General Election, Tahoka Liquor Sales Election:

Early voting starts Monday for local/general elections

Early voting for two separate elections will be held Oct. 22-Nov. 2, for voters to mark ballots in the November General election, and for those voters residing within the city limits of Tahoka, in a city election regarding the sale of alcoholic beverages. Early voting for both elections will be conducted at the Lynn County Courthouse in the county clerk's election room (first floor, east side of lobby) during regular business hours, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Both elections will be held on Nov. 6, for those who don't take advantage of early voting.

The General Election, open to all registered voters, will include several local uncontested offices, as well as state and federal races including the most important election for U.S. citizens, to choose the next President. Local offices on the ballot, all uncontested, are for Lynn County Sheriff, County Attorney, Tax Assessor/Collector, and Precinct 1 and 3 Commissioners. The 106th District Attorney election is on the ballot, also uncontested because it was decided in the Republican Primary election, with challenger Michael Munk ousting incumbent Brian Kingston.

There is an unusual circumstance in one of the local commissioner elections, however. Commissioner Don Blair, in Precinct 3, has filed as a qualified write-in candidate for re-election. He did not file for another term prior to the primary elections, as he had intended to retire from his post. However, since no other candidates have filed for the seat, Blair filed as a write-in candidate for the seat. His name will not be printed on the ballot, but may be written in by voters.

Officially, there are only write-in candidates for two races. One is the Lynn County Commissioner Precinct 3 seat, and there are also seven qualified write-in candidates for U.S. President/Vice President. The names of all qualified write-in candidates will be posted at all polling locations, according to election officials here. A write-in of anyone not listed as an official write-in candidate is invalid and will not be counted in election results.

In the city election, open only to those registered voters who reside within city limits, citizens will have an opportunity to vote their opinion on whether to allow the legal sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption. The issue was brought to a ballot by way of petition, following guidelines as set forth by election statutes.

The special City Election will be held on Nov. 6 in conjunction with the General Election, but it will be a separate ballot from the General Election. Both the general and city election ballots will be available at the courthouse during the early voting period. Also, city election statutes require two extended-hour days during the early voting period. Those two days, when the polling location is open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., will be held on Monday, Oct. 22, and Tuesday, Oct. 30. Otherwise, the polls will be open during regular business hours at the courthouse, from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

On Election Day, Nov. 6, the city ballot will be available at only one polling location, at the Life Enrichment Center. General Election ballots will be available at several locations throughout the county, according to voting box precincts. Voters may only vote in their designated polling location on Election Day, as designated by the Prec. No. printed on their voter registration cards.

The city ballot simply reads: "The legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only." Voters

A fireman is your friend ... David Maldonado, a volunteer firefighter with the Wilson VFD, shows Wilson pre-k students what they could expect to see if their house caught on fire and a firefighter was sent in to rescue them. (See story, page 3) can vote 'For' or 'Against' the issue.

If Tahoka voters approve the referendum, it would be legal to sell packaged alcoholic beverages within the city limits, as regulated by the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission. However, it would not be legal to sell alcoholic drinks by the bottle/glass for consumption on premises, such as serving it at a restaurant.

If the election passes voter approval, the city would receive revenue from sales tax of liquor sales. City Administrator Jerry Webster told The News that most cities that allow the packaged sale of alcohol also consider a city ordinance prohibiting sales within a certain number of feet from churches or schools, and that if the referendum is approved by voters then the City Council would most likely consider such an ordinance.

IF YOU READ newspapers and magazines and watch TV a lot, you no doubt learned long ago that everything you like to do or eat is bad for you, so you need to quit it right now or face dire consequences. However, sooner or later, you may read or hear something great, meaning somebody says something you really want to hear.

This happened to me last week when an article in the daily newspaper said that eating chocolate is good for you, helps you think better, and even could help you win a Nobel prize.

Great. I have always been a chocolate lover, and I used to really put away a lot of chocolate, until about 15 years ago when Drs. Doom and Killjoy told me I had been happy long enough and should stop eating anything which tastes good. (I also was beginning to look more like the Pillsbury Doughboy than an Olympics athlete). I could easily eat a pound of M&Ms while reading a book or watching the Cowboys or Three's Company on television.

The newspaper article said a study revealed that people who eat more chocolate were more likely to win a Nobel Prize than those who ate less chocolate. Maybe I could have won a prize years ago had I known they gave prizes for eating chocolate.

Now, of course, I don't eat as much chocolate as I once did. But I still eat some chocolate every week, since I learned that it wouldn't hurt me as long as my doctor doesn't see me eating it.

My Bible says "Man cannot live by bread alone—he must have some chocolate." I admit that I wrote it in there myself, with a ballpoint pen.

SOMEbody from the Red Cross knocked on my door and asked if we could contribute toward the floods in Pakistan. I said we'd love to, but our garden hose only reaches to the driveway.

Five gold rings reported stolen

Five gold rings were reported as stolen from a residence in Tahoka last week, with one, a woman's wedding ring with a guard, valued at $2,000. Total value of all the rings was estimated at $2,535. Investigation of the theft is continuing, police said.

Eleven persons were in jail in Lynn County this week, with three held for Gaines County. Latest arrests were for assault causing bodily harm/family violence plus interfering with an emergency call, failure to appear on charges of driving while license invalid, and possession of marijuana less than two ounces.

COME SUPPORT THE 3-D BAND AT CONTEST

Saturday, Oct. 20, at 4:45 p.m. the Tahoka 3-D Band will compete at the UIL Region 16 Marching Contest at Lubbock Lowrey Stadium.

"Come early and see some excellent bands and support YOUR Tahoka 3-D Band," says Director Carroll Rhodes.

Outstanding Band ... Tahoka 3-D Band drum majors Kaitlyn Lehman and Cort Fisher show the trophy the band won at the LHS Westerner Marching Festival where Tahoka earned the top ranking in the 1A bands competing at the festival held Saturday in Lubbock. "As usual our very loyal Tahoka fans were out in a strong showing, especially for a festival. No other band has the support that the Tahoka 3-D Band does. Thank you," said directors Carroll Rhodes and Johnathan Smith. Fan support is also sought for the UIL Region 16 Marching Contest this Saturday at Lubbock Lowrey Stadium. The Tahoka band is scheduled to march at 4:45 p.m.

The Texas Association of School Board Policy Update 95 was approved, as was the Tahoka ISD "Technology Plan" for the 2013-2014 school year. The Board approved the report on the FIRST rating. Tahoka ISD received a Superior Rating in Financial Integrity Rating System of Texas (FIRST), which is the highest given by Texas Education Agency. This rating is for the 2009-2010 school year.

Superintendent Steve Burleson reported 610 students enrolled in the school district, up one student from last year, and informed trustees that the week of October 15-19 is National School Lunch Week.

"If you happen to eat lunch in the cafeteria you may see some different people serving the students," said the superintendent. "We have board members, principals and others volunteering to serve lunch this week."

He informed the board that students would be competing in the district Cross Country Meet on Tuesday, Oct. 16 at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock, and the band marching contest will be held on Saturday, October 20, at 4:45 p.m. at Lowrey Field in Lubbock.

The next regular board meeting was scheduled for Thursday, November 15, at 6:30 p.m.

Thoughts That Build
READ 2 CORINTHIANS 4:8-12
"What [the Lord] opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open." - Revelation 3:7 (NIV)
The subject line of the e-mail message was "Regret Letter." Even before I opened the e-mail, I knew my job interview had been unsuccessful. My spirit was crushed, more so because this was the first interview I had been called to in a long time, and I had done my best to prepare for it. I felt professionally irrelevant and thought no one would be interested in offering me a job. While I was reading my Bible a week later, a verse in Jude leaped at me: "But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit" (v. 20). The verse's context was not related to my current circumstance, but these words helped me to see that I had been tearing myself down with negative thoughts and feelings. Praying in the Holy Spirit took my eyes off the closed door and moved my focus onto the Lord. My spirit was revived, and I knew all I had to do was trust that God would open the perfect opportunity, at the perfect time.
Thought for the Day: Focusing only on our circumstances can tear us down; focusing on the Lord builds us up.
PRAYER: Dear Lord, thank you for the peace and assurance that comes from knowing that our future is secure in your hands, even when we cannot see an open door. Amen.

Wilson fireman visits school for fire safety week

Wilson Volunteer Firefighter David Maldonado came out to Wilson Elementary on Monday, October 8 to demonstrate, discuss, and encourage students to prevent fires and keep safe in case of a fire. He was asked to come out for the presentation by the Elementary Student Council for Fire Prevention and Safety week. "His knowledge and experience helped the students understand the importance of planning out a fire escape plan with their families at home and knowing where to meet outside of their home if their house catches on fire. He also discussed safe places in the home that students could get to in case they are unable to get out of their house during a fire," said a school sponsor.

Running is fun! ... Tahoka Elementary had a group (above) of 3rd, 4th and 5th graders who went to Lamesa to compete in the Elementary Fun Run on Saturday. "It was just under a mile cross country that began with a hill and ended in the city park. Each student competed very well! Our 5th grade student Nadalle Carasco won first over all. We go to the Tahoka ISD track every week as long as the weather is nice as part of our cardio training, as well as learning that running/walking is fun, especially done with friends. Hopefully this Fun Run will become a yearly event," said Tina Wuensche, physical education teacher.

New Deal kicks Dogs in district game, 44-13

The Tahoka Bulldogs moved into district competition by hosting New Deal last Friday, and the Lions continued their domination of Tahoka in football, winning 44-13.

The Bulldogs will go to Sundown this week to face the district favorites. Sundown was open last week while the other two district teams, Hale Center and Lockney, played each other Saturday, with Hale Center winning handily.

Tahoka, now 2-5 for the season, continues to play really well at times, and running back Ke'Shawn Hood again went over 100 yards in games against tough competition. Hood ran 36 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 6-0 lead, and added Tahoka's only other TD on a 2-yard run in the third quarter, with John Ryan Barrientez kicking the extra point.

Hood gained 113 yards on 116 carries. Ray Parmer gained 34 yards and Preston Hammonds 30.

Demetrius Jackson of New Deal gained 200 yards on 19 carries and scored three touchdowns.

On defense, Parmer led with 16 tackles, while Luke Hawthorne and Ethan Curry had 10 each.

'Texans Caring for Texans' award presented to Shi Dotson

Shi Dotson, Maintenance Supervisor for Garza and Lynn counties with the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT), received the "Texans Caring for Texans" award at the 2012 recognition event held Monday, Oct. 15 at the Legacy in Lubbock. The annual event recognizes outstanding state employees for their contributions at their place of employment and in the community.

Dotson, a TxDOT employee for 28 years, was nominated for the award by his supervisor, Doug Eichorst. Eichorst stated in his nomination of Dotson, "Loyalty, compassion, duty and selflessness are only a few words that do justice to describe Shi Dotson. A dedicated TxDOT employee, Shi understands the value of each employee and does all he can to teach, mentor and foster his employee's strengths for the benefit of his crew and for the people of Texas.

"Shi's dedication to his faith and volunteering in the community of Tahoka is also unparalleled. He is committed to working with and ministering to the youth in his community, and he recently became involved with an organization that ministers to juvenile prisoners. Shi is deserving of this award, but as is the case many times, actions speak louder than words. Thank you, Shi, for the work you do for your community and for the State of Texas," Eichorst added.

Got an athlete? Get involved! Bulldog Booster Club seeks parents, fans to support athletes

by JUANELL JONES

It takes a community to raise a child – and to raise an athlete. The Bulldog Booster Club is one such community, whose sole purpose is to promote Tahoka Middle School and High School athletic programs. Currently, however, club membership is sparse and the few remaining loyal members are encouraging local fans and families of athletes to get involved and join the club.

"The most important thing for me is, it's for our kids," says Doug Green, President of the Booster Club. "We raise thousands of dollars every year and put that money towards our athletic programs to benefit our kids. Without our help and our fundraising efforts, many of the athletic programs would go without needed items which directly benefit our kids," he added.

"We are looking for all parents – junior high through high school – that have a child playing in sports, but also anyone that just wants to support Tahoka athletics. You don't have to have a child in school to be a member of the Booster Club," Green explained.

The Booster Club meets most Tuesday nights during football season and then as needed throughout the rest of the year. There is a $5 annual family membership fee.

"Come join us on Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. in the Tahoka High School Library," invites Green. "We welcome new members and want to hear your ideas about ways to support our youth in their athletic programs. We want to back the teams, and furnish assistance where it is needed. We also award scholarships each year to promote continuing education for our students," he added.

"In this small town, we've got to support all the kids," says Johnny Rosas, a Booster Club member. "It's just like in our daily job, where you need to tell those you work with that they are doing a good job and you appreciate the effort they are doing ... our kids need to hear that too, and they need to hear it from their parents as well as from somebody other than their parents, and that's where Booster Club comes in. It's the little things you do that can make a big impact," added Rosas. Bianca Baker, a longtime Booster Club member and current treasurer for the club, says the club provides many extras for school athletic programs.

"This is a small community, and our school has a limited budget. The coaches come to us and ask for help, sometimes for help in purchasing new uniforms or other equipment for their kids, because their budgets are limited and don't stretch to include everything they want for our kids to be able to compete. We help them out, which helps parents out too, because we are buying the extras that parents might otherwise have been asked to pay for," explained Baker.

"I think it is important for parents to participate," added Baker. "Booster Club is a way to be a part of what our kids are involved in at school."

Booster Club members transport the bell, horns, and tunnel to football games and also operate those things at all games. It is a very public way to show Tahoka athletes and their coaches that they have the support of an organization comprised of athletes' parents and other fans.

The Booster Club also provides the football programs for the varsity home games, with members working hard to sell advertising and raise funds to have a nice program printed that includes varsity and junior varsity team photos and a middle school football schedule.

Club members recently painted hundreds of Bulldog paw prints throughout the town, which is another public reminder to the youth that they are important to the community. Booster Club also operates the concession stand at basketball games to raise money for the organization, and serve behind the scenes in a number of ways that the public does not see, all for the benefit of Tahoka youth.

"Please consider joining the Booster Club – it is a significant way to show your support of all Tahoka athletics," says Green. He invites anyone to contact him about Booster Club at 806-778-6239 (cell) or by email at djgreen@yahoo.com.
