 1, 1991. After each local school district has named a representative to CED 6 (Tahoka's district), then that board will meet and set a tax rate. After that rate has been determined, then local school districts will set their tax rates accordingly.

"If we keep the same tax rate we have now (72¢ CED + 8¢ TISD = 80¢ total tax rate) then Tahoka should receive about $140,000 more total money than we did last year," explained Dr. Carter. "It is possible that we will not have the tax raised this year. According to our Average Daily Attendance, which is how the CEDs will distribute funds back to local ISDs, we will be getting more money for our school district," he added.

The current tax rates in the other Lynn County school districts are: New Home ISD $1.05, O'Donnell ISD

82¢, and Wilson ISD 85¢. New Block Schedule Set For High School

High School Principal Charles Cate announced a new modified block schedule will go into effect next year for Tahoka Junior/Senior High School grades 7-12. All classroom periods will be 1-1/2 hours long, with four periods a day scheduled, and students taking eight periods of study on alternate days. This is similar to college course scheduling, where a student has a Monday-Wednesday-Friday schedule and Tuesday-Thursday schedule.

As explained by Cate, there will be an alternating weekly schedule, where a student attends, for example, an English class on Monday-Wednesday-Friday the first week, and alternates the second week to attend the English class on Tuesday-Thursday. These schedules will be categorized as A-week and B-week, and each student will receive a weekly calendar plan showing which classes are M-W-F for that week, and which are T-Th classes.

In a six-weeks period, each class will meet 15 times in a 1-1/2 hour session, which is the same amount of time students spend in class with the seven-period class day which was in effect this school year. "One of the things this scheduling will do is allow us to spend more time with the slower students to make sure they are keeping up with what the class is doing," says Cate.

"Also, there have been times in the past when a student must choose between certain courses, because with only seven class periods their scheduling is limited. With this new block scheduling, we will have eight class periods which will give students a little more lee-way in setting up their schedules," explained Cate. "We're doing this because I think it is educationally sound," he added.

All class periods, including athletic periods, will have a 1-1/2 hour time period. After-school athletic activities will not be affected by the new block schedule.

Board members present for the meeting were Henley, Jones, McCleskey, Hammonds, Gardner and Huffaker. Also present were Superintendent Carter, and school personnel Loretta Tekell, Cate, Mike Smith, Mrs. Ash, and Molly Helmlinger, and visitor John Krey. The board went into executive session from 9:30-11:40 p.m. and adjourned at 12:20 a.m.

I GOT TO THINKING about those purple potatoes from down in the Rio Grande Valley and about Father's Day being Sunday, and if there were any way I could relate those two topics.

People have been buying potatoes in some Texas supermarkets only to discover that under the skin these potatoes are purple. The natural reaction is that "this thing is no good to eat," and "I'm marching right back down to the store and throw a big fit."

Personally, I haven't seen any purple potatoes (and my wife does allow me to peel potatoes fairly often), but I might be a little leery of one if I sliced into it. However, a vegetable specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says they won't hurt you. "There's nothing wrong with the potato, and the purple color makes no difference in cooking quality or taste," said Frank Daniello of College Station.

The purple spuds usually are of a variety called Russel Nugget, which was developed by another Aggie potato breeder, the story said.

He probably intended the potato to be maroon, and it just turned out purple. Maybe they can sell them on the TCU campus.

So what can I say that purple (or any other color) potatoes have in common with many fathers? Well, here are a few similarities:

Many fathers lay around and watch TV all the time (couch potatoes).

Both are frequently in a stew.

Both have eyes but are not very aware of what's going on around them.

Both have bodies that are lumpy with no apparent pattern of development.

Both are sometimes half-baked.

One thing about a potato, though. It never has a bunch of little potatoes hanging onto it wanting money, or telling it that it is the greatest old potato in the world.

Exchange Wedding Vows In Lubbock

The home and garden of Darla and Kristin Moore of Lubbock provided the setting for the wedding of Myrna Elaine Jolly and Andrew Lynn Day Friday evening, May 24, 1991.

The bride is the daughter of Nancy Cooper of Lubbock and Jerry Jolly of Tahoka. The groom is the son of Brenda and Gene Cribbs of Lubbock and the late Richard Day.

Timothy Day, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony before a white lattice trellis decorated with pink and country blue ribbons and bows.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white polished cotton tea-length dress by Cachet. The Marilyn Monroe neckline and bodice were accented with wide scalloped lace ending at the drop-waistline. The waistline was bordered with smaller rows of scalloped lace, and highlighted by a bow at the back. The three-quarter length sleeves were gathered at the elbow. She wore a headpiece of white silk flowers, lace and pearls.

The bridal bouquet featured a variety of silk spring flowers with lace, pastel ribbon and pearl streamers. Pearl accents highlighted the entire bouquet.

To carry out bridal traditions, the bride wore, as something old, a pearl necklace and bracelet given to the groom's mother by his father; something new was her dress; something borrowed were pearl earrings given to the bride's mother by her step-father; and something blue was her garter. Pennies from 1966 and 1969, the birth years of the groom and bride, respectively, were placed in the bride's shoe prior to the ceremony.

Kristen Moore, cousin of the groom, registered guests. A reception followed the ceremony. A three-tiered cake decorated with pink and lavender roses, and topped with an array of silk spring flowers, similar to the bridal bouquet, was served to guests by Valerie Brasher and Christy Pilgrim, both of Brownfield.

A fresh fruit compote was served at the groom's table by Lori Jolly, sister of the bride.

The bride attended high school in Brownfield and Lubbock, and is a spring graduate of South Plains College in Levelland. The groom is a student at South Plains College in Levelland, where he is also employed. Following a wedding trip to Northern New Mexico, the couple will live in Levelland.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sherrrod of Levelland, grandparents of the groom, and Mrs. Evelyn Gammill of Earle, Ark., grandmother of the bride.

Courtesies

The bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Pat O'Daniel of Brownfield on May 24.

Have you visited your museum lately? Tours of school children from Tahoka numbered 106 and Wilson School brought 64 children. The guest register indicated that visitors from New Mexico, Delaware, Missouri, Oklahoma, California and Quebec, Canada have enjoyed the presentations as well as from many points in Texas.

Reports of school tours, which are guided by board members, were given and thank you letters from some of the students were read and appreciated at the Board of Directors meeting of the Tahoka Pioneer Museum on Monday, June 10.

Melvin Burks, president, reported that Annie Belle Stice, the Green Thumb worker, would be moving to another training location on June 17, so plans to have the museum open for certain periods would have to be discussed and the possibility of another trainee from Green Thumb will be pursued.

Mildred Abbe reported that several items were given to the museum from the McAllister Estate of New Home by Laverne McAllister.

With the very beneficial rains that have fallen in Tahoka, the grass in the rock garden has taken over and James (Sonny) Roberts, a board member, agreed to spray these areas to take care of this problem.

Board members present at the meeting were Melvin Burks, Meldon Leslie, Lottie Jo Walker, Madeline Hegi, Mary Louder, Weesie Carroll, James (Sonny) Roberts, Jim Solomon, Frances Wells and Mildred Abbe. Not present were K.R. Durham, Bill Craig, Carl Reynolds, Arlys Askew and Betsy Pridmore.

Tuesday, June 18, there will be a county-wide recordbook training at Lyntegar beginning at 5 p.m. with emphasis on starting a recordbook.

This will be an excellent training for those interested in working on recordkeeping in 4-H. The training will be geared toward junior recordbooks. The recordbook qualifies 4-H members for a multitude of awards including the Gold Star award (highest award given in 4-H on the county level). Those 4-H'ers who have not yet completed a recordbook are encouraged to attend.

Entertainment Needed Here
For July 4th Celebration

Anyone who would like to participate in the entertainment for the July 4th Celebration at the Tahoka Mini-Park should contact Janie Isbell, chairperson for the celebration committee for Tahoka Chamberettes. Chamberettes are sponsoring this year's celebration from 7-10 p.m. Thursday, July 4 at the Tahoka Mini-Park, and not at the courthouse grounds as was previously reported.

Chamberettes will have a concession stand offering hot dogs, drinks and candy, and are sponsoring the popular ice-cream freeze-off again this year, in hopes that all the good cooks in the area will bring their favorite recipes of homemade ice cream.

There will be a stage for entertainment, and several children's groups are being contacted to perform songs, skits and other routines. There will be a special section set aside for the annual Old Settlers Reunion, so that the group may visit with one another.

Children's games and other activities are in the planning stages, and John and Mary Bess Edwards of New Home will bring two horse and buggy carriages to provide free rides to participants at the celebration.

A coloring contest will be held for children in several age categories. The contest page will be available at Thriftway and The Lynn County News in the near future. Participant ribbons and prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Due to city ordinances and other factors, there will not be a fireworks display. There will, however, be a patriotic finale to the celebration, and Chamberettes will serve a July 4th cake to everyone at the celebration.

"We're hoping to provide another fun, old-fashioned July 4th celebration for the residents here," said Betsy Pridmore, president of Chamberettes. "We are also willing to hear any suggestions which might improve the celebration. We're doing this to provide entertainment, not as a fund-raising event," she added. "Any funds raised through the concession stand are used to pay for decorations, the cake, and other miscellaneous expenses for the celebration."

This is the last July 4th celebration that Chamberettes will plan for the next few years, as the group voted to plan celebration events only when July 4th fell on a week-day. When the fourth falls on a Friday through Monday, no celebration will be planned, due to the fact that so many people make travel plans on long weekends.

WHEAT GERM

This is the wheat kernel's embryo - the "live" part that develops into a new stalk of grain if planted. Wheat germ contains generous quantities of thiamine, vitamin E, iron, fiber, and many other essential trace nutrients. The wheat germ is unfortunately removed in the milling of white flour. Although white flour is "enriched" with synthetic niacin, thiamine, riboflavin and iron, a dozen or more essential nutrients are still missing, including fiber. Whole wheat flour, containing all the original nutrients and fiber is decidedly more nutritious than white flour.

Tahoka Fire Department To Have Training in Certification Program

by JUANELL JONES

The Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department has begun training in a certification program sponsored by the state, with the objective of raising the level of competence of volunteer fire fighting personnel by establishing minimum standards. Members began training last week at their regularly scheduled Monday night meeting.

The certification program for volunteer firemen is not required by the state, and members of the Tahoka Fire Dept. are participating solely on a volunteer basis, according to Clint Gardner, member of the department.

Gardner is the Certifying Coordinator for the department, in charge of setting up and maintaining all of the certification records.

Planning materials, instructional guides and training manuals are purchased through the State Firemen's and Marshals' Association of Texas, and the local fire department must have a set of International Fire Safety Training Association training manuals and maintain current editions as they become available.

The Tahoka Fire Dept. is currently participating in the basic certification program, which consists of 162 hours of training. According to Gardner, certification in the basic program will take about three years for the Tahoka department.

In last week's training, the group gained three hours in fire department organization/management, taught by Jimmy Woodard. The classes will be taught by instructors approved by the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas, many of whom will be local firemen, according to Gardner.

"For each training session, we will find the best qualified person to teach that particular session, and submit that person's name for approval by the State Association. There are also training manuals and other paper work which we will send in for certification approval," Gardner explained.

There are 20 members of the Tahoka Fire Dept., headed by fire chief Steve Miller. According to Gardner, the department feels the certification program will be an educational process for the group which will raise competency levels and educate the men about the many diverse areas of fire safety.

The first training session included information on departmental history, traditions, development and organization, and operations and policies of the fire department. Other areas which will be covered include forcible entry, rope and portable extinguishers, fire service ladder practices, fire hose practices, salvage and overhaul, fire stream practices, fire apparatus practices, ventilation practices, rescue operations, inspection practices, and more.

There are 162 hours of training required for basic certification, and an additional 122 hours required for intermediate. To be certified in the advanced program, a fireman must have 471 total hours of training.

Funds to purchase the training manuals and other required items for the certification process will come from several sources, such as money raised from the annual firemen's fish fry held in Tahoka and donations to the fire department. The department operates on funds from the city and county, and a portion of those funds may be designated for the certification program.

In an effort to provide a more suitable environment for the training of its members, the Tahoka Fire Dept. is currently accepting offers on a pool table and snooker table which belongs to the department, and will use the money raised from the sale of these items to purchase a meeting table and chairs for the department's use.

"We need a large table and chairs for the firemen to use, especially in these training sessions," said Gardner. "As this certification program will be an on-going process, we feel that this would be money well-spent," he added.

"We are trying to do all that we

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for residence Custom Calling Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for certain residence Custom Calling Services.

The Custom Calling Services affected by the Company's application are optional telephone service arrangements that provide the following features: Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three-Way Calling, Speed Calling 8 and Speed Calling 30.

The Company's proposal would increase the monthly rate for the individual Call Waiting feature from $2.10 to $3.10 for residence customers. Also, the rates for certain combinations of Custom Calling Features (Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8) would increase or decrease depending upon the combination of features. In addition, the company proposes to obsolete the optional Custom Calling Service feature Speed Calling 30 for residence customers except for existing customers at their existing locations. Following are the feature combinations and their current and proposed rates.

One Feature Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting	$2.10	$3.10
Call Forwarding	2.10	2.10
Three-Way Calling	2.10	2.10
Speed Calling-8	2.10	2.10

Speed Calling 30	3.20	3.20

*denotes rate decrease

Southwestern Bell's application proposes to obsolete residence Speed Calling 30 except for existing customers at their existing locations.

Most of the Company's residence customers in Texas who subscribe to one or more of the Custom Calling Service features will be affected by the proposed rate restructuring. It is expected that the proposed rate restructuring of Custom Calling Services will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.9 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. The restructuring will result in an increase in the Custom Calling Services rates for approximately 2.5 million residence customers and rate decreases for approximately 15,000 residence customers. Also, the obsolescence of the optional feature Speed Calling 30 will affect approximately 156,000 residence customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

can to ensure Tahoka and area citizens the very best fire department possible," he concluded. "This certification process is a big step in the right direction for us."

Sheriff's Office Needs Data For New 911 Setup

Forms which will allow 911 phone operators to know where to send the police, fire, ambulance or emergency service when the number is called should be turned in to the Lynn County Sheriff's Office within the next couple of weeks, according to officials of the new emergency calling system which soon will go into effect in the county.

Forms were sent to homes in the county by school students, and many of these have been received, especially from Wilson. But Tahoka residents have been slow to respond, and they especially need to be aware of the importance of filling out the forms, available at the sheriff's office at no charge.

Only those residents whose phones are on GTE service should fill out the forms.

WHEN YOU ARE OUT PLAYING...

PLAY IT SAFE

Summer is the time for playing outdoors. It is also the time to be the most careful. Watch out for power lines and never get close to them. Have a fun summer. Play it safe.

REMEMBER THESE RULES:

- Do not climb electric poles, towers or structures.
- Do not set ladders near power lines.
- Be careful when digging. Call SPS to find out if there are any buried electric lines in the area.
- Don't post signs on utility poles. It could cause a lineman to be hurt.
- Never touch a power line...with anything.

Lynn County Shines
At Texas 4-H Roundup

Over 20 people from Lynn County participated in various or all parts of Texas 4-H Roundup held last week in College Station. Lynn County businesses, leaders and 4-H members were recognized for top awards.

Binnie White and his wife, Edna, were on hand to receive the citation for outstanding service to 4-H award that Lyntegar Electric Co-op, Inc. received. Lyntegar was one in six recognized for generous contributions to the 4-H program on a regional basis.

The Salute to Excellence 4-H volunteer leader award was presented to Billy Davis. Billy received this prestigious award as a result of his 20 years of volunteer service to 4-H programs not only in the county, but also on the district and state levels.

While Lyntegar and Davis were receiving awards, Lynn county's 4-H'ers were competing in a variety of contests. Eva Gicklhorn received third in the Texas 4-H Food Show on Tuesday. Then, she excelled in the Safety Category with a fifth place for her illustrated talk about skin cancer.

In another room in a different building, Jason Belew and Katy Huffaker competed and were State Winners with their cooperative illustrated talk. Their talk discussed the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill. Carrie Taylor was 10th in Promote 4-H category.

Trey Nance was recipient of the Texas Farm Bureau scholarship awarded in the amount of $4,000. Because Trey was competing for a scholarship for a non-restricted major, he received the highest one for which he was eligible. He'll use this scholarship at Texas A&M University in the fall as he pursues a degree in pre-medicine.

The support of families in the 4-H program was evident. There were parents, brothers, sisters, and daughters on hand to encourage 4-H members. Other than those already mentioned attending Texas 4-H Roundup were: Sheri, Brandi, and Trevor Gicklhorn, Jason Marshall, Deny, Mary and Kris Belew, Tommye Nance, Beth and Betsy Huffaker, Kathy Davis, Leah and Clay Taylor, and County Extension Agents, Brett Cypert and Donna M. Peters.

Chief of Police, Tahoka

Homeowners, how would you like a discount on your homeowners insurance premiums? Earlier this year I attended a week-long school at the South Plains Assn. of Governments (SPAG) and last week I received my certificate as a Crime Prevention Inspector. I can now come out to your residence and conduct a home safety inspection. And if your home passes, the State Board of Insurance will send you a certificate which will entitle you to receive a discount off your homeowners insurance. Your discount certificate will be good for three years.

This new program is available to all homeowners residing in Lynn County. If you are interested in getting a home inspection to determine if your home qualifies, please contact me at the police department and I will set up a day and time to visit your home. Also, contact me even if you just have any questions regarding the program.

And don't forget our house watch program. Now that vacation time is upon us, I'm sure that a lot of you will be leaving town. Call and let us know when and we'll be glad to watch your house or your business while you are away.

Tahoka Housing Authority Meets

The Tahoka Housing Authority Board of Directors held their regular monthly meeting at the Executive Director's Office on June 6. The directors in attendance were Harold Green, chairman; Lupe Garcia, John Krey, Cal Huffaker; and Mel Leslie. Also present was Ted Ratcliff, executive director, who gave a report on the condition of the various units, a financial report and the occupancy rate at the present time.

Ratcliff reported the rate at approximately 60 percent full but explained that a fairly large number of the units will not be rentable until they are completely renovated. He further reported that the Department of Housing and Urban Development was holding up issuance of funds for the needed repairs.

Chairman Harold Green made the point that all of the Development was built for the specific purpose of providing affordable living quarters for the low income, elderly and handicapped people and that no ethnic qualifications are applied.

Those who desire further information should contact Ted Ratcliff at (806) 998-4716 or go by his office at 1702 S. 2nd.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
AUGUST 10, 1991

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 42 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the newly created county education districts to hold elections to exempt from ad valorem taxation a percentage of the market value of the residence homestead of a married or unmarried adult. The percentage exempted could not exceed 20% of such market value, and the amount exempted could not be less than $5,000. The amendment would also authorize county education districts to hold elections to exempt from ad valorem taxation not less than $3,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of a disabled person or a person sixty-five years of age or older. Finally, the amendment would authorize elections in county education districts for the taxation of certain tangible personal property exempted from ad valorem taxation by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the voters of a county education district to adopt certain exemptions from the district's ad valorem taxation for residence homesteads and to provide for the taxation of certain tangible personal property."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $300 million of general obligation bonds to finance educational loans to students. The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide educational loans to students."

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for Directory Assistance Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for Directory Assistance Service.

To help recover its costs, the Company is proposing to increase the rates for Directory Assistance calls from $.30 to $.40 per call (after the three-call allowance). Southwestern Bell is proposing that there be no change in the number of free Directory Assistance calls allowed each month (currently three) and that customers who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps continue to be exempt from these charges. The company also proposes to begin charging $.25 per call for Directory Assistance from pay telephones.

If approved by the Commission, this proposed rate change for Directory Assistance will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.4 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. This proposed rate change would affect approximately 900,000 residence customers, approximately 155,000 business customers, approximately 500 private pay telephone owners and all customers who make Directory Assistance calls from public pay telephones.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 tele-typewriter for the deaf.
